ST. MARY'S IN THE LEAD

But Are Hard Pressed by the Scotch Company

KEEN RIVALRY The High School Athletic Club Has Made Great Gains

Court La Tour Still a Favorite --More Letters of Commendation--The Standing.

St. Mary's Band still holds the first in the voting contest today, although St. Stephen's Scotch Boys' Brigade is making the music sit up and be cautious.

The less prominent organizations in the contest are putting a vim into the struggle that promises great results later on.

Today one vote was received for the Ladies of the Macdougalls, the number of votes being the same as that of the organization has so long remained neglected and owing its friends to get together and lead.

The Hibernal Cadets and St. Mark's Cadets, while instances as yet in the contest, are still busy enough to be heard about the din of the conflict.

The Y. P. S. of Centenary church are churning steadily upward and will soon be able to compete with Macdougalls Lodge of the Mission Church Gym.

Last night St. Stephen's Scotch Boys' Brigade held a tournament at their rooms, which was well enjoyed by the vast number of spectators who attended.

It was a delightful feast of Scotch song and story, while the drills and gymnastic exhibitions of the boys proved a revelation.

The complete account of the contest will be found in another column.

This day for the first time the contest in the drawing of the prize of two hundred dollars in gold is drawing near.

All, with the exception of four or five English speaking people, returned to the depot before 11.40, when the train sped on toward the west.

Mr. Cornfield O'Hoo, not at all abashed by the incident of the "Bimboolealam brite," called upon Miss Birdie McWhat last evening and arrived at a moment when Mr. Peter Binks, Jr., was with much animation telling the lovely Birdie about a new bachelorette.

After the customary greetings, which were somewhat constrained on the part of Mr. Binks, Jr., and decidedly quaint on the part of the audacious Mr. O'Hoo, Birdie imparted to the latter the information she had just received.

CHAPTER X.

THE COUNCIL OF KINGS.

Mr. Perigord glared in at two or three restaurants, but apparently dissatisfied with the appearance of their occupants, finally requisitioned a private room at the Hotel de l'Europe at the end of the Toledo. He ordered a very plain repast, and while they partook of it leisurely explained himself. "The Captain's body," he said, "will be removed before during the evening. The health officer has already certified that he died of apoplexy; therefore you shall be troubled with no official inquiry. There will, however, be made privately a post-mortem examination of the contents of his stomach in order to determine the proper cause of death. The doctor suspects ascites or apoplexy, and I am inclined to agree with him."

"What of the Colonel?" asked the young man anxiously.

"I am not sure," replied Perigord. "Impossible to say, my Lord. The doctor thinks he cannot recover; he says the old man must have had the nephritis habit or he could not have survived so long. He will be taken ashore, however, and everything that medical skill can do will be done to help him. It is a very bad case, for even should he recover he will probably be either paralyzed or permanently insane."

"How horrible!" said Madame. "I am sure," replied Perigord, "she is able to escape scot-free."

"I think not; her fate will, however, be determined this evening. By the way, my Lord, I have to thank you for the manner in which you have recently acquitted yourself of the duties allotted you. You have hitherto proved me without question, trusting almost blindly to my word. It is time that I required your confidence to some extent. Tonight I shall endeavor to secure your admission to the council of my colleagues, amongst whom are numbered some of the great ones of the earth. I think moreover, if all goes well, that I can procure you a complete rehabilitation in the career which you had chosen for yourself, and which was so unfortunately interrupted. That, however, must largely depend upon your own energy and perseverance. If you continue to show yourself worthy, you will find many powerful men willing to assist you and anxious to become your friends."

"You are very good, sir," said Perigord, "but I fear that what you suggest is beyond the bounds of possibility. I'm afraid I have damned myself too completely. The British government would never give me another chance."

Perigord surveyed the young man with a strange smile, his powerful face animated with an expression of quiet kindness and unworldly earnestness. "We shall see, we shall see. Wait a little, my Lord. Time is full of balmy strawberries; a little time and you know what may happen. But tell me, is it true that Prince Carlos fell and bruised his face? I thought his explanation was peculiar."

"Crestingham colored. "He insulted me most grossly, sir," he knelt down. "That is bad, my boy, very bad. The man is of royal blood. He is slightly crazed, I think. I warn you, did I not, to bear with him?"

"You did, sir—but I lost my temper; he wished to prevent us drawing Madame's teeth, perhaps, and believe her a malignant angel, and called me by an unforgivable name."

