FAIR AND WARMER

THREE CENTS

PARLIAMENTARY COMMITTEE FOR THE RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF SOLDIERS IN CIVIL LIFE

Representation to be Made Before This Committee as to the Needs of the Returned Men — Twenty Members Appointed With Hon. J. A. Calder as Probable Chairman.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—What will probably prove to be the most important parliamentary committee of the session was named. It is the special committee which will give consideration to the bill concerning Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and before which returned men will make representations as to their needs. The bill is designed to take the place of the War Measures Act, and which ceases to be effective with the proclamation of peace.

The committee consists of Hon. J. A. Calder, who is almost certain to be its chairman, and the following members: H. B. Morphy, North Perth; Major Brien, South Essex; Colonel Hugh Clark, North York; Dr. Edwards, Frontenac; E. W. Nesbitt, North Oxford; F. E. Pardee, West Lambton; W. T. Kennedy, North Essex; Hon. Dr. Beland, Simcoe; F. Bolton, Lisgar; Dr. Chisholm, Antigonish; Colonel Cooper, Vancouver; A. B. Copp, Northumberland; Colonel Lang, Humboldt; General McLean, Royal; Major Powers, Quebec South; Colonel Tremaine, Hants; Thomas Tweedie, Calgary; H. E. White, Victoria; Lieut.-Col. Arthur, Parry Sound.

Before moving for the appointment of the committee Hon. H. W. Rowell explained the work and record of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment, and there was a general discussion.

At the evening session second reading was given Mr. Pedlow's bill to make the second Monday in November, Armistice Day, a permanent thanksgiving day.

It will be considered in committee. When the house opened this afternoon the members of the committee expressed the sympathy of members with Sir George Foster in the death of Lady Foster. He then moved, seconded by Mr. Doherty, a motion of condolence, which was carried.

Mr. Gauvreau asked if it was the intention of the government during the present session to treat an amnesty to defaulters under the M. S. A. Mr. Doherty: "Announcement of any policy decided on will be made in due course."

In reply to a question by Mr. Tobin, Mr. Doherty said that $238,893 had been collected in fines imposed upon defaulters.

Replying to Mr. Archambault, Mr. Guthrie said that the government had been paid in full for the job-breaker Bureaus throughout the country.

INVESTIGATION INTO THE COST OF LIVING BY BOARD OF COMMERCE

At Toronto Yesterday Vice-Chairman W. F. O'Connor Made Order Restraining Milk Producers and Vendors from Selling Milk and Cream at Higher Prices Than on Sept. 14—Other Matters Dealt With.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 18.—W. F. O'Connor, vice-chairman of the Board of Commerce, today made an order restraining milk producers and vendors from selling milk and cream at higher prices than they sold those commodities at on September 14.

Mr. O'Connor read the order during a hall in the proceedings at the inquiry at the City Hall this morning.

"This order is now in effect," he declared, when the concluded reading the document. The document reads: "And it is further ordered that any sale made in contravention of this order shall be deemed one made for an unreasonable and unjust profit."

"Dissatisfaction with prices and costs list produced by J. A. Nelson, superintendent of the Retail Stores, operated by the Wm. Davies Company, was expressed by Lieut.-Colonel F. L. Price, counsel for the Board of Commerce, at this morning's investigation.

Mr. Price declared that he wanted all prices and costs lists from June last submitted to the Board, but all he had obtained were some originals and copies.

A reduction in the cost of hog products between September 2 and September 12 was due, said Mr. Nelson, to a lower hog market. The market at present, he described as "falling," and before many weeks it would become a proper market.

Mr. O'Connor observed that even allowing for the reduction in profits up to four cents a pound were being obtained by the company.

Prince of Wales To Take Things Easier

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 18.—Colonel Henderson, military secretary to the Governor-General, is here today making final arrangements for the Prince of Wales' reception. He is impressed on local officials the necessity for keeping down public functions in Vancouver and Victoria to a minimum, for the Prince had been rather overdoing himself, and, on the advice of his physicians, will endeavor to take things easier.

St. Croix Cotton Mill Strike Is Quickly Ended

Loom Fixers Will Return to Work on Monday Next With Request Granted and Strike of a Week is Over.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, Sept. 18.—J. W. Graham, manager of the St. Croix Cotton Mill, which had been closed for a few days because of a strike of the loom fixers, returned today from Montreal, where he has been in consultation with the general management, and the strike is at an end.

The noon mail brought to each of the twenty-three strikers a letter from general manager Dawson, reviewing at some length the facts connected with the strike as he understood them and censuring the men for the policy they had followed, but granting the request for an increase in wages and also intimating that the company is soon to institute a profit sharing scheme in all its mills. Notices have been given that the mill will resume work next Monday morning after being closed down one week.

Similar arrangements were being made with France, Australia and New Zealand, however, in order to secure the work legislation must be passed.

Mr. Rowell reviewed the work which was being carried on by the department. It started, he said, when a man had been discharged from the army. Soldiers suffering from physical or mental disability must be cared for, and hospitals were maintained for this purpose. Men who were not physically fit were trained, if possible, to earn a living. Finally men who were physically fit were aided in getting work, partly through the operation with the Dominion Labour Bureau throughout the country.

White Star Line Gets German Ship

Former North German Lloyd Liner Prinz Frederich Wilhelm Assigned to British Government by Inter-Allied Council.

New York, Sept. 18.—The former North German Lloyd liner Prinz Frederich Wilhelm, one of the fleet of German merchantmen blockaded during the war and recently used as a naval transport to bring American troops home from Europe, has been allotted to the White Star Line for service on its New York, Cherbourg and Southampton route. It was announced here today.

The registration committee of the inter-allied council at Paris assigned the vessel to the British government, and the British ministry of shipping today advised the White Star Line to take charge of her.

Western Canada Bank Clearings

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 18.—Following are the bank clearings for the principal cities of Western Canada for the week ending today: Vancouver, $14,614,165; Calgary, $6,817,498; Edmonton, $4,367,950; Regina, $6,243,804; Victoria, $2,111,820; Saskatoon, $2,103,193; Moose Jaw, $1,798,007; Brandon, $799,294; Fort William, $888,693; Medicine Hat, $483,782; Lethbridge, $915,326; New Westminister, $598,326.

LIEUT.-COL. CHIPMAN IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Prominent Citizen of Toronto — Former Resident of St. Stephen and Married Daughter of Late Sir Leonard Tilley.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 18.—Lieut.-Col. John DeWolf Chipman, prominent in the insurance and mining world, is seriously ill at his home here. For some time he has been troubled with anæmia, and complications have now developed. Colonel Chipman came to Toronto some years ago from St. Stephen, N. B. He married a daughter of the late Sir Leonard Tilley.

President Still Alive

Lima, Peru, Sept. 18.—The rumor in circulation in Santiago, Chile, that Augusto B. Leguía, President of Peru, had been assassinated, had no foundation in fact.

The situation in Lima is absolutely normal.

POLISH FORCES ON SOUTHERN BANKS OF DUNA

Bolsheviki Being Driven Back — Advance of About 150 Miles Has Already Been Made from Borisoff.

SIBERIANS ADVANCE

In Archangel Region the North Russian Troops Are Carrying on Successful Operations.

London, Sept. 18.—The Polish forces in Russia have driven the Bolsheviks to the northern bank of the Dvina River as far as Riana and have occupied Korchatzstap.

On the Ukrainian front, the Bolsheviks have forced General Petlura and his forces to retreat to the town of Radomysl, but apparently are not attempting yet to recapture Kiev itself.

This represents an advance northward of approximately 150 miles from the town of Borisoff, on the east bank of the Beresina River, 50 miles northwest of Minsk, reported on September 16.

General Denikin holds a line extending roughly from Bielaya-Tserkov to points thirty miles northwest and north of Kiev. Denikin's forces continue to advance along the Upper Dnieper but have suffered repulses further to the northeast where the Bolsheviks have recaptured Doros and Bakhmach.

The Siberians commanded by Admiral Kolchak, head of the All-Russian government, continue to advance successfully and are now within forty-five miles of Kozmog, however, owing to the enforced retreat of Admiral Kolchak's southern army, the Bolsheviks advancing southeastward along the Turkestan railway have succeeded in effecting juncture with another force advancing northeastward from the Ural River. The Bolsheviks have advanced a-hundred miles into the Caspian region, losing heavily in an engagement at Archam.

The Archangel region the North Russian troops are carrying on successful operations southwest from Kedish, on the Volokna railway, and on the coast since August 1. Since August these forces have captured more than four thousand prisoners, many guns and large quantities of supplies.

There has been no new development or a change in the British policy regarding Russia, the Associated Press was officially informed today.

Admiral Jellicoe has begun to evacuate the Caucasus. It is announced, despatches having left Tiflis.

Food Riots in Berlin

London, Sept. 18.—Despatches received here quoting Berlin papers of today's date tell of food riots Wednesday night in Berlin. Troops were summoned by the authorities to maintain order.

Nothing New In Fiume Affair

Premier Nitti Announces That All News Will be Given Out to the Press.

Rome, Tuesday, Sept. 16.—Speaking on the Fiume situation in the Chamber of Deputies today, Premier Nitti promised that all news concerning the Fiume developments would be communicated to the press. Nothing could be concealed, he declared.

"Much as we may desire a closer union of the parts of the Empire," he said, "I feel that there are very great difficulties connected with any plan for incorporating them under one supreme imperial parliament."

The distinguished speaker said that difficulties of long distance made imperial parliament impracticable.

"I feel that we should rather seek to draw the bonds tighter," he said, "by developing the functions of the Imperial Council, which played so important a role during the war."

Lord Poincaré urged the importance of Canada retaining the appeal to the Privy Council, and of improving the relations between capital and labor by the adoption of a wide scale of some form of profit sharing.

HONORARY CITIZEN OF NEW YORK CITY

New York, Sept. 17.—Cardinal Mercier, Archbishop of Malines, and prince of Belgium, today became an honorary citizen of New York City.

From the time Belgium's heroic prince of the church left the train, which had brought him from Baltimore, until he had retired at the residence of Archbishop Hayes tonight, the hours were crowded with events which showed the veneration in which he is held not only by those of his own faith but by Americans of all creeds.

No German Unionists To Labor Conference

Berlin, Wednesday, Sept. 17.—The trade unionists of Germany have decided not to participate in the international labor conference to be held at Washington unless definitely invited. The Germans take the position that their mere admission to the conference, even with the right to vote, would be insufficient.

Reports say that the Austrian labor men will adopt a similar attitude and that Switzerland and the Scandinavian countries will not be represented unless the Germans are invited.

Housing Scheme Turned Down By Halifax Council

Dominion Government's Loan Plan Was That Halifax Should Use $750,000 — The G. W. V. A. Were Strongly in Favor of the Scheme.

