Electric Light Co.'s Offer For Arbitration With City

WANT CITY TO BUY 'FULL OF FALSITY' ON A BASIS OF EARNINGS IS THE RECORD AGAINST HIM

Toronto Electric Light Company Submit Terms For Arbitration For the Expropriation of Plant.

ASK FOR VOTE IN OCTOBER JUDGE McTAVISH IS ASSAILED

Proposal Involves the Municipality Assuming Obligations and Contracts, Including One for $35 Power From Falls.

Another phase of the question of the expropriation of the Toronto Electric Light Company by the city was developed yesterday morning in the private bills committee of the legislature. The electric light company submitted a proposal for terms of arbitration based on the earning power of the company and including the acceptance by the city of all the contracts and other obligations into which the company may have entered. These contracts include one with the Electrical Development Company for Niagara power at a meter rate of $35 per h.p. This is declared by experts to be 200 per cent over what the city can get power for.

Corporation Council Fullerton, speaking for the city, was evidently not impressed with the proposals and the alternative of building a city plant, which it is stated can be done in a way to cost the company's plant for $1,500,000, was clearly in the mind of the city's representatives as a more favorable proposition than a compulsory arbitration, which may result in unknown millions being awarded the company, and which the city, willingly, having agreed to arbitrate, must then pay.

It is not exaggeration to talk of unknown millions, for Byron Walker spoke of $10,000,000 as a possible valuation. The earning power of the company as a basis of valuation might be figured at 12 per cent, as the company has claimed thru one official. The public never gets anything but the hardest end of an arbitration bargain, and should professional arbitrators with the characteristic tenderness for vested interests be only so impartial as to split the difference between any and the company, which might make it seem that this risk is too great for private city government to undertake.

Depends on Terms.
Just whether the city will withdraw upon compulsory arbitration will probably depend on whether the city will allow to proceed with the erection of a new plant on the refusal of the company to accept such offer as the city felt justified in proposing for the existing plant. This is the situation as the city has interpreted it. The view on the proposal made in a column in the World columns some time ago to take over the company as it stands, giving the stockholders city bonds for the end of the franchise, is payable till the end of the franchise, 22 years hence. This simple solution of the whole problem should commend itself to the business men, there where the probabilities are in favor of the withdrawal of the city bill and the erection of a new city plant.

The proceedings were opened by Hon. J. J. Poy suggesting that on account of the confusion that would ensue if evidence were heard, the city, the bondholders and those who are so anxious to see the bill through, should have a session of writing which such offer as a possible future of the writer might be adopted by the committee as business men, there details by which the arbitration would be guided.

The Terms.
E. F. R. Johnston, K.C., said the and had already taken this course the city of their position. He agreed with the attorney-general that this about it. The company's plan of going the earning power of the company, as the basis of valuation, was adopted. The company's memorandum is submitted. The committee shall, within fifteen days after the passing of this act, serve a notice in writing upon the company, their liabilities, and other matters. The company shall, within fifteen days after the passing of this act, serve a notice in writing upon the company, their liabilities, and other matters. Foster Strongly Arraigns Conduct of Commission

A TIRESOME WAIT.

Mr. Foster led off with an address of two-and-one-quarter hours' duration. The minister of justice spoke for nearly three hours from a brief so carefully prepared that he rarely referred to notes, and traversed the entire scope of the report, dealing, of course, with the places which Mr. Foster had not touched upon at all. Indeed, the similarity between the tone of his speech and the text of the report was a subject of significant comment by the leader of the opposition, who replied, and who demolished for one thing in completely demoralizing the report of impartiality with which the minister of justice skillfully decorated the commission.

The house was moved into committee of supply by the minister of finance, who asked attention to an item of $2000 for expenses of the royal commission on insurance. The total cost of the commission would be $100,000. The three commissioners each receive $20 a day and expenses, and the secretary $15. As for the legal expenses Mr. Shepley was to receive $50 a day and expenses, with such general fee as might be commensurate. Mr. Tilley, the junior counsel, was to receive $50 a day and expenses, so far as his share of the commission was concerned. Mr. Shepley $4000. The chief actuary $50 a day and his two assistants $20 a day each, and his expenses. For stenographic work $855 had been paid.

