RAILWAY CLAIMS ANOTHER VICTIM

Conductor William N. Bovard Killed at Hamilton Siding Saturday.

CRUSHED BY TRUCKS.

Supposed to Have Fallen Between Cars While Coupling Air Hose.

The sad news flashed over the wires Saturday forenoon that Conductor William N. Bovard had been killed at Hamilton Siding near Charlo Station. Nobody appears to know how the accident occurred, but it seems that he was coupling the air hose on his train, the shunter, which left Campbellton that morning at eight o'clock. He evidently slipped, falling between two cars. The forward trucks of the rear car ran on to his body crushing both legs. A man working near saw Mr. Bovard under the wheels and shouted to the trainmen, who backed the car off the body. The wounded man exclaimed that he was dying and expired before they could get him into the van. The remains were taken to Campbellton from which place they were brought to Newcastle late Saturday night.

Handsome wreaths from the Brotherhood of Railway trainmen, the Home Circle, and others adorned the coffin. Crowds viewed the corpse on Sunday, Mr. Bovard having by his sterling integrity and kindly, helpful manner, endeared himself to all who knew him.

Services were held at the house and railway station Monday morning by Finsign Anderson and the members of the S. A. corps, of which deceased was a most energetic and ever-faithful member. The pall-bearers were, Engineers John Williamson and Daniel McQuarrie, Newcastle; brakemen John Haines Nelson Morton and John Friers, Moncton; and Conductor William Warman, Moncton. The remains were taken on the accommodation to Moncton for interment beside his first wife, who lies there.

Deceased was first married to Miss Elizabeth McKendrick; and his second wife, who survives him, was Miss Jean Manderson. The latter and eight children, four by each marriage, survive him, to mourn the loss of one of the kindest and most affectionate of husbands and fathers. The surviving children are: Claude, and Elias, brakemen, Moncton; Mrs. F. G. White, Barbara, William, Annie and Wallace at home.

PUGSLEY AND GRAHAM CHOSEN.

Pugsley Minister of Public Works And Graham of Railways and Canals.

TWO STRONG MEN.

L. C. R. May Now be Extended to Lake Huron.

Ottawa, Aug. 30.—Hon. Wm. Pugsley was sworn in as Minister of Public Works and Hon. Geo. P. Graham was sworn in as Minister of Railways and Canals today. The oath was administered by the clerk of the privy council, Mr. Rodolph Boudreau, in the presence of Earl Grey and Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

These are two of the largest spending departments of the government, the Public Works being regarded as the larger and more important of the two.

In assuming it Hon. Mr. Pugsley will have under his jurisdiction among other things the control of the dredging of the St. John harbor and at other points in the Maritime provinces.

It is felt at Ottawa that two great departments are being assigned to two strong and capable men.

Though one is not needed, there is a precedent for the department of Railways and Canals being administered by an Ontario man. Under the premiership of Sir John A. McDonald, Hon. John Haggart was Minister of Railways. There is no fear that Hon. Mr. Graham will follow Mr. Haggart's example of neglecting the government system of railways.

With such a man as Mr. Graham it is confidently expected that the able administration of Hon. Mr. Emmerson and Deputy Minister Butler, by which a deficit of a million and three quarters of two years ago was turned into a surplus of almost half a million this year, will be continued and improved upon. It is not improbable with the minister from Ontario, the people of that province will be given to think about the extension of the Intercolonial beyond Montreal and into the greatest province of Canada. It is not unlikely that there may be a policy adopted of developing a greater volume of traffic on the canals, which lie in Ontario.

In taking the portfolio of public works, Hon. Mr. Pugsley assumes charge of the most far-reaching portfolio of all. His wide experience in provincial politics will here serve him in good stead.

Mr. Graham now represents Brockville in the local house. He will contest the same constituency for the Commons, the sitting member, Mr. Derbyshire, having resigned.

NEW TREATY WITH FRANCE.

Improved Commercial Relations Obtained in Paris by Hon. Mr. Fielding.

Paris, Sept. 1.—W. S. Fielding, the Canadian minister of finance, will leave here to-morrow for London to lay the new commercial treaty before the British authorities. Afterward Mr. Fielding will return to Paris to arrange the last of the minor details of the treaty. The Associated Press learns that the treaty is more elaborate than that of 1893, and not only provides for a reciprocal arrangement on an increased number of commodities, but also commits itself to cover possible concrete contingencies in the future.

Responding to the country's prohibition sentiment, Canada is unable to give France a more favorable duty on champagne than was allowed in 1893, but grants a special tariff on silks and in return gets a minimum tariff on certain farm and forest products. The question as to the duty on Canadian wheat, on which the commissioners were divided, was finally settled by compromising.

MR. ROBICHAUD THEIR CHOICE.

French Delegates at Chatham Select Opposition Candidate Monday.

TWO NAMES SUBMITTED.

Choice Made Unanimous For Editor of La Justice.

The committee named by the Acadian convention which met in Chatham on August 15th to select a French speaking candidate for the Local Legislature, convened at the Babineau Hotel on Monday evening. Mr. R. Babineau in the chair. The deliberations were private. Of the thirteen members of the committee, the following nine were present:

Rogersville—Councillor John LeBlanc and André Arsenault. Alnwick—Romain Savoie, Louis P. Robichaud, and A. V. Savoie. Hardwicke—Amand Savoie. Chatham—R. Babineau and Peter Archer.

Newcastle—Stanislaus Blanchard.

There were two names placed in nomination—D. T. Robichaud, Editor of La Justice, Newcastle, and Councillor Wm. L. Allain of Neguac. The first ballot stood five to four in favor of Mr. Robichaud, and a message was received from J. D. Paulin, the absent delegate of Newcastle, authorizing the committee to cast his vote also for Mr. Robichaud. The nomination was then made unanimous. The committee have decided to throw in their lot with the Opposition.

YOUNG CHILD LOST IN WOODS.

Seven Year Old Child of George Hapes Missing For Some Hours.

The disappearance of the seven and a half year old son of George Hapes, Renous River, caused quite an excitement on Saturday last. The little fellow went with his grand-father, Morgan Hapes, to hunt some cattle feeding in the surrounding forest. After wandering some distance without finding the cattle, the grand-father thinking the little fellow might get played out, told him to sit on a large stone near by until his return. The youngster, however, soon grew tired, and started, as he thought, for home, but instead, took the opposite direction. He wandered along crossing quite a large stream and kept on going until he met an ox belonging to one of the near farmers. Thinking the animal would take him home, he followed on behind, until he lost track of him in the thick woods. Being by this time tired out, he pulled up some grass near-by, made a kind of a bed for himself, where he lay down and rested for some time. The grand father on his return, finding him missing, naturally thought he had found his way home, but when he got back an hour or so later, he found the child was not there. The neighborhood was immediately in an uproar, and everybody turned out in search. After going in various directions whooping and calling, they succeeded about eleven o'clock that night in finding him, lying, tired out in a little bed of grass, the second or third he had made with his own little hands.

BOY BY BROTHER.

Nearly a Fatal Accident Resulting From Small Boy Handling Rifle.

