A Big Deal

The New American Hotel Property Again Changes Hands.

One of the greatest sales of real estate that has taken place in Brantford for some time was consummated a few days ago, the sale of the New American Hotel property on Dalhousie street, which has a frontage of one hundred and eight feet. The property was sold some little time ago by Mrs. Scott to Mr. Hiram T. Westbrook and now resold at a considerable advance on the former price through the agency of S. G. Read and Son, to an investor.

Dalhousie street property is looking up; many changes are taking place on the street. The new Government building about to be erected and other important improvements in various properties will give Dalhousie street a quite a changed appearance. A number of other important transfers were made during the month of March through the same agency.

A Mystery

BERLIN, Ont., April 1.—Alfred Heil, aged 20, was found lying beside the track in the C.P.R. yards at 3 o'clock this morning with a bullet wound in his head and a revolver lying by his side. The body was frozen, but the foot prints made while he was returning home are easily traced. It is clearly not a case of suicide as foot prints are visible of a man and a boy standing about where the body fell. The revolver did not belong to the victim as his weapon was found at home this morning. He was a young man of steady habits and had considerable money. Only 5 cents was found in his pockets. An inquest has been ordered.

One Minute Interviews

E. E. C. Kilmer, City School Inspector—"The constantly increasing attendance at the Public schools is again emphasized this week after the re-opening from Easter when scores of new faces are seen in the class rooms."

Mr. A. Harley, Collector of Customs—"In spite of the increased number of hands, Brantford Customs returns keep climbing up so rapidly that we are still rushed in some departments."

Major Ashton—The Grand River, considering the mild winter, is certainly behaving in a remarkable manner this winter. To-day it is again all over the flats near the Mohawk Church."

APRIL FIRST.

The Romans gave this name of April, from aperire, or because it is the season when buds commence to burst.

By the Anglo-Saxon in old it was known as Ooster, or month, and by the Dutch a month.

The custom of sending one fruitless errand, or securing in some other way, upon the day of this month is probably of some very old heathen folk. Whatever the origin the little tricks upon unguarded sons upon this date is throughout Europe and it is to note that the Hindus practice precisely similar tricks upon each year.

In England and the United States such a person is called "April Fool" in France "un poisson d'Avril" in Scotland "A gowk."

Liberal dislike to rejection by the Senate of Commons bills. There will be many who will contend that a strong reason for rejection does exist in this case if by this measure, so exceptional in its character, is passed through the Commons by extraordinary and unprecedented method of procedure. So that's the dodge, is it? If so, there will have to be another "extraordinary" proceeding, and that will be the reforming of the Senate.

FIELDING'S THREAT The fact that Mr. Fielding, ex-Minister of Finance and wet nurse in chief for the Reciprocity brat, was good and properly licked in the Riding of Shelburne and Queens, Nova Scotia, does not seem to have made him realize that he is not at present helping to run this country. For some weeks he has been in the Old Land poking his nose into the Navy issue and by voluminous letters to the papers there, grossly misrepresenting the feelings of a vast majority of Canadians in the matter. Breezy Notes (Continued from Page 1) city $15 per foot to hold it. He submitted a resolution, seconded by Ald. Wooliams, authorizing the council to receive offers for the property. Ald. Suddaby opposed it. The city should hold the property for at least another year. Ald. Quinlan said in two years the property would be worth double its present value. Ald. Ryerson said he favored holding it for some time yet. "We are guardians of the people's property and citizens in general, I believe, want us to keep it." Mayor Hartman opposed selling the property, as it would deteriorate the value of the residue of the land, should one part be sold. Ald. Charlton said it was a bad time to put the property on the market. Ald. McEwen finally withdrew his resolution.

