

GOES HOME TO ENGLAND
LIST IN BRITAIN

Thos. Beeston of Jacquet River is Presented With Address Before His Departure

Jacquet River, June 1st.—Mr. Thos. Beeston, a young English chap from Jacquet River is on his way home to England to enlist for the front. He has worked with The McMillan Co., Limited ever since he came to Canada about three years ago, and is now a shareholder in the Company.

He is a splendid young fellow and will be very much missed. Before leaving, the Bible Class of Jacquet River, presented him with the following address accompanied by a fountain pen.

"Mr. Thos. Beeston: Dear Friend:—We have learned with regret that it is your intention to return for a time to your native land, and if need be to join the noble army of defenders of our king and country. As true patriots, we honor you for your desire to help fight the battles of our Empire in this time of stress and strife; in this fearful struggle, when men are so urgently needed.

During your three years stay among us we have learned to value your upright Christian character, and our Sunday School, especially the Bible Class, will miss you during your absence, and every member will rejoice to welcome you back again.

And now at the parting of our ways for a time, we wish to assure you that good wishes from all, and many prayers for your safety and success, will follow you across the ocean.

We will endeavour to keep in touch with your movements, and if you enlist, will feel proud to know that one of our class is so nobly doing his duty.

We are going to ask as a favour that you will write frequently. Is it too much to ask that on the first Friday evening of each month, as you call to mind our Social Meeting, you will spare enough of your time to write at least a card to some member of the class. And to make it easier for you we are presenting you with this pen which we hope may prove very useful and help you to remember your friends of the Jacquet River Bible Class."

THE ARMY-WORM.

The Army-worm probably above all other kinds of insects which increase in enormous numbers periodically, causes wide-spread anxiety among farmers when it appears suddenly in a locality, and in a very short time completely destroys fields of oats and other grains.

The Entomological Branch of the Department of Agriculture has just issued Bulletin No. 9, on The Army-worm, prepared by Mr. Arthur Gibson, Chief Assistant Entomologist, who has charge of investigations on insects affecting field crops. In this publication of 34 pages a full description is given of the remarkable outbreak of this notorious caterpillar which occurred in eastern Canada in 1914. The recent outbreak was the most severe of any which occurred in Canada, and the damage caused is estimated at $200,000, five-sixths of which took place in the province of Ontario. The value of the trenching method of control was amply demonstrated. No matter how big the advancing army of worms were, it was shown that crops could be saved from their ravages. In the bulletin the insect is described in all its stages, and methods of controlling it are given. A full discussion is included on the life-history and habits of the worm, its food plants, natural enemies, etc. The bulletin has 18 useful illustrations, several of which show clearly the results obtained in controlling the Life is very miserable to those who suffer with indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach and biliousness. This letter from Captain Swan (one of the best known skippers on the Great Lakes) tells how to get quick relief from stomach trouble.

PORT BURWELL, ONT., May 28, 1915. "A man has a poor chance of living and enjoying life when he cannot eat. That was what was wrong with me. Loss of appetite and indigestion was brought on by constipation. I have had trouble with these diseases for years. I lost a great deal of flesh and suffered constantly. For the last couple of years, I have taken 'Fruit-a-tives' and have been so pleased with the results that I have recommended them on many occasions to friends and acquaintances. I am sure that 'Fruit-a-tives' have helped me greatly. By following the diet rules and taking 'Fruit-a-tives' according to directions, any person with dyspepsia will get benefit."

SUSSEX VETERINARY DEAD AT MILLERTON

H. J. Ellison Drank Carbolic Acid and Only Lived a Short While

The investigation into the death of H. J. Ellison, veterinary surgeon of Sussex, was held at Millerton Saturday morning by Coroner Desmond, of Newcastle. The following facts were elicited. About 6.30 Friday evening a stranger drove into the yard of Mrs. W. A. Simpson's boarding house, asking for supper and a night's lodging. He was told he might have supper but no room was vacant. He got and paid for his supper and went out till 8 o'clock, then came in and went up stairs. In about five minutes he rushed down to the dining room and grabbed a pitcher to drink. He told Mrs. Simpson to send for a doctor, he had taken the wrong stuff. She asked what he had taken, and he said: "Never mind, send for the doctor." She smelt carbolic acid. He did not seem able to swallow. She ran to Robinson's store and telephoned to Dr. Wilson, who arrived in ten or fifteen minutes. The man died about 25 or 30 minutes after he was taken sick.

