Million of Population Are Plunged In Sorrow... DESTITUTE OF EVERYTHING

Women and Little Ones in Sore Straits—Pitiable Sight of Children Spectres of Emaciation—Dry Bread the Food, Milk Out of the Question

New York, Jan. 29.—The New York Herald has received the following telegram:

Nish, Jan. 29.—Metropolitan Dimitri, supreme head of the Serbian church, says: Today one million Serbians, one third of the population, are suffering every possible sorrow. They are destitute of everything. Since the beginning of the war, when their lands were turned into battle-fields, they have endured terrible privations, and their sufferings have been still greater during the war, because the first invasion took away a great proportion of the peasants who remained behind to provide food for the families those who were fighting.

Bloemfontein, Orange River Colony, Africa, via London, Jan. 29.—A preliminary hearing in the case of Barend Wessels, a member of the South African parliament, who was arrested in December on a charge of treason, was held here on Thursday.

According to the evidence he induced 500 burglers to join the rebels. The case was adjourned without date and Wessels is held without bail.

WAR NOTES

Fish is hereafter to form part of the rations for Canadian soldiers. The German Crown Prince has told the Associated Press that Germany and Austria are sure of final victory, and that Russia and France are "doing the dirty work of England."

Russia flatly denies a Vienna report that she is willing to conclude peace separately with Austria. United States school children are to be organized for home and foreign relief work to offset the influence of war stories upon their minds.

REPORT OF GREAT LOSSES BY GERMANS CONFIRMED

Fierce Attack on Allies Cost Kaiser's Men Dearly -- Yesterday's Engagements Not so General But Favorable to British, French and Belgians

Paris, Jan. 29.—The French War Office this afternoon reported: "The day of January 28 saw nothing more than local engagements which resulted favorably to us. In Belgium, in the vicinity of Nieuport, our infantry secured a footing on the Grande Dunes a locality which was mentioned in the communication of January 17."

"A German aeroplane was brought down by our artillery fire. In the sectors of Ypres, Lens and Arras, there were, yesterday, artillery engagements which, at times, became fairly violent. Several infantry attacks were undertaken, but at once driven back by our fire. In the sectors of Soissons, Craonne and Rheims, there is nothing to report. Between Rheims and the Argonne yesterday saw artillery engagements, but not of great intensity. It has been confirmed that the German attack, repulsed by us on the night of January 27-28, at Fontaine Madens cost the Germans dearly."

"On the heights of the Meuse and in the Voorges there were artillery engagements, our cannon at several points silencing the fire of German batteries and machine gun detachments. "We have everywhere consolidated the positions occupied by us on January 27."

Strasbourg in State of Siege

London, Jan. 29.—The Morning Post's correspondent at Berne telegraphs: "Strasbourg is being placed in a state of siege. Even officers' wives have received orders to leave there immediately."

Fussia Sorry for Persia's Case. Petrograd, Jan. 29.—Russia has informed Persia, according to an announcement made here, of her regret that Persia should have become the arena of hostilities. The Turkish incursion into Persia was directed against Russia, it is explained, and Russia was constrained to adopt measures to meet this situation.

Italian Statesman's Idea. London, Jan. 29.—The Morning Post's Rome correspondent telegraphs: "Signor Gioiello's friends protest against the idea of his having negotiated with Prince Von Buelow behind the back of the government. That he supports the policy of absolute neutrality to the end of the war, he has so informed me. He wishes Italy to obtain the

MARITIME EXPRESS WRECKED; CARS OVER A HIGH BANK; TEN PEOPLE ARE INJURED

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 29.—Ten passengers were injured when at 2.45 o'clock this morning, No. 38 north bound Maritime Express, was wrecked near McLeod's, a small, dry station about five miles south of Campbellton. Everything except the engine and postal car left the track. Two sleeping cars plunged over a thirty foot embankment. Officials here say the passengers' injuries were not serious.

The official list of injured is:—C. H. Millville, Montreal; Mrs. N. G. Shaw, Toronto; Miss Ethel Gibson, Saskatoon; Major and Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, Charlottetown; P. E. L. Mrs. E. Elliott, Picton; N. S. O. W. Gotthardt, St. Lambert; G. G. Messer, Hamilton; John Murphy, Ottawa. Conway

The cause of the run off is not yet determined, but it is thought the heavy locomotive spread rails.

