RUSSIANS CROSS DNIESTER TO BEGIN ADVANCE INTO GALICIA U. S. REJECTS OFFER OF MEDIATION TO AVERT MEXICAN WAR TWO AUSTRIAN TRANSPORTS LOADED WITH TROOPS, ARMS AND MUNITIONS SUNK BY ITALIANS

UNITED STATES HAS NO DESIRE FOR MEDIATION

Latin-American Efforts to Prevent Mexican War Have Collapsed.

CARRANZA STILL SILENT

Washington Shows Determination to Press Issue to Final Decision.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Efforts toward Latin-American mediation in the Mexican crisis, favored by Carranza officials, collapsed today without having reached the stage of a formal proposal to the United States.

It was made plain by Secretary of State Lansing to Ignacio Calderon, minister of Bolivia, who called with the intention of asking whether the United States would entertain an offer of the services of its southern neighbors to aid in avoiding war, that the Washington Government sees nothing in the situation that would warrant arbitration proceedings.

Mr. Lansing talked with the minister for half an hour, and is understood to have told him that the blame for the grave outlook rested squarely upon Gen. Carranza. The attitude of the United States was so fully outlined that Mr. Calderon did not mention directly the original purpose of his visit.

Time Inopportune.

When the minister left the state department he said the time "seemed inopportune," and that for the present diplomatic representatives of six south and central American countries who had approached the Mexican embassy on the subject of mediation and rejected the assurance that the Carranza government was favorable to the principle, would not tender their good offices to the United States. He indicated that the attempt to arrange mediation might be renewed if Gen. Carranza's reply to Secretary Lansing's last note furnished a basis on which the proposal could be founded.

The United States is now waiting for Carranza's final word in reply to the note sent yesterday demanding release of the prisoners taken at Carrizal and a formal diplomatic announcement of intentions.

The note reached Mexico City late last night, and Washington officials looked for an answer within a day or two.

Preparations Advanced.

Meanwhile both congress and the war department put new urgency into their preparations for war. There were indications that should a formal breach occur toward the end of the week, every possible precautionary step will have been taken and Gen. Funston will be in a position to defend the border adequately and reinforce "Pershing's army."

Arrangements have virtually been made for the taking over of Mexican interests at Washington by the French embassy.

LONDON, June 26.—American affairs in Mexico will be taken over by British diplomatic and consular officials in case of war.

VILLA WAS SHOT BY TREACHEROUS MEXICAN

Bullet From Rear May Have Ended Career of Bandit.

PITKLD HEADQUARTERS, June 26, via Columbus, June 26.—(Delayed.)—Francisco Villa was shot from the rear by a Mexican he had impressed into his ranks during the battle with Carranza troops at Guerrero, but his fate still is unknown.

This information was contained in a semi-official account obtained by Major Robert L. Howe, who was given Villa's trail in April, and given out here today. Whether Villa died was not stated, however. Major Howe learned the details of the wounding of the bandit chieftain from one of the Mexicans Villa drafted, and who afterward deserted.

THREE TOWNS BURNED BY FLEEING AUSTRIANS

Trenches Filled With Corpses and Quantities of Ammunition Abandoned.

ROME, June 26.—In a later report concerning the retreat of the Austrians in the Tyrol, Italian headquarters say: "The enemy withdrew rapidly before our advance. He blew up the bridge at Foxi and set fire to Aspe, Stanna and Stainbri. Along the whole front we found trenches of the enemy filled with corpses, large quantities of arms, ammunition, food and other material left by the enemy. Sharp fighting is still going on."

BRITAIN TO ACT FOR U. S. IN THE EVENT OF WAR

LONDON, June 26.—American affairs in Mexico will be taken over by British diplomatic and consular officials in case of war.

VERDUN FRONT SHELLED BY HUNDRED BATTERIES

German Concentrated Efforts in Froid de Terre and Fleury Regions.

PARIS, June 26.—An official review of the fighting on the Verdun front during the last week, says the bombardment assumed a character of unrelenting violence on June 27, and that French observers counted 100 German batteries in action. They were concentrating their principal efforts on the region of Froid de Terre and Fleury, east of Verdun.

On Saturday the Germans succeeded in penetrating the Village of Fleury, the account says, but the French were able to hold the greater part of the town. Two new German divisions, which had been taken from other fronts, were identified.

ALLIED FORGES 'BIG OFFENSIVE' BELIEVED NEAR

Rapidity of Movement of Canadians to Front is Taken as Sign.

FOUR DIVISIONS READY

Many Canadian Officers in England Have Leave of Absence Curtailed.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 26.—It has been evident for some time around military headquarters that a big British offensive was expected. The rapidity with which troops have been sent across the Atlantic has only been equalled by a similar movement of Canadian troops from England to France. Just previous to the German offensive at the Ypres salient the fourth Canadian division was practically mobilized in England under Major-General David Watson, who commanded an Ontario battalion in the first division and won his promotion on the field to command a brigade and then a division. In France at that time were three Canadian divisions and a certain number of corps troops. From these corps troops the shattered third division has been brought up to strength and also the establishments of men and officers in the first and second divisions have been recruited to their authorized number.

The reserve of officers in England have been heavily drawn upon. It is believed here that not only are the four divisions all now in France, but that there has been recruited a large reserve of corps troops, ready to be drawn upon to keep the four divisions to full strength.

Leave Cut Short.

During the past month many Canadian officers in England on leave of absence or on furlough have been ordered to report for duty at once. Most of these officers were entitled to leave and many were fitting themselves for special military courses. The order for them to rejoin their commands came unexpectedly, which has given rise to the opinion that an immediate offensive is contemplated.

There have been in all 315,000 men sent across the Atlantic, but from these must be deducted about 35,000 wastage in killed, wounded, sick and missing. This is making allowance for those who have been wounded and returned to their commands, and of these 50,000 are in the four divisions, 20,000 in corps troops and 90,000 in England ready to cross the channel when required.

What of Canadians? Some Ottawa military men do not expect the Canadians to be in the first attack on the German lines. They reason that having held their own in the Ypres salient they will be permitted to recuperate and act as reserves for a time, but others say that they will be sure to be utilized to drive home the big push.

"CATCHING THE GERMANS NOW IN MUNITIONS"

So Says Lieut. Brittain, Back From Service With Pats.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 26.—Lieut. A. E. Brittain, company sergeant-major of the original Princess Patricia's who enlisted in Toronto, has returned home and is now in Ottawa. Lieut. Brittain was eleven months in the trenches and has been called home to undertake instructional work.

"We will win as soon as we have the guns and ammunition. We are catching the Germans now in munitions, but we will win sure," was his summary of the war situation.

Lieut. Brittain is the last of ten company sergeant-majors in the Princess Patricia's who were killed while fighting at Ypres last spring and, outside of minor wounds, came thru unscathed.

MIDDLE SCHOOL EXAMS.

