NOTICES OF THE WISDOM OF THE KING

Rev. James Bennet,

ST. JOHN, N. B.

RVIDENCES of deep and serious thought throughout the volume."-Belfast News Letter, Jan. 21, 1871. "Succeeds well in seizing on the salient points of the words of the Yoyal Preacher, and in bringing them home to present duty."—Glasgoro Drily Review, Feb 6, 1871. "Characterized by directness of aim, sound sense, and right appreciation of the sacred writer's meaning."—The Preachers' Lantern, (London, Feb 1871.

"The production of a highly cultivated mind.

We have read several works on Eccle issues, and well remember the pleasure with which years ato we perused the 'Roya! Preacher,' but for fine criticism, comprehensiveness of thought, striking illustration and unostentations yet eloquent and forcible style, The Wissemon of The King, we think, surpasses them all."

St. Croix Courier, March 6, 1871. "The volume is not an unworthy companion of Dr. Buchanan on the same book."—The Homilist (London), April 1971.

of Dr. Bucenhan at the same which the chapter branches out into innumerable topics of a sesondary and collateral nature, giving to the work a bound'ess diversity enriched with stores of ethical as well as of spiritual wisdom, evincing at once acute observation of social life and of human character, and containing the noblest lessons for practical guidance. Our author's style is remarkable for its free, unconstrained flow, almost collequial at times, but invariably signalized by elegance, force, adaptation to the su-ject, and not seldom by originality of though in combination with terseness and be juty if expression. There is about it a freshness, as well as a falness of practical teaching, rarely to be met with in ordinary Biblical commentaries."—Londonderry Standard, Feb. 15, 181. "This is a bright, breezy book, both interest ing and instructive. We can most conscientiously commend this book generally, as one of "Every porti n of the work indicates extensive sch larshin and mature thou.ht."Belfast Northern Whig. April 8th, 1871. "The force, raciness and robust manliness of Mr. Bennett's style and mode of treatment will arrest attent in and excite interest in quarters where preaching or writing of the average quality w u'd fall flat and dead."—Home and foreign Record. March, 1871. Foreign Record. March, 1871.

'So plain yet so suggestive, so practical yet so profound are these Lectures that while ou read them you feel their deep ruth and reality; that you are in contact with realities both visible and invivible: that you are in elise contact with the beating heart of nature and humanity, and that all their life and hope five full and free from God alone."—Fredericton Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

Head Quarters, March 1st, 1871.

"The writer is evidently well acquainted with the literature of his subject, and that acquaint mee reveal sitself almost unconsciously in every page. There is no estentation of reading or learning, but there is everywhere the gleaming forth of light which cannot be hid.

The style is simple, intelligible, graceful. It has at once that Mr. Bennet is a man of literary culture, who can express his thoughts with scholarly chastness and good taste. We could not open a page without meeting some thought vigorously expressed. The wirk is eminently fresh and readable, "Pres. Witness, Halifax.

Halifax.

"He reveals in the treatment of his themes strong common sense, a firm grasp of thought, a logical acumen and a clear insight into human character. Even when dealing with trite ideas he imparis to them a movelly and interest by which they are lifted into an importance they searcely deserve. The style throughout is lucid, pure, compact, forciole,—and it is his own-thicking. We have met in our perusal of the book with numerous paragraphs of finithed and brilliant rheorie-fine specimens of pulpit oratory. He is never time nor tiresome. We have not found one sin shod sentence in the volume "—Christian Visitor, (Boping) March 6th, 1871.
"We area not prepared to find him writing

"We were not prepared to find him writing in such a fini-hel style and issuing such a volume as the result of certain preparations made for an evening lecture to his congression. If all his pulpit perferences are equal to these, he people have reason to rejoice in the Providence which guided his steps to them."—
Evangelical Witness, May 1st 1871.

Evangelical Witness, May 1st 1871.

"This is a remarkably thoughtful, solid book Mr. Beenet is evidently at home in Metaphysics and Etffics, and he is a shrewd observer of human nature in its ordinary manifestations; consequently he ranges over the lessons of the Preacher with a power of illustration which shews his mastery of the subject. The style is close and direct, and yet so lucit, that any reader may understand every sentence in the volume.

It will, we doubt not, take its place, as it ought to do, among our household expositions of this treatise of observation and Jewish wisdom"—The Presbyterian (Philadel phia), May 20, 1871.

"The lessons to be learned are drawn with a master's hand, and are expressed with a combined force and beauty that we have rarely seen surpassed in the production of any author. The ordinary reader will find noth ng that is above his comprehension, and yet it would be difficult of find a common place thought or fum of expression. A combination of these requisites we deem the highest me it a writer can poisses.

"We will be much disappointed if the book do not command a wise circulation. Wherever a sound literature is felt to be a deside atum. The Wisdom of the King has but to be known to be prized as a work that the world will not willingly let die."—Saint John Telegraph and Journal.

Journal.

