

DEAD BODY OF CHILD FOUND IN AMHERST WOODS

Investigations Show Infant Had Not Been Dead More Than Hour When Buried.

INDICATIONS POINT TO MURDER CASE

Woman Seen Entering Clump of Hedge With Bundle, Returning Without it.

Special to The Standard.

Amherst, N. B., June 17.—A crime that shocked the whole community of Amherst occurred in the early hours of Wednesday evening, when the dead body of a young child was placed in a thick spruce hedge, bordering the property of the Holmes farm, just within the town limits on the Nappan road, by an unknown woman. The still warm body was discovered about an hour later by a youth named Nolles, who lives in that vicinity.

The discovery of the body caused about in the following manner. At about 3 p. m. young Nolles was walking towards town when he met, coming out, a fairly stout, dark complexioned woman carrying a white bundle of some size. A few minutes later he happened to look back and noticed the woman hurrying along, close to a thick spruce hedge that borders the road at that point. He thought her actions rather suspicious, so continued to watch. The woman passed at a gap in the hedge, and, after looking around, disappeared within. A minute later she reappeared and hurried back towards town. The man got convinced that all was not well, so walked back to the gap himself and going in behind the hedge saw the bundle there. For some strange reason he did not then investigate, but, instead, went down the road half a mile for a companion, two of them then returned and took the bundle from its hiding place. The blanket was unrolled, and there revealed to their astonished and horrified gaze was the dead body of a young child, apparently a little over a month old.

The baby's clothing was closely wrapped about its head, and the body still warm. The authorities were immediately notified, and the body was brought into town for examination. The examining doctor was of the opinion that the child had only been dead a short while, and that, although there were no marks of external violence, death was probably due to some unusual reason. An autopsy held this afternoon corroborated this opinion.

MAY KILL LEAGUE BY OVERLOADING IT

A. J. Balfour Warns House of Commons Not to be Too Hasty—Liberalism in Views Urged.

London, June 17.—The House of Commons occupied a large part of today's session in discussing the League of Nations. The burden of a speech by A. J. Balfour was that to overload the League would be to shatter it. "No national man," he said, "would suggest that it is the League's task to rescue the world from chaos. That is a task for the Supreme Council. The League will serve you well if you do not overload it."

SENATOR FORNER CRITICALLY ILL

TURKS LIBERATE FRENCH PRISONERS RECENTLY TAKEN

Paris, June 17.—The "Temps" says today that the French battalion, which had been occupying Bosana, in Cilicia, Asia Minor, and which was captured recently by the Turks, numbered ten officers and 550 men. Their capture, the "Temps" adds, took place before the armistice between the French and Turkish Nationalists went into effect. No news of the liberation of the French prisoners had reached Paris up to this morning.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL NOT SCRAP TURKISH TREATY

Willing to Make Important Modifications in Hope of Stabilizing Near East Situation.

London, June 17.—There is no intention of scrapping the Turkish Treaty, as has been reported, so far as the British Government is concerned, it was learned today. But it was indicated that Great Britain is willing to make important modifications in the treaty from a British standpoint, and the British ministers are declared to be willing to change some clauses of the Treaty, most objectionable to the Turks, if steps to relieve the situation are promised.

It is pointed out in authoritative quarters that Italy doubtless would be willing to tear up the treaty and start all over again, as the present document is not pleasing to Italian statesmen because of its decisions on Thrace and Smyrna. The French are reported to occupy a middle position between that of Italy and Great Britain, and may be expected to demand modifications considered by Great Britain as too lenient on the Turks, and by the Italians as not lenient enough. No one in official quarters here is willing to predict what changes Great Britain is willing to grant until after the Turkish Grand Vizier makes his official protest at Paris.

DARING ROBBERY AND ASSAULT AT HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., June 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—A daring robbery and assault took place this afternoon in the Halifax Fire Insurance Company's building on Bedford Row, Thomas G. Dunlap, real estate agent, who has an office in the rear of the building, was sitting at his desk with his back to the door. About 1.30 p. m. someone entered and, creeping up to Mr. Dunlap, struck him several times on the head with some blunt instrument which rendered the victim semi-conscious. The man then grabbed Mr. Dunlap's wallet and made his getaway before he could be recognized. As soon as he recovered himself, Mr. Dunlap gave the alarm and immediately reported the matter to the police. The robber secured two hundred dollars in cash and some cheques.

HUSTLING THROUGH COMMODITIES BILL

Designed to Prohibit or Restrict Export of Any Necessary Commodities from Canada.

Ottawa, June 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—Second reading was given in the House of Commons today to the bill which amends the Customs Act, giving the Government-Council power to prohibit or restrict the export of any necessary commodities from Canada, except under licenses. Immediately after the bill had been read a second time, Sir Robert Borden moved that it be referred to a special committee of the whole House composed of himself, Hon. Martin Burrell, Hon. J. A. Calder, Hon. T. A. O'Leary, Sir Henry Drayton, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Ernest Lapointe and R. F. Green, Kooleney, West.

CHARGED WITH FORGING CHECKS

Fredericton, June 17.—Perley Mann, of Hayesville, near Boistown on the Miramichi, who is charged with forging checks of the Fraser Company, Ltd. and cashing same, appeared in the police court today. James M. Scott, the company's logging manager, was unable to positively identify him and he was released upon his own recognizance until tomorrow morning. Mann's attorney was called upon in an effort to establish the man's identity. The name of Fred McLagan, an operator for the Fraser Company, was forged on a time check for $150, which was cashed by Mr. Scott.

SENATE ADOPTS AMENDMENTS OF SEN. FOWLER

Voted Its Employees, Clerks and Officials Out of Control of Civil Service Commission.

WOULD CUT DOWN NUMBER OF HOLIDAYS

Civil Employees Now Enjoy Fifteen Days and Senator Fowler Would Reduce Them by Six.

Ottawa, June 17.—The Senate, today, voted its employees, clerks and officials out of the control of the Civil Service Commission. An amendment to the Government's Civil Service Bill limiting civil servants to nine holidays during the year (this does not include their annual summer vacation); and the Acts amending the business profits tax and the customs tariff to the committee stage; advanced a number of minor measures, and continued the debate on the report respecting the navigable feasibility of the Hudson Bay and Straits.

Cut Down Holidays

At the present time there are approximately fifteen days throughout the year that are observed as holidays by the Civil Service. If Senator Fowler's amendment is accepted by the Commons, it means that six of them will be abolished, including, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Ascension Day, and the Immortal Conception. The debate on the motion for adoption of the Senate Committee's report on the subject of the Civil Service Bill, which was introduced by Senator Watson, who demonstrated that both political parties supported the idea, urged upon the Government the desirability of the amendment, which, he believed, would be justified by results.

OPPOSITION TO MILITIA ESTIMATES

Liberals Think Militaristic Spirit Should Not be Encouraged by Spending More Money on Militia.

TROUBLE STARTS OVER CADET SERVICE

Gov't Supporters Argue for Cadet Training — Opposition Sees No Good in It.

Ottawa, June 17.—Militia estimates met with strong opposition in the House of Commons today. As item after item was brought forward for approval it was met by suggestions for retrenchment. The attitude of the Opposition members appeared to be that the war was over, the country should be a more sober and any tendency toward encouraging the militaristic spirit by spending more money should be hesitatingly frowned upon.

Believe in Cadets

Government supporters voted the other side of the argument. Cadet training had proven of enormous value throughout the world, and that it was a part of the military education of the youth of every nation. The Minister of Militia, Hugh Guthrie, declared that he was not prepared to see the militia training of the youth of this country being discontinued. He stated that the militia training of the youth of this country was not a luxury, but a necessity. He stated that the militia training of the youth of this country was not a luxury, but a necessity.

TURKISH NATIONALISTS ATTACK BRITISH TROOPS

Turks Wounded Thirty and Captured British Intelligence Officers—Reinforcements Sent.

Constantinople, June 17.—Turkish Nationalist troops on Tuesday attacked a company of British Indian troops on the Iamli front who were withdrawing under an agreement. The Turks wounded 30 and captured a British intelligence officer. Reinforcements were sent to the assistance of the Indians while warships kept the Turks off by shelling their positions. The trouble started when a British officer commanding decided to withdraw. An agreement was reached with the Nationalists, who promised not to hamper the British retreat. The British advance guard was allowed to pass unmolested, but the Nationalists fired on the main body.

B. C. VETS WOULD FORCE OUT GOVT

C. Government. J. M. Meyer, R. H. Gale, president.

BIG POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS ARE EXPECTED

Coming Week May Produce Far-Reaching Possibilities Along Political Lines at Ottawa.

WHO WILL SUCCEED SIR ROBERT BORDEN?

Premier Expected to Make Final Decision as to His Intentions at Caucus This Week.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, June 17.—The coming week is expected to be productive of far-reaching political developments. For one thing, it is likely to be decided whether Sir Robert Borden is to remain as Premier, or whether he is to step down and relinquish the task of leading the Unionist party, to a younger man. A caucus of the Unionist parliamentary party is expected to meet toward the end of the week when Sir Robert will probably make a statement regarding his intentions. What his decision is likely to be no one in the capital, not even the Premier's closest associates, is in a position to say. Since his return from the South, Sir Robert has kept his own counsel, maintaining a sort of Wilsonian aloofness from his cabinet colleagues and parliamentary followers, a fact which has not enhanced his popularity in the House. A decision, however, has to be made some time later, and while there are some who believe that it ought to be later, the great bulk of the party are firmly decided that the Prime Minister lay his cards upon the table and end a period of dangerous uncertainty.

COAL PROFITS NEXT IN ORDER

Washington, June 17.—A drive on profiteers in bituminous coal was ordered today by Attorney-General Palmer. All District Attorneys were ordered to give special attention to charges of such profiteering, and to seek indictments where investigations warranted. The Attorney-General assured the meeting that the North Shore delegates were not jealous of St. John. They would see a real live organization, provincial-wide in its scope. After considerable discussion had advanced the matter no further, the chairman warned the delegates of amount of business on hand and the time at their disposal. He assured them that there was absolutely no question of selfishness, either on the part of St. John or the North Shore. What everybody wanted to see was a provincial organization.

HONEYDALE HAS ITS SENSATION

The "Eternal Triangle" in Evidence There Wednesday Evening—Man Shoots Erring Wife.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, N. B., June 17.—The "Eternal Triangle," a woman and two men, was in evidence out at Honeydale last night. Ivan Little and his young wife, a daughter of Jasper McLaughlin, of the Scott Settlement, near Honeydale, lived at McAdan, where the husband about twenty-one years of age, has been employed with the C. P. R. The wife left her home a few days ago to visit her parents, and soon afterwards somebody wrote the husband of the third party appearing on the scene and advising the young husband to come down and investigate. The husband left McAdan last evening, armed with a revolver and telling his mother that he was going down to endeavor to get his wife back home, and that if she was not willing to return with him he would about last. The Honeydale man was warned of the approach of the husband, and was out of sight when Little reached the place. Just what passed between the husband and the erring wife is not known, but Little suddenly drew the revolver and fired a shot at his wife which passed through her hip without inflicting much damage. Not satisfied with what he had accomplished, he fired the revolver on himself, the bullet entering just below his heart. Physicians were summoned from town and attended him and tonight he had sufficiently recovered so that he could be brought here on the evening express and taken to Chipman Memorial Hospital. It is stated that there is but slight hope of his recovery, but the alleged erring wife is not seriously injured.

STEPS TAKEN TO FORM REAL LIVE TOURIST ASSN.