Ald. McFarland moved, seconded by Ald. Ryerson, that notice be sent to the Western Counties Electric Company that their contract for street lighting will not be renewed after January 1, 1914. A six months notice is required. Ald. Ward said a committee of civic officials was no committee to deal with a matter like the civic boundary extension. He moved, seconded by Ald. McEwen that a report on the matter be presented at the next council by the committee in charge of that matter. Ald. McEwen said that jockeying by the street railway should be ended right away by pressing the city's High Court action against the company. Ald. Ryerson moved that a fence be put up on the Waterloo property facing Darling street. It was a disgrace to the city. Ald. Sutch thought it would be cheaper to clean the place up, but Ald. McEwen did not think it would be practical in view of the building operations on the property. Authority was given Engineer Ireland to hire workmen and secure material for Hydro construction. The fire chief will have to sanction the placing of all poles, also trimming of trees. Ald. McFarland said it was necessary to place the authority on one individual. Ald. Minshall objected to the Hydro engineer buying an auto. Ald. Charlton wanted to know why tenders were not called for the erection of Hydro poles.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. If the Canadian Senate attempts a navy blockade they will find themselves chucked! overboard. The "Square Deal" campaign deserves, and no doubt will receive, your support. The London Mail is offering a prize of $50,000 for the first water plane which will cross the Atlantic from England to Canada, or vice versa, in 2 hours. As the Laurierites have been so much up in the air since 1911, that party should make a try. Hon. Mr. Pelletier, Postmaster-General in the Borden Cabinet, has for some time been studying the parcel posts question, and yesterday, in the House, gave notice of a bill regarding the matter. The project is in the interests of the people, and it will be warmly welcomed. Canada last night closed a year of unexampled prosperity. Her trade for the first time has reached the billion mark, and for the twelve months just passed the increase was $150,000,000. Hon. Mr. White has certainly made good as Finance Minister. During the year he retired a loan of $6,000,000 and did not float a single new loan. The last loan he did negotiate was placed at the exceedingly high figure of $98.50. He also purchased from $10,000,000 to $12,000,000 Grand Trunk Pacific bonds, to the saving of great expense. In other words, under the G. T. P. agreement the Dominion guaranteed the bonds of the company, thus having to meet the difference between the price in the market and par. By getting a chunk of same right out, White made a capital move.

BAKER Who was appointed secretary to the U. S. Senate, at a salary of 6,500 a year, over the head of Joseph Wilson, brother of the President. Wilson wanted the position very badly.

Paris Council (Continued from Page 1) appointed medical officer of Health at the same salary as last year, viz, $100 per annum. Carried. Ald. Layton moved, seconded by Ald. Torrance that the auditors' report be adopted and that 100 copies be printed for distribution. Carried. The auditor, Mr. Jno. Lindsay, requested that his fees for auditing the Town books be raised to $150 for the year just closed, and be increased to $200 for the coming year. Ald. Layton and Rehder favored granting the increase and made a motion to that effect. Ald. Wels and Evans thought it would be as well for the finance committee to look into the matter and if the amount of work warranted it, then give Mr. Lindsay the increase. The work had been done for a great many years for $80 per year and was only two or three years ago that it was increased to $100. Mr. Lindsay had accepted the position at this salary for last year, yet he now now asked that he be paid $150. Ald. Wels and Evans moved an amendment that the matter be referred back to the Finance Committee, but the amendment was lost, the mover and seconder being the only ones supporting it. Ald. Layton changed his original motion to make it refer to the past year only, and it passed. Mr. A. T. H. McCormick was present on behalf of the Paris Horticultural Society, which had previously petitioned for a grant of $100. He explained the good work of the Society, that the money was used for civic improvements and their whole aim and object was to encourage the beautifying of homes and gardens. Ald. Evans and Davidson moved that the Society be granted $100. Carried. Miss Capron and others petitioned that St. George St. be extended to Grand River street. On motion of Ald. Torrance and Fasken it was referred to streets and sidewalks committee to report at next meeting of council. Ald. Lindsay, Chairman of Committee on Fire and Light brought down his report of the committee meeting since the last regular meeting of the Council. He recommended that the booster pump be tested each month by Chief Skelly and five men, and that they be paid $1 per man for such work on each occasion. 1. That a hose wagon be purchased. 2. That a hose wagon be purchased. 3. That Knell and Gourlay be paid $30 per year to carry a team day after day to convey the hook and ladder wagon or hose wagon to a fire. 4. That the Chief's salary be increased from $40 to $100. 5. That more alarm boxes be installed and that all of them be repaired. Capt. Cavan demanded that the firemen have entire control of the rooms at present occupied by them and the band. Although the International Harvester Co. and the Sanderson, Harold Co. offered to assume the responsibility of testing the booster pump each month, Ald. Layton moved, seconded by Ald. Evans: That the first clause of the report be adopted. Carried. The second clause re purchasing a hose wagon, caused considerable discussion but it too was carried. The third clause re paying $50.00 yearly to Knell and Gourlay was left in abeyance until such time as the new hose wagon should be placed in commission. The balance of the report was referred back to committee. Mr. John Reynolds presented the report of an engineer on the levels of Catharine St. between Amelia and Race streets. He was asked to put in a petition, stating exactly what is wanted by the residents of this section and a special meeting will be called to deal with it. During the discussion on purchasing a hose wagon, Ald. Evans referred that the town was in good standing this year in having no heavy expenditures in sight. Mayor Patterson put that argument down and out when he stated that a further sum of $12,000 to $15,000 would be required to complete the Hydro-Electric works in Paris; the International Harvester Co. is advertising for men and promises steady work. The new brick yard is just opening up and will employ a large gang in the next few months. Building prospects are good. The Paris Winery Mills purposes erecting new additions and will greatly increase their present staff of employees and Penman's Ltd., are installing new sets of cards which will mean more work in all departments. Let the knockers put away their hammers and join the chorus, "Watch Paris Grow."