Appeal for Fair Play.
Mr. Foster arose amidst opposition cheers and began by regretting the necessity of bringing before the house matters which were entirely personal, and which were not to be discussed in the public arena. He said that the commission was appointed to investigate insurance in Canada, but it was not long before some people had thought it afforded machinery by which a political opponent might be brought before the public. He said that the commission was appointed to investigate insurance in Canada, but it was not long before some people had thought it afforded machinery by which a political opponent might be brought before the public.

From the house, late last night, it was announced that Dr. Eddie was holding his own. The correct story of the assault was given to The World yesterday by Mrs. Noble, wife of the prisoner. "We were standing at the door, myself, my husband and a friend," she said. "This man had recently lost his wife, and he said to my husband, 'My wife got the best possible medical skill, and everything was done for her, but your dear, lovely boy, he got given a chance.'"

Thaw Jury Out Seven Hours Then Locked Up For Night

THAW'S ONLY HOPE NOW IS FOR A DISAGREEMENT

Law Presumed Prisoner Same—If He Knew His Act Was Wrong He Had Committed Crime—Irresistible Impulse No Excuse.

"SIMPLY VULGAR HOMICIDE" IS JEROME'S SUMMING UP

New York, April 10.—After having been retired for nearly seven hours, it was announced at midnight that the jury, with whom the fate of Harry K. Thaw now rests, would be locked up until 10:30 to-morrow morning. Whether a verdict will then have been reached is conjectural.

The jury is said to be almost hopelessly divided and none of those connected with the case would venture the hope to-night of anything better than a disagreement as the climax of the long drawn out and expensive trial.

Harry Thaw sat in the prisoners' pen, adjoining the deserted courtroom, during the long hours of the jury's deliberations, by his side was his wife and counsel, who remained with him until all hope of a verdict to-night was abandoned. During the early evening all of the Thaw family were with the prisoner, but before 10 o'clock they departed uptown to their hotels.

The disagreement of the jury is the most unfavorable outcome that Thaw trial. His family counsel, however, ever, were much alarmed this afternoon lest the jury, from Justice Fitzgerald's charges, might find a verdict of some less crime than murder in the first degree.

The life of Harry Thaw this day will go down as one of the trying he has ever experienced. From the outset of the trial the jury retired the faces dealt unmercifully with him. He left the courtroom dejected and with apparently little hope left for an acquittal. Late entirely recovered from the depression of the afternoon, and was cheerful and hopeful member of his verdict seemed to him to preclude the possibility of his conviction.

He laughed and chatted with his relatives and attorneys, and at times upon the district attorney's address and Justice Fitzgerald's wholly impartial, and he said he feared it might have a bad effect upon the jury.

Thaw Discouraged.
In District Attorney Jerome's final argument and through the judge's attack upon his wild life, and to the jury's verdict of murder in the first degree, Thaw was not guilty on the ground of insanity. The statute governing the plea of insanity was defined clearly, much stress being laid on the fact that an irresistible impulse to kill has no place in the law.

Judge also informed the jury that an illusion, unless the illusion be true, might result in the injury of the man suffering it, could not be accepted as an excuse.

Credibility of Evelyn.
Under the rule of evidence, the story claimed by the defendant's wife to have been told prior to her insanity, is admitted, not as affecting the character of the deceased, but that you might consider what effect such story had on the defendant's mind. In considering her story her credibility as a witness is highly material, and everything that she has said or done must be taken into consideration. Her admissions regarding the relations existing between herself and the defendant prior and subsequent to the tragedy and prior to her insanity, or any other act, should be weighed in connection with her story.

The legal presumption is that the defendant was sane when he committed the act. It was not incumbent upon the prosecution to introduce preliminary testimony to show that he was sane. Whoever denies sanity must prove the insanity is present. The law assumes that all men are innocent.

only the opinion of the experts on these assumed facts. You are not obliged, nor are you permitted, to accept opinions as you would facts. In considering the testimony of medical experts, you are to consider their experience and knowledge, and you should consider the quality of the medical testimony, and not its quantity.

Guided by Evidence.
The so-called irresistible impulse has no place in the law, and is not an excuse, nor is every person of disordered mind excused. As the burden of proof of insanity is on the defendant, he is also entitled to every reasonable doubt on the subject. If the defendant knew the nature of the crime, all men differ mentally and physically, and this makes it impossible to lay a fixed rule as showing deliberation and premeditation.

