(Canadian Press) Ottawa, Aug. 12.—The latest phase of the dispute between the Canadian railways and the shop craftsmen and the bearing of the industrial disputes investigation act on the question of the maintenance of existing wage rates, pending the report of the board of conciliation which is dealing with the case, is shown in a further letter addressed over the signature of the acting deputy minister of justice to the minister of railways, in which the former maintains the contention of the workmen that Section 57 of the statute requiring the continuance, unchanged, of existing conditions as to wages and hours until the old system of deal with by the board of conciliation.

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, Aug. 12.—A halt has been called to the proceedings of the conciliation board dealing with the wage dispute between the railways and the railway shopmen. It was brought about by the insistence of representatives of the union that the board immediately order that the railways go back to the old system of wages without waiting for evidence in the case or making a finding on its merits.

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, Aug. 12.—The union men of the U. S., who will ask Congress to pass a law that will enable him to cope with the railroad strike. In other words, if strikers and railroad executives fail to respond to his moral suasion, they will receive commands instead of requests.

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, Aug. 12.—Contending that the industrial peace of Canada is at stake in the proper interpretation of the industrial disputes act, and particularly as it affects the wage reductions put into effect on Canadian railways on July 22, 1922, A. R. Mosher, president of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, last evening forwarded to Hon. W. C. Kennedy, minister of railways and canals, a memorial setting forth the attitude of the brotherhood on the matter.

(Canadian Press) Ottawa, Aug. 12.—Brotherhood employees on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad last night ordered a walkout on the entire Milwaukee division of the road, effective at one o'clock this morning. Men now on trains will be ordered to leave them when they reach their terminals.

(Canadian Press) Milwaukee, Aug. 12.—The union employees at the Brown plant of the American Locomotive Co. went on strike yesterday after refusal of their demand for removal of a Lackawanna engine which had been taken into the shop for repairs. It is said about 1,000 men are involved.

There were no available figures of the number of passengers involved, but the road men said that if the travel was "average" it would run from 2,000 to 2,500.

(Canadian Press) A Little Rock, Aug. 12.—The executive heads of 18 U. S. railroads last night conditionally accepted President Harding's second proposal for settlement of the strike. The conditions which went into the acceptance, according to unofficial sources were:

First, that the president's request that the strikers be taken back should be interpreted that as many strikers could be rehired as should be needed by the roads to bring their shops forces to normal.

Second, that such strikers should be taken back unconditionally and that the railroad labor board later should determine whether they were to regain their seniority privileges.

(Canadian Press) The Y. M. C. A. Boy Scouts who have been in camp at Torriburn struck tents this morning and returned to the city after two very happy weeks spent under canvas. "Look-a-her!" said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "Gotta add four an' half millions to the debt o' St. John — heint you?" "Not at all," said the reporter, "not at all. We only propose to agree to pay interest at five and six per cent on four millions or so in addition to the present debt."

CHEAP ROOMER HAD $800,000

Eighty-two-year-old Recluse Had Fortune Hidden Away—Sold Small Insurance.

(Canadian Press) New York, Aug. 12.—Louis A. McMillan of Brooklyn and Mrs. Bertha M. Heber, his sister, of Chippaque, N. Y., were always good to their reclusive uncle, Henry Parsons, who lived in a cheap furnished room in Hoboken, where it was believed he was struggling for an existence by selling cheap insurance. He dressed shabbily, and went from door to door in the poorer sections selling policies on an easy payment plan. He seemed so poor that his nephew and niece often wondered how he managed to scrape together $6 a week to pay his board.

(Canadian Press) Then Parsons became ill at the age of eighty-two. Mrs. Heber learned of it and hurried to him. She was too weak to resist, so she took him home. McMillan, who is a match salesman, was in Pittsburgh on business. He hurried home to see the old man die on July 12, 1922.

(Canadian Press) Shortly afterward, a will was unearthed, dated March 1, 1873, leaving most of the estate to relatives long dead, and a small fraction to the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of New York.

(Canadian Press) Across the will, however, was written the name of Parsons, who had been writing the diocese for revocation, and then lost on a later decision. An appeal was made to the court in the appellate division in Brooklyn.

(Canadian Press) How much was the estate? McMillan repeated when asked about it. "Oh, I should say about $800,000. There was $87,000 in cash and the remainder in Liberty Bonds and gilt-edged securities. There was a trust fund or a shanty stock in the estate estate."

(Canadian Press) Chicago, Aug. 12.—The race for batting honors in the American League has developed into one of the hottest fights in years, with only a fraction of a point separating Cobb and Sisler for the premier honors, according to averages including games of last Wednesday. The two stars are in a virtual tie with .469 plus each.

(Canadian Press) Ken Williams, home run slugger of the majors, who has cracked out his thirtieth homer, has joined the select ten by boosting his mark from 318 to 329. Tilly Walker, of the Athletics, is the runner-up to Williams, for home runs, with 28, and Ruth is trailing the pair with 21. (Canadian Press) Bob Russell, a former Chicago White Sox pitcher with the Minneapolis Club, of the American Association when he realized that his efforts on the mound were fading, is now giving the National League a surprise by his heavy hitting. Russell was obtained by Pittsburgh from the Minneapolis Club. He was one of the best hitters in the league and was somewhat of a home run clown. Since joining the Pirates, he has made three homers in fourteen games. His batting average is .423, being the result of twenty-two hits in 52 times at bat. In addition to his three homers he made six doubles and a triple.

(Canadian Press) Hornby, St. Louis batting star, however, continued to top the list of hitters in the Heydler circuit, who have played in 85 or more games. His average is .388, and he has made three homers, with 289 and in home runs with 28. Grimes, of Chicago, is the runner-up in the batting race, with 289 hits and 28 homers.

Yesterday's Games

(Canadian Press) New York, Aug. 12.—While their St. Louis rivals, league leaders, were found to idleness by the schedule, the Giants and Yankees yesterday, turned in wins and narrowed the gap separating them from the top.

(Canadian Press) Joe Bush twirled the New York Americans to within a half game of the Browns, when he beat the Cardinals, 5 to 2. Bush allowed but four hits in a duel with Hommel, and batted in the winning run in the ninth with a single.

(Canadian Press) The Giants reduced the Cardinals' lead to one game and ended their losing streak by beating Brooklyn, 6-1. Jess Barnes' pitching and Frank Frisch's all-around play were features.

(Canadian Press) Pittsburgh, now only five games from the top, registered its 12th straight win, by beating Cleveland, 5 to 1. When Tierney failed to hit safely it marked the first time in five games that every member of the Pirates had not connected for at least one hit.