Paris Council (Continued from Page 1) Anghuis and Son have started work on the new concrete garage on West River St. It is being erected by Mr. Cyril Bosworth and will be known as the Ford Garage. Two of the large plate glass windows, which were destroyed in the hurricane of Good Friday, were replaced yesterday. The window for Shawcross and Sons store, which was to have arrived with the others is sidetracked somewhere between here and London. It is rumored that a Toronto millionaire is considering the purchase of one of the most beautiful homes in Paris and may come here to reside. Although the Lake Erie and Northern Railway have filed their route map of this district their surveys are still busy on the Flats and are being working on an entirely different route to gain access to the Penman mills. POLICE CASE AT TORONTO

Judgment Was Received on Application For New Place of Trial.

[Canadian Press Despatch] TORONTO, April 1.—Master-in-Chambers Cartwright, at Os- goode Hall, this morning reserved judgment on an application on behalf of the defendants in the action brought by Gladys Meredith, an English factory girl, against the Brantford police and a doctor, who, she alleges, forced her to undergo an examination against her will.

The allegation is made by Chief Slemm and the other defendants that there have been such violent attacks on the police that a fair trial in Brantford is impossible. They recite the fact that it was necessary to call out the militia to protect the police on December 24th, when a riot took place. All sorts of false statements, it is alleged, have been made. The application was presented by A. F. Aylesworth. It is said that the only case that can be compared to it is the Ponton trial.

It's Growing

Custom Returns Here for Year, Show Remarkable Increase

The Customs returns for Brantford still continue to soar in a most remarkable manner—and yet in reality not remarkable when the progressive and go-ahead nature of this burgh is considered.

The financial year runs from March to March, and here are the figures:

March, 1913.....	$74,650.27
March, 1912.....	$1,397.68
Increase.....	$23,252.59
1912 to 1913.....	$679,266.59
1911 to 1912.....	$28,787.77
Increase.....	$149,478.82

Detective in Accident

Detective Chapman who was getting on the Market street car yesterday, did not notice that one of the peculiarities of the said car is that it has no bottom step. As it was he was dragged along some distance, straining one of his legs considerably.

Sabbath School Convention

The convention of the Brantford Sabbath School Association will be held this afternoon and evening in the Colborne street Methodist church. Mr. Halpenny, field secretary of the Ontario Sabbath school association will speak; also Miss Laice, general superintendent of the elementary division of the Ontario Sabbath School Association. Two large flags will be given to the city Sunday schools sending the largest representation of teachers and pupils.

Final Games

Final games for the carpetball championship were arranged last night following the default of Liberals No. 2 to Wolfe Lodge. Borden 2 will meet Salisbury, April 16 and 18 to settle supremacy.

NEW ASSESSOR IS ANXIOUS

Mr. A. G. Ludlow Asks Citizens to Make Department All It Should Be

In connection with Mr. Ludlow, the new head of the assessment department, the Courier was informed that there had been neither comment nor criticism to amount to anything made on the assessment rolls since their publication. There were only a few ratepayers who came to the office. He observed if there was anything to be gained by the publishing of the rolls, he expected ratepayers to offer suggestions or to make comparisons of assessments. The department was aware that there must be some ratepayers that could criticize the work of the last eight years and offer suggestions. As there is no fixed valuation on any real estate, it cannot but appear to the citizens that the assessors have a very difficult job on their hands, and as values keep constantly increasing, especially in some localities more than others, all the assistance that the ratepayers can give was required. To arrive at a fair equalized valuation of property was the constant aim. It can't be expected of the department to carry values in their heads, and be able at any time to state off handed the assessed value of different properties, throughout the city. Mr. Ludlow said that the office will be kept open Thursday and Friday evenings of this week if necessary, so that ratepayers that find it impossible to get to the office through the day, may have the privilege of talking over assessment matters, also that all information given the department will be treated as confidential if so desired. He also stated that it would be impossible for the assessors to go into details with the ratepayers, when they are making their rounds, as the land values must be adjusted in the office where they have all the books at their disposal, and can make the valuation of all assessments before the field work commenced. The department is very anxious to attain proficiency and to give every ratepayer a square deal.

BRANT COUNTY PIONEER DEAD

Mr. Johu Lowes Was Called to His Rest Yesterday Afternoon

Another of Brant County's oldest residents has been called home, in the person of John Lowes, who passed away at his residence, 97 Murray street, yesterday afternoon.

Of sturdy English Yeoman descent, deceased had been endowed with a lifetime of almost perfect health and had attained his 73rd year. He was a son of Henry and Christina Gibson Lowes, natives of the North of England, who came to Canada in 1829, settling a short distance from the then village of Brantford in 1832, where the subject of this sketch was born, Sept. 23, 1840.