You must be guided, gentlemen, entirely on the evidence. Clamor, prejudice or sympathy must not prevail. You must be guided by your reason and your judgment.

The district attorney's summing up evoked many comments of praise from those who heard it. It was a complete, logical and forceful review of all the evidence adduced, devoid of flowery phraseology. His arguments were consistent with the testimony.

Jerome's Attack.
It was the desire of this girl to be a great actress that caused her to play between these two men until she brought one of them to his grave," he said.

"Men of this jury, there is in this case every element of the simply vulgar, everyday, tenderloin homicide. If the defendant were any person but the rich Harry Thaw of Pittsburgh; if the case were that of a paragon in Elizabeth-street; if the defendant were not a leading architect, but a Chinaman in Mot-street; if this girl were a chorus girl in 'The London Theatre on the Bowery, how long would the 'brainstorm' of the paranoia theory have lasted?"

"There were two ordinary men in this case, and between them was a tigress lurking them on. With Thaw she was seduced by White, with White she was the victim of Thaw's perversion. Why, men, there are the same old elements here that have made criminal history ever since the world began.

"This angel child comes here and waves a web of lies like this to fool you; to induce you to acquit a cold-blooded, cowardly murderer on a defence of 'dementia Americana'."

Known Right From Wrong.
Mr. Jerome reviewed the letters Thaw wrote Attorney Longfellow, and declared that they showed the writer's appreciation of legal rights and wrongs. "They are nothing more," he continued, "than the crude and vulgar productions of a rich dilettante, who always had his own way in life until he was locked up in the city prison. The will and codicil next were discussed. Thaw showed a cowardly fear of death; declared the prosecutor but nothing more.

THE PENALTIES.
Under the statutes of New York, murder in the first degree is punishable with death or imprisonment for life and a fine of $100,000. Murder in the second degree is punishable with imprisonment for life and a fine of $100,000. Murder in the third degree is punishable with imprisonment for not less than twenty years.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

TIRED OF LIFE AT 19 GIRL DRINKS CARBOLIC

Sadie Frohman Will Likely Die—Proceedings Before the Parks Board—Niagara W.A.

Hamilton, April 10.—(Special.)—Sadie Frohman, 145 South John-street, a girl 19 years of age, tried to end her life this evening by drinking carbolic acid. St. Joseph's Hospital doctors held out little hope of recovery.

A large deputation waited upon the parks board this evening to get permission to extend the museum to the top floor of the Dundurn Castle, and to turn the courtyard into a place for a permanent art gallery. The board agreed to consider ways of raising $5000. Architects were invited to compete for a pavilion for Dundurn Park, but only Rastriek & Sons responded.

A. A. Lees wanted the board to buy a pair of bison for Dundurn Zoo, but no action was taken. The two bears from $65 to $80 a month, and Supt. Duncan had his pay raised from $65 to $80 a month, and Supt. Weaver and John Ambrose, while not getting an increase of pay, were excused from work at nights and on Sundays.

NEW RAILWAY ROUTE.

The Toronto, Niagara and Western Railway Company has filed its plans, showing a line running from Toronto to Buffalo, and another branching off at Hamilton and running thru Brantford to the Detroit River. The company will have a line running from the bay, and will use York, Dundurn, Garth and Main-streets for its route to the city, using the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville tracks to a point east of Stony Creek.

THE PEOPLE AND THEIR CRITICS

Everybody respects Mr. E. E. Walker as a banker, and many think him the oracle of banking in this country.

The World will not dispute the claim, but is more than surprised to hear Mr. Walker denounce as the did denounce public ownership in general terms.

The World, therefore, takes the liberty of pointing out to Mr. Walker that the people are everything in this country; that the government is of the people, for the people, and by the people; and that Mr. Walker's financial strength comes absolutely from the people—not from himself or his shareholders.

His business of banking is altogether based on getting hold of the savings of the people, collecting these savings at every street corner with a branch catcher, aggregating them into big amounts, and using these amounts to the best of his judgment for advancing the business of the country.

The people who supply this money to the bankers are interestedly watching these same men and their criticisms in regard to the state and public affairs.

—rather, if they find one man who is a great banker because of the fact that he is a banker. No objection will be taken to an Italian policeman for "the ward," if a suitable applicant presents himself.

