TEACHERS MEET AT KENTVILLE

Large Number Present and Some Interesting Topics Discussed

The Teachers Institute of Kings Co., met at Kings County Academy, Kentville, last Friday, under the direction of A. DeWolfe, Director of Rural Science and Inspector Davidson. Mr. Davidson called the meeting to order with an attendance of 75 teachers. After a few remarks Mr. DeWolfe outlined topics that were of interest to all the teachers as follows: "Where To Get Help," "Cornish Geography," "Arithmetic," "Boy Scouts," "Health" and "Question Box."

Mr. O'Brien gave a short address on work in connection with Boy Scouts. Mr. Dunlop spoke on debates and the benefits derived from them when considering topics connected with school work. Questions were asked and answered about writing and the best methods, and the Palmer Method was favored. Principal Trask, of the County Academy, told of the prizes offered by James Sealy, M. P. P., for the best oration on any subject, by any high school boy in the County of Kings on or about December 14. First prize a gold medal, 2nd, prize a silver medal. The afternoon session began at 1:30 with a full attendance. Mr. DeWolfe in his usual pleasant way solved many varied problems connected with school work.

Miss Millicent Chase of Kentville, presented a petition for the re-establishment of a County health nurse. The assembled teachers showed their hearty approval of this step by passing the resolution and signing the petition to be presented to the County Council at its next session. Principal Trask gave a short address on the advisability of supporting the teachers union, and spoke of practical results from the formation of such union.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE ROYAL HOTEL

Mr. Truman S. Sanford, the proprietor of the Royal Hotel of this town, is displaying commendable enterprise by making additional improvements to his well conducted and popular hostelry. Under Mr. Sanford's supervision the Royal has undergone many changes which have received favorable comment from the travelling public. For some time back he had under consideration plans for extensive remodeling and increased accommodation, which he has not so far been able to proceed with on account of difficulties imposed in consequence of the building-up laws of the town. Just now he has in progress a work which will add very materially to the efficiency of his house and provide the better for the comfort of his numerous patrons. The most important feature of an up-to-date hotel is its kitchen accommodation, and to this Mr. Sanford is now devoting his attention. An addition has been made and is now being fitted up with all modern conveniences which will make this department equal to that of any establishment of the kind on the line of the D. A. R.

Ample sample rooms are also being installed in the basement which will be appreciated by the commercial man, with whom the Royal is justly popular. In the spring Mr. Sanford contemplates increasing his dining room accommodation by extending the width throughout the entire length. The extension will be enclosed in glass and give a very pleasing effect. It is also his intention to install hot and cold running water in a number of the rooms. Mr. Sanford's enterprise is most commendable and deserves the fullest recognition of our citizens.

COST OF ADVERTISING OFFSET BY DEMAND

The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World have stated that during 1922 a billion dollars was expended for advertising in the United States and Canada. This expenditure has brought forth comment. There are some who contend that advertising is an economic waste and that if the manufacturer did not have to spend gigantic sums to sell in competition with one another, the ultimate consumer would be able to purchase commodities at a much lower figure. Advertising is but a mode of education in which the knowledge of consumable goods is increased and effective demand created. Without advertising, large-scale manufacturing would be impossible and the economy of volume production would be lost. The production cost of a commodity depends directly upon the volume in which it is manufactured, and through advertising manufacturers increase their market to an extent where the ultimate consumer price is greatly reduced.

VISITED SANITORIUM

Hon. Dr. Beland, Minister of Soldiers' Civil Reestablishment, and head of the Department of Health of the Federal Government, who is making an official tour of the Maritime Provinces in the interests of his department. Yesterday he visited the Nova Scotia Sanatorium at Kentville, in company with Premier Armstrong.

GREENWICH

A good many of our residents have been enjoying the plays, movies and good music at the new Orpheum in Wolfville. An especially large number attended on the opening night. The Eckhardt bell-ringers last Wednesday evening were much enjoyed by a good number from here too.

Mr. Charlie Fenwick, who has spent about fifteen months in the Canadian West, arrived home last Tuesday afternoon to spend the winter. He was accompanied by a young man friend, Mr. Wilson, whose home is in England, and who has only been in Canada the last six months. We understand he is favorably impressed with our part of the world.

A party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Forsythe on Tuesday evening last, was enjoyed by a good number of their friends from "The Ridge" and a few from this street.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Shaw and family moved last week from Kentville into the so called Morse house. Mr. Shaw is a tailor in Kentville, going up each day. Miss Edna Collins left last Wednesday morning to spend a week in Kentville.

A most pleasant and enjoyable evening was spent last Thursday by a large number of young people, who gathered in "a bunch" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burpee Bishop. It was a surprise party for Robert and proved a genuine surprise. Refreshments were served during the evening and a "fine good time" was the general verdict.

Mr. Robert Bishop left on Friday morning for Lynn, Mass., to join his brother Maurice. Robert hopes to find work in Massachusetts for the winter. Success to him, but he will be much missed in our Community League, etc. this winter, as also will Maurice. Both boys were active members. Robert's violin music was always enjoyed at any time, or place.

Major Eville and family moved from here to Wolfville last week, where they will reside during the winter season. Miss Freda Ritcey, our school teacher, went to Kingston on "the Owl" train on Friday evening, where she was a guest of friends until Monday morning, when she returned to her duties.

A large audience attended the G. C. L. last Friday evening and thoroughly enjoyed the President's lecture on "A Trip thru Newfoundland", and with the reading of current events and business matters a profitable evening was spent. The League now have a nice piano to enjoy. This week—Friday evening—is Social night, where all can expect a pleasant evening and all welcome.

A severe electrical storm was experienced here during Saturday night. An unusually large number gathered to enjoy the "Sing" held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bishop last Sunday evening. Two committee meetings for the G. C. L. on Monday evening, one held at the home of Mrs. Lee Bishop, being the Dramatic committee, and Social committee at home of Mrs. B. L. Cox. At the recent examinations of the Business class, at Acadia Business school, we are pleased to learn of the good success of two of our girls, Annie Pearson leading the class and Christine Harvey a very close second. We are pleased to hear this of these two students also of two more of our girls being successful in leading the eighth grade class at Wolfville school. Congratulations to all four. Mrs. Edwin Crowell, who has been

HOCKEY OUTLOOK BRIGHT

Most Enthusiastic Meeting Held on Tuesday Evening—Hockey Association Formed

Never has more enthusiasm been shown over the hockey situation in Wolfville than was shown on Tuesday evening when a large number of followers of that sport met at the Town Hall to organize for the coming season. The chair was taken by J. W. Williams and G. C. Nowlan was appointed secretary pro tem. It was decided to form a Wolfville Hockey Association and the following officers were appointed: President—Herman Baird; Secy.—J. W. Williams.

It was decided that a membership fee of $1.00 be charged and the following committee was appointed to secure members.—Geo. Waterbury, G. C. Nowlan, Cecil Hansford.

The management of the team this winter will be in the hands of a committee composed of G. C. Nowlan, J. D. Harris and Arthur Parker.

The delegates appointed to the meeting of the Valley Hockey League, when called, are Herman Baird and Carl Angus. Wolfville has some splendid material for a hockey team this winter and it is hoped that the town will hold its usual place in the province so far as this popular winter sport is concerned.

WANT ACTION ON OLD HOME SUMMER

J. F. Masters Says Canadian Club Is Ready to Assist in Every Way Possible

(From The Morning Chronicle). "We want some action by whatever source is responsible for the Old Home Summer in Nova Scotia for 1924, as we are organized and prepared to assist in every way possible to make it a very great success," said John F. Masters, Secretary of the Canadian Club of Boston, on his arrival in Halifax yesterday.

"So important has this wonderful movement for the development of Nova Scotia become to our people abroad, that I understand that the proposed increased steamship service between Boston and Yarmouth and the restoration of the Bluebonnet train on the D. A. R. is now contingent upon the Old Home Summer being properly organized and put over," said Mr. Masters.

"We want to help you," continued Mr. Masters, "and I have been sent specially to find out what is to be done by the Government of the Province and who is to take leadership in this matter. The time is short, and organization for a project so widespread and promising such invaluable results must be undertaken immediately. The Canadian Club of Boston organized an Old Home Summer Committee some time ago for the purpose of co-operating with Nova Scotia in this matter, and I, as secretary, have been specially delegated to interview Premier Armstrong, New York and other important centres where Nova Scotians are living in any number are all pressing for some action. Our people all over the United States are planning now to come, only awaiting some official proclamation of the dates for the celebration, the transportation arrangements and what accommodation is available. I am to report the result of my visit to Nova Scotia on Saturday, immediately after my return to Boston."

PROPOSE COURTESY FOR BOY SCOUTS

The General Assembly of the League of Nations has passed a resolution urging all governments to give special travelling facilities to parties of Scouts when visiting each other's countries. This resolution was proposed by the delegate from Chile. Chile being the first country after Great Britain to adopt the Scout movement.

One pastor believes in furnishing a light luncheon for the inner man to be eaten while he is furnishing a feast of reason for the brain.

The guest of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Crowell, for several weeks, has returned to her home in Yarmouth, taking her little granddaughter Faith, with her, to remain for a time.

A pie social was held in the hall for the benefit of the Methodist church, on Tuesday evening, which proved very successful. Mr. Enoch Bishop, in his humorous way sold the pies and all brought good prices. Ice-cream and home made candy were sold too and that booth was well patronized. A bit of piano and vocal music by Jessie Bishop and Annie Pearson was a part of the evening's pleasure. Proceeds amounted to between sixty five and seventy dollars which was very good, so near to the Bean supper held here.

ENJOYABLE RECITAL

Given by Faculty of Acadia Conservatory of Music

The recital given by the faculty of Acadia Conservatory of Music in the Baptist church last Friday evening was largely attended. Every number of the varied and difficult program was exceptionally well rendered and heartily enjoyed by the audience. Those who took part were Miss Nathalie Gifford, soprano; Miss Rachel Johnston, pianist; Miss Ruth White, violinist; Miss Pearl Griffith, reader; Mr. Carl Forsworth, accompanist. The program was as follows: Saint-Saens, Rondo Capriccioso; Saint-Saens, Miss White, Ab. fors' e hul (La Traviata); Verdi, Miss Gifford, Will-O'-The-Wisp; Doris Holman, Characters: The Country Woman, The Poet's Wife, The White-Faced Girl, The Maid.

Scene: Interior of a farm house at the end of things. Miss Griffith, Italian Concerto; Bach, Minuet; Hochstein, Viennese Melody; Gaertner-Kreiser, Miss White, Poems: The Vision Splendid; Bernard Freeman Trotter, Roofs; Joyce Kilmer, The House With Nobody In It; Joyce Kilmer, Miss Griffith, Shule, Shule, Shule Agra; Lemont, Robin, robin, sing me a song; Spross, Miss Gifford.

