

MINERS AND OWNERS ACCEPT INVITATION OF PRIME MINISTER

Request of Miners' Leaders For Reopening of Negotiations Meets With Prompt Response From Mine Owners and the Government—Meeting To Be Held On Monday—British Press View New Peace Effort With Optimism.

London, June 25.—Both the striking coal miners and the mine owners have accepted an invitation extended today by the prime minister to confer with him at the board of trade Monday with the view of endeavoring to reach a settlement of the coal strike, which had been in progress almost three months.

BROUGHT QUICK RESPONSE.

London, June 25.—The request of the coal miners' representatives for a new meeting with the Government and the coal mine owners, decided upon last night with the object of obtaining a settlement of the coal strike, brought a quick response from Mr. Lloyd George, the prime minister. This morning he invited the owners and miners to a joint conference to be held at the board of trade on Monday. The newspapers generally, in their articles today, are more optimistic over the possibility of an immediate settlement of the long strike, which now has been in progress three months.

No Financial Support.

The decision to attempt the reopening of negotiations between the mine owners and their employees was reached at a meeting of the executive committee of the Miners' Union last night. This step was influenced, it was declared, by the failure of the miners to secure financial support from other trade unions and the reluctance of other labor organizations to join with the miners for industrial action to enforce their mutual demands. The hope was expressed that the Government would not only grant a £10,000,000 subsidy to the coal industry as an aid to the settlement.

MINERS' LEADERS ANXIOUS TO FIND A WAY OUT

London, June 25.—Canadian Associated Press.—With the project of a general strike abandoned, and the miners and coal owners resuming negotiations, important developments in the industrial situation are looked for early next week.

The miners' federation is now evidently anxious to find a way out of the dispute, as the effects are proving disastrous not only to the finances but to the solidarity of the organization, and the spreading industrial stagnation of the country, which has already thrown 2,250,000 persons out of employment and reduced many others to half time, enforces the necessity of a speedy settlement.

Other unions have evidently abandoned any idea of taking drastic action to resist the demands of the employers for a reduction of wages. The railwaymen's agreement, under the sliding scale, has reduced many of them to 5 shillings per week to correspond with the drop in the cost of living.

LONDON MAN IS AWARDED FRENCH CARNEGIE MEDAL

Saved Young French Woman From Drowning in Deep Well.

MENTIONED IN DISPATCH

Corp. David Mills, R. E., Now in Employ of Local Railway Company.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

Paris, June 25.—Among the awards made recently by the French Carnegie Hero Fund is a bronze medal to Corp. David Mills, R.E., who is now somewhere in Ontario, Canada. The medal is awarded for his bravery in descending into a deep well in June, 1918, on a dark night, and rescuing a young woman who had fallen in. This occurred while he was on active service, and the incident was mentioned in dispatches by the French commander of the district.

The Corp. Mills referred to in the dispatch is Corp. Mills of 29 Grafton street, London, a former member of the British Imperial forces. He is now a well-known local railwayman.

LABOR DENIES EQUAL RIGHTS FOR WOMEN

Unions, However, Are Urged To Admit Women To Membership.

DENVER, Colo., June 24.—The convention of the American Federation of Labor today voted down a constitutional amendment designed to give women "equal rights and privileges of membership in the union of their trade or industry." All affiliated unions, however, were urged not to discriminate against the woman wage earner, and admit her to membership. Efforts to wipe out the "color line" in organizing labor organizations also failed. The convention took the stand that national and international unions could not be compelled to recognize negro workers, and that this was a matter to be adjusted by conferences between the negro wage earners and the various organizations. Both questions were the subject of long and stormy debates, in which the negro and the woman wage earners were bitterly denounced.

NOT GETTING UNION WAGES, IS CLAIM

Men Will Interview Board of Education THROUGH T. AND L.

Allege Kingston Co. Not Living Up To City Bylaw.

Alleging that they are not being treated by the Kingston Construction Company in accordance with the provisions and the 1920 amendment of the city of London bylaw No. 924, regulating hours and wages, members of the building unions employed on the new Collegiate Institute will present their case, through the trades and labor council, to the board of education, at the next meeting of the latter body.

The situation was thoroughly threshed out at a special meeting of the men's delegates last night. A somewhat similar claim was made not long since, when the company denied that it was not paying the union scale of wages. Members of the building trades still claim, however, that conditions, especially among the carpenters, are not exactly according to the city of London bylaw. The latter enactment, they say, states clearly that the prevailing union scale must be effective on all work, and a clause to that effect must be included in the actual contract. There shall be eight hours a day, the men assert further, and time and a half for all work over that period. Although the men admit that the union scale is being accorded to some, they have strong reasons to believe that the rule is not being carried out to affect every worker on the job.

Another feature of the question has been pointed out. "The bricklayers only work their eight hours," one delegate declared, "while the carpenters, who are doing the same kind of work, are working ten hours a day, including Saturday afternoons. You will find, if this keeps up, that all the other local contractors in the city, who now work an eight-hour day, will eventually attempt the ten-hour day. They will reason that if an outside firm can come in and get away with it that they should be able to do so too."

The workers claim further that the bylaw provides that any man employed on a civic building, and not receiving what he claims to be his due wages in accordance with the bylaw, has the right to file suit for the balance with 30 days following the completion of the work. He told of the doings of the U. F. O. from its inception to the present time. He expressed himself as in favor of consolidated schools, but did not think this would lessen the cost of maintenance. He then showed his disapproval of the Government's policy of sending men to fight in the mud of Europe. He pointed out that in this gambling in wheat and many other stocks prices were inflated and this became a burden to the poor. He stated that all governments got corrupt, and behaved like the people. He was very watchful of the men who were commissioned to sit as their representatives in Parliament, and by their assistance and advice install in them government for the people and by the people.

Must Call Halt. He pointed out that unless Government spending program ruthless times are ahead. He instanced that in 1900 he took his farm from his father, and at that time the taxes were only $15, while last year his son had taken the farm from him and had to pay taxes of $100, or an increase of over 500 per cent in 20 years. A halt must be called throughout the country, and he advised citizens to conference this movement by at once beginning to retrain.

He was glad that the women had the franchise, and thought that this would have a tendency for politics to be discussed more in the home, which would lead to better education of the masses on the political situation and cause more intelligent voting.

At the conclusion of Mr. Morrison's speech Miss Wilson of Minnesota rendered a choice and pleasing solo, which was much appreciated. This was followed by lunch, after which the young folks indulged in dancing.

CONSTABLE RUNS AMUCK; KILLS 5-YEAR-OLD CHILD

Ennis, Ireland, June 25.—Auxiliary Constable Muchoo, chasing a party of men through the streets of Ennis last night, fired several revolver shots, killing a 5-year-old child and wounding a woman and two men. When arrested and disarmed, Muchoo said the men tried to seize his revolver while he was in a shop.

BUILDING TOTAL FOR 1920 LARGEST IN HISTORY OF CITY; REACHES $1,128,715

Amount For June So Far Is $496,695 — Building Inspector Piper Expects Summer Boom To Continue.

Building estimates for 1921 up until Friday in this city have surpassed any previous year in the history of London, reaching a grand total of $1,128,715. The nearest approach to this record are the figures for the first six months of 1914, just prior to the outbreak of war, when the totals reached $1,128,715. The total so far this month reaches $496,695, in contrast to $174,340 of June, 1920, and $392,140 of last month. In all, 102 permits have been issued this month, the latest including that to the board of education for the new Great War Memorial High School on Waterloo street, to cost $306,000, and one to W. Summers for a frame dwelling on Terrence street at an estimated cost of $2,800.

Building Inspector A. M. Piper stated to The Advertiser this morning his confidence that the estimates will continue to soar during the last half of the year, making a record for 1921.

LONDON VETERAN, GONE SUDDENLY INSANE, REFUSED ADMITTANCE TO ONTARIO AND WESTMINSTER HOSPITALS; IS SENT TO JAIL

Red Tape Tactics Too Much For Chum, Who Brought His Friend From Bridgeburg This Morning—Authorities at County Jail Will Make Man As Comfortable As Possible—Thinks He Is Being Persecuted As German Spy.

Because of red tape, a returned soldier who served overseas in the Great War, and who enlisted in this district in the 15th Battalion, only to return and become insane during the last few days, will be compelled to suffer confinement in the county jail here until the authorities at the Westminster Psychopathic or Ontario Hospitals have evince a willingness to accept him for treatment. The young veteran, in company with a chum, recently, when in his normal state of mind, journeyed to Bridgeburg. While there this week he became a sudden victim of mental disorders. His chum, because of that strong comradeship which is known only to pals of the service, did not turn the unfortunate one over to the police of that place, but brought him to London this morning, feeling that the charge should receive treatment in the district where he formerly made his home.

He visited the city hall, and after stating his predicament to City Clerk S. Baker, was referred to the local office of the Soldiers' Aid Commission. Secretary Lance was informed by the chum that the insane veteran had been referred to the hospital, and a guard sent to the hospital on the grounds that there were no documents concerning the case.

The problem was then referred to the Ontario Hospital, but admission was also refused there upon instructions from the inspector of hospitals that no returned soldiers are to be admitted, excepting upon authority received from him.

CELEBRATE SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Hyde Park, London, Scene of Remarkable Demonstration Today.

