POLICE LEAVE IRISH TOWN IN RUINS

MANITOBA GOVERNMENT WILL PROSECUTE MENNONITES FOR VIOLATION OF SCHOOL LAWS

Members of Sect Refuse To Send Their Children To Public Schools of Province—Appeal To the Privy Council For Separate Schools Still Under Consideration of Empire's Highest Court.

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 21.—The Winnipeg Telegram yesterday published the following: In absolute defiance of the school laws of the province, Mennonites of the Houston district, who appealed to the privy council early this summer for separate schools, are refusing to send their children to the public schools recently opened in the district. This is the gist of a report made today by F. J. Greenway, assistant deputy of education, who has just completed an inspection trip of the entire Mennonite district.

"Through pressure brought to bear upon the people by the priests of the district, there has been a solid resistance against sending their children to school offered by the community, with the result that we are now forced to start prosecution," Mr. Greenway announced, "and the matter has been placed in the hands of the attendance officers, and will be dealt with according to our school laws."

TURKS AND ARABS LAUNCH ATTACKS AGAINST FRENCH

Adana Is Being Besieged By Force of Ten Thousand.

USING GERMAN GUNS

Hand-To-Hand Fighting Going On in South Asia Minor Cities.

Constantinople, Sept. 21.—Turkish Nationalists in Southern Asia Minor are continuing their fight against French troops of occupation there. Ten thousand Turks and Arabs are besieging Adana, and others are daily shelling Tarsus with old 5-inch German guns, which are operated by German officers who have been stranded there since the armistice. Frequent attacks are being made on Mersina, southwest of Adana, but have been repulsed by the fire from the guns of French battleships in the harbor.

French military officials are dealing diplomatically with the people, and are granting amnesty to former residents of Adana who wish to desert the Nationalists and return home. Hand-to-hand fighting frequently occurs at Adana, the French Senegalese and also the Turks and Arabs cutting off the heads of the fallen to be sure they are dead. There is no report, however, of torture being inflicted. The French have driven back the besiegers, and have established their lines five miles to the west of the city, but the Turks and Arabs continue their assaults under the protection of vineyards and orange groves.

Supplies Into Tarsus.

The French have succeeded in getting supplies into Tarsus from Mersina, and have also cleared the plain between Adana and the sea. They are preparing for a winter's siege, however, and are distributing food to the Turks, Arabs and Armenians inside the city. The harvest on the plains near by has been gathered in by the French.

It is said the Armenians involved the French in the hostilities by attacking last June the Arabs and Turks within the city and beating and murdering some of them. The French hanged 40 Armenians for this act and disarmed the rest. The Armenian city of Hadjin has sent a message that it is facing starvation and that a massace is threatened unless the city is relieved. A corps of 1,000 Armenians has been formed at Adana to go to the city, but has not moved because it lacks arms.

MACSWINEY OUT TO BREAK DR. TANNER'S RECORD FOR FASTING

Lord Mayor of Cork Starts On Fortieth Foodless Day.

London, Sept. 21.—Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork passed a very restless night at Brixton prison, where he entered, this morning, the fortieth day of his hunger strike, according to a bulletin issued by the Irish self determination league. He had some sleep, but it was quite fitful, and he was very weak this morning, the bulletin stated.

ELECTRICIANS MAY JOIN STRIKE WITH WORKERS ON HYDRO CANAL AT FALLS

Niagara Falls, Sept. 21.—The situation on the hydro canal is unchanged. No more men are affected, beyond the original 60 men who walked out at noon yesterday. Apparently nothing is being done. The men held a meeting last night, at which the strike was confirmed. There are rumors impossible of confirmation that the electricians will join in their grievances, which also have not been settled.

WANTS TO BUY CIGARETTES FOR THE BOLSHEVIKI

London, Sept. 21.—It is stated here that Leonid Krassin, Russian soviet minister of trade and commerce, and Russians associated with him, are negotiating for the purchase of between nine and ten million cigarettes, manufactured and owned by Britishers, and stored at Reval, Esthonia, where they were in transport to Russia when the revolution removed Russia as one of the allies.

Krassins is also completing arrangements for the delivery of much foodstuffs to him in England, it is said.

His activities are adversely commented upon by the London press.

Kept Warm And Saved Coal Too

Waste Material Saved At City Hall Came In Very Handy.

Sudden changes in the temperature are not permitted to cool the ardor for work of city employees. Therefore, when the thermometer took a sudden plunge zero-ward Monday it was found that the people at the city hall were quite prepared to deal with it. Steam was gotten up within a short time, and offices were kept at summer heat throughout the day. This was accomplished without using any of the precious coal supply. Waste material collected during the summer months supplied the necessary fuel. A new record was established. The earliest the city hall fires have been lit heretofore is September 25.

DO NOT APPROVE REARRANGEMENT

Presbytery Strikes Snag in Matter of District Charges.

The resignation of Rev. F. R. Hirst, pastor of the Knollwood Park Church, was accepted by the London Presbytery at the regular monthly meeting held this morning in the First Presbyterian Church. The home mission committee was appointed to secure a minister to fill the vacancy.

Rev. C. A. Malcolm of Cowal was appointed representative of the London Presbytery at the designation of Miss Stewart of Dutton, who leaves shortly for foreign mission fields. The designation service takes place on Monday next.

Rev. John Currie gave a report of the re-arrangement committee, and fireworks ensued between the laymen and clerics. The re-arrangement, which has been considered at many meetings, has not met with approval of some of the churches affected. It is now proposed that Cooke's Church, Mount Brydges and South Caradoc be one charge. Komoka, North Caradoc and Delaware, second charge, and St. Paul's, West London, and Hyde Park be another charge. The matter was discussed and re-discussed, but no headway was made in the matter.

To equalize the number of ministers and laymen in the presbytery, the following were appointed elders: W. S. Laidlaw, George Innis of Glencoe, J. W. Best of Fingal, D. Ross of London and J. Talbot of Dorchester.

Rev. J. M. McGillivray gave an encouraging report of the committee appointed to look into the matter of securing recruits for the ministry and other Christian work. Rev. W. J. Knox, moderator of presbytery, presided. The presbytery continued in session this afternoon.

HURRICANE WARNING

Tropical Storm Moving North-Westward From Yucatan.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—A hurricane warning for 10 a.m. on the West Louisiana coast, and on the Texas coast from Port Arthur to Corpus Christi, was issued today by the weather bureau.

The warning said the tropical storm in the Yucatan was advancing northwestward and was attended by "dangerous winds."

"Emergency: Warn All Interests!" was the announcement.

TRANSIENTS LEAVE.

Corpus Christi, Texas, Sept. 21.—Following a warning that a gulf storm is approaching a number of transients left here this morning. The majority of the people, however, intend to remain, but are preparing to move to higher ground in case of necessity. A tropical storm last year struck the mainland at Corpus Christi, killing several hundred persons and doing great property damage.

WRANGEL TAKES 2,000 REDS IN CAVALRY DRIVE

Gains Valuable Strategic Positions in South Russia.

WAS SUDDEN ATTACK

Anti-Bolshevik Forces Are Now Menacing Alexandrovsk.

Constantinople, Sept. 21. — Gen. Wrangel's latest cavalry drive against the Bolsheviki in South Russia has won him valuable strategic positions on the railway and resulted in the capture of more than 2,000 prisoners and quantities of supplies, it is reported in advices from the Crimea.

The South Russian cavalry, by a sudden dash, surprised the Bolsheviki, and captured the railway junction of Petropavlovsk, with sections of the line in either direction as well as the town of Oriakhoff.

The Wrangel forces are now menacing Alexandrovsk, on the Dnieper, about 90 miles inland from the Sea of Azov.

The Japanese Government now has an observer at Sebastopol, Gen. Wrangel's headquarters.

HENRY FORD CUTS PRICES ON ALL CARS

Pre-War Figures On All Products Becomes Effective Immediately.

Detroit, Sept. 21.—Re-establishment of pre-war prices on all products of the Ford Motor Company, effective immediately, was announced today by Henry Ford. The price reductions ranged from approximately 14 per cent on motor trucks to 31 per cent on small automobiles.

The announcement said the price reductions were made despite unfilled orders for 146,065 vehicles.

POWER SHORTAGE IS RELIEVED

More Hydro Is Now Available For the City's Needs.

Bright, warm weather throughout the Niagara district was responsible for a noticeable improvement in the power situation today. London's allotment was reduced only 10 per cent in comparison with twenty-five per cent on Monday. Strict economy made it possible to attain normal conditions, and there were none of the shutdowns which occurred on the first day. Street cars were running at normal speed again.

The situation Monday was due both to a breakdown of generators at the Falls and to the cold, gloomy weather. O. A. Hunt, assistant general manager of the public utilities commission, said today. All over the district from Niagara to Windsor, a distance of 200 miles there was an immense demand for electric light because of the dull day and many electric heaters also were in use. This made a heavy and unexpected demand on the system.

FACTORY FIRE MAY BE PROBED

Rumored That a Provincial Official Will Conduct an Investigation.

E. P. Heaton, chief fire marshal of the province, may make an investigation of the fire which destroyed Everybody's Overall Company plant on Talbot street Sunday afternoon.

Fire Chief John Aitken stated today that the fire department frequently made investigations on its own initiative, and sometimes at the request of the local department. He would not state whether a request for an investigation would be made.

The cause of the fire is still a mystery, and it is this point which is causing the rumors regarding an investigation.

PLAN TO FIGHT PHONE INCREASE

Ald. Harley Is Attending a Meeting in Toronto To Discuss Question.

Ald. F. E. Harley is in Ottawa today attending a meeting of the executive of the association formed by the municipalities to oppose the Bell Telephone increased rates. The association comprises Montreal, Quebec, Sherbrooke, Ottawa, Hamilton and London. Ald. Harley was appointed as the London member of the executive.

It is expected that they will interview members of the Government today, and will then formulate plans for opposing the application for an increase in rates which has been filed with the Dominion Railway Board.

A TALE OF WOE!

—From the Daily Express, London.

CHALLENGES PREMIER MEIGHEN TO CALL A GENERAL ELECTION

Montreal Newspaper Does Not Regard Yesterday's Results As Criterion.

Montreal, Sept. 21.—The Canadian Press has gathered the following editorial comment on the results of the Federal by-elections in St. John and Colchester County, Nova Scotia:

Montreal Le Canada: Being forced to elect two ministers, Mr. Meighen called to his cabinet not the best men, but those who had the most chance of being successfully elected. If we have one regret it is that this double election, carefully prepared and colored beforehand, will serve as an excuse to Mr. Meighen to tighten his hold on his usurped power. But if yesterday's result means anything let Mr. Meighen dare to call a general election!"

Montreal Gazette: "The victory of the Government in the first by-elections since Rt. Hon. Meighen became premier may not be significant of the general feeling towards his Government, but it surely is encouraging to those who believe in the principles and policy for which that Government stands.

"The result of yesterday's elections is a tribute to Hon. Mr. Meighen. He has mounted the first hurdle, has the courage and the cause to mount others and from this primary success, may take hope to give to Canada some years of stable government and sensible administration."

St. John, N. B., Sept. 21.—St. John Standard: "In the election of Hon. Mr. Wigmore, the Maritime Provinces have given Mr. MacKenzie King his answer in no mistakeable terms. The people of these provinces are a prudent and far-seeing race. They are satisfied that the program of the National Liberal and Conservative party which the Meighen administration is pledged to carry out, will be to the material and moral benefit of the country as a whole."

Brantford, Sept. 21.—The Expositor, commenting on the Dominion by-elections, says that MacKenzie King expected the result by keeping many miles away, and while the election of the ministers will be comforting to the premier, the next test of strength will take place in the constituency of East Elgin, which has been kept open until its disfranchisement has become a scandal.

However, the situation has been complicated by the presence of three candidates in the field, Unionist, Liberal and U. F. O. From an Opposition point of view this is an unfortunate condition of affairs, as it greatly increased the improbability of ministerial success.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—The Ottawa Journal referring to the by-elections says: "Summed up, the result in the two constituencies reveals three things: (1) That despite all the talk about unrest and discontent the Meighen Government has powerful support in the country; (2) That the Liberal party led by Mr. King is barely a living political force; (3) That the Agrarian party is far from being the power it was thought to be in the Maritime Provinces."

SMALL VOTE CAST.

St. John, N. B., Sept. 21.—Daily Telegraph: "The feature of yesterday's by-election in St. John-Albert was the small vote cast. It was the decision of an ill-advised minority. In Colchester Mr. McCurdy had a real fight. The by-elections will not alter the sentiment of the country at large, which wants the general election, which is long overdue. The Meighen Government will wait, distrusting the country. The distrust is mutual."

WOMAN MEMBER OF COMMONS WEDDED IN SARNIA TODAY

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Sept. 21.—A nuptial event of more than ordinary interest to Sarnia and Western Ontario was solemnized here today when Miss Roberta MacAdams, M. P. P., daughter of Robert MacAdams, 233 North Brock street, city, was united in marriage to Major Harvey Price of Edmonton.

TELEPHONE COMPANY OFFICIAL TELLS WHY INCREASES REQUIRED

C. F. Sise Is Called To Testify At Hearing Before the Railway Board.

OPPOSING MESSAGE RATE

Counsel for Municipalities To Subject Heads of Company To Rigid Examination.

Ottawa, Sept. 21. — (By Canadian Press.—Heavy and steadily-growing increases in the cost of wages and materials, depreciation in plant, which must be overcome if the business interests of the country are to be met, and greater cost of financing were the chief reasons given by C. F. Sise, general manager of the Bell Telephone Company for an increase in rates when the hearing was commenced before the board of railway commissioners this morning.

At the present sitting of the board the company will be given opportunity to establish its case, and an adjournment will be taken to allow the representatives of the various public bodies opposing the application to study the statements submitted by the company. It is certain, however, that the witnesses to be put on the stand on behalf of the company will be subjected to much cross-examination by opposing counsel.

In the course of his evidence, Mr. Sise emphasized the fact that thousands of applicants for telephone service cannot be served, and that if the necessary plant is to be provided to meet the requirements of the public it will be necessary to borrow $10,000,000 per annum, for some years to come.

The increase asked for includes higher rates for individual lines governed by the size of exchanges and a message rate applicable to business telephones in several cities. It is this feature of the application that is likely to be the most bitterly opposed.

For cities outside of Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa, Hamilton and Quebec, the flat rate for business lines is still continued, but with a considerable increase.

The company states that it will need four and a half million dollars more annually to meet its requirements.

Mr. Sise closed his remarks just before the 1 o'clock adjournment.

BRITISHERS ARE COMING MONDAY

Chamber of Commerce Delegates To Visit Local Factories.

London will entertain the delegates to the ninth congress of the Chamber of Commerce of the British Empire, which is in progress in Toronto on Monday and Tuesday of next week, it was announced by the local Chamber of Commerce this morning. It is expected that more than 100 men from all parts of the Empire will arrive in this city on Monday night, and will be entertained by the officials of the local organization at breakfast and luncheon on Tuesday. A tour of the city will be made.

Individual invitations have been sent to each of the delegates along with an illustrated pamphlet of the city and a questionaire asking if there is any particular factory he may wish to visit or persons he desires to meet. Answers to the communications are beginning to pour in. The majority of the men are accepting the invitation.

Owing to the necessity of his being in Quebec at the time, the Right Hon. Lord Desborough, the president of the congress, will be unable to visit this city.

SPANISH BOMB OUTRAGE.

Madrid, Sept. 21.—A dynamite bomb exploded yesterday in front of the Friends' Club in Talavera, a suburb of this city, doing enormous damage, but inflicting no casualties. One arrest has been made as a result of the outrage.

CABINET MEETING POSTPONED.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—Hon. A. L. Sifton is the only member of the Government in Ottawa today. The usual meeting of the cabinet, therefore, was not held.

FUEL CONTROL IN DOMINION LIKELY TO BE RENEWED SOON

Coal Situation in All Probability Will Make This Action Necessary.

RY. BOARD WILL DECIDE

Each Municipality Will Be Called Upon To Appoint Commissioner.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—(By the Canadian Press).—Following a conference with representatives of various provinces throughout the Dominion, it is quite probable that the next few days will see the restoration of the fuel control system which was in vogue during the critical period of the war.

Under this system each province had its own commissioner, whose duty it was to see that a fair distribution of the available supply of coal was made between the municipalities. The municipalities in turn had a commissioner to see that a fair distribution was made to consumers. This system worked very successfully.

The railway board, under whose jurisdiction the fuel control is placed, has not definitely decided to restore the regulations as yet, but will again consider the matter today or tomorrow.

FUEL SHORTAGE ACCENTUATED BY CUT IN HYDRO

Situation Will Be Worse Instead of Better, Brantford Learns.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Brantford, Sept. 21.—The shortage of coal and the scarcity of wood in the local municipal yards was brought home to citizens today when the council was informed by the hydro authorities that Brantford is now carrying a load of 200 more horsepower than it was getting, and that the situation will get worse instead of better with the approach of winter, owing to lessened supply and greater demand. The only ray of hope was shed when the gas committee reported that with new fields opening up and available because of increased prices, the Dominion Natural Gas Company would be in a position to give assurance that a greater supply of better quality gas would be available this winter.

Approval was given by the council for taking over by the hydro commission of the Toronto and Suburban, Toronto and Eastern, and Niagara and St. Catharines Railways.

The special committee on changes of civic government recommended submission of a referendum to the people in January of the election of the mayor by the council, and for three-year terms for aldermen, and coincident with this favored the establishment of an advisory board of chairmen and department heads meeting twice monthly, and advisory board managers and engineers of utilities meeting monthly. These would not need the vote of the people. To give aldermen time to think it over, the report was laid on the table for two weeks.

IRISH TOWN OF BALBRIGGAN IS WRECKED BY POLICE; INHABITANTS FLEEING IN TERROR FROM HOMES

Destruction Was Planned in Retaliation For the Shooting of Two Police Officers—Two Civilians Killed in a Battle Between Authorities and People of Town — Largest Hosiery Factory in Ireland, Owned by English Firm, Is Destroyed.

Dublin, Sept. 21.—Auxiliary police forces last night wrecked the town of Balbriggan, near here, in retaliation for the shooting of two police officers there earlier in the evening, when District Inspector Burke was killed and his brother, Sergt. Burke, was seriously wounded.

Two civilians were shot dead and several persons were wounded. Many houses were set on fire, and the largest hosiery factory in Ireland, belonging to an English firm, was destroyed.

This morning the town was in terror, and streams of refugees in all sorts of vehicles were abandoning the place for neighboring villages.

Shortly after midnight uniformed men appeared in the streets evidently bent on seeing the murderers of the police officials. A riot followed, in which public houses were entered and set on fire, as well as numerous private homes, whose occupants were given little time to dress before the buildings were burned.

Many of the business houses, including the big hosiery mills of Deedes, Templer & Co., were destroyed.

The town is one of the centres of hosiery manufacture and power loom weaving.

It is reported that the two civilians who were killed, a dairyman and a barber, were dragged from their houses, bayoneted and then shot.

A number of houses belonging to prominent Sinn Feiners were set on fire, and all together 28 residences are reported to have been burned to the ground. The sacking of the town, it is alleged, was carried out by some 50 auxiliary police, known as "Black and Tans," from their uniforms. Today these police were reported to be declaring they would return tonight to complete the destruction of the town.

VILLAGE IN COUUNTY CLARE IS SCENE OF POLICE REPRISALS

Belfast, Ireland, Sept. 21.—Following a display by Ulster volunteers today armed and disguised men in uniform attacked several premises in Carrick-on-Shannon, County Leitrim, and caused considerable damage with rifle fire and bombs.

Reports from Scariff, County Clare, state that reprisals have been taken on that village for the wounding of two constables. Similar scenes occurred in Abbeyfeale, County Limerick, where the local temperance hall was burned, a pharmacy damaged and the windows of houses smashed in reprisal for the death of a constable Saturday.

"DEADLINES" ARE ESTABLISHED BY CHICAGO POLICE

Quietness Prevails This Morning in Stockyards District.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Quiet prevailed this morning in the stockyards district on the south side, where last night one white man was killed by three negroes, followed by disturbances which were quelled by the police with the assistance of a priest in whose church the negroes took refuge. Chief of Police Garrity established "deadlines" in the district, and reported that the situation was under control today.

VOTING POWERS IN LEAGUE EXPLAINED IN DETAIL BY COX

Presidential Candidate Points Out Fallacy of Some Arguments.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 21.—"If Canada has a dispute, she cannot sit, and only one vote would be accorded England and all her colonies," Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, declared yesterday in the course of a campaign speech, in which he tried to explain to his audience how Senator Hitchcock's league reservation met the objections of those who declared the British Empire would have six votes to the United States one, in the League of Nations.

The governor reiterated that he would present Ireland's cause to the League of Nations, adding that he would answer any questions on the Irish or any other subjects.

He repeated his intention, if elected, to enforce the prohibition act.

HARDING RAPS LEAGUE.

Marion, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Warning that the League of Nations is "full of known ambiguities," Senator Harding, Republican presidential candidate, in an address yesterday asserted that article ten of the League of Nations is "a reciprocal pledge on the part of the United States to help preserve the independence and national integrity of forty-four nations," and that the article and its corrollaries "clearly contemplate war, if need be, to make this preservation possible."

CALLED TO PORT ELGIN.

Florence, Sept. 2.—A call has been dealt with by the presbytery from Port Elgin, which calls Rev. W. T. Mooney from the Rutherford and Oakdale churches to that place. Rev. Mooney has been the pastor for some three years and will preach farewell sermons on Sunday at each of these churches.

MYSTERY STILL SURROUNDS WALL ST. EXPLOSION

New York Police As Far From Solution As Ever.

HAVE NO NEW CLUES

Story of Fischer Proves That He Is Innocent of Complicity in Tragedy.

New York, Sept. 21.—Federal and police authorities today were admittedly as far as ever from a solution of the mystery surrounding the explosion that spread death and destruction in Wall Street last Thursday.

Clues, at first apparently promising, have not developed, and today virtually the only trail being followed was that pursued by Samuel Wellington, president of the West Indies Trading Company, who said that he remembered seeing three suspicious looking men hastening from in front of the United States assay office a few moments before the detonation knocked him unconscious.

Hope of developments from questioning Edwin P. Fischer, lawyer and former employee of the French high commission, and Alexander Bratlovsky, Russian journalist, went glimmering with the commitment of the former for physcopathic observation in Bellevue Hospital, and the unconditional release of the latter after authorities had satisfied themselves that he had nothing to do with the tragedy.

The incoherent and eccentric story of Fischer, who sent postcard warnings, which he said he "received from the air" to friends here, convinced the government agents of his innocence.

CUSTOMS HOUSE IN NEW YORK IS UNDER STRONG GUARD TODAY

New York, Sept. 21.—The New York customs house today was under the heaviest guard in its history, because of the warning received yesterday that the Wall street explosion last Thursday would be followed this afternoon with blowing up of the great Government structure.

Although both federal and local authorities were inclined to regard as a hoax a post card received by Collector Edwards, setting 2 o'clock as the hour for the second explosion, they took no chances.

Office workers making their way down the canyon of Lower Broadway this morning found scores of coastguards, carrying rifles and sidearms, entering into the customs house at the foot of Bowling Green. In addition, scores of United States customs guards had been mobilized. They were stationed inside the building and at the doors. Everyone on entering the structure was closely questioned.

Officials say that more coastguard reserves were being held at the Battery Park, at the very tip of Manhattan Island. These, it was said, would be brought across the park later in the day and strung around the customs house.

Prepared for Emergency.

Police reserves and agents of the department of justice also stood ready to answer any call, but customs house officials said they were prepared for any emergency should one arise.

There was only one policeman on duty in front of the Government building. He was assigned to see that no vehicles parked in front of it.

One effect of the warning was to keep many clerks in Lower Manhattan from their daily tasks. Frequent telephone calls reporting "illness" and "visits from out-of-town relatives" was particularly noticeable at the customs house.

Collector of Internal Revenue Edwards, however, was early at work, and asserted that 2 o'clock would find him at his desk. Although regarding the post card warning as a joke, he declared that "everything the law allows" has been done to safeguard the lives of workers in the building.

TESTIFY THEY SAW "DEATH WAGON" JUST BEFORE EXPLOSION

ALDERMEN USED TO PROCEEDINGS IN DARK

Hydro may come and hydro may go, but the city council goes on forever. This was demonstrated last night, when the electric light failed just as the city fathers were at the height of the evening's business. Apparently, they were used to doing business in the dark, for the sudden gloom didn't phase them a bit.

City Clerk Baker was reading a number of minor bylaws. His memory carried him part way down the list and voices from various points in the stygian darkness moved the necessary readings. Matches helped out with one or two more bylaws, and then the clerk moved over to the window, where he was able to finish the list by the light of the street lamps.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepsin, bismuth, soda, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little bisurated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia, which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisurated magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow, and, moreover, the continued use of the bisurated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion. —Advt.

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advt.

New hair growth

Wonderful new growths of hair are being reported by those using Kotalko, the Indian hair compound. In many cases it has induced a full hair crop where there was a large bald spot. Kotalko is obtainable in drug stores everywhere. Or send 10 cents, silver or stamps, for proof box to KOTAL COMPANY, LIMITED, 366-L, Adelaide St. W., Toronto.

Just Apply This Paste and the Hairs Will Vanish

(Boudoir Secrets.)

The judicious use of a delatone paste insures any woman a clear, hairless skin. To prepare the paste, mix a little of the powdered delatone with some water, then apply to the objectionable hairs for two or three minutes. When the paste is removed, and the skin washed, every trace of hair will have vanished. No pain attends the use of the delatone and it will not mar the most sensitive skin, but to insure results, see that you get real delatone.—Advt.

CHIEF'S REPORT ON SCHOOL FIRE ASKED

Council Decides On This in Preference To Investigation —Some Objections.

Fire Chief John Aitken will be asked to make a report to the city council on the fire which destroyed the Collegiate Institute last spring. The council last night decided to take this action in preference to holding a more extensive investigation.

The question was raised by Ald. O. I. Cunningham, who was a member of a committee to report on the cost of a probe. He stated that conference with the city solicitor had revealed that the council had no authority to investigate the affair, in so far as it concerned the board of education. If it wished to investigate the conduct of the fire department, which was directly under its control, it could do so. It could not make inquiries as to the construction of the building, insurance and other matters under the control of the school board.