Strathcona's Guarantee. London, April 10.—(C. A. P.)—At a meeting in Manchester it was stated that Lord Strathcona had guaranteed to the amount of £10,000 for the Franco-British exhibition, to be held in 1908 in London.

Count Posolonsky, Berlin, points out that among the United States, Canada and Japan showed greater increase per cent. in international goods traffic than Germany.

Jumped Ball in Gotham. Charged with stealing $25 from Mrs. Hannah Groslove, 22 Cameron-street, two Jews who hail from New York City, named Israel Gulle and Joseph Doststein, appeared before Magistrate Denison yesterday, and were remanded to jail for a week.

No Hope of Settlement. Cleveland, Ohio, April 10.—Plans for a settlement by arbitration of the strike of the employees of the American Shipbuilding Co. were abandoned last night when Bishop, secretary of the state board of arbitration, withdrew from the negotiations and returned to Columbus.

Sudden Insane Impulse. Rochester, N. Y., April 10.—Charles Leet went suddenly insane last night when he seized a double-barreled shotgun, and, eluding his wife, ran out in the yard and blew off the top of his head.

London, April 10.—Dr. Kennard, commissioner of the Society of Friends, who was sent to investigate the Russian famine, writing from Samara, April 4, says: "There are 20,000,000 people distributed in the southeastern provinces of Russia, who cannot live to see another harvest without aid."

In Samara, he adds, thousands are dying, and 750,000 are starving. Of the latter, only $7,700 are getting relief, one meal in 24 hours. As a meal is only two pounds of bread and a bowl of soup, this, according to the commissioner, means dying by degrees.

The commissioner especially appeals for canned milk. He says there are 200,000 children in Samara Province who have no milk and are forced to eat coarse bread, and powdered wood and cinders, resulting in thousands of deaths and much disease.

ASSESSED CLIENT $2500 FOR BEING 'UNGRATEFUL'

Geo. R. R. Cockburn Pays $1000 Into Court Against Arnold's $7500 Bill.

George R. R. Cockburn has paid to court the sum of $1000, which is $6000 less than the bill presented to him by Frank Arnold, K. C., as the lawyer's account for his services in defending Mr. Cockburn recently in the police court, where Mr. Cockburn was charged with violating a section of the Bank Act.

Many lawyers and laymen in town have been under the impression that this suit would be settled out of court, but this was not the case, and Mr. Cockburn seems to press a fight.

It develops that the former president of the Ontario Bank and his lawyer had quite a few conferences over this bill. Mr. Cockburn was staggered at the size of it, he says. "I offered to make payment on the basis of my having been in court 50 hours, and to pay ten dollars an hour."

"This Mr. Arnold refused. Well, I'll double it, and call it $1000," I said to Mr. Arnold; but no, that was too little. In my opinion, it is $500 too little. In my opinion, it is $500 too little. In my opinion, it is $500 too little.

"I offered to leave the matter to a referee, whom I named a gentleman of good reputation, whom I did not know personally, and to any judge, but everything was refused."

"Why was your bill increased from $500 to $7500?" Mr. Cockburn asked. "Oh, that's because Mr. Arnold said you were ungrateful," answered the former banker.

TWENTY MILLIONS DYING OF STARVATION IN CHINA

Meagre Dole, Divided Among Many Mouths, Means Lingering Death.

London, April 10.—Dr. Kennard, commissioner of the Society of Friends, who was sent to investigate the Russian famine, writing from Samara, April 4, says: "There are 20,000,000 people distributed in the southeastern provinces of Russia, who cannot live to see another harvest without aid."

In conclusion, the commissioner appeals to the Anglo-Saxons for $2,500,000 to save "twenty millions of human beings who are dying lingering deaths from starvation."

COULDN'T DETERMINE ON CAUSE OF DEATH

Jury Return Open Verdict in Port Credit Mystery—Doctor Was Undecided.

Port Credit, April 10.—(Staff Special.)—How "Edward" Elliot met his death on the railway, one mile east of Port Credit, early Good Friday morning, seems likely to be recorded among the unsolved mysteries.

After hearing the evidence of Doctor Sutton, the principal witness, at the reopening of the inquest to-day, and Harry Gallagher, the cook of the section gang in which the dead man belonged, the jury returned an open verdict, the testimony not being sufficient to enable them to give a decision as to how deceased was killed.