"I see; and yet she appears to loathe him; will not allow him to go near her, I believe, so Verloff informed me. Is that right?"

"I do not know that, sir, but I do know that he conversed with her immediately the bodies were discovered."

"Ah—and he wished Verloff to stop Spartivento. It is really quite a lucky thing that you are a bad sailor, my Lord."

"I don't quite understand you, sir."

"The Prince refused to taste Madame's sugar plums, is not that so?"

"That is true!"

"He wished to stop at Spartivento, and violently defended Madame."

"All true, sir."

"You infer nothing from these facts?"

"I dare not, sir—why, what?"

"My Lord," said Perigord gravely, "in an enterprise such as ours the slightest happenings require investigation, and that investigation should be founded on the main; but your stomachic seeming friend may be at heart an enemy. But you have finished your dinner; your friend Oeljen will be waiting for us on the stairs."

A Daily Fashion Hint for Times Readers

FUR COAT FOR WEAR WITH CLOTH OR VELVET GOWN.

Fancy coats of fur will be very fashionable during the coming winter, and the model shows a design that would make an excellent model to copy in re-making coat or jacket of existing Persian lamb or any other pelts fur. The coat stretched had a vest and turnover collar of white cloth embroidered in black and gold, and large gold buttons were also used on the fronts and open sleeves of the jacket. The coat was cut in a short square Eton, the sleeves being faring caps, trimmed with the embroidered broadcloth over elbow sleeves of very heavy cream lace threaded with inch-wide velvets about the lower part.

Starved by Anemia

FREDERICTON NEWS

Health Restored by the Rich Blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make.

Thousands and thousands of young girls throughout Canada are literally passing into hopeless decline for the want of the new rich red blood so abundantly supplied by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are distressingly weak, pale as snow, appetite feeble, subject to headaches, dizziness, faints and the heart palpitates violently at the least exertion. The doctors call this anemia—which the medical name for bloodlessness. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood—they cure anemia just as surely as food cures hunger, and anxiety as well. Both girls were as pale as a sheet. They suffered from headaches, poor appetite, and grew so feeble that they could hardly get about. They were under a doctor's care, but did not improve a bit. I despaired of ever seeing them in good health again, when a friend called my attention to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Soon after they began the pills there was an improvement in their condition. In less than a couple of months they were again enjoying good health, active and bright. I am so grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for my children that I strongly recommend them to every mother who has a weak, pale face boy or girl.

Williams' Pink Pills do only one thing, but they do it well—they actually make new, rich blood. They don't tinker with symptoms. They act on the bowels. They simply change bad blood into good blood and thus strike straight at the root of such common ailments as headaches, sideaches and backaches, indigestion, anæmia, nervous exhaustion, neuritis, St. Vitus' dance, partial paralysis and the special, painful secret ailments of growing girls and women. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail for 50¢ a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

FALL RIVER COTTON OPERATIVES LIKELY TO GET MORE PAY

Fall River, Mass., Nov. 16.—The executive committee of the Fall River Manufacturers' Association held a meeting today to discuss the demand of the Textile Council for a ten per cent. advance in the wages of the cotton mill operatives.

None of the trustees who attended the meeting would make a statement concerning the conclusions reached, but it is thought that a compromise arrangement will be suggested to the Textile Council in a letter which will probably reach the union representatives tomorrow. The council named Nov. 19 as the latest date for the receipt of a reply.

The operatives feel that in view of the prosperous state of the industry, they should receive higher wages. The Textile Council asks that the price paid for weaving be advanced from 19.80 cents per cut, the present price, to 21.78 cents, the rate paid prior to the reduction of 1905.

The manufacturers do not feel that they can probably pay 21.78 cents, unless the wage schedules in other mill centres should be adjusted to meet a ten per cent. advance. It is probable that a compromise will be attempted.

No meeting of the Textile Council has been called for this week.

Ottawa, Nov. 16.—(Special)—Judge Dougherty, of the superior court of Montreal, has resigned. His resignation was received at the justice department this morning.

OTTAWA, ONT.
213 Cooper St., Jan. 8th, 1906.

