

DISCUSSED ANNEXATION.

City Council Decides in Favor of Whole East Section.

Fire Department Promotions Passed Without Change.

Sale of City Debentures Approved of by Aldermen.

A resolution declaring it expedient to annex the large district from Sherman avenue to a point east of Ottawa street, provided the terms verbally agreed upon by the township representatives and the aldermen, are embodied in the order, was passed by the City Council last night.

There was only one dissenting voice, Ald. Morris, who declared that after giving the matter a great deal of thought he was forced to the conclusion that it was not expedient for Hamilton to take in any more territory at present.

$7,000 FOR THE Y. M. C. A.

Why Can Hamilton Not Do as Well as Halifax?

Halifax, N. S., is in the last stages of a Y. M. C. A. building fund campaign. A short time ago the progressive association of that eastern city decided to raise $108,000, and the movement has met with such success that the directors are being urged by the citizens to go further and make the amount $120,000.

The feature of the day was a subscription of $7,000 from Miss Emily C. Scarie in memory of her father, the late Frederick Scarie, Mayor of Dartmouth, N. S.

In Halifax there are a citizens' committee and a young men's organization, consisting of ten teams.

The citizens' committee have raised $42,045 and the young men's teams $23,012.50.

The total number of teams subscribed is 787, and of these 734 were secured by the young men, leaving 43 who have been secured by the citizens' committee, in large subscriptions, not including a number made direct to the association.

Here in Hamilton the directors think there are a number of citizens who could do something like Miss Scarie has done in Halifax, and like Mr. Robert Mills has done here.

THE HYDRO SCHEME NOT A SURE THING.

What Will Happen If Both the By-laws Are Carried on Monday Next.

Although it has been announced that the Hydro-Electric Commission has closed the contracts for the transmission lines and electrical equipment, which gives the impression that the scheme is to be gone on with at once, it is reported that there is a saving clause which will permit the Government to cancel these contracts at any time before actual work on them is begun.

About 1 o'clock this morning a practical joker reached his hand through the wicket in the ticket office of the Crystal Palace, and pulling out the telephone, sent in an alarm to the fire department.

RING GONE.

When the body of Jack Jamieson, the wrestler and football player, who was drowned in the bay a couple of months ago, was recovered last week, a diamond ring which was presented to him by the Tiger Football Club was on his finger.

GOOD TIMES IN THE FALL.

Westinghouse Will Begin on Hydro-Electric Work.

Months Yet Required to Work Out the Details.

Hamilton Firm Has Important Part of Contract.

By next autumn the Canadian Westinghouse Company's big works will be going full blast filling one of the largest, and, in some respects the most important contracts ever awarded any firm for electrical equipment.

The contract is a unique one because it represents something entirely new in advanced engineering. It is only within the last three months that two or three plants, with high tension lines, carrying 110,000 volts, have been successfully operated.

A year or so ago, when the Commission called for tenders on equipment, five or six of the largest electrical firms in America were bidders.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

It's the shady side of the street now.

Who will be next? The bay is greedy.

Pittsburg is to have a "clean city day" some time between the end of June and the middle of July.

The evenings are here now when father sits out of doors in the rocker smoking his pipe and reading the paper, or talking politics with the man next door.

That the General Assembly may have fine weather and the Commission a pleasant time in Hamilton I am sure is the wish of all the citizens.

Suppose we had a Government inspector of all small craft on the bay, would there be fewer drownings?

The north end people should keep an eye on the persons who propose to sell the North End Park for factory sites.

Now watch the Dog Protective Association get busy.

At any rate, ex-Mayor Stewart cannot make the city pay the expense connected with the Twentieth Century Club meeting this evening in the interests of the Hydro-Electric by-law.

A proposal to abolish the position of Superintendent of the Waterworks Department, possibly the position of Secretary of the Fire and Water Committee, and, likely a reduction of the waterworks outdoor staff, according to a report in municipal circles, which is impossible to get officially confirmed, are the most startling changes talked of in connection with the scheme for a re-organization of civic departments.

Criminal Cases Heard by Judge Snider in Chambers.

Fred. Tassie's Word Taken as to His Good Intentions.

If Bartenders Supply Drink They Must Take Consequences.

A judge's criminal court was held today at 11 o'clock by Judge Snider. Fred Tassie, charged with stealing $6.48 from Thos. Martin on March 20, pleaded not guilty.

Arthur Plastow, butcher, was first called. He swore that Tassie was working for him at the time. He gave a hindquarter of beef to Tassie to be delivered to Mr. Kerr, 428 Mary street.

Thos. Martin, butcher, of Barton, said he gave the prisoner a hindquarter of beef and also the ticket of $6.48 for Mr. Kerr.

Market Constable Nichol's testimony was read to the court and was a corroboration of the evidence given by Messrs. Martin and Plastow.

Tassie, the prisoner, was then called. He said he had delivered the meat and put the money in his pocket. He returned and looked for Mr. Martin, but could not find him.

Judge Snider accepted the prisoner's word, and was inclined to leniency because of this being his first appearance.

Robert and Thos. Murphy were charged with assaulting Walter Obernesser with intent to do bodily harm, on April 16, 1909. They pleaded not guilty.

Jacob Obernesser swore that he was bartender at his father's store, and at 2:30 o'clock on April 16 last he had trouble with these two men.

Robert Murphy's evidence was that he had only drunk one glass of beer and he did not remember throwing the glass.

Judge Snider said he could see no case against Thos. Murphy. According to Wm. Obernesser's testimony he had given the men several drinks, and should be prepared for the consequences if he gave them too much drink.

Death of Mrs. Duval Will Keep Moderator Away.

The death of Mrs. Duval, wife of Rev. Dr. Duval, of Winnipeg, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which occurred last night, will prevent Dr. Duval from attending the Assembly.

TOOK MONEY OF OTHERS.

Little Girl Penitent and Was Allowed to Go.

Toronto Man Fined For Immoderate Auto Driving.

Several Wages Cases in Police Court This Morning.

A penitent little girl stood in the prisoners' dock at the Police Court this morning, charged with stealing sums of money amounting to $10-$6 from Miss Ida Summers, for whom she worked, and $4.10 from Miss Mary Daniels, another employee.

Detective Sayers was called and a consultation was held. Miss Daniels recalled the fact that she had noticed the girl enter the lavatory three or four times, and it was decided to search around there.

Miss Summers found a purse stuck in a crack in the wall, and the $10 was found wrapped up in a paper parcel and stuck behind a pipe.

Miss Summers gave evidence of a similar nature, and identified her purse. Detective Sayers told of the finding of the money and swore that the defendant had admitted her guilt.

W. M. McClelland appeared for the girl's parents and asked to be allowed to change the plea. She was a young girl and he thought this would be a lesson to her and that in the future she would live an honest life.

Clever Hamilton Lady Gets Appointment at St. Mary's.

Miss Sadie Fraser, A. T. C. M., of this city, has been appointed organist and leader of the choir of First Presbyterian Church, St. Mary's, Ont., and will enter upon her duties at once.

Miss Fraser was one of many applicants and was the favorite from the first. The church pays $500 a year, besides which she is assured of a large teaching practice.

Last evening the St. Mary's Church gave a farewell for the retiring organist who has been there twenty years, and a reception for Miss Fraser, who both played and sang at it.

RECOVERED ONE BODY.

That of Albert Milburn Found in 50 Feet of Water.

The body of Albert Milburn, one of the young men who was drowned on Saturday, was recovered yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

Robert and Thos. Murphy were charged with assaulting Walter Obernesser with intent to do bodily harm, on April 16, 1909. They pleaded not guilty.

Robert Murphy's evidence was that he had only drunk one glass of beer and he did not remember throwing the glass.

A Love Affair

She glided to him rather fearfully, and put her hand on his arm. "Has she not written to you too, Wolfe? Has she not left a word—a single word? Oh, she could not be so cruel as to leave it all to me!"

She shivered and clung to him, but he put her gently aside. "Let me go, mother," he said, hoarsely. "I want to be alone."

He left her and dragged himself up the stairs. As he entered his room the first thing that met his eyes was his wedding-suit lying neatly folded, ready for the morrow—his wedding-suit!

Meanwhile, Rawson Fenton's carriage, avoiding the highroads as much as possible, sped on its way. He had chosen his two best and fastest horses for this night's work, and trusting to the device by which Lady Ruth would put the marquis off the scent, he had little fear of being overtaken.

Constance, with her cloak drawn over her face, lay in the extreme corner of the carriage, speechless and motionless, while Mary, stricken with terror and amazement, sat and stared vacantly at Rawson Fenton opposite her.

"Has the up-train gone?" asked the marquis, hoarsely. "Yes, my lord, a quarter of an hour ago," was the reply.

"The stationmaster shook his head. 'No, my lord.' 'You are sure?' 'Quite certain, my lord. I know Miss Grahame well, of course, and couldn't make a mistake. There were only two passengers from the town; no one else, my lord.'

THE ELECTRIC CITY HAMILTON What Electric Power is to Hamilton TIMES ADVERTISEMENTS Are to the Merchant

THE EARLY REIGN OF ELIZABETH (By Anna Deming Gray, in the 'Sunday Republican.') He squared his shoulders in a way that dated back to the football team at Andover. I am not going to worry about this thing another minute, he said, firmly. The committee had left the study a half-hour ago. It had been a very courteous, well-behaved committee, too, but that did not help matters. 'What's more,' he went on, 'I refuse to be hauled about by a set of meddling—but he remembered himself, and stopped. 'I will wear a gown if they insist upon it—I'll look like a in it—but I will not be pushed into matrimony until I'm ready, if I am 40! 'John, dear,' John called a soft voice from the other room. 'I think the new girl is coming. Can you go to the door? She was to be here at 10 o'clock, and there's somebody coming up the walk now. They so often promise and then don't come that I was hardly expecting her. 'Yes, I'll go, mother. Shall I bring her in here?' he asked, pausing by her chair and smoothing her hair with a hand that had learned much tenderness by close companionship with superior. 'I will engage her myself, if you would rather. I take her right into the study. I have heard you ask the questions so often, I ought to be able to do it. There's no great art about it. 'There's a great art about getting a good one,' she said, smiling. 'Be sure to find if she can make good bread, and if she cooks meals well, and—there, I hear the bell.—' And the Rev. John went to his self-imposed task. 'Good morning, Will you come in?' he said, briskly, holding the door open for her. 'If you will come into the study I will talk with you. Hither has been ill and I'm afraid of it's tiring her. 'A very trim figure in a plain wearing suit and a black hat with a somewhat jaunty feather. 'Not so much rigged up as the most of them,' thought the Rev. John, and I rather like that. But—well, really, she looks as much a lady as any of the First. 'Oh, the girl—and why shouldn't she?' They had reached the study, and he gave her a chair. She put her small satchel beside her and sat looking at him. There seemed to be a rather quizzical expression in her gray eyes, but he felt sure he knew the reason for this. She was amazed at a man attempting to engage a maid of all work. He would show her that he was quite equal to the task. 'Can you bake good bread?' he asked, firmly, remembering his mother's injunction. '—I think I can,' said the girl, and now there was a decided twinkle in the Rev. John's eyes. 'I had heard of it on firmly. 'Do you cook meals well—and—and chickens?' He was not sure that this last should be included, but he risked it. 'Very well,' said the girl; 'as was the housekeeper for over a year at home. 'And can you make charlotte russe and codfish balls and goulash and cranberry sauce and floating island—and—and pancakes?' He was trying to think of the things his mother liked, and also of a few of his own favorites. 'Yes—I've been to cooking school, and now the twinkle broadened into a smile. 'Oh! said the minister, with relief. 'I hardly need to ask you any more, and could you be at once—' Stay now! Mother isn't strong yet and I shouldn't left this morning. I hardly know what to do. I should be very glad if it suited you to stay. We are not hard to please. '—I suppose I could stay now,' said the girl. 'And he picked up her satchel and led the way briskly, as if he feared that she might even yet change her mind. After he had gone down stairs the new girl closed the door, and flinging herself into the rocking-chair, laughed until there were tears in her eyes. 'Of course and his sail. Picture Puzzles at Our House. Yes, Polly, in the living room with Fred Delaney Brown. A cut-up picture puzzle he has just brought you, from town; And grandma's hat his den, and essay, Oh, please don't shake the table, She's sorting eyes and noses out as fast as she is able. While sister Kate is on the stairs with blocks upon her lap, And father's locked the bedroom door as if to take a nap. Now mother's pushed the dining room, the dishes gauded off, She's sorting eyes and noses out as fast as she is able. The children quarrel on the porch, with pieces of the floor; If anybody steps around they raise a dreadful roar. Beyond. Think thou and act. To-morrow thou shalt die. Outstretched in the sun's warmth upon the shore. Thou sayest: Man's measured path is all gone up all his years, steep with strain and sigh. Man climb until he touched the truth and I, Even I, am he whom it was destined for. How should this be? Art thou, then so much more? Then they who sowed that thou shouldst reap there, have sown it in thy heart. Nay, come up higher. From this wave wash-ed ground Unto the farthest flood-brim look with me; Then reach on with thy thought till it be drowned. Miles and miles distant though the gray line be, And though thy soul sail leagues and leagues still leagues beyond those leagues there is more sea. '—Dante Gabriel Rossetti.

