New York, June 30 .- A dispatch to he World from Berlin says: The World correspondent repeats, on the best of authority, that Admiral Diedrichs, in command of the German fleet in Asiatic waters, will not act alone at Manila. His instructions are to do nothing without the consent of Admiral Dewey and the concurrence of the other foreign commanders. Yet private dispatches from Madrid report that the Spanish authorities and | plainly heard. the populace at Manila place their whole hope on Admiral Diedrichs. They confidently believe that he will not

Washington, June 30 .- The navy department made public the following cablegram from Admiral Dewey, brought by the McCulloch to Hong Kong, and supposed to have been sent from Cavite, June 23: "No change in the situation since my telegram of June 17. Five German, three British, one French and one Japanese men-of-war in port. The insurgents are constantly closing in on the city. Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, with thirteen of his staff, arrived May 19 by, my permission, on the Nanshan. He established himself at Cavite, outside of the arsenal, under the protection of our guns, and organized his army. The progress of Aguinaldo has been wonderful. He has invariably conducted the war humanely. My relations with him are cordial, but my conferences have generally been only of a personal nature." TO PLACATE THE INSURGENTS. London, June 30 .- The Madrid correspondent of the Standard says Capt. Gen. Augusti has renewed Vs request for permission to promise the Philippine insurgents extensive reforms. Now that the Cortes is closed it is understood that Senor Puigcerver, minister of finance and Senor Camazo, minister of public instruction and public works, desire to resign. Gamazo opposed pursuing the war untill Spain is financially ruined. The whole world having recognized her gallant sacrifices and traditional bravery, he thinks the government ought to have the moral courage to fix a reasonable limit for the national sacrifices. It is an open secret that Moret and many of the Liberal datesmen share the views of Senor Gamazo. The peace agitation is spreading in the provinces but not at Madrid.

WITHIN SPEAKING DISTANCE OF THE ENEMY. Washington, June 30.-It is learned by dispatches from the front that the preparations for a general advance of the American troops on Santiago are being pushed steadily forward, and troops of all branches of the service are being hurried to the front. Capt. Mendoca, of Gen. Lawton's staff, made a reconnoissance up to the very trenches of the enemy, their sentries talking on picket duty being

RECONNOISSANCE. At daybreak yesterday morning Lieut, Smith, of the Fourth Infantry, with a detail of 50 men from the 17th Infantry, under Lieut. Darfoo, crossed the San Juan, and went in a northerly direction as far as Caney, or El Caumey, as it is marked on the map, without encountering any Spanish troops, and 50 men of a company of the 7th, under Capt. Young, also made a reconnoissance in force. The Spaniards have seemingly retired to their entrenchments. No skirmishers were encountered. Gens. Lawton, Wheeler and Chaffee have had rides out beyond our advance posts several time, and Gen. Wheeler, on the crest of the hills forward of the American left, actually climbed a tree in order to obtain a better view of the country. Capt. Wright, of Gen. Bates' staff, followed the line of the railroad running out of Juragua towards Santiago de Cuba | the Spanish scouts. The dispatch to within two and a half miles of the city. The road approaches within 11/2 miles of our front, and can be utilized to bring up supplies and siege guns.

CUBANS DO GOOD WORK. The Cubans under Gen. Castillo, are doing commendable work as advance pickets. They are thrown day and night from half a mile to a mile in advance of our pickets, along the front and flanks, thus forming a double cordon about the army. SCHLEY'S SQUADRON MERGED INTO SAMPSON'S. Washington, June 30. — The flying squadron, hitherto commanded by Commodore Schley, has lost its identity, by an order issued by Rear Admiral Sampson, and it has been merged into the fleet under the admiral. Commodore Schley has been assigned to command the second squadon attached to Admiral Sampson's fleet. CAMARA'S DELAY. The Madrid correspondent of the London Times says: According to El Imparcial, the demand for a cash pay-

Mr. Bothwell's house was valued at about $700, with small insurance. Mr. McMillan's residence on the south side was damaged to the extent of $200. The residence of Thomas Cowan, north of the burned building, was slightly scorched.

MANUFACTURING FIRECRACKERS

Already the sound of the exploding fire-cracker is heard in the land, and as the 1st of July approaches still nearer people with weak nerves will become more and more apprehensive, while the small boy will become more noisily patriotic. The fire-cracker, so extensively used by Canadians in celebrating Dominion Day, is a Chinese invention, and is supposed to be have been used in China in prehistoric times as universally as it is now used in the flowery kingdom upon nearly all ceremonious occasions. Its original use is supposed to have been to frighten away evil spirits, and in some parts of the celestial empire it is still regarded as an effective weapon against ghosts and hobgobins.

The average patriot has little knowledge of how these implements of patriotism are made, the amount of labor expended on them and the cost of the same, and it is only of recent date that anyone outside of China has known the secret methods employed, for the Chinese are secretive about their modes of manufacture. An American consul in China, who has seen the native manufacturers at work, thus describes the process: "The straw paper is first rolled by hand around an iron rod, which varies in size according to the size of the cracker to be made. To complete the rolling a rude machine is used. This consists of two uprights supporting an axis, from which is suspended by two arms a heavy piece of wood, slightly convex on the lower side. There is just room between this swinging block and the top of the table to place the cracker, as each layer of paper is put on by hand, the cracker is placed upon the table and the suspended weight is drawn over the roll, thus tightning it until no more can be passed under the weight. For the smallest 'whip' cracker the workman uses for compression, instead of this machine, a heavy piece of wood, fitted with a handle like that of a carpenter's plane. In filling crackers 200 or 300 are tied together tightly in a bunch. Red clay is spread over the end of the bunch and forced into the of each cracker with . punch.

While the clay is being tamped in little water is sprayed on it, which makes it pack closer. The powder is poured in at the other end of the With the aid of an awl the cracker. edge of the paper is turned in at the upper end of the cracker, and the fuse is inserted through this."

The ordinary size cracker is one and one-half inch in length and one-fourth of an inch in diameter. In China they can be purchased at a cost of 62 cents for 10,000, although the best quality commands twice that price. but little more than the actual cost of manufacture. The straw paper used is of the cheapest grade, the powand inferior der is also of cheap quality, which probably accounts for so many "sizzers" in every pack. For the fuse and outside wrapper a fine quality of paper is used, but even this is inexpensive. Most of the fire-crackers are made by women and children at their homes, and rapid workers are able to earn from 5 to 7 cents a day. An expert can earn 10 cents, while a novice receives only his board for the first four The wages paid in this trade are about the same as those paid the

"FARMERS' DAY"

At the Rennels of the London Hunt Club.

Their Annual Outing-An Ideal Day and an Excellent Time-Interest ing Sports-A Merry Crowd-The Prize Winners.