In the room, Mrs. Simpson found a one-ounce vial of pure carbolic acid, half empty. She had never seen the deceased before.

Several witnesses identified him as Ellison. He had been in Blackville the day before, and on Friday had bought two or three bottles of carbolic acid and four of paragonic at a store in Inlandtown. He had a horse and wagon, and full veterinary outfit with him; also about $2 in cash, a watch, etc. Deceased was about fifty years of age.

Coroner Desmond notified the Sussex chief of police, who replied that Ellison belonged there, and there was a warrant for his arrest for skipping bail.

The body was taken to Newcastle Saturday afternoon, and sent to Sussex on Sunday.

The deceased was about fifty years old and was well-known here.

C. M. B. A. CELEBRATES 25TH ANNIVERSARY

First Function in New Quarters Was Largely Attended and Was a Great Success

The Bathurst Branch of the C. M. B. A. celebrated the 25th anniversary of its organization in their splendidly furnished rooms in what was formerly the Convent building, last Monday evening.

The C. M. B. A. Band played a very enjoyable programme on the lawn early in the evening, which was enjoyed by the large number of members gathered for the celebration as well as by the throng of people promading the sidewalks in the vicinity.

Tables were spread in the meeting room of the Society, which was decorated with flags, etc. for the occasion, and after full justice had been done to the good things provided, an excellent list of toasts was carried out.

DEATH OF LIEUT. COL. R. L. MALTBY
Prominent Militia Officer Succumbs After Short Illness From Pneumonia

Newcastle, N. B., June 2nd.—Newcastle mourns the death of one of her most prominent citizens in Lt. Col. Richard L. Maltby, which occurred at 11.30 Thursday after a very short illness of pneumonia. Deceased who for over forty years was a member of the 12th Field Battery, having risen from the ranks to its commanding officer, at the outbreak of the war offered his services to the Minister of Militia, but although his offer was declined because of age, he was appointed recruiting officer for the North Shore, and it was while in the performance of his duty that he contracted his fatal illness. He was fifty-nine years of age and was for some years an alderman of the town, later becoming police magistrate which office he held at the time of his death. He was prominent in Masonic circles, being an officer of the grand lodge for some years. A member of the executive of the Maritime Funeral Directors and Vice President of the local branch of the Patriotic fund. He is survived by a widow and two children, Mrs. Mary Orr, at present Red Cross nurse in France, and H. W. K. Maltby, associated with his father in business here. The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon, the services being held in St. Andrew's Anglican church. Interment was made in Miramichi cemetery with Masonic ritual.

As an evidence of results which may be secured by the efforts of employees in safety work, the experience of the Intercolonial railway may be cited. On the Fourth district, extending from Sydney to Stellarton, in the six weeks after organizing, the safety committee succeeded in correcting 317 unsafe conditions and warning against 146 unsafe practices.

The Canadian Magazine for June contains an article by Professor A. W. Crawford, of Manitoba University, that everyone should read just now. It is entitled "The Fear of Russia," and is a scholarly consideration of the possible outcome of Great Britain joining arms with her ancient foe against her ancient friend. He shows that in democracy and civilization Russia is advancing while Germany is going backwards, and concludes that: "After the war is over, cut off and estranged from Germany, an allied with the two great European democracies, it is quite within the bounds of probability that Russia will adopt a more liberal policy than ever and greatly extend the liberties of the constitution. In friendship with Britain and France it is quite conceivable and highly probable that Russia may bear a great share in human progress and in the emancipation of mankind, and may yet make some notable additions to the great temple of liberty."

CO-PARTNERSHIP NOTICES
(From the Gloucester Northern Light)
Last week's issue of the Royal Gazette contains notice of the dissolution of partnership between Samuel Melanson and Harry Melanson of Bathurst, who have been doing business for a number of years under the names and style of S. Melanson & Son. The Gazette also contains notice of the forming of a partnership between Henry A. Melanson and Hector W. Melanson of this town, who will conduct a business as general merchants under the name of H. A. & H. W. Melanson.