Story of a Dan-eilion. A dandelion grew in a garden path. In the shade of an old stone wall. The slender leaves made an emerald mat. Where the stem grew straight and tall. In the cool spring days she had worn a hood That was small and tight and green; She wore it as long as she possibly could, Till many a hole was worn. Then she sent down word through her stem To the storehouse under her feet. That she needed at once a very new hat. With trimmings and all complete. It was as fine as silk and yellow as gold. Like a star that had fallen down; With the brightest trimmings, fold on fold. The gayest hat in town. The next she wanted a summer hat. Adorned with the latest fashions; So they sent her one in place of that. They sent with velvet blooms. For many a day she weaved and danced, And bowed to the birds and bees; For many a day the sunbeams glanced Through leaves of the friendly trees. But a brisk little wind went by, one day. 'Please give me your hat,' he cried; 'And scatter them for and aside. '—Eliot A. Curtis, in Kindergarten Review.

'When I Was Your Age.' When pa was my age—'ere few grown men could do what he could do. He didn't waste his time at play, But did a man's work every day; He mugged that were hard and strong; He sought the right and shunned the wrong; His parents never had to scold. Or fret when pa was 12 years old. 'When I was your age—'Jimmuneel! How often pa says that to me! At every meal I have to hear The same old story of petty near; 'When I was my age he would eat Just wholesome things with little rest; He wouldn't even taste of cake, And shunned pie for his stummock's sake. When pa was my age he would save Up every cent he got—and—brave! If he'd of met a lion, he'd say: 'Could not have frightened him a bit! The thing he liked to do the best Was good hard work with little rest; In school he stood above them all And he was nearly six feet tall. 'When I was your age—' Every day pa binds that under the same old way; He's lost the muscle that he had; He can't afford to work with little rest; At least no banners seem to fly. And no bands play when he goes by. Down where he labors, wet and dry. They keep pa in a little cage I wonder why he wishes I Would be like he was at my age. '—S. E. Kiser, in the Chicago Record-Herald.

The Riser of civil servants at Ottawa have been increased to from 9 to 5, with an hour and a half for lunch. The Grand Trunk Pacific trainmen are said to have applied for a Board of Conciliation, alleging that conditions in the west are very onerous. I wrote him last week, saying that the said Miss Dudley had not materialized. This is what he writes: 'Dear John: Much surprised in regard to what you say of Miss Dudley. She is a graduate of the Chicago Musical College. Handles a pipe organ splendidly, and starts for Waverly with a letter of introduction to yourself from me. She is a beautiful girl, and the finest type of womanhood—um—um—here it is: 'Without doubt she has a fine musical career before her. I shall look the matter up at once.' That's all he says about it, but in face of the fact that she never came, it seems queer. I hope he will look it up. Elizabeth, who was changing the salad plates, dropped a fork; and when she picked it up the Rev. John noticed that her cheeks were the color of a wild rose, and she was laughing. 'I beg your pardon,' said Elizabeth. 'I have no one else in view,' went on the minister, 'for I've been keeping the place for this Miss Dudley—but—well—I'm not sure I approve of young ladies anyway, who have set out to be a 'career.' Perhaps that was only one of Jack Appleton's expressions.' 'John, you are very old-fashioned,' laughed his mother. 'I think I'll take issue with you. A career is all right for a woman, provided it's the right kind of a career.' (Extract from the Minister's Diary.) The world is advancing. Elizabeth asked mother this evening if she had a copy of Browning! I came in yesterday and found her reading aloud from a sermon of Phillips Brooks. Said she happened to have it in her satchel. She has beautiful hair—a kind of red gold. She reads aloud to mother in the evening, and as she has a very pleasing voice, I have joined them lately. I understand the standing committee will again visit me to-morrow. (Extract from Elizabeth's Diary.) I have been here five or six days, and the Rev. John improves on acquaintance. He puts his whole heart into his work—I admire people who know how to be in dead earnest. He mentioned at dinner, incidentally, that he did not approve of women with a career. Just as if it matters whether he approves or does not! If he wasn't so pokey he would be an interesting man—for a minister. I almost dropped the salad yesterday, when he read a note from Mr. Appleton, setting forth my high qualities. I suppose the proper thing would have been for me to go behind the door and put my fingers in my ears. I never did care for young ministers—they take themselves so seriously. He is so earnest and good himself that it's likely he will marry some little fly-away woman, not half worthy of him. That kind of men often do. I don't know that it makes any difference—only I should be sorry for his mother. The minister stood in the middle of the kitchen floor. There was a rather dazed expression in his eyes. He was watching Elizabeth in her neat blue calico, as she moved from kitchen to pantry. She was well worth watching, and the kitchen was a very sunny and inviting place these days. Your mother needed a housekeeper a great deal more than the First church needed an organist. Anyhow, it was your own fault—you took everything for granted,' said Elizabeth, avoiding his eyes. 'But—but, Elizabeth!' he said. 'I don't see how we can get along. The house won't be the same without you, and—' Elizabeth was polishing a tin pan, and she stopped and looked at him, waiting for him to finish. And then—in a moment—the Rev. John knew. Twenty minutes later he went upstairs two steps at a time, like a boy, and flung open the library door. 'Mother,' he said, 'I'm going to surprise you dreadfully.' 'No, John,' said his mother, gently. 'I do not believe that you are, I knew long before either one of you suspected it, and I'm very glad, dear. It seems very strange, too, for your grandfather used to have courted your grandmother ten years before he asked her to marry him, and your father and I were engaged six years, and your Uncle John—' But the minister was not listening. 'And I have known Elizabeth but six weeks!' he said, with a happy laugh. But, you see, it's a different matter with me, mother. I have that committee to consider, and I'm expecting them again this afternoon.'

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Tomorrow evening the Supreme Court of Canadian Presbyterianism begins its sittings in this city. The meeting of the General Assembly of such a Church is an event of some importance. It deals with vast interests, material as well as moral; and, for a few days to come, the eyes of Canadian Presbyterianism will be directed toward this city. The Church is in a prosperous condition, and there is nothing, so far as we are aware, to lead us to look for anything sensational in the business to be transacted. It is a time of national progress and development, and the Presbyterian Church has been very busily occupied in meeting the demands made upon it by the great influx of settlement and the opening up of new territory. To fully do its duty in this respect makes great demands upon its ministry and membership. We have not beside us, at the moment any official figures of the proportion of Presbyterians in our population, but the figures of the census of 1891 and 1901 show a wonderful progress which has doubtless been more than maintained in the years that have elapsed since that time. The census of 1901 reported the Presbyterian population of Canada as 842,442, a figure exceeded only by the Methodists and Roman Catholics. According to the decennial figures of 1891-1901 the distribution of Presbyterians in the various Provinces was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Province and Population. Rows include British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, N. W. Territories, and Unorganized.

In the last eight years there has been an unprecedented increase of Canadian population, largely by immigration, most of which has settled in the newer provinces. There the great field for missionary effort has been found, and we look for evidences of remarkable progress in the statistics to be presented to the Assembly from that quarter of the Dominion. The Church is in a healthy position, alive to her duty and opportunities, and determined to give a good account of her stewardship. Her field is indeed a large one and challenges to enthusiasm. Hamilton extends a hearty welcome to the delegates to the Assembly, and her people will try to make their stay a pleasant one. Much sympathy will go out to Rev. Dr. Duval, the retiring Moderator, in the bereavement which he has sustained in the loss of his wife, which sad occurrence will probably prevent him from participating personally in the work of the Assembly at this meeting.

AN OBSTRUCTIONIST'S BLUFF.

At a Tory meeting in Toronto the other night, George E. Foster, the great obstructionist of the last Parliament, showed how little he appreciated the forbearance of the Government in not compelling him to the reasonableness and courtesy which his duty as a sworn member of Parliament should make him yield to the country's service. He boasted of the obstructionists' harassing of the Government, saying, "I tell you the Opposition not only makes the menu for the Government, but it makes them eat it, and if they refuse, we shove it down their throats." Sir Wilfrid Laurier's consideration of a man like that is wasted. It seems to have been a case of throwing pearls before swine. The first work of the session have been the amendment of the rules of the House to suppress the Parliamentary hoodlum and to enforce that respect for the people's business which men of Foster's ilk do get seem willing to yield without it. In the goodness of his heart Sir Wilfrid was unwilling to recommend anything in the shape of a closure rule, preferring to appeal to the good sense and honor of the members. Just how much influence good sense and honor have upon some of these obstructionists is illustrated by this insolent boast of Foster. It is practically a notice that the Opposition intends to prevent the will of the majority of the people's representatives from being done, and that to accomplish this, it will resort to its shameful methods of last Parliament, of which, in its party cabals, it does not hesitate to express pride. Unrestricted debate is not for a Parliament composed of or directed by men like Foster. Almost every legislative assembly in the world now regulates its debates by some rule of closure. We think Sir Wilfrid Laurier made a mistake when he did not place the amendment of the rules as one of the first items to be dealt with by the present Parliament. Is he taking notice of Foster's bragging speeches on the subject?

A HOLLOW BLUFF.

The St. John Sun is not enamored of Sir James Whitney's stage patriotism. It will be remembered that when Parliament unanimously passed the resolution declaring for Canadian participation in Empire defence by moving toward its own defence in co-operation with the Imperial authorities and with their approval, Sir James Whitney seized the occasion to pose as a much more advanced Imperialist, to regret that Parliament had not gone much further, and to declare that we should have immediately offered to present the Imperial navy with one or two Dreadnoughts. It was announced with much flourish of trumpets that Whitney and Roblin, and perhaps McBride, of British Columbia, were going to illustrate their superior loyalty to the Empire by contributing a Dreadnought or two on behalf of those Provinces. This windy loyalty seems to have effervesced; at least, it came to nothing. And, according to the St. John Sun, Whitney now explains that he wanted Canada only to offer Dreadnoughts to the British navy—not actually to contribute them. "In my humble opinion," he said at a reception in his honor this week, "better results would have followed if the Government at Ottawa had cabled that we were prepared to recommend to the house to appropriate the price of a Dreadnought or perhaps two Dreadnoughts. If they had done that, I am sure it would never have been necessary to send Dreadnoughts."

The Sun remarks, concerning this: "In other words, if he had been Premier of Canada he would have bet two Dreadnoughts as a little bluff, sure that it would not be called. Possibly this policy would have been a good advertisement for Canada, but it's a little too cheap to win the approval of self-respecting Canadians. We thought Sir James Whitney was a bigger man."

FEW WIN IN THE GAME.

The investigation conducted by Governor Hughes, of New York, into stock exchange speculation disclosed some facts of interest to the public. The committee found ample evidence of the fact that Wall street is not a sure road to easy wealth. In fact it was led to conclude that the successful ones are few, and that probably between 90 and 98 out of every hundred who make haste to get rich by resorting to speculation therein lose their money. One broker of many years' experience averred that every one who entered the street, except as a broker, lost money. He says that in a partnership contract to preclude a junior indulging in speculation he made a bona fide offer of $5,000 for the name and address of every verified winning customer of any Wall street house—provided only that the customer had so traded for two years as to make his account an "active" one. He was not called on to pay. Another stated that in twelve years of large operations as a broker he did not know of a single customer who withdrew a dollar of net winnings. Similar statements were received from many brokers of experience. The fact that the average margin trader can stay but a brief time in the game is illustrated by the other fact that nearly every Wall street broker and every bucket shop has an entire new list of customers every three to five years. The gullible is a great crop, however, and the shores of to-day are crowded aside rudely to-morrow by the fresh supply of lambs bleating to be shorn. How would the sharp fellows live if it were not for the trusting fools looking for short cuts to riches?

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Now let the city dog-catchers show some discrimination in dealing with farmers' canines.

Keep your doggie in now in conformity with the by-law if you do not care for him to fall into the hands of the dog-catchers.

Ex-Mayor Stewart cannot charge these Hydro-Electric meeting expenses up to Hamilton ratepayers. Who is to pay the shot this time?

Let the Yankees raise the tariff walls against Canada. We shall just go along taking Yankee capital and industries to build up Canada. Oh, we can get even!

There will be an eclipse of the moon on Thursday next. The moon enters the shadow at 6.43, the total eclipse being at 7.58, the middle of the eclipse is at 8.29 and the moon leaves the shadow at 10.14.

The Toronto school cadets who went to England to compete for the Princess of Wales' prize do not appear to have had much success. But still, we think the Empire may hang together, even if they did not win.

The debenture debt of Saskatchewan is now $820,821, or based on a population of 8,000, about $103 per capita. It is a space with a future, and the people are determined to be ready to grasp the opportunities as they present themselves.

The United States immigration stream is decreasing. The steamer arrivals for the first five months of this year were 274,870 more than in the same period last year, but the arrivals for last week fell off heavily, and lighter immigration is looked for for the rest of the season.

