WEDNESDAY EVEN'G, SEPT. 30TH.

Local News.

Snow was seen falling in the neighborhood of Peel last week.

There has been nineteen new stores built in Elora this summer.

The wheat averages fifteen bushels per acre in Pilkington, Peel and Nichol Townships.

At a meeting of the merchants in Elora there was only one voice against continuing the discount on silver.

There was no meeting of the Board of School Trustees last night for want of a quorum.

Last week a bear destroyed four pigs belonging to Mr. Wm. Till, 10th concession, Garatara. Bruin is still at large.

A child four years old was killed in London on Monday, by being knocked down by a team, and run over by the wagon.

The Chancery case of Carpenter against the City of Hamilton has been adjourned till to-morrow, at the request of the counsel for the city.

HATS AND CAPS.

The finest display ever seen in Guelph in Hats and Caps is on view at the Guelph Cloth Hall. Call and see A. Thomson & Co.

St. Catherine's is a lively town. A young buffer from the suburbs appeared there a few evenings ago, and raised four fights and thrashed three men, before he got a merited but useful punelling from the fourth.

GRAND TRUNK WEST.—Mr. W. J. Spicer, Assistant Superintendent of the Grand Trunk Railway was up west yesterday on a tour of inspection. The travel on the west end of the road has never been better; the track is in good condition, and the trains keep excellent time.

WALL PAPER.—During the fair week Mr. Day, opposite the market, will sell an immense stock of wall paper, imported direct from Britain last summer, and will be sold at prices that will astonish every one, fully 30 per cent. below what it can be retailed at by any other house. Call and see them.

SALE OF THOROUGHBRED STOCK.—In our columns will be found an advertisement announcing that Mr. Stone's annual sale of thoroughbred stock will take place at Moreton Lodge on the 15th October. He will offer some of his fine sheep and pigs for sale. Read what he says, all ye who have a desire to improve your stock.

PRESENTATION OF COLOURS.—The Waterloo Battalion under command of Col. Goodman assembled at Galt on Tuesday where they were presented by Mrs. Wm. Cooke, on behalf of the ladies of Galt, with a stand of colours. After some speeches delivered, appropriate to the occasion, the men were invited to a luncheon prepared for them on the grounds. The proceedings passed off with much pleasure to all.

BACKING DOWN.—Sometime last winter the Waterloo Chronicle preferred some very ugly charges against Mr. E. Stephens, who occupies an important and confidential position on the Grand Trunk. Mr. Stephens at once brought an action for libel against the proprietor of the Chronicle, but as finding after due inquiry that these charges were entirely unfounded, has made a most ample apology, and the suit has in consequence been withdrawn.

ROBBERY AT BRANTFORD.—The premises of John Humbrecht, Mark Harrison and George King were entered early on Tuesday morning by robbers. They took about $200 in English money, $1000 in bills, which were in the same trunk. Mrs. King caught one of the parties by the neck, but he overpowered her and escaped. They did not succeed in getting anything at the other places. The Chief Constable immediately followed the suspected parties, and arrested one at Paris.

STOCK FOR THE WEST.—Mr. James O'Neill, shipped the first car-load of his breeding stock for his new farm in Kansas by the 24th train on the Great Western yesterday. The shipment consisted of horses, cattle, sheep and poultry, among the horses were his celebrated French Canadian entire horse, and a Royal George mare. Mr. O'Neill is selling off his effects as quickly as possible. Any one in want of a good farm near our splendid market should apply to him at once. His farm stock, implements, &c., will be sold at auction, particulars of which will appear in a future advertisement.

KNOW'S CHURCH BAZAAR.—The arrangements for the holding of this bazaar are now complete. As announced last week, it will be held on Wednesday and Thursday next, in the Town Hall, open during the day and evening. An immense assortment of useful and ornamental articles will be offered for sale which have been donated by strangers as well as by members of the congregation. Refreshment tables will also be supplied with abundance of the best eatables that can be procured, and it is to be hoped that people from the country in want of a good substantial meal will patronize the ladies and the bazaar.

