SPARTACANS DECIDE TO SETTLE ISSUE BY ARMS

GOVERNMENT HAS 25,000 LOYAL TROOPS

BERLIN, March 8.—The Spartacans determined yesterday afternoon to break off all negotiations with the government and settle the issue by fighting.

This action was taken despite the fact the government forces were extending their control of the city and apparently had broken the revolution. After a day of comparative success, the revolutionists were again on the defensive last night and the battle had become one of guerrilla warfare. The tide turned when government airplanes began dropping huge bombs on the roof of the royal stables, occupied by the revolutionists. The buildings were practically demolished and scores of sailors were killed or wounded. The remainder surrendered.

Shortly afterward Alexander Platz, which had changed hands several times and where the chief Spartacan resistance was centered, was taken by storm by government troops. More than a hundred revolutionists were captured there.

While the Spartacans were losing their hardwon military advantage, the general strike was gaining. Workmen DEMOLITION HUTS. Military authorities are rapidly preparing for the demobilization of Canada's fighting men in different parts of Canada. Wooden huts, of which this is a specimen are being rushed to completion for the men's occupation.

Prussian Diet to Open

INDICATES THAT REVOLUTION HAS FAILED

BERNE, March 8.—A Wolff Agency dispatch, filed in Berlin on Thursday and received here to-day, announced that the Prussian Diet would open next week. This was accepted as proof of the government's confidence that the revolution had failed.

German Austria Has Ratified the Union

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY TAKES ACTION

BASLE, March 8.—The special commission of the Austrian national assembly has unanimously ratified the government's plan to declare formally that the German-Austrian republic is an integral part of the German republic, a Vienna dispatch announced to-day.

Referendum to be Taken on Prohibition Issue

Will be Held Next September or Earlier.

PEOPLE TO DECIDE WHAT THEY WANT

Toronto, Mar. 8.—Hon. T. W. McCarty, Provincial Treasurer, speaking at a meeting of Ward Three Conservative Association at St. George's Hall last night said: "A wide open referendum on the Prohibition question will be taken in Ontario, possibly in September next or possibly sooner, for the people to determine what measure they want. I believe the people will be able to vote on the question in a very open fashion. When the boys come home, possibly in September or before, or it may be a little later, the people will decide the question for themselves, and the reference will be wide open, as is desired by the Temperance people and the liquor interest. Whatever the question is, it will be upheld by the Government. The people will be given every opportunity of expressing in the fullest possible manner their desire on this important question. Mr. G. A. Warburton and the Committee of One Hundred were not a factor in the passing of the Ontario Temperance Act, and they will not be a factor, so far as the Government is concerned, in determining the issue of permanent prohibition."

Rapture Will Not Stay

WORK OF THE ARMISTICE COMMISSION

BERNE, March 8.—A rupture of negotiations between the German and Allied Economic Commissions will not affect the work of the Armistice Commission, which is continuing its conference, it was announced in a dispatch received from Berlin to-day.

The German delegates broke negotiation after insisting that the latter must guarantee to furnish Germany with enough food to last until the next harvest before Germany would consent to surrender her merchant fleet.

This conference was entirely distinct from the armistice commission which deals with military problems.

Irish Leaders Say United States Will Help

O'KELLY MAKES STATEMENT

PARIS, March 7.—If the Irish question is not settled by the peace conference, friends of Ireland will stop ratifications of the league of nations in the American Congress. Provisional Irish republic to the peace conference declared in a statement to-day.

He expressed doubt that any league of nations could be formed and said that the Irish "have spoken gently" to President Wilson long enough. "We can stop ratifications of this league of nations in Congress if the Irish question is not settled," the Irish delegate declared. "It is my opinion that there will be no league of nations, at any rate there will be no peace in Europe, because Ireland will fight and the world knows that Ireland can fight."

Boy Falls Over Niagara

PRECIPICE BUT MAY LIVE

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 8.—Twelve year old Morris Knight fell over precipice across the river last night, while playing with his comrades.

He landed on the gorge railway tracks, two hundred feet below, but though picked up unconscious, the doctors say to-day he will probably live, as they think he was not badly injured.

Firemen and other helpers were working from the top of the bank with ropes and ladders, thinking the lad may have been caught by trees and crevices in the fall from the cliff, when a motorman on the gorge car discovered the boy lying on the tracks, just in time to avoid running over him.

Nine Ontario Cities In Industrial Contest

All Trying to Land Branch of American Truck Co.

PROSPECTS OF US GETTING IT ARE GOOD

A Canadian branch of a big American commercial truck company is to be established somewhere in Ontario. Its headquarters are in Wisconsin. It has applied for a Canadian charter.

In addition to this city, Windsor, Chatham, Hamilton, London, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, Welland and Toronto are striving to get the industry.

The matter is to be finally decided on Monday next at the company's head office. A local man, who has been busy as a mailer, trying to get the company to locate here, is hopeful that it may elope to pitch its tent in this city.

AT THE MARKET

There was a good attendance at the market this morning and buyers were easily supplied with their needs. The good condition of the roads as usual caused the farmers to come. Butter and eggs were plentiful, the former selling at 48 cents; in some cases a higher price was asked. Eggs sold at 40 cents. There was a large quantity of potatoes which sold at 30 cents a large basket and $1.25 a bag; some sold for less. Apples were also plentiful but had been more expensive they would have been bought. They sold at $1.00 a bushel, 20 to 50 cents a large basket, and $4.00 a barrel. Cheese sold at 30 cents a pound, and honey at about 27 cents a pound. There were not many vegetables this morning. Fowls were scarce, hardly any were offered, it being just before Easter and hens are just starting to lay.

Hay sold at $21 a ton and straw at $11 a ton. A large load of rails sold at $6 a load and cut hard wood at $6 a half cord. Market Clerk Sachs as usual measured the wood offered. Live veined pigs were sold at $6, $8, $10, according to size.

To Take Employees to and From Work

Big Local Industry Granted License To Operate Trucks

A license to operate a truck system to carry its employees to and back from work was yesterday granted to one of the city's big industries by the Police Commission. The plant who have decided on the innovation are the Dominion Tire Company.

The company has been operating its trucks during the past week and yesterday its representatives, the Police Commission and the Light Commission held a conference at which the matter was considered. The Light Commission had been asked to be present in order that their views might be ascertained, they operating the street railway, which is owned by the city.

The applicants for a license were granted one, good for a year, and the operations will be confined to two routes and will be limited to employees of the company. The routes will include the East Ward and the South.

As soon as the street railway line is extended in the outlying sections of the city, the service, it is understood, will be discontinued.

The step by the Dominion Tire Company is another indication of the progressiveness of its policies and of its modern way of catering to the needs of not only its many employees but the whole city.

Authorities Say That Reports Were Strong

RIOTING IS TO BE INVESTIGATED

LONDON, March 7.—An official statement, issued by the Canada Military Headquarters in reference to the rioting at Kinnel Park, says it is regretted that some accounts of the fighting, in which Canadian soldiers took part, exaggerate the seriousness of the incident but gives no details of what happened.

It is explained that the lack of shipping facilities to take Canada soldiers back home is due partially to strikes and it is said that the dissatisfaction of the soldiers over alleged preferential treatment in embarkation may be attributed to the fact that the men have been divided into sections according to the Canadian military districts from which they come. By this means some shorter service men were sent home ahead of some who had been under arms for a longer period.

A special court of inquiry has been ordered to continue an investigation.

RIOTS ATTRIBUTED TO SHIPPING SITUATION

OTTAWA, March 8.—In an official statement to-day from the Ministry of Canadian Overseas Military Forces, the riots of Canadian soldiers at Kinnel Park, Wales, are attributed to the shipping situation.

The statement admits that owing to the system adopted of sending troops home by units, many men who have seen years of service and are concentrated at Kinnel park, and who were to go home in February, had to step aside, because ships were withdrawn, and such as were available were needed for complete units.

The statement said: "It is not attempted in the slightest degree to excuse the conduct of the men who took part in the disturbance. Many of the fenders are under arrest and will be rigorously dealt with. It is hoped there will be no recurrence of delays which have hitherto taken place. Five were killed and twenty-one wounded, including two officers. There is no foundation for the report that a New Brunswick major and V. C. man, was either killed or injured.

Brigadier-General McBrien is president of the court of enquiry."

A CANADIAN OFFICER'S STATEMENT

TORONTO, March 8.—A Toronto officer recently returned, states that the Olympic on her last trip to New York brought over 3800 Alabama negroes from Brest, France.

"These niggers had never smelled powder, yet our Canadian boys, who have been four years at the front, can't get home," he added: "Is there any wonder there has been trouble?"

OPINIONS OF VETERANS

TORONTO, March 8.—Many of the veterans who returned this morning from the troopship Cassandra had heard nothing of the riot which had occurred at the Kinnel camp but practically all of them said they were not surprised to hear that there had been trouble.

They state that a good deal of dissatisfaction exists among the older service men in England. Men of the first contingents are incensed over the fact that draftees are being sent back to Canada first. The conditions at Rhyll camp are described as bad. The camp is said to be devoid of all organization, and the sleeping accommodation is "unfit for human beings."

The food was described by many of the men as being unfit to eat. They were compelled to go into the town and spend their own money to satisfy their hunger, "and we had none too much either," said one veteran, "because we were not allowed to draw any pay while at Rhyll camp."

As many as forty-two men were

Some Lake Water Again Being Used

Supt. Says it is Necessary. Waterloo's Opinion.

Questioned regarding the use of lake water which has been reported and the reason for using it Superintendent H. Hymmen of the Waterworks said that the ordinary supply had proven insufficient. "What is the reason?"

"Well, we were simply using it faster than we were pumping." The water out at the plant reservoir was 34 feet lower, he said.

The Superintendent questioned about Waterloo water said that the city had been securing about 600,000 gallons per day from that town. The neighboring town pumped only as much as it needed. "Then you cannot get it when you need it?" "No."

Mr. Hymmen further said that one of the pumps at Glasgow street had been out of commission for about a month, and that 175,000 gallons per day as a result had been shut off.

Water Tested.

"But there is nothing to it. The lake water may be a little soft but there is nothing the matter with it. It was analyzed recently and reported pure."

