As I stood in the moonlight I knew that the Countess von Rohm had pronounced my doom. There could be no withdrawal of the accusation, my cresty enemy would not would have to be repeated before a court-martial, witnesses would be sworn, and I should fall in proving my charge, though truth and justice went on my side. It meant ruin, disgrace, the scorn of my former comrades, if not the penalties of the law, if I was found guilty.
I raised my brows as much as his nervousness, which was a symptom of nonchalance could hide, as at the strangeness of his request.

HOME RULE QUESTION UP IN BRITISH HOUSE

Irish Motion Carried by Large Majority in Modified Form

Resolution Adopted That Dublin Parliament Deal With Purely Local Affairs Subject to Imperial Approval--Change Doesn't Suit Nationalists--Mandate of People Necessary First.

London, March 30.—The House of Commons today after a lengthy debate on the question of home rule for Ireland adopted by a vote of 132 to 157, a resolution moved by John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, that "in the opinion of this house, a solution of this problem can only be attained by giving the Irish people legislative and executive control of all purely Irish affairs," after it had been amended by adding the words, "all subject to the supreme authority of the Imperial Parliament."

It was known beforehand that the debate could have but an academic interest, because the government already had pledged that there would be no deal in the matter of home rule until it had been given a mandate at the general election. But the debate was made notable through the strong declaration of Chancellor Asquith, which was all the weightier because made at the moment Mr. Asquith was actually assuming the premiership.

Editor of The Times:
Sir.—As the people are soon to choose their representatives to the city council, I have the honor to ask you to retain the confidence and support of your fellow citizens, I ask you to put yourselves on record as being in favor of the council, and whether you think there has been any under ground methods used in this connection, if there is another reason why you should express your opinions, as these are another suit entered, or that you wish to bring their proposals clearly before the people at the next general election, Mr. Birrell said he believed the chief obstacle would be to their help in solving the problem.

CREW FROZEN TO THE DECK

American Sailors had Terrible Experience off the Aleutian Coast

San Francisco, March 28.—In lonely graves on the bleak shore of Ekatlan Peninsula, island of Unimak, in the Aleutian archipelago, lie the bodies of ten men from the schooner John F. Miller, while out on a whaling voyage that time the vessel was wrecked on the rocks of Bear Harbor, Unimak Islands, on September 30, last. The ship was at anchor a few hundred yards off shore at what is known as Bear Harbor when an icy gale from the northwest swooped down upon her.

News of this tragedy came down from Alaska in the schooner Charis, Captain Kohler and his crew heard the tale from men who fought their way over the mountains to Sand Point from a landing where they put in with a dory for help for the survivors. Captain Milton Kelton and twenty men, suffering from the effects of the exposure that took off their companions, are huddled in the lats that fishermen occupy on Unimak Island.

But they are in no immediate danger from either hunger or cold, so that account says. Deer from the hills are plentiful and the natives and the fishermen in the huts have laid in provisions sufficient to last until warm weather comes and ships loom on the horizon to the southward.

The John F. Miller left here on November 23 with thirty-one men to get the cargo of codfish that was carried by the schooner Glen when that vessel was wrecked on the rocks of Bear Harbor, Unimak Islands, on September 30, last. The ship was at anchor a few hundred yards off shore at what is known as Bear Harbor when an icy gale from the northwest swooped down upon her.

After sea hurried over the vessel, quickly coasting deck and shrouds with ice and preventing the men from changing their positions. These waves fairly submerged the mate and even while he stood bound him with ropes to iron windlass. When he became aware of his predicament he cried out to Captain Kelton.

The skipper, realizing that the schooner must soon go to pieces on the reef or be swept farther landward on the rocks, with almost superhuman efforts made his way to the windlass and, with an ax that he had hung to from the first indication of pending shipwreck, literally chopped the mate from the manacles of ice.

Then came the crash, and the numb and helpless mariners were cast into the surge and thrown violently about, none of them able to battle against the cold nor swim in such a maelstrom. As the Miller was quickly broken and hurled upon the wharf red the men were swept shoreward, unconscious and dying.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE OF NORTH SHORE LAD

Thirteen-Year-Old Willie Smith, of Loggieville, Lost in Snowstorm on Miramichi Ice, Fought for Three Days and Nights on Uninhabited Island With Hands and Feet Both Frozen—He May Recover.

