TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

CUT GRADES ON I.C.R. IS PLAN OF NEW MANAGER

Gutelius Aims at Six-Tenths Over Whole Line

HAUL MORE, GREATER SPEED

Idea is to do Work at Rate of 100 Miles a Year, Most of it in Nova Scotia—New Engineer of Bridges For Road Has Been Appointed

(Canadian Press)

Montreal, June 30.—The aim of the I. C. R. management is to create a six-tenths grade from Montreal to Halifax and Sydney and this change can be brought about at the rate of 100 miles each year, according to F. P. Gutelius, general manager of the government railway system, in an official statement after a trip over the system accompanying the minister of railways and canals.

What impressed the new general manager more than anything else, he said, was the fine physical condition of the railway. When the change as to grade was accomplished the hauling power of each locomotive would be 100 per cent. in excess of the present capacity.

The change of grade will be brought about on short stretches of the I. C. R. For instance, some twenty miles of the line from Point Pappin to Sydney will have to be rebuilt, but this would not be more than twenty-five per cent. of the distance from the Strait of Canso to Sydney.

The big change will be made between Truro, N. S., and Amherst, which section takes in the famous Foleigh Mountain stretch. Engineers are going over the road, said Mr. Gutelius. There are several projects on foot to remedy this heavy grade, one being the southern route and another to the north but, whatever is done, the six-tenths grade will be obtained at the rate of 100 miles each year, a very high rate of speed, he said.

Mr. Gutelius expressed pleasure at the cooperation he had received from David Pottinger, also from the different commercial bodies in the three provinces, all apparently indicating that a united effort was to be made on behalf of this railway.

He will take up once over the bridges from one end of the system to the other.

The double tracking of the I. C. R. will come in for a good deal of consideration and much of this work will be taken up in the near future.

The question of building hotels along the line of the I. C. R. has not yet been discussed by the new management.

The general manager will be in Ottawa on Tuesday and he will take up his headquarters in Moncton as soon as possible.

LAY TRACK TO BROAD STREET Council Resolution For Providing Facilities For Local Men

After deliberation in committee the city commissioners have decided to grant permission to the I. C. R. to lay a spur track for use as a siding along the foot of Charlotte street extension, from the Ballast wharf to Broad street and a resolution to this effect will be presented to the council this afternoon.

The permission is given at the request of the local manufacturers and other business men who have been accustomed to use the sidings at the Ballast wharf and who have been hampered by the removal of the sidings.

MILITANTS TRY TO BLOW UP LABOR EXCHANGE

Newcastle, Eng., June 30.—Militant suffragettes tried to blow up the labor exchange here on Saturday. A canister of powder was placed in the main entrance to the building and the fuse lighted, but was discovered and the fuse extinguished. "Votes for Women" literature was found scattered all round the place.

SAYS HE IS 149

Chinese Veteran, in New York on Way to Canada, Says That is His Age

New York, June 30.—With 149 years resting lightly on his queasy head, Dr. Cho Choy, who arrived here yesterday on his way to Canada, is undoubtedly the oldest man in the world, if his claim to longevity is true.

He was really angry with the skeptics among the newspaper reporters who thought he might possibly be a few years younger than 149, and stoutly declared that he was born in 1764 at Shan Hai Kwan on the borders of Manchuria, where the great wall of China runs down to the seashore on the gulf of Pe-Chai.

The aged Manchu arrived in bond with seven other prosperous Chinese, the youngest of whom was seventy, from Cuba to Toronto.

Dr. Cho is the leader of the party in every particular. He is more than six feet tall, notwithstanding a slight stoop; is bald while his features are a web of gray wrinkles. He lived for fifty years in his native land and says he spent nearly 100 years in Cuba practicing medicine among the Chinese there. He acquired considerable wealth.

While on Ellis Island the doctor accepted a few dollars and was given a ticket for a steamer to New York, which he always carries with him, and a little cold water.

AT CAMP SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., June 30.—Today broke fine and warm, and the troops in camp were kept steadily at drill for the most part practicing in battalion order for tomorrow's tactics. The military air pervading the encampment was much enlivened this morning by the heavy boom of the artillery guns, about twenty rounds being fired.

Major L. L. Kent, 87th Regiment, was held officer today with Captain W. T. MacKinnon, A. M. C. orderly medical officer. Major F. P. Black and Lieut. E. L. Caldwell have been appointed to examine unqualified non-coms for rank in the cavalry, while the infantry board is composed of Major H. Irving, Captain E. E. Wood and Lieut. A. K. Henning.

Major H. Irving, Captain E. E. Wood and Lieut. A. K. Henning, were slightly injured yesterday, and Major Hamilton Grey, Major Perry and an officer to be detailed here have been appointed to inquire into the matter.

A team from the 62nd drum corps defeated the engineers in baseball last night 6 to 5. Levine and Evans were the batters for the winners, with McNutt and Jones for the losers. A fine programme for the highest aggregate score will be held tomorrow, when the McAvity cup will be competed for, the program making the highest aggregate score taking the trophy. Many entries have been received.

A visit to Premier Fleming is scheduled for Wednesday evening in the camp tent. Others who will be heard will be Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Hon. J. A. Murray and Judge Jonah.

FREDERICTON CUSTOMS RETURNS FOR QUARTER

A Gain is Shown—Rhodes Scholar in Cathedral Pulpit

Fredericton, N. B., June 30.—The value of goods entered at the customs house here during the quarter ending today was $16,510, an increase of $3,449 over the corresponding period last year.

The receipts for the quarter ending today were $16,510, an increase of $3,449 over the corresponding period last year.

Ralph Sherman, who has just graduated from Oxford, occupied the pulpit of the cathedral yesterday in a most acceptable manner.

A horse belonging to a man named Turner fell upon the pavement here in front of a big motor car being driven by Miss Louise Edgcombe. Only the coolness and skill of Miss Edgcombe prevented a disastrous collision.

Professor and Mrs. Mitchell, of New York, have arrived at Davidson Lake with thirteen boys, who will be their guests during the summer.

NO SMOKING IN VESTIBULES OF MONTREAL STREET CARS

Montreal, June 30.—It is announced by the Montreal Tramway Company that the regulation prohibiting smoking on the rear platforms of street cars will become effective tomorrow.

The only exception made to the rule is that in the four rear seats of the open cars smoking will be allowed, but on all closed cars smoking will be banned in accordance with the agreement with the city council.

MUST USE THE SADDLE IN ROTTEN ROW

London, June 30.—The objection of King George and Queen Mary to women riding astride, which was known during the international horse show at Olympia, has gone a step further. A royal fiat was issued today ordering that ladies who ride in Rotten Row and Hyde Park in the mornings must use the side saddle.

New Ambassador to Germany

Berlin, June 30.—The proposal of Justice James W. Gerard of the New York state supreme court as U. S. ambassador to Germany, has been received by the German foreign office and forwarded to Emperor William. The nomination was very favorably received in official circles and it is believed that the appointment of Mr. Gerard will be accepted without any delay.

C. P. R. Telegraph Changes

Winning, June 30.—John McMillan, superintendent of telegraphs for the Manitoba division, has been appointed to the position of superintendent of western lines, including the entire territory from Port Arthur to Victoria, with headquarters here.