Winnipeg street railway men are not satisfied with the award of the Board of Conciliation. They have not got everything that they wanted. The award was a unanimous one, however, and there are few disputes which are settled satisfactorily to the extremists of both sides.

Another strike in the Dominion Textile Company's mills is threatened. There are far too many threatened labor difficulties for the good of Canadian industry.

They are, however, an indication that trade is picking up—if we but give it a chance.

Roy, the St. John's bank president, is breaking stone in the penitentiary as convict No. 5,204. His punishment is salutary; but unfortunately, it does not give back to the wronged shareholders and depositors the money of which they were defrauded.

Patten, the wheat operator, expresses the opinion that high prices will prevail in the world's markets for a year to come. He says United States methods of crop cultivation must be improved, as the wheat lands are "cropped to death." A shortage in this year's crop might make good his prophecy.

"Stewart"? Where did he hear that name before? Is this the fellow who deals in tombstones, and who got $2,500 for attending the session of Parliament at which he advocated higher duty on granite—which he uses—and on stoves and read a long attack on the Independent-Order of Foresters?

But the Fruit-Growers' Association would be well advised not to adopt the restrictive methods of the big trusts and combines. They are very far from indicated by the situation; they could not possibly succeed in any event. It has a big field in which to operate in preventing the terrible waste of fruit which is going on.

The immigration to Canada from British and European ports fell off to the extent of 117,081 in the year ending March 31. The decrease is chargeable largely to the restrictive legislation recently passed. There has been little falling off in the immigration of farmers from Great Britain and immigration of settlers from the United States has increased.

Canada has now 1,974 branches of chartered banks. They are distributed as follows: Ontario 933, Quebec 315, Nova Scotia 104, New Brunswick 65, Prince Edward Island 16, Manitoba 162, Alberta 111, Saskatchewan 161, British Columbia 106, Yukon 3.

Chicago's high license policy, introduced in 1905, has not resulted, as was feared in some quarters, in forcing many of the saloons out of business. When, on the first of last month, the licenses were renewed, every one of the applicants came forward with the $1,000 fee, and not a single license was allowed to lapse. It is believed that Chicago's revenue from saloons will not again fall below $7,000,000 a year.

The Council has approved of the proposed terms for the annexation of a portion of Barton township, but the matter has to be passed upon by the Railway and Municipal Board, before which the arrangement will have active opposition. Of one thing, however, the Council should make sure; Hamilton does not wish to load up with additional territory that will prove a burden upon the taxpayers of the older part of the city.

Rev. R. J. Treleven has good reason to be pleased with the gilt-edged complimentary resolution of his church. It expresses not only the sentiments of First Methodists, but it will be generally concurred in by a very large circle of acquaintances outside of the Methodist Church who think very highly of the retiring pastor and wish him a long and useful career and the enjoyment of "the best things" of the world.

Count Zeppelin's airship, of whose success the cable man did so much boasting yesterday, came to grief on its return trip to Friedrichshafen. It collided with a tree, and was severely damaged, and lies in a position which threatens its utter destruction. The crew escaped. The fact that occasionally an airship makes a flight without being smashed to pieces and killing the aeronauts hardly warrants the assumption that air navigation is soon to take the place of the navies which now ride the deep.

Toronto is within $1,800,000 of her borrowing power. The city must pay her share of the cost of the viaduct, $1,500,000 to $2,000,000, and $700,000 is required for the sea wall. The total debt of 1909 with the additions already voted will be $38,408,570. The best figuring possible cannot make more than about $17,500,000 of that debt for revenue-producing purposes. The increase in population since 1901 has been 60 per cent.; increase in assessment 77 per cent.; increase in debt, 81 per cent. Since 1905 the annual debt charges have increased from $813,499 to $1,233,149, or 51.8-10 per cent. The city's plunge into electric speculation will involve it in considerable more debt and expenditure.

OUR EXCHANGES

READING TO LITTLE PURPOSE. (Hamilton Herald.)

We do not remember ever to have read either in Henry George's book or in those of any other exponent and champion of the single tax, any satisfactory reason why the confiscation of unearned increment should be restricted to the increased in land values.

WORSE THAN SERFS. (Montreal Witness.)

We have seen that in Pittsburgh some of the laborers employed in the highly-protected iron trade are not so well off as serfs used to be.

THE JUNE BRIDE. (Toronto Star.)

Now let the June bride have her song, and likewise have her say, Thus wastefully our muses sing, She'd have it anyway.

A FORTUNATE BISHOP. (London Free Press.)

Bishop Dowling, of Hamilton, gives thanks that among his people there are no child haters. Fortunately, indeed, is his lordship to live in a community on this order.

DOWN WITH THE MORMONS. (Brantford Expositor.)

The Canadian Mormons seem to be attempting some high-handed proceedings in dealing with "Gentiles." The offenders should be promptly punished by the Canadian courts, and taught a wholesome lesson that will not need repetition.

HAPPY INSPIRATION. (Stratford Beacon.)

What a happy inspiration it was which came to Mrs. Clementina Feasenden, of Hamilton, when she proposed the celebration of Empire Day. This is realized when the fact that 18,000 schools in Great Britain joined in its observance this year.

SENTENCED TO SUNDAY SCHOOL. (Toronto Mail and Empire.)

In New Brunswick a lad convicted of burglary has been sentenced by Judge Forbes, not to the penitentiary, but to six years' regular attendance at church and Sunday school. This punishment is not ordered by the Criminal Code. Yet, it may do more good than the regular penalty.

HELP THE GOOD WORK.

To the Editor of the Times: Sir,—I note with pleasure the revival of the Hamilton Improvement Society, and with additional pleasure that the old committee have it in hand. There can be no question as to the material good the society has done in the way of cleansing and beautifying the city, and in the awakening of our citizens as to their duty and possibilities in this direction; in fact, so far have their efforts borne fruit that we have on more than one occasion been held up as a model for other municipalities.

What has been accomplished thus far has been done by a comparatively few unselfish and devoted citizens, the present worthy president, R. T. Steele, being in the fore front as formerly. Now, Mr. Editor, so much having been done by those few good people, what can we not do by sending the modest fee of $1 to Mr. C. P. Peabody, 155 Sanford avenue, Yours truly, Hamilton First.

FREE SHOW.

Proved a Very Good Thing at Maple Leaf Park.

The big free show which was given in front of the stand at Maple Leaf Park yesterday afternoon and last night was witnessed by a large crowd, and nothing but praise was heard among the spectators. The Martell family of cyclists are among the best ever seen here, and much of their work is really marvelous. They ride everything from a buggy wheel to an up-to-date bicycle. Their acrobatic work while riding at full speed is sensational and very clever.

The three Norhans do some exceedingly dangerous feats on the flying trapeze, and were given a great reception and the hippodrome performance on the track consisted of chariot races, cowboy races and Indian races, and the free show is certainly well worth the while this week.

The Grimsby Band, ran an excursion to the park this afternoon, and they had plenty of music this evening, as the visiting band and the Ninety-First will both be on the grounds. To-morrow is merchants' day, and as it is the first weekly half-holiday for the summer a large crowd is expected to witness the free performance, and the first of the weekly matinees of the Hamilton Driving Club.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mungo Paterson—Mrs. Greenly's Funeral.

Mungo Paterson died yesterday at his late residence, 219 Bay street south, aged 64. Deceased was retired and had been a resident of this city for the past three years. He leaves two brothers, Andrew Paterson, M. A., of the Collegiate Institute staff, and J. L. Paterson, Bay street south. The remains will be taken to Carlton Place, Ont., on the 7 p. m. T. H. & B. train, where interment will take place.

The funeral of the late Mrs. James Greenly took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 317 York street, and was largely attended by relatives and sympathizing friends. Rev. S. B. Russell officiated at the house and grave. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Wm. McLaren, J. S. Sanderson, Wm. Whaley, H. Dundin, W. Dundin and R. Cunningham. Many floral tributes were laid on the casket.

ZEPPELIN'S HARD LUCK.

How His New Airship Was Damaged in Flight.

Must Postpone His Invitation to the Reichstag.

Struck a Tree While Maneuvering For a Landing.

Goeppingen, June 1.—After covering a distance of about 850 miles in 37 hours, Count Zeppelin's new airship, on its return trip from Bitterfeld to Friedrichshafen, came to grief in an open field near here yesterday. In maneuvering for a landing the airship came into contact with a tree, and its position last night was very dangerous.

The damage to the ship is more serious than at first thought. A cursory examination directly after the accident showed that the envelope had been torn, and it was thought that injury could be repaired and that the party would proceed to-night. A more careful examination, however, disclosed the fact that the propeller was broken and a considerable time must elapse before the journey could be continued.

The balloon's position is unfavorable, the ground being very hilly. The bows are about 65 feet in the air. A strong breeze sprang up toward evening, causing no little anxiety for the safety of the airship, which it was feared would be wrecked should a storm come up in the night.

With the assistance of some of those who had gathered at the scene of the accident, Count Zeppelin was able to shift the position of his airship a little and thus give better protection from the wind.

That the collision was a heavy one is indicated by the broken and bent strips of aluminum lying about the ground and the half-split branches dangling from the tree-trunk.

Enormous crowds soon assembled and it became almost impossible for vehicles to pass along the public highway.

When the accident occurred Count Zeppelin was landing to replenish his supply of benzine, which was nearly exhausted. The motors had already stopped and the airship was nearing the ground on a meadow, when a sudden strong puff of wind drove the prow out of its course and against a pear tree. It struck with a great crash, smashing the prow and crushing the aluminum stays into a shapeless mass, which became inextricably enmeshed in the branches. Nearly 100 feet of the envelope and frame were destroyed.

Count Zeppelin came to Goeppingen in an automobile and telegraphed to Ulm for pioneers and to Friedrichshafen for workmen to make repairs. After resting for several hours at a hotel he returned in the evening to the scene of the accident, proceeding from there by automobile to Friedrichshafen. He will return here to-morrow morning.

Repairs are now being made, but these are of a temporary nature, whereby the airship may proceed to Friedrichshafen. Permanent repairs probably will require six weeks. No one was injured in the accident, but Count Zeppelin has been much depressed over the mishap.

MUST WAIT.

Berlin, June 1.—Count Zeppelin has sent a telegram to the Reichstag saying that he regrets greatly that he must postpone his invitation for members to make ascensions in his new model airship, inasmuch that the complete restoration of the damaged parts will require six weeks.

The airship sailed on Saturday night from Friedrichshafen and proceeded to Bitterfeld. On the return trip it made a landing near Goeppingen, and the forward compartment was seriously damaged by accidental contact with a tree.

SUICIDE FOR LOVE. NEW STEAMER.

Wilkesbarre Man Throws Himself in Front of Engine.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 30.—His mind deranged by disappointment in love, Michael Watson, of this city, committed suicide this morning by hurling himself under the Central of New Jersey engine within sight of his boarding house. Two years ago Watson was engaged to be married and was on his way with the girl to secure a marriage license when they had words and she broke off the engagement. This disappointment so affected Watson's mind that a few weeks later he had to be taken to an insane asylum. There he remained until a couple of weeks ago, when he was discharged as cured.

Twin Screw Launched at Collingwood This Morning.

Collingwood, Ont., June 1.—The latest addition to the fleet of the Northern Navigation Company is the twin screw steamer Waubic, which was launched at the yards of the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company, here, this morning, at 10 o'clock, in the presence of a large throng of people. Little Gladys McDonald, daughter of Mr. C. MacDonald, controller of the Northern Navigation Company, broke the conventional bottle of wine across the bow as the steamer slipped from the ways. The Waubic is the third steel vessel built at this yard for the Northern Navigation Company, the Huronic and Hamonic being its predecessors. She will go into commission on June 15, between Penetanguishene, Midland, Parry Sound and Point AuBaril. The Waubic replaces the side wheeler City of Toronto, and is specially designed for the requirements of navigation among the thirty thousand islands of Georgian Bay.

Tragedy of Dicky.

Old Dicky was a singing bird, A musical canary, And all day long his voice was heard In song extemporary.

A household pet was Dicky, too, A trusty bird, withal; When liberated, off he flew, But came back at your call.

Alas! Alas! One fatal day (Now brace yourself, I beg!) He sang one loud, triumphant lay— And then he laid an egg!

GOOD TIMES IN THE FALL.

work, which it was thought each could best supply to the advantage of the Commission. The reason for giving the engineers a free hand in dividing the work was on account of the problem presented by the high voltage. The Cataract Company, for instance, carries a voltage of 40,000 on its line, and the Toronto & Niagara Power Company has a voltage of 60,000 over its lines. The high tension lines of 110,000 voltage to carry Niagara power to Windsor and that district, or such a long stretch of territory, however, presents something entirely new.

That the Westinghouse Company was awarded a very important part of the contract is evident from the fact that it will completely equip the main station at Niagara Falls, the main switching station at Dundas, all the sub-stations in the different towns and the manufacture of the protective system for the transmission lines.