Chatham, N. B., March 30—Wandering on the broad expanse of the Miramichi river for three days and nights and found on an uninhabited island, miles from his home, with feet and hands frozen, was the terrible experience of Willie Smith, the thirteen-year-old son of Horatio Smith, of Loggieville.

On Saturday young Smith went across the river in company with several other boys to do some fishing. A snowstorm came on and Smith started for his home but lost his way in the storm and wandered down the river.

When he did not appear at his home enquiries were made and finally a search was started, but he could not be found. Later on his wanderings of Saturday were traced by his footsteps, but the track was lost and despite earnest efforts no further trace of him could be found. Finally this morning Samuel Brean of Nguague, found the unfortunate lad on Portage Island, where he had been stumbling around in a circle for hours and perhaps days. He was at once taken to a house in Nguague and medical assistance summoned. It was found that his hands and feet were badly frozen but it is thought he will recover. The boy is now being brought up from Nguague to his home.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE FOR THE MEETING OF COMMISSIONERS

Federation Appoints Five Men to Attend—E. M. Sipprell Chosen New President—H. A. Powell Speaks on the Liquor Question Now and in Future.

The St. John county branch of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation held a meeting last evening in the Every Day Club hall, Waterloo street. The first half hour was devoted to business. J. Willard Smith was in the chair.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: E. M. Sipprell, president; E. N. Stockford, 1st vice; Geo. W. Stewart, 2nd vice; J. H. Galloway, 3rd vice; J. N. Harvey, 4th vice; Mrs. Jane Reist, 5th vice; Joseph Seymour, 6th vice; J. N. Riley, secretary; E. S. Stephenson, treasurer; J. Willard Smith, R. H. Collier, W. J. Parks, C. E. Woodburn, John Galloway, W. F. Rowley, Joshua Stark, James Sullivan, James Keys, Dr. W. F. Roberts, C. H. Newling, S. H. McCann, C. H. Hastings and all the city clergymen, the executive. H. J. Willard Smith, E. N. Stockford, R. H. Woodburn, C. H. Hastings and W. J. Parks were appointed to represent the federation at the meetings of the liquor license commission.

H. A. Powell delivered a very able address on the economic waste of the liquor traffic. He estimated that more than $20,000,000 per annum was spent on the liquor traffic in Canada, of which fully $17,000,000 was absolutely wasted. Taking the whole $20,000,000 he pointed out that it was equal to $5 per capita of the population of the country, of which $3 per capita was spent on liquor. He pointed out that the money wasted on liquor would in five or six years pay off the national debt. There was thrown away on liquor three times as much as was spent for the main-

DR. SKINNER CROSS-EXAMINED ABOUT ACTION AGAINST DR. SPANGLER

Little progress was made in the Dr. Spangler case before Judge Ritchie yesterday. Dr. Stewart Skinner was still on the stand when Dr. Skinner and Dr. Murray McLaren will be examined.

Under cross-examination by Mr. Hazen Dr. Skinner produced the minutes of the meeting of the council of Physicians and Surgeons. He read a resolution passed in December, 1905, which instructed a committee to report on the practice of Dr. Spangler.

Mr. Hazen's request that any subsequent discussions be recorded in the minutes was given in evidence and was objected to by Dr. Skinner.

Dr. Skinner's request was followed, and Mr. Hazen said: "I submit I have the absolute right in cross-examination to have produced any minutes of the Council of Physicians and Surgeons in which there is any record of any resolution, discussion, reports or anything in reference to the prosecution of Dr. Spangler."

The court ruled that the minutes read should be confined to the record of the council's decision as a whole and not give individual expression of opinion.

Dr. Skinner then read a report submitted in March, 1907, in which it was disclosed that the services of the Canadian Detective Bureau were used in securing evidence against Dr. Spangler.

On the conclusion of cross-examination by Hon. Mr. Hazen, Recorder Skinner questioned the witness as to whether the evidence given was allowed subject to objection by Mr. Hazen, who claimed that the prosecution had no right to bring out new matter on re-examination and also that the witness was being asked questions which the court should decide.

The witness testified that the treatment of Messrs. Raymond and Chich was a curative process and as such a practice of physicians.

NEW LIGHTS ARE DECIDED ON

Safety Board Deals With Variety of Business -- Rhea Arbitration Award.