THE BOY SCOUTS

At the regular meeting this evening the Rev. Douglas Hemmion will have a talk with the boys on "Safety First" with a gun. To-morrow afternoon all Scouts will meet at the Scoutmaster's at 2 o'clock for rifle practice and trials for the Marksmen badge.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN ANNAPOLIS CITIZEN

ANNAPOLIS ROYAL, Nov. 27.—The death of a well-known citizen, William E. Edwards, took place here last evening at his home on St. James Street, after a short illness. The deceased was a son of the late John and Sarah Edwards and was born in Hants County, sixty years ago. The family moved here when he was quite young and about thirty years ago, he married Miss Sarah Jones, who, with a daughter, Miss Edna, survive him. A little daughter, who died twenty-eight years ago, and a son, Sammy, was accidentally killed in New York, some years later. Mr. Edwards, who was the oldest of a family of eleven, is also survived by four sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Samuel Rippey and Mrs. F. W. Pickles, of Annapolis Royal; Mrs. J. W. Williams, of Wolfville, and Mrs. Clifford Herbert, of Kentville. A J. H. Edwards, High Sheriff of Annapolis County is one brother, and the other, Ralph, of New York, visited his relatives here this summer.

For eighteen years, Mr. Edwards was locomotive engineer on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railway, but returned to Annapolis in July, 1905, and purchased the livery business of Norman Moore. Later he opened the well known Farmers' Hotel, which he successfully ran until 1922 when he sold out to James Wallace and his since lived in one of the cottages he built on the rear of the hotel property. Probably few men were better known to the travelling public in this part of the Province than "Bill" Edwards, as he was familiarly called and many will hear of his passing with deep regret. The sympathy of the community is extended to his relatives.

AVONPORT

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Porter of Windsor, spent Sunday with Mr. Porter's parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holmes, of Windsor, were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes.

Mrs. Russell McDonald, who has been seriously ill, is recovering.

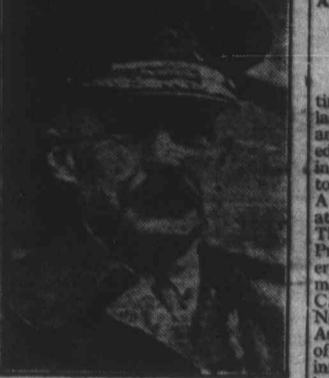

Mrs. Charles Porter with Mrs. Rufus, of Wolfville, spent Sunday here. Mrs. Rudolph and two children have been spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Frederick Rice.

A party of friends called on Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hills on Tuesday evening of last week to celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. The evening was pleasantly spent with music, including violin, piano and vocal, games and social intercourse. Mr. and Mrs. Hills were the recipients of a number of useful gifts.

Many English brides now take their honeymoon trips by airplane.

AN INTERESTING ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

The Orpheum Theatre was packed to capacity on Sunday evening when Miss Boswell, of Ottawa, Inspector of the Victorian Order of Nurses, gave an illustrated lecture on the activities of that worthy and valued institution. Mayor Phinney presided and the Scout Band was present and rendered a number of selections which were greatly enjoyed.

The lantern slides and motion pictures illustrated the different phases of the work which is being carried on by the V. O. N. and were interestingly described and explained by the lecturer. At some points the condition of the firm was such as to make the pictures slightly indistinct, but on the whole the audience was well pleased.

At the close Mr. B. O. Davidson, on behalf of the local executive, thanked Miss Boswell for her services. Mr. Evans for the use of the theatre and its equipment and the band for their very efficient assistance. Short addresses appreciative of the splendid services rendered the community by Miss Harry were given by Rev. R. F. Dixon and Rev. Dr. Hemmion, and the meeting closed with the National Anthem led by the Band.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HALIBURTON

The remains of the late Mrs. Haliburton, whose sudden death in New Mexico was reported in THE ACADIAN last week, arrived in Wolfville on Tuesday morning and the funeral took place on Wednesday morning. The service was held at St. John's church and was conducted by the Rector, Rev. R. F. Dixon. Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D., assisted in the exercises and delivered the address in which he paid a fine tribute to the departed, especially emphasizing her gentleness and kindness of character. Interment was made in St. John's Cemetery by the side of the late Capt. Louis Haliburton, who predeceased his wife about eight years ago.

CANADIAN APPLE IS WORTH OVER TWENTY MILLIONS

This year the apple crop of Canada will amount to approximately 10,800,000 boxes or about 15,500 carloads, according to figures that have recently been issued by the fruit department of the Dominion government.

In the current issue of the Monetary Times the government figures are given as follows: Nova Scotia crop, 1,500,000 boxes; British Columbia, 3,142,000 boxes; Ontario, 650,000 barrels; Quebec, 33,000 barrels; and New Brunswick, 10,000 barrels.

There are approximately three and a half boxes of apples in the barrel, so that the total in boxes would run as follows: Nova Scotia, 5,250,000 boxes; British Columbia, 3,142,000 boxes; Ontario, 2,275,000; Quebec, 110,000; and New Brunswick, 35,500, making the total approximately 10,800,000 boxes. There are 720 boxes to a car. On that basis the railway companies would be interested in the haulage of about 15,500.

Estimating the average price of a box of apples from coast to coast at about $2, the value of the Canadian apple crop this year may be calculated at a little over $21,000,000.

MARITIME TOURIST COMMITTEE MET IN MONCTON

An Effort is Being Made to Bring About Co-ordination and Co-operation in Tourist Work for the Maritimes

At the annual meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade held in Halifax last September a resolution was passed and a committee of three appointed to confer with a view to co-ordinating, co-operating or amalgamating the tourist effort of the Maritime Provinces. A meeting of this committee was held at the Brunswick Hotel Moncton, last Thursday evening. Those present were Premier Armstrong of Halifax; Premier Stewart of Charlottetown; J. O. Hyndman and P. W. Clarkin, Charlottetown; C. B. Allan, secretary treasurer of the New Brunswick Tourist and Resources Association, and C. C. Avard, President of the New Brunswick Association. An informal discussion took place, the feeling being that the three Tourist Associations (Prince Edward Island is about to organize one) should keep in touch with each other with a view of making the most of the tourist effort for the Maritimes. It is probable that the three tourist associations may work together in advertising, in distributing literature and in other ways. After the policies for the year 1924 have been decided upon by each association, representatives of the three organizations will likely get together in order to see what can be done in the way of co-operation and co-ordination. It is expected that the Maritime drive for tourists for 1924 will exceed all previous efforts.—Sackville Tribune.

DEATH OF DISTINGUISHED WOMAN

Nova Scotians in every part of the Province will hear with regret of the death of "The Bluffs" Clements, on Monday morning of Mrs. Irene Elder Morton, wife of Albert Morton, aged 85. Mrs. Morton was a poetess of some reputation, only recently having published a book entitled "Idylls of the Day". In recognition of her fine poetic conception and her loyal devotion to things Nova Scotian, Acadia University conferred upon her last year the honorary degree of M. A. Mrs. Morton has been ill for some time, suffering from jaundice, but her death even at her advanced age will be none the less regretted by people who knew her. Province-wide she had a very attractive disposition, and was a very close and appreciative student of the history of her native Province of Canada. There survive Mrs. Morton's son and husband, one son, Charles F. Morton, and two daughters, Miss Alberta Morton, at home, and Mrs. A. F. Burns, of Kentville, wife of W. Burns.

The funeral was held on Wednesday, there being a short service at the home at ten a. m. and the burial was from the Baptist church at Middleton. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Manning of Wolfville.

WANT 'EVANGELINE' BARRED FROM SCHOOL BOOKS

TORONTO, Nov. 27.—The days of Longfellow's "Evangeline" as a selection in the school books of Ontario and probably of other Canadian Provinces appear to be numbered.

An agitation has been started by the Rev. Dr. Cody, chairman of the Board of Governors of Toronto University, to remove the poem from all Canadian school books, in many of which it has hitherto held an honored place, on the ground that it creates anti-British feeling.

Objections to "Evangeline" rest on three counts: First, that the Acadians were notoriously disloyal, neglected warning after warning, and abused the indulgence of the British authorities; second, that the poem exaggerates the cruelty and severity of the deportation; third, that the expulsion would not have been decided upon except for the insistence of New Englanders and that it was John Winslow of Boston who actually directed the deportation.

While many Canadian educators condemn "Evangeline" they hold Longfellow blameless. The American poet got his inspiration for Evangeline and his facts about the expulsion of the Acadians from a history of Nova Scotia written by a Canadian and loyalist, Chief Justice T. C. Haliburton.

Horses Turn On the Taps:

Horses that live in sootless stables, that eat electrically cut and masticated rations, that turn on the taps when they want fresh water by pressing their noses against a spring—those are the monarchs that do much of the hauling around Moir's factories. The Horses are all jet black beauties, proud of their occupation. A fleet of White trucks-assists them.

Some consider that Indian Summer is the period you spend eating the peach, pineapple and cherry centred chocolates made by Moir's. Perhaps this isn't so, but certainly these chocolates contain a great deal of imprisoned sunshine.

Let's away to the nearest candy shop.

Editorial

Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live some kind of a sermon every day.

RAPPING THE RETAILER

One of the easiest things in the world to do is to criticize. It is the most popular form of amusement with some people, and we're forced to admit we've several citizens addicted to the habit. At present they're directing their criticism to the retail merchant.

Maybe the merchant doesn't deserve all the mean things said about him. Probably, in his case, as in most other cases of violent criticism, a better understanding of his position would soften the judgment of the party doing the criticizing. At any rate, the merchants we know personally are average good fellows—and they declare that they are being made the particular goats of this fault-finding.

But, even at that, we suggest that they be more frank with the public. If their profits are not great, as they say, they might try quoting a few more prices in their advertising, that the public could see, and compare them with those quoted by merchants in other towns. Nothing could silence the critic more quickly than to read each week a list of prices of commodities offered for sale by his home merchant. He has a fair idea of what they cost, so he could do his own figuring. He would then have no come-back. It simply would mean that the critic would have the ground cut from beneath him, and he would have no foundation upon which to base an argument.

Merchants in many towns have broken up criticism through newspaper advertising—through quoting prices right out where everybody could see them. We invite the home merchant to apply the same remedy.—Exchange.

IDEAL WEATHER CONDITIONS

The present season is proving a most delightful one and at the end of November we have experienced practically no cold weather. A year ago we were struggling with snowbanks and real winter weather, while now the lawns are green and garden flowers are reported in bloom. Thus the seasons change and the wise ones no more than establish the theory that our climate has undergone a complete change than capricious nature upsets their conclusions. The last few winters have been unusually severe in Nova Scotia, but let us hope that the present conditions are but the earnest of better things in the winter upon which we are entering.

CHURCH UNION

The measure of church-union which is about to be entered upon in Wolfville is indicative of a better spirit of moderation which characterizes the religious bodies of the present time. As time goes on the different denominations of the Christian church are gradually drawing nearer each other until today the point of cleavage has practically vanished. So far as this town is concerned the result of the union will be to change two struggling congregations into one of moderate strength which should be more useful to the community and a greater factor in the promotion of the ideal for which it exists.

IS THE YOUNG MAN SAFE?

"Is the young man safe in Digby?" was the subject of a recent sermon in the Methodist church of that place. The preacher was Rev. W. H. Watts, a former pastor of the Wolfville Methodist church, and the sermon was published in full in the columns of "The Courier". The subject is a most timely one in the light of present day conditions and the question, "Is the young man safe?" might be asked and answered with equal advantage in Wolfville and the other towns of our province.