(Canadian Press) Timely hitting enabled Philadelphia to beat the Boston Braves 5 to 3. Walter Johnson's pitching and hitting gave Washington a five to four victory over the Red Sox.

St. Paul, Aug. 12.—Next Friday night has been set as the date for the proposed ten-day battle between Billy Miske of St. Paul, heavyweight, and Fred Fulton of Minneapolis, Heavyweight, and a bout combined to cause postponement of the bout which was to have been held last night. SERIOUS CRASH ON DOUGLAS AVENUE

Edw. McNulty Badly Burned; Car Destroyed.

(Canadian Press) A serious automobile collision occurred in Douglas avenue at an early hour this morning and as a result Edward McNulty is in the hospital in a serious condition, a companion Claude Phinney is quite badly shaken up and bruised, and the former's automobile, an Oldsmobile (eight) is reported completely demolished.

(Canadian Press) The accident happened about 4:20 o'clock. A large truck, owned by H. Hanson of Calais, Me., and driven by Richard Robertson, was en route to the city with a load of furniture, owned by A. Flatto of Boston, and while passing Riverview Park drove up for a change of tire. The driver had just removed the tire when the touring car driven by Mr. McNulty came along and crashed into the rear of the truck. The driver was knocked unconscious by the terrific impact and Mr. Phinney was hurled through the wind shield into the street. Almost simultaneously with the crash the touring car took fire. Mr. Robertson, seeing the plight of the driver, rushed to his aid. He succeeded in hauling him from behind the wheel and carrying him across the street, but not before his feet and hands had been quite badly burned.

(Canadian Press) Phinney, who was stunned, was also carried to the side of the road. A fire alarm bell was rung in the city. The ambulance was summoned and the injured men were taken to the hospital.

(Canadian Press) The touring car was engulfed in flames when the fire apparatus arrived on the scene and before the blaze was extinguished it was completely destroyed. The truck was slightly damaged. Despite its great weight it was thrown a distance of sixteen feet.

(Canadian Press) To a Times reporter Mr. Robertson, driver of the large truck, told the following story: "We were coming from Calais and I noticed that one of my rear tires was going flat. I pulled up to the curb and on examination found that it had picked up a large nail. I started to repair the tire when the touring car came along and crashed into my truck. When the crash occurred the touring car caught fire and I saw the driver pinned in his seat behind the wheel. I hauled him out and carried him across the street."

(Canadian Press) Asked if he had a rear light on he said he had none burning at the time. He explained that there were two rear lamps within a short distance of his truck and in addition it was almost dark. He could give no explanation for the cause of the accident.

(Canadian Press) Mr. Flatto said that he was moving furniture from Boston to St. John and when he reached Calais he had been held up by the Canadian authorities. The matter had been referred to Ottawa and when he was given permission to bring his furniture to this city. He said he hired the truck in Calais and was accompanying it. He corroborated the story of the driver as to the punctured tire and collision.

(Canadian Press) This morning the demolished touring car was towed into Bentley street and a large number of people visited the scene.

(Canadian Press) Reports from the hospital late this morning said that Mr. Phinney had been able to proceed to his home, but that Mr. McNulty's condition was quite serious. It has been set as the date for the proposed ten-day battle between Billy Miske of St. Paul, heavyweight, and Fred Fulton of Minneapolis, Heavyweight, and a bout combined to cause postponement of the bout which was to have been held last night. Fulton developed the bolt on the nose yesterday, and the boxing commission's physician ruled against his going into the ring.

LEAGUE'S PLANS STOLEN IN PARIS

Carelessness of a Messenger With Diplomatic Valise May Frustrate Project of Several Nations.

Paris, Aug. 12.—The reports of several nations on disarmament proposals to come up before the League of Nations assembly next month are understood to have disappeared on Monday night when a careless messenger allowed the league's diplomatic valise out of his sight a few minutes while waiting at a railway station in Paris.

Although league officials here refuse to confirm the story, declaring that the papers were of interest only to headquarters in Geneva, the police to whom the theft was reported say that a great stir is being made in an effort to recover the missing valise.

The employee declares that he could not have been so careless unless he was followed by some one interested in the league's affairs.

For several weeks replies from various governments have been compiled here and in London preparatory to the next meeting of the council on August 20, and it is believed probable, the documents are not found promptly it will be impossible to obtain duplicates in time to meet the deadline.

ARTHUR GRIFFITH

The death of Arthur Griffith, coming with such startling suddenness, marked the passing of one of the foremost figures in modern Ireland. He was one of the most conspicuous leaders in the creation of the new Irish Free State.

He was one of the founders of the Sinn Fein movement in Ireland and among the foremost leaders directing its activities. Mr. Griffith was formerly an editor of Dublin and later established the newspaper United Irishmen, following it by the Sinn Fein and then the Nationalist.

He first attracted attention by his uncompromising attitude for abstention by Irish members from attendance of the session of the British parliament in Westminster. This idea gradually formed the nucleus of the Sinn Fein organization, which took the place of the Irish Nationalist movement.

In October, 1917, Mr. Griffith was elected president of the opening of the Sinn Fein conference in Dublin. He was later nominated as Sinn Fein delegate from East Canada. During the peace conference at Paris in 1919, he was chosen as an Irish delegate, but failed to reach a safe conduct from the British government prevented his attendance.

In July, 1919, Griffith was elected acting president of the Irish National Assembly in the absence of Eamon De Valera, who was in the U. S. In October of the same year he was elected one of the permanent vice presidents of the Sinn Fein organization.

He was an outstanding figure in the peace negotiations and in the subsequent events.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR TOURING AUTOS Dominion Authorities Show Consideration to Temporary Visitors.

Ottawa, Aug. 12.—Amended regulations governing the temporary admission into Canada of automobiles, motorcycles and bicycles for touring purposes have been issued by the Bureau of Customs, Minister of Customs and Excise.

The former regulations provided for the granting of a permit to a non-resident of Canada or temporary visitor there in for the use of his automobile in Canada for a period of thirty days for pleasure purposes.

There is now no restriction as to the number of permits for touring purposes which may be given to a non-resident owner or temporary visitor, providing his car is exported under customs supervision within the limit of between twenty-four hours and thirty days, as stated in the permit.

The regulations have not been changed in respect of automobiles owned by non-residents entering Canada for pleasure purposes for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours, in which case the collector at the frontier is authorized to permit entry without the usual report upon the owner surrendering his state license card, which is to be handed to him on his return journey.