Regarding the Waterloo supply Mr. Schiedel stated that their Commission were always prepared to supply as much as 800,000 gallons per day, although the contract was only for 500,000 gallons. The Waterloo supply had not been asked to supply more water, although a telephone request would have started the pump.

Mr. Schiedel also said that the well on Morely street Waterloo has not yet been connected to the System. Judging from the preliminary test this well will supply from 300,000 to 500,000 gallons per day, the water being much softer. Adding the above amount to that already available would increase the supply to Kitchener to at least 1,000,000 gallons per day. This added Mr. Schiedel would be over and above that required even during the hot summer months.

Another Test.

Chairman J.S. Schwartz of the Board of Health has had a sample of the lake water sent away for analysis, taking steps immediately when they learned that it was being used. He stated that he understood a test was made recently and the analysis showed the water pure. Asked whether the Board of Health had been asked for advice previous to the lake water again being used he said they had not. The Chairman added that with the spring weather coming on it seemed to him that there would be a danger of the lake water becoming more objectionable.

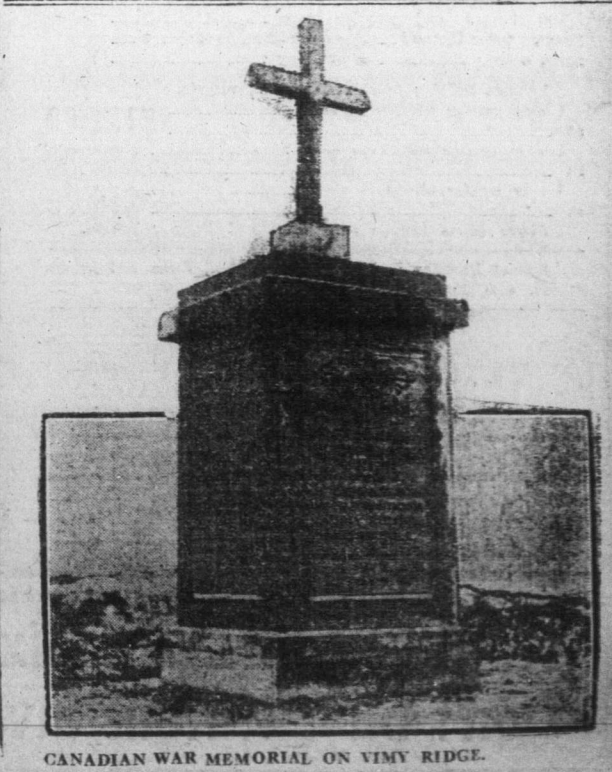

THE SCENE OF THE RIOTING

Kinnel Camp, the scene of the rioting is near the City of Rhyll, North Wales, and is used for a demobilization camp for Canadians. Troops from various reserve camps in England are sent as required to Rhyll and formed into sailings there, prior to being sent on to Liverpool. Until recently Burton used to be another clearing depot, but it was closed, except for use as a married men's depot. Kinnel Park itself, prior to the armistice, was used as a segregation camp for Canadians arriving for the first time in England, and is one of the best in the country. The troops of the 3rd division are probably now at Kinnel Park camp.

When War came to Canada in 1914 the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, like ever other unit in the Empire, was totally unprepared for an emergency such as that which followed. To-day when peace is dawning after four and a half years of a struggle, the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire is turning its eyes to the critical days which are certain to follow in the period of readjustment and is wisely preparing to meet any emergencies which may arise therefrom.

At the largely attended and most successful Annual Meeting of the Princess of Wales Chapter I.O.D.E. last Thursday, the 27th ult., the members proved that they are not only ready to bear their share of the work of re-constituted, but that they are prepared to continue to work in the same practical fashion in which they have labored so faithfully for nearly five years. To this end each member is already busy with her 'Talent' to raise funds, realizing that their War-work will not be ended till every Soldier now overseas has returned to Canada and obtained steady employment, so that he may be able to settle down to home life and renew his old friendships and associations with the Church and State.

Three Days Outbreak Among Canadian Troops

Number Believed Their Home-Going Was Being Delayed.

Great Property Damage Done, Says Report from Liverpool to London; Canadian Headquarters says Five Killed and Two Injured; Many Under Arrest.

LONDON, March 7.—From eight to 27 persons are estimated to have been killed and from 25 to 73 wounded in rioting during the last three days at the Kimmel Park military camp at Rhyll, North Wales, according to a Liverpool dispatch received here tonight. Great property damage was caused the dispatch adds. A statement issued by the Canadian headquarters here admits 12 killed and 31 injured.

According to latest reports from Liverpool the riot was started by about 200 malcontents. There were 25,000 Canadians in the camp awaiting demobilization and embarkation. The men who caused the trouble were sent to the front lines. They were sent to the front lines. They were sent to the front lines.

Cavalry Called Out
After the destruction of stores of all kinds on Tuesday by the discontented men the situation took a more serious turn on Wednesday when the cavalry was called out. It was forbidden to use its arms.

Troops from Chester intercepted the rioters in the march upon Abergele, near Rhyll, and also prevented a threatened raid on the latter place. Five men were killed and 40 injured in the course of the fighting it is reported.

There was further riotous shooting early on Thursday morning, but at no time was there organized firing by any armed party. Most of the deaths were due to crushing it is said.

An unnamed major, holding the Victoria Cross and believed to be from New Brunswick, is reported to have been virtually trampled to death while attempting to defend the officers' quarters against great odds. Another report denies that a major was killed.

The Daily Mail says that the Canadian authorities restored order without the assistance of British troops, and decided that the matter is solely one for Canadian disciplinary action.

The Canadian officials have informed the war office that they do not desire any increase in shipping facilities as a consequence of the outbreak as they do not intend to be coerced by the action of the rioters. It is stated that 20 to 30 of the ringleaders, many of foreign extraction, have been arrested by the Canadian authorities co-operating with the civilian police. It is understood that these men will be brought to London for trial in the Bow Street.

Last Thursday numbers of the men paraded Rhyll. They made noisy demonstrations, but committed no damage. The outbreak began on Tuesday night with the signal cry, "Come on Bolsheviks!" uttered by a man said to belong to the Canadian forces. A large number of men then wrecked the stores buildings and thousands of boxes of bread were trampled into the mud. The women's auxiliary quarters were then rushed and the women's clothes were carried off. The rioters seized the ammunition, fired on the officers' quarters and then began a march in the direction of Abergele, but were held up.

A staff officer flew from the war of fire in London by airplane and addressed the men, undertaking that their grievances regarding demobilization and pay, which caused the outbreak, should be immediately reviewed. He declared that 10,000 men would be away by the week after next and that four transports would be sent to the disposal of the men.

LONDON, March 7.—Canadian military headquarters in London today issued a statement with reference to a riot by soldiers at Kimmel Park. The statement says the disturbance was entirely due to the fact in getting the men back to Canada. It was impossible to keep the promises given the men, the statement adds, owing to shortage of ships to convey them home.

The authorities, however, the statement adds, do not regard the rioting as justified and the offenders, many of whom are already in the army, will be vigorously dealt with.

Civilians in It
A number of civilians took part in the disturbances and 12 of them have been arrested and handed over to the civil authorities.

In the course of the trouble, three rioters and two sentries were killed and 21 persons were injured, including officers, according to the statement.

King Peters of Serbia will soon retire in favor of Prince Alexander, according to advices from Belgrade.

EVERY WOMAN'S AMBITION FOR ROSE CHEEKS NOW EASILY SATISFIED.
Hollow cheeks with dark lines under the eyes, how a woman hates them!
But rose cheeks, clear skin, and bright eyes, give them to a woman and she is happy.
The woman who attracts, whose fresh, dainty complexion compels admiration, is always careful of her health, particularly of her blood condition. Bad complexion always means bad blood.
Girls, don't let your blood grow thin or watery. To do so brings on haggard looks and declining strength.
Many a woman who has allowed herself to run-down, to develop that tired, worried look has built up again in this simple way. Why don't you try it?
At the close of every meal, just take two small chocolate-coated Ferrozene Tablets—any person can do this in a minute. The action of this is apparent at once. It Ferrozene acts on the right side of the system, it starts you up, makes you feel good, starts up your appetite, aids digestion, brings that old-time feeling of youth into the system again.
Not a man, woman or child needing blood, vigor, endurance—not a person who is weak, nervous or sickly, not a person in ill-health who won't receive immediate help from Ferrozene.
As a tonic and restorative, as a health-bringer and body-builder, Ferrozene is unrivalled. It cures because it feeds and builds, because it contains the elements that build up and strengthen. For better looks and better health, try Ferrozene yourself, add everywhere, 50c. per box, 6 boxes for $2.50, or by mail from The Catarhazone Co., Kingston, Ont.

Girls! Use Lemons! Make a Bleaching, Beautifying Cream

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart of the most remarkable lemon-skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold creams. Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothener and beautifier.
Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

WIVES AND MOTHERS NEED NOT HAVE SORE BACKACHES
Constantly on their feet, attending to the wants of a large and exacting family, women often break down with nervous exhaustion.
In the stores, factories, and on a farm are weak, ailing women, dragged down with torturing backache and bearing down pains.
Such suffering isn't natural but it's dangerous, because due to diseased kidneys.
The dizziness, insomnia, and other symptoms of kidney complaint can't cure themselves, they require the assistance of Dr. Hamilton's Pills which go direct to the seat of the trouble.
To give vitality and power to the kidneys, to lend aid to the bladder and liver, to free the blood of poisons, probably there is no remedy so successful as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. For all womanly irregularities their merit is well known.
Because of their mild soothing and healing effect, Dr. Hamilton's Pills are safe, and are recommended for girls and women of all ages, 25 cents per box at all dealers. Refuse any substitute for Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut.
Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Ferrozene on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! No humbug! A tiny bottle of Ferrozene costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.
Ferozone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

THE DAYS OF RECONSTRUCTION FOR ALL PALE, THIN PEOPLE

This is the Season When it is Most Necessary to Tone Up the System and Build Up the Blood and Nerves.