London, June 25.—Hyde Park was the scene of a remarkable League of Nations mass meeting today, in celebration of the second anniversary of the formation of the league. In addition to more than 50 of the most distinguished speakers in Great Britain there were in attendance representatives of twelve foreign countries, including Belgium, China, Finland, the German Republic, Holland, Italy, Japan, Persia, Poland, Rumania and Ukraine. Many countries arranged to have detachments in national costumes walk in procession to the park.

G. W. V. A. STILL LOOKING FOR NEW QUARTERS

Amalgamation Proposal Not Discussed At Friday Meeting.

VOTE ON QUESTION

Dominion Gathering of Delegates Postponed Till September.

"We did not discuss the amalgamation proposal at our meeting last night," said A. E. Foster, secretary of the G. W. V. A. today. "We are at present temporarily concerned over securing our new club house. Our lease on the present building expires August 1, and although nothing definite resulted at last night's gathering, the committee reports that it has a likely place in view."

Questioned as to the likelihood of a vote being taken by the members of the entire organization from coast to coast, the secretary admitted the possibility. "It may be that the fact that the date of the Dominion convention of G. W. V. A. delegates, scheduled for the first week of July, has been officially postponed until September, may have something to do with the amalgamation issue. It is not at all unlikely that the Dominion executive, although decidedly against a union of the various organizations, may call a general vote between now and September."

The secretary referred also to the headlining of the Dominion executive, who recently returned to Canada from the Imperial conference in South Africa, and who will report in detail at the Canadian gathering, which was expected to have the same ready for the scheduled meeting, thereby necessitating its postponement.

Mr. Foster expects to receive advice on the matter today from Toronto.

TAIL LIGHTS ON ALL MOTOR CARS MUST BE LIT AT NIGHT

Chief Birrell On Watch For Careless Motorists.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE

Motorcycle Squad Will Enforce Regulations.

From various outlying parts of the city, Police Chief Robert Birrell has received complaints of motorists, indulging in the dangerous practice of driving without their tail-lights burning. Just at dusk every night numbers of motorists show their headlights, but fail to light their tail-lights, which are generally oil-burners, is the claim. At the corner of Victor street and the Wharfedale road on a night this week a citizen counted seventeen cars, half an hour which were not carrying three lighted lamps. In fifteen minutes another citizen saw twelve motorists who were violating the law in a similar manner. Chief Birrell stated that in the central part of the city the law was observed fairly well, but that some car-owners were a little lax in carrying out the regulations when they were driving on the outskirts. He declared that he will devote the time of his motorcycle force to enforcing the regulations in this regard, as the practice is dangerous both to the motorists and to pedestrians. He said that he was not having the lighted lamps, and if the law is not obeyed prosecutions will follow, the chief declared.

MILK PRODUCERS TO MEET TONIGHT

Mass Meeting Will Be Called Shortly To Discuss Prices.

Members of the executive committee of the London Milk Producers' Association will meet at 8 o'clock this evening at the office of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. A date will then be set for a general mass meeting of the organization some time in the near future.

That the prevailing price of milk will be accorded its share of discussion is not unlikely. Questioned this morning, J. C. Nichol, president of the milk dealers, admitted that the subject would probably come up for discussion, but was emphatic in his declaration that nothing along the line of a resolution favoring a change in the price would be adopted by the executive.

CALGARY LIBERALS NOMINATE FULL SLATE FOR CITY

Calgary, June 25.—Liberals of Calgary last evening nominated a full slate of five candidates for the city at large, in the coming provincial elections.

The candidates are as follows: R. C. Marshall, ex-mayor; C. J. Ford, city solicitor; Mrs. Fred Langford, chairman of the public school board; A. G. Harkin, Webster, and Trustee F. S. Selwood of the school board.

EMPIRE'S RELATIONS WITH UNITED STATES DETERMINING FACTOR

Manchester Guardian Contents in Editorial On the Anglo-Japanese Alliance—Declares "Close Understanding and Friendly Co-operation Must Be Cornerstone of Our Foreign Policy."

London, June 25.—The Manchester Guardian, which is an opponent of the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, contended, in an editorial today, that the original motive of the alliance, which was a protective measure against Germany and Russia, has disappeared. It asked if a military alliance was necessary to insure the "open door" in China and the security of Great Britain's dominions in the east, and if such an alliance was possible "without turning the edge of it against the United States."

It was declared by the newspaper that no answer had so far been given to these questions, and that it was unlikely one would be forthcoming. "The vital, determining consideration," the newspaper said, "must be our relations with the United States. A close understanding and friendly co-operation should be the cornerstone of our foreign policy."

PREMIERS SPEND THE FIRST WEEK IN PREPARATION

Statesmen of Dominion Are Thoroughly Informed On Britain's Point of View.

HAVE TWO IDEALS

Discussions Held in Secret—Pacific Methods Outlined by Lord Curzon.

London, June 25.—(By Grant.) O'Leary, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.—The first week of the conference of the Empire closed Friday without having made much progress toward the disposal of the practical problems with which it has to deal. This week's sessions, indeed, have been entirely absorbed by reviews and discussions of the principles presently dictating the foreign policy of the Empire. Such discussion, of course, has been necessary, inasmuch as it was essential that the statesmen of the dominions should be thoroughly informed of the position as viewed by the foreign office before attempting to deal with, and determine matters of special importance, or even to offer constructive criticism and advice respecting the policies to be pursued in future.

Two Schools of Thought. Conforming to the traditional policy of European chancelleries, the discussions have been secret, but enough is known of their purport to make one thing clear, and that is that within the conference there are two distinct schools of thought. There is the school which, clinging to old pre-war tradition, believes the Empire can best promote its own interests and the peace of the world by a policy of special alliances, and the school which, following the old doctrine of the balance of power, is not far removed from that ancient principle. The other school, which numbers Mr. Meighen among its adherents, is in favor of a policy of no special alliances, but friendly co-operation with all the nations of the world.

Need Pacific Methods. Lord Curzon, it may be said, is of the school which favors the traditional policy of European chancelleries. The policy presented to the conference on Wednesday, there was one eloquent sentence which summed up his foreign creed, he declared that however dangerous and inevitable the foreign policy had been in the days of Beaconsfield, when opponents had been discomfited and enemies destroyed, they were now living in a vastly different world, and the need was for pacific methods. Whether this principle completely triumphs in the conference only the decisions of the next fortnight can tell.

Time of Testing. Meanwhile the British people are passing through a severe test. The news from Ireland continues gloomy; the industrial situation is bad; four million people are unemployed, and the worst drought in a quarter of a century threatens the nation with tremendous losses. Despite all this, however, and despite the fact that the Union Jack has been lowered during the past week on the field of international sport, the people's spirit which triumphed in the darkest days of the war is proving similarly invincible in the crises of peace.

FULL DISCUSSION OF ANGLIO-JAP TREATY NEXT WEEK

London, June 24.—By the Associated Press.—An unpenetrable veil seems to have fallen, so far as concerns the proceedings of the Imperial conference. A further meeting was held today, attended, in addition to the Dominion and representatives, by Mr. Lloyd George, J. Austen Chamberlain, A. J. Balfour, Lord Curzon and Winston S. Churchill. The bare official communiqué issued at the conclusion of the meeting, says: "Discussion of foreign policy initiated at Wednesday's meeting was continued."

It is still considered possible that when this discussion is concluded the Government may issue a brief summary of the speeches delivered, but even this is uncertain. Generally it is assumed that although Premier Meighen of Canada is opposed to renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty he will not press his opposition against the wishes of all the other premiers. It is understood, however, that a detailed discussion of this matter has been reserved for next week.

G. T. R. TRAFFIC EARNINGS. Montreal, June 25.—Grand Trunk Railway traffic earnings for the week ended June 21 were $2,030,561, for corresponding week a year ago, $2,015,144, increasing $15,417.

NOTHING HOSTILE TO JAPAN IN LAPSING TREATY

London, June 25.—The Imperial dominions conference and the question of Great Britain's relations with the United States and Japan form the subject of lengthy articles by the weekly press to-day. They discuss the Anglo-Japanese alliance from every possible angle.

The Spectator maintains its attitude against renewal of the treaty, arguing that even if the dominions premises acquiesce in renewal, it will only be out of deference to the views of the British Government, while the people of the Dominions will be slow to recognize the necessity of renewal. It believes there is nothing hostile to Japan in allowing the treaty to lapse. Maintenance of the alliance which is admittedly only a matter of international courtesy, it says, "is not worth while if it deprives us of the sympathy and aid of the United States, and comes to be regarded in the dominions as a weighty obligation they are compelled to assume out of love and respect for the mother country."

CANNOT SCRAP THE "LEAGUE", DECLARES GREY

Believes People of the United States Have Same Desires For Peace.

GREAT INFLUENCE

Ready To Welcome U. S. Assistance In Any Way Offered.

London, June 25.—Viscount Grey, in a statement issued in connection with the great League of Nations demonstration today, at which the Archbishop of Canterbury and Lord Robert Cecil are to be among the speakers, renews his advocacy of the league. Referring to President Harding's declaration that the United States could not join the league, he says: "I believe the president and people of the United States have the same desires for world peace as those in this country who are the strongest supporters of the league. We know the influence of the United States must be very great, and very likely to be decisive in a world crisis. We shall welcome that influence whatever way the United States decides to exercise it, but we cannot scrap the league."

