Board of French Evangelization.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE MISSION:

MONTREAL, July, 1881.

In presenting you with a copy of the Annual Report of the Board of French Evangelization for the ecclesiastical year recently closed, we beg respectfully to solicit your interest and co-operation on behalf of the work.

From the report you will observe the encouraging progress that has been made during the past few years and the hopeful prospects, by God's blessing, for the future. The total number of Missionaries, Teachers and Colporteurs employed last year was 55.

With a staff of 12 Colporteurs engaged in pioneer work in some of the most densely settled, spiritually destitute, districts of the country;—with 12 Mission Day Schools in active operation, including the Central Schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles where French Canadian young men and women are educated for positions of usefulness and where many of the future Missionaries of the Board receive their preparatory training;—with a French Theological Department organized in the Presbyterian College, Montreal, under the care of a thoroughly accomplished French Professor of Divinity, for the training of Colporteurs and Missionaries,—the Board are now in a better position than ever before for the efficient prosecution of the work.

Heretofore the Board have been greatly indebted to numerous friends for generous personal contributions, without which the work could not have attained its present position.

Never before was there greater need than at present of the help of friends, and to all such we now earnestly appeal for contributions,—

(1) for the ordinary work of the Board in the payment of Missionaries, Colporteurs and Teachers. The average salary of a Colporteur is $420 per annum and of a Teacher $300 per annum;—

and (2) for the maintenance of the Pointe-aux-Trembles Mission Schools.

The average cost of each pupil per session is $50. To every one contributing this amount a particular pupil is assigned concerning whose progress reports will be sent from time to time. The Board are most anxious to increase the number of pupils from 102 to at least 150.

To enable them to decide as to the number of pupils to be admitted for the ensuing Session an early response is solicited. Where it may not be convenient to forward the money at once, a letter to the Secretary stating the amount to be contributed and the time of payment will greatly oblige. The Board will feel thankful to the friends of the work if in addition to their personal contributions they will kindly interest themselves in collecting contributions from neighbours. Subscription books and cards for this purpose will be forwarded on application to the Secretary-Treasurer.

All contributions for the work of the Board (including Rev. Father Chiniquy's Mission) should be forwarded direct to the Secretary-Treasurer, addressed Rev. R. H. WARREN, 260 St. James Street, Montreal,—from whom additional copies of the Annual Report, Subscription Books, and Collecting Cards can be obtained.

Soliciting your hearty co-operation and fervent prayers on behalf of the work of French Evangelization.

We remain, yours faithfully,

D. H. MACVICAR, LL.D., Chairman.

ROBT. H. WARREN, Secretary-Treasurer.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I give and bequeath to the Treasurer, for the time being, of the BOARD OF FRENCH EVANGELIZATION of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, in trust for the said Board, the sum of _____ to be paid out of my personal estate, without any deduction whatever; and I direct that the receipt for the said sum of the Treasurer of the above named BOARD OF FRENCH EVANGELIZATION shall constitute and be sufficient discharge therefor.

All contributions for the work of the Board, including the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools and the Rev. C. Chiniquy's Mission, should be forwarded to the Treasurer, addressed Rev. R. H. Warden, 260 St. James Street, Montreal, from whom extra copies of this Report and Collecting Books and Cards may be obtained.

REPORT

OF THE

Board of French Evangelization

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

IN no country does the Church of Rome possess greater wealth and power and influence than in the Province of Quebec. Out of an entire population of less than 1,200,000 she claims fully 1,000,000 votaries, nearly all of whom are of French descent.

By royal edict she has the right to levy tithes upon the products of the soil for the support of her clergy, together with special assessments for the erection of ecclesiastical establishments. By means of these and the large grants of land made to the Jesuits and other religious orders in the early history of the Province the Church has amassed enormous wealth, and, virtually controlling the Legislature, she has established herself more firmly in this Province than ever she did in France or Italy or even perhaps in Spain. With the most bitter and uncompromising hostility to the dissemination of God's truth she strives, and that but too successfully in the past, to keep the people in slavish ignorance and superstition. No one at all acquainted with her wealth and power and influence,—no one who has seen her magnificent churches and seminaries and convents (in marked contrast to the adjoining poverty-stricken huts of her votaries); no one who knows the number of her ecclesiastics who swarm in every section of the country; no one familiar with the hold she has on the vast bulk of the people, but is constrained to feel that it is not by human might nor by human power this Church is to be driven from her strongholds, but by the omnipotent Spirit of the living God.

And herein lies our hope. To the eye of sense it would seem utterly futile to cope with this giant system of error and superstition,—to the eye of faith it is far otherwise. Prior to the Reformation in Europe were not the nations on that continent in a condition as dark and seemingly hopeless as is Quebec to-day? Yet the Spirit of the Lord moved on the face of the land and suddenly there came light and gladsome liberty to northern and western Europe. So the time is coming—is not far distant, we believe—when by the same blessed Spirit Quebec will be disenthralled and her people rejoice in that liberty wherewith Christ makes His people free. But to bring about this happy era work is necessary,—faithful, self-denying, prayerful work,—for, to quote the words of the late Dr. Norman McLeod, "What may appear suddenly and unexpectedly, may nevertheless be the necessary results of long preparation; like the water or the gas, which suddenly enter a thousand city houses to refresh and illuminate them, but which are the results of years of labour in digging trenches, laying pipes and erecting reservoirs, during all which time no streams of water or of gas were ever present to the senses." To help on this work of preparation, to aid in bringing about the desired and longed for time, and to give to the French-speaking people of the whole Dominion the glorious light of the Gospel of Christ is the great aim and object of the Board; and though it is as yet but early morn, but the dawn, the break of day, still progress has been made. Rays of light have penetrated into not a few districts of the country, cheering and gladdening darkened souls and enabling them to see behind the veil with which a corrupt faith had tried to hide the crucified One; and these rays, it is comforting to know, are but the first beams of that sun which is yet to stream into every corner of the Province now lying in darkness and steep in its glory the whole land.

PROGRESS OF FRENCH CANADIAN EVANGELIZATION.

Though Canada ceased to be a French colony and was ceded to Britain in 1763, yet the Protestant Churches of the parent country neglected for fifty long years the spiritual interests of the French Canadians,—the Church of Rome, during these years, gaining many proselytes from English-speaking nominal Protestants who had settled in the colony.