An Amalgamation of Two Associations Which Should Prove of Great Benefit to Province.

DELEGATES ALL FAVOR ST. JOHN

Jalousies Do Not Exist and All Believe This City Natural Place for New Headquarters.

Dalhousie, June 17.—The first real step to have a real live Tourist Association was taken at this morning's session of the All N. B. Association convention when, after considerable discussion, it was decided to merge with the N. B. Tourist Association. The All N. B. Association, since its inception last year, has struggled along with no funds available, with no clear defined status, and with practically no co-ordination among the branches. The effects of the decision to merge this morning will be far reaching and of assisting the benefit to the province as a whole.

FIRE DESTROYS MARNE FLOUR MILLS

Mills Filled With Wheat and Flour Valued at Several Million Francs.

Meaux, France, June 17.—The great flour mills on the Marne just outside Meaux took fire early today and all hope of saving them was abandoned. The firemen confined their efforts to an attempt to save adjacent buildings. The celebrated water mills, which were built at least a century ago, survived the battle of the Marne. They were constructed on pile work in the centre of the river. The mills were filled with wheat and flour valued at several million francs, which will be a total loss.

QUESTION OF COAL SHORTAGE BEFORE COMMONS

Situation in Canada Today Regarded as Serious, Many Industries Being Handicapped.

GOV'T ACTIVE IN MATTER

Sir Robert Informs Members Every Effort Being Done to Secure Canada's Supply.

Ottawa, June 17.—(By Canadian Press.)—Claims that dislocation of industries in Ontario and Quebec was threatened, Hon. R. Lemieux this afternoon moved adjournment of the House to discuss the coal situation and to ascertain the government's intention in the matter.

Mr. Lemieux quoted news despatches to show the gravity of the situation. In Ottawa, he said, dealers had told him that coal was now selling at $15 and $16 per ton and there was no guarantee it would not go to $17 next week.

"What I want to know is the policy of the government in regard to the matter," he went on. The situation in Ontario and Quebec was serious and many important industries were threatened with dislocation. The C. P. H. purchasing agent had said that his company had placed orders for between 3 and 4 million tons of bituminous coal and was glad to get a single carload. Western Canadian operators were sending coal to the United States, and Eastern operators were sending coal to European countries, all to the detriment of Eastern Canada.

He suggested that more coal be shipped from the Maritime Provinces to Quebec and Montreal and to ports made distributing centers for Eastern Canada, or that cheap railway rates be given on coal from the West. The government would have to act immediately or there would be a panic in Canada next fall.

Government Action

Sir Robert Borden said the government took action several weeks ago and had done practically everything that could be done up to the present. A sub-committee of Cabinet was appointed, composed of the Minister of Railways, Hon. J. D. Reid and the Minister of Labour, Senator G. D. Robertson. Those Ministers had met representatives of the railways and of the chief industries and endeavored to get from them a full and accurate statement of the situation.

Shortly after the appointment of this sub-committee they secured the services of Chief Traffic Officer Spencer of the Board of Railway Commissioners. Mr. Spencer had spent much time in the United States investigating the situation there and endeavoring to speed up coal shipments to Canada. Mr. Mahoney, of the Department of Trade and Commerce and the only remaining member of the War Trade Board, who had acted in the United States under Paul Condit, C. A. A. Reid had been working in the United States seeking to relieve the shortage. Sir Robert Borden added that three government steamers had been chartered to carry coal between Nova Scotia and Montreal for three weeks.

It must be remembered, however, that there was an enormous demand for bunker coal by ships crossing the Atlantic. As far as possible, any interference with their bunker supplies must be avoided.

The question of future coal supplies must be equally met by Canada. There were increasing demands upon the coal reserves of the United States. Canada had the coal reserves, but the difficulty lay in the matter of transportation. The enormous supplies must be made available to people all over the Dominion. It had been estimated that

OBJECTIONS RAISED TO "FOREIGN AGENCY"

Being Employed in Reorganization of Government Departments—All Passing the Buck.

Ottawa, June 17.—Strong representations against the employment of a "foreign agency" in the person of Griffin Hagen and associates, to reorganize government departments, were made to Sir Robert Borden, personally, this morning by the executive of the Civil Service Federation.

In his reply, Sir Robert Borden gave the Federation to understand, the President stated, that the employment of Griffin Hagen and associates was on the recommendation of the Civil Service Commission. Mr. J. C. O'Connor pointed out that the Commission, in an interview last week, specifically denied recommendation of the United States firm. Hon. W. J. Roche, the chairman, said they did not recommend engagement of the firm, and the other commissioners, who were both present, concurred. Asked about this, Dr. Roche said the Federation inquired if the Commission had been consulted about the engagement of the firm. He replied that the Commission had not been consulted.

In answer to the Federation's question as to whether the Commission approved or disapproved of the firm, the Commission said it neither approved nor disapproved. Mr. O'Connor emphasized the fact that the Federation approved the principle of reorganization, but the difference of opinion arose from the methods to be employed. Sir Robert Borden promised to take up the memorial with his colleagues and to give the whole matter his consideration.

Reorganization was a vital necessity to the service, he stated, and must be performed in the interest of civil service reform.

The National Council Sessions Were Opened Yesterday Morning

In the agenda of the meeting, he said that the conservation of natural resources of Canada was the subject of a resolution. He would like to see that resolution broadened out to include words "and development of natural resources." Governor Pugsley then eloquently pointed out great water powers of Canada and how they might be developed to give heat and light at a very low rate to the cities.

After praising the work of women during the war, His Honor closed by saying that he felt sure the Council would go forward with their great work on the basis of the unity and solidarity which would leave behind them a proud record.

Canadization.

Miss Valde Fenton then gave two solos in her charming way, and Mrs. Sanford introduced Chief Justice McKeown, whose address was entitled "Canadization Problems." As I understand the subject of this address," Chief Justice McKeown said, "The problems have to do with the development of Canada's own character and with the bringing of all citizens of Canada both natives and foreign-born into harmony with Canadian ideals. To do this we must have a standard by which we can measure up our duties and privileges. The different provinces are apt to think in terms of their own localities. We must lose the touch of locality and meet on the common ground of all the provinces. The provinces unite and drop those things in which they differ.

"What holds us together? First, the spirit of patriotism, attachment to the visible symbol of the Empire to which we belong. Another is the feeling of individual and municipal liberty, another is the central fact of the Christian faith however interpreted which stands as one of the elements uniting all the provinces. It is the duty of those in Canada to lead those who have come to this land or shall come, into harmony with these ideals. The task is not an easy one and it is a long one. One solution is the bringing back to Canada the spirit of thrift and industry which marked the land of the pioneers, it is work which produces wealth. The workers' problem must be fully entered into and their position appreciated. The cure for feverish unrest is education in labor.

"Social reconstruction must be made and women should learn to be more democratic. The solution of all the troubles lies in the hands of women. If the spirit which animates them in their own households could be made known to all a Dominion life would receive an impetus and many troubles would be allayed."

After referring to the necessity for the conservation of child life and of patience with the problems of the returned men, the eloquent address ended with the hope that the vision caught from men in the war who passed down to the long trail may lead the members of the Council to the fulfillment of their highest hopes.

In thanking the speakers, Mrs. Sanford said that they had helped her to realize the importance of the work the Council is doing and she thanked them for the inspiration they had given and for the realization they had conveyed that all are standing side by side working for a common good.

Mrs. Martha Lowe. Yesterday a highly respected resident of the North End passed away, Martha, wife of Henry Lowe, aged 85 years. Besides her husband deceased is survived by three sons and two daughters by her first marriage, Frank D. Spragg, Herbert V. Spragg, Arthur S. Spragg and Maude L. wife of G. B. Taylor, all of this city, and Alice M. wife of Rev. Louis M. Duval, a missionary in West Africa, also one brother, William A. Clark, of Paradise Row, and one sister in Boston. The funeral will take place from her late residence, 81 Sherbrooke street tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

THE GERMAN JUNKERS ARE STILL ACTIVE

Baiting Uncle Sam and Denunciation of Jews Leading Planks in Their Platform.

ARE QUITE WILLING TO LAY DOWN ARMS

Charge That Massacre is Imminent in Mecklenburg Unless Communists Stopped.

By VIGGO TOEPPER, Cross-Atlantic News Service. (Copy rights.)

Baltic's note, that the ex-Kaiser is a Jew, and that the ex-Crown Prince within a few years will have the appearance of a typical denizen of the ghetto, has been laboriously and thoroughly proved in the approved German scientific manner by the author of "Semi-Imperialism from 1853 to 1918," a most sensational work just published here. The book is being used as a powerful weapon in the election campaign of the anti-socialists.

Berlin, June 17.—Baiting Uncle Sam and arousing German prejudice against American and Americans is now the apparent aim of the large class of junkers who supported the Kaiser in his attempt at world domination.

Taking advantage of a wave of anti-Jewish feeling now sweeping Germany, Count von Reventlow, the fire-breathing editor of the "Deutsche Tages-Zeitung," charges that the first Zionist conference at Basel, which planned the Jewish state of Palestine, was simply a mask for a plot by which the Jews were to conquer the entire world in a reign of terror.

They were to be backed in this by the combined military and naval forces of America and Japan. To a certain class of Germans, the Jewish is a far greater danger to the country than the Bolshevik pure and simple. They point out that most of the foremost Bolshevik leaders are Jews.

Basing his statement on papers said to have fallen into the hands of the Russian secret service through the treachery of a hired Jew, Reventlow declares that, besides the official public meetings of the conference, a series of 24 secret sittings were held at Basel, and it was decided that when the opportune moment arrived the Jewish leaders should declare war against the entire non-Jewish world, and, if necessary, blow up all the capitals of Europe.

The Count quotes part of the resolution in these words: "Should the states of Europe make common cause against us (the Jews) then we will reply on our behalf by the given by American, Chinese and Japanese guns!" Commenting on the Count's editorial, the Berliner Tagblatt says: "Even the fanatic of a fanatic imagination would surely turn in disgust from such a rant and nonsense, and the only excuse we are able to find for Count von Reventlow is that we are on the eve of important political elections which will decide the fate of Germany for years to come, and the German National party has no other slogan during the campaign than baited against the Jews."

Count Reventlow during the entire war was a devoted ally of the Kaiser and the Hohenzollern dynasty. Quite Willing To Disarm.

Speaking of what is likely to happen at the coming Spa conference, Dr. Koester, German Minister of Foreign Affairs, said in an interview the other day: "There are two opposite currents of opinion as regards Germany in the Entente countries—distrust on one side and a realization that is growing stronger every day of the absolute necessity of lending Germany assistance to recover from her present desperate condition."

Reventlow is mainly shown as regards the question of compelling the disarmament of this country, and here I wish to say quite frankly that we are more than willing to lay down

WILSON READY TO MEET ISSUE ON THE LEAGUE

Believes Such a Referendum Would Confirm His Faith in the American People Who Wish to Do Their Duty.

New York, June 17.—President Wilson, in a special interview given to the New York World, to be published tomorrow, said he was "extremely confident that the Democratic Convention at San Francisco will welcome the acceptance by the Republican Party of my invitation to make the League of Nations the issue in this campaign."

"I am even more confident," the President is quoted as saying "that such referendum will confirm my faith that the American people desire to do above anything else that a political party now may provide and that they will condemn the Republican policy of denying them the consummation of their hopes. No one will welcome a referendum on that issue more than I."