The main station at Niagara Falls, the step-up transformer station, where the commission receives the power at 12,000 volts from the Ontario Power Company and steps it up to 110,000, is the pivot on which the whole system will revolve. The main switching station at Dundas, while not a very large distribution station, will be one of the most important points in the system, as it has been selected for the branching of the lines, one to Toronto, a second north to Guelph and a third west to London. In an engineering sense it will be a very important station.

In east sub-station the Westinghouse company has been awarded the contract for high tension switches. In other words the Westinghouse company's 110,000 voltage switching apparatus will be in every sub-station on the system where the power enters and leaves the building.

The protective system for the transmission line goes with every sub-station on the system, and it has this function to perform. It must protect the public from the transmission lines in case of accident, such as a tree blowing across the line, the wires breaking or an insulator becoming defective. The Westinghouse engineers have worked out a scheme by which the part of the line affected will be "dead" while the operation of the other parts will not be interfered with.

Mr. Merrick informed the Times that while engineers had worked out the main features of the scheme, there were many small details in the engineering work that would keep the Westinghouse company's staff busy for two or three months. Actual work on the contract will be begun after these are arranged. "We expect it to extend over eight or ten months," he said, "and with the other contracts that we have on hand and our usual business we will be kept very busy."

In the fall it will likely be necessary to increase the staff considerably.

ris announced that petitions opposing annexation were being largely signed. Mayor McLaren corrected the impression conveyed by Ald. Morris' remarks as to why the Jockey Club was left out. The city could only deal with that district included in the petition, and the Jockey Club was not mentioned. No one was being forced in or left out.

Ald. Pennington sounded the slogan of a Greater Hamilton. An argument of what it was going to cost now was not in line with that idea, he said. No doubt the city would be under great expense for some years and derive little revenue, but in the long run it would mean a big saving, for the territory properly laid out with water mains and sewer pipes before it became thickly populated.

The City Solicitor at Ald. Farmer's request, reviewed the terms, which the annexation committee laid down. The annexation problem was the only matter there was any discussion over. All the other reports were passed without comment and the session lasted less than an hour.

The recommendation of the Fire and Water Committee that Captain Robert Aitchison be appointed second assistant Chief of the Fire Department, met with unanimous approval.

Chief Ten Eyck was authorized to appoint eight lieutenants in the Fire Department, to assume command of the different stations while the captains are absent from duty, on days off, holidays, sick leave, etc., they to receive ten cents per day over and above the salary paid to first-class firemen.

The following legislation regarding moving picture shows was enacted:

(a) That in future no moving picture shows be allowed to locate within the following boundaries: Hunter street on the south, Barton street on the north, Wellington street on the east, and Caroline street on the west.

(b) That the Police Department be requested to so regulate the attendance that there will be no standing allowed in the aisles during performances, thereby making it dangerous in case of fire.

(c) That in future no license be granted or renewed unless passed by the committee having the license under control and endorsed by the City Council.

The Council approved of the Finance Committee's recommendation that the tender of the Dominion Securities Corporation, Limited, for the purchase of $30,000 Waterworks debentures; $65,000 Sewer Rates debentures; $122,000 special debentures; $125,000 Permanent Pavement debentures; and $25,000 Public Library debentures; total, $377,000, of the sum of $373,646, be accepted, it being the highest.

A by-law was passed authorizing the laying out of a fifty-five foot street, extending northerly from Cannon street at 280 feet northerly, to be known as Huntley street. Annie Milne, the owner will convey a one foot reserve to the city.

Annie Taylor, 37 years of age, for some time employed in the T. Eaton Company's upholstery department, was found dead in her room at 378 Victoria street, Toronto, at 12:30 yesterday afternoon. The cause of death was apparently heart failure.

James Beiton, employed as a fitter at the Gurney foundry, on Junction road, Toronto, died suddenly of heart failure at 7:15 yesterday morning, shortly after arriving at the foundry in apparently his usual health.

CLEAN DAY.

Pittsburg to Have One Day Devoted to Cleaning Up.

Spotless Town Wanted—Everybody Asked to Help.

Pittsburg, June 1.—For one day at least Pittsburg is to be clean, so clean that not a scrap of paper, a peck of lawn clippings, a rag or even an empty flower pot shall disfigure a yard or lawn. The Pittsburg civic commission has made arrangements with the city authorities to have a "clean city day." Every resident of the city, of whatever nationality or race, every fireman and policeman and white-washer and the department heads and finally the mayor, are to be enlisted in the cause.

The idea has been in vogue in Chicago for a few years. Originally that city was perfectly clean on "clean city days." The people liked the new departure so well that the next time the city was kept clean for three days; now the reform lasts three days, and it is hoped that eventually Chicago will be clean seven days in the week, month in and month out. The scheme is to be started in Pittsburg with the hope that eventually this city will be at least physically clean all the year around.

"Clean-city day" will be somewhere between the end of June and the middle of July. Circulars will be sent out broadcast, printed in English, Italian, Ruthenian, Croatian, Slavonic, Polish and Yiddish, telling the people the date, urging them to gather up all rubbish a day or two beforehand and to have it heap'd up for destruction. A campaign will be conducted in the schools, the school children receiving instruction in the advantages of a clean city.

Everybody will be notified that on the day set there will be a grand destruction of rubbish that is burnable and a hauling away of that which cannot easily be destroyed by fire. Policemen and white-washers will be stationed everywhere to see that the bonfires cause no damage to houses, the firemen will be doubly on the alert. Care will be taken that the precautions for a clean city shall not cause damage and that the smoke from the sacrificial altars to cleanliness shall be the only manifestation of the activities of the people aspiring to a clean municipality.

PRESIDENT TAFT

To-day Opened the Yukon-Alaska Exposition at Seattle.

Washington, June 1.—An interesting event at the White House to-day will be the opening of the Yukon-Alaska Exposition at Seattle by President Taft. He will touch a solid gold key, ornamented with gold nuggets from Alaska, and will transmit the electric spark that will start the machinery in the exposition grounds. He will receive messages from the exposition officials and will transmit one of congratulation and good wishes.

The ceremony will take place at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the east room of the White House.

The gold key which the president will touch was presented to him a few days ago by Secretary of the Interior Bellinger and the Washington Congressional delegation. It is said to be the most costly and unique instrument ever used by a president for similar purposes.

It will be a fine outing and the ladies hope to see a large crowd and realize a handsome sum to hand over to the Veterans.

The Illinois Legislature passed a bill declaring void apartment leases which prohibit children in apartment houses. The Governor has announced his intention of signing the bill.

C. O. C. F.

Those Who Will Go From Hamilton to Grand Council.

The Executive Committee of the Grand Council of the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends is meeting in the Palmer House, Toronto, and on Wednesday morning the Grand Council proper will be opened in the Temple building in that city.

W. F. Montague, Grand Recorder; W. F. Campbell, Grand Organizer, and Lyman Lee, Grand Selector, are attending the Executive meeting, and the following representatives will go to Toronto for the Wednesday meeting for their respective Councils:

Neil Taylor, Thos. Morton, John Maxwell and Rev. J. J. Towner, for Council No. 1. P. Armstrong, W. L. Livingston and Fred Aldridge, for Council No. 13. R. J. McCauley, William Amor and W. F. Miller, for Council No. 111. H. James Rolls and A. E. Case for Council No. 118.

F. E. Woolverton, M. D., and John Phillips for Council No. 228. A. Swazey and A. Oldfield for Council No. 234. Considerable is being said and done relative to greater Hamilton, perhaps comparatively few citizens outside of the members have any idea of the work that is being done by this order quietly. The reports at present being presented to the Grand Council show that for the years 1907 and 1908, 75 new Councils have been established, and 9,546 approved applications. Nearly one million dollars has been received and paid out in the head office in this city, and, as intimated in the foregoing, there are six good Councils in the city of Hamilton, with a membership of about 1,500.

The Grand Recorder, Wm. F. Montague, reports the total receipts for all departments for the two-year term were $841,399.67, and the total expenditures $803,739.18. The gain in all funds for the year 1907 was $78,298.48, and $88,535.65 for the year 1908.

Dr. J. H. Bell, of Kingston, reports that the death rate from tuberculosis has been reduced from 25 per cent. prior to 1905 to 14 per cent. in 1908.

LOCAL EXAMS.

Important Change in Associated Board Music Association.

An important announcement is made in this issue by the Associated Board of the R. A. M. and the R. C. M. in reference to local examinations in music. In consequence of the termination by McGill University of the agreement for holding joint local examinations in music in the Dominion, the Associated Board will hereafter conduct its own examinations. The secretary will shortly visit Canada to make arrangements. The syllabus will be ready to issue to applicants in August, and in the meantime information may be obtained from Mr. James Muir, Secretary, 15 Bedford Square, London, England.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

The regular weekly meeting of the Britannia Lodge, I. O. G. T., in the Salvation Army Hall, Barton street east, last night, was well attended. F. W. Ambrose, Chief Templar, presided, and was accompanied on the platform by the D. G. C. T., John Porteous. Two candidates were initiated and two propositions for membership were received. After business a programme was presented by the secretary, taking the form of a whistling competition for the ladies, and a sewing competition for the men. Messrs. F. S. Morrison and A. Campbell were appointed judges, and after each competitor had been granted a fair and equal chance, declared Miss Margaret Morgan and F. W. Ambrose winners, respectively.

Next Monday evening the officers and members of International Lodge will pay their first fraternal visit. A grand night is assured.

POLICE CONTROL

The Situation in the Philadelphia Street Car Strike.

Steam Railroads Carrying Passengers in Outlying Districts.

Philadelphia, June 1.—Extraordinary efforts are being made to-day by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co., the majority of whose motormen and conductors are on strike for higher wages and better working conditions, to increase the number of cars in operation. Less than 50 per cent. of the cars are in operation, but conditions are slightly improved. Several hundred new men brought from other cities, and picked up here since the strike was inaugurated, last Saturday have been put to work under the protection of the police.

The Reading, Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio Railroads are carrying more than ninety per cent. of the people from the outlying sections. Each company has opened new ticket windows, and extra equipment has been drawn from other sections to handle the increased traffic. There has been no effort made by either side to the struggle or by third parties to end the strike by peaceful means.

The police are in complete control of the situation. Two to four policemen accompany every car sent out from the barns.

TON DYNAMITE

Captured by Striking Lumbermen at McCloud, Cal.

Strikers Are in an Ugly Mood and Trouble is Feared.

Sisson, Cal., June 1.—Armed with knives and rifles, a party of striking lumbermen at McCloud, 14 miles east of here, drove the guards away from the powder house of the McCloud River Lumber Co. last night, and is now in possession of a ton or more of dynamite, according to telephone advices received early to-day. Shortly after the message was received communication with McCloud was interrupted, and it is not known whether the wire was cut or not. Sheriff Howard, of this county, is at McCloud with forty or fifty deputies, but 600 armed strikers are opposed to him. The message from McCloud stated that the strikers were in an ugly mood, and that serious trouble was expected. Two hundred strikers went yesterday to the logging camps in the hills forty miles to the east of McCloud. All carried weapons of some sort, and they forced every man at work in the camps to lay down his tools.

POOR SCORES

Mace by Toronto Cadets in Old Country Match.

(Canadian Associated Press Despatch.) London, June 1.—The Canadian Cadets from Toronto, Capt. Flood and Lieut. Hagarty, competed in the Princess of Wales' Trophy competition here, the Empire Day match, on May 23, at the miniature rifle ranges, but owing to the late arrival of the boys they were unfamiliar with the technical features of the ranges and very poor scores were made.

An effort is being made to keep the boys here in order that they may take part in the shooting of the Lord Roberts' Trophy in August, but the parents of the boys are anxious for their return.

Ottawa, May 31.—The Militia Department has received no report as yet of the results of the shooting of the Lord Roberts' Trophy on the Princess of Wales' Trophy on Empire Day.

WANT PORTUGUESE.

AMUSEMENTS

Theatre-goers have reason to be thankful to Manager Appleton, of Bennett's Theatre, for re-opening the house for a short spell and presenting such a collection of stars as appeared on the bill yesterday afternoon and evening. Every number on the bill was endorsed and it may be truly said that the performance surpassed any given in that theatre during the season just passed.

The high-class bill is headed by Miss Alice Lloyd, one of England's favorite singing comedienne, and she is worthy of all the nice things which have been said in advance about her. She is a dainty and vivacious little lady, and is good to look at. In addition, she sings catchy songs in a bewitching way, and the audiences yesterday afternoon and evening could not get enough of her. She ingratiated herself in the hearts of her auditors with her winning smile as soon as she stepped before the foot-lights, and her songs elicited repeated encores. She sang five songs at the matinee and seven at the evening performance. And every one of them made a hit and set the gallery gods whistling. Her biggest hits were: "Another Pair of Stockings on the Line," "If I Weren't a Perfect Lady," "Come, Splash Me," and the song she sings to men in the audience whom she singles out by means of a mirror reflecting from the spotlight while the house is in darkness. Miss Lloyd is exceptionally generous in the matter of responding to encores, but the audiences would gladly have heard more of her.