You know what fearful trouble I have had all my life time from constipation. I have been a dreadful sufferer from chronic constipation for over thirty years and I have been treated by many physicians and I have taken many kinds of proprietary medicines without any benefit whatever. I took a pill for a long time which was prescribed by the late Dr. C. R. Church, of Ottawa. Also for many months I took a pill prescribed by Dr. A. F. Rogers, of Ottawa. Nothing seemed to do me any good. Finally I was advised by Dr. Rogers to try "Fruit-a-tives", and after taking them for a few months I feel I am completely well from this horrible complaint. I have had no trouble with this complaint now for a long time, and I can certainly state that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine I ever took that did me any positive good for constipation. I can conscientiously recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to the public as, in my opinion, it is the finest medicine ever produced.

(Signed)
JOHN COSTIGAN.

IN THREE MONTHS "Fruit-a-tives" did what Doctors and drugs failed to do in THIRTY YEARS.

"Fruit-a-tives" cured the Hon. John Costigan of the worst case of chronic Constipation that the leading physicians of Ottawa ever saw. "Fruit-a-tives" gave this famous statesman what he had not had for 30 years—perfect health.

Mr. Costigan gives the credit where credit is due—to "FRUIT-A-TIVES"—the one remedy that can, and does, cure Constipation.

Fruit-a-tives
OR FRUIT LIVER TABLETS

are the only remedy in the world really made of fruit. Juices of fresh Apples, Oranges, Figs and Prunes are so combined that the well known medicinal action of the fruit is increased many times. Tonics are added, and the whole pressed into fruit liver tablets.

"Fruit-a-tives" owe their wonderful power, and their wonderful success, to the fact that they are made of fruit—that they ARE fruit, INTENSIFIED.

It is the medicinal principles of fruit that can restore the great eliminating organs—the Kidneys, Bowels and Skin—to their normal condition. That is why "Fruit-a-tives"—made of fruit—cure Constipation and cause the bowels to move naturally—correct all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Skin Troubles—and build up the entire system.

If you are suffering as the Hon. John Costigan did—CURE YOURSELF as he did—with "Fruit-a-tives."

KEEP YOUR TEMPER.

Save your time and strength. Do not waste them trying to make good bread and pastry with an inferior flour. You will get only trouble and disappointment for your pains.

The easy and satisfactory way to bake is to use "FIVE ROSES" FLOUR, as this brand never gets lumpy or hardens, and never needs any special preparation for use.

Its uniformity is such that, unlike ordinary brands, the same method, all of them simple, can be used with every bag. "FIVE ROSES" FLOUR, an oven, some water, a little yeast and common sense will give you a whiter and sweeter loaf, and lighter and flakier pastry, with less trouble than any ordinary brands on the market. Users of it save time, temper, and money.

"FIVE ROSES" is, in fact, the flour that satisfies.

BOSTON "L" COMPANY TO ADVANCE WAGES

Boston, Nov. 16.—The Boston Elevated Railway Company, which controls practically all the trolley lines in Boston and vicinity, and also the elevated system, announced tonight that a voluntary advance in wages would be granted to its 5,200 employees on Jan. 1. The increase will average ten cents a day, and will amount to $100,000 a year.

GOT A PAIN IN YOUR BACK?

You get a pain in your back, and you wonder what it is the matter. You garbage pay no attention to it. Backache, however, is the first sign of kidney trouble to follow.

The kidneys, proper, are composed of a close network of blood vessels, interwoven with tiny elastic fibres. Their object is the excretion of the uric acid, and other poisonous matter—composing the uric-acid, from the blood.

They are continuously at work to preserve the general health of the body and most people are troubled with some form of kidney trouble, but do not suspect it.

Some of the symptoms are: A feeling of weakness in the small of the back, sharp pains in back, puffiness under the eyes, and swelling of the feet and ankles, urinary troubles such as suppressed urination, excessive micturition, cloudy, thick or highly colored urine, etc.

Mr. J. L. Whiting, Oshawa, Ont., writes: "I suffered for two years with kidney trouble. I had terrible pains in my back, hips and legs. I could not sleep and had a poor appetite. I took four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and the pains left me, my appetite returned and I am now well."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or four boxes for $2.00. Sent on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

Island bar. She is a fine dredge, works rapidly, and could do a great deal of valuable work while at St. John. The city council and board of trade will doubtless give this matter their best attention.

It is intimated that the city may not get the new water supply before next summer. It will be in order presently for the chairman of the water board, or someone else, to tell the citizens all about the state of affairs and the cause of the delay.

Speaking of a 75,000 club, how would it do for the citizens to organize in St. John a few boys' clubs, to manufacture out of the rough material of the street corner groups a better element of citizenship? It is worth a trial, and in the last analysis the stake is a higher one.