The President declined to discuss candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination. "I hope and believe that the platform to be adopted at San Francisco will be more progressive and clearer in understanding than that enunciated by the Republicans at Chicago. The character of the men who will sit as delegates in the San Francisco convention should be sufficient guarantee that the issues upon which the campaign is to be fought will be met with definite and concrete statements and not cloudy and ambiguous terms as was the case in the Chicago convention."

Massacre Confirmed. A conservative member of the National Assembly, Herr Graefe, has in a letter to the Minister of the Reichwehr, informed that official that a number of communistic meetings are regularly held in Mecklenburg at which it is discussed whether during the planned red revolution it will be sufficient merely to kill all owners of large landed estates, or whether it could not be advisable to extend the murders also to their wives and children. Herr von Graefe declares that he holds indisputable proof that Mecklenburg is on the eve of a massacre, the like of which has never been seen in Europe except perhaps in the Baltic provinces.

Hon. P. J. Veniot said that a resolution was passed recognizing N. B. Tourist Association as a provincial organization, that association and none other would receive the grants. There had been no increase to Frederickton. He said they had approached the Government with a definite plan which the Government consented to wipe out. He further said the Government has no intention to give aid to a branch if there is one recognized provincial association. If Frederickton wishes to come in or not that is their own affair. There will be no success till there is an association that is provincial in its aspect. His department receives inquiries daily, but he would be better pleased if his department could direct these to a central agency. He strongly urged a resolution to be adopted making N. B. Tourist Association the main and only association. He believed St. John should be the headquarters, as it was the centre of the tourist traffic. He said that North Shore was not jealous of St. John. He had made a large number of tours, but he felt justified by the resultant enthusiasm stirred up in northern part of the province. He concluded by urging the delegates to form one association and that a strong protest go to the Government to recognize only one association.

Mr. A. P. D. Tilley, that all New Brunswick Association be merged into the N. B. Tourist Association. This motion was carried unanimously.

SINN FEINERS ATTACK POLICE BARRACKS

One Hundred Armed Men Drove Men to Upper Part of Building — Volunteers Aroused.

Cookstown, Ireland, June 17.—A hundred Sinn Feiners today attacked the police barracks here and drove the police to the upper part of the building. They captured two police constables and withdrew after two hours' fighting.

Cookstown is a strongly Unionist centre. Sinn Feiners were aroused by the gunfire and mobilized, but were not asked to assist. They watched the steps of the barracks. One constable was severely wounded by a bullet from the raiders from the ground floors into the police above. Dunganon police later intercepted a motor lorry in which there was a man wounded, from dangerous gunshot wounds. It was ascertained that he received them during the day.

Enlighten Thy Daughter Shown

Educational and Moral Film Given Yesterday at Imperial Theatre for National Council of Women.

A showing of this educational and moral film was given yesterday afternoon at the Imperial Theatre for the National Council of Women and was attended by a large number of members.

The lesson taught is the danger of ignorance and the fearful results which come from a lack of knowledge of vital truths. The first few scenes tell the story in a symbolic way—two young girls walking along the pathway of life, blindfolded. A kindly hand picks the handgrip from the eyes of one girl and she shrinks back from the danger which is revealed to her eyes. The other wanders forward till she falls from a cliff.

In the picture the lives of four families are shown and important moral teachings are impressed in a striking way. The picture is dramatic and the plot presented so as to hold the attention of the audience throughout.

PULP AND PAPER DEAL TO FRONT

Rumors of Great Merger in Canada Will Not Down.

Montreal, June 17.—Rumors are everywhere current here, in well informed circles, relative to negotiations concerning an enormous pulp and paper deal which is to take place in many, if not most, of the companies of importance in the province of Quebec. The name given to the alleged merger is the British Empire Pulp and Paper corporation. The deal is stated to have had its origin in the visit of Hall Gairne to Canada recently and to have been an important factor in the visit of Sir Lomer Gouin to Europe.

PRICE BROTHERS IN READJUSTMENT

Quebec, June 17.—The statement is heard in circles close to Price Bros. & Co., Ltd., the Pulp and Paper concern, that the company may make another capital adjustment in which shareholders will receive 5 shares of new stock for each old share held.

C. C. Avaré moved, seconded by I. P. D. Tilley, that all New Brunswick Association be merged into the N. B. Tourist Association. This motion was carried unanimously.

The following committees were appointed to report to the afternoon session: Ways and Means—E. A. Schofield, J. B. H. Storey, P. M. Shannon. Resolutions—R. E. Armstrong, C. Avaré, T. A. McBrody. Nominations—Harry Allen, R. T. Hayes, R. H. Simonds. The meeting adjourned till 2 o'clock.

Afternoon Session. N. R. DesBrisay was appointed chairman in the unavoidable absence of Hon. C. H. Labliss.

E. A. Schofield reported for the Ways and Means Committee, recommending that a small committee of three be appointed to wait on the Provincial Government for the purpose of applying for a grant of $5,000 for the purpose of carrying on the aims of the organization; that each county vice-president supplement this with a membership campaign; that each vice-president be allowed a sum not to exceed $50 for expenses in connection with the work; that if the Government grant is available and membership increases that some real efforts be made in the way of better protection for fish and game and other natural resources; that the general secretary be granted a larger salary commensurate with his added labors.

Resolutions. R. E. Armstrong reported for the Resolutions Committee. His report was adopted in full. The most important of these resolutions follow:

Resolved, that a Provincial tourist booklet be published, and that arrangements be made by the executive with the Busy East magazine so as to provide for its recognition as the official organ of the Association.

Resolutions of thanks to the Revivalist Government for financial assistance received in the past; to Harry Allen, of the Guides' Association, for his willing assistance, and to the C. N. R. for their co-operation with the holding of this convention were also adopted.

It was decided to appoint a committee to memorialize the Government that only one grant should be made by the Provincial Government.

It was decided that next year's meeting will take place at Sackville, the date to be decided by the executive.

After considerable discussion on the protection of fish and game, participated in by Hon. P. J. Veniot, C. B. Allan, P. M. Shannon and Max Mowatt, the following resolution, moved by R. E. Armstrong, was adopted:

Resolved, that this Association, through its secretary, communicate with the Minister of Lands and Mines expressing its willingness to co-operate with the Department in the protection of the fish and game resources of the province, and suggesting educational propaganda to be issued by the Department setting forth the economical advantages resulting from the proper protection and conservation of the fish, game and other natural resources of the country.

PROSECUTION TICKENS THE NET ABOUT PEEL

Most Damaging Evidence Brought Out Against the Man Held on Triple Accounts.

Amherst, N. B., June 17—The Peel case reopened at 3.30 a. m. this morning. The first witness called was Miss Elsie Rushton, whose evidence had not been heard at the preliminary proceedings. She told of being awakened from slumber by voices and a dragging sound. She heard some one say: "Do you know that you are a God damn fool." "Who is?" a voice responded. "You are. You're right, you're a damn fool!" Later some one called "Ted, Ted come up here." Sometime later she saw fire in the middle of the kitchen wall and left the building with the others. This is the first time Miss Rushton has given evidence. Her testimony may prove of great importance, as it indicated a difference having arisen between the parties in Peel's stores.

Evidence regarding the origin of the fire was next taken. Mitchell Rushton and his son Gerald, gave testimony, but both were somewhat hazy. The defence will endeavor to prove the origin of the fire is a defective fuse in the Rushton's kitchen. Arthur Myatt told of drinking with Peel and King, and stated that Peel and King seemed to be the best of friends.

Mayor Patton told of the origin of the fire, he having been the first to discover it. Colin Head testified as to the locking up of his tool room, which adjoins the building. In the afternoon session Fred Embree told of Peel having offered him a house for sale some weeks previously, saying that he might want to leave town suddenly.

McDougal told of the finding of the body of King. An interesting bit of evidence was brought in here showing that there was found in King's pocket a box of unburned matches. Fitzgerald told of the actions of Peel in the store that night during the fire. Mr. Lowther, Peel's uncle, told of Peel's condition that night and in the morning. He was apparently under the influence of liquor. Miss Besie King corroborated the evidence. Mr. Mitchell was next called. He stated that the front door of the shop was locked when he attempted to break in while the fire was burning. This completed the afternoon session. The evidence for the prosecution is now complete. The case will be continued tomorrow.

PRESIDENT HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Nothing Known About His Intentions Regarding Underwood Resolution.

Washington, June 17—Contrary to expectations no announcement was forthcoming tonight from the White House as to whether President Wilson approved or vetoed the resolution which would authorize the appointment of a commission to confer with the Canadian Government, or the provincial government of Quebec, Ontario and New Brunswick relative to certain restrictive orders-in-council of the three provinces as to exportation of pulpwood from Canada.

GOMPERS LOSSES OUT AT LABOR CONFERENCE

Gets Sore and May Refuse to Run for Re-Election—Vote to Increase Salaries.

Montreal, June 17—(By Canadian Press)—President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, was badly defeated at the convention today on two important questions. The first was the question of the convention going on record as being in favor of public ownership of the United States' railroads, and democratic management of them. To this Mr. Gompers was opposed, and it was carried by 29,058 votes to 3,348. The second was the vote on a resolution to increase the President's salary from $10,000 to $12,000. Mr. Gompers polled the only vote against this.

His defeat on the railroad question led President Gompers to declare, late today, that "he was not quite sure" whether he would seek re-election to great importance, as it indicated a difference having arisen between the parties in Peel's stores.

Evidence regarding the origin of the fire was next taken. Mitchell Rushton and his son Gerald, gave testimony, but both were somewhat hazy. The defence will endeavor to prove the origin of the fire is a defective fuse in the Rushton's kitchen. Arthur Myatt told of drinking with Peel and King, and stated that Peel and King seemed to be the best of friends.

CANADIANS WANT U. S. DELEGATES PRESENT

At International Seamen's Conference Before Deciding Questions Affecting Inland Navigation.

Genoa, June 17—Canadian delegates at this afternoon's sitting of the International Seamen's conference strongly proclaimed the necessity for the presence of United States delegates at the conference in order to regulate questions affecting inland navigation, as they said both Canada and the United States had common interests on the large lakes forming the boundary between the two nations.

"On behalf of Canadian shipping interests I strongly protest against any recommendation being made by this conference without hearing our friends from the United States," declared Thomas Robb, secretary of the Shipping Federation of Montreal, representing the employers.

"It is a very serious matter to make any recommendation concerning such a large inland sea, without both parties being present, as these lakes are navigated by Canadian and American vessels. Regulations for navigation there are not international, but national regulations adopted by the

LONDON AWAITS WITH INTEREST HARDING'S POLICY

Nomination Brings to Front Panama Tolls Discussion and Fate of League.

Called by Press Middle-of-Roader

Belief Held That Democrats Can Win by Nominating Hoover.

By CARL W. ACKERMAN.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. London, June 15.—The Harding sensation which broke in London Sunday morning is tonight still the all-absorbing topic among Americans here. Herbert Hoover's friends are depicted. General Wood's supporters are tabernacled and American champions in London of other candidates are completely beside themselves. Scarcely a newspaper today failed to comment upon "the darkest of dark horses," and any number of Americans see in Senator Harding's selection an improvement in the choice of Ambassador Davis's election in case the Democrats at San Francisco should unite upon him as their standard bearer. Mr. Davis has made such a favorable impression upon American business men here I was not surprised when several Republicans remarked today at the American club and at the embassy that they preferred Judge Davis to Senator Harding.

British opinion on the other hand is as widely divided as American opinion must be to judge from cabinet counts. The sport which the headline writers have had with "half-roving Hiram" has ended, and now the streaming headlines announce "Big Business Man for President," and "From Composer to President of the United States," and "Middle-of-the-Road Harding."