LECTURE.—Baron De Camlin complains seriously that he cannot get the Town Hall to deliver a lecture against "Popery," although he offered the necessary fees for its use. He holds, as well as many of the influential ratepayers, that the Chairman of the Market House Committee has no right to withhold it, as it is a public building. Some of the Council on the other hand assert that it is a prerogative vested in them to grant or withhold the Hall as may seem to them proper, and our population being a mixed one, it would be injudicious to rent it to the gentleman in question for the object named by him.

The Crops of Ontario.

The annual crop returns, furnished the Grand Trunk Railway Company by their agents along the route, have just been published, and show a satisfactory condition of the year's harvest. In one place the yield of any particular grain is more than in another, but take the Province as a whole the harvest has been a good average. The following summary of the returns from the Leader—

Along the Buffalo & Goderich line, Fall wheat appears to have been sown largely, and the yield is fully 25 bushels to the acre. In the neighborhood of Fort Erie some fields have given as much as 40 bushels. From other parts there are returns as low as 15; the average will be at least 25 bushels—and this is a good yield. In the district of country between Toronto and Sarnia, fall wheat is a good crop. The yield is somewhat greater than along the Buffalo & Lake Huron line. East of Toronto, after you pass Port Hope, there does not appear to have been a large quantity of this grain sown. Cornwall is about the only eastern place which equals the ordinary run of the west.

The case seems to be reversed as regards Spring wheat. In the west there is not a great breadth of land sown with this grain whilst in the Eastern District it has been the staple crop, and has yielded well. It will average over 20 bushels to the acre. Several places give returns as high as 25 bushels.

Contrary to general expectation the hay crop has been large all over the country, with very few exceptions. Barley is over the average. Peas and Oats below it. The coarser grains have not turned out well. They have done better, however, than the root crops, which suffered terribly. We are sorry to see that, so far as these returns show, there was not much flax sown this year.

Danforth and Lee last manufacturers, Elora, took the second prize for lasts at the exhibition in Hamilton. The judges said they deserved the first prize, only their sets weren't complete.

One planter near Perry in Hinds County, Miss., has received $4,000 this year from his shipments of peaches to the New Orleans market, and he is now engaged in shipping tomatoes to the same city.

The "Western Fair" opened at London on Tuesday, and was a perfect success, there being no less than 2,014 entries. The number of tickets sold the first day was over 6,000.

The revenue of the Great Western Railway during the Exhibition week at London amounts to the large sum of $103,683.82, being an excess over the corresponding week of last year of no less than $13,290.53.

NEW PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL.

On Tuesday Senator Aikens made his appearance at Ottawa, accompanied by Mr. McDougall. It now seems pretty certain that the office of President of the Council, vacated by the death of Mr. Blair, will be bestowed upon him. There is probably no means of preventing it, but is Senator Aikens the fittest man for the office who could have been chosen?

BASE BALL AFFAIRS.

A meeting of the Maple Leaf B. B. Club was held on Tuesday night at the Court House Hotel. The matters discussed were the approaching return match with the Elora Club, which takes place here on Saturday, and the concert which will be given at an early date as possible. The B. B. Club have always been the best that have been given in town, and no effort will be spared to make that in contemplation equal to the foremost of its predecessors.

GARATARA COUNCIL.

This Council met on the 15th Sept. John Dobbin, Reeve in the chair, all the members present. Resolved that $3.50 be paid to R. Mitchell and $24 and $1 costs be paid to Samuel McNab for sheep killed by dogs as soon as funds are collected for that purpose; also that F. Durkee be paid $4 for making coffin for Alex. Lowry, and by-law for altering School Sections read a third time and passed as previously published, with some slight alterations. Resolved that H. Hamill's petition respecting a dog killed be laid on the table.

That the petition of David Black, and 31 others, praying that the side road between lots 15 and 16 in the 1st and 2nd con. be placed on the line surveyed by J. Milloy P. L. S. be granted, and that the Clerk notify Thos. Cleghorn and others encroaching on said road to remove their fences as directed by law. That the By-law be read a third time and passed granting to John Carroll 4 rods square or 16 square rods, of the original road allowance between lots 5 and 6, 13th con. Resolved that C. J. Wheelock P. L. S. be instructed to run the side line between lots 5 and 6 in the 16th con. and west half of 17th con. and report to the Council.

