Advantages of Christian Labour.

In our last we were unable to pursue our thoughts on the subject of Working for God to the extent we had intended. We now offer a few additional observations on the same topic with the view of briefly illustrating the advantages of christian labour. Though in all our service for Christ we should be influenced chiefly by the high aim of bringing glory to our Divine Master, yet we are allowed to comfort our hearts with the prospect of receiving the gracious rewards of faithfulness. Not only have we the promise of Christ that fidelity in his cause will ensure the bestowment of the crown of life, but we are warranted also in the confidence that in connection with all labour in the Lord's vineyard there is a present reward, -a reward of rich spiritual blessing to every faithful servant, and a large endowment of peace and prosperity to the church ngs came off in accordance with announ on 11th inst. Several circumstances conspired to make them seasons of rare interest, and we hope also of profit. One of the deputation Rev. H. McKeown, planted the standard of Methodism along this part of the river about nine years si see, with mingled emotions of hope and fear. He was welcomed not only by our own people, but many of another church, who warmy greeted him on his return. His efforts among 18, both in the Pulpit and on the platform, were mong his happiest, and would have done credit o oim in any part of our Conference field.

The meeting at Middle Musquodoboit was well attended. The Reva. John Sprott (Presbyterian.) H. McKeown and E. Mills, acd Brother Isaac Gaetz from the Harbour advocated the use of Christian Missions admirably and suceasfully. In Sunday-school the teachers speak, In words so kind and plain, I never do get tired out, And love to go again

But when I sit in yonder seat, I cannot quiet be, For most of what the preacher says. He meaneth not for me.

And so I swing my little feet, And move my hands about, And wish, and wish, and wish again, The church would soon be out.

The teacher comes and pulls my ear, And shakes my little head. And wonders why I don't keep still Till all the things are said.

And thus the people from below Look upward with amase, Astonished that a little boy Should have such naughty ways

The preacher, too, stops still, and says " That boy in vonder seat Disturbs my sermon with the noise Of drumming with his feet."

Ah, me! I know not what to do, For if I silence keep, My eyes, o'ercome with weariness, Will close at once in aleep.

I often wonder why mamma To church will make me go; Sermons are not for boys up stairs, But grown folks down below.

Besides, you know my seat is hard, Nor is it cushioned o'er ; My legs are short, and cannot reach Clear down upon the floor.

Then chide me not, my older friends, When restless you me see-With longer legs and softer seat A better boy I'll be.

THE GREAT WANT SUPPLIED.

It is a well known fact that Physicians have long aought to discover a vegetable purgative as a substitute for Calomel, and that would cleanse the Alimentary Canal of all diseased and retained humors, as thoroughly as Lobelia will the stomach, without producing sickness at stomach, weakness, or irritation of the mucous membrane.

In Dr. Radway's Pills, this very important and essential principle is secured. A dose of two to six (according to the condition of the system) of Dr. Radway's Pills will produce all the positive alterative hange-from a sluggish or torpid, to a althy action of the Liver-as the physician hopes to obtain by a dose of Blue Pills, or Calomel; and will as thoroughly cleanse the Stomach, and purge from the bowels the diseased and retained humors as the most approved emissio, or eathartic