Ald. Seabrook urged that the council make as thorough an investigation as possible. "The question has been asked many times whether the fire was fought properly. It is only right the department should have an opportunity to vindicate itself," he said.

Ald. John Bridge said that an investigation would mean a two or three day session at which much contradictory evidence would be offered, much copy furnished for the newspapers and from which no good to the city would result. There would be no harm in this if it cost nothing, but if there was any expense entailed it should not be considered.

Ald. Cameron Wilson asked if the chief had ever been requested to make a report. "Is it fair to commence a public investigation before asking him to make a report?" he queried. "It seems to me that an attempt is being made, directly or indirectly, to get somebody's scalp.

TO DISCUSS CENTRAL DAIRY PLANT SOON

Milk Producers To Consider Establishment — Would Insure Pure Supply.

Establishment of a central distributing dairy may be considered at a meeting of the Middlesex Milk Producers' Association at a meeting in the county buildings here in October. According to J. C. Nichol, president of the association Farmers' clubs of the surrounding district have been canvassed on the proposal, and their views will be made known at the meeting.

The central plant would endeavor to do away with the overlapping resulting from distribution by several companies, and would also offer opportunity for better methods of handling the milk.

The possibility of it being operated as a municipal plant is suggested also.

Mayor Little believes that the plan has many points in its favor.

He thinks that the price of delivery would be reduced and that the city would have more direct control over the milk supplies. It would be possible to obtain daily tests and to insure a pure supply.

RETAIL CLOTHIERS' EXECUTIVE MEETS

Resolve To Eliminate Fake Advertising, Fictitious Sales —Convention February.

Resolutions dealing with the elimination of false advertising and fictitious sales were passed at the meeting of the executive committee of the Ontario Retail Clothiers' Association held in the Tecumseh House on Monday. R. Fitzpatrick, who recently returned from the Dominion convention in Vancouver, to which he was an Ontario delegate, gave a very elaborate report on the work of organizing a Dominion association. This task will be completed, it is expected, before the next convention of clothiers, which is to be held in Ottawa in February.

The officers and members other than local merchants present were: E. R. Fisher, president (in the chair), Ottawa; R. Fitzpatrick, vice-president, Toronto; D. E. Johnson, secretary-treasurer, Ottawa; E. Mack, Toronto; H. Brummie, Lindsay; J. H. Bryant, Belleville; George Gray, Chatham, and J. C. Begg, Hamilton.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS COMMITTEE NAMED

Warden Clark Sends Toronto Five Names for Approval.

For approval as members of a committee on mothers' pensions in Middlesex County, Warden Thomas Clark has forwarded the names of the following five residents of the county to the provincial commission: Miss Mary Grant, clerk of London Township; John Drummond, clerk of McGillivray; Allan McPherson, reeve of Glencoe; Mrs. Malcolm Gray of Komoka, and County Clerk John Stuart.

The work of this committee will be to receive and investigate applications for pensions for widowed mothers. A cost-of-living budget for every mother applying under the scheme will be made. These costs it is thought will vary in different parts of the county. As soon as approval of the names is received the committee will commence its duties.

TWO FIRE ALARMS.

Two alarms were turned in at the fire hall between 5 p.m. and 6:10 p.m. on Monday evening. The first was a false one from Trafalgar street, and the second one from a photographer's studio on Dundas street, where gas was leaking from a pipe.

CIVIC BUILDINGS ON FEDERAL SQUARE TO COST ONE MILLION

Ald. O. I. Cunningham Tells City Council—Monumental Structure Expensive.

OFFICES WANTED

Declares Ald. W. A. Wilson, Who Favors Customs House Purchase.

Municipal buildings on the federal square site would cost a million dollars, Ald. O. I. Cunningham told the city council last night. The statement was made in reply to a question from Ald. C. G. Moorhead as to whether any attempt had been made to obtain an estimate for buildings on this site as authorized at the last election.

Ald. Cunningham said that no regular report was ready, because the motion requesting it was vague as to the type of building required. A monumental structure, which would have to be faced on three sides, would be most expensive, according to architects.

Ald. Moorhead said that an estimate of $200,000 had been made for erecting new municipal buildings on the present site, and he did not see why building across the street would cost so much more.

Not in Favor.

He did not favor spending a million dollars for the purpose.

Ald. W. A. Wilson favored buying the present customhouse. Not a city hall, but municipal offices were wanted, he claimed. These could be obtained cheaply by remodelling the customhouse. The city offices would then be close to the Government, and also to the new hotel to be erected soon.

Ald. John Ashton asked if a price could be put on the London East hall, as certain parties were anxious to buy it. Mayor Little replied that only one tender had been received when the building was offered for sale. It was so far below the estimated value of the building that it was not considered. The council would be willing to consider higher tenders.

Different Plan.

Ald. Moorhead asked if a different plan of surcharges could be arranged with the City Gas Company instead of the present graded scale. Ald. Cameron Wilson, chairman of the special committee, replied in the negative. In the negotiations with the gas company it was suggested that a service charge be graded in exact proportion to the gas used, he said. The company would not do this because they believed it would be tantamount to an increase in the price, which was contrary to the statutes.

Permission was granted to the Humane Society to build a home for Inspector George Tustin on the site of the Isolation Hospital, subject to an agreement to be drawn up by No. 1 committee.

The meeting was a short one. Aside from inquiries there was no new business, and the routine bylaws and committee reports were disposed of quickly.

TWO WEEKS' BRIDE FREED FROM JAIL RETURNING HOME

19-Year-Old London Girl Released From Forgery Charge in Detroit.

WINDSOR, Sept. 20.—When the prison gates swung back on a little girl still in her 'teens, in Detroit tonight, and the threatening gloom of an imminent penitentiary sentence was removed from her, tearful, pale and badly scared, she made up her mind to return with her husband and father to her old home in London, Ont.

She was arrested Friday on a charge of forgery and put behind bars, a delicate, fragile bride of but two weeks. When her father arrived here Sunday, after being informed of his daughter's plight by friends in Windsor, he went to visit the little girl and promised her all the assistance in his power.

"My little girl," he said, "your daddy will stand by you."

A Childhood Romance.

"I won't go home without Walter," she said. "I love him—my husband. And he is not to blame. I alone am at fault. I won't go a step without him."

The story had its beginning back in London, Ont., where the girl and boy, as children, met, played, and grew up. That early romance ripened into love, and two weeks ago they were married. She is 19 years old, and he 22.

He had moved from London to accept a position as an automobile salesman, and was residing with relatives in Windsor. When the war broke out, the little girl wanted to do her bit too, so she came to Windsor to reside with a family on Oak avenue, and worked in the local office of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment, Sandwich street east.

Bills Began to Annoy.

Soon after their marriage and the "setting up of housekeeping" in Detroit, annoying bills commenced to come in that the meagre salary of the youthful husband failed to meet. Then the bride, inexperienced in the ways of the world, thought of a legack from a grandmother, whereby she was to receive $1,800 when she attained her 21st birthday. She wrote her lawyer at London for a part of it in advance, and when this was refused, owing to provisions of the will, she decided to draw on it herself.

She fully intended to pay it back to the banks. First she deposited with a Detroit bank a check for $700 on the Bank of Montreal, and thereafter, on the strength of this initial check, and before its worthlessness was discovered, she drew amounts on the banks for sums aggregating several hundred dollars.

For a time the strain on the little family pocketbook was relieved, and then came a detective.

She was held in detention, and cold, heartless, misunderstanding officialdom threatened a prison term ahead.

Father Comes to Rescue.

Then father arrived with his promises of aid, and his encouragement, and his interviews with the bank officials.

Tonight the little wife is free. She's tired of Detroit, and the unequal struggle against profiteering landlords, high prices, and people who don't understand. She's going back to her home town—and her friends, acknowledging having made a wholly excusable mistake, and determined to face the future anew, with a brave courage.

And no one will wish her better success and more happiness than the officials of the banks who have agreed not to press charges, and the detectives and officers who came to know her through the unfortunate train of circumstances that swept her up in a moment of youthful folly.

MASHER STOPS GIRL; WRENCHES RING FROM HER

Victim of Cowardly Assault in State of Nervous Prostration.

From several parts of the city come reports of the cowardly attacks on young unaccompanied girls by cowardly mashers, as evidence that Chief Birrell's campaign to round up all insolent "rowdies" and to mete out punishment to them, was one needed here and welcomed by all right-thinking citizens.

Even robbery was not below two of these miscreants, as the following story, told to The Advertiser by a prominent local physician, shows:

While walking homeward shortly after 9 o'clock one evening last week, a girl, 21 years of age, who was unaccompanied, was approached by one of the mashers on Richmond street near Central avenue, and after making a few unappreciated remarks to her, asked her to go for an auto ride with him. When she refused he grasped her hand and commenced to pull her towards the aut, from which another "lizard" was looking on, evidently greatly amused at the treatment the unfortunate victim was receiving. In the struggle two rings, one with a diamond set in it, were wrenched from the girl's fingers. She screamed. Then her assailant, after the manner of his kind, left her and ran like a frightened rabbit to the auto. The girl took a northbound car for home.

She is now in a state of nervous prostration at her home, where her physician has been in attendance for the past two days.

HOBOS MUST SEEK A NEW RENDEZVOUS

Police Get Busy and Clean Out Resort At Sand Pit.

S. P. Hakanson, en route to Sweden, his native land, without funds, was sentenced to three months in the common jail on a charge of vagrancy in police court Monday. He informed the court that he has two sisters in Vancouver, but the magistrate commented that Vancouver is "a long way from here."

A similar sentence was meted out to Sam Spickett, who left Brantford because he "did not like the place," and made a boudoir of the waiting-room of the Grand Trunk depot for several nights prior to his arrest. He admitted that he had no money. "I haven't any home at all," declared the youth.

Frank Stevens of Halifax was captured by a Grand Trunk constable sleeping in an empty box car in the sand pit east of this city. This place, until recently cleaned up by the police, was the hobos' favorite resort, where the habitues built fires from pieces of broken cars and lived on the produce of market gardeners in the vicinity, who did not take kindly to the modern Bohemia.

"You look like a decent sort of fellow," said the magistrate. "Why don't you work?"

"You can't step into a boarding-house without money," he explained. "Sickness took all my money."

The court discharged Stevens, cautioning him to get work, and promising him a cell in Castle Carter along with Hakanson and Spickett if he returned to court.

Charles Ellis drove his car without a license number, which he claimed to have neglected to change when he put a new body on his auto. He was let go with a warning and on payment of costs. G. E. Mackie was charged by the police with cutting an intersection at Oxford and Richmond streets in a touring car one week ago. Accused denied being at the point in question, and proved that his car is a sedan, hence the charge was dismissed. William Knapp was not so fortunate, $3 and costs being the ante required from him. Bylaw infractions at $2 each were committed by C. W. Fuller, A. Hassan and M. German.

COLLEGIATE PLANS NEAR COMPLETION

May Be Ready For the Board To Discuss This Week.

With the exception of installing seats and desks two rooms of the new Knollwood Public School now are ready for occupation. This is the first part of the extensive building program commenced this year by the board of education to be finished. Two more rooms are being built in connection with it, but these will not be ready for some time yet. The building will take care of the school needs of the northeastern section of the city.

Formerly it stood on Carling Heights and was used as a Red Cross centre. The need for it passed with the demobilization of the troops. It was purchased by the board of education and moved to its present site on Quebec street. When the additions to it have been completed, it is likely that the whole structure will be covered with stucco.

Good progress is being made with other parts of the building program. Work on the Ealing addition is proceeding rapidly and is not seriously affecting the classes which are being conducted in the other sections of the building. Wortley road school improvements also are progressing rapidly.

Plans for the new Collegiate Institute may be discussed by committees of the board of education this week. Since returning from Cleveland, where he inspected high schools, Architect L. E. Carrothers has several suggestions to lay before the trustees in regard to the new building. Preliminary plans along the lines first suggested by the board are well under way.

Pale-Cheeked Women Told About Restoring A Rosy Complexion

A few years ago the girl with pale, drawn cheeks scarcely knew what to do in order to restore her fading appearance. At that time there was no blood-food medium made that really would put color and strength into systems that were more or less wornout.

Today it's different. The blood can be quickly nourished, can be made rich, red, and healthy. All you have to do is take two Ferrozone Tablets with a sip or two of water after meals. The effect is almost magical.

Mothers, look at your children. Are they ruddy and strong—do they eat and sleep well, or are they pale, weak, and anaemic?

FERROZONE will rebuild them. Take your own case—is your blood strong and rich? Have you that old-time strength and vigor, or are you somewhat under the weather?

FERROZONE will supply the strengthening elements you require. It is a blood-forming, nourishing tonic that makes every ailing person well.

FERROZONE is a marvellous remedy. It contains in concentrated form certain rare qualities that especially fit it in cases of anaemia, poor color, thin blood, tiredness, and loss of weight.

Every day you put off using FERROZONE you lose ground. Get it today, sold in 50-cent boxes by all dealers, or by mail from the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

CABINET MINISTERS GET ANOTHER CHANCE TO FULFIL PROMISES

Hon. W. E. Wigmore's Majority 4,190; Hon. F. B. McCurdy's Nearly 1,500.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept 20—(By Canadian Press)—By-elections, which were held today in St. John and Albert Counties, New Brunswick, and Colchester County, Nova Scotia, resulted in the return of Hon. E. W. Wigmore, minister of customs and inland revenue, in the former constituency, and Hon. F. B. McCurdy, minister of public works, in the latter. Both ministers had sought indorsation at the hands of their constituents after assuming cabinet positions in the Federal Government of Right Honorable Arthur Meighen.

Mr. Wigmore was opposed by Dr. A. E. Emery, Liberal, of St. John, and Mr. McCurdy by Capt. Hugh Dickson, who ran as a United Farmer-Labor candidate. Total pole for Wigmore, 8,028; Emery, 3,838. Wigmore' majority, 4,190.

McCURDY ALSO SAFE.

TRURO, N. S., Sept. 20.—Hon. F. B. McCurdy was returned by a majority of approximately 1,500 over his Farmer-Labor opponent in the by-election in Colchester County today. Mr. McCurdy carried Truro Town by upwards of 2,000 majority, and all but held his own in the country districts, which were expected to poll a heavy vote for the Farmer condidate.

WOMEN VOTERS ACTIVE.

TRURO, N. S., Sept. 20.—With ideal weather conditions prevailing, Colchester electors are turning out in large numbers today to record their votes in the by-election made necessary by the appointment of Hon. F. E. McCurdy as minister of public works. Reports coming in from the county state that a very heavy vote is being polled, and in some polling booths in Truro four times as many votes had been polled up to noon as during the same period in any provincial election. Scores of women voters were present at the various booths when they opened at 6 o'clock this morning.

The concensus of opinion in Truro is that the minister will poll a heavy vote in the town, while his opponent, Capt. Hugh Dickson, Farmer-Labor candidate, will receive strong support throughout the country districts.

NOT MUCH CONSOLATION.

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—Commenting on the by-election the Globe will say tomorrow, in part:

"These ministerial by-elections created little interest throughout the country. In two specially selected constituencies, newly-appointed ministers were asked to hold seats won by a majority of 8,000 and by acclamation, respectively. Under all the circumstances Mr. Meighen cannot really take much consolation from the returns. Mr. Meighen, however, shortly will have a much more satisfactory opportunity of testing the position of his government with the electorate of the Dominion. The old Conservative constituency of East Elgin will furnish a better estimate of the sentiments of the general public than the two hand-picked ridings which the ministers held by decreased majorities yestrday."

JUDGMENT RESERVED IN L. & P. S. APPEAL

Commission Not Satisfied With Revision Court's Assessment Reduction.

Appeal by the London and Port Stanley Railway Commission against the decision of the Port Stanley court of revision was heard by Judge Coulter at 2 o'clock on Monday afternoon and judgment reserved. The assessment of the railway property at Port Stanley was raised to $113,000 this year. An appeal was entered with the court of revision, with the result that a reduction of $26,000 was made. The commission was still unsatisfied. Its dissatisfaction was the cause of the further action taken Monday.

DICKENS LANDMARK WILL BE DESTROYED

London, Sept. 21.—Another Dickens landmark is to be destroyed, the house where Bill Sikes met his death, as described in Oliver Twist. It stands in a court on Jacob's Island, Bermondsey, and is being used now as a stable.

The house was identified by the finding of some old plans of Bermondsey, dated 1856, on one of which was marked "Bill Sike's house."

DOESN'T THINK MUCH OF BABY-SNATCHERS

Niagara Falls Judge Scores Man Who Is Marrying Girl of 13.

Niagara Falls, Sept. 21.—Police Judge C. H. Piper is today studying the compulsory education law to learn whether it is possible legally to keep a 13-year-old girl in school after she is married until she becomes of school age—16 years.

Yesterday Ben Saerianni, of 2116 Seneca street, was in court for failing to keep his daughter, Sarah, in school. He told the judge that the girl is to be married next Sunday, and that she stayed at home preparing for the wedding. He showed the court a license for Sarah, who gave her age to the marriage license clerk as 14 and Giuseppi Serianni, 27 years old, also of 2116 Seneca street.

"I don't think much of those baby-snatchers and you are just as bad to give your consent to the marriage," remarked Judge Piper. "You send that girl to school today and keep her there until she is married. In the meantime I will look up the law and if I can I will keep her in school after she is married."

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. OFFICER HAD NOSE FOR BOOZE

Businessman From the North Is Fined $200.

A policeman's keen nose for liquor as responsible for the appearance in olice court today of two businessmen om the north. One was fined $200 for aving liquor in a place other than a ivate dwelling. The other was let go. The two men were driving a motor ar with one headlight out. A constable stopped them at Dundas and ichmond streets to inquire why the ht was out. He smelled whiskey and e arrest followed. In a club bag benging to one man three bottles were ound untouched. In another club bag ere bottles of ale and one bottle of whiskey partly consumed.

The liquor was obtained at the Government dispensary. The man who was released claimed that he came to London once a week, and when his neighbors needed a prescription filled he acted as the good Samaritan and secured the whiskey. The prescriptions were obtained from three different doctors. The man found guilty stated that he owned one bottle and the other two elonged to neighbors. He said that he ad procured a room at the Tecumseh House, where part of his bottle was onsumed. The fine was paid.

LANDLORD OBJECTED TO TOO MANY DOGS

Humane Inspector Tustin Had Home For Score of Stray Dogs.

Serious interference with the work of the Humane Society is likely to occur unless immediate steps are taken to provide property which can be used as a dog pound, and for other purposes of the society, Inspector George Tustin stated today. Up to the present time Mr. Tustin has been using the property in connection with his residence on Mount Pleasant avenue.

More than a score of stray dogs found a home there on numerous occasions. This was fine for the dogs, but did not meet with the approval of the landlord, who requested that the pound be moved elsewhere.

Negotiations were commenced to build a house for the inspector on the property surrounding the isolation hospital. There would be ample room for the dogs there, and the inspector could also look after the hospital. The council gave its consent to this proposal last night.

Members of the Humane Society likely will come before the housing commission Thursday night to urge that immediate action be taken in the building of the house, in order that the work may not be halted.

PLAN Y. M. C. A. PAPER

"Triangle News" May Be Published in the City Shortly.

Whether the local Y. M. C. A. will some time in the near future have a paper of its own will be decided at the membership dinner tonight. Many "Y's" throughout Canada have formed their boys together to have a paper printed and sold to the boys with the news of the month in it. Editors and reporters are to be chosen, and it is expected that a paper will be formed by the local branch.

It will likely have four pages, one to be set aside entirely for news of the boys' work department. Industrial, men's work, sports and military news will also be published. All the Y. M. C. A.'s who have this paper call it after their city, so it is thought that if the plans of the local officers are carried out the London paper will be called "The London Triangle News."

ADVERTISING CLUB TO HEAR HUBBARD

Elbert Hubbard II of New York City, son and successor of the founder of the Roycrofters, who was lost on the Lusitania, will address the London Advertising Club within the next three weeks, it was announced at the season's first meeting of the directors of the club, held Monday evening in the Tecumseh House. This will be the first visit of Mr. Hubbard to the city.

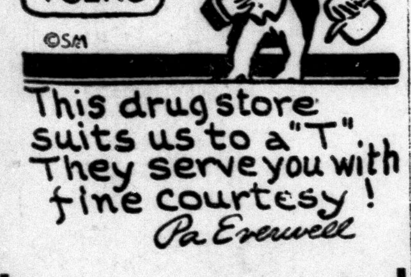

Along with the general winter's program, a plan for an educational program for the benefit of the younger members of the club was discussed. The entire work of the club this year will be along constructive lines. It was decided to work in conjunction with the local Chamber of Commerce for the general advancement of the city.

ADVOCATES CLOSED SHOP.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 21.—The closed shop is as essential to the carpentering industry as other lines of trade, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, declared in an address here yesterday before the national convention of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. The speech generally reviewed conditions as they exist with the carpenters, which was said to be satisfactory.

Nearly 80 delegates from all parts of Canada, the United States and the Panama Canal zone are here for the convention.

PLANNING TO HOLD EIGHT REUNIONS

English, Irish and Scotch Programs To Be Given At "Y."

At a committee meeting of the foremen of many local factories held in the "Y" last evening, it was decided to have eight reunion nights during the winter. These will be for the men from Lancashire and Yorkshire Counties of England. The men who will be asked to these evenings will be members of the St. George's Society, Sons of England, and St. Andrew's Society, who are from the above-mentioned counties. One evening will be set aside for the English people, while the Irish and Scotch will have their turns. The program on the "Irish evening" will be entirely Irish.

A tug-of-war league will be formed, and a challenge basketball team will also be picked from the members of these clubs. There will also be a volleyball team. Eight winter picnics will be part of the winter's program.

ARBITRATORS MAY BE HERE WEDNESDAY

Coming On Grand Trunk Special Train To Inspect Property.

It is expected that the G. T. R. arbitration special, bearing William Howard Taft, ex-president of the United States, Sir Thomas White, President Howard G. Kelly of the G. T. R., and several other high officials of that road, will arrive in this city tomorrow, according to local G. T. R. officials. The time of their arrival is indefinite.

The party left Montreal on Monday, arriving in Toronto in the afternoon. They left for the Niagara district at noon today. On leaving London they will go to Chicago via the Sarnia tunnel, and then make a return trip to this city by way of Windsor.

An inspection is being made of the whole right-of-way of the road and its buildings by the members of the arbitration board, representing both the Government and the road, in preparation for the opening of negotiations, which will take place in Montreal, in the near future. Mr. Taft is representing the Grand Trunk, while Sir Thomas White is representing the Government.

MUSICAL EVENING.—A musical evening for the members of Hackett L. O. L., No. 805, will be given by the lodge band on Wednesday evening in their hall. Lunch will be served at the close of the program.

EXECUTIVE TO MEET.—The executive committee of the Men's Brotherhood Federation will hold its final meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A., when reports of the different committee will be received in connection with the federation banquet which will take place in the Masonic Temple on Thursday evening, September 23.

WILL ADDRESS G. A. U. V.—Col. W. J. Brown, who some time ago spoke to the members of the G. W. V. A. interested in getting a better education, will speak to the members of the G. A. U. V. some time in the near future and explain to them the educational scheme the Y. M. C. A. has drawn up for returned men.

SCHOOL FAIR.—The teachers and pupils of S. S. No. 1, Lobo, are making preparations for their school fair, which will be held in Komoka Public School, on September 30. The exhibits will consist of garden produce, flowers, school work, sewing and cooking done by the pupils. The program includes races, baseball and basketball.

MAY ATTEND.—Bishop David Williams of this city is expected to attend the centenary of the Anglican Church in Rupert's Land, which is to be held at Winnipeg October 10 to 17. A number of noted church dignitaries will be present, including the bishops of Oxford and Worcester. Rev. Canon Gould, a former Londoner, will be one of the speakers.

IS RECOVERING.—Fred Trebilcock of South London, who recently underwent two serious operations in a Detroit Hospital, is recovering. Mr. Trebilcock, who is a well-known local hardware traveler, was holidaying at Bayfield, when stricken with appendicitis, and following removal to Detroit, for an immediate operation, a second one was made necessary.

BADLY HURT.—As the result of injuries from a barbed-wire fence, a valuable horse owned by W. A. Martin may have to be destroyed today. While in pasture Saturday it attempted to break through the fence to another field and became entangled in the wire. In its frantic efforts to free itself it was badly injured about the legs. The animal was just recovering from a slight injury which it received a short time ago when a nail pierced its foot.

FAREWELL SERVICES. — Farewell services to Col. and Mrs. John Rawling, who have been head of the local command of the Salvation Army for the past five years, were held at the citadel last evening. James Gray and Col. Gartshore, as delegates of the Rotary Club and the Chamber of Commerce, respectively, were the principal speakers. Both complimented Col. Rawling on his promotion as field secretary of Eastern Canada, and also on his efficient work here, especially the development and completion of Bethesda Hospital. A large delegation of field officers from out-of-town branches were present to wish the colonel success in his new work. Staff Capt. Ritchie was the chairman.

KITCHENER YOUTH IS SENT TO JAIL

Dundas, Sept. 21.—Magistrate Fry handed out some rather stiff sentences in police court, and as a result S. E. Hudesuala, Kitchener, will spend the next seven days in jail, without the option of a fine, for having been found guilty of being drunk while in charge of an automobile. In addition, the same young man will have to pay $200 and costs for violating the O. T. A., he having a bottle in his possession when arrested. If the fine is not paid Hudesuala must remain in jail for another three months. Clarence Cairn and William O. Flann, also of Kitchener, who were also charged with being intoxicated while in the automobile, were each fined $30 and costs.

The men were making a considerable lot of noise coming down King street about 1 o'clock this morning. They were detected by Constable Bennett, and with the assistance of Chief Lumsden were taken to the cells and locked up. The three men pleaded guilty to the charge against them.

COLBY REFUSES TO GRANT REQUEST OF ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—Secretary Colby has refused to grant the request of anti-suffragists from Tennessee, that he rescind his action in proclaiming ratification of the federal suffrage amendment on the basis of favorable action on the amendment by the Tennessee Legislature.

OWEN SOUND ARRIVALS.

OWEN SOUND, Sept. 20.—Pedwell, from Providence Bay; Manitou, from Soo.

PLAN TO BUILD ORPHANS' HOSTEL

Project To Be Considered By Soldiers' Aid Commission.