THROUGH ST. JOHN TODAY WITH FOXES FROM THE FAR WEST

Valuable Lot in Charge of Young man on His Way to P. E. Island

A carload of foxes, including ten pairs of pure blackes worth many thousands of dollars was attached to the Montreal express which passed through the city today. The shipment is nearing the end of a 4,000 mile journey from the middle of the north west to Prince Edward Island. The black foxes, are the property of M. Holland, who is personally taking care of them.

The greatest caution has been exercised in order to keep the animals, which are very valuable, in good health and appetite. If this is not done there is liability of loss. Last week, Mr. Holland said, in one lot of foxes being shipped to Montreal there was a loss of twenty-five through loss of proper ventilation.

The black foxes which Mr. Holland had in the car will be placed on his property in the island, near Summerside. In addition to the blacks he was taking forty pairs of "patches" or ordinary foxes consigned to different people on the island. The trade in all varieties of foxes there is still very brisk.

Mr. Holland who is aged about twenty-six, had to travel north as far as Montreal Lake to secure his prizes. He brought some very interesting relics of his trip back with him, one a walrus tusk more than two feet in length which had been broken in the sea.

The Equinox—work which, on account of their inefficient tools, took them many months to complete. The skin of a large black bear was another notable trophy.

CONVICTIONS IN THE "ARSON TRUST" CASES

Chicago Jury Finds Two Merchants and an Adjustor Guilty

Chicago, June 30.—The first convictions in the so-called "Arson Trust" cases, in which forty-eight men are under indictment, were gained yesterday after a jury had deliberated more than two days.

Edward and Paul Covitz, former woolen merchants, and Joseph Clarke, a public fire insurance adjuster, were found guilty of causing a fire in the Covitz place of business on November 5, 1912.

The Covitz brothers are at liberty on $40,000 bonds, and Clarke is out on a $75,000 bond. This surety will be allowed to stand until a motion for a new trial is disposed of.

GOLF MATCH TOMORROW

The St. John Golf Club will have as their guests tomorrow twelve gentlemen from Woodstock who will play a match with a team selected from the local club.

The Woodstock team will be composed of A. D. Holyoke, J. S. Creighton, A. Taylor, William Balsam, George Mitchell, J. A. F. Garden, R. M. Loane, Dr. Sprague, H. V. Dalling and William McCann who lived in the city at noon today, and A. E. Jones and Rev. Frank Baird who are to arrive this evening.

Married People Live Longest

Chicago, June 30.—Married persons live longer than those who are single, according to Dr. C. Clair Drake, of the city health department.

The doctor has figured out that the death-rate of Chicago bachelors is 29 1/2 per cent higher than that of married men. He sets the mortality rate of unmarried women at 40 per cent, higher than that of married women.

KILLS LOVER, EATS HIS HEART

Berlin, June 30.—The existence of cannibalism in Germany came to light last week during the trial of a widow named Kockert, who on Saturday was sentenced to death for murdering her lover. His remains she mutilated and burned. The woman confessed having baked the heart of her victim and eaten it.

FIREBUG DESTROYS ONE OF SCOTLAND'S FINEST CASTLES

Glasgow, Scotland, June 30.—Ballindrain Castle at Balfour, Stirlingshire, one of the largest in Scotland, was gutted by fire this morning, only the bare walls remaining. The fire seems to have been incendiary as the private fire apparatus had been cut and rendered useless. The usual rumors laying the blame for the outrage on the militant suffragettes, were refuted by the fact that the castle cost $200,000 and was built by Sir Archibald Ernest Orr Ewing. It contained 100 rooms. It had been unoccupied for some time.

TRAIN PLUNGES THROUGH BRIDGE, HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE IS FEARED

Calcutta, British India, June 30.—While a passenger train was crossing the river Sako, near Onda in the Burdwan district, yesterday, the bridge collapsed. The train plunged into a torrent forty feet below. The first seven coaches fell to the bottom of the river, and remaining coaches piled on top of them. A heavy loss of occupants of the latter coaches were thus held prisoners in midair. A heavy loss of life is feared.

SERIOUS FIGHTING IN THE BALKANS

London, June 30.—A Sofia despatch to the Times says that the Bulgarian government has received an intimation that Serbia has unconditionally accepted Russia's arbitration. The four premiers are expected to assemble in St. Petersburg this week. Roumania, the despatch adds, has officially notified the Bulgarian government that she will not remain neutral in hostilities commencing.

Sofia, Bulgaria, June 30.—More fighting occurred today between the Greek and Bulgarian troops some distance to the west of Saloniki. According to the Bulgarian account, the Greek soldiers tried to cut the Bulgarian communications along the railroads from Serres to Drama, but were driven off by the Bulgarians after they had burned a village.

Bulgarian troops opened an attack on the Serbian troops along the whole line in Macedonia, according to despatches from the Serbian headquarters. The publication of the news created immense excitement in the Serbian capital.

Berlin, June 30.—Heavy fighting is in progress in Macedonia, according to despatches received here. Hostilities opened between the Serbians and Bulgarians in the neighborhood of Istop and between the Greeks and the Bulgarians in the vicinity of Drama.

CIVIL ENGINEER CHARGED WITH MURDER IN SHERBROOKE CASE

Sensation in Trial is Caused by Disappearance of Witness

Sherbrooke, Que., June 30.—The disappearance of a witness whose testimony was of the greatest importance, was a sensation provided at this morning's hearing of the case against L. A. Dufresne, a civil engineer, charged with the murder of Mrs. L. O. Blodreau, who was killed by a bomb sent through the mail.

The witness is Salmon Ouellet. When he did not turn up at the court this morning Crown Prosecutor Nichol asked for a bench warrant. It was issued. Mr. Nichol said that he understood some persons, hearing that Ouellet was to testify, had induced him to leave the city.

That Dufresne had accused Blodreau of doing him a mean trick was the substance of the evidence of Napoleon Benoit. The witness said Dufresne had threatened to get even with Blodreau.

CHATHAM WEDDING

Chatham, N. B., June 30.—This morning at nine o'clock in the pro-cathedral, Rev. Fr. O'Keefe united in matrimony Albert G. McLean, son of James McLean, of Chatham, and Miss Gustie McDonald, daughter of Jeremiah McDonald, of Douglasfield. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie McDonald, and the groom was supported by James Fitzpatrick, of Napan. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside here. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

DAMAGES IN TITANIC SUIT

Judge Awards Irish Plaintiff the Sum of $500 Claimed

London, June 30.—The King's Bench Court gives judgment in favor of Thomas Ryan, an Irish farmer, who brought suit against the White Star Steamship Company to recover damages for the loss of his son in the Titanic disaster. The judge awards Ryan the sum of $500, which had been agreed upon, and the costs of the suit.

A similar award was made in two other cases at the same time.

The jury found that there was negligence on the part of the officers of the Titanic in speeding despite ice warnings.

