This quiet, half-cloudy Sunday was a day of gloom for all Chicago. Ministers said more people attended church than for many Sundays past. Chicago turned to prayer and thought. The preachers nearly all referred to the Esstland disaster in their sermons and asked congregations to join in prayer for the bereaved. There were crowds of the morbidly curious along the river but for the most part the populace either went to church or stayed home in appalled thought. > Rev. Ralph J. Haughton draws forceful lesson from a Testament and a German bullet.

In the Congregational church last evening Rev. Ralph J. Haughton took as the subject for his address "The little book that saved the life of Sergeant Ellis, and the story it has to tell." This book was a small leather covered New Testament presented to Sergeant Ellis by the speaker on the departure of several English reserists on August 17 last for service at the front. It has been returned to Rev. Mr. Haughton with a letter, and extent forms little Book has a message for and the message is just this, that God watches over His people. The many failures of German diplomacy and military science mean nothing less than that a Father's eyes are watching us, and a Father's love encircles us. If God be for who can be against us? "That is the message. It is the message. It is the message that this world is under moral government, and its destinles are under the superintendence and Bu the Kaiser has committed the identi cal blunder that Napoleon committed in trusting to his big armies and his military skill and his immoral theory of the right of might. The world is waking up already to a realization o waning up already to a realization of a great, supreme spiritual fact, that there are in operation in God's universe, great, mighty, moral and spiritual forces, that are mightier than men, and the artillery of men. Men may sneer at God, and the spiritual forces in operation in God's world as they may—I want to give expression to my own positive convic-tion this evening, which is this, that more men are going to believe in God and the superintending providence of God because of this war, and as they see the calulations of German brut-ality and insolence and material force overthrown and discounted by the operations of a Divine Providence ruling in the history of nations and individuals.

PRINCESS PATRICIAS FOUND SOMETHING DEARER THAN LIFE

Rev. J. James McCaskill draws strong lesson from present days of sacrifice.

Rev. J. James McCaskill, in St. Mat thews Presbyterian church, last evening, spoke on love of life. He took his text from Job 2: 4: "Year, all that a man hath, will be give for his life." The speaker showed the untruth of this statement as follows:

"Satan is the speaker and in this text he states a lie that is more than usually revolting. While the love of life is a universal instinct of the race —found in the Esquimaux amid the eternal snows, in the Kaffir under the sunlight of the tropics, and in all the Intervening spaces — yet is there a more passionate emotion. The plains of Flanders tell a different story. The 150 that are left of the Princess Pat-ricla Regiment under Lieutenants Papineau, Niven and Clark, will each im. The president, Mrs. McPhail, read a letter from Mrs. Alfred Morrissey, St. pairs of socks, sent at her request for the purpose of carling for wounded the 6th Mounted Rifles now at Valcartier, who expect shortly to be sent over to England; also a letter from General Red Cross Headquerters to their how. thanking us for our work in the past, and begging us to continue putting forth every effort, as the things are so much needed.

It was moved to the adquarters, to their homes to convalence. The hospital will be under the managemen of the Red Cross Society and the Can adian Army Medical Corps.

was moved by Mrs. Henry Tib-It was moved by Mrs. Henry The-bits that every woman in Victoria county be asked to contribute a pair of socks for Victoria County Seck Day, to be handed in to Mrs. Tibbits at the Court House, Andover, on or before the last Wednesday of August, e., August 25th. Any woman no able to purchase her own yarn can receive same by applying to the Court House, Andover, McPhail's store, Perther Bedell's store, Andover.

The secretary was requested to notify all Red Cross branches in Vic toria county, soliciting their aid. We hope Victoria will do her share in this good movement, and that she will re-spond as generously as she did for the hospital ship.