NEW FACTS IN CONNECTION WITH PARIS SENSATION ARE BEING BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Paris, Jan. 29.—Some new facts concerning the relations of Francois Desclaux, army paymaster, and a wealthy woman, among whose mansion were found military stores, said to have been stolen by Desclaux, have come to light, but the mysterious denials in the case remain.

The military authorities have denied that they contemplated the further charge of espionage against Desclaux, who is under a charge with stealing military stores. Nevertheless all the newspapers lay stress on the fact that the members of the firm of which the woman's husband is the head, and with which Desclaux was on such intimate terms, are all Germans and have maintained the closest business and family relations with Germany.

According to the Matin this firm started business with a backing supplied by an assurance company of Berlin.

One of Them Caught Here

Nine Germans Escape From Halifax Citadel

Mystery About It. Court Martial Likely—Four of Number Caught Again in Halifax and Four of Them Still Are at Large

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 29.—Nine German prisoners of war escaped from the Citadel yesterday afternoon, four of them have been recaptured here and taken to police headquarters. The others the military authorities hope to round up during the day. Two were captured at the North street station waiting for the St. John train to pull out. It was not until about eight o'clock word was received by the authorities that the prisoners were at the station and no time was lost in rounding them up.

How the Germans escaped remains a mystery outside of military circles. It is not even known in military circles exactly how they managed to cross the wall. This, it is understood, will be a matter for court martial.

August Groling, a German prisoner who recently escaped from the detention camp at Halifax, was arrested by local police here last evening. He was taken to a central station. This morning he appeared in the police court and was remanded to police reports was reserved on the Halifax military authorities about the arrest and he expected an escort in the city sometime today to take charge of the prisoner. The German is a young man, apparently both agile and strong.

Armed with a meager description of the man he located him near the Union station. Monahan reports one of the Germans, Anton Rodie, arrested there.

FIVE YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Stern Is Sentenced by Judge Forbes—Children's Aid Matter Before Judge McKeown

Irving Stern pleaded guilty this morning to forgery and obtaining money by false pretences, and was sentenced by Judge Forbes to five years in the penitentiary. Stern was charged on the former charge and two years on the latter. He belongs to Brookline, Mass., and, according to police reports was reserved on similar charges in Hampton and in parts of the United States. Attorney-General Baxter and C. H. Ferguson prosecuted and Stern was not represented by counsel.

Children's Aid Matter. Application was made this morning to Mr. Justice McKeown by J. King Kelly, for an order to take eleven-year-old John Boyce away from his father and place him in charge of the Children's Aid Society of this city. This society was only recently organized and this is the first case of the kind taken up by the society. The boy attended school only a very short time and has been sleeping in barns at times. The matter was called to the attention of S. M. Wetmore by W. Kilpatrick. The boy's mother left the city some time ago. The father did not appear this morning in response to the summons, and the evidence of S. M. Wetmore, A. M. Belding, president of the society, and of the lad himself was heard, after which adjournment was made until next Friday.

EXHIBITION OF WAR VIEWS. In the Congregational Church last evening a very interesting illustrated lecture was given by the pastor, Rev. Ralph J. Haughton, on "The European War." Seventy-five war views were shown by the aid of a powerful stereopticon. The cordial reception which these first war pictures were given by the large audience was very gratifying to the Men's League, under whose auspices the views were exhibited. Several of the views, like "Life in the Trenches at Mons," "The Battle of Longwy," and "The Charge of the Scotch Highlanders at St. Quentin" were exceedingly realistic and thrilling. Miss Andrus's rendering of two songs was highly appreciated and elicited most hearty applause.

CANADA'S WINTER PORT.

(Boston Herald.) There's business in being the winter port of Canada. A Portland dispatch tells of 2,000,000 bushels of grain now in the Grand Trunk elevators there, with 800 unloaded cars in the yard and 1,500 more cars on the track between Montreal and Portland.

At a mass meeting in the opera house in Sussex on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, Judge Ritchie, St. John, will deliver a lecture under the auspices of the Temperance Alliance Committee. In addition to the address there will be a program of music and the ladies' orchestra will be present and render some sacred selections.

BETTER TODAY The condition of James Burns, a C. P. R. brakeman, who met with serious injuries a few nights ago at South Bay, and whose arm was amputated as a result, is considerably improved today.