Allowance Will Be Made For Mistakes

Owing to an unfortunate accident, candidates writing on the ancient history paper of the departmental middle school examination on Monday, the 26th inst., were not supplied with the outline map which was to be used in answering the first question. The minister of education now wishes it to be generally understood that due allowance for the omission will be made when the results of the middle school examinations are being settled.

FUSE INQUIRY REPORT LOOKED FOR NEXT WEEK

Sir William Meredith and Justice Duff Hard at Work.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, June 26.—Sir William Meredith and Mr. Justice Duff are hard at work this week on their report dealing with the evidence taken at the fuse inquiry. It is likely that their report will be in the hands of the government at the end of the week, or at the latest, next week. As the findings of the commissioners are likely to come up in cabinet council before being given out it will probably be well towards the end of next week before the report is made public.

GREEK STEAMER LOST IN MEDITERRANEAN SEA

Nista is Believed to Have Been Victim of a Torpedo.

LONDON, June 26, 4:50 p.m.—The Greek steamer Nista, which sailed from Norfolk on June 5 for Savona, Italy, has foundered in the Mediterranean. Her crew were saved.

A Lloyd's dispatch from Alicante, Spain, says that the Nista was torpedoed and sank off Cape Palos.

DUKE MAY BECOME VICEROY OF IRELAND

Ottawa Inclined to Give Some Credence to Latest Rumor.

PARTY OFF TO WEST

Duchess and Princess Patricia to Accompany Him on Tour.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 26.—The latest rumor regarding the Duke of Connaught is that he is to become the first viceroy of Ireland under the new home rule scheme of Lloyd George. No official confirmation or denial of the story has yet been obtained, and the government has refused to discuss the matter.

As a matter of fact, the plan of settlement of the Irish problem is not far enough advanced as yet, so that no announcement can be made. While the story is only one of these rumors that are constantly cropping up in the capital, there is a disposition in political circles to believe that it is correct.

The duke left this afternoon for the west. He will inspect the camp at Petawawa tomorrow, and will also inspect the camps at Hughes and Vernon.

He will stay two weeks at Banff and one at Victoria. The Duchess and Princess Patricia accompanied him.

SHACKLETON FAILS TO RESCUE PARTY

Twenty-Two Men Are Left Marooned Upon Elephant Island.

WAY BLOCKED BY ICE

Shackleton Retains Hope That Men Will Be Ultimately Saved.

LONDON, June 27, 1:50 a.m.—Lieut. Sir Ernest Shackleton has been unable to rescue the men, numbering 22 and comprising the main body of his Antarctic expedition, who were left on Elephant Island. This information was received in a despatch from Shackleton from Port Stanley, Falkland Islands.

The explorer has evidently returned on the steamer which had been placed at his disposal by the Uruguayan government for the purpose of effecting the rescue of his men. According to his despatch the ice conditions had increased severity that he was unable to get nearer than 20 miles of the island. He thinks that there are still hopes for the men, however, as there is an excellent chance that they will be able to survive on short rations, supplemented by penguins, until another rescue party, provided with an ice-breaker, can push thru to them.

The steamer Institutopeca, provided by the Uruguayan government, left Montevideo on June 8, with Lieut. Shackleton aboard, to succor the men on Elephant Island.

TURKISH ATTACKS REPULSED NEAR TREBIZOND AND BAGDAD

General Offensive of Moslem After Making Initial Progress is Checked by Russians in Armenia and Mesopotamia.

PETROGRAD, June 26, via London.—The war office statement today, on operations in the Caucasus and Mesopotamia, is as follows: "Caucasus front: We repulsed night attacks in the Trebizond sector in the regions of Pistana and Djivizlyk."

"On the right bank of the Euphrates the Turks assumed the offensive and seized a height in the region of Nourik early in the morning, but toward noon we dislodged them."

"Mesopotamian frontier: The enemy, after artillery preparation, took the offensive at Rivandouza (near Mosul) and captured sectors of our position, but was driven out by a counter-attack, leaving a number of killed and wounded before our works."

"In the direction of Bagdad, a Turkish offensive was frustrated by our troops, which inflicted severe losses upon the enemy."

AUSTRIAN TRANSPORTS SUNK

ROME, June 26, 8:30 p.m.—Two Austrian transports have been sunk in the Harbor of Durazzo by the Italians. The transports were loaded with troops and ammunition.

An official communication regarding the sinking says: "Italian warships ordered Durazzo on the night of the 25th and sank two Austrian transports, one of 5000 tons and the other of 3000 tons, laden with arms and munitions. The warships returned without loss to their base, notwithstanding the heavy fire of the enemy."

Cossacks Occupy Perzoretz in Foothills of Carpathians, Cross Dniester South of Buczacz and Capture Two Towns—General Brusiloff Drives Wedge Towards Vladimir-Volynski.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, June 26.—Sweeping forward with strong mobile columns of mounted infantry, the Russians, with their Cossacks shoved on ahead, are making progress southward in Bukovina and they are approaching passes leading into Transylvania. Russian headquarters officially announced at Petrograd today. Their cavalry after a fight has occupied an Austrian position near Perzoretz, nine verst (six miles) west of Kimpolung, Bukovina, and they appear to be well into the foothills of the Carpathians by this time.

In their rapid overrunning of Bukovina, the Russians, captured large depots of wood and 31 abandoned wagons (railway cars) at Mott and Prumok stations on the Gurahumora-Rosoka railway.

The Russians have also resumed their progress on the Dniester which flows into the interior of Galicia and they report that their Don Cossacks have crossed the river after fighting south of Buczacz and occupied the towns of Biskerzhyn and Petriv, capturing five officers and 35 men. Advanced guards of the enemy attempted to contest the passage of the stream, but they were brushed aside and driven back to their main body.

Drive Wedge in Fine Line.

In the fighting in northern Galicia and southern Volhynia the Russians have driven a dangerous wedge forward to the vicinity of Vladimir-Volynski and they seriously threaten the positions of the enemy at that place and also at Brody. On the Stokhod River, 21 miles from Kovel, the Russians have repulsed repeated attacks by masses of Germans near Linewka. On the Styr the Russian front between Kolk and Sokul after being bombarded by the Germans with many large calibre guns, withstood and repulsed severe local infantry attacks. On the roads leading west from Lutsk, the Russians repulsed an attack of the enemy at Sauturak.

In the north above the prepat marshes the Russians have repulsed many German attacks before Dvinsk and in the lake region southwest of Dvinsk.

Draw Near Holmesa.

A Petrograd despatch says: With the elimination of Gen. Hauser's army in Bukovina the activities of Gen. Brusiloff's forces in this section is now directed upon Kolomen, the key to the defense of Lemberg.

The occupation of Kimpolung and Kuty has opened the way to Kovel, and already a result of the last recorded victory of the Russians, is becoming evident in the forward movement of Gen. Lechitsky on the road from Stryk to Kolomen, a point 10 miles from the latter town.

It is evident from the report of prisoners and booty taken that the Austrian defenses at Kimpolung were considerable forces. They were attacked by Russian troops which had covered the 20 miles from Gurahumora in two days and were rushed into the fight with scarcely an hour's rest.