WHERE THE WIND BLOWS 200 MILES AN HOUR

Sydney, N. S. W., June 30.—A wireless message from Dr. Douglas Mawson, British explorer, sent from his Antarctic base and dated June 15, says tremendous blizzards were prevailing. The wind often blew at a greater velocity than 100 miles an hour and the gusts exceeded 200 miles an hour. The observer had not been damaged at the time the despatch was sent and the meteorograph was still intact. Snow drifts caused the temporary suspension of the wireless service.

CATHOLICS OF CANADA IN A THIRD PARTY

Matter Before Meeting at Three Rivers Today

OTHER QUESTIONS OF INTEREST

Bishop Cloutier Cites Free Masons and Jewish Immigration as Inimical to Church—Also Alarmed at Growth of Critical Spirit Among Laity

(Canadian Press)

Three Rivers, Que., June 30.—The supremacy of the Church in matters moral and religious, its right to be sole director of the education of its youth, and the necessity of a united Catholic party in Canada, instead of the old division of Liberals and Conservatives are among the matters which today's session of the congress of the "Association Catholique De La Jeunesse Canadienne Francophone" will consider. These doctrines were advanced at Saturday evening's opening meeting of the congress.

"The Church," said Dr. Baril of Laval, "has the sacred right to direct the education of its youth and to see that none of the books of instruction are allowed to contain anything in the least injurious to the doctrines of the Catholic Church. It is the business of the state to give protection and financial assistance, if need be, but not to take charge of national education."

Bishop of Three Rivers

Mrs. F. X. Cloutier, Bishop of Three Rivers, declared there was necessity for militant defenders of the church in Canada, owing to the growth of a materialistic civilization. The church was in danger from the spirit of rationalism, from intellectual liberalism and the influx of Jewish immigrants. At the latter, Bishop Cloutier made a noteworthy utterance:

"For my part, it is a great misfortune that we should have opened our doors to these unhappy people, who have come to devour the substance of our race."

Bishop Cloutier was also pained at the alarming growth of a critical spirit among the laity, who presumed to submit the doctrines of the church to individual judgment. There was great need of a firm stand on the part of the Church. The great obstacle lay in party politics, which had prevented the union of the French Canadian Catholics for their rights.

LIKELY CHANGE POLICY AS TO APPOINTMENTS TO THE SCHOOL BOARD

Offering to various expressions of disapproval the common council will probably reconsider the decision to fill future vacancies on the Board of School Trustees for which they have the appointment by the nomination of members of the council. They decided last week that Mayor Frink should be appointed upon the expiration of the term of office of George E. Day, but the mayor has decided that he does not wish to take the appointment, especially as his time is pretty fully occupied already. It is understood that a motion to reconsider their previous action will be made at the meeting of the common council this afternoon and that when Mr. Day's term expires he will be reappointed.

Harris, secretary-treasurer of the Herald Printing Company, was killed. There were in the car with her husband, J. H. Harris, president of the Herald Company, Mrs. Myles, her mother, and Andrew Myles, who was driving the automobile. All these escaped injury. The car was nearly to the top of the hill when the engine stalled. Mr. Myles endeavored to apply the brakes, but they failed to work and the car started back down the hill, overtook the valley, about eighty or 100 feet below, and rolled down nearly the entire distance.

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND ASQUITH'S AMBITION

Wants to Be Remembered as Man Who Reconciled The Two Countries—How the Question Looms Large Now in Interests of Liberal Party

(By T. P. O'CONNOR, M. P.) London, June 27.—There are certain phenomena which always recur in the British House of Commons and one of these is that curious state of slackness that comes with the third or fourth year of its existence. It is scarcely credible what a difference in the tone or two makes in the whole atmosphere of that assembly. Indeed one of its most constant tendencies is to be the abject slave of the hour; the lobby is more capricious and mercurial than the Stock Exchange. You see exultation turned into despair and despair into gloom in the course of the same evening. And similarly the House of Commons, which after a triumph at a general election comes back in a temper of splendid hopefulness and determination, is twelve months later, already beginning to show signs of decay. The bloom of a rose is stability compared with the temper of Danesha over the hills.

Always the Sword of Damocles

This changeableness of temper is due to the fact that the life of a house of commons is not very long in any case; and it has been made shorter by recent legislation. The average life of a member is only four years, but it is doubtful if, in times so changing, any house of commons can last even as long as five years. But apart from this fact, it is a part of the British constitution that a General election may be dissolved at any time. I saw Mr. Asquith destroy the parliament elected in 1910 after five months of its existence. And thus it is that a house of commons always lives with a sword of Damocles over its head.

THE LONDON STAGE

Barrie, Shaw and Pinero in Rival Plays. WRITE FOR NEXT SEASON

Famous Barrister's Latest Stage Enterprise—London Does Not Quite Know What to Think of Knoblauch's Play, The Faun

(Times' Special Correspondence) London, June 16.—Which of the three great dramatic rivals, Barrie, Shaw and Pinero, will score hardest when their three new plays are produced next season? When Charles Frohman put on that famous triple bill consisting of one-act pieces by this distinguished trio, you will remember all the honours went to the Scotchman and since then none of them has given as a work of any importance, though Sir Arthur Pinero was represented recently at the St. James' by a "dramatic skit" which was too unpretentious for serious criticism.

Now, however, dates have been set definitely for the production of three full-sized plays by Barrie, Shaw and Pinero, and it will be highly interesting to see which author comes best out of the inevitable comparison that will be drawn.

As usual, both Sir James and Sir Arthur are non-communistic so far as details about their new pieces are concerned, and even Shaw has less to say than is his wont. "Androcles and the Lion," as Shaw calls his new play, is scheduled for production by Lillah McCarthy and Granville Barker, the management which gave us "Fanny's First Play." In response to an enquiry about this new piece, Shaw says: "It is absolutely nothing but the old child's story of 'Androcles and the Lion'—the man who pulled the thorn out of the lion's foot and then became a Christian martyr and was thrown to a lion in the arena. Of course the lion was the thorny one, and would not eat him. The piece is in three scenes, which will be played through in Granville Barker's best Shakespearean manner and is, like most of my plays, an excellent humanitarian and Christian tract."

This new piece of Shaw's will be given by the Barkers at the St. James' during the temporary absence, from that fashionable playhouse, of its ultra-fashionable actor-manager, Sir George Alexander—truly these theatrical "sirs" are as thick as blackberries nowadays—and will be the first of Shaw's many pieces to be produced in London. In all probability it will be immediately followed by Sir Arthur Pinero's new long play, "The Mind-the-Play-Girl." If there is anything in the choice of a playhouse this fact should count in Pinero's favor, for the St. James' has been the scene of some of his greatest triumphs. There we had "The Squire," "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," "The Princess and the Butterfly," and some years later, "His House in Order" and "Mid-Channel."

As to Barrie's "Legend of Leonora," one may add to the details already furnished that, besides Sir John Hare and Mrs. Patrick Campbell for the principal parts, Charles Frohman has now engaged the always delightful actor, Eric Lewis, and those exceptionally promising juveniles, Geoffrey Trevelyan and Frank Denton for subsidiary parts.