"Glenmore," the beautiful headquarters of the London Hunt Club. was the scene of a very enjoyable event yesterday. It was the annual picnic given by the club to the farmers over whose grounds the runs of the hunt have taken place. The veomen turned out in large numbers, accompanied by their wives, sons and daughters. Upwards of 400 people had congregated on the pretty lawn in front of the clubhouse before the procession of ries and wheels had ceased to arrive. A large number of well-known citizens were also present, and mingled with the yeomen and their families, helping to make the occasion a most pleasant one, and long to be pered. This event is looked forward to by the farmers with great expectancy, and the opinion was voiced on all sides that yesterday outshone all its predecessors.

Before the sports began the ladies and children enjoyed the shade of the trees, and the many dainty refreshments supplied by the club. The Musical Society Band, under the direction of F. L. Evans, dispensed an excellent programme of music. The band received much praise for its efficiency. A tour of inspection of the club quarters was made by many, and found replete with everything essential to the success of a bunt club. The house is furnished in the best style, while the rooms are large and well ventilated. The grounds were particularly beautiful yesterday, as flowers of every kind were in full bloom on all sides. and the lawns were in excellent shape. The programme of games and sports was first-class and afforded an endless amount of amusement to the spectators. They were held on the lawn to the south of the club house. Mr. Adam Beck officiated as starter, and Dr. Abbott, Dr. Niven and Mr. J. B. Kilgour The first event was the flat race, for horses that had never won a race—to be owned and ridden by invited farmers or their sons—twice around the track. The entries for this race were: T. Jackson, R. Gough, L. Dyer, M. Breen, W. Egan, J. O'Rourke and W. The first prize was captured by M. Breen, the second by L. Dyer.

The next was a foot race, open only to invited farmers and their sons. Entries: T. Jackson, R. Gough, T. Dyer, M. Breen, L. Dyer and L. Garlick. First prize, M. Breen, second, T. Dyer; third, L. Dyer. The third event was the jumping

> Miss Lotta Frances Awarded a Gold Medal-The Auditorium Crowded.

The piano and vocal recital given in the Auditorium last evening by three accomplished graduates of the Conservatory of Music attracted and delighted a large crowd of music lovers. Each of the graduates was the recipient of hearty encores and beautiful bouquets. The vocalist, Miss Margaret Cowan, A.L.C.M., who possesses a voice of remarkable sweetness and power, sang with delightful accuracy, and won fresh laurels for the conservatory by such highly creditable rendition of her difficult numbers. The pianists, Miss Lotta Francis, A.L.C.M., and Miss Beatrice Gibson, A.L.C.M., proved themselves accomplished artists, and elicited the hearty appreciation of the large audience. Miss Gibson showed a charming touch, and her technique was faultless. Miss Francis also played with great technical precision, in a most delightful manner. The numbers she essayed were extremely difficult, and her performance was highly creditable. At the conclusion of the programme Mr. Barron stated that the foronto musician announced to have been selected to award the Barron gold medal was prevented at the last moment from being present, and Mr. St. John Hyttenrauch was chosen as the judge, who decided in favor of Miss Francis. The decision was received with great applause. Following is the

A Series With the Denomination Indi

Recent and pending changes in the postage stamps of the Dominion will make the last issue valuable to collectors. It was found that the lack of a figure indicating the denomination on each caused confusion among English-speaking people, while among the wholly French they were unintelligible. Hence a new series is being issued, which remedies the deficiency. The maple leaf designs at the two bottom corners have been replaced by the Arabic figures representing the denomination, while the center oval inclosing the Queen's head has been made slightly larger. In the last issue the 15, 20 and 50 cent denominations were never issued, but they will be included in the new issue. Of the passing variety, the sixes and tens will be the rarests. as fewer were made of them than of the others.

Futile Hunt-The Tramp 1 200d

Howard Reynolds, of Sarnia, was driving along the river road near Corunna last evening, and about 8 o'clock was stopped by a farmer, who inquired if the Sarnia police were looking for a man with a wooden leg. On being told that they were, the man said his children had just been back in the fields after the cows, and had seen a man with a wooden leg sitting on a log. He authorities were notified, and Officer Garvis searched the locality thoroughly without success. Special precaution was taken to prevent the tramp from boarding a freight train at the tunnel station during the night, two officers being on the lookout there from midnight till 5 o'clock this morning. Fully policemen, county constables and the murderer between here and Moore- are mute. town. The river front was fairly lined with men on the alert to prevent the fugitive crossing the river. Among the searchers were Provincial Detective John Yorrell. Chief of Police John Windred, Officer Murray, and John McGregor, whose horse the tramp is said to have stolen. P. Liverpool, June 30.-A mail steamer from Sierra Leone reports that the British expedition, which was dispatched to the Sherboro district of Sierra Leone, west coast of Africa, owing to the massacre of American missionaries by natives, who destroyed the mission houses (as the result Port Huron, Mich., June 29.—The po- of an uprising against the imposition the hut tax), fought its way to Rotifunk. The British force found the cremated bodies of the murdered missionaries, which, however, bore no trace of mutilation, as had previously been reported. The expedition se verely punished the rebellious natives, but the search for Mrs. Cain, who fled to the bush at the time of the massacre, proved fruitless.

"A TERRIBLE WAR"

Salisbury's Comment on the Spanish American Conflict

London, June 30 .- Lord Salisbury, the premier, addressing the United Club in this city, last evening, said: "There is a black cloud on the horizon-one that does not affect us personally, but which evokes the deepest sorrow, and our earnest desire for its removal. It is the war of two great states, between whom we are neutral-one bound to is by every tie of kindred and similarity of institutions and religion; the other the state that fought on our side when we struggled with the threatening tyranny of the first Napoleon. Watching this terrible war, we are bound to abstain from expressing any preference or any judgment on either side. We know that in both cases the motives were of the highest character. We know the United States are animated by elevated philanthropy, and that Spain is inspired by that love of independence which was the greatest pride of all ancient nations. only say I earnestly wish the day may speedily arrive when this terrible slaughter between two nations will cease, and the world be restored to With this exception the world looks smiling enough to us politically. The convention with France has removed the subject of conflict between us, and our greatest and most cultivated neighbor. The Soudan expedition. if successfully accomplished, will be the greatest work for civilization that England has performed for two or three generations. The government's Chinese policy is to prevent the Chinese Empire from falling into ruins, to invite it into paths of reform, to give it every assistance in our power, to perfect its defenses and to increase its commercial prosperity. Thus should aid China and ourselves. is impossible that we should have the influence over China, as over India and Egypt, but I believe that so far as railways are concerned our advantages will be fully equal to those of other nations."