The new executive committee of the Soldiers' Aid Commission will hold its first meeting this week. Several important matters will be considered. Action may be taken to induce the head office to build a hostel here for the orphans of soldiers, such as has been established in Toronto. Extension of the employment work of the commission as authorized by the head office some time ago, also will be considered.

Still another matter will be co-operation with the chamber of commerce in requesting the Government not to close up the soldiers' settlement board here. The chamber of commerce has taken an active interest in the matter, and has requested a number of organizations to assist. They state that the attention of Major Hume Cronyn has been drawn to the situation, and that he has asked the department to suspend action until he returns to Ottawa from the west.

BUILDING FIGURES CLIMBING STEADILY

Total For the Year Close To Million and a Half.

Building figures for this year are now only $251,915 behind the total at the end of September last year. They have reduced the lead, which 1919 had at the end of the month by $85,400. Eighty-five permits have been issued, representing $234,610 worth of building. This gives a total of $1,483,950 for the year, compared to $1,586,655 at the end of September last year.

Housing commission building has been largely responsible for the good showing this month. Four more houses were added to the list today. They were a one-story frame house on Madison avenue, to cost $3,000; two one-story frame dwellings costing $3,400 each on the same street, and a one-story stucco house on the Hamilton road to cost $3,400.

A new foundation will be placed under Trinity Church, Adelaide street, at a cost of $200.

JAMES M. SMYTH NOT SINN FEINER NOW, CABLE TELLS

Windsor Teacher, Visiting Ireland, Recants Republican Stand, According To Surprising Message.

WINDSOR, Sept. 20.—"Our home and all Protestant homes ransacked by masked and armed Sinn Feiners. Community terrorized. Give no support to Republican propaganda. Preserve Empire."

Such was the gist of a surprising cablegram received by the Windsor board of education from James A. Smyth, assistant principal of the Dougall avenue school, now in Ireland concluding negotiations in connection with the estate of his mother, who recently died.

For years past, Mr. Smyth has been one of the most ardent advocates of home rule in Western Ontario, his proclivities in this regard having on several occasions embroiled him in embarrassing situations and a whole train of legal actions involving damage suits and counter-suits, the result of his warm utterances on behalf of the independence of Ireland.

Members of the board are inclined to believe Mr. Smyth's personal experiences have served to change his mind radically. The cablegram was sent from his home town of Plumbridge, Ireland.

Special Officers Arrive.

Twenty special officers of the provincial police force have been sent to Windsor to watch illegal traffic in liquor, it was announced at local headquarters tonight, following the announcement that the department will be reorganized and officially take over regulation of the liquor laws within the next two weeks. The change will mean the removal of all special officers of the license department from Windsor, it was stated today.

With but 150 tons of anthracite coal in the bins of border dealers today, this fuel reached the top price of $22 a ton in Windsor. Investigation by Mayor Winter this afternoon showed that the heavy advance was due almost entirely to increased freight rates, the exchange on Canadian currency, unloading, transferring and delivery charges in the city.

Dealers say there is a sufficient supply of bituminous coal on hand. Owing to the foresight of the special fuel committee of the Windsor City Council, there is a large supply of hard coal in the municipal pile, which will be sold to citizens in one-ton lots this winter for emergency only at $18 per ton. Ald. P. J. England, chairman of the committee, stated emphatically tonight that only during the real winter months, and in cases of utmost necessity would this supply be sold.

PLENTY OF FRUIT BEING GIVEN AWAY

MELBOURNE, Sept. 20.—Farmers in this vicinity are now busy harvesting and threshing the summer crops. Wheat and oats are turning out well, while Caradoc farmers declare that their crops of corn and potatoes are larger this season than any year in the recollection of the oldest resident. Fruit is very plentiful, and those who have it in plenty deserve credit for gathering and distributing it among their village friends and neighbors who have not the supply at hand. Baskets and pails of pears, apples, peaches, elderberries, etc., have been distributed very freely in this district.

Anniversary services were held in the Presbyterian Church here Sunday last. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers, and the services were in charge of Rev. T. A. Symington, M.A., of Knox Church, London, who delivered two excellent sermons. Special music was given by the choir. Charter Auld and Andrew McLaughlin contributed vocal solos and violin selections.

Miss Charlotte Kellien and Mrs. M. Kroll have returned to their home in Detroit after a visit with their cousin here, Miss B. C. Buchanan.

Mr. and Mrs. Drinkwater and family have returned to their home in Toronto after a few weeks' vacation here with Mrs. Drinkwater's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDougald.

Miss Agnes Campbell and Miss Florence Flilcher have returned from a vacation with friends in Montreal, Toronto and Hamilton.

Miss Anna Parr is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gilbert McLean, of Ekfrid.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parr have moved into their new home on Union street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Richards and daughter Eva will move to Strathroy in the near future.

Mrs. Thraker has returned home after a vacation with her mother, Mrs. Kelly of Picton.

WHEAT IS GRADING HIGH.

Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 20.—The bulk of Northern Alberta wheat now being marketed is grading No. 1 northern, according to reports at the offices of the Gillespie Elevator Company. It is all of a good color and with practically no evidences of frost.

Expect 500 At Orange Meeting

Many Visitors From District Coming Here On Tuesday Next.

Star of Bethlehem, L. O. L., No. 2769, of this city, will entertain Imperial Lodge, L. O. L., No. 2767, of Toronto, on September 28. There are expected to be 100 members from Imperial Lodge and many members of district lodges in attendance. Plans are being made for looking after 500 visitors.

Several prominent speakers will be present. Among them H. C. Hocken, M. P., of Toronto, supreme grand master. Joseph Thompson, M. P., Thomas Foster, M. P., Dr. Charles Sheard, M. P., Ald. R. Nesbitt, Ald. J. Winnett, William Fitzgerald and A. A. Gray, all of Toronto. E. T. Essery, K. C., of this city, will also speak.

The two lodges are known as "The Sister Lodges" because the local lodge was formed on January 20, this year, and the Imperial the following day. The band of Hackett, L. O. L., No. 805, will play during the evening. The regular meeting will be held in Ulster Hall, and at the close there will be a banquet in the Masonic Hall, where part of the speaking will take place.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

CAME FROM HARRISTON.

St. Thomas, Sept. 21.—Fred E. Smith, who died in Amasa Wood Hospital from injuries sustained in an auto accident Sunday night, was a former resident of Harriston, Ont., and went overseas with the 153rd Wellington Battalion, later transferring in France to the 10th Battalion.

BURIAL AT DRESDEN.

Dresden, Sept. 21.—The funeral of John Langrell, aged 71, held from the family residence, concession 5 of Dawn Township, was conducted by Rev. Wm. Westell. Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Sager and Mrs. Lottie Gillies, and two sons, Roy and John.

The funeral of Willard Plummer of Grove Mills took place yesterday from his late residence, the service being conducted by Rev. F. W. Craik of Dawn Mills. His wife, two daughters, Mrs. Archie Shaw of Thorncliffe and Mrs. Saidie Turner of Chatham, and one son, Elmer of Dresden, survive.

HAS DAUGHTER HERE.

Hamilton, Sept. 21.—The funeral took place to Hamilton Cemetery this afternoon of William Davidson, for 65 years a respected resident of this city, and for over 40 years a valued employee of the W. E. Sanford Company. He was 78 years old and came to Canada from Leeds, England. He was a member of the trustee board of Charlton Avenue Methodist Church for forty years. Mrs. W. A. Ferguson of London, is a daughter.

CAME FROM PORT STANLEY.

Chatham, Sept. 21.—James Lawton, aged 67, one of the best known residents of Raleigh Township, and formerly of Port Stanley, Ont., is dead at his home. Besides his wife he is survived by seven sons—Wilbur of Chatham, Harvey at home, George of Hamilton, William at home, Kyle of Chatham Township, Earl and Clarence at home; one daughter, Miss L. Mae Lawton, teacher of School Section 6; two brothers—George Lawton and Dr. T. M. Lawton of Ridgetown, and two sisters—Mrs. D. Simpson of Ridgetown and Mrs. Andrew McDonald of Harwich. The funeral will take place on Wednesday.

IN LONDON 53 YEARS.

Thomas Brenton, a resident of London since 1867, died at his home, 188 Bruce street, on Monday evening. Mr. Brenton, though 92 years of age, was active to the last and always took a keen interest in civic affairs. He was one of the oldest citizens who went to the polls at the last election. Mr. Brenton had taken The London Advertiser from the first issue.

He is survived by his widow, one son, A. J. of Winnipeg, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Wilson of Toronto and Miss Cora Brenton, kindergarten supervisor, of this city.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made pending the arrival of out-of-town relatives.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, Sept. 21—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The stock market was under pressure at the outset of today's session, oils and motor accessories displaying marked weakness. Mexican Petroleum and Royal Dutch reacted 2 points each, and Shell Trading 1 point. Kelly-Springfield made a precipitate decline of 7 points, and United States Rubber lost 1 point. Central Leather, in which a change of dividend rate is expected, eased fractionally with Utah Copper and Industrial Alcohol, and rails were moderately lower. American Tobacco Securties was the only strong issue, rising 2 points. Early quotations for foreign exchange pointed to another setback in the British rate.

1:30 p.m.—The market made further upward progress at midday, rails reasserting their recent leadership at gains of 1 to 2 points. Another sharp reaction ensued, however, on the announcement of the passing of Central eLather common dividend, that stock breaking 3 points.

MEET TONIGHT—The first meeting of the Wortley Road Mothers' Club will be held in the school tonight.

JEWS ARE OBSERVING DAY OF ATONEMENT

Greatest Fast of Year Began At Sunset This Evening.

Wednesday will be observed by Jews throughout the world as Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, the greatest fast in the Jewish year. From sunset this evening until sunset of the 22nd the observant Jew neither eats nor drinks, but devotes the day to fervent worship. Yom Kippur is distinctive among Jewish holidays, for it is not associated with nature or with history. It is a day for the searching of the heart to find peace with God.

The fast originated in Biblical times, and is described in the sixteenth chapter of the book of Leviticus. In those days the people fasted and afflicted themselves while the high priest made atonement for the entire house of Israel. This atonement was made in ancient fashion by sacrifices, and especially by the symbolic rite of driving the scapegoat into the wilderness to bear away the sins of the people.

Now prayers take the place of sacrifices. In modern Judaism prayer is the right form of approaching God. Jews devote the Day of Atonement to prayers for the forgiving of their sins. They avoid all ordinary and sordid interests on this Sabbath of Sabbaths. The fasting is abrogated, however, for children, old people and the sick, or in times of famine and pestilence, or such contingencies as are incident to the deprivations of war.

The aim of Yom Kippur is atonement through prayer and repentance. These contain no element of mediation through either a redeemer or a sacrifice. The only true repentance comes through change of heart and an effort to do better. Each human being stands before his Maker seeking in honesty to make his record clean.

A feature of Yom Kippur is the memorial service. Men and women think of their dear departed and of the great and good who served mankind. Especially in times of stress, when many brave men are offering up their lives, fervor animates these prayers by which their memory is honored and their ideals are preserved.

Special services in connection with the great fast are being held tonight and tomorrow in the local synagogues.

DOCTORS VISITED BYRON SANATORIUM

Much Interest Taken in Lectures On Tuberculosis Treatment.

The members of the Academy of Medicine of Western Ontario were the guests yesterday of the staff of Queen Alexandra Sanatorium. Dr. Pratten and co-workers gave a series of lectures and demonstrations, and presented a number of cases dealing with the subject of tuberculosis, and especially of that form of treatment known technically as "artificial pneumo-thorax," which is an attempt to set at rest an affected lung and give it an opportunity of repair and recovery, while its fellow takes on the whole duty of distributing the required oxygen for body needs. This is effected by repeated inflation of the chest cavity by nitrogen.

More than 50 medical men of London and surrounding district were in attendance, and were rewarded by a most interesting and instructive afternoon. It was the consensus of opinion that each went back to his field of work better equipped to meet with the great white dread. The extent and excellence of Queen Alexandra Sanatorium was a revelation to many of the visiting physicians, and complimentary comment was heard on all sides.

Dr. Pratten, Moyle, Fergusson, Andrus, and Broome contributed to the program, and at the conclusion the visitors were invited to tea at the residence, where they were received by Lady Beck, Mrs. Pratten and Matron Forrest.

Appreciative speeches voiced the recognition of an afternoon of instruction and hospitality.

It is the purpose of the Academy of Medicine to arrange such meetings at frequent intervals during the year, and already arrangements are complete for the visit to London of several men of international reputation. The next of these will be held on September 30, when the academy and district council of the Ontario Medical Association will combine meetings, and when it is expected that about three hundred doctors will be present. The Majestic Theatre has been secured for the afternoon clinic, and an informal dinner will be given in the evening.

DOG FIGHT ENDS IN POLICE COURT CASE

South London Woman Is Advised to Get Rid of Canine.

Mrs. Raymond of 18 Erie avenue was advised by Police Magistrate Graydon today to dispose of a dog which it is claimed has been doing considerable damage in the vicinity.

The complaint was laid by W. Archer, who resides at 16 Erie avenue. He claimed that about a week ago the dog started a fight with his dog, and his pet canine was badly mutilated.

It was also charged that the dog ran after people and had to be beaten away with sticks. Mail-carriers, butcher boys and neighbors either testified that all dogs should be done away with or that this particular dog was vicious. It took half an hour to decide the fate of the animal. When evidence was being taken about the dog fight, Mrs. Raymond stated that when a dog growls and another dog growls you can't tell who started the fight. The magistrate adjourned the case for one week to see what disposition will be made of the animal.

PROTEST AGAINST DRASTIC ORDER

Chamber of Commerce Will Back Petition Being Sent by Merchants.

Because it is believed that the fines levied by the Government on merchants who have failed to file an employers' form, known as Form T-4 of 1919, are an injustice the Chamber of Commerce in Brantford has solicited the aid of the local Chamber of Commerce, along with other organizations, in an attempt to have the time extended until all merchants have received the blank forms, along with instructions for filing.

It pointed out that many of the merchants were not aware that such a form existed, and through their ignorance have made themselves liable to a fine of $200 to $225. Nearly every community has had a number of merchants who were forced to pay the penalty, and as a result many smaller businesses have been forced to close. The protest is to be made to the minister of finance.

SETTLEMENT BOARD HAS MANY PROBLEMS IN MAKING FARMERS

Good Progress Is Being Made in Connection With the Work.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—Interesting reports issued by the Soldier Settlement Board deal with the progress that is being made in getting men who served overseas not only on the land, but in making them typical Canadian farmers.

Charles Tombs, an ex-imperial soldier, who came to Canada to learn farming preparatory to taking up land of his own under the Soldier Settlement Board, writes the board expressing his appreciation of the opportunity that he has in Canada. He says: "I arrived in Canada on April 6, 1920, and commenced training under the Soldier Settlement Board on June 1. I am pleased to be able to say that I find the life, work and the opportunities reach far beyond my expectations. Although a great change from my former life in the old country, I find the work most interesting and the prospects most encouraging.."

Farming Near Listowel.

Another prospective imperial settler is Henry Gifford, who is on a farm near Listowel, Ont. He writes the board that he was found work by the field supervisor at Listowel. "Everything is to my great satisfaction," says he. "I am progressing favorably and enjoying the life very much."

Reports from the home branch of the board give interesting accounts of what the directors and home counsellors are doing to assist women settlers in improving the conditions surrounding them in their new homes. Unfortunately there are numerous cases where, owing to ill-health, the settlers wife is handicapped. The home branch, however, endeavors to meet such unfavorable conditions and bring comfort to stricken families.

Help Crippled Child.

In one family in one of the Eastern Provinces there is a little girl, 6 years old, deaf and dumb from spinal meningitis. The home branch has secured the active interest of the patriotic fund and the unfortunate child is to secure the benefits of a training in an institution.

At another home the wife of a settler was found to be suffering from tuberculosis. She is receiving the kindly help of neighbors and societies through the intervention of the home branch.

In another family a little child playing in the field was run into by the mower and her foot cut off. The home branch arranged the necessary medical service and hospital treatment.

Getting Along Well.

While there are sad features in connection with this home visitation work, there are many reports which show how well the wives of the settlers—many of them from the old country—are adapting themselves to their new conditions. One of these is described by the home counsellor as a lady of unusual intelligence. She knew nothing of housework when she married, but just worked along doing her best, and the result is she is now described as a splendid homemaker and housekeeper. She wished bulletins on canning, poultry and butter-making, which were furnished through the home branch.

This branch is doing a very fine work in lightening the burdens of the soldiers' dependents. They are welcome in the home, and their efforts go far to improve the morale of the household and to bring about final success.

Situation Excellent.

In Southern Saskatchewan generally the situation with regard to soldier farmers is excellent. Only in one small corner has there been a crop failure.

The Soldier Settlement Board office at Regina writes:

"Collections will be fair, with the exception of the extreme southwest corner of the province, where the crop has been a complete failure owing to the drought. There is an excellent crop in the Swift Current district, and I am informed by the field supervisor that some of the settlers will net about $5,000 from their crops after paying their liabilities. Reports of this nature are very encouraging."

EX-PRES. W. H. TAFT PASSING THROUGH SOME TIME TODAY

Cassels, White and Howard Kelly Also in Grand Trunk Touring Party.

SARNIA, Sept. 20.—With the month of September well past the halfway mark, the building record in this city continues to bump merrily along, and, according to the register of Building Inspector Harry Walton, up to date 26 permits have been issued, totalling in value approximately $29,280.

One case of diphtheria blotted up an otherwise clean health record for this city for the week ending September 18, according to the official report issued today, which also lists three deaths, attributed to the following causes: Cholera morbus, 1; enteritis, 1; accidental death (fracture of the skull), 1.

Officials Passing Through.

Tonight the local Chamber of Commerce officials announced that the Grand Trunk arbitration board, headed by Sir Walter Cassels, chairman, with William Howard Taft, ex-president of the United States; Sir Thomas White, ex-minister of finance; Howard G. Kelly, president of the G. T. R. system; Hon. F. P. Phippen, and a number of other railway officials and experts, both legal and technical, accompanying, are expected to pass through the Sarnia tunnel sometime Tuesday en route to Chicago. The preliminary moves for the inspection of the physical properties of the G. T. and G. T. P. commenced in Montreal early today with an examination of the Bonaventure station, later leaving for Toronto via a special. Local officials have not yet been advised whether the local system will be inspected on the way west on their return journey.

Midland Prince Sails.

The Canada Steamship Lines steamer Midland Prince, whose crew of seamen went on strike on Saturday and left for their homes as the result of an order from strikers' headquarters, sailed on schedule time tonight to Buffalo for a cargo of coal, equipped with a full complement of able bodied seamen, recruited since the walkout on Saturday. Capt. A. D. MacIntyre states that he will be able to keep the ship in movement despite the efforts of the strikers to detain it. The N. N. steamer Hamonic was delayed over three hours as a result of the firemen walking out. However, the ships' crew was brought up to the standard with the assistance of crews from the Waubic and Thousand Islander. The steamer Huronic, many hours late, is expected to dock here tonight.

MISSIONARY ADDRESS.

CAYUGA, Sept. 20.—Mrs. H. MacKenzie of Toronto, secretary for Korean missions, drew a large crowd to Knox Church, Cayuga, on Sunday morning, when she gave an impressive and interesting address on the work of the W. M. S. in the Canadian Northwest and in Korea. She called especial attention to the school homes and hospital units of the West, and touched upon the school and hospitals being carried on by the society. She also spoke on the work in Korea, in which she is particularly interested, and addressed a few words to the Sunday school pupils. The W. M. S. embraced the opportunity for their thankoffering collection, and received over $61. It is almost certain that more will be subscribed to this annual offering by members unable to attend.

SCHOOL BOARD IN ST. THOMAS ASSERTS DIGNITY

Hereafter Will Meet in the Same Auditorium As City Council.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 20.—The board of education will meet hereafter in the council chamber. The members at the regular meeting tonight protested against the last move made by the board to oblige another civic body, and consenting to be closeted in an apartment with limited conveniences. On resolution the board decided that it was just as important a civic organization as that of the board of aldermen and that its place of meeting hereafter will be in the auditorium of the Municipal Building.

Trustee Conley insisted that the dignity of the board must be maintained at any cost, and Trustee Wright considered the place now set apart for their meetings was not in keeping with the responsibilities and public trusts undertaken by the board of education.

The resignation of Joseph Hubert, a janitor of Manitoba Street School, was accepted, and Peter Swartz was named as his successor. The attendance at the collegiate institute since opening was 560, an increase of 64 over that of a year ago. The annual field day will be held on Friday, October 1.

The internal management recommended that the following teachers be engaged on the public school staff at salaries as follows: James Gibson, $1,400; Chas. R. Hubbell, $1,400; Misses Violet Vooden, $850; Hazel Morris, $850; Evelyn Little, $850; Agnes Coutts, $875; Ina M. Gilberts, $950, and at the Collegiate Institute, Charles Harper, $1,900; Miss Mary Edge, $1,900; Percy V. Smith, $1,700; Joseph Gollard, to be janitor of Wellington street school, $1,200.

Inspector Taylor reported the attendance at the public schools to date was 2,383, a decrease of 94 since last May. Of the 215 candidates who wrote 182 passed. Elmsdale school will be ready for occupation about Christmas. Eighty-nine pupils will be transferred from Wellington school; the junior fourth from Scott would be transferred to Wellington, and the primary class at Scott would receive a whole day tuition. The largest entrance classes in the history of St. Thomas will write for examination in June. Over 250 are in attendance. The kindergarten classes at Scott and Wellington has increased to such numbers as to make it necessary to appoint another teacher.

Inspector Taylor, chairman of the building and grounds, and chairman of the finance committee, and Lieut.-Col. Gerard were named a committee to secure a list of furniture needed for Elmsdale school.

Bishop Will Preach.

Bishop Joseph F. Berry, D. D., Methodist Episcopal Church, Philadelphia, will preach the anniversary sermons at the First Methodist Church, November 14. The bishop is a brother of the late Mrs. John Farley, St. Thomas.

The ordinance officers, London, came over today and handed over the regimental stores to Lieut.-Col. Gerrard, M.C.

Will Not Be a Candidate.

There will be no fourth candidate in the comnig East Elgin by-election. The man proposed to enter the race as an independent, Warden A. Mills, has definitely stated that he is not in the fight for parliamentary honors. Three nominees, Mr. Mills opines, will keep the riding very much alive until the middle of next November. The contest has stirred up as much interest in St. Thomas as may be found amongst the electors more directly interested. Mr. Charlton's entry has very much disturbed the forecast made by local weather probablingers, who, with even odds, had both Macdermand and Stansell elected.

Rheumatism Left Him As If by Magic!

Had Suffered Over 50 Years!

Now 83 Years, Yet A Big Surprise to Friends

Regains Strength Goes out Fishing, Back to Business, Laughs at "URIC ACID"

How the "Inner Mysteries" Reveals Startling Facts Overlooked By Doctors and Scientists For Centuries

"I am eighty-three years old and I doctored for rheumatism ever since I came out of the army over fifty years ago," writes J. B. Ashelman. "Like many others, I spent money freely for so-called 'cures,' and I have read about 'Uric Acid' until I could almost taste it. I could not sleep nights or walk without pain; my hands were so sore and stiff I could not hold a pen. But now, as if by magic, I am again in active business and can walk with ease or write all day with comfort. Friends are surprised at the change."

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Mr. Ashelman is only one of thousands who suffered for years, owing to the general belief in the old, false theory that "Uric Acid" causes rheumatism. This erroneous belief induced legions of unfortunate men and women to take wrong treatments. You might just as well attempt to put out a fire with oil as to try and get rid of your rheumatism, neuritis and like complaints by taking treatments supposed to drive the Uric Acid out of your blood and body. Many physicians and scientists now know that Uric Acid never did, never can and never will cause rheumatism; that it is a natural and necessary constituent of the blood; that it is found in every new-born babe, and that without it we could not live!

These statements may seem strange to some folks, because you have all along been led to believe in the "Uric Acid" humbug. It took Mr. Ashelman 50 years to find out this truth. He learned how to get rid of the true cause of his rheumatism, other disorders, and recover his strength from "The Inner Mysteries," a remarkable book now being distributed free by an authority who devoted over twenty years to the scientific study of this particular trouble.

NOTE: If any reader of The Advertiser wishes the book that reveals these facts regarding the true cause and cure of rheumatism, facts that were overlooked by doctors and scientists for centuries past, simply send a postcard or letter to H. P. Clearwater, No. 29th street, Hallowell, Maine, and it will be sent by return mail without any charge whatever. Cut out this notice lest you forget! If not a sufferer yourself hand this good news to some afflicted friend.

ONTARIO'S EXPORTS OF APPLES WILL SHOW A LARGE INCREASE

Expected That the Quantity Packed Will Be Same As Last Year.

The fruit commissioners branch of the department of agriculture, Ottawa, has issued the following report

As the market for apples in the United Kingdom determines to a great extent the values in Canada and the United States, and as the English apple crop is also an important factor, a comparison of conditions obtaining this year with last is of interest. The English apple crop last year was one of the largest for many years, and the marketing period continued well into the new year. This year conditions are quite the reverse, and it is expected that the crop will be practically all disposed of by the middle of November. The removal of all restrictions on the purchase and sale of apples until November 15 will be a further incentive to dispose of the fruit within that period.

Expect Good Crop.

The commercial crop in Canada this year, having due regard to the increases in Ontario, now indicates a decrease of approximately one-quarter of a million barrels, but the quality is decidedly better, and as the supply of barrels and other packages used for shipping apples has improved during the past three weeks, and should this improvement continue, it is expected that the quantity packed will not be very far short of last year.

In British Columbia the crop is now estimated at from 50 to 55 per cent of 1919, and as rapid strides have been made during the past few years in extending the markets of this province, it is expected the crop will again be widely distributed this year.

Ontario's exports to the United Kingdom this season will undoubtedly show a substantial increase over the 1919-20 season, which was one of the lowest on record. This together with the established markets in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Ontario and the western part of Quebec, should absorb the balance of the crop at satisfactory prices.

Quebec will have about 50 per cent of a normal crop, which is a considerable increase over 1919, but this province has for many years found a market at home, and it is not expected that much, if any, of the crop will be exported from the province this year.

Will Be Small.

The exportable surplus from New Brunswick will be small, and on account of the demand which has been created for the fruit from this province in Montreal, the greater portion will in all probability be shipped there.