Dr. Arthur Sutton stated that a clean-cut wound, running up from the base of the skull, four inches long, John Hayes, the hostler of the hotel, had caused death. He also found a punctured wound, one and a half inches deep, which might have been caused by a sharp round instrument. This hole ran to the foot of the tongue. He found no trace of a bullet.

As to the wound on the head, the edges were clean-cut, with the traces of oil or gravel. The doctor could not say whether deceased was murdered or killed by a train.

Early Gallagher cleared any doubt as to his whereabouts on the night of the 29th. He was at first supposed that Elliot and Gallagher left the section camp at Clarkson together, but the latter left early in the morning on Thursday, while Elliot was still at work. Elliot went to Port Credit and to the Wilbur House. The bartender at the proprietor stated that six drinks had been ordered, but no flask of whiskey. To clear up any doubt, the crown attorney called John Hayes, the hostler of the hotel, who sometimes tends the bar, and he had told Elliot anything that day, but Hayes was not in the bar that day.

The collective evidence of the three showed that Elliot left comparatively late on the night of the 29th, and that he had been drinking. A constable volunteered information that a person in the village had seen Elliot on the night of the 29th, at the Park depot, a little west of where Elliot was found, on the night in question.

ILLNESS OF IMMIGRANTS PITIFUL CASES REPORTED

Many Applications for Admission to Hospitals Made to Civic Authorities.

"For God's sake, don't send me back again. I would die on the voyage." These words of pathetic appeal were spoken by a young Englishman, a mere youth of 18, yet a sufferer from tuberculosis in an advanced stage.

The youth, reduced to a mere shadow by the ravages of disease, penniless, and without relatives or friends in this country, is now an inmate of the West-End Hospital. He has but a few weeks to live.

Sad as this particular case is, it is not of uncommon type among the many who are brought to the attention of the city relief authorities. Complaints of laxity in the methods of inspection of intending immigrants have been made in times past, but apparently without having the salutary effect of lessening the proportion of the deceased to the physically sound, among the hundreds of arrivals in the city from beyond the sea.

During the last few days there have been a number of applications to Mr. Taylor for orders entitling admission to the hospital. Nearly all the applicants are suffering from tuberculosis, and in three or four cases consumption is the disease from which they suffer.

A pathetic request was made of Mr. Taylor the other day by a young Englishman of 22, named Howell. With his brother, aged 19, he had arrived at the city a few weeks before, and on the railway journey to Toronto he developed pneumonia and died a few days after arrival here. Entirely destitute, the elder brother had to make application to the city to bury the remains, which duty was performed.

The Bureau of the World Welcome League has been provided with homes and employment in various parts of the province. The outside towns are taking an interest in the work. They need the assistance of the new citizen to help themselves in industrial enterprises; the new citizen needs employment.

If you have any vacancies, ring up Mr. 222 early this morning and tell the World what they are. We will do the rest.

I desire to become a member of the British Welcome League, and enclose $1 subscription for the ensuing 12 months:

Name Address

Send to Albert Chamberlain, president, 84 Victoria-street, Mr. Coatsworth, treasurer, or C. W. McGriggles, secretary, 83 Yonge-street, Toronto, or Imperial Bank, corner of Queen and Yonge.

The British Welcome League will open its office in a few days. Help the good cause by joining the League. Fill up the form below and send it along with whatever sum you can afford.

Passes are travelling considerable distances by rail daily to the Union Station in the hope of procuring a suit-able third man, and, indeed, sometimes the car is filled with the immigrants. The ruddy-cheeked girls of the United Kingdom.

THE RAILROADS UNPREPARED. There are bitter complaints of the inability of the American railroads to handle the freight that is pressed upon them. Railroad men have many explanations. Some of them say that engine and car works are unable to fill the orders for rolling stock that have been given; that the need of more trackage and better terminal facilities.

It is interesting to observe that the conditions complained of by American shippers exist in other countries. They are found in England. A correspondent of the London Times says: "So inadequate are the resources of some of the English railway companies that the Midlands, notwithstanding heavy order books, because the railway companies are being shut down in the pits or to supply the turbines with fuel." Matters are not quite so bad as that in the United States. The officers of the overworked English roads say the locomotive plants cannot provide the additional engines that are needed.