At the monthly meeting of the safety board last night the final location of the new electric lights was recommended to the council. Those present besides the chairman, Ald. Vanwart, were Aldermen Baskin, Spragg, Baxter, Kelley, Bullock, Holder, Willet, McGowan, McGoldrick and Sproal, director Wisely and the common council.

The location of the new lights was first taken up. There will be twenty of these and on motion it was decided that they be installed. The estimated cost will be $12,500. The sum in the estimates was $750. The following are the localities: Douglas avenue, west suspension bridge; corner of High and Portland streets; Main street, half way between Paradise Row and McConnell's store; the middle of Harding street; Gilbert's lane; Marsh road; Chipman's Hill; Charlotte street, opposite King square; Haslemoore avenue, next to house; Belle Vue avenue or Pokiook road; Bridge and Millidgeville road; corner of Water and Watson streets, Carleton; Germain street, near Ludlow, Carleton; Waterloo street, near Tabernacle church.

The finding of John Flood and James Myles, the arbitrators appointed to value the improvements made by Mrs. Elizabeth Rhea on her lot in Carleton, was read. The award was $3200. On motion the matter was left to the recorder.

A request from John LeLachere for a five year lease of his store in the market building was referred to the director to report on at a future meeting.

Edward Craig applied for a renewal of the lease of his lot in Guy's ward. The request was granted.

Edward Lavoie applied for a five year lease of a lot in St. James' street, Carleton, from May 1 next. It will be granted.

The sub-committee appointed to consider the request of the Sons of Temperance for a renewal of their lease of their rooms in the market building, reported in favor of it. It was decided to grant the renewal for another year.

A letter was read from Col. G. Rolt White, asking for the use of a part of the Agricultural hall for three months as a store house for ordnance department. This will be recommended to the council.

The report of the committee appointed to consider the purchase of an ambulance was read. They asked for power to act, and it was granted.

W. E. Lavoie, secretary of the Carleton Cornet Band, wrote asking for a lease of the ground floor of the Carleton City Hall. Wm. J. Frons and Mr. Lavoie appeared to press the claims of the band. They said the expenses of the band are between $900 and $1000, and they wish to have the use of the hall for entertainments.

A committee consisting of the west side aldermen, the chairman and the director, was appointed to first examine the hall with a view of putting it in a proper state of repair.

RIVER POSTAL SERVICE BY STAGE

It is announced that the Star Line will not in future carry the river mails, the terms offered not being satisfactory. They will probably run a tri-weekly steamer service to Fredericton. It is said that with the steamer not on the route a number of excursions to up river points will be arranged.

A daily stage service for the mails will be inaugurated on April 1, for river points. From Westfield Station to Gagetown stages will give a daily mail, making double trips. In winter two-hour stages will be used and in summer single stages. On Ormoceto, which now has a daily service, the mails will be carried daily to Upper Gagetown, also by stage. The same kind of service will be given between the Mouth of Jemseg and Cambridge, the latter point now having a daily mail from Osoy's Station. Ormoceto mail leaves the railway at Wasnie Station.

The only post office on the river which will be without a daily mail will be at Long Reach, which is reached three times a week from Clifton.

OBITUARY
Edward Carter.

Mrs. Jas. Alward, of Sydney street, last week received word of the death of her brother-in-law, Edward Carter, which took place recently in Chicago. He was a native of this city, and had many St. John friends who will regret to hear of his death.

Rev. Wm. Morrissey.
Orphan, N. B., March 30—Rev. William Morrissey, for over thirty years parish priest at Bartibogue, five miles below this town, and known all over the American continent for his marvellous cures, died this morning at 2:30 o'clock in the Hotel Dieu Hospital here, after an illness of many months.

Mr. Morrissey had been a great sufferer from rheumatism but his end was caused by general debility and the breaking up of his eyes. He was beloved and revered for his piety, broad mindness and his wonderful medical knowledge. Father Morrissey's name was one to comfort and all classes and creeds deeply regret his death.

The late Father Morrissey was born in Halifax sixty-eight years ago, and while at Rome studied medicine, the use of which he understood so thoroughly that sufferers came from as far as Vancouver, Wisconsin and Minnesota to receive aid, which he always furnished gratuitously. Even at the time of his final illness Col. Mackenzie, the local druggist, who handled Father Morrissey's prescriptions, had letters and inquiries from the Pacific coast, from people anxious to get Father Morrissey's advice and assistance.