The former regulations prohibited the granting of a permit to a non-resident owner of an automobile if he was connected with any automobile business, but this restriction has been removed, as, under such provision the president of an automobile company in the United States could not bring his car into Canada for bona fide touring purposes.

No change has been made in the regulations governing the admission of automobiles for touring purposes in bond for a period of six months.

RADIO MAY YET TURN WHEELS OF INDUSTRY Chicago, Aug. 12.—Dr. Charles Steinmetz, of the General Electric Company, told delegates to the International Radio Congress that:

"There may be a time when power to turn the wheels of industry will be furnished by radio. In some respects, radio power transmission exists today, for the message you receive by radio has been carried by the power of electromagnetic waves from the sending to the receiving station. Successful work is now done in directing radio waves, as, for instance, our trans-Atlantic broadcast out to all parts of our power eastward."

MISS MCKAY OF OAK HALL AT N. Y. FASHION SHOW

Miss McKay, buyer for the Women's Shop, Oak Hall, is in New York on a fall buying trip and she has written the firm about the National Merchandise Fair now being staged there.

Miss McKay took in the ready-to-wear fashion parade which she says was very interesting. Most of the suits shown she says were of a heavy pile fabric with fur trimmings. Most of the coats were of a wrappy material and the dress were mostly dark, with browns predominating. The skirts are noticeably longer than for the past few seasons and the necklines are particularly featuring these longer lengths.

Miss McKay says she is making some very fine purchases for fall and winter on her return she will have most interesting news on the new styles to tell Oak Hall friends about.

ORIGIN OF TERM PORTLAND CEMENT First Used in 1824 in England. Granted to an English Bricklayer of Leeds.

One of the questions which is frequently asked by curious persons is, "Why is 'portland' cement?" The word has been used for so long a time in connection with cement mixtures used for the building of houses, the construction of roads and countless other purposes that it has become in the trade, and by a recognized qualification in connection with the mention of cement. Why it is so used is generally unknown.

An interesting explanation of this fact is given in a recent issue of the Concrete Highway Magazine, which states that it was not until 1824 that the term "portland cement" was applied to any of the cement mixtures which had been utilized with considerable success in England for many years. In that year a patent was granted to Joseph Aspin, a bricklayer of Leeds, on a process for burning and grinding "portland cement."

The use of the word "portland" was due to the fact that when the cement hardened its color and appearance was similar to a well-known building stone which was quarried on the island of Portland at the south of England and very extensively used in structures of large and imposing size.

The industrial world is indebted to John Smeaton, a civil engineer, for ascertaining facts, which ultimately led to the perfection of portland cement. He was commissioned to build a lighthouse on the Eddystone rocks off the harbor of Plymouth. The rocks were generally covered at high tide and were a serious menace to navigators entering the English Channel or Plymouth harbor, especially in stormy weather.

"Prior to Mr. Smeaton's work," says the editor of the Concrete Highway Magazine, "the rocks had been carried by successive wooden towers carrying lights, but one after another they had been destroyed by fire. The exposed location of the rocks and the fact that the towers which swept over them had fallen, led Smeaton to the idea of building a wooden structure bolted together which would withstand the terrific pounding of the waves. Mr. Smeaton's idea was to build a lighthouse which would resist storms as well as fire, and in 1786 determined to erect a masonry structure on the rocks.

A hint from the Romans. One of the many problems which he encountered in the erection of the structure was the need for a cement from which a mortar could be prepared which would harden under water. Being familiar with the fact that the early hydraulic cement, Mr. Smeaton experimented throughout an entire winter with the available limestones until he finally succeeded in burning and grinding a cement which had the property of hardening quickly and under water.

"Smeaton's lighthouse was completed successfully in the year 1789, and his cement was the subject of repeated comments during the many years in which the mortar joints withstood the terrific storms without cracking. The lighthouse as a whole, remained in service for 128 years, or until 1828 when though still in good condition, it was desirable to erect a much higher tower with a more powerful light.

Mr. Smeaton's idea of developing a hydraulic cement was of the utmost value to the British Admiralty in the construction of docks and harbors in various parts of the Empire.

"In the early days of cement manufacture, the strength of the cement was gauged by preparing a mortar and ceasing together with it. When this mortar had hardened from three to eight days, the bricks were fastened in iron clamps and suspended beneath a tripod. One of the clamps hung from the top of the tripod while weights were hung to the other clamp. The number of weights which had to be hung in the lower clamp in order to pull the two bricks apart at the mortar joint, was a measure of the strength of the cement mortar. This scheme, crude as it was, has given us the standard briquette of today and our tensile strength-testing machine.

"Another test for the strength of mortars much used in the early days was that of cementing one brick to another horizontally out from the face of a vertical wall. The number of brick which could thus be held together with mortar joints straight out from the face of the wall, was a measure of the strength of the cement.

Ele Can a Factor. Following the development of the discovery patented by Mr. Aspin, cement was manufactured and successfully marketed in increasing amounts in England for many years in the United States the construction of the Erie Canal proved to be the stimulus for the production of natural cement from deposits of suitable rock in Chittenango, Madison County, N. Y. about 1828. The first experiments in the manufacture of cement in the United States occurred near Allentown, Pa., in the heart of the Lehigh Valley, about 1848, although it was not until 1872 that a commercial portland cement was placed on the market. This was known as Saylor's Portland Cement, and was used by the Eads jetties along the Mississippi River and in the Drexel Building in Philadelphia, which was one of

WANT TO BE SEVENTH STATE. Presque Isle, Aug. 12.—(By Canadian Press)—Aroostook County wants to sever connections with the State of Maine and become the seventh New England State. The idea has taken hold of the populace "hard" and the leaders of the movement are thoroughly sincere. Aroostook is the northeastern part of Maine and with 6,000 square miles constitutes about a third of the state area. Since 1900 the state has grown more than 30 per cent. in population and 800 per cent. in valuation. It is one of the most important agricultural areas in the United States and the leading potato section of the world. The long distance to the state capital, Augusta, is one of the arguments set forth.

DIET OF MONKEY MEAT WITH SIRLOIN OF POISON SNAKE. Explorer Who Spent Three Years in Brazilian Jungle Tells of Adventures.