CLOSE CALL.

Unconscious When Brought Home, And Bullet Not Yet Located.

A distressing accident occurred at Upper Blackville Tuesday afternoon, August 27th, when a young lad named Willie Campbell, aged 15, son of James Campbell farmer and lumberman, nearly lost his life. His younger brother, aged 14, was playing with a 22 rifle, and, as is usually the case, did not know it was loaded. In some manner it became discharged, the bullet entering the elder brother's right breast about half an inch to the right of the nipple and going in a downward direction. It was some time before the boy was taken home, the little fellow having to run to the nearest house to tell what had happened. Willie was found unconscious. He was taken home, and lay in great pain all night, suffering greatly from the shock. Dr. Weir, of Doaktown, was summoned and dressed the wound. Sunday night the patient was much improved and his chances of recovery appeared favorable. The bullet has not yet been located. It is lodged somewhere near the backbone.

RESTIGOUHE CIRCUIT COURT.

Only One Criminal and One Civil Case on the Docket.

The Restigouhe circuit court was held at Dalhousie last week. There was only one criminal case on the docket. John Condon and Wm. Murphy, two strangers to the country, were charged with burglarizing the store of A. E. Alexander & Son, of Campbellton. They were convicted and sentenced by Judge Evington to serve four years in the penitentiary. James S. Harquail acted for the attorney-general.

One civil case was on the docket. Harvey and Simon LeBlanc against the Prescott Lumber Company for breach of lumber contract. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiffs of $286. Wm. Murray for the plaintiff; McAllister & Mott for the defense.

The latter, after Jonah's experience, was glad to get back to the water.

THE RACES AT CHATHAM.

Two Days of Fast Going Witnessed By Crowds Last Week.

RECORDS MAINTAINED.

A lightning fast track, almost ideal conditions and the applause of 1200 people urging horses and drivers to their utmost made the Miramichi Agricultural Exhibition Association races on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, a great success.

Tuesday's special performances were Burlin's mile in 2:16½ in the 2:19 event, lowering her mark of 2:18½ by 1½ seconds. Kremella forced the fast Fredericton entry to the mark and incidentally went the mile herself in considerably faster time than her own record of 2:19½. Belmar, a green horse from Chas. Henry's (Chatham) stable, circled the oval in the phenomenal time of 2:21½ in the 2:30 class. The 2:16 event went to Dr. Band in three straight and in fairly easy fashion, as Estill Boy did not keep up his good work throughout the entire heats, although strong at the finish.

The summary of Tuesday's events in the order of money winners is—

The feature of Wednesday's events was the defeating of Simassie, the plucky Halifax mare, by Terrace Queen. Simassie was the favorite, but only got third place in the summary. Miss Letha, the favorite in the 21 class, landed the money handily, Meadowvale taking second money, and Major Wilkes 3rd. The summary of Wednesday's events is as follows:—

The skin rids the system of more urea than the kidneys?

Nearly one fifth of the waste products of the body is eliminated by the skin. Suppose there is some unsuspected, unseen skin trouble—the pores are closed—the skin is unable to rid the system of its share of the waste.

Then the blood carries this waste product to the kidneys—immediately they are overworked—they strain to throw off the extra load. What the kidneys can't possibly eliminate, the blood takes up again and deposits on the nerves.

Then come the dull aches in back, hips and head—the nerves unstrung and irritated—the urine charged with impurities and highly colored—and you fear you have "Kidney Trouble."

Nonsense. Your kidneys are overworked—not diseased. What you need is "FRUIT-A-TIVES" to act on the skin.

Fruit-a-tives
 (or Fruit Liver Tablets)

open the clogged pores—start up healthy skin action—and let the skin perform its natural function. This instantly relieves the kidneys of overwork—the back-aches stop and the complexion is beautified. There is no excessive waste matter in the blood to bring dull headaches—the urine is cleared—the bowels are opened and regulated—and the kidneys strengthened.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" act directly on the three great eliminating organs—Skin, Kidneys and Bowels—make them well and keep them well. That is why "FRUIT-A-TIVES" cure so many cases of apparent kidney disease that are really skin troubles.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" are fruit juices—in which the natural medicinal action of fruit is many times increased by the secret process of making them. Valuable tonics and antiseptics are added and the whole made into tablets—the finest formula known to medicine. Buy them—try them—and cure yourself at home. 50c a box—6 boxes for $2.50. At all druggists or sent on receipt of price. 108

THE VISITORS GO HOME.

British Journalists Finish Their Tour of Canada, Being Much Pleased With Trip.

The party of British journalists who had been touring Canada for the last five weeks came to New Brunswick last week, ending up in St. John on the 29th inst, whence they went to Quebec to sail for home. Their farewell was expressed as follows:—
 "To the insular Briton who traverses Canada for the first time, the country will be a revelation and surprise at every turn. It will be an educative experience, which will force him to admit that there are other Englands than his. It will tell him that a too faithful submission to home staying instincts is not good, and that no Englishman's knowledge of life and the world is complete until he knows Canada. It will tell him that if the old country is ever to decay, there is a new country blossoming and increasing in abundance, fitting itself to follow in her steps by perpetuating her traditions and wisdom. This enlightenment of the British mind is proceeding and should tend to hasten the full fruition of the colonizing propaganda of the Dominion government. That reached, we may predict an influx of the best of our British manhood into Canada which will sensibly answer her repeated call for men.
 "The prospect admits another prediction. Like some other provinces the day of New Brunswick has yet to come. The eyes of the new peoples the future will bring to Canada will surely be drawn to the bright fertile country this province presents to them. The invitation the engaging scene will hold out to them will not be in vain, for they will have heard of New Brunswick and their strength and industry and substance will be hers."

Borden and Bergeron Expound Liberal Conservative Principles Here... Dr. Daniel and Senator Poirier Assist the Chief.

Mr. R. L. Borden, M. P., leader of the Liberal Conservative party, accompanied by Mr. J. C. H. Bergeron, M. P., Dr. Daniel, M. P., and Senator Poirier, spoke in the Newcastle Opera House on Tuesday evening, August 27th.

On his arrival in the afternoon, Mr. Borden and his colleagues were met at the station by a representative gathering of the local conservatives. Those present were W. A. Hickson, president of the county Liberal-Conservative Association; James Robinson, ex-M. P.; D. Morrison, M. P. P.; Senator Poirier, John McKane, Col. Maltby, John Dalton, J. D. Creaghan, A. A. Davidson, K. C., John Ferguson, R. H. Armstrong, Chas. Dalton, R. H. Gremley, R. A. Lawlor, K. C., Kay Adams, H. V. S. Parker, Ald. John Clarke, John McAllister, Dennis Doyle, W. The Conservative Platform. 1. Honest appropriation and expenditure of public moneys in public interests.