Another English act is the two McNaughtons, patter comedians. They have a line of talk that is laugh provoking from the first, and the audience hear a lot of new jokes. The audience showed their appreciation yesterday by numerous curtain calls.

Harry Atkinson made a pronounced hit with his imitation of the best instrumentalists. Banjo, harp, bugle, concertina and other instruments were perfectly imitated without the use of any device other than his hands and mouth. This act was one of the features of the programme.

The Asahi Japanese troupe presented a very novel act, including tumbling, juggling, balancing, magic. Some new stunts are introduced, the most mystifying being the production of sprays of water from fans, swords and various other places seemingly at will. There are six or eight people in this act, which is staged with the usual Japanese lavishness.

Tom Armstrong and Ella Verne, a clever team from Australia, presented a very quaint talking and singing act. Their stories, for the most part, were new. Their best efforts were in the vocal line, however.

The Hess sisters complete the bill with a pleasing singing and dancing act. Their act is dainty and refined, and they made themselves favorites.

At the matinee this afternoon Miss Lloyd will present each lady who attends with a photograph of herself.

"THE FIRES OF FATE."

London, June 1.—Sir Conan Doyle has written what he calls a morality play, dealing, he says, with the philosophic theory of life. "The point is," explains the dramatist, "that the design in the universe, then common and powerful factors as pain are not chance phenomena, mere by-products of life, but are vital and necessary, serving a useful end. In this play, a man is tempted to take his own life. He does not take it, and the course of events shows him mistaken and foolish, as well as wicked he would have been had he done so."

The play, which is entitled "The Fires of Fate," will be produced on June 15.

SCHUBERTS GET GOOD PAIR.

NEW YORK, June 1.—It is announced by the Messrs. Schubert, E. H. Sothorn and Julia Marlowe have signed contracts by which they will continue under the Schubert management for the next three years. Mr. Sothorn and Miss Marlowe will thus appear together in Shakespearean repertoire instead of appearing separately, as they have done for the past two seasons.

For the past few weeks Miss Marlowe has been giving occasional performances with Mr. Sothorn, in connection with his engagements in Washington, Philadelphia and Boston. The enthusiasm with which these joint appearances—in Shakespearean roles—have been greeted by the public, serve as the best possible argument in favor of the new arrangement. To-night Mr. Sothorn and Miss Marlowe will begin a special engagement in Shakespearean productions at the Academy of Music.

The indications are that this engagement will be record breaking.

Mr. Sothorn and Miss Marlowe will be seen not only in New York, but also throughout the country in the principal cities. They are especially selected to open the more important of the theatres which have recently come under the management of the Messrs. Schubert, and the new theatres now being built by them.

All Quiet in Lima.

Lima, Peru, May 31.—Lima is quiet to-day, and the abortive revolutionary movement of Saturday afternoon has not been followed by any further disorder. The police are at present engaged in seeking Nicholas Pierola, a notorious agitator, and some of his adherents. There was a monster popular meeting in Lima this afternoon to protest against the outbreak of Saturday.

James Crawford, aged 65, hostler at the Arlington Hotel, Deseronto, committed suicide yesterday by jumping into the lake. Some time ago he became almost blind, and the town prepared papers and were about to send him to the Home for the Aged in Belleville. He has a wealthy brother in New York.

G. T. P. MEN DISSATISFIED.

Application Will be made for Beard of Conciliation.

Winnipeg, May 31.—Trouble between the G. T. P. and the operating engineers, including firemen, conductors, trainmen and engineers, has reached an acute stage. No agreement of working schedule so far has been framed, and the men have taken no strike vote to bring the matter to a crisis. Committees representing the conductors and firemen are now here, and application will be made to-night for a board of conciliation. The men claim that work on the new lead is attendant with great hardships under existing conditions.

THE HAT

(By Stuart B. Stone.)

Mrs. Walters lifted the filmy, fragile hat from the spark-span box and uttered a little ecstatic cry. She placed the expensive dream upon her head and stood in rapt silence before the mirror. She nodded the dangling, purple ostrich plume and coqueted with the other Mrs. Walters in the mirror. What artists the milliners were!

"A thought flashed into her mind, causing her to smile. She would go upstairs and exhibit the new hat before Prof. Augustus. He didn't care greatly for creations and ostrich plumes and heron feathers, it was true, but surely he would recognize the true beauty of this.

"The best-preserved specimen of the stricter Egyptian architecture was unearthed at Delphos by Schlegelswartz in 1869," read Prof. Augustus. Then he cackled aloud and snapped his fingers. "Augustus!" interrupted a soft voice from the doorway. "Augustus—look!"

The professor blinked up at his pretty, young wife. "Yes, dear," he answered. "I was just reading from Schlegelswartz. His wonderful researches in Macedonia entitle him—"

"But, Augustus," persisted Mrs. Walters, pleadingly, waving the rakish purple plume. "Don't you notice anything? Haven't you something to say to me, dear?"

"The professor blinked rapidly. 'Have you brought me the book on Thessalian vestibles? Do you want me to read to you about Schlegelswartz, whose epoch-making work—'

"Oh, dear—oh, bother Schlegelswartz!" moaned Mrs. Walters. "I wish I was dead!" With a gesture of despair she flung the costly hat upon the table and, leaving Prof. Augustus to blink and puzzle over the mystery of women, fled downstairs.

"Of what use was an absent-minded archaeologist for a husband? Of what account was a Parisian dream of a hat by the side of a broken pillar of old sparta? If she were white and cold and dead, with arms chopped off above the elbow like Venus di Milo, then her husband might care for her. Mrs. Walters bowed her dainty head upon her dresser and found the good solace of tears.

Fifteen minutes later she was roused by a shrill crier in the street. The habile of many voices sounded through the windows and there were peeps and loud, shrieking laughter. The noise came nearer, growing into outlandish tumult. Mrs. Walters arose and went to the front door. A hundred urchins, messengers and policemen had gathered in front of the house. A tall, square figure was passing unheeding through the crowd. On the head of the figure was the dainty, extravagant, Parisian dream of a hat; under his arm was another great, drab book. The figure was Prof. Augustus.

"Why, Augustus!" she cried out. "What in the world are you doing wearing my new spring hat?"

"Schlegelswartz," he bubbled, extending the drab book, "his new epoch-making work on the characteristics of Doric columns—for your birthday. That's what you mean, dear—I know."

"But it isn't my birthday," pouted Mrs. Walters, nearly in tears again. "And I don't want any Greek tombstone books—and why are you wearing my hat?"

"The professor reached up and grasped the wonderful, purple plume hat. "Oh," he murmured, "where did I get this absurd thing?"

After Mrs. Walters pulled him through the door he sat in the half dark hall and began reading about the temple of Janus on page 383. And Mrs. Walters, with a bubbling little sigh, nestled down in his lap.

"It was good of you to think it was my birthday, any how, dear," she whispered.

FELL INTO CANAL.

Life of Ottawa Little Girl Saved by Collie Dog.

Ottawa, May 31.—To the instinct and strength of a large collie dog a little Ottawa girl owes her escape from death by drowning. While some children were playing near the St. Louis Dam on the Rideau Canal one of them fell off the dock into the water. The others set up a scream of terror, which attracted the attention of an automobile party on the driveway and also of some men in the locality. Meanwhile, however, a large collie dog, which happened to be on the dock, leaped into the water, grabbed the little girl by the dress and kept her up till one of the men pulled her out.

PICKED UP LIVE WIRE.

Eleven-Year-Old Boy at Kirk's Ferry, Instantly Killed.

Ottawa, May 31.—Some wires which had blown down and were lying on the ground caused the death of Henry McCallister at Kirk's Ferry, to-night. The boy was the son of the temperance hotel keeper, and eleven years old. He was passing along the road, and picked up a wire, which caused his instantaneous death.

A novel entertainment in honor of Lady Sybil Grey was given by Mrs. Henry C. Osborne yesterday morning, in the form of a swimming party at the new Y. W. C. A. gymnasium, Toronto, which was opened by her Excellencies the other day. Those swimming were: Lady Sybil, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Hal Oler, Mrs. Cavert, Miss Mack, Mrs. Douglas Young and Miss Muriel Barwick.

VICTOR HUGO'S BODY

Still Rests Ingloriously in Pantheon Vaults.

Paris, May 31.—Twenty-four years ago, after all Paris had passed before the bier of Victor Hugo as he lay in state beneath the Arch of Triumph, they carried the body to the Pantheon, mourning the fateful fact that the incarnation of the genius of France had perished. Nevertheless, they have suffered this body to rest rather ingloriously among the others in the vaults—though it is in close company with Rousseau and Voltaire.

Gustave Simon has just pronounced a discourse on the Pantheon, demanding that Hugo's coffin be brought out and placed under the dome or removed to Pere Lachaise. Attention having been brought to the matter, a movement has been inaugurated to place the poet's body under the dome in the spot marked by the memorial Rodin is now executing.

Plans have already been made to remove the coffins of Rousseau and Voltaire and place them under their monuments, being made respectively by the sculptors Paul Bartholome and Victor Segoffin, and destined to be erected under the dome.

BLIND PIGS.

One Operator Up North Will Spend Summer in Jail.

Elk Lake, May 27.—The blind pigs are suffering more from the authorities now than they have ever done before. They begin to find the trail they travel worse even than it was when their palmy days came to an end in Cobalt. During the break-up of the winter roads they had everything pretty much their own way, and when the police did drop in on them some few weeks ago it was only to find that the pigs had received notice of their visit. The telephone line between here and Charlton conveyed the information in an innocent-looking message that was sent off as soon as the police left there.

Within the past two weeks there have been three raids, the last occurring early this morning. One man was fined $334, another $100, and a third, who had previous convictions recorded against him, will spend the summer in jail in North Bay. Now that the summer rush to Gowganda is on, the authorities appear to be awaking to the fact that they must do something to make their promises good.

TROUBLE BREWING.

The Greek King Fears Loss of His Throne.

Vienna, May 31.—According to reports received here the probability of the Turks refusing point blank to give up Crete has filled King George, who has assured the Greeks over and over again that he would obtain the island for them, with such misgivings that he has announced that the matter is so serious that the fate of the dynasty depends on it.

At the Balplatz the Cretan question is one which that long-headed statesman, Baron von Aehrenthal, Austrian foreign minister, regards as bristling with probable complications and needing the most delicate treatment. It is probable that Austria-Hungary eventually will take a watchful and neutral attitude with Germany, both reserving the right to defend the integrity of the Turkish Empire.

PICTURE ENTAILED.

Famous Holbein Portrait Belongs to Arundel Castle.

London, May 31.—An examination of the act of entail affecting the possessions of the Duke of Norfolk shows that only by a decision of a court of law can it be determined whether the sale of the Duchess of Milan portrait, except to the Government, would be legal.

The famous portrait of Christina of Denmark, Duchess of Milan, came to the Duke of Norfolk with Arundel Castle, the Duke being also Earl of Arundel and Surrey. By the Arundel acts, of the reign of Charles I, the possessor of Arundel Castle has only a life interest in the castle and estates and cannot dispose of them.

It was reported some weeks ago that if the British people failed to redeem the portrait for $330,000 it would be sold to Henry C. Frick, of Pittsburgh, and would be presented by him to the Pittsburg Gallery.

GIGANTIC ELEVATOR

Fort William, May 31.—Plans have been prepared by the Consolidated Elevator Co. for the erection of great warehouses here on the east side, adjoining their present handling house.

It will be constructed of concrete and will have a capacity of 1,700,000 bushels. The company's present elevator carries only 96,000 bushels. The new house will give a total elevator capacity for Fort William of twenty-five million bushels.

FATALITY AT PORT CREDIT.

Newly Arrived Italian is Killed by a Dump Car.

Toronto, June 1.—Z. Mario, a 16-year-old newly-arrived Italian, was killed while at work for Haney & Miller, contractors, who have a contract at Port Credit harbor. His duty was to attend to the dump cars, and it was by one of these he was struck and killed. The car at the time was on the down grade and was going fast. Coroner Sutton, of Cooksville, held an inquest, the jury returning a verdict of accidental death. No blame was attached to the company or to the men with whom Mario was working.

SAVED CHILD'S LIFE.

Engineer Jarred Train so Badly That Three Cars Were Wrecked.

Medina, N. Y., May 31.—A New York Central fast freight train was going through Medina at 35 miles an hour this evening when Engineer Flannigan saw a three-year-old child sitting between the rails near a level crossing. Flannigan applied the emergency brakes and brought the train to a standstill ten feet from the child, who made no move to get off the track. Three cars were so badly wrecked by the force of the emergency brakes that they had to be removed before the train could proceed.

NO REPRIEVE.

Justice Latchford Refuses Ryan Application at North Bay.