New York, Aug. 12.—Summoned from the wilds of the Brazilian jungle, where he had been exploring for the American Museum of Natural History, by a telegram announcing the imminent death of his mother, Ernest C. Holt, explorer, at 60, arrived here on the steamship Pan-America. Mr. Holt, who returned with his wife, has been in South America for three years, and brought back with him 600 specimens for the museum. At one time during the expedition his party was lost in the jungle and lived on meat cut from poisonous snakes and monkeys. In speaking of his diet of snakes and monkeys for twenty-five days, Mr. Holt said: "We lived mostly on monkeys during that time, but on one occasion we had to resort to eating snake stew or face starvation. We ate the stew. We had killed a poisonous snake about nine feet long, cut off his head, took out the sirloin and stewed it. It tasted something like cod, not so good, you know, but then anything tastes good when you're real hungry."

plane picked up the haycock from a field which had just been mowed. The hay jammed in the control wires leading to the tail-flippers, and several extremely unpleasant alternatives were presented forthwith to the pilot. He could not rise, he dared not nose her down, and a turn to the left probably meant going into a spin. The encumbering hay prevented him from giving his machine right rudder, and there seemed nothing left to do but drive ahead at a landscape which presented an uncomfortable outline of trees and houses drawing nearer with the speed of an express train. By skillful jockeying of the airplane, Commander Elyson was able to keep it from nosing in and at the same time guide it out over the Potomac in a wide turn which brought it back to the landing field; but here he was balked in his purpose to land by several machines in his way. Another swing several miles across was necessary, with the airplane still at a low altitude and speeding like the wind. This time the airplane was brought down in safety and the commander called it a day.

When the supreme court estimated the value of the company's plant around $2,800,000, under monopoly conditions, what defence can there be for giving it a value of $3,909,000, when it is no longer a monopoly, and after it has been allowed to run down to an extent that calls for repairs to the tune of half a million?

CAVERHILL HALL TO BE THE HOME

St. John's New Health Centre
Splendid Structure

King and Queen Stayed
There — Military Headquarters in War Time —
Copied After Hawarden
Castle — Its New Significance.

for the local branch of the Canadian Army, previously the home of the Simon Jones family and its heirs, is "destined to become the commodious Health Centre now so much in the public mind, and in support of which a city
and country-wide tag day campaign will be held next Tuesday.

This decision was arrived at yesterday when the newly selected directors of the Health Centre project met and discussed the acquisition. The matter has been under consideration for some weeks, but numerous details were necessarily arranged before the citizen body could arrange the tenancy. Now, however, the way seems clear for the doming of the Centre in this castle-like structure.

Caverhill Hall has for years been St.
John's outstanding architectural gem.
Copied from the dignified lines of Hawarden Castle, the home of the late

A COMPLETE OCEAN Service the WHITE STAR DOMINION Way

A half-century of carrying ocean travellers has brought White Star Dominion service to the highest standard.
The service is recognized in the Dominion, carrying first, second and third class passengers; in the Empire, in the Atlantic and Pacific,
Other services to England and the Continent are provided by the White Star, Red Star and the American Line steamers sailing from New York every Saturday.

WAGLE & WIGNOIRE
147 Prince William Street, St. John, or Local Agents.

Hon. W. E. Gladstone, it has been pictured in literature descriptive of St.
John, and pointed out to visitors as our most impressive dwelling. Although not a very old building, it is already rich in history, having been the residence of King George and Queen Mary when they visited St. John as the Duke and Duchess of York, whilst the Hall's career as a military building is known to everybody in the city today, and in this capacity it did a wonderful service to flag and country.

And now to have the big stone home converted into a community centre for the improvement of public health in all its beneficent channels would appear to be a crowning glory in these happy days of restored peace and returning prosperity. The action of the directorate has sent a thrill of pride and satisfaction through the thinking citizenship and may prove a beacon to other communities.

While an imposing structure from the outside view, Caverhill Hall is ideally designed inside for the purposes of centralized health work. Its rooms are spacious and airy, well lighted, possible of numerous office-making schemes, also for lecture quarters, consultation rooms, clinical apartments and private bureaux.
It is proposed to include in the building
the executive office and board room of the Board of Health, the office of the public school health inspector and her nurses, headquarters for the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, the Victorian Order of Nurses will have representation under the roof, and Child Welfare work with its clinics will emanate from there.

Eyeglass clinics and dental clinics free to the children of St. John, for which preparations have been made several times already, with specialists willing to give their services gratis, are now a possibility, indeed an assured thing, under the centralized scheme. Nutritional clinics for babies will be held here, also, in fact all branches of public health service as provided for in New Brunswick's new Health Act will find official representation and practical demonstration in the new home.

Perhaps not the least important feature of the new health centre will be the training of public health nurses under the superintendence of Miss Mellison, the government's head nurse.
Young women will be schooled in the duties of civic and rural nursing. This is a branch of health work in which New Brunswick is again taking the lead and which it is expected will be a valuable auxiliary to the carrying out of the many new and helpful provisions of New Brunswick's health legislation.

In connection with the removal of the Board of Health offices from the Ritchie
Building, Princess street, to Caverhill Hall it must be remembered that this includes the registry of vital statistics—
deaths and births—for the sub-district hereabouts. Much stress is being laid upon the filing of this important human data. Also in the Board of Health office will be included the official headquarters of dairy and food inspectors, inspector of sanitation, inspectors of premises and the parochial inspectors of school children's health as well as their communities at large.

So in acquiring the Simon Jones property it will doubtless be felt that the correction has been dealt in the cause of a better and more up-to-date St. John and in behalf of a community that for many years has suffered for just such public service as it is proposed to offer through this medium. The building will take on a new interest no doubt and be more pictured and quoted than ever because of its prominence in the daily life
of the people.

In conversation with the Hon. Dr.
Roberts, Minister of Health the Times was informed that the report of the property being rented by the health centre directorate was substantially correct, only a few well-understood details remained to close the bargain securely.
The owners of the property are acting in excellent faith with the citizen body
and are offering every facility to a satisfactory bargain.

With regard to next Tuesday's tag
day in aid of the health centre, the Minister of Health characterized this as a public expression of support in behalf of the unfortunate sick of our community who have in the past been denied the benefit of the best medical care acting in government and institutional forms. To the children of the city the various free clinics to be provided should prove a staggering blow to a high percentage of impaired eyesight and unhealthy dental conditions which the baby life of St. John in certain classes will enjoy a boon in mothering that only big cities
today can boast.

"One of the biggest campaigns of its kind ever launched in the city and a campaign for the highest possible ideals" is Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, minister of public health, characterized the tag day effort for the public health centre which it is proposed to establish in the building which has just been vacated as military headquarters, Caverhill Hall, in Sydney street. Dr. Roberts gave a stimulating address to the tag day con-venerators at their meeting yesterday afternoon in the medical inspector's office of the board of health rooms, in Princess street and final instructions were given the conveners by Mrs. R. J. Hooper, the chairman, and by Miss H. McKeljohn, superintendent of public health courses.
While outlining the aims of the health centre and the great need for its establishment, Dr. Roberts said that the objective would be $2000.