Halifax, Sept. 18.—The Halifax city council tonight nearly turned down the housing scheme under the Dominion Government's loan. At a previous meeting of the council, the proposal was voted down by a two to one majority. But reconsideration was moved. This came up tonight at a special meeting when some of the aldermen changed in favor of the plan. There was still, however, a feeling against it, and reconsideration was defeated by a vote of 9 to 8. The chief argument was that the adoption of the scheme would impose a heavy burden of debt on the city, which would not be fair to those who did not avail themselves of the loan at the rate of five per cent. The plan was that Halifax should use $750,000 of the Dominion loan. This will be the last of the plan, so far as Halifax is concerned. The G. W. V. A. were strongly in favor of the adoption of the scheme.

The subject of joint councils in plants and industries and the establishment of a bureau to promote and establish these councils, gave rise to an interesting debate this afternoon. For the employers it was pointed out that while certain plans were giving satisfaction they were organized to meet local conditions, and none felt very confident that the Whitley or any other specified plan would prove satisfactory in all cases.

"They were dubious as to whether a bureau would prove a success except in so far as it might collect data and work out the various plans and have those facts whittled into shape for either manufacturers or workmen when they expressed a desire to go into the matter.

Labor favored joint councils if at the same time there was full and free recognition of labor unions and their principle. If that recognition was not given in that way, then labor would have to keep up its fight for greater strength, so when it had a hundred per cent membership, it could make the plan we want, we do not threaten, said Tom Moore, but he added that fights were costly things, and if labor could secure fair treatment without being forced to fight for it, then it would so much better Canadian industry in general.

There is much work ahead of the convention yet, and even with the limited debate there is every prospect that it will be well into Saturday before the business now in sight is concluded. The right to labor to organize, recognition of labor unions and the right to collective bargaining were the subjects before the National Industrial Conference when it opened this morning. The first two speakers dealt entirely with the latter phase, and Adam C. Hay, of Winnipeg, a returned soldier, said there had been a thirty years fight for the principle in this old country, and he appealed to the conference to try and settle this matter here in thirty minutes and thereby confer a benefit on the entire labor population. Mr. Hay said he went to the front with the first Canadian contingent and stopped some German ammunition. He had not gone there with any high sounding notions of fighting for king and country, but because the German system and the German socialists were striving to chloroform British labor, and he was going to do his best here and everywhere to keep British and Canadian labor free from contamination. Collective bargaining was one of the principal aims of labor and it should be granted.

A. B. Weeks, of the Canadian Northwest Steel Company, thought this was hardly any time for innovations in regard to labor legislation.

The first committee report of the conference, presented at 11.15, and was unanimously adopted by the convention. The report, that of committee, on the need for unification of the labor laws of the federal and provincial governments, was signed by John R. Shaw, Woodstock; A. Munro Grier, Toronto, and R. Thomson, Carleton Place, for the employers; James Gorman, James Soursville, and Joe Winnington, for labor; John Lowe, Valleyfield, and Fraser S. Keith, were the third group representatives. The report was:

"That the advantages of uniformity in the laws relating to the welfare of those engaged in industrial work in

Masked Men Robbed Mail Car ON OCEAN LIMITED YESTERDAY

Entered Car Near Harlake, Quebec, in Early Morning—At Point of Revolvers Mail Clerks Were Bound and Gagged—Robbers Went Through Mail Bags and Left Train at St. Thomas With $75,000.

Quebec, Sept. 18.—A bold robbery by which a silver consignment of $75,000 was robbed from the mail car of the Ocean Limited train on the I. C. R. near Harlake, Que., car today was committed by five masked bandits who held up the mail clerks, gagged and bound them hand and foot and went through the mail bags and pulled out the train when it pulled into St. Thomas, Montserrat. The money had been shipped from Montreal yesterday evening and was consigned to Halifax. It seems the bandits came originally from Montreal and followed the shipment all the way down, riding in a passenger coach.

The mail clerks, when found at St. Thomas De Montserrat, were suffering from having been tied up. They lost no time in reporting the robbery and the wires were made not with orders for the organization of possees that have been scouring the countryside since but so far no trace of the highwaymen have been found.

The Ocean Limited does not stop at the small stations after leaving Lévis and the first stop is made at Harlake Junction where an engineer and train crew have to get orders from the dispatcher before proceeding eastward. At Harlake the train barely had pulled out, according to the mail clerks' foreman, than the back door of the mail car was crashed in and the five masked men, pointing automatics into the faces of the mail clerks, shouted the dramatic and business-like "hands up."

The bandits quickly bound and gagged the mail clerks, then made a dash to the very bags containing the money.

All this while the train was making the tracks at a sixty mile per hour clip. The Ocean Limited train is the fastest of the Intercolonial service.

It is supposed they had a motor car hidden in the bush back of the station with a confederate waiting for them ready to make their escape.

RIGHT OF LABOR TO ORGANIZE; RECOGNITION OF UNIONS; COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Some of the Subjects Which Were Before the National Industrial Conference in Ottawa Yesterday—Labor Questions Debated—Report of Committee Received and Unanimously Adopted by the Convention.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—After four days of debate, during which the opinions of labor and the employers on most subjects have been well aired, the work of the National Industrial Conference to be speeded up by reducing the hours of debate on each subject. This was decided upon this evening when it was realized that with four days gone, there were yet four items on the agenda unhandled.

The four questions have been handed to the committees appointed without any preliminary debate, and are heard there will be an allowance of forty minutes for each side of the House on each subject.

The conference today was unanimous in agreeing on the needs of the unification of labor laws between the federal government and the provinces. The first report of the convention was received with hearty applause. Matters which have been debated and on which reports are to be made, probably tomorrow are, hours of labor; minimum wage laws; employer's right to organize; recognition of unions and collective bargaining; the establishment of a bureau to promote the establishment of industrial councils and the further recommendations of the Royal Commission on joint plan and industrial councils.

The subjects handed direct to the committees are:

The putting into effect of the finding of the Royal Commission in all work controlled by the government; consideration of other features of the Royal Commission's report; labor features of the Peace Treaty and consideration of any other proposals which may be introduced bearing on the relations of employers and employees.

The subject of joint councils in plants and industries and the establishment of a bureau to promote and establish these councils, gave rise to an interesting debate this afternoon.

For the employers it was pointed out that while certain plans were giving satisfaction they were organized to meet local conditions, and none felt very confident that the Whitley or any other specified plan would prove satisfactory in all cases.

Clergyman Weds In Railway Town

Rev. Grover Livingston, Presbyterian Pastor at Grand Mere, Que., and Miss Grace Harper Married in Moncton Yesterday.

Special to The Standard. Moncton, Sept. 18.—The marriage of Rev. Grover Livingston, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Grand Mere, Quebec, to Miss Grace Harper, daughter of Mrs. Charles Harper, of this city, was solemnized this afternoon in St. John's Presbyterian church, Rev. J. A. Ramsay officiating. The bride was given away by her brother, Allan Harper, of Belleville, Ontario. Rev. Mr. Livingston and bride left this afternoon on a trip to Boston and will later reside at Grand Mere. Among the out of town guests were J. D. Talbot and Miss Talbot, Miss Eva Tucker, Bermuda; Mrs. Geo. Harper, Winnipeg; Miss Florence Harper, Washington.

Scranton, Pa., Sept. 18.—This city was visited by a half million dollar fire last night which completely destroyed one manufacturing plant and seriously crippled several others. The fire started in the plant of the Hall Mountain Company, manufacturers of asphalt roofing, destroying the four buildings of the factory.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear Catarrhal Deafness, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength), and add to it 1 1/4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogging nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, in hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

NAMES OF ALL INACTIVE CANDIDATES WILL BE DROPPED TOMORROW

Votes Will be Counted Today and Revised Vote Standing Published Tomorrow, Also Names of Those Who Are Not Doing Anything Will be Omitted Hereafter—Help Contest Department by Sending in Subscriptions at Once.

Winners Will be Announced After Count On Last Night of Contest.

The names of the candidates on the list help who have shown little or no activity in the last few weeks, will be dropped from the list when the vote standing is revised in Saturday's Standard. From that time on the names of active candidates only will be carried, and this will save any subscriptions being sent in for candidates who are not making any attempt to help themselves. Persons sending in their subscriptions direct to the contest department should look over the list of candidates and send their subscription in only in the name of a candidate who is on the active list, as will appear Saturday. By dropping these names, subscriptions promised to inactive candidates will become released and thereby become available for the hustlers. Experience teaches us that the last week of the contest is always the busiest week. Subscriptions pour in in a steady stream from all directions and the contest department has its hands full in attending to these many subscriptions. Every subscription sent in early, today, will lessen the pressure which is bound to come during the last few days and hours, and

DIVISION IN HOUSE CALLEN WHEN FEW MEMBERS PRESENT

Bill Asked That Election Days be Public Holidays—No Dual Representation—By-Election Proposal.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 18.—There was an unexpected division tonight on a bill of S. W. Jacobs, Jacques Cartier, who provides for by-election sixty days after a vacancy, the abolition of dual representation and the making of election days public holidays. There was a slim attendance in the house and finally A. L. Davidson, Annapolis, moved the adjournment of the debate. The opposition at once protested and called for a vote for which they had evidently been preparing. They had their men on hand and the government had a slim majority of nineteen. The announcement of the vote was received with prolonged opposition applause. Four cross bench members voted with the government. They were Hon. Maharg, Maple Creek, and J. A. Johnston, Lost Mountain, H. H. Haliday, Bow River, a Liberal Unionist, also voted with the opposition. The only government supporter to discuss the bill was R. C. Hender, Macdonald, who opposed the proposal that by-elections should be held. He said that if elections came in the fall of the year when farmers were busy it would be most inconvenient to have a full holiday. Mr. Davidson in moving the adjournment pointed out that Hon. Kodolphe Lemieux was the only member of the house to hold two seats and he was not present. He would undoubtedly want to discuss the subject.

MARRIED.

BUTLER-DRISCOLL.—On Tuesday, September 16th, in St. Andrew's church, Newcastle, the rector, the Rev. W. J. Bate, united in marriage John Butler, of Sydney, Cape Breton, N. Organized Farmers Of Saskatchewan

Will Set Aside Date Early Next Month to be Known as "Independence Day" to Promote Organization's Political Action.

Regina, Sask., Sept. 18.—The organized farmers of Saskatchewan will set aside a date early in October to be known as "Independence Day." This date will be made with a view to promoting interest in the organization's political action. This scheme was enthusiastically adopted at the Great Growers' political convention today. The canvass is already planned and is declared as the farmers' big liberty drive. The plans were explained at the convention today by John M. Pratt, Winnipeg. He gave a complete outline of what had been done for thorough organizing the province and effecting a complete canvass of every farmer and possible supporter of the farmers' platform. Figures were quoted by him showing that there are 108,000 farmers in Saskatchewan and 320,000 voters. It was also shown that among the above a foreign population of 168,000, twenty-five per cent, of whom are probable voters. The scheme provides for sending out during the early part of October an army of 5,000 canvassers, whose duty it will be to canvass their allotted territories before a date to be decided upon. A campaign fund objective has been decided upon and a complete canvass of the whole province will be undertaken in as short a period as is possible.