Only a short time ago there was serious traffic congestion on the Italian roads, which are mostly operated by the government, which helped to explain their inability to handle freight satisfactorily, but the French lines, which are operated by private companies, were also unable to meet the demands of the shippers.

In view of all the facts it must be admitted that the men who manage the American railroads are not the only sinners. They seem to have been to a certain extent the victims of conditions which obtain in both Europe and the United States. There as well as here there has been a rapid expansion of manufacturing energy which has suddenly outrun the carrying capacity of the railroads. That there has been great expansion in this country is proved by the increased imports of materials for use in manufacturing and by the increase in the exports of finished goods.

In a measure the American railroad men are to blame for not foreseeing the growth of manufacturing, which makes freight, and not making arrangements to take care of that growth. They ought to have seen that the productive industry of the country was under a full head of steam. The men who control the railroad systems of Europe, France and Italy were blind to what the manufacturers of those countries were doing, and were taken unawares like their American brethren. Perhaps there will be more foresight hereafter on both sides of the Atlantic.—Chicago Tribune, April 1, 1907.

In other words, an engineer on the G. T. R. could run a train on any of the other roads without becoming mixed in his rules signals. Those in attendance say that it will be a safeguard to the traveling public and give less opportunity for collision in freight traffic.

London has been a heavy seller of American shares, and it is reported that 200,000 shares will be delivered here in the course of the week.

There is also evidence that special stocks are being sold for foreign account. This is all, however, beside the mark, and the market is reacting to the fact that the rate of interest is being lowered.

The market today has developed some weakness, after a display of considerable strength in the early trading.

There was covering by shorts in Union Pacific when buying orders appeared this morning on the reaction, and a sharp upward movement in this stock is not thought to be far off.

FALLING WALL HURTS FOUR.
Serious Accident at Canada Foundry—Man's Back Broken.

By the collapse of a wall at the Canada Foundry yesterday morning, Harry Carter, a bricklayer of River-ton-avenue, had his back broken; Alfred Carter, bricklayer of 24 Franklin-street, was severely cut; J. Brown, a steamfitter, had his head cut and T. Sanderson, a painter, was lightly injured.

Three of the men were taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where their injuries were attended to. All were able to go home but Harry Carter, who al- tho in a critical condition, was resting easier last night.

Holby Bros., contractors, could not give any reason for the collapse of the wall beyond the idea that the wind was high and that the dozen or so men working on the scaffold had been leaning against the structure.

TWO-CENT RATE IN SIGHT.

Windsor Record: Parliament of course gives Mr. Maclean, M.P., no credit for bringing about the enforcement of a three-cent railway rate east of the Rockies, but this will matter little so long as the press put him in the right before the public, and this it is doing all over the country. There can be no doubt that Mr. Maclean's able and persistent fight for two-cent fares was the means of forcing the hand of parliament and of the com- mission in the latest reform. Mr. Mac- lean is not the man to abandon his effort in this connection, and a two-cent rate is in sight.

WILKINSON PRESIDENT NORTH TORONTO LEAGUE

Strong Committee Appointed to Promote Public Ownership in That Riding.

North Toronto is in line for public ownership.

At a meeting in Cumberland Hall last night, a strong committee was appointed to act with the central committee, when formed in the organization of leagues throughout the province and the propagation of the idea.

W. K. McNaught, M.L.A.; D. C. Hossack of Deer Park; J. W. Curry, ex- former attorney, and other prominent citizens, addressed the meeting. J. M. Wilkinson was elected president of the North Toronto League.

The chair was taken by A. W. Wright, chairman of the organization committee.

Mr. Wright discussed Mr. Byron E. Walker's statement, that there was not enough money in the world to buy all the public utilities. He (Mr. Wright) was glad to welcome Mr. Walker to the ranks of the "rag baby lunatics," who believe that our banking system, which is operated with a view to public profit and advantage, either by municipal, provincial or the Dominion as the circumstances and conditions may require.

Mr. McNaught moved the first resolution, which was seconded by J. W. Curry, K.C. The resolution declared that all public utilities and services that are of the nature of natural monopolies should be owned by the people and operated with a view to public profit and advantage, either by municipal, provincial or the Dominion as the circumstances and conditions may require.

He premised his remarks by a refer- ence to the late J. W. St. John, who, he said, was a believer in public own- ership, and one of the last meetings ad- dressed by Mr. St. John was for pro- moting this very object.

