BOARD OF TRADE ADVISES ACTION

They Are of Opinion That The Civic Light Should Be Enlarged

Think That Enlargement of The Waterworks Plant Should not be Delayed

A meeting of the council of the Board of Trade was held last evening in the Board's chambers in the market building. Those present were President Robert Gray, and Messrs. W. A. Hadley, Shannon, Fleming, Rispin, Stephenson, Woodward, Landon, W. H. Taylor, Blonde, Ald. Westman and Secretary Winterstein.

EXCURSION RATES.
President Gray remarked that no satisfactory reply had yet been received from the Pere Marquette Railway with regard to supplying excursion rates to Chatham as an inducement to bring visitors here. The railway company had replied that these rates could not be supplied unless the new departure met with the sanction of the Passenger Association. President Gray was of the opinion that Chatham was entitled to these rates as much as other cities, and thought that the proper steps should be taken to bring the matter before the Passenger Association. The Secretary stated that he had written to the Passenger Association relative to the matter.

Applications for membership in the Board of Trade were received from Harry Collins and J. W. Plewes. The council favored their acceptance, and welcomed them into the circle.

NEW STATIONERY.
W. E. Rispin, chairman of the Printing committee, presented samples of the new stationery, which will be used by the Chatham Board of Trade. It bears an appropriate coat of arms, and the motto, "Gressus et commercium."

Mr. Rispin stated that the Printing committee are at present working on the design for the civic advertisement to be placed on the backs of business envelopes. This design will consist of an engraving showing Chatham's splendid location, and the rich country surrounding it. A short printed statement will appear below the cut. This design was approved by the council.

NEW INDUSTRIES.
Ald. Westman, as chairman of the Industrial committee, reported that he was at present in correspondence with a number of outside firms with a view to inducing them to locate in Chatham. Among the firms with whom he is now corresponding are a glass factory, an auto power truck company, a farmer's motor manufacturing company, a safe lock company, a hat manufacturing company, a shirt waist and garment company, a lithographing firm, a platemaking company, another shirt waist factory, a summer drink company, a furniture company and an electric pump manufacturing company. Replies had been received from many of these firms, as well as from Captain Davidson, the Michigan sugar beet magnate, who stated that his tests will be made of beets from this vicinity this year, and if the tests prove satisfactory, he will probably locate a factory here in the near future.

BIG CONVENTION.
Mr. Stephenson stated that at the last meeting of the Master Printers' Guild, which he attended recently in London, he had been successful in inducing the Guild to hold their next convention in Chatham. This convention of editors and newspaper proprietors from all over the province should, he thought, prove a valuable source of advertising to this city.

Mr. Landon remarked that all conventions held in the city were a good thing for Chatham from an advertising point of view, and he was of the opinion that they should be encouraged as much as possible.

Mr. Rispin held the same view. He said that the recent convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters held in this city furnished abundant proofs. Dozens of the visitors, he said, came into his office while they were here, and all expressed themselves as more than pleased with our up-to-date appearance and methods.

THE WATERWORKS.
Ald. Westman brought up the matter of improving the civic electric light station and the waterworks. He said that this matter had been discussed at a joint meeting of the Water Commissioners and the City Council, and that both bodies were desirous of having the opinion of the Board of Trade on the matter.

After some discussion, it was moved by Mr. Landon, seconded by Mr. Taylor, that the council of the Board of Trade, put themselves on record as believing that it is in the best interests of the city that something be done towards enlarging and improving the waterworks, and, if possible, to take into consideration the enlargement of the electric light station.—Carried.

The following accounts were ordered paid:

TAYLOR WAS ONE TIME A WILD WESTERN COWBOY

David Taylor, the man who was up in Police Court yesterday on a charge of having too gay a time in public with two colored female companions, and who is now in the county jail awaiting sentence, according to his own story, is a man who has had many varied experiences.

He was once upon a time a wild cowboy in the woolly west, and he lost his leg through injuries resulting from a severe kicking he received from a bucking broncho. His facial appearance and his mannerism gives the impression that he probably comes from a good family.

He is a clever fellow, talks fluently and well, and is well educated. He says that he has worked at almost every vocation imaginable. He hops about on his single leg as nimbly as most men can get about on two, and he can clear an ordinary fence at a single bound. Altogether the man Taylor, for all his faults, is a rather interesting character.

HORSE WAS INJURED

Considerable excitement prevailed on King street yesterday afternoon about five o'clock. The horse attached to the United States Express Co's wagon, was standing in front of Brisco's store, with a heavy weight attached to the bit by a strap, and used for the purpose of keeping the horse from getting away. In some manner it became restless, and eventually decided to make a break for liberty. It started off towards the post office, carrying the weight with it.

When in front of Watt's store, opposite the post office, the runaway horse collided with Sammy Kovinski's horse, which was standing peacefully at the side of the road. In the mix-up which followed, the Kovinski horse was thrown to the pavement and one of the shafts pierced its neck, causing a ugly and dangerous wound. A crowd soon arrived and the wreckage was cleared away. Both vehicles were badly damaged.

DIABOLICAL WORK OF STRIKERS IN DETROIT

Detroit, June 25.—Two boilers in the rear of the Detroit City Gas Company's new building were blown up with nitro-glycerine at 2:30 o'clock this morning. It is alleged to have been the work of some partisans of the Union Structural Iron Workers, to embarrass the Russell Wheel and Foundry Company, who run an "open shop," and whose boilers are being used in the construction of the new building.

Both boilers were thrown off their foundations, and the windows in several buildings nearby were shattered. Patrolman Palmer, of the Detroit force, who happened to be near at the time of one of the explosions, was seriously injured.

BAND TO-MORROW NIGHT

The roller rink will be open on Wednesday night. The band will be in attendance and the Grand March will be put on. This will be the last night of skating until further notice.

FATAL RAILWAY SMASH

Rochester, N.Y., June 25.—Five persons were killed and a score more or less seriously injured on Sunday night on the Auburn branch of the New York Central Railroad, one mile east of Pittsford, when passenger train No. 220, which leaves Rochester at 10:36 crashed head-on into a freight train. The collision took place on a sharp curve at a point known as Mitchell's Farm. The smoking-car was telescoped and four of the fifteen passengers instantly killed. The fifth victim was Emmet Lyons, son of Engineer Lyons, of the freight, who was in the cab with his father, and who died in a Rochester hospital yesterday morning. Engineer Lyons, who was brought to Rochester with the dead and injured, on a special train, is not expected to live. There are twelve injured in Rochester hospitals, all of whom, with the exception of Lyons, are expected to recover.

The passenger train had been on only a short time, running on Saturdays and Sundays. It is said the conductor of the freight forgot that the passenger was running, and ran by the corner.

THREATENED TO SUICIDE.

Lady Shoplifter Sentenced—Fears Disgrace For Her Daughters.

Detroit, June 25.—Threatening to commit suicide Mrs. Isabella Smart, formerly of Toronto, was led to the Police Court yesterday, where she pleaded guilty to shoplifting and was fined $25 or 15 days in the house of correction.

"Would to God my daughters, who are in a London (Ont.) boarding school, would die before they learn my disgrace!" Such said a sorrowful woman.