Ladies Have a Clear Sweet Healthy Skin By Using Cuticura

Promote skin purity, skin comfort and skin health by making Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum your every-day toilet preparations. Just touch any roughness or redness with Cuticura Ointment. Wash off in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water, best applied with the hands which it softens wonderfully, and continue bathing a few moments. Rinse with tepid water. Dry gently and dust on a few grains of Cuticura Talcum Powder, a fascinating fragrance for powdering and perfuming the skin. Contrast this simple, wholesome treatment with tiresome massaging and manipulating.

RIGHT OF LABOR RECOGNITION COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

And that this national industry conference suggest the following means towards the end desired, namely, the appointment of a commission as follows:

- 1. An expert in the Dominion. (a) A representative of the government. (b) A representative of the employers. (c) A representative of the employees. 2. An expert each of the provinces. (a) A representative of the government. (b) A representative of the employers. (c) A representative of the employees.

"And, that the Dominion government be requested to ask the government of each of the provinces to best or have selected representatives in respect of the provisions above set forth." Arthur Roberts, of Bridgewater, N.S., representing municipal interests, requested both employers and employees to keep in mind the interests of the community. The right of employees to organize was recognized and this right when exercised should not support among the best minds of the community. But it must be recognized that the community is a whole and that the interests of the community are not to be sacrificed for the sake of a few individuals. The general public would suffer in cases of industrial disturbances, and events of the year had made it rather apparent.

Before adjournment W. L. Murray rose to correct certain mis-statements which he said, had been inadvertently made by Mr. J. A. McClelland, Montreal, in his address on hours of labor. Mr. McClelland quoted figures taken from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics for the total value of manufactured products, the cost of material, and concluded by saying that the net surplus to the employer was $1,840,197,200. Mr. Murray said that Mr. McClelland had evidently made some mistake in his figures.

Civic Employees At City Council

Took up the Matter of Increased Wages Yesterday—Matter Was Referred Back and Answer Given Men Next Week

Representatives of the Civic Employees Association with Fred A. C. Bell, president of the Trades Labor Council met the city commissioners yesterday and took up the matter of increased wages for the employees of the city. It was pointed out by the commissioners that money had been spent for the different departments and that the increase demanded. Campbell for the men asked the city to say what it could do in the way of an increase, if not fifty cents a week, then ten cents.

His Worship said he thought the matter ought to be carefully considered. He would go out of town to see that all the men be dealt with. Each of the commissioners might go carefully into the matter in each department. It is necessary then they might come back on the next year's assessment. Although he thought it poor business, Com. Thomson said it would affect his department very much. Only three or four men were involved. Mr. Allingham asked for a decision.

The Mayor thought it was the Council down too hard to expect a reply to the men by tonight. Both Commissioners Jones and Fisher said their suggestions were considered and discharged the men in respective departments and they have recommendations from Mr. Campbell and unanimous to allow different rates of pay for different men. There must be no dissatisfaction.

The Mayor then suggested a commission be referred to each of the departments and an answer should be on Tuesday next. Com. Bellook said men of the departments must be considered. The budget could be used for a decision. If an increase be not made that would bring the men this year, therefore the matter should be dealt with for all and dealt with sufficiently.

Mr. Allingham suggested the commission then report to the Mayor. He thought the matter was being dealt with and that an answer would be on Tuesday.

Com. Thomson's motion that the matter be referred to each of the departments and an answer be given by the first of the week, was passed. A report of the City Engineer regarding the widening of the route for pedestrians was given by Com. Bellook. The widening of two feet on either side and cost $9,000. It was necessary, the engineer said, for the widening across the ferry, so as to give better accommodation for pedestrians. The widening would also be necessary to do the job, while the city had to be dealt with before the winter under commission.

Before taking any action on the matter, the council decided to refer the matter to a committee.

OVER 1000 INDUSTRIALS USE

GOODYEAR

MADE IN CANADA

EXTRA POWER BELTING

ON RECORD in our offices alone are the names of over 1000 Canadian industrials who are satisfied users of Goodyear Extra Power Belting.

A vast hive of industry, giving employment to thousands upon thousands of men. Engaged in every form of industrial activity known in the Dominion. Turning out millions of dollars worth of Canadian products every year.

What an overwhelming endorsement of Goodyear Extra Power Belting this is. Belts bought to fill every transmission requirement. Working under varied conditions. All required to deliver satisfaction.

Think of the great power-saving because Extra Power Belting is flexible. It grips the pulleys and combats slipping. Greater production has almost invariably followed the use of Goodyear Extra Power.

Over a thousand trained engineers and superintendents cannot be misled. You cannot blind over a thousand purchasing agents. There must be—there is—something vital in the Goodyear Extra Power Belting story. Let us send a man trained by Goodyear in belting problems to talk it over with you. He will tell you about Extra Power as it applies to your plant. Should Extra Power not be suited to your needs, we would rather have your friendship than your order. Phone or write the nearest branch.

THE WEATHER

Toronto, Sept. 18.—Showers have occurred in a few sections of the western provinces, also in the Lake Superior district and in Cape Breton. A moderate disturbance now over Western Missouri is moving toward the Great Lakes. Forecast: Maritime—Moderate westerly to southerly winds, fair and a little warmer. Washington—Northern New England—Fair Friday, warmer in interval. Saturday, showers except fair in Maine. Moderate south winds.

RIGHT OF LABOR TO ORGANIZE; RECOGNITION OF UNIONS; COLLECTIVE BARGAINING

Continued from Page 1. The several provinces of the Dominion of Canada, be brought to the attention of the Government of Canada and of the several provinces respectively. And that this national industrial conference suggest the following as a means towards the end desired, namely, the appointment of a board composed as follows: 1. An expert of the Dominion. (a) A representative of the government. (b) A representative of the employers. 2. As respects each of the provinces: (a) A representative of the government. (b) A representative of the employers. (c) A representative of the employees.

"And, that the Dominion government be requested to ask the government of each of the provinces to assist or have selected representatives in respect of the provisions above set forth."

Arthur Roberts, of Bridgewater, N. S., representing municipal interests, requested both employers and employees to keep in mind the interests of the community. The right of employees to organize was recognized, and this right when exercised consistently would always find moral support among the best minds of the community. But it must be fully recognized that the community had rights which should be respected. When any objection, either of employers or employees, to their social obligations and endeavored in the spirit of a high-waist, to take on industry by the throat. It became inalterable. The general public always suffered in cases of industrial disturbances, and events of the past year had made it rather apprehensive.

Before adjournment W. L. Murray rose to correct certain misstatements which, he said, had been inadvertently made by Mr. J. A. McClelland, of Montreal, in his address on hours of labor. Mr. McClelland quoted figures taken from the Dominion Bureau of Statistics for the total value of manufactured products, the cost of raw material, and concluded by saying that the net surplus to the employers was $1,840,137,535. Civic Employees At City Council

Took up the Matter of Increased Wages Yesterday Morning—Matter Was Referred Back and Answer Given Men Next Week.

Representatives of the Civic Employees Union with Fred A. Campbell, president of the Trades and Labor Council met the city commissioners again yesterday and took up the matter of increased wages for those employed by the city. It was pointed out by the commissioners that money had been spent on city work and there was no cash left for the different departments to grant the increases demanded. Mr. Campbell for the men asked the city to say what it could do in the way of increase, if not fifty cents a day, to mention just how much.

His Worship said he thought the matter ought to be carefully gone into, to see what sums would be involved. Yet he would go out of his way to see that all the men be fairly dealt with. Each of the commissioners might go carefully into the amount involved in each department, if necessary then they might enquire on the next year's assessment, although he thought it poor business.

Com. Thornton said it would affect his department very much, as only three or four men were involved. Mr. Allingham asked for a definite answer. The Mayor thought it was tying the Council down too hard to expect a reply to the men by tonight. Both Commissioners Jones and Fisher said their superintendents lived and discharged the men in their respective departments and they must have recommendations from them. Mr. Campbell said unions do not allow different rates of pay for different men. There must be no discrimination.

The Mayor then suggested as the commissioners wished to amend the budget, could be fixed for a definite time. If an increase be not collected that would bring the men that much closer. Therefore the matter should be dealt with for all and dealt with sufficiently.

Mr. Campbell suggested that the commission then report to the men tonight that their cause is being dealt with and that an answer will be forthcoming on Tuesday. Com. Thornton's motion that the matter be referred to each of the commissioners and an answer be given the first of the week, was passed. A report of the City Engineer regarding the widening of the ferry boats for pedestrians was presented by Com. Bullock. The widening would be two feet on either side and would cost $5,000. It was necessary, the commissioner said, for the growing traffic across the ferry, so as to give pedestrians better accommodations. He thought also that now was the time to do this, while the city had the opportunity before the harbor should go under commission.

Before taking any action on the matter, the council decided to view the ferry boats at the post.

Alkali in Shampoos Bad for Washing Hair

Don't use prepared shampoo or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain unadorned coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is left fresh looking, bright, fluffy, and loose and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

U. S. Navy Sweeping The Seas of Mines

Tremendous Task Connected With the Work of Clearing North Sea of Mines. London, Aug. 20.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The American Navy is having a tremendous task in sweeping the North Sea of the 26,000 electrical and highly sensitive mines they planted there. Explosion by electricity is the method used by the American Navy. Each mine was fitted with antennae suspended by floats so that the huge field was not only charged with mines, but had also become a mass of sensitive feelers to explode them. Should a submarine come in contact with an antennae the mine at a short distance away at the end of the antennae would explode. The problem has been to explode

Wife not very ill—but never real well when you see your wife drooping, or in indifferent health, you should see that she gets a tonic. She needs Wincarnis, which for nearly 40 years has been recognized the world over as the one great tonic for all who are weak, anemic, nervous, or run down. Wincarnis is not merely a tonic—it is a Tonic, a Restorative, a Blood Maker, and Nervine. Food all in one, it re-energizes and revitalizes the whole system and has transformed countless thousands of people from a listless weary condition, to the glorious feeling of robust health. If your wife is run down, get her a bottle of Wincarnis to-day. Ask your Dealer. Get it at one Druggist's.

A Message to Husbands

GIVING advice to husbands is generally conceded to be not a very healthy occupation. Also comment as to the causes of marital unhappiness is an unpopular subject. But, nevertheless, it is an obvious fact that there are in Canada to-day thousands of wives who, while not being sufficiently ill to go to hospital or require a trained nurse—yet are weak, anemic, nervous and run down, and in this condition they are not happy—their husbands are not happy, and the home life is not what it ought to be.