While Nova Scotia apples have won an enviable reputation abroad, increased consumption at home would be substantial evidence of appreciation of one of the province's leading industries.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE

There is a stranger in town soliciting orders for counter check books, a kind of printing which we are prepared to supply at all times. We understand he has cut the price, as an inducement to secure orders. The Courier is prepared and will meet every cut made by this party no matter at what rate he offers our customers.—Digby Courier, Nov. 16.

This "stranger" or a similar price-cutter on counter-check books has been hawking his cheap wares around Truro, but he got his surprise here, as a local printer met his every "cut" and he soon ran to the woods.

This foreign printer "price-cutter" was losing money on every job he offered, but the object was to sell at a loss so as to drive the home printers out of business, if they attempted to meet the cut price, and then Mr. Foreign Printer would have the field to himself at his own increased prices.

But he got his eye-teeth "cut" in Truro; and local printers, who met his contemptible "cut" prices, are still in the ring, up and ready for any fight with this "Stranger" who has gone to other pastures that he hopes to find "greener" than those he roamed over in the "Hub".—Truro News.

The price cutter referred to—or some one else—was in Wolfville a few days ago but left rather suddenly. He represented the Truro News which is probably the chief offender in the matter complained of above.—THE ACADIAN has always regarded it as very bad business ethics to poach on territory which logically belongs to a brother printer. Apparently the Truro people, while possessing no such scruples, are not slow to squall when the shoe is on the other foot.

BLAMING LONGFELLOW

(From the Cleveland Plain Dealer.) The board of governors of Toronto University recommends that Longfellow's "Evangeline" be removed from all Canadian schoolbooks. That children may be happier, we recommend that the Psalm of Life be removed, also.

THE COUNTY VOTERS LISTS

A few years ago when the voters lists for Kings County were made up, they totaled only about six thousand names. The extension of the franchise has been added to these lists and when women were given the franchise the number of voters was doubled. The lists for 1922 gave a total of 13,322 voters, and the new lists for 1923 gives an increase of 964 or a total vote, male and female of 14,286.

The number of electors by wards are as follows, with increase or decrease for the year:

- 1.—Sheffield Mills, Canning, Kingsport, Scotts Bay, Delhaven (increase 197) 1552.
 - 2.—Canard and Port Williams (decrease 36) 727.
 - 3.—Centreville, Halls Harbor, Upper Dyke and Aldershot (increase 145) 1544.
 - 4.—Brooklyn Street, Woodville (increase 49) 665.
 - 5.—Somerset (increase 90) 580.
 - 6.—Town of Kentville (increase 42) 1620.
 - 7.—Canaan (increase 24) 644.
 - 8.—Gaspereau (increase 11) 507.
 - 9.—Grand Pre and Greenwich (decrease 9) 547.
 - 10.—Town of Wolfville (increase 153) 1107.
 - 11.—Avonport and Lockhartville (increase 16) 661.
 - 12.—Millville, Greenwood and Kings-ton (increase 53) 1117.
 - 13.—Dalhousie (decrease 10) 147.
 - 14.—Dempsey Corner and N. Kingston (increase 38) 1024.
 - 15.—Berwick and Cambridge (increase 97) 1416.
 - 16.—Canady/Creek and Harborville (increase 25) 420.
- The heaviest increase is in Ward 1 of nearly two hundred voters. There a new polling division has been made at Delhaven with only 123 voters, the smallest number of any polling district in the county. Scotts Bay has another small polling district with 184 voters, a loss of four over the previous year.
- The next largest increase is in the town of Wolfville of 153 voters with Ward 3 following closely with 145 increase. Somerset and Berwick each nearly touch the hundred mark, but the latter is effected some by the Dalhousie with only 147 voters left.
- The only ward decreases are in Wards 2 and 11 and a falling off of 9 in the part of Ward 8 outside of Town of Wolfville.
- Three new polling districts were established in the past year, Delhaven, already mentioned, and two in Ward 3 at Halls Harbor and Aldershot.
- A loss of many electors at Ward 3, elects two Councilors or double the representation of the other ward. Ward 13, which has sufficient voters to qualify for more than one councillor will now be cut in half by the removal from the County Municipality of the new town of Berwick.

Several new polling divisions should be established before another election takes place. District 15 should be divided into Grand Pre and Greenwich by the road leading from the Methodist Church, Wolfville to Gaspereau, and the Canard district covers too large an area from Greenwich and White Rock on the East, West to Coldbrook and extending south to the Lunenburg boundary.—Western Chronicle.

U. N. B. TEAM MADE PERMANENT HOLDER OF CLARK TROPHY

FREDERICTON, Nov. 23.—The Clark trophy, emblematic of the championship of the western section of the Maritime intercollegiate rugby football league, was formally presented to Fred J. Reid, president of the University of New Brunswick Amateur Athletic Association to have and to hold for all time by virtue of U. N. B.'s three consecutive wins during the seasons of 1921-22-23, by J. Blaine Pugh, the local trustee, at the annual football banquet last night. The presentation was accompanied by messages from Dr. Bigelow, of Mount Allison University, and Dr. H. T. DeWolfe, of Acadia University, the other two trustees of the cup who concurred.

The presentation was followed by the announcement that three graduates of the University of New Brunswick had combined in the offer of another cup to replace the Clark trophy in competition between U. N. B., Mount Allison and Acadia universities. This announcement was made by Mr. Pugh, following the handing over of the Clark trophy did not reveal the names of the graduates making this offer, their names being withheld for the present until the offer has been submitted to Mount Allison and Acadia for consideration.

TO SCHOOL BY AUTOMOBILE

Holcomb, in Kansas, has adopted a novel plan for securing the attendance of children at school.

The town, barely more than a hamlet, has what is said to be the largest and finest consolidated grade and high school in all Kansas. It serves a school district area of 125 square miles, with an enrollment this year of 500 pupils.

Holcomb is just now claiming the attention of Western educators because of its eminently efficient school system. A concrete road recently constructed has been an important factor.

Of the 500 pupils enrolled, 380 are taken to and from school by bus. Eleven of these are in use daily, and a twelfth is held in reserve. The buses travel about 300 miles a day, making an average of a little over twenty-seven miles a day for each one, or less than fourteen miles for the afternoon trips.

Thus the children are carried quickly, comfortably and safely. Two of the buses are driven by older high school boys and the other nine are driven by the women teachers. In this way, the expense for drivers is held to about $20 per month.

Last year, only thirteen days were lost during the entire school year because of road conditions. This year, with improved highways, it seems probable that still less time will be lost.

CANADA'S EASTERN COAL-FIELDS

Maritime Province Mines and Their Relation to the Coal Output of the Dominion

Less than one per cent of Canada's total coal resources are found in her eastern coal fields in the provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, all of the rest being west of Winnipeg. Nevertheless the collieries of Cape Breton were among the first worked on the American continent and during 1922 the eastern fields produced 39 per cent of the total Canadian output. Mining operations are known to have been in progress since 1785 and indeed many of the difficulties now encountered in this field are due to the early attempt at mining when the main object was an immediate output of fuel at lowest possible cost and little consideration was given to the future possibilities of undersea mining at long distances from shore shafts.

The coal which is bituminous in character and of varying quality, is mined in five areas, or fields, usually referred to as the Sydney and Inverness fields in Cape Breton, the Pictou and Cumberland fields in Nova Scotia proper, and the Minto field in New Brunswick. The Sydney field is the most extensive and is credited with about 73 per cent of the total available coal in the two eastern provinces. The Cumberland and Pictou fields possess a little less than 10 and 9 per cent respectively of the total; the Inverness field about 2 1/2 per cent; and the New Brunswick field about 1 1/2 per cent.

In 1913, the two provinces produced a total of 8,050,000 short tons and in 1922 only 5,850,000 tons. The relative amounts produced from the several fields last year were: Sydney field 70 per cent; Cumberland 11.8 per cent; Pictou 9.7 per cent; Inverness 3.4 per cent and Minto 4.9 per cent. The output is used largely for locomotive fuel and for bunkering ships. It is used by industrial power plants in Eastern Canada and for the manufacture of coke to supply the iron and steel furnaces at Sydney. It is also used to a large extent as a domestic fuel throughout the Maritime Provinces. For domestic use the output of particular mines and selected seams is employed, but even at that many consumers in the cities of Halifax and St. John and at other points prefer to pay a much higher price for Pennsylvania, or Welsh anthracite. Much of the Nova Scotia coal is high in sulphur and for the manufacture of metallurgical coke a careful selection of the coal is necessary. The coal so used is further washed to reduce its ash and sulphur content. In 1914 over 2,600,000 tons of Nova Scotia coal were marketed in the province of Quebec. During the war this market was almost entirely lost but by 1922 had been regained to the extent of about 50 per cent.

Production during the first six months of 1923 showed a decided improvement over the corresponding period of 1922 with an increased production of over a million tons and with largely increased shipment to the Montreal market contracted for.

It is estimated that the strike during July caused a loss in output of about 400,000 tons. It also resulted in a loss of some of the sales that had been made in the Montreal market. Within two weeks of the resumption of mining, however, the daily output again reached a high level.

Practically every colliery is working at maximum output consistent with the available labour for work at actual mining. A persistent shortage in the number of miners has been increased through considerable numbers joining the ranks of the harvesters going to Western Canada. Yet despite these drawbacks if there are no further serious interruptions to output the 1923 production may exceed that of any of the past six years.

At the present time large expenditures are being made on permanent improvements that will contribute materially to a better and safer production of coal.

With labour conditions on a more satisfactory basis and rates of compensation so adjusted as to attract and retain the native miner, our eastern coal fields will be placed on a better basis to take care of wider markets. The extent to which these wider markets can be obtained in central Canada will depend on ability to compete in quality and price with the enormous producing capacity of United States bituminous mines.

OUR MOTHER'S ALLOWANCE LAWS

(By Dr. J. G. Shearer.)

The widowed mother left penniless with small children on her hands for care and support constitutes an all too common type of domestic tragedy and an outlook grave enough to test sorely the bravest woman's heart. Until recent years the only alternatives open to her were to accept charity, which few were willing to accept, or to endeavor to be both breadwinner and mother in one. Some succeeded. Some reached physical, mental or moral shipwreck. Many others found their children, necessarily unmothered during the mother's absence at work, getting into bad company, bad habits and becoming violators of law and candidates for the juvenile court, the industrial school, the reformatory and even the prison and penitentiary. This is tragedy for the mother and the children. It is also consummate folly for the community, the province and the nation. To provide for a delinquent costs vastly more than to provide for the same child as dependent properly mothered and cared for.

Hence in recent years various provinces have accepted the view that such children are their wards and should be provided for as such, that the mother is ordinarily the best person to care for these wards and that it pays to relieve the mother of the burden of breadwinning, setting her free to give all her time to her natural function of mothering these children for the province and for God.

British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario, therefore have enacted Mother's Allowance laws to provide the necessities of life—not the luxuries—for these dependent widowed mothers and their dependent children.

There are at last report 6,500 mothers and 22,000 children on the beneficiary lists of these provinces at an aggregate cost of $3,000,000 per year. Quebec and the Maritime Provinces have not as yet made similar provision, and dependent widows and children in these provinces in consequence are left to their own resources, to sink or swim.