Prince Edward Island annually exports a small quantity to Newfoundland, but imports a considerable quantity, usually from Nova Scotia. The crop this year is estimated at from 20 to 25 per cent less than 1919.

In Nova Scotia the commercial estimate continues at 900,000 barrels, as compared with 1,600,000 last year, of which 475,000 were exported to the United Kingdom and 158,864 to the United States.

With a large crop in the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and in Western New York it is not expected that the United States markets will be attractive to Nova Scotia this year. Another factor in the distribution of the Nova Scotia crop is the increased production in Ontario and Quebec, the markets of which will be supplied to a great extent from the crop produced in these provinces. It would, therefore, appear that the export market, because of the advantageous situation with regard to inland freight charges, will be most attractive to Nova Scotia.

The estimate of the commercial crop of the United States is now placed at 33,900,000 barrels, which shows an increase of 3,666,000 barrels over the estimate given by the Bureau of crop estimates, Washington, D. C., in the July forecast. This increase with an adequate supply of packages would undoubtedly be a very important factor in the export markets, but the apple barrel situation, and in fact all apple packages, has reached such an acute stage that it is feared it will greatly reduce the quantity for export.

BRITAIN WANTS CANADA APPLES

British People Hungry For the Fruit and Willing To Pay For It.

Writing to The Advertiser from London, England, regarding the market for Ontario fruit, G. C. Creelman, agent-general for the province, says:

"I have just been to Covent Garden Market and have interviewed some of the big fruit dealers there. They say that this country will have to rely upon imported fruit next winter and spring. This means that there will be a good market here for all kinds of orchard products this fall. In England only about one apple tree in ten has a crop of any kind, and what little there is is of a very inferior grade. The information given out from the Government offices is that 5 per cent of last year's crop is a fair estimate.

Only Fair Crop.

"The reports from France are for a fair crop of apples, but recent severe storms have badly injured the prospects in some sections. Holland and Belgium expect a 50 per cent crop; Portugal and Spain well below the average.

"The maximum fixed price in Great Britain for some time has been 9d (18 cents) a pound, retail. Today this has been lifted, and there will be no control of prices of apples until the 15th of November. On that date 10d (20 cents) a pound will be the fixed price for some time.

Fixed the Price.

"The Government has also fixed the maximum price which British buyers may pay for Ontario apples, viz.:

"Sixty-eight shillings ($16.32) per barrel of not less than 120 pounds.

"Twenty-one shillings and sixpence ($5.16) per box of not less than 37 pounds.

"Twenty-three shillings and sixpence ($5.64) per box of not less than 40 pounds.

"Sixty shillings ($14.40) per hundredweight for all other packages.

"I would advise that farmers secure their barrels, boxes, etc., now, and get ready for the fall picking and packing.

"The buyers should also see that no orchards are overlooked and that no fruit is allowed to rot on the ground.

Hungry for Apples.

"It is with the hope of markets like this that the Ontario fruit grower planted and has since cared for his orchard. It will be a pity if he does not reap the benefit of it now. The people of Britain are hungry for apples, and are willing and able to pay for them.

"It is not necessary to warn the shippers of the scarcity of space on ocean vessels. The situation is improving, but application must still be made early for accommodation at the Atlantic seaboard."

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURIAL AT MOUNT PLEASANT.

The funeral of William R. Walton, held on Saturday afternoon from the family residence, 225 Maitland street, was conducted by Rev. A. H. Claris and Rev. Matthew Kelly. Mr. Walton is survived by his wife and three daughters, Helen, Lillian and Ethel, all of this city.

WAGE AWARD WILL BENEFIT C.P.R. MEN

Straight Increases Average Approximately 13 Cents an Hour.

All employees of the C. P. R. will be benefitted by the recent wage award made by the American railway labor board, and since adopted by the Canadian roads, according to Superintendent R. McKillop, of the local division. The system of application has been worked out for a majority of the classes, and committees are at work arranging for the remainder.

Among the classes for which a settlement has been made are the freight clerks, the conductors and trainmen, maintenance of way employees, and yard help. Increases are yet to be arranged for the engineers, telegraphers and some of the clerks.

While the straight increase averaging approximately 13 cents an hour, has been granted to most of the classes, the freight clerks are to be paid by a differential plan, such as the one adopted by the G. T. R. last week. While the clerks as a whole, the amount granted by the board, the increases will be based upon seniority of position.

WILL BE REWARDED FOR PREVENTING CRASH

Trio Who Discovered Broken Rail To Be Given $10 Each.

Each of the three persons who together discovered a broken rail on the C. P. R., near Zorra, during the first week of August, and who, flagging a freight train, saved it from possible disaster, will be rewarded by the company with a gift of $10, according to Superintendent R. McKillop of the local division. This is in keeping with the rule of the company to reward every person discovering a broken rail with this sum of money.

The three persons—a man and woman named Hawkins, accompanied by another man, were driving over a crossing in an auto, when Mrs. Hawkins discovered the break in the rail. Fearing that a train might be wrecked, two of the party went in opposite directions on the tracks to flag any trains, while the third went to inform the sectionman. Before the sectionman arrived a freight train was flagged. The two men helped the sectionmen to replace the rail.

Although under the rule of the company, only one of the persons were entitled to the reward, the merits of the case were considered great enough by the company to warrant a recognition for each member of the party.

PAINFULLY HURT.—When a young boy playing a game of ball accidentally struck his horse with a baseball, W. H. Foulton, a market gardener, residing on Adelaide street north, was painfully injured on Saturday when he endeavored to stop the frightened animal from running away. Mr. Foulton clung to the horse receiving several bruises on his body, and suffering damage to his wagon amounting to $30. The accident occurred near Mr. Foulton's home, the victim having started out for the local market with a load of produce.

GIRL SUES FOR $5,000 DAMAGES

Local Insurance Agent Is Defendant in the Case.

Two more cases, both for the jury, have been entered for the fall assizes, which open here September 27, making a total of seven actions to be heard. Lizzie Goodlad (infant according to law) of Simcoe, through her best friend, Thomas Goodlad of the same town, is suing Peter C. Wilson, insurance agent of this city, for $5,000 damages. Plaintiff claims malicious prosecution and false arrest caused by defendant on the charge that she abandoned and exposed her child, under 2 years of age, and as a result of which she spent three days in jail, after which, on November 29, 1919, the charge was dismissed in the local police court and plaintiff was discharged.

Defendant states that he had reasonable cause and did honestly believe plaintiff guilty as charged by leaving her child in his office. He asks dismissal of the action and costs. Judd & Henderson for plaintiff; McKillop & Douglas for the defence.

A second action against the same defendant is that of Henrietta Goodlad, mother of Lizzie Goodlad of Simcoe, for $5,000 damages, alleging that Peter C. Wilson seduced her daughter, an unmarried girl, in December, 1918, as a result of which a child was born in 1919. Defendant denies the charge, and claims that Lizzie Goodlad is a married woman. The same solicitors will represent the respective parties as in the former case.

NEED SPEED COURTS

Deputy Sheriff Says Serious Accident Vindicates Policy of County Police.

As a result of a serious accident on the Pipe Line road last week due to a young Londoner exceeding the speed limit in his motor car, Deputy Sheriff Ben Watterworth claims that the county police have been vindicated for their efforts in endeavoring to hale speeders before the courts.

"The people are sore on us for our attitude," said the deputy sheriff, "and think we are over-zealous, but this crash last week, in which a buggy was struck, and a runaway ensued, with lives endangered, demonstrates the need of speed courts. Our vigilance will be increased as a result, and speeders on county roads will be summoned and fined if convicted more frequently than before. A wise motorist will take warning and stop speeding before he faces a court or the probability of a heavy lawsuit."

MORE TROUBLE AT CHIPPAWA CANAL LINEMEN QUIT JOB

Demand 77 Cents An Hour Same As Toronto Linemen Receive.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Sept. 20.—Labor troubles broke out again today on the Chippawa-Queenston Canal, when 60 linemen walked off the job at noon because the hydro commission refused to give the men 77 cents an hour, as recently awarded by the Gillen-Bancroft-Moore conciliation board to the linemen of the Toronto Power Company.

The men have been negotiating since July 8, and last Friday they took a vote and unanimously decided in favor of a strike if a satisfactory answer was not received by noon today. No answer was received and the men walked out. The effect of the walkout will be that in a short time it will not be possible to operate the main disposal pumps.

CHICAGO MOB CHASES NEGROES INTO A CHURCH

Only Arrival of Armed Police Saved Fugitives From Lynching.

KILLED WHITE MAN

District of Recent Race Riots Now Under Heavy Guard.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Three negroes were besieged for more than an hour in St. Gabriel's Church on the south side tonight by a mob of 1,000 persons, after the negroes had killed a white man, Charles Barret, who is said to have gone to the rescue of a white girl insulted by the negroes. They were arrested and placed in jail, when squads of policemen were sent to avert a possible race riot.

Chief of Police Garrity ordered the entire police force mobilized, and placed several hundred extra policemen around the scene of the trouble, which was at the southeast corner of the stockyards, where several thousand negroes are employed.

Shortly after Barret had been killed, three negroes were dragged from a street car two blocks away and severely beaten.

Barret's Throat Cut.

The negroes who killed Barret, cutting his throat with a razor, were chased several blocks by a continually increasing crowd, and finally dashed into the church. Two hid in the confessional, and one back of the altar.

Sticks and stones were thrown at the church, and frequent yells of "lynch them" came from the crowd. Father Burke, pastor of the church, appeared at the entrance, and for several minutes pleaded with the crowd to disperse, but without avail. Only when policemen armed with rifles appeared did the mob break up.

The south side "black belt," the scene of disastrous race riots a year ago, was placed under heavy guard, as was the stockyards quarter.

As an athlete, he holds many records. He was president o fthe British Imperial Air Fleet, and presented three aeroplanes to Canada. He was on the treasury committee, which started war savings certificates. In the great police inquiry in London he distinguissed himself by asking 10,000 questions.

KING RECOGNIZES IMPORTANCE OF C. OF C. CONGRESS

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—Recognition of the importance to the British Empire of the Congress of the Chambers of Commerce, now in session here, were emphasized by King George in a cable message read to the congress this morning, in acknowledgment of the loyal greetings expressed by the congress in a cable sent on Saturday. Lord Stamfordham, the King's secretary, cabled as follows:

"The King fully recognizes that these meetings are conducive not only to commercial interests, but to the very unity of the Empire, and His Majesty wishes that all possible success may result from your deliberations."

Fabrikoid, the ideal wall covering for home, office, club, church or hall

—a permanent finish for walls, which will survive years of wear, which does not need to be renewed, painted or even vanished, and is as easily cleaned as a painted surface.

Fabrikoid costs more than ordinary wall paper, but its finish is a durable one that means economy.

For those rooms where panelled walls are suitable, Fabrikoid completes the finish with a richness that is unsurpassed in appearance and surprising in its beauty. No more suitable finish can be found for dining rooms, reception halls or billiard rooms in private homes, for offices, for the club or hotel lounge or smoking rooms, for church anterooms or for public halls and lodge rooms.

Fabrikoid in any of the plain finishes or in Moorish and Machine Spanish match up well with oak and the darker finish woods. These two types of Fabrikoid are most pleasing to the eye—rich deep colors in the minute depressions on the grain with higher lights on the outer surfaces—a genuine imitation of Moorish leather.

GREW NEW HAIR IN 30 DAYS

Remarkable Results of the New Hair Grower Borandine Causes Big Stir Among Hair Specialists.

Actually Grows Hair and Corrects All Hair and Scalp Troubles.

"By George, I never saw anything like the effects of that new treatment, Borandine, for growing new hair and restoring it to its natural color. It acted more like a miracle than a toilet preparation," said a well-known gentleman yesterday in speaking of the revolution that had taken place in his hair. "I began to think there was nothing on earth that could make my hair grow. I tried hair tonics, bay rum, grease, oil, and almost everything else you could think of, but without results. I had been bald for years, and began to think it was natural for me to be that way, as my father was entirely bald at 34. Finally I read about the remarkable results being obtained by the use of Borandine, so I decided to try it for myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now I think it is somebody else. I look at least 20 years younger, and, best of all, Borandine brought about the transformation in just 30 days' time." Borandine is a powerful promoter of hair growth. Since its discovery—a little over a year ago—it has been found to contain marvelous properties for producing a new growth of hair. In subjecting it to various tests in the worst cases of baldness, dandruff, falling hair, itching scalp, etc., the results obtained by the experimenting chemists were considered almost miraculous. In every case it was found that where there were any hair roots left it would produce a new and luxuriant growth of hair in from four to six weeks' time. Grey or faded hair was often restored to its natural color in from 10 to 14 days' time. In minor cases of scalp and hair diseases, such as dandruff, falling hair, itching scalp, etc., it was found that these unnatural conditions were corrected and often completely cured by two or three applications. The discovery will, without doubt, put an end to the troublesome scalp and hair diseases that have become so comnon with the American people. Women who have been forced into wearing false hair will greatly welcome this marvelous product, as, apart from its many other virtues, it adds a beautiful gloss and lustre to the old hair. Besides, it contains no oil, and has a tendency to make the hair light and fluffy. Arrangements have been made with the Laboratories where Borandine is distributed from to furnish free information in regard to this new process to all Advertiser readers. Address, Scientific Research Laboratories, Dept. 53, Scranton, Pa.

LEMON JUICE TAKES OFF TAN

Girls! Make bleaching lotion if skin is sunburned, tanned or freckled

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

O. B. U. STRIVING TO BRING ABOUT STRIKE OF WESTERN MINERS

Hope Approach of Winter May Force Mine Owners To Yield.

CALGARY, Sept. 20. — Efforts to bring about a strike in the Alberta mines in October to force the abolition of the U. M. W. check-off and the opening of negotiations for a new agreement on wages and working conditions is being made by the O. B. U. organization here. Circulars have been mailed to every miners' local in Alberta, whether O. B. U. or U. M. W. This circular discloses that the O. B. U. hopes to take advantage of the shortage of coal at the threshold of winter to enforce their demands. They call upon the miners to demand that their employers abolish the check-off of the U. M. W. and negotiate for a new agreement, refusal to do so being the signal for a strike.

BRANTFORD MAN FACES TRIAL ON MURDER CHARGE

George Jones, Colored, Witnesses Say, Stabbed Woman To Death On Street.

DEFAMED THE POLICE

Joe Dutton Said To Have Stated Officers Took Hush Money.

BRANTFORD, Sept. 20. — George Jones, colored, was placed on trial this afternoon before Justice Kelly, charged with the murder of Mrs. Giles on Market street on the afternoon of October 17, last year. Jones, it is charged, stabbed the woman to death in the presence of numerous witnesses, including many school children just out from school. His first trial was enlarged to the present assize court in order to give the defence desired delay, as it was suggested that the prisoner might be insane. The evidence this afternoon was completed for the crown, and the defence will be heard tomorrow. Eyewitnesses told the story of the crime.

F. Hughes of Toronto is crown prosecutor, and A. H. Boddy, Brantford is defending Jones.

Talked About "Hush Money."

The grand jury today returned a true bill against Joe Dutton, charged with spreading false news against the police. Dutton is said, when questioned as to profits made in illicit liquor traffic, to have informed Percell Shultis, local real estate dealer, that he gave the police $200 per week as hush money. He was committed for trial last spring in the police court.

One of the interesting civil cases is that of the Canada Starch Company against the T., H. and B. Railway, in which neglect is alleged by the railway, and which plaintiffs claim caused a serious barn fire on their property in this city.

Bus Line Profitable.

Chairman F. J. Calbeck of the street railway commission announced today that the motor bus service to West Brantford was proving profitable, and that there was no reason for any change in the present route to increase business. A report that the new bus was not paying was denied.

At the annual meeting of the Brantford General Hospital Alumnae Association the graduating class of the year was received into membership and the officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Reg. Millard; vice-president, Miss C. B. Good; secretary, Miss C. P. Robinson; assistant secretary, Miss E. M. Jones; treasurer, Miss G. Leslie; Canadian nurse representative, Miss M. G. Hall. A new tariff for nurses from $30 to $35 per week was adopted.

Regiment Parades.

The first parade of the Dufferin Rifles Regiment for the fall was held tonight, with a large attendance of men and officers. A band concert was a feature, and many friends of the regiment turned out. A vigorous recruiting campaign was commenced.

Brantford Township hydro authorities have refused to take on new customers, and have adopted the same policy as in the city. Hundreds of new connections could be made, it was stated today, if power were available.

This new way to beautiful teeth

All statements approved by authorities

Your druggist today has a new way of teeth cleaning. And a ten-day tube is free.

Millions of people now employ it. Leading dentists everywhere advise it. You would never go without it if you knew.

Go ask for that free tube. There are few things more important than well-protected teeth.

Remove the film-coat

You brush teeth now, but you leave much of the film. A viscous film clings to the teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary tooth paste does not end it. So teeth too often discolor and decay.

Dentists now know that the reason lies in film. That causes most tooth troubles. And, until one ends it, brushing fails to save the teeth.

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. And pyorrhea wrecks countless lives today.

An alarming situation

Tooth troubles have been constantly increasing. Very few people escape them. So dental science has in late years studied to combat that film.

Now we know how. The methods have been proved by careful clinical tests, made under able authorities. Now millions of people employ them, largely by dental advice. A new era in teeth cleaning is fast spreading the world over.

These new methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. A 10-Day Tube is given to everyone who asks. Now all who will may quickly know that film can be combated.

What you will see

A test of Pepsodent brings quick and unique effects. One sees and feels them clearly. And a book which comes with the 10-Day Tube tells the reasons for them.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva to digest starch deposits that cling. Each application also multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva—to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One keeps the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

Day by day we fight the film and all its ill effects. You see the results in whiter teeth. You feel them in cleaner teeth. But the great results are such protection as teeth never had before.

You owe yourself a knowledge of these facts. Old ways of brushing have proved sadly inadequate. Nearly everybody at some time suffers troubles caused by film.

Now science knows how to combat film, and in ten days you can know. Never again will you trust the old ways when you know the new.

Teeth will glisten when the film-coat goes

Get this free tube and watch it. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the slimy film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coat disappears.

You will instantly know that Pepsodent does what nothing else has done. In a few days you will realize what clean teeth mean.

THE ANXIOUS CONSERVATIVES.

The local Meighen organ argues mildly and apologetically for the old National Policy, and then suddenly cites with a tacit approval some labor men's proposal for "the formation of a tariff board, on which organized labor should have proper representation." Either there is uncertainty and even inconsistency here, or the expectation is that any "tariff board" can be manipulated to maintain the protective system as it is. In any case, the contrast of a timorous or softly plausible tone to the old brass band noise of protection cannot fail to be observed.

A tariff board "created with full powers to deal with the subject in a similar manner to the powers exercised by the railway commission on railway matters," as suggested by the labor resolution cited, could not be fairly constituted without a representation of farmers or producers and consumers, as well as of employers and employees. Manufacturers and industrial workmen cannot suppose that such a matter as the tariff is of concern to them alone. Producers and consumers have had very little say hitherto in this vital question, even in Parliament; and if a soviet like the suggested tariff board were to be set up with power, an occupational council representing specific interests, producers and consumers, should have the largest delegation in its make-up.

But the Meighen Government and its organs pay no attention to the interests of the people in general. They are preoccupied with the advantage of the Interests. They pretend that both the Liberal and Farmers' platforms threaten Canada with free trade. As a matter of fact, neither of these platforms proposes free trade. But farmers and Liberals are agreed that a number of industrial interests in this country have been fattened long enough, and cannot continue to be specially favored without detriment to the people at large. Farmers and Liberals agree that the agricultural interest needs encouragement, that combines must be beaten down, that the removal of protection is a good weapon against certain noxious combines, that wealth under protection has been growing, but more and more in the hands of a few, both here and in the United States, and that concentration of wealth is becoming a dangerous factor in our politics. There are not enough people on the land, the birth rate is declining, and most people are not so well off as they were forty years ago in the ratio of wages to the cost of living. Even if the National Policy was a good thing in former days, as a help to "infant industry," to quote the old argument, is it a good thing for a community ridden by combines?

The Meighen Government and its organs are very anxious about the answer to this question that will soon be given by the mass of the voters of Canada. The Liberal party proposes a vigorous qualification of the policy of protection; the Farmers' party is bent on a more sweeping modification. Against the growing voice of reform the stand-patters hold out, trusting in their money and the advantage of their position intrenched in usurped power.

EVOLUTION OF THE ENGLISHMAN.

At a recent banquet in Old London at which he was the guest of honor, Rudyard Kipling had some rather trenchant things to say of the British people. In speaking of the various points of contact the English race had with humanity, he observed that the Phoenicians taught the Englishman the elements of shopkeeping; the Roman taught him love of sport, by hiring him to fight beasts in the arena.

Under the Heptarchy he studied social reform, which in those days consisted of making a levy on capital to buy off the heathen of the north from taking direct action against English industries. Next he took a three-hundred-year course of colloquial and law French under eminent Norman teachers, but never learned the language, but "it left him with a profound respect based on experience for his neighbors across the Channel and a conviction, which time had deepened, that they were the only other people in the world who really mattered. For five hundred years his domestic and foreign policy was largely controlled by Italians, French and Spanish with occasional Austrian politico-ecclesiastical authorities. Later he was exposed to the rigors of the Puritan conscience, which was then largely directed from Geneva, Leyden, Amsterdam and the Low Countries. While thus employed, he was under pretext of union, finally and fatally subjugated by the Scots."

Any unmixed race would have been driven to the edge of lunacy by such experiences, but the Englishman, like a built-up gun-barrel, is all one temper though welded of different materials. Roman, Norman, Papist, Cromwellian, Stuart, Hollander, Hanoverian aristocracy, middle class and democracy, each in turn experimented on the English, and each was met with a large, silent tolerance that was mistaken for stupidity. Each was given a fair trial and then dismissed. It was thus, and not in a fit of absent-mindedness, that the empire was born. It was, said Mr. Kipling, the outcome of the relaxations of persecuted specialists, men who for one cause or another were unfit for the rough and tumble of home life. They did it in search of rest and change, and taking their habits with them, by some mysterious rule of thumb magic they did establish and maintain a reasonable peace and security among simple folks in many parts of the world, and that without over-much murder, oppression or torture. It was due to the large tolerance that the English had developed in their many centuries of intercourse with various masters and would-be masters that made them sympathetic to remote peoples and strange gods.

Referring to the war the speaker said that after ninety-nine years of peace the English were given less than ninety-six hours to choose whether they would buy a little longer peace with the heathen of the North, as their fathers had bought it, or make peace with them as King Alfred had made it. As a race they had forgotten to say "No" to anyone who said "Yes" in a sufficiently loud voice; they had quite forgotten that they had broken a church, killed one king, closed a protectorate and exiled another king sooner than be driven where they did not desire to go. But when their hour came again, they decided once again, and one again by instinct, to go their own way, for once again they had prepared nothing, they had foreseen nothing.

Referring to Defoe's summing up of a true-born Englishman as "the man akin to all the Universe," Kipling said: "What will this man do in the future? We are too close to the dust of the main battle to see clearly. We know that England is crippled by the loss of wastage of a whole generation. Her position from a civil point of view is that of our enemies in the worst days of the war. That is to say, all leave is stopped for every man who can stand up to his job, no matter how sick or stale he may be; and there is undreamed-of promotion for untried men, who, merely because they are not dead, will have to face heavier responsibility, longer hours, and criticism that will certainly not grow milder as the years pass. But no miracles have occurred. This world, which some of us, in their zeal to do better than good, have created, and which we must all inherit, is no new world, but the old grown harder. The wheel has come full circle. The whole weight of that world at the present moment lies again, as it used to lie in the days of our fathers, upon two nations, upon England and France."

DISEASE AND CURE.

One root of our economic unrest is the idea that a man is entitled to what he earns, and to do what he likes with it, that the laborer should be paid according to his skill and ability. But Hamlet had an idea worth two of that when he said, "Use every man according to his desert and who should escape whipping?"

"What a man earns" means in practice, apart from any theory of it, what he can get his hands on and hold within the law. The truth is that a man is entitled just to what the law allows him, and the law can be made anything that the people see fit. The laws might certainly be very different from what they are in regard to property, profits and taxation. Once upon a time some individualists thought it sheer wickedness to limit by law the exploitation of women's and children's labor, or to prescribe the kind of housing that is conducive to public health. And what does a man earn? Who can measure his skill and ability and usefulness in the community? Nor does the right use of money always go along with the power to "earn" it.

Hamlet followed up his negative proposition on the unworthiness of all us miserable sinners by a positive direction to old Polonius: "Use them according to your own honor and dignity; the less they deserve, the more merit is in your bounty."

Generosity, a readiness to share alike, would solve much of our trouble. As it is, each trade seeks to gain something for itself, at the expense of others or not; each dealer wants to get at least a little more than another; every protectionist thinks that his country's prosperity depends on another country losing proportionately. We see what a happy, contented world we have, with all-round grabbing and protective tariffs. As a result of the so-called incentive of personal gain slacking and ill-will abound everywhere. Sixty years ago John Ruskin attacked the evil involved in "business is business," and proposed as the cure that the employer should treat his employees even as sons. He was called crazy by the orthodox economists of the time. Perhaps the one improvement that the experience of sixty years has to make on Ruskin's position is that men should be not fathers and sons so much as brothers all.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The threatening letters sent by Sinn Feiners are the invariable way of secret political associations. Sinn Fein is the Black Hand in Ireland.

If a hunger strike in a cause is not suicide for one or a few, it is not suicide for a great number. Those who petition for the release of prisoners dying of hunger might be refusing food themselves for the cause. There is no reason why Sinn Feiners at large should not hunger-strike along with the criminals in jail. Why not an Irish and Irish-American national strike of this kind? That would be the thing to force the British Government's hands. Those New York sympathizers should do a hunger-strike instead of merely striking work. Why let a few specialists have the privilege of martyrdom?

TRIBUTE TO THE AUOMOBILE.

[Quebec Telegraph.]