All Eyes Now Turn To The Passes of The Carpathians

Developments There Dominate Interest in the Eastern Theatre—Russian Official Report is Cheerful

London, Jan. 29.—The Times' Petrograd correspondent telegraphs: "The activity of the Austro-German forces in the eastern, or Beskid, division of the Carpathians, is becoming the dominant feature in the military situation. The enemy's movements are rapidly developing along a front extending from Dukla to Wyszow, a distance approximately of 100 miles."

"The columns are trying to cross the mountains by numerous passes within this front, fed by four important railways from the south. Przemyśl stands in the centre of the enemy's line of advance, and its relief forms, apparently, the immediate objective of the invaders."

Petrograd, via London, Jan. 29.—Colonel Shumay, military critic of the Bourse Gazette, in a study of the Carpathian situation, as generated today, declares that the Austrians will deliver their main attack on their extreme right wing in west Bukovina, where they hope to achieve a victory which will halt Romania.

This view of the situation is supported by the concentration of Archduke Joseph's fourth army and a German force of four corps in southwestern Hungary.

RUSSIAN SUMMARY. Petrograd, Jan. 29.—The general staff of the Russian army today issued the following report: "In the country to the north of Tilsit, East Prussia, Russian detachments on Jan. 27 took the offensive and drove back the Germans, destroying the railroad station at Poggen, a few miles north of Tilsit."

"The fighting in the forested country north of Pilsken and Gumbinnen continues, and in certain places we are making progress. "Along the rest of the front in east Prussia January 27 passed quietly, except to the northeast of Darkehmen. Here the Germans attacked our positions, but they were driven back to their trenches."

"On the right bank of the lower Vistula, encounters continue between our advance guards and those of the enemy. On the left bank of the Vistula, in the vicinity of Bezhinow, Russian troops aided by sappers delivered an attack on the night of January 27, on the trenches of the enemy, after having on the afternoon of that day, successfully countermined these trenches. In this same locality, the Germans assumed offensive operations, but without success."

"The artillery duel along the left bank of the Vistula continued on January 27. Our efficient shell fire against the position of the enemy silenced several of his batteries and inflicted heavy losses on the Germans in their trenches. This was particularly the case near the village of Jlonimetz, where we saw German soldiers carrying numerous dead and wounded from their trenches."

GALICIA. "Along the Carpathian front from Dukla Pass to the railroad running between Strzy and Mounkatch we were engaged on January 26 and 27 with successful results. Our success to the southwest of Dukla Pass was particularly important. Here our troops, advancing with energy, compelled the enemy on January 26 to retreat in great haste, leaving behind them ammunition and other war material. In the vicinity of Torkhans and Dolshyn, we captured, on January 27, an earthwork of the enemy and we surrounded a second position close to this first one. During these operations we took prisoners, officers and men. The numbers have not yet been determined."

"At certain points along this front the enemy has made particular efforts to assume the offensive, but every-where our soldiers have rendered in full. There has been no change in the situation in Bukovina. Artillery duels and outpost skirmishes continue."

GERMAN FORCES MOVING SLOWLY

Deterioration of Mobility a Notable Feature. Grand Duke Changes Front Without Regard For Enemy's Reserves—Aviators Visit Kielce—More Troops to Bukovina

London, Jan. 29.—Military critics here comment upon the unusual features which have characterized the operations in East Prussia, Poland and Galicia thus far, especially noting the changeability in the motive facilities of the German armies. The present condition of inactivity in the eastern war theatre is largely attributable to the temporary failure of transportation methods not only of the Germans, but of the Austrians and Russians as well.

Whether it is the scarcity of petrol and rubber in Germany which renders rapid movement of men cannot change, or whether the operations have reached such a stage that even rapid movement of men cannot change, the situation is a matter of conjecture.

According to Petrograd advices the Germans are slowing in their movements, whereas the Russians are gaining in speed. The Grand Duke Nicholas has not yet put his arrangements in such a shape that he and his generals are satisfied with them, but they are now convinced that the mobility of the German troops is rapidly deteriorating.

It is said to be this reason that impelled the sudden despatch of a large Russian army against the German stronghold at Thorn. The Russian leaders were working well the weather was interfering with the railway service and that the time was ripe for such a stroke.