The meeting was largely attended and much business in the way of giving out banners and tags was accomplished.

newly acquired authority immediately
after leaving the examining board.
He was on his way home to tell his

He got close, and when William A.

was a fight and both Meyers and Smith

Odor of Decaying Flesh, Companions of Spinsters.

Midwaukee, Aug. 12.—(By Canadian Press)—In a home crowded with living dogs and cats and with the skeletons of dead pets, amid the order of decaying flesh and the dust and gloom of a neglected house, Jane and Margaret Mellen have been living with their brother for fourteen years.
With the shades drawn, the two spinsters, fifty and forty years old, seemingly devoted their lives to the care of the living and dead animals. And most of this care seems to have been given the dead.
In the basement and on the ground floor the bodies and bones of a score of pets were laid out carefully in their coffins, while the living beasts were gaunt and emaciated, whining as they shunk into corners and cages, and obviously starving.
The existence of this weird house was discovered by firemen responding to the call of a passerby who saw smoke coming from the basement window of the Mellen home. The younger Miss Mellen attempted to bar the door and reluctantly refused firemen permission to enter.
With the smoke still issuing, however,
they broke in the windows and entered the blaze, believed due to spontaneous combustion in a can of phosphorus.
Then the fire fighters had time to look around. Dogs seemed everywhere. Their cages and kennels were abundant. They shrank from the newcomers fearfully.
The dead animals were scattered about the rooms on the lower floors, all laid out with the greatest care. One in the parlor was typical of the rest. Here, flanked on either side by another body,
the stiff body of a shaggy dog was lying in a small coffin such as is used for babies. The grinning head rested on a dainty pillow; lacy coverings draped the sides of the casket and body.
On the wall hung oil paintings covered with the dust and mold of years. The once luxurious furniture was dirty and shabby. The rooms were in perpetual darkness, the blinds closely drawn. The closed windows accentuated the heavy,
nauseating smell of decomposing flesh.
For years the Mellen sisters have been considered "queer" by their neighbors.
But they were never annoying, and were left strictly alone. Despite the number of dogs and cats in the house, no one ever complained of noise.
Police summoned by the firemen removed the sisters to the Emergency Hospital for observation. Dr. Harry Bradley, who examined them, pronounced them normal, "in fact unusually intelligent."

SPORTS AND THIEVING JOIN IN SOVIETISM

Horse Racing, Athletics and Poverty
Make New Combination.
Riga, Aug. 12.—The contrasting phases of Sovietism are seen in the revival of sports, taxes on education, freightage thievery, dwindling population of Petrograd, and continued monopoly of the insurance business. These developments throw an interesting light on the domestic and financial side of Bolshevism. An all-Russian athletic union, modelled on the lines of the A. A.
U. in the United States, has been formed,
as a subsidiary organization of the Commissariat of Education.
Branches are being developed in Russian schools, and officials of the union say they will ask permission to participate in the next Olympic games.
Horse racing also has been revived, and at the Moscow track, one of the finest racing courses in the world,
"billions" of rubles change hands daily.
In 1917 Petrograd had 2,420,000 people. During the first of this year the population was fixed at 770,000. The death rate has been exceedingly high,
and the birth rate low.

The reasons why

This is a Studebaker Year

What Automobile Buyers Generally Want:

In a recent poll of 20,000 car owners by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, Inc., of New York (the automobile manufacturers' trade association) each owner was asked to name the quality which appealed to him most in buying a car. The results showed as follows:

1. Endurance .....	15.0 p. c.	8. Flexibility .....	6.5 p. c.
2. Economy of operation .....	14.0 p. c.	9. Endorsement of car by others .....	6.5 p. c.
3. Comfort .....	9.5 p. c.	10. Specifications .....	6.0 p. c.
4. Price .....	9.5 p. c.	11. Speed .....	5.5 p. c.
5. Appearance .....	8.0 p. c.	12. Appointments .....	5.0 p. c.
6. Service facilities of manufacturer .....	7.5 p. c.
7. Hill climbing or power .....	7.0 p. c.
	70.5 p. c.		29.5 p. c.

This poll confirms Studebaker's experience of seventy years in building vehicles of all kinds. Studebaker Cars have been and always will be designed and manufactured to meet the qualifications demanded by the public.

The Proof of Studebaker Quality:

1. ENDURANCE. Studebaker Cars are daily giving satisfactory service to 400,000 owners in all civilized countries. Proof of their dependability rests upon the fact that Studebaker's sales of Repair Parts, covering repairs from accidents as well as service, for the past seven months averaged but $7.00 per car on these 400,000 cars. In the 80 months since January 1st, 1920, Studebaker produced and sold 186,000 cars, and are now producing and selling at the rate of 125,000 cars per year, practically double last year's volume, and yet Studebaker's total sales of Repair Parts this year are less than they were for the first seven months of 1919.

2. ECONOMY OF OPERATION. Greatest economy results from minimum repairs and high resale values of second-hand cars in proportion to list prices. Gasoline and oil consumption are next important items of economy. The records of Studebaker Cars in all these respects stand out strikingly well.

3. COMFORT. Correct design of weight distribution, spring suspension, seats, upholstery, etc., determine largely the question of comfort. Comfort is not a matter of extra cost and high prices, but is a matter of design. Comfort is characteristic of Studebaker Cars. Heavy weight is neither essential to comfort nor an assurance of it if design is faulty. The weight of Studebaker cars is borne almost equally by the four wheels, which is ideal distribution. With bodies resting without overhang on frames, semi-elliptic springs, seats of generous proportions, and best upholstery, Studebaker Cars are necessarily comfortable.

4. PRICE. With $78,000,000 of actual net assets, including $38,000,000 of plants, and an organization of able, experienced men and workers who participate in the profits of the business, Studebaker stands unsurpassed in resources and ability to manufacture economically and give maximum intrinsic value for a given price. By manufacturing complete motors, transmissions, axles, frames, bodies, castings, forgings, and stampings, parts makers' profits on such items are eliminated, and one profit only is included in Studebaker prices. The section of the Studebaker plants formerly devoted to the manufacture of horse-drawn vehicles, with recent additions, now manufacture sedan and coupe bodies, at minimum costs (without middlemen's profits), and buyers benefit accordingly.