That report by Viscount Bryce on the Belgian atrocities should inspire the civilized world to make such outrages forever impossible. There is a lesson for Young Canada in Miss Myerson's statement that she was able to save herself, when the Lusitania went down, because she is a good swimmer. The Germans claim to be profound reasoners, and they need to be to make out their case when they claim that civilians must not resist them although they may slaughter civilians by land and sea.

DOCTORS DID NOT HELP HER

But Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Mrs. Bradley's Health—Her Own Statement.

Winnipeg, Canada. — "Eleven years ago I went to the Victoria Hospital, Montreal, suffering with a growth. The doctors said it was a tumor and could not be removed as it would cause instant death. They found that my organs were affected, and said I could not live more than six months in the condition I was in."

"After I came home I saw your advertisement in the paper, and commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it constantly for two years, and still take it at times, and both my husband and myself claim that it was the means of saving my life. I highly recommend it to suffering women."

—Mrs. ORILLA BRADLEY, 284 Johnson Ave., Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

Why will women take chances or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

this town have been actively engaged in this idea of a pledge day, and are having pledge cards prepared for distribution and signature. Lloyd George said, "We are fighting three enemies, Germany, Austria and Prussia, and the greatest of these is Drink." One ounce of example, is worth a pound of precept, and in this pledge signing campaign it is felt that much good may accrue from the influence of public and business men signing these pledge cards. The idea is a good one and it should go further that the money so saved if given for some patriotic purpose would soon reach a sum of no mean proportion. Let your influence be on the helping side.

FOREST FIRES

The following news item is taken from the St. John Globe: "Telegrams from up river points report a very heavy forest fire raging along the line of the Intercolonial Railway on crown lands near the borders of Restigouche and Victoria counties. Much valuable lumber has been destroyed and the villages of Hazen and Five Fingers are reported wiped out. Reports from New River to-day, said a fire in a sawdust pile, some distance from the mill, had been extinguished without damage to the mill."

It is hard to understand why such waste and damage is allowed. There are stringent regulations governing fires in forest lands and why such carelessness in the destruction of valuable timber is unthinkable.

It may be an easy way for a settler to clear land by setting a match to it, but when by so doing he endangers property belonging to the people, he places himself in the same category as the incendiary who fires his neighbour's house. There is little use in preaching conservation of our forests if bush fires are not handled with the motto "Strike first."

GRIST MILLS It will be gratifying to the farmers and all those interested in the well-being of the community to know that grist mills throughout the province is an acknowledged possibility. It is understood that legislation has been introduced whereby flour mills can be established in the various districts and fulfilling certain conditions will receive a bonus from the Provincial Government. The amount of the bonus has not been fixed, but it is known that the Minister for Agriculture is intensely interested in this matter, and it is felt that grants in favor of establishing such mills can no longer be delayed.

The Hon. J. A. Murray, Minister of Agriculture has been over all the ground in the province and the matter is receiving his whole-hearted support. It is now therefore up to the farmers and those interested to make their requests known and the proper machinery will be set in motion. The establishment of such grist mills in Rural districts and small communities would mean much, and would encourage the growing of wheat, in this province, a commodity we cannot have enough of at this time. It would also affect every one in the district as the farmer could have his own wheat milled, at his own home, one might say, and be able to sell his surplus flour, at a little cheaper price than $9 a barrel.

PLEDGE SUNDAY Sunday first will be observed here as Pledge Sunday, and temperance sermons will be preached in the churches. Following the lead of His Majesty, George V, and Lord Kitchener, it is urged on all to eschew intoxicating liquors as a beverage during the progress of the war. The W. C. T. U. of

Two Batches of Men Sent Down To Sussex for the 55th Batt. This Week

Recruiting for the 55th Battalion still continues good in this district. Good meetings have been held at Flatland, Balmoral and Anderson, from which good results are anticipated. Lieut. O. J. "GRAPHIC'S" ACTION IS APPRECIATED

The response to the Graphic's appeal for old magazines for the soldiers at Sussex has met with a generous response, and word has been received of the safe arrival of the first consignment. These magazines are received at the office here, packed for shipment and expressed by the Graphic to Sussex, and the pleasure it affords the soldiers should be sufficient incentive for everyone to send their old magazine here.