2. Appointment of public officials upon consideration of capacity and personal character and not of party service alone. 3. More effective provisions as to expenditure by political organizations, to prevent the accumulation of campaign funds for corrupt purposes and to prohibit contributions thereto by corporations, contractors and promoters, to expedite the hearing of elections petitions and to prevent collusive arrangements for the withdrawal or compromise thereof, to provide for a thorough investigation of corrupt practices, and if necessary to appoint an independent presiding officer charged with that duty, to simplify the procedure therefor and to enforce the law so amended. 4. A thorough and complete reformation of the laws relating to the Civil Service so that future appointments shall be made by an independent commission sitting upon the report of examiners after competitive examination. 5. Such reform in the mode of selecting members of the senate as will make that chamber a more useful and representative legislative body. 6. A more careful selection of the sources from which immigrants shall be admitted, a more rigid inspection of immigrants and abolition of the bonus system except under very special circumstances and for the purpose of obtaining a particularly desirable class of settlers. 7. The management and development of the public domain, in which are to be included green national franchises for the public benefit and under such conditions that a reasonable proportion of the increment of value arising therefrom shall inure to the people. 8. The operation and management of our government railways by an independent commission free from partisan control of interest. 9. The development and improvement of our national waterways, the equipment of national ports, the improvement of transportation facilities and consequent reduction of freight rates between the place of production and the market, whether at home or abroad and the establishment of a through system of cold storage. 10. The reorganization of the present railway commission as a public utilities commission with wider powers and more extended jurisdiction so as to establish thorough and effective control over all corporations owning or operating public utilities invested with franchises of a national character. 11. The establishment of due investigation of a system of national telegraphs and telephones under conditions which shall be just to capital already invested in those enterprises. 12. The improvement of existing postal facilities especially in newly developed portions of the country and the inauguration after proper sanction of a system of free rural mail delivery. 13. A fiscal policy which will promote the production within Canada of all useful articles and commodities that can be advantageously produced or manufactured from or by means of our natural resources, having due regard to the interests of the consumer as well as to the just claims of our wage earning population. 14. The promotion by negotiation, legislation and other constitutional means of a system of mutual preferential trade within the Empire. 15. The restoration of the public lands to the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan upon proper terms. 16. The utmost maintenance of all powers of self-government which have been conferred upon the provinces of Canada under the constitution.

The Newcastle Meeting. After a short address Chairman Hickson introduced Dr. Daniel, M. P. for St. John, who spoke very briefly and was followed by witty speeches in both English and French by Senator Poirier. Mr. R. L. Borden.

Mr. Borden was the next speaker, and on his rising the band played "For he's a jolly good fellow," and the audience cheered. Mr. Borden opened with a pleasant remark on the number of ladies present, and went on to say that his meetings in Nova Scotia and St. John had been very successful. He realized that the East of Canada was as great as the West. It was impossible for him at every meeting to repeat all of his Halifax platform, but he would stand by every word of it. He referred to the Saskatchewan land transactions, claiming that the government had sold vast tracts of lumber lands to their friends at a nominal price and without the formality of law or tender, thus enabling much of the country to be gobbled up by speculators. Touching on the question of public franchises, he advocated that when the cost of bonds, as in the case of a great national enterprise such as the G. T. P., was guaranteed by the people of Canada some share of the common stock should be given in return. He promised to reform the civil service bringing the latter into line with the system that prevails in Britain and, as he said, also in the United States. He would award positions on the result of competitive examinations only. He then condemned the I. C. R. management, alleging that there was no discipline among the employees in Nova Scotia, and that there were too many employees for the work done. He spoke of the West Huron and Brockville election scandals, and promised that such things shall not happen if the Conservatives come into power. He also charged that much money had been wasted in fitting out the Arctic expedition. The Conservative party had added to Canada all the new territory she had ever acquired, had built the I. C. R., stood for progress along all lines, and was going to win the next elections. Mr. Borden's speech took an hour and a quarter.

J. G. H. Bergeron. Mr. Bergeron, who followed, was the humorist of the party, keeping the audience convulsed with laughter most of the time. He said there were only two political parties in Canada, and two were enough. There had been only two

GLOUCESTER COUNTY FORGING AHEAD.

Talk of New Industries in Petit Rocher and Bathurst.

Mr. H. G. Turner, a Civil Engineer employed by Senator Edwards of Ottawa, visited Bathurst and Petit Rocher last week, making inspection of the facilities offered both in Bathurst and Petit Rocher for the erection of large lumber and pulp mills such as Senator Edwards contemplates erecting on the North Shore of New Brunswick for manufacturing of his products from the extensive limits he has recently purchased in Bonaventure County, Que.

Mr. Turner was favorably impressed with the advantages offered at Bathurst, and more particularly at Petit Rocher where the wharf breakwater now in construction will give the best desirable shipping facilities with deep water terminus and railway connection with the Intercolonial Railway.

The distance across the Bay des Chaleurs from Bonaventure River to Petit Rocher is only twenty miles as compared with at least thirty eight miles to Dalhousie. Besides, Petit Rocher district is richly supplied with limestone and pulp wood.

The Petit Rocher people are in hopes of securing the great industry owing to the superior advantages of their port and surroundings. There is also a ferry service between Petit and Bonaventure River, which would be a great benefit to the business.

Wedding Bells.

MOAR-FITZPATRICK.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at 8.30 o'clock in St. Patrick's church, Nelson, the contracting parties being Miss Mae A. Fitzpatrick, daughter of John Fitzpatrick, and Mr. Hugh A. Moar, of Chatham. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Power, after which nuptial mass was celebrated. The bride wore a dainty gown of cream silk tulle, with over dress of point d'esprit, and pretty white hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Cecile Fitzpatrick, who was escorted in green silk tulle with corsage of point d'esprit. Both bride and bridesmaid carried handsome bridal bouquets. The groom had the support of his brother, Mr. Fred Moar, of Chatham.

After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's parents, where breakfast was partaken of, after which they left for a wedding trip to Batou and other American cities. The bride was the recipient of a large array of gifts showing the high esteem in which she is held by all. The young couple have the best wishes of a large number of friends for a long and happy wedded life.

scandals under Conservative rule from 1878 to 1896, both of which had been thoroughly investigated, and the criminals punished. But the present government shielded its criminals from exposure and even promoted some of them.

He claimed that the Liberals had broken their pledges regarding free trade, economy, etc. They had kept the high tariff. Their changes in the tariff were responsible for the fact that to-day a man must pay nearly two dollars for what he could get for one dollar under the late Conservative regime. Prices had gone up from fifty to seventy per cent., and the workman did not get wages enough. A proper tariff, such as the Conservatives propose, will remedy this evil.

Since the Liberals came into power Canada had imported $6,400,000 worth of cottons and $14,000,000 of woollens. These goods might have been made in Canada had the tariff not been tinkered with. One government after another should be turned out until we get an honest one.

Mr. Bergeron spoke fifty-five minutes.

There were insistent calls from the audience for Mr. John McKane, who briefly responded, speaking of the great pleasure afforded the people of the North Shore by this visit of the leader and expressing the conviction that the next M. P. from this county would be a follower of Mr. Borden. He moved a vote of thanks to the speakers of the evening, which was heartily carried. Messrs. Borden and Bergeron left on the Maritime express that night for Three Rivers, where they were scheduled to speak next.