Good health in a wife makes not only for the ease with which she manages household affairs, but reflects a contentment and calm over the rest of the members. Husbands! Remember that good health is a valuable possession, and in two sizes: $1.00 and extra large bottle $1.75.

A Never Failing Way To Banish Ugly Hairs

(Aids to Beauty.) No woman is immune to superfluous growth, and because these are likely to appear at any time, it is advisable to always have some delicate powder handy to use when the occasion arises. A paste is made with some of the powder and water and spread upon the hairy surface; in about 3 minutes this is carefully removed and the skin washed. You will then find that your skin is entirely free from hair or fuzz. Be sure, however, to get real delatone.

SERVANT PROBLEM WORSE OVER TIME

English mistresses who are grieved about the domestic servant problem, a correspondent writes to Manchester Guardian, should go to Scandinavia. There one no longer advertises for a maid but for a "House Assistant," and instead of inquiring her what work will be expected, you present in glowing colors advantages which accrue to her from your services. "House assistant" stories fill columns of the Scandinavian press, and while some are apocryphal, some of them have already appeared as advertisements.

In one paper appeared the following: "Wanted a general house assistant. Conditions: The applicant neither rob nor poison any member of the family. All other demands to be entirely according to the wishes of the applicant."

If any one thinks that this is a joke, she should listen to a story from the mark. A lady was looking for a house assistant, and each one asked particularly how many children were in the house. She became weary of the question at last she lost her head and exclaimed, "Unfortunately we have three, but if you assist we will try to drown two of them."

A Stockholm mistress, after and wearisome negotiations, she had engaged a girl, when the applicant suddenly demanded to see photograph of the master of the house so that she could assure herself they "would get on well together." Scandinavian mistresses are considering whether they will do their own work.

AND THEY SAY IT PAYS TO BE ABLE TO

One hears the most astounding things about the prices that are paid to moving-picture stars, says Henry Corey, in Everybody's for September when one discovers that they are rarely paid more than fifteen dollars a day. A pretty girl worked six months for ten dollars a day in an extra woman. A studio needs a woman to do a particular bit, found that she filmed well. So he decided to make her a star. Her contract called for $150 weekly for the first six months, rising to $250 at the end of the second year. The second picture she demanded at once and $1,000 weekly at year's end.

A "type" hired a taxicab to take him to the lot on which a picture was being "shot." Ordinarily types on street cars, for the best of them are rarely paid more than fifteen dollars a day. The United States pictorial type can be had in quantities at ten dollars for the day's work. The type was late and feared to lose his job. A bawling manager met him at the door.

"You—you" began the man. Then his eye fell upon the chauffeur. "You're just the type I want!" shouted. "Come with me!" Eventually the chauffeur consented to run his cab back to the garage.

TENDER GUMS - A WARNING

Beware of gum tenderness that is a warning of Pyorrhea. Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea—many under forty also. Loosening teeth, aching gums, bleeding gums, remember—these inflamed, bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system, infecting the joints or causing other ailments. One hears the most astounding things about the prices that are paid to moving-picture stars, says Herbert Corey, in Everybody's for September, when one discovers that they are true. walk on in a scene as a type of something or other.

The chauffeur timed well. Therefore he is now being paid $400 weekly, though his heart is said to be with the taxicab. A bartender made a few dollars one day shaking up cocktails before the camera. His features came out with camera clearness, and he followed the director's orders with the careful obedience of a good child. That made him a film actor. Now he can depend on an income of $15,000 a year.

HIMSELF.

The household that we were than, you could count us by the dozens. The wonder was that sometimes the old walk wouldn't burst; Himself (the Lord be good to her), the suns and rafts of cousins, The young folk and the children— but himself came first.

Master of the house he was, and well for them that knew it. His cheeks like winter apples and his head like snow; Eyes as blue as water when the sun of March shines through it, And steppin' like a soldier with his stick held so.

Faith, but he could tell a tale would serve a man for wages, Sing a song would put the joy of dancin' in two sticks; But saints between themselves and harm that saw him in his rages, Blazin' and ornatin' over chess and politics.

Master of the house he was, and that beyond all sayin', Eh, the times I've heard him exhortin' from his chair The like of any bishop, yet snappin' off his prayin' off his prayin' To put the curse on Phelan's dog for howlin' in the prayer.

The times I've seen him walkin' out like Solomon in glory, Salute' with great elegance the gentry he might meet; An eye for every pretty girl, an ear to every story, And takin' as his just deserts the middle of the street.

Master of the house—with much to love and be forgiven, Yet, thinkin' of Himself today—Himself?—I see him go With the old light step of his, across the courts of Heaven, His hat a little sideways and his stick held so.

—Theodosia Garrison.

STYLES AND STYLES AND THEN STYLES.

Bags always follow the lead of skirts. When we have founced skirts we may expect all sorts of gaily frilled purses and handbags. Not content with ruffles alone, the makers of these have taken to embroidering the founces with various beautiful beads and inlaying the frames with both precious and semi-precious stones. Brilliant set in black onyx, make a frame for a founced bag of black taffeta.

Many of the new models have metal frames imitating rare hand-made antique specimens. Some very interesting bags are of lame, with carved old ivory frames and clasps. The return of waistline dresses brings in its wake a collection of new belts. There are fancy leather belts in black and white leathers and composition belts of diamond-shaped links alternating with oval medallions, while those of white suede are overlaid with black patent leather cut in a fine design. The schoolgirl's blue serge frock is enrobed at the waist by a strip of red or blue enamelled leather fastening with a buckle of new design.

Not Jersey.

While one hears a great deal of tri-cololette and other silk jersey weaves there is not much mention of wool jersey in reports of well-dressed gatherings. There are slater fabrics, heavier and in heavier mixtures, Oxford and similar effects that are accepted favorites and retain their popularity season in and season out. When made of such fabrics capes and capes with jacket fronts are quite possible even when unlined. Skirts of large checks or broken plaids are quite feasible with them.

Scotch Tartans.

In this connection it may be reported that there is at the moment a furore over Scotch tartans. One reason for this is that they are difficult to obtain because importations have been delayed. Stores making a specialty of the authentic tartans are experiencing difficulty in supplying the demand. There are any number of delightful plaids from which to select materials for a skirt, and rivaling the shades are very large block effects, either in two separate colors or two tones of one color. The very newest models are made semicircular. The back is straight and the front of the skirt cut after a circular pattern. This brings the fulness toward the front after the manner of the new silhouettes. Fitted hip yokes are another interesting detail on the nature of a revival rather than a novelty.

Miss MacAdams Will Not Reassume Dietitian Work Now
Women are much interested in the recent announcement that Miss Roberta MacAdams, one of Alberta's two women members of the local legislature, has been appointed district director of the home branch of the Soldier Settlement Board for Edmonton, says The Toronto Telegram.

TENDER GUMS. A WARNING

Beware of gum tenderness that warns of Pyorrhea. Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea—many under forty also. Loosening teeth indicate Pyorrhea. Bleeding gums, too. Remember—these inflamed, bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infecting the joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments. Forhan's positively prevents Pyorrhea, if used in time and used consistently. As it hardens the gums the teeth become firmer. Brush your teeth with Forhan's. It cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean. If gum shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35c and 60c tubes. ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1919

CANADA'S COMING LOAN.
 All particulars respecting the 1919 National Loan will, it is expected, be made public in the course of a few days. Already announcement has been received that this Federal issue, of three hundred million dollars as a minimum and five hundred million dollars if it can be obtained, will be offered to the public at par plus accrued interest. Bonds will be for five years and fifteen years and issued in denominations similar to those of previous loans. They will bear interest at five and one-half per cent. and will not be tax exempt. The actual selling campaign will commence on October twenty-seventh and will continue for approximately three weeks. Thus more than a month remains in which local and provincial organizations will be able to complete their arrangements, and it is pleasing to note that in most communities this work is now well under way.

This issue should appeal strongly to the person of moderate means to whom the Federal income tax does not apply. No Dominion bond issue is exempt from local taxation, for holders of securities are now compelled under our assessment law to specify these holdings and are liable to taxation on the income derived therefrom. This will be the case with the new Federal issue, so that as far as civic and municipal taxation is concerned no difference exists between the coming loan and those which have preceded it. In respect to the Federal income tax the man of moderate means or income who buys a few thousand dollars worth of this national loan will not on this account render himself subject to any excessive taxation. His contribution to the Federal treasury will be affected only by the amount of his income in excess of the sum for which exemption is granted. Thus a married man with three children who today enjoys an income of two thousand dollars may increase that income by six hundred dollars per year through interest from these or other securities without rendering himself liable to any taxation on a federal account. It is more economical for such a person to buy bonds of the coming issue than to invest his money in securities previously issued on which he is now asked to pay a premium. A five and one-half per cent. 1937 tax exempt bond is worth one hundred and five dollars today, and what five dollar premium means more than does the small amount which may be taken in the way of Federal income tax arising from the purchase of the forthcoming issue. On the other hand, the capitalist to whom a few dollars premium on a sound investment means nothing whatever, but whose larger income is subject to a much higher rate of taxation than is applied to smaller incomes, has no doubt found it profitable to invest his surplus in tax exempt debentures. The saving which he will make in income exemption by reason of such investment will amount to a great deal more than the premium on the bonds. Yet apart from this altogether, and setting aside the national duty involved in the purchase of these Federal debentures, there is the feature of the under-lying circumstances of the forthcoming Federal loan is a sound and profitable investment as money goes. The rate of five and one-half per cent. is equal to the best obtainable from other securities. St. John City and County issued three year notes at five and one-half per cent. the Province of New Brunswick obtained one hundred and three for five and one-half per cent. securities, and even better terms will be enjoyed in this next Federal issue. Canada requires at the very least four hundred million. The Province of New Brunswick in the last victory loan was asked to contribute twelve millions and raised seventeen millions. The City of St. John was asked to produce five millions and actually received subscriptions totalling six and a quarter millions. This year New Brunswick will be expected to contribute a minimum of nine millions, of which this city's share will be in the vicinity of three and three-quarters or four millions. We can do it easily if all will play their part.

THE BOSTON STRIKE.

The Boston strike has failed. Any other outcome was inconceivable. The success of the members of the police force—who were sworn to uphold the law, in defying established law would have led to action of a similar nature in hundreds of cities all over America, resulting in little less than revolution. The aim of the strikers, now that their failure is complete, is to secure reinstatement, but this for the time being is refused, although it is possible that in the event of penitence being expressed many of the men may be taken back.

