Budget, 2133. Struggle of Minister of Finance to balance the budget; total deficits under five budgets since 1930 amount to $600,000,000; total debt of dominions, provinces and municipalities; statement showing total revenue, interest charges and percentage which interest bears to revenue; spending the best of our energies in endeavouring to pay interest; Canada should have its own money policy, 2133; results of abandonment of gold policy in Australia; comparison of budget figures in Canada and Australia; real burden of debt determined by amount of goods that have to be produced to pay the interest; price levels for agricultural products higher in Australia; solution of all our problems involves the question of money, 2134; transition from age of scarcity into age of potential plenty; cause of depression under-consumption rather than over-production; money purely a creature of man and subject to his control; shrinkage of bank deposits between 1929 and 1933; instituting our own system of financial book-keeping by establishing a national bank or credit house; financing during the war, 2135; issuing credit and money without interest; correcting our chronic lack of purchasing power by issuing credit for consumption; issuing a national divi-

 Budget, 2386. Serious situation in drought-stricken areas of western Canada; throwing open of area for settlement in 1909 in Alberta by Minister of Interior against advice of departmental officers and residents of dry areas; responsibility on federal and not on provincial governments, 2386; building of dams to impound spring water; tremendous loss occasioned to settlers in dry areas; necessity for restoration of fibre in soil by seeding down to grass; provision of suitable grass seed by the government; encouragement of strip farming and tree-planting as shelter belts, 2387, 2388; irrigation possibilities; the Pierce stock watering scheme; restoration of humidity lost through drying up of lakes and sloughs; purpose of the amendment to the amendment, 2389; maldistribution of purchasing power; present situation the product of the capitalist system and the exaction of profit; concentration of wealth and of purchasing power; suggestion that Minister of Finance should take all incomes over $25,000 for the use of the state; no longer an opportunity for investment of surplus purchasing power because of development