Dr. Bryce, of the Provincial Board of Health, having been called in to give the town of Galt advice as to how best to dispose of its sewage, spoke highly of the land filtration scheme. He said: The most perfect farm I know of is in connection with the London lum of 1,200 people. There, in two hours, the sewage disappears. Between the sewer pipes at the asylum farm, are vegetable beds, and from that source revenue of $2,000 is derived. foreman gets $25 a month. The desirability of such a sewage farm is apparent, and the complaint that hears from the asylum authorities is not because of too much, but rather too little sewage. This farm is certainly a

There are two Conservative versions of Mr. St. John's speech to the faithful at Stratford. One represents . him as saying that he was confident that though Premier Hardy had now a majority in the Legislature, the Liberals of the Province would be driven to the wall before December next. The other reports the portly lieutenant of Mr. Whitney as scarcely as thirsty for office and emolument, because he is as- ton. serted to have generously extended the time at which he knows the Liberal Government of Ontario must fall till ment string. We'do Mr. St. John no injustice when we say that it is the offices that are his primary care now, and not the welfare Uncle Thomas Greenway has a knack of the pigs at the Humber, which was his chief plank at the general election, for at Stratford he waxed, warm as he dangled before the eyes of the Conservative workers the number of offices held by Liberals in Ontario which would go to Conservatives just as soon the detestable "Grits" could be friend. custed from the management of Provincial affairs.

Why, it may be asked, is Mr. St.John indulging in these threats, and holding out those balts on the eve of the dogdays, when most people are too busy reparing to reap the greatest harvest of the decade, and to enjoy the benefits est rule in Dominion as well as in The election trials, on the ich Mr. St. John builds as plish? The reason is not far to seek. If the rank-and-file of the Opposition in constituencies where it is deemed possible to make some headway cannot be made-believe that Mr. Whitney has an early chance to overcome the substantial Liberal majority in the Legislature, they will throw up the sponge Indeed, in a number of constituencies this course is already being insisted on. Therefore, Mr. St. John is sent out to oratorically whistle to keep the Fifteen Men, in Relays, Are Required courage of the Conservative agents up. He is doing his very best, but the hardheaded electors of Ontario had too much of pre-trial and pre-election boasting from Mr. Whitney and his friends to pay any attention to it. In 1896, after the Dominion general election, we were told that the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, which then had a majority of about 20, would not last six months. It will be two years on the 8th of July next since Sir Wilfrid Laurier undertook to form his Cabinet, and the Government still lives, and Liberal statesmen are likely to lead for many a long day. In fact, since the Opposition leader promised to destroy it in the short space of six months, the Liberal majortraveled, we have beautiful lawns, and ity has been doubled. Not warned by that experience to avoid the language of the bombast, the Ontario Opposition leaders, prior to last Provincial election, professed to know that the Liberals would be defeated in a large majority of the constituencies. Again, they

PROGRESS ON THE I. C. R.

[St. John, N. B., Globe.] It is not often that one can find in the Conservative press any words of praise for any government work and particularly for the Intercolonial Railway since the Liberals came into power, and when such an event occurs it is deserving of attention. For instance, the Montreal Gazette publishes a letfrom a correspondent who makes a note of the marked improvement in "The excellent dining cars, courteous attendants and the speed and regularity with which the trains are now run will," he says, "be a revelation to those who have not traveled over the road since the days of the unnecessary and annoying waits at way stations and at Levis, the scramble for food at so-called dining-rooms, and the disgraceful unpunctuality in the arrival of trains at destination." Furthermore, "the present minister of railways or his executive seems to have awakened to the fact that the raison d'etre of the Intercolonial Rais-way was the encouragement of trade and travel between the upper and mari-time provinces, and they are to be congratulated on their efforts to increase and improve that trade.' correspondent also approves of the extension of the railway to Montreal, which he is sure will be beneficial to

to Work Them.

[Leslie's Weekly.]

Dynamite guns, such as are used upon the Vesuvius, are operated upon an entirely different principle from the ordinary powder guns. They have en-gines and boilers and air-compressors and coolers, and all sorts of intricate machinery, in a house not far away, by which the projectiles are fired. The dynamite, or gun cotton, or explosive gelatin, or whatever the explosive maerial may be, is contained in the projectile only. The projectile is called an "aerial torpedo" by the manu actur-ers, and is exploded by means of a fuse, similar to any powder zun's.

Dynamite or any other high explosive cannot be used in an ordinary cannon, because the powder would explode the dynamite before it left the gun; therefore, the system of using compressed air came into vogue as the only method of throwing dynamite to any distance. The system is popularly known as Zalinski's, although that naval officer is not connected with the manufacture of the projectiles or the gun The air is compressed and passed along through various tubes before reaching the gun, and is used at about 1,000 pounds pressure to the square inch, which is much less than the power of powder. Dynamite will be exploded at about 5,000 pounds pressure to the These guns are enormous square inch. affairs, smooth bore, 50 feet in length. made of the best iron, in three sections, flanged and bolted together, and supported on a steel carrage. This carriage s mounted upon a steel racing-ring, so called, and the system of handling is by means of an electric motor. As these guns are covered by a large number of patents, they are very expensive, costing the government many thousands of dollars each. Fifteen men, in relays, are required to work them. The gunner stands upon a platform on the left side of the carriage, uses a fine telescopic sight, and when all is ready he pulls a lever which allows the compressed air to enter the gun, and the discharge takes place. These guns are all loaded at the breach, and the projectile is handled by a separate carriage. The projectile is about ten feet in length for the fifteen-inch gun, and when charged with 500 pounds of dynamite, or gun-cotton, weighs fully 1,000 pounds. It is a steel tube composed of walls three-sixteenths of an inch thick, and has a spiral vane at the rear. The fuse is a foot in length and weighs 20 pounds. This fuse contains 21/2 pounds of dry gun-cotton and a few grains of fulminate of mercury as a detonator. It is set to explode at impact, or as the gunner may desire as to

I was a sufferer for eight years from that most distressing of all diseases, Eczema. I tried some of the best physicians in the country, but they did me little good. The palms of my hands were covered, and would become inflamed; little white blisters at first ild appear, then they would peel off, leaving a red, smooth surface which would burn like fire and itch; well, there is no name for it. On the inside of the upper part of both my limbs, great red blotches, not unlike hives, would appear, and as soon as I became warm, the burning and itching would begin. Night after night I would lie awake all night and scratch and almost go wild. I heard of CUTI-CURA REMEDIES, got a box of CUTICURA (ointment), a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT and gave them a thorough trial, and after a few applications I noticed the rednesss and inflam-mation disappear; before I had used one box there was not a sign of Eczema left. Wheat was scarce today, but seemed to make little difference to the value. $1 35 was the price paid. Oats sold at 95c to 98c and were in good demand, the orders from private cusmers absorbing nearly all that was red. No other kind of grain offerThe price of butter and eggs was unchanged. Chickens and ducks came in more freely. The price did not change. Black currants made their first appearance and sold at 12½c. Other kinds of fruit were much the same in price. Vegetables show no change. The first load of new hay sold at $3.50 for a small lot. Quota-

P. O. BOX 807 - MONTREAL

Live Stock Markets.