The notable feature of this affair has been the attitude of the American Federation of Labor. That governing body, acknowledged everywhere as a moderate organization, refused to support the Boston police in their attempt for the right to affiliate with the Federation. That body also stands aloof from the request now made from the unemployed strikers for reinstatement. The American Federation of Labor, including in its directorate men of outstanding ability, realises how strongly public opinion throughout America is opposed to the affiliation of police organizations with other organized labor, and rather than incur the discredit which would result from such a failure the Federation has refrained from active participation on behalf of the men. Even the most powerful national labor organization thus recognizes the force of public opinion and is unwilling to commit itself to any attitude which might lead to hostile criticism. The Massachusetts authorities have from the first taken the view that the administration of the law must be kept entirely apart from outside influence. Repeated demands for the removal of Police Commissioner Curtis have been met with emphatic refusal. Every act of the Commissioner, who was directly responsible for the strike by dismissing peremptorily nineteen men who had disobeyed his instructions, has been endorsed by the Governor of the State and behind these two men is the united body of public opinion. Boston realized that it was fighting for a principle vital to every organized community in America. The people of that State were prepared to suffer inconvenience and material loss rather than surrender in a matter of such grave moment, and their attitude in this regard has won them success after a few days of unprecedented turmoil. The lesson which the Boston police have learned will have its effect in every city throughout the country. It is not a blow at organized labor. It is not a refusal on the part of the people to permit the police or other public employees to unite for their own advantage. It is, on the contrary, a declaration that the administration of the law must be a thing apart from industrial struggles, that those sworn to uphold justice must be free from outside influences of any nature whatever.

THE VALLEY LINE.

The management of the Canadian National Railway has at last reached an understanding with the Canadian Pacific Railway which will almost immediately result in the operation of trains over the Valley Line. It is understood that this agreement is for one year only and is on the mileage basis. During this period, a valuation will be made of the Canadian Pacific Railway from Westfield Junction to St. John, including the bridge, and on that valuation will be based the permanent agreement to be completed some time during the coming year. Meanwhile, trains should be in operation by the first of the coming week, as the inspector for the Department of Railways has arranged to go over the line today and will make his report immediately.

The next question to be considered is the routing of freight over the Canadian National Railway from the west for export via St. John and Halifax. It is undoubtedly the intention of the Canadian National Railway to divert a portion of the business of that system to this port via McGivney, but if we are to judge by the experience of the past the amount of traffic so routed will not represent a very large proportion of the total. From McGivney to St. John the distance is exactly the same as from McGivney to Dorchester. That is, freight routed via this port will reach the seaboard at the same expense as would be involved in haulage to the Westmorland County town, and from Dorchester to Halifax over the Cobequid Mountains is an additional distance of one hundred and fifty miles, over which all business to Halifax must be carried. In years gone by, railroad officials situated at Moncton with their backs towards Campbellton, could see only in one direction. Their eyes were placed along the line of rail stretching through Amherst and Truro to Halifax. St. John, away to the right was out of sight and was only a side show. That attitude has deprived St. John of much of the business handled over government lines, but in the interest of transportation, which is the great problem of Canada today, it is imperative that the easiest route to the seaboard shall be followed whenever possible, and the additional haulage to Halifax be avoided unless freight business develops to such an extent that the full use of both ports is necessary. It becomes the duty of our civic authorities, of our provincial government, and of the railway commission, to see that wastage in transportation is eliminated by the routing of all possible freight to this port via McGivney instead of being taken over that additional one hundred and sixty miles from Dorchester to Halifax.

WHAT THEY SAY

And, maybe, Rumania. Kansas City Star: Rumania refuses to sign the Peace Treaty with Austria. She (elderly and sentimental)—There is always an element of sad-

Since the war closed Rumania has been acting very much like the old-time Kansas politician who demanded an increase in the bribe that had been paid him by the railroads for his vote upon a measure in the legislature. "You go back and tell the railroads," the old politician said, "that I am acting damn queer."

Can't Serve Two Masters.
 Baltimore Sun: It is impossible for a police force to be for two individuals to serve two masters. The only reason for unionizing the police is to put them under the protection of the Federation and to enable them to defy the constituted authorities. That is the issue in a nutshell, and nothing can give it any other significance. It is an issue of sovereignty, and we do not believe the American people are ready to renounce their sovereignty in favor of any class or any organization, be it organized labor or organized capital.

A Strawberry Dream.
 London Chronicle: Strawberry time recalls to those who have visited Denmark in summer that delightful cellar in Copenhagen where a feast of strawberries and cream was spread, and a whole small charge—the equivalent of fr., if we remember rightly. Piles of strawberries, quart jars of cream, freshly whipped, great baskets of strawberries and nothing else, all down the long table in the cool basement, to which the visitor descends from the hot street. It is in truth a strawberry dream. Every Dane knows Andersen's cellar. It is one of the attractions of Copenhagen, and to have eaten strawberries there once is to have an enduring memory of something nearly perfect on this imperfect earth.

The One American Leader.
 Philadelphia Public Ledger: The weak spot in the American line is her municipal politics. If a frank student of American public affairs were to be expected to put his finger on the chief peril to the permanence of our democratic institutions, he would without hesitation lay it most accurately on the chronic misgovernment of our big cities. That seems to be the one thing we cannot do. We can make industry hum; we can pile up money; we can invent and we can educate the masses and raise the level of average intelligence and even comfort. But we simply lack the knowledge or the pluck or the patriotism which would enable us to govern ourselves in large communities.

A Little Suspicious, Still.
 Cleveland Plain-Dealer: America is in no position now to dictate objectionable terms to Germany. The Allies are in no position to dictate such terms, even if they chose to make America's cause their own. In effect, the proposition is to advance the cause of peace by ratification to relieve Germany of peace conditions obnoxious to her and to permit her to dictate on her own account the conditions which she chooses to accept. Thoughtful Americans cannot believe that Germany is entitled to such consideration. They cannot believe that the nation which plunged the world into darkness and sought with the sword to assassinate civilization should now be released of obligations to which she is already pledged.

Blotting Out Party Lines.
 The Dominion, N. Z. News: The minimum motto demanded in politics, in industry and in every department of public and commercial life and activity is that any man who sincerely desires to advance the national interests shall show himself ready and eager to co-operate with all who adopt the same broad ideal. In politics this means that the party lines which have been drawn by pre-war methods and procedure would involve a sweeping transformation. The complete obliteration of party lines is not only a different thing, but a more radical one. It is the essential interests of the Dominion, but openly disloyal to the great ideals which have taken shape in war and the enforcement of a peace of justice.

A BIT OF VERSE

WHAT WOODEN SHIPS REMEMBER.
 They are remembering forests where they grew;
 The midnight quiet and the giant dance
 And as the singing summers that they knew
 Are haunting still their altered circumstance.
 Leaves have been lost, and robins in the nest,
 Tug of the friendly earth denied to ships,
 These things the rooted certainties, and rest—
 To gain a watery girdle at the hips.
 Only the wind that follows ever aft,
 They greet not as a stranger on their way;
 But this old friend with whom they drank and laughed,
 Sits in the stern, and talks of other days.
 When they had held high bacchanalian still,
 Or dreamed away the stars on some tall hill.
 —From the Bookman.

A BIT OF FUN

But we are inclined to believe that adding does not open louder than words at the meeting of a sewing society.
 "So you think you have a forgiving nature?"
 "I must have. I always go back to the same dentist."
 Tom—"Hallo, Dick, old boy! Writing home for more money?"
 Dick—"No."
 Tom—"What are you taking so much trouble for? You've been fussing about two blessed hours over that one letter."
 Dick—"I'm trying to write home without asking for money."

Little Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE.
 Pop was in the setting room blowing cigar smoke rings and looking satisfied after supper, and I said, G, you can blow them good, can't you, pop?
 Well, yes, I don't believe its any exaggeration to say that I can blow them good, said pop.
 You can blow them better than anybody, no matter how good they are, can't you, pop? I said, and pop said, Well, now you're making a statement that I would hesitate to endorse without mature deliberation. Meaning he didn't know if he could or not. And he kept on blowing them, and after a while I said, Pop, wait the best thing to do to a umbrella when its sticks' taste of going up easy like it wot to? I meesly push on it till mind finally prevails over matter, said pop. Meaning till it goes up, and I said, Well, that's just what I did, I tried to put one up this morning, and it stuck and I pushed and pushed and pushed.
 Yes, go on, you irritate me strangely, said pop.
 And it kept on sticking and sticking, and I kept on pushing and pushing and pushing. I said.
 Confound it, a good story if it wassent for all the repetition, said pop, and I said, Yes sir, and I pushed and pushed and pushed and pushed.
 Did the confounded thing open or didnt it? said pop, and I said, Yes sir, it went up fast as lightning, and you know that little thing up at the top of a umbrella thats exposed to stick it wot it goes up far enuff? Well, it didnt stop it, and the umbrella kept on going rite up and tersed inside out, and it was your umbrella, pop.
 Confound it, I mite to know then was something behind all that rignarola, doose take it, wat were you trying to open it for, enyway, it wassent raining this morning.
 I jest happened to wonder if it stuck or not, I said, and pop said, well I jest happen to refrain from giving you eny spending money for a few days.
 Wot he is still refraining.

ness and of solemnity in a wedding."
 He (cheerfully)—"Oh, yes; but I don't care so long as it's somebody else's wedding."
 "The great poets are born," remark on the smart person.
 "Yes; and they are also dead," replied the listener, warily.
 Owner—"When did your father say he expected to have the job done?"
 Truthful James (son of contractor)—"Well, I heard him tell mother that if he got a certain job he's looking after, he'd have your finished by tonight, but if not, he guessed he'd make this job last out another week."
 Something to Begin With.
 Poor old Duddle was always in trouble. When he wasn't hard up there was certain to be something else amiss. And his friends got tired. One day he went to the office of a tried and trusted friend.
 "I want your help," he said. My firm has just discharged me."
 But the friend, alas! was not in sympathetic mood.
 "You don't mean to say, Duddle," he said, "that they have really had a gleam of intelligence at last?"
 "It's no joking matter," Duddle said, somewhat hurt by his unbecomingly levity. "I really want your advice. I've had it on good authority there's a pot of money to be made in the coal business."
 "An excellent idea!" exclaimed the candid friend. "The very thing for you. You've already got the sack to start with!"

Four Masterpieces

It has been said of Joseph Wedgewood in the experimental days of his early career that he made many pieces that were never offered to the public—only his masterpieces went to market.

This may or may not be true, but the fact is applicable to, at any rate, four of the best known makes of English China: Crown Derby, Minton, Coalport, and Wedgewood—which form a special showing in our Art Department.
 The other patterns are too well known to need description—but if there are any who are yet unfamiliar with either of these patterns of English pottery, we shall be glad to show them special showings and to give them every assistance in the matter of selection.
 A Wedding Gift of China always ranks high among the Household Treasures.

Will School Work Strain The Eyes?
 Frequently children are not able to do good work in school because they do not see the blackboard or the printed page distinctly. The child doesn't know that he can't see well, and is called stupid or backward when the trouble is physical, not mental. A pair of properly fitted glasses often makes the dull pupil one of the brightest in the room. We are especially well equipped to take care of the eyes of children, and will be glad to have you consult us about your children's eyes.