PRESENTATION MADE TO REV. R. J. MCCORMICK

[Special To The Advertiser.] Blith, June 25.—A capacity house met in the Methodist Church last night to bid farewell to Rev. R. J. McCormick, who is finishing a five-month tour here. The chair was taken by Fred Sloan of the high school staff. Complimentary addresses were made by Rev. George Telford of the Presbyterian Church and Rev. W. R. Harkin of the Anglican Church, besides several of the laymen. The Gidley orchestra gave several selections. Mrs. McCormick received an autograph quilt from the Mission Band, and a pyrex dish from the Sunday school class. The congregation and brotherhood presented Mr. and Mrs. McCormick with two handsome tapestry chairs. Lunch was served. Rev. Mr. McCormick will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday evening. He goes from here to Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church, London.

DECREASE IN FISH CATCH

Ottawa, June 25.—The sea fish catch for May showed a remarkable decrease for the catch during May for last year, according to the monthly statement issued by the Dominion fisheries branch. The total was $70,118 hundredweights, as against $60,145 hundredweights, and the value $2,072,137 as against $3,458,225.

GRASSHOPPERS INVADE 300 MILES IN ANNUAL HOP

Colorado Springs, Colo., June 25.—An army of grasshoppers, estimated to be fifteen miles wide, and twenty miles long, is advancing on El Paso County, Colo., from the southwest, County Farm Agent J. W. Hale announced today. These are destroying virtually all vegetation in their path.

Seasonable Pointers For Farmers

Ontario Apple Marketing Could Be Much Improved

Lack of Shipping and Selling Organization the Chief Draw-back—Ontario Has Possibilities in Orcharding Un-surpassed by Any Other Province.

As an apple-growing province, Ontario offers possibilities which are unexcelled by any other province in Canada. In fact, its geographic position provides some marketing advantages which are unattainable by other provinces. Its commercial apple producing districts are in the midst of the best of local markets, including Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal, and many other cities and large towns; and in addition it is very conveniently situated for supplying the large consuming centers of the prairies, while the port of Montreal is also easy of access for the export markets. The varieties that are of the highest quality and in greatest demand, both on the home and export markets, do exceedingly well, and can be produced at a cost not exceeding and in some cases less than in other provinces, but notwithstanding these possibilities and advantages, it cannot be said that the apple industry in Ontario has progressed to the same extent as in other parts of the country.

This is due in part to the fact that, in Ontario at least, 75 per cent of the crop is produced on mixed farms where the grower's time is of necessity divided. Unfortunately as a result on many farms the orchard receives little or no attention, it being left entirely to the tender mercies of nature, no attempt being made to combat the numerous destructive insects and diseases which take a heavy annual toll.

How the Ontario Crop is Handled. The methods employed in harvesting and marketing the apple crop of Ontario are practically the same as those obtaining during the past twenty-five years.

The bulk of the crop is graded and packed in the orchard under varying weather conditions which are very often unfavorable, and by labor provided by the grower and obtained locally. No facilities being obtainable for storing the packed fruit against frost, it is necessary to get the fruit packed and shipped within a very short period, depending upon the season. Owing to the limited time of employment, it has been difficult to obtain skilled labor and growers have been compelled to

Pure Breeds of Chickens Are Better Than Mongrels

Birds of the Best Type and Strongest Constitution Only Should Be Bred—Selection of a Male of Great Importance.

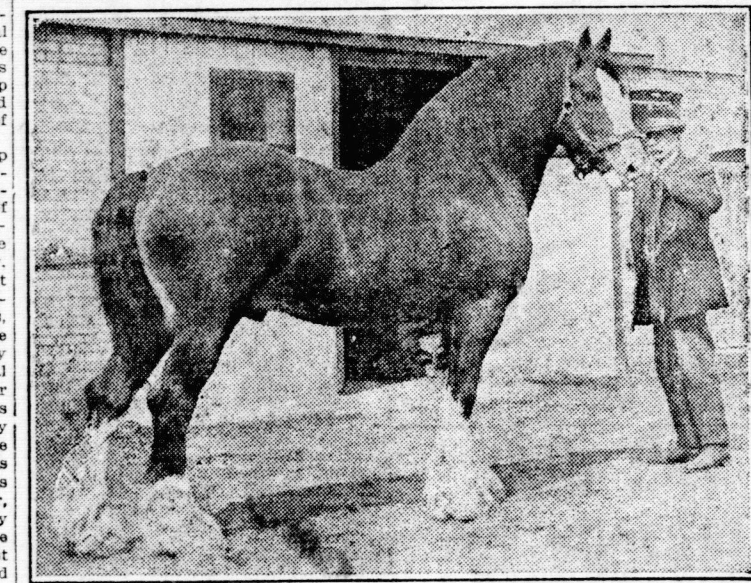

The old saying that mongrel stock gives the best results has not proven true in experiments. The foundation stock should be pure, but there should be a continuous selection year after year, and only by this selection can the best results be obtained. No inferior stock should be used for breeding purposes. Birds of the best type and strongest constitution only should be bred. As the male has so much influence on the offspring, it is advisable for those who do not trap-nest to purchase a cockerel each year from a good laying strain and use him rather than their own, and by doing this each year a flock of layers will be developed. In buying cockerels get them, if possible, from the same breeder from whom the original stock came. The changing of the strain of to be recommended. At best, it is a long, slow process, and one never knows when, by such a system, his flock can be termed pure-bred. It is a good plan if one already has a pure-bred flock, and for those who are not trap-nesting, it is best to buy a male each year, but buy nothing but birds of the best constitution. Never be satisfied with birds lacking vigor. Always get a bird of the same breed with which one begins. A good many buy their birds intelligently, but there are a few who change their breed every year. They will take a Rock this year, then a Wyandotte, next a Red and possibly the Red will be followed by a Minorca, Buff Orpington, Langshan or a Game. In fact, they never seem to be satisfied if they cannot get a new variety each year. This should be avoided, and, if possible, buy from the same source each year.

The Male. To pick out the male with a strong constitution select the one that is bright as he runs with the flock, one that is alert and wide-awake, and whose head is up at the slightest commotion.

THE CLYDESDALE HORSE IN CANADA

(By H. S. Arkell, Dominion Live Stock Commissioner.)

The above picture is that of Commodore, a beautiful bay Clydesdale stallion, the property of T. J. Berry, Hensall, Ont. Commodore is twelve years old, and weighs 1,900 pounds. He is half-brother, Bonnie Buckley, sold at the Seaboard Harbour sale last fall for $25,000. Commodore's sire, Baron o' Buckley, the greatest sire that Scotland ever produced, which sold a few years ago for $47,000.

Canada has many good horses, but she has more poor ones. Why? Scotland has some poor horses, but she has many more good ones. Why? Again, Scotland has developed a breed of horses which has won world-wide commercial recognition, has returned a profitable revenue to Scottish farmers and has admittedly performed the work on the land as well as the heavy transport work in the cities to the satisfaction alike of the farmer and of the commercial trade. Is Canada attaining similar success in the development of her horse industry?

If not, why? Let me answer this question by asking another. Speaking generally, what has really dated our Canadian horse breeding policy—individual prejudice or plain, sane, commercial common sense? Each reader must answer this question for himself, but it is worth while observing that the value is rated upon their breeding ability rather than upon any other consideration. There is one outstanding type of horse which it is conceded is the most profitable, year in and year out, for the Canadian farmer to produce. This is the drafter with weight, quality and action. The drafter alone is likely to successfully withstand the competition of motor transportation. He alone is able to command satisfactory commercial value at all times of the year and under all conditions of the trade. He may not be the easiest horse to breed and rear, but he is worth the risk and he is always a merchantable asset from the time he is weaned until he reaches a ripe old age.

The Clydesdale Horse Association of Canada deserves to be commended in appropriately pressing the claims of the Clydesdale upon the attention of the farmers of Canada. With this prejudice to any other draft breed, we must recognize the great commercial success which Clydesdales have attained in practically all the Anglo-Saxon countries. And I am told that this commercial recognition is not likely to be increased. It remains with Clydesdale breeders to justify in the future on the basis of individual and general excellence the claims which they may now advance. They ask farmers to use more intelligence and to exercise greater common sense in the selection of healthy, sound mares of proper type and conformation they must be prepared to provide stallions whose value is rated upon their breeding ability rather than upon any other consideration.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST BOVINE TUBERCULOSIS.

A few years ago the United States breeders of pure-bred cattle, recognizing the necessity of more effective measures for the control of tuberculosis, arranged a conference with officials of the bureau of animal industry at Washington, the result of which was the adoption of what is known as the accredited herd plan, meaning that the herd had been thoroughly tested and found entirely free from any symptoms of tuberculosis. The plan proved so successful—over a thousand herds being accredited in a brief period—that a decision was arrived at to adopt the system in Canada. Regulations were promulgated which came into force in September, 1919, and have proved gratifyingly successful, a number of herds having been accredited, while many others are under test. There is now an agreement between the country and the United States that cattle from accredited herds may enter either way, without detention or test. Under the municipal tuberculosis order, passed at Ottawa some years ago, the more recently adopted accredited herd plan compensation is paid for animals officially slaughtered, and the owners are permitted under regulation to realize whatever they can from the sale of the carcasses.

GRAIN STOCKS SUFFICE FOR WORLD'S REQUIREMENTS.

As the period approaches for bridging over the gap between the old and that now in course of development in the various northern hemisphere countries, it is certainly opportune to have a short paper from the statistical bureau of the International Institute of Agriculture, dealing with the world position as to supplies of wheat and rye. Including, on one hand, the quantities available in exporting countries, and on passage, and stating, on the other side, those needed by the importing countries, the institute arrives at the conclusion that the world stocks are sufficient for all requirements until the new harvest, and will leave a margin of 1.4 million metric tons at least.