MONTREAL, June 27 .- The feature in export live stock circles since our last writing has been the estronger tone of cable advices from all foreign markets. Cables from Liverpool and London were much better today and noted a further advance in values, with a good trade doing. Latest advices from Manchester state that the recent sale of Canadian cattle held was most satisfactory to those interested. In ocean freight rates, an easy feeling continues to prevail. Space to Liverpool has been let at 32s 6d, to London at 27s 6d, to Bristol 35s, to Glasgow 50s. The offerings of live stock at the East End Abattoir market this morning were 400 cattle, 200 sheep, 600 lambs, and 100 calves. The supply of cattle was a little larger than that of last Thursday, but by no means in excess of requirements. Demand from shippers for good to choice stock was good, and butchers' also took hold freely. Prices fully maintained at the recent advance. A good many grass cattle were on the market today, but they are not in fit condition yet to Shippers paid 4%c to 5c, and butchers, 4c to 4%c, and some few sales of common stock were made at 3c to 3½c per lb, live weight. A fairly active trade was done in sheep for the export account, and prices were steady at 30 to 3½c per lb, live weight. The receipts of lambs were large, and prices ruled lower. The demand was good at from $2 to $3 each, as to size and quality. Calves met with a good sale at prices ranging from $2 to $6 At the Grand Trunk stock yards at Point St. Charles, the receipts were 100 cattle, 20 calves and 500 hogs. There was a fair demand from local dealers for cattle and sales were made at 41/2c per b, live weight. There was also a few taken at the above price for export account. Calves sold at $2 to $8 each as to size and quality. There was an easier feeling in the market for live hogs, and prices were 10c per cwt lower on the inside. demand was ample to absorb all offerings, and sales were made at $4 90 to $5 10 per cwt. MONTREAL, June 29.—Cheese, 6c to List of London Veterans of the Fenian Raid.

> Who Have Signed the Application-Their Correct Addresses Wanted by the Department.

Ex-Mayor George Taylor, president of the Veterans' 1866 Association of London, has received a request from the department of militia for the correct addresses of all veterans who have signed the petition forwarded by the London association. The Queen, it will be remembered, decided to strike medals for the men who loyally went to the front at that time in their country's defense. The veterans are asked to furnish their addresses to Mr. Taylor, who will forward them to the department. Blank application forms will then be sent from Ottawa to the petitioners. There are about 100 signatories of the London petition, headed by ex-Mayor Taylor, of the First Ontario Rifles. The majority were members of the Seventh Battalion at the time of the raid. They are: Color-Sergt. Wm. Miner, secretary-treasurer of the Veterans' Association; Capt. D. McMillan (now of Cayuga), Surgeon E. J. King, Capt. John Macbeth. R. W. Kidner, Capt. W. T. Several Young Couples United in Holy Bonds.

London Ladies-All Pleasant Events. BROCK-SYMONS. The wedding of Miss Bessie, youngest daughter of Mr. John Symons, of 710 York street, to Mr. Fred. Brock, of Woodstock, was quietly solemnized yesterday morning at the Memorial Church. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Canon Richardson. Miss Emma Symons, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and the groom was assisted by Mr. Frank Symons. Mr. and Mrs. Brock left on the morning train for Woodstock, where they will reside.

FRALICK-SPARKMAN. The residence of Mr.James W. Sparkman, 475 Dundas street, was the scene of a happy event last evening, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Cassie, youngest daughter of the late Edward Sparkman, of Delaware, to Mr. George Fralick, of this city. About 50 guests were present, and included visitors from St. Thomas, Delaware, Mount Brydges, and other places. Rev. W. J. Ford, of the Centennial Church officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Millis C. Sparkman, and the groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. William Fralick. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Steadman Sparkman, was charmingly attired in cream silk sublime, with pearl trimmings, and the bridesmaid wore rus sell cord silk, trimmed with white silk lace. Both carried beautiful bouquets. Following the ceremony an elegant repast was enjoyed, and a very pleasant evening spent. Mr. and Mrs. Fra-lick will reside in London, and will be at home after July 13.

ABEL-CLARKE. No. 34 Orchard street, South London, was the scene of a very pleasant event Tuesday evening, it being the marriage of Miss Lilly Clarke to Mr. Wm. Abel, both of this city. Miss Ethel maid, and Mr. W. J. Grigg, of London, supported the groom. A bountiful feas was partaken of and an enjoyable evening spent by all present.

ARSCOTT-SMITH.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated in the First Presbyterian Church last night, when Miss Lena Smith was united in marriage to Mr. J. H. Arscott, of C. S. Hyman & Co.'s. Rev. W. J. Clark performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of in-vited guests and friends. Both are popular young Londoners. Miss Smith is a valued member of St. James' Pres-byterian Church. After the ceremonies, guests were tendered a wedding breakfast at the residence of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Arscott will reside on Oxford street.

KICKHAM-DOWELL. At 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning, at Memorial Church, Rev.Canon Richardson read the marriage vows to Miss Catharine M. Dowell and Mr. Charles H. Kickham, of Detroit, formerly of London, which made them man and London on July 30. wife. The impressive ceremony was witnessed by numbers of friends and relatives. The bride, in a pretty gown of white petece cloth, trimmed with Valenciennes laces, and carrying a beautiful bouquet of cream roses, was led to the altar by her father, where the groom waited with his best man, Mr. James Ferguson, and Mr. A. Dowell, brother of the bride. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lyla Dowell and Miss Lucy Garratt, who wore pretty green organdles, and carried pink and red roses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. 563 Adelaide street. The happy couple left on the noon train, via C. R., for their future home. Among the beautiful presents which the bride received was a handsome Bible from Rev. Canon Richardson.

Moore and McDonald Remanded for Another Week on Criminal Charges.

Police Magistrate Parke occupied his usual place on the bench this morning, having returned from Montreal last night. Christopher Moore, the old man charged with indecent conduct with a child, was remanded for another week. Moore claims to have been a resident of Collingwood about fourteen years ago. He has also lived in Woodstock and Toronto. William McDonald, charged with stealing clothes from John Edmunds, pleaded as an excuse for the act that he was drunk. "That's no excuse," said the court. "You drink yourself, and you have sold whisky to others and made them as bad as yourself. Whisky is at the bottom of all your troubles." He was remanded for a

GRANTON.

Advertiser Agent, C. C. Grant. Granton, June 29.-The large barns elonging to the estate of the late Mr. Wass, and which were in close proximity to this village, were burned last night about 9:30 o'clock. The cause of the fire is a mystery. The buildings and contents were insured in the Perth Mutual.

St. Thomas Church garden party, which was being held on Mr. Shipey's lawn, received a sudden check when the Wass buildings took fire, as they were only about 30 rods distant. However, under the circumstances, the receipts were good. The annual lawn festival in connection with the Granton Presbyterian Church will be held on the evening of July 1, on Mr. Wm. Grant's lawn. The Presbyterians are proverbial for havng a first-class affair, and this one promises to be one of the best. Rev. J. H. Radeliffe, of St. Cath arines, occupied the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday.