WEDDINGS
Mages-Vallis.
A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vallis, Adelaide street, at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when their daughter, Miss Elise J. Vallis, was united in marriage to Raymond Mages, of Hibernia, Queens county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. D. Hutchinson in the presence of a large number of relatives and invited guests. The bride was becomingly attired in a white satin gown and wore a white floral wreath. The presents received by the bride were many and useful. A wedding supper was served after the ceremony. The young pair will make their home in Hibernia where the groom is a prosperous farmer.

Get Rid of Fat Where It Shows
Do you realize that nothing but good substantial food and plenty of it will build muscular energy and that you must eat and eat heartily in order to retain your strength? Dieting weakens you and over-exercise tires you because the former retards the development of muscular energy and the latter consumes too much of it. That is why you find the old-fashioned method of fat reduction such a hardship. Why not get rid of your excess fat in the harmless, scientific, easy way by taking a harmless Marmola Prescription Tablet after each meal and at bed time? Marmola Prescription Tablets are prepared in exact accordance with the famous Marmola Prescription, are perfectly safe to use and have been used by hundreds of persons in this country and Europe with wonderful success. Within a short time you can be getting rid of two, three or four pounds of fat a week. No starvation diet or tiresome exercises are needed. You can be comfortable and you can enjoy the food you like and want. Even after taking of many pounds there will be no rabbiness or wrinkles remaining, and you will feel 100 p. c. better. Any good druggist can supply Marmola Prescription Tablets at 11c per case or they will be mailed direct in plain wrapper and post paid if you send the price to the Marmola Company, 864 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.

WEDDINGS
Berry-Robinson.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the church at Harvey Station on Tuesday, September 2, at 3 o'clock when Alice Lorenz, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson was united in marriage to James Cameron Berry, of Oak Bay, Charlotte county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. McEay.
Wood-Bigney.
In the Methodist church, Hantsport, N. S., on September 10, Miss Ella Mary Bigney, M. A., daughter of Rev. J. C. Bigney, was united in marriage to George M. Wood, son of the late Joseph Wood, of Halifax. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. James C. Potter, of Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Wood left on a short trip to the White Mountains and on their return will reside in Halifax.
Gallagher-McKenzie.
A pretty wedding took place on Tuesday morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, when Rev. Wm. M. Duke, with nuptial mass united in marriage Miss Jennie A. L. McKenzie, daughter of the late James A. and Mary McKenzie, to Charles J. Gallagher, son of John Gallagher, all of this city. The bride was given away by her brother-in-law, J. P. Brayley, and looked charming in a traveling suit of sand colored broadcloth, hat with ostrich trimmings and white fox cape and carrying a white prayer book. Miss Bertha Gallagher, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid and was becomingly attired in blue with picture hat and fox cape. The groom was supported by Campbell Boudreau. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher left on a wedding trip to Fredericton and other provincial points, and on their return will reside in the city. Many handsome presents of furniture, silver and cut glass testify to the popularity of the young people.
Gaynes-Lunden.
A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday morning in the Church of the Assumption, West St. John, when Rev. A. J. O'Neil united in

Political Gossip
Throughout Canada

Growth in Status—The Need of Economy — Import of Liquors—Returned Soldiers Will Meet in One Great Comradeship.

A Growth in Status.
Montreal Star: Canada's new dignity and authority as a national unit in the Empire should be reflected always in her official representation overseas. The people of Great Britain realize Canada's growth out of the colony status, and they are prepared to appreciate the flower of Canadian culture and expand the voice of the Dominion in the Mother Country. This testimony came from Mr. Percy Hurd, M. P., of London, in the course of a thoughtful address before the Canadian Club of Montreal this week. Canada's official representation at London has not always received the careful regard it deserves. The post has been considered sometimes as a convenience for political or partisan designs. It is more than that, as Mr. Hurd points out. Its importance is above any but national considerations. In Great Britain today Canada's voice is heard and heeded, and the best interest of the Dominion can be served only by standardizing the London representation at a level to be consistently worthy of the country and the opportunity.

A great part of the world looks on Canada through the London window. It is a matter of national concern that the Dominion appear always at her best. This cannot be left to good fortune, as in the past, because it is a first charge upon the intellectual resources of our people.

The Need of Economy.
Manitoba Free Press: The necessity for retrenchment in the national expenditure hardly requires to be demonstrated. Why national debt approaching the huge total of two billion dollars and proportionate demands on the public purse for interest, pensions and other unfavourable legacies of the war there must inevitably be a period during which taxation will be unprecedently heavy. The Government, by standardizing the London representation at a level to be consistently worthy of the country and the opportunity, is immediately required to relieve certain sections of the people from hardships resulting from unconscionable taxation. Under the very best of circumstances taxation is bound to press during the next few years. This pressure can be alleviated and Canada's obligations met only by increased production and personal thrift. To see that the national objectives are attained is the duty of every Canadian citizen. Upon members of parliament falls, in addition, the duty of exercising their special functions in regard to national expenditures and to secure that no new demand on the public revenues becomes effective except on the basis of its utility and that the most economical use is made of every dollar collected from the people in taxes. That duty ought to be fulfilled now while the House is sitting; it should not be postponed until the next session any more than its satisfaction should be made the occasion for partisan attacks on the administration.

Import of Liquors.
Mr. J. H. Burnham, member for Fredericton, in the House of Commons, writes to the press to say that when the Peace Treaty has been ratified by the Canadian Parliament and what the people may feel at the coming referendum on prohibition, the importation of intoxicating liquors into Ontario will not be prohibited. It will so happen that if prohibition is retained on the statute books of the Province of Ontario, the rich will always be able to get their liquor from the province, whilst the poor, not having enough money, will have to stay sober. Such a condition in Mr. Burnham's eyes appears strange, partial and unfair. He believes that people are not anxious to see a return of the bars, as they were formerly, but that an acceptable compromise for people of all shades of opinion would be achieved if trade in liquors was placed under the control of the government.

The Woolly West.
(Toronto Telegram.)
The Toronto Telegram continues to proclaim the comfortable belief that its views on public issues are the only views worthy of acceptance. By the way, what are its views on the question of prohibition?—The Globe.
The Telegram's "views on the question of prohibition" are sufficiently indicated by the fact that The Telegram was supporting the Dunkin Act when the present ownership of The Globe was being partially founded on the profits of a wet grocery that "sold liquor to barefaced children and women with shawls over their heads."—St. John's War.
Returned Soldiers Will All Come Together in One Great Comradeship.
Toronto Telegram: Great War Veterans ought not to threaten to take off their membership buttons because they are dissatisfied with the proceedings of their leaders.
Veterans should stay in the organization and fight for the choice of leaders who will satisfy them.
Returned soldiers owe it to their own cause and their country's good to get into the membership of the Great War Veterans or some other returned soldier organization. The conflicts of these organizations will work out a final comradeship of union among all Canada's returned soldiers.
Members of the Great War Veterans' organization at Ottawa could do their own organization a good service if they would desist from useless attempts at autonomy.
Returned soldiers who assemble in sufficient numbers to fill the Arena rink constitute a representative demonstration. The "B. March" of the Great War Veterans' executive could

Did Him More Good Than Anything Else

Former Baseball Star Was All Run-Down and Worn Out — Feels Fine Since Taking Tanlac.

"Talking about things that help people, this Tanlac has done more good than anything else I ever got hold of," said Frederick R. Johnson, baseball star, known to his work-fellow friends as "Frenchy" Johnson, living at 243 Brussels street, St. John, New Brunswick, in a conversational, but in no way less representative, recently. Mr. Johnson was at one time a star player on the local baseball team and is popular with all who know him.
"I can't say," explained Mr. Johnson, "that there was anything special, or serious the matter with me. But I had lost my old-time energy, felt weak and worn-out all the time, and had gotten to where I never felt like doing anything. My appetite was so poor that I could eat very little of anything, nothing tasted good, and I simply had to force down the little I did eat. That tired, worn-out feeling was with me all the time, my work was a burden to me, and when the day was over I was so fagged out that I would just come dragging in home. My feet and legs would ache on every day toward evening and I had gotten to where my work worried me like 'forty.' I was never in such a fix before—and I say I feel active and energetic—and didn't know what to do to set myself right."
"Finally one of my friends advised me to try Tanlac, so I went right down and got a bottle and before I had finished taking it I had an appetite like a horse and ready for three big meals a day, and my food seemed to digest and give me strength. I got up every morning now full of new life and energy, eat a hearty breakfast, and go to my work feeling like a brand new man. Why, I can work all day without getting as tired as I did in an hour before taking Tanlac, for I come home in the evenings feeling just as good as I do on leaving in the mornings, and with an appetite to be proud of. In fact, I'm hungry all the time and meal times come too slow for me. I am now in shape to where I feel as well as I ever did and I can't praise Tanlac too highly."

There are thousands of people who complain of being nervous and run-down. They are not sick exactly, but feel tired out and good for nothing most of the time. They need something to build them up and throw off the symptoms of this weakened, debilitated condition.
The system, besides being purified by Tanlac, is toned up and invigorated as the medicine, aside from assisting the blood, reinvigorates the constitution, overcomes all ailments, quickly do, nervousness, indigestion, non-assimilation of the food, headache, backache, kidney complaints, general debility and many other ailments that are so common to the thousands of half-sick, depressed men and women.
Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Company and F. W. Munro, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—(Adv.)

Kaiser Is Still Voluntary Exile
A Few Bicycling Tourists Occasionally Stop to Peer Through the Gates at Ben-tinck.
Amerongen, Holland, Aug. 16.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—A few bicycling tourists occasionally stop and peer through the gates of the Ben-tinck estate in hope of catching a glimpse of the former German Emperor, but were it not for them and for the presence of the estate police guards who languidly pace up and down the road about the castle walls, Amerongen would seem to have completely forgotten that William Hohenzollern was in voluntary exile there.
The doings of the former ruler and his small "court" inside the castle have ceased even to be a topic of village gossip.
Once a week, perhaps, someone may mention him, wondering how long he will be in Holland, and then ensues a series of weightily expressed, judicial opinions, the gist of which is that Amerongen doesn't believe the Allies will ever attempt to bring him to trial at all, and that William of Hohenzollern will settle down and become a Dutch country gentleman. It is seldom that real information regarding his doings trickles out from the walls and moats of the estate.

American Trade
America Has More Than 1,700 Chambers of Commerce Throughout the World.

Cologne, Aug. 25.—British business men have taken notice of the strides made by Americans in acquiring trade in Germany. At a meeting in Cologne recently of directors of the British Chamber of Commerce for Germany, C. Knott, of London, said: "America has more than 1,700 Chambers of Commerce in all parts of the world, and these associated chambers some time ago sent a delegation to Europe which visited Cologne and Berlin and departed with German orders in fabulous amounts. The goods are to be delivered at once on three years' credit. In this way the United States is securing the lion's share of Germany's import trade. Such is the result of the co-operation of their chambers of Commerce. I see no reason why British Chambers of Commerce cannot employ such methods."