Probably some countries will actually import smaller quantities than those estimated on the basis of the official communications, either because of financial difficulties in their obtaining cereal supplies, or because of restrictions imposed in exporting countries, wheat consumption. On the other hand, the available supplies of exporting countries do not include quantities at disposal from some minor exporters such as Manchuria. There is, consequently, good reason to believe that stocks of old crop wheat will be at August 1, 1921.

hardy grasses are becoming thin, hence more than the estimated quantity of 1.4 million metric tons.

In any event the remainder of the old crop to be carried over at the beginning of the new commercial season (August 1, 1921) will be in the hands of a large one, and will undoubtedly be less than in the past year.

Good Pasture Essential For the Breeding Herd

Poor Spots Should Be Touched Up by Hand Sowing—Pastures Ruined by Being Used Too Early in Season.

With the arrival of these warm days every farmer looks forward to the time when the cattle will be turned to pasture, for the labor of feeding and caring for the cows is then done away with and the best and cheapest returns are looked for. It is natural that large returns should be obtained at this time, for the cattle are feeding on the best of food, and it is a properly balanced ration.

On many farms there are areas used as permanent pasture. This type of pasture can be made fairly productive if well handled. The trouble usually is that it contains a comparatively few kinds of grasses, and consequently does not carry over the whole season. Another fault is that, being uncultivated and it receives little consideration, and it is not being allowed to overrun it early and late in the season, with the result that it never gets enough growth to keep it from drying out in the dry season, and it does not get sufficiently advanced to reseed itself. This year plans should be laid to touch up any poor spots in the permanent pastures by sowing by hand a light seeding of a mixture of such grasses and clovers as timothy, orchard grass, meadow fescue, red clover, alsike clover and white or Dutch clover. The best time to do this is early in the morning when the ground is heaved up by the action of a spring frost. When the frost goes out the seeds will be covered up and will start to germinate as soon as the ground warms up. A mixture of the above grasses and clovers in equal parts by weight, seeded down with a light seeding of barley or oats at the rate of 18 pounds per acre, will make a fairly productive permanent pasture where it is desired to establish one.

Securing Best Results. In most cases, however, the pasture is obtained from the tillable area; that is, from that part of the farm which comes under a definite rotation. If no definite rotation is followed, the pasture is outlined and followed this season. If best results are to be obtained, the quality of the pasture resulting from rotation of crops depends largely on the length of the rotation. Good pasture seeds of hay, for by that time the clovers are all killed out and even the hardy grasses are becoming thin, hence

It is fortunate that the prospects of the new crop are fairly favorable and indicate so far as can be foreseen to present a satisfactory yield on the whole, sufficient to compensate for the reduction of stocks in exporting countries in comparison with last year, and to guarantee the supplies during the coming season for the world at large.

Whether permanent or tillable pasture land is used, considerable judgment must be exercised in the use of the same. One cause of the ruination of many good pastures is the making of them too early in the season. This is not good for either the cattle or the pasture. In the first place, the grass is soft and watery early in the season, consequently there is not much nutriment in it, and if the cattle are allowed their fill, scouring may result. In the second place, the land is usually soft, and the cattle, in their exuberance of spirit, will do a lot of running and thus destroy more than they will eat. The cattle should be kept off the pastures until the grass has made a good start and the land becomes firm; then they should only be allowed in for an hour or two each day—after having a feed of roughage in the stable. The length of time they are allowed in the pasture can be increased each day, thus making the change gradually. Subsequently, the pasture should not be grazed too closely if drying out is to be avoided.

Proper Rotation. The objection may be raised that there is not always the necessary supply of feeds, particularly roughages, to enable the farmer to carry over his stock and give the pasture a chance. The answer to this is "proper rotations." Where a four-year rotation is followed, the necessary roughage in the form of silage and clover hay is usually at hand. However, where there has been a short season in the roughage crop one season, plans can be laid to offset this shortage the following spring. For instance, a crop which will make pasture before the regular pasture is ready, and in some cases the latter, is fall rye or a mixture of rye and wheat, sown at the rate of two and a half bushels per acre. A few acres of this crop sown between August 15 and September 15 will provide pasture or selling crop for fifteen to twenty cows for a couple of weeks the following spring before the regular pasture is fit to use. The area thus used can then be plowed up and sown to any of the regular spring crops, or be used for growing a summer soiling crop. The one requisite is that the land be fairly near the buildings.

BACTERIA IN MANURE.

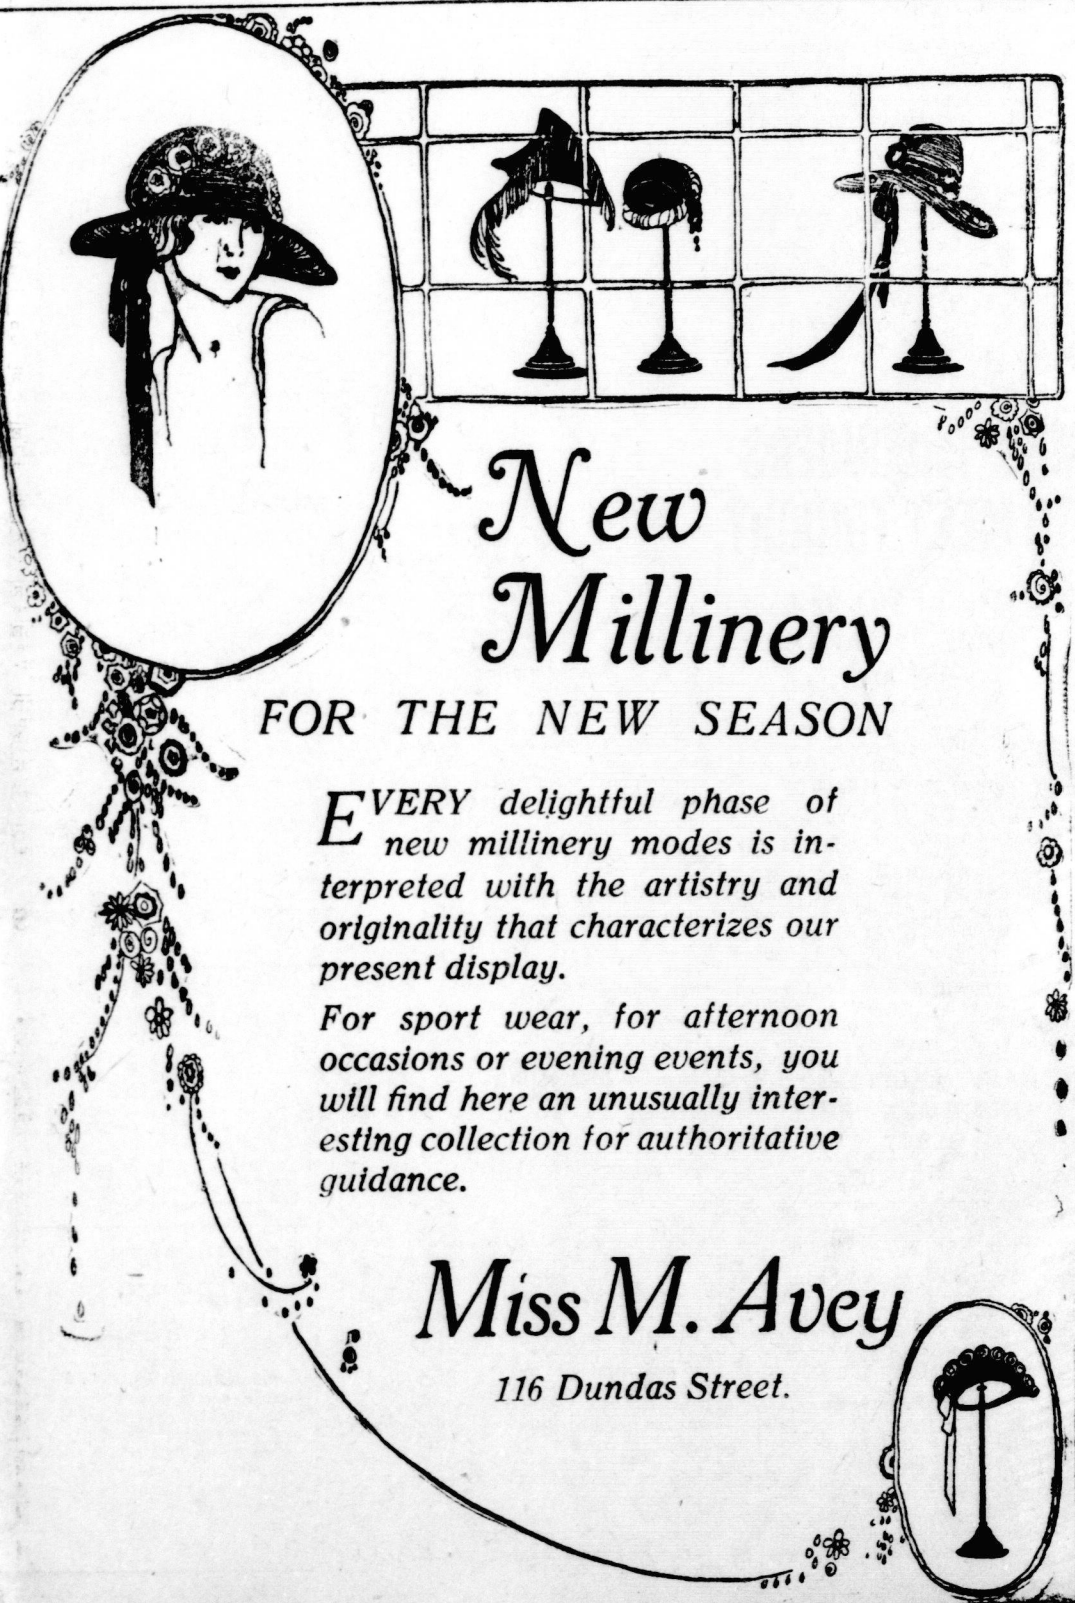

The number of such organisms will vary considerably, depending on the physical and chemical character of the manure, the method of treatment, etc. In general it may be said that manure may contain from 7,000,000 to 375,000,000 bacteria per gram (1-30 oz.). On the average farm manures probably contain about 80,000,000 organisms per gram. Most of these organisms occur in the solid excreta which has been found to contain 18 to 40 billion bacteria per gram. The urine is practically sterile and the litter usually contains comparatively small numbers. Some idea of the bacterial matter in manure may be given by the estimate that 9 to 20% of the dry weight of cow manure consists of bacterial substance. Furthermore, there is a great multiplication of bacteria on standing and in a few weeks the number present will be much larger than at first. After a longer or shorter interval, however, depending on the physical and chemical composition of the manure, this increase in number of bacteria will cease and a