The Seven Sisters Falls, a piece from the Hungarian which Norman Trevor put on so painstakingly at the Savoy, was performed exactly fourteen times, or two for each sister. Undaunted, however, by this preliminary crop, Trevor is about to try his luck again, this time with a new play by Edward Hemmerde, M.P., K.C., who collaborated with another member of parliament, Francis Neilson, in the writing of "The Butterfly on the Wheel." It is rare, by the way, to find a lawyer writing plays than to find a member of parliament doing so, the House of Commons having supplied several dramatists, A. E. W. Mason for example, and the late Claud Lovell, who in "The Gordian Knot" furnished Sir Herbert Tree with one of the most colossal failures in that actor's experience.

Like the present home secretary, the Right Hon. Reginald McKenna, Mr. Hemmerde was formerly a mighty orator, having crowned a distinguished record in this line by winning the Diamond Jubilee. When he produced his first play, "A Maid of Honor," in 1906, he was sitting in parliament for East Denbigh, a fact which accounted for his non-attendance at the Savoy before you read these lines, is the fifth of which he has been either author or part-author, to be produced in the West End in less than five years. One of them was "The Crucible," which followed "The Butterfly on the Wheel"; another "Proud Maizie," which provided Alexandra Cartwright with an attractive part as a Scots lassie in kilts, but which did not actually coin money when done at the Aldwych.

Mr. Hemmerde, who was found at the Savoy, is big of frame, sunburnt and looks the part of an all-round athlete. He is almost as potent at golf and cricket, by the bye, as with the quill.

"I am planning a lot of hopes on my picture modern life at Oxford. I date my play 1888, my hero being a young undergraduate, who eventually blossoms into a cardinal. Norman Trevor himself takes this part and Edith Bell that of the woman with whom fate brings the hero into close contact. Fred Kerr is a semi-humorous part which seems to fit him like a glove, and we are all hoping for a success."

Forbes Robertson's farewell to London was a real event. Never again shall we see him in his famous characterizations. That is reserved for the New World. The sight at Drury Lane

Theatre on the last night was extraordinary. Every seat in the vast auditorium was taken and every space from which the stage could be seen was filled. All day long the queue had been waiting for the doors to open. Sir Johnston was given a fitting audience.

London loves a surprise, but it cannot bear to be surprised too much, and it is just a question whether "The Faun," which was produced on Tuesday by Martin Harvey at the Prince of Wales Theatre has been too much for it or not. Londoners cannot understand a faun in a Mayfair drawing-room being taken so seriously, and in spite of its knowledge of horses in their wild state, no cockney would take its tip in the choice of an artificially trained and ridden racehorse.

Besides, the very sight of a drawing-room tragedian such as Martin Harvey or for Edward Knoblauch remains to be seen.

Once more the Irish Players from the Abbey Theatre in Dublin have come to the Court Theatre to fascinate us with a season of their wit and genius. The Abbey Theatre is such a wonderful institution that if it were not there it would simply have to be invented, as some one has remarked. It began so brilliantly with Synge and Lady Gregory that we could not expect it to keep it up yet. The latest addition is a one-act play by St. John Ervine somewhat after the style of "Hindle Wakes," but which was written before the last named. "The Maganimous Lover" is beautifully written and as wonderfully acted. There is a great dearth of really first class plays this season, and this accounts for the number of revivals. Sir George Alexander is playing with Mrs. Pat Campbell, both in their original parts in "The Second Mrs. Tanqueray," and is drawing full houses. "Jim the Penman" and "Diplomacy" are also now on.

AN APPEAL TO MR. HAZEN

The Chatham Gazette follows the example of the Chatham World in appealing to Hon. Mr. Hazen to stay the hand of the Minister of Railways. The Gazette says that orders have been issued to tear out the rails on the Chatham section of the Canada Eastern from the Blackville Bridge down to Maloney's Siding, about three miles from Chatham Junction. The Gazette says:—

"This action following so closely upon the minister's visit and the protests addressed to him on that occasion and during the past winter have greatly stirred the people along the route and the loss of the railway is more even more bitter by reason of the circumstances attending it. The government's total disregard of their rights and necessities has aroused deep resentment and the people find it hard to believe that their line which they have used for nearly thirty years, is actually a thing of the past."

On Wednesday orders were issued to remove the rails on this section, according to the Gazette, and on the following day workmen began to pick up the ties that had been placed along the line before Mr. Cochrane's visit with the idea of repairing it. The Gazette makes the following pointed appeal to Mr. Hazen:—

"If anything is to be done to save the line it must be done at once. The one man to whom the county can appeal is Hon. Mr. Hazen and unless the wires are made hot at once it will be too late for him to act. Mr. Hazen is responsible for this province in a political sense and he is certainly responsible to it to see that justice is done in all sections. Unless he can accomplish the task of driving Mr. Cochrane from his purpose of closing the line he might as well retire from the field as a defender of the province's interests. No one in this section of the country would ever take stock in him as a political heavy weight if he allows this unjust act to be perpetrated under his very nose."

Hon. Mr. Cochrane is not likely to pay any attention to protests made by Mr. Hazen, and probably Mr. Hazen is well aware of this. The Minister of Railways, during his recent tour of the Maritime Provinces, has left the fences of the local politicians in bad repair. In St. John, Sussex, Moncton and on the North Shore, Conservative politicians are earnestly hoping that Hon. Mr. Cochrane will remain away from New Brunswick until after the next election.

LEGISLATION AND PROGRESS.

District-Attorney Whitman of New York said recently, "Legislation has become a habit with our people, and having passed a law they straightway forget it. Many of the conditions against which we have legislated we see continuing around us daily." The great difficulty in most countries is too much law-making and too little law-enforcement. In Canada there is a good healthy regard for law, but there is some danger that when we urge the enactment of new laws beyond the desires and sentiments of the people whose duty it is to make them effective, we will land in a less healthy and happy state. Every law on the statute book which is not made effective by a strong public opinion behind it, is a danger and a menace. Law is an expression of the desires and sentiments of a people. It would always be the crystallization of the feelings of the democracy. For, after everything is said, it is the people that enforce laws, and to appeal to the government expecting it to be beyond the sentiments of the people is to expect a stream to rise higher than its source.

To-day it is easy for lobbyists and well organized societies to secure the enactment of laws affecting the public well. But if these laws are not made effective by public sentiment back of them, they have not accomplished the intended result, but they seriously affect all law and make for anarchy.

The spirit of disobedience to law is a worse evil than the over-shadowing power of corporations. There is growing up everywhere a tendency to forsake the old landmarks, to treat the lessons of sages as antiquated, and to pay less regard to the high benefits of law. Men and women living within the jurisdiction of law avail themselves of its protection, and for this reason they are bound to obedience. The Suffragettes of England appeal to the police for protection from the mobs that disturb their out-door meetings, but they themselves utterly ignore the law that has guided England in the past and that alone can guide it in the future, and plant in its stead a "higher law" which each one for herself may adjudge and administer. When the Suffragettes are joined by the Unionist party in teaching masses of men by precept and by example, the lesson that it is not necessary to bow to constituted authority as represented by king and parliament, as Sir Edward Carson and his henchmen have been doing in Ulster, it is difficult to imagine the issue to which they may not be leading Great Britain. Regard for law has sanctified her past, but if the party that stands to lose by the destruction of property and the disappearance of respect for government plays the game of disregard for law, all parties can play of the same game, and all can lose at it. Never before, perhaps, were such large bodies of organized and unorganized men disatisfied with the conditions under

BIRTHDAYS OF NOTABILITIES

MONDAY, JUNE 30

James MacKinnon, who was up to the time of its amalgamation with the Canadian Bank of Commerce, general manager of the Eastern Townships Bank, was born on June 30, 1830, in Londonderry, Ireland. He entered the bank in 1876 and rose to be general manager in 1902. He is now manager in chief of the Eastern Townships Division of the Bank of Commerce.