His boyhood and the early years of manhood was spent on the homestead with his parents, to whom he was devotedly attached, and to whom he ministered in their declining years. When a young man deceased joined the old "Brantford Rifles," serving under Capt. Alger and Dickie. After the demise of his parents he remained upon the homestead, until a few years ago when he took up his residence in the city.

He married in 1871, Margaret, (daughter of Thomas N. and Jane) Mordue of Johnson's Settlement, who survives, as also does their three children—Florence of Hartford, Conn.; Nellie (Mrs. P. C. Young), of this city; and Thomas, of Windsor. A brother and two sisters also survive—James of this city; Ruth (Mrs. Thomas Mordue of Mt. Pleasant); and Mary Jane (Mrs. Geo. Nicolls), of Agassiz, B.C.

An exemplary son, a kind husband and father, has gone to his rest and by his demise the Conservative party has lost a staunch supporter. Brantford a sterling citizen, and Brant County not only a resident, but one of nature's noblemen.

Interment will take place on Thursday afternoon at Mount Hope.

The Perfect Type of Man

No two men were ever alike. When they match at the chest they differ in waist or in length of limb.

Different ways of walking have their effect upon one's carriage. Shoulders never really match. It is impossible to produce clothes which will absolutely fit unless the figure of the wearer is normal.

By the Semi-ready physique type system of tailoring every garment can be quickly finished to shape and to overcome figure defects.

day on an extended visit to her mother in Monmouth, Ill. Her house, 131 Brant avenue, is occupied by Mr and Mrs. Charles F. Ramsay during her absence.

A donation of five dollars has been received by Mrs. E. C. Ashton, regent of the Brant Chapter, Daughters of the Empire from Mrs. Makepeace, Fall River, Mass., towards furnishing fund of the Brant Sanatorium.

Mrs. W. Watt, Brant Avenue, was the hostess of the Ladies' Club which meets with their thrilbles each Monday afternoon and enjoy a cosy social as well as busy hour and cup of tea.

Miss Gertrude Searle left this morning for Hamilton where she will be one of the guests at a luncheon and bridge given by her sister, Mrs. Phin in honor of some Welland friends at her home on Ravenscliffe avenue to-day.

Mrs. Lloyd Harris, "Pensans" was the hostess of a delightful little bridge of three tables on Saturday evening, given in honor of Mrs. R. G. O. Thompson, an Easter visitor, in town, and also for Mrs. Harris Poppelwell who leaves to-day on a visit to Michigan. Miss Lottie Large was the fortunate prize winner.

Mrs. Mockridge, wife of the late Rev. Dr. Charles Mockridge, formerly of Christ's church cathedral, Hamilton, is expected to arrive shortly from Kentucky to join her son, Rev. Hamilton Mockridge, curate of St. Peter's church, Cobourg. They have taken the residence of the late William Black and will reside there.

Grace church A. Y. P. A. held their annual box social last evening; there was a good turnout of members and the feature of the evening was the sale of the lunch boxes.

Mrs. S. H. J. Reid acted in the capacity of auctioneer. About thirty boxes were sold and a good sum was realized. After lunch the members dispersed, all having thoroughly enjoyed themselves; but sorrow was expressed that Miss Mary Wheeler, their oldest member was unable to be present on account of illness, this being her first absence in six years.

A most enjoyable bridge was given by the Ladies' Match committee of the Brantford Golf and Country Club at the residence of Miss Schell, Brant avenue on Monday afternoon - nine tables being played and several other friends dropping in at the hour. Brantford has been so absolutely quiet during Lent, that this affair was well patronized and thoroughly enjoyed; the concluding game coming all too soon. High score was won by Mrs. A. T. Duncan, second by Miss Ruby Wye, and consolation by Miss Celia Wye.

The pretty tea table centered with carnations and beautifully supplied with dainty refreshments was presided over by Mrs. Schell assisted by Miss Schell, Miss Searle and Miss Cora Jones.

Short evening wraps that wrap closely about the figure just below the hips are now the pet of fashion, especially for theatre wear. For these dainty little wraps are easy to take care of when worn to the theatre chair. They are made of moire silk with fringe trimming, of crepe meteor and charmeuse shirred over heavy cords of draped lansdowne and of allover lace softly draped above flowered silk. A charming model, designed for southern wear with lingerie frocks is of tucked white net draped above allover embroidery, a broad band of lace St. Gall Houncing wrapping the garment at the hips, and crossing obliquely at the front to extend to the neck.