The next week will witness the liveliest temperance campaign St. John has witnessed for a number of years. Judging from the reports from Campbellton, Mr. E. Tennyson Smith is an orator of the kind that arouses the interest and aways the feelings of his hearers.

The appeal of the committee of the Free Kindergarten will doubtless meet with a hearty response from the citizens. The work done is of the greatest value, and those who most need it receive the most benefit.

The first mail steamer for the season had to remain outside of Halifax waiting for clear weather. And yet Halifax is made the only mail port. Why is St. John not given a trial? Who is against it?

Christmas is only a little more than five weeks distant. The prudent advertiser should take note of this fact, and of the great value of the Times as an advertising medium.

It is a hopeful indication in New York politics that, when the Platts and Depeas are being forced out of public life, men of the stamp of Hughes and Parsons are found to lead the people.

The Times appreciates very deeply the many compliments paid to this paper by readers, who are pleased with its new features and find pleasure as well as information in its pages from day to day.

The fears for Peary's safety are again dispelled. The intrepid navigator is en route from Labrador to Sydney, where his devoted wife awaits his coming.

Frank White has outlined a plan to make Rockwood Park the centre of attraction, provided the public will give him a fair amount of support.

The amusement scheme includes band and gramophone concerts, boating and fishing in Lily Lake in summer, and accommodations for snowshoe and skating parties in the winter.

Until the Streetcar Company build a line to the park, Mr. White will run buck-boards from King square, at a fare of five cents each way. A "shoot the darts" will also be a feature of the park amusements. Besides these, performances such as those found at the fashionable beaches of Upper Canada and New England will be provided.

A rustic pavilion will be erected near the lake, where refreshments will be served at nominal rates. The whole will be lighted by electricity. At one end of the pavilion a hand-stand will be erected, at the other end a merry-go-round will be built. The present boat house will be replaced by a rustic arbor, and there will be up-to-date boats for hire, as well as swan-boats for children.

The fishing privilege will go into effect in 1908. The park pavilion and arbor will probably be ready by the 24th of May.

Mr. White's agreement with the Horticultural Association runs from May let for ten years, with privilege of renewal for another ten years. Mr. White agrees to pay $1 annually and 25 per cent. of his profits, irrespective of interest on his capital outlay. No intoxicating liquors will be sold.

Magistrate, Chief and Deputy Discuss Boy Problem

(Continued from page 1.) The opinion on the subject, "have we a boy problem? Are the boys of fifteen or twenty years ago. One thing I am sure of and that is that the attitude of the adult world towards the boys has changed in the last fifteen or twenty years. People nowadays are annoyed by boys and make their grievances known to the police when they would not have complained of a similar offence years ago. Boys, or the boys who find the street their playground, do not indulge in rougher games or break more windows or throw more stones or snowballs now than they did twenty years ago, but it is the attitude of the adult world towards these things that has undergone a change. "Granted, that cases of thefts, disorderly conduct and similar offenses are more common now than they were in the past. Perhaps there are more gangs of disorderly boys than there used to be, but the police are at a disadvantage in dealing with disorderly crowds. One of the first steps which should be taken in the reform would be to strengthen the law under which disorderly crowds are dealt with. As it is, a magistrate cannot really handle a disorderly crowd.

"I have seen little-chits of girls walking about at night who should be in their beds. Why do the police and the boys do it? If they persist in loitering about and bring them to me. There are gangs of bad boys around the places of amusement, but why are they not dispersed. I have told the police many times, from the bench, to bring the boys before me and break up these crowds. "We do not need any more law or any stronger law. The law is good enough as it stands for if we cannot enforce it, let the parents control their children. Let the parents control their children and let the police be vigilant in breaking up the crowds of boys and in rounding up those who loiter about the streets at night and a deal of the mischief will be prevented and the 'boy problem' successfully grappled with."

Police At Disadvantage

"For instance, a police officer sees a crowd of boys at the corner of City Road and Stanley street, or take any other locality in the city. He hears shouting, he may see missiles thrown. Now the interpretation of the law as I know it, usually allows or throws the blame on the boys. By the time the police officer reaches the crowd he is utterly helpless to make an arrest, because he cannot swear which of the members of the crowd actually committed the offence. All he can do is to disperse them. This he does, and they go off to appear in another locality. This may occur half a dozen times in a single evening. "Now, what does any one in that crowd who could be proven guilty of a misdemeanor, yet the presence of the others was an incentive to do so. They are actually guilty as principals they were aids and abettors of the offence, and as such the law should give the power to punish them."