Francois no Menace. General Francois' army is apparently mired in Northern Poland somewhere, unable to get far enough for even the Russian scouts to get alarmed. Free of danger from that direction the Russians are pressing hard on the line running from Mlawo to the upper Vistula, and are making slow but steady progress against a steadily hardening resistance.

Reports by way of Copenhagen from Russia say that thirty persons were killed and fifty injured in a bombardment of Kielce, Poland, recently by Austrian aircraft. Reports are telegraphed here and Saxons who are now fighting in Hungary and with the Austrians.

REV. J. J. WALSH IS NEW VICAR-GENERAL. Pastor of Holy Trinity Named as Successor to Very Rev. W. F. Chapman

The new vicar general of the diocese of St. John is Rev. J. J. Walsh, pastor of Holy Trinity church. The appointment was announced today by His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc. For more than twenty years the newly created vicar general has been the beloved pastor of Holy Trinity, and today, on his promotion to this office of dignity and honor, he will be the recipient of hearty congratulations from his congregation and citizens of St. John in general regardless of creed, who entertain towards him feelings of highest regard. He has been an able priest, and a zealous worker, and the honor accorded him in the elevation to the vicar-generalship will be acclaimed as richly merited and decidedly popular.

On December 22 last Very Rev. Father Walsh was fifty-six years of age. The son of Captain John Walsh, he was born in West St. John where his younger days at school were spent. Later he attended the school conducted by the Christian Brothers, and in 1877 when they left St. John he went to the Grand Seminary in Montreal where he took a two years' course in philosophy and a three and a half year course in theology. Among his fellow students were Rev. Father Collins of Fairville, Father Carney of Fredericton, and others well known in this diocese.

His ordination to the priesthood took place on December 28, 1882, and his first mass was celebrated at midnight, Christmas Eve, and his first sermon preached in the Cathedral here on December 31. For a month he was stationed in West St. John, and later returned to the Cathedral. He became senior priest in the Cathedral in 1886, and so remained until July 1892 when he became pastor of Holy Trinity where he has since remained, and where his labors have today been crowned with his elevation to the office of vicar general, as successor to Rev. Monsignor Chapman. Rev. Father Walsh is noted as a speaker and theologian and a kindly, zealous priest.

It is understood that Father Walsh will continue as pastor of Holy Trinity.

Famine Is Now Feared

Austria Feeling War Effects In Food Shortage. DEMAND ON GOVERNMENT

Vienna Council and Newspapers Call For Confiscation of Supplies and Say a Great Catastrophe Threatens Unless German Course is Followed

Viennois, via London, Jan. 29.—Despatches from Vienna state that the city council and the press are demanding that the Austrian government immediately follow the example of Germany and confiscate stocks of grain, flour and meat. Practically no grain is being offered on the markets in Vienna, Budapest or Prague.

The press, the despatches state, declares a great catastrophe threatens unless confiscation is adopted and it denounces the selfish attitude of certain Hungarian agriculturists who, it is said, are hoarding thousands of tons of grain and flour.

Responding to the appeals of land owners, the Austrian government has consented to the employment of prisoners of war in field work, thus replacing peasants who have gone to the front. The prisoners will be sent out in detachments of ten to 100 men and consequently will be available only on the larger estates.

Bread Dear in Italy. Rome, Jan. 29.—The constant increase in the price of wheat has made the cost of bread here higher than it is in some of the belligerent countries. CARRANZA IN CONTROL IN MEXICO CITY; A FEELING OF CONFIDENCE

Mexico City, Jan. 29.—The capital today is in the hands of the forces of General Carranza who, while acting as the provisional president of the government, was forced to leave Mexico City early in November, before the advancing troops of General Villa, who disagreed with his policies. Now the authorities have re-established order and a general feeling of confidence prevails.

General Venustiano Carranza, the first chief of the Constitutionalists, will, according to Vera Cruz advices, return to the capital immediately and it is probable that he will re-establish his government there in the near future.

MANY VILLAGES LAID IN RUIN BY THE TURKS

London, Jan. 29.—A despatch to Renfer from Tiflis, the Russian army headquarters in Transcaucasia, says: "Fifty villages around Kars, in Southern Transcaucasia, have been laid in ruin by the Turks. The flight of Greek inhabitants was precipitate, and the women and children are said to have suffered intensely from the cold weather. It is reported that many of the men among the Greeks were made prisoners and that some were killed."