Tragic Death of Famous Composer
Circumstances of Passing of Author of "Internationale" Have Just Become Known.

Lille, Aug. 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The tragic death of Adolphe Dageyter, the composer of the "Internationale," who passed away here during the German occupation has just become known to the city. Dageyter, a man of strong character, laborious workman, had written several songs which he and his brother-in-law used to sing. He made no pretension to being a musician but took great pleasure in playing the bugle. It was on this instrument that he played the famous air which he wrote to the words of Eugene Pottier's hymn and the first time he sang it was to some of his comrades in a cabaret here.

Then his wife died. His brother went to Paris and passed himself on as the author of the famous air.

The two misfortunes worked disastrously on Dageyter's mind. He began to drink heavily and conceived for all music a dislike so strong that he would leave a cafe if any one began to sing or play some musical instrument.

Then the Germans came. Dageyter suffered acutely from having to work for them on the town water supply. When the typhus epidemic spread he was ordered to report at the military hospital and one day he failed to present himself. The "Kommandantur" issued a warrant for his arrest. In the evening he hanged himself.

He is buried in the cemetery near the hill here where a little wooden cross with the name "Adolphe Dageyter" marks the grave of the author of the "Internationale."

Where Watt Spent His Last Moments

The Garret in Which Engineering Genius Perused His Studies is to be Preserved.

London, Aug. 29.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The garret in which the engineering genius James Watt perused his mechanical studies is to be removed intact if possible from its position on the top of Heathfield Hall at Heathworth, where Watt spent his last years, and re-erected in the central memorial buildings to be opened in Birmingham where the Watt centenary celebration is to be held September 16-18.

When Watt died the garret was locked up and remained unopened for about fifty years and even now it is still in exactly the same condition as when Watt worked in it.

The piece of iron Watt was last engaged in turning lies on the lathe. The ashes of his last fire where Watt used to do his own cooking because of his wife's objection to seeing her husband "looking like a blacksmith" are still in the grate; the last lump of coal is in the scuttle. The Dutch oven is in its place over the stove and the frying pan in which he cooked his meat is hanging on its accustomed nail.

A Substitute For Pure Gasoline

Experiments Being Made With Benzol and Alcohol Mixture as Fuel for Engines—Will be Cheaper.

Paris, Aug. 23.—The government has authorized experiments with a benzol and alcohol mixture as a substitute for gasoline in automobile engines, in view of the high price of the latter—a dollar a gallon. While benzol used alone undoubtedly gives more power than gasoline, it has an objectional odor, and chauffeurs who have tried, it assert that it corrodes carburetors and cylinders. Both these disadvantages, it is claimed, may be to some extent removed by mixing the benzol with alcohol or ether or both.

St. George
St. George, Sept. 17.—The Chapter of the Deacons of St. Andrews met at St. George on September 16 and 17. At the business meeting which commenced at 3 o'clock, a paper on the Greek version, Chapter I, of the Acts of the Apostles, was discussed with general interest. The Rev. Percy Cotton was elected to the office of secretary treasurer which is being vacated by the departing rector of St. George and Rev. E. W. Blackall was elected representative of the Board of Missions for the deanery. At the close of the session Rev. E. W. Blackall made a short speech regarding the departure of the rector of the parish, expressing his regret at the close of eleven years' association in the work of the deanery. Rev. Mr. Marshall of Calais accompanied the rector to Pennfield and was preacher there. At the evening service at St. George Rev. Canon Armstrong of St. John was the select preacher in the interests of the Anglican forward movement and was assisted by Rev. C. W. Follet (who was a visitor), Rev. Percy Cotton and Rev. E. W. Blackall. The deanery meeting was brought to a close on Wednesday morning with the celebration of holy communion at 11 o'clock. The visiting clergy were entertained by Madames Gartley McGeer, H. R. Lawrence, James Jack.

An aged and well known resident of St. George, Mr. Michael Frauley, died at the home of his son, Frank Frauley, at Point Lepreau, on Friday at the age of 77 years, after a long illness. Early in life the late Mr. Frauley went to California where he resided for many years. On returning to St. George he built the Victoria Hotel and conducted a livery stable in connection therewith. He leaves to mourn one son, Frank, his two other sons, having preceded him several years ago. Frauley Brothers of St. George are nephews. Funeral was held from the Catholic church on Monday morning in accordance with the wishes of the late Mr. Frauley. The interment took place in the old Catholic burying ground at St. George.

Dominion Express Money Order for five dollars costs three cents.

To the Electors of the Federal Constituency of Carleton-Victoria:

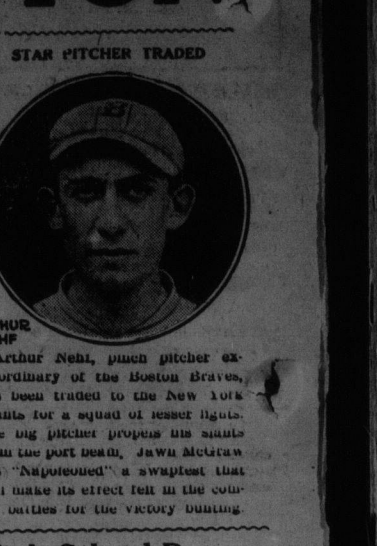

Having been nominated by a Convention of the UNITED FARMERS OF NEW BRUNSWICK, which was held in Woodstock on September 2nd, to contest the coming bye-election in the above constituency to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of the Dominion Minister of Public Works, and as the Election is to be held on October 27th and the time being so short, it will be impossible for me to personally call on all the Electors in the two Counties, I, therefore, take this opportunity to state to you what the aims of the UNITED FARMERS are.

They are, in brief, as follows: THE UNITED FARMERS are strictly independent of both the old Political Parties, and their representatives will be perfectly free to support any measure that is for the best interests of the Farmers of Canada, and just as free to oppose any measure that they feel is not in the interests of the Farmers.

And Canada, being an Agricultural country, we believe that any legislation that is beneficial to Agriculture is indirectly beneficial to every citizen of Canada. THE UNITED FARMERS also stand for PURITY in elections, as they believe that the lack of this is the starting point of all the Political Graft and Corruption which so much in evidence in Canada today. We would therefore appeal to every loyal citizen of Canada to support the FARMERS PARTY, and to the Electors of Carleton-Victoria, to support me as the UNITED FARMERS' Candidate in the coming Bye-Election. Yours sincerely,
T. W. CALDWELL.

STAR PITCHER TRADE

Arthur Nash, upon pitcher at University of the Boston Drive, has been traded to the New York Yankees for a squad of lesser figures. The pitcher proposes an alliance with the Boston team, as the pitcher has "Nipponized" a wayward that will make his strict test in the coming outlay for the victory hunting.

High School Boys Preparing For Rugby Season

About Thirty Candidates Trying for Places on the Team—Shamrock Grounds Secured for Practice.

High School football candidates were out in force yesterday afternoon. The old Shamrock grounds have been secured for practice and it is probable that some of the games will have to be played there. At the present time the grounds consist of an area covered in places with long grass, while several fairly deep holes add to the attractiveness.

Yesterday the boys put in some good work in passing and kicking. There was some practice of scrum, ruck formations and tackling. The candidates out yesterday appeared to be a "bucky bunch with lots of pep. Judging from the material available High School should have a pretty good team this season.

ARRESTED ON WARRANT.
An employee of the local post office department was arrested last evening on a warrant and is accused of tampering with the mails. It is understood that a letter containing a small sum of money was missing.

LOST HIS MONEY.
It was reported last evening that a citizen had been the victim of three confidence men and that he had been relieved of a large sum of money. It was understood that two men were held by the police in connection with the matter, and that the third left town last night before he could be apprehended.

BROKE IN THE DOOR.
One of the rear entrances of the Brayley Drug Co. was smashed last night by some persons, who were trying to effect an entrance. The door had evidently been smashed by a railway sleeper. The would-be thieves were disturbed before they got inside the building.

SERIOUSLY INJURED.
Mr. George L. Lyon, of Armstrong's Corner, was quite seriously injured on Wednesday at Westford Station. He was loading on his team a ton of stone received by freight when one of the pieces fell crushing his chest and seriously bruising his face. Mr. Lyon was removed to his home and is being attended by Dr. Lewis.

MILITARY CHEQUES.
Cheques have recently been returned to the city on the Bank of Montreal, drawn in the United States and alleged to be forged, by Sergeant Stearns, formerly of the local military pay office. It is stated that at least two cheques of $70 each have been returned. It will be remembered that forged cheques amounting to over $1,000 were discovered just subsequent to Stearns' disappearance from the city some weeks ago.

CHILD BROKE ITS LEG.
When William Powell, driver of the city ambulance, was bringing a patient to the city yesterday afternoon from East St. John, he saw two boys carrying a child. He stopped the ambulance and found that Cecil Moore, aged six years, had fractured his leg. Policeman Lobb assisted him in giving first aid to the child, who was later brought to the General Public Hospital.

RAISING PRICE OF MILK.
Milk is to be raised in the city on October 1st. Independent dealers have already announced to householders an increase in the price of milk on that date to 15 cents a quart. Further, a local retail dealer yesterday said that a meeting of city dealers and Kings county farmers had been arranged for September 26th, when it is understood the retail price of milk will be advanced 2 cents per quart from the present price of 13 cents, and the price of cream, selling at from 30 to 35 cents, according to grade, advanced 5 cents a pint.

It had been the intention of dealers to advance the price of milk 1 cent a quart on September 1st, it was stated, but owing to the large quantity of milk coming to the city it was deemed advisable to continue the old rate until October 1st, when an increase of 2 cents a quart would be made.

Whittaker-Miller.
Rev. R. P. McKim, of St. Luke's church was the officiating clergyman at the marriage of Otty Whittaker, of Holderville, and Miss Margaret Elinor Miller, daughter of David Miller, of Centron. The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's parents in the presence of many guests, on Wednesday afternoon. After the ceremony the happy pair left on a motor trip. They will reside in Holderville.

POLICE COURT CASES YESTERDAY
Edward Dawson was before the police magistrate yesterday afternoon on a charge of supplying liquor on two occasions. He pleaded guilty to one charge but denied the other. He made a deposit of $300 and the case was postponed for further evidence.

Mrs. Mary Holliday was in the morning court charged with entering the house of Miss M. E. McAllister, 207 Duke street and stealing a quantity of wearing apparel valued at $75. The accused said she did not know anything about it. She was arrested by Sergeant Detective Power. She was remanded.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR LEAVE FOR HOME
Many of the members of the Sovereign Great Priory left for their homes yesterday, some going back to the West, while others are touring Nova Scotia before returning home. Those who remained until the evening trains were entertained at afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, Germain street. The visitors were most appreciative of the hospitality shown them while in St. John, which began with a greeting by a representative who met them at Adam Junction, and lasted until their leaving for the station. A hearty invitation to attend the next meeting in Calgary was extended to many St. John friends.