Applied to health the expression "run down" means a condition in which some, or all of the bodily functions are enfeebled. This is a condition which only too frequently follows the long indoor months of winter when people live and work in imperfectly ventilated houses, shops, offices and schools. If you find yourself at this season easily tired by slight exertion you need a tonic. If the appetite is poor or cckle, the digestion impaired, the nerves shaky or impoverished, if you are pale and easily worried, winter has left its mark upon you. No particular organ being affected, you must look for relief to the blood. It is only by enriching and toning up the blood that you can regain what you have lost during the past winter and at the same time put yourself in shape to stand the trying heat of coming summer. To build up the blood, tone and strengthen the nerves, increase the appetite and bring vigorous strength to weakened bodies, there is no medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills actually make new, rich red blood, which will make you feel better, eat better, sleep better, and work more cheerfully. If you are in need of a tonic, and most people are at this season, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not disappoint you.

COULD HARDLY WALK

Mrs. J. McDonald, Jr., Hay, Ont. says: "Some years ago I suffered greatly from anaemia and as I did not realize the seriousness of the trouble I soon became a complete wreck. I got so weak I could hardly walk. I neither ate nor slept well, and could not go upstairs without stopping to rest. At times I had an almost unbearable pain in my back and would have to remain in bed. I suffered almost constantly from a dull headache and when sweeping if I would stoop to pick up anything I would get so dizzy that I would have to catch hold of something to keep from falling. My eyes were sunken and my hands and limbs would be swollen in the mornings. I tried several kinds of medicine without benefit and my friends thought I would not recover. Then I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and before long could see and feel that they were helping me. I gladly continued the use of the pills until I was completely cured and I cannot say enough in their praise, and I strongly recommend them to all run down girls and women."

SOME GOOD ADVICE

Mrs. Alice Black, Amherst Beach, N.S., says: "I have received much benefit from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and would advise all who need a medicine for a run down system to make use of them. In my own case I have found the pills do all you claim for them, and shall always have a good word to say for this medicine."

Do not be persuaded to take a substitute. See that the full trade mark name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," is printed on the wrapper around the box. If you cannot get the Pills through your dealer they will be sent by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ontario.

BACK IN CIVIES

"What am I going to do when discharged?"—say I'll tell you, I'm going to make a bee line for the nearest store and buy me some store clothes. I won't wait to catch my breath. I can't get out of this khaki one minute too soon for me! Huh, huh, an' I'm glad to buy a silk shirt—see, me for the glad rag! No, don't you say that he is lacking in patriotic sentiment. He is wearing three decorations won on the field of battle, which will disprove that. He wears his khaki with a proud heart and a high chin, when the uns were booming in France. He never looked so handsome in his life as when he wore the garb of the fighting man—for in the eyes of a woman, any man is handsome in uniform—but the fighting is over, and the clothes don't belong any more; and he is anxious to be

RUN DOWN AND NERVOUS

Mrs. B. Wainiot, Beaver Bank, N. S., says: "I was sick, run down and awfully nervous. The slightest noise would startle and annoy me. I suffered pains around the heart and every particle of color left my face and hands. I always felt tired, and slept poorly at night. I was so poorly that my friends thought I would not recover. I tried many medicines but they did not help me. Then I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to drop all other medicine and try them. It was fortunate I did for in the course of a few weeks I found them helping me. I continued taking the pills for some weeks longer and they completely cured me. I earnestly advise every weak woman and girl to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial, and I am sure they will not be disappointed."

AFTER THE GRIPPE

Mrs. Thos. Covert, R.R. No. 2, Bancroft, Ont., says: "Following an attack of gripple I was left very weak and miserable. My appetite was poor I suffered from headaches, my skin was sallow, and two boils broke out. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and had only used a few boxes when I felt as well as ever. They drove all the impurities from my blood, gave me a good appetite, and I have since enjoyed the best of my health. I can recommend the pills to anyone suffering from impure blood or skin disease."

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mrs. James Martin, R.R. No. 1, Perth, Ont., says: "I suffered greatly from stomach trouble, which was accompanied by severe pains in the side and around the heart. At times I was so bad that I vomited everything I ate, and even the medicine the doctor gave me. I grew weaker every day and would frequently have to lie down, and as the doctor was not helping me I was about discouraged. Then I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills advertised to cure the trouble and decided to try them. In a few weeks the pain had left and I could eat a little. I continued until I had used six boxes when I felt myself fully cured. In fact my friends tell me I am a living advertisement as to what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can do."

A SERIOUS CONDITION

Mrs. Wilfrid Donald, West Flamborough, Ont., says: "Before I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was in a serious condition. I was not only badly run down, but my nerves seemed to be completely shattered. I slept badly at night, and got up in the morning tired as when I went to bed. I seemed to be on the verge of a nervous breakdown. At this stage I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. In the course of a few weeks I felt much relief and continued the use of the pills they completely restored my health. I can now sleep soundly, eat well, and am enjoying complete freedom from the old nervous troubles."

FURTHER OBSERVATIONS ON LIFE

To the Editor: It was interesting to read Mr. J. F. McKay's letter in your issue of Thursday. The subject is becoming more appreciated and has been discussed by many learned men in magazines and books. But very little hope can be gathered from too-practical men for the present-day victim of prevailing conditions. They would deal with humans as mere animals forgetting that man is only part animal and that, the less important part.

If we follow the theory given by Mr. McKay, criminals have an excuse for their behavior, their sins are not their own but to be laid at the door of their dead parents or the community. Then wherein comes the glory of a well-spent life? Cannot we make our own destinies? The theory is only applicable to people deprived of reason and do we punish lunatics for crimes we know they do without forethought?

Why not make conditions such that that thief, murderer, or unnecessary? Give each person sufficient for his needs and crime will be a much smaller task to handle. But to do so would mean to eliminate a species of criminal, who to-day stalks before blindfolded justice and receives honors from her representative for the love of service and the use of his talents for the accumulation of wealth, a worshipper of Mammon whose priest is Self and whose religion Self-interest. The heredity theory would accept many such men as perfect specimens of manhood!

Give us the means to live and give their children the education they need and nature will do the rest. The home-life moulds children's characters, yet does not make them. When men reaches the age of self-reliance he is answerable for himself.

And teach the child not only to make money but happiness. The boy must not think that he has to be a pillar of the Church in order to be a Christian, but to obey his honest convictions and there will be no need for hypocrisy. The joy of having the respect of one's associates must be earned by service rendered for the love of service and this is the secret of true happiness. Thus parents and community fulfil their obligation to the individual who alone is answerable for his future. W.D.

EASY WAY TO REMOVE FRECKLES AND ERUPTIONS

Some women have skin of such texture they occasionally are annoyed by the sudden appearance of freckles, slight eruptions or fine lines. March winds usually play havoc with skins of that kind. In such cases if one will procure an ounce of common mercialized wax at any drug store, apply a little of it before retiring, like cold cream, she can easily overcome the trouble. When the wax is washed off the next morning, flaky skin particles come with it. The entire outer cuticle is removed in this way in a week or so, with all its defects. No blemish could so effectively remove freckles or blemishes. The new surface is smooth, clear, fresh looking. No harm or inconvenience accompanies this simple treatment.

For deep wrinkles or crowsfeet, a solution of powdered ascorbic acid, one ounce dissolved in a half pint of witch hazel, makes a face bath which is wonderfully effective.

MAURETANIA INAGURATES NEW YORK SOUTHAMPTON SERVICE OF CANADIAN LINE When the S. S. "Mauretania" leaves New York on her next sailing March 12, 1919, she will inaugurate the New York Southampton Service of the Canadian Line being the first of the Company's vessels to use the channel port instead of the historic town of Liverpool, the British Home Port of the Cunard Line Service since 1840.

channel port instead of the historic town of Liverpool, the British Home Port of the Cunard Line Service since 1840.

This change of ports makes the Cunard Line a more direct route not only to London, but also to the Continent than in the past.

The big passenger express teamers of the Line such as the Aquitania, Mauretania and other tourist favorites will stop at Cherbourg on their way to Southampton when conditions become more normal.

This new routing was announced recently by Sir Alfred Booth Bart, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Cunard Steamship Company, Limited, who authorized the statement that the Cunard Line intended to take the place of the German lines, in providing a passenger service of the highest class between New York and the Channel Ports.

The Liverpool service will be maintained with vessels of large cargo and passenger accommodation, like the Caronia and Carmania.

PARIS, March 6.—A step toward the formation of treaty of peace was taken by the supreme council to-day when it adopted the proposal of the American delegation to have the various commissions present to the council their reports and conclusions in the form of articles to be inserted in the peace preliminaries.

The council also discussed the military, naval and aerial conditions to be imposed on the enemy.

The official statement on the session says:

"The supreme council of the allies met to-day from 3 to 6 o'clock.

"The council accepted the American plan that the commissions should be asked to present, with their reports, their conclusions in the form of articles to be inserted in the peace preliminaries.

"The discussion then turned on the naval, military and air conditions to be imposed on the enemy.

"The next meeting will take place to-morrow afternoon."

ONTARIO'S NORTHLAND

This city has been asked to endorse the project of building a line of railway from Cochrane to James Bay, as a means of opening that part of the province to settlement.

Cochrane's leaders took up this matter in 1914 but were obliged to rest on their oars until the war was ended. Now they are earnestly working to accomplish the end. In older Ontario, it is known that a large slice of territory was taken out to the province in 1912. The northern boundaries of the province were extended on the East to the southern shores of Hudson Bay and including the whole western and part of the southern coast of James Bay. This acquisition created only a ripple of interest. To most of us it meant the addition of several thousand square miles of snowbanks and jack pine.

When it was resolved that the Ontario and Temiskaming Railway, a public-owned line, constructed as far north as Cochrane, ought to be extended to James Bay many regarded the proposal as they do that of the Hudson Bay Railway, and the Georgian Bay Canal.

Railways and canals, having no better excuse than that of pleasing a group of promoters, have in the past been constructed in Canada. Witness the National Transcontinental and the Trent Canal.

Those who live in Northern Ontario and know the country farther north assert that there is need for an aggressive settlement policy to develop the resources of that hinterland.

A bird's eye view of the province shows that Cochrane is roughly 400 miles north of us and James Bay another 200 miles direct north of it. The Cochrane Board of Trade states that for 200 miles north of Cochrane the claybelt extends with the same dense growth of spruce and jack pine as exists around Cochrane. The climatic conditions around James Bay are said to be more favorable to crops than those around Cochrane.

For a distance of 100 miles the land slopes towards James Bay and being plentifully supplied with rivers, affords potential water powers of unlimited capacity. With an abundance of spruce and ample water powers, there exists enormous possibilities for pulp and paper industries.