Von Bothmer's position is regarded as precarious as a result of this operation. His right flank has been completely uncovered, and military critics believe he will without doubt be forced to fall back along his whole line before Tarapopol.

The Teutonic forces appear to have been able to stop to some extent the breaching of their front in the Kovel region, where a large element of German troops has stiffened the Austrian lines, and it is evident that preparations are being made for a desperate stand at Brody, on the southern wing of that position.

Russians Drive Wedge.

Nevertheless, in the face of stiff counter-attacks the Russians have been able to push a wedge in the direction of Vladimir-Volynski to a point which threatens that town and endangers Brody, the gateway to Lemberg from the east. According to the military expert of The Bourne Gazette, the German have been full charge in this region and have killed the ranks of Archduke Ferdinand's broken army which alone has lost 70,000 men since the beginning of the Russian advance.

A Vienna despatch says: The German troops west of Sokul in Volhynia have stormed Russian positions over a front of about 3000 (2 miles) metres and repulsed all counter-attacks, according to the Austrian official communication issued today.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

THE chief forward movements of the Russian front continue to be in its extreme south in Bukovina and southwestern Galicia, for the Russians have pressed on their mounted infantry into the foothills of the Carpathians, and they are about to force an action to seize the passes into Transylvania, but whether to make an immediate descent into one of the fairest of Austrian provinces or merely to hold the gateway for an invasion at a later time is not yet apparent. West of Czernowitz they are getting under way again, and they are now within 10 miles of Kolomea junction. On this point they are moving along the line of the Pruth River. A few miles north of that stream runs the mighty Dniester, and in harmony with their progress along the Pruth they have become active on this Dniester, and after fighting they have forced a crossing of it south of Buczacz, and seized two towns on the southern bank.

In the direction of Kovel the Germans are still delaying the advance of the Russians by the primitive process of throwing reinforcements as they arrive into the breach to be used by the Russian fire. The enemy is preparing to make a desperate defence of Brody. Farther north on the Styr the Germans have brought up heavy guns and opened an offensive against the Russian lines, but all their attacks there are being repulsed. On the whole, it looks that a battle of tremendous proportions will be fought here for the possession of Kovel. The best immediate outlook appears to be in the south, where the Russians are making use of their superior forces by rapidly lengthening their lines. The effect of their progress towards Transylvania and Hungary will soon, perhaps, draw off considerable forces of the enemy in the centre and enable the Russians to get on more

RECRUITING LITTLE BETTER YESTERDAY

Fifty-Four Men Passed Medical Test for Overseas Service.

SHAM FIGHT TODAY

Three Thousand Men Take Part in Exercises at High Park.

Recruiting was much better yesterday than for several previous days. Out of 181 men who applied 54 were passed by the doctors and attested.

This brings the infantry battalions at present recruiting in Toronto up to the following strengths: 170th Mississauga... 878, 186th Buffs... 519, 201st Toronto Light Inf... 559, 204th Beavers... 1080, 208th Irish Fusiliers... 840, 218th Bantams... 880.

Four men were obtained yesterday by the 28th Forestry Battalion, which is now being recruited. Toronto is not a lumbering city, so these figures are good, as this battalion is one of lumbermen, mill hands, drivers and tractors.

The Army Supply Dept require the services of 20 men, issuers and loaders, immediately for duty at Niagara camp. An unlimited number of chauffeurs and transport drivers to go overseas in the near future.

The 8th Mississauga Horse will go to Oakville on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and camp at the farm of Col. A. C. Cox, returning Sunday night. The Canadian Mounted Rifles, the only cavalry unit that is recruiting men for overseas service.

High Park will be the scene of a big sham fight today when, according to the scheme drawn up by Lt. Col. J. S. Campbell, the 17th, 20th, 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, 32nd, 33rd, 34th, 35th, 36th, 37th, 38th, 39th, 40th, 41st, 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, 60th, 61st, 62nd, 63rd, 64th, 65th, 66th, 67th, 68th, 69th, 70th, 71st, 72nd, 73rd, 74th, 75th, 76th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st, 92nd, 93rd, 94th, 95th, 96th, 97th, 98th, 99th, 100th.

WAR SUMMARY THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

Altho the fighting on the roads to Kovel, Brody and Vladimir-Volynski, in the Treva Galicia and southern Volhynia, has been heavy and desperate, with the enemy striving by all means to resist the Russian advance, General Brusilov has been able to push the wedge in the direction of Vladimir-Volynski to a point which threatens that hypernated town and endangers Brody, the gateway to Lemberg from the west, as it is termed in Petrograd.

A Rome report says that the Russians have already broken through the Carpathians into Transylvania, but this achievement has not yet been corroborated by the Russian general headquarters, and it is probably inaccurate and anticipatory.

The Australians and New Zealanders, together with the Munster Fusiliers, won special distinction in the carrying out of patrol raids against the German front in the resurgence of lively military operations in Flanders, according to the British official report issued in London at midnight.

Premier Briand, in a statement reported from Paris, says that the time for the allies to begin their general forward movement has arrived. His words may imply that the allies are contemplating offensive action somewhere on a large scale.

LATE GEN. MERCER EVERY INCH SOLDIER

Early in Life Manifested His Interest in Military Affairs. EFFICIENCY ADVOCATE Foresaw War Years Ago and Urged Preparation in Canada.

Major-Gen. Malcolm Smith Mercer, C.B., commander of the 8th Division Canadian Overseas Contingent, was of U. E. L. descent and was born in Eloblocks Township. He removed with his family at an early age to the homestead near Tillsonburg, where he spent his early years.

While at Varsity he was actively identified with the Literary Society and the Glee Club. He was also a member of the committee which compiled a well-known edition of the University Song Book and of the editorial staff of the magazines and journals during that time.

He decided to take up the study of law, and upon the completion of his course at the University of Toronto, he was admitted to the bar. He then continued the practice of his profession for 26 years until war was declared and he volunteered for active service abroad.

Rifle shooting was one of his hobbies, making a study of the rifle, and being able to shoot with accuracy. His idea was to make every soldier an expert marksman. You've got to be able to shoot, was his idea for both officers and men.

He was for several years chief executive officer of the matches of the Ontario Rifle Association, and was a member of the Military Council of the Dominion Rifle Association at Ottawa. Military Tactics Student.

The late general was an ardent and enthusiastic student of military tactics and a few years ago he took the advanced course in military tactics prescribed for staff officers. On the outbreak of the war he was ready for service. He left Toronto with the 1st Canadian overseas contingent as commander of the Q.O.K. when it left for Valenciennes, and while there he was given command of the 1st Infantry Brigade.

Gen. Mercer was a man of varied tastes. He was an ardent lover of nature and had also an admiration for pictures, having a very notable collection of the works of one of our most enthusiastic painters of landscape, Carl Ahrens. He enjoyed a game of checkers or billiards and was also an expert at the various games of the table.