Senator Poirier and Dr. Daniel returned to their homes next day. Among the audience at Tuesday's meeting were Premier Robinson and Hon. F. J. Sweeney.

C. M. B. A. CONVENTION.

Fourteenth Assembly Well Attended - Membership And Balance Steadily Growing.

MONTREAL, August 27.

The fourteenth convention of the Catholic Mutual Benevolent Association opened here this morning. The procession in which over 1000 took part passed through the principal streets en route to St. James Cathedral where pontifical mass was celebrated in the presence of a large congregation.

The afternoon convention was opened by Grand President Hon. M. F. Hackett, who reviewed the work of the Association since the last convention three years ago and congratulated the delegation on the prosperous condition. Grand Secretary J. J. Behar, of Kingston, Ont., presented his report for the past three years ending June 30th, 1907. There are at present 414 active branches, 22,000 members, and a reserve fund of $236,515.19; $944,957.94 was paid out in death benefits. To-night the visiting delegates will be entertained at Dominion Park.

In his triennial address grand president Hackett advised an increase and adjustment of rates.

As to the question of the admission of women as members, President Hackett informed the convention that until the opinion of the hierarchy was known nothing would be done. As this information cannot be obtained till October nothing will be done in the matter at the present convention.

Reports presented showed the C. M. B. A. had increased its membership by 5,164 since the last convention in 1904 in Toronto. The total membership is now 21,144.

MR. BORDEN'S PLATFORM.

In Halifax on the 20th ultimo, Mr. B. L. Borden enunciated his platform, which, in order that our readers may have for themselves, we publish in full in another column.

The platform appears to us to be one of the most cautiously worded documents ever issued by a political leader. Many of its planks may mean very much or nothing at all—they are so indefinite that they would impose little or no obligation upon anyone who subscribed to them before election and found it convenient to afterwards ignore them.

For example, plank No. 5 lays down no rule for dealing with the Senate, but merely promises to make that body more useful and representative. Mr. Borden's party would in all probability consider that promise well kept when all the Senatorial vacancies were filled by Conservatives.

Plank No. 6 promises a more careful selection of the sources of immigration, but conveniently neglects to specify; it would abolish the bonus system "except under very special circumstances and for the purpose of obtaining a particularly desirable class of settlers." Delightfully vague. By what rule is it to be determined which classes or nationalities are desirable or which undesirable? Evidently no rule is contemplated but the opinion of the Conservative officers who should then be in power. What guarantee would the country then have of better immigrants than it now receives?

Plank No. 7 promises that a "reasonable proportion of the increment of value arising from the public domain (including great national franchises) shall inure to the people. Very good. But who shall determine what proportion is reasonable? The people, or the corporations who contribute to the Conservative campaign funds? Judging from the past history and traditions of the party, the people would under Conservative rule have no more to say about such things than they have now, if as much.

The 11th plank promises the establishment "after due investigation" of a system of national telegraphs and telephones "under conditions which shall be just to capital already invested in those enterprises." We should think the great success that has already attended the nationalization of telegraphs in Britain and telegraphs and telephones in New Zealand should obviate the necessity for much further investigation; but it seems that, in the event of Conservative success we are to have a Royal Commission to enquire into what we already know. The conditions of nationalization are to be "just to capital." Whether that means confiscation or the taking over of the lines at the present owners' valuation is left to the reader's imagination. Nobody but Mr. Borden himself can tell us.

Plank No. 12 is to take effect "after proper enquiry as to the cost." The proper enquiry may take years.

With plank No. 13 everyone will agree. It is so worded that you can take whatever meaning out of it you please.

Plank No. 15 promises to restore the public lands in Alberta and Saskatchewan to these provinces. Why the same promise is not made to Manitoba we do not know. But on the whole, the public lands in any province are as safe in the hands of the Dominion government as they would be if under the control of the local legislatures.

Plank No. 16 is another with which everyone else, or at least all the Liberals will also agree.

Planks Nos. 1, 2, and 3 are such as are promised by all parties in opposition, and are of value only so far as the personal of the promising party is reliable.

Unless the Conservative party has greatly changed since 1896, the personal integrity of its leaders is no higher than the average.

Plank No. 9 is another agreeable to all parties.

Only four planks of the sixteen make any definite promise of change. No. 4 advocates the appointment of civil servants by an independent Commission acting upon the report of examiners after competitive examinations. All that is needed to make this plan workable is to find the independent commissioners, who are usually scarce. No. 8 advocates the control of government railways by an independent commission, free from partisan control or interference. It sounds very nice, and will work as soon as an independent commission can be appointed by a partisan government. No. 10 will work as soon as governments can be rescued from the control of corporations—not before. No. 14 is good. It is the goal towards which all true patriots look as a step to the realization of, first, free trade within the empire; second, free trade with the world over.

The Conservative platform did not emphasize this idea when they were last in power; in fact, it was the present government that first gave Britain a preference in our markets. However, we rejoice that Mr. Borden has now adopted the idea of mutual preference as his own, and feel sure that much good will result from its agitation.

THE NEW MINISTERS.

In selecting Messrs. Pugsley and Graham for the vacant portfolios, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has considerably strengthened his cabinet and the latter's hold upon the country.

Mr. Pugsley, whose leadership in the local legislature commanded such a compact following and steady allegiance, should be, and is, well fitted to lead the Liberals of the province in the Dominion arena. His department of Public Works is as important as that held by Hon. Mr. Emmerson and will afford him many opportunities of serving his native province and the country at large.

We are specially pleased to see the portfolio of Railways and Canals go to an Ontario man. Ontario is deeply interested in the extension of the government railway to Georgian Bay, and we count upon Hon. Mr. Graham's influence to bring about that very desirable consummation. The placing of the I. C. R. in a position to handle the immense amount of extra freight an outlet on the lakes would give it would benefit the Maritime Provinces as much as Ontario and the West. Judging from Mr. Graham's record as Opposition leader at Toronto, we feel sure that he will do his utmost to improve and extend the government road, and thus carry out the plans known to be favored by his predecessor.

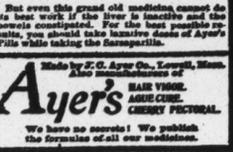

Altogether, the premier is to be congratulated upon the wisdom of his choice.

HIGHER TARIFF NO CURE.

Mr. J. G. H. Bergeron, M. P., speaking here last week, said that the blame for the fact that for what the workingman got for one dollar under the Conservative régime he now had to pay two dollars was due to the tariff changes introduced by the present government. He promised that the tariff proposed by the Conservatives, which tariff we understand would be higher than at present, would remedy the evils of low wages and costly living now endured by the workingman. But in the United States, where the tariff is the highest in the world, the people are no better off than they are here; and in Britain, where the trade is much freer than in most countries, the poor are no worse off than they are in protectionist countries where the population is equally dense. Mr. Bergeron cannot overcome the evils he complains of by merely raising or lowering the tariff.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT

Great Turnout in St. John on Monday and Tuesday This Week.

The success which attended Monday's program of the firemen's tournament in St. John was very satisfactory. The weather was fine and the crowds large. The tournament was open to the three maritime provinces and Maine and drew together the firemen of many towns and cities.