Our branch wishes to thank Mrs R. W. Earle for her generous dona-tion of $10 for the purchase of yarn-also the following for work done at home and handed in during the past

Mrs. Crawford, 1 pair socks; Mrs McLeod, 1 pair socks; Mrs. S. P. Waite 2 pairs socks; Mrs. Mrs. S. P. BETHLEHEM STEEL CLOSES WEEK WITH A TOTAL GAIN OF 21 POINTS

Jumped seven points Saturday to 209, highest price on record for non-dividend paying stock - War Shares again active with substantial gains.

New York, July 24—War stocks were active again today and advanced materially, so that several made new high records. At the close Baldwin Locomotive, American Can., Bethlehem Steel and other issues which are reaping a harvest of war orders were near their best quotations. Bethlehem Steel gained seven points for the day and twenty-one points for the day and twenty-one points for the week. American Can., sold at a new high figure of 59½. The strength in American Can. was due to a semi-official report that a forty million dollar in opinion that the turn in the tide has been reached.

American Can. was due to a semi-official report that a forty million dollar contract for supplies had been closed with the British government.

Baldwin Locomotive rose to a new hish mark on reports that an additional war order in the neighborhood of $30,000,000 had been closed for the company. The demand for all classes of war issues overshadowed all other trading, and the old time standard leaders, like New York Central, Reading, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific were neglected.

their opinion that the turn in the tide has been reached.

Total sales of stocks today were 300,000,000 had been closed for the company. National Enameling was heavily purchased in the final dealings and rose four and a half points on the alleged big improvement in the volume without an appreciable change in their opinion that the turn in the tide has been reached.

STEAMER ARRIVES SAFE.

The British steamer Bollington Grange, which left Boston a month ago for Dunkirk, France, with nearly seven million pounds of beef for the allied armies, has arrived safely at her destination. Some anxiety had been felt for her safety on account of her supposedly long passage, the consignees having failed to cable her arrival.

THE STURDY LEADERS OF NEW YORK'S BASEBALL TEAMS

Here are the three managers leading the three major league teams of New York. Upon their shoulders re the task of showing their clubs the way to positions of prestige in the National and American League races. Of the trio one is about to undergo big league fire as a leader for the first time—"Bill" Donovan. The two others are seasoned. They present three different types of leaders. John J. McGraw, of the Giants, is a forceful, fighting manager, who handles his players sternly at all times, but who is not tyrannical. The picture depicts him in a typical pose, critically watching the work of his men in the field or at bat. "Bill" Donovan, of the Yankees, is one of the men who help to make the smile famous. Donovan without his smile is almost a stranger to "fandom." But above he is shown seriously studying one of the "breaks" in a game. He is a leader who smiles his men to work. Wilbert Robinson, of the Dodgers, is a combination of both. He is not stern, nor is he given to smiling all the time. He prefers to cajole his athletes into putting forth their best at all times. New York "fans" are anxious to watch which "system" succeeds during the 1915 races.

How it Works Out

Some people will try the article inside of a month; it will take some people six months, some a year and some, perhaps five years, and many if it is tea, would keep on drinking an inferior tea and you could not induce them to try any other; but these people are generally well up in years and they die off. The young housekeeper, when starting out (if your article has been made thoroughly well known by daily advertising), will naturally ask for it.

Left Home Early Yesterday Morning—Her Coat Floating on Surface of Water Gave a Clue-City Grappling Irons Were Used to Recover the Body.

Mrs. George Hicks met death by drowning in the reservoir at Little River yesterday morning and from all appearances it was a case of suicide.

Mrs. Hicks was about thirty-five years of age, and with her husband and four children resided in the Hicks ey Road. The home is only a short distance from the reservoir. Her husband and not noticed anything wrong with his wife of late but other persons are credited with saying they had noticed Mrs. Hicks left the house with one of her children. She performed the duty of milking a cow and handing the pall of milk to the child instructed the latter to take it to the house. That was the last seen of the woman alive. When she did not return home within a reasonable time Mr. Hicks became uneasy and towards the afternoon a stream of the men.
