UNB Students CAN HELP

THE MOST WE GIVE IS THE LEAST THEY NEED!
Students will line up like this at a bean-milk station at Nanking University in China as a result of contributions by Canadian university men and women to the $100,000 International Student Service, appeal this month. Large numbers of Chinese students exist on a starvation diet, and local relief committees supplement their food according to the needs found.

AAA Develops New Constitution

One of the proposals provides for the awarding of "letters" to members of the Ski team who turn in a first place or its equivalent. A move is also afoot to consider only inter-collegiate competition in making athletic awards.
The most far-reaching of the proposed changes however is in the manner of electing the captains of major Varsity teams. Under the present setup, the letter-winners of one year elect from among their number the captain of the next year's team. The captain must be a Senior. The new system, if adopted, will cause the captains to be elected after the team is picked for the year. In other words, he will be elected to his position by the same team as plays under him. A captain, under the new proposals may be a Senior, Junior, Sophomore or Freshman.
The constitution of the Amateur Athletic Association has been for some time the subject of considerable discussion. A text of the proposed changes has now been prepared and it is hoped that these proposals will provide a more up-to-date set of athletic rules.

Freshmen Beef At Class Meeting

"What's your beef?" was the main subject of the last Wednesday night's Freshman meeting. With President Buchan in the chair the meeting was lengthy with discussion arising about the Brunswickan, initiation, and the Upper Classmen.
The Brunswickan, according to the Freshman Class (about 9% was present), is not personal enough and should cover campus news more completely. The revival of initiation

Four Debates Listed
Four more debates are listed on the agenda of the Debating Society this term. On Friday, February 13, St. Thomas will meet Ralph Hay and Doug Rice here on the topic "Resolved: That All Vital Industries Should be Nationalized." Two debates are scheduled away from home. On Feb. 11, Ed Fanjoy and Harold Stafford will debate at Saint John Law School on the topic "Resolved: That a Federal World Government Should be Established." They will also debate the same topic at Pine Hill on Feb. 13. UNB has the affirmative in all three of these debates. A home debate is

UBC VETS MAY GET NEW PUB

Vancouver, -- (Cup).—Members of the University of British Columbia branch of the Canadian Legion may acquire the Dolphin Tea Room situated about a half mile from the University for a wet canteen.
The veterans are faced with financial difficulties but the majority of members feel that a canteen or some other form of entertainment is vitally necessary to hold the Legion together.
Another problem the campus Legion faces is obtaining a license from the British Columbia Liquor Board.
At present the Legion has a paid-up membership of 700 out of a total of over 2,500 active members. The Legion believes that if this plan is brought into effect the ranks will swell and the organization will develop into a little more than a bureau to aid needy veterans.
The question of increases for veterans was brought up at a Legion meeting and a wire was sent to Veterans Affairs Minister M. F. Gregg requesting: "that he give consideration to a responsible petition from the NCSV for a cost-of-living bonus based on government statistics."

R. R. Officials Crack Down

On "Shortcutters"
Mr. G. A. Johnston of the Investigation Department of the C. P. R. has asked me to call to the attention of the student body, the fact that many are trespassing on Railway Property by walking the tracks on the way to the University.
Two years ago a number of students were asked to appear in the Police Court for a similar offence and were fined ten dollars ($10.00) plus Costs.
The C. P. R. considers that walking the tracks is dangerous and while his visit this time is to give a sincere warning, he will be back in a short time and any students then found trespassing will be prosecuted. Please use the authorized roads to the University.
A. F. BAIRD,
Chairman, Board of Deans.

Newman Club Discusses Communism

"Communism is only a political concept, as far as I'm concerned, and is not any value to us," said Prof. Lorne Howett, at the Newman Club meeting Sunday night. Prof. Howett and Prof. James Dineen conducted a two-man board of general information, with Dr. Charles Boyd, Club Chaplain, likewise making contributions. The questions were those contributed by the members present and the discussion led to world affairs in general.
"We must learn to distinguish between Communism and Atheistic Communism," urged Prof. Howett, as he discussed the problem of leading interest. A lengthy discussion centered around the Customs' Union, and many of the Newmanites aired their opinion concerning our linking with United States although the general trend was toward the union of the two.
Following the discussion the president reminded the members that the Annual Retreat will be held this week-end, and will close with a Communion Breakfast on Sunday morning.