The following letter of thanks has been received from Capt. H. E. Thomas, Chaplain of the 55th.

The package of literature for the soldiers from your office was duly received and is appreciated by the men. I desire through you to acknowledge with thanks this gift. We have a fine crowd of men whose department is the very best and to whom it is a great pleasure to minister.

SIGNALER J. A. COMEAU DEAD AT FRONT

Young Monctonian Dies From Wounds Received in Battle at Ypres

Mr. Eusebe Comeau, 25 Railway Avenue, Moncton, has been officially notified from Ottawa that his son Signaller Joseph Arthur Comeau, 8th Battery 2nd Field Artillery Brigade, has died in England from wounds received in the great battle of Ypres. The news came as a great shock, as the young man, although reported dangerously wounded had been removed from France to a hospital in England, and the fact that he was able to undergo the journey was thought to be a sign that his wound was not as serious as at first reported.

From letters received in Moncton recently, it is understood that Mr. Comeau was wounded by the same shell as that which struck down Lieutenant Frank Tingley, also of that city. Signaller Comeau himself has not been able to write since receiving his wound; but when he arrived in England, the matron of the hospital in which he was being treated wrote to Mr. and Mrs. Comeau, announcing his arrival in the old country. It was this letter which led to the hope that since he had been able to stand the journey, he might recover from his wound.

Joseph Arthur Comeau was one of the many C.R. men who threw up excellent positions in order to enlist with Major Anderson in the 8th Battery. When the war broke out, he was working in the Stores Department at Moncton. He was about 18 years of age. His father is Mr. Eusebe Comeau, a well-known I.C.R. carman in Moncton and Mr. Wilfred Comeau, manager for Reed Co. here, is a brother.

The Comeau family have not been able to learn as yet the identity of the English hospital to which their son was removed from Havre, France. It's name not mentioned in the official telegrams or in the one brief message received from the matron.

AN ERROR Mr. R. J. Lavoe and Mr. G. Mersereau's name do not appear on the show cards, but the people will be glad to know that they will sing the solo parts in the specialties between the acts in "The Doctor's Private Secretary".

Woman's Sympathy

Are you discouraged? Is your doctor's heavy financial load? I know what you mean to relieve the woman—I have been through it, but I learned how to ease my mind. I want to relieve your burden. Why don't you do this for you and all you need do is write for a free box of the remedy which has been placed in my hands to be given to you. Perhaps this one box will cure you. I have done so for others. Write to-day for my free treatment. Mrs. F. E. CURRAH, Windsor, Ont.

GOOD CONCERT AT OPERA HOUSE FRIDAY

Entertainment Held Last Friday For the Belgian Relief Fund Was Well Attended

Last Friday evening the Opera House was well filled on the occasion of the concert given in aid of the Belgian Fund. All the numbers of the chorus were well sung, the rendering of the "Hallelujah Chorus" being especially good for a choir of amateurs, in the short time they had to practice. The solos were all in capable hands, the readings of little Miss Ima Currie being especially pleasing. A special feature of the evening was the playing of the newly organized Campbellton Band, who discoursed martial airs outside the Opera House before the entertainment commenced. The stage was nicely decorated with flags and roses, the Belgian colors being prominent in front of the choir platform. The proceeds amounted to $166.55, out of which the expenses are to be paid.

On Monday evening the concert was repeated in Dalhousie for the benefit of the Red Cross committee of that town. Through the kindness of Campbellton friends, the members of the choir and friends were taken to Dalhousie by motor, and the entertainment, which was held in the Star Theatre was well received.

On arriving at Dalhousie the ladies were entertained by Mrs. W. S. Montgomery, and after the concert a splendid lunch was provided by the ladies of the Red Cross Committee in St. Mary's Hall, to which full justice was done. The Hon. C. H. LaBillois was present, and in a few words thanked the choir for their assistance and the kindly feeling which had prompted them to help out the good work in Dalhousie. He assured them that the action of the Campbellton people was much appreciated, and they would always receive a hearty and cordial welcome. The choir responded by giving three hearty cheers for the ladies of Dalhousie.