A load of hay, clover and timothy mixed, was sold on the market this morning for $15 per ton.

WATERWORKS BUILDING IS OWNED BY CITY

Ex-Mayor T. A. Smith is among the many who are opposed to the lawn meter system if such measures are at all avoidable on the part of the Water Commissioners. "I am in accord with the stand taken by The Planet," said he to a reporter for this journal yesterday. Mr. Smith was chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee of the City Council at the time the city erected the civic lighting building. He says that the building is right in the priority of the city and not of the Waterworks department. The Waterworks department, by courtesy of the city, may occupy space in it. In his opinion it is therefore not the city which is encroaching on the Waterworks department property.

However, the feeling existing at present between the City Council and the Water Board appears to be most harmonious, and it is hoped that a solution of the vexed problem will soon be forthcoming.

CLEVER PIECE OF WORK

A very clever piece of work has just been completed by Claude Cooper, St. Clair street. For the past five years this young man has been an invalid and suffers greatly from rheumatism. He is unable to walk and employs his time in reading, etc. He has just completed whittling a wooden chain from a piece of timber. The chain is one complete piece of wood and hasn't a single joint. It is 26 inches long and has at each end four perfectly formed rings linked together. In the centre are two long links and three short ones joined together by rings. This young gentleman is a great friend of J. C. Wanless, and has out in the wood his name, and to make his name more noticeable has bronzed each link. The work is one to be proud of, and may be seen in a show case at Mr. Wanless' store.

SUCCESSFUL BOX SOCIAL

The young people of the Methodist Church at Glenwood gave a box social last evening on the church lawn. A large crowd was present and an interesting and enjoyable time was spent.

The program consisted of solos, recitations and addresses. The addresses were given by Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Merlin, Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Stevenson, and A. B. McCoig, M. F. E. of this city. The boxes were beautifully decorated, thus showing the artistic ability of the ladies.

NO TRUTH IN IT

The following despatch appeared in yesterday's Toronto News and this morning's London Free Press:

Toronto, June 24.—The Public school teachers of Ontario may ask for the resignation of Messrs. J. W. Plewes, of Chatham, and A. A. Jordan, of Port Hope, as their representatives on the Advisory Council of Education.

These two gentlemen have accepted Government positions of remuneration in connection with the faculty of the summer schools for the training of Separate school teachers, and as a result a number of their professional constituents look for their resignations. They take the position that the accepting of the Government appointment makes them servants of the Department, and consequently they might relinquish the independent representative position to which they were elected as advisers to the Minister of Education.

The protest has not yet been submitted or considered by the Department. The Department, of its own accord, has removed the members of the Advisory Council from all positions of examiners, by reason of the fact that matters affecting examinations may come before the Council in their final form.

Should Messrs. Plewes and Jordan retire, Mr. J. B. Robinson, of Hamilton, is the next name on the list, but he, too, is serving in a similar capacity. The two vacancies in the Advisory Council would accordingly be filled by the succeeding candidates at the election, Messrs. J. Whyte Rogers, Toronto; and W. D. Spence, St. Mary's.

When interviewed in reference to the above, Mr. Plewes made a complete denial that there was any truth in the rumor that he would have to resign his position on the Educational Council on account of the fact that he was also to act as one of the instructors in the Summer school in Toronto University. The duties of the Summer school instructors, he said, have nothing to do with the Council members of the Council were allowed to act as presiding examiners, as the results of the examinations came before the Council for consideration. This was quite proper, but his duties as a member of the Council and as an instructor of the Summer school do not in any way clash, and one has no bearing on the other.

He never erre who sacrifices himself.

ENGLISH BOY IS MISSING

Relatives of Stephen Rawlinson Are Anxious For Information

Letter Received by Chief of Police John Holmes To-day

Chief of Police John Holmes has received the following letter from Homen, N. D.:

Homen, North Dakota, June 18, 1907.

Chief Police, Chatham, Ont.:

Dear Sir,—You would confer a great favor if you could obtain information for me concerning Stephen Rawlinson, an English boy, aged 16, red hair, blue eyes, slim build. He came out from England last spring and had a through ticket for Toronto, where a Mr. Vance was to meet him. A postal card was sent by him to his parents in England dated April 25th stating that he was at Baldoon, Chatham, Ont., and this is the last we know of him.

There was $25.00 awaiting him in a bank at Toronto which has not been called for. His folks have written him several times and have been unable to get any reply from him. I wrote about a month ago with a similar result. I am enclosing a photograph taken this year which will assist in the identification.

If you can find out what has become of him please inform.

REV. G. RAWLINSON,
Kirby, Malzeard,
Ripon, England.

And myself also.

I am, sir, Respectfully yours,
BASIL L. RAWLINSON.
The Rev. Mr. Rawlinson, whose signature is attached to the letter, lives a short distance from the former home of Officer Thomas Groves' recently deceased father. Any particulars as to the young man's whereabouts may be left at the office of the Chief of Police, or at The Planet.

SOLDIERS AT CHURCH

The 24th Regiment attended divine service at Holy Trinity church on Sunday morning and listened to an excellent sermon on "Prayer" by the Rev. Mr. Parthenon Lodge, A. F. & A. M., No. 267. The music at the service was very good. A duet in the morning entitled "Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee," was sung by Mrs. Cooper and Miss Whitebread, and in the evening a solo, "Abide With Me," was ably sung by Mr. Will Rutley.

THE WATER QUESTION.

In view of the wide discussion on the water question, the following from the London Free Press will be of interest. The opinions expressed below go to show that experience has proven that meters are not always considered the best means for preventing waste of water. The article is worthy of the consideration of the Water Commissioners and the water-users:

"Chairman Fred Darch, of the Water Commission, returned Friday night from Toronto from the convention of the international water-works association, at which experts were present from all parts of the country.

"Saturday Mr. Darch stated that as a result of the papers he heard, and the consensus of opinion in the subsequent discussion that it would be much more economical for the city of London to look for more water than to attempt to effect a saving by the installation of meters, the latter cost being the greater.

"In a paper read by Consulting Engineer Raster, of Rochester, that gentleman stated that Rochester was a metered city, but that it did not follow that the expenditure of the sum required was always justified by the results secured. After fifty per cent. of the city had been metered it was found that the metering of the other portion was not justified by the amount of elimination of waste.

"Asked the question as to whether there would be a saving over the expenditure for meters if a search was made for other water, Mr. Raster said that this would depend on local conditions."

SHORT CROP OF JUNE BRIDES.

The crop of June brides will be short. The hammock season has been unduly abbreviated. Without a propitious hammock season the June bride does not ripen into irresistible maturity and mellowness. The hammock is as indispensable to a heavy June bride crop as the plow to the abundant wheat harvest. The hammock was hung out this year early in March. There were in that changeable month days of sunshine, gladness and promise. Brides-to-be were delighted, but the bride-elect blossoms, bitten by April frosts, were scattered by May winds, and deserted, cheerless hammocks now in tattered June adorn lawns and yards all over the State.