The first French Protestant missionary was a Wesleyan, from Guernsey, who laboured among the French in several parts of the Province of Quebec from 1815 to 1821. During the next thirteen years nothing seems to have been done. The Grande Ligne Mission was established in 1834 and the French Canadian Missionary Society in 1839. This latter Society, while supported largely by Presbyterians, was non-denominational. After an honourable record of over forty years it recently withdrew from the field because of the prosecution of the work of French Canadian Evangelization by the several branches of the Protestant Church in Canada. During the period of its existence it circulated upwards of 57,000 copies of God's Word and some 650,000 French tracts and religious publications. It established mission schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles as well as at other points in the Province. It formed, and for a time fostered, a number of mission congregations, and prosecuted the work of colportage with much vigour and success. To the efforts of this Society, under God, are largely owing the great changes that have taken place in the religious sentiments of the French-speaking people of the Province of Quebec during the last forty years. It may not be out of place here to mention the names of the Rev. Dr. Wilkes, Mr. James Court, and the late Mr. James K. Orr and the Rev. Dr. Taylor, of Montreal, to whom more than any other, under God, the Society owed its existence and its long career of usefulness. It is encouraging to state that, though the Society has now ceased operations, many of its life-long friends continue to take a deep interest in the work of French Canadian Evangelization, and are among the warmest supporters of the work of the Board. Not only are the Pointe-aux-Trembles schools, but also nearly all the congregations and most of the missionaries and colporteurs of the Society now in connection with the Presbyterian Board.

Prior to 1875 the several branches of the Presbyterian Church carried on separate French Canadian missions. Since the union of the Churches in 1875 the work has made rapid strides, each succeeding year shewing marked progress.

AGENCIES OF THE BOARD.

The work of the Board is carried on by means of three agencies, viz.: Colportage, Mission Schools and Preaching Stations.

I.—COLPORTAGE.

In many of the French parishes there are as yet few Protestants to be found, and so fanatic and priest-ridden are the people that to attempt opening a preaching station or even a mission school would not only be a dangerous but a futile step. The only method of reaching the people in these densely settled and spiritually destitute districts is by means of the colporteur going from house to house, scattering broadcast the seed of the Kingdom, conversing on Divine things with those willing to listen, reading with them the Word of Life, and, when permitted, leaving in their homes a tract or a copy of the Bible. The value of this kind of agency can scarcely be overestimated,—the earnest Christian missionary, with soul aglow with love to Christ, meeting men and women, one by one, and talking to them individually about the Messiah, as Andrew did to his brother Peter and Philip to his friend Nathanael of old. Who can doubt that the rapid advancement of the religion of the Nazarene in the early days of Christianity was chiefly owing to a kind of colportage, men, and women too, telling to neighbours and friends about the preciousness of the Saviour they had themselves found, and inviting them to Him, "come, see a man which told me all things that ever I did; is not this the Christ?" After visiting a particular district three or four times and becoming acquainted with the people, the colporteur, if he can get some family sufficiently well-disposed to give the use of his house, invites the neighbours to a cottage prayer meeting. In this way small assemblies numbering from ten to twenty or twenty-five are gathered together in the evening, and an hour or two is spent in singing Gospel hymns, in reading the Word of Life, in asking and answering questions, and in prayer. At such meetings the benefits of a good education are dwelt upon, the existence of the Pointe-aux-Trembles schools made known, and the parents invited to send their children there. Heretofore the Bible, in whole or in part, has been mainly distributed gratuitously. The Board, however, have recently changed their policy in this respect, and given instructions to all their colporteurs hereafter, unless in very exceptional cases, not to circulate copies unless the people are willing to pay at least something for them. The Board endeavour to take advantage, from time to time, of special opportunities for the distribution of God's Word. They employed a colporteur during a part of the year in placing copies in the hands of French Canadians as they were leaving Montreal, per rail or steamer, for the United States and the North-West of Canada. In this way some 13 Bibles, 109 New Testaments, 61 Gospels, and upwards of 2,100 tracts were distributed.

ST. JEAN BAPTISTE FETE.

The Patron Saint of the French Canadians is St. Jean Baptiste. Learning that the anniversary of this saint, the 25th June, was to be celebrated last year in Quebec City on a much grander scale than usual, and that thousands of French Canadians from all parts of the country and from the Eastern States were expected to be present on the occasion, the Board, in conjunction with some friends in Quebec, led by the Rev. Dr. Mathews, who originated the idea and largely helped to carry it out, took advantage of the opening to disseminate religious truth. The British and Foreign Bible Society agreed to furnish 10,000 French New Testaments at half the usual price. Unfortunately only 4,000 of these arrived in time, the cases containing the others being delayed in transit. On the outside cover of the 4,000 copies there was stamped in gilt letters, "Souvenir de St. Jean Baptiste, Quebec, 1880."

The Board sent down a number of their colporteurs to Quebec for the occasion, and nearly the whole 4,000 were distributed to the strangers and others as they were leaving the city to return to their homes. In addition to these New Testaments there were distributed at the same time about 10,000 copies in French of the Life of John the Baptist, chiefly in the words of Scripture, prepared by the Rev. R. P. Duclos, one of the missionaries of the Board. These histories were got up in tasteful style, in the hope that, being attractive in appearance, they would be taken home by those receiving them and carefully read. May the seed thus scattered broadcast yield an abundant harvest! Of the 6,000 French New Testaments from the British and Foreign Bible Society that arrived too late for the St. Jean Baptiste celebration above referred to, the Board purchased 2,000 copies.

CIRCULATION DURING THE YEAR.

As extracts from the monthly reports and journals of the colporteurs appear from time to time in the columns of the Record and other periodicals, it is not necessary here to reproduce them. Suffice it to say that these reports furnish indisputable evidence of the deadly enmity of Rome to the distribution of the Scriptures, the waning power of the priesthood over many minds, and an increasing eagerness on the part of the people to hear the Word of Life.

The following colporteurs were employed by the Board during the whole or part of the year:— Messrs. Matthieu, Noel Rondeau, LeClain, Richard, Laprise, Seylaz, Blouin, Wottier, Vilatte, Vernier, Lockert, and Miss Bean, Miss Clark and Madame Lockert, Bible women,—in all fourteen. The four last named were supported by the Ladies' Presbyterian French Evangelization Society, an auxiliary of the Board. The circulation by the colporteurs, Bible women, etc., during the year, including the Testaments and copies of the Life of John the Baptist distributed in Quebec in connection with the St. Jean Baptiste celebration, was as follows:—

Bibles, Testaments, and Gospels	6,150
Tracts and other religious publications, about	32,000
Total	38,150

The great day alone will reveal the result of the bread thus cast upon the waters.