PLAN TO HAVE THE I.C.R. MEN PAID FORTNIGHTLY

Moncton Transcript.—At the meeting of the Retail Association last evening it was said by the president that so soon as the maritime provinces were well organized, an effort would be made to have the I. C. R. pay its employees fortnightly. It was said that this would have the effect of abolishing the long credit system, which at present is said to obtain largely in this city.

THE WAR NEWS.

There appears to be a belief in the minds of some military observers that the Germans will make another attempt in the spring to break through to Calais. They have been bringing up more troops and continuing the offensive in the region of Ypres and LaBassee. All their attempts thus far have failed, and confidence is expressed that when all the preparations of the Allies for the spring campaign have been completed they will be able to drive the Germans back.

The French reports are true, and they are generally close to the mark, the German losses in Flanders, France and Alsace the first three days of this week amounted to 20,000 men. The losses of the Allies were extremely small by comparison, because they were for the most part on the defensive, although ground counter attacks they also gained ground at some points.

Russian army officials express the view that the movements of the Turks in the Caucasus are designed by the Germans to distract Russian attention from Poland and Galicia. It is claimed, however, that though the Turks have brought up considerable reinforcements they have not gained any substantial advantage. There are conflicting reports as to the movements of the new armies brought up by the Austrians and Germans to check the Russian invasion of Hungary. The Russians are hopeful that Roumania will soon enter the field and thus give the Austrians a new and formidable foe to reckon with.

Fuller reports of the great naval battle confirm previous statements of the great superiority of the British gunners, and the Admiralty fully contradicts the German report that some British vessels were lost. Every vessel of the British squadron has safely returned to port. It is announced that the Belgian army has been reorganized, and made much more effective to co-operate with the British and French. King Albert has sent a message to the Pope confirming the truth of the charges made by Cardinal Mercier relative to the atrocities committed by the Germans in Belgium.

HALIFAX BOARD OF TRADE.

The Halifax board of trade is a vigorous organization, and is taking up the consideration of matters of much importance. About half of its members of this year's council are new men, and the Chronicle says they are taking hold of the work in a very business-like manner. It is worth while to note some of the activities of the Halifax board. It has been decided during the balance of the winter to have half hour talks to business men every other Thursday afternoon at a quarter past five o'clock, when competent men will discuss business matters generally. The board has named a committee to confer with the city council on the subject of civic taxation, with a view to the adoption of a system which will place the assessment on a more equitable basis. The example of Halifax in this matter might well be followed in St. John. They have a Municipal Association in the sister city, and the board of trade has named two members to act on its executive. The council of the board will also ask the city council to define an area in which factories or new industries of any kind may be located. The board takes the view that the city council should now take action in the matter of town planning, which has been before it for some years.

If the board of trade and city council are able to work in harmony for the general good of the city they will together be able to produce excellent results. Halifax has the board of control system. Whatever its defects may be, if the business men of the city and the members of the council and board of control will co-operate, as they ought to do, the result will be a better civic administration and also improved business conditions generally.

The people of St. John dream of a time when the members of the city council will work harmoniously together, and when there will be such a cordial relation and co-operation between the city council and the board of trade that no surprises will be sprung upon the city, and no ill considered civic legislation adopted. But they only dream of it.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS.

The state of Maine finds it necessary to provide a new state prison. The present institution at Thomaston is not at all satisfactory, and a committee of the state legislature will recommend that a new one be established in a more central part of the state. They report that it would cost more to reconstruct the old prison at Thomaston than to build a new one, and that Thomaston in any case is not the most desirable location. The chairman of the committee, who is also a physician, says that the conditions in which the men are forced to live in the present institution cannot be endorsed, even in the slightest degree. The committee will report in favor of a prison built in Central Maine with plenty of light and ventilation and a proper heating system, and designed according to the latest ideas of prison officials and students of criminology. The committee is also in favor of having a large farm connected with the prison, where some of the prisoners could work, instead of employing all of them in workshops. It is felt that such a farm would be profitable, as well as tending to promote the health of the prisoners. The estimates of cost range all the way from $250,000 up, but it is said the committee will recommend an institution costing about $600,000. Besides the farm there would be various shops, including broom, carriage, painting, woodworking, blacksmith and harness shops, and provisions also for shoemaking, tailoring work and other necessary activities.

The policy of having a large central institution with a farm, as well as workshops, is growing steadily in favor, and doubtless the Maine legislature will agree to the necessary expenditure to provide that state with a modern and thoroughly equipped penal institution.