A hammockless May means a brideless June. The matrimonial editor is in a condition of innocuous desuetude. He has read up carefully on tulle and mousseline, on frills and flounces, on tucks and pullbacks, on organdies and orange blossoms, on stately beauty, on willowy form, on charming mien, but all his erudition proves stale, flat and unprofitable. The June bride is not here. Not, perhaps, till September, when the nut-brown maid advances to Hyman's worship, will the scribe of connubial bliss have free field for the poetry gathered like honey from countless flowers and blossoms in lands where June has not been made captive by arctic divinities.

Thus soliloquizes the Louisville, Ky., Herald, the managing editor of which is a former esteemed Chathamite, Alonzo T. Macdonald. A gay and sentimental youth marked "Lon's" Strafford career, said the Strafford Beacon when it saw the above article in the Herald, and many a gentle heart was sore when he left, but we hardly thought he would transplant his Canadian experiences to Kentucky soil—and at a time, too, when he had attained the sedate life of a benedict. Fiel "Lon," to expose those innocent experiences of your youth with "arctic divinities." But there is a grain of satisfaction in learning that sunny Kentucky has been no more highly favored by fickle May than were we of the northern clime. It was a hammockless May in Ontario sure enough, but we do not note any diminution in the crop of June brides in consequence. Ontario youthhood is quite oblivious to weather conditions when the divine infatuation is working. It casts a sunshine which no clouds can dispel, nor climatic vari-

HAD TO LAUGH

A funny little incident occurred in one of the city schools recently. A little boy, somewhat bashful and strange, had his thumb in his mouth and both feet out in the aisle, instead of where they should be, under his desk. The teacher, not thinking it nice to see the boy in this position, told him "to take his thumb out of his mouth and put his feet in." It was in this phraseology she erred. The teacher, of course, meant to say "take your thumb out of your mouth and put your feet under the desk." The children got next to the joke and laughed, with the result that they were kept in after school hours.

ADDRESS TO MRS. RUTLEDGE

At the last meeting of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of Park street Methodist church there was a full attendance. In the absence of the President, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. Cowan, Vice-President, ably presided. The usual routine of business was gone through, it was decided to send the bales they are preparing to the Kittamao Home. A short memorial service was held in honor of Mrs. Snook, who recently passed away. A resolution was passed that a letter of sympathy be sent to the President, Mrs. Austin, in her bereavement, the death of her mother, Mrs. Chatham. Miss McLachlan, of St. Andrew's church, then gave an address on mission work in Turkey, which was very much enjoyed and also instructive. Mrs. Hicks then rendered a solo, "Oh Heart of Mine," in her usual pleasing manner. Mrs. Rutledge spoke on the Leper Mission, which was very interesting and helpful. Mrs. Drader, the Corresponding Secretary, then read the following address to Mrs. Rutledge, the retiring President, to which she feelingly replied:

On the occasion of our last meeting together we, the officers and members of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of the Park street church, desire to express our very deep appreciation of your faithful devotion to the many duties which the office of President imposes. Our meetings this year have been successful in every department, and the interest of the members in Missionary Work has been deepened and widened as a result of the many profitable talks which we have enjoyed together. Whatever measure of success we have achieved we feel is largely due to your enthusiasm and your kindly helpfulness to one and all alike. May God's richest blessings beamply bestowed on you and yours in your new home in London, where we are sure others will love and honor you as your friends in Chatham have learned to do during your stay among them.

A GRATEFUL MOTHER'S MESSAGE

ZAM-BUK CURED HER CHILD OF ECZEMA WHEN ALL ELSE FAILED.

In gratitude for the great benefit her child received from the use of Zam-Buk, the great herbal balm, Mrs. R. Gentleman, of 1000 St. James street, Montreal, gave the following details for publication. She says: "My little daughter Lydia—two years—was troubled with eczema on her body and face for six months. During that time we tried several advertised remedies, but the disease had too well hold of the child for these to overcome, and finally we were obliged to consult a doctor. He treated the little one for some time, and gave us prescriptions for various salves and medicines. We tried them, and tried them well, but the child got no better. When she got warm the itching was terrible, and then the pain made her cry and be very restless. One day somebody strongly advised me to try Zam-Buk. We obtained a supply, and it was really wonderful how the Zam-Buk cooled the sores and gave almost instant relief. It stopped the itching, healed the sores, and in six weeks from first commencing it, the child's skin was as smooth as when born."

For summer skin troubles, sore feet, insect stings, chafing sores, bruises, ulcers, abscesses, skin eruptions, scalp sores, Zam-Buk is unequalled. It also cures piles. All druggists and stores at 50c a box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, six boxes for $2.50.

THE BRASS WORKS

Ald. Westman received a letter from L. A. Cornelius, president of the Wolverine Brass Works, Grand Rapids, stating that he was sorry that he would be delayed for a week on account of his plans and specifications not being ready to bring with him to this city. He has just arrived from California, and states that he found considerable business awaiting and requiring his attention at Grand Rapids. He is very anxious to come to Chatham to start building operations and will wire in a few days.

HEALTH FOR RUN-DOWN WOMEN.

From the experience of Mrs. John Park Saskatoon, nothing compares with Ferrozone. "At times I was confined to my bed and couldn't do any work. I was run down in flesh, lost strength, my appetite failed, my color was pallid. Weary and cast down, it seemed I couldn't catch up. Ferrozone started a new kind of life in my blood, built me up, vitalized and strengthened my nerves, and finally cured my heart and stomach pains." Right Breathing Cures Catarrh Simple Way to Kill Catarrhal Germs in Nose, Throat and Lungs.

If you cut your finger, you don't attempt to heal it by swallowing a pill or a dose of medicine. It is just as foolish to try and cure catarrh of the nose and throat with pills and stomach dosing, for catarrh is a local disease, and needs special local healing treatment.

The only natural and common sense method known for the cure of catarrhal troubles is Hy-o-mel. It is breathed through an ingenious pocket inhaler, so that its medicated air reaches the most remote air-cells of the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, soothing the irritated mucous membranes, and restoring a healthy condition.

If you suffer from catarrhal troubles, such as offensive breath, raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, husky voice, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, loss of strength, spasmodic coughing, or a feeling of tightness across the upper part of the chest, you should begin to use Hy-o-mel at once. It will destroy all disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs, and provide the blood with additional ozone.

The complete Hy-o-mel outfit with inhaler costs but $1.00. So strong is C. H. Gunn & Co.'s faith in the power of Hy-o-mel to cure all catarrhal troubles, that with every dollar outfit they give an iron-clad guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

CUSTOMS OFFICIALS.

Those of England Called the Most Obnoxious and Helpful.

There is no country where the matter of landing from American passenger ships is so easy and so expeditiously done as England, says the Travel Magazine. Of course it is a free trade country, the freest in the world. There are duties levied on tobacco and spirits, but travelers are allowed a half pound of tobacco in any shape and a half pint of spirits, which also includes perfume. Sugar is dutiable, whether in grain, sweets or in jam, but a small quantity is freely passed. In all cases, however, these goods must be the actual property of the passenger and be for his use and control. Cocos, coffee and tea are also dutiable, as are reprints of English books. Outside of these things, as named, passengers can bring in anything—motors, cycles, horses, but not dogs, which animals are not to exceed six months' quarantine. Keep dogs on the American side. The customs officials are life appointments—under the civil service—and will be found most obliging and helpful. In fact, they are a model to the customs world. Tell the truth at all times to these officials and you will be all right. They are marvelously keen on spotting the supposedly smart liar. Lying doesn't pay "anyhow, Hinessey" at home or abroad.