The materials and workmanship in Studebaker Cars measure up to the highest standards known to the automobile industry. Substantially better intrinsic values cannot be obtained at any price. The theory that high prices necessarily mean fine cars is fallacious, simply because prices are not based upon intrinsic values but upon the production costs of different manufacturers, which vary widely according to their individual manufacturing facilities, ability, and output. Everybody in the automobile industry knows that standardized cars manufactured complete in large quantities give the greatest intrinsic values, or stated otherwise, the most actual car, per dollar of price. Assembled cars, which constitute eighty-five per cent. of the hundred-odd makes of American and Canadian cars, are assembled from parts purchased from many sources, which precludes harmonious co-ordination in design and inevitably increases costs and selling prices about 25 p. c.

5. APPEARANCE. An automobile should never be bought on appearance, although seemingly 8 p. c. of buyers are influenced by appearance alone. An automobile is a highly developed mechanical instrument from which hard, satisfactory service is rightly expected. Studebaker executives and engineers give much attention to appearance, style, and distinctive beauty in the matter of bodies, tops, hoods, radiators, and fenders. Our bodies are master-pieces of fine craftsmanship, and are unexcelled for comfort and durability.

6. SERVICE. Studebaker has 250 dealers in Canada, 3,000 in the United States, and is widely represented in all foreign countries. These selling outlets carry in stock $4,000,000 of Repair Parts for all models of Studebaker Cars. The prices of parts for Studebaker Cars are lower (or as low) as those of any cars of their price, and much lower than those of high-priced cars. Studebaker dealers are obligated to render prompt and efficient service to buyers. Studebaker is in business to sell motor cars and not parts. The accessibility of Studebaker Cars for quick dismantling and repair work is common knowledge in the garages and among chauffeurs and mechanics all over the world.

7. POWER. In acceleration, power delivered at the point of traction, and hill climbing ability, all three models of Studebaker Cars enjoy unique reputations.

8-12. SUNDRIES. The other qualities which seemingly influenced the selection of 29.5 p. c. of buyers are flexibility, endorsement of others, specifications, speed and appointments. Studebaker Cars stand high in all these respects. Studebaker Cars have set many precedents in quantity manufacture, particularly in the matter of appointments and equipment, such as crown fenders, cast en bloc six-cylinder motors, cord tires, one-piece windshield, cowl ventilator, cowl light, tonneau lamp with extension cord, windshield wiper, transmission locks, beveled plate glass windows, etc. Satisfied owners are Studebaker's greatest asset.

The broad principle upon which Studebaker business is conducted and upon which it has prospered for seventy years, now grounded upon tradition, insures satisfaction to everybody who deals with the House of Studebaker, and we solicit your valued patronage on this basis. This policy protects you better than the ordinary guarantee.

AUTO KILLS BABY IN ITS CARRIAGE

Negro Chauffeur Loses Control of Car, Steps on the Accelerator Instead of the Brake.

New York, Aug. 12.—Florence Greenberg, eighteen months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Greenberg of 648 West 160th street, was killed and her nurse, Ophelia Irving, a negro, was injured when an automobile leaped across the sidewalk in West 164th street near the New York Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, crushed the baby carriage and plunged through a fence.
The explanation given by the police for the accident was "human failure" in that William A. Jackson, twenty-seven years old, negro chauffeur of the automobile, which is owned by Leo Bishop of 610 West 191st street, completely lost control of the car when no traffic interfered with his progress through a quiet street, and stepped on the gas instead of the brake when he wanted to stop.
It has been the custom of nursemaids of Upper Manhattan to park their baby carriages in the comparative safety of the quiet street near the New York Institute for the Deaf and Dumb and there were many with infants there when Jackson lost control of his car.
"My foot slipped and I stepped on the accelerator instead of the brake," Jackson told the police.

Samuel Greenberg, of 1,881 Walton avenue, in no way related to the infant, whose father is also Samuel Greenberg, was passing in his automobile, witnessed the accident and rushed the negro and the baby to the Columbus Hospital, where the child was pronounced dead by Dr. Conderas. Policeman McDonald of the West 182nd street station arrested Jackson on a charge of homicide.
Sophie Wisniewski, nine years old, of 209 Kent avenue, Brooklyn, was run down by an automobile truck while crossing the street at Wallabout Market, Brooklyn, and died soon after in the Cumberland Street Hospital. Thomas Lent of 149 Schenck avenue, Brooklyn, driver of the truck, was arrested on a charge of homicide.

The Recall Proceedings

Well Under Way, It is Announced—Public Feeling Very Strong.

The recall proceedings concerning Mayor McLellan are well under way, it was announced yesterday. Early next week it will be known just what action will be taken in regard to the city commissioners. The citizens, it is declared, are firm in their purpose to protect their interests and will not hesitate to include all four city commissioners in a recall should they declare themselves contrary to the decisively expressed will of the people at the last civic elections. Public feeling in the matter is very strong.
The recall procedure begins with the petition which sets out the general reasons for a recall, and this petition must be signed by fifteen per cent, all qualified voters, of the total number who voted in the last civic election. The petition is filed with the common clerk, who must certify to the correctness of the petition and check up names, addresses, qualifications etc. A date for the recall to take effect is then set.

AN HONEST GIRL, AND IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Little Daughter of Mrs. Frank Sharp Finds Pocketbook While Playing.

(Daily Telegraph.)

A man who came in to The Telegraph office last evening carrying an air of relief said that he had been greatly impressed with two things. The first of these was a child's honesty and the second the value of The Evening Times as an advertising medium.
William Martin, of 15 Charles street, lost his purse containing $24 on Thursday morning. He was rather in the dark as to what he should do, as he felt that his money was a gone never to return. Finally he decided to put an ad in a paper and his "lost" ad appeared in The Times. At 6 o'clock last evening he received a note from Mrs. Frank Sharp, of Charles street, saying that her little daughter had found a purse while playing with other little kiddies on the Centenary playgrounds and upon going to the sharp home he received his lost property. Mr. Martin expressed his gratitude in a substantial manner to the child for her honesty, and was strong in his praise of the advertising value of The Times.

Washington, Aug. 12.—The highest rate of daily production of electricity on record was reached in June with production of 127,700,000 kilowatt hours by public utilities power plants of the country, the Geological Survey announces. The largest daily production prior to June was in December, 1919, with 881,000 kilowatt hours produced by fuels utilized 2,489,581 short tons of coal, 911,272 barrels of fuel oil and 2,832,150,000 cubic feet of natural gas. Daily consumption of coal by power plants in June averaged 83,000 tons.