Sees Senate Victory.

The Manchester Guardian, which is England's chief Liberal journal, sees in Senator Harding's election the climax in the campaign of the Republican senators to get control of the next President. "In the result," says the Guardian, "the Republican party has been driven to nominate as presidential candidate an orthodox politician who could not on grounds of either personality or record have reached a position of this dazzling prominence save by the singular workings of the party machinery. The Republican convention prevented a bid by the irreconcilables on the treaty by means of a compromise which makes an end of America of the league covenant and the Wilson peace. That was accomplished with Lodge's help, but as we pointed out, the compromise commits the Republican party to a measure of international co-operation, though of a severely limited kind and scale."

The Star hollily captions its editorial, "What We Think," and says: "Senator Harding is a middle-of-the-road Republican and the social reformer which are as urgent in the United States as they are here will receive from him, we fear, neither sympathy nor solution." The Daily News advises the Democrats to nominate Herbert Hoover. "Senator Harding," it says, "has no particular record and, such as it is, it is not against him. The machine, it is said to be satisfied with his success, but though that may mean votes in the East, it will be small recommendation in the West and it is the West that turns the elections. It is too soon to assume that the Progressive sentiment represented today by Senator Johnson is finished with. The Republican candidate will have to win their support. He has no ground for assuming it in advance."

Plea for Hoover.

Interest now centres in the choice of the Democrats. The best electoral card they could muster would be to persuade Herbert Hoover to accept their nomination. In spite of everything, there is no good reason either on his side or on theirs why he should not. He has yielded said he would not run as a Democrat, but a man with Mr. Hoover's record of detachment from party politics may feel full liberty to revise his intention on such a matter, but falling the late food controller, the Democrats have quite as strong candidates available as Senator Harding, and they should be able to choose a man who will make a real fight of it in November."

Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express thinks that if Senator Harding goes to the White House "friendly relations with Great Britain will undoubtedly be part of his policy, and we may here point out that those relations are not necessarily threatened by the revival as a plank in the Republican platform of the demand for preferential treatment of American ships using the Panama Canal. Many things are proposed at election times which do not materialize when the elections are over."

It is Harding's possible foreign policy which interests Britain's leading papers and which concerns the country as a whole. The Times, the Morning Post and the Telegraph all point out to their readers with some concern the prospects of future storms in the relations of the two nations if the Panama tolls question is pushed by the next administration.

View of Asquith Paper.

The Westminster Gazette, which is the chief supporter of ex-Premier Asquith sums up its long editorial review by reflecting perhaps the cautious but interested position of responsible British people: "We in Europe are interested as well as neutral spectators in this contest. We preserve our neutrality, but we cannot disguise our interest. We look not only to the men but to the platforms and policies of the parties, which on this occasion concerns us profoundly. A mental and spiritual conflict is going on all through America between the two views of America's position in the world, the view of President Wilson, which would

Father And Son Now Restored

The Way Tanlac Helped Us Is Simply Wonderful, States Weeks.

"Nobody except those who have been through it can understand what I have suffered," said Richard H. Weeks, of 13 Cabot Place, Halifax, Nova Scotia. Mr. Weeks is a carpenter by trade and has lived in Halifax for a number of years. He is very emphatic in his declaration that a better medicine than Tanlac has never been made.

"My stomach has been out of order for the past year or two," said Mr. Weeks. "My appetite got so poor that I had to force down whatever I ate. I was troubled with gnawing pains in the pit of my stomach and had sharp pains around my heart. After every meal I had a heavy feeling, like a dead weight in the pit of my stomach and felt miserable for hours. I had sick headaches, with attacks of dizziness, so bad that sometimes I fell to the floor. I lost weight continually and had a general weakness. I tried to drag my feet after me. My condition at one time got so bad that I had to give up work entirely for over a month. I was unable to eat anything but bread, milk, and butter, and even plain, light food gave me indigestion."

"After talking with a number of people who had taken Tanlac, I decided to try it, as they all recommended it to me so earnestly. Well, sir, whether you believe it or not, I began to improve before I had taken a bottle of that medicine. I am now on my fourth bottle and from the time I began taking it I have been improving by leaps and bounds. I now eat my three square meals a day, like any other healthy man. There is no looking back on the table now for something I can eat. Anything agrees with me—cakes, meats, pastry—just anything I want, and I never have a touch of indigestion. I am not bothered by constipation or dizziness; I have gained ten pounds in weight and am working every day. Tanlac has done so much good that I decided to try it on my little boy, who had been puny for years, and the way it has helped him has been certain and wonderful. From now on, Tanlac is the medicine for me."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co., and by W. Munro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv't.

PARIS PRESS COMMENT ON NOMINATION

Temps' Says Republican Platform Means Reconstruction of League.

NEW MAN BUT OLD TRADITIONS

Election of Harding Would Give Added Importance to International Court.

By WYTHE WILLIAMS.

Copyright, 1920, by Public Ledger Co. Paris, June 16.—There is little comment in the Paris press on the nomination of Senator Harding by the "congress of Chicago," as most of the papers call the Republican convention. Considerable ignorance is manifested concerning both the candidates and American politics generally, several press headlines giving the impression that the convention was for the purpose of electing rather than nominating, while another journal, signaling the nomination, declares Harding's chances of election are now up to Congress.

Nearly all the papers describe the senator as editor of the "Etoile de Martin," as the Marion Star is known, and explain the correct pronunciation of the name Harding in order that their readers may not go about calling him "Hardange," according to the correct French pronunciation.

The only serious comment is the night's leading editorial in the Temps, which says: "After the blind ballot, Lowden defeated. Therefore, it was by the aid of the official machine that Harding finally triumphed. Now that death has terminated the exceptional career of Theodore Roosevelt, the Republican party comes forth with a new man, but with most ancient traditions. It has followed circumstances, the fight against the dictatorship powers conferred for the duration of the war. The Chicago platform rests entirely on these arguments. "As to the society of nations, the

CANADIANS IN PARIS

HENRY W. FRANCIS, Cross-Atlantic News Service. (Copyright.)

Paris, May 25.—Mrs. M. E. Duncan and Miss Eileen Beatty, Montreal, who have been stopping at the Hotel Continental since arriving in Paris from Nice have left for Cologne to visit Mrs. Duncan's relatives, Captain R. T. Healy, of the United States Army.

On his last day in the department Mr. Polk was presented with a written testimonial of esteem from the Washington newspaper men who have come in daily contact with him during the war.

Mr. Polk, Under Secretary of State, today severed his official connection with the State Department after a service of five years, during which he has probably been the most strenuous period in the history of the department. Ill-health and a desire to return to his private affairs caused the retirement of Mr. Polk. He will be succeeded by Norman H. Davis, of Tennessee, who for some time has served as the foreign adviser for the Treasury Department.

Mr. Polk voiced his appreciation of the act and expressed the conviction that the lessons the department had learned during the war of the loyalty and aid rendered by the press would be of incalculable benefit to all future administrations as well as to the present one.

Associate Lady Skipper Talks

New York, June 17.—One of the mitigating circumstances in the life of a yacht race skipper is the fact that not every cup is a cup.

At least that is the opinion of Mrs. Burton, "assisted" skipper of the Thomas Lipton's America Cup yacht tender, Shamrock IV, who is here to help her husband, Capt. W. M. Burton, for the first time in his proposed west of the Atlantic since 1895. Her paradoxical sounding opinion was uttered very seriously.

"Having the cups is very fine, Mrs. Burton says, but the real joy of the thing is the race. Since her marriage, Mrs. Burton has not missed a race with her husband, who declares his wife's score card of polishing something like a thousand cups of embossed silver."

"I stand in the companionway just beyond the wheel and I always know that everything is coming out right and that we are going to win," she finally explained. "She said she never suffered from nervousness and never, never dreamed of making suggestions to her husband or in any way distracting his attention from the minutiae of his duties as helmsman."

ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, JUNE 18, 1920.

THE MILK QUESTION.

The Globe and Times are dealing with the milk situation from an altogether erroneous standpoint; in fact the attitude of both these newspapers on the question, but more particularly the former, is silly in the extreme. It is futile to flourish the big stick when there is no force behind it. There is no desire on the part of the milk producers to withhold the supply from the city; they merely say that they will not get up in the middle of the night in order to send it, that's all. They are still as willing as ever to ship their milk at the usual hour; and if this does not suit the people of St. John, then they must take the consequences and do without it.

The citizens of St. John have adopted Daylight time. It suits their business and their pleasure, and they have a perfect right to do so if they choose. The people in the country have not adopted Daylight time, because it does not suit either their business or their pleasure, and they are equally within their rights in the course they have taken. Will The Globe and The Times contend that the citizens of St. John have any more right to force the people of the country to fall in with their wishes, than the country people have to make the people of St. John adopt theirs? Each is free to do as they please, and that is just what they are doing.

There is throughout the whole province considerable feeling against this city. It is very unfortunate that it should be so, but all the same such is the fact; and it is well-nigh impossible to imagine anything more calculated to foster and promote that feeling than the Globe's article last night. "If the milk producers think by a strike to force a whole city to bow to their wishes, they must be taught a wholesome and salutary lesson." A more foolish and ill-considered remark would be impossible to make. In it is wonder that St. John has got itself disliked by the people in other parts of the province when some of its newspapers adopt this attitude? Who gave the citizens of St. John the right to teach their neighbors "a wholesome and salutary lesson" because these neighbors refuse to put themselves to inconvenience just to suit the city?

It is not true, either that the milk supply was cut off without a day's notice. Notice was given at the outset that unless the train was put back to its regular time, no more milk would be shipped. But some people seemed to think this was all bluff, and called it. Now they are left, and they don't like it. The most regrettable feature in the matter, however, is that it is only adding more fuel to the fire of ill-feeling that exists against this city, at a time when it was beginning to die down.

THE SALE OF EXTRACTS.

The prohibitory law makes no exceptions. Persons who admit manufacturing or selling preparations to be used as beverages and which contain more than the legal percentage of alcohol are liable to the imposition of penalties. The presiding magistrate has no option but to impose those penalties if sufficient proof of violation of the Act is produced. The St. John magistrate himself entertains this view, and it is very definitely expressed by those gentlemen who prepared the bill for presentation to the Legislature, as well as by members of the executive of the Temperance Alliance who consulted with them in the preparation of that bill. The manufacture of lemon extract and the sale of lemon extract are offenses under that law, which pays no regard to any concessions which may or may not have been granted by other governmental departments. That widespread violation of the Act has been common during the last few years has been due to reticence on the part of those entrusted with the enforcement of the law about interfering with what they may have regarded as legitimate business enterprises. Whether or not a provincial measure such as this can legally interfere with a matter of everyday trade is, however, another question. But whatever may be the eventual outcome, the fact remains that today the manufacture and sale of lemon extract is, under the Prohibitory Law, an offence punishable on conviction by a heavy fine, and that all persons engaged in the manufacture and sale of lemon extract are liable.

Lemon extract has been an article of commerce for generations. The product is in constant use in practically every home, but the adoption of our present prohibitory law has removed this extract from its position as a household necessity and placed it in the category of forbidden intoxicants. The situation as it exists today is an absurdity, but so long as lemon extract may be used as a beverage just so long is its sale prohibited under our law and just so long are those guilty of violation of that law subject to punishment.

THE REGULATION OF EXPORTS.