II.—MISSION SCHOOLS.

The vast importance of getting hold of the children of converts, as well as of Roman Catholics, and early instilling into their minds a knowledge of the truths of the Gospel can scarcely be over-estimated. To attain this it is necessary that the children receive the elements of an ordinary education, a matter of great difficulty in the Province of Quebec. In many districts of country only one Protestant here and there is to be found. The only school, if there be a school at all, is a Roman Catholic one, in which the teaching is largely confined to the catechism and religious superstitions. To send his children there the conscientious Protestant cannot. To educate them himself he is frequently unable, as he never himself learned to read until far advanced in years, when his eyes were opened by the Spirit of God, and in his eager thirst for spiritual food he has asked the colporteur to teach him the alphabet, that he may read with his own eyes the wondrous story of the cross. If that man's children are not to grow up in ignorance, either they must be sent from home to be educated or the Christian teacher must be sent to their home to instruct them. The Board endeavour to provide for their education in both directions. Where there are a number of French Protestant families residing near each other a Mission School is opened and a teacher appointed. The duty of the teacher, in addition to his regular work in school, is to spend a portion of each day in visiting the Roman Catholic families in the neighbourhood, with a view to inducing them to send their children to his school.

During the past year mission schools were maintained in connection with the work of the Board in the following places:—

Total..... 18 teachers, and 475 pupils.

In all of these both French and English are taught, and special prominence is given to the religious training of the pupils. The schools at Joliette and St. Hyacinthe are self-supporting, and at Ste. Anne the salary of the Principal only is paid by the Board. Did the funds at the disposal of the Board admit of it, the number of these schools could be multiplied tenfold, and their necessity no one at all acquainted with the state of the country, and the vast multitudes growing up in ignorance, can for a moment question. Many of the French Canadians are beginning to realize the importance of a good education, and would gladly send their children to such schools, if they were established in their district, even in spite of the ban of the priesthood and the threat of ex-communication.

Reference has elsewhere in this Report been made to the power and influence wielded by the self-denying colporteur as, standing face to face and heart to heart with the opponent or inquirer, he speaks to him as one fallen sinner should speak to another. There is a chord of sympathy in such quiet, private interviews which is not to be found in the public assembly, and it needs but the touch of love and the power of God's Spirit to awaken its emotions. Who can doubt that still stronger and yet more sensitive and true is that chord when it is in the heart of ingenuous youth, played upon in the school-room day after day by the earnest Christian teacher. The late Dr. Duff's method of attacking Hindooism, by means of Christian schools, is well known, as is also the fact that these schools have done more than all other agencies combined to revolutionize the rising race in India. Though vehemently expostulated with, by missionaries who had preceded him, against what they considered his mad resolve to open a school for native youth, he still persisted in carrying out his plan. His biographer thus describes him at work: "The student who had passed out of St. Andrews University its first scholar, its most brilliant essayist, its most eloquent debater; the preacher whose fervid utterances had thrilled the coldest assemblies, promised a rival to Chalmers himself, and were afterwards hardly excelled by Edward Irving's; the man who had been the stay and the counsellor of all on board the two wrecked vessels, is doing—what? Destitute of assistants, save an untrained Eurasian lad, and despised by his brother missionaries, he is spending six hours a day in teaching some Bengalee youths the English alphabet, and many an hour at night in preparing a series of graduated school books which held their place in every Christian English school in Bengal for the third of a century. Without that sowing of seed the great tree would still have to be planted. It was the genius of Duff, sanctified by the purest self-sacrifice, that led him to begin thus, as his Master taught, in the spirit of a little child." As in India so in Canada. Let Christian schools be established in every French Canadian parish and settlement, and a good secular and religious education given to the French Canadian youth, and the power of the priest will speedily be broken and the triumph of truth secured, by God's blessing, ere the lapse of many years.

In those districts of the country where there are only one or two French Protestant families the parents are urged to send their children to the central mission schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles, which are open for them as well as for the sons and daughters of Roman Catholics.

POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES SCHOOLS.

BOYS' SCHOOL, POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES.

GIRLS' SCHOOL, POINTE-AUX-TREMBLES.

These well-known mission schools, situated on the north shore of the St. Lawrence River, nine miles east of Montreal, were founded in 1846 by the French Canadian Missionary Society, and were purchased by last General Assembly and immediately thereafter transferred to the Board. On the mission property there are two school buildings, one for boys, which can accommodate about 150, and the other for girls with accommodation for between 40 and 50. Upwards of 2,000 French Canadians have already been educated here. Many of these now occupy positions of trust and influence as ministers, teachers, physicians, lawyers, merchants, etc. Pupils are admitted between the ages of thirteen and twenty-five, the average age being about seventeen. A preference is given to the sons and daughters of French Roman Catholic parents and to the children of recent converts from Rome living in parishes where there is no Protestant school. The session begins in October each year and continues for seven months. The pupils all reside in the buildings and thus enjoy the advantages of a Christian home, under the watchful nurture of earnest, devoted teachers. They all take their share of house-work. The day's duties are thus laid out:—Rise at 5.30 a.m. All are in the class rooms studying privately from 6 to 7. Breakfast at 7. House and out-door work from 7.30 to 8.45. Family worship, when all assemble together, boys and girls, at 8.45. School begins at 9, with united Bible class for all, and continues till 12. Dinner at 12, followed by recreation to 1.30. Then, classes till 4, recreation from 4 to 5, classes from 5 to 6, tea at 6, recreation to 7. Studying privately in the class room till 9, then family worship (boys and girls in their separate buildings) at 9, and all in bed, and lights out by 9.30 p.m. There are five teachers, three of whom are married, and all of whom reside in the buildings. They are all earnest Christians of devoted missionary spirit, thoroughly consecrated, it is believed, to their work. The Principal, Mr. J. Bourgoin, has been ten years connected with the Institution, and is admirably adapted for his position. The Directress of the girls' school, Miss Cairns, who occupied this position for several years, was engaged by the Board, but prior to the opening of the session, was reluctantly compelled, on account of ill health, to resign, and Mrs. Inglis was appointed in her stead. Special prominence is given to religious instruction and to the teaching of the Bible on the points of difference between Protestants and Roman Catholics. In these every pupil is thoroughly indoctrinated, and it is no exaggeration to state that comparatively few of our English-speaking young men and women are better acquainted with their Bibles, or better able to give a reason for the hope that is in them than can the pupils of Pointe-aux-Trembles, when they leave the Mission Schools there. The Board have no hesitation in warmly commending these Institutions as worthy of public confidence, assured that no means are likely, by the blessing of God, to be more efficacious in the work of French Canadian Evangelization, and in advancing the cause of Christ in the Province of Quebec than these central Mission Schools, now providentially connected with our Presbyterian Church.