Those eligible are women left dependent whose husbands are dead or permanently disabled in body or mind. In Saskatchewan, widows only, in Ontario deserted wives or any other women deemed by the Superintendent properly included are eligible. The amounts granted vary in different provinces. For example in 1922 the average grant per year per family was—

In British Columbia	$562.00
In Manitoba	728.00
In Saskatchewan	275.00

We have not the figures for Alberta and Ontario.

In British Columbia, Alberta, and Saskatchewan the Act is administered by the Superintendent of Neglected Children, in Ontario and Manitoba by a Commission whose members serve without remuneration.

These marked variations in the law suggest the desirability of a careful comparative study of these laws and their working that might well be undertaken by the Child Welfare Council of Canada or some similarly equipped body. But there is no room for question as to the wisdom and desirability of such a method of dealing with a very serious social problem. It is worth while from the viewpoint of the children, the mothers and the province or nation. The financial and national loss averted is great. The personal and domestic tragedy averted is incalculable. The young lives saved from wreck and ruin are of inestimable value in the sight of God and men.

TREES AND MICE

The young tree plantation and older orchard have two serious enemies among our tree rodents. These are rabbits and mice. Each requires separate means of combatting. A fence of two-inch mesh poultry netting is admirable to keep rabbits from gnawing the tree trunks but the smaller rodents, to be foiled of tree-bark fodder, must meet further obstacles.

Many methods have been advocated and tried with total or partial success. Among these are the raising of a small mound of earth from eight to twelve inches about the base of the trunk; the tramping of snow firmly about the trees; the use of tar paper; the use of sulphite white building paper; the use of wire protectors, mosquito netting, or galvanized wire cloth; the use of wooden veneer protectors; poison, with one part of arsenic and three parts, by weight, of corn meal. Probably the cheapest safe protection is secured by wrapping each individual tree trunk with white building paper in late October or November and then placing a slight mound of earth around the bottom of the wrapping. This treatment has not failed in seven years' trial. The sulphite, used in the making of paper acts as a repellent to the mice. Tar paper may be used but there are instances where this paper has caused injury to the trees.

A durable protection is made from galvanized wire cloth. This is purchased by the roll and should be twice as wide as the protection is to be in height. The roll is cut in two and then into strips twelve to eighteen inches long to fit around each tree trunk. These protectors are rolled around an iron rod to give them a spring, then placed about the trunk and pressed downward a couple of inches into the soil. Such protectors will last several years. Mosquito wire netting is fairly satisfactory as a temporary protection.

At the Morden Experimental Station the protectors most in favour are made from galvanized Perfect Metal lath. They are similar to those made from wire cloth except for difference of material. The protectors may be allowed to remain on trees from year to year, or gathered in spring and replaced in autumn.

As a rule, mice will be generally troublesome only where a cover crop, grass or weeds are growing, or where other harbours for nests are found. If cultivation is practised, it will probably be necessary only to protect the trees about borders of the plantation.

W. R. LESLIE, Superintendent,
Dominion Experimental Station,
Morden, Man.

SEPARATE WAYS

As we move along our separate ways, we all leave a great stream of something behind us, just as a ship leaves a great white band of seething foam in its wake when speeding through the water.

We can leave a stream of blessings, of sunshine, of gladness and joy, or we can leave a poison stream of pessimism, of negative thoughts, of bitterness, of envy and gloom. We can shine through life, or we can gloom through—which ever we please.

It has nothing to do with our condition, whether we are rich or poor, homely or handsome, fortunate or unfortunate. We can be a gloomer or a shiner, just as we please.—Marden.

A PHONOGRAPH For Every Home

Each day it is becoming more apparent that no home is complete without a phonograph. It is recognized as versatile of all musical instruments, and it is always ready to furnish suitable entertainment for every member of the family.

For the tiny boy and girl it will sing the old nursery rhymes and tell the most interesting stories. For the older boys and girls, it is always ready with the latest song hits, and supplies lively music for the party or dance.

To students of music it is a willing assistant, showing just how the finest music, both vocal and instrumental, is rendered by the world's greatest artists.

The older folks will probably prefer the good Old Favorite Songs which they knew and loved in former days. And as a means of entertaining your friends, the Phonograph is unsurpassed.

Personal and Social

Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Elliott returned last Friday from a visit to Boston and vicinity.

Mrs. S. W. Fullerton is spending a few weeks in Brooklyn, New York, her former home.

Mr. J. F. Herbin has been called to Digby county to do optical work next week until Thursday.

Mrs. Horace Perry returned on Saturday, after a month's visit to her former home in Centerburg, N. B.

Miss Isabel Belcher, of Upper Dyke Village, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Crandall, of Montreal, spent Sunday in Wolfville with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Crandall.

Mr. Emerson L. Curry, a student at Acadia University, occupied the pulpit of the United Baptist church, Parrsboro, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tufts left on Tuesday by motor for Yarmouth where the latter boarded the steamer for Boston for a week's stay.

Mrs. W. C. Hamilton, who has been visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Miller, Elderbank, Halifax lately, has returned home.

Among others who have gone South for the winter are Mrs. D. H. Simpson and daughter Marion, of Lawrencetown. They left for Tampa last week.

Mrs. C. Winter Brown and Miss Irene Brown, of St. John, and Mrs. Laura H. Moore, of Parrsboro, attended the funeral services of Mrs. Clara Haliburton.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. H. Eaton, Mrs. Leander Eaton, Mrs. Agnes Robinson, Mrs. J. A. Borden, Miss Irene McFadden, Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, former neighbors of the late Mrs. Haliburton at Canard and Church Street, attended the funeral service on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Duncanson and family of Gaspereau have recently taken possession of their handsome new residence on Highland Avenue. Mr. Duncanson, who is a very successful fruit grower, has turned over the management of his farm to his son Avery and will live in Wolfville.

Mr. George Harris, of Los Vegas, New Mexico, accompanied the remains of his sister, Mrs. Haliburton, to Wolfville and will remain here a week or two visiting friends. Mr. Harris has been away from his native town for over a dozen years and is much pleased with present conditions here. He is able to give very little additional details concerning the death of his sister, who arrived at the end of her journey tired and apparently sick. Pneumonia developed shortly after and in spite of the best that medical attendance and careful nursing could do the end came speedily.

Miss Jost, recently returned missionary from Japan, has been a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Borden, Grand Pre. Miss Jost was through the great earthquake disaster and gives a most graphic account of conditions. She was connected with the Bible School at Yokohama and the house in which she resided was practically destroyed and afterwards looted of its contents, and she was obliged to borrow clothing in which to return to this country. Dr. and Mrs. Borden, having been for years residents of Japan and thoroughly familiar with Tokyo, were naturally deeply interested in the details of the disaster as experienced by an eye witness.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. G. H. Barnes and Family wish to extend their thanks to all those who sympathized with them, or assisted them in any way in their recent sad bereavement.

Big sale of furniture at Porter's Salesroom, Saturday, Dec. 1st.

Mr. Jenner, of Kent, England, the visitor to Wolfville referred to in our last issue, has purchased the farm of Mr. M. L. Dimock, of North Grand Pre, and with Mr. and Mrs. Lowe, who have spent the past summer here, will soon occupy it. This farm is one of the best in this vicinity and the purchaser is to be congratulated and the purchase is to be congratulated in his choice of a home. The ACADIAN understands that Mr. Dimock is looking for a property in the vicinity of Wolfville.

The long expected union of the Presbyterian and Methodist congregations in Wolfville is at last an accomplished fact. The formal observance of the union takes place with fitting ceremony next Sunday. Distinguished preachers have been secured for the occasion. In the morning the Rev. Dr. Clark, of St. Matthews church, Halifax, will preach. The Rev. Professor F. W. W. Desbarres, of the Theological Faculty of Mount Allison University, is the preacher in the evening. The united choir will furnish appropriate music. The United Sunday School meets at 10 a. m. and will be addressed by Rev. Dr. Hemmeon, minister of the United Church. Special offerings will be taken at all the services of the day.

MILD WEATHER IN HALIFAX AND TORONTO

Toronto, Nov. 23—This district like many other parts of the Dominion is basking in semi-summer climate, with events occurring that are more often associated with the advent of spring than that of winter. In a lot adjacent to High Park is a greensward thickly sprinkled with the golden blossoms of dandelions. Naturalists in the Humber Valley say the cardinals and other migratory birds are "wintering" in the vicinity. Halifax, Nov. 23—Halifax, like Toronto, is enjoying an exceptionally mild fall. This morning dandelions and buttercups were picked in an Inglis street yard and roses were blossoming in Holy Cross cemetery.

Mr. H. W. Sangster, barrister, has been appointed solicitor and recorder for the town of Windsor in place of the late W. M. Christie, K. C., who held the office for 46 years.

A subscriber to THE ACADIAN, who is spending the winter in California, in renewing her subscription says: "THE ACADIAN pays us its welcome weekly visits and it is always very eagerly read. It is the best kind of a letter from the dear home town."

A change of adv. from the Inter-Urban Motor Transit Co. Ltd., received to be inserted in this week's paper, stated that the service which they have been too late performing between Berwick and Halifax will be discontinued on Dec. 1st, but will be resumed again about May 1st, 1924.

The management of the Orpheum has been presenting some splendid pictures during the past week and they have been much enjoyed by the theatre goers of Wolfville and vicinity. The adv. in this week's paper announces some equally good productions for the coming week.

Mrs. Good Housekeeper was asked why it was she always served such good tea. Her answer was as follows: "I always use MORSE'S SELECTED ORANGE PEKOE and I never make it so strong that I have to thin it out with hot water after it is poured in the cup. The best cup of tea is the cup that you get just as it comes from the pot."

The death occurred at Wollaston, Mass., on Saturday, Nov. 24th, of Janie, wife of the late J. Wesley Stewart, of Grand Pre. The deceased was formerly Miss Janie Green, of P. E. I. The remains were brought home by her son Carl, and laid to rest at Horton Cemetery beside those of her late husband, who predeceased her thirty-four years ago. The funeral was held from the home of Mrs. W. C. Trenholm on Wednesday, Nov. 28th.

A very interesting radio item occurred in Wolfville Tuesday evening when Mrs. Stafford and Miss Seaman, of Linden Avenue, heard by a mere chance over a neighbor's instrument the voice of their niece, Miss Laura R. Logan, speaking from Cincinnati, Ohio. Miss Logan, formerly of Amherst, N. S., is Superintendent of Cincinnati Hospital and President of the League of Nurses of that city, and spoke on the value of the Trained Nurse to Society.

Monday was nomination day for the British Elections and resulted in fifty candidates being elected by acclamation. Of these 35 were Conservatives, 11 Liberals, 3 Labor candidates and one Nationalist, T. P. O'Connor. In all 1,446 candidates have been nominated for the elections, as follows: Conservatives 551, Liberals 437, Labor 434, Conservative Free Traders 7, Independents 17. There are 263 triangular fights, 136 straight fights between Liberals and Conservatives, 53 between the Liberal and Labor parties, and 103 between the Labor and Conservative parties.