Those who attended from the Newcastle fire department were Messrs. Chas. M. Dickinson, lieutenant in command; W. J. Dunn, John Fallon, Wm. McMaster, B. F. Maltby and Frank Masson.

There were 1000 men in line in Monday forenoon's parade. The pageant was carried out without a hitch and reflected great credit on all concerned.

The sports in the afternoon were keenly contested, so much so that half the day's program had to be left over till Tuesday.

The three prizes offered by H. W. DeForest for the best turnout in the parade, were won by Halifax, Bangor and St. John companies.

In the parade were twenty men from Chatham, in blue coats and white trousers, under command of Chief Thomas Fitzpatrick, Captain A. McLennan and Lieut. Ryan.

Fredericton sent her brass band 27 strong, and 30 firemen. Moncton sent a band, 24 strong, and 30 firemen, besides the I. C. R. contingent 32 strong. Sussex sent 30; and all the principal towns of Nova Scotia, P. E. I., and Maine were represented.

In the afternoon, the sports were begun. The most exciting contest was the fifty yards hook and ladder race in which ten teams took part. Sussex and Chatham tied with 17 3/5 seconds and in the final Sussex won in 17 4/5. A report of second days proceedings will appear in our next issue.

"They invariably do," put in Jack encouragingly.

"It is barely two thousand, and—and she has been brought up to something better than that."

"Um! They mostly are. Mine has been brought up to something better than that too. That is the worst of it."

"I believe implicitly in this scheme," said Oscar. "It is a certain fact that the men who can supply pure simlacine have only to name their price for it. They will make a fortune, and I believe that Durnovo knows where it is growing in quantities."

"I cannot see how it would pay him to deceive us in the matter. That is the best way of looking at it," murmured Jack reflectively. "When I first met him the man thought he was dying, and for the time I really believe that he was honest. Some men are honest when they feel unwell. There was so little doubt in my mind that I went into the thing at once."

"If you will go on with it I will stand by you," said Oscar shortly.

"All right. I think we two together are as good as any half bred sharper on this coast, to put it gracefully."

During the ensuing silence Jack was apparently meditating over the debt of confidence which he still owed to his companion, for he spoke first and quite seriously about himself, which was somewhat against his habit.

"I dare say you have heard," he said, "that I had a disagreement with my father."

"Yes, heard something of it," replied Oscar in a tone which seemed to imply that the "something" was quite sufficient for his requirements.

"It was about my engagement," Jack went on deliberately. "I do not know how it was, but they did not hit it off together. She was too honest to throw her weight in, I suppose, for I imagine a pretty girl can usually do what she likes with an old man if she takes the trouble."

"Not with him, I think. Seemed to be rather down on girls in general," said Oscar coolly.

"Then you know him?"

"Yes, a little. I have met him once or twice—out, you know. I don't suppose he would know me again if he saw me."

Which last remark does not redound to the credit of Guy's power of observation.

They paused. It is wonderful how near we may stand to the brink and look far away beyond the chasm. Years afterward they remembered this conversation, and it is possible that Jack Meredith wondered then what instinct it was that made him change the direction of their thoughts.

"If it is agreeable to you," he said, "I think it would be wise for me to go down to Loango and gently intimate to Durnovo that we should be glad of his services."

"Certainly."

By 7 o'clock the next morning the canoe was ready, with its sylvan rowers in their places. The two Englishmen breakfasted together and then walked down to the landing stage side by side.

"Take care of yourself," said Oscar gruffly as Jack stepped into the canoe.

"All right."

"And bring back Durnovo with you," Jack Meredith looked up with a vague smile.

"That man," he said lightly, "is going to the plateau if I have to drag him there by the scruff of the neck."

CHAPTER XII.

IT is possible even in Loango to have a fling, but the carouser must be prepared to face, even in the midst of his revelry, the haunting thought that the exercise of the strictest economy in any other part of the world might be a preferable pastime.

During the three days following his arrival Victor Durnovo indulged, according to his lights, in the doubtful pleasure mentioned. He purchased at the best factory the best clothes obtainable; he lived like a fighting cock in the one so called hotel, a house chiefly affected and supported by ship captains. He spent freely of money that was not his and imagined himself to be leading the life of a gentleman. He rode round on a hired horse to call on his friends; and on the afternoon of the sixth day he alighted from this quadruped at the gate of the Gordons' bungalow.

A few minutes later Jocelyn came into the drawing room, where he was waiting, with a brazen face and a sinking heart. Somehow the very room had power to bring him down toward his own level. When he set eyes on Jocelyn, in the fair Saxon beauty, he regained aplomb.

She appeared to be rather glad to see him.

"I thought," she said, "that you had gone back to the expedition?"

"Not without coming to say goodbye," he answered. "It is not likely."

Just to demonstrate how fully he felt at ease he took a chair without waiting for an invitation and sat tapping his boot with his whip, looking for furtively up and down all the while with an appraising eye.

"And when do you go?" she asked, with a subtle change in her tone which did not penetrate through his mental epidemics.

"I suppose in a few days now. But I'll let you know all right, never fear."

Victor Durnovo stretched out his legs and made himself quite at home, but Jocelyn did not sit down. On the contrary, she remained standing persistently and significantly.

"Maurice gone away?" he inquired.

"Yes."

"And left you all alone," in a tone of light badinage.

"I am accustomed to being left," she answered gravely.

"I don't quite like it, you know."

"You?"

She looked at him with a steady surprise which made him feel a trifle uncomfortable.

"Well, you know," he was forced to explain, shuffling the while uneasily in his chair and dropping his whip, "one naturally takes an interest in one's friends' welfare. You and Maurice are the best friends I have in Loango."

"Maurice has always spoken of you with gratitude," she said.

"Deaf ears, eh? Yes, he has reason to be grateful, though perhaps I ought not to say it. I have put him into several very good things on the coast, and it is in my power to get him into this new scheme. It is a big thing; he would be a rich man in no time."

He rose from his seat and deliberately crossed the room to the sofa where he had sat down, where he reclined, with one arm stretched out along the back of it toward her. In his other hand he held his riding whip, with which he began to stroke the skirt of her dress, which reached along the floor almost to his feet.

"Would you like him to be in it?" he asked, with a meaning glance beneath his lashes. "It is a pity to throw away a good chance; his position is not so very secure, you know."

She gave a strange little hunted glance round the room. She was wedged into a corner and could not rise without incurring the risk of his saying something she did not wish to hear. Then she leaned forward and deliberately withdrew her dress from the touch of his whip, which was, in this way, a subtle career.

"It is throwing away the chance?" she asked.

"No, but you are."

Then she rose from her seat, and standing in the middle of the room faced him with a sudden gleam in her eyes.

"I do not see what it has to do with me," she said; "I do not know anything about Maurice's business arrangements and very little about his business friends."

"Then let me tell you, Jocelyn—well, then, Miss Gordon, if you prefer it—that you will know more about one of his business friends before you have finished with him. I've got Maurice more or less in my power now and it rests with you."

At this moment a shadow darkened the floor of the veranda and an instant later Jack Meredith walked quietly in by the window.