Alfred Coates, 48 Rhodes avenue, sustained a broken shoulder blade as the result of falling downstairs at his home last night. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital in the police ambulance.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

EQUALED BY FEW NEW YORK PLAYERS

Robins Company Showing to Better Advantage Every Week. AN INGENUOUS PLAY "Rolling Stones" at Alexandra Very Clever and Smooth.

Credit of the strongest kind must be given to the Robins players for their work at the Royal Alexandra. Every week shows them to better advantage, and last night's performance of "Rolling Stones" was of no clever and smooth character that very few New York companies rise to the same level of excellence.

The plot of "Rolling Stones" is most ingenious, and every possible opportunity is taken in entangling the characters in the maze of their complicated relations. The setting of the piece is itself an attractive feature, and the change of scenes in the first act was novel and striking.

Col. Wallace and the officers and men of the 14th were the first to be called upon to play up to the advance notices and Harvey Lloyd Little Margery, Tall sang the new regimental song, "Come Back to You," and her singularly clear and sweet voice, utterly free of the stridency so frequent among child vocalists, was loudly applauded.

GREAT CROWD AT BEACH HERALDED BANDA ROMA

One of the largest crowds of the season attended Scarborough Beach Park last evening to witness the performance of Banda Roma. It is safe to say that few were disappointed. The band quite lived up to the advance notices and is generally admitted to be one of the best concert bands that ever appeared in Toronto.

Commenting today, Holden, the sensation of America, will perform twice daily at Canada's famous summer resort, Hanlan's Point. Holden is, perhaps, the most daring diver in the world, and he has achieved great success for his daring feat of diving from the top of the first time that he has appeared in Toronto, he having been at Hanlan's Point a few years ago.

BEAVER BATTALION HOLD FAMILY REUNION

The 204th Beaver Battalion has struck upon a novel plan of holding a big family reunion before going to concentration camp, and following out this line they march to the park on Kingston road, opposite Main street, today, where the wives and other friends or relatives of the men have been invited to meet them and hold a picnic. This will probably be the last opportunity for all the relatives to get together to give the men a send-off before they go overseas, and for that reason the officers are prepared to make the day an interesting one. Various civilian and military games are to be indulged in, for which many prizes are offered.

ALDERMAN M'BRIDE ATTACKED STRIKERS

Told Deputation to Council
Yesterday They Should Be in Khaki.

CONSIDER GRIEVANCES

Gave Increase to Engineer
McCarthy and Grants to Battalions.

In introducing a deputation of roadway repair men employed by the corporation in order that they might give their reasons for demanding an increase in wages, Ald. Robbins presided at a discussion at yesterday's meeting of the city council, which was for some time very heated. A large number of men appeared in the chamber, and after three of them had aired their grievances, Ald. McBride attacked them bitterly for striking at a time when the prosecution of the war should be every man's first consideration. Waving his arm around the room the alderman declared that each one of them should be in khaki, and this led to some of the strikers remonstrating in a manner which caused the mayor to call for order time and time again.

Alfred Fullard was the first speaker, and he pointed out that although Works Commissioner Harris persisted in stating that there was no strike in his department, yet there was one in which 400 men participated. He declared that the men wanted a living wage, as the present cost of living would not permit them to live decently on $10 or $11 a week, which he claimed was all they received from the works department. They wanted $15 a week, straight, Saturday afternoon off and all holidays. Answering Mayor Church Mr. Fullard said that the men worked 9 hours a day.

Wanted Living Wages.
William Bullock asked the members of the council point blank how they would care to live on ten or eleven dollars a week. He maintained that they did not come before the council with any unjust demands. All they required was enough money to enable them to live.

Ald. Robbins then moved that Works

Commissioner Harris should be instructed to arbitrate in the matter, but Ald. Ramsden could not see how the members of council could be asked to vote on such a matter when they were not acquainted with the conditions prevailing among the men.

An appeal on behalf of the strikers was made by Ald. Gibbons, who declared that they were not making any exorbitant demands in view of the fact that the cost of living had increased considerably.

Ald. McBride would not consider the matter at all. "Every man in the deputation should be in khaki," he exclaimed. "They are taking advantage of conditions existing at the present time, and I don't think the council should do anything. I asked one young man, who came out from Lancashire only four years ago, why he was not in khaki, and he told me to ask others why they were not." Mr. McBride maintained that the question was purely a departmental one, and the council should not interfere with the heads of departments in any way. The alderman, in the course of his remarks, repeated many times that the men should be fighting the battles of the empire instead of striking, and some of the men took exception in such a manner that Mayor Church at one time threatened to have one of them turned out of the council chamber unless he refrained from interrupting.

Passer for Alderman.
"Why is the alderman not in khaki?" queried Ald. Gibbons in taking the matter up for the second time. This query caused considerable enthusiasm among the men, and again the mayor had to call a halt until order was restored.

"Who's fighting the battles?" came back Ald. McBride. "Not street railway men, nor the laboring men. It's the upper ten who are fighting."

This resulted in general laughter among the men, and one was heard to remark, sotto voce, "Fool."

At this juncture Mr. Church commenced to explain matters and stated that the roadway men struck before the board of control had been given time to consider their request.

"They were disgruntled," interrupted Ald. Gibbons. "When we heard about it we advised them to wait for the board's decision, but it was too late, as a great many had already laid down their tools."

Controller O'Neill regretted the turmoil and did not think the council would be absurd and appoint a board of arbitration leaving Mr. Harris out altogether. He moved an amendment that the question should be referred to the controllers for consideration.

Another Dispute.
Another altercation between Alderman Robbins and McBride took place

a few minutes later when the former rose to speak on the question for the third time.

"Ald. Robbins should be ashamed of himself for continuing this agitation by bringing the matter to the council chamber," commenced Ald. McBride. "Mr. Mayor, I rise to a point of order," exclaimed Ald. Robbins.

"I've got the floor," shot back the member for ward three, but the mayor soon put an end to everything by ruling that Ald. Robbins had a perfect right to bring the deputation before council.

Finally Controller O'Neill's motion was carried and the question will be decided by the board of control.

A few minutes later the council was called upon to decide whether Engineer McCarthy should be given an increase of $1000 a year. His salary at the present time is $9000 a year and Ald. Robbins in moving that the controllers' recommendation should be struck out stated that $9000 a year was quite sufficient to live comfortably on. In this he was supported by Ald. Gibbons. Ald. Hiltz wanted the council to take the principle of the question into consideration. He observed that a decision had been made not to grant any increases in city officials' salaries during the year.

Mayor Church and other members declared that Mr. McCarthy was practically indispensable to the city and the increase was finally granted by a vote of 14-4.

The vote was: Yeas—Mayor Church, O'Neill, Thompson, Cameron, Risk, Nesbitt, MacGregor, Wagstaff, Beamish, Archibald, Whetter, Graham, Ball, Cowan, Ramsden, McBride, Nays—Gibbons, McBrien, Hiltz, Robbins, Singer, Piesman, Ryding, Maguire. Grants to Units.