The annual movement of Christmas trees to New York and other United States cities from Digby County is under way. Shipments are being made to New York this week. Many thousands of young fir trees have been cut annually in Nova Scotia for the American trade, but it is said that the traffic this year will be greater than ever. Mr. Herbert Joeger, junior member of the firm of Joeger & Co., commission merchants, New York City, is in Digby looking after the interests of his firm in connection with the shipping of trees from this country.—Digby Courier.

New directories for Western Nova Scotia of The Maritime Telephone Company have been published and are now being distributed. The new volume is a decided improvement over previous lists as it combines the Valley, South Shore and Yarmouth Districts, thus comprising a complete list of all telephone subscribers in the western portion of the province, whereas previously each District had its own individual directory. The Wolfville Exchange contains 636 numbers and has the second largest list of subscribers of any exchange between Halifax and Yarmouth.

ABOUT BOOKS

(By THE ACADIAN'S Reviewer)

For the appreciation of Bliss Carman more than for the appreciation of the Stanzas any other Canadian poet, the student of Canadian literature needs a profoundly sympathetic study. Such a study we have in Odell Shepard's "Bliss Carman" (McClelland and Stewart). Professor Shepard has loved and studied the poet and his poetry for twenty years, and in a delightful manner enables the reader to share the benefits of his study and experience. A very great service to Carman and the readers of his poetry is the discussion of the nature of the content of the various volumes, especially that part of it which makes clear that the supposed monotony of Carman's work is due to the fact that in most cases he deliberately made up his volumes by bringing together material similar in mood or thought.

Professor Shepard's book should be read in conjunction with the new volume of Carman's poems, "Ballads and Lyrics" (McClelland and Stewart). The selections are from earlier volumes not previously published in Canada. From a reading of this volume the general student can get a far clearer idea of Carman as a poet in general and as a Canadian poet in particular than from a reading of his work as a whole. One who masters these two volumes and supplements them by Carman's "Later Poems" will have a very creditable acquaintance with and appreciation of the significant work of him who is claimed to be "Canada's major poet."

"HARD-BOILED GIRLS"

"Colleges" says a young woman writer of Washington, "are making girls hard-boiled."

It may be true, but it may not be bad because it is true. This is something of a hard-boiled world. The idea that you are entitled to live upon the good-nature, the weakness and the sympathies of other people has spread pretty far and gathered a host of enthusiastic believers and practitioners. Women have been particularly the prey of the gentry that have fake oil stocks to sell, magnificent investments for widows' insurance money, beautiful schemes for hastening the millennium through the consolidation of feminine sentiment and votes. The sex will do very well by having a sprinkling of members who will analyze a proposition before they will gush over it. It will derive protection from women who take the trouble of learning how to judge character. It will not lose, but will gain, because of the development of a fair amount of working suspicion.

Circumstances and choice, between them, have brought women into contact with the world at a time when it is a good thing to have a firm jaw, a cold eye and a clear understanding of the grim facts of life. A hard-boiled habit of mind is just now a defense against a multitude of forces that will destroy the individual who is too easy-going, too ready to accept palaver as a genuine article of honesty. If the colleges are producing girls of this mental habit—they may or may not be doing so—they are turning out women who can take care of themselves and their sisters.—Frederick Mail.

NOVA SCOTIA POTATO CROP

The potato crop report issued this month by the Department of Agriculture, has the following to say concerning the crop in Nova Scotia: "The potato acreage in Nova Scotia is 70 per cent of that of last year with a yield of 90 per cent of 1922. Quality and condition is especially good, the potatoes being very smooth and showing very little decay. Possibly 25 per cent of the potatoes in this province are being stored. A price of $2.50 to $3. per standard barrel is being received. In the Kingsport district the potato acreage was about 125 acres with a yield of about 200 bushels per acre, which would aggregate about 90 per cent of the 1922 crop. The quality is good and no disease about two-thirds of the potatoes are still in the growers' hands. A price of $2.60 per barrel, f.o.b. shipping is being realized."

SAFETY FIRST

When reading your newspapers you often notice write-ups of fires which have unfortunately occurred. At the close of the last paragraph too often you see the following "No Insurance" or "Only partially covered by insurance." What a regret this must be to the owner who has to bear the loss, when, doubtless, he had most if not all, of his capital invested, in what now is nothing but smoldering ruins. Do not be a monger the unprotected. The Companies are very willing to carry your fire risk. Consult us re full protection, and a policy that really protects.

CANNING NEWS

Much regret is felt over the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilliat, who during their residence in Canning have made many friends. Mr. Gilliat, who was engaged in plumbing with Mr. Donald Smith has purchased a farm in Granville.

Mr. William Hadfield left on Saturday for Montreal, where he will undergo medical treatment at the Royal Victoria Hospital. During the absence of Mr. Hadfield, his father will reside at his home. Miss Hadfield, who has spent several months in the States, guest of her aunt, Mrs. Davidge, will return in a few days.

Mrs. Harry Moore, wife of Captain Moore, formerly of Canning, now of Bear River, is recovering from a successful operation performed at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax.

Mrs. Bert Berger, who has been a patient at the Victoria General Hospital, has returned much improved.

Mr. E. R. Hutchinson and family, of Lockhartville, have arrived in town where they will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Fitcher.

Miss Flora B. West, of the nursing staff of the Children's Hospital, Halifax, is the guest of Mrs. Fitcher.

Rev. W. G. Heisler, of Lower Granville, occupied the pulpit of United Baptist church on Sabbath evening, a large congregation listening to a sermon full of the finest truths. The speaker chose for meditation the importance of Laying up For Ourselves Treasures in Heaven, and compared the Littleness of Material Things, which God when he sees fit can immediately withdraw, with the Importance of Things Spiritual. The full choir of the Baptist church of Port Williams was present and the music which was of the highest order, was greatly appreciated. A Vocal Duett sung by Mrs. Howard Burbridge and Mrs. (Rev.) G. D. Hudson, and the Mixed Quartette, consisting of Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Burbridge, Messrs. Ibsen and Clayton Harris, added much to the service. The leader of the choir was Mrs. Howe Burbridge, the organist being Miss Gates.

The Boy Scouts held their regular meeting on Friday evening, Scout Master Rev. Thomas W. Hodgson, presiding. After the usual drill was gone through, instruction in basketry which is proving of much interest to the boys, was continued by Mrs. Bertha O'Brien. Games brought the evening to a close.

Mr. Harry Hoyt, Windsor, has arrived to take charge of the station at Hillaton.

The Literary Society met in the Vestry of the Methodist church on Monday evening, the Pres. Dr. Stanley W. Spicer in the chair. The speaker Rev. T. Crosby pastor of Kingsport Congregational church, gave a very fine address on the "Different Customs of Different Countries." A vote of thanks was extended Rev. T. Crosby for an evening of rare pleasure.

Miss Lois Porter, Delhaven, who is attending Canning High School, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vickery.

Rev. Gordon C. Brown, Rector, conducted Divine Service in Christ church on Sabbath afternoon, later preaching at Kingsport, both services being well attended.

A successful dance was held in the Armories on Friday evening, a large number attending and enjoying the music and dancing.

Miss Kathleen Eaton entertained delightfully on Friday evening.

The many friends of Mrs. A. D. Payzant will be gratified to learn of her continued improvement in health.

Mrs. (Dr.) Norman H. Gosse entertained the Ladies' Aid of Christ church, on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Frederick West has leased his farm and moved to Kingsport.

Mrs. Stewart Loomer is steadily improving in health.

A large number attended the entertainment held in the Armories by the Eckhart Swiss Bell Ringers, which was much enjoyed.

The North Mountain School held a successful pie sale, with Mr. George Brown as the efficient auctioneer, more than $12.00 being realized, and an enjoyable evening spent.

Mrs. Jacob Lockhart left on Tuesday for Framingham, Mass., where she was called by the illness of her son, Mr. Elmer Lockhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Clark are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter, born at Canning Maternity Hospital.

Mr. Rufus Spicer left for Truro on Monday.

Mrs. Scott Bigelow and family, who have been visiting Mrs. Bigelow's sister, Mrs. Victor Eaton, left for New York on Tuesday, where Mr. Bigelow is engaged in business and where they will reside.

Mrs. Harding, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Margaret Harding, left on Friday for Dorchester, Mass., where she will spend the winter. Miss Harding was an efficient member of the office staff of the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Co. in this town. Her place is being filled by Miss Pauline Grant.

Mr. Ted Miller has accepted a position on the staff of the Bank of N. S. at Canning.

It is understood that Dr. Gosse has bought a property on Main street, which will be remodelled and utilized as residence and office.

DEBT DESTROYING LEAGUE HELD ANNUAL SUPPER AND SALE

The Debt Destroying League of United Baptist church held its annual supper and sale on Thursday evening. The Vestry was attractively decorated with green and white berries and the hours were pleasantly spent by a large number. The following were in charge of the various booths:

Fancy Work.—Mrs. Arthur North, Miss Isabel Meek.

Apron.—Mrs. Reid Pelton, Mrs. W. W. Newcombe, Miss Harrison.

Supper Tables.—Mrs. Arthur Harris, Mrs. R. A. Porter, Mrs. L. M. Ward, Mrs. Warren Parker, Mrs. Sheridan, Mrs. Henry Blanchard, Mrs. Edward Spicer, Mrs. John Kinsman, Mrs. Ira Cox, Mrs. Charles Ellis, Mrs. Spurr Woodworth, Miss Marion Eaton.

An interesting table was that in charge of Mrs. Rufus Eaton, and her Sabbath School class, composed of Misses Clara Meek, Nellie Eaton, Ruth Bigelow, Kathleen Harris, Ellen Miller, Claire Eaton, Helen Eaton, Winnie Barkhouse, Ona Ward, Leila Blenkhorne, who had a splendid display of home made candy and handkerchiefs, from which nearly $40.00 was realized. This sum, will form the nucleus of a new Sabbath school Library. The girls and their leader deserves much credit for their zeal and enterprise.

More than $150.00 were added to the funds.

DELHAVEN

Miss Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hibbert Green, has returned much improved from undergoing treatment for a fractured elbow, at the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax.

Mr. George Brown, has returned from visiting Mrs. Brown, who is a patient at the Victoria General Hospital.

Miss Kervin, daughter of Mr. Frank Kervin, has returned from undergoing a successful operation at the Victoria General Hospital.

Miss Jean Smith returned to Halifax after a delightful week spent in Delhaven.

Mr. Avery Bentley has returned from Boston and Hatford.

News has been received of Mr. Ashael Bentley, who at the time of writing was in Calcutta, and in good health.

SCOTTS BAY

Miss Cloyd Neaves, of the teaching staff of Scott's Bay, returned from Aylsford last week accompanied by her sister Miss Verna Neaves who will attend school here.

Word has been received of the arrival in Aurora, U. S., of Mrs. Manie Ellis and her daughter, Miss Ellis.

A NOTABLE INDUSTRY

On one night recently when burglars cut open the safe in Blenkhorn & Sons' office here, using a light weight axe found on the premises for their purpose, they acquired little cash, but certainly did some splendid advertising of the quality of the edge tools made by that concern. We can only hope this will compensate for the loss of the safe.