It was a graceful tribute that was paid by one of the returning members of the Imperial Press party on the Empress of Britain, to the part played by the automobile in the entertainment of the party during its visit to the Dominion. Dr. Ellis Powell, editor-in-chief of the Financial News, London, the gentleman in question, speaking at luncheon, the first meal taken by the delegates on board the steamer, immediately after going on board, paid a glowing tribute the hospitality which had been extended to the members of his party during their Canadian tour, not only by newspaper men, but by the entire population of the localities visited by them. He desired specially, he said, to emphasize the important part which automobiles had been made to play everywhere throughout their tour. At each point where they stopped they found automobiles at their disposal to take them wherever they desired to go, and in consequence of this they were enabled to have a wonderful vision of the immense domain through which they journeyed. He felt that in the acknowledgments which had been made of the various splendid transportation facilities which had been everywhere provided for them, special mention of the splendid advantages which had been afforded them by the numerous automobiles placed at their disposal had perhaps been overlooked by the visitors, and they all desired to take advantage of the opportunity afforded by a short farewell address to make special acknowledgment of their appreciation of this most enjoyable feature of their entertainment. The applause which greeted these remarks showed how well the speaker had interpreted the sentiments of all the members of the party.

From Here and There

LOYALTY.

[Brill Magazine.]

Loyalty in a man is one of his most essential characteristics. Without it he is without power to do work of the kind that counts. Let it be loyalty to a principle, loyalty to his employer, loyalty to a sect; just so it is loyalty to some constant thing or person it will serve its purpose.

There is nothing by which we may judge better a man's character than by his ability to remain loyal to one given thing. Strength of character, determination, integrity, all of these are indicated in a man by the degree of his loyalty. Find a man who is loyal to an animal, a person, a belief, and you will have found a man worth while—a man in whom there is good, even though a careless world may never have discovered it.

Loyalty has kept men at their tasks through countless ages. It is the beacon-light that guides storm-tossed, temptation-wracked human vessels over life's rough seas, twinkling ever just over the bow and offering a constant hope to the mariner.

The man who is loyal—he'll be with you when you're up and he'll be with you when you're down, because he has in him that which is infinitely finer than wealth or great glory. He has in him an appreciation of the finer things of life—a regard for him fellow-humans. Yes, find a man who is loyal, and ninety-nine times out of a hundred I'll be able to show you a man who's fine, big-minded, a live-and-let-live sort of a chap.

FAILURE OF DAYLIGHT SAVING.

[Farmer's Sun.]

Daylight saving has been a failure this year. This is the verdict of city people, and the probabilities are that it will not be tried again. Many complain that the change has been injurious to the health; especially is this true of children and young people who do not get sufficient sleep.

Daylight saving has not brought about any increase in the number of backyard gardeners, nor in any other way has it contributed anything worth while to offset the inconveniences caused. The only people to benefit are the amusement houses, the golf and tennis players and the joy riders. It gives more time for pleasure to the city chap, wearied with his long seven or eight hour day, his free Saturday afternoon and all day Sunday. Next year he is likely to be deprived of this extra hour for pleasure-making and given an opportunity to use it for greater production.

THE AUTUMN PAGEANT.

[Minneapolis Journal.]

Autumn presents a pageant as fine as any scene in nature. The first splendors are on the sumach, and marigolds lift their heads high as if to defy the approach of frost. The fringed gentian slyly waits a little before shaking out her ruffles more broadly that her advent may be better appreciated. The iris by the pond has left its sword-like leaves to say good-by, while the daisy and the big sunflower are putting their baby seeds to bed for the winter.

PASSING BEAUTY.

[Montreal Gazette.]

We put off our harvest thanksgiving until the fields are bare and desolate and something, therefore, of the golden beauty of the season, warmly inspiring the common gratitude, is lost; but the brief season which antedates the official function is the glory of our Dominion. The woods are aflame with color. Every leaf is streaked with the divine pigments. A solemn hush falls upon the world. A mellow haze gives a yearning beauty to the fleeting day. A murmurous hum is in the warm and drowsy air. The golden harvest waves in blessing. The goldenrod burns with vivid flame. In the open spaces the sense of peace and rest and solace is all-pervasive. That it is passing, that the happy fields will soon be ravished, that the air will become thin and sharp and melancholy, as it rustles the falling leaves—that is the poignant regret. The utter beauty of nature in the golden light is so exquisite as to be almost pain.

Many of our visitors come to us in the heat of summer, or amid the snows of winter, which Robert Louis Stevenson found so delightful; but our autumn is incomparable for a splendid and prodigal beauty, which haunts the heart and gives, in its poetical appeal, the sense of an exquisite sadness.

Beauty is always allied to melancholy; and the nature lover finds at once in the glory of the season and the sense of evanescence a solemn joy and pensiveness linked to sorrow.

The only English poet who has adequately expressed this feeling is Tennyson, whose love of nature was deep and constant, and, at the same time, happily free from precise detail, which was the weakness or defect of Wordsworth.

"Tears, idle tears, I know not what they mean:
Tears from the depth of some divine despair
Rise in the heart and gather to the eyes,
In looking on the happy autumn fields,
And thinking of the days that are no more.
Dear as remembered kisses after death,
And sweet as those by hopeless fancy feigned
On lips that are for others; deep as love,
Deep as first love, and wild with all regret—
O death in life—the days that are no more."

NEW HAVEN RADIALS COST MILLIONS—SOLD FOR A SONG.

[Financial Post.]

The following item is from the Toronto World, one of the most enthusiastic supporters of hydro radials, and one of the strongest of the Beck organs:

Providence, R.I., Sept. 4.—The entire capital stock of the Rhode Island Company, which originally cost the New Haven Railroad $24,000,000, when the company was formed to operate the trolley interests in this state, was sold yesterday at public auction for $2,200. The concern has been in the hands of the receivers for more than a year.

The electrification of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, both as regards engineering and construction, was in charge of W. S. Murray, who later acted as consulting enginner for the new Haven in charge of all features of electrical operation. This same Mr. Murray made the report on the Beck hydro radials, which is the only technical support offered for these experiments, which will involve the province and the municipalities in the expenditure of millions.

Nor is the experience of the New Haven unusual in the United States. Investigation by the special commission appointed by President Wilson indicates that up to May 31, 1919, 62 electric railways in the United States, with 5,912 miles of track, were in the hands of receivers; 60 electric railways, with 763 miles of track, were dismantled and junked; 38 electric railways were forced to abandon 257 miles of track—and conditions have not improved in the interval.

England Goes In For Motors.

While Sir Adam Beck has precipitously decided upon a program of electric radials to cost many millions, and objects to an inquiry by the Drury Government, which must do the financing and be responsible to the public of the province, England is recognizing the advantages of motor transport, and a scheme is to be launched whereby 500 towns in Great Britain are to be linked in one commercial transport system. London dispatches of September 7 carried the following additional information:

The area covered will be between Dover and Penzance, on the south coast, to Wick, in the north of Scotland. About 600 agents will act as clearing houses, registering requirements of local manufacturers and traders, providing return loads for vehicles and thus eliminating dead mileage and economizing in running costs.

Hitherto only large centres had clearing houses, but under the new scheme outlying districts and all existing organizations will be linked for the same purpose.

Captain Montgomery, who is responsible for the scheme, says that it will provide Great Britain with a road transport system without parallel in the world, and one that will relegate the railways to a position of secondary importance in transport services. It will not only speed up and reduce cost of transport, but will reduce railway freights and enable goods to be carried from door to door.

Lose of time in tidings will be eliminated, and farmers and others in remote districts will be able to get their goods collected or delivered by applying to the nearest agent. Although during the war some of the more important industrial centres, such as Leeds, Liverpool or Manchester, were linked up by motor transport, and several of the services are still kept up, their efforts were mainly local, and thus of benefit only to small areas.

"My intention," says Captain Montgomery, "is to have a service which shall be of national benefit, and which will, by reducing the cost of freightage, tend to lower the prices of foodstuffs and the costs of living. The appointment of agents is essential to the success of the scheme, and it has been arranged for the Automobile Association's agents, established in more than 500 towns, to undertake the work. The association will reap no financial profits from the scheme, which will be used primarily to benefit members of the industrial vehicle section of the association."

Poetry and Jest

A RAINY DAY.

[Theodosia Garrison.]

This is my dream, to have you on a day,
Of beaten rain and sullen clouds of gloom,
Here with me, in the old familiar room,
Watching the logs, beneath the flames' swift play,
Burst into strange conceits of bud and bloom.

The things we know about us here and there,
The books we love half-read on floor and knee,
The stein the Dutchman brought from over-sea,
Standing invitingly beside your chair;
The while we quote and talk and—disagree.

Rebuild the castles that we reared in Spain,
Re-read the poet that our childhood knew,
With eyes that meet when some quaint thought rings true—
O friend, for some such day of cheer and rain,
Books, and the dear companionship of you!

ACTOR GROANED.

All was rush and bustle in the studio when the new producer began to get busy. He snapped and barked and roared and wept, but certainly he got things done.

Then he turned suddenly to the weary "star," was was resting after the last stunt.

"We'll begin on the next episode now," he said briskly, while the actor groaned. "It ought to be a thriller. You're blown up into the air by an explosion, and an aeroplane rushes along and catches you.

"It does, does it?" exclaimed the actor. "But look here. Supposing the aeroplane isn't there?"

But the film producer's thoughts were already away ahead.

"Oh, that's all right!" he snapped absent-mindedly. "In that case, just come down; don't wait for it!"

HYLAS.

[Bliss Carmen.]

Cool were the grey-mottled beaches,
Quiet with noon were the fern-beds,
Where by the bubbling spring water
Tarried young Hylas.

Whistling a song of the rowers,
Dipping his jar till it gurgled,
Suddenly there the bright naiads
(Woe for thee, Hylas!)

Looked and beheld his fair beauty,
Better their well-head, and straightway
Exquisite longing possessed them
Only for Hylas.

When he returned not at sundown,
"Over long," said his companions,
As slow dismay came upon them,
"Tarries young Hylas."

Never again did his comrades
Find the lost rower, nor maidens
See from their doorways at twilight
Home-coming Hylas.

Thenceforth another must labor
To the timed thud of his rowlock,
And only legends keep tally
Of the lost Hylas.

Yet even now, when the springtime
Verdures the valley, and rain-winds
Voyage for lands undiscovered,
As once did Hylas.

With a great star on the hill-crest
In purple evening, a flute-note
Pierces the dusk, and a voice calls,
"Hylas, Hylas!"

NOT DISOBEDIENT.

"Willie, why were you disobedient to your Aunt Jane?"

"I wasn't disobedient, mother."

"Yes, you were. Haven't you been swimming this afternoon?"

"Yes."

"Didn't I hear your Aunt Jane tell you not to go swimming?"

"No; she didn't say that at all. She only came to the door and shouted, 'Willie, I wouldn't go swimming.' And I shouldn't think she would. What would folks think if they saw a woman like Aunt Jane swimming in the creek?"

THE TROPICS IN NEW YORK.

(Claude McKay.)

Bananas ripe and green, and ginger-root,
Cocoa in pods and alligator pears,
And tangerines and mangoes and grape fruit,
Fit for the highest prize at parish fairs.

Set in the window, bringing memories
Of fruit trees laden, by low-singing sills,
And dewy dawns and infinite blue skies
In benediction over nun-like hills.

A wave of longing overwhelmed my soul,
My heart grew faint, ceasing its furious throbbing;
And in the thronged street, losing self-control,
Like a child lost and lone, I fell to sobbing.

LATE HOURS.

(From an Exchange.)

For a good half hour the father had been lecturing his son on the evils of late nights, and late rising in the mornings.

"You will never amount to anything," he said, "unless you turn over a new leaf. Remember, it is the early bird that catches the worm."

"Oh," said the son. "How about the worm? What did he get for turning out so early?"

"My boy," came the reply, "that worm hadn't been to bed all night. He was on his way home."

AUTUMN WIND.

(Colin Hurry.)

Here in the track, oh wind, of thy great cleansing
All summer's dross whirls by, The stark boughs ride
Bare to thy buffeting. O'er hill and hollow
Surges regenerate a mighty tide.
Russet and green and gold they trip to thy piping;
Hush, and they waver; swell, and they speed as one
Over the earth in a last fantastic revel—
Phantoms of spring that once laughed back at the sun.
Here in the track, oh wind, of they great cleansing
Stark as the trees we stand. Ere the music tires
Take in thy danse macabre of leaf and blossom
All our dead hopes and all our dead desires.

CONSOLATION.

"Brakeman, are you positive this train will stop at Gary?"

Fully half a dozen times the fussy old lady had asked the question, and the man began to lose patience.

"Now, look here, madam," he replied finally, "this is an express to Gary, and if we don't stop there then you'll be in the biggest smashup you ever heard of!"

EACH IN HIS OWN TONGUE.

A fire-mist and a planet—
A crystal and a cell—
A jellyfish and a saurian,
And caves where the cave-men dwell;
Then a sense of law and beauty,
And a face turned from the clod—
Some call it Evolution,
And others call it God.

A haze on the far horizon,
The infinite, tender sky,
The ripe, rich tints of the cornfields,
And the wild geese sailing high—
And all over upland and lowland
The charm of the goldenrod—
Some of us call it Autumn,
And others call it God.

Like tides on a crescent sea-beach,
When the moon is new and thin,
Into our hearts high yearnings
Come welling and surging in—
Some from the mystic ocean,
Whose rim no foot has trod—
Some of us call it Longing,
And others call it God.

A picket frozen on duty—
A mother starved for her brood—
Socrates drinking the hemlock
And Jesus on the rood;
And millions who, humble and nameless,
The straight, hard pathway plod,—
Some call it Consecration,
And others call it God.

The Facts of Our Case!

We have shown in our published statements
—that the average wage of our employees has increased 95.1 per cent in 5 years;
—that material costs have gone up anywhere from 100 to 350 per cent;
—that the return on our investment has been reduced to one-fifth of one per cent;
—that there is no water in our stock, every share having brought in an average of $106 per hundred dollar share;
—that no shareholder has ever received a bonus in either cash or stock;
—that all surplus and reserves have been turned back into the business, relieving present revenues of interest charges of nearly a million a year.
—that we are facing the greatest demands for new telephones in our history, requiring for years to come an annual expenditure of about ten millions;
—that these huge sums cannot be secured unless a fair return is assured on the present investment.

These are fundamental facts in our case.

Public necessity and public safety demand the maintenance of adequate telephone service. Adequate service depends on adequate revenue. Inadequate rates must check development and react upon the service.

Fair rates for telephone service are not easily determined! Many factors enter into consideration. Off-hand judgments are of no value. Expert testimony weighed by competent authorities must determine the question.

WORK ON HOSPITAL DEPENDS DECISION OF PRIMARY CHAPTERS

Architect Submits Plans of $250,000 Building To I. O. D. E. and Men's Advisory Board.

At a special meeting of the Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., called at the Victoria Hospital Nurses' Home yesterday afternoon, the question of going ahead with the proposed $250,000 hospital for sick children was the chief matter under discussion. Tenders have already been asked for by the Memorial Hospital committee, plans have been submitted by the architect, and work on the foundation of the hospital this week is pending the decision of the I. O. D. E.

The meeting, however, found itself powerless to sanction the increased expenditure of money (the original intention was to erect a hospital at a cost of $100,000), without consulting the primary chapters of the order, of which there are eighteen in the city. On the motion of Mrs. David Williams, seconded by Mrs. Niven, the meeting decided itself on record as favorable to the new scheme and to recommend that the primary chapters indorse it. An effort will be made during the coming week to hold meetings of all the primary chapters, when their opinion of the matter will be obtained and later submitted to the regular meeting of the Municipal Chapter, which has been called for Wednesday, September 29. The final word on the matter will be said at this meeting, and the contractors may then go ahead with their work.

Advise Going Ahead.

A meeting of the men's advisory board of the hospital committee was held at the hospital directly preceding the meeting of the Municipal Chapter, the board advising strongly that the chapter go ahead with the hospital as planned. It was also suggested at this meeting that the Rotary Club, the first club to send in its willingness to assist in the raising of funds for the hospital, be asked to help in the raising of the additional $100,000 needed. As a result, Mr. James Gray will call a meeting of the Rotary Club executive almost immediately that they may give their official indorsation of the plan to help. The men were of the opinion that there would be no difficulty whatever in raising the additional money.

Architect J. M. Watt was present, and explained the plan of the hospital, which will meet all the needs in London for some years to come and may be added to at the rear. It is the intention that the hospital will be situated on Ottaway avenue, directly opposite Victoria Hospital and next to the new medical school.

Concrete Building.

According to the architect's plans, it will be a reinforced concrete building, the same class of brick being used as was used in the new medical school. The building will be of three stories and a basement, all with Terrazzo floors, able to accommodate from 70 to 100 patients. Most of the administration work will be carried on in the basement, which will contain an out-patients' department with examination rooms and dispensary, a department for receiving in-patients with receiving rooms and rooms for fresh linen, baths, etc., store rooms, diet kitchens, boiler rooms, a large ice plant and a large exercise room or gymnasium, which may be used for a lecture room. The next two floors are alike, including large wards at each end, sun rooms and private rooms. On the top floor are located three operating rooms and anesthetic rooms, 2 workrooms and sterilizing room.

"We have had every doctor in the city connected with the hospital work at our rooms, and have carried out all their suggestions," declared Mr. Watt.

The report of Mrs. Arthur Smith, convener of the Memorial Hospital Committee, showed that $63,500 at the lowest estimate had already been promised towards the hospital, $24,292.06 of this being already in the hands of the treasurer. Of this latter amount $8,710 has been contributed by the primary chapters, and $5,000 in Victory bonds, belonging to the Municipal Chapter, is waiting to be used, making the total cash contribution of the local I. O. D. E. nearly $11,000.

The primary chapters alone have promised $11,500; the Mothers' Clubs $1,000; the Women's Institutes of Western Ontario at least $2,000; the Goderich County Council $500; the Victoria Hospital Alumnae $1,000; the London Township $1,000; the United Welfare Association $25,000, which will not be given until the hospital is commenced, making a total of $63,500 at the lowest estimate.

Red Cross Promises.

A small amount of money is possibly coming from a recent will, which shows that people are becoming interested in the hospital; the children of the Protestant Orphans' Home took up a collection amounting to $1.47, put it in a bag and gave it to the treasurer of the fund. Mrs. Cl. T. Campbell, who cherishes it as one of the most important donations; a letter from the local branch of the Red Cross Association to Mrs. F. J. Greenaway, the secretary, promises substantial aid to the hospital when it is in a more advanced stage, this donation possibly to take the form of an endowment to benefit returned soldiers' children.

Some discussion arose at the meeting as to who was to sign the contracts for the building of the hospital, with the result that a delegation was appointed to attend the meeting of the board of trustees on Thursday, to come to some conclusion in the matter. The delegation includes Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mrs. Cl. T. Campbell, Mrs. F. J. Greenaway and Mrs. Niven.

X-Ray Room?

Several interesting questions were asked at the meeting. Why was there no roof garden included in the plans of the hospital? It was said that this would entail much greater expense, and that in a city like London, where there was plenty of ground space, a roof garden was not necessary. Will there be an X-ray room? was another question. The answer was that there would be a room for this purpose, which might be fitted out at a cost of $7,000 or $8,000, whenever anyone wished to undertake that expense. In the meantime, the X-ray room at Victoria Hospital could be used. What children will be accommodated in the hospital? was asked. And the answer was that if the hospital was to receive Government support, any children needing care, not merely London children, would be admitted there, except contagious cases, and possibly adenoids and tonsils, which would remain only over night in any case; there would be a splendid orthopaedic and medical department in the hospital.

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

TELL IT TO THE SOCIETY EDITOR.

The Rev. J. G. Stuart has returned to the city after spending a short time at Hyde Park.

Miss Isabel C. Armstrong was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Armstrong, Maitland street, for the week-end.

Miss Olive Stanley of High River, Alta., has been the guest of Mrs. W. F. MacGregor for the past few days.

Mrs. T. H. Smallman returned from England a few days ago and is now at her home "Waverly," South London.

Miss Mary Westcott, nurse in training at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is home visiting her mother, Mrs. Westcott, King street.

Mrs. E. F. McL. Smith, press secretary of the Presbyterian W. M. S. for the province, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kelly, Ridout street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Winlow Bixel, Strathroy, and Dr. and Mrs. Dennis Jordan, Toronto, were week-end guests with Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Routledge, Edgelton.

Mrs. E. B. Smith and Miss Meta Macbeth are in Hamilton attending the meet of the Royal Canadian Golf Association, being held there from September 21 to 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Galer, Villa Nova, announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence Irene, to Laurence D. Mott of Brantford, the marriage to take place in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Nixon of Wilton Grove announce the engagement of their youngest daughter Ethel, to Andrew G. McCormick of Springbank, the wedding to take place the latter part of the month.

Miss Naurine Robb of Winnipeg, a prominent journalist, is the guest of Mrs. S. F. Lawrason. Miss Robb is the winner of a scholarship from Harvard University, and is on her way to taake up post-graduate work.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin K. Campbell announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean K., to Mr. Malcolm W. Small, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Small of Wallacetown, the marriage to take place the latter part of September.

The engagement is announced of Helen Isabel, only daughter of the late Dr. R. J. Lockhart and the late Mrs. Lockhart of Harpeler, Ontario, to James H. Slater, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Slater of 465 Waterloo street, the marriage to take place in October.

Mr and Mrs. E. C. Bowker are spending a brief holiday in Muskoka. Mrs. Bowker will return next week in time to attend the big convention of Canadian Press Women, which is being held at the Ritz-Carlton, Montreal on October 5, 6 and 7. While there the press women will visit Quebec, St. Anne de Beaupre and Ottawa.

Miss Maybelle Stuart was the hostess of a delightful little tea on Saturday afternoon, given in honor of Miss Isabel Gartshore, who is the guest of her parents, Col. and Mrs. Gartshore "Beechwood," London South. The house was pretty with autumn flowers, and autumn flowers adorned the tea table, over which Mrs. Arnold Dillon presided.

Miss Dorinda Abbott was the hostess of a delightful little supper party and musical last evening, when she entertained many of her pupils and their friends, at her studio, 314 Dundas street. Autumn flowers were arranged prettily about the studio, supper being served picnic style, from prettily decorated boxes. Thirty-five guests in all were present. These delightful functions are to become monthly affairs, in an effort to develop social and class spirit among the pupils.

People are hearing with enthusiasm that the Campbell Becher Chapter, I. O. D. E., intends to undertake another "charity ball" some time in November. Just now the chapter is concerned with its own little corn roast and dance, which has become an annual affair. It will be held at Springoank on Friday night, the pavilion having been engaged for the dancing. An interesting feature of the affair will be the drawing of tickets for a miniature dreadnaught, the proceeds of the raffling to be devoted to the Sick Children's Hospital.

The coming visit to the city of Professor S. H. Clark of Chicago is being pleasantly anticipated. Professor Clark, who is said to be the greatest vocal interpreter of literature in America, (Dr. Moulton), and who, with Ellen Terry, put on the program at the Shakespeare festival at Stratford-on-Avon in 1916, will give a dramatic reading and interpretation of Thackeray's "Vanity Fair" at St. Andrew's Hall on Friday evening, September 24. He is being brought here by the Western University Alumnae, and the proceeds will be devoted to the scholarship fund.

The visit of the worthy grand matron of the Ontario Chapter, Order Eastern Star, to the Trinity Chapter here last night, will be long remembered with pleasure. Besides officially inspecting the degree work and initiation, Mrs. Mason, the worthy grand matron, enjoyed meeting the members of local chapters and several out-of-town guests who were present. A unique feature of the occasion was a presentation to Mrs. Mason, the presentation being made by Mrs. F. J. Greenaway. Another distinguished guest present was the new worthy grand patron, Mr. Thos. Rowe, of this city. Mrs. Mason, who is from Windsor, was the guest of Mrs. Thos. Rowe, the matron of Trinity Chapter, while in the city.

McDERMOTT—FOX.

Miss Nellie Fox, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fox, Brussels, was recently united in marriage to Mr. A. G. McDermott of the Standard Bank staff, Chatham. The bride received many beautiful gifts as an evidence of her popularity.

THE MARRIAGE OF ANNE

BY MAY CHRISTIE

(Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

XII.—"In Love With—You!"

The moment I had spoken so brusquely to Neil Saunders, I regretted it.

Instead of having the "get even" feeling satisfied, I realized that I had merely succeeded in being rude.

Such knowledge wasn't pleasant.

Saunders, however, did not seem to take my words amiss. He raised his eyebrows for a moment, quizzically. And then he smiled.

It was an ingenuous smile. There was something utterly disarming in it. And—yes—he had lovely teeth. I noticed that.

"Fiances are apt to be a bit exacting, aren't they?" he said. "Not that I personally know anything about it. I have never been engaged, or anything romantic of that sort."

I made no answer. I could think of none. And he continued:

"You couldn't picture me, for instance, in the role of a fiance?"

There was a very friendly, amused twinkle in his eyes as he regarded me intently.

"Why not?" I answered, rather lamely, and flushing a little under his scrutiny.

"Well, I'm not a figure of romance, am I?"

It seemed to me there was a challenge in his words. I knew he was mentally comparing himself with Fred. A "figure of romance," indeed! He was trying to make fun of Fred's good looks and slender figure. He thought my lover sissified.

And he considered infinitely more manly, by comparison—a being above such foolish things as love and girls.

Then, to my surprise, the quizzical look faded from his face, and for a moment the young man seemed to wear a wistful air.

He turned and stared out at the flying landscape. An immense preoccupation enveloped him.

Had there been some romance in his life, I wondered? Were his vagrant thoughts harking back to some old, painful, half-buried affair, from which he had emerged a sadder man?

"Anne Travis, don't be a sentimental little idiot," I told myself, annoyed that this stranger could afford me even a temporary interest. "Your own love matters are sufficiently engrossing, without worrying about other people's."

And yet I couldn't keep from watching him.

His looks were vastly different from Fred's. Not nearly so classically correct.

But—this knowledge irritated me—young Saunders had the manlier air.

He was immensely virile and alive. There was an aspect of strength and reliability about him. He had a very honest face.

That habit of looking one straight in the eyes, too, was attractive. It was convincing.

Did Fred look one in the eyes?

Well, perhaps not always.

Yes, it was possible to love a man, and yet see his faults.

"I would rather have Fred, with any faults and failings he may have, than any other man." I kept repeating this little formula below my breath, as though it were a prayer or vow.

The monotonous rhythm of the train formed a sort of running accompaniment. My little prayer I must believe.

Julie! The thought of Julie hurt me. Oh, if one could only crush out certain memories!