MOUNT ALLISON
Up on a hill (used mostly for sliding at the present time) in the town of Sackville, stand two impressive buildings—one on each side of the road—each a symbol of what lies beyond them. They are the two residences of Mount Allison University, Trueman House and the University General Residence housing most of the 980 students from every province in Canada, from the United States and the West Indies. Trueman House, only two years old, is the outstanding building, and known as the finest of its kind in the Dominion. The girls, too, live in a residence of repute, for it houses 300 of them under the one roof. All of them eat in the one fine cafeteria which is also shared with the boys.
It is a bit crowded here, now, but plans for reducing the enrollment to its pre-war size and thus raising the standards of college education are going forward. The Veterans have added greatly to the enrollment and two buildings of apartments have recently been erected on the campus for them. A new Rink is still under construction. It will also contain a much needed Common Room and Recreation Rooms. The authorities took pity on the array of forlorn faces looking bleakly at the unfinished task and even though the Rink is still without a roof, the ice-surface has been flooded.

Mount Allison's football team won the McCurdy Cup for the Senior Maritime Championship Title this year, and walked over St. Dunstan's University at P. E. I. to win the New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island Title as well. It is the "Mountie's" proud brag that during the entire season, not once was their line crossed for a touch-down

NO HOPE FOR NEW BRUNSWICK.

In reply to J. K. C. and M. V. J. in January 23rd Brunswickan on "New Brunswick—What's wrong with it." Albeit, undergraduate zeal is a splendid thing, the ambitious writers have overlooked a most important fact. Geography is an unalterable obstacle in New Brunswick's progress. The writers of the article state that "New Brunswick suffers from lack of imagination, and is a permanently depressed area broken by short lived booms." I think even they must agree that even the most imaginative planners would become depressed when they examine the possibilities for hydro power, and of a consequence, industrial development. Even were this power available, geography still holds a trump. Distances are considerable to present centers of population such as the Upper St. Lawrence Valley and Southern Ontario, and would greatly hinder competitive trading in those areas. Admittedly the Maritimes would eventually realize an influx of industry, and of population once these industries were established but how are they to become established in the face of such well entrenched opposition.

I speak here, of course, of the zealous graduate who seeks to establish a truly New Brunswick company, and not of the branches and subsidiaries of already thriving "upper Canadian" firms. There is little use denying that New Brunswick is isolated geographically from the choicest Canadian markets, though every Canadian wishes it were not so. A prosperous thriving Maritimes would obviously strengthen the entire Dominion, but geography is geography. Until atomic energy replaces hydro as the driving force of industry the graduate who admirably strives to put New Brunswick on her industrial feet is in for a difficult task.

WM. G. NETTLETON.

Letters To The Editor

Editor,
The Brunswickan.
Dear Sir:—We now know that the proposed Student Centre, in the revamped Memorial Hall, will not be available for use before 1950, so once more we are faced with the immediate solution of the "Library Problem."

There can be no possible criticism of the staff, for they have effected an admirable compromise between the complete silence necessary for study and the inevitable use of the library as a refuge from the cold.

We realize that it has been difficult to require silence in the reading room when the staff are forced to type and carry on other work in the same room where as many as 200 students are working and talking. This situation is manifestly unfair and should not be allowed to continue.

The simple solution would seem to be the construction of a partition between the main reading room and the working section of the library, thus benefiting both the staff and the students.

I hope that this will be received in the conservative sense in which it is meant, and that some action will be taken, preferably a bit faster than is usual around the university.

Sincerely yours,
A student who tries to study.

Mr. Editor:
A statement to the effect that in the Frosh's opinion 1951 will be the greatest year in the history of UNB since 1800, appeared last Tuesday in the "Food for Thought" column. I would like to correct this most unfortunate misunderstanding. 1952 will be the year!

The meeting actually began with the planning of the dance which the Freshman Class presents to the upper classmen annually. To raise funds the class will raffle a table radio (yet to be chosen). Tickets will be selling for 10c or 3 for 25c.

On February 20, the class is staging a skating party at Alex, which was among the minor subjects discussed by the group.

UBC BOUNCES STILL BOUNCED

Vancouver, (CUP).—Students in Engineering at the University of B. C., who tried to appeal against the time-honored custom whereby those who make low marks in the Christmas exams are asked not to return, met with no success, the Dean of the Faculty announced here.