The iron deposits on Belcher Islands in James Bay run into hundreds of millions of tons, and together with the iron deposits on the main land will within the near future be in demand. Geologists who have investigated the land formation declare that during the glacial period the surface of the land was shaved off, leaving the minerals exposed or close to the surface. Mining would be less difficult for instance than in the Rocky Mountains, since there is no top earth and rock to be tunneled before reaching the ores.

Besides iron, gypsum, fire and pottery clay, and large deposits of lignite and anthracite are prevalent. Anthracite is valuable for its nitrogen contents. All only await developments.

During the war years, Canadians learned the value of fish as a food. They will continue to eat more fish. James Bay is said to teem with fish. In fact to have an almost inexhaustible supply both for home use and export.

Atlantic fish is being conveyed to mid-Ontario over a route 1,000 miles long and British Columbia fish is being carried 2500 miles to Ontario centers, while James Bay is only 600 miles away.

Those who advocate the extension of the T. & N.O. Railway from Cochrane to James Bay point out that the Hudson Bay Company is employing ships to carry its wares to Britain and to bring in goods and supplies. Hudson Bay and Hudson Strait are said to be open to navigation for from five to seven months of the year. They believe this shorter route could be utilized as a waterway.

Looking backward, it is recalled that the development of Ontario's nickel ore passed to outsiders. German and American capitalists ventured while Canadians considered the matter. They not only built up a world monopoly in nickel but reaped huge fortunes from their enterprises. Ontario after the war was gone attempted to look the stable door. Similarly there are fields in which the development of the province's natural resources has been handed over to outsiders. Ontario pine for many years kept Michigan mills busy; the fish caught in the Great Lakes are controlled by American companies; they also own some of the best copper and cobalt mines, have purchased thousands of square miles of spruce lands and are casting longing eyes on the waterpowers of the St. Lawrence. These enterprises in this country are not without value to us but they are getting the cream.

Ontario would be better off were these resources better developed and finished in the province. There is more profit in selling the world refined nickel and cobalt than ores; in having Canadian companies market the fish taken from Canadian waters; in selling paper instead of pulp and retaining our water powers for the exclusive use of the people and firms located in Ontario.

Seeing that Ontario's northland is reputed to be rich in minerals, timber and fish and possesses desirable agricultural land, the right thing to do is to have the Ontario Government thoroughly investigate the natural resources of the hinterland and, providing these are as valuable as claimed, extend the provincially-owned railway to James Bay and institute an all-round development and settlement of this northland.

A sensible railway and development policy will receive the support of the public in this section of Ontario.

ANOTHER M.P.P. SPEAKS PLAINLY

It appears that Conservative M.P.P.'s have been listening posts and discovered that the electors are far from satisfied with Premier Hearst's leadership.

One member has boldly criticized him on the floor of the house. Another, G. M. Boyd, of Owen Sound, has written a letter to the London Free Press, under date of March 3rd, in which he asserts that it is quite time for a change at Queen's Park, Toronto. He develops his thought, saying:

The present Government is floundering like a badly-managed ship in a storm, and it is up to the electors of Ontario, to place a capable captain who can pilot the Conservative ship of state safely through the coming storm. The Hearst Government is not to be compared to the Whitney Government by any means.

They have entirely lost the confidence of the electors of Ontario. Proof is evident by the way the by-elections are going. If the Government of Sir William Hearst can't win a by-election in the safest Conservative constituency in Ontario, what chance would they have in a general election? That being the case, we must throw all sentiment aside and look around for a leader who can win. I have followed the splendid work of Sir Adam Beck since he allied himself with the Whitney Government and have no hesitation in stating that Sir Adam has shown himself to be the cleverest public man Ontario has seen for a generation, and I believe he is the only minister in the Government that can land the Conservative party safely in the coming Ontario election.

The significance of his statement can only be fully grasped when it is recalled that in the olden days, the last thing a member would do was publicly to voice or pen his opinions concerning his leader. This was considered irregular. Few would attempt it even in caucus for fear of bringing a premier's displeasure upon himself and his constituency. None desired to be ostracized.

Then it is encouraging to see members openly discussing the leadership and kicking over the traces. In these democratic days one-man government is decidedly out of place.

The removal of the one-mill war-tax on the municipalities would probably not have ensued had Premier Hearst not received several rebuffs in the by-elections or Mr. Machin not criticized his administration from his seat in the legislature. From all that can be learned it was the cabinet's intention to continue it. It was its first concession to public opinion.

Mr. Boyd declares it is time for a change in leadership. With this statement the party will almost generally agree. Also it will concur that Adam Beck, if he can be induced to accept, would be his logical successor.

Sir Adam publicly stated that he does not desire the position. Granting this, he may change his mind when it is shown that his unique services cause the electors to believe he is the best equipped man in the province for the post.

Under him, the natural resources of Ontario would be developed on a scale never before attempted and conserved for the benefit of the people. Beck's vision and business talents fit him for leadership.

PROSPEROUS NEWFOUNDLAND

Winnipeg Free Press.—Britain's oldest colony, bonny little Newfoundland, has enjoyed a wonderful prosperity during the year just passed. Its cod fishery yielded $20,000,000 which is three times the return it made in any pre-war year. Though thousands of fishermen left their nets to shoulder a rifle, by introducing the heavy duty motor the boats were kept in service, and in future years the catch can be doubled through these useful engines.

The first cargo of frozen fish has been shipped under contract with the admiralty, and it is expected the British tar will henceforth have fresh Newfoundland cod on his mess table at least twice a week. The value of a fish taken from solid storage is fully three times that of the salted article, so it is easy to see the wealth the island may gain should this trial prove a success.

Instead of being deeply in debt to the outfitting, as used to be the chronic condition of the Newfoundlanders, the fishing folk were able to make deposits in the savings banks of two and a quarter millions of dollars during 1918. Taxes have been very heavy but were paid with scarcely a murmur. The profits of each individual and of every company were taxed 20 per cent., after a deduction of $3,000, and as the total so collected amounted to $750,000 (in place of the $250,000 which had been anticipated), not less than $4,000,000 must have been cleared by the commercial community.

Nor are her fisheries Newfoundland's sole support. The iron ore deposits in Conception bay, always valuable, produced not less than 1,000,000 tons, which paid an export duty of $75,000 to the consolidated revenues. Forestry and the production of pulp languished through the scarcity of both tonnage and hands, but a revival is expected shortly, as each should be available.

The men of the Ancient Colony responded nobly to the call to arms, furnishing 6,000 soldiers, 2,000 sailors, and 500 woodsmen to the forces of the Empire.

INTEREST IN DUNDÉE-MITCHELL BOUT

Fight fans of Milwaukee and vicinity are manifesting a lively interest in the ten-round bout between Johnny Dundee and Rennie Mitchell, which is to top the card at Monday night's show of the Milwaukee Cream City Athletic Club. The interest in the contest is increased by the fact that the winner probably will be given an early opportunity to meet Benny Leonard for the lightweight title. Both Dundee and Mitchell are reported in fine physical condition for the bout and as the two are regarded as evenly matched, the followers of the game are looking forward to a fast set-off from the first sound of the gong.

If Hair is Turning Gray, Use Sage Tea

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred times.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

By The Duchess

blished elaborate meal goes for, little, save as a thing for surprised comment first and for laughter afterwards. But after a while the monotony of it offends.

"If it light even be cutlets one day," says Griselda, when a week of unvaried chop has gone by. No soup, no fish, no puddings. One omelette, indeed, is allowed: the butler, and with him a dish containing three potatoes—one for Vera, one for Griselda, and one over, in case either of them should have appetites so voracious as to require it. Could generosity further go?

They are, however, as I have said, sufficiently young to care little for the culinary goods the gods provide; and one great source of joy at least is that, at none of these sumptuous banquets does their uncle (wise man) appear. How he spends his days—what occupations, what enjoyments, are his, they never know; one thing, however, they discover that, dead as he may be to the human world around him, soiled his heart, it is still open to the divine influence of flowers.

Beyond the parterre that had met their eyes when first they arrived, they discovered later on a small but perfect garden, through which a tiny streamlet rushes merrily on its joyous way to the broad river below down; a garden where myriads of blossoms live and thrive, and bloom, as it seems to Vera, as never flowers bloom before, easting with every breeze their scented breaths upon the air. Such a delicious, old-fashioned spot! A very world of sweetness. That it should be so long to Gregory's Desert, that it should touch or affect that cold and sordid nature in any way, seems to Vera inexplicable. Rather it would seem to her that such gentle things as flowers would fade away and shrivel up and die beneath the glance of those wicked scorching eyes. But,

In all places, then, and in all seasons, Flowers expand their light and soul-like wings;

Teaching us, by the most persuasive reasons, How akin they are to human things.

And with childlike, credulous affection, We behold their tender buds expand; Emblems of our own great resurrection. Emblems of the bright and better land.

How Mr. Dysart regards them, and what lessons they teach him, there is nothing to show; but every evening, when the sun has gone down, and the air is yet warm with the memory of it, the old man emerges from his den, and slowly now, and now with quickening footsteps, walks from flower to flower, his face, so unearthly in its pallor, bent towards each delicate blossom.

The deaf old coachman is, they discover, gardener as well, in name, the real work being done by a young man, called Bob, who has grown up at Greycourt from boy to man, and who still works on there at the original wage, though he has long ceased to give only a boy's labour—not without grumblings, however, and much discontent.

To-day has arisen in an unwonted splendour. Even through the eternal shadows that encompass the garden, and past the thick yew hedge, the hot beams of the sun are stealing.

"A day for gods and goddesses," cries Griselda, springing suddenly to her feet, and flinging far from her on the greensward the musty volume she had purloined from the musty library about an hour ago. That library, too, had failed them; no book of any value, no book that could fetch even a meagre price, has there a home. It has been well weeded out, and the marketable portion of it sold. "Away with such fudge," said Vera, into those green woods yonder; see how temptingly cool they look!"

"Uncle Gregory said something, didn't he, about our not leaving the garden?" says Vera with hesitation. "I'm always sorry I'm so deaf."

"I never hear thing like that. And besides—a fig for Uncle Gregory. An old fossil like that shouldn't dare preach to a lovely young creature like me. Do not make acquaintance with your neighbours, said he; that is all of his dark sayings that I have taken to hear. I say, Vera, do come. Do, now. Here, I'll pull that book out of your hands if you don't."