North Bay, May 31.—While the scaffold was being erected on which Maurice Ryan is to pay the penalty, on Thursday, for causing the death of his brother, a last attempt was made, this afternoon, to save the life of the condemned man. By a strange coincidence, Judge Latchford, who sentenced Ryan, is presiding over the sitting of the Non-Jury High Court which opened here this morning, and G. L. T. Bull, counsel for the prisoner, sought and secured permission to make application for a reprieve, basing his appeal on the poverty of his client, who had no funds to procure the necessary evidence in his behalf, and alleging that new evidence could be obtained corroborating that of Witness Carswell, and tending to show that the murdered man was alive and well; that the Minister of Justice was in a quandary as to what to do if his personal attention could be obtained; also that the prisoner had been represented by young and inexperienced counsel.

OLIVE BRANCH.

Carnegie Fails in His Appeal to British Newspapers.

London, May 31.—The Daily Mail publishes an interview with Mr. Andrew Carnegie proposing an international conference with the object of checking the increase of armaments. Editorially it says: "The doctrine of Mr. Carnegie increases an attractive one, and we would wish to be the last to discourage any effort to translate it into action, but the obstacles to the realization of his dream increase rather than diminish as they are approached. There are more than the monstrous growth of suspicion results of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's offer to negotiate with Germany for the limitation of naval construction. The peace conference at The Hague set the seal of the refusal of Germany. These failures were more than discouraging; they were dangerous, inasmuch as they brought in their train new suspicions and new ambitions. When the official international attempts failed, it is likely success will still be possible. The American Republic enjoys many privileges, but it does the President of the United States possess a secret of success which is unknown to the Czar of Russia?"

He was last seen alive about a mile from the shack. The Crown claims he was first shot, then hit on the head with an ax, and the body saturated with coal oil and set on fire.

MAY STRIKE.

Dominion Textile Company's Spinners Demand Increase.

Montreal, May 31.—A strike of the spinners in the local mills of the Dominion Textile Company now appears imminent. Its object is to overthrow the reduced scale of wages, put in force at the time of the recent financial stringency, which was endorsed as being still a fair and proper scale in almost all respects by the board of conciliation under the trades disputes act a week ago, and to restore the old rate, which was 10 to 15 per cent higher. The men will present an ultimatum to the Textile Company, and unless they receive a five per cent. increase will strike on Thursday next.

ENGINEER'S BRAVERY.

Sticks to His Post Amid Clouds of Scalding Steam.

Smith's Falls, May 31.—But for the bravery of Engineer Thomas Bennett, of the C. P. R. express eastbound, an accident similar to the one which recently occurred at Windsor station, Montreal, might have happened near here this morning.

A tube in the locomotive burst, and though there were volumes of escaping steam, Bennett stuck to his post until the train was brought to a standstill. Fireman Martin Riley was blown out of the pit and onto the tender, but escaped with slight injuries. Bennett was badly scalded about the face and arms. A physician on the train attended him until he was brought to the hospital here. The accident occurred four miles from here, and the train was delayed in its arrival here.

NOW IN DANGER

Duke of Bedford's Great Covent Garden Income.

Receives a Yearly Income of $125,000 on Original Outlay of $30.

London.—English landlords are getting worried; particularly those holding vast estates in London. The Government is said to be about to put a tax on all landed property, and London property-holders are trying to see how they can avoid their burdens.

The duke owns Covent Garden market and most of the surrounding district. To say nothing of 86,424 acres of land outside the metropolis.

Every pound of this produce helps to bring a big revenue to the personal estate of the Duke of Bedford, because the market, with all its "metes and bounds," belongs absolutely to him, in fee simple.

Considering that the ancestors of the duke paid the small sum of a little over £6 in English money—about $30—over £6 on the property on which the market stands, including seven acres of land nearby, known as Long Acre, the purchase of the market has not been a bad investment for the duke's family, and he has reason to congratulate himself on the wisdom of his progenitors.

What makes the London property owned by the Duke of Bedford so valuable is the fact that under his early title deeds he possesses rights which enable him to wield a veritable despotism over his tenants.

The London County Council tried to compel the duke to render an accounting of his receipts from Covent Garden. His imposts on fruits and vegetables were so high that the Council proposed to start an opposition market of their own, so that the poor of London could buy their fruit and vegetables cheaper.

But even succeeded in getting an injunction against the Council restraining them from building an opposition market within seven miles of Covent Garden.

AN EXCLUSIVE MONOPOLY. His landed interests give him an exclusive monopoly over the market produce of London. Not only does he wield despotic sway over the market itself, but he levies a toll on all vehicles bringing produce to the market, which come to rest in any street within a quarter of a mile of the market.

In the early morning nearly every street converging on the market is literally blocked with carts, wagons, barrows and steam lorries bringing truck from the country. Each one of these vehicles has a toll to pay to the duke for standing in the streets while waiting to be unloaded, and the consignees also have to pay an additional tax per pound on the produce itself.

The power possessed by the Duke of Bedford is little realized by the general public. In England for many years the House of Lords as well as that of the Commons was filled with landlords, who made laws to suit their own sweet wills. To-day much is said and written concerning the "Englishman's home," but mental reservation should always be made on behalf of the superior landlord, for without his consent no Englishman could possess a home which he could call his own.

For instance, the system under which leases are granted on the Duke of Bedford's London property gives the duke absolute power over his tenants. The custom is for the duke to grant a lease for a term of years to a tenant, who in turn leases again to another tenant. The first tenant looks upon the duke as the ground landlord. Now, the ground landlord in England has remarkable powers. Should his ground rent not be paid at any time he may invade the premises and seize the goods, even of the second tenant, whose rent may be fully paid to the first tenant.

A case illustrating this point came up two years ago when the Duke of Bedford, holding under the ground lord, the United States Art Club, founded by J. Pierpont Morgan, Lafayette De-Fries and other Americans, were seized by the ground landlord, though the club had fully paid its rent to the landlord holding a lease under the ground lord. But, as the ground rent has not been paid by the first lessor, the ground lord walked into the United States Art Club and put a sheriff in possession. Though the Arts Club showed its receipts and proved that its rent had been paid in full to the landlord holding under the ground lord, the courts decided that the goods belonging to the club could be seized by the ground lord. Morgan and others were so indignant at this decision that they carried the matter to the House of Lords, but lost their case, though the judge expressed his deep sympathy with the club and regretted the condition of the English law which permitted such an injustice.

LAW AND ENACTMENTS. On the Duke of Bedford property, situated in the very heart of London, all sorts of unjust laws and enactments prevail. For instance, the duke's estate includes Russell Square, and no one can build in this square without using a certain kind of brick which is supplied by the duke himself. Another remarkable provision in the leases granted by the duke is that all buildings at the end of the term become the property of the ground lord. Thus a tenant may put up on the duke's land a building costing a million dollars, and at the end of the term of the lease the building becomes the duke's just the same as if he had built it himself. This very convenient method of getting someone else to make him a present of buildings has worked out in such a way that to-day the Duke of Bedford owns not only practically all the land of the west central London in the neighborhood of Covent Garden, Russell and Bloomsbury Squares, but also of the houses which have come into his possession at the expiration of his various leases. What adds greatly to the revenue of the Duke of Bedford is the fact that a large number of theatres are on his property. He

WONDERS OF THE HUMAN BODY

Why Many People Never Need a Doctor.

You have a natural laxative in your body. Why, then, should you use a false purgative to move the bowels? Bile is nature's laxative. It is bile—and bile alone—which moves the bowels as they should be moved. The liver is the store-house for the bile. The liver pours forth the bile into the bowels, which stimulates them to move, and thus causes the waste matter to pass from the body.

Constipation is a disease, OF THE bowels, but CAUSED by the liver. When the bowels do not move regularly and naturally, it is because the liver is not giving out bile. And the only possible way to cure Constipation, is to cure the liver.

Calomel, cascara, salts, senna, common pills and sweet lozenges and all the other purgatives do not act on the liver at all. They merely irritate and inflame the bowels.

"Fruit-a-tives" cure Constipation because they act on the liver. The fruit principles stimulate the liver to secrete and give up enough bile to move the bowels, while the tonics and antispasmodics tone up and invigorate the muscles. "Fruit-a-tives" are the only medicines ever discovered that will cure Constipation, Biliousness and all other troubles due to a Torpid or Disordered Liver.

PAARDEBERG. Closing Meeting of the Military Chapter I. O. D. E.

The last meeting of the season of Paardeberg Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, took place in the parlour of the Y. W. C. A., with a good attendance of members.

Mrs. Atkinson, the regent, was cordially welcomed back to the chair after an extended absence from the city. The sick committee, represented by Mrs. Logie, reported a month of useful activity.

A resolution to present a rifle annually for competition in marksmanship to the Cadet Corps of the Collegiate Institute was unanimously carried.

The report of the committee having charge of the stage decoration for the Mikado, was read, and Paardeberg's share of the proceeds, which will add considerably to the funds of the chapter, elicited many grateful expressions of appreciation for the faithful work of Dr. Harris and his clever band of performers, who made such an artistic and financial success of the opera.

The discharge of various matters of routine business, the members separated, with hearty expressions of interest and a desire to meet and work even more energetically in the autumn.

POLYGAMY IN WEST. Petitions in British Columbia for Abolition of Mormon Colonies.

Victoria, B. C., May 31.—Petitions are being prepared for presentation in all the principal centres of population of British Columbia, and resolutions for adoption in affiliated women's councils, asking the Dominion Government to strictly investigate the conditions among the Mormon colonies of Southern Alberta, with a view to breaking up these colonies if it be shown, as suspected, that constant evasion or violation of laws against polygamy and immorality are practised.

This plan was adopted and exposed when the Mormons first settled themselves near Nanaimo twenty years ago.

Scorch the Tariff-Tinker. Pittsburg, Pa., May 31.—On his way to Gettysburg to-day from Pittsburg, the President's car was sidetracked for two hours, and during his stay he made a brief address, in which he declared again that he was hopeful of an early enactment of a tariff bill, "if the Lord will only be good and send some real hot weather in June."

SMALL CAMPS.

Militia Units Will Drill in Reduced Numbers.

Some of Infantry Regiments to be Cut in Half.

Toronto, June 1.—In order to keep the expenditure on the annual training of the active militia within the amount provided by Parliament for 1909-10 all the corps training in camp will drill with considerably reduced establishments.

The most important reductions are in the infantry regiments, some of which will train only half strength. The reductions are based on the average numbers trained in each unit during the past five years. Of the regiments of infantry in the western Ontario command, with permanent peace establishments of eight companies each, eleven will drill this year with only four companies, or a total strength of 207 officers and men. Seven of those which have had a higher average strength will go into camp with six companies.

Of the cavalry regiments, the Governor-General's Body Guards, the 2nd Dragoon and the 9th Miasisauque Horse are authorized to train 236 officers and men, whereas their regular establishments call for 327.

The 2nd Brigade of Field Artillery, who have a permanent establishment of 321, and authorized to train 252 officers and men, or 81 per battery.

Pymasters are to be dispensed with altogether in all the cavalry and infantry units, and stretcher bearer sections will not train in the infantry regiments. Orderly room sergeants are also to be dispensed with in cavalry and artillery.

The total numbers authorized to train in camp throughout the whole of Canada are: 5,206 officers, non-commissioned officers and sergeants; 1,871 infantry; 13,247; army service corps, 786; army medical corps, 756.

NO NEW NOVEL. Left Among the Papers of George Meredith.

London, May 31.—George Meredith's daughter has been telling an interviewer that her father left no unpublished manuscripts. This is a surprising statement, as his friends have always understood, and it has been followed by a guessing contest more than once; that he had finished a novel, which would be published after his death, the subject of which was journalism and the journalistic life.

It is unlikely, however, that Mr. Meredith will have left anything in the way of autobiography, for that idea would not have appealed to him. But in his correspondence, if he preserved it, there should be the contents of a brilliant and valuable book.

When Cottor Morrison died Meredith said to a friend: "I have burned all his letters, and treat all my friends' letters thus, desiring them to do the same with mine."

The president may be read as throwing a definite light upon his attitude, not merely toward an autobiography, but toward a biography of himself.

Morrison, President of Wesley League, gave the chairman's address and extended a hearty welcome to the members of Gore Street League. Mr. Couch gave a brief address. Mr. Ralph Bowes, President of Gore, also spoke for some time. This was followed by a guessing contest and programme in which Miss Nellie Marshall gave an instrumental solo; Miss Muriel Cowan, solo; Gladys Robertson, solo; Misses Mabel and Irene Miner, piano duet; Miss Fannie Hind, accompanied by Miss Irene Minor, a mandolin solo. Wesley League Literary Society gave a short sketch, which was much applauded.

The evening was closed with light refreshments and "God Save the King." The young people of the two churches who are shortly to become one, entered very heartily into the spirit of the evening and had a happy time.

KNOX CHURCH. Anniversary Social Enjoyed by a Large Crowd.