Axe manufacturing is a public institution of which the town is justly proud. About 1860 James Blenkhorn and Benjamin Eaton commenced axe making in a building known as the "Factory" about where the Bigelow mill, now operated by the Melvin Bros., stands. After the disastrous fire of 1866 Benj. Eaton and sons Everett and Edwin, known as B. Eaton & Sons, continued manufacturing at Sheffield Mills, and Jas. Blenkhorn operated a time in what is now the barn of his homestead, now owned by Arnon Bigelow. Later, associated with his son Sidney, they used a shop just east of Bigelow's mill on the corner next Main street. This was burned in the early 80's and later the axe factory in its present location was built and has been run continuously since, except for short terms on two occasions when fire destroyed the plant.

These fires severely tried the fibre of the concern, but pluck and perseverance, ever their mottoes, conquered and the industry has steadily increased, aided undoubtedly by the unflinching quality of the product. The late Hennigar Blenkhorn was connected with the firm for many years, as well as L. F. Blenkhorn, another brother, who still looks after the forging. The general management is vested in Scott Blenkhorn, son of the late Sidney Blenkhorn. The original company, beside making edge tools, were proficient in ship blacksmithing, ironing vessels at Selmah, Spencers Island, Eatonville and Canning, and the excellence of their work, as well as their strict sobriety, uprightiness and integrity as citizens, has honored the town that claims them.

SHEFFIELD MILLS

Mr. Carol Baker and Miss Ruth Baker formerly the late John Burgess home, are Mr. and Mrs. John Burgess, Jr. have moved to the late Joseph Burgess property now owned by Mr. Burgess.

Mr. Donald McDonald, who has spent several months in the valley, returned to his home in Pictou last week.

Miss Kate Hamilton returned to Halifax last week.

Mrs. Harold Fellows is steadily improving in health.

Miss Winnie Kinsman has returned from visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Kinsman, Medford.

Captain Bowser has returned from Halifax.

A delightful miscellaneous shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Borden, in honor of Miss Bessie Borden and Mr. David Borden, son of Mr. John Borden, Sheffield Mills, whose engagement has just been announced. The gifts, which were very lovely, were distributed from a well filled basket by Miss Ruby Borden, Miss Esther Caldwell and Rev. William Forsythe, contained many good wishes, cleverly arranged in verse. The young people, who are favorites socially, thanked their friends for their tangible expressions of appreciation, after which supper was served. Those assisting were Mrs. Fred Borden, Mrs. Harry Borden, Mrs. John Kinsman, Miss Ruby Borden, Miss Carol Bowser. Music and dancing brought an evening of much pleasure to a close.

KINGSFORT

The funeral of the late William West, held from his late residence on Saturday at two o'clock, was a very large and representative one, the impressive service being conducted by Rev. T. Crosby pastor of the Congregational church, the choir of which had charge of the music which was very beautiful. The Pall Bearers were his four sons, Messrs. Geo. Fred, Wiley, and William West. Interment was at the family lot in Habitant.

Mr. George West, contractor and builder of Newton, Mass., arrived previous to the death of his father, the late William West.

Mrs. Milledge DeWitt is ill at her home, Kingsport.

HABITANT

Habitant Cemetery has been greatly improved thro the efforts of Mr. Louis Greenough, and the collector of funds, Mrs. E. F. Avery. More than half a ton of malagas salt has been used to destroy the poison ivy, and an evergreen hedge is being contemplated. Many of the stones have been straightened this being made possible by contributions of far away friends. The fund is gradually growing to meet the expenses, which the heavy are already showing the efforts to be worth while, and we hope ere long to have Habitant Cemetery one of the beauty spots of our town. It may truly be said that a community may be largely judged by the interest shown in the last resting place of its beloved dead.

SHEFFIELD MILLS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The annual business meeting of the Women's Institute, was held at the home of Mrs. Brett Roscoe on Friday afternoon, a large number attending. The following officers were elected:—

President.—Mrs. W. W. Harris.
1st. Vice.—Mrs. George Pye.

Mr. Brenton Blenckhorn is spending the winter in Boston.

A number of our young people attended a delightful dance, given by Mr. and Mrs. George Chase, Fort Williams on Wednesday evening.

The second lecture of the Peoples' Forum has held in Upper Canard Baptist church, on Tuesday evening of last week, the Pastor, Rev. G. D. Hudson, presiding. The speaker was Dr. D. B. Hemmeon, of Wolfville, who chose for his subject, "The Duty of the Church in Industrial Disputes".

Dr. Hemmeon gave an historical outline of "The Rise of Industrialism and Trade Unions and spoke of Relation of Capital to Labor".

On his own ground as a litterateur, Dr. Hemmeon is a master, and his address full of the finest thought, shed much light on "The Duty of the Church in Industrial Disputes". An expression of appreciation was extended to the speaker for an evening of rare pleasure, which was enjoyed by the community at large.

Canard Community Club met on Monday a delightful evening being spent in music and games.

VERSES WRITTEN BY NATIVE OF LOWER CANARD

The following verses written at the age of 81 years by Mrs. Agnes Moffatt, of Glace Bay, N. S. will be of interest to many. Mrs. Moffatt was Agnes, daughter of the late Joshua Ellis, of Lower Canard, and is the oldest living graduate of Acadia Seminary.

Oh! Where are the friends, who have gone,
The many I knew long ago,
E'er the currents of life swept us on,
Like the tides, with their ebb, and their flow.

So many were dear to my heart,
And their lives, seemed entwined with my own,
But now we have drifted apart,
From my gaze they forever have flown.

Together we played all day long,
Our lessons we learned side by side,
And our voices of blended in song,
As o'er the smooth ice we would glide.

Some have gone to the regions unknown,
And others have wandered apart,
But the saddest of all, some have grown
Forever estranged from my heart.

But memory immortal, remains,
And her store house, reveals to our gaze,
When she opens her doors and reveals
The glimpses of happier days.

Off in dreams we are with them again,
And each fancy and folly we see,
Reproduced as in days of yore,
From every engagement free.

Gone, gone, are the friends of my youth,
But their memory abides with me still,
And the friends whom we once loved in truth,
No stranger their places can fill.

WHERE DO YOU FIT?

Where do you fit in this world of ours,
With its hustle and bustle and work;
Are you one of the throng that helps it
Along—
Or are you with those who shirk?

Do you hit the job with a smile or frown;
Do you carry a grudge all day;
Are you one of the flock that watches
The clock;
Are you workin' for more than pay?

Is your job man-sized and worth the while,
When you've tallied up your score;
Are you keepin' fit and down your bit,
And perhaps a wee bit more?

Are you one of the average just drifting
Along;
Are you listed as Profit or Loss;
Are you stallin' for time or startin' to Climb;
How much are you puttin' across?

Just pull in your slack and count up
Your score,
Locate what you're aimin' to fit—
Don't waste ambition and all your Ambition
But find just where you fit?

Frank A. Collins, in Forbes Magazine.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

NOVEMBER 30
NOT EVERY ONE THAT SAITH
LORD, LORD:—Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.—Matthew 7:21.

DECEMBER 1
DOMINION:—God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.—2 Timothy 1:7.

DECEMBER 2
THE ONLY HELP:—For I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.—
Isaiah 41:13.

DECEMBER 3
VERY GOOD:—And God saw every thing that he had made, and behold it was very good.—Genesis 1:31.

DECEMBER 4
CURSE or BLESSING, Which?—
He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him; but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.—Proverbs 11:26.

DECEMBER 5
BETTER THAN RUBIES:—Search
the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life; and they are they which testify of me.—John 5:39.

DECEMBER 6
WHY NOT?—O ye simple, understand wisdom; and ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.—Proverbs 8:5.

HUSBANDS FOR ALL

Girls don't hunt men nowadays—oh, no! These are the days of careers.
All the same it is natural for any girl to want to get married. Most girls do, when they own up candidly. Only it happens that there are not enough men to go round.

Not a word about "surplus" women, please. The word is a wrong one.
No woman is surplus. Somewhere there's a man waiting for her, if she'll find him. Some girls know this, so they go where the men are surplus. Then the wedding-bells ring.

This little screed is to tell you where there are surplus men. It's the trail for the men hunt, miss.

America has put on record that it is the happy hunting-ground of the maid who wants a husband. They have taken returns, and they find that there are a hundred and six males to every female.

FATHER FELT FOOLISH

Little Mary was rather wilful and inclined to have her own way. She was especially fond of slipping out of the front door when her parents were not looking. So often did this occur that they were afraid that one day she might get lost. So they instructed her should this happen, never to speak to anyone but a policeman.

One day she was out for a walk with her father, who was anxious to know if she had grasped his instructions correctly.

"Now, Mary," said he, "let's pretend that you're lost, and I'm a policeman."

He crossed the road, and Mary followed tearfully saying:
"Please, Mr. Policeman, I'm lost!"

"What is your name dear?" inquired the pseudo policeman.

"Mary Jackson, please," was the correct reply.

"Where do you live?"
Immediately came the answer:
"Come on, I'll show you!"

WORKERS

Every mason in the quarry, every builder on the shore,
Every shopper in the palm grove, every raftsman at the oar—
Hewing wood and drawing water, splitting stones and cleaving sod,
All the dusty ranks of labor, in the regiments of God,
March together toward His triumph,
do the task His hands prepare;
Honest toil is holy service; faithful work is praise and prayer.

KENTVILLE; CONVICTIONS

KENTVILLE, Nov. 22.—James Black, residing at Gasperau, was before Stipendiary S. S. Strong, charged with creating a disturbance at Starr's Pint. He was convicted and fined $10 and costs and bound over to keep the peace for a year.

Robert Archer, of Billtown, was convicted before Stipendiary Strong, under the Inland Revenue Act, for brewing beer without a license. He was fined $150 and costs or three months in jail.
On Wednesday, while at Sheffield Mills,
W. L. Hall, constable and jailor, found the accused in his automobile. The constable got in Archer's car to bring him to Kentville, but Archer escaped. The car was brought to town and soon afterwards Archer himself was captured and lodged in jail.

LOVE

Said Elbert Hubbard, "The world has always been run on a short allowance of love."

What a pity this is, when it is the one thing that we can all give in unlimited quantity, and the one thing that the world stands most in need of at all times.
We are all inclined to overrate the power of money to help. What millions of people want most of all is the human touch; the sympathy, the kindness, the cheering, helpful word, the understanding smile, the warm handclasp.

A WOMAN SHOULD HAVE A BANK BOOK

EVERY woman has some little plan of things she would like to buy—if she had the money.

It should be a woman's privilege to handle the housekeeping money. She can then plan for the things she needs, and save for them.

If you are a wise housewife you will save for these things. Loose cash in your purse soon goes—it tempts you to spend. Keep your money where it will be safe, yet available whenever you want it.

Ask for our useful memo book—it shows how rapidly small savings grow.

PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

The pulpit of the United Baptist church was occupied on Sunday, Nov. 25th, by Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D., who gave a most inspiring service from the text, "He hath set Eternity in their heart."

Mr. Bruce Hunt, of Lawrencetown, spent the week end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gates.

Mrs. Paul Mosher and son, of Dartmouth, spent a few days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Chase.

Mr. F. Daniels, of the Royal Bank of Canada, spent the week end at his home in Lawrencetown.