CHIEF CLARKE HOLDS A STRONG OPINION

Parents Should be Fined for Misdemeanors of Their Boys and thus Taught to Respect Law. W. W. Clarke, chief of police, agreed that as far as the more serious crimes were concerned St. John just now has a lot of very bad boys. When asked how he would cope with the difficulty he said: "Parents should control their children. That is the best way of fighting the 'boy' nuisance. There is no reason why they can not if they try. They come here and say they can't control their boys at night and when boys are arrested for being members of disorderly crowds and the case is proved against them the parents should be fined instead of the boys being dismissed with a caution. That is one reason why the boys are so bad as they are. They are dismissed with a caution. "In a situation like this the first cry that goes up is that the police are not doing their duty. "Police Are Not Lax. If the police were diligent in their duty all the boys who have been brought here would never see the streets here and what is the result? When they come before the police court in most cases they get a long lecture and are dismissed with a caution. Then, emboldened by their success, they go away to form 'tan yard' gangs and hang out and drift from bad to worse until we get them again on more serious charges. "Bring them to me" the magistrate says. Well, we do bring them to him, and he lets them go. "Firstly, let the proper authorities teach the parents who neglect to do so a respect for law and authority by fining them. "That is the solution of the problem and it is a simple one."

DEPUTY-CHIEF JENKINS WANTS A STRONGER LAW

At Present Police are Handicapped in Handling Disorderly Crowds—Some Practical Suggestions. Deputy Chief F. W. Jenkins holds practical ideas of the bad boy question and is inclined to approach it in a practical matter of fact fashion. "In the first place," said he, when asked by a Times representative to state his opinion on the subject, "I think the law is not strong enough. It is the primary duty of parents to control their children, but they should start at the cradle. It is no use to allow a boy or girl to run wild for ten or twelve years and then start to exercise control over them, the control by that time is gone. "Parents should see to it that young children are not allowed to be on the streets after six o'clock in the evening without a good reason for their being out there. They should be permitted to permit their boys to sell papers on the streets until a late hour at night. Of all the bad boys on the streets of St. John, there is but a very small percentage sold at night. By that time the boys should have all their papers sold and be long way towards achieving the reform we seek."

Keep Boys Out of Beer Shops

"Another thing which should not be permitted, and on this I feel very strongly, is the loading of boys in beer shops. There they acquire the drinking habit even though they indulge only in hop or ginger beer. They lose their respect for parents and their fear of the police, and they develop later into a desire for alcoholic stimulants. "Let the parents exercise control over their boys. Give the police officer the power to require parents to properly handle crowds and gatherings of boys on the streets and let the parent be fined for his boy's misdemeanors and we shall be a long way towards achieving the reform we seek."

JURY SAYS THE FIRE WAS OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

At the inquest last night the jury brought in a verdict that James W. King had met death through suffocation and that they believed the fire was incendiary. Martin L. Peters told of going into Victor Dykeman's, on the morning of the fire at the instance of W. E. King and James King, to see about a fire alleged to have been there at ten o'clock. William E. King said that he went to his shop at 10:40 o'clock Saturday night, and that when he came out he locked the door and met a man who told him about the fire. He had not been in the basement since 8 o'clock the morning before the fire. Mrs. L. Swenney stated that the door to the part of the cellar she occupied was always open, save in the winter. It was open all day before the fire. I. Harry King said that he and James W. King held a third inquest in the brush factory. People had often asked him if they would not build a factory somewhere. A committee of the board of trade of Halifax had approached them about it. Mr. King had dictated a letter to Halifax, but it was never mailed. They had a good business, with assets of $2,000. There was $800 insurance, $500 of which was not sought after, but he agreed to come to his brother's place and persuaded him to take it. The fire did not help them, but instead made it impossible for them to do business anywhere. Robert Ledingham told of watching the Myers fire from his roof and he saw no sparks go into the alleyway by Mrs. Swenney's building. Two Jews jumped over the fence and kicked Mrs. Swenney's cellar door open as smoke was coming through it. When they did so the flames burst out in their faces. The fire was not extinguished until about 11:30. The jury returned a verdict as stated at the beginning.