The funeral will be held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Shipley.

Amherst, N. B., March 30—The death of Mrs. Mary Shipley, aged ninety-four years, took place at Fenwick yesterday. She was one of Cumberland's oldest inhabitants. Her husband pre-deceased her twenty-eight years. She leaves three sons, all prominent citizens of Cumberland, and two daughters. Mrs. Shipley was a member of the Methodist church for half a century, and greatly respected. She had never been ill in her life.

Calvin Reid.

Hopewell Hill, March 30—Calvin Reid, an old and highly respected resident, died on Saturday evening at the home of William Barkhouse, where he had been boarding for some time. The deceased was a son of the late Deacon James Reid of Caledonia, Albert county. He was about seventy-five years of age and unmarried. He leaves one brother, Alfred Reid, of Caledonia, besides a large number of relatives and friends.

George Orr Sr.

Rexton, N. B., Mar. 31—George Orr, Sr., died Thursday at his home in Jardineville after a week's illness of paralysis. Mr. Orr was born at Kilmirrie, Ayrshire, Scotland, in 1825. He learned the ship carpenter trade at Ardrossan and came out to Miramichi when a young man. He shortly afterwards moved here where he married Miss Margaret Irving, whose death occurred about six weeks ago. Deceased is survived by two sons, George and John of Jardineville and one daughter Mrs. Fred S. Savoy of Richibucto, also one sister, Miss Jane Orr, of Jardineville.

WHY THE SEASON HAS BEEN POOR

Fish Dealers Talk About the Shortage in the Receipts of Fresh Fish

An stated in Saturday's Times, wholesale fish dealers have suffered considerably during the past winter, owing to the shortage in the catch, which, according to leading local merchants, has been lighter than for several years.

Talking with a representative of the fishing industry, it was ascertained that during the entire winter season receipts of fresh fish had been very light and, in order to meet the demand for fish, it has been necessary to import haddock from Boston. Early in the season, Grand Manan fishermen succeeded in getting a comparatively small number of cod, but subsequently were badly handicapped owing to the shortage of bait. Unfavorable weather conditions have also had their influence in shortening the fishing season.

Only a few days ago, Mr. Robertson added, he had telephoned to many of the fishing centres along the coast in order to secure bait for a vessel in Nova Scotia, but without success.

For a A. Smith was also approached and stated that the sardine and fertilizer factories were, he understood, responsible in a measure for the shortage of the small herring, which form the chief food for most of the fish caught in the Bay of Fundy.

Should this shortage continue, he added, the fisheries of the bay would be seriously affected, and he thought that the Dominion and United States governments should work together to protect the small herring, and thus benefit the sardine and fertilizer industries.

Speaking of the lobster fishery, Mr. Smith said that the cod and haddock and half inches in length could be offered for sale, while, in St. John county, they were placed at ten and a half inches.

Leonard Bros. also stated that the winter season had been anything but favorable, the cod and haddock fisheries of the Bay of Fundy having been considerably lighter than for several years.

Judging from present indications, few, if any, of the local fishing schooners will be ready to start out before the middle of next month. It has been learned that the fishermen of the Richibucto River and its branches have formed an association and already has a membership of thirty-three. The smelt fishermen feel that they have been unfairly treated by the buyers during the past season. The union will meet once a month for the transaction of business which will tend to improve the conditions of the fishing trade.

WALSH AND PIERCE HAVE BEEN MATCHED

Premier Bantam Weights of America to Meet in Six-Round Bout

Jimmy Walsh of Boston, the premier bantamweight of New England, and Young Pierce, of Germantown, Pa., have been matched to box six rounds in Philadelphia on April 6. They will meet at 116 pounds, weighing in at 9 o'clock on the night of contest, which practically means a ring-side weight. This is one of the most important matches arranged this season and will go a long way toward solving the perplexing question as to who is the best bantamweight boxer in this country.

Walsh has cleaned up all the little fellows in this country, and in order to get a match has been obliged to meet featherweights. After beating Digger Stanley, the English bantamweight, in a 20-round bout at Chelsea, Mass., Oct. 20, 1905, Walsh could not persuade any bantamweight in this country to face him. He then flew for higher game and tackled Abe Attell, the present featherweight champion, three times, losing a 15 and a 10 round contest and being stopped in eight rounds by the peer of all 122 pound men.