Miss Kate Morse, of Berwick, attended the "Teachers Institute" held at Kentville on Friday, 23rd, and made the most of her time between trains by calling on a few of her friends in Port Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Chase entertained a number of their friends on Nov. 21st, at an informal dance. Mrs. Chase is a most charming hostess, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Dr. Zwicker and family, of Belcher Street, left this week for Florida, where they intend spending the winter.

Messrs. Norman Chase and Ira Gates have returned from Sydney, C. B., where they have been at work for some time.

We are glad to report that Mr. Cyrus Ellis, who is at Westwood Hospital, is steadily improving.

Miss R. Hiltz, Principal of Port Williams school, attended the "Teachers Institute" at Kentville on the 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gates have moved into their new home on Main Street.

Mr. M. K. Ellis has purchased a new Ford truck.

Mrs. J. U. Bell and son are visiting friends in Church Street.

Miss Hazel Dodge, of the Academy Staff, Kentville, spent the week end with her cousin, Mrs. Neil Coulstan.

Mrs. N. H. Newcombe, who has been confined to the house the past week with rheumatism, is able to be out again.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society was held in Parish Hall, Church Street, on Monday evening, Nov. 26th.

A stirring address was given by Rev. Mr. Robinson, after which a business meeting was held, and the officers appointed for the coming year. Mr. John Donaldson was re-elected President, Mr. C. A. Campbell, Vice-President; Mrs. Oscar Chase, Secretary; and Miss Annie Jacques, Treasurer.

The social which was to have been given by the "Delta Alpha" S. S. class on Friday evening last week and was postponed, will begin this Friday evening Nov. 30. A good program is being prepared with the assistance of out side talent. Everybody is invited to attend and enjoy the evening.

There will be an opportunity to buy real homemade Christmas gifts, on Thursday evening, Dec. 6th, at "Temperance Hall", when the "Loyal Workers" S. S. Class will have their sale of Fanny work, toys, Xmas, cakes, Xmas puddings, clothes for the little tots, bulbs, plants, etc. This is where you will get good value for your money. Don't forget, Dec. 6th.

Men are the architects of their own misfortunes.

Christmas Tree and Bazaar

An old fashioned Christmas tree and Bazaar, Thursday afternoon and evening, Dec. 6th at Port Williams.

This will be a splendid opportunity to procure novel and dainty hand-made Christmas gifts.

Attractive booths will display fancy-work, potted plants, and bulbs, candies, home-made Christmas cakes and puddings-etc.

Pine and holly wreaths and other decorations for sale.

A special feature will be the large Christmas tree laden with toys, dolls, and the things kiddies love.

Tea will be served from 5 to 9. Price .25c. Reserve this date and make a special point to patronize the "Loyal Workers Class" of the Baptist Sunday School.

Mail Contract

SEALED TENDERS, addressed to the Postmaster General, will be received at Ottawa until noon, on Friday, the 14th December, for the conveyance of His Majesty's Mails, six times per week over the GREENWICH No. 1 R. M. ROUTE under a proposed contract for a period not exceeding four years dating from the 1st January, next.

Printed notices containing further information as to conditions of proposed Contract may be seen and blank forms of Tender may be obtained at the Terminal and Route Post Offices and at the office of the District Superintendent of Postal Service.

W. E. MacLELLAN, District Superintendent of Postal Service, Halifax, 22nd November, 1923.

NEW TYPE OF CASE FOR EXPORT APPLES

An Old Country paper gives the following account of a new type of box or "case", as it is termed in the British fruit trade, which is being tried out in the shipment of apples from Australia:

"A new export case, the invention of an Australian, is being tried out in a shipment of 500 cases of apples now going forward from Melbourne to London, according to the Canadian Department of Trade and Commerce. The case is known as the "air free" case, and aims to solve the problems of ventilation and bruising. If the advantages claimed for the new case are evident in the experimental shipment, it will probably be largely used in future consignments from Australia. In construction, the case resembles the ordinary standard case, except that the sides consist of three slats, the top and bottom slats being twice as thick as the middle one. The difference in the thickness makes a groove running the length of the case, along which, when the fruit is stacked, air can pass so freely that the use of "dunnage" between the tiers of the stack is rendered unnecessary. Further, the thickness of the slats, which help form the corners, gives such strength at the corners that there is claimed to be no possibility of the case breaking open, or of bruising the fruit inside.

HEAVY STORM IN NEW YORK

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 26—Winter unloaded snow on northeastern New York over the weekend, the fall ranging in depth from six inches to a foot and a half. Plattsburgh, Saratoga Lake and other Adirondack points temporarily were cut off from communication when the rain of Saturday turned to snow under a howling wind, bringing down wires and blocking roads.

Car service was curtailed in Albany, telephone communication was interrupted and supplies of milk were brought into the city section with difficulty.

Motor trucks and automobiles were stalled in deep drifts south of Schenectady.

The snow began drifting last night. Railroads were preparing snow fighting equipment and a tie-up of both rail and highway traffic was generally expected in the morning.

EVERY SEAT SOLD FOR OLYMPIC GAMES

PARIS, NOV. 26—The French Olympic Games Committee already has hung up the "standing room only" sign at the Colombes Stadium, although the official opening of the 1924 Olympic Games is still seven months away.

The stadium provides accommodation for 70,000 spectators. There will be 20,000 reserved seats, divided evenly among the two covered stands on each side of the track, known as "Official," and the "Marathon" stands. The remaining fifty thousand persons will be accommodated with standing room at both ends of the bowl and at the turns.

The British and United States Olympic committees have requested five thousand seats for spectators from these countries, while Sweden and Italy have each requested 1500 seats. The remaining 7,000 seats have virtually all been reserved by the small nations, leaving hardly any for the French committee to dispose of to French sport lovers.

COLLEGE GIRLS' FEET GROWING

Columbus, O., Nov. 23—The feet of the modern college girl are steadily increasing in size, according to Miss Lydia Clark, head of the women's department of physical education at Ohio State University.

Miss Clark says that modern clothes and the great interest shown by themodern co-ed in outdoor activities are causes for the increase in size.

Not only are their feet increasing in size, but statistics show that the increase is general. Figures from Vassar, Smith and Leland Stanford show that the average weight of the college woman has increased from 123.8 pounds to 125.8, and that the waistline has increased on an average of 1.3 inches, Miss Clark says.

The snow began drifting last night. Railroads were preparing snow fighting equipment and a tie-up of both rail and highway traffic was generally expected in the morning.

PRINCE OF WALES TO VISIT CANADA ANNUALLY

TORONTO, Nov. 23—The Prince of Wales intends to make his visits to his Alberta ranch annual events, unless when these may be interfered with by affairs of the Empire, William Carlyle, superintendent of the E. F. Ranch, told the members of the Canadian Society of Technical Agriculturists here last night at the banquet in connection with the Royal Winter Fair. "The Prince is a farmer, make no mistake about that," said Mr. Carlyle.

DRIFTS IN MASSACHUSETTS

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Nov. 26—Railroad, trolley, telephone and telegraph service was seriously affected and many roads made impassable by the snowstorm that swept western Massachusetts late Saturday night and Sunday morning. Automobiles were stalled in deep drifts in many parts of Berkshire county. More than three feet of snow was found on the higher points. Many telegraph and telephone lines are down in the vicinity of Pittsfield.

HANTSPORT FRUIT BASKET CO.

Passing through Hantsport, on the line of the Dominion Atlantic Railway, you may have noticed the factory of The Hantsport Fruit Basket Co. Limited. This is where most of the berry boxes and fruit baskets used in the Maritime Provinces are made. A berry box is a small thing in itself, but the two millions of them that are produced by this Company each year, together with the necessary crates, requires about twenty-five freight cars to carry them away to the berry growers and shippers.

About thirteen years ago Mr. D. W. Murray bought out the small berry box business then in operation in Hantsport. Mr. Murray pushed this business successfully for about two years, and then with his brother Mr. Alex. Murray, organized The Hantsport Fruit Basket Co. Limited. Since that time this Company has steadily progressed, due chiefly to the hard work and sound business sagacity of its founder. They have greatly enlarged the plant, and installed new and up-to-date machinery in order to keep pace with the ever increasing demand for their wares, and as a result, they now have the best factory of its kind in Canada east of Ontario and give employment to about forty hands.

The demand for Maritime grown strawberries and blueberries in the eastern United States has become so great during the past few years, that this Company are now equipped to manufacture the American standard berry boxes and crates, in order to meet the demand of our large "small fruit growers" who are engaged in this important export trade. The Hantsport made berry boxes of clean white poplar, filled with our choice Maritime grown berries, are rapidly coming to the fore-front on the New England and New York markets.

While the greater part of this Company's output is fruit packages, their operations are by no means confined to that commodity, boxes, crates, and shooks of all kinds are manufactured here; and each year several carloads of crate shooks are exported by them to the West Indies. Here also is made the "Elderkin" apple grader, one or more of which may be found doing good service in all the large apple warehouses throughout the Annapolis Valley.

From a small beginning a large and important industry has come into being in our midst during a few short years, and the Messrs. Murray are to be congratulated on their splendid achievement.

HELPFUL HINTS

To Remove Paraffin.—If paraffin sticks to a vessel in which it has been melted, fill the vessel with boiling water. When cool, the paraffin will be floating on top and can then be poured off.

Rugs.—Many experience trouble with their rugs curling at the corner. To remedy this, first wet the corners thoroughly. Next place boards on them. Then leave to dry. When the boards are removed the edges will be straight.

Wet Shoes.—When shoes are wet, let them dry by themselves. Artificial methods are injurious to the leather.

Kitchen Walls.—Kitchen walls should be painted—not papered. This way they are much more sanitary and will wash.

Coffee.—A pinch of salt in the coffee adds greatly to its flavor.

To Revive a Fire.—Dried orange or lemon peel thrown on a dying fire will soon revive it. A bit of sugar sprinkled on will have the same effect.

A Mop.—If an oil mop is brushed with a whisk broom, after being used, it will not become matted, as is its tendency.

Glass Ware.—To make glass ware glisten follow these directions: Wash the piece carefully, and then rinse in hot water. After this, place in cold water in which a handful of starch has been dissolved. Then dry thoroughly and polish with a dry cloth.

Whipped Cream.—A teaspoonful of drained honey will sweeten whipped cream and make it remain stiff for a whole day, at the same time giving it a delightful flavor.

Vines.—A glass receptacle is the best thing that can be used to grow vines and slips in, as this allows the sun to get at their roots.

White Leather.—To clean white leather bags, belts, etc., use oxide of zinc.

Birds.—If your canary refuses to take his bath just sprinkle a few seeds on top of the water and he will be drawn to his tub.

Work as if you were to live one hundred years, pray as if you were to die tomorrow.

BOY-HERO'S SISTERS FACE HARD TIMES

While huge sums of money have been collected for the purpose of erecting a memorial to Jack Cornwall, V.C., the sixteen-year-old navy lad who won the highest award for bravery in the British Empire in the Great War, his sister, the pretty girl on the right, has been struggling with the hard times in England. Now another sister, and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Payne, also, in the picture, have sold out their home to pay their passage to Canada, where they will make a new start. Canadians will heartily welcome the sisters of the heroic Jack Cornwall.