TESTATORS' LAST WISHES.

Strange Requests Regarding the Arrangement of Funerals.

Sir James Colquhoun's desire to be buried in full evening dress costume recalls, says the London Standard, curious last wishes of other testators.

George Herring directed that his remains should lie beneath a sundial at the Haven of Rest, Maidenhead. Queen Victoria planned the entire programme for her funeral, even choosing the music to be played, the anthems to be sung.

A couple of months ago a young lady who died at Belgrave on the eve of her wedding was buried in her bridal dress, the friends who were to have been her bridesmaids attending the funeral in the gowns which they should have worn at the wedding and carrying in place of wreaths the wedding bouquets.

More singular was the funeral of Major General Algernon Stewart at Hascombe, Surrey. The coffin was drawn to the grave by the dead man's horse. The mourners walked, and the bearers wore old fashioned smocks, each with its collar adorned with a text. The same men appeared in their mourning garments at the church service on the following Sunday.

There are many things which can be forgotten without much loss.

Your Hair At Home?

Or has your comb run away with it? Better look out for what's left of it, and keep it home on your head, not in the comb. Ayer's Hair Vigor will act as "keeper." If you have a particle of doubt about using this splendid preparation, let your doctor decide for you. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the best of all our preparations.

Jubilee of Gretina Green.

Gretina Green keeps its jubilee as the Gretina Green at which the village blacksmith may no longer unite feuding lovers in the bonds of matrimony. It was in 1857 that the Gretina Green marriages were made illegal. A glance at its registers may yet inspire the novelist of the future. One entry will be sure to puzzle. Twice within a few days occur the record of the marriage of Richard Brinsley Sheridan to Miss Grant. There was only one R. B. S., only one bride for the same gentleman. The double entries are not the result of any blunder on the part of the Rev. Mr. Vulcan. The parties were really twice married at Gretina Green. Arriving on a Sunday they were duly wedded, and sped away to Edinburgh. There, however, Sheridan chanced to glance at a newspaper in which appeared the indications of a lawyer. In these plainly stated was the fact that no contract executed on a Sunday is binding. Clearly, then, their wedding was not legal. Back to Gretina Green they hurried, to be remarried on a week-day and leave the dual record to perplex later generations of sympathetic searchers of the records.

CAUGHT.

George, she said, before we were married you were always giving me presents. Why don't you ever bring me anything now?

My dear, replied George, did you ever hear of a fisherman giving bait to a fish he had caught?

Then the kettle boiled over.

SNAPPED AT LAST.

Miss Marie Corelli and the Photographer—An Amusing Scene.

Miss Marie Corelli's well-known antipathy to photographers was responsible for an amusing scene at Stratford-on-Avon church the other day.

The authoress of "The Sorrows of Satan" was just leaving, after having laid a floral tribute upon Shakespeare's grave in remembrance of the poet's birthday, when two photographers, who had been taking pictures of the church, noticed her.

Seizing their snap-shot cameras they crept out and stationed themselves in the churchyard path. Miss Corelli, however, noticed them, and turned sharp round to the right, while a gentleman friend stood between her and the cameras. The manoeuvre was successful, and the lady walked quickly round the church till she met the sexton.

Novelist's Strategy.

She enlisted him in her service, and he walked before her, while the gentleman guarded the right flank. Meanwhile the snapshot artists hovered round, and made several futile attempts to get a front view of the lady. At last one of them sprang out from behind a buttress right in front of her, and secured a picture before she had time to turn away her face.

Here the popular novelist proved herself a strategist. Instead of railing at the man she walked up to him, and smilingly said, "I ask you, as a gentleman, to promise me that you will not publish that photograph."

The look of elation vanished from the photographer's face, but he granted the lady's request. Miss Corelli shook him by the hand; he raised his hat, and they parted.

Rhodes' Oxford Memorial.

The tablet shown in the cut was recently unveiled at Oxford by Lord Rosebery. It commemorates the foundation of the Rhodes' scholarships.

The late Cecil Rhodes was a student at Oriel College. In view of the fact that the Rhodes' scholarships are open to American competition the unveiling of this tablet is of especial interest.

Notorious Fenian Dead.

In Dublin, at the age of 77, John O'Leary, the famous leader of the Fenian brotherhood, has passed away. As an early age O'Leary joined the Young Ireland party, which, full of passion and fine poetical ideals, early drifted into rebellion. When in 1849, Queen Victoria visited Ireland, O'Leary joined James Fintan Lalor in a wild scheme to capture the Queen, convey her to some fastness in the Wicklow Mountains, and there hold her prisoner until ransom was paid, in the form of Irish freedom. Fortunately, this mad conspiracy was frustrated by the illness of Lalor, without whom the other plotters could not act.

In September, 1855, O'Leary, because editor of the "Irish People," and was arrested and sentenced to 20 years' penal servitude for treason. He was amnestied in 1870, and after passing the remainder of his sentence in exile in France, returned to Dublin, where he devoted himself to journalism and literature.

Agencies of Learning Golf.

The man who has achieved success in other forms of activity, such as trade, politics, painting, literature, or football, finds, to his horror, when he faces the tee-box that all his knowledge is a vain thing," writes James Douglas in M.A.P.

"He who would conquer the imp of golf must become a little child. He must abase his pride in the dust. He must expose his folly to the world. He must make a public laughing-stock of his grey hairs."

The eminent man who condemns himself to golf cannot hope to learn the dreadful sport in secret. He must perform his grotesque contortions in public. He must endure the furtive grin of the caddy, and the simulated gravity of the club verandah. He must not only make an ass of himself, but he must also feel an ass and an ass for months, and even years. Indeed, the worse you play the game, the more you enjoy it."

A Safe Investment

What Marshall Field Once Said

Real Estate in a good locality and in a growing village, town or city is the safest investment a poor man or woman can make. It cannot run away, bust up or cheat. My advice to a young man or woman who can spare $5 or $10 per month from his or her earnings is to put it into a small piece of mother earth. Even if it is only a small vacant lot. My first start in life was doing just what I now advise others to-day.

The above was the advice given by Marshall Field in an address given to young men and women on How to Succeed in Life.

The Elms Sub-Division

At head of King Street opposite St. Joseph's Hospital, presents to you the opportunity of your life. Lots in first block east of our sub-division sells at from $18 to $20 per foot. Ours at only $11 per foot and some at $7 and $9 per foot, other lots at $160 and upwards.

Pay as You Like

You can own a lot in the Elms Sub. by paying $10 down, $5 per month, with only 5% interest, or you can pay whole, or any part just as you like. Perfect right, no mortgages or notes asked from purchasers, you get a land contract which you can bring into the Merchants Bank, Chatham and get credit thereon for whatever you want to pay or whenever you want to pay a little or more.

CUT THIS OUT

When you have an hour to spare, take a walk up the Elms Sub-Division of No. 1, there you can select your own lot. As every lot has a white stake in the center of the lot and 22 feet back from the front lot line, which is known as the building line. On this stake you will find a white card, giving the No. of the lot, size and price. All sold lots have a red card marked sold.