"Enter, young man," he said dramatically, "by window-center."

"I am sorry," he went on in a different tone to Jocelyn, "to come in this unceremonious way, but the servant told me that you were on the veranda with Durnovo, and—"

He turned toward the half breed, pausing.

"And Durnovo is the man I want," weighing each word.

Durnovo's right hand was in his jacket pocket. Seeing Meredith's proffered salutation, he slowly withdrew it and shook hands.

The flash of hatred was still in his eyes when Jack Meredith turned upon him with aggravating courtesy. The pleasant, half cynical glance wandered from Durnovo's dark face very deliberately down to his jacket pocket, where the stock of a revolver was imperfectly concealed.

"We were getting anxious about you," he explained, "seeing that you did not come back. Of course, we knew that you were capable of taking care of yourself."

He was still looking innocently at the teltale jacket pocket, and Durnovo, following the direction of his glance, hastily thrust his hand into it.

"But one can never tell with a treacherous climato like this what a day may bring forth. However, I am glad to find you looking so very fit."

Victor Durnovo gave an awkward little laugh, extremely conscious of the factory clothes.

"Oh, yes; I'm all right," he said. "I was going to start this evening."

The girl stood behind them, with a flush slowly fading from her face. There are some women who become suddenly beautiful, not by the mere practical human flush. Jack Meredith, when he took his eyes from Durnovo's, glancing at Jocelyn, suddenly became aware of the presence of a beautiful woman.

The crisis was past, and, if Jack knew it, so also did Jocelyn.

A WAY TO BETTER BREAD.

Good housekeepers, it is said, are known by the bread and pastry they provide for their homes. When we come to think of it, is there one thing in which a housekeeper should excel—in which she should take more pride—than in her snowy, delicious, wholesome home-made bread?

Any woman can make white, light, nourishing bread. One of the commonest causes of failure in the baking is the use of poor flour. Flour, made of Ontario fall wheat alone, though nutritious and faultless as to flavor, is not strong enough. Manitoba wheat, on the other hand, is deficient in fine flavor and delicacy, although full of strength.

A blend of the two has been found to give wonderful results. This does not mean that you can mix them at home—it is difficult to do that except with the finest

EDITOR'S MAIL.

(The opinions expressed in this column are not necessarily those of the editor.) THE INDIANTOWN QUARRY. The Editor Union Advocate.

Dear Sir, I wish to say a few words in reference to this Quarry, which might more properly be called a Man Trap. I am not after blood-money or anything like that, but I think it is time something was said in reference to the management of this concern.

From the first it was always unsatisfactory, the men's pay being kept back from three to six months, and many persons said that somebody would be killed there. People about the place took their boys away from the Quarry lest they should be killed, and many if not most of the men were afraid to work there, lest they should be killed. Besides, the men complained of poor lodging and all that.

The accident in which my boy, Herman, and two others were killed was, as the Jury well said, the result of criminal carelessness, for which the Company should be made to pay dearly if they were worth anything. Another accident has happened since and no one knows how long this is to go on, unless the authorities interfere.

For my part nothing can repay me for the loss of my boy, and I hereby beg to thank most sincerely all those who turned out to show their sympathy, from all parts of the county where he was known and respected. I have lived in this country a long time and everyone who knows me will believe me when I say that I always tried to treat everyone fairly.

But this blow has fallen so heavily on us all that I feel there are no words in the language sufficiently strong to condemn the cruel carelessness that led to that accident.

Yours very truly, JOHN O'BRIEN, Indiantown, N. B., Aug. 25, 1907.

MOOSE CAUSING CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE

One Farmer Has Had a Four Acre Field of Oats Eaten Off By Them Lately

Moose have been doing considerable damage of late. One recent complaint was from James Savage of Lower Newcastle, who saved a field of four acres in extent with oats. The land lies about a mile away from any settlement and Mr. Savage says that the grain has never grown above six inches in height as the moose feed there, coming in small herds and eating down and eating in order to crop close to the ground. Adjoining his field is one belonging to Gordon Bros., and here in a twelve acre field of crops the moose have wrought the same havoc.

"What can we do?" demanded Mr. Savage. "We can build fences to keep off the moose, we can shoot them, or John Robinson will come down on us with his gun, and if we haven't money then it is the lock up for us. They are destroying a big lot of property and we can do nothing."

Mr. Savage has others with him in this matter. One Napoleon Ferrer not only had part of his crops destroyed but a moose got tangled up with his hay rake, and when he came out the rake wasn't worth hauling in to the barn.

and most delicate machinery. Most of the best millers are blending the rich Ontario fall wheat with the flinty Manitoba wheat, thus bringing out all the good qualities of both.

With this Ontario Blended Flour you will have no trouble in making light, white bread—bread with that peculiarly sweet, wholesome taste which one naturally associates with home-made bread.

GREAT QUEBEC BRIDGE FALLS.

Without Any Warning the Southern Extension Collapses Into the River.

SCORES DROWNED.

Many Crushed to Death by Falling Girders, And Only a Few Rescued

Quebec, Aug. 29.—The great Quebec bridge collapsed this afternoon, and now the vast mass of steel work lies a tangled wreck across the St. Lawrence channel, while so far as can be estimated 84 men have lost their lives in the disaster.

The bridge fell exactly twenty-three minutes to six this evening, just as many of the workmen were preparing to leave. It was, however, so horribly effective in wiping out the lives of the men employed on it that very little is known as to how it happened, and those who are left are so completely numbed by the horror of the situation that they can do little to aid the situation.

It was the southern extension of the bridge which collapsed, and this was rapidly nearing the zenith of the immense steel arch which was to span the river. For 800 feet from the shore the massive steel structure reared an arch, with no support but the piers from the shore and one pier erected in the river about 200 feet from the shore while the outward extremity was 180 feet above the water.

Suddenly those on the northern shore saw the end of the half arch bend down a little, and a moment later the whole enormous fabric began to break down, slowly at first, then with a terrific crash, which was plainly heard in Quebec and which shook the whole countryside so much that the inhabitants rushed out of their houses, thinking an earthquake had happened.

There were about ninety-two men at work on this part of the bridge, and only eight have so far been taken out alive.

The bodies rescued so far are in a terrible state, crushed and broken until they can scarcely be recognized. Only one man was taken from the bridge alive, and he was so frightfully injured that he died a few minutes after being taken to his home.

Work was going on as usual. The men being employed in placing the immense girders in position. At this work a track had been laid on the bridge and an engine with freight cars and several moving cranes were employed on getting the steel into position.

The engine was seen to start out for the end of the bridge with a load of steel, and as it approached the end, the first premonition of disaster was experienced by the engine driver who felt his engine jerk. He at once shut off steam, but the engine continued to move. The outward side of the structure literally ducked a little, and a moment later collapsed.

This much has been gathered from the engineer who by some marvellous chance escaped the general destruction. He fell with his engine, as the bridge gave way, but is not able to say how he escaped. He was picked up later by a boat, and became unconscious, and when he recovered his senses, knew little beyond the fact that he felt the bridge go and knew he was falling. When he returned to consciousness he was on the shore. The rest of his crew were in the river.