"Oh, don't don't," laughing. "To tell you the truth it isn't so much a decent awe of Uncle Gregory as a dislike to exertion on this hot day that keeps me chained to this seat. There, go, if you will; but don't stay away too long."

"Perhaps I'll never come back. The spirit of adventure is full upon me, and who knows what demons inhabit that unknown wood? So, fare thee well, sweet, my love! and when you see me, expect me."

She presses a sentimental kiss upon her sister's brow, averring that a 'brow' is the only applicable part of her for such a solemn occasion, and runs lightly down towards the hedge. Half-way there, however, she looks back. "Vera, Vera, if I shouldn't be back in time for the succulent chop, eat mine too. If you don't, some horrid thought tells me we shall have a rechauffe to-morrow."

She runs through one of the openings in the hedge, crossed the gravelled path, and, mounting the para-

A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom on your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. A quarter pot of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatism, twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid are assured that one week of inside bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.

a dislike to exertion on this hot day that keeps me chained to this seat. There, go, if you will; but don't stay away too long."

"Perhaps I'll never come back. The spirit of adventure is full upon me, and who knows what demons inhabit that unknown wood? So, fare thee well, sweet, my love! and when you see me, expect me."

She presses a sentimental kiss upon her sister's brow, averring that a 'brow' is the only applicable part of her for such a solemn occasion, and runs lightly down towards the hedge. Half-way there, however, she looks back. "Vera, Vera, if I shouldn't be back in time for the succulent chop, eat mine too. If you don't, some horrid thought tells me we shall have a rechauffe to-morrow."

She runs through one of the openings in the hedge, crossed the gravelled path, and, mounting the para-

BORING POLE HOLES

The thresome and time consuming work of digging holes for telegraph and electric service poles is now at an end, says Scientific American. At least, there has been evolved a gasoline driven earth-boring machine which makes an average boring time per hole of one and one-half to two minutes. The equipment is mounted on a horse drawn truck and is operated by two men. In ordinary soil it maintains an average of 100 holes per day, each measuring five feet deep by 24 inches in diameter. The equipment consists of a truck, which carries a gasoline engine, driving mechanism and huge auger which is slowly rotated and fed downward. The augers are furnished in sizes from 2 to 24 inches.

HOLD NO GRUDGE

Time brings many changes. Take for instance the fellows who volunteered their services when war was declared and who have since been promoted to be commissioned officers. Some of these men toiled in shops and offices and had to toe the mark for clerks or foremen to get fired. Then came the draft and these same clerks and foremen became doughboys and now take orders from their former office boys and employees. Some humorous stories have come to light from the nearby front lines, but let it be said to the credit of the former office boys, they have not made life unbearable for their superiors, although they have had the opportunity to do so. As an illustration of this the other day a doughboy was serving mess to his top sergeant. As he did so he spilled some dressing from the salad. The sergeant noticed this and smiled. "Just about a year ago I was serving you with soup," said the sergeant, at the same time mentioning the hotel where he had worked as serving man, "and you gave me the devil because it was cold. I'm not going to kick because you spilled the dressing. I'm going to treat you right." And that is the general spirit throughout the camps.

Dr. McCallum Urges Means to Keep Canadians Home.

MONTREAL, March 6.—Addressing members of the Canadian Mining Institute here to-day, Sir John Willison declared that the mining industry of this country should receive as much attention at the hand of the Government as does agriculture. He said that if mining and fishing were encouraged as was agriculture, the returns to the country annually would be greatly increased. Fishing returns to-day rated at from $35,000,000 to $40,000,000 per year, would be increased to $100,000,000 or $75,000,000 at the least.

Sir John told of the splendid result which had come under his notice of the work of the research council at Ottawa, and said that the Government could not give the natural resources of this country too much assistance along this line.

Dr. McCallum, head of the National Research Council at Ottawa, described the workings of the body of the results that had been achieved and of what was hoped for the future. He pointed out that there was a dearth of competent research men in Canada at the present time.

This was due to the disinterested attitude taken by the industry and the people and the fact that the Government paid such poor salaries that many of the most brilliant Canadian students went to the United States where they secured employment and better pay.

Imperi's Entrance Likely to Check Spread of Bolshevism.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Italy has been warned by the United States Government that unless she puts an end to delays in movements of relief supplies to the newly established Jugo-Slavic and Czech-Slovak states, steps will be taken to cut off the flow of American foodstuffs to Italy.

Strong Resentment
 PARIS, March 6.—The British and French delegates here have been bitterly outspoken in the supreme war council and the supreme economic council in criticism of the food blockade which the Italian Government is maintaining against Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina. The new democracies built out of the old Austrian Empire are relied upon by the entente as a protection against the Bolshevik wave, and the food shortage is creating chaos.

Early in February an Italian military mission penetrated Jugo-Slav populated territory at Laibach and settled in the town. The Jugo-Slavs feel that since their union with Serbia they are not the enemies of Italy, and they resent the occupation of Friuli and the Dalmatian coast by the Italian army. Consequently they forced the Italian mission to leave Laibach on February 19. The Italians reported by establishing a food blockade against the Jugo-Slav territory.

JANE AND KATHERINE LEE
COMING TO STAR THEATRE

A new and startling invention provides some of the many new features of "Tell it to the Marines" the latest William Fox comedy, featuring Jane and Katherine Lee which will come to the Star Theatre Mon. Tue. Wed. The big surprise which will delight men, women and children, depicts manikins which have come to life fighting the big battles to make the world free for democracy, with all the detail and accuracy of real soldiers. Every phase of modern warfare is shown through mechanical devices which took months to perfect.

WALTHALL STAR IN POWERFUL PICTURE

Famous Actor Cast as "Clay Randolph" in "And a Still Small Voice" Story of Love and High Finance.

Henry Walthall, the brilliant young actor whose work on the speaking stage has made his name famous from one end of the country to the other in human interest stories, and whose screen career includes the "little colonel" in "The Birth of a Nation" has a splendid role in the National Film Corporation's six-part production "And a Still Small Voice" released through the Exhibitors' Mutual Distributing Corporation.

Mr. Walthall is cast in the part of Clay Randolph, a young man of social position who falls upon evil ways, but is guided, in the final arbitrament of his fate, by the still small voice of conscience, so that after a journey of years along the tortuous path of metropolitan life he wins his way to happiness and the love of a good woman.

Included in the cast with Mr. Walthall are Fritz Brunette who played in the "Hare and the Tortoise" "Our of the Mist" and the "The Reprisal"; Joseph Dowling who played Henry the Fifth in the Grand Opera Stock Company and was also featured in "Somewhere in France" "The Criminal" and "The Thoroughbred"; and George Fisher, one of the cleverest of American picture actors cast as Richard Dunlap. Star. Mon. Tue. Wed.

OLIN HOWLAND IN SPLENDID COMEDY

Has Excellent Role in Comedy "Independence B'Gosh!"

Featuring Olin Howland and Florence Dixon as the chief fun-makers, "Independence B'Gosh!" the latest Paramount comedy is said to be one of the most delightful satirical productions of the season. It will be displayed at the Allen theatre next Wednesday and Thursday.

The story deals with the woes of the Whiffles, a country couple who inherit a fortune of $9,000,000 and who seek independence while they spend their money lavishly. They have a valet and maid, but despite the efforts of the latter to keep them busy, the Whiffles return to the old homestead, greatly disappointed. The moral of the comedy is that "Independence is like your appendix—you don't know you have it until you lose it."

Olin Howland as the valet and Florence Dixon as the maid, have unusually mirth-provoking roles. The comedy is clean, wholesome and quite satisfying.

"The Old Maid's Baby," starring Baby Marie Osborne, which will be shown at the Roma Theatre on Monday and Tuesday, is a real circus story—the tale of the big show and some of the performers—especially of Tiny, who becomes the "old maid's" baby, when her parents are killed in a spectacular accident. There was a thrill in this big scene even when the scene was being taken, and the picture of persons from the country roundabout witnessed the ascent. In the story the father and mother of the circus child plunged to death, hanging to a parachute, which failed to open. It is the realism of this scene, as shown in the film, that holds the spectator spell-bound.

An intimate view of circus life is given—a comprehensive peep behind the scenes, so to speak—and much of it is of actual show life, for a number of the scenes were actually taken in a big circus.

How the child of the tanbark was adopted by her mother's "old maid" sister, a prim and proper "highbrow," furnishes a strong contrast and opens up charming possibilities, which are developed by the little orphan, whose heart yearns for loving sympathy and understanding.

There is a handsome chap, who loves this studious spinster, and a villainous professor. How the shrewd little circus waif solves the problem of this triangle makes a first-class story, which is interpreted by a capable cast of players including Jack Richardson, Marion Warner, Jack Connolly, Claire Du Brey and the inimitable pickinny Sambo.

Eddie Polo in "The Lure of the Circus" Subdues Huge Nubian in Order to Create Realism for Smashing Serial
At Roma Theatre Monday and Tuesday

When Eddie Polowas appearing in the various episodes of "The Lure of the Circus" the sensational serial in which he has created a furore in motion-picturedom, one of the scenes called for an escape from a huge lion.

"You're all wrong, mister," Eddie told the director. "It isn't done any more. If I went in there and escaped, nine tenths of the picture fans would cry 'fake'." "I'm going in against that big fellow in the menagerie and I'm going to show you a regular honest-to-goodness battle."

There was a battle, the like of which nobody in pictures ever saw before, but in the end, Eddie who comes from a family of famous circus performers—and lion tainers, was the victor.

Manitoba Legislature adopted a resolution calling for the completion during the present year of the Hudson Bay Railway.

AUTOMATIC SOLDIER MAY WIN
VICTORY FOR ALLIED ARM-IES

Danish Engineer Invents Automation Which Can Only Be Destroyed by Powerful
Charge of T.N.T.

Science having produced all sorts of infernal machines which have been thrown into the war it remained for a Danish engineer to perfect the "Automatic Soldier" a device which is bomb and shell proof and can stand liquid fire of the most vicious kind of gas.