How Factory Workers Vote ON Prohibition and the Bonus IS SHOWN THIS WEEK

By the "Digest's" Poll of 10,000,000 Men and Women Throughout the United States

The Volstead Act and the "wetness" of factory workers seem to form the chief present centres of turbulence in the flood of comment which The Digest's poll of 10,000,000 voters of the U. S. is calling forth. With this week's issue of The Digest the votes received and tabulated total over 600,000. Included in this tabulation are the results of polls taken in some of the big industrial plants, and they may be said fairly to gauge the sentiment of factory employes. In factories where these polls have been taken the workers have been assured of an absolutely secret ballot and careful precautions have been taken to insure against any possibility of plural voting.

A fair proportion of the wives of these workmen will, no doubt, vote in The Digest's poll of 2,000,000 women voters, now under way. As has already been explained, practically all the names from which returns have so far been tabulated were taken from the telephone books of the country.

The newspaper press everywhere is hailing this comprehensive poll as one of the biggest journalistic enterprises ever undertaken. If you would know the sentiment in the states for and against Prohibition, and for and against a Federal Bonus for soldiers and sailors in the late war, get this week's "Digest" and study the intensely interesting returns.

MAN AND WIFE HELD AFTER MANY THEFTS.

Hudson County Police Recover $5,000 Worth of Property - 64 Victims Identified. New York, Aug. 12.-John S. Bonnet of 223 Twenty-fourth street, Guttenberg, N. J. has been arrested after a long search by the Hudson County police for the "shirt-sleeve" robber who within a year has robbed a hundred homes in towns of the county. In Bonnet's home more than $5,000 worth of household articles, jewelry, silverware and furs were found. Sixty-four persons, it was said, have already identified articles found as having been stolen from them. Mrs. Bonnet, the wife of the prisoner, was arrested on a charge of having stolen goods in her possession. Both prisoners were held for the Grand Jury. They are locked up in the Hudson County jail.

Mrs. Bonnet denied knowing that the goods found in her home had been stolen. She had been married a year, she said.

The chief, long sought by the authorities of Hudson County, gained the nickname of "shirt-sleeve" because he always worked without a coat. His name was to ring bells, and when he failed to get an answer he broke in and took what he wanted. When the householder answered the ring he invariably explained that he was from a laundry in search of trade.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING WHILE UP IN PLANE

Alberta Government Flier Recovers Consciousness in Time to Save Crash. Calgary, Aug. 12.-Struck by lightning while flying at about 4,000 feet over the Rocky Mountain district, and lying unconscious in his aeroplane for about two minutes, while his machine glided along through space, headed toward the earth below, was the experience of Captain J. H. Tudhope of the government aerodrome at High River.

When Captain Tudhope regained consciousness, his machine was about 300 feet from the ground. He quickly noted his predicament, righted the machine, and lifted himself out of danger and possible death.

SOUTH PACIFIC ISLAND LURES BRITISH YOUTHS

London, July 24.-Associated Press by Mail)-Discouraged at the outlook in this country, dissatisfied with the after-war Britain, but actuated mainly by a love of adventure, about a dozen engineering students of Loughborough College are setting out on September 1 for an uninhabited Pacific island belonging to Ecuador.

The chief means of existence they hope to find by utilizing the resources of the island itself, the development of fruit-growing and the breeding of cattle. All hands will be required to work, although climatic conditions, it has been ascertained, are ideal and all they will need for food can be obtained without working, if they are content just to "loaf and invite their food."

AT HALIFAX CONVENTION

—LEADING TOPICS CONSIDERED—OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

A general spirit of optimism seemed to pervade the annual meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association which was held in Halifax this week.

The convention which just closed was a very successful one and was attended by about forty delegates representing all of the provinces except Alberta.

The election of officers resulted in the reelection of last year's officers, as follows: President, J. A. Banfield, Winnipeg; secretary, E. M. Trower, Ottawa; treasurer, Henry Walters, Ottawa.

W. G. deWolf of St. Stephen, president of the New Brunswick provincial board, was elected a vice-president of the association.

On the last evening a banquet was tendered to the visiting delegates by the Nova Scotia provincial association and was presided over by A. J. Reid, the president of the local board.

The address of the evening was given by Dr. Henry F. Munroe of Dalhousie University, J. A. Banfield and E. M. Trower responded to the toast to the Retail Merchants' Association; Henry Walters to the toast "Canada"; and Mayor Murphy to the toast to the city of Halifax.

BOYS' YOUTH SPOILS $30,000 BOND PLOT

Principal Fails to Appear When Detectives Go to Meeting Place.

New York, Aug. 12.—A carefully laid plot to steal $30,000 worth of Liberty bonds from Clarke Brothers, bankers, of 164 Nassau street, was foiled by the fact that the man who plotted the theft failed to appear at a meeting place.

The boy, James Joseph, thirteen years old, son of Alexander Joseph, forty Willow Place, Brooklyn, was arrested. Detectives of the Oak street station are seeking the man who gave the boy a forged check with which to get the bonds.

According to the story of young Joseph after his arrest in the office of the banking firm, he was playing near his home at noon when a well-dressed man approached him.

"Do you want to go on an errand for me and earn $25?" asked the stranger, according to the boy. Joseph assented and left with the man for Manhattan, getting off the subway at Brooklyn Bridge.

The man then telephoned to Clarke Brothers, declaring he was Robert Gair, head of the Robert Gair Company, paper box manufacturers, printers and lithographers, with several plants in Brooklyn and general offices at 830 Madison avenue, Manhattan.

"I am sending one of my office boys to your office," declared the voice, "and I desire to get at once $30,000 worth of Liberty bonds. I am sending a certified check for the bonds."

Knowing of Mr. Gair's prominence, and with a certified check in prospect, no suspicion was aroused at the time at the Clarke offices. A clerk was sent out immediately after the telephone call to make up the balance of the amount of the bonds required, not enough being on hand.

Shortly after the clerk's return young Joseph entered the banking office, presented a check drawn on a blank of the Title Guarantee and Trust Com-

Thrift

The judicious practice of thrift is as much an evidence of character as it is the worth-while assurance of comfort and contentment in the years that are to come.

The regular saving of a stipulated sum of money is not only within your power—but a habit every thoughtful person should cultivate.

An Endowment Policy offers a splendid opportunity for regular saving. There is no better way to create an estate than through systematic life insurance deposits. Life insurance is always worth par and it is the first asset realized on in the event of death. Save regularly—and in the meantime enjoy the peace of mind and comfort that such thrift brings.

many, Brooklyn, and on the account of Mr. Gair. The check was signed "Robert Gair."

Everything seemed regular and the bonds were about to be handed the boy when the clerk scrutinized Joseph's check and noticed that it was a forgery.