Andrew Dickson Patterson, a portrait artist, Montreal, is fifty-nine today. He was born in Picton, Ont. In his time he has painted the portraits of many eminent Canadians.

Colonel J. B. Forsyth, collector of customs, Quebec, and prior to that a commission merchant and broker, was born in Quebec eighty-three years ago today.

TUESDAY, JULY 1.

Hon. Charles Marcl, who was the last Liberal speaker of the House of Commons, observes his fifty-third birthday today. He is a newspaper man by profession and started his newspaper career on the Montreal Gazette. He became speaker in 1909.

The Hon. James McDonald of Halifax, former chief justice of the supreme court of Nova Scotia is eighty-five today. He retired in 1904, declining knighthood.

The Hon. James McLaren, judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature for Ontario, was born on July 1, 1842, in Lachute, P. Q. He practiced law and was one of the leaders of the bar in the latter city.

HER GROUNDS

"On what grounds did she base her suit for divorce?"

"Cruelty. Her husband forced her to use a 1910 model auto."

While visiting in the south recently, enforcement of these laws which the most enlightened public conscience will approve.

A great deal of water will run under the bridges before there is a general election.—Brockville Times.

If there is a great "emergency," why do Messrs. Borden and Rogers delay in asking the electors to endorse their scheme to send $85,000,000 out of the country? Several weeks have gone by since the naval bill was killed by the Senate. The Premier is averse to a general election on this issue because he fears defeat; and he does not wish to relinquish office. Therefore, he is letting the "emergency" wait. An "emergency" that can wait is, of course, a fraudulent emergency.

As the word "delegation" seems to have too formal a sound to suit some Conservatives, it may be announced that a number of Conservative business men waited upon Hon. Mr. Hazen on Saturday to discuss with him various matters of interest in this constituency, including the Grand Trunk Pacific, the Transcontinental, and the completion of the Valley Railroad. These gentlemen were disposed to be somewhat reticent after their conference with the Minister of Marine, but it may be expected that an official or a semi-official statement of the result of the interview will be made public. If so, it may be interesting, for there are many points in connection with the transportation situation in regard to which the public desires specific and accurate information.

An Editor's Longevity

(Orilla Packet)

G. S. Porter, who founded the News market in February, 1822, and was publisher of it for a year and a half, recently celebrated his one hundredth birthday at his present home in Philipstown, Australia.

HOW COAL IS WASTED

Not only the mine owner and his employees are censured for waste. It has been estimated that the railroads, the largest consumers of coal, utilize less than 50 per cent. of the heat in the coal which they burn under their locomotives. If 60 per cent. is wasted by the operator, and 50 per cent. of that is lost by the railroads, only 30 per cent. is actually utilized and 70 per cent. is wasted, and not the railroads only, but all consumers are equally wasteful, says Francis S. Peabody in Coal Age.

YOUNG BRAINS NEED CARE

The doctor, whose specialty is the care and treatment of children, asserts that the education of the average child is commenced far too early. A child, he maintains, should be taught to acquire knowledge by the use of his senses, and there are sufficient facts surrounding him to keep his attention engaged as much as is healthy for him. If he does not begin to study books until he is ten years old he will at the end of a year read better than the child who is set to learn his letters at four or five. It is a question of brain force. The brain of a child, while almost as large as it will ever be, is delicate and impressionable. Such growth as takes place is mainly in the direction of organization. If subjected to a strain at this period it is liable to injury. Hence the wisdom of first allowing it to develop strength.

IT'S ALWAYS THE WAY

The man had his own opinion about wall-paper. He didn't agree with his wife on the subject. "Come," he said in his masterful fashion, "I'll show you what's what." So they went together to the wall paper store. The wife stood back meekly and let her liege lord assert himself. "Something neat and quiet for a library," he said in his easy business way. "They pushed forward a rack of 28 rolls of neat and quiet library paper. They showed him each roll. Then they brought out another rack. Twenty-nine rolls this time. He looked at each roll. His eye began to wander. He was getting nervous. They brought forward the third rack—27 rolls. At the seventh roll he went to pieces. "I've forgotten an important engagement he said—and he fled.

PROGRAMME FOR DOMINION DAY

Many Attractions in And Around St. John

ON THE RIVER

Picnics, Excursions, Yacht and Motor Boat Cruises, Baseball Games, Suburban Celebrations, Etc.

The great number of holiday attractions both within and outside the city should make tomorrow a most enjoyable day. Should the day be fine, and all probabilities point in this direction, fully 1,800 people are expected to go up river on the St. John Power Boat Club cruise.

These events should cause a large crowd from the city. The summer houses in the country are just opening and many will spend the day at them. For those who are left at home, however, there will be plenty to do.

The St. John Power Boat Club has prepared a fine outing for the holiday. About 125 boats will probably go up river on the cruise. Many boats will have the club tonnage but it has been decided that Craig's Point, about twelve miles up the river, will be the meeting place at 10 o'clock.

The executive in charge of the sports and boat race include Commodore Gerow, Fred L. Corey, George E. Day, William Scott, Louis Munro, John Frodsham, Charles Walth, Frederick A. Flemming and Joseph Brown.

The members of the Royal Kennebec Yacht Club will enjoy a cruise on the Kennebec as far as Long Island. The start will be made about 9:30 o'clock. The craft will be out in full force and the city will probably lose nearly 500 more of its populace in this way.

The return to the city will be made early in the evening. This feature of the R. K. Y. C. will attract a good number of the city's population to the river. The cruise will be a grand affair and the city will be glad to see the members of the club in a quiet match. In the afternoon water sports and other events will be carried out, and in the evening there will be a dance at the clubhouse. Refreshments will be served at the club during the whole day.

Numerous other of the smaller clubs have arranged special outings on the river and in the country. Private picnics have been organized and there are also some public ones. The Borden Club is conducting one at Byle's Point and the Royal Order of Moose is having another at the Ferns. The river and other steamer are offering reduced rates for the holiday and also the railways. A good many people will probably take advantage of these excursion rates and spend the day in some outside town.

Those who remain in the city can spend some time in either Rockwood or Seaside parks. In the latter there will be band concerts in the afternoon and evening by the City Concert Band. The buses and hucksters' street cars and all other conveyances are looking forward to a profitable day, that is, if it is fine, but otherwise—

AXAX AT OPERA HOUSE TODAY

The special attraction billed for the holiday at the Opera House is one that will appeal to all classes and prove most entertaining. Ajax, the man with the Lion strength, will open a three days' engagement this afternoon, and will appear three times daily, afternoons at 8 o'clock, and evenings 7:30 and 9 o'clock.