Upwards of 200 French Canadians applied for admission last session, but the Board did not feel justified, owing to the state of the fund, in receiving more than one-half of this number. The Schools were visited at different times during the session by members of the Board. They were examined privately, in the end of March, by a committee appointed for the purpose, and a public examination was held in the end of April, attended by about 150 friends, including a number of the founders and warmest supporters of the Institution in bygone years. The proficiency of the pupils, and the general appearance of the Schools, called forth warm commendation from all present. In addition to the religious services, conducted by the Principal on the Lord's day, the Board provided service in French and English every alternate Sabbath, Professor Coussirat, the Secretary, and several students lending their assistance in this direction. Anxious to cultivate in the people a spirit of independence and self-reliance, and believing that the advantages of the Schools would be more highly appreciated by them in consequence, the Board resolved, except in the case of Roman Catholics whose parents were unable or unwilling to do so, to admit no pupils gratuitously, but required all to contribute something, in proportion to their ability, towards board and tuition. The amount received in this way during the session was $838.65. This result is most gratifying, indicating as it does an increasing appreciation of the value of a good education.

After deducting these fees the average cost to the Church of each pupil is $50 per session. The Board are most anxious that the Institution should be supported by means of scholarships of $50 each, guaranteed by private individuals, or Sabbath Schools. A particular pupil is assigned to the donor of a scholarship, to whom reports as to the progress made are forwarded from time to time. In this way a Sabbath School, contributing a scholarship, is put directly in correspondence with the Mission School, and the letters, if read publicly to the Sabbath School, tend to keep up their interest in the work. Moreover the School can, every Sabbath, remember by name, in its prayers, the pupil it supports, and can scarcely fail itself to receive benefit by being thus directly brought into contact with the pupil educated by means of its missionary contributions.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The following is a list of Scholarships received or guaranteed by Sabbath Schools and private friends of the work in response to an appeal issued during the year. The Board desire to give expression to their deep gratitude to these friends, and to the pastors, superintendents, teachers and pupils of these Sabbath Schools for their hearty and generous contributions.

From a large number of other Sabbath Schools and friends as well as from several congregations were contributions received during the year, as will be seen from the appended Financial Statement of the Treasurer. To all of these thanks are cordially tendered.

It is earnestly hoped that all of those who guaranteed Scholarships or contributed during the past year will continue to do so in the future, and that many other Sabbath Schools and friends will generously help this important work, so that the number of pupils may be largely increased next session. Believing that the future of the Province of Quebec and in a measure that of the whole Dominion depends, under God, largely upon the secular and religious training given in such Institutions, the Board are most anxious to establish similar Mission Schools in the city of Montreal and other important centres.

Will not some of those to whom God has given wealth consecrate a portion of it in providing the means necessary to erect such, and thus have their names indelibly associated with the cause of French Canadian Evangelization?

One lady, whose name the Board are not at present at liberty to mention, had in her will a bequest of $2,300 towards the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools. Realizing the urgent present needs of the work, she has resolved to become her own executor, and has notified the Board of her intention to pay the money in the course of a few weeks, under certain conditions, that it may be used in advancing a special department of the work.

THE PRINCIPAL'S ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SCHOOLS.

The following extracts are taken from the report for the past session of Mr. J. Bourgoïn, the Principal of the Schools:—

"The scholastic year which has just ended has been one of abundant blessings for the Mission Schools at Pointe-aux-Trembles. Never before have the churches, the Sabbath schools, and the Christian friends manifested more interest and liberality towards this Institute.

"We thank God, who has not only largely provided for all our wants, but who has spared all our pupils and kept them from serious sickness. We are happy to see that the importance of these training schools is better understood than in the past. All who have been engaged for any length of time in the evangelization of the French Canadians will acknowledge that they form one of the most efficient means to bring the Roman Catholics to a knowledge of the Gospel. It generally takes years of the most persevering effort to bring to the Protestant faith one who has been brought up in the Church of Rome, and indoctrinated in all the errors of that Church, especially if he is ignorant. But it is quite different when we are working among young people, whose minds are open to new ideas and whose souls are thirsting after the pure, living water. Very few of our scholars, after they have passed two or three sessions with us, leave the school before having become firm Protestants—Protestants who are not ashamed of the Bible or of the Saviour, and who are prepared to defend their faith against all the attacks of their Roman Catholic friends and countrymen.

"The increasing importance of these schools is shewn by the large number of young men and women who wish to be admitted every year. Last fall 220 applications for admission were received, and no doubt this number would have been very much larger if the pupils were still admitted on the same conditions as in the past. When these schools were opened, thirty-five years ago, the young Roman Catholics who dared to brave the excommunication of Rome and the malediction of their priests, to come here, found shelter and board, clothing and books under this roof, and all free. This was necessary then, as pupils could not have been otherwise secured; but that time is past, and we are entering a new era. At present the pupils are required to pay a part of their expenses, according to their means, and yet this does not prevent an increasing number of applications. During the past session 102 pupils have enjoyed the benefits of the schools; of these 62 were in the boys' and 40 in the girls' school. Several of them have been hopefully converted to Jesus, and, with the exception of one, we believe that none of them left the school still a Roman Catholic. A young man who entered the school last fall with the determination to continue a Roman Catholic, became a true Christian. A few weeks ago he went home resolved to read the Bible to his parents. He wrote to me lately: 'Though my parents knew that I had become a Protestant they gave me a very cordial reception, but with the hope to bring me again into the Church of Rome. To this end they have invited the priest to come and shew me my errors, but I do not fear, and I hope that the Lord will make the truth victorious.' We trust that the desire of our young friend will be fulfilled, and that, like many others, he will become an instrument to bring his parents from the religion of Rome to the religion of Jesus."

III.—PREACHING STATIONS.

Instead of giving a brief sketch of each of the several fields worked by the Board, as has been done in preceding Annual Reports, the following statistical table may serve to give an idea of the condition of the work in the Mission Stations and Congregations supplied with Gospel ordinances during the past year. It is proper here to remark that from various causes it has been difficult to obtain accurate statistics of several of the stations to present in tabulated form, and while, in some instances, those given are but approximates, care has been taken not to present matters in a brighter light than the facts warrant. The Board hope in succeeding years to present much more full and accurate statistics, adding a number of additional columns.