The automatic soldier consists of a special double steel cylinder made of shell-proof Tungsten steel or the like. There is an outer stationary cylinder in which a second cylinder telescoped. The plan is to set great number of these in trenches to replace human soldiers. When the "soldier" goes eighteen inches by an electrical device, controlled by wireless and operated from a distance of five or more miles.

The inner cylinder first rises above the trench, then pushes a machine gun through a slot in the dome, then rotates to direct the fire, and finally is fired for 400 rounds. The device also can be made to spout gas or liquid fire. This interesting mechanical contrivance which does actual fighting, has a rival, at least from the spectacular and inventive standpoint, in a device just perfected in Europe whereby a whole war can be fought with manikins. It has been employed in a William Fox production, "Tell it to the Marines" featuring Jane and Katherine Lee. Toy soldiers go through all of the activities of actual warfare, as it is now being conducted on the West front. The picture said to have taken six months to make, will be shown at the Star Theatre Mon. Tue. Wed.

Two little girls were throwing deadly ammunition at each other, like ferocious Amazons, when the rest of the world was drawn into their battle. They tried their best to confine the curtain of fire to the four walls of their nursery, but the skyrockets refused to be kept under control. One popped out of the window into the street. Then another followed suit. There came a mighty shout from the street. The rockets had come to rest in the midst of a group of workmen. "The Germans! The blacks! No work no more today!" they shouted as they took to their heels and ran.

But Jane and Katherine Lee went right on with their game. For it is a part of the new William Fox play "Tell it to the Marines" in which the two small stars are to appear at the Star Theatre Mon. Tue. Wed.

How the Right Road Lightens the Load

THE three illustrations above are reproduced from actual photographs taken on the Toronto-Hamilton highway.

They tell an interesting story—they indicate clearly how farmers profit by the use of a highway which entails minimum tractive effort.

Near Clarkson an old-style road connects the railway siding with the concrete highway. Over this old-style road the farmers of the neighborhood must haul their fertilizer, after unloading it from the cars on the siding. That bit of old-style road is a quarter of a mile stretch which tests the strength of the strongest team, pulling one wagon load of four tons.

CANADA CEMENT COMPANY LIMITED

Herald Building Montreal
Sales Offices: Montreal Toronto Winnipeg Calgary

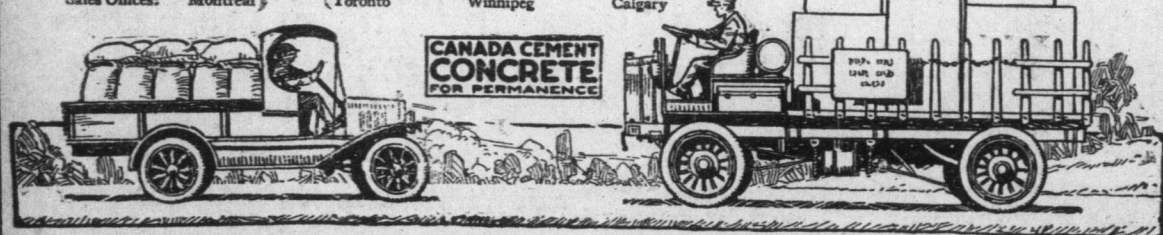

Illustration No. 1, shows one wagon load already arrived on the concrete and left there while the farmer goes back with his team for a second load.

In Illustration No. 2 we see him hitching the two wagons together.

In Illustration No. 3, we find him hauling the two wagons with the one team—8 tons—easily hauled on the concrete of the highway, as compared with the 4-ton load which his team could barely pull on the road adjoining the concrete.

The excessive tractive effort required to haul over an earth road or a gravel road, involves a power waste equivalent to the combined energy of many thousand horses daily.

It has been established by careful engineering tests that every ton of freight or produce hauled over an earth or gravel road requires a tractive effort of 218 pounds.

Twenty-eight pounds will move the same load at the same speed over a concrete road.

Thus we get a clear loss of tractive effort of 190 pounds to every ton hauled on an old-style road.

Power-waste is increasing in Canada, as our farm tonnage grows. This loss can be checked by the immediate building of permanent, power-saving highways of concrete.

Economy

The difference in cost between an ordinary baking powder and the pure, strong, double-acting is trivial. It amounts to only a fraction of a cent on each cake you bake. Against this you risk your high-priced flour, butter, sugar, eggs and milk, and your reputation as a cook.

EGG-O Baking Powder

Spoiled bakings not only cost you money, but they waste food. With the heavy Government Standard flour in use to-day, the selection of a strong baking powder is absolutely necessary.

The double-acting strength of Egg-O is needed to make a baking of a light cake from a heavy flour. Try a can and watch your bakings improve. You can use sweet milk, sour milk, buttermilk or water with Egg-O—a different and better baking powder.

FOR THE YOUNG PEOPLE

WHAT SUSIE GAVE UP

HE five little Tupper sat at their supper. Margie Tupper shook her head when the sugar was passed around. Ernie Tupper shook his head too, so did Freddie Tupper, who usually did whatever Ernie did. The baby was too little to know about giving up things for Lent, but Susie wasn't. Susie was seven years old and came next to Ernie who was nine. Susie didn't shake her head when the sugar was passed around. She took a whole heaping spoonful and spread it thick on her baked apple.

"I'd like to know what you are giving up," said Ernie. "I bet you aren't giving up anything!"

"So do I!" said Margie. "I'd be ashamed! Even Freddie is giving up."

"Are you giving up?" asked Freddie. Susie nodded her curls.

"What is it," said Freddie. "Please tell!"

"No, Freddie," said Susie. "It's a secret."

"Is it something you don't like any- way?" asked Ernie. "We liked to tease sometimes."

"Or something we never have?" put in Margie.

Susie's black eyes flashed but she replied gently.

"It's something quite hard to give up."

"Muddy-kin didn't say we had to give up anything," Margie said. "We could if we felt like it."

"And we ought to give up something we like best," put in Susie.

"Well, you don't like anything better than sugar, do you?" Ernie asked.

Susie nodded her curls again. "Is Polly coming tomorrow?" she asked, to change the subject.

Polly was a little neighbor who came nearly every day to play with the five little Tupper. The other children knew Susie was trying to change the subject, but she spoke so nicely and smiled too, which wasn't like Susie somehow, that not even Ernie said any more about keeping Lent.

The next day Polly did come to play and just as they had decided what to play, Muddy-kin came to the door carrying Baby all dressed for going out. Ernie was saying: "I'll play Father if you'll let me spank the children."

"You horrid boy!" cried Margie. "Spank my dollies! I guess not!"

"Why don't you be shopkeeper," suggested Susie quickly. "We'll get some leaves off the box hedge for money. Oh, Muddy-kin!"

The children ran to their mother and kissed Baby, who looked "as cunning as a sugarplum," so Margie said. "Dears," said Muddy-kin, "Fritz has taken her afternoon off and I expected to take Baby out but Mrs. Thomas has just come to call. Which one of you will take Baby out for me?"

"There was hardly the weeniest pause and Susie said: 'I will! Is his carriage ready?'"

"Oh dear!" sighed Margie. "Babies are cunning but they are so much bother!"

Susie tucked Baby in his carriage and soon she was wheeling him up and down the pavement singing to him about Pussey-meow and her silk petticoat.

Soon Freddie came out of the house, looking a little guilty, and took hold awful sorry!"

"He broke Clarissa!" cried Polly. For a minute Susie felt all stuffy and queer, as if she couldn't breathe. Clarissa was her favorite doll. Margie held it up showing the damage. Freddie began to howl and woke up the Baby.

"Hush!" said Susie. "Hush, Freddie! I know you didn't mean to. It's all right."

There were tears in Susie's eyes and she walked quickly away to hide them and Freddie came too, muffling his howls as best he could.

"Well I never!" exclaimed Margie turning to Polly. "What can be the matter with Susie? She used to be the baddest-tempered creature! I was sure she would give Freddie a good cuff on the ear."

"I don't know," said Margie. "I think it's over—except, of course, I'll be glad to have some sugar again."

Margie was looking thoughtful. She sniffed a little with the corners of her mouth turned down.

"I s'pose if Susie's got to be so nice I'll have to reform too," she said with a sigh. "What bad habit do you think I ought to give up, Ernie?"

"I dunno," replied her brother. "I know what mine is."

"If just one person giving up being mean makes it so much pleasanter, I guess I'll be awful-awful agreeable if you give up," said Margie.

"Or three," put in Ernie. "I think it would be much pleasanter if I didn't tease so much, wouldn't it, eh?"

"I'm always picking a quarrel!" sighed Margie.

"That, of course, we've done our giving up," Ernie said. "It wouldn't be fair to change from sugar to teasing now, would it?"

"I should think it would," said Margie. "I'm going to change any- way."

Later the five little Tupper sat at their supper. Margie took a whole heaping spoonful when the sugar was passed around and Ernie took some too. Freddie looked a little surprised and asked: "Is Lent all over now?"

But Ernie and Margie only looked at each other and smiled.

"I Think Clarissa Can Be Mended As Good As New," Said Polly.

of the handle and walked along beside Susie. He thought it was more fun to walk and hear about Pussey-meow than to play with old dolls, he said. But it wasn't long before Margie and Polly came out.

"Susie, what do you think?" cried Margie. "That's a wicked, bad, little boy and I wouldn't let him walk with me, if I were you!"

Freddie pucker up his face ready to cry, and said quickly: "Susie, I'm

"I think she's a dear!" cried Polly. Polly left Margie's side and ran to Susie and put her arm through Susie's.

"I think Clarissa can be mended as good as new," she said. "My big brother, Bob, can mend anything. He often mends dishes for Mamma."

"Oh, how nice!" replied Susie, gulping down the last tear. "Hear that, Freddie? Polly's brother can mend Clarissa!"

Freddie was much consoled, for he was a dear little fellow and just lately he had come to love his sister, Susie, "next best to Muddy-kin."

Meanwhile Margie ran into the house where Ernie was fixing his shop.

"Say!" she cried excitedly. "I bet I know what Susie's giving up."

"What?" asked Ernie. "I suppose now the game is all spoiled. I told you not to go and tell Susie about her old Clarissa, until afterwards. Now I s'pose she's gone and hit Freddie and Muddy-kin's sent Susie upstairs and you'll have to mind the baby and the game and the sugar and the

"That's just it!" cried Margie. "Susie didn't hit Freddie or even scold. That's what she's giving up! I've been wondering and wondering what was the matter with Susie."