The arrangements for the entertainment were in the hands of the Dalhousie Red Cross Committee, and everything was well looked after. Mrs. L. G. Pinault chaperoned the ladies of the choir on the stage.

Too much cannot be said of the kind action of the various professional and business gentlemen of Campbellton, who came forward so willingly with the use of their cars, and the thanks of the choir is heartily extended to the following:

- Dr. L. G. Pinault. Dr. A. Martin. H. A. Carr. W. F. Napier. D. E. Richards. D. Sanson. C. A. Alexander. J. R. McKenzie. E. Sullivan. L. Cantin. A. McLennan. J. I. Bondreau. Lester Sullivan.

RED CROSS LADIES MAKE GOOD SHIPMENT

Large Box Despatched to Fredericton on Tuesday Containing Many Useful Articles

- On Tuesday the Red Cross Committee of the Women's Institute made a large shipment of goods to the Daughters of the Empire at Fredericton, from where it will be forwarded with other Red Cross goods to the front. The box contained 148 pairs socks, 3 caps, 9 night shirts, 1 day shirt, 41 Nightingales, 4 pillows, 1 bolster, 7 pillow cases, 2 sheets, 63 trench towels, 45 face cloths (cheese cloth), 16 knitted face cloths, 1 parcel old linen, 2 pkgs. absorbent cotton, 23 lbs. maple sugar, 3 dozen tins tobacco, 2 lbs. tobacco.

The outing was greatly enjoyed by the choir and they feel gratified that they are in a small measure able to assist in the various patriotic purposes. The Red Cross Committee of Jacques River are very anxious to have the help of the choir in a concert and it is probable that this will be arranged for in a few weeks.

A BANKER VOLUNTEERS.

Mr. R. M. Hope, Chatham Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has volunteered for the war, and asks for an appointment as Paymaster in the Canadian Artillery. He proposes, however, to go in any capacity. Mrs. Hope, we hear, will offer to go to the front as a nurse if her husband's services are accepted.

HAND SAWN OFF

While working in Hickson's mill, Newcastle, Tuesday morning, Joseph Jones of Newcastle had his left hand caught in the edger and so badly crushed that amputation was necessary. The operation was performed here at Hotel Dieu hospital, this morning, by Dr. Duffy and Dr. McGrath, the arm being amputated above the wrist. The poor young man is the only support of his widowed mother.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years. To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion, which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. At any drug store. Scott & Borne, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. Le Queux continues: "He locked them in my presence in the drawer of a writing table in his private room. Two days later, when Mr. Nash opened the drawer, he found that they had been stolen. German secret agents undoubtedly committed the theft, for I have since learned that my manuscript is now in the archives of the Secret Service at Berlin. This in itself is sufficient proof as showing how eager the Kaiser was to suppress his declaration of war. It was fortunate that I had kept a copy of the Emperor's speech."

Mr. Le Queux communicated the information to the British Cabinet, but apparently with no result. Before the war broke out and since then he has again and again directed the attention of the authorities to the almost criminal lackness with which they handled the spy problem. He tells of a "German Officers Club" in London, of German tourists swarming over the country without supervision, and actually of a considerable number of German staff officers taking what is called a "staff ride" through the very Garden of England. "Fancy such a piece of espionage being attempted in Germany!" he exclaims. "It is even known that the German Ambassador dined with the officers in question." Mr. Le Queux believes there is still laxness in dealing with spies, that they still swarm over England, and convey information of the utmost importance to German submarines and dirigibles.

REGULATION SAVES THE SALOON, PROHIBITION SAVES THE HOME

Major Dan Morgan Smith

(Excerpts from address delivered at Springfield, Ohio)

Meetings St. Andrew's Hall, 2nd and 4th Tuesdays at 3.30 p. m.