Districts occupied by Colporteurs of the Board—Estimate	130	160	275

* No. 4 has, for the present, been discontinued, owing to the closing of the mines where the French people worked, and the consequent removal of the families to other districts.

† Nos. 10, 11, 14, 21 and 32 are new fields that have only recently been worked by the Board. At one of these, St. Jude, Que., a most interesting movement is in progress, large numbers of families having lately become dissatisfied with the teachings of Rome. Copies of God's word have been given them and the services of our missionary, held in the house of one of the families, are attended by an average of upwards of fifty inquiring hearers. The Board hope, in the course of a few weeks, to open a mission day school in the district, arrangements being at present in progress to secure a suitable building for the purpose.

‡ At Angers a new church building is about to be erected, one of the French people giving a site gratuitously and the others contributing liberally.

§ The difficulties referred to in last Report as existing at Ottawa, it is hoped, are now being successfully adjusted by the Presbytery.

|| The French work in this field is chiefly in connection with the lumber shanties, in visiting which the missionary reaches from 600 to 700 French Catholics.

In one or two of the fields where joint French and English work is carried on, the statistics in some particulars include both sections.

In addition to reporting monthly, each of the Missionaries forwards an Annual Report to the Board. As more fully illustrating the work, the report of Rev. C. A. Doudiet, pastor of St. John's Church, Montreal, for the year ending 1st May, 1881, is herewith given:—

(The Board issue a circular to all the Missionaries annually, containing a series of numbered questions as the basis of the information desired from them. This explains the form of Mr. Doudiet's report, the numbers corresponding to those in the circular referred to.)

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH (RUSSELL HALL), MONTREAL.

1. The number of communicants in good standing on the roll is 118, a gain of six since last year at the same date. Forty-six were admitted during the year, thirty-five by profession of faith, after trial and examination by the pastor of the church, nine by certificate, and one reinstated after a year's suspension. Eight died during the year, rejoicing in the hope of a blessed immortality, twenty-three emigrated to France, the United States and Ontario, four were expelled for immoral conduct, three joined other churches, and two apostatized—a total loss of forty-members.
2. One hundred and sixty families attend our services, more or less regularly, or have given their addresses desiring to be visited. There are a few more who also attend, but as yet decline any closer connection with us.
3. We have eight elders, several of whom are very active in visiting the sick, and assisting the pastor of the church.
4. We have also four managers, who attend faithfully to their various duties.
5. I have already stated that forty-six persons have professed faith in Christ, but if the word "converts" is applied in a wider sense to those also who have simply left the Roman Catholic Church, or professed to do so, the number, old and young, is over eighty.
6. Twelve young people, chiefly young women, have attended the Bible class during the year. Three of them have joined the Church in full membership.
7. The Sabbath school has averaged thirty-six, counting the teachers. One-half of the number of children have been exceedingly punctual.
8. The day school, under Miss Emma Vessot, appeared to me, whenever I visited it, to be well conducted, and to number about thirty-two children, but Miss Vessot herself will probably send in a more exact and detailed report.
9. As near as I can make it out, there are about 400 French Protestants in my parish, counting young and old.
10. The following is the summary of the Treasurer's book:—

Collections and subscriptions from April 30th, 1880, to April 30th, 1881	$190 00
(of this $135 is from regular Sabbath collections, $55 from subscriptions).
Special collections—Widows' and Orphans'	4 35
Assembly Fund	3 00
Presbytery Fund	2 00
From Sabbath school, Pointe-aux-Trembles	4 00
From Pastor, Pointe-aux-Trembles Building Fund	5 00
Sabbath school, illustrated papers	21 60
Christmas tree	12 00
Registers ..	1 25
Poor relief	10 00
Sabbath school, balance on hand	12 00
Total	$265 20

This, as may be seen by reference to last year's Financial Report, shews a gain of $11.64 only, but if it is remembered how hard the times have been for poor workmen the result is highly encouraging.

11. There is a fair prospect of improvement in our revenue. We have introduced the monthly contribution system, and although only twenty-seven families have hitherto fallen in with the scheme, it has brought $10 a month, without sensibly diminishing the Sabbath collections.

12. There is quite a number of Roman Catholics favourably disposed to our work. They occasionally attend our services, and are very attentive to what they hear, but the fear of man is as yet too much for the most of them. Still it is from this class of persons that we chiefly recruit our numbers.

13. The most effectual work among them is done by visitation, whenever an introduction can be had, urging them to read the Scriptures, and pointing out the contradictions between their corrupt faith and the teaching of the Gospel. I have followed this plan with the results indicated above. Of course, in many cases our efforts seem fruitless, but who knows?

14. I do not very often preach controversial sermons. My experience convinced me long ago that these irritate more than attract hearers. I have, however, done so during this last Lenten season, because sham discussions were held every Sabbath night in the French Parish Church between two priests, one of whom pretended to present Protestant arguments that were easily refuted by his opponent, to the mutual satisfaction of priests and people. The subject was, "What is the Rule of Faith?" I announced to the people, many Roman Catholics being present, that I would also discuss the subject, and preached two discourses, with a very numerous audience. The second Sabbath I was rudely interrupted by a drunken man, but he was put out and quiet was restored. I could not say what effect these discourses have had. They were not immediately followed by any new adhesions, whilst at the close of a purely evangelical sermon on the text, "What shall it profit a man," etc., one of my Roman Catholic hearers came up to me and said that what he had just heard had decided him and his wife to join us. Upon the whole, I think that earnest Gospel sermons do the most good. I have occasionally advertised special sermons, but the difficulty is that French Roman Catholics do not, as a general thing, read the English or the French Protestant papers, and the others, even the most liberal of them, dare not insert our advertisements. On one occasion, when Rev. Mr. Chiniquy was in town, we got out large posters, and had a crowded church, but this mode of advertising is too expensive for our slender purses. I have to resort to the expedient of requesting hearers to tell their Roman Catholic friends to come, and in general get fair audiences by that means.

15. Having had a Bible woman and a colporteur attending to the sale and distribution of Testaments, etc., I have not personally disposed of more than five Testaments, two hymn books, and 500 tracts and periodicals. Most of these have been given away, and at my own cost.