A deputation of women representing the women's societies in Toronto, headed by Mrs. Prof. Home Cameron and Mrs. Dr. Frawley requested the council to take up the question of residential markets.

Money by-laws to the number of 18 and amounting to approximately $7,600,000 were carried. They were chiefly for local improvements.

A resolution by Ald. Ball to the effect that the railway situation on Yonge street should be dealt with by the transportation committee was carried.

They will be asked to find a solution for the whole problem.

On the motion of Controller O'Neill it was decided to ask the Township of York to appeal against the decision of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board, approving the proposed connection of the Toronto and Suburban Railway Company's line between Lambton Mills and the city and the line running from Lambton Mills to Guelph. If the township decides in accordance with the city's wishes all costs and charges will be paid by the latter.

The grants to battalions recruiting in the city, amounting to $5,550, were carried by council without any comment.

CITY HALL NOTES

Mayor Church declares that Lieut. Col. Williams' estimate of Toronto enlistments of 28,499 is unfair. Toronto has given at least 50,000, he believes.

Capt. G. R. Geary, corporation counsel, writes the board of control that the medical board has passed him as fit for active service and he is subject to despatch to the front at any time.

Mayor Church is after the speeders. In a letter to the police commissioners yesterday he complained that motorists on Bloor street did not stop when passengers were alighting from cars. "Some example should be made," he said, "in relation to the numerous accidents recently."

CONSIDER EAST END RAILWAY FACILITIES

Matter Discussed by Ontario Board, But No Decision Made.

Transportation for Toronto residents east of the Don occupied the attention of the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board yesterday. The board suggested a new line from Gerrard up Carlaw to Guelph, and up Pape to Danforth. This, they said, had been recommended by experts.

Both R. J. Fleming for the Toronto Street Railway and R. C. Harris, commissioner of works, opposed this plan. Mr. Fleming suggested a line on Gerrard to Pape and on Pape to Danforth.

No decision was reached, and the matter was adjourned, no date being fixed.

IRISH BANDSMEN TO GIVE A CONCERT

Two Hundred and Eighth Battalion's Entertainment in I. O. F. Temple Wednesday Evening.

The bandmen of the 208th Irish Battalion will give a concert in the Temple Building, corner Bay and Richmond streets, on Wednesday evening, June 28th, and are anxious to make it a big success. It will be the last of the social events given by the battalion previous to going into camp for summer training. The I. O. F. officials kindly donated the hall for the evening, and several of the city's prominent talent in the entertainment line have also volunteered their services. Among those who have consented to assist the bandmen are Ald. Donald MacGregor, Lilian Graine, Harry Lloyd and Bert Lloyd. A splendid program has been arranged and the send-off to the Irish Battalion will no doubt be largely attended.

HAS NO INFORMATION OF BANDITS' WHEREABOUTS

Provincial Police Chief Rogers Says Lack of Description Makes Work Difficult.

Chief of Provincial Police Rogers has had no information with regard to the pursuit of the bandits who held up Ville Marie Sunday in an attempt to blow up and loot the bank. The affair took place on the Quebec side of the border.

Out of the village, which he knew well, was, he said, rough and difficult. Since there appeared to be a search of description of the men, he thought that if they split up and moved for the T. and N. O. line on one side of Lake Timiskaming or the C. P. R. on the other, they might have a good chance of getting clear away. The only hope of catching them was, he thought, in intercepting them before they reached the railways.

REMOVES ANY DOUBT OF GEN. MERCER'S FATE

Lieut. Lyman Gooderham Says He Lay Wounded for Day and Then Killed.

"Dear Father and Mother: Am now a prisoner and en route to detention camp. Am quite well and have been treated very well, indeed, by our captors. Was beside my beloved general when he was killed, and lay in the battlefield for two days suffering from shell shock until picked up by a patrol with some of our wounded men. Will write first opportunity, giving details. Asked Elizabeth by card to cable you, so hope you were not caused great worry. Can make arrangements at camp for money and any necessities to be sent on. Tell Fred Mercer his brother was first shocked by a large shell and when I tried to get him away but impossible, was shot thru leg and broken. Lay in field, no pain, and next day killed by shrapnel instantly. German staff arranging honorable burial for one of Canada's greatest soldiers. God bless you all and don't worry. Your loving son, Lyman."

The above postcard was received from Lieut. Lyman Gooderham, who accompanied General Mercer on his last tour of inspection in the front trenches, by E. G. Gooderham, his father. Lieut. Gooderham was the general's aide-de-camp, and word from him was anxiously awaited, as it was felt that a message from him would remove all doubt as to the general's fate.

Some of Lyman Gooderham's old chums were reading his postcard from Germany. It's his handwriting all right," said one, "but some German officer first drafted it and then forced Lyman to copy and sign it, in order that they might spread the story how well they treated their prisoners of war."

After a recent service Bloch delivered the Belgian royal family, hoping for their happy return to Belgium and calling down the scourges of Egypt on the invaders.

He was arrested the same day, and after being subjected to various indignities, was sentenced three days later, after a secret trial.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

FAVOR A MARKET AT NEW TERMINUS

North End Business Men Strongly Support Movement.

TO CONSIDER MATTER

The County Council Will Discuss Proposition This Afternoon.

The fact that a deputation waited upon the city council on Monday afternoon, asking that council consider favorably the establishment of a fruit market at the North Toronto C.P.R. terminal, was most favorably commented upon among the business men in the northern part of the city last night, and the opinion was generally expressed that no time ought to be lost in getting the movement underway.

A meeting of the executive of the Merchants' Association was held last night in the office of George H. Moore, 1112 Yonge street, near the subway, to consider the question of the annual picnic, and, while the matter was not formally brought before the members, there was very strong support of the movement for the establishment of a central market at that point. The members are not a unit as to the wisdom of dividing the fruit market, but there is unanimous agreement among the merchants and citizens up Yonge street, north of Bloor, that immediate action ought to be taken to establish a trading place along the lines of the St. Lawrence Market to serve the northern part of the city.

The county council have gone on record as strongly favoring the scheme, and at today's meeting, it is said that another resolution supporting the establishment of a general market, as well as a hay market, will be introduced and carried. An immense market would be found for the small fruits, but general disliking of the proposal to utilize the old C.P.R. station, being too far from Yonge street, and utterly inadequate for the business that would be created. A modern new building out near Yonge street is what is wanted. Passenger and express traffic at the new C.P.R. station is said to be especially gratifying, showing a steady increase since the opening of the service.

RICHMOND HILL SELECTS CANDIDATES FOR COUNCIL

Nominations to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of the three Richmond Hill councillors who resigned a fortnight ago, were held last night in the council chamber, a big crowd attending. Those nominated are said to be opposed to the expenditure of a large sum of money at the present time for a new hall and other buildings, and support Reeve Pugsley in his opposition to the scheme.

YORK COUNTY WATER QUESTION.

Regarding the much debated question of city water for the Township of York President W. J. Hughes of the North Wychwood Ratepayers' Association states that the feeling of the North Wychwood section amongst the residents is that no local improvements in the matter of sewers, Wychwood avenue and other streets or laying of concrete sidewalks should be proceeded with until the matter is definitely settled by the civic authorities and the water laid on for public use.