(Major Dan Morgan Smith was general counsel for the National Model License League (composed of brewers, distillers, wholesalers and saloonkeepers, one of the three largest anti-prohibition organizations in America) from 1908 to 1912. He was assistant corporation counsel of the city of Chicago during 1905 and 1906, and special assistant United States attorney of Chicago during 1913 to 1914. He is now judge advocate of the Illinois National guard, with the rank of major. He was born in Virginia and spoke for the liquor interests throughout the entire United States during the period from 1908 to 1912. Early in 1915 he declared himself for prohibition.—Editor.)

The saloon as it now exists stands convicted before the bar of public opinion. Its every defender admits its guilt; the question is simply one of sentence. The liquor lawyers plead that the saloon be regulated; protesting citizens insist that it be abolished. Prosecutor and defender alike realize that the liquor business as now conducted is a corrupter of political parties, a menace to the youth of the country, a debaucher of virtue, a destroyer of intellect, a wrecker of homes and an impediment to eternal salvation. It is a stench in the nostrils of decency. Liquor lessens efficiency, increases crime and robs not only its victim, but his wife, parents and children. The saloon is a curse to its owner and its patron; to the city that licenses it, the nation that taxes it, and to the voter that is responsible for its existence.

Its ablest defenders are its severest critics, for prohibition is defeated only by the plea that it be abolished. Half: "Regulation that regulates is preferable to prohibition that does not prohibit"—a plea that must be disregarded, for the defendants will not submit to regulating laws being enacted, and with the passage of the Webb-Kenyon law prohibition does prohibit. The promise to pass model license laws has been broken so often that the uninitiated longer regards the promise as more than an attempt to fool the voters, something to be talked of before and forgotten after election.

As the experienced criminal lawyer admits, with a great show of candor, that the previous record of his client is bad, so the speakers for the "wets" admit the evils that are chargeable to the saloon, and more are louder than they in advocating reform before election. Eloquently they plead for regulation, artfully they insist that the saloonkeeper can be legislated into righteousness, then loudly proclaim that prohibition is impossible of enforcement because mankind cannot be legislated into righteousness.

"Thou shalt not" will force the saloonkeeper to be good—"Thou shalt not" will lead the boys into temptation. Absurd! If the hardened offender can be made to reform by law, why not the innocent boy?

There are those in the liquor business who would gladly make good on their promise to pass model license laws, but they are in the hopeless minority. Those in real control of the liquor forces are too arrogant to submit to control, too lazy to desire reform, too shortsighted to understand that decent voters only vote "wets" when they believe laws will be passed taking the liquor business out of politics and the law-breaker out of the liquor business.

Those in control of the liquor forces applaud speeches favoring regulation, for such speeches persuade the decent voter that he may vote wet without endorsing present conditions. They endorse regulation, because regulation is a vote-getter. They subscribe funds to the Model License League, for they believe that organization wins election, but they fear such laws would cut down profits. They do not regard regulation as a remedy for evil, but as an argument to defeat prohibition.

Regulation saves the saloon; prohibition saves the home.

TETEGOUCHE BRIDGE

CONTRACTS AWARDED

(From the Gloucester Northern Light)

The contracts for the Brown's Mill Dam Bridge have been awarded by the Provincial Government.

The steel superstructure contract has been awarded to the Maritime Bridge Co. of New Glasgow, the price being about $12,000, while the substructure will be constructed by Mr. E. S. Haines of St. Marys, York Co., whose tender is reported to be in the vicinity of $4000.

The latter figure is a great surprise to all who are conversant with the plans, as it is considered by all who are acquainted with what is to be done that the approaches to the structure alone, will cost very nearly the amount named for the approaches and the substructure. There must surely be some mistake in regard to the figure reported as the amount of this contract.

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY IMPORTANT IMPROVED TRAIN SERVICE

Commencing May 30th, 1915, Grand Trunk "International Limited" equipped with high grade Coaches, Montreal to Chicago and Detroit, Parlor Library Car, Montreal to Detroit, Pullman drawing Room, Pullman sleeping car Montreal to Chicago.

Pullman Observation Library sleeping car Montreal to Chicago. Dining car serving all meals and valet service Montreal to Chicago will leave at 10.15 a.m. arriving Toronto 5.45 p.m. Chicago 8 a.m. following day.