There will be general approval of the proposed measure to regulate the exports from this country. To many people it has always seemed somewhat strange that the home market should be sacrificed in order to build up a trade with outside buyers. While it is perfectly true that Canada needs to build up the largest trade she possibly can, it is foolish to deny ourselves actual necessities in order to do it. Exports should be confined to the surplus commodities which are not needed at home; when our own people have been supplied with all they can reasonably need, let the other man have the remainder, and the larger this remainder can be made by increased production, the better.

We notice that the resolution upon which the proposed measure is to be founded will give the Government power to regulate the export of any commodity "produced or manufactured" in Canada. It will be necessary to wait and see what construction is put upon the word produced, as contrasted with manufactured. The latter is plain enough, but the former is capable of a very wide construction. Raw materials are produced here, and there are several of these that it would be wise to restrict the export of. All raw materials that can be used to create or build up industries in this country should be exported only under very special circumstances, and then only as they can be spared. Pulwood is perhaps the most important of these materials, though there are others equally valuable.

In introducing the matter, Sir Robert Borden expressed the hope that some method would be devised for taking out of the hands of the Government the great responsibility involved in carrying out the proposal. It will, of course, be a little difficult to restrict the holder of any commodity in his choice of market. A man's property is his own, and on principle he should be allowed to sell it where he likes, and where he can get the best price for it. But the interests of the home community should have the first consideration; and provided the home consumer is prepared to pay the fair market price, he should have first call. Our American cousins are quite large consumers of Canadian-produced commodities, and we are always glad to supply their wants as far as we can; but Canadian producers ought not to allow the fact that the former sometimes have more money to spend than we have to deny our own people commodities they urgently need.

SUGAR.

It is very gratifying to learn that the sugar situation in Britain is so satisfactory as to permit of shipments being made to this country. The first of these has just arrived, and others are to follow in the near future. That Britain is in a position to export sugar is the result of the foresight of her public men, who, when the opportunity was presented to them to place contracts for the purchase of sugar on very advantageous terms, did so without any hesitation. Similar opportunities were presented to the United States, which let them slide. The result is that sugar is much cheaper in Britain than it is on this side of the Atlantic; and it is earnestly to be hoped that the shipments from Britain to this country will very shortly reach such proportions that a considerable reduction in the price of that commodity here will be the result.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK.

In a letter to the trade one of the largest clothing firms of the Dominion discusses the present difficult times for the business man, more especially the retailer. It is admitted that much uncertainty prevails. Newspapers are talking of reduced prices, and many firms are advertising reductions. Yet the world shortage of cloth continues. The firm's agents are scouring Europe and America for raw materials, and are unable to obtain these in any great abundance, and certainly not at reduced prices. The Canadian mills have orders for a long period ahead and are still allotting their output. Some are not even allowing samples for the coming season. Production is away below normal and wages are far above what they were twelve months ago. Under these conditions the prices of cloth cannot be quoted lower, but possibly at yet higher figures. Reductions which have taken place have been due to the need of maintaining the volume of business, to pressure from the banks or to uncertainty. The goods sacrificed cannot, however, be replaced except at higher prices. The letter adds:

"The one thing that may upset calculations is if a change in spirit should take possession of the large buying and producing public, a change that would show itself in a widespread practice of economy and at the same time a willingness to both work and produce. The evidence of such a spirit, whether produced under pressure or as a result of awakening conscience, would certainly make for better things."

"A United States independent publication professes to note the appearance of this changed spirit. It declares that there has already come over the people a sobered and normal view of things; a strong tendency to depart from extravagance and to put forth something akin to the pre-war effort at production."

If the Board of Health has any authority to prohibit the manufacture and sale of ice cream and other luxuries but to some extent unnecessary derivatives of cream, and we believe it has, it should lose no time in putting its power into force. As long as any shortage in the usual milk and cream supply exists, children and invalids should have first call on whatever supply there is. Grown-ups can very well manage without it for a time at any rate. Water, as the poet said, "makes a rotten drink," but there are any number of preparations of milk that can be used in tea and coffee, so that no one need suffer.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Canada Might Do It.
(Montreal Free Press.)
If Sir Thomas Lipton fails to lift the American Cup on this attempt Canada should have a try at it. There are plenty of good sailors in the country.

Light Reading.
(Montreal Free Press.)
You have two choices this year. You can either read the frothy June fiction issued by the book publishers or you can read the reports of the Republican convention at Chicago.

Another Opening.
(Montreal Gazette.)
Naval experts of the United States will make a thorough study of the German warships allocated to the republic. This is a rare opportunity for the display of one of President Wilson's numerous talents.

What We Get In Cans.
(Vancouver Province.)
A committee of experts has been appointed to investigate the lobster industry on the Atlantic coast. It may be able to explain why the canned article is largely composed of claws.

Inside Information.
(Kingston Whig.)
Roman Catholics and Protestants are both to be eliminated in the new order of things as envisioned by the Rev. Salem Elani. Imagination such as this suggests that the ouija board must have been consulted.

The Sales Tax.
(Kingston Whig.)
Business men would prefer to see one per cent. on the turnover. But when goods are turned over five or six times the Government will receive five or six times the amount of the original tax. And it is the additional money that the Government requires today to keep Canada solvent. Pay up and play the man.

Sized Up.
(Victoria Colonist.)
Punch, in his inimitable style, has sized up the outrages in Ireland by a cartoon in a recent issue which depicts one of the "Old Contemplatives" shaking hands with a wounded member of the Royal Irish Constabulary. Underneath is the caption: "Weis mate, I have to stick it against a pretty dirty fighter, but thank God I never had a job quite like yours."

THE LAUGH LINE
Why He Was Late.
Teacher—How is it that you're so late, Tommy?
Tommy—Cause there was a man pinched for stealing hens and settling a house on fire, and a wounded policeman, an' another sent me around to see if it was father.

Wise Guy.
Friendly Constable—Come, come, sir, pull yourself together; your wife's calling you.
Convict—What's she calling me, Billy or William?
Constable—William, sir.
Convict—Then I'm not going home.

The Fool Paper.
The angry citizen pulled into the office of the city editor.
"See here, sir," he yelled, "what do you mean by publishing my resignation from my political office in this way?"
"You gave the story out yourself, didn't you?" asked the editor.
"Of course I did," replied the angry citizen. "But your fool paper printed it under the head of 'Public Improvements.'"

Business Acumen.
"I can't see how you make any money on those clocks," said Jones.
"You've got them priced at $5, and it must cost that much to make them."
"It does," agreed the dealer.
"Then where does the profit come in?"
"In repairing 'em."

RELIEF WORKERS TELL OF HUNGER IN EUROPE

Philadelphia, June 17.—(Special.)—Three youthful workers of the Friends' relief service in Europe have just returned to Philadelphia after fourteen months among the stricken peoples of Poland and Austria, bringing stories of the terrible conditions—death, famine and disease.
 They are H. V. Hoastler, of West Liberty, O.; Elmer E. Carter, of this city, and Willard Blackburn, of New Waterford, O. They spent months in Poland, but despite the hardships they encountered and the trying scenes are ready to return to their work of mercy.
 "Wherever they encountered food shortage, which, they say, has resulted in the three-quarters of the people going without sufficient nourishment; carelessness and ignorance of health rules which breed typhus and other war plagues among surroundings of dirt and squalor."
 "Poland is the land of funerals," said Mr. Blackburn. "Everywhere the typhus is scouring the land, and despite the best efforts of American workers, continues to be dangerous to the rest of Europe."
 The depreciation of money in Poland and Austria has resulted in prices like fifty marks for a dinner, seventy marks for a pound of candy. Consequently, most of the people are forced to go without the food they need.
 In the best hotels the Friends found the finest dinners they could purchase were without much nourishment, most and after a few hours hunger set in as biting as ever. The hotels seem to be the only ones able to procure food, but their menus are lacking in fat, butter, milk, eggs and good meat. Most of the rich live as the hotels because at home they themselves are unable to get enough food.
 France and Germany seem to be better off for food, but at best do not have too much. Transportation is very poor, but so great is the prestige of the American relief workers that they are able to get cars when other trains cannot run. There are few trains operating because of the scarcity of fuel, the returned men said.

FOR WOMEN AMUSEMENTS

Women's Hospital Aid Meeting Held

Session Held in Board of Trade Rooms Yesterday Afternoon - Considerable Business Transacted.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Hospital Aid was held in the Board of Trade Rooms yesterday afternoon, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith presiding.

The minutes of the last executive meeting, held June 12th, were read, and as the executive had neglected to confirm the minutes of the meeting held on June 15th, the meeting was adjourned to the 22nd.

A copy of a meeting of the Hospital Aid Committee with the Commissioners of the General Public Hospital was read.

The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $5,098.68. The new members totalled 130 and were apportioned as follows: Anglicans, 121, Catholics, 10, Methodists, 19.

Mrs. W. B. Tennant became a life member during the month. A donation of $2.00 to the General Fund was made by Mrs. George Horton.

Mrs. Walter White reported for the Hospital Aid Luncheon Committee who are to give a luncheon to the National Council of Women on the last day of their stay in the city.

Mrs. White also reported for the Furnishing Committee. She stated that visits had been made to every furnishing house in the city and the Eton firm at Moncton had also been interviewed.

Mrs. White further informed the meeting that the furnishing of three rooms in the new Nurses Home has been assured. Mr. R. J. Moran, son of a former resident of St. John, had volunteered to furnish one of the bedrooms.

On motion the meeting adjourned. It might be stated that The Standard had a reporter at the meeting yesterday as well as at the meeting of the Local Council on Monday morning.

The Standard did not say that Mrs. R. Duncan Smith was responsible for severe criticism of the General Public Hospital; this paper only reported what was stated by one of the women present at the meeting, and she stated that there had been criticism during the time that Mrs. Smith was connected with the Hospital. The Standard is not to blame for the remarks stated by one of the members of the Local Council, and followed the day after on which the account of the Local Council meeting reported, by stating that Mrs. Smith was not so embarrassed at the Hospital when the investigation was held by a Royal Commission in 1902, but was employed in the following year as a superintendent.

It might be stated that the discussion at the Hospital Aid meeting yesterday, was most warm as it was in the hands of the president, and the president got to take down what was being reported at certain times. Mrs. Smith further stated that she hoped

The Twenty-Ninth Annual Meeting, National Council of Women, Opened in German Street Institute With Mrs. W. E. Sanford in the Chair Address of Welcome Brilliantly Replied To—Reports Received from Different Provinces—Considerable Business Transacted.

The first session of the twenty-ninth annual meeting of the National Council of Women, was opened in the German Street Institute yesterday morning with Mrs. W. E. Sanford, Hamilton, Ont., in the chair.

From 9:30 to 9:45 there was a devotional meeting in the committee room, arranged for by the St. John Local Council, in charge of Mrs. James F. Robertson. The session was opened at 10 o'clock. After silent prayer and the singing of the National Anthem, the roll was called, and announcements made.

Address of Welcome. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, President of the Local Council, delivered a long and beautifully worded address of welcome. She said: Madam President, Officers and Members of the National Council of Women:

It is my esteemed privilege today to extend to you, one and all, in the name of the Saint John Local Council of Women, a most cordial greeting, and bid you welcome to the hearts and homes of this loyal city.

We rejoice today in the past achievements of the National Council, and over-riding circle of benevolent activities, which now claims the interest and energies of 400,000 organized women. It has been the pioneer in social and moral reform and the means of educating public opinion to the necessity of such benevolent organizations as "The Victorian Order of Nurses," "Associated Charities," "Supervised Playgrounds," and "Child Welfare Work."

It has also been a factor in the teaching of domestic science in the schools and appointment of women on school boards and institutions in which women and children are confined. It has instituted better laws for the protection of women and children, prison reforms and numberless other benevolent activities.