ILDERTON.

Ilderton. June 30.-Last Sabbath evening Rev. R. Garbutt, who for the past three years has officiated as pastor of the three Methodist churches on the Birr circuit, preached a farewell sermon in the Ilderton church to a very large congregation, from Revelations be an ornament to the park and a ii., 10: "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee a crown of life.' He has left for his new field of labor on the Gorrie circuit. The church prays that he and his family may have a long and useful life. While we regret his departure we welcome his successor-one who spent three years in our midst some eight years ago-the Rev. D M Kennedy.

Messrs. Scott and Douglass are busily engaged framing a large barn for Mr. Bert Kennedy, twelfth concession. We are glad to see Mr. George Lip-sett able to be around again. He has

The G. T. R. Will Carry Royal Scots Free-Increased Earnings of the C. P. R.

A. H. Harris, general traffic manager of the Canadian government system of railways, in an interview, said that it was the intention of the government to close the office of the system in Montreal on Aug. 1, and that his own resignation would Lke effect on the same date. Mr. Haris added that he left the railway department on the best terms with all the officials, from

The C. P. R. statement for the last five months is as follows: May, 1898, gross earnings, $2,252,999; working expenses, $1,326,337; net profits, $926,662. In May, 1897, the net profits were $875,570, and for the five months ending May 31, 1898, the figures are as follows: Gross earnings $9.457.909: working expenses, $6,121,628; net profits, $3,-336,281. For the five months ending May 31, 1897, there was a net profit of $2,-781,066. The increase in net profits over the same period of last year, is, therefore, for May, $51,092, and from Jan. 1 to May 31, $555,215.

The Grand Trunk Railway will carry the Scots to Portland next Saturday free of charge. Mr. Have has written a letter to that effect to the Portland authorities. The company has placed at the disposal of the regiment one Pullman for the officers, one colonist sleeping car for each company, one car for horses and one car for baggage. A good number of men with discharges from some of the other corps are swearing in the Scots in order to have the trip, so that the probabilities are that they will muster about 350 all told. The Portland committee have sent an invitation to the governor-general and staff to accompany the Scots.

A Chicago dispatch says: Eastbound shipments are again in confusion. The lake lines have canceled their tariff restoring rates to a 12 and a 15 cent basis, which were to become effective Friday. The effect of this is to render it impossible for the all-rail lines to maintain the recent tariff of 18 cents on grain and grain products, and 15 cents on corn. The lake lines assign no reason for canceling their ar-iff, but their action was presumably dictated by competitive conditions. Water rates touched the lowest figures of the season on Tuesday, when a cargo of five-eighths of a cent a bushel. This lake and rail rate from Chicago to New York of 6% cents per 100 pounds. FEELING FOR THE FOE. Gen. Lawton's headquarters, five miles east of Santiago de Cuba, Wednesday, June 29-6 p.m.-via Kingston, Jamaica, June 30.-The American troops spent yesterday in feeling for the enemy, otherwise engaged in reconnoitering. Gen. Shafter, in person, with a small escort, went through to Caney, a small town five miles northeast of Santiago de Cuba, with which it is connected by railroad. Lieut. Standing and a detail of Cubans and American sharpshooters occupied a hill northwest of the American line and looking directly down on both Caney and Santiago. Cainey now seems to hold only about 300 Spanish troops, the number reported by the Cuban scouts, in spite of the belief of the Americans first here. that the 3,000 Spaniards driven forward by our advance on Baiquiri and Juragua had all retreated to Caney, and not on Santiago. The small number of troops now at Caney indicates was not molested during his observation, although he passed through a camp which 24 hours previous had been occupied by a strong Spanish where they could corral a captured "pack train." In the center of the group of soldiers was the captured pack train, a Spanish pony, accurately described by a corporal "as being as thick as a shingle end and as long as a lath." The prisoner has been dedicated by the men to carrying their captain's baggage.

CAMP CONDITIONS HARD. The camp conditions continue hard. Heavy rain yesterday set everything afloat. Rations are being served out more regularly, but they still are not plentiful. Officers and men fare alike. The latter are suffering during the cold nights from lack of the blankets thrown away on the march. These have been appropriated by the Cubans. who take everything in sight, and do as little as possible. On the whole, they actually fare better than our men. Compared with their recent men. conditions this is immeasurably the case.

The American officers generally expect a movement today to capture Caney, which is a short five miles northeast of Santiago. This, however, is not official. Such a move may draw the Spaniards in force from Santiago, but in view of their previous retreat when the American army might have been seriously harrassed on the march, an aggressive move on the part of

Invasion of Spain. THE THREAT CAUSES ALARM-DEFENSES OF THE PORTS. New York, June 30 .- A dispatch to the World from Madrid says The rumored coming of an American fleet to the peninsula has caused alarm, although the authorities try to conceal the fact. Especially is this the case on the coast in the north of Spains where the defenses are nowhere complete except at Ferrol, where there is an arsenal. All the other ports there are protected only by ancient citadels and forts equipped with equally venerable guns. In consequence of the report the annual influx of visitors to the fashionable watering-places will not take place. More than $0 ports between the boundary of Portugal and the French frontier will suffer. Even in San Sebastian, the summer residence of the court, half of the houses and villas are tenantless, as it has been officially intimated that the king and queen will remain in Madrid this year. Serious resistance must be expected by an American fleet at Ferrol, Cadiz, Corunna, Algierres, Ceuta, Barcelona and Cartagena, both from fortifications and mines. Torpedoes have been prepared and carefully planted at these points inside of the last two months. Spain also has about twenty torpedo boats of 120 tons each, manned by crews and officers trained in torpedo schools. Pilots are required in order to enter the ports of Bilbao and Algiers, owing to the submarine defenses. The Spanish arsenals are working night and day to get the second reserve fleet ready. Six thousand of the reserve sailors have been called out, and 35,000 reserves called out. Both classes have been trained for two years. All of the principal garrisons, including those on the Balearic Islands have been reinforced, mostly with artillery, or which Spain has Sold at W. T. Strong & Co.'s Drug seventeen regiments.

PEACE PARTY GAINING GROUND. The peace party is graining ground daily in the middle and working classes, particularly in the provinces The authorities at Barcelona report imposing demonstrations and manifestoes by the chamber of commerce, economical societies, trades unions.

even the shipping and banking interests. The same sentiment is strong in Andalusia Biscay, Aragon and Castile. This makes more striking the contrast between the material interests of the financial, commercial and landed classes and a certain class of politicians in Madrid, who affect to continue to believe in the possible prolongation of the war, on the principle that Spain, having virtually lost her colonies, cannot lose much more, but can inflict more damage upon her adversary than she can incur. It is highly significant, however, that the prospect and possible conditions of peace are now freely discussed, even in the Madrid press and political circles. The diplomatic cor and courtiers think peace will be minent the moment the fall of Santiago and Manila will allow the present cabinet or its successor to propose peace, provided the United States does not make terms so harsh as to throw the country into the hands of the Carlists, republicans or others, who are anxious for revolution and war.