CHILDREN QUARREL OVER PIECE OF BREAD

One Strikes Down Playmate With Stone When Share Is Refused.

Two small boys, 5 or 6 years old, quarreled over a piece of bread on the Hamilton road on Thursday afternoon.

One boy, angered at the refusal of the other to share his lunch with him, struck him in the back with a heavy stone and knocked him to the ground unconscious. The injured boy was carried to his home by a passerby and a physician summoned.

CARPENTIER'S BACKERS ARE VERY CONFIDENT

Believe Georges Will Attain His Life-long Ambition.

Manhasset, N. Y., June 25.—There is a wholesome belief in the camp of Georges Carpentier that the blonde Frenchman will attain his life-long ambition—the world heavyweight title—when he meets Jack Dempsey in Jersey City a week from today.

Francis Descamps, the manager, and Gus Wilson, the trainer, appear to be satisfied that the pugilistic idea of France is greater than ever, and will repay their highest hopes in the coming battle. They think that he will make Dempsey dizzy with his speed, and will bowl him over for the ninth along about the fifth or sixth round.

Can't Wet His "Whistle" Now, So Calls Rover With a Shriill Tin One

He was a little, grey, bent old man, and his whistle had left him long ago. When his lips became dry he was in despair, for it was through his whistle that he made himself best understood to the emaciated dwarf of a foxterrier which had been his close companion for many years. But although he had become too old to whistle, his inventive power remained clear, and so he found a way to overcome his dumbness.

This morning when Dundas street was crowded by early shoppers he appeared on the street with his dog and a tin whistle. Although the whistle could only sound one monotonous note, its language was well understood by the dog.

From Richmond street the old man, carrying a dilapidated brown grip, threaded his way east on Dundas street.

ENTRANCE EXAMS WILL COST $1800 START TUESDAY TO OIL THE ROAD TO SPRINGBANK

260 Pupils Will Write Off Tests in Various Schools.

Entrance exams for public and separate schools of this city, numbering approximately 260, commence in seven schools here next Tuesday. These pupils are those whom their respective teachers cannot recommend on term work, and exams are in order for them to qualify for certificates. Each pupil will write in his or her respective school district, with separate and public school students grouped together. Collegiate Institute teachers of London will preside at the exams.

Following are the centres throughout the city: Rectory, St. Michael's, Alexandra, Aberdeen, Lord Roberts, Talbot and Riverview. Middle and Upper School departmental examinations, on which about 250 pupils of district high schools are writing in the Technical School here, conclude next Tuesday.

TWO RACCOONS FOR ZOO

Donation Received From J. Butler of Bryanston.

General Manager E. V. Buchanan of the public utilities commission announced this morning that the pair of raccoons donated to the Springbank zoo, which will be added to the collection there in the near future. In addition, members of the Kitchener Club have offered to give a pair of white swans, which offer will be accepted.

K. D. McColl of Forest has written, offering black bass from a pond and half up for the zoo, and this offer is also under consideration. Word was received today that the pair of Australian black swans donated to the zoo by Mrs. Ronald Harris had been shipped from France and will reach London early next week.

CIDER PLUS RAISINS EQUALS TROUBLE

Might Have Meant $200 Fine, But Court Was Lenient.

Only a few minor cases were aired in police court this morning. Two drunks were fined.

A third man charged with being intoxicated was with one of the convicted drunks and had given the drunk a bottle of cider which had raisins in it. However, the charge of having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling was not pressed against either of the men.

The second man said that he was not in a restaurant, but he only had taken two glasses of cider and one of rhubarb wine. He was given the benefit of the doubt. His friend, having secured the necessary fine, was allowed to go, taking the cider with him.

The third drunk had been making an appearance at regular intervals and was told that if he appeared again he would be sent to the reformatory.

NEW YORK BUSINESSMAN SUICIDES AT BANFF SAN.

George L. Dyer, Head of Big Advertis. Agency, Shoots Himself.

Calgary, June 25.—George L. Dyer, said to be a millionaire from New York, committed suicide by shooting at the sanatorium at Banff Summer Resort today. Very little is known of the man. He was 32 years old, and had $7,000 in his pocket when he took his life.

George L. Dyer, who today committed suicide at a Banff sanatorium, was head of an advertising agency here bearing his name. A telegram was received at his offices telling of his death. It was said that he had gone north for a vacation recently, after becoming rundown.

G. T. Railroad Men Opposed To Wage Reduction

225 Employees At Mass Meeting in Labor Temple Vote Unanimously Against Acceptance of Award of Dominion Railway Board—Decision May Mean a Strike.

Without one dissenting voice more than two hundred employees of the Grand Trunk Railroad, members of District 96, Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, at a mass meeting in the Labor Temple Friday evening, voted to reject the recent 12 per cent wage reduction awarded by the Dominion Railway Board. The board's decision, which included a 12 per cent wage reduction, was met with a resounding "no" from the employees.

HAD RHEUMATISM FOR FIVE YEARS

No Return of the Trouble Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives."

MR. JOHN E. GUILDERSON.

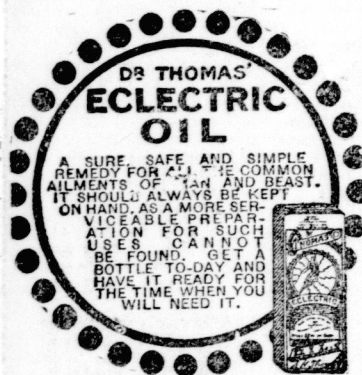

"P. O. Box 123, Parrboro, N. S. I suffered with Rheumatism for five years, having it so badly at times I was unable to get up without assistance.

"I tried different medicines I saw advertised and was treated by doctors in Amherst, also in my home town, but the Rheumatism came back.

"In 1916, I saw in an advertisement that 'Fruit-a-tives' would stop Rheumatism, and took one box and got relief; then I took them right along for about six months, and the Rheumatism was all gone and I have never felt it since. 'Anyone who would care to write me as regards 'Fruit-a-tives' I would be glad to tell them what 'Fruit-a-tives' did for me.

FLAVELLE HERE ON A FLYING VISIT

Chairman of Canadian National Railway Commission Returns To Toronto.

Sir Joseph Flavelle, chairman of the Canadian National Railway Commission passed through this city on a special G. T. R. train Friday evening while en route from Chicago to Toronto. He was accompanied by President H. G. Kelly and Vice-President W. D. Robb of the G. T. R.

Although the train was scheduled to halt in London only long enough to allow General Superintendent H. C. Bowker of the eastern lines, who had come down to London during the afternoon, to get aboard, it was forced to remain here for a few minutes while a hotbox in the president's private car was cooled. Neither Sir Joseph or President Kelly left the train while it was here.

When interviewed by The Advertiser, Sir Joseph explained that he had just made an inspection of the western lines of the G. T. R. between Detroit and Chicago, and that it was the first time that he has been over that portion of the road. He claimed that everything had been found highly satisfactory.

THREE SQUADRONS OF FIRST HUSSARS HERE

345 Officers and Men Are in Training on Carling Heights.

A, B and C squadrons of the First Hussars arrived at Carling Heights yesterday for a nine-day training period. This is the first cavalry camp held in London in quite a number of years. Niagara usually being picked as having the best facilities. The men are from Lexington, Clinton, St. Thomas and the majority from London and district. They are of an exceptionally fine type, and the horses are the best to be had in the district, well built and muscular.

Lieut.-Col. C. H. Reason, O.B.E., D.S.O., is in command, Major P. A. Taylor, D.S.O., second in command, and Lieut.-Col. J. French, adjutant. The squadron commander is Lieut.-Col. Harkness, Major R. Hillier and Major A. E. Reason, and the other officers who are attending are Lieut. A. K. Ingram, Gordon Galbraith, M. E. Ash-ton, H. J. Lawson, E. B. Westby and Capt. G. H. Sternd, D.C.M., M.C. There are about 345 officers and men attending camp and these together with the band make the total strength up to about 375.