16. The improvement in the times, for workingmen, and the consequent comparative plentifulness of work, has checked, to a great degree, the annual exodus of our Church members. The consequence is that until now there has been no sensible diminution of the average attendance at divine worship. Even the weekly prayer-meeting in the month of April has averaged forty people. The Sabbath attendance is keeping up well, especially in the evening. The average is 125 people, but we have not seldom 150 or even 200. Once or twice through the winter every seat has been occupied. The church has 250 sittings. Then the faithful oversight of some of the elders has been the means of discovering a few "wolves in sheep's clothing," who had professed themselves Protestants from unworthy motives, and whose daily life was scandalous. These have been summarily expelled, and the effect has been good, shewing that, if anyone among us professed himself a Christian he would have to walk as Christ walked. The cheerfulness with which even very poor men and women have given to Church objects has also greatly encouraged me. A very pleasant incident of our work has come to light this year, viz.: the great revival of religion in Limanton (France), through one of our converts, a movement that has resulted, as readers of the Record already know, in the founding of two large Protestant congregations. Converts that have left Canada for France or the United States frequently write to me, always speaking with love and gratitude of their sojourn here and of their old pastor.

17. Of course there are shadows to this pleasing picture. A few, after having been enlightened by the Gospel, go back, from various causes, to Rome, and their old superstitions. Happily, they are very few. Others, although nominal Protestants, are a disgrace to their profession. The annual depletion of this Church by emigration is very trying. Last year not less than twenty-three members emigrated, representing, with their families, a total of about seventy-five persons, young and old. Filling a church under such circumstances seems like pouring water into a sieve. It is true that we have more than held our own, but how much better it would be if our people had been able to get remunerative employment here. The Church, long ago, would have been filled to overflowing. The ingratitude of some is also somewhat discouraging. Occasionally poor members of the Church have been put in a way to do better for themselves, and as soon as they have become prosperous, they turn their back to the Church and to the Gospel, and repay our kindness by contumely and abuse.

18. But, upon the whole, the encouragements are greater than the discouragements. The reality and solidity of the work is seen by the far greater and always increasing number of civil acts, such as inscriptions of births, marriages and deaths in our register. In addition to the thirty-five baptisms mentioned above, I have officiated since April 30, 1880, at sixteen marriages and sixteen funerals—sixty-seven acts in all. In one instance the Roman Catholic neighbours of one of our converts threatened to mob the funeral of a little child that had died, and I had to procure police protection. In another, the friends of a convert hearing that he had gone to the Church to have a baby baptized, started after him to take the child from him, but could not come up to him. This shews how much more decision it requires for a poor family to act out their profession than merely to come privately to us and hand in their names as converts.

As some people are under the impression that the most of our converts are little better than beggars, I may mention that only nine families of our communicants had need of assistance during the winter, their poverty being, in nearly every case, the result of sickness or lack of employment. On the other hand, a worthy couple of my congregation have adopted an orphan boy from the infants' home, and are keeping him as comfortable as he would be in a wealthy home. I have, during the last winter, received the adhesion of a wealthy professional man of the neighbourhood of Montreal, but I fear he is not ready yet to brave public opinion by an open declaration of his faith. May God give him courage to confess the name of his Saviour before men!

This sketch of our work would be incomplete if I omitted a short obituary notice of four of our best members, who are now enjoying the rest that remaineth for the people of God.

The first was a student in the Presbyterian College, who soon would have been an active worker in the Mission field, Mr. Alfred Blouin, who died of typhoid fever last November, regretted by all that had the privilege to know him.

Another was a true "mother in Israel," Mrs. C. Martel, who departed this life five days after Mr. Blouin. She had borne with true Christian patience and resignation the pain of a long and cruel sickness, and died peacefully trusting in her Redeemer. One of her sons now studies for the ministry and promises to be a very useful man in our French churches. Her other three children are all communicants in our Church, and live to bless the memory of the dear mother who led them to Christ.

Another regretted death was that of Mrs. T. Graber, who more than twenty years ago left Rome for the Gospel, and never wavered in her allegiance to Christ. Her husband died suddenly in December, and she followed him in January, leaving four children under the tutorship of Rev. Mr. Haaskarl of the German Lutheran Church, and of myself.

Finally we lost one whose memory can never fade from my heart, my aged mother, Mrs. J. F. Doudiet, for over fifty years a worker in the Lord's vineyard, and to whose teachings and exhortations many owe the knowledge they now possess of the love of Christ which passeth all understanding. We will all miss her in the Church, and it will not be easy to fill her place.

May the Lord bless the great work in which we are engaged more and more; and to this end we not only ask our congregations to contribute liberally to its support, but also to fervently pray that "utterance may be given unto us, that we may open our mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the Gospel, for which we are ambassadors, that therein we may speak boldly, as we ought to speak."

All of which is respectfully submitted.

CHARLES A. DOUDIET.

STE. ANNE, ILLINOIS.

This Congregation is again under the care of Rev. C. Chiniqy, through whose instrumentality the large colony of French Canadian Catholics in Ste. Anne were, in 1856, brought in the Protestant Church. Soon after his return from Australia, a year ago, the congregation mentioned

Board for the services of Mr. Chiniquy, and recently a deputation from the Board visited Ste. Anne to give effect to the prayer of the petition. A report of their visit appears in the last number of the Presbyterian Record. The deputation had the pleasure of spending a Sabbath at Ste. Anne, and taking part in the public services of the day. The attendance that morning was 250, and in the evening 350. In the afternoon there were present at the Sabbath school 37 boys, 74 girls, and 13 teachers, in addition to 26 of the older people, many of whom are in the habit of attending the school for religious instruction, along with the younger members of their families. The day school, of which the Rev. C. Lafontaine, one of the missionaries of the Board has been Principal for the last sixteen years, is attended by between 130 and 140 pupils. This Mission has in the past rendered excellent service to the cause of French Canadian Evangelization, it having given no less than eleven ministers to the Church of Christ, a number not exceeded, perhaps, by any congregation in the whole Church during the same period. The congregation of Ste. Anne are hereafter to contribute $600 per annum towards the salary of Mr. Chiniquy, the balance to be paid from the funds of the Board. Mr. Chiniquy has recently transferred the church property to the Board. There is a second French Presbyterian congregation at Ste. Anne, the present pastor of which is the Rev. M. F. Boudreau, a native of the settlement, and a graduate of the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

JOINT FRENCH AND ENGLISH FIELDS.