With Ajax will be presented a strong programme of motion pictures including the latest sensation by the Broncho Company, "Slave's Devotion," which is a thrilling war story containing a number of wonderful scenes.

Ajax will offer for the approval of local theatre-goers a number of wonderfully clever feats, and will be assisted by Mme. Carroll. Aside from his acts of strength, he will perform upon the trapeze in a manner at once exciting and interesting as well as displaying his ability as a master of the dumb bells.

The force of strength as will be set forth by Ajax will be found to be most wonderful and entirely different from anything heretofore seen in St. John. The prices for this unusual attraction will be ten and fifteen cents.

OFFER OF $30,000 FOR SEVEN LITTLE FOXES

An Edmonton, Alberta, despatch of June 24 says: Several little black fox whelps, with an option of $12,000 over their heads, and with another of $80,000 for their purchase made since the option was filed, are now being housed within the four walls of the St. James' hotel, and Mr. Bentley is watching them like his own eyes.

The litter now takes the form of a party of expensive guests at the St. James. Expensive indeed to the owner, for the little aristocrats are far from being like the ordinary fox; they must be kept on young spring chickens, costing in the neighborhood of a dollar apiece; no cast-off meat or trimmings are by any means good enough for them.

They are said to be about 60 days old, and each carries a hide approxi- mately one and a half square feet in size, being worth $1,715. That is at the rate of $12,000 for which the option was taken, but since then a sum of no less than $80,000 has been offered by a Prince Edward Island breeder for the little tribe. This offer was made about twenty-four hours after the option had been filed.

The trip down from the north was one, the like of which Mr. Bentley had never experienced before. The foxes in a crate, the food upon which they were to be fed, besides all the other necessary articles, of a north country pack, he carried upon his back, travelling for the greater part over muskeg country. The little animals had at all times to be fed on fresh game, and this, no matter how difficult, had to be procured.

It can be well imagined that it was with relief Mr. Bentley arrived in this contract for the reconstruction of Rideau Hall has been let to Lyall and sons of Montreal and the work will be pushed night and day, so as to have the official residence of the governor-general ready for occupation before Christmas.

CIRCUS TRAIN COLLIDES WITH STALLED FREIGHT

Seven of Barnum & Bailey's Horses Killed in Smash-up Between Ottawa and Montreal. Montreal, June 29—The first of the five sections of the Barnum & Bailey circus train, consisting of eighteen cars, bound from Ottawa to Montreal this morning, ran into a stalled freight train at Valois, ploughed through the caboose and another car, stopping when the engine hit the third car, which was loaded with stone.

There were no fatalities or serious injuries as far as the crews of either train were concerned, but six horses belonging to the circus were killed outright, while a seventh was so badly injured that it had to be destroyed.

Engineer Glazier, of the circus train, seeing that a collision was inevitable, jumped from his cab and sustained a sprained ankle. There has been no investigation of the circumstances, but C. G. Bowdler, divisional superintendent, this evening said it was his opinion that the crew of the freight had neglected to protect their train.

TWO GAY HUSBANDS ORGANIZE A REGIMENT OF THEIR OWN

The following story is told of two husbands who pretend to be volunteer soldiers and deceive their wives into letting them off every Friday evening for a supposed drill. When the regiment to which they are supposed to belong is ordered to Panama to quell an insurrection, their hearing of this, the two soldiers' decided to take advantage of it and go on a fishing trip.

They have a right good time, which is, however, suddenly brought to an end. In a newspaper they see a report that the regiment has been completely annihilated and they hurry home to make explanations. They arrive back in town at the same time as the regiment, which has not been destroyed after all, the report having been false. Their trusting wives believe their thrilling tales of warfare and look upon them as the two greatest heroes in the land.

To appreciate the whole story of these adventures, you should go to the Gem on Wednesday or Thursday and see the whole story in the Vitagraph two-reel comedy, "A Regiment of Two," the first two-part comedy ever turned out. With Sidney Drew, a famous actor, and Harry Morey, an always popular Vitagraph player, in the leading roles, it is a photoplay which keeps the house in uproarious merriment from start to finish.

It was estimated that the Kansas wheat crop would reach 118,000,000 bushels, as rains had come at opportune times and general conditions were excellent.

OPEN AIR SERVICE FOR SOLDIERS BOYS AT CAMP SUSSEX

Sussex, June 29—Sunday was observed in camp Sussex by impressive church services. The greater number paraded for open air service on the grounds and the Catholic members of the regiment marched to church in the village.

Three sides of a square were occupied by the troops, the fourth, bordering on the staff lines, was where the pulpit had been erected, and on both sides of this a large gathering of people witnessed the impressive scene.

The service was very impressive, and the men entered into it with fervor and enthusiasm. Arrangements for it were in the most capable hands of Canon Neale of the 74th regiment, senior camp chaplain. The preacher was Rev. Mr. Tobin, chaplain of the 28th Dragoons, and assisting were Canon Neale, Rev. Dr. McDonald, of Ottawa, chaplain of the 71st regiment; Rev. Mr. Sherman, chaplain of the 6th, each of whom participated in the service.

The 62nd band also gave a sacred concert this afternoon on the grounds, which was greatly enjoyed. Under command of Captain M. D. Cormier of the 67th Regiment, and headed by the band from that body, the Roman Catholics in camp in large numbers paraded from the camp to St. Francis Xavier church, in town, where they attended high mass, celebrated by Rev. Simon Grogan, C. S. S. R., of St. John.

Two members of the 28th Dragoons, John Mercereau and Walter Paxton, sergeant major of St. John, are confined in the hospital as a result of painful injuries received in being kicked by their horses. Sergeant Major Paxton was instructing some men in mounting when his horse suddenly shied and gave him a severe kick in the ankle. Trooper Mercereau was kicked in the chest. Another man is confined with tonsillitis, while the soldiers who were prostrated during the divine services, were discharged later in the day.

EARTHQUAKES IN SOUTHERN ITALY DO SLIGHT DAMAGE

Rome, June 29—Extensive earthquakes shook occurred in the southern part of Italy this morning, with the result that exaggerated reports were circulated describing the disturbances as grave disasters, with a large number of victims.

Official information received by the minister of the interior tonight is to the effect that the earthquake caused no damage in the entire province of Catanzaro, and was scarcely felt at Messina. Some houses were damaged, however, in the villa of Rossano-Marina, San Mario and other small places near Cosenza. Some of the inhabitants of these villages are reported to have slightly injured.

The list of fires of incendiary origin appears to be on the increase, another blaze in the North End being credited to the fire bug. The fire occurred about ten o'clock Saturday night, and was owned by Albert Angel, and situated on Metcal street. It was seen before it made any great headway and was easily extinguished.

On Saturday afternoon, the North End fire responded to a call from box 152 to extinguish a slight fire that broke out on Tapley's wharf off Bridge street. It is supposed the fire was started by a spark from one of the river boats. Little damage was done.

Late in the afternoon the apparatus was called to J. Labond's dry goods store on Brussels street, to put out a small blaze. On Saturday at noon in Fairville the house in Main street owned by Mrs. George Reed caught fire. Five tenants occupied the house and these were forced to the street without chance to save any personal effects. The total loss will amount to about $200. The building is insured, but the tenants did not carry any insurance. The building, which was totally destroyed, was occupied by John McGovern, Mrs. Mary Kellway, John Rice, Mr. Murphy and Mr. McGinn.