Mr. McNaught favored public own- ership of natural monopolies, which should only be operated by the public. He gave several strong reasons why franchises of that nature should be operated by the people. These natural monopolies were divided into three classes. Under the head of municipal franchises, he would group gas and electric light, water, street railways, tele- phones and electric power; under provincial control should be the generation of electric power from the waterfalls of the province; the telephone trunk lines and some railways; while in the next group he would place such ser- vices as the postoffice, the canals, the express companies, telegraph lines, railways and the coal fields, which should be owned by the general govern- ment.

Mr. McNaught believed that the oper- ating of these franchises by the city, councils would be dangerous; but under a committee from the Dominion, he should be able to see no reason why public ownership would not pay.

Mr. Curry endorsed the idea.

J. W. Curry, K.C., former growth at- torney, spoke briefly in seconding the resolution. He submitted that public utilities were those things that were made necessary by the gathering to- gether of a large number of people into a community—water, lighting, scaveng- ing, street railways and such services. The gathering together of large com- munities made the furnishing of these services profitable to private individ- uals. If these services were necessary, why not operate them yourselves?

Mr. Curry suggested the combin- ing of the telegraph and telephone systems, and their operation as trunk lines by the provincial or federal au- thorities, with the municipal bodies con- trolling the lines within their bounds.

J. W. Moyes moved the formation of a branch in North Toronto, and the motion was unanimously received.

North Toronto Executive.
D. C. Hossack, J. M. Wilkinson and J. W. Moyes were nominated for pres- idency. All retired except Mr. Wilkinson, who was declared elected. C. W. Cavers was elected vice-president; E. M. Du- mass, secretary, and W. H. Hall, treas- urer. The following were named on the executive: Robert Tyson, Allan Thompson, P. A. Good, W. J. Nichols, P. W. Johnston and J. C. Coe.

Rev. D. C. Hossack, in a winding-up address, dealt with the argument of the corporations, that public own- ership would be a failure, and showed clearly that the people were competent to conduct large enterprises. It was not a political object. He would not belong to the Public Ownership League if it was to be manipulated in favor of one party or another.

Swansea.

W. H. Quin, ex-trustee of Swansea Public School section, complains to The Toronto World that the Swansea school was probably the only one in the riding of West York that was not flying the Union Jack at half-mast out of respect for the late Hon. J. W. St. John, M.L.A. It is customary when a public man dies that the flags on the public build- ings in the riding be lowered to half- mast. Mr. Quin attributes the neglect in this case to political partisanship, as the majority of the board of the school are of the Liberal persuasion. He states that when he was a member of that board on Frederic Day, that there was a resolution of the board for doing so. R. B. Johnson has returned from Bermuda, and is busy with building operations on the West-End-avenue.

Reeve Pugsley is progressing towards perfect health again.

The whole town seemed possessed with one idea, the nine-cent sale for the 9th. The ladies of the W.M.S. are to be congratulated on the success of their enterprise. The concert could not well be excused.

Rev. M. McKinley of Woodbridge took the services in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. Rev. J. A. Grant, the pastor, still lies in a very critical condition.

A very successful Easter offering was given at the home of Mrs. C. P. Wiley for the W.M.S. at the last regular meet- ing on Thursday.

P. C. Pethick and family moved out last week to the fifty acre farm which he has rented on the third concession of Markham.

FUNERAL OF MR. ST. JOHN ATTENDED BY THOUSANDS

General Esteem in Which Late Speaker Was Held Strikingly Shown by Cortège.

To me remains no place or time,
My country is in every clime;
I can be free from every care
On any shore since God is there.

—Verse copied by the late Speaker on the fly leaf of his Bible.

Hundreds of citizens who had been pleased to regard Hon. J. W. St. John as a personal friend, and thousands who knew of him and respected him, yesterday paid their last sad tribute to him.

Ten thousand persons, it was estimat- ed, passed the caquet as it lay in state in the Speaker's apartments at the par- liament buildings yesterday morning. The apartments were draped in black, the portrait of the late Speaker hang- ing on the south wall. The floral trib- utes were banked around the caquet.

At 1.45 Alpha Lodge, A.F. & A.M., and a body of the Masonic brethren entered in regalia, bearing their signifi- cant emblems and wearing sprays of yew. The brief responsive service of the order was repeated and the proces- sion filed out.