In a number of the fields under the care of the Board service is conducted in both French and English, the Missionary devoting part of his time to the English-speaking settlers who would otherwise, in most cases, be deprived of Gospel ordinances. The Board have appointed a Missionary to labour in Murray Bay this summer. The settlers in this district, though the descendants chiefly of Scotch Highlanders, are ignorant alike of the language and of the faith of their ancestors.

OTHER FIELDS.

In addition to the fields directly under the care of the Board, there are several others in which French Evangelization work is being carried on by ministers of our Church. In this connection may be named the Rev. C. E. Amaron of Three Rivers, and the Rev. T. Fenwick of Metis, both of whom devote a portion of their time to the French Canadians in their respective districts. Many of the converts of our churches, on account of persecution and other causes, have emigrated to Massachusetts and the Western States, where they have been gathered into congregations presided over by French Canadian pastors trained in Canada. In Lowell and Fall River, Mass., in Manchester, N.H., and in Kansas and California, there are large French Protestant churches, from some of whom applications have recently been received for missionaries.

MISCELLANEOUS.

EX-ECCLESIASTICS.

During the year a number of ex-ecclesiastics of the Church of Rome sought counsel and protection from the Board. Several of these have already taken the decisive step and renounced their allegiance to the Church of Rome. Three of them attended the Presbyterian College, Montreal, last winter, one of whom is an ex-priest. A fourth studied during the latter part of last session at Pointe-aux-Trembles. Two others are anxious to obtain teaching or other secular work as a means of support, that they may at once sever their connection with Romanism.

FRENCH THEOLOGICAL PROFESSOR.

The General Assembly last year appointed the Rev. D. Coussirat, B.D., of Orthez, France, to the position of French Theological Professor in the Presbyterian College, Montreal. Mr. Coussirat, having accepted the appointment, was duly inducted in October last. It is difficult to over-estimate the importance of this appointment in its bearing on French Canadian Evangelization. Apart from the value of his services in the training of colporteurs and students for the ministry, Professor Coussirat has thrown himself heartily into the work generally, and has rendered most efficient help in various departments, especially in translating and preparing for publication literature for distribution among the converts and the more intelligent French-speaking Catholics.

FRENCH RELIGIOUS LITERATURE.

Fully sensible of the importance, as an auxiliary in the work, of providing suitable religious literature for circulation by the colporteurs and missionaries, the Board are devoting more attention than they have hitherto been able to give to this matter. Reference has elsewhere in this report been made to the preparation by one of the missionaries of a Life of John the Baptist, and the distribution of 10,000 copies of the same. Of the 6,000 French Testaments from the British and Foreign Bible Society, that arrived too late for the St. Jean Baptiste celebration last June, the Board purchased 2,000 copies. During the year they received a grant of a large case of French tracts from the Religious Tract Society of London, England, and recently they purchased in Paris a quantity of French pamphlets. A collection of hymns for use in the Sabbath schools and congregations under their care was published in 1879. In conjunction with others interested in the work of French Canadian Evangelization, they published a lecture delivered in Montreal last December by Mons. Reveillaud, entitled "Le présent et l'avenir de la République Française, au double point de vue politique et religieux," and more recently a translation into French, by Rev. Professor Coussirat, of Dr. Bacon's pamphlet on "God's wonderful work in France," together with the well-known pamphlet of Mons. Emile de Laveleye on "De l'avenir des peuples catholiques." The question of the publication of a

French weekly religious newspaper has pressed itself upon the attention of the Board, and a committee was recently appointed to consider the propriety of establishing such.

GOD'S WORK IN FRANCE.

In an article in a recent number of the "Catholic Presbyterian," the Rev. D. K. Guthrie, of Liberton, Edinburgh, shews how much Scotland, and Presbyterians the world over, owe to France. He refers to the fact that that country afforded an asylum during the Reformation era, to many of God's servants from Scotland, whom the troubles of their time made exiles. He shews how much Knox the great Reformer owed to a Frenchman, John Calvin. "Had France," he says "no other claim to the interest and sympathy of Presbyterians, we should never forget it was the land which gave birth to the greatest of theologians (if even Augustine is to be excepted) since the days of Paul."

"To Knox's communings with Calvin, in Geneva, there are to be traced many of the principles, as well as details, both of worship and discipline, which he was God's chief instrument of establishing in Scotland, after his return from exile in 1559. Our Calvinism and our Presbyterianism, we owe largely to Knox's residence in Geneva, and, be it remembered, the man there who chiefly influenced him was John Calvin, a native of France, one of God's greatest gifts to her, as to Switzerland, Scotland and the world." Referring to the words of another, "To gain the continent of Europe for Christ, would be to gain the world," Mr. Guthrie says, "If this be so, then France, from her geographical position, her quick intelligence, her vast resources, is in many respects the very key of the position. Superstition and frivolity among the women, scepticism and vice among the men, have too long held sway there under an outward profession of Popery. What France needs is an intelligent, pure and living faith. No thoughtful Christian man can have lived in that land, and become acquainted with its people, their capacities, their acquirements, without often reflecting, what a nation the French would be, what a mighty power for good in the world, were a second Reformation to move this land!" The late Principal Cunningham, of Edinburgh, more than once gave public expression to his conviction that the triumph of Protestantism in France would lead to the entire destruction of Popery the world over. In the light of these reflections, how deeply interesting is the movement initiated a few years ago by Mr. McAll, in Paris and which has been so manifestly successful in that city as well as at other important centres. During the past winter the claims of the Protestant movement in France were laid before American Christians, by the Rev. Mr. Dods, who has been associated with Mr. McAll in the work, and Mons. E. Réveillaud, who has been providentially raised up by God as a powerful instrument in the evangelization of his countrymen. Born and bred a Roman Catholic, M. Réveillaud was devoted to the priesthood by his mother, but his conscience early revolted from the teachings of the Church. After completing his college course he studied law, took his degree and immediately entered the field of journalism, becoming at the age of twenty-one, editor in chief of a leading French provincial newspaper. Four years ago he published a pamphlet on "The Religious Question and the Protestant Solution," in which, simply from a political and patriotic standpoint, he advises his countrymen to transfer themselves to the communion of the Protestant Church. In the preface to this pamphlet, which has been circulated by thousands in all parts of France, he frankly acknowledges himself to be a "free-thinker," belonging to no Church, and that his object is not the propagation of creed, but the preservation of society. A few months after its publication, at the close of the service one Sabbath in a little Protestant meeting house in Troyes, a young man arose and after obtaining permission to speak, went on to tell how on the preceding night, the Spirit of God opened his eyes, and led him to accept of Jesus as his personal Saviour.