Pierce, like Walsh, has been forced to knock men out of his class. Failing to get a match in this country he traveled to England last year and fought Owen Moran, the British champion, being beaten in a grueling battle after 17 rounds. Even in this contest Pierce was forced to give away weight and the fact that he gave Moran the battle of his career a man who is eager to meet Joe Gans, the world's lightweight champion, speaks a volume for his ability.

GOSSIP OF THE BOXERS

Tonight in the big Coliseum at San Francisco, Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, meets Battling Nelson, the fighting Dane, in a 20-round battle.

Attell has met Nelson once, in a six-round, no decision bout at Philadelphia in May, 1905. Attell made Nelson look like a counterfeit nickel in that affair. What will happen in a 20-round bout is another matter. Attell is wonderfully clever, probably the cleverest man the ring has had since the days of Ike Weir. Nelson is the gamest, toughest, most aggressive lightweight the game has ever known. There's the promise of a battle that will live long in pugilist history.

The winner of this battle has been promised a match with the winner of the Pecky McFarland-Jimmy Britt bout, which comes off at San Francisco April 10. Even money is being wagered on the Attell-Nelson contest.

John L. Sullivan and his sparring partners, Jake Kilrain and Kid Cullen, continue to draw the sports, young and old, to the Old Howard in Boston. Fighters may come and go, but the big fellow still holds his place in the hearts of all followers of the ring game.

Dave Deshler meets Young Loughrey at New York April 2nd.

QUAINT BRITANNY AT THE NICKEL

Highly Educational Travel Film and Three Other Good Pictures—Two Rousing Songs.

The Nickel's fine programme was punctuated with loud outbursts of applause last evening when Sydney Beckley in a pictorial rendering of the stirring national air, Rule Britannia, and James Maxwell in singing Why Did They Sell Kill-larney? finished their numbers. Both songs "went big" to use a performer's term, and it is safe to figure upon their success again today and tomorrow. The theatre was crowded at every show and the pictures proved a most interesting half hour's entertainment in themselves.

In this connection A Wedding in Brittany was easily the leader. It is an extraordinary photo of a marriage ceremonial in northern France and depicts the quaint women and men in their odd garb making merry at the feast, dance and musical meeting. The Angel of the Village tells the story of a poor child whose parents are dead and who labors under the hallucination she is very rich and lavishes her imaginary money round about. A real funny film is Twenty-five Cents Short in His Pay, or the woes of a hen-pecked husband, while 'I've Won a Pig' is a scream from start to finish, being the struggles of a man who captured a pig in a picnic lottery and had a hard time getting it home. The incidental effects from the orchestra still when the pig was being handled were sidesplitting.

Once again the Nickel is to the fore with the best pictures and the best music, not forgetting its excellent orchestra.

Miss Jean M. Foulis has recently been admitted to the Montreal Art Association. A picture painted by her and now on exhibition in that city, has been much admired and judged worthy of its place in the art gallery. The subject is Morning in St. John Harbor.

The St. John schooner Stella Maid from Wickford Me. for her home port, is scheduled at Wood Holl last Thursday and lost part of shoeing had planks chafed, anchor, stock broken and is leaking considerably. She is now on her way here.

The London Daily Mirror of March 10 states that "the objection raised at Tiverton, Devon, by Tennyson Smith, a temperance lecturer, to the acceptance by a brewer caused so much indignation that he was pelted with rotten eggs."

The police have succeeded in securing possession of two coats stolen from the hallway of H. C. Rankin, 212 Germania street, on Saturday evening, and for the stealing of which John Allan, alias Elliott, was sentenced to Dorchester yesterday. This makes a total of four coats recovered by the police, all of which have been identified.

E. K. Spinney has retired from the presidency of the Yarmouth, N. S. Board of Trade. He has been succeeded by Mr. H. Cook. The annual meeting of the board was held on Saturday evening last, when the reports showed that the year has been a most successful one.