Yesterday afternoon and evening, a heavy forest fire raged in the vicinity of South Bay and Menzie Lake. The fire spread over a large tract and late last evening had not abated. A bad fire is burning in the woods along the Musquash river, and is doing much damage.

HIS TOY AEROPLANE

Julius, not yet four years old, was playing with his toy aeroplane. "Granny," he said, "daddy says we shall soon all be flying about in aeroplanes—you and me and daddy and mummy and Julius."

"I'm afraid, Julius, that I shan't be here then," said granny.

"Where will you be, granny?" said Julius.

"I think I shall be in heaven," Julius said.

"Oh, then, granny, I'll fly up and see you in my aeroplane." After a minute's pause he added—"And I'll leave my aeroplane outside, so that I can fly down sometimes to see the baby!"

SATURDAY'S WIN GIVES GREEKS LEAD AGAIN

Marathons Defeat St. Croix Team 6 to 4—Bangor Trims Fredericton in 10 Inning Game

New Brunswick-Maine League Standing table with columns for team, wins, losses, and percentage.

Today's Game: Bangor at St. John. Tomorrow: St. Croix at St. John (two games), Bangor at Fredericton (two games).

With the score two to nothing against them in the seventh inning, the Marathons, by a strong batting rally, scored six runs and won the game from Calais on Saturday.

Notes of the Game: O'Brien played a great game at third base. That seventh inning put the fans into a turmoil—a single by Waterhouse, a double by Riley and a single by Woodbury and a punt by O'Brien, a two-bagger by Pinkerton and another by Watt and we were four ahead.

The league race is certainly exciting—three teams bunched at top with only six points between first and third. Bangor is giving them all a great tussle with ten inning games.

Two New Orleans Matches For July 4; One of Them 20 Rounds

By TOM ANDREWS

New Orleans is to open up the twenty round game again, the West Side club, with Dominick Tortorich at the head, having matched Charlie White and Jack Britton for the marathon distance on the big holiday.

Another good match at New Orleans on the Fourth of July will be a ten round tilt between Tommie, the Kansas wildcat, and Young Denny of the south, who recently outshined Eddie Clabby.

The result of the games in the New Brunswick and Maine League this week will be watched with great interest. Just at present the Marathons are leading, but only by the small margin of three points, while Calais, the second team, is but three points ahead of Fredericton.

NOTED BOOKMAKERS

Some Famous Bets Made On Horse Races BIGGER IN THE OLD DAYS Davies, Fry and Chaplain Well Remembered on English Turf—The Derby Won by Sir Hugo is Instance of How Game Goes

(London Tit-Bits) Bookies are afraid to lay good odds nowadays, an old race-goer remarked at Newmarket recently. "Bets are more trifles compared with those of the old days." And certainly we do not hear of "plunges" such as those, for instance, which characterized the transactions of Mr. Davies, the first bookmaker to be called a "millionaire," who betted in tens of thousands.

Another famous bookmaker who made big bets, and in whom the racing fraternity had the same high confidence born of actual experience, was the late Mr. Fry. In the course of his long and highly successful career he paid out as much as £20,000 on a single wager, and in more than one instance a sum of £10,000. And while he lost upwards of £100,000 through defaulters, nobody ever lost a penny owing to his failure to pay up.

It has been suggested that there have never been such big betting transactions during the last twenty years. In 1902, however, when Ard Patrick won the Derby, the Grately Stable had a tremendous gamble on Pekin, and would have taken more than £100,000 out of the ring if he had won. Only a few years ago an amateur speculator had £12,000 on one of his horses in a selling plate, and lost the money, while more recently still £20,000 was laid on the Derby in the 1892 race, at odds of 40 to 1. There was probably only one man who backed that horse to the extent of £750, and he received £20,000 for his bold venture. But on Le Fleche, the favorite at very small odds, gold was poured in a ceaseless stream—in fact, until the bookmakers refused to take a sovereign more.

At the end of the trust period each bequest will amount to $20,156,964.15.

THE MIRROR OF LIFE
There is a homely old proverb that sets forth that vinegar never catches flies, and just from a worldly and selfish standpoint it is worth while to be amiable and to cultivate the gentle virtues of kindness and consideration for others. Life is nothing but a mirror that gives back our own face to us. If we smile upon it, it comes back to us in warmth and sunshine. But if we turn a dark and sullen face upon it, we are sure to get back nothing but cold avoidance and bitter dislike. The world is willing to laugh with us, and dance with us, and make merry with us, if we are equally willing to fight with us. If we dare to let the conflict we must take the consequences.

McGraw's Review Of the Big Leagues

By JOHN J. MCGRAW, Manager of the Champion Giants
(Copyright, 1913, by John J. McGraw)

The Brooklyn club was the little brother of the Giants last week. Previous to this series, the Superbas have been easy for the Phillies, but they turned on the Quakers and put the New York team right up in the running. The set of games that begins between the Giants and Quakers today is of vital importance because the two clubs are so closely bunched now, and the outcome of this series may mark the turning point in the race for the championship.

So far this season, the New York Quakers has not won a game from the Philadelphia Phillies. Neither has Philadelphia received a decision over the Giants at the Polo Grounds. If the Quakers should clean up in this series beginning today, it would put that club out ahead again, and it might be very hard ploughing to catch them. The manner in which the Giants proceed through the west demonstrated that the New York team carries a big bunch when pushed. Should the Giants gather the percentage points by taking three or four of these games, it would drop Philadelphia so hard that the team would have to do a whole lot of recuperating.

A Matter of Pitchers
This series is going to be largely a question of pitchers. The Philadelphia club has been hitting the ball particularly viciously of late. Cravath punting the pill with great vigor. No team in the east appears to have the pitchers to stop the hitting of the Phillies aside from the Giants. We stopped them at the Polo Grounds in the last part of May, and I look to see another crimp in the Quaker batting averages in the early part of this week. Five pitchers on my staff are in prime condition to go into the important series. They are Mathewson, Tesreau, Fromme, Demaree and Marquard. Mathewson, Tesreau, are in unusually good shape. Big Jeff is better right now than he has been at any other time this season. He is shown by his pitching against Brooklyn last week.

Brooklyn has formed the habit of trouncing the Giants this year whenever the opportunity offers, and the club plays its best against New York. Dahlen has a good team now, and it is working smoothly. He is not doing well at all against my bunch last week. If Brooklyn had run true to form this season and the Giants had taken the lead yesterday afternoon, the winners were the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association team, and the final score was 6 to 4.

Brooklyn has formed the habit of trouncing the Giants this year whenever the opportunity offers, and the club plays its best against New York. Dahlen has a good team now, and it is working smoothly. He is not doing well at all against my bunch last week. If Brooklyn had run true to form this season and the Giants had taken the lead yesterday afternoon, the winners were the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association team, and the final score was 6 to 4.