A question under discussion at the last meeting of the Brant Chapter, I.O.D.E., is evidently being gone into in Hamilton, as Saturday's issue of the "Spectator" published the following under the heading of "An Interesting Point." The question has been raised as to whether the Hamilton I.O.D.E. should send six delegates to the National convention when they are supposed to be raising money for charitable work. But it is not a local organization, and is governed by the laws of the National I.O.D.E. This year a new constitution goes into effect. The annual meeting which will be held in Winnipeg in May, will pass the laws to govern all Canada. To have the balance of power entirely in the hands of the Western women might, it is said, interfere seriously with the good work done by Hamilton I.O.D.E. Much of their interest is centered in helping the Mountain sanitarium. The fight against tuberculosis is not of such vital importance to the women of Manitoba and farther west, and they would be quite likely to ignore its significance. In Ontario, Mrs. P. D. Creer had a hard struggle to secure permission for the Hamilton I.O.D.E. to work for the San. At that time Hamilton was the only city that was taking up the fight against tuberculosis, and it was only her hard work and influence that carried the National meeting and secured work. It is an absolute necessity that Hamilton and Ontario should be well represented. Western women are more aggressive than those in Ontario, and this is the case where numbers will be power, and Ontario must be well represented to hold her balance of power. It is not a case of spending money for junketing trips, say the local officials; it is a case of taking precautions to secure the power to use Hamilton's I.O.D.E. funds for the benefit of the city, and not for outside purposes.

One spot in Japan shunned by all is the "Pool of Tears," a little pond on the execution ground of an old prison at Tokyo. It never dries, and even the hottest weather seems to have little effect upon it.

Another new one to the Walker string is Memis br. (3) Ogdens-Maimosa, a highly bred filly. She won at the Laurel last meeting in charge of Trainer Carrick after which she became the property of the Toronto horseman.

Don't say that a man isn't running chances when he ventures into the organized baseball business, but it that it ought to be a good chance in Brantford this year.

There are plenty of stayers, or horses now in training that would run as such if trained to do so, but the opportunity for development in this particular line does not exist to the same degree as it did in the past.

An Appreciation on Dragoons Fine Band

The 25th Dragoon Band (30 strong) and Lieut. Pearce, Mus. Doc., their talented conductor are to be congratulated on the success of their first concert held in Victoria Hall Friday night. "As a musical entertainment it has not been excelled by anything given in Brantford in recent years by either amateur or professional bands," was the judgment of a competent and discriminating critic.

The chief work presented by the band was the B minor (unfinished) symphony of Schubert (arranged for military band by Lieut. Pearce) which is a very difficult and exacting composition. The band played with a really splendid manner in which it was rendered was a pleasant surprise to the audience who had not looked for such excellence from a local organization. Praise for the band and particular praise for their conductor was on every one's lips at the close of the concert.

The composition was written by Schubert in 1828, the year of his death and presents many characteristic beauties that it is a matter for regret that he did not live to complete the work for he had only finished the first two movements. The band acquitted themselves in their part without any signs of faltering, indecision or weakness, the attack and phrasing was all that could be desired and Dr. Pearce has every reason to be proud of his bandmen. Lance-Sergeant Miskelly, the cornet soloist has few equals in Ontario, his beautiful silvery tone was heard to advantage, especially in "La Reve d'Amour," which was rapturously applauded, which demanded an encore, when he gave "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from "Samson and Delilah." A word must be said also of his daughter, who played his piano accompaniments, for she handled the difficult accompaniments with the greatest ease.

Bandmen E. Duval, euphonium; C. Page, saxophone; A. Atkin, solo clarinet; A. Appleby, solo trombone and A. Alderman, saxhorn, acquitted themselves admirably in their respective solos, and encores were numerous.

Of the vocal soloists, Miss E. Gilmore came in for unstinted praise. Her voice was clear and true in every number, her smoothness of delivery and phrasing and the musical characteristics of her voice showed to great advantage.

Mr. J. C. Moreland's voice is a well-rounded bass of peculiarly rich and velvety quality and of great range. His work throughout was most refreshing in its sincerity. He was occasionally enjoyable in his rendition of "The Sound of the Drum." Miss McGraw the elocutionist rendered her two numbers in splendid style and well deserved the great applause she received. Lieut. Pearce played the accompaniments in a fine manner.

Dufferins Make Splendid Showing

Strength of Regiment Last Night For Second Parade of Season Was 387.

That Brantford is fast becoming a military city was evidenced by the magnificent turnout of the soldiers at the second parade of the spring drill held at the armories last night when the regiment mustered all told 387 men.

Considering that it was only the second parade this spring it was a remarkable showing for the Rifles. The young men of the city seemed to be inspired by the military spirit and recruits are applying regularly to be put on the strength of the regiment and the officers are confident that ere the spring drill closes they will have the strength of the regiment increased by a goodly number.