The boy was not approached by the man, nor did he recognize any one in the passing through as the person who sent him on his mission. After waiting for nearly an hour, the detectives took the boy to the Oak street station, where he was further questioned and charged with juvenile delinquency. His father was notified, and the boy was paroled until today in custody of the parent.

SEASON OF BLISS FOR HOBOES

Sign for Jobs During Railway Strike and Get Free Rides.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—The rail strike may cause sleepless nights and worry to American homes from the White House down to the humblest cottage, but according to Dr. Ben L. Reitman, Vice President of the Hobo College for the Migratory Workers—plain hobo—it has proved one long season of bliss.

Railroad officials here, however, say that hobo labor would comprise only a comparatively small portion of the new men. The migratory workers, according to Dr. Reitman, have evolved a system for heating the railroads. They sign up at Chicago to work in the shops at some distant point. The railroads ship them down in Pullman cars—where their meals and the best of everything are furnished in dining cars. Arriving at his destination

America's first tour. Railroads, while admitting Dr. Reitman's statement that some men who have signed up have jumped their positions, say that the total of the hoboes who have gotten past the employment agencies is relatively small.

SAY OLD FOLK BAR YOUNG IMMIGRANTS

Infirm and Crippled Filling Europe's Quotas, Relief Worker Finds.

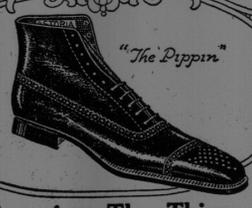

New York, Aug. 12—Old people, crippled and bent with age, are unably filling quotas from Central Europe, keeping the young from emigrating to this country, said Miss Anna Michalowska, one of eight Polish Gray Samaritans, who have just returned from Poland after long service for the Young Women's Christian Association and the American Relief Administration among Polish refugees from Russia.

"It is only natural that relatives established here in America should send for their parents to end their days in comfort," said Miss Michalowska, "yet there is another side to this picture. Bent and crippled with age and with coming in such large numbers that the youth of the country to whom entrance here means life itself is being debarr'd or at best greatly delayed."

"Life in Eastern Poland is at such a dead level that all hope of a chance in life is lost. Here in America these same boys and girls would quickly respond to adequate food and educational advantages. They would have a real contribution to make to their adopted country."

In the straggle of the Esthonia, she said, she was astounded at the great number of aged people. Comfort could be provided in Poland if sufficient drafts or money from relatives could be sent, she said, as homes for the aged are standing empty for lack of funds to finance them. Many of the young people who have already secured their passports, said the relief worker, are unable to use them.

"Once back in their native villages, the refugees from the districts laid waste by the war face utter desolation," she continued. "Their homes and farming equipment have been swept away. Their fields are overgrown with young woods of eight years' growth. One man told me that it would take twenty years to tear up the barbed-wire entanglements, cement dugouts and trenches in order to clear the fields for cultivation. The German trenches, made of cement to last for years, are much more difficult to destroy than hastily constructed Russian ones. Yet these dugouts afford the returning Polish refugees their sole shelter. Many of these caves fall

EXPECT A BUMPER CROP

Forecast Indicates $7,284,654,000 Value in the United States.

Washington, Aug. 12—The bumper production of the nation's crops forecast by the government's August report will add almost exactly $1,200,000,000 to the value of this year's farm products compared with those of 1921. Seventeen of these crops, if they meet expectations, would be worth $7,184,654,000 on the basis of August market prices. The same seventeen crops last year were worth $5,985,861,000 on the basis of the August figures of last year. The crops for which this estimate of value is made are those of wheat, corn, sweet potatoes, flax, hay, wild hay, cotton, apples, peaches, peanuts, sorghum and tobacco. It does not include sugar beets, rice, vegetables and other crops.

Washington, Aug. 12—The War Department has announced that recent experimentation at the engineer laboratory in Schenectady, under the direction of Captain Theodore H. Wyman Jr., has resulted in the development of a new and improved mobile water purification unit.

The essential features of this unit are the 3 1/2-ton Liberty motor truck containing a high speed motor driving a centrifugal pump, a sand filter and a Wallace & Tiernan pulsating chlorine tor. The unit has a capacity of 4,000 gallons an hour.

A recent test run by one of these units from Schenectady to Camp Humphreys, Va., over 500 miles, was completed in six days without mishap.

During the war, when there were not enough cars to go round, the London taxi-driver became unpleasantly notorious for his incivility and his refusal to take fares that did not suit his own convenience.

Whether the men were altogether well advised in their own interests to keep up these war time prices is a little doubtful. But from the public point of view they are conferring one benefit for which there is occasion for gratitude.

Whatever the reason, it is now the exception rather than the rule to come up against a surly taxi-driver. Even a modest tip of sixpence on the top of a two shilling or half crown fare is accepted with gratitude.

"I bought you and paid for you so you are mine!"

IMPERIAL - MONDAY George Broadhurst's Powerful Play

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR"

SHOULD a wife accept lavish gifts from her husband as peace offerings after misbehavior on his part? Can a husband, addicted to drink, hope to retain his wife's love after charging that he bought and paid for her and that she is his by virtue of such a procedure?

Can a wife's love and self-respect be bought by a man as one may buy a dog or some other domestic pet? These questions constitute several of the vital problems in "Bought and Paid For," featuring Agnes Ayres and Jack Holt, which William de Mille has translated to the screen as a Paramount picture, from the famous stage success by George Broadhurst.

This picture also raises that everlasting controversy about a wife's tolerance of her husband's liquor habits—the "better or worse" idea.

GETTING READY FOR DEMPSEY-BRENNAN LABOR DAY BOUT

(Canadian Press Dispatch.)

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 11.—Training quarters for both Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, and Bill Brennan, Chicago, who will box ten rounds at the Fitzsimmons' bowl on Labor Day, were chosen today.

Jack Dempsey, the champion's manager, has been here for two days clothing final details of the match with Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons and Johnny Dempsey, who is on hand as the heavyweight king's personal representative.

Dempsey will work out at a local club. He leaves Boston Saturday night for Michigan City. Kearns said the champion will get down to hard training immediately and has arranged to have a flock of sparring partners on the ground. The list includes Billy Wells, welterweight champion of Europe; Jack Malone, of St. Paul, and Jack Taylor, the big colored heavyweight, from Omaha (Nebr.).

Brennan is working out daily in a Chicago "gym," but will start active work with the gloves here Monday. He will have Kid Norfolk, Billy Shadle, Panama Joe Gans and others to help him get his batting eye keened up.