About $25 was realized in aid of the new Seamen's Institute last night by a concert given by the Steward's Concert Party from the steamer of Ireland. S. L. Corbell presided. H. Tunstall, J. Adam Cunningham, charged with stabbing Mary McKinley, was released in the police court yesterday afternoon on his promise to be good. "I am thoroughly ashamed of myself," he said. Michael McHugh was recalled to the stand. He testified that he had struck Cunningham because the latter would not go out the witness room. E. S. Ritchie appeared for Cunningham.

Nine men and boys residing in or near Fairville were each fined $40 or three months in jail before Justice Mason yesterday on the charge of trespassing on C. P. R. property. Mr. Joseph Holland of Chatham chopped 87 logs in ten hours at Mr. Andrew Gregory's camp, Queens Co. last November in competition with Arthur Mays, a heretofore champion. The vanquished woodsman cut only 67 logs. There was a small bet between the contestants. Mr. Holland has the record for ten hours work in New Brunswick log cutting.—(Campbellton Graphic.)

NEW HOME OF ROYAL BANK

It will be One of the Finest Bank Buildings in Canada and will be ready for Occupancy about May 1st

The new Royal Bank building at the corner of King and Canterbury streets is rapidly nearing completion and by the first of May, Manager Blair and his staff hope to vacate their present premises at the corner of Prince William and Princess streets for their new quarters, which are undoubtedly the finest of their kind in the Maritime Provinces. The large outer doors are of heavy metal of handsome design, and the inner doors are of light oak, with polished finish and long plate glass panels. The vestibule, which is connected with the main hall by a pair of oak's doors, the counterpart of those just described, is provided with a white marble flooring and the walls finished part way up in the same material, above which is a smooth plaster coating painted in a pale buff shade. The ceiling, which is nicely paneled, will be grained in oak to correspond with the doors.

Situated in the main hall, directly in front of the entrance, are the stair case and a large electric elevator. To the right of these and extending from the elevator shaft to the wall at the level of the inner doors, is a stout iron screen, with large double gates of artistic design, connecting the hallway with the main banking apartment, which is handsomely finished.

The main floor outside the screen is of white marble and the counter fronts of the same material, the tops being of green veins of black marble, on which rests the iron screen, nicely designed and painted black. The floor inside the counters is of polished quartered oak.

The walls, to a height of about ten feet, are done in polished marble above which the finish is of smooth plaster, tinted in almost the palest shade of green. Close to the wall, directly opposite the counters are two handsomely finished and artistically designed oak tables, between which is placed a heavy settee of the same material.

Inside the counters and at the extreme rear of the building is a large vault fitted with a heavy steel door, provided with a stout combination lock of the latest and most approved design. The inner door is of polished steel bars with burnished brass trimmings, the tops of the bars being finished in brass balls and spear heads, placed alternately. Opening off the main apartment are two other vaults situated just to the rear of the elevator shaft, the first on the main floor, the second just above it is reached by a steel staircase. To the right of the lower vault is the switch-board, which is protected by a light oak door with glass panel.

In the upper right hand corner at the front of the building is a white marble fireplace and mantle. The bank will be lighted throughout with electricity; the fittings being of brass, richly designed and of antique finish.

The basement is devoted to the and lunch rooms for the staff. Here also are situated three more roomy vaults. The lunch and locker rooms are provided with matched hardwood floors and finished in light green with trimmings of a much darker shade. The upper floors, which are also handsomely finished, are designed to correspond with the banking rooms and all have already been rented.

How Rooms May Be Curtained

A FEW TIMELY SUGGESTIONS

In the eternal fitness of things home furnishings should be considered with all propriety. Take for instance the matter of Curtains:

For the Living Room we have Ariston, Irish Point, Point Venise Curtains, Marie Antoinette and Battenburg Curtains.

For the Bedroom the Curtains should be of lighter weight material, such as Frilled Bobbinet, Frilled Muslin, Cluny, Battenburg or Scotch Net Curtains.

For the Dining Room the window draperies should be colored, such as Arablan, Colored Madras or Gulpure D'Art Curtains, also rich Linen Velours and "Sundour" Madras Muslins.

Rich Silk Tapestry for drawing room. Furniture Tapestries and Figured Velours for dining room and library furniture.

For the Library--Ecru Nottingham Curtains, also Plain Velours and Colored Madras.

Cretannes of both English and French manufacture, for bedroom furniture and draperies. Plain Velours and Reps for Portlers.
Silk Mantel and Piano Drapes all colors.