The recruit classes have done wonders to build up the efficiency of the regiment and with a little more hard, consistent plugging the 38th will be looked upon as one of the crack regiments of the Canadian militia and a credit to our fair city. As it is there are few city corps at the present time taking population into consideration which can make any better showing than the Dufferin Rifles.

At the Armories. From 8 until 9 o'clock the regiment participated in company drill with the exception of a company which assembled in the Men's Institute where they were given a very interesting and instructive lecture by Sergeant Coleman on "Outpost Work." Sergt. Coleman explained to the men the very great importance of this branch of the field service.

The March Out. Shortly after 9 o'clock the regiment marched out headed by their splendid ceremonial band under the leadership of Bandmaster Frank Johnson which played a number of catchy marches while on parade. The Bugle Band, under Sergt. James Mellor gave a good account of themselves last evening. The line of march was up Colborne street to George to Nelson to Market to Dalhousie to the armories. Arriving at the Armories Colonel Woodward congratulated the men on their good appearance and fine marching order. He was more than pleased with the parade and looked for 400 in line next Monday night.

Daughters of the Empire. Before dismissing the regiment the officer told the men that a Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire was to be organized in the city in connection with the regiment, and that mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of the men of the regiment were eligible to join the association. The organization meeting would be held next Monday evening in the Men's Institute.

The Colonel then dismissed the regiment.

The strength of the parade was 387 composed of—A company 77; B company 40; C company 29; D company 26; E company 34; F company 27; G company 19; H company 31; staff officers 4; signallers 20; stretcher bearers 8; bugle band 35; brass band 30; staff officers 3; recruits 21. Total 387.

EAGLE PLACE DEPUTATION

Road's Frightful and Council Was Asked to Fix Things up.

Messrs Julius Waterous, C. H. Waterous, Dr. Robinson appeared before the city council last night objecting to the condition of Eagle Place roads in general, Eagle and Erie avenues in particular.

Ald. Ward straightway asked Mr. Julius Waterous to name his roads, and Mr. Waterous did. There was entirely too much water and mud. A scraper for half a day, however, didn't make a road, there had to be something put on top.

Ald. Ward—Do you mean to say no money has been spent on the road?

Mr. Waterous—"Of course you've spent money, but without any common sense."

Mr. C. H. Waterous made an appeal for improvements, and asked for something to be put on top of the road. Eagle avenue could be made into a good street. It had been broken up by sewer trenches. He did not think much money was needed, and was sure that merely calling attention to the matter would suffice. Mr. Waterous also urged that a break-water be constructed at the foot of Strathcona avenue, as it would save the city a lot of money in time.

Ald. Suddaby was very nice about it. He was sorry, and assured the deputation that something would be done about the matter right away. He was quite cognizant about affairs. It was the same all over the city, and it was to be regretted.

Ald. Ward pointed out that $1,500 had been spent on Eagle avenue, Greenwich street had had a big outlay, a new bridge across the canal had been erected. In brief Eagle Place had had a big expenditure on streets. It was low land, and needed lots of attention; but so did other places in the city. He believed that Eagle Place had received more expenditure on streets than any other section in the city. The only solution was paved streets. Personally, he had done his best for Eagle Place. Last year, Ward Five got 40 per cent of the board of works' appropriation.

Ald. Ryerson agreed that Eagle Place roads were the worst in the city. Strathcona avenue was a fright, as he knew in his own business. If the money had been spent as reported, it had been poorly spent. The road roller was not doing work as it should be. It should be kept going at nights as well as days, instead of laying off for weeks.

Ald. Scence said money on the streets in Eagle Place had been spent on the sub-dividers of lots. Money on Strathcona avenue had been dugged in a hole who got the benefit, the city or the sub-divider artist who worked the city by handing over these streets. He argued for a policy whereby sub-dividers put the streets in proper shape before the same were shovelled over on the city.

Ald. Suddaby said Strathcona Ave. represented a hole of 12 feet which had to be filled in.

This ended the discussion and the deputation withdrew.

Dame Mayer Tells How She Found a Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills

Suffered for Three Years from Rheumatism, Headache, Palpitation and Bright's Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her Kidneys and Made Her Well.

HUBERDEAU, Argenteuil, Co. Que., March 31.—"I am always glad to tell of my cure because I sympathize with others who may be suffering as I did." So says Dame Joseph Mayer, well known and highly respected here.

"For three years I was a very sick woman. Rheumatism, headache, palpitation of the heart and Bright's Disease were my succession of troubles, but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them all. I used twenty-four boxes to complete my cure, but they certainly made me well."

"I will never be without Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house." Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Dame Mayer's illness because they are all caused by diseased kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys and will cure kidneys straining the seeds of disease out of the blood, the rheumatism, Bright's disease, headache and palpitation of the heart are bound to disappear.

You never heard of a case of kidney disease that Dodd's Kidney Pills would not cure.