Council adjourned to meet at P. Couss's Hotel, Douglas, on the 16th of October next.

A person who had made himself obnoxious by obtruding his hobby—the degeneracy of the times—on the attention of others without regard to the proprieties of time and place, asked the Rev. Dr. B., at an associational dinner, if he did not think that the martyr spirit had died out of the Church. "My observation assures me that it has not," blandly replied the divine; "for I noticed to-day, when dinner was announced, that the weakest of my brethren marched with ardor to the steak."

Accounts from the interior of New Brunswick speak of the potato disease, which makes great ravage. In some places the fields are completely blackened within a few hours.

It is stated that Walter Brown will go to England in about two or three weeks, to row Kelly, the English champion, to the winner of the great race to come off on the 17th of next month, whoever he may be.

The reassuring speech of the King of Prussia at Hamburg adds another to the reasons for believing that the peace of Europe is not likely to be soon broken by any collision between France and Prussia.

It was reported in Ottawa two weeks ago that Mr. McDougall threatened to resign in consequence of the delay in the completion of the Railway Commission. The resignation has not been announced yet, however.

There is a rumor in Royal circles that Dr. Tupper intends making a tour of Nova Scotia, and addressing the people on "the situation."

Prest & Hepburn's "Powers."

We are pleased to observe that Messrs. Prest & Hepburn have taken a fresh start in the manufacture of boots and shoes, they have infused fresh life and new blood into their establishment and are doing, and promise to continue doing, a very extensive business. Although they employ a large number of workmen, and although they have transported bodily a first class custom shop from the lower end of Wyndham St. they still complain of being short of hands. For this cause huge piles of boots and shoes of various styles and sizes lie in a room waiting for a finishing polish, and boxing up for consignment to the retailer. We have before described all the machinery in this manufactory. Those machines only are used concerning the utility and efficiency of which there is no debate. The work on the uppers is all performed with sewing machines, but the bottoming is done by hand. The crimping, skiving, punching and the greater part of the insertion of the sole are done by the most approved machinery in use for the purpose, and the sole is cut out with a die. The finishing depends upon the skill of twelve workmen, who are in a shop by themselves. When we add to this that we have a large stock of boots and shoes on hand, and that the greater part of the goods which engage their attention and call forth their energies at present are heavy boots for country wear. These are demanded by the fall trade, and most of the men are engaged on them for the time being. Hitherto the sewed work which Prest & Hepburn have sold in their shop has been imported, but they have made preparations for beginning immediately the manufacture of men's sewed gaiter boots. They say that they can make them cheaper than they can import them, and if so the public will be benefited by the greater part of the goods which engage their attention and call forth their energies at present are heavy boots for country wear. LATEST FROM SPAIN.

Every day adds fresh testimony of the deep hatred which has so long rankled in the breasts of Spaniards against their voluptuous Queen, and which has now broken forth with a fury that nothing short of an entire overthrow of the Bourbon dynasty seems calculated to appease. The official organ of France has endeavored in laboured articles to deary the revolutionary movement, to convince the French people that success was all on the side of the Royalists, and that tranquillity would soon be restored to every province of Spain. The motive is quite apparent. Revolt is infectious, Frenchmen are peculiarly liable to the contagion, and Louis Napoleon mindful that a king, his predecessor, lost his head, poor fellow, has perhaps some anxiety for the safety of his own. At all events he seems to be giving himself much more trouble about the affairs of Spain than an Emperor who had risen by ordinary means to rule an ordinary people would be likely to do.