Was I fated to love the type of man who never would stick permanently to any one woman? Julie had told me Fred was of that brand. Of course, I hadn't believed her. No—not likely! Julie was jealous. That was all.

And yet—and yet—

A penny for your thoughts, young lady!" The big, sandy-haired young man who sat opposite me—and whom for the moment I'd forgotten—was looking straight into my eyes, with that disconcerting directness which was his special attribute.

"I was thinking that those who—who know nothing of romance—are rather lucky," I stammered out, all taken unawares, and very truthful.

The twinkle faded from his eyes as he regarded me.

"Meaning—myself?" he said. He leaned a little forward toward me. His forehead knitted into small wrinkles of concentration. They seemed to remove some of his boyish air and make him older and more serious.

I nodded.

"You have admitted that you know nothing of romance." (I wasn't going to let him get the better of me. I was going to hold my ground.)

"Suppose—that I were—learning?" He looked directly at me.

I gave a skeptic smile.

"It isn't in your line at all. You'd scoff at anything of that sort, and call it weak and sissified." My tones were dennitely patronizing.

The sandy-haired young man regarded me with clear, honest eyes. And then he said a very curious thing.

"Just lately I've been thinking it would be mighty easy for any man to fall in love with—" He broke off for a moment.

"Yes? With what? With love itself?" I felt a quick flush rise to my cheeks, and spoke to hide my own embarrassment.

"No—not to fall in love with love," he answered quietly, "but to fall in love with—you!"

Tomorrow: "A Dark Young Man."

TALKS ON HEALTH

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., Noted Physician and Author.

The Course of Lung Fever.

The typical course of lung fever (known variously as lobar pneumonia, pleuro-pneumonia, pneumonitis, and among the riff-raff as "pneumonia on the lungs"—to be sure it woud be difficult to have pneumonia on any other organ) is a rapid rise of fever following the chill of onset and then anywhere from five to ten days of steady high fever, and finally a rapid decline, called the "crisis," the temperature falling from 103 or 104 down to or below the normal 98 degrees, all within the course of a day.

The fever is not due to the damage that has occurred in the lungs, for this damage remains unremedied or unchanged for hours and days after the fever has gone. In the first day or two of lung fever the lobe or lobes of the lung involved become solid with the exudate or inflammatory material formed in the infected tissues and thrown out into the little air spaces. But this consolidation is not the serious aspect of pneumonia. It isn't because part of the lung is put out of commission that the patient is in danger, for a whole lung is sometimes purposely collapsed in the treatment of tuberculosis without in the slightest endangering the patient's life. The serious feature of lung fever is the tremendous dose of germ poisons the victim's system has to cope with, and this is independent of the amount of lung involved in the inflammatory process.

The victim's germ-fighting apparatus is busy from the beginning of the chill until long after the crisis. The high fever is proof that active resistance is being offered by the blood. If resistance were not offered there would be little fever—and there is little fever in a very debilitated subject with pneumonia.

The crisis—not a crisis in the common sense of that word—occurs as soon as the victim's blood has elaborated sufficient antidote to neutralize the germ toxins or poisons in the circulation. The crisis is looked forward to eagerly and is indeed a welcome event, in no sense fraught with danger. "Passing the crisis" in pneumonia is a very different thing from "passing the crisis" in other conditions, because it involves no risk. This crisis in pneumonia does not occur on any particular day; in some cases it does not occur at all, but instead the fall of the fever is gradual, declining a little each day for several days. Crisis or no crisis, naturally the patient is weak after such a struggle, and it now becomes necessary, in many cases, to restrain him from his eagerness to sit up or exert himself. With the passing of the fever he feels so greatly relieved that he is inclined to attempt more than is safe. It must be remembered that his lung is still solid and will require many days to be restored to normal functional condition. His heart is still seriously impaired by the poisoning it has suffered, and weeks will be required for the heart muscle to regain anything like its normal state, if it ever does return to normal.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Question of Kindness.

Will you be kind enough to consider my case and tell me what you think is wrong? About five years ago I had a rash come out on my face and.... (Mrs. K. A. L.)

ANS.—It is kindness that prompts me not to attempt to tell you what is wrong, for it would necessarily be the wildest kind of guesswork and my opinion might only give you needless anxiety. Of all conditions, skin troubles are the most difficult to diagnose without personal examination. If I were the greatest skin specialist in the world my opinion, without personal examination of the patient, would scarcely be worth considering. There are thousands upon thousands of misguided people taking treatment for skin disease or related conditions which they have not got. For instance, about two-thirds of all cases which the victims imagine are eczema prove to be something very different when examined. Just imagine the futility, if not the injury, of months and years of self-treatment or doping for a condition purporting to be "eczema," but which is in reality lupus, psoriasis or some other disease. And imagine the amount of unhappiness needlessly caused thousands of people who believe they have syphilis or some vague "constitutional" disease, when in fact they have nothing but an occupational skin trouble or perhaps the good old seventeen-year itch—for the itch may endure from seventeen hours to sixty years, according to the mode of treatment.

RAILWAY SMASH.

INGERSOLL, Sept. 20.—Another railway accident occurred near Mutual street crossing today, when a work engine ran into the rear end of a gravel train. The fireman jumped and no one was hurt, but the train caboose and work engine pilot were smashed.

NEW VICTORIA WARDS THE FORERUNNERS OF CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

Nurses To Begin Training At Once in Preparation For New Hospital.

In view of the fact that the building of the Memorial Hospital for Sick Children will be commenced shortly here in London, and that it will undoubtedly be completed by a year from next spring, it is interesting to note that preparations to carry on the work in this hospital are already being made by Miss Stanley, lady superintendent of Victoria Hospital. Miss Stanley, with the consent of the hospital trust, hopes to open two children's wards at Victoria Hospital very shortly, the additional space of the military hospital, now back under the wing of Victoria, making this possible. A supervisor, who is a specialist in children's work, will be put in charge of these wards, and lecture to the Victoria nurses, thus preparing them for the taking over of the Sick Children's Hospital when it is built.

Beginning At Once.

From this it may be seen that, although the Children's Hospital itself will not be ready for occupation until a year or more, the actual work is having its small beginning almost immediately, and nurses who train at Victoria Hospital during the coming year will have a certain amount of children's work in their training.

The board of trustees will shortly undertake the remodelling of these wards so that they may be adapted to the new work.

MEMORIAL SERVICE TO FALLEN SOLDIERS AT BRANTFORD OCT. 1

BRANTFORD, Sept. 20.—A memorial service to the overseas fallen will be held at Mount Hope Cemetery on October 1, by the G. W. V. A. It is hoped to make this the inauguration of a community memorial service.

RALLY DAY SERVICES.

SEAFORTH, Sept. 20.—Impressive rally day services were held in the First Presbyterian Church Sunday. Special music was provided by a girls' choir led by A. T. Craig and Mrs. Mildred Turnbull, soloist. A memorial shield to fallen soldiers was decorated. Rev. Dr. Larkin gave an address.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

"He whom a dream hath possessed knoweth no more of doubting,
For mist and the blowing winds and the mouthing of words he scorns;
Not the sinuous speech of schools he hears, but a knightly shouting,
And never comes darkness down, yet he greeteth a million morns."

Likes Autumn.

Dear Miss Grey.—I am an interested reader of your Page. My sister writes to your Page quite often. I suppose, Miss Grey, you will be going to the fair.

I think the flowers are most beautiful this time of the year. We have some most beautiful ones this year. Our gladiolus are just grand now. I took a trip the other day on the train and the scenery was just beautiful. We have been busy pickling and preserving. We have tried a great many recipes out of the Mail-Box and found them lovely. We are now going to try Mother of Six's pickle recipe, as it sounds real good. We have a whole cupboard of relish. I think this is the nicest time of the year, when the leaves are beginning to change their color, and the corn is standing up so high. It's nice, dear Cynthia Grey, to pick up a duck or a turkey and roast it this time of the year.

I see where Leona has sent in a bonnet pattern, and also the one that was in the Mail-Box, as I would like to get them. I would also like any correspondent who would care to correspond with me. My age is 20. I will leave my address with Miss Grey. Mother would like to get the animal rug patterns. Inclosed is 25c for S. C. H.

A BUD OFF THE THORN TREE.

Ans.—When you come to the city just watch the people who pass you and choose the Cynthia Grey of your dreams. That's the sure way not to be disappointed. A mystery is far more interesting than a reality at times, don't you think. Will send you patterns when they are returned to Mail-Box in turn with those waiting for them. Thank you for the splendid hospital gift.

Earned By Baby Bonnets.

Dear Cynthia Grey,—I must send in the little I have on hand for crochet bonnets, as I saw your plea for the end of this month: Only 1key, 10 cents; Another Nuisance, 10 cents. This will be a little help, anyway. And wasn't the flower seeds a bright idea? I'm such a busy woman, but if I wasn't busy I don't know what I would do, for this awful Longwoods road is so awful lively with autos for the Western Fair. It almost makes me feel that I lived in town again. Yours forever.

CRIPPLED FINGERS.

Ans.—Thank you, dear Crippled Fingers, for this precious contribution to the hospital fund. It is splendid of you to undertake to earn money for the hospital. Can quite understand the desire for travel inspired by the passing motors. Work is indeed a wonderful consolation if we don't have too much to do, isn't it?

THE DAY NURSERY IS OVERCROWDED, SAYS THE BOARD PRESIDENT

So greatly has a creche, or day nursery, been needed in the city of London that the King street building is now not large enough to accommodate all the children who are asking for admission. "We are turning many away," declares Mrs. J. W. Slater, president of the day nursery board. "I think that a creche should be established in each of the thickly populated districts of the city. One could easily be supported in London East. A great many mothers would then be accommodated who are unable to bring their children as far as the centre of the city."

HURLBUT

Admittedly ! !

—the longest wearing—highest quality Children's Shoe on the Market

NOT only because of the children's comfort —not only because of their smart appearance—but also by reason of ECONOMY are Hurlbut Shoes chosen by thousands upon thousands of Canadian Mothers.

Don't Throw Away Worn Hurlbut Shoes!
We will re-build them nearly as good as new, and we will make them a size larger if desired. Our Rebuilding of Hurlbut Welts must not be confused with Ordinary Repairing. We actually re-build them at a small cost, which includes New Soles, Heels, Insole, Cushion, Box Toes, Counters and Sewing Rips, Back Straps, Binding, New Vamps or Foxings when necessary.

REBUILT PRICE LIST FOR HURLBUT SHOES

Sizes 5 to 7½	$2.00
Sizes 8 to 10½	2.50
Sizes 11 to 2	3.00

Shoes with worn out tops cannot be rebuilt

Follow directions closely and avoid delay

1. Mail Shoes direct to factory at Preston.
2. Put your name and address on outside of parcel and in Shoes.
3. Enclose Postal Note or Express Order (do not enclose money) for the amount shown above.

We positively do not rebuild other makes of shoes

Shoe Expense is a real problem to most Mothers—the Children seem to wear out shoes in no time. But the Mothers who buy Hurlbuts know by experience that a pair of Hurlbuts actually outlast two or three pairs of ordinary shoes.

The reason for this is based simply on the quality of materials and the class of workmanship,—just the same reason that an all-wool suit is better than a mixture.

When you are asked to pay somewhat more for Hurlbuts than for "ordinary" shoes, remember that it is just this difference of price which makes possible the outstanding QUALITY contained in every pair of Hurlbuts, and that they actually DO represent "Lowest-price-per-day's-wear."

THE CIRCUS DOG.
Part Five.
Monty Is Stolen.

Now, as might be expected, Monty attracted a great deal of attention at the circus, so it is no wonder everyone wanted to own him. Mr. Bangs, the clown, was made many offers for his little dog, but he was so attached to Monty he would not sell him at any price, he told them and the little dog's heart was filled with joy for he had learned to love Mr. Bangs more than anyone he had ever known before, and so he should have, for the clown was very good to him and made a great deal of him.

One night after the performance, Monty went out for a run. It was a hot night, and he knew he could not sleep. He wanted most of all to hunt a rat or chase a bird, but the birds had all gone to bed and he could not sniff a rat anywhere. Suddenly Monty's back bristled all up. He knew there was an enemy somewhere near, but he did not know just where or what it was. A dog always knows when danger is near. Monty was quite sure it was behind a tree nearby, and because he was such a brave little dog, he did not think of fear and ran forward to investigate. The first thing he knew a dark object was thrown over his head, and he was a prisoner in a great cloth sack. How he barked and wiggled and growled and howled to get out but whoever it was had him threw the sack over their shoulder and started out. Poor little Monty, he wondered if he was being carried back to the cruel animal trainer who had abused him so. How was he to know that following right after the man who was carrying him was a friend—a very valuable friend, too—one with teeth that could chew through a sack and horns that could bunt hard enough to scare any thief. Of course, you have guessed it was Billie, the goat. We'll hear in our next story how he rescued Monty.

BIG LIST OF RACES AT COLUMBUS TODAY

Columbus, O., Sept. 21.—The biggest single day's program of the entire grand circuit race meeting here will be the offering of today, when $15,000 in purses and stakes is to be distributed in four races. The feature event is the 2:14 M. and M. trot (closed), for a purse of $5,000. Peter Manning is expected to be the favorite in this event in spite of the fact that Murphy is not here to drive him.

The Horse Review futurity for 3-year-old trotters, purse $6,000, is another big attraction.

Other events are the 2:06 trot, the Capitol City, purse $3,000, in which Peter Coley, Peter, June, Nedda and other winners of the year, are eligible, and the 2:07 classes pace.

Naps Still Out In Front But Yanks and Sox Hang On

Cleveland and Sox Series Next Thursday May Decide the Junior Pennant — Yanks Close Squeeze With the Browns.

NEW YORK, Sept 20.—The Brooklyn Nationals increased their lead over New York today to five and one-half games, while the three American League leaders all won, Cleveland retaining its game and a half lead over Chicago.

Brooklyn won from Pittsburg and gained half a game, as New York and Cincinnati broke even in a double-header. The Dodgers have only to win four more games out of seven to place the pennant beyond New York's grasp, and three out of seven to make it impossible for Cincinnati to reach the top.

In the American League both Chicago and New York put much hope in the Chicago-Cleveland series beginning Thursday. The White Sox expect to overcome the Indians' lead, and the Yanks feel sure that they would keep pace with Chicago by taking the Washington series and make the race even a closer one. If Cleveland wins half of its remaining twelve games, the White Sox would have to win six out of nine to tie them, and the Yankees seven out of eight.

NAPS' SIXTH STRAIGHT.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 20.—Cleveland won its sixth consecutive victory today by defeating Boston 8 to 3 in the second game of the series, principally because of Gardener's timely hitting. Approximately 7,000 fans braved the cold weather to see the contest. It was Mail's fifth straight victory since joining the Indians. Gardener drove in six of the league leaders' eight runs with two triples and a single.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	103 010 30x—8	14	2

TIGERS LET UP.

DETROIT, Sept. 20.—Washington bunched hits of two Detroit pitchers today, with errors and bases on balls, and took the third game of the series 9 to 3. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Detroit	000 200 010—3	7	3

Zachary and Gharrity; Ayers, Oldham and Ainsmith.

SOX STRENGTHEN GRIP.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The Chicago White Sox strengthened their grip on second place in the American League pennant race today defeating Philadelphia 13 to 6. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Chicago	020 014 42x—13	15	2

Harris, Bigbee, Keefe and Perkins; Faber and Schalk; Lynn.

RUTH'S DOUBLE WON.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—Ruth's double, Pratt's single and Peckinpaugh's bunt scoring Ruth gave New York a 4 to 3 victory over St. Louis in an eleven-inning game here today. Spectacular fielding featured the game.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
New York	020 100 000 01—4	12	0
St. Louis	000 000 300 00—3	13	1

SINGLETON WANTS TO MEET ALL-COMERS

Champion Quoiters From All Parts of the City Invited.

Champion quoiters from all parts of the city have been challenged by James Singleton of the police force to defend their laurels in a contest to be held at the central fire hall next Saturday. Jimmy emerged triumphant from the quoiting battle at No. 5 fire hall last Saturday, and is now prepared to meet all comers.

In the last contest he scored 21 while Wray, his partner made 19. On the opposing team Jamieson made 21 and Storie 16. In the play-off Singleton defeated Jamieson 21 to 19.

BURMAN OUTPOINTS LEDOUX.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 21.—Joe Burman, Chicago, outpointed Charlie Ledoux, France, here last night. Burman had the better of six of the eight rounds. Both men fought hard, and the bout was fast from the start to finish. Kid Wolfe, Cleveland, outpointed Battling Pacos, Reading, in six rounds. Wolfe carried the fight to him in every round.

HOUSE OF DAVID BASE-BALL TEAM IN TORONTO

The team having steadfastly refused to be photographed in a group, the British and Colonial Press photographer succeeded in obtaining this picture of Mooney, the great pitcher of the aggregation. Mooney has been sought many times by major league teams, and was offered $35,000 for one season, but he turned it down, preferring to stay in Benton Harbor. He is regarded by experts as the greatest pitcher in the game. The sect to which the team belongs never shave and wear their hair flowing over their shoulders. The ball players tuck their hair under their caps when playing.

GAMBLING IN BIG BASEBALL LEAGUES TO BE INVESTIGATED

Grand Jury Will Open Inquiry At Chicago On Wednesday Next.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Grand jury investigation of alleged gambling by baseball players in last year's world's series, and in the game between the Chicago and Philadelphia Nationals August 31, will start Wednesday, with a score of baseball officials, players and writers subpoenaed to testify.

Subpoenas have been issued for the following persons to appear before the grand jury: Byron Bancroft Johnson, president of the American League; John A. Heydler, president of the National League; William "Kid" Gleason, manager of the Chicago Americans; Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago Americans; William L. Veeck, president of the Chicago Nationals; Jacob (Rube) Benton, pitcher for the New York Nationals; six newspapermen also have been called.

Subpoenas for additional players probably will be issued before the investigation begins. Hal Chase, Lee Magee and Heinie Zimmerman, all former major league players, probably will be called.

When asked why Benton was the only player called thus far, Mr. Repiogle said he "believed Benton had information the grand jury needed," and that Benton would be asked "to tell what a certain player asked him to do."

The grand jury will not be given any quantity of evidence concerning baseball pools, he said, but every attempt will be made "to get into the real gambling—the throwing of games by star players."

It became known last night that the committee of baseball writers appointed to investigate charges that the Chicago-Philadelphia League game referred to by the grand jury had been "fixed" for Philadelphia to win, had done little thus far.

Shortly before news of the grand jury investigation became public, President Johnson made a statement in which he said the American League will ask congress to enact a law at its next session making betting on a baseball game a penitentiary offence. President Johnson said the league would ask that this law be made as severe as possible, and worded so as to eliminate all baseball pools. Only in this way, he said, could gambling be definitely eliminated from baseball.

BLENHEIM-TILBURY GAME CALLED OFF ON DISAGREEMENT

Tilbury Were To Play Two Games, But Were Late and Wanted Same Money.

Blenheim, Sept. 20.—The great Tilbury and Blenheim baseball games, which were to have been played here this afternoon, were called off owing to Tilbury failing to stand by the agreement made.

The agreement was that Blenheim was to pay Tilbury $100 to play two games, the first to begin at 2 o'clock, the second to follow. The games were so advertised. Blenheim's team was on hand, but some of the Tilbury team and its manager, Odette, did not arrive until nearly 4 o'clock.

As it was only possible to play one game beginning at that time, Blenheim management asked Tilbury manager for a reduction in the price, but he flatly refused to play his team for less than $100. Blenheim considered that Tilbury was trying to "put one over," and the crowd were informed of the situation, the game called off, and the admission fees were refunded.

The Blenheim committee were very sorry to have to take the action they did, but considered it only business and fair to the crowd who had paid a double entrance fee, with the expectation of seeing two games.

Tilbury team is known as the millionaires, and Eddie Ries, now of the Brantford team, was on hand to pitch, while Riley of St. Thomas was present to pitch for Blenheim.

LONDON LIFE TENNIS CLUB WIN FROM ST. MATHEWS

A friendly tournament was held on Mr. Reid's courts on Saturday afternoon between the London Life Insurance Company and St. Matthew's Tenis Club. The insurace people were right there and succeeded in taking five of the seven events, although St. Mathews played good tennis, and in many cases three sets were necessary.

Afterwards the players and spectators were entertained by the "London Liers," at which frankforts, rolls and doughnuts figured. During this part of the afternoon Mr. John Smith displayed most wonderful ingenuity in the building of the fire, and in that part of the preparation of the repast commonly known as cooking.

Mr. Reid and Mr. Bere, L. L. Ins. Co., won from Mr. Whitlow and Mr. MacWilliams, St Matt, 3-6, 7-5, 6-4.

Mr. Rigney and Mr. Blackie, L. L. Ins. Co., won from Mr. Henderson and Mr. Butler, St Matt., 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

Mr. Tufts and Miss Hayne, L. L. Ins. Co., won from Mr Noble and Mrs. Willows, St. Matt., 6-1, 6-3.

Mr. Bere and Miss Paterson, L. L. Ins. Co., lost to Mr Butler and Miss Fitzgerald (Mr. Noble), St. Matt., 4-6, 3-6.

Mr. Blackie and Miss Bere, L. L. Ins. Co., won from Mr. Brewe and Miss V. Taylor, St. Matt., 6-0, 6-3.

Mr. Rigney and Mr. Tufts, L. L. Ins. Co., lost to Mr. Noble and Mr. Butler, St. Matt., 5-7.

Mr. Reid, L. L. Ins. Co., won from Mr. MacWilliams, St. Matt., 6-4, 6-2.

KITCHENER-ST. MARYS CLUB FOR INT. O. H. A.

KITCHENER, Sept. 20.—It was announced today that St. Mary's Club here will organize a hockey team for the intermediate O. H. A. It is intimated that Solomon and Karges of last year's seniors will be included in the line-up.

Thirsty's African Golf Was Off Before Judge

[The Toronto Globe.]

Chicago, Sept. 20. — "Thirsty Smiddy, bearcat crap-shooter, trapped in the meshes of the law, had a sporting proposition put up to him today by Judge Stewart in the Chicago Avenue police court. "Thirsty," with six other Senegambians, was caught with the dice on him in a raid of a pool room.

"You rolled yourself into a nice mess, 'Thirsty,'" said Judge Stewart. "Now let's see if you can roll yourself out again. Think you've those ivories trained?"

"Sho has, mistah boss man," grinned "Thirsty," gathering up the gallopers. "Shoots eight."

He made a pass. "Come on, yo' babies," he intoned; "come on, yo' babies—eighty days."

A nine popped out. "Thirsty" pleaded with the dice, but "little Joe" appeared.

"Eighter f'm Decatur," murmured "Thirsty," as he made the third pass, but he was talking to a stranger. Eighter from Decatur was not at home. Instead—

"Read 'em and weep," said Judge Stewart. It was the fatal seven.

"You lose," continued the magistrate. "Dollar and costs for each of you."

Soccer Cup Ties May Be Put On Over at Tecumseh Park

Two Games Start Ball Rolling This Week-End — May Be Means of Permanent Soccer Revival in London, Already Well On Way.

The City Soccer League Cup Ties start Saturday instead of the next week, as originally announced, and while nothing definite has been announced, the games will in all probability be staged at Tecumseh Park.

The staging of the games over at the west-end ball park would get many hundreds of soccer enthusiasts out, who ordinarily are not brought face to face with the fact that some good soccer is being staged in the city, and if they are aware of the fact, bring the game closer to them. Mint League baseball would not draw as well as soccer if it were played at Carling Heights or at Springbank.

Even if the soccer following is not largely augmented by the change of playing fields, it will mean that the game can be concentrated there in double bills and not spread all over the city map.

The forthcoming Ties, with six teams of the best talent in the city facing each other, is going to provide some real sport, and Cup Tie series have an appeal all their own in the uncertainty always present and the sudden demise atmosphere surrounding them. The first round will leave three teams, and one will get a bye into the finals. Army and Navy Vets meet Pats, who finished fourth in the league. Great War Vets, who finished second, and Public Utilities, who came out third, meet in the second game in the first round. Public Utilities lost ther first four games in the league fixtures, but showed remarkable tenacity in the face of that, and finished up only one point behind the runners-up. None of the teams have been letting the grass grow.

The third game in the first round is billed for a week from Saturday, with First W. O. R. eleven as the debutantes. They showed well on Saturday, however, and they certainly won't lower the standard of the contests, that is assured.

A striking but not at all strange thing about the Cup Ties is that almost to a man the players are returned veterans, showing that little red school houses and cricket haven't won all the empire's battles.

Watch Dodgers' Third Frame in the 1920 World Series

It's Their Big Round, and Flatbushers Have Made It Win On Fourteen Occasions—Second Is Good, Also Sixth.

Fourth	7
Fifth	7
Ninth	6
First	5
Seventh	4
Tenth	4
Eleventh	2
Twelfth	1
Fourteenth	1
Total	81

[By Ernest J. Lanigan.]

When the Superbas get into the world's series—and a good many people think they will be in one shortly around October 5—watch what they do in the third inning. That has been, for the Ebbets-McKeever owned and Robinson directed team this year, the round in which it has gained its greatest number of victories, possibly its greatest number of runs. Of the Superbas' first 81 victories, the deciding run was obtained in the third chapter fourteen times. The second has proved to be another fortunate period for the Flatbush team, for then it has put over the winning marker on eleven occasions. The Superbas' third best inning has been in the sixth, in which the tally that meant the verdict appeared ten times.

The Superbas have obtained results from their "Do It Now" tactics, winning 37 games in the first four innings and 29 in the last four. In the intervening chapter, the fifth, they have landed seven knockouts.

Nothing weak about them in the closing stages of games, either, nine games being won in what some word painters call the penultimate period and six in the ninth. Eight overtime events have been copped—four in the tenth, two in the eleventh, one in the twelfth and one in the fourteenth.

Third Their Best.

The third is the one inning in which the Flatbush Fusiliers, as Charley Van-Loan used to call them, have gained decisions over all seven of their opponents. The Phils have been beaten four times in this round, the Braves three times, the Cubs and Pirates twice, and the Reds, Giants and Cardinals once.

In four of their fourteen third-inning triumphs the run that decided things was wished on the visitors, the obliging blunderers being David James Bancroft of the Phillies with a wild throw, on June 3; Charles Lincoln Herzog of the Cubs, with a fumble, on July 12; Ivy Brown Wingo of the Reds, with a dropped thrown ball, on July 28, and Walter Joseph Schmidt of the Pirates, with one of the same things, on August 23.