"That's right!" replied Ernie after a moment of thought. "I remember now she hasn't said anything mean or cross for weeks! Well, it certainly makes her nice! I'll be sorry when Lent is over—except, of course, I'll be glad to have some sugar again."

Margie was looking thoughtful. She sniffed a little with the corners of her mouth turned down.

"I s'pose if Susie's got to be so nice I'll have to reform too," she said with a sigh. "What bad habit do you think I ought to give up, Ernie?"

TOYS AND USEFUL ARTICLES THAT A BOY CAN MAKE.

BATH ROOM CUP HOLDER

FASTEN A AND B TO C WITH FLAT HEAD SCREWS

TO CONSTRUCT AN OCTAGON—

LAY OUT SQUARE OF REQUIRED SIZE AS ABCD FIND CENTER O BY DIAGONALS FROM CORNERS A, B, C AND D. WITH COMPASSES DRAW WITH RADIUS EQUAL TO 1/2 OF A DIAGONAL, AS AO, SWING ARCS LOCATING G, H, I, J, K.

L, M AND N, CONNECT THESE POINTS FOR REQUIRED OCTAGON.

THIS is a little convenience that will appeal to your mother right away. Hurry up and make it so that you can have a nice surprise for her. Do not stop with just one—I am quite sure you will find there will be use for several. No longer will it be necessary to have a cup sitting around on the window sill. That looks very untidy and you know mother likes to have everything look very neat.

The design shows the shape of the holder octagonal. This can be varied if it is desired to do so. For instance, it might be made hexagonal in shape, or it might be made round. There is also plenty of room for an expression of your own ideas in the design of the back piece. As shown in the drawing, it is rectangular with the corners chamfered, and while this looks well, and is good design, there is no reason why it should not be changed. The back could be made longer also, or perhaps a bit narrower. These suggestions are made only with the idea of showing you that it is possible to exercise a little originality even with a design that someone else has made. This particular one has purposely been left quite plain in order that you may have an opportunity to do this.

Very little material will be required for this holder. Almost any wood will be suitable for use, as no doubt it will be painted to match the woodwork of the room in which it is used. White enamel makes an exceedingly nice finish, especially if the bath room is finished in white.

If you decide that you wish to change the design along the lines suggested above, make your drawings of it before you attempt to start work. In other words, having something definite to work from before you start. Having decided exactly what you are to do, proceed to get out your stock and work it to shape. The work on the back piece will be very easy, the other two parts requiring more care. The small bracket for supporting the octagonal piece should be laid out by means of small squares. No compass curves are used, hence the curve must be laid out by means of locating definite points and then tracing through these points. No trouble will be experienced in laying out the shape, care is used. Sawing to shape may prove a bit troublesome for the surfaces should be smooth. A coping saw will be found the best tool for this, but it will have to be used carefully as the stock is rather thick, such a small saw.

The part for the holder will be found the most difficult of the three. It is suggested that the octagon be laid out but not cut to shape until after the hole is bored. An expansive bit will be necessary to do the best work, though it is possible to do a fair good job with a gouge if you are patient. In boring, hold the stock in the vice crosswise of the grain, otherwise the larger bit will split the stock. The bottom of the hole will have to be smoothed with chisel or gouge and sandpaper. After boring the hole, if outside should be worked to shape. Bore required holes for fastening of either, sandpaper well, then assemble. No sizes are specified for the screws. Use only those heavy enough to do the work. Round head screws will, of course, look better for fastening the holder to the wall. Paint to match the wall, which should, of course, be done by the woodworker to which it is turned.

WISHY AND WOSHY

WHENEVER the boys in the village went out to play plunder and pillage, they'd drag little Wishy behind them and shove little Woshy before; Poking fun at the Twins to remind them they were cowardly down to the core.

Poor Wishy and Woshy were nervous and whispered, "How ugly they serve us— I wish we had courage to fight them; Why haven't we some of their nerve? Perhaps there is some way to slight them. Though beating is what they deserve."

Well one day a thin little fellow With a face that was sickly and yellow, Came out of a broken-down shanty To get a good taste of the breeze, And because he was with his old Aunt, The big fellows followed to tease.

As soon as they started their jeering, And whispering, laughing and sneering, The Twins drew their fists and went plunging Like billy-goats into the crowd, And never stopped hitting and lunging Till the bullies were beaten and cowed.

And now it's quite changed in the village: The boys play at plunder and pillage, But the Twins march ahead to remind them They aren't afraid any more; And they've drilled the big bullies behind them Into solders right down to the core!

Weather Prophet

IT is said that March usually comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. Here are a few hints that will help you to judge the state of the weather, so that this changeable month will not be able to steal a march on you.

A red sky at sunset will mean "fine weather tomorrow."

A red sky in the morning will mean "wind or rain."

A yellow sky in the evening will also mean "rain tomorrow."

If the sun appears through a mist haze in the morning it means "the day will be warm."

If it is cloudy in the morning but the clouds begin to break it means "the day will be fair."

When the stars are very bright and twinkle more than usual it means "rain in the morning."

If your cat rubs himself behind his ears more than is his custom or is restless and lies with his back to the fire you can usually tell that bad weather is coming.

With these hints in mind you should all be little weather prophets and March should never be able to catch you unawares.

CORK

JAMIE had a very bad cold and was lying in bed. He wanted to go coasting on the beautiful white hill in front of the house, but his mother had said "No" when he asked her, and to make things worse she had brought out a big brown bottle full of cough medicine. She began to take the cork out, and you know what that means. "Woof! Woof!" Jamie coughed, "I won't take that nasty stuff!"

"Very well," said his mother, putting the cork back into the bottle. "Then I won't do what I was going to do for you."

"What was it?" Jamie asked, eyeing the brown bottle.

"It was a story," replied his mother, as she started toward the other room.

"Oh, come back! Please!" Jamie cried. "What was it about?"

His mother popped the cork out of the bottle and held it up for him to see. "It was about this cork," she said. "Do you know what cork is?"

And she poured out a teaspoon of the medicine.

"No," answered Jamie, opening his mouth and swallowing the medicine before he thought. "Tell me about it, mother."

"Cork grows on a kind of oak tree," she told him, setting down the bottle. "It does," Jamie asked. "Where do the cork oak trees grow? Not around here, do they? Did I ever see one?"

"No, you never did, for they grow mostly in countries in the southern part of Europe. Spain and Portugal supply most of the cork used.

"He broke Clarissa!" cried Polly. For a minute Susie felt all stuffy and queer, as if she couldn't breathe. Clarissa was her favorite doll. Margie held it up showing the damage. Freddie began to howl and woke up the Baby.

"Hush!" said Susie. "Hush, Freddie! I know you didn't mean to. It's all right."

There were tears in Susie's eyes and she walked quickly away to hide them and Freddie came too, muffling his howls as best he could.

"Well I never!" exclaimed Margie turning to Polly. "What can be the matter with Susie? She used to be the baddest-tempered creature! I was sure she would give Freddie a good cuff on the ear."

"I don't know," said Margie. "I think it's over—except, of course, I'll be glad to have some sugar again."

Margie was looking thoughtful. She sniffed a little with the corners of her mouth turned down.

"I s'pose if Susie's got to be so nice I'll have to reform too," she said with a sigh. "What bad habit do you think I ought to give up, Ernie?"

"I dunno," replied her brother. "I know what mine is."

"If just one person giving up being mean makes it so much pleasanter, I guess I'll be awful-awful agreeable if you give up," said Margie.

"Or three," put in Ernie. "I think it would be much pleasanter if I didn't tease so much, wouldn't it, eh?"

"I'm always picking a quarrel!" sighed Margie.

"That, of course, we've done our giving up," Ernie said. "It wouldn't be fair to change from sugar to teasing now, would it?"

"I should think it would," said Margie. "I'm going to change any- way."

Later the five little Tupper sat at their supper. Margie took a whole heaping spoonful when the sugar was passed around and Ernie took some too. Freddie looked a little surprised and asked: "Is Lent all over now?"

But Ernie and Margie only looked at each other and smiled.

not be cut too deep nor too soon. The first cutting is made when the tree is about 15 years old, then it is cut again every 8 or 10 years. With proper care the trees live to be 150 years old.

"What do they do with the bark after they cut it off?" Jamie asked.

"Well, the pieces of cork are first soaked in water, then they are dried and when nearly dry pressed flat under heavy weights. Then they are heated over a fire of coals to remove any decayed parts and to hide the bad places. Then they are packed in bales to sell."

Jamie asked again.

"Corks used to be cut out in these round shapes entirely by hand with very sharp knives that had to be sharpened after every cutting. But now there is a machine, which was invented in this country, that cuts corks."

"Is cork used for anything else besides stopping up old medicine bottles?" Jamie asked.

"Yes, indeed," answered his mother. "It is used in life-saving belts because it is light, and will keep people up on the surface of the water. Then, because it does not soak up water easily it is used for inner soles in shoes. The little pieces that are left after cork is cut, are saved and burnt to make a kind of black paint."

"Why do they use corks in bottles?" Jamie asked.

"To keep the moisture in the medicine," his mother told him. "It's time to take another spoonful of this medicine, now."

And because she had told him such a nice story about cork, Jamie opened his mouth and took his medicine like a good little boy.

of your own ideas in the design of the back piece. As shown in the drawing, it is rectangular with the corners chamfered, and while this looks well, and is good design, there is no reason why it should not be changed. The back could be made longer also, or perhaps a bit narrower. These suggestions are made only with the idea of showing you that it is possible to exercise a little originality even with a design that someone else has made. This particular one has purposely been left quite plain in order that you may have an opportunity to do this.

Very little material will be required for this holder. Almost any wood will be suitable for use, as no doubt it will be painted to match the woodwork of the room in which it is used. White enamel makes an exceedingly nice finish, especially if the bath room is finished in white.

If you decide that you wish to change the design along the lines suggested above, make your drawings of it before you attempt to start work. In other words, having something definite to work from before you start. Having decided exactly what you are to do, proceed to get out your stock and work it to shape. The work on the back piece will be very easy, the other two parts requiring more care. The small bracket for supporting the octagonal piece should be laid out by means of small squares. No compass curves are used, hence the curve must be laid out by means of locating definite points and then tracing through these points. No trouble will be experienced in laying out the shape, care is used. Sawing to shape may prove a bit troublesome for the surfaces should be smooth. A coping saw will be found the best tool for this, but it will have to be used carefully as the stock is rather thick, such a small saw.