PERCY BLACK KILLED BY LOAD OF LUMBER

Victim, Unable to Get From Under the Load, Was Crushed to Death.

Percy Black, 117 Pendrith avenue, employed by the Boake Manufacturing Company, Dartnell avenue, was instantly killed yesterday morning when a load of lumber fell on him.

Black was loading a pile of lumber from a trestle to a truck. To place the lumber in position on the truck, it was necessary to knock the trestle clear, but somehow the trestle was knocked away prematurely, and, being unable to get from under the load in time, Black was caught and crushed to death. Following an investigation by the police, the body was removed to the morgue. It is likely an inquest will be held.

LOUISE MARKESFELDT ESCAPED FROM MERCER

Nineteen-Year-Old German Girl Made Getaway Last Week and is Still at Large.

Committed to the Mercer last June, Louise Markesfeldt, the nineteen-year-old German girl, successfully escaped from there some time last week, and is still at large.

Altho no official report has been issued by the provincial authorities, it is believed that the girl had a duplicate key to the door of the institution made, and when it was finished substituted the duplicate for the original key, thus making escape from her room comparatively easy. A rope of knotted sheets was used by her to escape from the building.

Louise Markesfeldt was arrested last June, as a vagrant, and lodged in the cells at Court Street Police Station. While there she outwitted the matron, gained a window and dropped 25 feet to the street, but was caught before she could get away. Subsequently appearing in the police court, she was committed to the Mercer.

By Beatriz Michelena (Copyrighted 1916, by Beatriz Michelena)

If I were a law maker, I would give a lot of thought to devising a mode of punishment severe enough for the perpetrators of the innumerable fake schools of motion picture acting that have sprung up throughout the country. I believe it is possible to find a more unscrupulous lot of scoundrels.

The harm that these schools do is not to be at all fully estimated by the dollars they take away from their unsuspecting pupils. Far worse than this is the false impressions they create thru their advertising and literature. The idea, current with many people, that there is a great demand for motion picture actresses and any girl with a pretty face has a easy future open for her immediate invasion, is largely due to the deliberate misstatements of these schools. Another of their favorite assertions, made in

CYCLISTS PRESENTED WITH GOLD MEDALS

Men of Hundred and Ninth Regiment Held Weekly Route March Last Night.

The cyclists of the 109th Regiment came into their own last night, when following the parade, Major W. S. Dimick presented them with gold medals and two bronze medals, respectively. These trophies were won by the men at the field day at Exhibition camp on Saturday, June 17, when the 109th cyclists practically cleaned up against the 108th. In a brief address of presentation before the regiment, Major Dimick mentioned that the cyclist corps was now up to strength for the third time, its ranks already having twice been depleted in answer to calls for overseas service.

The regiment paraded nearly six hundred strong last night, and continued its policy of weekly route marches. This time the circuit of Yonge, College and University avenue was done, following platoon and company drill in Bayville Park.

Word has been received at the regimental headquarters of the death of Co. Sergeant Major Bonds, who left Toronto with the 58th Battalion, and who was formerly staff-sergeant instructor of signal with the 109th. The news came from relatives of the late sergeant-major, who had received a letter from a friend in his battalion stating that he had been killed in action about June 8. His name has not yet appeared in the casualty lists.

Two Millions a Year for Ontario

It is reported from New York that an offer has been laid before the Ontario Cabinet to pay $2,000,000 a year royalty for the water rights of the Niagara River, in connection with the plan proposed for damming the river at Queenston and generating all the power that the flow there will permit. The plan does not interfere with the present installations near the cataract, and the distribution would be under the control of the province and at prices to be regulated by the Hydro-Electric Commission.

It is stated that the cost of the dam plan would amount to $10,000,000, but other plan before the public would prove a serious rival to the present plan. The Ontario Government is not likely to act hastily in the matter, but with the tremendous demand for power which has sprung up since the development of the hydro-electric scheme, any quantity of power can be utilized. There are only 600 cubic feet of water per second still left to be taken from the falls on the Canadian side, and in order to make the most of this the new scheme of canalizing the amount to a point near Queenston has been proposed by the Hydro-Electric Commission. The damming plan would, it is said, use this water to greater advantage and with a fraction of the expense.

The United States has 20,000 cubic feet of water to dispose of, and this can be used in the dam in a way which it is stated will place all canalization schemes on the United States side out of the question. The problem of interference with the scenic beauty of Niagara is simply one of deciding whether the falls are to be deprived of their volume from above, or the rapids dammed out of existence below.

Sunday's War Rumors

All day long on Sunday the telephone operators sat answering calls in this office about a rumor from an unknown source regarding the Canadian troops, until one after another was worn out giving the answer that nothing was known about it, and there was no official statement to warrant it. The story got loose on Saturday evening apparently, and was heard everywhere, and also the late Sunday World had a hint of such a thing. The people preferred to accept the rumor, and it was announced from the pulpits of several churches on Sunday morning by those who were either too moral to read a paper, or to call up a newspaper office to ascertain the facts before giving their congregations a similar story.

The simplest theory about the origin of the story is that Germans or pro-Germans were responsible for it. Knowing that Toronto has no Sunday papers, and that the ministers are easily led astray, such rumors have been spread again and again, and always on Saturday night or late on Sunday morning. One report was that a troopship had been sunk. Others had to do with defeats at the front. It is to be noted that the news is always hostile to the British.

One of the Greatest
 A sorrowful ending to the long suspense since the attack on the Canadian lines at Ypres quenches the hopes that had been entertained that Major-General Mercer had been taken prisoner, and also wounded had thus escaped with his life. Several circumstantial stories about his having been attended to by an ambulance party strengthen this hope.

According to one account the German swept up to the dressing station by another officer said General Mercer had been taken, and killed all the men there including Capt. Haught, a surgeon, who defended himself with awarded and accounted for several of the Germans.

Lieut. Lyman Gooderham's story is explicit. He had received orders to stay with General Mercer and he did so. The general was shell-shocked, and while lying on the field was shot in the leg which was broken, and then next day as he lay he was killed instantly by shrapnel. Lieut. Gooderham lying beside him for two days was finally picked up by a German patrol, and the German said, had General arranged honorable burial for General Mercer, who is well described by Mr. Gooderham as "one of Canada's greatest soldiers."

A thousand claims met in him and he was true to them all. A very gallant soldier, a brave man, a most courtly and Christian gentleman, he must long be remembered by Toronto as one of the best and bravest of those who have gone out to serve the nation and the empire of which he was so proud and which he loved so well.

They are a gallant company, these, who have been the pioneers along the path of danger, but they would not ask for grief or regret while the work they gave their lives for remains unfinished. Their voices call and call insistently to all who lag behind to take up the task and carry it to triumph.