In nine of their other successes the Ebbets Field combination received the winning counter through manual mistakes, and one other win was recorded on a double steal, Wheat and Mitchell being the perpetrators thereof on May 31, in the sixth, against the Giants.

In the ten games won in the third in which the deciding tally was batted in, Wheat was on the job three times, Neis twice, and Myers, Kilduff, Johnston, Krueger and Griffith once. Thomas Herman of Prospect, Ohio, does not rank high in the dope that shows who batted in the winning run, for he has only done so once.

This is a list of the games won by the Superbas in the third inning this year:

GAMES WON IN THIRD BY BROOKLYN THIS YEAR.

April 14—Philadelphia, 9 to 2; Cadore against Rixey; Wheat batted in winning run.

April 18—Boston, 9 to 3; Pfeffer against Rudolph; Neis batted in winning run.

April 23—Philadelphia, 3 to 1; Mitchell against Causey; Neis batted in winning run.

May 5—New York, 5 to 3; Mitchell against Barnes; Krueger batted in winning run.

June 3—Philadelphia, 2 to 0; Pfeffer against Gallia; winning run result of Bancroft's fumble.

June 25—Boston, 5 to 1; Cadore against Fillingim; Myers batted in winning run.

July 6—Boston, 4 to 2; Mitchell against Fillingim; Griffith batted in winning run.

July 12—Chicago, 13 to 4; Grimes against Martin; winning run result of Herzog's fumble.

July 14—Chicago, 4 to 1; Pfeffer against Carter; Wheat batted in winning run.

July 26—Pittsburg, 6 to 4; Smith against Carison; Kilduff batted in winning run.

July 28—Cincinnati, 9 to 0; Grimes against Ring; winning run result of Wingo dropping thrown ball.

August 23—Pittsburg, 3 to 0; Pfeffer against Hamilton; winning run result of Schmidt dropping thrown ball.

September 3—Philadelphia, 6 to 0; Grimes against Smith; Wheat batted in winning run.

September 11—St. Louis, 2 to 0; Smith against North; Johnston batted in winning run.

This and that of the games won by the Superbas in the third inning this year:

DISAPPEARANCE OF "FAIR AND WARMER" COMPLETE

MONTREAL, Sept. 20.—Few local turf incidents have created so much gossip as the disappearance of the horse, Fair and Warmer, a week ago from Bluebonnets track, and the more talk the deeper the mystery becomes.

The Pinkertons, who were looking after the case for the Montreal Jockey Club, ceased to do so when the track closed, and it is not known whether any other detective agency is following it up for Mr. J. C. Whatley, the owner. The horse in question won the third race last Monday over a mile distance, and it is now said that one man won over $5,000 on the race, the money being put up with various hand-book men in different places. The entire matter has been submitted to the executive of the Canadian Racing Association for further careful investigation.

BASEBALL GAMES TIED.

CAMLACHIE, Sept. 20.—Saturday evening the Camlachie baseball team went to Epworth and played a friendly but exciting game with the W. T. B. team, which resulted in another tie, 5—5. On Friday evening next the W. T. B. team will come over to again try to play off the tie with the home team.

Christ Church harvest home service was held on Sunday morning. Rev. Douglas Patterson of Toronto preached the sermon, and Mrs. Gibbins of Toronto rendered two solos. The church was prettily decorated and a large congregation attended. The collection, which was for missions, was over $60.

Chicago, Sept. 21—The Chicago White Sox today were confident of making it three straight over Philadelphia in their pennant dash, but Manager Gleason was undecided what pitcher to send against the tailenders. Eddie Cicotte and Claude Williams, early in the season the aces of the local pitching staff, were ready, but there was a possibility that Dick Kerr or one of the youngsters might be chosen. Gleason intimated that Kerr would be saved for the series with Cleveland, opening on Thursday.

172 LADY GOLFERS COMPETING IN BIG HAMILTON TOURNEY

Much Interest Manifested in Big Event.

Hamilton, Sept. 21.—Play in the Canadian ladies' golf championship tourney opened this morning at the grounds of the Hamilton Golf and Country Club with 172 ladies competing. Today's play will witness the start and finish of the qualifying round and handicap play, the entry list being so large that 32 will qualify instead of 16 as in former years. The wet weather yesterday prevented the visitors from having an opportunity to play over the course, although some of the ladies managed to get in a round before the rain started.

Interest in the play today was centred on Miss Alexis Stirling, the United States champion, and Miss Ada McKenzie, the present Canadian title holder. The course is in excellent condition, and is faster than at any time in its history. The visiting players claim that it is one of the best they have played on, and there is every reason to look for the course record of 78, made by Mrs. Hope Gibson a year ago, to be broken.

O. A. C. STARTS YEAR WITH NEARLY 500 STUDENTS ON ROLL

Guelph Freshmen Class Slightly Smaller Than Last Year —Regularly Initiated.

GUELPH, Sept. 20.—With the registration of students almost completed and the regular lectures in all years commencing this morning, the 1920-1921 term at the O. A. C. began today. A student body of nearly 500 almost equals the record number of last year. In fact, the only class that is smaller than the 1919 registration is the freshmen class, and according to President J. E. Reynolds, there are several reasons for the smaller number of students in the first year. Last year, Professor Reynolds pointed out, was the first opportunity the returned soldiers had of returning to the various colleges in Canada after the war, and the O. A. C. was one of the seats of learning to which the returned men flocked in large numbers, making the largest freshmen class in the history of the Guelph college. Another reason for a lower first-year registry this fall is one of the new terms of admission, which requires students to have their matriculation for entrance to the first year, providing they are to take the full four-year course. Then again, the age limit for admission to the O. A. C. has been raised from 17 to 18 years, and this is now in effect here for the first time. The official initiation of the freshmen class by their elders of the second-year class took place this afternoon.

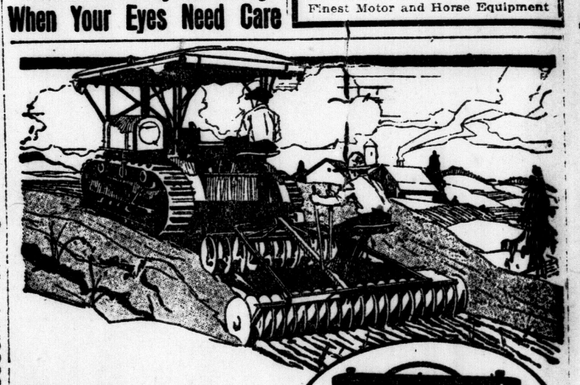

"BABE" RUTH BREAKS RECORD.

St. Louis, Sept. 21.—"Babe" Ruth, home run champion, shattered another record here yesterday, scoring his 148th run of the season in the eleventh inning, to give New York a 4 to 3 victory over St. Louis. The previous mark of 147 runs was established by Ty Cobb in 1911.

YOUNG FARMER'S LEG BROKEN IN GALT RUNAWAY

Women's Hospital Aid Society Campaigning For a Mile of Pennies.

GALT, Sept. 20.—In an exciting runaway on the east side of the city Edwin Taylor, son of a farmer, had his left leg broken at the knee, when his team, in their mad rush, ran into a street lighting standard and tree.

In a campaign for a mile of coppers, the Women's Hospital Aid Society on Saturday realized $450, it was announced today, and an effort is to be made to make the total $500.

Over 3,000 citizens inspected the beautiful Hugh McCulloch Memorial Nurses' Home, recently presented to the city, when it was opened to the public for the last time on Sunday.

Dies Following Accident.

The death occurred at the local hospital of Adam Blake of Beverly Township in his 86th year. His death was due to the shock of a recent accident in which he had his left leg broken. The late Mr. Blake on August 30, despite his years, was climbing up a ladder into the mow to help in storing the crops when he lost his balance, falling to the floor and breaking his left leg. He was born in Toronto, but when eight years of age, his family moved to Beverly, where he had lived ever since, making his home on the sixth concession. Two brothers survive.

CAPTAIN CHRISTIE GETS APPOINTMENT IN WELFARE WORK

WOODSTOCK, Sept. 20.—Rev. Capt. D. Wallace Christie, pastor of Chalmers Church, this city, and an official of the local branch of the G. W. V. A., has been appointed director of children's welfare for the Soldiers' Aid Commission in Oxford County. The recommendation was made some time ago by W. S. West, chairman of the S. A. C. for the county, and the confirmation of the appointment has now been made by headquarters. In his new official capacity, Capt. Christie will have charge of the social welfare of the families of soldiers who were killed overseas.

Mrs. Sutherland Dies.

The death occurred early this morning of Emma Broom, wife of Wm. R. Sutherland, this city. She was 44 years of age, and was born in Blandford, being the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Broom. She had lived in Woodstock all her life. Besides her husband, one son, Paul, survives. There are also seven sisters and one brother.

Dies. In Walkerville.

Word has been received of the death in Walkerville on Saturday of Mrs. Charles Matthews, a former resident of Woodstock. Mrs. Matthews had been ill for some time, and was in her 70th year. Surviving are two daughters and two sons: Mrs. Harold Matthews and Mrs. Fox, George Matthews, Detroit, and Lester Matthews, Wallaceburg.

MYSTERY STILL

started the explosion standing near the assay office at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, one and a half hours before the explosion occurred, and the other, who claims to have seen three men running away from the scene just before the blast, furnished the most important developments today in the several investigations that are being made of the disaster.

The district attorney's office announced that Edwin P. Fischer, lawyer and former employee of the French high commission, who sent postcard warnings of the disaster from Toronto, had virtually eliminated himself from any direct knowledge or complicity in the case after eight hours' questioning.

Watched Wagon An Hour.

Joseph Meade, an agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, is the man who claims to have seen the "death wagon" in Wall Street at 10:30 Thursday morning. The horse appeared broken down, he said, and he went over to make an examination of it, finding a bad sore under the collar. He looked at his watch and noticed it was 10:30, he told the police, and waited beside the wagon until 11:30 with the intention of serving a summons on the driver, when his engagement forced him to leave. He did not examine closely the contents of the wagon.

Meade also told the police the collar worn by the horse was of the "K" type, and this is the kind of a collar that was found in the street after the explosion. He also noticed that all the ornamental knobs and other markings had been stripped from the harness, and in this, too, his description tallies with that of the material actually found. The police attach considerable importance to Meade's statement.

Saw Three Men Running.

Information that three suspicious looking men were seen running from the scene was furnished by Samuel B. Wellington, president of the West Indies Trading Company. He declared he left a lawyer's office in Wall Street a few minutes before noon Thursday, and as he did so he heard voices calling "Hurry! Beat it! Get out of this!"

He looked across the street and saw two middle-aged men, who looked to him like "east side peddlers," beckoning and calling to a third man who was on the other side of the street nearer the assay office and across the street from the Morgan bank. The third man, believed to be about 60 years old, and described as "greasy" looking, was then peering into the ramshackle wagon at the curb.

In response to the call of the others, the third man, Mr. Wellington said, started to run after them toward William street. He took them for bond thieves, he added, and expected to see them chased by a policeman. When he reached the corner of Nassau street he was knocked unconscious by the explosion. Mr. Wellington has been summoned as a witness before the September grand jury.

Harmless Letter Writer.

At the conclusion of Fischer's examination tonight he was sent to the psychopathic ward of the Bellevue Hospital for observation. If adjudged insane measures will be taken to have him committed to an insane asylum, it was announced by the district attorney's office.

Secret service operatives declared Fischer had been investigated four years ago and found "a harmless letter writer." He is alleged to have sent President Wilson several "crank" letters in 1916, posing as a religious pacifist and calling upon him to stop the war, and by so doing put an end to the "slaughter of human beings." No action was taken against Fischer at that time.

Testimony, tending to contradict that of Meade was later furnished by Oscar Sayre, a Y. M. C. A. secretary, who said an automobile truck drew up in front of the assay office to carry away ashes at 11:45 a.m. Thursday, and that no other vehicles were parked there at the time. This was confirmed by the men who took away the ashes.

FISCHER GRILLED POLICE OBTAIN SOME NEW LEADS

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—After grilling Fischer at police headquarters today, it was announced by the federal authorities that several "new leads" in the investigation of the explosion had been received from him. Fischer emerged from the conference room sweating and mopping his brow.

Robert A. Pope, his brother-in-law, who had turned him over to the authorities at Hamilton, was waiting for Fischer, and the two men embraced. Fischer was then taken to the Bertillon room, where he was "finger-printed." From there he was accompanied to the district attorney's office.

At headquarters Pope said he believed that both Fischer and Fischer's mother had psychic powers.

The police are still holding Fischer. Chief Inspector Lahey, Acting Inspector Coughlin of the homicide squad and, finally, Police Commissioner Enright, questioned Fischer, and all agreed that he "is a man well versed in all matters brought up in the inquiry," and conversed intelligently.

A Victim of Wall Street.

Fischer told the police that the Wall street blast made no appeal to his sympathy, as he once was "a victim of Wall street himself, and could not feel sorry for anybody who suffered through the disaster."

Fischer was examined in the district attorney's office at some length, following which Assistant District Attorney Talley announced that he had arrived at a definite conclusion that Fischer "is crazy."

Wanted Fischer Interned.

Assistant District Attorney Carlino announced that it had been learned that Mrs. Laura Pope, Fischer's sister, had petitioned the West Side court two days before the explosion to have her brother committed to an asylum or entered at the Bellvue Hospital for observation. Her petition was refused, Carlino said, adding that Mrs. Pope explained that her brother was laboring under the delusion that he could transmute brass to gold and glass to diamonds, and that he believed he possessed power to communicate at long distances without the aid of scientific instruments.

Russian Is Released.

The police announced today the release of Alexander Brailovsky, Russian journalist, detained after he had admitted he was near the scene of the explosion soon after it occurred. They denied reports that Brailovsky had been turned over to them. Both local and federal authorities declared they had found there was no evidence on which to hold the Russian."

'FRISCO MAN PREDICTED THE EXPLOSION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—Duncan Mathewson, captain of detectives here, announced today that he was in possession of the name of a man who was said to have predicted several days before the New York bomb explosion that there would be a "big explosion" in Wall street "on the fifteenth."

Mathewson said his informant was a disabled soldier, and that the man he named had been a Y. M. C. A. worker in Russia.

ROCKEFELLER'S ESTATE GUARDED

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Twelve extra guards, armed with rifles, patroled the roads adjoining the estate of John D. Rockefeller here during the night, it became known today.

No statement could be obtained at the Rochefeller home regarding village gossip that a threatening letter had been received by the oil magnate.

INDIA TOO WANTS SELF RULE, SAYS REV. R. H. A. HASLAN

Missionary States Natives Will Demand Free Entrance To Canada.

ADDRESSES ROTARIANS

As Citizens of Empire Indians Claim Equality With English Races.

WINDSOR, Sept. 20.—"Time has now come when the people of India will say, 'We gave you freely of our sons, our blood and our money, and helped you win the war; now give us self-determination and self-rule,'" declared Rev. R. H. A. Haslan, for fifteen years missionary in the Orient, in an address before the local Rotary Club this afternoon.

With their eyes opened to fuller understanding of world conditions by British educational institutions, their knowledge of the Irish home rule controversy, and inspired by the defeat of the western nation by the eastern one in the Russo-Japanese war, the people of India are now prepared to demand control of their own destiny. The spirit of unrest Mr. Haslan, said, was abroad in the land, and in addition to the demand for self-determination, the country would soon ask that, as an integral part of the British Empire, its people be allowed to enter Canada on an equality with Canadians. Among the upper strata of the Indian people is awakening a feeling of nationality, he said. This feeling is extending to other classes of the country, and there is a general demand for national recognition of self-determination and self-government.

Left Unhappy Home.

Driven from her home in Leamington by a difference between her parents which had rendered continued residence with them impossible, Goldie Manchester, a 16-year-old girl, was picked up on the streets here early this morning, penniless and friendless, an acknowledged failure in her attempt to combat life single-handed. Appearing before Magistrate Miers in Windsor police court this morning, the youthful victim of circumstances declared she had met with ill-success in her efforts, and at last, with her money all gone and at the end of her resources, she had been driven to the streets. She was sent back to her home tonight.

Will Take Less Money.

Carmen employed by the hydro-electric power commission on its local street railway system at a meeting held here tonight voted to reduce their demands for salary increases. At present the men are receiving 55 cents an hour, and previously had failed in their demands with the commission for a graduated scale of 70 cents, 73 cents and 75 cents, according to length of service. This scale has been reduced to a tentative one of 60 cents, 65 cents and 70 cents an hour. The amended demand will be forwarded immediately to the commission.

When the Government, acting through Sir Adam Beck and his department, took over the lines from the Detroit United Railways, the wage differences then existing were deferred for settlement by mutual agreement, the men being satisfied to wait until such time as the system was placed on a paying basis, on understanding that the advances asked would then be granted.

Thieves Get Smokes.

Entering the store of N. Islaphan, Pitt street east, early this morning, thieves whose identity has not been discovered looted the place of one thousand cigars and a considerable quantity of fruit and groceries.

Joe Wilson and a companion, alleged to have broken jail at Bay City, Mich., who were arrested Sunday at Tecumseh with a large touring car thought to have been stolen in Hamilton, Ont., were sent back to that city tonight. They are wanted in connection with the theft of four automobiles in all from the Ambitious City.

Girl Dope Fiend.

Following the arrest on Windsor streets early this morning of Gladys Dowson, aged 22, of Detroit, and her story to Magistrate Miers in Windsor police court today, the police tonight were given instructions by Chief Elias Wills to renew their efforts to stamp out the drug traffic along the border. The girl frankly admitted herself a confirmed drug addict, and said she had come over to secure a supply of morphine which she craved. Scores of other Detroiters, she said, many of them women, crossed on the ferries daily to get narcotics, freely sold here. She refused to disclose to the police her source of supply, claiming she did not know the illicit traffickers by name. With a warning that she would be sent to the Ontario Reformatory if caught here again, Magistrate Miers ordered the girl deported.

Likely Outside Man.

When the Windsor police commission brings in its report of the shake-up instituted recently in the police department at the regular meeting of the city council next Monday night it will probably recommend that an outside man be appointed to head the local force. This was indicated in semi-official stories current at the city hall tonight. Until today it was considered certain that either Inspector Wigle or Detective Sergt. Reid would receive the appointment.

Meetings of border industrial heads are being held in the chamber of commerce every day this week to consider proposed changes to the Dominion tariff legislation. Data is being collected for presentation to the recently-appointed commission to investigate export and import questions as they affect the Dominion.

DRESSED HOGS ARE SHOWING FIRMNESS; GRAPES PLENTIFUL

Brisk Demand For Produce of All Kinds On the Local Market.

Dressed hogs were in demand on the local market today at from $26.50 to $27 per cwt. Prices are expected to be a little firmer. Live hogs and fat sows are in demand also.

Grapes were the feature of the fruit market, and sold at from 45c to 50c per 6-quart basket.

Muskmelons went down from 15c and 40c each to from 10c and 25c each. The quality is excellent.

Tomatoes sold well, but no changes in the prices were recorded. This week is expected to wind up the tomato season.

Butter and eggs were slow.

GRAIN.

Winnipeg, Sept. 21.—October wheat opened ⅜c lower; December ½c lower.

October and May oats ¼c higher.

October barley ¼c higher.

October flax ⅜c higher.

October rye ¼c lower.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Opening: Wheat—Dec., $2 39; March, $2 34⅝.

Corn—Dec., $1 07¼; May, $1 07½.

Oats—Dec., 61½c; May, 65½c.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Downward swings in the value of all commodities on the exchange continued today as a result of fine weather to ripen corn. Besides, receipts of old corn here were of large volume.

Wheat opened fairly steady, but soon gave way to the bearish influence of corn. Wheat prices, which at the outset varied from ⅜c decline to ¼c advance, were followed by a decided setback all around.

Weather conditions for corn were reported so favorable that in one section of Iowa 90 per cent of the crop was already safe from frost. In view of such advices, the market, after opening unchanged to 1½c lower, soon underwent a general sag.

Oats were governed by the action of corn, starting a shade to ⅜c down, and subsequently becoming weaker.

TORONTO STOCK EXCHANGE.

Toronto, Sept. 21.—Profit-taking caused numerous recessions in active trading on the stock exchange this morning, but in one or two cases substantial gains were noted. Pressure was relaxed a little before the noon close.

Consumers' Gas was conspicuously weak, with but a few shares marketed. The opening at 129 represented a decline of 2½ points from the last trading some days ago, and before noon the price receded to 128. Brazilian was the most active stock, over 300 shares changing hands, the price dropping to 36⅞. Recovery was made, however, and the close was steady. Steel Corporation continued to decline, selling this morning at 55. Spanish River gained 1⅜ to 129⅝, and Mackay ¾ to 69.

In the unlisted section Western Canada Pulp sold up 3½ points to 46½ in spirited trading. Brompton and Abitibi advanced by good fractions.

PETROL COMPANY SEEKS FRANCHISE TO LAY OWN LINE

Announcement Made by Gas Firm in Letter To Chatham Officials.

CHATHAM, Sept. 20.—F. W. James, general manager of the Union Natural Gas Company, this morning stated that a recent article in a Toronto paper regarding the drilling of wells by the company was not quite correct. The Union Natural Gas is arranging for developments in their lease holdings in Dawn Township, Lambton County, by other parties, with the understanding that any gas found in this locality will be available for Sarnia and other places in that locality which have agreed to the increased rates.

The rates which have been agreed to are as follows: From October 1, 1920, to April 30, 1921, the price will be 50 cents net per 1,000 cubic feet, and 75 cents per 1,000 cubic feet from May 1, 1921, to November 1, of the same year, and thereafter during the continuance of the contract, 50 cents for the six winter months from November to April inclusive, and 75 cents for the six summer months from May to October inclusive.

True Bills Returned.

The grand jury brought in true bills against Ross Neil and William Finlay at the fall assizes of the supreme court presided over by Mr. Justice Latchford here today. Neil pleaded not guilty to the charge of rape, which was alleged to have been committed in the township of Harwich on November 17 of last year. Finlay also pleaded not guilty to a similar charge, and also to a charge of assault, doing actual bodily harm.

A beautiful bronze tablet was unveiled in Holy Trinity Anglican Church yesterday morning by N. S. Stevens, the grand old man of the parish. A short memorial service was led by the rector, Rev. A. C. Calder. Rev. W. J. Spence, a former pastor of the church, preached an eloquent sermon, taking as his text: Even as the Son of Man came not to be ministerd unto, but to minister, and to give his life as a ransom for many"; St. Matthew, 21:28.

Automobile Recovered.

A Chevrolet baby-grand automobile, the property of Chance Dibley of the Lake road, Raleigh, was found near Wardsville yesterday in a battered condition. The car, a new one, was stolen from this city two weeks ago. The damage will exceed $400. The city police are endeavoring to locate the culprits.

A record potato crop grown in this city was located in the big garden of the Home of the Friendless a few days ago. On digging up one hill of potatoes it was found to contain 92 potatoes. This is the largest known number of potatoes ever located in one hill in this section of the country.

Will Lay Pipe Line.

City officials on Saturday received a communication from J. R. Ness, managing director of the Petrol Oil and Gas Company, in which Mr. Ness stated that "the matter of disposal of gas has given the directors of this company very grave cause for thought, and we have come to the conclusion that nothing satisfactory can ever be done as long as we are in the hands of the Union Natural Gas Company.

"Therefore, we have decided that the only satisfactory way is to get a franchise for a pipe line ourselves, so that the townships and municipalities could have our gas without it having to go through the Union Natural Gas Company's lines."

The letter also stated that the directors of the company were taking the matter up with the township of Dover to get a franchise for laying gas lines.

Hydro Is Ready To Do the Washing

Washing By Wire Is a Real Pleasure!

Whether you have a woman to do the washing in your own home—whether you send it out to be done—or whether you do it yourself, you will find the Electric Washer an improvement on your present plan.

The Electric Washer enables you to do the washing yourself, without labor or discomfort, or if you prefer to have a woman do it for you, in your kitchen, the machine guarantees the work.

But when you own an Electric Washer you will not want anyone to wash for you. It's real fun to run the machine and watch it cleanse thoroughly and harmlessly delicate laces or heavy blankets.

Wringing the clothes is no longer a task—it's a pleasure—because the Electric Washer does the job in its power-driven wringer.

There's not an argument that can be advanced in favor of the old tub and rub-board. The Electric Washer is more economical; it washes cleaner and it does away with the drudgery of wash-day.

We will be pleased to explain to you how you can buy a machine on easy terms of payment. Call at the Hydro Shop any day for a demonstration.

PERMANENT TARIFF BOARD URGED BY B. C. MANUFACTURERS

J. H. Cunningham Believes Tariff of Canada Should Be More Flexible.

VANCOUVER, Sept. 20.—(By Canadian Press).—A. B. Weeks, president, and J. H. Cunningham, vice-president of the Manufacturers' Association of British Columbia, urged strongly at the afternoon session of the tariff commission that a permanent tariff board should be appointed, whose duty it should be to devote their whole attention to tariff matters, and, from time to time, make necessary adjustments where it was found these were required in the interests of industry.

Sir Henry Drayton, chairman of the commission, desired most keenly to know just what a board could do, for it was obvious it could not exercise any influence in the fluctuations of the market.

Should Be More Flexible.

Mr. Cunningham was not prepared to say just what might be accomplished by the board, but he urged that, as Canada was now entering into competition with the rest of the world, raw materials should be allowed to come in duty free, and that a board could remedy any hardship in case a certain commodity was temporarily unobtainable in the country by allowing it to come in duty free from other countries.

The tariff of Canada, he believed, should be more flexible. Fifty per cent of the manufacturers' costs were made up of duty and freight charges.

ATTACK ON POLICE BARRACKS DEFEATED

Authorities Appear To Be Gaining Control of Situation in Ireland.

WATERFORD, Ireland, Sept. 20.—A hot battle was waged Sunday morning at the police barracks, twelve miles from Waterford, where a large party of armed men attacked the police. There was a heavy exchange of rifle fire, but the police held off the attacking forces until they had attracted the attention of the military at a station six miles distant by means of lights. A force of soldiers arrived and beat off the besiegers. No casualties have been reported.

SOLDIER KILLED.