THE APPROACH OF MARS

At present Mars appears as a moderately bright star, and may be found in the early morning slightly to the south of due east. It is worth while to find Mars now, for it will be possible to watch from time to time, and see the planet gradually grow brighter as the months pass and the Earth gets nearer and nearer. Our world is actually racing after Mars. It is a long race; it will be nearly ten months, during which our world will travel about two hundred and forty million miles after him, before the Earth in her orbit will "draw level" with Mars in his.

This will be about August 22 and 23 next year, when the Earth and Mars will come exceptionally close to each other, and little more than thirty-five million miles will separate them. This will be closer than anyone living has ever seen Mars, and closer than he will be seen for a hundred years to come. The last time that he approached nearly as close as he will come next year was in 1845. At present Mars is about two hundred and twenty-five million miles away, far beyond the Sun; but every day the Earth reduces this, speeding at eleven hundred miles a minute, whereas Mars does on an average only nine hundred miles a minute.

During the next ten months Mars will appear to grow in size; at present he looks like a tiny little globe, almost devoid of detail and no larger than Uranus appears. August next Mars will be about 30 seconds of arc wide and telescopically will appear to have grown from the size of a recumbent to a big orange. By then Mars will appear about as large as Jupiter, and the continents, seas, and changing areas of vegetation will be easy to see in moderate-sized telescopes.

This will be a splendid opportunity for gaining much knowledge about the fainter markings and the so-called canals.

A WILLING WORKER

The bargaining for a cow had been going on for an hour.

Finally the prospective purchaser came flatly to the point.

"How much milk does she give?" he asked.

"I don't rightly know," answered the farmer who owned her. "but she's a darn good-natured critter and she'll give all she can."

"Laura, has Johnnie come home from school, yet?"

"Yes, he has."

"Have you seen him?"

"No, sir."

"Then how do you know he's home?"

"Cause the cat's hidden under the stove, sir."

PUPPY LOVE

Don't laugh at him. It is real, and it hurts. Call it "puppy love" if you choose, but down in your own heart you know that he is passing thru the saddest, gladdest joy of all.

He's a man now. An instinct as old as the first morning is waking in his blood. Off in queer corners of the earth where Arabian Nights have not yet faded before the cold dawn of civilization, the elders of the tribe would measure him as an adult, and his father would gravely sue for the maiden of his choice.

New lands, new customs; but old human nature.

Once you, too, walked under the locusts. That fire sweet heart of yours! Can you remember—can you forget? In all the years beyond, what hour held so many stars? And now his turn has come—his fright to hoard sweet phantasms, too. Time always slits the fragile purse of dreams and steals so many precious coins we thought to spend for happiness. Reality is quick to break the loom that weaves such fairy fantasies. Spring is a season of the mind, and all too short. Don't laugh at him.

CAUTION—GO SLOW!

He—"Why do blushes creep over girls' faces?"

She—"Because if they ran they would lick up too much dust."

Business and life are like bank accounts—you can't take out more than you put in.

CHARLES DAVISON HANTSPORT

THE UNPOPULAR GIRL

The Story of High School Days—The Lonely and Neglected Classmate—Who Came Into Her Own

Appleton remembered her to be a quiet, unpretentious girl with sad gray eyes and shoes that ran over at the heels. Her school fellows had never liked her, but they had admired the keenness of the mind that first of all kept her apart from them.

She had the good taste to decline the invitations that perforce must come to her as a member of the graduating class. She would have been a disgrace to them—this well-dressed group of young people whose fathers were the leading business men of the town.

The graduation had slipped two mos. into the past, when Edna Graham left the town, carrying her own shabby suitcase to the depot. Perhaps the only kindness that had ever been shown her by anyone in Appleton, was the offer of Mary Hastings to give her a lift in her new roadster.

Edna looked at her in amazement, Mary had been foremost among those who snubbed. But Edna was proud, too in her way. She declined the invitation and trudged on.

Appleton lost sight of the girl it had never welcomed. Several years passed and not one of her old acquaintances even remembered to wonder about her. When preparations were made for a class reunion to be held in the Fall of that year, Mary Hastings inquired of several persons just how to go about locating Edna. It was finally decided to give up what would only prove a hopeless task. There were no friends or relatives left to do so much as offer a suggestion.

But oddly enough on the day just before the one set for the gathering, Mary Hastings heard that Edna was in town. She learned of it through a city friend of her brother's who was stopping at the only hotel in Appleton. He had heard Edna's name somewhere and remembered that there was a name like it on the register.

Mary went down to the hotel and asked for Edna. The girl sent word that she would be down. When Mary saw her, she was rather sorry she had even tried to locate her. The city had done nothing for Edna. To be sure, her heels no longer were run over and in many ways her appearance was improved, but one could see that Edna Graham was not to the manner born.

It was to Bob Custis that Mary confided the true state of her feelings. "You must come, Bob. Of course I know you aren't a class member, but you are my guest. I'll give you a treat when I introduce you to Edna Graham." "Isn't she—all right?" inquired the man quickly. "Why does everyone speak so strangely about—this girl? I pity the poor kid. I heard Naida who ever she is—that girl you introduced me to yesterday—I heard her say it would be a regular vaudeville sketch to see this girl Edna. It seems cruel to me."

"Perhaps it is cruel," said Mary reluctantly. "Perhaps I am the worst of the lot. I hadn't thought of it from a man's point of view, I've a notion to go down and offer Edna my new knit outfit. That ought to hold Naida for a while. She's never seen it. She wouldn't dream it was mine."

"Why do you think of this—just because you want to fool Naida, or because you feel sorry for a less fortunate sister?"

"I—actually—I like Edna Graham. I always did, but there was something abominable in my makeup. I don't know what it is, but I follow the leader. The rest of them shunned her and I did, too. Bob, I'm ashamed. It's because I want Edna to have a good time."

The young man from the city smiled at the girl more gently than he had ever done. "Some day I want you to meet my wife," he said. "She will like you. She will show you a very gay side of our city when you come up. Pardon my saying it, but there is no one who has access to more enjoyable places than—Mrs. Custis. I've been down here looking for a young man to take charge of the offices for me. I'm deciding on your brother."

The class reunion was a tremendous success. Mary had persuaded Edna to accept the sport suit of sheer wool, and more than that, she supplied the hosiery and boots to match. "I knew you came unprepared for this sort of thing," she explained, kindly. "At the last minute some of the girls have decided to splurge. It makes me happy to have you accept, Edna. I hope you will enjoy the reunion."

At 6 o'clock the day was pronounced over. Bob Custis and Edna were asked to drive to town with Mary and her brother. Bob had been very nice to Edna throughout the day, and when Mary had showed such unexpected kindness to the girl, Bob had beamed at her warmly.

"Remember, Mary, I told you I wanted to introduce you to my wife one of these days. No time like the present. Edna was a little bit afraid to come down here, thinking that every one would snub her. I told her we'd take a try at it and see if there wasn't just one human being in the town."

Edna—the wife of Bob Custis. Mary flushed as she recalled the story her brother had told her about Bob Custis's money. She had offered Edna a suit to wear and probably the girl had trunk after trunk of the most gorgeous clothes imaginable.

"Why, Edna—I'm so ashamed. I just assumed you'd need things. I always was a simpleton. Please forgive me for forcing that dress on you." "Forgive you! Why, my dear, I mean to keep this dress always. You can come down to the hotel and take your pick of what I have in its place. It—it is the most beautiful dress I will ever own. It is just knitted out of—kindness."

And a girl who could go to the shops and buy at random touched the soft folds of wool and wept out her happiness on the shoulder of the man who had promised to break down every barrier of life for her.

When you look at a bit of pure gold you are quite well satisfied that it is of a light yellow color. It only appears so. The white light reflected from its surface has the effect of adulterating the color rays from the metal, and it appears much lighter than it really is.

If this white light is eliminated, the color is a brilliant orange. Beaten to its greatest possibility of thinness, it becomes transparent to light, and held up and looked through, it becomes a lovely sage green. Reduced to a fine powder it becomes ruby red, and when vaporized it becomes purple.

A CREED FOR THE DISCOURAGED

Virginia Opal Myers, in "The Tranquillan," at the T. B. Sanatorium, Tranquille, B. C.: "I believe that God created me to be happy, to enjoy the blessings of life, to be useful to my fellow beings, and an honor to my country."

I believe that the trials which beset me today are but the fiery tests by which my character is strengthened, ennobled and made worthy to enjoy the higher things of life, which I believe are in store for me.

I believe that my soul is too grand to be crushed by defeat; I will rise above it.

I believe that I am the architect of my own fate; therefore, I will be master of circumstances and surroundings, not their slaves.

I will not yield to discouragements. I will trample them underfoot and make them serve as stepping-stones to success. I will conquer my obstacles and turn them into opportunities.

My failures of today will help to guide me on to victory on the morrow.

The morrow will bring new strength, new hopes, new opportunities and new happenings. I will be ready to meet it with a brave heart, a calm mind and an undaunted spirit.

In all things I will do my best, leave the rest to the Infinite.

I will not waste my mental energies by useless worry. I will learn to dominate my restless thoughts and look on the bright side of things bravely. I will not be a coward. I will assert my God-given birthright and be a man. For I am immortal, and nothing can overcome me."

A HUNDRED POINT MAN

A hundred point man is true to every trust; he keeps his word; is loyal to the firm that employs him; does not listen for insults nor look for slights; carries a civil tongue in his head; is polite to strangers without being fresh; is considerate towards strangers; is moderate in eating and drinking; is willing to learn; and is cautious yet courageous.

Hundred-point men may vary much in ability, but they are safe to deal with, whether drivers of drays, motormen, clerks, cashiers, engineers or presidents of railroads.

The hundred-point man may not look just like all other men, or dress like them or talk like them, but what he does is true to his own nature. He is himself. He is more interested in doing his work than in what people will say about it. He does not consider the gallery. He acts his thought and thinks of the little act.

In the highest sense the hundred-point man minds his own business; he does not spend his money until he earns it; he pays his way; he realizes that nothing is given for nothing; he keeps his digits of other people's property. When he does not know what to say—he says nothing, and when he does not know what to do he is wise enough to seek good advice and to act upon it!

NAMES AND PHRASES

Here is a curious theory to account for our phrase "Go to Jericho". There is a house in Essex called Jericho, where Henry VIII is said to have held his clandestine meetings with Anne Boleyn.

"Where is the King? "Gone to Jericho" was frequently heard about Whitehall.

The inhabitants of a certain town in Norway cannot understand why post-cards of the place are bought in such great numbers by English-speaking tourists. But the name of the town happens to be "Hell", and every one of the post-cards endeavors to reproduce a flaming sunset, which naturally carries out the name in a very lurid way. No wonder the cards are much in demand and send back to incredulous friends at home.

Before the war the Germans had adopted bodily a number of English words for which they had no equivalents in their own cumbersome tongue. "Tailor," made, "lawn-tennis," and "sport," are among the terms which were thus appropriated. It was comical to watch their struggles in the early part of the war to find German substitutes of less than seven syllables for these words. The Germans have always used substitutes for the names of a good many articles in everyday use. A glove is in German a "hand-shoe", a thimble a "finger-hat", while a grasshopper is a "hay-horse", and chickens are "feather-cattle".