In connection with the 65th anniversary of Knox Presbyterian Church, and the first anniversary of the induction of Rev. A. E. Mitchell, a social was held last evening. Large numbers attended and all keenly enjoyed the evening. Supper was served in the basement of the church from 6.15 to 8 o'clock, after which the guests adjourned to the Sunday School room. Speeches were made by Rev. Walter Quarrington, of Westworth Street Baptist Church, Rev. F. W. Hollinrake, Zion Tabernacle, Rev. Ernest H. Tippett, First Congregational Church, and Rev. J. Roy VanWyck, Westminster Church, congratulating the pastor and congregation on the successful year they had just closed and wishing them even greater success in the future.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell was greatly pleased with the way in which the ministers of the city had treated him. They had met him half way and were a manly and kindly set of men. He greatly appreciated the kindness that had been shown him by every person since his arrival here, and thought that when he and the congregation knew one another better even greater results would ensue from their united work.

Musical selections were contributed by Miss Sutton, Fred Moore, Chester Walters and the Knox Church Quartette.

Word has been received at Wainwright, Alta., from Orindale that J. Brown, of that place, had been kicked in the face by a horse and instantly killed, his neck being broken.

Never Rocked a Boat. "Before I consent to let you have my daughter," said the grim old gentleman, "there are some questions I would like to ask you. Are you quick-tempered?" "Well, yes; to tell the truth, I'm afraid I am."

"I'm! Ever swear?" "Sometimes, when I become very angry I do."

"Yes, but I have never noticed that it injured me."

"Ever drink intoxicating liquors?"

"The law's delays are often no fault of the law."

"Then what causes these postponements?"

"The dressmakers can't get the gowns ready in time."—Louisville Courier Journal.

Laugh and Grow Fat

After Moving. Well, here we are. Moved at last. A house this time our shelter is; Steam-heated flats are of the past, And we are done with terraces. I hoped that she'd be satisfied, At least until the early fall; But now she finds, however tried, Our rugs won't fit the floors at all.

A Matter of Economy. Mrs. Knicker—"Do you let Bridget eat with the family?" Mrs. Bocker—"Yes, it's much cheaper than to have her eat with the policeman."

She's Sure to be an Actress. It was the opening day of the kindergarten. The teacher began by asking each child what it had learned to do. "James, what can you do?" "Please, mam, I can sharpen pencils."

"That's very nice. William, what can you do?" "I can throw a ball."

"That's splendid. Mary, what can you do?" "I can undress myself," was the proud response. "I'm sure that must be a great help to your mother, Mary. Rachel, what can you do?" "I can undress myself," interrupted Marv.

"Yes, Mary, that's very nice, but you mustn't interrupt Rachel."

"So you have said twice before, Mary. If you interrupt again, you will have to be punished. Now, Rachel, what can you do?" "I take care of my baby brother, sometimes, and—"

"That's lovely, Rachel. Charles, what can you do?" "I can undress myself," persisted Mary, coyly, before Charles had time to answer. So the teacher gently led Mary to the cloak room to meditate on her disobedience. Shortly afterward the doctor called to see if all the children were well.

"Yes," the teacher assured him, "we are all well and happy this morning. Oh, all but one little girl. I think there must be something the matter with her tongue. Will you look at it please?"

Mary, come here a moment."

Mary fluttered into the room, minus her clothes. Waving her arms she said with childish glee: "See, I can undress myself!" Everybody's Magazine.

Occasionally take a drink, but I'm not a slave to the habit, I assure you. "Have you ever been in jail?"

"Once, I took some funds to which I had no right, but I did not do it deliberately, I assure you. It was the result of a misunderstanding."

"Yes, it generally is. How about your family? What kind of ancestors did you have?"

"Do you think it is fair to hold a man responsible for what his ancestors did?"

Well, I can't say that my ancestors amounted to a great deal. My grandfather was—was—in short, he was hanged."

"You've never held a job anywhere very long, have you?"

"I can't say that I have."

"What was the biggest salary you ever earned?"

"Nineteen dollars a week."

"Ever jump a board bill?"

"I wouldn't exactly call it that. I owe a lady for several months' board that I had three or four years ago, but I fully intend to pay her some day."

"Have you ever rocked a boat?"

"No, sir, never."

"All right, you can have her."—Chicago Record-Herald.

COW TESTING ASSOCIATIONS. Dominion Department of Agriculture Branch of the Dairy and Cold Storage Commissioner.

Now that the factory season is getting into full swing, farmers are wondering how the cows will do this year. Cows are expected to make some profit. Great expectations are not always realized, and if pasture is poor, how is the milk flow to be kept up. Happy the man who has provided for a supply of green feed, and who has a sick for summer feeding.

Some check should be kept on the yield of each cow. If the milk is weighed on only three days a month and samples tested once a month, then the owner will know very closely which are the heaviest producers. If weights are taken at every milking any sudden variation will be immediately observed, steps can then be taken to remove the cause. If a record is kept of the feed, the most profitable cows can be detected, and some that might produce more if fed better will be given the opportunity.

This is what members of the cow testing associations are doing, studying each individual in the herd so as to make sure that each single cow kept gives a profit. This is evidence of good business management. No one wants to harbor a cow that is incapable of making a good profit. Does each one of your cows pay? Do you know that she does? Guess work won't do these days.

Record blanks are supplied free on application to the Dairy Commissioner, Ottawa. Many men since commencing to record are now receiving $80 per cow when they used to get but $40, because they know which are the economical producers. It certainly does pay to test cows.

SPORTS

Gossip and Comment

President Joseph K. Mercer, of the Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, announced in Montreal that in all probability the peace negotiations which will result in the formation of an entirely new body of athletic government, which will be called neither C. A. A. U. nor Federation. There is to be one supreme board of appeal and each section of the country will run its own athletic business subject to central control.

The suggestion is a good one. Some of the officials of the C. A. A. U. are certainly not big enough to handle affairs of national importance in sport, but they might make good governing a county or provincial organization.

How would it do to hold a ten and fifteen cent Marathon for the professionals who will quit in races during the past two weeks?

For reversals of form the two-legged gallopers have the ponies beaten to a standstill.

Despatches from Terre Haute, Ind., to the Buffalo papers say that Longboat is "on his good behavior." Tom beat a four-man team there on Sunday, running twelve miles in 1.04.32.

This Marathon business is showing up some of the distance men, and it begins to look as if two fast races are about the limit. It is a well known fact that Dorando is a longboat and has nothing for some months, and quits every time out. St. Yves has stopped three times lately, and it begins to appear as if the distance thing is getting him, too. Had he finished the distance in any two of his trials his finish would have been in sight. Johnny Hayes is lasting, of course, but he has not run the distance fast enough to hurt anybody. Marathoning is no good for anybody with sense.

At Belmont Park and Gravesend this will be a busy week. The stakes that will be raced for are the Belmont worth $30,000; National Stallion, $14,000; Laureate, $2,000; Van Cortlandt Handicap, $1,000; Criterion, $1,000; Great American, $25,000; the Myrtle, $1,000; Kensington, $1,000 and Grand National Steeplechase Handicap. The Brooklyn Handicap, with the first and third in the Toronto Cup as prominent contenders, will be the feature of the programme on Thursday, the opening day of the spring meeting at the Gravesend track. It is the first of the great races at a mile and a quarter.

Buffalo Hammer: "Well, anyway, sherring had his hair combed better than Shrub did."

P. T. Chinn, the well-known turfman, has decided to leave Toronto his headquarters during the present season, says the Toronto News.

Mr. Chinn has at present a score of horses at the Woodbine, and he intends covering the entire Canadian circuit. He will use Toronto as a recruiting point, bringing horses along from Kenton to train the horses in the local track. The best of his three-year-olds, Donald Macdonald, has been sent to New York, where he will race for the Belmont Stakes this week. After this event, his horse will be shipped to Hamilton, where he has been entered in the Derby.

Among the horses of the Chinn Stable at the Woodbine which will be taken around the circuit are Rifleman, Pinte, Descomets, Lady Irma, the Golden Butterfly and Lady Frederick.

The needful "little" thing about a wheeze is the point, and we have waited some sixteen years to collide with the Chicago Tribune. Lord Durham in 1893 sent a horse over here to try for the American Derby. If a six-year-old is not playing tricks with us, the horse's name was Straight of Haman. An English jockey was sent over to ride this horse. The horses were at the post for an hour and some odd—but you remember that the field finally was dispatched with the imported horse and the imported jockey staring blankly into vacancy.

When the field had swept around the first turn the English jockey reined up in front of Mr. Pettigill, the starter, who had not left his stand. "I beg your pardon, sir," said the English jockey, "but is it a go?" "Of course, it's a go," answered Mr. Pettigill, who was considerably wrought up. "What are you doing here?" "Really," said the young man, who was aboard of Lord Durham's colt, "I wasn't aware of it. Don't you think I would better be going?" "Certainly," cried Mr. Pettigill, "Get away from here."

"Thank you very kindly, sir," said the English jockey, "but your customs are so unusual that I hardly knew what was expected of me. Which way did the horses go?" "That way," said Pettigill, waving his left hand.

"Thank you, sir," said the youth, wheeling about. "I shall make an attempt to overtake them."

A TROPHY FOR RUGBY. HAMILTON SHOOTERS DID WELL AT BUFFALO.

Governor-General Will Give a Cup.

Many Games in Big Leagues Yesterday.

Terah Won Valley Farm Handicap.

Ottawa, June 1.—A challenge cup for competition in Rugby football is to be given by His Excellency the Governor-General, according to an announcement made last night. It is hoped to make the trophy emblematic of the amateur championship of the Dominion. The trophy is to be a perpetual one. The Governor-General is thus doing for football what his predecessor, Lord Minto, has done for lacrosse, and Lord Stanley for hockey. His Excellency names three trustees, H. B. McGivern, M. P., of Ottawa, an old footballer; Rev. Bruce Macdonald, principal of St. Andrew's College, Toronto, and Percy Molson, of Montreal. Regarding the trustees, Earl Grey's wish is that they shall control the cup and that their decisions as to the disposal of the trophy shall be absolute. Should any trustee die, or otherwise drop out, a successor shall be appointed by the Governor-General for the time being.

At His Excellency's request, the trustees have made suggestions regarding the disposal of the cup and the contest for it, which His Excellency has approved. It is suggested that the regulations must be considered as subject at any time to the will of the trustees, inasmuch as circumstances are always liable to arise which may require a departure from all rules.

The deed of gift has conditions similar to those for the Stanley and Minto cups.

Soccer at Stratford. Stratford, June 1.—Tavistock and Stratford tied, 1 to 1, in a W. F. A. junior game played here yesterday. The teams were:

Stratford—Preston, Avery, Preston, Ross, Morphy, Leadman, Morgan, Caruthers, Lowe and Higgins.

Tavistock—Hemer, Stock, Jarvis, Seigner, Gerhart, Morgonroth, Krug, Uffelen, Weicher, Matthews.

Referee—Weir, of Stratford.

TERAH'S HANDICAP.

Good Racing at the Woodbine Yesterday.

Toronto, June 1.—Ideal weather was responsible yesterday for the largest week-day attendance in the history of the Woodbine.

The general enclosure and betting ring were packed like on Saturday, while the members' stand presented an unusually attractive sight, this being practically the first chance the ladies have had to wear real summer clothes. The Governor-General's Body Guard Band dispensed the music. The entries in five or seven events were numerous and the scratches likewise.

Red River won the opening race in a gallop with Bellewether second. Purslane came strong on end, getting up from the rear in time to get third place. The Albany purse for three-year-old Canadian foals went to Davies' Shore Lark, Egan foal, who took the first part of a load of money at 8 to 5, but would not do it and he could not get away second, but nothing left in the stretch.

Rod MacKenzie's Direct took the Seagram Cup, a heavyweight handicap. It was a nip and tuck struggle all the way. Jack Parker, Hon. Adam Beck's new York purchase, got away in front and was only nipped at the finish by a neck. St. Elmwood was a good third, with the rest of the field straggling. The steeplechase went to the 12 to 1 favorite, Economy, after his jockey, Mahon, had given his backers an attack of heart failure by trailing his field to the last turn and then cutting loose with a wonderful turn of speed, passing Canvas after last jump. Economy was much the best.

(Mahon) 2 to 1, even and 3 to 5, won by two lengths; Dr. Koch, 145 (Archibald), 5 to 1, 2 to 1 and even; Dr. Keith, 141 (Saffell), 7 to 1, 5 to 2 and even. 3. Time, 4:12.3-5. Pickette, Spencer Reiff, Charfield, My Grace and Cancer also ran. Big Bear lost rider. Sixth race, $700 added, Valley Farm Handicap, 3-year-olds, and up, 1-1-16 miles—Terah, 115 (Rettig), 2 to 1, 4 to 5 and 1 to 3, won by three lengths; Lady Esther, 117 (Musgrave), 6 to 1, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5; xPocomoke, 103 (Goldstein), 7 to 2, 9 to 5 and 1 to 2, 3. Time, 1:48. Quantic, Uncle Toby, Siskin also ran. xClyde stable.