Since Queen Isabella left her capital to meet Napoleon on the frontier, and tender the power of Spain for the protection of His Holiness in case France should have concerns on hand requiring her whole force and attention, she has been unable to return. The impending storm burst with sudden and terrific violence, the Spaniard "woke from his trance," and is making a desperate effort to free himself from the chains with which tyranny has so long enthralled him. The annulling of the Salique law, by which set Isabella ascended the throne, has certainly completed the ruin of Spain. It is true its glory departed with Ferdinand and the other Isabella, but never has it been brought so low as by its present degraded Queen. Never free from savage bands of robbers, it has lately been almost overrun by them, and the worst of it is, that there are but few people in the country worth robbing. The Royal Exchequer itself is depleted. Isabella's private purse is often empty, and her debt of a husband is continually in debt. Under these circumstances is it at all to be wondered at that the sailors should be unpaid, and that the entire navy should join in the revolt in consequence?

The people rebel because they are poor, the army because their favorite general, the Duke de Montpensier, a son of Louis Philippe and a brother-in-law of the Queen, is exiled, and the only power which the reigning dynasty (if we may yet call it so) has to back it is the Church, a powerful auxiliary, no doubt in a country like Spain, but whether it will be potent to quell the passions of so many thousands is a point that is at least debatable. Certain it is that the revolutionary spirit is spreading with surprising rapidity, and while the majority of the Provinces are disaffected, the most important seaport towns are in possession of the rebels. The only hope—and it is a slight one—which remains to the Royalists is dissensions among the Rebel generals. Prim who is the weightiest among them seems to have incurred the dislike of those whom circumstances should have made his colleagues, yet they have all sense enough to merge their personal antipathies and to act with vigour, even if they do not act in concert, against the common enemy.

The week's telegrams have all gone to show that the Royal cause is daily growing worse. The Queen offered to resign in favor of her son, the Prince of Asturias—herself to act as regent—but the revolutionists will have none of her, nor will be satisfied with anything less than the expulsion of the Bourbons. Cadix has been compelled to surrender to a fleet of iron-clads. A Provisional President has been appointed, who has seen fit to refuse offers from the Queen's Minister, two regiments of Royal troops sent against Cadix joined the rebels; also, 3,000 men forming the vanguard of the army with which the Marquis of Nevelichez was marching against Gen. Serrano, deserted their colors and went over to the insurgents.—This delayed an action which it was thought would be decisive, the Marquis being obliged to wait for reinforcements. The Royalists have already lost 6,000 men in a fight at Santander, and confident in their numbers the rebels are marching in force on the capital. Gen. Prim is also expected hourly of Madrid with a fleet of iron-clads, when it is believed the city will immediately surrender. Indeed, a report says that a revolt has already broken out within the city, and that Isabella's last hope fled, she has left San Sebastian, and crossed the frontiers into France. If so, the rule of a woman who is a disgrace to her sex has terminated.

The Revista Militar, of Lisbon, contends that the perfecting of firearms, far from increasing the mortality in battles, has on the contrary, diminished it, and alleges the following instances:—At Ansteritz the French lost 14 per cent, and the Austrians and Prussians respectively 14 and 20 per cent of their soldiers. At Moscow the French loss was 37, while the Russian loss was 44 per cent. At Wagram the casualties were, among the French, 13, and amongst the Austrians, 14 per cent. At Bautzen the French lost 13, the Russians and Prussians 14 per cent. At Waterloo the losses of the Allies were 31 and of the French 38 per cent. Then comes the contrast. At Magenta the French lost but 7 per cent of their troops, and the Austrian percentage did not exceed 3, while at Solferino the losses of the combatants were 10 and 3 per cent. It is hardly fair to compare the battle of Murfreesborough with those of regular armies, but according to the report of General Rosecranz, which caused some surprise at the time it was published, 20,000 discharges of cannon put only 728 men hors de combat, and of 2,000,000 musket shots no more than 13,380 took effect. It thus took 27 cannon balls and 150 bullets, or about 232 lbs. of metal, to disable each soldier.

An Ottawa despatch says that Sir George E. Cartier, and Mr. McDougall were formally appointed, on Tuesday, delegates to England on the subject of the transfer of the North-west, and that they will leave on the 3rd Oct.

A charity school girl, under examination in Psalm, on being asked, "What is the pestilence that walketh in darkness?" answered, "Bad bugs, sir."

LATEST FROM SPAIN.