A PRESENTATION TO W. J. MAHONEY

He Was Pleasantly Surprised at Knights of Columbus Smoker Last Evening. A most enjoyable smoker was held last evening in the assembly room of the York Theatre by St. John Council No. 837 Knights of Columbus. Besides a large attendance of local members of the order, a number of visiting knights from Halifax and other points were present. A feature of the evening was the presentation to W. J. Mahoney, of Halifax, on behalf of the Halifax knights present, of a handsome loving cup to State Deputy W. J. Mahoney. Mr. Mahoney in making the presentation said that the members from Halifax who witnessed State Deputy Mahoney's exhibition of the third degree in Charlotetown were so pleased with it that they determined to present to him some souvenir of the occasion. They accordingly took this opportunity of expressing their appreciation of his excellent work. The state deputy was completely taken by surprise but expressed his thanks to the knights from the state city in a brief but happy speech. After a neat opening address of welcome by Grand Knight Dr. T. H. Lunney, the following programme was well carried out: Piano and violin solo, Joseph Mullahey and H. J. O'Neill; solo, John Keele; solo, Felix Quinn, Halifax; reading, John Elmore; solo, Harry C. Murphy, Halifax; piano and violin solo, Joseph Mullahey and H. J. O'Neill; reading, Norman L. McMillan; solo, Dr. D. Mullahey, solo by Geo. Colten, Halifax; Dr. Lunney, Edw. Simpson, J. Perley Lunney, John Neville, Mr. Lynsaye, Halifax; James Daly, Berlin Council; Angus Chalmers; recitation, Dr. Lunney; step dance, Fred Norris. Refreshments were served by an efficient committee, consisting of Deputy Grand Knight Dr. S. H. McDonald, Dr. H. Patton and J. L. Mullahey. At the close Grand Laureate and the National Anthem were sung. Last evening the knights sent a handsome bouquet to Madame Modjeska who has many ways done much to show her interest in the Knights of Columbus.

THE HOME CIRCLE

Boudoir Gowns and Breakfast Jackets. By Dorothy Dale

A comfortable loose garment that may be slipped on when lounging about one's room is really a necessity, and although the "wrapper habit" should never be acquired, there are times when a pretty breakfast jacket or robe will be found a great convenience.

It wraps around the neck, so that a yoke of lace and embroidery could be slipped in, and the sleeves were made just to turn the elbow, long cuffs of lace being tucked inside. Another gown somewhat on this order is illustrated among the cuts in the standing figure.

A short jacket is illustrated in the other drawing, the model being in pink China silk trimmed with lace and black velvet ribbon. Allowor lace was used to cut the little jacket section, the lace being fitted along the front edges and across the tops of the sleeves with a frill of narrow Valenciennes.

Many of these jackets are arranged so that they can be tied in about the waist, in which case the jacket is cut longer, to extend down several inches below the hips. One very good style seen, which was styled in about the waist with soft ribbon, was cut in long points on each side of the front, the length of the jacket being much less across the sides and back.

The Decorative Value of the Shelf.

The small illustration shows what an excellent effect can be gained by the use of narrow wooden shelves when well placed on the walls of a living room, sitting room or bedroom.

The Question of Floor Coverings. By Beatrice Carey

There are two ways of dealing with a modern floor—that is, to partially cover it with rugs placed upon a hardwood background, or else to completely cover it with some sort of carpet or substitute.

Rugs are, of course, more in keeping with the new ideas in house furnishings, but many very handsome houses still show the floors covered all over with carpet, especially in a city house, where the rooms are long and narrow.

For bedrooms a large rug can be used, or small rugs can be disposed of over a polished wooden floor or one covered with matting or plain-colored carpet filling.

Soups for the Winter Season. By Sarah Crawford

Purée or White Beans—Pick and wash a half pint of dried white beans and put them into a saucepan with two quarts of cold water. Set on a slow fire and let them cook two hours from the time the water begins to boil.

Chicken Consommé—Place a fowl in a soup pot with four quarts of cold water and let it come slowly to the boiling point, then draw it to the side of the range and let it simmer for five or six hours.

Orzo Soup—Cut one oxtail into joints and fry brown in sweet dripping. Slice three onions and two carrots and fry in the same dripping, when the oxtail has been taken out. Theese with thyme and parsley in a cheesecloth bag and drop into soup pot containing four quarts of water.