The part for the holder will be found the most difficult of the three. It is suggested that the octagon be laid out but not cut to shape until after the hole is bored. An expansive bit will be necessary to do the best work, though it is possible to do a fair good job with a gouge if you are patient. In boring, hold the stock in the vice crosswise of the grain, otherwise the larger bit will split the stock. The bottom of the hole will

Teachers Held Pleasant Event

The teachers of the public schools of the city spent a few pleasant social hours last evening in the Masonic Hall. The purpose of the entertainment was that of enabling the sixty-five teachers to get better acquainted.

Tuxis Circles

The Tuxis Club were favored last night by a illuminating address on Craftsmanship by Mr. D.W. Houston. Mr. Houston's wide experience made his address practical and useful. The speaker was instructed to complete arrangements for a series of Basket-Ball games with the group of other cities, including Galt, Guelph and Stratford possibly Paris, Brantford and Hamilton. Preparations are being made for the Summer Training Camp in which most boys are desirous of participating. Next week's meeting will be held at the home of L. Robertson, Frederick st.

Chatham Waterworks

Eminent consulting engineers are visiting Chatham to consult with the Water Commissioners and to inspect the waterworks plant, looking to making suggestions for a remodeling or reconstruction of the plant so that there may be a larger supply of good water. When the recommendations have been received from all these experts the board will finally decide just what plans will be followed. Two experts from the United States are expected here within a week.

Veteran Turnkey Dies

Ezra Miller, 85 years old, for half a century turnkey at Essex County Jail, died at Sandwich after an illness of several months. He was made turnkey when the jail was constructed, in 1855, and served through the troublous days of the time of the Civil War and reconstruction in the United States. He retired from active work three years ago.

Galt Block Sold

The Osborne Block on Main Street, Galt, comprising five stores, has been purchased by N. E. and F. Palmer, who occupy one of the stores. The price was in the neighborhood of $50,000. There is considerable activity in downtown real estate in Galt, several properties having changed hands recently.

Farmers Charges Adjudged.

The cases of the two young men, who were arrested on a charge of vagrancy recently and who were remanded in Police Court in the earlier part of the week, following the allegations by many farmers that two young men had misrepresented themselves when selling a war review were adjudged until Saturday Mar. 15th. The matter of making restitution Mr. W.P. Clement the counsel for the defendants considered, something definite was wanted and he thought an adjournment would be in the order. Thereon also he understood was yet prepared to proceed.

The Magistrate with the consent of the Crown therefore adjourned the case. In the meantime the opportunity is being given to all farmers in the district to bring in the receipts that definite something in the way of figures can be arrived at.

Many Want to Exhibit

The fact that the coming automobile show will be a great success is evident by the fact that the local requests for space are more than what can be accommodated. And another indication of this assured success are the piles of letters from outside dealers and agents who want to exhibit. Much to Pop Phillips and the Committee's regret these cannot be accepted. Even truck and tractor men want to show but owing to lack of space the exhibit will be limited to automobiles. The show by the way is the only one in Ontario, and one of the only two in Canada. A committee meeting was held last evening at which a gratifying report was presented.

Guelph School Estimates

The Guelph Board of Education completed the estimates for the year. They show a total of $82,743.06 for the public and collegiate accounts, nearly $8,000 over the amount expended last year, of which increases in salaries and war bonuses for the teachers and caretakers in the public schools will be $4,300, and $2,400 in the Collegiate Institute. Repairs, etc., also call for an extraordinary large outlay. The increase, however, will not press quite so heavily on civic appropriations as the above figures would indicate, owing to the fact that some items have been cut, and there were balances to start with. The amount the city will have to raise is about $4,236 over last year; $2,421 for the Collegiate and $1,414.39 for the public schools.

Pleasant Event Spent

A very pleasant event took place last evening at the home of Miss M. Werner, No. 3 Weber Apts., when a number of Zion Church friends surprised Mother Werner in a very cordial manner. The ladies brought her some beautiful plants, and passed a light luncheon, afterwards spending a social hour in song. Mother Werner, although not able to regularly attend the services, is at the advanced age of 80 years, still able to be about and is quite active, and related some interesting incidents out of her ripened experiences of the past. The show by the way is the only one in Ontario, and one of the only two in Canada. A committee meeting was held last evening at which a gratifying report was presented.

Standard Value

MOTORISTS judge all light cars from the standard which the Gray-Dort has established. Some other cars are lower-priced—but against this they balance Gray-Dort quality.

Higher-priced light cars give nothing that warrants more than the Gray-Dort price.

You will recognize the balanced value of the Gray-Dort—a price well within reason, but not one desirable feature sacrificed. A quiet, powerful motor; standard equipment; comfort in riding and driving; economy; long service; proud appearance.

The touring car is $1245; the Gray-Dort Special—the car with added refinements and extra equipment, is $135 extra; there are also a coupe, and a sedan. All prices f.o.b. Chatham and are subject to change without notice.

Preliminary Steps For Organization

PRELIMINARY STEPS
Plenty of Financial Support for Baseball Club.

The local organization for the Michigan-Ontario Baseball League is proceeding. The preliminaries were taken last evening at a meeting held at the Grand Union Hotel. The matter was generally discussed and as a result the permanent organization will be effected in the near future.

It was reported to the meeting that satisfactory arrangements with the Park Board can be made regarding the erection of a grand stand and the use of the ball grounds. Some way of enabling the Board to meet the principal and interest charges due every year could be made to the mutual satisfaction of both.

Regarding the organization about ten young enthusiastic gentlemen have signified their intention to become charter shareholders of the Kitchener Baseball Club, which was the name decided on. Plenty of financial backing therefore is assured.

Temporary officers appointed until the charter of the club is secured, are President Ed. Hill, secretary-treasurer, A. A. Eby. It was decided to issue 300 season tickets at $10 each to be disposed of during the next two weeks. A prize of $10 will be offered for a nice name for the team. The club favored the appointment of two league officials.

Mr. Jos. Jackson, Detroit as president, and Mr. Fred Wilson of Toronto, as secretary-treasurer. Messrs. Hill and Eby were appointed to represent the club at the organization meeting of the league in Flint, Mich.

Union Jacks Win The Round Trophy

Defeat Stratford at Woodstock

WOODSTOCK, March 7.—The Round's consolation trophy was well won by the Kitchener Jacks as they staged a sensational winning rally, which overcame the goals of the Stratford team.

The game was played on a good field, and was a real contest. The Stratford team was in the lead in the first two frames, but faded in the third, while Kitchener came on like whirlwinds, the score was three to nothing for Stratford when the second stanza closed, but Kitchener scored five in the last to Stratford's one and copped the game.

Fifteen minutes after the first frame opened Kitchener took a pass from Morenz and scored, four minutes later scored a rebound goal.

At the end of the first period, Kitchener led pressed the play and with only one man on defense, the four forwards besieged all over him. W. Schnarr scored in two minutes, his brother Gerald, tallied again six minutes later. Giller came back in three minutes for another, and in four minutes for another. Trushinski scored a minute later, with but a few minutes to go.

Stratford tried hard Morenz succeeding on getting one on a pass from Seebach. The classic city kids could not connect for another, however. Large Area Starving in Central Europe

British Food Controller Says Situation is Tragic.

NEWCASTLE, England, March 7.—George H. Roberts the food minister, speaking here today said that he could state on absolutely unimpeachable authority that the situation with regard to food conditions in great areas of Europe was nothing less than tragic.

"It is not too much to say that Roumania is starving, that Serbia is starving, that Austria is starving, and that Germany is starving," he declared. "Ever since the armistice was signed the allies have been doing what they could to relieve the situation and food should be, or is being sent to all the countries I have named. But it is not enough, and the question now arises whether we shall be able to get sufficient food to those countries in time to prevent a disaster."

Peace Council Active

"The supreme council in Paris is straining every nerve to meet the situation. I am going over to Paris on Monday to attend the meetings of the council, and I pray it may be possible for us to take such emergency measures as may stave off the impending disaster."

"Clearly we cannot complacently watch Europe starving and feed ourselves to the limit. That is not the spirit of this nation, which through its selfishness won the war. We are willing to help, and if helping means that the situation here does not improve as rapidly as it otherwise would, this country, I am sure will not grudge."

"I know as the people realize the appalling seriousness of the situation which is developing in Europe, they will be the first to call upon the Government to intervene."

FIGHTING

BERLIN, March 10. (By Frank J. Taylor).—The revolution appeared to-night to have gone beyond the control of its leaders. Although the general strike was officially called off yesterday afternoon, following a compromise agreement with the government, fighting was still going on in several parts of the city. A strong minority, accusing the strike leaders of treacherously playing into the hands of government, was demanding the complete overthrow of the cabinet and turning the country over to the control of soviets.

This sentiment was being fostered by the fear of hunger as well as by money and propaganda, alleged to be furnished by Russia.

Labor leaders are now trying to separate the workmen's political demands from Spartacist terrorism and violence, with which the radical element of workmen is closely connected. It was sympathy with the workers, rather than a formal alliance, which led the sailors and soldiers of the republican guard, to break with the government. These men had never been dependable supporters of the cabinet but were assigned to patrol the region around the Alexander Platz, last Sunday.

Meanwhile, the government is bringing in additional volunteer troops from the environs. This provoked jealousy and illfeeling among the guards, who sought trouble. Rival detachments met, while patrolling. Abusive words led to shooting. This was the signal for 6000 guards to revolt and begin a warfare which wrecked an important business street and caused the heaviest casualties which Berlin has experienced so far. It is unofficially estimated that 5000 wounded, including many women and children.

While the fighting was at its height, with aeroplanes of both sides battling overhead, minenwerfers and cannon battering government buildings and machine gun and rifle bullets sweeping the streets, men and women blocked from the scene of the battle appeared to be unaware of any thing out of the ordinary.

The fighting last night was limited to a species of guerrilla warfare, with the radicals resisting in isolated portions and buildings. But rebellious seemed to be in the very atmosphere and it was feared that continued fighting might again set the whole city seething with revolution. Berlin seems ripe for Bolshevism, unless the Weimar government is strengthened by the Allies.