Mexico From Within and Without

From without, Mexico seems to be a seething cauldron. Revolutionists and bandits are marching here and there murdering people, destroying property, killing all the Americans they can find in their own country and even crossing the Rio Grande in search of more. The general opinion seems to be that Mexico is not only a nuisance but an international outlaw; and that it is up to the United States to chase, pacify and permanently occupy the country.

That would be a stupendous undertaking. Already, therefore, the Washington government is announcing that if there is to be a fight she will declare war on Mexico, without any pretence of intervention or pacification. In short, so long as American rights are not invaded the Mexicans will be free to continue their revolution.

That revolution, we are assured by M. C. Rolland, a Mexican writer of note, is being successfully directed against intolerably unfair social conditions. The feudal system still flourishes in Mexico; there is little or no peasant proprietorship; municipal institutions have not been organized and a highly centralized government has been pillaging the bulk of the people for the benefit of a small aristocracy and a band of more or less crooked, representative politicians. The natural resources of the country have been exploited not for the common welfare but to make a few people rich.

In the State of Yucatan, according to Mr. Rolland's article in the June Forum, much the same problems are being discussed and settled as those which have occupied the attention of civilized people everywhere in recent years. The social democrats in control of the state under Carranza's representative, Alvarado, are readjusting the burdens of taxation; expediting the big landed estates and selling them to occupying tenants. Strikes are being prevented by an Industrial Conciliation Act and Workmen's Compensation Act. Railways are being built to stimulate interprovincial trade and reduce imports from foreign countries. Everywhere public utilities are being brought under government operation and control.

Mr. Rolland's description of the Carranza program for Mexico sounds something like N. W. Rowell's social uplift program for Ontario. One reading about Villa and the bandits can scarcely imagine the Mexican people discussing prohibition, the single tax, and government ownership. Yet we are assured that schools are springing up in every corner, that traveling libraries are seen in every district, and that something like a moral and intellectual revolution is going on in the southern republic. Baseball has supplanted bull fighting as the national sport. Indeed Mr. Rolland's Mexican is so good as to be almost dull. He certainly ceases to be picturesque.

Perhaps, after all, the Mexicans are slowly fighting their way to democracy, the how for the present they can make much progress, except under some benevolent despotism, is hard to see. President Wilson has no desire to interfere if it is possible for Mexico to respect the rights of other nations. Indeed he has declared that we "must permit the Latin-American republics to work out their own redemption as the United States have worked out their problems of freedom."

Prize for Successful Canadians

What is stated to be a result of the institution of the Nobel prizes, tho on a smaller scale, is the McCharlies prize of one thousand dollars for Canadians in three different fields of research and invention. The plan is to award the prize, which comes from an endowment of $10,000, to any Canadian who invents or discovers any new and improved process for the treatment of Canadian ores or minerals of any kind. If the prize can be justifiably awarded for this object the other objects will remain in abeyance.

If nothing in metallurgy can be found worthy of recognition then any important discovery, invention or device by any Canadian that will lessen the dangers and loss of life in connection with the use of electricity in supplying power and light will be considered. Failing this the prize will be

AUSTRIANS START RETREAT IN ITALY

Failure of Offensive and Energetic Italian Pressure Force Withdrawal.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.
 LONDON, June 26.—Owing to the failure of their big offensive in the Trentino the Austrians have begun to retreat over a sector of about 20 miles in extent, and the Italians are vigorously pursuing them, says an official announcement given out at Rome today. The special reason for this sudden withdrawal of the enemy is given as the inability of the enemy to overcome the Italian defence and to stand the energetic pressure exerted against him in the past several days.

expedition, although aggressive action may be delayed somewhat.

War department activities during the day covered a wide field. Supplemental orders to departmental commanders called for greater haste in getting the National Guard to the border.

Estimates to cover the pay and maintenance expense of the state troops, totaling $88,000,000 up to January 1, were laid before Congress. With them were figures of $100,000,000 for the purchase of horses and mules for army use. The total estimates of the department, which were made for presentation to the house tomorrow.

Railroad representatives were called into conference at the war office to hasten the shipment of troops and supplies to the border. A definite plan was mapped out under which traffic reports of all lines will work with army quartermasters in connection with the special marks will distinguish cars with army supplies, insuring them right of way at switching points.

Indications tonight were that 10,000 men additional, might reach the border this week. In two weeks probably 50,000 could be transported south, and within three weeks the whole force summoned under President Wilson's call might be moved.

FISHING SEASON OPENS FAVORABLY THIS YEAR.

Benjamin Westwood of the Alcock, Lait & Westwood Co., Fishing Boat Manufacturers, Bay Street, has just returned from a fishing trip this season. He reports that while the weather was cool and the waters light fishing for bass and pickerel was good. He and his friend, on their motor boat trip, had a very fine time last week on one of the most beautiful rivers in Canada, and brought home a catch of fish anyone need be proud of.

CASEMENT'S TRIAL NOW IN PROGRESS

Sir Frederick Smith Made Strong Arraignment of the Prisoner.

SOLDIER'S TESTIMONY

Casement's Activities in Prison Camps of Germany Were Related.

LONDON, June 26.—The trial on a charge of treason of Sir Roger Casement, formerly prominent in the British diplomatic service, opened before the lord chief justice today. A strong address by the attorney-general, Sir Frederick Smith, in which he emphasized the grave nature of the charges against the accused, was followed by the evidence of a number of former prisoners in German camps, who testified that Sir Roger had sought to enlist them in a force he was raising for the "liberation" of Ireland.

At 10.30 o'clock this morning a clerk in the court of the lord chief justice called out "The King versus Roger Casement," and the trial of the knight, who is accused of having instigated the Irish rebellion, was under way.

Sir Roger bowed to the justices and the chief justice returned the salutation with equal formality. The prisoner stood leaning on the iron railing, with folded arms, while the clerk read the long indictment.

The indictment followed in legal points that returned against Col. Arthur Lynch, who fought against the British in the Boer war. When asked if he was guilty or not guilty Sir Roger made a formal plea of not guilty, speaking in firm tones.

At 11.10 o'clock the jury was completed. Each juror took the oath separately, and then the jury, as a body, swore to support the King, the interests of the inhabitants. The grant, therefore, was to run street railways in the city of Toronto, and a limited exception in respect of those parts of the city which would have been excluded rights had been granted by the County of York. The only color of explanation for the grant was that the Metropolitan and Queen streets were the appurtenances of a distinct grant on the part of the city over those excepted portions of the street, is that to which reference is made in the indictment, namely, that the grant to the Metropolitan might be declared to be void, in whole or in part, if it is shown that no reason or justification to uphold the grant is to be found in the lordships' opinion which the agreement is capable of bearing, is that the grant was made for any reason or cause.

HUMBER MURDER THEORY EXPLODED

At Inquest on Body of Joseph Donahue Last Night.

DEATH BY DROWNING

An Open Verdict Returned by Jury—Evidence Contradictory.

The murder theory in connection with the death of Thomas Donahue, whose body was found in the Humber River June 21, was exploded at the inquest at Humber Bay last night. Coroner Kicker's jury brought in an open verdict of death by drowning, and decided that owing to the contradictory nature of the evidence they were unable to define Donahue's state when he fell into the river from his canoe. Wilson and Storrin, who were arrested, will likely be released today.