It was stated this evening by men working on the bridge that the terrible accident was caused by the anchor pier giving way under the tremendous strain.

The property loss is about $2,000,000.

I have smothered with letter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to do.—D. H. BEACH, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all druggists.

FISH DIET AND CLEVERNESS

A short time ago The Capital referred to the large number of Miramichi men who have held and now hold high public positions in Fredericton. To emphasize this point, we merely call attention to the remarkable fact that the present Lieut.-Governor of this Province, (Hon. Mr. Tweedie) and his predecessor (Hon. Mr. Snowball) were both Miramichi men. Now, Mr. John F. McKane, (another Miramichi man) is becoming an important political factor. The North Shore is famous for its fisheries, and it is said, that fish is an excellent stimulant for the brain. Perhaps this has something to do with the marvellous success of our North Shore neighbors.—Fredericton Capital.

IRON FIND NEAR BATHURST.

Dr. A. G. Young, of the Dominion Geological Department, who was in Londonderry last week, stated in conversation with a gentleman at that place that there is a great body of ore at or near Bathurst, N. B. The doctor further stated that it is a good article, ranging from 35 to 65 per cent. It is situated near to tide waters and near by is a great water power sufficient to run the machinery of an extensive iron manufacturing plant. On top of the above statement comes what perhaps is a more interesting one to many readers of the Sun, namely, to the effect that the Londonderry Iron and Mining Company, Limited, is about to acquire the property mentioned. It is said that a prominent mining official of the company recently visited Bathurst and examined the mine, which has been developed in a small way along prospecting lines.—Truro Sun.

A HEALTHY OLD AGE

OFTEN THE BEST PART OF LIFE Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life.

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. M. J. Dabruz

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth.

When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary J. Dabruz, of 179 Main Street, Winnipeg, Manitoba, writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a blessing to me through that delicate period known as the change of life. For six years it disturbed my entire system. I had hot flashes, was extremely nervous, became pale and debilitated, very irregular in the monthly flow, and the blood seemed to be in my head. I had frequent palpitation and throbbing of the heart; in fact, my whole system seemed to be in disorder. I received no relief from the suffering incident to this period until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; but I date my relief from the time I took the first bottle. I gradually improved, nature took her course peacefully, and in due time I was a well woman. Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost."

SAYS THIS IS BEST

A leading health journal in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood?" prints in a recent issue the following:

- Fluid Extract Dandelion one ounce; Compound Salsone, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, four ounces.

Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. A well-known physician states that these are harmless vegetable ingredients, which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy. This mixture will clean the blood of all impurities. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsaparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsaparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Salsone and Extract Dandelion, works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid, and other impurities that cause disease. It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

WEDNESDAY EVENING.

Miss Lena Duthie Delighted Her Large Audience in Scotch and Irish Songs.

All lovers of good musical entertainments who were fortunate enough to hear Miss Lena Duthie in her rendering of Scotch and Irish songs and story; Mr. W. H. Ross, in his charming mastery of the bag-pipes; and their talented accompanist, Miss Margaret Duniel, in the Opera House, Wednesday evening, are very grateful to the fire department for being instrumental in providing the treat. The house was well filled. Piper Ross captured the hearts of the audience at once; and Miss Duthie kept them in rapt attention. She first came out attired in highland costume and sang "Bonnie Mary o' Argyle," "O Whistle and I'll Come to You," "Afton Water," "Skye Boat Song," and "The Hundred Pipers," responding several times to insistent encores. With Mr. Ross she delightfully rendered "The Crookit Bawbee." In the second part, she was in Irish peasant costume, and sang the songs of Ireland, such as "Come Back to Erin," "Last Rose of Summer," "Pretty Girl Milking Her Cow," "Kathleen Mavourneen and "Rory O'Moore." Mr. Ross in kilts, showed the audience how to dance the Highland fling. He responded to one encore, and gracefully dismissed the others. In the final part, Miss Duthie was a Newhaven fishwife, and sang beautifully "Caller Herrin'," "There's Nae Luck About the House," "Comin' Through the Rye," and "Feir a Bhata" in Gaelic. At the conclusion everybody sang "Auld Lang Syne" and the national anthem, and went home well pleased.

PURE FOOD LAW IN EFFECT.

Strict Regulations For Canning
And packing Food Products.

FORTY INSPECTORS.

All Must be Marked With Name of Firm and "Canada, Approved.

The packing and canning business of Canada came yesterday under the inspection act of last session. All establishments doing an export or interprovincial business trade in meats, fish, fruits and vegetables, are subject to it. Establishments preparing meats will be under the act and are liable to inspection at any time.

The act provides and the regulations declare that only healthy, wholesome meats, fish fruits and vegetables can be packed and that all must be marked with the name of the firm and after inspection the words, "Canada approved."

There are from 25 to 30 meat packing places which will at once come under its inspection. There will be a staff of 40 inspectors set to work on Sept. 3 and for this year's work there is an appropriation of $75,000.

The most striking feature of the regulations are the provisions for cleanliness.

It is declared that all establishments having inspection shall be suitably lighted and ventilated. All appliances, such as tables, trucks, vats, machines, containers, etc., must be kept clean and sanitary.

All steps in the course of production shall be carried on carefully and with strict cleanliness, and under the supervision of an inspector.

Rooms in which carcasses, parts or products thereof, are prepared shall be frequently whitewashed or painted and shall contain facilities for cleaning all equipments.

Employees of the establishments engaged in handling foods must be free from tuberculosis or other communicable diseases, and must observe such general rules as to sanitation as may be deemed necessary by the inspector in charge. No carcasses or parts thereof entering into the production of food shall be allowed to come into contact with anything that will contaminate or deteriorate them.

Covering used by employees to protect their clothing or persons shall be of material easily cleansed. Dressing rooms and lavatory accommodations shall be ample, sanitary and fully equipped, and shall be entirely apart from any room or compartment used for the production or storing of food.

The yards or pens belonging to or used in connection with any establishment shall be maintained in a clean, comfortable and sanitary condition and shall not be used for the fattening of swine or other animals, nor shall any offal or other refuse from the establishment be utilized for feeding purposes. Inspectors in charge of each establishment will suggest to the manager or owner any needed changes in the sanitary conditions, and will be required to report weekly to the veterinary general as to the general observance of this section.

Inspectors are authorized to refuse inspection if sanitary conditions are not observed.

CHATHAM DEANERY MEETING.

And Sunday School Teachers Convene at Chatham Last Week.

A meeting of the Anglican clergy, Sunday School teachers and other lay workers of the Chatham Deanery met in St. Mary's School room, Chatham, at 2.30 p. m., on the 27th ult., Archdeacon Forsythe presiding. After an address by the chairman, a paper was read by Canon Cowie of Fredericton on the Rector's Responsibility to the young of his parish. This paper drew out a lively discussion. Then followed a "sand table" lesson by Miss Ethel Jarvis, of Trinity Church, St. John, on the journey of the Israelites from the Red Sea to the Desert of Sin. This lesson aroused much interest and appreciative comment. A paper on the Power of an Ideal, was read by Miss Thompson, of Newcastle.