There has been a decline in rents in cities throughout Western Canada. Whether there is a decline or not there should certainly be no increase in the city of St. John.

The war news brings many thrilling stories of individual bravery and self-sacrifice, and these might be multiplied by hundreds and thousands of which the world will never hear.

The citizens of St. John are glad to shake the hand of Colonel Alfred J. Marshburn of Vancouver, so long identified with many important interests in this province, and more especially with the newspaper business in this city.

The school board has declined to reduce its estimates by $10,000 as desired by the city council. The board declares that it has already cut its estimates to the limit, and has only provided for such expenditure as is absolutely necessary. If no reduction is made in any other direction the city estimates will be nearly $350,000 more than those of last year, causing an increase of about ten cents in the tax rate for the year.

Complaint comes from Ontario that it is difficult to get young men in the rural districts to enlist. This is perhaps not surprising. Our people have never been trained to the business of war, and as a matter of fact the number of young men in the rural districts is not large. Most of them drift to the towns, and it is to the towns the country must look for the greater number of recruits. It is probably also true that all of our people have not yet become thoroughly possessed of the conviction that it is Canada's war we are fighting, and our own country and its welfare are being defended on the battlefields of Europe.

The news that comes from Germany makes it perfectly clear that the people of that country are beginning to feel the pinch of want, and that their hardships must steadily increase as time goes on. If up to the present time the boasts of the Kaiser and his officers that Germany would triumph in this war have overcome the fears of the people, and encouraged them to make a lavish use of their resources, they must now realize more clearly the seriousness of Germany's position and the certainty that the Kaiser's boasts are not to be fulfilled, even if Germany should be able to continue the struggle for a long period.

The Ontario government is considering the plan of having a road patrol which would provide every five or ten miles of highways with a section man, who would have a horse and cart and a complete one-man repair equipment, to keep his section of the road in good condition. The proposition is to have the work done by counties, each county appointing its own patrol under the direction of the engineer, and allotting the length of each patrol. It is estimated that nearly two hundred men would be constantly employed, and that by the adoption of this system the life of the highways would be doubled or trebled. Ontario is prepared to expend some $30,000,000 on its highways, and the patrol system will probably be adopted in that connection. The Canadian and International Roads Convention will be held in Toronto toward the end of March and the whole problem in all its aspects will then be considered.

An admirable system of aiding the poor by means of labor has been devised by a group of French-Canadian ladies in the city of Montreal, under the patronage of Archbishop Bruchesi. By getting funds from generous friends, and by getting materials from generous merchants, the association has been able to give employment to a large number of women and girls, who are paid fifty cents per day to make garments, and these garments are then distributed among the poor without charge. There is thus a benefit for the workers and a much needed charity for the families of the poor. At a meeting held a few days ago the treasurer was able to report a balance of $1400 on hand, which was estimated would enable the society to continue its work for another three months. Of course this is only one of a very large number of organizations in Montreal which are doing all in their power to relieve distress, but the plan it has adopted appears to be a very excellent one, and one that might be copied with advantage by organizations in other cities.

AFTER MANY MEDICINES FAILED

Mr. Singletary Says Vinol Ended His Suffering from an Awful Cough and Threatened Lung Trouble.

Sumter, S. C.—"I am an oculist and for several years I suffered with an awful cough and lung trouble, so that at times I was scarcely able to go about on account of my condition. I had tried almost every medicine recommended for such troubles, without help, and finally a friend advised me to try Vinol. Before I had taken one-half bottle I could see an improvement. I have now taken six bottles and my cough is not only gone but my general health is lots better."—J. W. SINGLETARY, Sumter, S. C.

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements found in cod livers together with the blood-making and strength-creating properties of a tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis, at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

We ask everyone in this vicinity who is troubled with a chronic cough, cold or bronchitis to try a bottle of Vinol, with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not benefit.

A Comparative Value of Diamonds

We are often asked how Diamonds compare in price in Canada with those offering them in the United States.

We are often quoted the fact that some American houses advertise Diamonds at around $70.00 a carat.

Diamonds may be had at any price you wish to pay.

On a recent visit to the American markets, I was shown Diamonds as high as $350.00 a carat. The average price in the best stores for good stones is around $350.00 per carat. This is just about right, as it leaves us with preference of the duty.