Every day adds fresh testimony of the deep hatred which has so long rankled in the breasts of Spaniards against their voluptuous Queen, and which has now broken forth with a fury that nothing short of an entire overthrow of the Bourbon dynasty seems calculated to appease. The official organ of France has endeavoured in laboured articles to decry the revolutionary movement, to convince the French people that success was all on the side of the Royalists, and that tranquillity would soon be restored to every province of Spain. The motive is quite apparent. Revolt is infectious, Frenchmen are peculiarly liable to the contagion, and Louis Napoleon mindful that a king, his predecessor, lost his head, poor fellow, has perhaps some anxiety for the safety of his own. At all events he seems to be giving himself much more trouble about the affairs of Spain than an Emperor who had risen by ordinary means to rule an ordinary people would be likely to do.

Since Queen Isabella left her capital to meet Napoleon on the frontier, and tender the power of Spain for the protection of His Holiness in case France should have concerns on hand requiring her whole force and attention, she has been unable to return. The impending storm burst with sudden and terrific violence, the Spaniard "woke from his trance," and is making a desperate effort to free himself from the chains with which tyranny has so long enthralled him. The annulling of the Salpêtre law, by which act Isabella ascended the throne, has certainly completed the ruin of Spain. It is true its glory departed with Ferdinand and the other Isabella, but never has it been brought so low as by the present degraded Queen. Never free from savage bands of robbers, it has lately been almost overrun by them, and the worst of it is, that there are but few people in the country worth robbing. The Royal Exchequer itself is depleted, Isabella's private purse is often empty, and her debt of a husband is continually in debt. Under these circumstances it is at all to be wondered at that the sailors should be unpaid, and that the entire navy should join in the revolt in consequence?

The people rebel because they are poor, the army because their favourite general, the Duke de Montpensier, a son of Louis Philippe and a brother-in-law of the Queen, is exiled, and the only power which the reigning dynasty (if we may yet call it so) has to back it is the Church, a powerful auxiliary, doubt in a country like Spain, but whether it will be potent to quell the passions of so many thousands of men, is at least debatable. I think it is that the revolutionary spirit is spreading with surprising rapidity, and while the majority of the Provinces are disaffected, the most important seaport towns are in possession of the rebels. The only hope—and it is a slight one—which remains to the Royalists is dissensions among the Rebel generals. Prim who is the weightiest among them seems to have incurred the dislike of those whom circumstances should have made his colleagues, yet they have all sense enough to merge their personal antipathies and to act with vigour, even if they do not act in concert, against the common enemy.

The week's telegrams have all gone to show that the Royal cause is daily growing worse. The Queen offered to resign in favor of her son, the Prince of Asturias—herself to act as regent—but the revolutionists will have none of her, nor will be satisfied with anything less than the expulsion of the Bourbons. Cadiz has been compelled to surrender to a fleet of iron-clads. A Provisional President has been appointed, who has seen fit to refuse offers from the Queen's Minister, two regiments of Royal troops sent against Cadiz joined the rebels; also, 3,000 men forming the vanguard of the army with which the Marquis of Nevilchitz was marching against Gen. Serrano, deserted their colors and went over to the insurgents.—This delayed an action which it was thought would be decisive, the Marquis being obliged to wait for reinforcements. The Royalists have already lost 6,000 men in a fight at Santander, and confident in their numbers the rebels are marching in force on the capital. Gen. Prim is also expected hourly off Madrid with a fleet of iron-clads, when it is believed the city will immediately surrender. Indeed, a report says that a revolt has already broken out within the city, and that Isabella's last hope fled, she has left San Sebastian, and crossed the frontiers into France. If so, the rule of a woman who is a disgrace to her sex has terminated.