LONDONER HONORED BY ACCOUNTANTS

HAMILTON, June 24.—At the 38th annual convention of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario here today, officers were elected as follows: President, Rutherford Williamson, Toronto; first vice-president, Arnold Morphy, Toronto; second vice-president, Francis G. Jewell, London; secretary-treasurer, T. Watson Sims, Toronto.

SCENE AT ROTARIANS' PICNIC

Both young and old had a great time at the Rotary picnic yesterday. One of the fine features of Rotary outings is the provision of unlimited good things and entertainment for the kiddies.

London Rotarians Had Real Outing At Port Stanley

Splendid Program of Sports Was Enjoyed by Large Crowd—Big League Baseball Game Kept Spectators On Their Toes.

Unbounded fun was the keynote at Port Stanley Friday afternoon, when members of the London Rotary Club, with wives and families and their friends made merry at their annual picnic as only Rotarians can. There was not a dull moment from the arrival of the special London and Port Stanley train at 2:30 p.m., carrying over 400 people, until the last youngster was bundled off the same train at London station at 9:30 p.m.

With ice cream galore for the kiddies and grown-ups, pop corn, balloons, chocolate, candies and barrels of lemonade crammed in with bumper sports, the outing was a decided success from every standpoint. Even the weatherman favored with Sunday buster, and there was no untoward incident to mar the day.

Played Fast Game. The feature of the picnic was the big league baseball game, a trifle unconventional with eleven men on a side, between Yendall's Yellers and Tambling's Terrorists, the latter crowd averaging less than 2½ per cent, while the Yellers finished in home-brew style, trimming their rivals to the tune of 20 to 7. The supper club halted the game and only for this fact the Tambling stars would have become dizzy counting the Yellers crossing the plate. There was an element of burlesque introduced into the contest and Archie Mitchellson and Russ Taggart, the umpires, who are alleged to have given fair decisions, escaped lynching, which was relegated to the background when supper was announced. They were threatened during the game when the Yellers protested their decision calling Lloyd Houlding out for not touching any of the bases after hitting a home run.

There were no features to the game excepting the facial display of the stars in action, everyone on the field playing a game which would do credit to the Mint League lay-abouts.

An Amusing Feature. Possibly the most amusing number on the program of sports, next to the ball game, was the needle and thread race, with husband and wife participating. The latter covered one of hubby's optics with her hand while he endeavored to thread the needle. In one hubby did not suspect that the covering hand was anointed with a liberal supply of lampblack and the resulting black eyes provided much comedy until the victims solved the mystery of the mirth.

The kiddies were the victims of the funsters, when they were compelled in the obstacle race to crawl under a rope so fastened to the ground by staples that when more than one youth attempted to get through at once all were locked tightly. This event included eating a biscuit and drinking when finished, which feat requires much practice and a rainy day.

Real Comedians. The comedians of the day were Tom Partridge and E. V. Buchanan, the former almost lost his life when he attempted to distribute balloons to the kiddies who mobbed him, and the latter, being on the verge of paying the extreme penalty when he attempted to warble "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia" to an unsuspecting and innocent audience when Tom Partridge Jewell marked to James Gray at the time that it was miraculous that the manager of the public utilities commission did not have to be carried back to London in the baggage car of the special train, without taking Virginia into consideration at all.

At the conclusion of a real old-fashioned supper served in the L. and P. S. tea house on Inverness Heights, prizes were distributed to the successful contestants of the afternoon, after which everyone indulged in a sing-song led by Reg. McIntosh. At the same time a grand drawing contest was held, in which several valuable prizes were distributed to the ladies holding lucky numbers. An innovation for Rotarians was introduced at the picnic in a manner of announcement of events being run off, a huge Rotarian shield with events numbered in turn, informing the crowd of the progress made in the sports.

Attractive Program. The program, printed on heavy paper, with yellow ribbon as a finishing touch, provided a souvenir of the occasion being cut out in the form of a cog-wheel emblematic of the Rotary Club. The only disagreeable incident of the day was the fact that the judges in the baby show, who have requested that their names be withheld, did not manifest sufficient courage to pick the winners in the presence of several anxious and easily aroused mothers, and the event was smoothed over by drawing lots for the prizes. Betty Gibson and Gordon Bowker were the lucky babies.

To Rance Foster, chairman of the general picnic committee, and Ken Greene, secretary, with their able associates, including Chas. Stevens, Jim Cowan, Ed. Walker, Leo Baragar, Russ Taggart and Ed. Buchanan, is due the credit of the successful outing.

10 Years of Eczema—A Sample Relieved Her

Canadian Club and Mrs. F. E. Leonard, other city organizations interested in a proper observance of Dominion Day. Club were appointed to head the committee in charge of the arrangements. Details of the program for Victoria Park will be announced early next week and to secure the co-operation of all.

The following remarks of the Ontario representative regarding labor conditions fairly describe the general situation: "Farm labor is still needed in many cases, but farmers do not feel inclined to pay the wages asked in view of present prices. The general wage for experienced and partly experienced men seems to be from $30 to $40 a month with board. I know of one case, however, where a young man is putting in his third season, and is getting $30 a month and board for eight months, with the use of a horse."

BIG CELEBRATION ON DOMINION DAY HERE

Canada's 54th birthday will be fittingly celebrated in Victoria Park on Dominion Day by patriotic London. At a joint meeting of the executives of the Men's and Women's Canadian Clubs held in Robert Greenes office on Thursday afternoon, arrangements were initiated for a civic celebration of the national holiday in co-operation with the London Garrison. A military parade and salute will be held in the park on the morning of Dominion Day. Addresses dealing with Canadian national development and Canada's growing place within the empire and in international affairs and the meaning and responsibilities of citizenship will be given by representative public men. There will be community singing of patriotic songs and other features suitable to the occasion.

President Robert Greene of the Men's Club said: "The Dominion Day celebration is a day when we should all be proud to be Canadians. It is a day when we should all be proud to be Canadians. It is a day when we should all be proud to be Canadians."

Survival of the Fittest

These are days to test men's mettle. It is so easy to ride when the tide is high and demand is greater than supply.

It is easier to "lie down" when the tide is ebbing and wait for it to rise again.

But the easy was is not chosen by the successful man. When the tide is high, he fights for the pinnacle of achievement.

When the tide is low he fights a thousand times harder to maintain the position he has won, and to hold it against all comers when it rises again.

THEATRES

AT ALLEN'S.

"INSIDE THE CUP" AT THE ALLEN MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

"Inside the Cup," which will be the feature attraction at the Allen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, is adapted from Winston Churchill's famous novel of the same name. Every reader of current literature will recall the sensation this publication made when it was first published in 1912. Edson Parr, a vestryman, unscrupulous, and tyrannical, alienates his son and daughter. The daughter, who learns that Richard Gavin, a teller in her father's employ, has been ruined by him, and in disgust at her father, takes up settlement work. Parr objects to his son, Preston, marrying Kate Marcy, a salesgirl, and playing upon her love for Preston. Inures her to give up the marriage project. She is later accused of theft, though innocent, and is discharged. She becomes a frequenter of dives, and when Preston learns of his father's conduct, he quits his home and gradually sinks into the depths. In this condition he meets Kate, and through the influence of the rector both are lifted from the depths and are happily married. Gavin, the teller, driven by his sufferings, shoots Parr mortally, and then kills himself.

Among the added attractions will be shown a "Snub" Pollard Comedy, "Blue Sunday," Allen World News, Chester Outing Pictures; Special Musical Program.

"THE JUCKLINS," SHOWING AT THE ALLEN LAST THREE DAYS OF NEXT WEEK.

Based on Ople Read's delightful novel "The Jucklins," which will be shown at The Allen the last three days of next week, is a picture of great human interest. It depicts life and death with the people of the South where men and women speak and act straight from the heart. The story is too big to be told in a few words, but among other things it shows the experience of a big awkward country boy whose start towards success was a remark by his father that he would never amount to anything, who was disliked by his neighbors, and who, almost driven by himself, but he moved away from the discouraging influences and went to another section of the country to teach school. His boarder makes slighting remarks about his girl. By clever plot-manipulation, the supposed murderer is finally freed, and by the introduction of surprising circumstances is proved technically innocent. Then comes the big surprise finish and everything ends happily for all concerned.

In addition to "The Jucklins," will be shown a Christie comedy "The Wedding Blues," Allen World News, last episode "Son of Tarzan," and special musical program.

AT LOEW'S.

ELLIOTT DEXTER IN "THE WITCHING HOUR."

Can you "guess" what the other man is thinking? Is a man who thinks murder equally guilty with the wretch who actually commits the deed? These and many other ethical problems made "The Witching Hour" one of the greatest stage successes of all times. The Augustus Thomas triumph has now been filmed, and will be shown at Loew's Theatre for three days beginning Monday.

To interpret this gripping play of a strong man's will Mr. Taylor needed—and secured—a real all-star cast. Elliott Dexter, leading man of many Cecil B.

G. T. R. ARBITRATION EVIDENCE COMPLETE

7,000 Pages of Testimony and 500 Exhibits Made.

MONTREAL, June 24.—After sixty-three days of sessions the taking of evidence in the Grand Trunk arbitration came to a conclusion this afternoon. The board adjourned until Monday. It is possible, however, that counsel for the Grand Trunk may ask opportunity to bring in some further evidence in rebuttal of that adduced by the Government counsel. The board is anxious to hear argument without delay, but it was reported today that counsel would ask for time to study the 7,000 pages of evidence and 500 exhibits. The work before the board today was of a mopping-up character.