It is reported that he is awaiting the arrival of three colliers, and that the admiral will also coal his torpedo boats here. The Egyptian Government has given its sanction to the Spanish fleet coaling from its transports. It had previously prohibited the fleet from takboard anything more than ing on enough coal to return to Spain.

The elder prelates went away rather early; and Cardinal Meronda, having walked down the rooms with one of them, came across a group of young Monsignori on his return. They were standing a little apart, and talking with a mingled earnestness and merriment which attracted his attention. They immediately became silent as he drew near, looked at him with smiling, expectant faces, and bowed lowly. "If I had the power," he said pleasantly, "I would give you an obedience to continue your conversation just as though I were not present. I should be sorry to interrupt what seems to be a very interesting conversation." "A conversation could only become more pleasant when your eminence condescends to join it," one of the young clergyman replied, and was by an assenting murmur from his companions.

men, with soft insinuation, "there are some things in which I am a very hardened sinner; and I am sure that a journey to New York would do me great good."

The cardinal looked at the speaker, a tall, handsome young man of thirty, with a boyish lightness of twenty; and his smile died away.

"I have no power to send you to New York," he said gently; "but I can procure another ocean voyage for you. How would you like to go to Japan The young priest shrank back.

"It is settled, Don Ceaser!" cried one of the other Monsignori. "When his eminence makes a promise, his eminence makes a promise, you may safely get the frying-pan ready." And they all laughed. "Pray, what may the frying-pan mean?" asked the cardinal. "His eminence has but just come to Ceasar. "Perhaps you may have heard of Mentana, whom we call the laure-"Certainly! And I remember that he has written some cantos said to be worthy of Tasso," the cardinal replied with an air of serious respect for the person mentioned.

"Well," Lon Ceaser continued, "he writes little occasional poems on Vati-can affairs, and when he reads them the pope usually makes him some gift. Last month some one in Porto d' Anzio sent to the Vatican a present of a basket of the finest fishes ever seen. Mentana immediately set himself to write a poem on the subject, sitting up half the night to finish it. The next morning, as soon as he could pos-sibly hope to be received, he dressed and set out for the Vatican. 'Get the frying-pan ready, Violante,' he called out to his wife, as he hurried out of He found the pope with some of the household about him, and

The cardinal smiled, but he looked thoughtfully at the men before him. He knew what was going on in the world. They, wrapped up in them-selves and their environs, and utterly ignorant of the meaning of anything outside of Italy, seemed to fancy that Rome was still imperial, and the world a suburb. They saw people coming to them from all parts of the earth, and did not know that, for more than half of those who remained, Rome was but the dressing-gown and slippers of a weary or indolent life. These men laughed and trifled, and heard nothing of the nineteenth century roaring outside their gates. The one salt wave that had broken in could not convince them. They picked their way through the debris it made, and as long as it did not tarnish the buckles on their shoes, shrugged their shoulders, and believed that it was nothing.

But this elder, deeper-hearted man knew, and while they laughed, he trembled. Serious business had brought him to Rome, and such a load of serious thought lay upon his soul that it would have been too much, but that sometimes he felt the arm and shoulder of Christ slip under the burden, and lift its weight with him, and lift him with it, and bear him along in some miraculous hour of heavenly comfort.

"I am sorry for Mentana's disappointment," he said. "But though he missed a fish, he found a parable, longer and serves a greater number. Let us profit by it Monsignori. Let us not count too much upon the loaves and fishes, and let us remember that though our faith is founded upon a rock, our fortunes are not.

He saluted them and passed on, but not to rejoin the company. Stepping hastily aside, he went down to a little curtained alcove on the lower floor, a tiny room, quite lined with purple curtains, in the midst of which hung a small gilt lamp like a star in the twilight. There was no door, but only an arched opening. Opposite that behind the curtain was a long, open window, looking out into a loggia a few steps above the garden. From this loggia a broad stair led to an upper landing outside the windows of the state rooms. Across the steps leading downward a gate was shut.

All the curtains in the alcove were down, but not a breath of air stirred them. Cardinal Meronda took a breviary from his pecket, seated himself under the lamp and began to read his

The Countess Belvedere meantime, freed from her duty of receiving compliments, was going about among her guests, and allowing them to amuse her. She was looking triumphant, and very beautiful, though simply dressed. Her long black velvet dress, swathing and disclosing her form as her custom was, had no drapery except a scarf tied around just below the hips. Rich yellow lace shaded her arms and bosom. A vide necklace of rubies, with a medalion of diamonds and earrings were her only jewels, and she wore only one spot of color. Just above where the sombre folds of her train swept out on the floor, was caught an immense bow of red satin, looking as though a butterfly of fire had alighted on her train for a moment, and would fly away again. In a side room, a group of young people stood around a German lady who held a book, and seemed to be telling each one from it. "What! Telling fortunes, baroness?" the hostess sail. "What if the cardinal should caich you?"

"Such an interesting book, my dear!" cried the German. "I must borrow it from you. Here one finds all the influences under which one is born. Here are the pagan divinities, the angels, the demons, the animals, birds, and trees which govern each month of the year. Gnly tell me in what month of the year you were born, and I will tell you your fortune. October? Ecco! you have Pallas; your angel is Bardiel; your demon Baal; animal, the wolf; bird, the owl; tree, the olive. How delightful! And dear Lady Camilla, come and have your fortune told. Is it July? Listen. It is a lordly month, and has Ceaser for god-father. Your ragan is Jove; your angel, Berchiel; demon, Belzebub; animal. the stag; bird, the eagle; tree, the oak. It is the royal month."

The countess escaped. Such things did not interest her. Italians have great moral subtlety, but little or no subtlety of the imagination. She could not understand this northerner's delight in the mystic. For imagination is a northern flower. Lifting a curtain she stepped out to the loggia, and looked into the garden. As she leaned there, a whisper came up to her, cutting the silence like Modern High-Power Rifle Is a Terrible Weapon.

Dr. Orlando Ducker Tells What He Saw on a Field of Battle in Cuba.

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, June 30 .-Since the introduction of the modern high power, small caliber rifle among the armies of the world there has been interest in the medical profession to know the character of the wounds it would inflict and the proportion of mortality to wounded.