"The Wisdom of the King is well worth careful reading. Indeed you cannot read much of it at once. There is a constant play of fancy about the thoughts, and often the very winds, that is admirably suited to the Scripture book, of which this is an exposition, but which demands such constant attention on the reader's part that he gets tired, for he does not knew where it is to end. The style is compact, lucid, often sparkling and epigrammatic, the sentence cut sharply, but with a poetic fullness of criginal illustration that redeems them for mall hard ress."—Halifax Monthly Record, (Church of Scotland.

"Each chapter is so well done, so lucid, yet concise in its exposition, that it is sometimes difficult to determine which is the best and most interesting.—Stewart's Quarterly, St. John

In a careless, girl sh hand;
It was only a childish message
From the sun bissed, southern land.

It was only a brief memorial Of the four's the absent shed; It was a trifle from the living But a message from the dead!

"Father, dear, you are gone to battle,
But I think incessantly,
As I miss your morning blessing,
What your sufferings must be!"
So she wrote, and so held it,
With a blessing on her head,—
When the token of the living
Was a message to the dead! "I'm so good, dear —oh, so steady—You would wish me to be so;
If I'm quiet half your dangers

Dear mamma need never know.
So, good by, papa! God bless you!
Guard and keep you evermore:
See! I send you fifty kisses
From an ever-ready store!" It was only a crumpled letter In a dead man's hand that day, Just to show how hearts were aching
In his own land far away. It was only a loving message
From a loving child that sped,
But the words the living pencille
Were a message to the dead!

It would appear that the fishermen Massachusetts are really fearful of the ope ration of the Washington Treaty on their special interests. Butler has championed gard to the the justice or injustice of their complaints, but at the bottom of their out-ery there would seem to be solid arguments any circumstances. They can build all vessels for about two-thirds what it costs us, and can fit and sail them in the same which Congress will be compelled to meet. dian fishermen provided for by the Treaty will be ruinous to them, unless Congress indemnifies them by granting a bounty for each and every vessel employed. GOLD 7-30 LOAN.

A profitable and secure Investment. THE Northern Pacific Railroad Companyoffers to the public an investment security which combines the ready negotiability, the convenience, and the high credit of a first-class Railroad Bond, with the solidity and safety of a Real Estate Mortgage on Land worth at least twice the amount loaned.

Traffic. As officially reported, the gross earnings of the pre-ent Pacific Railroad Union and ONE HUNDRED AND KIGHT ACRES (
EXCELLENT LAND, well wooded, with

An equal traffic on the Northern Pacific Rose will pay a divid nd of more than 91/2 per cent. o its total cost. With its great and unquestione advantages in distance, grades, climate and tri butary fertile country, the Northern Pacific ssured of a vast and profitable business from the outset, with a large increase for the future. The Value of Land Grants. The average pricat which the twenty-six leading Land-grants. Railroads have thus far sold their lands, is $7 per acro-the highest average of any grant bein $13 98, and the lowest $3.07. With few excer tion, the average selling price has steadily in used from year to year. The lands of the Northern Pacific Road are admitted, by all wl

Class-room Assistants regularly employed Class-room Assistants regularly employed four hours per day are to receive one half of the above amounts, according to the class of License held.

Teachers and Clbss-room Assistants employed in Districts entitled to special sid as poor Districts, are to receive for the following school year, at the rate of one third more than the grants above named. In all cases one half of the Provincial Grants are to be paid to the Provincial Hard teaching days the School shall have been satisfactorily taught.

(2). From the School Fund provided by the County, as follows:

(a) At the rate of $20 for the school year in consideration of each licensed Teache employed: of whatever class

(b) The balance, by an equal rate per pupil according to the average number of pupils in attadance at school, and the number of pupils in attadance at school, and the number of pupils in attadance at school, and the number of pupils in attadance at school, and the number of pupils in attadance at school, and the number of pupils in attadance at school, and the number coording to the average number of pupil n attendance at chool, and the numbe f teaching days the School has been oper the Trustees of Pistricts recognized oor Districts in any year, to receive, i

Trustees of other Districts when the County.
One-halt of the County fund is to be apportioned and paid semi annually.
No public moneys will be received by Districts which fail to establish Schools under the Act. It will be observed that the amount of Provincial and County moneys to be expended in any District in aid of Schools will depend almost exclusively upon local exertion or the direct efforts made by the people of the averal Districts in maintaining their own depend aimost exclusively upon total exertion or the direct efforts made by the people of the several Districts in maintaining their own Schools. The sum to be received by the Teacher from the Province is definite, but the exact amount that will be received by the Trustees from the County Fund on account of the average attendarce of pupils, cannot be known at the time of the School meeting. The meeting should, therefore, be careful in voting its estimates to authorize a sum amply sufficient to enable the Trastees to meet the liabilities of the School year. Any balance remaining in the hands of the Trustees, is, of course, the carried to the credit of the next School year, while any deficit arising from an authorized expenditure may be carried forward and provided for in the estimates of the following year.

The first disbursement of the County Fund will be apportioned on the School attendance made between January 15th and April 30th, inclusive.