THE C. P. R. STATEMENT OF THE MAIL ARRANGEMENTS

(C. P. R. Press). Montreal, Nov. 16.—The facts about the winter arrangements for the transport of the Atlantic mails are briefly these: "The government entered into a contract with the Allan line for the carriage of the mails. Subsequently when the Canadian Pacific put its two new Empresses into service they became a party to the arrangement under an agreement made with the Allan line as sub-contractors. "It was quite understood by the parties to this agreement that during the winter months the Empress of Britain and the Empress of Ireland would run between Liverpool and St. John, receiving and delivering the mails at the latter port. Were it not for this understanding the Canadian Pacific would not have participated in the contract because if these vessels are to be kept on the Atlantic route they must serve ports reached by the Canadian Pacific Railway line. "However, the local influence at Halifax was apparently sufficient to induce the government, under a technical clause of the original agreement between the government and the Allan, to rule that the Empresses must go from St. John to Halifax to receive the mails before putting out to sea and must stop at Halifax on the return trip to deliver the mails before proceeding to St. John. "The Canadian Pacific was quite willing to surrender its share in the mail contract rather than subject its passengers to the delay and to have the Canadian winter route for passengers seriously prejudiced by this roundabout service. But this could not be done unless the Allan line could secure the consent of the government. They failed to do so and therefore the Canadian Pacific in order to observe the terms of the contracts with the Allan line was compelled to accept the situation. "As a consequence during the present winter season the Empresses will stop in Halifax harbor to receive and deliver mails. This, of course, will delay them and to that extent frustrate the efforts of the Canadian Pacific to establish a service equal to that between New York and Liverpool. "Save for this call at Halifax on their outward and inward voyages the Empresses will confine themselves to St. John, the winter port of the Canadian Pacific, passengers and freight being shipped and landed there while the C. P. R. overseas limited carrying the imperial mails to and from China will also make St. John its winter terminal. "While beyond doubt the arrangement is detrimental to the general interests of the rest of the dominion the only advantage accruing to Halifax is the sentimental prestige of being made a port of call and thus receiving the local European mails a few hours earlier than if they were carried to St. John."

KING ALCOHOL'S NECK BROKEN

Theatrical Ending of Tennyson Smith's Temperance Campaign in Campbellton.

Campbellton, N. B., Nov. 16.—Tennyson Smith's temperance campaign closed tonight with his famous trial of alcohol in the court room, which was filled to overflowing. It was probably the largest audience ever assembled in this town. A judge, jury, court clerk, eric and sheriff were present to try alcohol on the charge of robbery and murder. Witnesses were brought by Mr. Smith, the prosecuting attorney, to prove the charge. J. T. Reid gave testimony of a man being once in a prominent position, and drink brought him down to poverty and he died in the poor house. C. W. Anslow said one of his regiment in South Africa went through several engagements of the war and, coming home, got drunk, fell beneath the railway car, and was killed. Dr. Murray, mayor of the town, showed the scientific effects of alcohol on the stomach, brain and heart. He stated that it was a scientific fact that the injury to the moderate drinker was greater than that to the man who goes on a periodical spree. Ensign Campbell and George Cooper also gave testimony of their personal knowledge of deaths and misery wrought by alcohol. Mr. Treisman, for the defence, cross-questioned the witnesses to bring out the evidence that alcohol, when left alone, was not harmful, and that it was still prescribed by the medical profession, and called one witness to prove that it still had its place in the arts, mechanics and sciences. Mr. Treisman then addressed the jury and made a strong plea for acquittal on the ground that it justified its existence. If left alone it would not harm anybody and that it was legalized. Mr. Smith then made a telling speech. In regard to the plea that it justified its existence, he admitted there was some weight, but even now they were beginning to look for something else to take its place. It was shown by a witness that although he never tasted liquor, it had robbed him of his father and early advantages in life. That it was legalized was perfectly true, but so were slavery, child labor, the use of rotten vessels for carrying freight, until the public arose and said it should not be. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty," and the sentence that the prisoner's neck be broken (which was a bottle of ale) pronounced, and the prisoner was executed forthwith amid the hearty applause of the vast audience.

Wolfville, N. S., Nov. 16.—In a pouring rain Horton Academy's football team and the Dalhousie second team fought a rough hard battle on the Acadia campus today, resulting in a victory for the academy by a score of 11 to 0. There was no score in the first half but in the second half McLeod and Sack did marvellous work for the academy. McLeod made two spectacular runs that for cleverness have never been excelled on the Acadia campus. Buckley, of Dalhousie, had his knee badly hurt and Ritchie, of the academy, had his collar bone broken.