The system, which has been in force for many years, is designed to eliminate the type of student who does no work through the year and relies on spring cramming to get through. Student jargon has made an unofficial degree of it, the B.A.C. (Bounced at Christmas).

Dean J. N. Finlayson, of the Faculty of Applied Science, said he had talked over the situation with all who had appealed, but that none of them had been re-admitted.

From the editorials of the past two weeks, it is hard to determine whether the university papers exist for the sake of politics or the I. U. S. Current problems and education in general got third drippings from the editors' pens.

Political Notes.

WORLD SAVERS:

Another political party is claiming knowledge to the solution of the world's problems at the University of Toronto. The Social Credit party has organized there with the very negative support of the Varsity. Charges against it: anti-semitic, anti-political parties, unsound economics in its platform, and too reminiscent of Hitler in the 20's or Mussolini after the first world war.

Marx opened his manifesto by saying that the spectre of communism was haunting Europe. S. Endicott, president of the U. of T. Communist Club, says that same spectre is haunting the world. Mr. Endicott accuses P. M. King of being the last in a long line to declare that Canadians must fight this spectre, but Mr. Endicott seems to suffer the same dilemma by following the communist "line" of declaring: the Marshall Plan imperialistic; Canada's action equally as bad; the real menace to the world today is the reaction against Communism.

The Progressive Conservatives on the Varsity campus editorialize by issuing their own "manifesto." Items: union recognition; National Labor Code; ousting of monopolies; cartels (in exchange, possibly government control); subsidizing housing, and equalized standards with no economic bar. A noble task for any party.

INFILTRATION:

The Ubysey has stated its views on politics in student government neatly. While its considered opinion is that "we do not regard political issues as a necessary part of student government," the Ubysey warns Grant Livingstone, president of the Alma Mater Society, to quit chasing Communists for the Veterans Legion and attend to student government—non-politically.

The Western Gazette wants either liberty or death from the "stench of politics." A Christmas card from Premier Drew has been in a noticeable position in the Students' Council office for some time and a situation like that calls for action. Who knows, there might be a Communist or even a Liberal in the same office!

The Gateway commends the Education Undergraduate Society on the U. of Alberta campus for refusing to distribute the pamphlet: "The Communist Threat to Canada," published by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. Reasons for commendations: protecting the unbiased attitude of a true university, and protecting themselves from further propaganda and political attacks. The same situation exists in the Maritimes, in a different form. The same source is getting its anti-red propaganda aired over local radio stations—free.

UNB suffers a common political dilemma: biased prejudices. "An idiot, it is said, makes a good conservative, a lunatic a sincere socialist, and a compromise a sound liberal"—and to prove its point the editorial suggests the reactions of political beings reading that statement. The Conservative sneers, the Socialist labels it "Big Business," and the Liberal pats himself on the back—for being a compromise between an idiot and a lunatic. The moral: listen to the other fellows

Your UNB Flying Club will hold a meeting next Thursday evening, February 12, 1948, at 7:30 in the Forestry & Geology Bldg. We are to have an important business meet-

At the conclusion of the business meeting Professor Sanger will give a talk on "The Evolution of Flight" accompanied by slides. Professor Sanger has made quite an intensive study of this subject from its beginning and will review the story of Flight up to approximately 1940. It will prove very interesting so plan now to be there.

Watch the bulletin board for the number of the room where the meeting will be held.

Doug Rice, Business Manager, says of Don's leaving "Cook has been a great guy to work with. He has helped me do a job I could never have done alone. I want to thank him very much for a job well done."

Dick Armstrong, Freshman Science, has been jockeyed into Cooke's job by Doug Rice, Business Manager. Formerly Associate News Editor, Armstrong believes that he is more of a business man than "copy boy."

Mount A. can claim fame, not only in Sports but also through the achievements of her graduates. Many men have gone out from old Mount Allison, to play important parts in the shaping of world events. Mr. Justice Ivan C. Rand of the Supreme Court represented Canada in presenting her recommendation for the partition of Palestine. Dr. A. W. Trueman, former head of the English Department here, until recently President of the University of Manitoba, has now returned to the Maritimes as President of the University of New Brunswick. Dr. George W. Patterson has recently been chosen to represent Canada on the United Nations Commission to Korea.