At the afternoon session A. W. Atwater, K.C., counsel for the Grand Trunk, while cross-examining D. E. Brown, expert railway accountant, brought up the question of the reserve, which has been so much under discussion.

"What reserve do you refer to?" asked the witness.

"The sea serpent probably," interjected Sir Thomas White.

Mr. Atwater said a matter of $5,000,000 was called an inside reserve.

"Or a midnight reserve," suggested Mr. Butler.

Mr. Brown, the witness, said this was a reserve against operating expenses, which could be used to reduce these accounts.

RANEY WITHDRAWS CUBAN REFERENCES

Matter Was Taken Up With Premier by Acting Consul.

TORONTO, June 24.—Attorney-General W. E. Raney has withdrawn his references to Cuba, made in an address to the Lawyers' Association of the London Methodist conference, against race track gambling, which references were objected to by Charles Armstrong, acting consul for Cuba. The withdrawal has been made through Premier E. C. Drury, to whom the acting consul protested.

"I have drawn the matter to the attention of the attorney-general," says Premier Drury in his letter to the acting consul. "He is glad to have your assurance that conditions in Cuba do not justify the comparison, and assures me that he has no desire to do an injustice to your country. He, therefore, withdraws his reference to the Republic of Cuba."

ARREST MAY CLEAR UP MURDER MYSTERY

Man Sought in Toronto Case Located At Auburn.

TORONTO, June 24.—About a year ago a ten-year-old boy named Philip Goldberg was enticed from a picture show and horribly murdered in the west end of the city. Following the discovery of the crime a reward of $1,000 was offered for the arrest of one Fred L. Davis, an acquaintance of the boy's mother. Today a telegram was received from Detective North Cronin of the Toronto police force that he had located Davis in the New York State prison at Auburn, N. Y., where he is at present doing time. It is expected that proceedings will be commenced to secure his extradition for trial here.

ALMOST HELPLESS FROM ST. VITUS DANCE

The Muscles of the Hands, Face and Body Affected.

St. Vitus dance is a disease of the nerves brought on by a morbid condition of the blood. It is common in children, and attacks girls more frequently than boys. Irritability is frequently one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome and does not sleep well. The jerky movements that characterize the disease come a little later. The limbs and sometimes the whole body jerks spasmodically, and in severe cases the power of speech is affected. Such a child should not be allowed to study, but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will help the blood restore the shattered nerves. The value of these pills in cases of this kind is shown by the following statement from Mrs. Frank Reynolds, Windsor, N. S., who says: "When a young girl I suffered very severely from St. Vitus dance. I could not keep still for a moment. If I tried to handle dishes I broke them, and could not safely attempt to hold a thing in my hands. No matter what was done for me, I could not control the twitching in my face and body. My parents gave me several remedies, but they did not help me. Then one day my father brought home a half dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After two boxes had been taken there was an improvement in my condition. By the time the last box was gone, to my own great joy and relief to our family, my condition was normal, and I have since enjoyed good health. I never lose an opportunity to say a good word for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

ADMIRAL SIMS
IS PUBLICLY
REPRIMANDEDRemarks Made Constitute
Disregard of Instructions,
Says Denby.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 24.—

Secretary of the Navy Denby today publicly reprimanded Rear Admiral

William S. Sims as a result of the speech of the admiral made in London on June 7, in which he criticized Simon his policy in America.

In the reprimand Mr. Denby pointed out that before the navy department had found it necessary to take similar action against the officer for an address delivered in London in 1911, and referring to the text of the reprimand,

"Your remarks on that occasion now under discussion, therefore, constitute a flagrant and deliberate disregard of specific instructions."

While the naval secretary was making public the reprimand, Admiral Sims was calling on President Harding at the White House. It was explained that the admiral called to leave his card, as is the custom when high naval officers return from a trip abroad, but that the president invited him to chat for a few minutes.

Upon leaving the White House, Admiral Sims, referring to the reprimand, said: "I got what I deserved, the same old thing."

He added that he regretted having caused the administration any inconvenience, but said that he now considered the incident closed.

So far as could be learned, the reprimand was not mentioned during the admiral's visit to the president. On leaving the White House the officer joked with newspaper correspondents.

Asked if his conversation with the president had been pleasant he replied sharply, but with a smile: "Oh, of course it was."

Resumes Duties.

Admiral Sims left tonight for Newport, R. I., where he will assume his duties as president of the Naval War

College. He went abroad several weeks ago to receive a degree from an English university. After his London speech his leave was revoked by Secretary Denby, and he was ordered to return to the United States immediately.

The officer will be furnished with a copy of his reprimand, and it was explained, another copy will be attached to his record. Other copies of all vessels and stations, along with other orders, on the first Sunday of the month after promulgation to the service.

FINANCIAL MARKET

DULL AND NARROW
NEW YORK MARKET

But Dealings for the Most Part Lack Reactionary Elements.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Business on the stock exchange today was comparatively dull and narrow. Dealings for the most part lacked the reactionary elements which contributed to the recent depression of prices.

Speculative favorites, especially those embracing the oil, steel, motor and chemical groups, were fairly steady and occasionally strong. Heaviness which sometimes bordered on weakness was manifested, however, by some obscure preferred issues.

Conspicuous examples of this class included Northern Writing Paper, Industrial Alcohol, Baldwin Locomotive, Central Leather, United Drug, Columbia Phonograph and Mercantile Marine, the last making an extreme decline of almost five points.

For the first time in several weeks such leaders as Mexican Petroleum and United States Steel showed consistent strength. Mexican increased its gain to a net of 3½ points, and steel closed ½ point above yesterday's low record.

Corn products strengthened on declaration of the regular dividend. Sears Roebuck rallied on news that its outstanding bonds were being purchased by the company and Coca Cola recovered three points on settlement of threatened litigation. Sales amounted to $25,000.

Plenty of money was available on call at 5 per cent. Standing into next week and some 30 and 60-day loans were in process of renewal at prevailing rates. Dealings in exchange were light and mainly downward, dealers again taking their cue from London, where a lower quotation ruled. LAMBERTH VISITS LONDON AGAIN ON 300,000-MILE HIKE
World's Champion Walker Was in This City Before in 1912.

E. F. Lambeth of Ardmore, Oklahoma, who since January 1, 1917, has walked 367,760 miles and expects to complete 300,000 miles before July 11, 1924, arrived in London Friday evening, and will leave for Woodstock this morning. The previous world-walking champion was the late Edward Payton Weston of New York City, but Payton only walked a total of 245,000 miles. Lambeth starting his long hike from Liverpool, before the outbreak of the world war had been around the world three times in nine years. He has tramped through every country on the globe, but has most thoroughly covered South Africa, South America, United States, Canada, Europe and Asia. Born in Alabama, 1870, he was taken at eight months of age to grow up in Texas. Fort Worth being his home town until recent years, when his mother removed to Ardmore, where he holds valuable property in addition to large interests in the Texas oil fields. T. W. Wade of Ranger, Texas, makes out his routes and notifies him by telegraph where he is to go from principal stopping points. He is to finish his 300,000 mile hike in 1924 at Ranger.

Half Million Letters.
Letters bearing imposing-looking seals and signed by state governors, county and city officials, officers of clubs and chambers of commerce, are in his possession to the number of 500,000, and in addition he has 55,000 letters without seals.
He was in London, Ont., previously on June 11, 1912. His last visit to Europe was in 1912, when after visiting Germany, he went to the United States and from there to London, England. He makes about 35 per cent of his mileage over the railroad ties and carries papers of permission from leading railroad officials. He makes 12,500 miles a year, and averages a fraction over 34 miles. He has tramped over 42 per cent of the standard gauge railroad tracks of the United States.
For the 300,000-mile hike, under the auspices of International Medical Science of Paris, London, Eng. and New York, he is to receive a total of $185,000. He has already been paid $100,000, and account there has already been paid to his mother, $137,000. He reports daily on his own health, the food he eats, and the altitudes he passes.

Christmas in Winnipeg.
He spent last Christmas in Georgia, and next Christmas will be in Winnipeg. After making Hamilton, Toronto and Niagara-on-the-Lake, he will enter New York State, tramp through to Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine, making Boston on August 17. If he gets married before completing his hike, the International Oil Field Workers will present him with a 110-day honeymoon trip around the world. His wife must be not younger than 35 nor older than 45, not lighter in weight than 125 pounds and not heavier than 160 pounds. She may be an nationality or religion, but must be a native of North America. His brother has also promised him a $5,000 home in Wichita Falls, Texas. In the next three years he will visit every state capital in the American Union and 2,800 county centers.

An Entertaining Eik.
A member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, he carries a lot of credentials. Elks clubs are not so friendly as Americans, he states, nor are the people of Michigan and some other eastern or middle states as free-hearted as the Texans and other westerners. People of Ontario and Michigan are inclined to be sarcastic, or a bit "hostile," he adds.
To make his expenses en route he cuts patterns and designs in all kinds of cloth and lectures in theatres and lyciums.
He was born a Methodist, turned Baptist, but later cut all the orthodox Protestant churches because a Baptist church officer tried to drag him into increasing his contribution more than he thought he ought to give. Now, when occasionally he goes to church he chooses either the Roman Catholic Church or the Christian Science Church.