Drop me a card to Garner House and I will call on you with full particulars, or you will find my city salesman on the grounds every evening from 6.30 to 9 p.m. Don't miss this opportunity.

English Still Spreads.

Within 100 years the number of persons speaking the English language has grown from 20,000,000 to 125,000,000. During this time no other language has made the slightest advance. At the beginning of the last century the leading languages of Continental Europe were French, German and Spanish; the Spanish language at present is spoken by about 15,000,000 in Spain and 35,000,000 in America. German has held its own and is spoken by about 80,000,000 people. More than 20,000,000 persons speak the language outside of Germany.

Twice as many persons speak Portuguese outside of Portugal as in the country itself. French is the language of 44,000,000 persons outside of France. It is estimated that at the dawn of the twenty-fifth century the English language will be spoken by 300,000,000 persons in the United States, while a similar number will be added in India, where the learning of the language has become compulsory.

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken-down by over-work, exacting special duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless help in preparing the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, back-ache, dragging-down distress, low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or distressed sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, proslaps, anteversion or retroversion or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet treating of same.

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

No one can account for the universal desire to do those things which we know should not be done.

IN CASE OF FIRE

The Landlord Told His Literary Guest How to Get Out.

In the days before the dawn of his fame it was the practice of a certain well known author to wander up and down the land seeking what he might devour in the way of suggestion and local color. In this way he had drifted into Arkansas, "roughing it," and not, as he expresses it, presenting an appearance calculated to inspire a hotel proprietor with unlimited confidence.

The only hotel in the town, a frame structure, seemed to have been built upon the theory that there was plenty of room straight up, but that ground had to be bought, and the wanderer was shown to a room on the third floor, reached through many narrow and winding passages. From the one window it was a straight drop to the ground.

"Say, how would I get out of this place in case of fire?" he asked the landlord, who had brought up his grip. "The other eyed him coldly. 'Waal,' he drawled, 'all yo' would have to do would be to show ther night watchman—the one with ther shotgun—a receipted bill foh yo' board an' lodgin' an' get him to tie up the bulldog.'"

A Mission That Failed.

The Sire de Joinville tells us in his "Histoire de St. Louis" how a certain Brother Yves of the preaching friars once met while crossing a street in Damascus at the time of the sixth crusade an aged woman who carried in her right hand a bowl of fire and in her left a bottle of water.

"Where are you going?" asked the Brother Yves.

"I go," said she, "to burn up heaven with the fire and put out hell with the water, and so I will make an end of both."

"And for why will you do this?" asked the friar.

"Because," said she, "I would that we did good neither for the joys of heaven nor for the fear of hell pain, but purely for the love of God, who deserves so well of us and who is able to deliver us from evil."

WHAT MADE THE DIFFERENCE.

Little boy, said the lady, how much do you sell this lemonade for?

This kind is 3 cents a glass, and that is 5 cents.

Why, what makes the difference in the price?

Well, you see, ma'am, me flog fell in the 3-cent kind.

HOW DO YOU JUDGE A PIANO?

Musically inclined people naturally judge a piano by its tone—and that's why "Nordheimer" Pianos are found in the homes of so many musicians of note.

If you have an ear for tone-quality the remarkable beauty, sweetness, purity and volume, soothe "Nordheimer" will appeal to you.

We could explain at length the various mechanical contrivances which are incorporated in the "Nordheimer" piano to produce its unrivaled tone, but they would be understood by a mechanic only.

We much prefer you to judge this piano from what your own ear tells you about its tone—then you are sure to be satisfied.

Pleased to have you call at your earliest convenience and examine the "Nordheimer." The One Price System assures you a fair and square deal.

Our Mr. R. V. Carter will visit Chatham frequently in our interest and will be pleased to furnish you with any information you may desire. Correspondence addressed to him in care of the Garner House will receive careful attention.

Ontario has for years been losing many enterprising agriculturists to the free land and fertile acres of the Northwest. Hand in hand with the exploitation of Western wheat fields, and the exodus of farm laborers, has followed an era of high prices for labor, and a decrease in the market for Ontario wheat which has seriously raised the price of bread and shorts. Not only has the loss of the profitable home-market been a financial calamity to the Ontario miller and farmer, but the stockman and dairyman have felt the drain caused by the increased cost of an essential portion of their feed if they are to get the best results.

While some Ontario farmers have helped to build up the West by buying the strong Western flour, some farsighted millers have succeeded in capturing the market of the Maritime Provinces by a carefully blended flour made of sufficient Western wheat to bring up the percentage of gluten, and keeping the color and nutty taste of flour made from the best Ontario winter wheat. The flavor of the bread is much improved and the percentage of gluten is sufficient for all requirements.

What has been adopted eagerly by unprejudiced consumers in Nova Scotia will well deserve the attention of the Ontario public. In Toronto and other centres there is already a keen demand for the new product which is used by several of the largest firms of wholesale bakers. A fair trial of the new blended Ontario flour will convince the most skeptical that this flour is surpassed by none, and its increased consumption will be to the great advantage of the Ontario farmers and the public generally throughout the Province.

RED ROSE TEA

The Name Guarantees the Quality

Do you want to be sure of getting the same quality of tea every time you buy? Not good one time and poor the next, but always good, always that rich pungent flavor which is so delightful. If you do, ask your grocer to send you a package the same as the one above. After you use Red Rose Tea once, you will buy again and you will always find the quality the same.

The Truth About MINING

Do you invest in mining? Have you ever invested in mining? Do you ever expect to invest in mining?

Did you ever make money from speculating? Would you like to make money from investing?

Have you money deposited in a bank drawing but THREE or FOUR per cent interest? Have you funds invested in mortgages or real estate that are not earning a large rate of interest?

These questions all bear upon your present and future welfare, and your name should be upon the mailing list of "Spear's Mine Development." This paper tells the truth about legitimate mining and instructs you how mining should be conducted. It will tell you about the great mining interests in Northern Ontario. It will keep you posted upon the Larder Lake District where rich gold discoveries are being made.

It will cost you nothing to receive "Spear's Mine Development," except the cost of a postage stamp or postal card in writing us to let us know that you want "Spear's Mine Development."

"Spear's Mine Development" will be sent to you absolutely free of cost. It is the only mining paper or postal card published in Canada. There has never been one published in Canada like it.

It is a real newspaper, up-to-date, truthful and instructive.

It contains information about the Larder Lake, Montreal River, Round Lake, Lake Abitibi, Cobalt and all Northern Ontario mining districts.

"Spear's Mine Development" describes and illustrates legitimate, profitable investments in mining. Every person interested in mining, or who would like to know about mining, should have this paper.

"Spear's Mine Development" will make millions of dollars for investors, through safe and profitable investments in mining.

This is why it is read by thousands of people all over the country—because investors desire to know about legitimate mining propositions.

If you are at all interested in mining, or if you would like to know anything about mining and the development of mining properties, you cannot well afford to be without "Spear's Mine Development." It will be sent FREE, postpaid, to all who write for it. Just ask for "Spear's Mine Development" by dropping a postal card or a letter to P. V. FRASER & COMPANY, Financial Agents, 23 Toronto Street, Toronto, Ontario.