The National Council has indeed justified its existence as a parliament of women, excluding party politics and religious bias, at the application of the "golden rule" to society, custom and law.

During the years of awful war that have passed, we have seen men of all ranks and creeds, political, all personal antipathies and animosities were forgotten, and all were united in the common purpose to save the world from destruction.

As citizens today, we women realize our responsibility, and by thoughtful consideration and study of the social, industrial and civic problems, we are prepared to act with men, and, if needs be, against them. Mrs. Smith expressed the hope that the delegates might find time to visit the historical and picturesque sites in and about the city and in closing presented Mrs. Hamilton with a gift on behalf of the St. John Local Council.

The gavel which Mrs. E. Atherton Smith presented to Mrs. Sanford was of unusual interest, it is made from wood from the old Suspension Bridge and dismantled in 1915 to make room for the present structure. The case in which the gavel is enclosed is also made from the same wood, and has on it a brass tablet engraved with a facsimile of the old bridge. Gavel and box are the work of the Christie Woodworking Company, St. John, and were arranged for by Miss Grace D. Leavitt, who in co-operation with Mr. Christie produced a very lovely gift.

One of the very latest features of the presentation was that when the gavel case was sent to Miss Leavitt she found enclosed a card "With compliments from the Christie Woodworking Company, St. John, and presented to Mrs. Sanford by Mrs. Leavitt, who in co-operation with Mr. Christie produced a very lovely gift."

On Monday the meeting adjourned. It might be stated that The Standard had a reporter at the meeting yesterday as well as at the meeting of the Local Council on Monday morning. The Standard did not say that Mrs. R. Duncan Smith was responsible for severe criticism of the General Public Hospital; this paper only reported what was stated by one of the women present at the meeting, and she stated that there had been criticism during the time that Mrs. Smith was connected with the Hospital. The Standard is not to blame for the remarks stated by one of the members of the Local Council, and followed the day after on which the account of the Local Council meeting reported, by stating that Mrs. Smith was not so embarrassed at the Hospital when the investigation was held by a Royal Commission in 1902, but was employed in the following year as a superintendent.

Afternoon Sessions.

At the afternoon sessions of the National Council, reports of Provincial Vice-Presidents were heard. The report from Manitoba was written by Mrs. Dayton and read in her absence by Mrs. Pearson, corresponding secretary. Among the facts stated there was great progress reported in the work of child welfare, the care of the feeble-minded and the appointing of new public health nurses. Foreigners are being Canadianized and in this the L. O. D. E. are doing splendid service. Regret was expressed at the commercialization of motion pictures and it was said the pictures are not educational, that unsuitable pictures should not be shown. A woman has been nominated for the Provincial legislature and the registration of women voters is being earnestly undertaken.

Provincial Vice-President. Mrs. David McLeellan read the report for New Brunswick announcing the appointment of a woman to the Board of Health, and on the Vocational School Board, all Council members.

Alberta. Mrs. O. C. Edwards of McLeod, Alberta, gave the report for Alberta showing that the Council is proving an important factor in municipal life. A Provincial all-day convention was held in Calgary and the following legislation was recommended: Equal Parental Control; Intestate Act; Amendment to the Venerable Diseases Act; to the Factory Act; to the Workmen's Compensation Act; to the Child Protection Act; to the School Ordinance Act, referring to the appointment of school trustees and to expropriation for teacher's residences and the establishment of teacher's training schools. An amendment to the Municipalities Act, regarding the training of normal children.

Discussion on Film. At this juncture, Mrs. L. A. Hamilton asked permission to read a letter from I. Hopkins inviting the members to view a picture entitled "The Light of My Daughter." The members read endorsements from Dr. Marjorie Patterson of the appointment of school trustees and to expropriation for teacher's residences and the establishment of teacher's training schools. An amendment to the Municipalities Act, regarding the training of normal children.

Recommendation. The committee respectfully recommends that councils shall inform themselves of the work of women magazines in Juvenile and adult circles in order that they may further their appointment in various localities. St. John and Halifax reports were added to this report.

The following resolution was moved by Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, seconded by Mrs. Twidale, moved on behalf of the Executive Committee: "In view of the fact that women citizens are urged to the fullest information as to their citizenship and that this information should reach all women, so that they shall be an electorate, be intelligent and active."

Be it Resolved, that all Affiliated Societies be urged to initiate a strong broad movement for citizenship in their various localities. The resolution was spoken to by Mrs. Adam Short, Miss Robson, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Dewey and passed by a large majority. The resolution was moved by Mrs. Barker that the Council do not allow their members to advertise in the Standard the film whether approved or not was lost.

The following committee was appointed to view the film at the Imperial theatre at five o'clock: Mrs. James McAvity, Mrs. E. Murray, Mrs. George Wait, Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, Mrs. Twidale, Mrs. C. D. Wilson, Mrs. McAvity Hooper, Mrs. W. C. Good, Mrs. Dewey, Mrs. Elsie Clements, Mrs. John McAvity, Mrs. David McLeellan, Mrs. Allan, Mrs. Ormond, Mrs. Vicery, Mrs. Kent, Miss Tately, Mrs. Worthy, Mrs. McCready, Mrs. Purwell, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Woodhall, Mrs. Osman, Mrs. Bishop. A number of Halifax ladies, presentations. A pleasing incident during the session was the presentation of a bouquet of roses to Mrs. Sanford by Miss Grace W. Leavitt on behalf of the St. John Local Council.

The gavel which Mrs. E. Atherton Smith presented to Mrs. Sanford was of unusual interest, it is made from wood from the old Suspension Bridge and dismantled in 1915 to make room for the present structure. The case in which the gavel is enclosed is also made from the same wood, and has on it a brass tablet engraved with a facsimile of the old bridge. Gavel and box are the work of the Christie Woodworking Company, St. John, and were arranged for by Miss Grace D. Leavitt, who in co-operation with Mr. Christie produced a very lovely gift.

One of the very latest features of the presentation was that when the gavel case was sent to Miss Leavitt she found enclosed a card "With compliments from the Christie Woodworking Company, St. John, and presented to Mrs. Sanford by Mrs. Leavitt, who in co-operation with Mr. Christie produced a very lovely gift."

and press representatives.

Miss Carmichael of New Glasgow read a brief report of the work of that province, telling of the formation of a new Council at Berwick and a Provincial conference held at Truro at which the Women's Institute co-operated. Valuable information had been spread upon Child Welfare, and a resolution regarding a home for the feeble-minded brought before the attention of the Government. Attention is being given to Baby Clinics, girls' clubs and public health work.

Citizenship. In the absence of Dr. Stone Gullen the National Convenor on Citizenship the report was read by Mrs. Ormond of Regina. It contained the following resolution: "That the National Council pledge themselves both publicly and privately to discontinue the buying of votes and other illegal practices incident to elections and further to emphasize the advisability of conducting elections on a business-like basis and request a detailed financial statement of the disposition of monies expended for legitimate campaign expenses."

Reports were given of a Woman's Citizen League formed in Port Arthur and an active campaign in connection with municipal elections and the appointment of the President of the Local Council as a member of the Board of Health. Toronto reports the election of Mrs. L. A. Hamilton as alderman and the formation of a municipal voters' league.

Brundage reports, among other reforms, the municipal franchise extended to towns and villages by a bill in the Manitoba legislature. A campaign for registration of women voters was successfully carried out and a woman elected to the Collegiate Board as another trustee to the Public School Board.

After two songs beautifully rendered by Miss Katherine Gallivan, Mrs. Sanford introduced the Lieutenant-Governor. After expressing on behalf of Premier Foster and himself the pleasure it gave them to welcome such an important body of women to the Province, he said that in talking with the Prime Minister he could safely say that he was a public man who kept his ear close to the ground to find out what the women think of him.

The Council is a mighty organization that he understood four hundred thousand women representing no party politics not even standing for a women's party but with a mission to advocate social measures for the whole people of Canada. It is a noble mission to which they are dedicated and will result in great benefit to all.

The speaker went on to tell of the progress made in the status of women since he went into political life. He was proud that he had had a share in ameliorating the law in respect to a woman's property act and there was still more to be done. They would find the government willing and sympathetic in dealing with the material questions, the Council are enabled to have the views of all the Provinces.

A discussion which arose regarding provincial committees or councils, it was decided that Saskatchewan had a provincial council council while the other provinces have committees. Mrs. Willoughby Cummings reported for the Credentials' Committee that the total number of votes should be 318.

The meeting adjourned and a large number of delegates attended the private screening of the picture "The Light of My Daughter," at the Imperial Theatre.

Evening Session. A clear account of what the National Council means and two masterly addresses pointing out what the Council can do and how to accomplish it were given at the evening meeting. It was present with away feeling that they had been given thoughts which would inspire them to future efforts in the realization of the aims of the Council. Mrs. W. E. Sanford presided and there were with her on the platform, the Lieut. Governor Pugsley, Mrs. Pugsley, Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, President of the Local Council, Chief Justice McKown, Mrs. David McLeellan and Mrs. George Wait.

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, D. C. L., in her address entitled, "Council Snap-Shot" in a few words, gave a satisfactory answer to the often asked question, "What is the National Council?" She showed that it is a federation of women not organized in the interests of any one propaganda, but standing for all interests. There are fifty-one federations, the smallest having seven or eight, the largest, fifty or seventy, nineteen nationally organized societies, nineteen standing committees. The year book of the Council gives an account of the Standing Committees and their aims.

Among the outstanding events of the year were the visit of His Royal Highness and here Mrs. Cummings remarked that it was a matter of pride that the beloved National President had been received by the Queen this year.

Mrs. Cummings then briefly sketched some of the achievements of the various councils this year, showing wonderful success. In telling of the legislation accomplished in Ontario, named by the Farmer's Government, Mrs. Cummings caused much amusement by her description of how the delegates accomplished so much that it was almost too much for their nerves. In summing up, she said that these few results showed what can be done when women of all societies work together and that nothing will be too much to be accomplished.

Governor Pugsley's Address. After two songs beautifully rendered by Miss Katherine Gallivan, Mrs. Sanford introduced the Lieutenant-Governor.

After expressing on behalf of Premier Foster and himself the pleasure it gave them to welcome such an important body of women to the Province, he said that in talking with the Prime Minister he could safely say that he was a public man who kept his ear close to the ground to find out what the women think of him.

London, June 15.—I believe in the United States and in its future. I think that fear of a social upheaval in America are greatly over-exaggerated. With the example of Bolshevik Russia before the eyes of the home-loving people of the United States, I have no real fear.

No overture existing conditions of government means to attack the United States, and in America the state has great democratic power. The Bolshevik element may be considerable, but it is to be remarked that there is not, I think, a Bolshevik member of Congress, and no labor party in America that has more votes in America than here.

In England, labor agitation does not mean what it does in the United States. If I could I would make every British labor agitator a member of the House of Commons. It is a great teacher.

No labor minister has fallen in England because of the splendid civil service we possess. Every question answered by a Minister of Government in England is prepared by him in his department, and the permanent staff of the British Government has made labor less hurtful in administration.

It would not be surprising to see a member of the House of Commons in England. I would not welcome it—I would oppose it as hard as possible; but the evils to be found from it are not so great as some of the surface. It is in very small portions indeed Bolshevistic or Anarchistic. The British workman's back is much worse than his labor in the surface. If it is questioned, think of the present Prime Minister of England, David Lloyd George, who has been a very brilliant politician indeed, a person of a world's policy for all civilized nations. He has been a very brilliant politician indeed, a person of a world's policy for all civilized nations.