Women's Hospital Aid Met Yesterday—In the Absence of Mrs. E. Atherton Smith Only Routine Business Was Transacted.

A message was received from Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, president of the Women's Hospital Aid, at their meeting held yesterday afternoon, asking that action regarding the nurses' home be deferred until she returned to St. John next week when she would call an executive meeting to deal with the matter.

Mrs. J. B. Travers reported having received a letter from Mrs. Smith to this effect. In spite of Mrs. Smith's request, members at yesterday's meeting expressed themselves as profoundly disappointed at the delay and heartily at the failure of those in authority regarding the building of the home. Several members spoke words of praise for what the women had already accomplished, Mrs. A. C. Skelton saying that if the aid had made at least one child happy it was doing good.

Mrs. E. A. Young, who was convener for the month, gave a most excellent report telling little incidents of the visits to the patients and making several splendid suggestions. Her committee had consisted of ladies from all the churches in the West Side and all the flowers needed had been contributed. Besides the 129 magazines from C. A. Munro the ladies supplied 150 more as well as taking scrap books and toys to the children's ward.

Mrs. Young also pointed out the need of a recreation room where the men could smoke, saying that in former times there had been such a place but that now smoking was only possible when the patients were able to go out of doors and that was naturally only on fine days. Mrs. Young ended her report by saying that the aim of the hospital was to give the patients a home and a new hospital with maternity wing, convalescent home, and recreation rooms. It might take time but all could work with that object in view. Much appreciation of this report was expressed.

There were no reports from the following denominational presidents: Presbyterian, Baptist, Jewish, Anglican or Congregational. Mrs. Verner McMillan for the Methodists reported one life member, Mrs. A. F. Barnhill, and one donor, Capt. Farrer, a total of $30. Mrs. J. H. Doody for the Roman Catholics reported one life member, Thomas Neale, and two annual members, $28. Mrs. Moore for the Salvation Army reported having assisted with the sending of flowers to the hospital and asked all members to take interest in a concert to be given shortly by the S. A.

CARDINAL MERCIER NOT COMING HERE
Sends Regrets at Being Unable to Visit St. John and Address Members of the Canadian Club.

It was hoped that Cardinal Mercier, who is visiting in the United States from Belgium, could have been secured as a speaker before the local Canadian club. Last evening C. W. Romans, secretary of the club received the following communication:
New York, Sept. 16, 1919.
R. W. Romans, Secretary,
Canadian Club, St. John,
Dear Sir—I beg to thank you in the name of His Eminence, Cardinal Mercier, for the kindly renewed invitation on behalf of the Canadian Club.
To his great regret the time His Eminence will be able to spend on the American continent is so short that he will have to forego the pleasure of a visit to St. John. The Cardinal did not expect to be called back so soon and had hoped to have been able to give you a favorable answer. With the highest consideration,
I remain,
Yours very sincerely,
J. P. de STRYCKER.

RETURNED MEN COMING HERE
Charles Robinson, secretary of the New Brunswick Returned Soldiers' Commission, resolved word last night that the steamer Metagama had arrived in Quebec last evening with the following returned men for this district:

Pte. H. F. Erring, Jardine Brook, Victoria Co., N. B.
Pte. J. Haverfield, St. John, N. B.
Admitted to hospital:
Mrs. J. Haverfield.

Re-Open Canteen
At The Institute

Last Evening Members Decided to Continue Work for Seamen—Weekly Concerts Planned—Rummage Sale and Dance Arranged for.

Fifty-two members last evening paid their dues and are now in good standing as belonging to the Y. W. P. A. This took place at the meeting held in the G. W. V. A. rooms last night for which notices of the new rule regarding membership had been sent out, and is looked upon as a good start.

Miss A. L. Brock presided, and spoke of plans for several undertakings for the winter. Letters were read by Miss deSoyre, secretary, from Chantala Hooper, thanking the association for $25 for his hospital work; from Mrs. J. S. MacLaren, secretary of the Protestant Orphan Asylum, thanking the society for biscuits; and from Miss Helen Church expressing her gratitude for the wedding gift of a silver card case which she had received.

The Treasurer, Miss H. Short, reported a balance of $1,254.60 on hand. It was announced that the canteen at the Seamen's Institute will open on November 15th, and that the Y. W. P. A. will be again in charge. They are also asked to provide weekly concerts on Saturday as they did last year, and this request will be carried out. A motion to this effect was moved by Miss Upham, seconded by Miss Irvin and passed.

For the East St. John visiting committee Miss McNeil reported weekly visits. There are 24 men there at present. Miss Dodge spoke on the ushering.

It was reported that arrangements for the tennis club dance to be held shortly are going on satisfactorily. Members were reminded that their Navy League fees are now due. The president asked for news of any rooms suitable for girls to rent, the addresses of such rooms or places to board to be given for the Y. W. C. A. rooming directory.

FRENCH-SPEAKING PEOPLE COMING HERE
Business Man Says French Population of St. John Has Grown at Extraordinary Rate in Last Few Years.

"The French-speaking population of St. John has grown at an extraordinary rate in the last few years," said a business man of the city yesterday. "I find it profitable to talk French, and I should say that other business men will be showing a keen interest in the French language if the French population continues to increase at the present rate. The French language is quite common on the streets, and the users are mostly young people. Young Canadians instead of going to the States are coming to St. John in increasing numbers. They are steady and industrious and enter into the life of the city as quietly you would hardly know they are here. Most of them speak excellent English, but among themselves they talk their native tongue."
"That St. John is growing is indicated by the number of French-speaking young people coming here."

Improvements To Vancouver Harbor
Visitor to City States Five Million Dollars Will be Spent on New Harbor Works Within a Short Time

"Vancouver is busy with harbor improvements, and it is expected that $5,000,000 will be spent on new harbor works within a short time," said J. Waterhouse of that city who was in St. John yesterday on his way to Nova Scotia. "There is a strong agitation to have the port made practically free to ships. Ship dues in some of the American ports on the Pacific are very low, and this makes it difficult for Vancouver to compete. Ship building yards are still busy, but there is considerable uncertainty about the future of this industry, as most of the ships being built are of wood, and the demand for this class of ships is hardly likely to continue."
"Much attention is being given the fisheries. Apart from the salmon and halibut fishing there are said to be great opportunities of developing the sea fishing of British Columbia. The big fishing firms have sent a representative to England to drum up a market for B. C. fish."

The Red Triangle
To Close Shortly

Decision Reached at Meeting of Canteen Committee Held Yesterday—Small Attendance and Large Cost of Upkeep Given as Reasons.

At a meeting of the Canteen Committee of the Red Triangle Club, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to close the rooms the first of October. O. Skinner presided, and put before the members the small attendance at the Club during the evenings, the fact that ten or twelve men on an average use the dormitories, and at the last concert held about forty men were present.

It would cost five or six thousand dollars to keep the Club open through the winter.

It was stated by one worker that it had been found necessary to pay agents and entertainers to perform at these concerts and that it was too expensive a work to carry on in this way. The men's committee met recently and it was their opinion that it was best to close the Club, as there are many other places open to the returned men.

All the work done on this canteen committee had been voluntary, and a large number of societies, both patriotic and church organizations, have given willingly of their time and funds to this Club. The representatives present yesterday were sure that all the societies would give the same service as before as long as the men were making use of the rooms, but that the large amount of money it would cost to keep the Club open could perhaps be spent for the benefit of the soldiers in some other way.

After careful consideration, the decision to close the Red Triangle Club was reached. The rooms will be let until next May or some organization given the use of them until that time.

Running Rights Over The C. P. R.
Said Company Has Asked Rental of $90,000 for Rights Over Line from Westfield to St. John for Valley Railway Trains.

It is said that the C. P. R. has asked a rental of $90,000 for running rights over its lines from Westfield to St. John for Valley Railway trains, and a further undertaking on the part of the Canadian National to contribute 20 per cent of the cost of maintenance of the line. The distance between St. John and Westfield is about fifteen sections, and it is considered, as it includes the C. P. R. bridge over the Reversing Falls. It is understood that the C. P. R. offered these terms as a temporary arrangement, and that a permanent arrangement would be considered later. The fact that the Canadian National propose to run an express train service to Montreal will of course make it a competitor of the C. P. R. for the passenger traffic, but the C. P. R. will of course have the great advantage of a considerably shorter route.

INSPECTED SOME SITES IN EAST END
Housing Commission Yesterday Looked Over Land Which They Hope to Secure for Building Purposes.

Commissioner Bullock and members of the Housing Commission inspected some sites in the east end yesterday, which they hope to secure for building purposes.

The commission is ready to go ahead and put up fifty or sixty houses as soon as building sites can be secured. But the disposition of land owners appears to be to ask higher prices than the commission can pay under the provision of the Dominion Housing scheme. Whether the commission will build any houses this year remains to be seen.

CATCHY BILL TONIGHT
AT OPERA HOUSE
The regular change of bill opening tonight offers as a strong feature Damon, the wonderful educated pony, in a sensational trapeze act and other novel stunts. Other good acts include Jules and Annette Garrison in a variety comedy act; Doronto in Chinese musical offering; Sperry and Ray, comedy songs, chat and lively dancing; Brunette Twins and Company, three graceful, dashing dancettes, in a novelty dancing, sing and piano novelty in a special setting. Tonight at 7.30.

CHILDREN'S DRESSES.

Shepherd's Plaids are priced at $4.25 to $4.75, in sizes 6, 8, and 10 years. Scotch Plaids at $6.75 and $8.00, in sizes from 6 to 14 years. There are quite a number of Serges from $6.00 to $12.50, sizes 6 to 14 years. There are also a nice range of Poplin Dresses from $5.75 to $12.25.
Some of these Dresses can be seen in their Show Window, Charlotte street.
Miss Mythe D. Maxwell returned yesterday from Fredericton where she has been visiting her brother J. Herbert Maxwell.
Michael Howard and his sister, Miss Lillian, left last night on an extended visit to New York and Baltimore.

Make the Home "Livable" These Chilly Autumn Days
However hot and good the dinner may be—a chilly dining room spoils it; a cold bedroom is anything but pleasant in the morning, and at night it removes all pleasure of rest; a chilly bathroom is unbearable; and the living room—the heart of the family circle—must be cheery and warm. You don't need coal fires just now; and what better than a PERFECTION OIL HEATER?
And not only in homes is the PERFECTION OIL HEATER found; in offices, restaurants, hotels, clubs—indeed it is welcome everywhere. Think of it. With a PERFECTION HEATER you can convert—in a jiffy—the coldest spot of the coldest room in your house to radiant warmth and "livability."
The Perfection burns kerosene oil; is smokeless, odorless, clean; can be carried easily from room to room.
THE PERFECTION COMES IN SEVERAL STYLES—
COME AND SEE IT.