The Revista Militar, of Lisbon, contends that the perfecting of firearms, far from increasing the mortality in battles, has on the contrary, diminished it, and alleges the following instances:—At Austerlitz the French lost 14 per cent, and the Austrians and Prussians respectively 14 and 30 per cent of their soldiers. At Moscow the French lost 37, while the Russian loss was 41 per cent. At Wagram the casualties were, among the French, 13, and amongst the Austrians, 14 per cent. At Berezina the French lost 13, the Russians and Prussians 14 per cent. At Waterloo the losses of the Allies were 31 and of the French 36 per cent. Then comes the contrast. At M'genta the French lost but 7 per cent of their troops, and the Austrian percentage did not exceed 8, while at Solferino the losses of the combatants were 10 and 8 per cent. It is hardly fair to compare the battle of M'grentesborough with those of regular armies, but according to the report of General Rosencranz, which caused some surprise at the time it was published, 20,000 discharges of cannon put only 728 men hors de combat, and out of 2,000,000 musket shots no more than 13,350 took effect. It thus took 27 cannon balls and 150 bullets, or about 252 lbs. of metal, to disable each soldier.

An Ottawa despatch says that Sir George E. Cartier, and Mr. McDougall were formally appointed, on Tuesday, delegates to England on the subject of the transfer of the North-west, and that they will leave on the 3rd Oct.

JOHN A. McMILLAN.

MOTTO—Free Trade and no Protection.

To those parties who live by buying Boots and Shoes in Hamilton, Toronto, Kingston or Montreal, and selling them to the people of Wellington at an immense profit over the manufacturer's price, JOHN A. McMILLAN says all right, gents: you have a perfect right to do so as long as you can sell the public to buy from you. Free trade is my motto, and there should be no ill will on your part towards JOHN A. McMILLAN.

To the people of Wellington JOHN A. McMILLAN says if you choose to buy imported work, and prefer to send your money away to Hamilton, Toronto, Kingston, or Montreal, to get your Boots and Shoes made there, instead of having them made here in Guelph, JOHN A. McMILLAN says all right, friends, without hindrance you can do so. My duty is performed when I tell you that you can get the best Boots and the cheapest Boots in the County of Wellington at the Wellington Boot and Shoe Manufactory—all made by me in Guelph. Free Trade is my motto, however, and you can pay parties to import Boots and Shoes for you if you choose to do so.

But remember that the best Boots, the Cheapest Boots—all home-made Boots—Boots that are Boots, are to be got at the Wellington Boot and Shoe Manufactory, Wyndham-st., Guelph, the Pergus Boot and Shoe Store, corner of St. David and St. Andrew Streets, Fergus, and the Elora Boot and Shoe Manufactory, directly opposite Kirk & Clarke's, Elora.

Grain Markets.
Market Office, Guelph, Ont.,
September 30, 1888.

The market is beginning to get lively. Long lines of teams are seen wending their way daily along the streets to the Market Square. Wheat is offered freely, there being on Tuesday about 300 bushels of fall and over 900 bushels of spring wheat brought in. This is a large supply for the season and appears to indicate that it has not decreased on Wednesday. The price for the last two or three days has kept pretty steady, the tendency if any being to a decline. Barley is fairly supplied, and keeps at a high figure. Messrs. Robins & Tilton purchase nearly all that comes in. How long it may retain its present value it would be difficult to foretell, but those who have any of this grain for sale would do well to bring it along as speedily as possible. Oats are scarce, and only about one or two samples are good. A firstrate article would bring 50 cents. Peas have undergone no change for some time past. Potatoes are low; they have up and down, being governed in a great measure by the supply. Beef, mutton and pigs are also lower.

TORONTO MARKETS.

Toronto, September 29, 1888.
There is so little wheat that it is impossible to give quotations. Holders ask $1.20 for spring midge proof, and 1.35 for fall in car lots. There is little or no demand, however, at these prices, and no lots therefore are selling. A few loads are brought in to the market by farmers and sell as follows: Spring and midge proof 1.17 to 1.18; white Soules fall 1.17 to 1.18. Flour is quiet and dull. A few sales are taking place, 1.50 is the highest price that could be got to-day. Oats are firmer; a car sold to-day at 51¢ on track in bulk. Peas are quiet and dull; a few loads are coming in on the market, and sold at from 95¢ to 97¢. Butter is beginning to come in more freely; dairy is worth from 19¢ to 22¢, and the packed 16 to 18¢.

Cait Markets.