A labor government in this country would not mean "the end of every thing," as apprehensive people have suggested, and I do not believe a world in the United States. No one city in America has the same influence in the world's economy as London has on the British Isles. Within 12 hours a London newspaper can reach every corner of the British Empire, and newspapers have therefore greater power here. In a country so large as the United States it is hard to get a policy very evenly adopted, and the use of the telegraph and telephone is an excellent thing for the common cause and good judgment of the nation. After all, the laborer will not bite of his nose to spite his face.

FROM A CHILD WAS CONSTIPATED

According to the best medical authorities, fully three-fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from constipation or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and nervous headaches, jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, indigestion and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used, and strict food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This with Milburn's Laxative Pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases.

Mrs. Lillian Walman, Ortho, Ont., writes: "From a child I was constipated, and I can remember when quite young my mother giving me bottles of this every morning. It did me good. After taking Milburn's Laxative Pills for a while I am not troubled with constipation any more." Milburn's Laxative Pills are 25c. A list of all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The J. LABOR WILL NOT UPSET CONSTITUTION

Advices Action to Curb Activities of the Extremists.

By SIR GILBERT PARKER.

(Editor's note: The noted British author discusses the American situation from an impartial viewpoint as an onlooker and student of the situation.)

London, June 16.—I believe in the United States and in its future. I think that fears of a social upheaval in America are greatly over-estimated.

With the example of Russia before us, the eyes of the home-land people of the United States are turned to the East.

Associated with the very over-estimated attitude of her extremists. To be fearful and to do nothing is fatal. Action is necessary and the people should be taught the consequences of Bolshevism.

There is a most disquieting minority in the United States; but it is composed of foreigners. There will be trouble but the native American will gain and keep the upper hand; they are by nature a law-abiding, law-loving people. They are slow to arouse themselves, but when aroused they strike and strike hard.

To overturn existing conditions of government means to attack the United States, and in America the state has great democratic power. The Bolshevik element may be considerable, but it is not to be regarded that there is not, I think, a Bolshevik member of Congress and no labor party in Congress. The labor is more violent in America than here.

In England, labor agitation does not mean what it does in the United States. If I could I would make every British labor agitator a member of the House of Commons. It is a great teacher.

No labor minister has fallen in England because of the splendid civil service we possess. Every question answered by a Minister of Government in England is prepared by him in his department, and the permanent staff of the British Government has made labor law hurtful in administration.

I cannot not fear a labor government in England. I would not welcome it— I would oppose it as hard as possible, but the evils to be found in it are not so great as seem upon the surface. It is in very small proportion indeed Bolshevistic or Anarchistic. The British workman's back is much more than his blade. He will never go to extremes—never. His brain becomes rationalized and purely democratic system allows him to rise to the greatest heights.

If that is questioned, think of the present Prime Minister of England, David Lloyd George, who rose from a very humble position indeed, a penniless orphan boy, to be one of the architects of a world policy for all civilization. The man who is Herbert Hoover, President of the Board of Trade, when challenged the other day on his being a class leader, he said that when a boy he had earned his living by manual labor, I could name a dozen peers in the House of Lords who are in the same position. The poorest man in this country can rise to the highest post possible under the Crown.

A labor government in this country would not mean "the end of everything," as apprehensive people have suggested, and I do not believe it would in the United States. No one city in America has the same intensity in the whole country as London has on the British Isles. Within 18 hours a London newspaper can reach every corner of the Kingdom, and newspapers have therefore greater power here. In a country so large as the United States it is hard to get a policy very quickly adopted in spite of the telegraph and telephone, I am confident that the common sense and good judgment of the native Americans and the native-born in this land will overcome labor difficulties. After all, the laborer will not bite off his nose to spite his face.

RIGGING ALIVE WITH GREEN FIRE

Fruit Schooner Struck by Lightning—Queer Pranks Terrified Crew.

Philadelphia, June 17.—(Special.)—The Norwegian fruit steamer Rana, which came into port yesterday from Jamaica Bay, according to the crew, a most unusual and terrifying experience while coming up from the West Indies, but the thing that will live longest in the memory of all on board will be the wild pranks electrically played with it, the fire-balls blazing all over the rigging after cutting away its foretopmast, and making the sailors believe the day of doom had arrived.

The Rana was off the Delaware Capes Sunday night when suddenly, through the blinding rainstorm, came a terrific flash of light, followed by a crash that blanched every cheek, and out came the cry, "The ship has been struck by lightning!"

The crew, below at supper, shared the fear of disaster at sea was to be their fate. They rushed on deck to learn the cause of the strange commotion, and the sight they beheld almost froze their blood.

Up the mainmast and along the rigging ran dull, greenish streams of fire. The foretopmast was carried away, the lightning bolt had torn the hull, hurling it black and shivering into the deck. Not only did the Rana play about the steamer, but they appeared shooting about the sea until the officers on the bridge at the time were confident that the ship was surrounded by a fleet of vessels. The Rana is a steel schooner-rigged vessel, and there was not a mast upon which the electric balls of fire did not rest and plunge down.

USE OF ARMORIES FOR POULTRY SHOWS

The Canadian National Poultry Association recently made representation to the Federal Department of Agriculture with a view to obtain permission from the Department of Militia & Defence to allow the use of armories for the holding of poultry shows and exhibitions.

In this connection the Department of Militia & Defence states that subject to the interests of Militia Units not being adversely affected, instructions were issued some time ago to General Officers Commanding Districts that they were authorized to permit the loan of armories for any specific purpose by non-military organizations, subject to either fire insurance being taken out on the building by those proposing to use it, or special arrangements satisfactory to him (the General Officer Commanding the District) being made to safeguard the building.

In the event of any poultry Association wishing to use an armory for show purposes, a request should be made to the General Officer Commanding the District stating the dates upon which the show is to be held.

Secretary, Canadian National Poultry Association.

OBITUARY.

George M. Mills.

Benton, N. B., June 16.—The death of George M. Mills occurred on Saturday morning, June 12th, at the Annapolis County Hospital, Annapolis, N.S., following an illness of only three days. His remains were brought to his home in Benton, N. B., on Saturday. He was 29 years of age and one of the best of our energetic young farmers.

His death has cast a deep gloom over this place, as he was most highly respected; he was an active member of the United Baptist Church, the superintendent of the Sabbath school, and leader of the church choir, and most popular in the local musical circles.

He is survived by his young wife, to whom he was married only 18 months ago, Miss Marie Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kirkpatrick, of Annapolis, Canada, his father, Frank B. Mills of the G. O. P.; his mother, Annie A. Mills of Benton; one brother, Ernest Mills, of Ed. settlement; four sisters, Mrs. G. W. McElroy of Edmondston, Mrs. Thomas Patrick of Benton, and Misses Emma and Edith, at home.

The funeral was held at the United Baptist Church, Benton, on Monday afternoon, June 14th. Rev. G. N. Barton officiated, assisted by Rev. G. S. Young and Rev. Mr. Worden, all United Baptist clergymen; also Rev. H. G. Turner, Methodist; Rev. Mr. Flewelling, Anglican, and Evangelist Bell.

A very large concourse of people followed his remains to the Benton cemetery, where the beautiful Orange funeral ceremony was read by officers of No. 64 I. O. O. F., of which he was an untimely brother; he was also a member of the G. O. F., each society being well represented. The funeral was conducted by W. H. Murchie, and the pall-bearers were Wm. R. Lewis, John Anderson, Harold Anderson and Sterling McNeily.

The floral tributes were many and costly and the funeral one of the largest ever held here.

NEED INSECTICIDES FOR POTATO CROP

By G. E. Sanders.

During the past month it has been learned from various insecticide salesmen, that only a portion of the normal requirements of potato have been ordered for the potato districts of New Brunswick. The reason given by the dealers is, "The farmers say that the cold winter has killed off the potato beetles and there will be no need of using poison this year."

Investigation during the past two weeks in New Brunswick go to show that potato beetles are fully as numerous and as lively as ever. A report from Fredericton, May 21, 1920, states, "A large number of potato beetles on the wing."

In view of this fact there seems but little doubt that unless orders are placed at once for more insecticides, that there will be an acute shortage of potatoes when spraying time comes. On account of the extreme high cost of growing potatoes at the present time, the grower must get the maximum crop in order to clear expenses and also in view of the possible food shortage facing us it is in the interests of all to have potatoes produce the maximum this year.

If potato beetles are not controlled the maximum crop cannot be produced. It would seem good business for dealers to lay in larger stocks of potatoes at once in view of the probable shortage facing us it is in the interests of all to have potatoes produce the maximum this year.

Any of the common poisons may be ordered, arsenate of lime being preferred by the writer. Instructions for using all of the poisons will be issued later in these columns or may be obtained by writing A. G. Turner, Provincial Horticulturist, Fredericton, N. B., for a spray calendar.

QUOTATIONS IN ST. JOHN MARKET

The market was unusually quiet this week. Wholesale groceries remained firm at last week's prices, and there was no movement in oils or fish. The only change in hay and feed was in oats, which advanced five cents a bushel. They are now quoted at from $1.45 to $1.50 a bushel, and are very scarce, as are bran and oats.

Fish prices ruled firm. Wholesale fruits were quiet, too, although onions weakened; new Egyptians are down to $7 a crate, Texas to $3.

In wholesale meats, veal dropped two cents and is quoted at from 15 to 18c per lb.

Country produce stiffened. Potatoes were scarce and commanded high prices. Butter and eggs were also soaring; good roll butter was selling from 55c to 70c per lb.; fresh eggs from 55c to 65c a dozen.

In green groceries, bargains were offered in onions and rhubarb. Four pounds of rhubarb or three pounds of onions could be had for a quarter.

Wholesale grocers began to replete their stocks of sugar towards the close of the week, after a previous hold-up in delivery. Though sugar holds firm, it is coming in in limited quantities.

Washed and unwashed wool both dropped five cents per pound; the former now sells at from 30c to 35c per pound, and the latter at from 20c to 25c per pound.

STOCK MARKET WAS STAGNANT

New York, June 17.—The stock market was left to its own devices all day long. Prices were firm at the outset, but fell to the level of the day before by midday and inclined to heaviness at the close. Sales of barely more than 300,000 shares represented the lightest dealings for a full day since February of last year.

Fundamental conditions were unchanged, the money market presented no new features, except for the negotiations of some moderately large time loans. Industrial and commercial developments served to emphasize the prevailing state of transition.

Cables from London suggested heavy liquidation for home account, but it was not made clear that the American securities figured in the selling. Nevertheless, some of the stocks favored by London, Paris and Berlin before the war were inclined to lose ground here.

The weekly statement of the Bank of England showed another large gain in gold holdings and the local rate on London strengthened appreciably. Apart from these indications, however, there was nothing tangible on which to base the belief that more gold is soon to come to this market.

So far as stocks displayed any animation at all, the movement again converged around such specialties as American General, Barrett, National Aniline, Virginia Iron and several of the minor equipment and food shares. As usual, extreme gains in these and diverse issues experienced marked impairment at the close.

Railway and industrial bonds, notably St. Paul and U. S. Steel bonds, reflected the reactionary trend of the stock list. Liberty bonds fluctuated narrowly and International were disposed to advance. Total sales, par value, aggregated $11,450,000.

Old U. S. Bonds were unchanged on call.

MANY DECLARATIONS OF DIVIDENDS

Market Taking More Kindly to Harding's Nomination.

(F. B. McCURDY & CO.)