FRANCE IS NOW QUIET

No Further Disturbance—Troops Have Returned to Barracks.

Leader of Rioters Appears Before President—Forces of Troops in the Streets—Insurgents Demand Release of Those Already Taken—Mutinous Troops Return to Barracks—Prefect Beaten.

Paris, June 24.—The most interesting event yesterday in the wine growers' revolt was the visit of Marcelin Albert, the leader of the disturbing element in the south of France, to Premier Clemenceau.

Yesterday morning the man for whom the police and troops have been vainly scouring the country for a fortnight, appeared suddenly at the Ministry of the Interior. He wore the simple garb of a southern peasant.

The cotton shirt, the silk handkerchief around his neck and the carpet bag in his hand aroused the suspicion of the corps of detectives now constantly guarding the Premier. But when he had established his identity, Albert was admitted to the presence of Clemenceau, with whom he had a fifteen minutes' talk.

A semi-official account of the interview says that the Premier used extremely strong language, virtually blaming his visitor for all that has happened in the south, the refusal to pay taxes, the strike, the resignation of the officials of municipalities and the bloodshed that has occurred—everything in fact.

A profound sense of relief now pervades the French capital at the check to the outbreak in the south, which is described by ex-Premier Ribot as the worst internal crisis in France in the past 37 years.

The Government now apparently is satisfied that it has the situation well in hand. Overwhelming forces of troops garrison the whole area to prevent a recurrence of the armed revolt against the central power. Such a mobilization of military forces has not previously been witnessed in the life of the third republic.

Despatches report that a general surface calm prevails, although there are one or two storm centres in isolated districts.

Senators and deputies representing the south called at the Elysee Palace Saturday night and asked President Fallieres to intervene personally to secure the release of the members of the Argelliers committee, under arrest as the surest means of ensuring pacification. The President regretted that his office did not permit him to comply with the request.

No further disturbances of importance were reported yesterday, the mutinous troops returning to their barracks at Agde, and the roll call showed only one man missing.

Later details of the capture of Sub-Prefect Leullier show that soldiers who tried to protect him were forced to retreat before the fury of the mob. Leullier's clothes were literally torn from him and he was badly beaten.

Disturbances Over. The fear that yesterday, being Sunday, the rioting in the affected districts, fortunately was not realized, although the prefecture at Niemes was stoned.

There is a heavy concentration of troops at Narbonne, Montpellier and other centres of disturbance.

Gen. Caillie, who is in command at Narbonne, thinks the chief danger now is from professional agitators and anarchists. He has information that a large number of anarchists have crossed the frontier from Spain, but declares he now has a sufficient force to patrol every foot of railroad in his territory.

The peasants view every stranger with suspicion. Two newspaper correspondents narrowly escaped lynching in the mistaken belief that they were spies.

Several deputies from the south, who hurried home on Friday to aid in calming their constituents, received such a hostile reception that they were forced to return to Paris.

M. Albert left for the south at nine o'clock.

Just before he left, it was officially stated that he had promised M. Clemenceau to do his utmost to induce his countrymen to return to work and to cease their disturbances.

Cheered the News. Narbonne, France, June 24.—The funeral of the sixth victim of the rioting on Thursday last was held yesterday. There was no disorder.

Despatches describing Marcelin Albert's interview with Premier Clemenceau, were read to crowds throughout the south and were received with thunderous cheers. The affair appears to have made a most marked impression.

Fresh troops continue to arrive and are being distributed over the country. It is estimated that there are more than 70,000 in the three departments.

Mice in Printer's Office. The compositors of an office in Glasgow a number of years ago had often their pockets invaded by mice, which infested the place, this being revealed on taking out their paper-enveloped bread, and discovering it artistically holed and notched.

Rats also periodically appeared when mice would become less visible, but whether or not from fear of suffering extermination by the larger invaders cannot be said. One comp., on his morning's arrival, when lifting his apron experienced an unusual weight and discovered within the folds of the apron a nest of mice, their size indicating extremely recent birth. A dead mouse was found a few yards off.

The suggestion gained credence that this was the mother mouse, and that, for safety of its progeny from the rat, she had secreted them in the apron, having to clamber some 10 or 12 inches to do so—and had only temporarily left them when she met her fate.

AN OLD FLAME. Yes, said Lovett, I was engaged to her once.

So I understand. She told me she was an old flame of yours.

That's pretty near right. She certainly did burn up my money.

SUNSHINE FURNACE

NOT SHAKING. JUST A GENTLE ROCKING OF THE LEVER.

Shaking is a hard, back-breaking exercise, peculiar to common furnaces, while you can stand erect at the Sunshine—and moving the lever, to and fro, about half the length of your arm, a few times, is mere play. A child can easily do it.

Grates of the Sunshine are in two sections—right and left. By gently rocking the lever, a few times, the ashes are released from the right. Repeat the operation on the left and the ashes from that side drop into the ash-pan, too. You couldn't wish for anything easier than the Sunshine Method.

When this lever is not in use it can be disconnected from the grates and the opening capped. But when connected it fills up the opening so snugly that no dust from the falling ashes can escape.

Every detail is thought of on the "Sunshine"—that's what makes it the best.

SCANDAL IN ROYAL NAVY.

Petty Officers Graft From Contractors in Construction Works.

London, June 24.—"Grave irregularities" in the term the parliamentary committee of public accounts gives to certain conditions in the navy, on which it issued a report on Saturday.

The committee found that a widespread custom was the acceptance of commissions from contractors by petty officers, but the report adds that severe disciplinary measures have been adopted to suppress the custom.

The committee objects strongly to the action of the admiralty in contracting for the construction of the armored cruisers Invincible, Inflexible and Indomitable, without competition, although the admiralty officials explained that they wished to keep the plans secret.

The committee finds that the builders of the battleship King Edward VII. secretly patched up a defective cast rudder, which the government was obliged to replace. The builders gathered together a few of their employees on a certain Sunday and by electric welding concealed a huge fault in the rudder.

The report of the committee says: "We hope it will not again be our duty to investigate a case where a British firm, for commercial advantage, will callously hazard the lives of hundreds of their fellow-countrymen."

Although Mrs. Harlow loved her husband and admired what she considered his good points, it was a never ending source of amazement to her that he had been chosen to fill the office of mayor for three successive terms.
"Everybody knows how much I think of James," she said in a dazed way to one of her husband's cousins.
"I always said and always should say that he is as good as gold. But if you'll tell me whether you think a man who is color blind and who brings home toys that won't go when you wind them and who still thinks I could like olives if I'd only try is fit for such a position why, all I can say is I don't."

THE ORIGIN OF GALL STONES.

They are simply dried bile, made up of crystalline constituents of that fluid. Very common is this disease among merchants, clergymen, shop-
girls and those of sedentary habits.
Prevention consists in maintaining correct action of the liver and bowels, which is best accomplished by Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No person using this medicine need fear gall-stones, nor will they ever be bilious.
Sound digestion, good appetite, a giving properties of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are the safest and best for general family use. Insist on

ARE YOU SUBJECT TO STIFFNESS

Perhaps it is in the neck or shoulders. First thing is a good rub with Nerviline. No more speedy remedy can be adopted. When applied to the muscles Nerviline gives them flexibility and vigor, inflammation, sore-ness and stiffness disappear. "Whether in the chest or throat nothing can surpass Nerviline," writes O. B.
Denton, Lumber Merchant at Oak Bay, N. B. "Rubbed on at night, the trouble is gone by morning. I have proved Nerviline a great medicine."
Everyone who uses the same, and Nerviline always makes good. 25c. bottles

A Chinese Idea of Foreigners.