Dr. Orlando Ducker, of the American Medical Association, who accompanied the Dauntless on her last trip to Guan-tanamo Bay, has given an expert statement regarding the work of the Mauser and Lee rifles.
A sight of the battle of Cusco gave the impression of a bigger fight than had been conveyed by the cold official statement at Camp McCalla. The additional bodies found raised the esti-mate of Spanish killed from 58 to over 75, many bullet-pierced straw hats littering the ravine where the Spaniards made their last disastrous retreat. The narrow glen was literally sown with empty Mauser shells for half a mile. EIGHT BODIES EXAMINED.

There were eight bodies found in condition to examine, and of these the sun and the vultures had left little. The party on returning carried two bullet-punctured Spanish skulls. Or. Ducker says: 'The effectiveness of rifles of small caliber, but great initial velocity, like the Krag-Jorgensen or Mauset, we should regard as settled, if we accept the results of the battle of Cusco Mountain on June 14. One of our soldiers received a flesh-wound in the left arm at a distance of two hundred yards. The ball struck just below the elbow as the arm was being extended—semiflexed. The wound at entrance was no larger than the bullet, but the exit was a terrible laceration, so great that it was supposed until a minute examination had been made that an explosive bullet had been used.

"Of the Spanish soldiers examined, one had sustained a comminuted fracture of the fifth and sixth ribs at the anterior curvature. The soldier was evidently stooping and running struck by the bullet, the ball entering the back below the tenth rib and ranging upward, striking the inner side of the sixth, and the outer side of the fifth ribs, shattering them for the space of two inches.

"The second was a negro Spanish guerilla, with the usual thick negro skull. The wound at entrance was near the middle of the left 'parietal bone, tearing away the outer table for a quarof an inch around it, but leaving the Inner table intact except the cleancut hole the size of the bullet. The ball passed out through the right orbit, tearing away half of the floor and all of the inner wall, a complete longitudinal fracture of the skull, extending from the ciliary ridge of the right side to the occipital suture on the same side, passing one inch above the wound at the entrance.

SKULL TERRIBLY BROKEN. 'The third Spaniard was one of the regulars, a young man. He was evidently stooping forward and facing our troops, as the ball entered the right frontal bone, two inches anterior to the parietal suture and two and a half inches above the temporal articulation, traversing the brain longitudinally, passing out through the right side of the occipital bone on a line of and midway between the mastold process and occipital protuberance.

"The wound at exit was irregular in shape, but one by seven-eighths of an inch in size damaging alike both the inner and outer table of the skull. The wound at entrance was clean cut and of the size of the bullet, but along the lower margin, extending some three-quarters of an inch on either side and one inch below the entrance to the outer table, was torn completely away, as though it had been excavated by a

"A complete longitudinal fracture, extending from the roof of the right orbit through the frontal bone, passing half an inch above the wound at entrance to two-thirds the distance of the right parietal, the other extending downward and outward to the middle and posterior margin of the bone. both cases of wounds of the skull the longitudinal fracture did not communicate with the wound at entrance or In both cases the fracture was parallel to the course of the ball and complete. A thin-bladed knife was passed through the fractures. SOME POINTS YET IN DOUBT. The shooting was from 600 to 800 yards, and the fractures along the line of greatest pressure. Whether a ball passing through the head from side to side will cause a fracture at a right angle of the long diameter of the head or not, further investigation will demonstrate. The bursting of the skull is no doubt due to the great velocity of the ball through the brain substance. giving not sufficient time for cell compression.

"Another fact yet remains to be proved. whether the mortality is greater from the use of modern or the old style rifles. In the case of our own troops the fatality was greater to the proportion of wounded than formerly. However, that will require further demonstration, as the results of the 14th may have been purely accidental as to

EMBALMING DOGS

Two St. Bernards, the Subject for the First Experiment, Look as if Alive

Sandusky, O., June 30.-H. J. Breeze, of this city, deserves a vote of thanks from the lovers of dogs. He has discovered a process of embalming canines that makes them present an appearance so nearly life-like that it is calculated to deceive the oldest burglar in the housebreaking business. Mr. Breeze has just completed his first engagement, two exceptionally fine St. Bernard dogs having been chosen as the subjects. The dogs were the property of a wealthy lady of this city, and by her valued something higher than their weight in gold. One unlucky day a messenger boy called at the house, and the dogs, conceiving a sudden dislike to the uniform, attacked and bit wearer. Result: Dogs condemned to death by the police. All the pleadings of the wealthy owner proved unavalling, and her handsome pets had to die

In this extremity Mr. Breeze offered to kill the dogs by painless poisoning, and afterward embalm them, so that the owner could retain the best possible memento of her lost friends. The dogs were killed and the embalming process began. In describing the experiments Mr. Breeze says: "The work was entirely experimental, to show the action of a complete arterial circulation. The dogs were nearly the same size, being fully grown St. Bernardsrough-coated—one weighing 152 and the other 161 pounds. The carcasses of the dogs were embalmed three hours after death. The dogs have been in my possession nearly ten weeks. The weather has been very warm and sultry for some four weeks, but the dogs seem to be in a perfect state of preservation, emitting no odor, and there is no perceptible shrinkage. In fact, the dog lying in my reception office has all the appearance of a dog at rest. Decomposition is thoroughly arrested, and a complete petrifaction seems to be in progress. I hit one dog on the back with a hammer and sion, and, in fact, it sounded like striking wood. The successful result of this experiment will be regarded with great gratification by the owners of valuable dogs.

Diarrhoea and Dysentery Are Too Dangerous to Experiment With Untried Remedies.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry Has Over 40 Years of Cures to Its Credit and Never Fails in the Severest Cases.

Diseases, such as Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Inflammation of the Bowels, Cramps, Colic and Summer Complaint, are recognized by everyone as exceedingly dangerous.
When you or any member of your family is attacked, you want a remedy you are positive will cure you. These diseases are too serious, too capidly fatal, if neglected, for experimenting with cheap and dangerous imitations of the genuine Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. You want something that will, without fall, touch the spot and check the advance of the disease promptly.

Mrs. Middleton Wray writes from Schomberg, Ont., as follows: "Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best remedy I know of for Summer Complaint and Bowel Diseases of children. I have used it in our family for the past seventeen years and never had occasion to call in the doctor for these troubles, as the Fowler's Extract always worked like a charm." Refuse all imitations, many of which are highly dangerous.

Strong, the Druggist. A French physician says that dyspepsia is often caused by soup. He says it distends the stomach and pre-vents the digestion of the solids that are eaten after the soup.

THERE is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil-a pulmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures soreness and lameness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back, and, as an inward specific, possesses most substantial claim to public confidence.