There was evening prayer at 5.30 and later a social gathering at the rectory.

Wednesday morning, Holy Communion was celebrated, at eight, and at ten there was a meeting of ladies, addressed by Mrs. Thomas Walker, of St. John, pres. of the Diocesan branch of the Women's Auxiliary, and by Mrs. Howard, secretary of the same society. As a result, it is hoped to have branches of the auxiliary formed in the different parishes represented.

Simultaneously the Deanery chapter met at the Rectory. In the afternoon the delegates took a trip on the "Dorothy N." which on her return landed the delegates at Bushville. They attended service in St. Paul's church, Chatham Head, that evening. Dr. W. O. Raymond, of St. John, preached from 1 Corinthians 16:13. After the sermon refreshments were served on the bank of the river near. The delegates then returned to Chatham, and attended the concluding service of the meeting in St. Mary's Church where a sermon was preached by Rev. Canon Cowie.

The Clergymen of the Deanery present were: Archdeacon Forsythe, Chatham; Revs. W. J. Wilkinson, Bay du Vin; W. J. Bate, Dalhousie; and F.W. M. Bacon, of Newcastle. The Lay Readers were Messrs. Scarey, Harcourt; McEvoy Flatlands, and Davis, of Doaktown. Among the lay delegates from Newcastle were Mr. J. G. Kethro, Miss Thompson, Misses Gertrude and Marjorie Davidson and Misses Jennie and Amy Morrell.

From Derby, Misses Crocker attended; and Misses Flett and Saunders from Nelson. Mrs. Bate, of Dalhousie accompanied her husband. There were also delegates from Campbellton, Harcourt, Bathurst, Dalhousie, Bay du Vin and Chatham.

Inspectors in charge of each establishment will suggest to the manager or owner any needed changes in the sanitary conditions, and will be required to report weekly to the veterinary general as to the general observance of this section. Inspectors are authorized to refuse inspection if sanitary conditions are not observed.

$15,000.00 IN CASH.

The FREDERICTON EXHIBITION makes its first appearance in our columns to-day, and the large amount of money ($15,000) that is offered in premiums should bring together the greatest number of exhibits ever shown in this section. Fredericton has always put up a gilt edge Fair, and from appearances this year's will surpass them all. With increased facilities and large additions to their ground the management seem to be keeping pace with the times.

Starting with one small building in 1888, costing about $400.00 and running a small County Cattle Show, offering a premium list of about $500.00, and to-day with a plant valued at nearly $25,000 and offering prizes of $15,000, places the FREDERICTON EXHIBITION among the big fairs of Canada and certainly points to good management and enterprise in the last nineteen years on the part of the Association.

The programme for this year is a good one. Persons interested in Agricultural pursuits can feast their eyes on the best products of the soil of the Maritime Provinces and view the fine horses and pure bred cattle, sheep and swine that the Provinces-by-the-Sea are noted for. The Poultry and Pet Stock lover will have much to attract his attention, and the Ladies Department, Arts, Domestic and Fancy Work, promises a magnificent display of all that delights the feminine heart.

The management has not forgotten the Amusement end and offer unusual Special Attractions costing thousands of dollars, which have never before appeared east of New York City.

Special Excursion and low rates are offered by all transportation lines, and realizing that the "Celestial City" will be invaded by vast crowds of visitors during the week, September 14-21, the Exhibition Directors have opened a Lodging and Information Bureau, in charge of competent persons who will attend to the wants of all who are unable to find accommodation at the hotels. The management assure us that there is room and accommodation for all; everybody will be looked after and nobody neglected.

The following provincial appointments are gazetted:
Gloucester—R. D. Dunstan, M. D. and Francis Joseph Melanson, to be justices of the peace.

King—James E. Hoyt, to be a justice of the peace.

Madawaska—George Henner, F. Conners to be justices of the peace.

Mr. R. A. Scovil, formerly of Gagetown, is the editor of the Sun, a new weekly started at Bawlf, Alberta. The first issue made its appearance on August 16. The Sun is a paper of eight pages, and contains an amount of local and general news. Mr. Scovil is evidently a man of some importance in the community, as he figures as secretary treasurer of the board of trade, of the tennis club and of the Bawlf brass band.

PAPER MILL FOR CHATHAM.
A project that is receiving attention from some business men is the starting of a paper mill in Chatham for the manufacture, among other lines, of wrapping paper by the soda system which is at present being employed successfully in Norway. A suitable site has already been looked into, and the company will need a guaranteed supply of 1,000,000 gallons of water daily together with suitable assessment arrangements.

MILLER 233; MORRISON 207

Novel Contest Now Being Conducted by Local
A O H.

MUCH INTEREST.

Canvassers Hustling for Their Respective Favorites.

The voting contest between the friends of His Worship, Mayor Miller, and Mr. Donald Morrison, M. P. P., which is being conducted by Division No. 4, A. O. H., is getting lively and interesting. The canvassers are warming up to their task and doing all they can for their candidates. Each vote costs ten cents, and one can vote as often as he chooses. On September 12th a public meeting will be held in the Opera House, and the winner will be presented with a gold headed cane.

The vote at last report stood:
Miller, 233.
Morrison, 207.

Peter Hughes, a well known farmer of St. Mary's, York County had a narrow escape from death or serious injury on Wednesday from a stray bullet which whizzed by him while he was working on his farm near the St. Mary's rifle range. Mr. Hughes is of the opinion that the shot was fired from the St. Mary's rifle range.

The Chinese at Singapore, to the number of 180,000, have resolved to discontinue the practice of public ancestor worship, including feasts and public processions, and to devote the money thus saved, estimated at $100,000 a year, to educational purposes.

On Wednesday afternoon a colored lad named Mathew Dawson was placed in quarantine in Dalhousie for smallpox. Dr. Meshaon, chairman of the Board of Health, was immediately notified and diagnosed the case as smallpox. The patient is isolated about a mile from town. Dawson is about eighteen years of age, a native of the West Indies and came to New Bandon, Gloucester Co., about two years ago, but of late has been working at Charlottetown, Restigouche county.

A REMARKABLE RECORD
A remarkable instance of longevity and freedom from invasion by death has lately been reported of a Campbellton, N. B. family that of the late James Calder, who's death at 86 years was the first to occur in the immediate family in 65 years. The family contains thirteen children, all of whom with their mother, now 84 years old are alive to-day, the oldest being over sixty and the youngest 36 years old.

The largest skeleton of a prehistoric lizard ever found had been discovered in the rich fossil beds of Wyoming. It is 314 feet long and one of the vertebrae weighed a little over 1,000 pounds.

"How do you like my new hat?" asked the first woman of the other at the matinee. "Total cost was only $20."

"Pardon me, madam," chimed in the disgusted man behind, "but you should include the price of my seat, which makes the total $21.50."

Eight-year-old Parthenia—Mamma, I assure you the death of our cat has upset me dreadfully.
Mamma—Don't you mind, darling, papa will buy you another.
Parthenia—O, mamma, I would I could cry like a child.