The 'Red Wave' of Pete Kelly's Varsity Hockey machine will roll into Mount Allison and St. Thomas for its away from home games in the N. B. Intercollegiate League this week-end.

Saturday afternoon they meet Mount A., a team which this year has no indoor rink, and is reported to be in poor condition. The return game with Tommies is Monday.

UNB has not lost a game to date, winning each contest with a good margin.

Will Rodgers, manager of the UNB Hockey team has cleared the situation in regard to game profits by explaining the system used. Although all York League and inter-collegiate home games are played in the Arena, only half of the local league games are home games for UNB as the Arena is home rink for all the teams.

UNB receives 40 per cent of the gate on its home games and inter-collegiate games.

Interscholastic Cage Tourney Plans Are Announced

The annual Interscholastic Basketball Tournament will take place here March 4, 5 and 6, according to plans prepared by the governing provincial association.

A change in the event this year will be the establishment of A and B tournaments, for large and small schools. The B contests are to be held at Woodstock earlier, and are for schools having less than 100 boys in attendance. The winner will then be entered in the A tournament at Fredericton.

E. S. Sypher of Fredericton is in charge of organization. The games begin Thursday evening and conclude with the championship final Saturday afternoon. Last year's winner was St. Vincent's High School of Saint John.

Opening games are listed as: Rothesay vs. Campbellton, Moncton vs. Saint John High, St. Vincent's vs. Fredericton, Mount Allison vs. B. Winner.

Passes will be sold for the tournament and UNB passes will be honored. A dance is to be held Friday night.

Hockey teams which have faced off against the UNB squad to date, probably realize the significance of the warning, "The redcoats are coming." Coach Kelly has whipped up a strong organization.

Dalhousie Tigers of Halifax defeated the St. Dunstan's Hockey team the other night, 9-7. S.D.U. are defending Maritime Intercollegiate Champs. St. Andrews Senators laid a 13-5 defeat on Saint John. Drydock Tuesday.

Mount Allison lost out in basketball to Aroostook State Normal last week-end. They have lost quite a few games this season, and don't look as good as they did at the beginning of the season. They have been going farther from home this year, picking games with Woodland, Aroostook and Woodstock. All of these they lost.

Woodstock Senators have won over all top N. B. teams (including Mount Allison twice) except for Saint John, who it is said, don't wish to play Woodstock.

UNB team is defending Maritime Champions. Juniors will not be in action this week-end.

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRUNSWICK
VOL. 67 No. 1
VETS UNB VERSUS

Last week UBC vets making claims for their off-foolhardily threw out a challenge to all Canadian Universities their best in a "beautiful test" against these so-called glamour gals and boys of the West Coast campus. We accepted this boastful challenge with complete confidence that our youngsters can run the westerners right into the ground.

To prepare plans for this contest, a meeting will be held on Wednesday 11th February in Bldg. 10 Alexander. Every campus Daddy Mummy and all others (ladies and gentlemen) are invited to attend.

The finest specimen of a U.N.B. vet on the University of British Columbia campus would be just as good as any other "run" beside the lusty of veterans attending New Brunswick universities, student leaders.

Claim of U.B.C. students have sired Canada's most beautiful babies brought snorts of "When they get out of Columbia, they get out of their minds." Children of U.N.B.'s 1500 red veis were committed to "Diaper" against British Columbia's best.

John Clark, president of the University Veterans Club said he will be despatched to accept the challenge of the U.N.B. vets.

"I might be a winner in the U. N. B. student contest," said Clark. "I have two entries."

Mr. Clark is father of a blue-eyed John Jr. months and two-month-old blue-eyed daughter as shy of hair, but otherwise a runner among babies.

This morning a telegram details of Operation Diapering up the cudgels for the U.N.B. dren will be despatched to the coast.

Text of the wire: "Red Diaper. We accept you. With our ever increasing beautiful babies we are producing the winner. 5000 lbs of contest."

"Babies?" declared a U.N.B. vet. "on this campus we have whatever the judging we're in... all colors, shapes from new-born to old."

"The place is alive with nursing babies or babies black-eyed, blue-eyed, blonde, dark, curly hairless—one think we have campus is babies."

According to one veteran Atlantic air. We have students all parts of Canada and dren get more beautiful coast air is probably better than that of the prairie for parents in the kids cheeks but far from Brunswick zones.