The reason I expect the Quakers to crack this week is because their pitchers are not in good shape. Seaton has been greatly over-worked, as Alexander. The latter was knocked out of the box by Brooklyn last week and so was Chalmers, who has not been going well at all since he came to New York. Dahlen is a natural makup man, and it is hard for the visiting team to get a natural makup. This is true to a certain extent. But to give an illustration that exacts the situation slightly, it might be pointed out that if a man starts at the sun for a minute, it blinds him only temporarily. If he goes out and stays into the sun day after day, he becomes stone blind. Many batters have resorted to this trick in order to achieve a natural makup. That will agree with the sign hung over the tin cup.

The Giants are constantly blinded by looking at the signs, and it hurts their batting eyes when at the Polo Grounds. The constant improvement of their pitchers on the road confirmed this belief. Therefore, the New York Club should hit better in Philadelphia than they do at the Polo Grounds. Their batting should also improve at the Polo Grounds from now on because I have just had many of the centre field signs painted over to a dull green. However, the yellow seats in the bleachers and the white shirts of the outfielders are also bothersome. I'll have to fix up those bleachers if I am convinced that they are affecting the batting of the club.

Boston is still living up to the reputation which Stallings has established for the club this year and it is just as liable as ever to upset any of the leaders for a game or two any time. It tripped the Giants last week when we were looking for a cinch. I have never seen such an improvement in a team as has been in the Boston aggregate. Hence this year over that wearing the same shirts last season. You have to be introduced to the club all over again.

The Cubs are still crossing me. Just when it looked as if they had discovered some real pitchers and would shoot to the front to make the going interesting, they started to cave again, and against the easier western clubs, too, after having put up a fine battle with the recent eastern invaders. Just give them a couple of good pitchers on whom he could count without sending them into the box with a prayer, and they would be up near the top quarrelling with the best of them. With a real pitching staff, he would make a grand fight for the pennant because he certainly has talent in the rest of his lineup. They are all smart ball players, which counts for a whole lot and results in many good plays that the fans overlook.

The Pirates
The Pirates are more and more beyond me. They lack good coaching, if it is true, and this has hurt the pitching department. But the rest of the club appears to be dead on its feet. Some of the Pittsburgh newspapers are after the management, too. This is a foolish attitude in a newspaper if it desires to have a winner in its town, because knocking never does do a club any good. I make every effort to influence my newspaper, but it is impossible to stop them together and they move over criticism. The Pirates should finish in the first division, but I do not see how they can crowd up into the pennant fight when they are so far behind now. Because more convinced every day last week that the Quaker boys are the boys the Giants will finally be forced to beat, with an outside chance that either Brooklyn or the Cubs will be in the eventual mixup.

The American League
The American League has now settled and its unsettled. The standing of the clubs today does not look anything like what everybody thought it would when folks were talking over prospects in April. The Red Sox are down in the second division and Chance is down in last place. Many optimists thought before the race began that Chance might break loose with the old Cub methods and make a stab for the championship, or for the first division, any way. Chance did not attempt to do his best while with the Yankees, but he had been with the club too long, and the change has benefited him as it has benefited many another good man in the history of baseball. The fans were always bothering Chance, and there is not much chance of a man living as a star when the town turns against him. Few have ever vindicated themselves in the same uniform. Fred Merkle was one, but it was a hard fight. Said Chase to a certain umpire in the American League just after he was traded:

"They blamed me in this town because I did not get everything which was coming with a bad apple. I'll show them now. If there is any baseball left in me, I am going to play it in Chicago. There was some baseball left in him all right. And, by the way, you don't hear the question as to whether a left hander can play second base, raised any more, do you? I never thought one could."

Chance is rapidly getting a more lively looking ball club. His infield is strong and his pitchers are showing signs of life unless he has his club again this year. If he should finish above last place, there are worse teams in the league, I believe.

EXPECT REMOVAL OF WEIRS WILL BE ORDERED

Harbor Fishing Matter Subject of Resolution For Common Council

Representatives of the harbor fishermen were heard by the city commissioners in committee at noon on Saturday and spent an hour and a half discussing their privileges. Trouble has arisen over the course adopted by some of the fishermen in erecting weirs on harbor lots which were not offered for lease this year owing to the fact that they were in the way of projected harbor improvements. Other fishermen, who had paid substantial sums for similar privileges, protested against this and the matter was taken up by the commissioners.

Both sides were heard on Saturday and there was some further discussion of the matter by the commissioners this morning. H. B. Schofield, commissioner of harbors, will introduce a resolution on the subject at the meeting of the common council this afternoon and it is understood that his resolution will be to the effect that the weirs on unleased lots must be removed.

The weir which has caused most of the discussion is located near the Ballast wharf, but there are others erected under similar circumstances near Sand Point which also will be affected by any order passed by the council.

TWO STOLEN FOXES ON P. E. ISLAND RECOVERED

A Sequel to The Gordon Case Has Developed

(Special To Times)
Charlottetown, P. E. I., June 30—In connection with the Gordon fox case which was up before the court of chancery for some time and in which judgment was recently given by the vice-chancellor, Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, it will be remembered that several foxes were stolen. A few days ago, before James S. Gordon died, one of his foxes had a litter of eight, an unprecedentedly large number. The ranch was broken into and four of the young foxes were removed. Suspicion attached to a man named Coughlan who was subsequently indicted, tried and acquitted. Three foxes were missing in the latter part of July, 1911. Now the news comes from Alberton that on Thursday among Constables George Barber and Charles Birch recovered a pair of the stolen foxes together with a litter of five. These, it is said, had been handed over to Hudson Gordon thus increasing the Gordon foxes by seven and adding considerably to the value of the estate.

The foxes were recovered on a ranch near Alberton. It is understood that two well known young men were implicated. Two of the four foxes are still missing and it is understood that one died and the other was sold on the eastern part of the island. Some interesting developments are expected.

In the chancery case litigation arose over a division of the foxes owned by the late James S. Gordon of Black Bank in the western part of the island. It was declared that the latter had entered into a partnership with his nephew, Hudson Gordon, whereby the latter was to secure half of the foxes. Other heirs disputed the partnership agreement and asked for a division of the property on other terms, but the court decided in favor of Hudson Gordon. The latter had disposed of several foxes to different people two years ago, and it is estimated that if they had been allowed to remain in the ranch and had borne even an average number of young that the estate would now be worth about two million dollars.

MANETTA LOSES $450 AND GETS BACK $350

St. John people interested in music will read with interest the following from the Montreal Star about a former entertainer at the Nickel—
To lose $450, all done up in a pretty little roll, is not a pleasant experience, but this is what Manetta, the popular tenor at the Imperial Theatre, suffered three weeks ago. Mr. Manetta has fairly recovered from his experience today, however, for $350 of the missing was reposing snugly in his pocket.

It happened in this way. Manetta had corralled three one hundred dollar bills, two fifties, and five tens all at one and the same time. One morning the singer awoke to find himself poorer once more. The first shock over, Manetta inserted a little want ad. imploring the finder not to be the keeper. Only last Tuesday an envelope reached the box office of the Imperial Theatre with the "ad" from the columns of "The Star" passed on as addressed. Within the envelope was $350.

Manetta is delighted to get that $350, but in quiet moments he must refrain from wondering what happened to the odd currency.