Margaret Harvey, a nurse, 130 Walmer road, saw Donahue enter his canoe opposite Vanita restaurant, and paddled uncertainly up the river, then back again and then tumble out into the water. She was very excited and her cries brought out all the inmates of the refreshment booth. She told the jury that Charles Storrin, one of the men held as a material witness, stripped and jumped into the water and for many minutes tried to locate him. Donahue, she believed, was very drunk when he "crawled" into his canoe to go down the Humber. She first saw him sitting on the verandah opposite her encounter with Storrin. She remarked that it was dark, and he agreed and said he had fallen on the verandah. When he was about to leave he declared he was going for more whiskey.

Admitted Trouble.
 Roy Wilson and Charles G. Storrin denied that they had trouble with Donahue at the Vanita. Storrin said that he, Wilson and a Mrs. Hawkins were sitting in the booth and Donahue, who was intoxicated, entered and used offensive language. He took him out and Donahue struck at him. Wilson returned the blow, striking him in the mouth. This was near midnight. Donahue then sat down on the verandah and he saw him there half an hour later.

Wilson corroborated Storrin almost completely. Acting Crown Attorney Snyder questioned him whether he purchased liquor at the Vanita, and W. Henderson, representing the proprietor of the Vanita, took exception to the "drinking expedition" of the crown attorney. His client, he said, must answer to these charges in police court.

Doctor's Evidence.
 Dr. Godfrey's post-mortem evidence was to the effect that a tooth had been knocked out in the row; there was another abrasion on the right eye and the bottom lip was cut. They were minor injuries, he said, and would not cause death. It was a plain case of drowning; the lungs and stomach were filled with water. He found no liquor in Donahue's stomach. According to the doctor, if Donahue was a good swimmer he either must have wanted to drown or he was hampered in some way.

I. M. Devins told of the finding of the body of the morning of June 20, with the sweater coat caught around one leg. The grappling hooks and caught the coat, Mr. Devins said, and he couldn't tell where the coat had lain on the body when Donahue fell into the river.

Spilled Their Dance.
 Richard Springfield, proprietor of the Vanita, swore that the most liquor he ever had on the premises was two quarts and he drank that himself. He corroborated Wilson and Storrin as to the occurrences after Donahue fell into the river. He said he had not seen any row at the wharf.

Mrs. Ethel Hawkins, 22 Melbourne, who accompanied Wilson and Storrin to the Old Mill, said there was to have been a dancing party there lasting all night. The accident spoiled it, and they had to walk back home. She said she did not see Storrin or Wilson drinking.

Detective Nicholls swore that both Wilson and Storrin admitted to him when arrested that they had bought "squirrel" whiskey at the Vanita. They told him the same story they had told the jury.

BRITISH PRISONERS ARE HALF STARVED

Civilians Interned at Ruhleben Found to Be in Bad Plight.

STRONG PROTEST MADE

Reprisals Against German Civilians Held in England Considered.

LONDON, June 26.—Lord Robert Cecil, parliamentary under-secretary for foreign affairs, told the house of commons today that the British Government had received information to the effect that British civilian prisoners interned at Ruhleben were now being supplied with less than half the requisite amount of food.

The reduction of rations was made, Lord Robert said, notwithstanding the fact that the Germans had been storing up money amounting to between 60,000 and 200,000 marks which should be spent for food. The British Government has protested against this action, thru the American embassy, pointing out that if Germany could not feed the prisoners she should release them. Great Britain also recalled her offer to release or exchange civilians over 50 or even 45 years of age for military service, and proposed that all British civilians at Ruhleben should be released in exchange for a similar number of German civilians in England.

Lord Robert declared that if the Germans did not accept the offer within a week the British Government would be compelled to consider what course to adopt in regard to the rations of German civilians held prisoner in England.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 26.—The Leafs and the Birds split even this afternoon in a double-header, the visitors coping, the first by a count of 3 to 2 and finishing on the wrong end of an 8 to 5 score in the nightcap performance. A rather good crowd was out to see the teams play, especially considering that the season here has been anything but a good one, and that the town is greatly wrought up over the National Guard being called to the American border.

WHITNEY PAIR RAN OUTSIDE THE MONEY IN TWO-YEAR-OLD FEATRE AT HAMILTON

Sea Beach, in Second Race, Was Longest Shot to Land — Cadenza and Squeeler Take Down the Handicaps — Card and Selections.

Special to The Toronto World. HAMILTON, June 26.—The weather was ideal for the second day of the Hamilton Jockey Club's first meeting. The crowd today was well up to a week-day standard and indicated the train load of heavy and light betters from Toronto. The card was a good one and included the Brevery Handicap for two-year-olds, with $1500 added, a selling handicap at six furlongs, with $500 added, and the distance $500 handicap, with $500 added. The track was almost fast and the fields large. A feature was the excellent race done by Starter Dade. He sent the 13 away in a line in the two-year-old feature. Golden Bantam, long shot, was rated to the stretch and then Connor gave the Star Shoot filly her head and away she went. She was in the lead of the strongly-played Bondage. Lynette coming from last and getting nothing out of Bullion that carried a barrel, coupled with Arnavan, because they sported the celebrated Whitney blue.

Squeeler won the six furlongs handicap, with Yorkville, a long shot, right there and Fair Helen third. Little Nephew had a lot of money aboard, also Tommy McTaggart, and again the calculation went wrong.

The handicap at 1-1/2 miles went to the favorite, Cadenza, that stood the stretch drive better than Fountains Fay, Ben Quince and Eddie Henry, for the show. Shroveite, Cadenza, Squeeler and Harry Lauder were the public choices to score. Bernice second choice and Sea Beach and Golden Bantam were long shots to land.

Morven, Geo. M. Hendrie's English colt, favorite in the mile, was beaten by the well-played second choice, Bernice. Nathan R. and the Whitney were public selections in the second and fifth, ran outside the money.

Konty was set down two days for cutting across at the start of the second race.

There is a card of seven interesting over-night events on tomorrow. Achievements are coming for the Derby on Wednesday.

Furman who back the horses were commenting freely on the remarkable success of the selections of Centaur, who picked five winners on each of the first two days.

MINING NOTES

West Shining Tree. Mr. D. Clark came on Monday night from West Shining Tree with several specimens of gold from the holding of the Shining Tree mine. The specimens he brought down are simply wonderful. The claim is a good one and very rich. He has a lot of specimens of nearly pure gold. From all indications, the Shining Tree district is one of the richest in the country.

When the Children Are With You

Sometimes it is necessary to bring the children along with you on a shopping expedition. When they get tired it will rest both you and them to visit the Lunch or Palm Room on the Sixth Floor. Here, where it is quiet and cool, they may have some ice cream or a big glass of "country" milk with bread and butter—or some wholesome cake, while you refresh yourself with a cup of good tea. The charges are very moderate.