Train No. 47 will leave Montreal at 8.15 a.m. arriving Ottawa 11.45 connecting with train from Ottawa at 12-01 for Algonquin Park. For sleeping and parlor car reservations apply to J. H. Corcoran, Travelling Passenger agent, Moncton, N. B.

With the passage of the Webb-Kenyon law making prohibition that prohibits not only feasible, but an established fact; with the failure of the liquor forces to pass a model license law or a model license ordinance anywhere in the United States, the voter no longer has the refuge of expediency. If his excuse for voting wet is one of loss of trade, without arguing the truth of such loss, I ask him, "Are you willing to admit that you put dollars above decency?"

If he excuses his vote on the grounds of financial support to the government, I ask, "Can this government in times of peace less afford to make the reform than autocratic Russia in time of war?"

If he seeks excuse in the example of Biblical characters, I ask, "Do you seriously believe that you forward the interests of Christianity when you vote wet?"

If his excuse be that prohibition interferes with personal liberty, the answer is this, "Does not the individual necessarily surrender certain personal privileges when he becomes a part of a community?" Can it be maintained that one can drink liquor without setting a bad example, without leading others into temptation, without danger to oneself, without wrong to one's wife or one's children? Can it be denied that personal liberty is the greatest possible freedom of the individual consistent with the rights of others? Can it be gainsaid that the use of liquor is an interference with the rights of contemporaries and posterity? Why not give up the right to drink for the good of mankind.

Another reason for voting is Liquor Domination of Politics

The attempt of the liquor forces to dominate all branches of government should persuade all well-wishers of the United States to vote dry, for they have become a menace to the purity of the ballot, to the sanctity of the law, to the independence of legislators and the honesty of government.

The saloonkeeper, liquor dealer and brewer combine irrespective of politics to support the man who publicly stands for personal liberty and privately stands for personal interests—aldermen, legislators, mayors and governors are flattered, supported, condescended or threatened, cajoled or bought to do their bidding. They ask but one question, "Do you stand for liquor?" If so, they very reasonably assume he will stand for anything!

KAISER'S PLANS KNOWN IN 1908

In his "German Spies in England" William Le Queux, the noted author, reveals some astonishing facts about the ramifications of the German spy system, and speaks with unrestrained bitterness of the failure of the British authorities to cope with the evil. A subsequent book by Mr. Le Queux has been suppressed, but he has the satisfaction of knowing that years ago he warned the British public, as pointedly as he could when apparently writing fiction, of the danger that threatened from Germany. In the House of Lords, Lord Roberts spoke of one of these books, and said it ought to be read by every Englishman. However, the book in question was denounced by a certain section of the Liberal press as bitterly as was Lord Roberts himself, and the author failed of his purpose. Now that he is remembered and acknowledged as an authority on the spy question the British Government is trying to suppress him. Probably after the war Mr. Le Queux will receive his reward.

One very important and patriotic public service Mr. Le Queux rendered to the British Government in 1908. He placed before it a copy of a speech delivered by the Kaiser to some of his intimate advisers at a secret council held in Potsdam shortly after the Zeppelin airships had been successfully tested. How he came by this report is not, of course, explained in detail but obviously someone at the meeting had his own reasons for not wishing Germany to engage upon a campaign of world empire or downfall. He particularly desired that Britain should not be blinded, and so he communicated the speech to Mr. Queux. At this secret council, we are told, the Kaiser appeared in naval uniform, pale, and somewhat nervous and unstrung, but determined. He spoke for two hours of the danger confronting the German Empire from within and without, illustrating his speech with maps and diagrams and some models of aircraft.