The following is a quite modern Chinese conception of the foreigners' treatment of infectious cases: "If an epidemic broke out two foreigners took the sick away and put them in a little room, washed them with lime water and then locked them up so that no one could see them on purpose that they might soon die and not propagate the disease. Wives and children might cry and weep, but the foreigners would not drive them away with sticks, for until dead no one must see those faces again. Better for all of us to jump into the sea than submit to this."

That the roots of many plants,
growing wild in our American forests, possess remarkable properties for the cure of human maladies is well proven. Even the untutored Indian has learned the curative value of some of these and taught the early settlers their uses. The Indian never liked to work, so he wanted his squaw to get well as soon as possible, that she might do the work and let him hunt. Therefore he dug "papoose root" for her, for that was their great remedy for female weakness. Dr. Pierce uses the same root called Blue Cohosh—in his "Favorite Prescription," skillfully combined with numerous other agents that make it more effective than any other medicine in curing all the varied weaknesses and painful derangements peculiar to women.

Many afflicted women have been saved from the operating table and the surgeon's knife by the timely use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Tenderness over the lower region, with backache, spells of dizziness, faintness, bearing down pains or distress should not go unheeded. A course of "Favorite Prescription" will work marvellous benefit in all such cases, and generally effect a permanent cure if persisted in for a reasonable length of time.

For constipation, the true, scientific cure is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pilllets. Mild, harmless, yet sure.

The only way to have a friend is to be one.

THE TUB-GOWN.

Snuggles and Trigness Hall Marks of Wash Frocks.

A noticeable snugness and tightness
is the hall mark of many of the smartest tub gowns. The skirts are simply treated, and their length widths are unbroken except for a band of needlework above the hem or a few tucks in a group. The top of the skirt is mounted with a slight gathering frontward,
something more across the back, says
a writer in Vogue. The bodice, while gathered, admits of no outward fullness, because the material is drawn into the figure lines so snugly and beited. A bolero of the same fabric, short and very close fitting, embraces the bust and gives an excellent effect upon the figure, simple as it is.
There is a tailor suggestion about all this, but the handwork in finish takes away the severity somewhat, as the edge of the entire bolero is embroidered by hand. So are the high chemise and stock and the turnover flat cuffs of the elbow sleeve. It requires little imagination to fancy how becoming such a gown may be with a bodice beited in with rose pink ribbon and a single pink rose of great beauty fastened to the corsage just where the bolero meets.

A straw hat, a cluster of roses and some tulle, fresh white gloves and shoes and a white embroidered parasol, coupled with youth and beauty, make
as captivating a picture.

FOR THE SMALL GIRL.

Four-in-hand Ties Smart on Sailor

The little tailored linen and duck

small girls this spring and summer dis-

A STYLISH MODEL.

the white material of which the dress is made. Hand embroideries in blind effects are another feature of this type of dress, while the narrow, stiff linen collars to be worn with long and narrow four-in-hand ties are by far the smartest trimmings in the new season's models.

A New Skirt Hanger.

A skirt does not always keep its shape when an ordinary hanger is used, and so one ingenious woman has evolved the following simple arrangement for accommodating a considerable number of skirts in the smallest possible space.

First she screwed in a few inches
from the back of the closet on each side a small brass hook such as is used in china closets.

The next step was to get a piece of strong but slender cord long enough to extend across the closet from hook
to hook.

On this cord she strung a dozen or more large safety pins by running the cord through the opening in the clasp
of the pin.

She folds her skirts exactly in half,
sticks the point of a pin through the waistband at back, front and halfway between these two points; then she fastens the safety pins, and her skirts hang in their natural folds, with little strain and away from the wall.

The pins slide freely up and down the cord, and skirts may hang three deep and not get crushed or wrinkled.

Amusement For the Tots.

However soon children tire of playing with toys, they always find endless amusement in making new playthings for themselves. The fabrication of paper dolls out of colored fashion plates is a work which will easily serve to pass away a wet afternoon in the nursery. The figures should be cut neatly round, pasted on to cardboard and this in turn cut out, so as to stiffen
the figures, says Woman's Life. The arms and legs can be made to move if these are divided in the first instance, mounted separately on cardboard and attached to the dolls by means of small paper fasteners, the heads being treated in like manner.

Use For Daily Papers.

The careful housewife has a use for everything, and the daily papers are by no means an inconsiderable factor toward insuring a clean kitchen. For instance, a supply of paper folded in eight and hung up over the kitchen sink will be found most convenient to slip under a hot kettle that has just been lifted from the stove, says Woman's Life. A store of full sized sheets should likewise be kept in the kitchen table drawer, so that there is always one handy to spread over the table if necessary during work, which can be afterward burned.

HUNT FOR TREASURE.

Rector Joins In Romantic Quest In Ruins of Ancient Hall.

The ruins of Bradley Old Hall, Derbyshire, which were discovered recently, are being unearthed, and a large extent of the foundations has been laid bare. As yet, however, the cellars have not been entered, and a subterranean passage, that for generations has had a reputed existence, has not been discovered. But the archaeological interest in the investigations is completely dwarfed locally by the idea that hidden treasure may be found. The story goes that Prince Charles sent a company of his followers from Derby to Bradley to seize a valuable collection of plate, and that they found some, but not the whole of it. The legend that a valuable hoard escaped their notice, and remains buried in the ruins of the old hall, has a tenacious hold in the district, and only the most careful search will dispel it. The Rector of Bradley (the Rev. R. H. Tomlinson) is an enthusiastic archaeologist, and is taking a working share in the digging out of the foundations. The rector may be found, spade in hand, some feet down among old walls and multitudinous windows. In the midst of his work the rector told an interviewer that they had discovered a curious chamber, four or five feet square, the use of which was not quite clear. "We had to cut through the bricks—and such bricks—before it was revealed.

Carousal in the Cellars.
"It may have been a hiding-place
in troublous times, or perhaps a bin for some of that special old port with which Dr. Johnson was regaled. He was a visitor at the Hall," said the rector, "and greatly enjoyed the luxuries of the well-laden tables." The rector would like to complete the search of the ruins, and to penetrate the whole range of cellars and passages, but for this funds will be needed. A corroboration of the story of the visit of the young Pretender's followers to Bradley Hall is contained in Hutton's "History of Derby," published in 1797. It is there stated that one James Sparks (an emissary,
it is thought, of a Scotch minister who sent a message from Bradley to Prince Charles) guided a number of soldiers to the old Hall, then in the possession of Hugo Meynell. The party had a carousal in the cellars,
and eventually the Highlanders decamped, leaving their companions helplessly drunk. Sparks was discovered the next day by the Loyalists, taken before a magistrate, and committed.
He was ultimately removed to York,
there tried for high treason, condemned, and executed in 1746. Locally it is argued that the Highlanders did not travel from Derby all the way to a remote place like Bradley, with the Duke of Cumberland's army in hot advance, for the sole purpose of indulging in a drunken orgie. Was it the treasure they were after, and if so, did they get away with the whole of it? Hutton's history states that before the Prince re-commenced his retreat northward from Derbyshire he had replenished his war-chest to the extent of some thousands of pounds.