New York, June 17.—Expressions of approval of Senator Harding's nomination from the former Chairman of the Progressive Party are encouraging, as indicating prospects of harmonious support at election time.

The declaration of 16 2/3 per cent. stock dividend by Crucible Steel as well as $2 per share quarterly cash dividend, was in accordance with latest expectations, and is accompanied by the President's statement that the latter rate can easily be maintained on all the new stock as far as can be judged from present indications. The ease of call money yesterday was very welcome, especially since in most quarters a flurry of high rates had been expected following the June 17 disbursements.

ACTIVITY LESSENS IN PAPER ISSUES

Price Brothers Strongest of Paper Group in Yesterday's Trade.

(F. B. McCURDY & CO.)

Montreal, June 17.—Trading on the local exchange this forenoon was moderately active, the total number of shares being 7,307. Of these Brompton contributed 2,676. The Pulp and Paper issues were again the feature but there was much less activity in these. The strongest stock on the list was Price Brothers, which rose from 34 1/2 at the opening to 35 1/2. The report is heard that the directors are in favor of making another adjustment of capitalization in which shareholders would receive five shares of new stock for each share now held. Details of the arrangement are lacking but there is reason to believe that there is substantial basis for the story. The pulp and paper list was generally firm and, in spite of falling off in demand, prices continued well above recent average. Brompton shareholders have naturally been much exercised over what they are to receive by way of dividend increase or of stock dividend. This will probably be revealed following the meeting of directors which takes place this afternoon. Textile was quiet and practically unchanged. Steel Corporation common was mostly under $4 and Steel Co. mostly 75. Atlantic Sugar in spite of the increase announced in the price of the product of 2 cents per pound sold around 117. Some trading took place in Breweries at 54. The rest of the market was unsteady.

GREAT NORTHERN NOW POPULAR

(F. B. McCURDY & CO.)

New York, June 17.—There has been some fair sized investment buying of Great Northern Pfd. during the last few days. Information coming from an authoritative source, indicating a dividend will be unchanged at forthcoming directors' meeting. In connection with advance in sterling reports were again circulated that a large amount of British gold is on the way here. Action of board of Credit directors is equivalent to an increase from 12 to 14 per cent. on par of original stock and a reduction in yield from 12 to 9 1/3 per cent. on par of present stock which closed Wednesday at 144.

PULP AND PAPER DEAL TO FRONT

Rumors of Great Merger in Canada Will Not Down.

Montreal, June 17.—Rumors are everywhere current here, in well informed circles, relative to negotiations concerning an enormous pulp merger in which it is taken place in many, if not most, of the companies of importance in the province of Quebec. The merger in question is between the British Empire Pulp and Paper Corporation. The deal is said to have had its origin in the visit of Hall Caine to Canada recently and to have been an important factor in the visit of Sir Lomer Gouin to Europe.

Just One Application

(Modes of Today)
A harmless, yet very effective treatment is here given for the quick removal of hairy growths: Mix enough powdered delatone and water to cover the undesirable hairs, apply paste and after 2 or 3 minutes remove, wash the skin and the hairs have vanished. One application usually is sufficient, but to be certain of results, brush the delatone in an original package.

REFINED SUGAR OF BRITISH MANUFACTURE REACHES HERE

Regarded as Definite Evidence That Production of Sugar in England Now Exceeds Home Demand—First of Steady Stream Which May be Exported from Other Side and Help Reduce Price in Canada.

Indicating a complete reversal of international commerce conditions, in so far, at least, as sugar is concerned, the Furness Line steamer "Comino" has arrived in St. John from London carrying, among other things, five thousand bags of refined sugar on consignment to parties in Halifax. This, it is believed, is the first refined sugar of British manufacture exported from England to Canada for some years. It is regarded as definite evidence that the crisis in the British sugar market has been passed, and that the production at home is now greater than the demand of the home market. Certainly it was not the case the British Government, which controls the sugar situation there, would not have permitted this small consignment of two hundred and fifty to three hundred tons to be the first of a steady stream which may be exported from the other side. The reason is not very far to seek in this country and in the United States commercial bodies, foreseeing that this small consignment of raw sugars, repeatedly urged their respective governments to assist them by officially undertaking the arrangement of contracts with the sugar planters for the required supply of the raw product. This tendency was not very marked in Canada, but great pressure was brought to bear upon the government of the United States. No definite result was reached. In the United States the Government flatly refused to engage in any such commercial enterprise and the outcome is this—that the British Government, not being so backward, has made contracts for the entire crop of the raw product from many plantations in the British West Indies as well as in India. The prices now being paid under those British contracts vary from 7c. to 8c. per pound. While Canadian and United States refiners who were not fortunate in making future contracts are today paying from 17c. to 20c. a pound, British manufacturers are assured of far more raw sugar than they will require for their domestic trade, and it is apparent that even the demands of France and other countries will not be to the present have been heavy buyers are rapidly being met, as, otherwise, there would be no export to such a country as Canada where sugar is in comparative abundance. While it is still too early to estimate what the result of this movement may be, a feeling prevails that if imports from Britain are to continue with the British manufacturer enjoying the tremendous advantage he does, by reason of the low price for raw sugar, there must, before very long, be some slump in the prices paid in Canada, or else a greatly reduced output on the part of our refiners.

SHORTAGE OF MILK SUPPLY FELT GREATLY YESTERDAY

Many Residents Went Without Regular Supply While Cafes Were Looked After—Kings County Producers Refuse to Sell to Dealers Even if Called for With Motor Trucks—Milk from P. E. I. or Moncton District Causes Great Expense.

The Standard interviewed several local milk dealers last evening in regard to how they were placed by the present milk blockade. One dealer stated that whereas he had been accustomed to receive one hundred and fifty, eight quart cans of the Sussex train, his shipment yesterday numbered but twenty-two cans. He had been told that the farmers who shipped to him yesterday would not do so today. Some dealers had proposed collecting the milk from the farmers in motor trucks but they had been informed that the farmers would not deliver the milk to them. He was of the opinion that the dealers were "up a tree." Some suggested getting milk from Moncton and the island but he did not think the plan feasible, as refrigerator cars and special connection would be needed, and moreover the greater part of the milk supply in that section of the county was devoted to the making of butter. The supply coming down on the Sussex train averaged from 1300 to 1500 cans, yesterday's shipment totaled but 400. In speaking to another dealer he stated that he had not been much troubled, although his supply had been cut down by a third because of the shortage as he had been able to supply all his customers and hoped to continue to do so. If the Sussex train supply continued to be shut off he was of the opinion that he could secure the milk elsewhere as he did yesterday. The talk about getting up in the middle of the night to milk the cows, he characterized as "humbug." The milk coming from Hampton was that which had been milked on the previous day, and below Hampton the farmers could not claim that the hour was too early for them to be at the train with their supply. The whole trouble was caused by a few agitators and a great many of the farmers were only supporting the kickers because they thought they would be considered quitters if they did not do so. The dealer thought that the C. R. R. officials had definitely made up their minds in regard to the schedule of the Sussex train and that when the farmers saw they could not be intimidated they would finally resume their shipments. In the meantime, residents of the city are welcome to enjoy whatever solace they may find in this cheerful (?) outlook. Many a household was without milk yesterday morning and there was a great rush all day long to the grocers for the tins of condensed or other substitutes for milk. This will continue today, as the milk supply in the city will be shorter than yesterday. Some citizens are complaining that they have been left without their regular supply of milk, and at the same time the milkmen are supplying Chinese restaurants and other places with as much as six cans of milk. A man said yesterday that a dealer left six cans of milk in a store and told the proprietor that by leaving this amount he was letting the private person go without. It is possible that some of these dealers who can supply the Chinese and other dealers with so many large cans and let regular households go without milk will lose some custom. As far as could be learned last night, there will be no milk delivered in the city on the early morning Sussex express this morning. It is stated that one dealer is obtaining milk from prints east of Sussex and that it is being brought into the city by express, and in this way he expects to keep his customers supplied. In West St. John in a great many cases the milk supplied to from Lancaster milkmen who have cows and are able to look after quite a large number of families, but conditions on the western side of the harbor are quite different. Many a household went without milk all day yesterday and suffered because of the action taken regarding the Daylight system. The prospects for these people will be no better today, and substitutes for the regular delivery of milk will have to be used.

Drug Store Entered Fourteen Times

Would F. W. Munro and Other Merchants With the Law Against Theft Repealed?—Is it Fair That the Prohibitory Law be Placed in Another Category?

The press recently contained a complaint from F. W. Munro, the well known North End druggist, that his store had been broken into some fourteen times in a few months. Because of this and similar depredations, regularly occurring, has the public demanded the repeal of the law or is the law discredited? How inconsistent then to discredit the Prohibitory Law with the fact of its non-enforcement used as the chief argument. One of the great difficulties at present against the enforcement is the fact that the Dominion Law, which can be repealed if our people ask for prohibition, permits the importation of liquor from the other Provinces, in the putting a thief in of one's front door with the understanding that he can come in at the rear if so desired. If the voter is honest with himself or himself July 10th, prohibition will carry by a tremendous majority. True, the Law has its weak points, requiring some amendments, which are sure accomplishment if the people vote for prohibition July 10th, and, although the enforcement is not all that could be desired, it will be when this Province finally votes against inter-Provincial trade. Home was not made in a day, and too much should not be expected when other laws, which have been in existence for centuries, are still violated.

Police Court Special Session

Four Prisoners Dealt With Last Evening—All Were Remanded and Magistrate Will Hold Another Session at 6.30 This Morning.

The fate of the four prisoners arrested by the police yesterday afternoon and early last evening was not left long in abeyance, as a special session of the police court was held at 6 o'clock last evening. Of the four men paraded before magistrate Ritchie, three were charged with drunkenness. John Beckwith was charged with being drunk and also with escaping from the boys' Industrial Home. They were all remanded. His Honor will hold another session of the court at six-thirty this morning if necessary, so as to clear up everything for the day which he intends spending out of the city.

To Organize Public Welfare Department

Various Proposals Discussed Yesterday for Such a Department to be Shown at the Autumn Exhibition.

A meeting was held in the Mayor's office, yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. G. A. Kuhring presiding, at which various proposals for the organization of a public welfare department to be shown at the Exhibition during the autumn were discussed. The Exhibition Association has added four women to their executive, and it is felt that in view of the impetus given to public welfare and public health movements in recent years, some effort should be made to have a visual exhibition of these developments. Hon. Dr. Roberts, Minister of Health, was present and promised co-operation in making the proposed exhibit a success.

Anything Better Than Present System

Prohibition Fails to Discourage Crime—"People Going to Hell as Fast as They Can," Says Magistrate.

"Anything better than the present system" seems to be the popular feeling as regards dealing with the liquor issue. It is quite patent to all who look beneath the surface that the New Brunswick prohibitory Act has failed to remove the alleged evil of intemperance. Scarcely a county but what has had its murder tragedies in the last three years; two unsolved murders are on the records of the St. John police; jail has not been emptied, and petty crime seems to be on the increase. On the morning of May 13 last, three years after the Prohibition Law went into effect, Magistrate Ritchie, in the course of the morning's proceedings, remarked that he had been there thirty-one years, and that every day of this long period had been an object lesson to all, wet in spite of this and although the city was filled with epigrams pointing towards the heavens, "people were going to hell as fast as they could."

THE MILK SITUATION.

Don't worry about the milk shortage. Gordon's St. Charles Evaporated Milk (with the cream left in) will replace fresh milk and cream wherever they are needed; also Eagle and Mayflower Condensed (sweetened). For sale by all grocers.