EDMONTON, June 24.—Ontario will be the headquarters of the Federated Women's Institute of Canada for the next two years. This was decided today when Mrs. W. Todd of Orillia, Ont., president of the Ontario Federation, was elected by acclamation at the convention which is now in session. The other officers elected are:
First vice-president, Magistrate Emily Murphy, Edmonton; second vice-president, Mrs. David Watt, Birtle, Man.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Hilda Beardsmore, Fort Croft, Ont.; recording secretary, Mrs. W. P. Cameron, Davidson, Sask.; treasurer, Miss Eliza Campbell, Fredericton, N. B.
It was decided to hold the next directors' meeting at Saskatoon, and the next biennial convention at Fredericton, N. B.

LATE R. QUACKENBUSH CAME FROM STRATHROY

[Special to The Advertiser.]
INGERSOLL, June 24.—Under circumstances indicating suicide the body of R. Quackenbush was taken from the Thames River, near the Womham street bridge today. Mr. Quackenbush was 37 years of age and formerly resided at Strathroy, being widely known in that district. He had lived here for about six years with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Werman, John street.
Mr. Quackenbush left the house this morning unobserved by the family and his presence at the Thames street bridge created suspicion. He was taken home by a neighbor, but later got away again, and plunged into the river west of the Womham street bridge, where the water is deep. The body was taken out about twenty minutes later by Chief Holmes and his two sons.
Quackenbush suffered a stroke several weeks ago and as a result his mind had been affected.

WAGON IS WRECKED IN CROSSING CRASH

[Special to The Advertiser.]
ST. MARYS, June 2.—George Gill of Motherwell had a close call from being killed this afternoon at the James street crossing, when a G. T. R. freight train backing down, crashed into his wagon. Just a few minutes before Gill had loaded a large load of eggs. The wagon was smashed to pieces. The horses escaped with slight injuries. Gill escaped by jumping as the cars bore down on the wagon.

MAY SUE MENNONITES FOR HALF A MILLION
Mississippi Landholders Are Taking Action Against Westerners.

WINNIPEG, June 24.—Manitoba Mennonites, who were interested in negotiations for the purchase of a tract of land in Mississippi, now face a suit involving a sum of more than $500,000. Solicitors representing the Mississippi landholders have notified the leaders of the Mennonites that if this sum is not paid immediately they will enter suit in the Manitoba courts to recover.

The basis of the suit will be sums alleged to be due and owing for tracts of land which the Mennonites, Mississippi landowners allege, contracted to purchase and for which they have not paid.

The Mennonites declare they will not pay, it being stated that they merely took an option on the land and did not exercise it, permitting the option to lapse at the end of the stated period.

DOYLE RETAINED AS MANAGER OF LEAFS
Will Set Out On a Scouting Trip For More Players.

TORONTO, June 24.—It is understood that Larry Doyle will continue as manager of the Toronto Baseball Club. He came in from New York this morning, and he and President McCaffrey withdrew to the office of the club across the bay and held a quiet and unimportant session.

It was announced tonight that Doyle will at once set out on a scouting expedition for players, he having explained to the president the needs of the team in that respect. The New York and Brooklyn League teams are to be applied to, and one particular object of Doyle's expedition is the possession of a hard-hitting outfielder.

ONTARIO LIBERALS TALK ORGANIZATION
No Definite Action Decided On At Meeting in Toronto.

TORONTO, June 24.—A conference of Liberal members of the Ontario Legislature was held today in the office of H. H. Dewar, K.C., Liberal leader in Ontario, in the parliament building here. Among those in attendance were: Thomas Marshall, Lincoln; A. F. McWann, Brockville; Albert Finlay, Ottawa; and F. Wellington Hay, North Perth.

Mr. Dewar said tonight that at the meeting his supporters in the Legislature discussed the matter of organization and the question of how best to bring before the attention of the people the policy of the Liberal party in the province. It is understood that no definite action was decided upon.

ONLY WANTS $700,000 FOR HIS FARM LAND

TORONTO, June 24.—W. F. MacLean, M.P., formerly proprietor of the Toronto World, has offered to sell his farm "Don Lands" containing 700 acres, at $1,000 an acre to the city of Toronto. The farm is a short distance from the city, and if acquired by the municipal corporation, would be used for the purposes of a botanical garden, a tree farm, or a recreation with the city parks department and hydro radial railway purposes. The proposed "Don Lands" Railway will run through the property.

DECLARES DAIRYING MOST PROFITABLE FARMING VENTURE

Prof. Leitch of O. A. C. Addresses Ayrshire Breeders At Annual Picnic.

HAMILTON, June 24.—Admitting that the dairy farmer had suffered most severely of all the agriculturists by reason of the present decline in the price of his products, Professor A. Leitch of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, addressing three hundred members of the Southern Counties Ayrshire Breeders' Club at their annual picnic here today, declared that dairy production was the most profitable of all farming ventures. Professor Leitch advised against dairymen giving up dairying and going into fruit farming, even though butter had declined from 60c to less than 25c in six weeks.

"I contend," he said, "that a man with $15,000 invested in a dairy farm can make more out of his production than can even a Niagara fruit farmer with an equal amount of capital."

BANDITS ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE GENERAL
Commander of French Army Attacked Near Damascus.

DAMASCUS, June 24.—An attempt was made today to assassinate General Genoud, commander of the French army in the East, while he was travelling in an automobile from Damascus to the Sea of Galilee in northern Palestine. The assault was committed by bandits. The general was unhurt, but had a narrow escape, a bullet passing through his left sleeve.

The governor of Damascus was slightly wounded. The bandits had disguised themselves as gendarmes.

The general was made the object of a sympathetic demonstration upon his return to Damascus.

RAILWAY MEETING AGAIN ADJOURNED

TORONTO, June 24.—One more adjournment of the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Toronto Railway Company took place today and as anticipated, the latest date set for the meeting is August 15. As the shareholders had been notified of the further adjournment very few were on hand today.

Sir William MacKenzie, president of the company, explained that the long-awaited agreement between the Hydro-Electric Power Commission and the City of Toronto, and the companies concerned had not yet been completed.

PROVINCIAL POLICE WERE NOT NOTIFIED

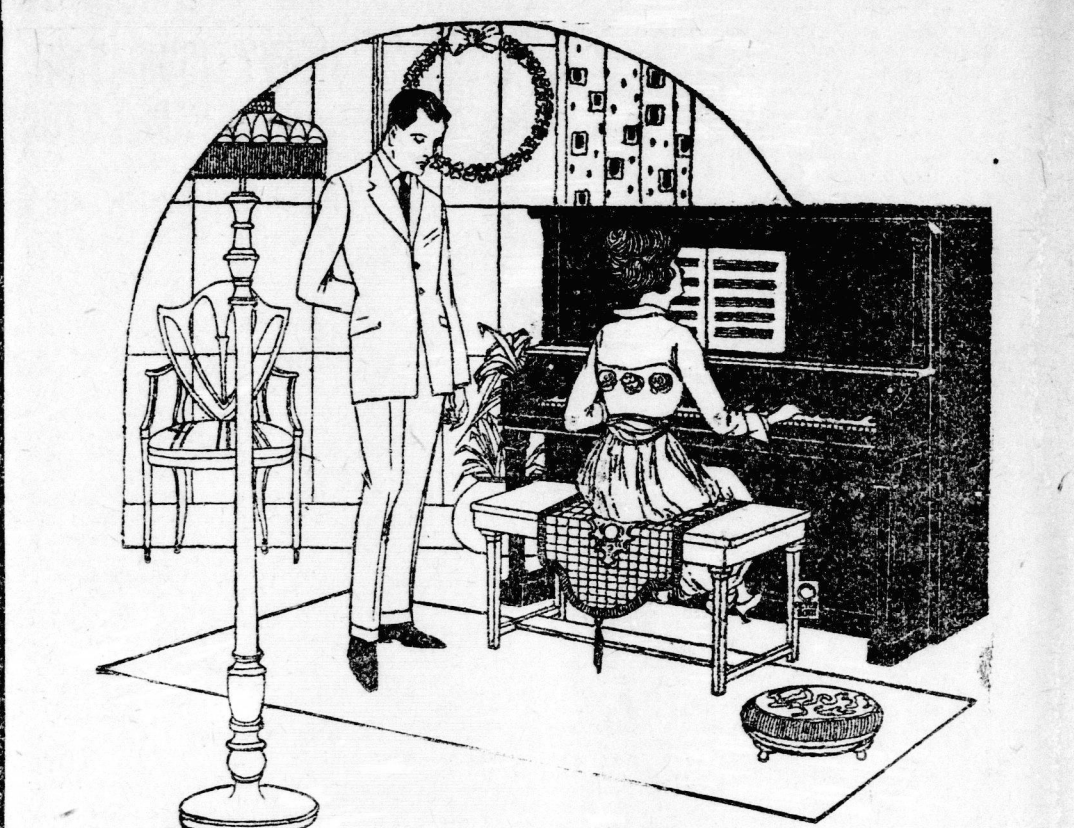

TORONTO, June 24.—Although the entire countryside around Bolton is alarmed and the place is bristling with an armed posse, the provincial police have not been officially notified of any second attempt at "hold up" of a bank manager near there, or at least has taken no action in regard to it. In some quarters it is questioned whether the second "hold up" was a very serious affair.

WHY DID BRITISH RELEASE DE VALERA?

DUBLIN, June 24.—An official of the Daily Breeze stated this afternoon that during a raid Wednesday evening Eamon DeValera was taken by British crown forces to the Portobello barracks, where he was detained until two o'clock Thursday afternoon. He was then released.

"The motive of the British authorities in ordering his release is not known," said the official, "but the situation remains unchanged."