The King Promotes Official.

The King, according to a recent issue of The Gazette, has given the Master of the Horse, the Earl of Selborne—a tremendous step in the order of precedence.
Hitherto the Master of the Horse has ranked between the comptroller and the Vice-Chamberlain of the Household, in the table of precedence.
For the future he will take precedence of the Speaker, the Lords of Appeal, the bishops and barons, viscounts, earls, marquises and dukes, and will come immediately after the Chamberlain of the King's Household.
The Master of the Horse has charge of all matters relating to the sovereign's stables and horses, and has privilege of using any of his master's horses, pages or footmen. His propositional place is next behind the sovereign.

His dignity, however, depends on the vitality of the Ministry which appoints him, for his position is political and he retires into private life
with the other members of a defeated Government.

A Maori Funeral.

A strange scene occurred recently at Parahiaka, on the West Coast of New Zealand, at the funeral of Tohu,
a famous Maori prophet, who was credited by his followers with the attributes of divinity and immortality, and has caused great misgivings amongst the faithful by dying. A dispute arose as to whether the body should be placed in a coffin provided by some of the dead chief's followers. His relatives objected, and eventually it was agreed that the coffin should be lowered into the grave first, and the body placed on top of it. The coffin was accordingly let down into the ground and then smashed into matchwood. A kapok mattress was then lowered, and the body placed upon that. Numerous mats were laid on top of the body and the grave filled in. The burial ceremony was a great occasion for the Maori population, and so much importance was attached to it that the native health officer telegraphed to the Native Minister for permission to have intoxicating liquor at the funeral; but the request was not granted.

The Inventor of the Gyroscope.

"Mr. Brennan, whose gyroscope train seems to be the nearest approach to a flying-machine yet invented," says
The London Star, "an Irishman by birth. As a very young man he emigrated to Australia, and obtained a place in a department store at Melbourne. The proprietor received a large consignment of clocks from England, and found that they had been damaged in transit. Young Brennan showed mechanical aptitude for the first time by setting them right. From clocks he advanced (by stages) to torpedoes, and had the supreme good luck to sell the Brennan torpedo to the British Government for £120,000. Vast sums of money were spent on its manufacture, and then,
in the autumn of last year, the Government decided to close the Brennan torpedo factory at Gillingham, from which it has been assumed that its day is past."

Igneous Rocks.
Igneous is derived from the Latin word ignis, meaning fire, and igneous rocks are those which geologists say were produced through the action of heat. Igneous rocks are divided into two great groups, volcanic and plutonic. The volcanic, as the name implies, are those brought to the surface
by volcanic action, while the plutonic
are those which have solidified below
the surface of the earth and have been exposed by the wearing away of the strata above them.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and Stomach, and their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specially prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine
scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—it will tell you what it can do for you. It is a wonderful medicine, and will do for you. Urge it to your friends and sell

The Chairman's Break.

Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota made a speech at Erin Corners, in his state, says the Saturday Evening Post.

His audience was very unfriendly.
They howled at the gigantic Clapp,
laughed at him, threw things at him
and made it most uncomfortable.
Finally Clapp stopped and looked at the chairman.

"Don't mind them, Mose," said the chairman. "Go right ahead. They're nothing but loafers and rowdies. None of the decent people would come."

LETTERS

A PERTINENT ENQUIRY.

To the Editor of The Planet:
Dear Sir,—I write to enquire, with all due respect to our Sunday school teachers, if it would not be, in their judgment, an inspiration, a great advantage and help to supply a much felt need of equipment, a need which we all feel, if the Sunday school leaders of our city and county could arrange for a summer school under canvas at the Eau, for a week or ten days, for S. S. teachers from all over the county?
We have in our own ministers and day school teachers many who are well qualified that could assist. A committee of one or two from each school could arrange a good program. Would it not be wise to at once bring this before the teachers of our Sunday schools and move in time ere our holiday season is fully on?

Members of the Provincial S. S. Association could possibly lead off if the suggestion were deemed a wise one.

Yours sincerely,
W. M.

VICTORY FOR C. B. C.

Last evening at seven o'clock a team from the C. B. C. defeated the team from the G. T. R. in a game of ball, resulting in a score of 12 to 7.

The game was not enthusiastic, as both teams lacked rosters. The C. B. C. had the best of the game throughout, and in the second innings they made nine runs, three of which were successive home runs. In the third innings neither side scored a run, and in the fourth innings one run was made by the G. T. R. There were only four innings played, the G. T. R. feeling that they had sufficient of the C. B. C. Burgess in the box for the C. B. C. was good, and O'Dell behind the bat played nice ball. The line-up was as follows:

C. B. C.—P. Burgess; c. O'Dell; 1st. Merrill; 2nd. Herd; 3rd. Easton; r.f. McKown; c.f. Gagner; l.f. Buchelder; s.s. Elliott.
G. T. R.—1st. McKinn; 2nd. Snell; c. Chrysler; p. Griffith; s. Raynor; c.f. Marshall; 3rd. Johns; l.f. Causgrove; r.f. Pleasance.

EVENING OF MUSIC

The B. Y. P. U. of William street Baptist church gave a "social" evening in the school room of the church last evening. A good musical program was given, after which a tasty luncheon was served. A large crowd were in attendance and a very enjoyable time was spent. The program was as follows: Instrumental solo, Miss Iva Thompson; chairman's address, Rev. Mr. Matthews; vocal solo, Miss Bessie Smith; instrumental solo, Miss Irene Brown; vocal solo, J. D. McAlpine; duet, Misses Dooley and Winnifred Arnold; vocal solo, Miss Gattie Potter; instrumental solo, Miss Edith Merrill; vocal solo, Miss Nell Kitchen; recitation, Miss Mattie Haviland; vocal solo, Mrs. J. E. Oldershaw; duet, Miss Mae Peate and Mr. McAlpine. Mr. Kitchen was present with his phonograph and gave several selections during the refreshment part of the program.

THE ANNUAL SERMON

Sunday was a red letter day with Court Pride of Dover, No. 8765, A. O. F., 7th Con., Bear Line, it being the occasion of their annual church parade and service. The Dover brethren, together with members from Court Hope and Court Unity, of Chatham, met at the A. O. F. Hall, where Bro. W. J. Foy formed them into line and marshaled them to the Methodist Church, close by. Rev. Mr. Bristol delivered a practical sermon, which was very much appreciated by the large congregation present. The church was filled to overflowing with the members of the Order and the regular congregation and adherents. The choir was assisted by Miss Eva Dudge, of Chatham, who very kindly consented to preside at the organ once more for the Bear Line Foresters. Mrs. S. C. Walker gave an excellent solo, which was heartily received by all present. The choir did good work both in the anthem and the general singing. There were visiting brethren present from Chatham, Tilbury and other places.

It is quite possible for a fellow to be blown up without feeling inflated.