OVER HALF OF ALL SICKNESS CAUSED BY CLOGGED UP WEAKENED KIDNEYS

Hundreds are Suffering With Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It—Backache, Bladder Disorder and Rheumatism are the Result

It is a well recognized fact among physicians to-day, that the greater part of all sickness can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

This is even more important than for the bowels to move regularly, because the kidneys and bladder, are the filters and sewers of the body. If you suffer with pain in the back or sides, bladder or urinary disorders, limpness, rheumatism, dizzy, puffy swelling under the eyes or in the feet, and ankles, nervousness, tired and worn out feeling or any of the many other symptoms of kidney trouble, don't neglect yourself another day and run the risk of serious complications. Secure an original package of Croxone from any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them filter out all the poisonous waste matter and uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly effects a cure.

It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for the purpose. You will find it entirely different from any thing you have ever used. There is nothing else on earth to compare with it. It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, the very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

Lady Marjorie's Love

"You've been asking after my concerns, George," he said. "It seems to me, old fellow, that I should have done as well to ask after yours. You're out of sorts, out of spirits. What's wrong?"
"Nothing with me, but I am feeling a little worried. I confess," he hesitated and put down his cigar. "The fact is, there's something that I ought to tell you, and just then I was wondering how I could best bring it out. I should have told the governor, but for getting your wife. Then I thought I'd put it off until I had seen you."
"Oh? What is it?" Barrington asked curiously.
"I thought you might guess. I have seen Miss North."
"You have?" Barrington sprang up eagerly.
"I have. Last night."
"Where?"
"Close by Charing Cross—in an omnibus going west."
"She saw you? You spoke to her?"
"She certainly saw me, for her face changed; but for that I might not have been sure that it was really she."
"Good heavens, George!" Barrington walked up and down in agitation. "You let her go like that? You should have followed her!"
"My dear fellow, I did! I jumped into the first cab I saw and followed the bus. I didn't lose an unnecessary minute. I can safely say, but the delay had been long enough. When I passed it was gone. The sight of me had alarmed her, I suppose."
"She would guess that you would follow her course. And there was no trace?"
"I'm sure, but that may have been the sudden shock of seeing me, but handsomer than ever."
"Ah, poor girl, poor girl!" Barrington muttered bitterly and half aloud. He was pale, excited, angry; his aspect was as utterly different from his usual air of pleasant brightness and gaiety as it will be possible to find. "Did she look—poor?" He forced out the words slowly and with great reluctance.
"That I could not see. But I did not get that impression."
Barrington dropped into his seat again and sat gloomily twisting and biting the end of his moustache, lost in thought. His friend sat waiting for him to speak.
"You have not told the governor, you say?"
"No. The fact is, I blamed myself for not having somehow contrived to keep her in sight, although I know that I did all I could. When I got your wife, I thought I would wait and talk it over with you first. You think he must know?"
"Of course he must know. He'd forgive neither of us if we kept it from him. I know that. It will be something to him to know, for certain that she is alive. I fancy he has doubted that sometimes. For that matter so have I."
"I can't say I was ever disposed to take as dark a view as that," George hesitated. "In a way I suppose it must be called a sort of satisfaction to know that she is in London," he said suggestively.

"I suppose in a way, I have thought she must be abroad. She must have been or surely all our efforts must have discovered her."
"I doubt that. Given a clever woman who wants to hide herself, there is no better place for doing it than London, you may rely. And the probabilities are, I take it, that she will continue to do it as long as she wishes to do it."
"I had spoken in a low voice, as if the subject were full of pain. Barrington glanced at him keenly.
"Give me your plain opinion, George, since we're on the wretched topic—you never have done so. You think the worst, I suppose—that she has reasons to wish it poor girl?"
"I fear so—I fear she must have."
Barrington nodded moodily, drawing a heavy breath, and dropped back into his former attitude, frowning as he thought. He rose with a look of decision.
"I shall run up with you to-morrow, George."
"You will?"
"Yes. The governor must be told, and I had best be the one to do it. Besides he is sure to want to set all the search going again, and he'll take things a little easier if I'm with him. I don't suppose it will keep me more than a day or so. Yes, I shall run up with you."
The next morning was a glorious one. Lady Marjorie, looking into her glass after she was dressed, decided to go downstairs, but to keep out of the vicinity of the oak-parlour. Not that she at all feared the prospect of meeting Barrington; she was confident of her power to do so with all possible coolness and self-possession, being indeed a little angry with herself for having been weak enough to avoid him yesterday, but still it would be as well to keep out of his way. It would probably be easier than she usually found it, for he would be occupied with Mr. George. She now knew the name of the suburban man with the stick, the voluble officer having given her the information while brushing her hair.