DUBLIN, Sept. 20.—Armed civilians this morning ambuscaded a military lorry escorted by ten soldiers in Church street. A battle ensued, in which two civilians and two soldiers were wounded. It is reported that one of the soldiers later died from his injuries. Military reinforcements arrived and drove off the assailants, two of whom are said to have been captured.

RIOTING IN BELFAST.

BELFAST, Sept. 20.—Rival mobs clashed in the east-end of the city last night and fought with stones until the police arrived and dispersed them by firing over their heads. Last night was the last in which the curfew law was effective.

OWEN SOUND HAD WILD HALF HOUR OF EXCITEMENT

OWEN SOUND, Sept. 20.—A local Chinaman, caused a great deal of excitement here in attempting to learn the intricacies and eccentricities of a motorcycle. He bought a new machine and started out to learn to run it. After starting it he forgot how to stop it, and ran wild in the streets for half an hour. He dashed up and down the main street of the city, causing people to scatter right and left as he violated all traffic laws, with regard to the right and wrong side of the street. Finally, he evidently did the right thing to it, as it came to a standstill.

320,000 ATTENDED OTTAWA EXHIBITION

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—The total attendance at the Central Canada Exhibition, which closed Saturday night, was 320,000 for the six days. This is a record for the fair, and 40,000 ahead of last year. It is expected there will be a surplus of $50,000.

BRITISH MINERS SHOW NO SIGN OF YIELDING

Hopes of Strike Being Averted Are of the Slightest.

EFFECTIVE SATURDAY

Miners Claim They Have Already Receded Considerably in Demands.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—There was little hope tonight that the strike of the coal miners, set for September 27, could be averted. The executive of the miners' federation had another long conference today with Sir Robert Horne, president of the board of trade, but no agreement could be reached on the question of an increase of two shillings per day in wages, as demanded by the miners.

The federation insisted that the Government should grant the increase immediately, while Sir Robert Horne pressed his proposal that the question should be submitted to an independent tribunal.

The delegates' conference can decide upon a withdrawal of the strike notice, which expires Saturday, but it is hardly expected they will act contrary to the recommendations of the executive committee, the members of which consider that they have receded considerably in withdrawing their demand for a reduction in the price of domestic coal.

PREFERENTIAL TRADE WITHIN THE EMPIRE STRONGLY FAVORED

W. F. Cockshutt, M. P., Says Too Much Canadian Money Going To U. S.

[By Canadian Press.]

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—Preferential trade within the British Empire was the subject that occupied the attention of the ninth congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the British Empire here this afternoon, and the discussion of it was not concluded. It will be resumed tomorrow morning. Six resolutions were presented to the congress on the subject by chambers of commerce in Canada, Australia and the West Indies. All the speakers favored preferential trade, but exception to present conditions was taken by some of them.

Mother Country Slow.

Sir James Woods, Toronto, moved a resolution in favor of preferential trade within the Empire, which resolution combined the sentiment of the Toronto and Montreal boards of trade. Sir James reserved his remarks thereon until later in the discussion, and the seconder, W. F. Cockshutt, M. P., Brantford, spoke to the resolution. He deplored the fact that while the principle of preferential trade within the Empire had been fairly well recognized in various parts of the Empire, "the mother country is the slowest to move in a matter of this great importance, where she should have been the leader." Mr. Cockshutt said the mother country had accepted preference from various dominions and colonies, but had made very small advances in the matter of making concessions herself.

"As Canadians," declared Mr. Cockshutt, "it is not fair nor just that we should give our loyalty to the motherland and our dollars and cents to the United States."

Possibilities Are Limited.

Stanley Machin, London, Eng., while supporting the resolution, pointed out that Great Britain was a free trade country, and had very little to give. "Ours is the only free trade country in the empire," he said. "Our possibilities are limited. We are met with great difficulties and arguments. The exchange is heavy against us."

Urging the necessity of establishing a network of high-powered wireless stations throughout the empire, wireless telegraphy and wireless telephony, a resolution, moved by H. L. Symonds, London, Eng., was passed, asking that the British and Dominion Governments take the necessary steps to this, and without delay. Mr. Symonds said he looked forward to the day when aeroplanes would be fitted with high-power wireless.

Imperial Air Fleet.

The congress on motion of Herbert G. Longford, Birmingham, Eng., congratulated the Imperial Air Fleet Committee on the committee's success under the presidency of Lord Desborough in connection with the movement initiated in 1913 for the purpose of promoting the establishment of an imperial air fleet, and an all-red route of aeroplanes and airships around the British Empire in the interests of the development of closer relations between the United Kingdom and his majesty's dominions beyond the seas.

Make Closer Friendship.

Mark Sheldon, Australian commissioner in the United States, favored the movement for preferential trade on the ground that it would result in making closer the friendship of the various dominions and colonies. He pointed out that British trade with Australia had fallen off to a large extent in the last seven years, while Japan had stepped in and increased her trade with Australia. There was no reason why this state of affairs should continue, he said. Mr. Sheldon urged active promotion of the preferential movement, which he felt confident would do so much to cement the various parts of the empire closer together.

PERMANENT BUREAU OF STANDARDIZED INFORMATION

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—The Congress of Chambers of Commerce of the Empire this morning discussed the creation of a permanent bureau of standardized information on all colonial methods of valuing imports and exports, and decided on its establishment.

The resolution was accompanied by protests against the exclusion of the Dominions and dependencies from representation on the imperial shipping committee. In moving a resolution of thanks to the British Government for having convened the imperial statistical conference for the purpose of collecting and publishing imperial statistics of resources, Stanley Mackin said it was intended to form a permanent bureau to standardize colonial methods of valuing exports and imports, and that much in the future of commerce depended on statistics.

Mark Sheldon of Australia, commenting on the formation of the imperial shipping committee, expressed disapproval of the apparent exclusion of the dominions and dependencies from the committee. The resolution passed.

JURY AT KITCHENER RETURNS TRUE BILL AGAINST LEO VOLL

KITCHENER, Sept. 20.—The grand jury empanelled for the fall assizes which opened here today brought in a true bill against Leo Voll of St. Agatha charged with attempting to endanger the life of a St. Agatha girl who refused to marry him. Justice Lennox is presiding.

THOROLD FIRE PROBE OPENED; HELD IN CAMERA

First Day's Session Brief Because of Coldness of Court Room.

[By Canadian Press.]

ST. CATHARINES, Sept. 20.—It was announced at Thorold this afternoon at the opening of the official inquiry into the attempted destruction of the Thorold townhall on August 16 last, when a riot occurred and an attempt was made to lynch David McNeal, accused of the murder of Margaret Boucock, four years of age, that the fire inquest would be held in secret, and that the press would be excluded. It was stated that this action was the outcome of a conference with Attorney-General Raney, Toronto.

Inquiry In Camera.

The reason given for holding the inquiry in camera was that in this way more candid testimony would be obtained. Only one witness will be allowed in the room at a time. A statement will be made each evening by the fire marshal concerning the proceedings of the day.

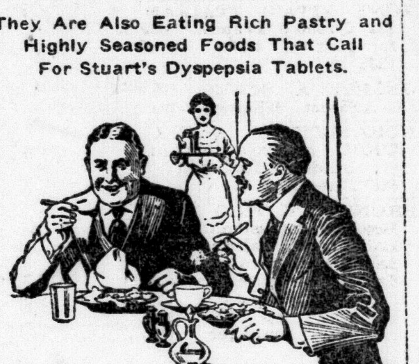

Owing to the illness of County Crown-Attorney Cowper of Welland, Nichol Jeffrey, acting crown-attorney for Wellington County, will examine the witnesses.

Court Room Too Cold.

The opening session today was short. Fire Marshal Heaton found the room too cold for comfort, and after having outlined the course of the proceedings, adjourned the hearing until tomorrow morning. No witnesses were called. The room, which proved too chilly today, was the room which was so hot on the night of the riot that there was danger of the county crown-attorney, the police and the prisoner, David McNeal, all being burned to death or killed by missiles thrown by the mob in the attempt to get McNeal to hang him.

HUSKY MEN ARE EATING SALADS

They Are Also Eating Rich Pastry and Highly Seasoned Foods That Call For Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

In the big, palatial restaurants of the large cities their principal patronage comes from the out-of-town visitors. No lunch counter sandwiches for them. They like the entrees, salads, rich pastry and a cup of black coffee with rich cream. This combination is likely to overcrowd the stomach, to cause acidity with sour risings, gassiness, a feeling of fullness and other such distresses due to indigestion or dyspepsia. Wherever you go in any city in the U. S. or Canada you will find Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on sale at 60 cents a box. Take one or two after eating as they relieve the acid stomach and at the same time help digest the food.

Fat That Shows Soon Disappears

Prominent fat that comes and stays where it is not needed is a burden; a hindrance to activity, and a curb upon pleasure. Many forms of advice to reduce weight have been advanced, such as dieting, hard work, excessive exercise, etc., all of which are either unpleasant or dangerous.

The latest, more modern and pleasant way to take off burdensome fat, is to take, after each meal and at bedtime, a Marmola Tablet. These little tablets are as effective and harmless as the famous Marmola Prescription from which they take their name.

To get rid of fat at the rate of two, three or four pounds a week, simply take one of these little tablets after each meal and at bedtime until you have reduced your weight to where you want it. No wrinkles or flabbiness will remain to show where the fat came off.

They are for sale by all druggists at $1 for a good size box. If you prefer to have them come to you direct by mail, prepaid, in plain sealed cover, send amount to the Marmola Co., 97 Garfield Building, Detroit, Mich., and bid goodbye to dieting, exercise and fat. Be yourself, slim, trim and attractive.

A real cough remedy

Don't surrender to an obstinate cough. There's a remedy that will help you conquer it—a remedy that speedily relieves all irritation of the respiratory organs and gives bodily strength for permanent cure. Try it—ask your druggist or dealer for—

TRAIN CREWS SEE SNOW FLURRIES

WINGHAM, Sept. 20.—The change of the weather was noticed this morning by train crews when they observed snow flurries in the air.

Much corn is being cut and put into silos. Corn is a good crop this year.

The flax industry promises the best in years. Ald. Tipling, who will have nearly 500 acres to harvest, states it is a bumper crop, the heads well filled and the straw clean and firm.

Mr. Jerome, one of the oldest citizens of the town, died at his home on Shuter street after a lingering illness. He was in his 84th year, and leaves, besides his wife, a respected family. He at one time was a dentist, and was obliged to give up his profession some years ago owing to ill-health. The funeral was held to Lucknow Cemetery.

The potato and root crops look excellent, and all that is needed now is good weather to lift them out. Potatoes should soon drop to $1 a bag. At present they are from $1.40 to $1.60 a bag.

Many citizens are confined to their homes with heavy colds, which appear almost the same as the flu, only a lighter epidemic and not so dangerous.

TILLSONBURG FAIR OPENING FEATURE FAST BALL GAMES

Brantford and Local Teams Defeated by St. Thomas Nine.

HORSES RACES TODAY

Judging of Wonderful Display of Fruits and Flowers Completed.

TILLSONBURG, Sept. 20.—The annual Tillsonburg and Dereham Agricultural Fair opened today under very discouraging weather conditions. The big attraction of the day was the baseball tournament open to the world, but owing to adverse weather conditions only three teams appeared, St. Thomas, Brantford and Tillsonburg, comprising some of the best baseball talent in Western Ontario, including many players from the Michigan-Ontario League. The games were played between showers and much good ball was in evidence. In the first game St. Thomas blanked Brantford by a score of 4 to 0. Batteries for Brantford were Summerbay and Taylor; St. Thomas, Hank Down and Binns. The final game was very close, being 2 to 1 in favor of St. Thomas till the final inning, when the visitors scored three runs, and Tillsonburg had a lone counter, the score being 4 to 1. The batteries were: Tillsonburg, Carmen and Armstrong; St. Thomas, Doan and Binns. Umpire Cross of Ingersoll officiated. Had the weather been ideal the crowds would have witnessed one of the greatest baseball tests ever seen in Ontario.

Fast Racing Expected.

The free-for-all, 2:35 trot or pace, and 2:18 trot or pace entries for Tuesday are all filled up with the pick of Canadian circuit horses, and with favorable weather will furnish a good afternoon's sport.

Being the richest county in Ontario, the residents of Oxford have sure brought in a most wonderful display of fruits, vegetables, etc., and the judges have completed the following articles to date:

SON BORN TO MAN HELD ON CHARGE OF MURDER AT SIMCOE

Lorne Helmer's Previous Exemplary Character May Prove a Godsend.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SIMCOE, Sept. 20.—A recent birth of interest to residents of Norfolk County is that of a son to Mrs. Lorne Helmer, whose 19-year-old husband is now awaiting trial in the county jail here on a charge of murdering James A. Learne on July 13 last. The baby was born recently at the Helmer farm in Walsingham Township, near the village of Silver Hill, within a few rods of the place, where the murder is alleged to have been committed.

According to the evidence of Charles Helmer, 15-year-old brother of accused, Lorne struck Learne down with his fists after the aged man had struck him during a dispute regarding the farm administration. The charge against this young Norfolk County father will likely be reduced to one of manslaughter before October 25, when the assizes open here. In the meantime he is being incarcerated in the county jail here where he is regarded as a model prisoner.

Wounded by Germans.

Lorne Helmer enlisted when he was 16 years of age, and while serving in the trenches with a Canadian unit had a knee cap blown off by a German bullet. His previous exemplary civil and military character will likely favor a reduction of the more serious charge to one of manslaughter. W. E. Kelly, K.C., and son, David Kelly of this town, will defend him.

AT THE GRAND.

The silver, shimmering Rio Grande, bordered by orange-colored deserts and winding in and out of purple mountains, is the scene of the picture drama, "Rio Grande," at the Grand Theatre this week. The picture, which thrilling from the first flash to the last, depicts a romance between a Texas Ranger, who is an Irish-American, and a beautiful senorita, who though half-American, hates Americans and loves Mexico with her whole soul. Aside from the story, which is one that appeals to one and all, a wealth of scenic beauty is shown in tropical gardens and frontier towns. "Rio Grande" is a worthy picturization of the romantically-adventurous story by the famous playwright, Augustus Thomas.

Maria Inez in "Rio Grande," is the wonderfully portrayed by Rosemary Theby, and Allan Sears as the Irish-American hero is equally as good.

Maria Inezin "Rio Grande," is the daughter of a Mexican father and an American mother, and they are traveling in a covered wagon to the Rio Grande River with a small adopted boy named Danny O'Neill. When they reach the river the parents of Maria Inez have a quarrel. Her mother says she will not go to live in Mexico. During the night Felipe, her father, flees with Maria Inez across the river and leaves his wife and Danny behind. The children grow to manhood and Danny becomes a Texas Ranger.

One day, while near the river, Danny captures Maria Inez, whom he does not recognize. She is now a rebel, fighting with her father and his government, but she hates the Americans. Danny releases her and gives her his horse for the purpose of recrossing the river. She invites him to come over to a dance at the patio and promises him a kiss. Danny accepts the dare and attends the ball. He is captured, but the girl arranges for his escape. In the end the two are happily married.

A sparkling comedy entitled "Money To Burn," and Topics of the Day complete an excellent bill that will be shown again today and on Wednesday. Particularly good is the music played by a special orchestra accompanying the "Rio Grande" film.

"MY SOLDIER GIRL" ALL DRESSED UP.

"My Soldier Girl," with a brand new book, music and production, is coming to the Grand Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with Saturday matinee, with gorgeous costumes, elaborate scenery, clean, wholesome comedy, haunting melodies, a splendid cast and a brigade of bewitching girls, William Moore, the leading comedian, is the bright particular funmaker in this new musical show, with a big company of nearly fifty entertainers. "My Soldier Girl" is the work of J. Lorch Baber—that he succeeded in his efforts is attested by the remarkable hits scored by this brilliant musical comedy. Comedy predominates "My Soldier Girl" but the delicious foolishness is interspersed by charming musical numbers introduced by a remarkable chorus of singing and dancing ensembles fetchingly. No more gorgeous costumes have been designed for any of the great successes than are included in this brilliant spectacle. The scenic effects are bewildering from the opening of the first act, showing a grand lawn fete in progress at Col. Stone's home, Miami, Florida, to the last act presenting a gorgeous Follies setting on the roof of a New York theatre during a dress rehearsal. Seats now.

"BIFF! BING!! BANG!!!" COMING TO GRAND.

After more than two years in France, a run in London, England, and forty weeks in Canada, which included record runs of five weeks in Toronto, three weeks in Montreal, three weeks in Winnipeg and many one week stands in the other large cities in Canada, the famous third division "Dumbells" will again tour Canada in a new vehicle, which from all reports is an even better show than was "Buff, Bing Bang," their original overseas revue, which served them constantly for more than three years.

Their latest offering is called "Biff, Bing, Bang"—second edition, and it embodies all of the brilliancy of the original offering, together with many new and novel features, including a forty-five minute version of the best loved of all Gilbert and Sullivan's operas, "Pinafore," which they produced in Mons in 1917, and a new soldier sketch, similar to last season's laughable skit, "The Duchess Entertains," in which the same funny characters as portrayed by "Red" Newman and Jack MacLaren have been retained. The action of this latest comedy sketch is laid in France, during the war, and gives a wonderful insight into the bright side of billet life.

All of last season's favorites, Ross Hamilton's ("Marjorie"), Allen Murray ("Marie"), Albert Plunkett, Will Tennant, Fred Fenwick, Leonard Young, Ivor Ayre, Jack MacLaren, Bertram Langley, Charles McLean, W. J. Filson, Arthur Holland, Bert Newman, Frank Frayford and Jimmy Goode are still with the company and will be seen in important roles and new songs.

"Biff, Bing, Bang"—Second Edition, will be the offering at the Grand Opera House for one week commencing Monday, September 27.

There is no doubt that the "Dumbells" were the biggest success in the theatrical world last season, and there is every reason to believe that their second year in Canada will prove equally as successful. Seats on sale Thursday next at 9 a.m.

AT LOEW'S.

"The Ladder of Lies," which began showing yesterday at Loew's Theatre, is a delightful little picture, starring Ethel Clayton. The greater number of the scenes are laid in the studio of a clever young artist, whose best friend is the youthful partner of a big publishing firm, for whom she illustrates. To save this friend from finding out that his wife is false to him, she commits what is, in the eyes of her fiance, a most heinous sin—she tells a lie, implicating herself instead of the wife of her friend. The result is the loss of her lover and utter unhappiness, until the villain of the picture save the situation, thus proving himself not such a terrible villain after all.

Some very beautiful scenes at the sea shore and at the country home of the young publisher, as well as the clever acting of the young actress and her associates, lend great interest to this picture, which is entertaining from beginning to end.

The vaudeville numbers include a humorous skit, "Tom Davies & Company," playing on the old theme of the housewife gone on strike, only his time the modern scheme of a Housewives' Union is utilized to make the situation even funnier still. The wife declares the union rules to her husband, and when he refuses to take her seriously, goes on strike. The husband, however, proves himself modern too and immediately calls in a strikebreaker, thus furnishing the needful "other woman" of the little drama. A policeman and final capitulation of the striking wife brings about a humorous conclusion. Another act introduces "Brewster," a clever Boston bull, and still another "Fredricks and Palmer," who furnish some singing and dancing. The program is completed by a splendid comic reel, pictorial review and an overture by the orchestra.

This program will be repeated today and tomorrow.

AT THE PATRICIA.

If it had no other virtues the dual-storied play, the "Devil's Claim," starring Seesue Hayakawa of Japan, which is appearing at the Patricia Theatre the first three days of this week, is unusual enough to be intensely interesting, but the extraordinary plot is by no means the picture's strongest point, for besides the work of its star and his excellent supporting cast the story revels in rich and sumptuous settings while all the mystery of the East is used in adding a charm which makes it absolutely spell-binding. The play is a story within a story one staged in New York and softened ta bit by touches of Bohemia forms a receptacle for the second dream-like romance of India the product of the brain of a dreamer, who is the hero of the first story. The two stories are interwoven until in the denouement they are inseparable.

Seasue Hayakawa is at his best in this picture. His part, that of a Hindu novelist who lives his stories, calls for a dual personality role, not unlike that of "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." The story carries one with dazzling rapidity from New York to India, and then to Paris. In India one is carried on a visit to a ruined temple, produced with much realism and care for detail. In Paris the settings are in a hidden temple of the Devil Worshippers and other settings fashioned in all the splendor of Oriental style. There are many thrills which stand out in relief against the sensuousness of the scenes. The characterizations throughout are excellent. It is a film well worth seeing.

The patrons of the theatre were given another treat in the way of Julia Arthur, a well-known Canadian Shakespearean actress, who stars in a two-reel western drama film. Miss Arthur's work was much different from the ordinary screen star's acting. She is an artist.

The vaudeville was a two-act moral skit, called "Whom Will I Marry?" It was staged by four persons.

A comedy film, which was better than the ordinary, completed a program which will be repeated today and tomorrow.

AT THE ALLEN.

With a light human interest plot predominating, which is delicately handled in a master way by Cecil B. De Mille "Why Change Your Wife?" a feature film attraction is being presented at the Allen Theatre today, tomorrow and Thursday. Bautiful women of the screen world, who are beautifully gowned, portray their respective parts in the vehicle to satisfy the expert critic. The all-star feminine cast includes Gloria Swanson and Bebe Daniels, who a few months ago deserted comedy for more serious roles.

To complete the personnel of artists in this offering the ever-popular Thomas Meighan is introduced, and his work is above his usual creditable average. The entire presentation is rounded out as few producers can accomplish. "Why Change Your Wife?" bearing all the earmarks of a De Mille production.

The story deals with the havoc wrought by a young wife, with Gloria Swanson in this role, who is always finding fault with her husband and endeavoring to improve his mentality. Naturally, Robert Gordon (Thomas Meighan), the object of the storm, resents this treatment, which makes the situation more tense. The well-meaning bride continues her uplift work until finally Robert seeks an outlet for his misery by clandestinely indulging in a theatre party for two, with a young mannequin as the second party.

The latter, who is a vampire by choice, determines to win over the bored husband, and when his wife discovers his one episode of infidelity, her task is made easy. The divorce court is next in order with Gordon seeking solace in his vampire friend whom he weds. The first wife discovers her mistaken efforts too late in the game, and blazes forth in a riot of color, and dress, putting the chic vampire to shame in this line.

According to the scenario all wives are the same, and hence there is no need for a change. At least this is given as the reason for Gordon's early regrets of his second marriage. These are increased, however, when Mrs. Gordon No. 1 happens to encounter her former husband while she is looking her best in the latest bathing suit creation. She wants him back, and the second wife determines to retain her ground. A merry battle of feminine wit ensues, and after the winner is decided everyone is happy.

The moral of this vehicle is that every man would rather have his wife continue to be a sweetheart, with the wifey part kept in the background. Otherwise trouble looms on the horizon, and the weaker sex members are advised to conduct themselves accordingly. This offerings is one of the best presented to a London audience in a decade. A Canadian Pictorial Review, and an educational weekly conclude the screen program.

By request the overture presented by the Allen Concert Orchestra under the leadership of Maurice Poure is "Mary." So great was the reception accorded it last night that an encore was necessary. "The Music Box" being selected for this number, and it was rendered in a delightful manner.

Friday, October 15, was the day set for the annual track meet to be held at Woodstock College. A list of boys' and girls' events was drawn up. The schedule for the preliminary debates was drawn up and November 30 set as the date by which these were to become completed.

INTEREST WANING

MacSwiney News Relegated To Inside Pages of Newspapers.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—The question whether Lord Mayor MacSwiney is being fed is answered by the home office with "If he is, we do not know it."

In this connection it was pointed out that it would be virtually impossible for anyone to administer nourishment without the attending physician becoming aware of it, and the government officials argue if the doctors ascertained that the lord mayor was getting any food whatever the entire effects of his earlier starvation would be nullified.

The Government physicians and Government nurses have done everything they can think of to induce MacSwiney to eat, and if their efforts had met with any success the officials say, they would report it to the home office, which they have not done.

The case has dragged so long, with such similarity in the reports from the bedside daily that most of the London papers confine their accounts to paragraphs, some on the inside pages.

SARNIA SELLS BONDS.

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—An issue of bonds amounting to $128,000 was sold by the city of Sarnia today to the Dominion Securities Corporation on a basis of 6.84 per cent. The bonds bear 6 per cent, are payable in 20 annual instalments, and the money is for hydro-electric purposes.

HURT IN RUNAWAY FOREST MAN DIES

William Kay, 65 Years Old, Suffered Fracture of Base of Skull When Thrown From Buggy.

FOREST, Sept. 20.—Thrown from the buggy in which he was riding, when his horse frightened at the Grand Trunk express, which happened to be one hour late, William Kay, 65 years old, and a lifelong resident of Forest, was fatally injured and died fifteen minutes later. Mr. Kay, who was a painter, had been handling a painting contract on a farm in Bosanquet Township and was returning to town. His horse had turned into the railway yards just before he was hurled out of the vehicle. Dr. Taylor was called and found that little could be done for the injured man who had suffered a fracture of the base of the skull.

Mr. Kay's wife predeceased him some years ago, and he is survived by two brothers, John in Forest, James in Saginaw, and two sisters, Mrs. Jean Macken in Vancouver, and Mrs. Mitcham of Valley Grove in Bosanquet Township.

TRIPLETS, GIRLS, BORN IN GUELPH; ALL DOING WELL

GUELPH, Sept. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holt, former well-known Guelphites, now of Brampton, are receiving hearty congratulations from their many friends today, on being the proud parents of triplets, which were born at St. Joseph's Hospital here. The new arrivals are all baby girls. All three are doing well. This is the first time in the history of the hospital that triplets have been born there, although according to one of Guelph's oldest medical practitioners, it is not the first time in this city.

SAYS LABOR'S DEMANDS RUINED BIG INDUSTRY

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—That labor's demands killed the Dominion Shipbuilding Company, in liquidation here, and there is no possibility of reviving this plant, was the declaration today of the solicitors of the concern, when they appeared before the court of revision and asked for a big cut in their business assessment. The court deduced the assessment from $300,000 to $128,000 on the strength of this argument.

NEWSPAPERS REAPPEAR.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Manchester Guardian and the Liverpool Post, two of the biggest newspapers in the United Kingdom, reappeared this morning after a three weeks' suspension, owing to a strike of the printers. The men voted last week to return to work, a compromise having been effected regarding wages and the status of the union.