A Secret

It aids nature a little, that's the only secret about it. We refer to Ayer's Hair Vigor. It feeds the hair, makes the scalp healthy. The hair stops falling out and all dandruff disappears. The result could not be different, for it's the natural way. And it is a splendid dressing, keeping the hair soft and smooth. Why not save what hair you have and get more at the same time? ROOSEVELT EXAMINES PANAMA CANAL

Enters Deep Cut and Watches Effect of Dynamite Explosion.

Panama, Nov. 16.—President Roosevelt, who stopped at the Tivoli hotel last night, started at 7 o'clock this morning with Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of his party, to make an examination of the Oulebra cut. The weather was overcast, threatening rain. At 8:30 the presidential train arrived at Pedro Miguel, where some steam shovels were at work. The president had his train stopped for the purpose of making a personal examination. At this point in the cut the peculiar soil conditions have resulted in more or less frequent landslides, and this fact was brought to the president's attention. President Roosevelt descended from his train and climbed upon one of the steam shovels, taking a seat alongside Engineer Gray, whom he asked many questions regarding the work. During the conversation, Engineer Gray took the opportunity, on behalf of himself and the other engineers, to declare that, unlike the railroad engineers, they were not paid for overtime. The president promised to look into this matter. He stayed on the steam shovel about twenty minutes. By this time it was raining hard.

President Roosevelt told Chief Engineer Stevens that he wanted to see all the works in connection with the excavation, even to the temporary laying of tracks. With this end in view, he boarded a work train near Pedro Miguel and went on to the next point, where steam shovels were at work. Here there was no danger of landslides. The presidential train continued on the regular line toward Panama. The work of the second steam shovel was observed, and the president made a detour to examine the site of the Pedro Miguel lock. He shook hands with all Americans he met while walking over the ground. At about 9:30 the president entered a deep portion of Oulebra cut, his train going slowly in order that he might observe the workings of the drill machines and shovels. One shovel was decorated with a sign reading: "We will do our best to help you build it." The president spent some time in the deepest portion of the cut where last Sunday nearly two tons of explosives were used to throw down 25,000 cubic yards of material. The rain was now coming down in torrents, and the water poured in rivulets down the funnel-shaped sides of the famous cut. Several charges of dynamite were exploded in order that the president might see the effect before he went back to his own train.

FREDERICTON BOOM COMPANY GOING OUT OF BUSINESS

Fredricton, N. B., Nov. 16.—At the office of A. H. F. Randolph, president of the Fredericton Boom Company, announcement was made today the result of the season's operations of the company at Douglas and Mitchell booms, as well as at Springhill. The total amount of lumber rafted was 129,184,168 superficial feet. The boom company handled almost 60,000,000 feet more logs this season than last, a good proportion of the amount, however, being taken care of at Springhill, where the boom company in former years did not control the operations. It has already been announced that the boom company will not continue the operations next year, as they claim to have lost money on the work done this season, and the negotiations are now under way for the lumbermen operating along the St. John river to handle the business of the company presumably through purchasing the plant, etc.

BETTER PHONE SERVICE FOR CARLETON PATRONS

Enquiries were made yesterday of F. A. Hackett, the general manager of the N. B. Telephone Company, if any improvements were contemplated in the local service concerning which there have been some complaints. Mr. Hackett said improvements were being made as rapidly as possible all over the system. As regards local conditions, he mentioned that negotiations were in progress to obtain a specially insulated cable for use between the city and Carleton, which it was expected would do away with the noise now heard in the receivers. A cable would also be laid between Fairville and the new Carleton exchange and as soon as this was installed the company would place all their new subscribers in that district in the service.

That Boy of Yours.

WE STUDY HIS WINTER CLOTHING WANTS AS EARNESTLY AS WE DO HIS FATHER'S, OR BIG BROTHER'S.

THERE'S ALWAYS ENOUGH SELF RESPECT IN THE AVERAGE BOY to create in him a like or dislike for his clothing. When he grows old enough to distinguish between stylish, he rebels against the Kiltie suit or the childish overcoat.

It's just here we step into the good graces of our many little friends. If they want a sweater outergarment—like the picture here—we can suit him in every particular.

This winter's supply of Overcoats embraces Fancy Cheviots, Tweeds and Vicunas as well as Plain Grey Friezes and Cheviots.

The Shoulders are Padded, the Chests Roomy, Vents at Back, Self and Velvet Collars, etc. By long odds the most mannish coats this side of the real men's sizes.