She did keep out of his way most successfully all the morning, spending most of it out of doors with Jack. At luncheon, rather to her surprise, she found the Countess gracious and talkative. Mr. George had been duly presented to her, it appeared, and it had pleased her ladyship to be charmed with him. The opportunity to be indifferent upon a subject that was too good to be lost, and Marjorie made the most of it; she disdained to take the faintest interest in Mr. George or to ask the slightest question about him, exhibiting a hauteur which would have done credit to the Countess herself. But she felt inwardly that she had a good deal of curiosity—so much so that she glanced more than once in the direction of the oak parlour as she crossed the hall when the meal was over. They were shut up together there, she supposed, and probably finding it a good deal less dull in each other's company than the solitary afternoon that was in prospect for her.

A SEMI-INVALID who lived in a large apartment house had his sleep broken almost every night by loud noises in the apartment overhead. Again and again he would be awakened at one or two o'clock by some one tramping heavily about in the room over him, and would not be able to get to sleep again that night. His wife, fearing serious injury to his health, wrote a courteous note to their overhead neighbors, explaining the state of affairs, and asking them if they would mind being a bit quieter at that time of night in the room directly over his.

Whereupon they promptly sent back word that they paid a high rent for their apartment, and felt that they had a perfect right to make all the noise they chose.
Of course that incident sets your teeth on edge, just as it did mine, and yet isn't the spirit involved in that declaration of right a rather common one?
Don't we all sometimes do things that we have a "perfect right" to do in one way, and no right in another?

For instance, a young girl who lived in a boarding-house and had running water in her room, used to do some of her washing in the bowl. "It's quite easy," she said, "because before I wash I turn on the water and let it run through the things for half an hour or so." "Doesn't that use up a lot of water?" she was asked. "Oh, I suppose so," she answered, "but you know I don't have to pay for it, and there's nothing in the terms to prevent my using all the water I want." Now I know this girl would have been shocked at the rude answer of the noisy tenant, and yet wasn't she showing the same spirit?

Of course one has a "perfect right" to go into a shop or a restaurant just about five minutes before closing time, when the waitresses are longing for an opportunity to put away the stock, and the waitresses are hoping that trade will slacken up. But isn't it a pretty mean thing to make a habit of doing? That is, unless some necessity compels one to shop or eat at that particular hour.

Of course a lady of leisure who has been shopping or amusing herself in town during the afternoon, and could have gone home at any time she pleased, has a "perfect right" to go home during the rush hour and keep a seat from some poor girl who has stood behind the counter all day long. But the really kind and thoughtful woman does not see that right.

There are many other things to which one has a "perfect right," without having a moral right. I leave each reader to find out those that concern her for herself.

THREE YEARS FOR MILITANT

Mrs. Pankhurst Receives Severe Sentence To-day

She Made Bitter Statement to the Court.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
LONDON, April 3.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the leader of the militant suffragettes, was today guilty and sentenced to three years' penal servitude at the Old Sessions on the charge of persons to commit damage.

The trial had lasted two days when the judge, Sir Charles Lush, pronounced sentence. The speech was received with loud "shame" from the militant suffragettes, who crowded the court thus expressed their horror at the term of imprisonment imposed on her.

The jury when it returned a verdict of guilty added a strong recommendation for mercy and the judge pronounced the heavy sentence of three years the women rose in a protest. Mrs. Pankhurst in the prisoners' enclosure had pathetically cheered and sung, "On, march on," to the tune "Les." "Case Close To-day."

The case of the British Government this morning against Mrs. Pankhurst, the militant suffragette, on the charge of having seduced certain persons, who are unknown, to place feloniously certain gunpowder and other explosive substances in a tent thereby to damage, David George's country house at Heath, Mrs. Pankhurst had pleaded "not guilty."

The only interesting development in the evidence to-day was in the revelations made by the who had fruitlessly tried to order to ascertain her real name. She was imprisoned under the name of Margaret James and sentenced to six months in jail on February 11, 1912, on a charge of seducing a man.

"Would Not Testify." Mrs. Pankhurst to-day informed the court that she did not wish to call witnesses. Her only witness was a man who was so far from the matter in court, that the judge severed her.

Mrs. Pankhurst denied any incitement. She said that she nor the other militant suffragettes were wicked or malicious. She complained that the women tried by their peers and men were suffering in order to obtain their rights.

"Showed Much Feeling." Personally, she continued, she had to surrender a large portion of her income in order to be free. Pankhurst fiercely criticized the laws and said that the law alone was sufficient to revolution by the women.

In impassioned tones she said that whatever might be her she would not submit. From the moment when she left the would refuse to eat and was a "hunger strike." She said come out of prison at the earliest possible moment. "I want to live until the done. I will take the deepest agony other women have taken will keep it up as long as an ounce of strength left in me." (Continued on Page 15)