Rev. W. H. Hincks, pastor of Dunn- avenue Methodist Church, conducted the service. Rev. J. Treleven, Hamilton, read several passages of Scripture. The burial service in the Queen's Park Chapel was held at 2.15. The Rev. D. C. Hossack offered the benedictory prayer. Another hymn sung was "Sleep, Thy Rest, Sleep," by the Doric Masonic Quartet.

The True Type.

Chancellor Burwash of Victoria paid a strong tribute to Mr. St. John, telling many interesting things about him, and of the days when Mr. St. John was his pupil. He said: "Mr. St. John came of good stock. Sixty or seventy years ago, stricken Ireland poured out her best, and many of her sons and daughters came to this country to found homes and farms in the then unbroken forests. They were brave and intrepid men, and above all, they were God-fearing and moral."

He said from these people that our brother came, and I remember him as he came to me thirty years ago, broad of shoulder, deep of chest, with heaven's blue reflected in his eyes, and the flash of health upon his brow, anxious to acquire the benefits of intellectual train- ing. He told of Mr. St. John's offering himself for service in the foreign mis- sion field, but that desire, he said, was over-ruled by God's wisdom.

Rev. W. H. Hincks spoke of his cath- olicity of spirit, saying he was the type of Methodist Wesley had in mind when he said, "The world is my parish." A Catholic priest, he said, had offered his prayers for Mr. St. John's recovery one Sunday morning. Almost the last speech he made was on the subject of the "In- curables," and six weeks ago, in a speech at Barris to young men, he said, "I am going to the hospital for incurables, and six weeks ago, I know what whiskey tastes like. It did not even know that whiskey tastes like."

"There was nothing of the stem-milk parliamentarian about him," said the preacher.

After the singing of "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Rev. Dr. Hossack gave the closing prayer and benediction.

The Cortège.

The mourners and representative citizens having entered their car- riages, the cortège, consisting of 150 vehicles, moved towards the cemetery at 3 o'clock. Large crowds were wait- ing outside near the west exit to see the funeral cortege pass, and the route was thronged with sightseers all the way to Davenport-road, and again at Yonge street was reached.

RICE LEWIS & SON,
LIMITED.
Cor. King and Victoria Sts., Toronto

few years ago—perhaps 15 or 20—that I made a sketch of an old man singing that song, accompanying himself on the piano, at the Savages Club. He was then close on 80 years of age; this was the veteran, Henry Russell. He died some years afterwards, nearly 90 years of age. No single man, by his enter- tainment, approached Henry Russell the good he did in rousing among the mass of English people an imperial en- thusiasm. He did more work by his music than a regiment of recruiting of- ficers, and he made thousands of Brit- ish sailors by that one song alone, "A Life on the Ocean Wave." Altogether he composed 800 songs, of which one need only name "The Ship on Fire," "There's a Good Time Coming, Boys," "To the West, to the West, to the Land of the Free," words written by Charles McKay and put to music and made famous by Russell.

"Quite recently I was having a con- versation with celebrated conductor, who informed me that song-writing, nowadays, was the most profitable oc- cupation. Many thousands a year are ruffled sung by young ladies in mod- ern burlesque, yet the great Russell, who was a national benefactor, received the magnificent sum of £5 for "Cheer, Boy! Cheer!" 10s for the "Ivy Green" and 8s 2d for "Woodman, Spare that Tree" His 800 songs, some of which were sung by thousands during the 50 years of his own life, averaged 10s a song. If this is not a startling illustra- tion of the change in our times, in taste and honesty, I wonder where one could find evidence to show that as regards our amusements we have lost our art and become willing to overpay the rep- resentatives of mediocrity. It is inter- esting to note that the great Henry Rus- sell has left behind him a son who has kept the minds of the young enchanted with the sea. Clark Russell is the fa- ther author of the schoolboy and of many who have left school, too. And a stepbrother of his, London Ronald, car- ries on the musical side of his father's life work and keeps alive his father's reputation as a composer and conduc- tor."

SUMS EARNED BY SONGS.

"Perhaps no single-handed entertainer was ever more prolific, more popular, nor had such a wide-world reputation as Henry Russell, the author of 'Cheer, Boy! Cheer!'" says Harry Furler in the March Windsor. "It seems only a