Seventh race, $500 added, 3-year-olds and up, selling, 6 furlongs—Joe Gaitens (Devey), 2 to 1, 4 to 5 and 2 to 5, won by two lengths; Fulford, 98 (Herbert), 7 to 2, 4 to 5 and 3 to 5; Caper Sauce, 100 (Chandler), 8 to 1, 3 to 1 and 8 to 5, 3. Time, 1:18.3-5. Many Colors, Lelwell, Protagonist, Tellington, Youthful, Brown Tony, Sally Preston and Consistent also ran.

IN WOODBINE PADDOCK. There is an epidemic of sickness among the stables at Woodbine. It is a sort of fever. Twenty horses in the Seagram stable are down with it, ten in the Shields stable and all of Amos Turner's. A couple of J. W. May's showed evidence of ailing yesterday, and he decided to ship immediately to Montreal. On account of the illness of several horses in his string Albert Simons has decided not to ship to Montreal. He will remain at Woodbine until the opening of the Hamilton meeting.

Robert Davies has decided not to keep French Shore over for next year's King's Plate and the filly will be campaigned by Willie Shields over the Canadian circuit.

Hurlock's last race was so disappointing to Capt. Pressgrave that he has decided to use her as a hack for the remainder of the season. Several of Seymour Butler gathered in a couple of undesirable on Saturday last. William Cahill made a wager of $200 on Sam Hildreth's King James and lost the ticket. Two young chaps, who gave their names as Arthur Clark and George Jay, presented the ticket for payment and they were escorted to the gate. Butler is a busy man at the track and nothing escapes him. He is easily the best man that the Pinkertons have ever sent to Canada.

ENGLISH CRICKET.

Some Big Scores in the Early County Contests.

English cricket has opened with some fine scores in the first class matches. For Nottingham against Leicestershire, Hardstaff contributed 111 to a score of 451, and Leicestershire was compelled to follow on.

In the Kent vs. Derbyshire match, Kent scored 357 in the first inning, of which K. L. Hutchings' 74 and E. W. Dillon's 69 were the best. Derbyshire had a regular downfall, scoring only 142 and 74.

HAMILTON SHOOTERS DID WELL AT BUFFALO.

George Beattie and Walter Thomson Distinguished Themselves at Decoration Day Shoot.

Buffalo, June 1.—(Special.)—The Buffalo Audobon Club held a very satisfactory and successful shoot at its grounds yesterday. The main feature of the very elaborate general programme, including the merchandise shoot, was a match team shoot at 100 targets, ten men to a team. There were four clubs represented: Bradford Gun Club, of Bradford, Pa.; Hamilton Gun Club, Stanleys of Toronto, and the Audobons.

All arrangements have been made for the championship wrestling match on between Bert Brown, of Brantford, and Mox Schmidt, this city. It will take place on Friday night at the Britannia Rink. It will be two falls in three, straight hold barred. The preliminary will be a six round boxing event.

Maple Leafs at Buffalo on Decoration Day.

At Buffalo.—Toronto and Buffalo split even in a brilliant double-header to-day, Toronto taking the first game by 3 to 0 in a twelve-inning game, in which McGinley outlasted Taylor, and the Bisons winning the second through Kellogg's witness and his two errors. With better pitching Toronto would have taken the second game, too. A big holiday crowd saw the games, which were marked by brilliant plays by both sides. Several times the fielding back of both men was sensational, and saved scores.

The first was the better game. It looked as though Toronto would win in the first inning, when Good singled and Schrim dropped Mahling's fly, and Taylor tightened up, and forced the other to hit to the infield, forcing Good, at third and Kelley at second. Scores:

Table with 2 columns: Team and Score. R. H. E. Buffalo 3 9 0. Toronto 0 0 0. Batteries—Taylor and Woods; McGinley and Mitchell. Second game. Buffalo 4 7 9. Toronto 3 4 3. Batteries—Malarkey and Ryan; Kellogg and Vandy.

Oh, the red-hos swimmin' in the bubbly crick Where the shade is heavy an' the brush is thick; He is mighty known an' he's mighty sly; But he ain't doin' any more work than I.

Jest a-loafin', jest a-loafin', jest a-loafin' in the sun Fer I jest can't hustle when the sky's so blue; An' the world's so shiny that it looks like new.

When the sunshine flickers through the poplar trees, An' the baswood's heavy with the busin' bees, So I'm loafin', so I'm loafin', so I'm loafin' in the sun.

There's a hobwhite whistles where the poppies grow, An' a cow-bell tinkles in the marsh below, While a red squirrel chatters on a hickory limb, But I'm too darn lazy fer a crack at 'em.

Jest a-loafin', jest a-loafin', jest a-loafin' in the sun. Oh, there's joy in livin' when the days are long; Jes' to lay an' listen to the South-wind's song.

Jes' to hear the chimin' of a fur-off bell— Jes' a good-fer-nuthin' an' an' a ner-do-well. Jest a loafin', jest a-loafin', jest a loafin' in the sun.

CONVEYANCES SET ASIDE.

J. V. Addison Gets Preference For His Mother's Estate.

Order Made in the Case of Proctor vs. Carscallen.

Chadwick vs. Parkins Was On All This Morning.

When the non-jury sittings of the High Court resumed yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the action of Addison vs. Walker was continued, and Mr. Addison's testimony was concluded. He testified that he had taken care of his mother from the age of 8 to 26. His earnings he had turned over to her for the general needs of the home. Owing to some disagreement he had left home, with his wife and went to reside in Windsor. After his departure his mother, Mrs. Emma Addison, had brought in her sister, Mrs. Fanny Walker, and made a conveyance of her property to her, thus going away with an original agreement by which her son was to get the property, provided he took care of her till the end of her days and defrayed all funeral expenses. But Mrs. Addison repented of this conveyance, and three days later, Sept. 18, 1905, made a second conveyance of all her property to her son. Not long after this second conveyance, the witness said, Mrs. Walker became insane and was placed in an asylum.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Addison's estate amounted to $5,000, $4,000 in real estate on Barton and King William streets, and $1,000 in household property. A mortgage of $500 had been placed on the King William street property to defray Mrs. Addison's debts, which amounted to $400. Mr. McClelland being called, said that he had been sent to her on the 18th Sept., 1905, and received from her an order on Mrs. Walker for all papers in connection with the conveyance of her property. He also drew up the second will. At that time Mrs. Addison was quite ill, but bright.

Dr. Balfie was called, and testified that he had known Mrs. Addison for seven or eight years prior to her death. He had made many visits to her home in the last year of her life. During that period she had had a stroke of paralysis and had undergone much medical treatment. He had seen Mr. and Mrs. Walker come to her home with the intentions of taking care of her, but they left in about a week's time. Mrs. Walker would be unable to put in any claim for wages, as Mrs. Addison had been away from home during that whole week. At the time of her last conveyance, Dr. Balfie testified that she was quite capable of managing her own affairs.

The Judge gave judgment that both conveyances be set aside, and that the bill of $301 and the costs of this consolidated action and all creditors be paid out of the estate, and that the conveyance in favor of Mr. Addison should have priority over that in favor of his aunt, Mrs. Walker, for the balance.

The case of William J. McKelown vs. Hamilton Brewing Association, an action for $228 travelling expenses, was settled out of court. The plaintiff agreed to accept $100 without costs in full settlement. George S. Kerr acted for the plaintiff and H. H. Robertson for the Brewing Association.

Judge Tetzlaff gave a ruling on the motion by J. W. Nesbitt, K. C., in Proctor vs. Carscallen. He said that after consideration he would allow the motion. The defence to notify the other party at once. In the event of the other party being ready to proceed at this sitting, the costs of the day's proceedings to be in the cause. In the event of a postponement being necessary, costs of the day to go to the other party.

The action brought by Chadwick Bros. vs. the Parkin Elevator Company for $752.68 for bills of exchange and goods sold was in progress when court closed at 6 o'clock. Mr. John Farmer acted for Chadwick Bros.; Mr. M. A. Scord for the Parkin Elevator Company. This case took considerable time. It was partly tried by Mr. Justice Anglin before he was appointed to the Supreme Court bench. All the old ground had to be re-covered. The defence was that seven gear wheels shipped by the plaintiffs were defective. These goods had been represented by the plaintiff as first class and the defendants had ordered them with that understanding, but had nothing more than a verbal guarantee. By reason of these defects, the defendant said, they had been put to an expense of not less than $1,000 in fitting and re-fitting elevators.

TO-DAY'S SESSION. Court adjourned this morning at 9 o'clock. The action of Chadwick vs. Parkin Elevator Co. was continued.

Mr. Frederick Chadwick was called and testified that Chadwick Bros. had done business with the Parkin Elevator Co. for four years previous to June 15, 1907, and had had no complaints until that date. The material in the gear wheels supplied to the Parkin Elevator Co. was the same as they had supplied to all other companies, and they had no other complaints. He swore that Chadwick Bros. had agreed to furnish the plaintiff with the same material in the wheels, namely, yellow brass, that they supplied to all other companies, as against the plaintiffs' claim that they had agreed to supply Phosphor bronze wheels.

Arthur Chadwick, being called, said he had gone to the Parkin Elevator Works to examine the gears complained of, and found that the cause of the destruction of the wheel was that the elevator was not in proper order.

Court adjourned at 1, with this case still on.

By way of set-off the defendants put in a claim for $537.50 damages and expenses in connection with the gear wheels.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Six Men Charged With Participating in Lynching

Negro Who Had Been Granted Leave to Appeal His Case.

United States Supreme Court Put on Its Dignity.

Washington, June 1.—The Supreme Court of the United States was to-day the scene of the arraignment of six men before its bar—an unprecedented spectacle in the highest tribunal of the nation. The prisoners were former Sheriff Jos. Shipp, of Hamilton County, Tenn., and his jailer deputy, Jeremiah Gibson, and Luther Williams, Nick Nolan, Henry Padgett and Wm. Mayse, all of Chattanooga. They were found guilty a week ago by a jury only on the charge of contempt in participating in the lynching in 1905 of a negro named Ed. Johnson, after the Supreme Court had granted permission to him to bring his case to the Supreme Court on an appeal. He had been found guilty of the crime of rape, and was under sentence to be hanged.

The granting of an appeal acted as a writ of supererogation, and when the fact of this action became known in Chattanooga, where Johnson was in jail, and when the further fact that it would cause a postponement of the execution, it, indeed, it might not entirely prevent it, dawned upon the people of that city, there was considerable excitement, which culminated during the night following in a mob taking Johnson from the jail and hanging him.

The act was resented by the court as one of flagrant contempt, and immediately complaint was made to President Roosevelt, with the result that he placed the matter in the hands of the Department of Justice, which immediately took steps to ascertain the names of the participants in the lynching. Proceedings then were instituted against the sheriff and a number of his deputies, as well as against about twenty citizens of Chattanooga. The inquiry which was subsequently made on behalf of the court reduced this number to nine, and three others, leaving only six to be brought before the tribunal.

The offenders came into the court to-day in a body. They were accompanied by officers of the law and by their attorneys and attracted no little attention from the unusually large number of spectators present in the court.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the city lodges was held in the Masonic Hall last evening, called by W. Bro. Geo. Vallance Taylor, to consider the arrangements for assisting and accompanying the Grand Master in the laying of the corner-stone of new Y. W. C. A. building on Saturday, June 19th, at 3.30 p. m.

W. Bro. W. H. Wardrope, K. C., was elected chairman, and R. W. Bro. John Hoodless secretary, with an executive of all the masters of the city lodges.

It was decided to ask the brethren to meet at the Masonic Hall, so that they would be in readiness for Grand Lodge at 3 o'clock sharp. The choir of the Scottish Rite will be invited to lead the musical service, and the Knights Templars will be asked to attend in a body. Every secretary will send special notices to the members of his lodge, inviting the brethren to participate in regalia.

Women, Attention!

Women as a rule are better savers than men—they have a knack of making a dollar go just twice as far as a man can.

Many men who cannot save anything themselves, very wisely make their wives the family treasurer, and upon them devolves the responsibility of putting by something for the inevitable rainy day.

The Traders Bank welcomes the accounts of women, and its officials and clerks are always ready to give them any advice or assistance they may require. Every woman, whether married or single, should have a savings account.

A few dollars will start an account. When you are down town call at our Bank and start an account. Open Saturday evenings.

WOODBINE SCRAP.

Toronto Young Man Had Run in With Champion Featherweight.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Toronto, June 1.—When Thomas Boyd, a Toronto citizen, engaged in a fight at the Woodbine on Victoria Day, he little thought that he was practicing the manly art with one Abe Attell, champion featherweight of the world. The story was told of him in the police court this morning, where he was charged with disorderly conduct. Detective Mackie said he noticed the smell of liquor on Boyd's breath, moreover he acted like a man under the influence, having come along and talked loudly and insultingly to Abe Attell's wife when the husband was away. When Attell came back he promptly "biffed" Boyd in the face. Then there was a free fight. Both men were arrested but Attell was allowed to go on Detective Mackie's recommendation. Crown Attorney Corley said that Boyd was a respectable young man.

"It will be $2 without costs," said the magistrate finally.