The board of works met last night, and disposed of a few petitions for and against street improvements. The members present were Ald. Douglass (chairman), Carrothers, Belton, Cooper and Dreaney, Engineer Graydon and Secretary Bell. Residents of Queen's avenue between Park avenue and Wellington street petitioned against the laying of an artificial walk. Mr. Crawford, one of the petitioners, said they had a board walk at present which was in good condition, and had been down but two or three years. The petition was not sufficiently signed and Mr. Crawford said he would try to remedy that defect. A petition from the residents on the north side of Dundas street between English and Ontario streets against an artificial walk was granted. The engineer recommended that artificial walks be laid on the north side of Queen's avenue, between Waterloo and Colborne streets, and on the north side of Wolfe street. Adopted. The pay sheet showed that some of the ward foremen were receiving pay for work evertime, and Ald. Cooper objected, claiming that it was a part of their duty to attend to the work when

The accounts passed. Ald. Dreaney found fault with the treatment which Mr. Adams, formerly watchman of the stone crusher, had received. He had been put at work that a younger man should be given, the alderman said, and moved that he be appointed engineer in place of Mr. Mea-The motion, however, was not

Ald. Cooper favored doing nothing in the matter at present. The work upon which the stone crusher was now en-gaged would be finished in a few days, and he would then move that no more stone be crushed until another macadam road be asked for. The management of the crusher was very unsatisfactory, The highest number of loads of stone drawn per day this year was 22, as against 40 and 45 last year. The men employed to spread the stone had to wait an hour and a half at a fime because the stone was not drawn fast enough, and the residents had to pay for that.

The engineer said the fault lay with the engine, and it was decided to inspect the machine. A deputation of South London residents-Messrs. McCullough, Stinson and Betts-living on the Wharncliffe road, between Byron avenue and the Pipe Line road, complained that the grade of the street railway in front of their property was too high. They asked that the sidewalk be raised and the road at the side of the tracks be properly graded. The committee decided to visit the place Saturday afternoon. Cole's Cut rate Store will be open tonight until 10, and closed tomorrow, July 1.

Butchers Want a Shed From City Hall to Market Lane Crossing.

Protest Against the Method of Water ing the Pavement-Tenders To Be Called for City Lighting Plant.

The chief discussion at last night's meeting of the fire, light and market committee concerned the question of lighting the city and market changes. Engineer Graydon presented the specifications for an electric lighting plant, together with the steam plant required, both for high and low pressure. He recommended the latter. These recommendations were indorsed after a few alterations, and a motion passed to advertise for tenders. Messrs. P. Birtwistle, D. W. Blackwell, Spry and Thomas Kingsmill appeared before the committee to protest against the present street watering system. They preferred having the streets watered in the daytime, as the dust was a very great annoyance to merchants. Besides this there was a great waste of water at nights.

Ald. Hunt said the method was changed by order of No. 2, which had no right to interfere. Ald. Stevely had brought the matter up when he returned from New York, There they flooded the streets at night and used a rubber scraper. There was no dust during the day. Mr. Birtwistle thought that might work all right in New York, where asphalt pavement was expensive, here mone of the streets leading to the main thoroughfares were paved, and there was bound to be dust. The engineer said the merchants were responsible in a large measure for so much dust during the day, because they swept the dust and dirt from their establishments on to the pavement. He suggested watering the sidewalks. Mr. D. W. Blackwell said if the side walks were watered the ladies would go out in the middle of the road in preference to the walks.

On motion of Ald. Hunt it was decided to order the contractor to return to the old system of watering in the daytime, and that merchants he ordered not to put sweepings from their stores on the pavement.

A deputation from the wholesale butchers protested against the canceling of the privilege of using the east side of the bazar shed. J. H. Hodgins said the shed was a great protection to meat from rain, dust and sun. If this privilege were taken away another shed should be provided. Ald. Hunt said it was the intention to make the bazar shed a place for the butter and egg vendors. The sidewalk on the west side of the market house was to be reduced to six feet, and the outchers were to be assigned that portion of the market. He understood that the butchers were willing to pay a reasonable rental if the council would build a spare shed from the city hall to the Market Lane crossing. This would be a great convenience to the public in rainy weather.

Messrs. Hodgins and Flanigan said there were 54 wholesale butchers, who came to the city, and of these 35 or 40 were present every market day. Each of these would be willing to pay $1 per month and draw lots for places.

The deputation agreed to circulate each butcher who signed was to pay a rental for space.

Ald. Hunt moved that the shed be built if 30 signatures were received. The city solicitor's opinion was given regarding the allotment of spaces the market to gardeners. He doubted this could be done, and it would doubtless give rise to many difficulties.

The communication was filed for re-Repairs to the market house and sidewalk were ordered made after inspection by a sub-committee. The members present were Ald. Farewell and Welcome at the Wellington Street Methodist Church.

Rev. A. L. Russell Bade Good-Bye and Rev. Joseph Edge Greeted as Pastor -Address to Messrs. McCutcheon and Stewart, Who Are Leaving the

Last night, at the Wellington Street Methodist Church, there was a large gathering of the members in the lecture room, to bid farewell to their late pastor, Rev. A. L. Russell, and to welcome Rev. Joseph Edge, his successor. The evening was spent in a social manner. Mr. Russell gave a feeling farewell address, and Mr. Edge also spoke a few words. Mr. W. H. Mc-Cutcheon, who is severing his connection with the church, after serving for twenty years in different offices, was presented with a purse of gold and a handsomely framed address. The chair was occupied by Mr. J. C. Brady.

Mr. John Watson read the address to Mr. McCutcheon. It expresses the deep regret felt by the members at his departure, and also the appreciation of his good work while among them. He was always loyal to the best interests of the church, and was to the fore in all good movements. Feeling reference was also made to the departure of Mrs. McCutcheon, whose faithful and efficient services in the choir, Sabbath school, Ladies' Aid and other parts of the church, were so cheerfully and promptly rendered. In conclusion the address says: "We pray that God's richest blessing may ever be with you and your family, that you may be a blessing to some other church that needs help, and by-and-bye we shall all meet in the church triumphant." The address was signed by Rev. A. L. Russell and the following committee: Messrs. John Watson, Thomas Rowe. Robert F. Gray, W. H. Culbert and

John C. Gould. The purse of gold was presented to Mr. McCutcheon by little Jennie Lenore Talbot, and little Blanche Rowe handed him a beautiful bouquet of flowers. Mr. McCutcheon replied feelingly.

An address was also read by Thomas Rowe to Mr. Samuel Stewart, in appreciation of the good work and wise counsel of Mr. Stewart in all church matters. He had been a faithful servant, and the members would a petition with the understanding that | feel his loss keenly. He, with his family, was a blessing to the church in many ways. The address concluded: "We pray that God's blessing may follow you and yours, and that you may long to labor for the Master.'

Rev. A. L. Russell and a committee composed of Messrs. Thomas Rowe, W. H. Culbert and Robert F. Gray signed the address. Rev. G. W. Henderson, a former pasor, gave a short address, and the following short programme closed the evening: Instrumental, Miss Downs; solo, Mr. Jessop; solo, Miss Land; reading, Mr. George; solo, Miss Fanny Law; instrumental, Mr. Simpson; solo, Mr. Jessop, and a solo by Miss Myra Pickard. Refreshments were served.