That young man was Mons. E. Réveillaud, who, ever since that time, has thrown himself heart and soul into the work of the evangelization of his countrymen. He is one of the foremost of the men who, in every part of France—in theatres, ballrooms, or wherever a company can be gathered—are addressing eager, anxious throngs on the truths of the Gospel. He not only uses tongue, but pen also, having established a weekly newspaper for the furtherance of the work. When in Montreal last winter, Mons. Réveillaud not only addressed English audiences but French also, viz., in the Canning Street Church, on the Sabbath, and in a large public hall on a week evening, where he lectured on "the Present and Future of the French Republic," and such was the impression made that, as elsewhere stated in this report, the lecture was printed, and has already been circulated in large numbers. An active member of the Board—Mr. Joseph Mackay, of Montreal, who since this report was in type has been removed by death and whose loss will be greatly felt in this and other departments of the work of the Church—generously offered to meet their travelling expenses if the Board would appoint two of their missionaries to visit France and aid the movement there for a few months. After correspondence with the friends in France, the offer was accepted, and the Rev. A. B. Cruchet, of the Canning Street Church, Montreal, left for France last month. The Rev. C. A. Tanner, now in Britain as agent of the Board, is to labour in France for the next four months, and the Board purpose next fall sending one or two other missionaries there for a few months, in the hope not only that they will help on the work in that country but that the experience gained there will be helpful in the prosecution of the work here on their return. It is exceedingly encouraging to know that a Frenchman, who came to Canada a few years ago, and who while here not only abjured Romanism but through the instrumentality of one of our missionaries found the Saviour, on returning recently to his native land has been the means of the formation of two large Protestant churches.

LADIES' FRENCH EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY.

As this Society—an Auxiliary of the Board—intend publishing in October a report of their operations for the year, it is only necessary here to state that in no preceding year has greater interest been manifested in their work than during the one just closed. In addition to the maintenance of a French Protestant home in Montreal and the support of an efficient colporteur and Bible woman, the Society have contributed several scholarships for the Pointe-aux-Trembles Girls' School. The thanks of the Board and of the Church are due the Society for the very valuable and important service they have rendered in connection with the work.

COLLECTING AGENCY.

The General Assembly, at its meeting in June last, empowered the Board to secure the services of the Rev. Charles A. Tanner as collecting agent. Mr. Tanner began work in July. He visited a number of congregations in Quebec and Ontario, and secured contributions to the extent of about $3,500. In the end of January he left for Britain, where, up to the 15th of April, he collected $1,315 on behalf of the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools. He reports a deep and growing interest in the work of French Canadian Evangelization. In addition to the moneys collected, Mr. Tanner, it is believed, has done much, by his addresses and otherwise, to awaken sympathy on behalf of this increasingly important scheme of the Church.

The former agent of the Board in Britain—the Rev. T. Stevenson—completed his term of engagement in October.

FINANCES.

From the accompanying Financial Statement, it will be seen that $22,487.18 were received during the year towards the ordinary work of the Board, $1,677.46 for the endowment fund of the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools, $5,917.71 (inclusive of fees, etc.) for the maintenance of the schools, and $4,763.35 for the purchase of the Pointe-aux-Trembles property, making the total receipts of the year $31,845.70, a sum so far in excess of that of any preceding year as to call forth the deepest gratitude of the Board to the great Head of the Church who has put it into the hearts of His people to contribute so liberally on behalf of the work. Full details of these receipts are given in the Treasurer's Statement. To the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, for a grant of £200 sterling—to the congregations of the Church for contributions exceeding those of the preceding year by $2,500 towards the ordinary fund—to the Sabbath schools of the Church for the handsome sum of $3,300 towards the ordinary fund and the maintenance of the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools—and to the many generous friends of the Mission in Canada and in the United States and Britain, for contributions aggregating for the respective departments of the work upwards of $10,000, the most cordial and heartfelt thanks of the Board are gratefully tendered. In pursuance of the policy adopted and steadfastly carried out, the Board close the operations of the year free from debt, with a balance in the treasury of $169.05. As the salaries of most of the missionaries, teachers and colporteurs, are payable monthly, the Board express the earnest hope that contributions for the ensuing year be forwarded as early as possible, so as to render unnecessary the payment of interest on borrowed money. The estimated expenditure to carry on the work with efficiency for the ensuing year is $34,000, viz., $25,000 for the ordinary work, $6,400 for the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools, and $2,600, the balance due on the Pointe-aux-Trembles property. This estimate is based on the staff at present employed by the Board, and an increase of twenty-five pupils to the number in attendance last year at the Pointe-aux-Trembles Mission Schools. It is greatly to be desired that the revenue of the year will exceed this amount to such an extent as to enable the Board to extend the work by opening up new fields, and admitting as many pupils to the Pointe-aux-Trembles Schools as the buildings will accommodate.

CLOSE.

In summing up this imperfect review of the work of the past year, the Board feel that there is much cause for devout gratitude to the great Head of the Church for the measure of success achieved.

Never has the work appeared more hopeful. The power of the hierarchy is very evidently on the wane, the people generally are much more accessible, the spirit of persecution is rapidly disappearing, and the missionaries, and teachers, and colporteurs of the Board enjoy, with rare exceptions, perfect immunity in the prosecution of their work.

It must not, however, be forgotten that there yet remains much of the land to be possessed. Nearly a million and a quarter of our French-speaking fellow subjects are still in spiritual darkness. Self-interest, the political, social, moral and religious liberties of our children, and the future weal of our Dominion, all demand the most vigilant and unremitting effort for their enlightenment and evangelization. It is only by a broad view of the whole field and the forces at work therein, by systematic effort, by money, by self-denial, by earnest prayer and humble dependence on the help of God's Spirit, that the conversion of the French Canadians to Christ and to the pure faith of the Gospel can be accomplished. To be satisfied with anything short of this is but trifling with the gravest problem that has ever come up for solution in our Dominion.

RECOMMENDATION.

The Board recommend that the General Assembly, instead of appointing, as heretofore, a Board consisting of between fifty and sixty members, and an Executive Committee of those members residing in Montreal, appoint a Board numbering thirty members, to hold at least two regular meetings annually, the travelling expenses of the members to be paid from the fund and the Executive to be appointed by said Board at its first meeting each year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

D. H. MOVICAR, LL.D., Chairman.
ROBT. H. WARDEN, Secretary-Treasurer.