As usual, the Kaiser spoke of acting under Divine guidance. He spoke of the best hours he had spent in prayer before arriving at his fateful decision. He told of his own ardent desire to maintain peace, and how he had resisted many influences that urged him to war. Germany, he said, had been obliged by other nations to steadily increase their expenditure upon armament, but now the limit had been reached. The German masses had become discontented, and even the middle and upper classes and the army itself had shown signs of unrest. If these tendencies continued, there would be a revolution and the end of the Hohenzollerns. Yet in view of the strength of her probable enemies Germany could not have determined upon war had it not been for the Zeppelins. These dirigibles, he said, had been invented through the grace of the Lord in order that Germany might triumph over all her foes. Now he would take up the British challenge and he had determined upon the offensive. The exact hour nor the pretext had not been decided upon. He warned his hearers to prepare for a great war that would leave Germany the greatest nation upon the face of the earth. When he made the announcement he commented upon the joy displayed on the faces around him and when he had finished the old-white-headed "Gen. Von K." can it be our friend Kluck?—knew before the Kaiser and kissed his hand, saying, "It is truly the voice of God that has spoken out of your Majesty. God has chosen your Imperial Majesty as His worthy instrument to destroy this nightmare of British supremacy at sea, from which Germany has suffered all these many years—and God's will be done."

This sensational speech Mr. Le Queux determined to incorporate in a book then under way in which he intended to deliver a final warning to the British people. With this end in view he sent the opening chapters of manuscript with the speech to his friend, Mr. Eveleigh Nash, the publisher.

WEDDING OF POPULAR YOUNG COUPLE HERE

Miss Theberge and Mr. C. V. Couet Married on Wednesday at R. C. Church

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning at the Church of Our Lady of the Snows when Miss Ann Marguerite Theberge, only daughter of Mrs. Anarda B. Theberge and Mr. C. V. Couet of the Bank of Commerce staff here were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Wallace in the presence of a large congregation. The Church was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

The bride entered the Church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Sylvain, while Miss Lydia Boudreau played the wedding march. During the ceremony, under the direction of Miss Boudreau, fine solos were rendered by Mrs. H. G. McIntyre, Miss Marie Roy, Miss Eva Roy and Messrs. F. J. Champoux and E. J. Lavioie.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful suit of white serge trimmed with black satin and black hat to match, and carried a shower of roses and maiden hair fern. The ushers were Messrs. J. J. Bernier and L. E. Renault. After the ceremony the party drove to the residence of the bride where breakfast was served.

The happy couple left last night on the Ocean Limited for Roberval, P. Q., the former home of the groom, and were accompanied by the groom's father who was here in attendance at the wedding.

Before returning to Campbellton Mr. and Mrs. Couet will visit many of the leading Canadian cities. The bride is one of Campbellton's most popular young ladies and the groom has since his residence here made many friends.

Both have been active workers in musical circles and were members of the Patriotic Choir, and at the final rehearsal last Thursday evening, the members of the chorus presented the bride with a beautiful cut glass pitcher. Miss Theberge was taken completely by surprise, but most feelingly thanked the choir for their thoughtfulness. Mr. Couet also thanked the members for their kindness. Their many friends in town wish them all joy and prosperity.

The economical decoration of your home is largely a matter of knowing the right finishes to use. For the exterior of your home there is no better paint than Sherwin-Williams Paint (Prepared) SWP. It is made of the purest of materials, combined in correct scientific proportions with the aid of special machinery. The result is a far spreading, long wearing paint in liquid form, all ready to apply. For floors, the easiest finish to apply is S-W Inside Floor Paint, and this gives particularly good results even on old worn or discolored floors. On a good hardwood floor the best finish is S-W Mar-not, a hard-drying waterproof floor varnish. For the walls of your home, while water paints, such as S-W Decotint, give pleasing effects, they have not the durability which means true economy, Sherwin-Williams Flat-tone is unquestionably the best paint for walls. It is an oil paint that dries with a soft, flat, velvety finish. It is very durable and can be washed with soap and water. S-W Flat-tone comes in twenty-four beautiful colors, the selection of expert decorators. For the varnishing of interior work such as wainscoting, doors, furniture, etc., we recommend S-W Excello Varnish, or S-W Kopal, an old fashioned, general purpose varnish, which can be used inside and outside and is just the thing for varnished woodwork in kitchens, bathrooms, or for front doors, porch ceilings, etc. For floors use S-W Mar-not, a special waterproof floor varnish, will not turn white when water is spilled on it, nor does it show scratches and heel marks readily. We can take care of your every paint and varnish need. Drop in and discuss your paint and varnish problems with us. B. A. MOWAT. DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, BOOTS AND SHOES, HARDWARE, PAINTS AND VARNISHES.