Diamonds enter Canada duty free.

Diamonds pay 20 per cent entering the States.

We sell good stones from $225.00 to $300.00 a carat.

COMBING WON'T RID HAIR OF DANDRUFF

The Easiest and Best Way is to Dissolve It.

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair more quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everyone notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

London, Jan. 29.—An interesting rehearsal of the efforts made by the overseas dominions to co-operate with the mother country against the enemy, both in Europe and in the outlying sections of the Empire, was given by Hon. Lewis Harcourt, the colonial secretary, at a meeting organized by the Victor League, starting with Canada. Mr. Harcourt sketched in detail the contributions of men and war materials, as well as the

Was Personally Attended by Dr. A. W. Chase

Before He Became Famous as the Author of Dr. Chase's Receipt Book.

Here is a letter from an aged gentleman who consulted Dr. Chase, long before his Receipt Book attained a world-wide circulation, and his family medicines became known to the ends of the earth.

Like most people of advanced years his kidneys were the first organs to break down and when doctors failed to help him he met Dr. A. W. Chase, remembered the physician who cured him of pleurisy in his younger days.

Mr. O. D. Barnes, R.P.D. 1, Byron, Mich., writes:—"About fifty years ago when living in Ann Arbor, Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous Receipt Book author, was called on to treat me for pleurisy. Ever since that I have used and recommended Dr. Chase's Medicines, and have two of his Receipt Books in the house.

"Some time ago a cold settled in the kidneys, causing backache, frequent urination, dizziness, and affected the eyesight. My appetite failed and I could not sleep nights. Two doctors failed to do me any lasting good, so I started using Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. The results have been highly satisfactory to me. Appetite improved, I gained in weight, sleep and rest well, and feel strong and well. My kidneys resumed their natural functions, and I believe that my cure was due to Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. I am 78 years old, superintend work on my farm, and can turn it and do some work myself."

VALUABLE BOOK FOR WOMEN

The Times has received a copy of the Canadian Woman's Annual and Social Service Directory, which is a well printed volume of more than three hundred pages, and contains an immense amount of valuable information on every subject relating to Canada which is likely to interest women who are in any way connected with women's activities in this country.

It is an interesting fact that this book has been prepared by three sisters, Misses Emily P. Weaver, A. E. Weaver and E. C. Weaver, B. A. One of these sisters has been at work for some years in the field of Canadian history, and another has had five years' experience of social work. The book is dedicated to their mother, "to whose broad sympathies and unflinching helpfulness this book and its editors owe so much." We cannot better indicate the scope and purpose of the book than by quoting some extracts from the editors' note:

"Social workers desire information as to what others are doing, but many people are too busy with professional, domestic or other duties, or are too deep in certain lines of social work to collect general information for themselves. So one aim of this annual is to show actual conditions affecting poor and rich, employer and employed, the baby of the slums, the professional woman, the wife who brings wealth to her husband, the girl toiler, who today in the factories plays so large a part in the creation of wealth. A considerable portion of the book deals with the interests of women in literature, art and the professions."

but women as the conservers of life, the natural guardians of the young, the creators of the home, are attracted so strongly to various forms of humanitarian work that we make no apology for devoting so much of the Woman's Annual to social questions.

The information contained in this very valuable book covers the whole of Canada and embraces such a multitude of subjects that no mere review can do it justice. It is a most valuable book of reference and should have a very wide circulation. The publishers are McClelland, Goodchild and Stewart of Toronto, and the price is $1.00.

A lighted match dropped unintentionally by a passerby into a pool of gasoline that had leaked from an automobile as it traveled along and into the gutter in Free street, Portland, Me., started a spectacular stream of fire running down the street and made it appear that the earth was spouting flames.

ABDUL HAMID MAY DILE ONCE MORE

Shake-up Will Follow Turkey's Defeat

OLD SULTAN STILL SCHEMES

Reorganization When War is Over May Give Former Ruler His Long-sought Opportunity to Return to Power

Constantinople, Jan. 26 (via Rome to New York)—The thoughts of all Constantinople, if not all of Turkey, have become centered upon one single man. By a strange oddity, too, this man is not the one who for the moment is most in the public eye. Enver Pasha, with his thirty-two years, his imperial alliance, his ministry of war and his grand ambition to put the old Turkish empire back on the map, awakens no special interest in the Turkish mind. It is Enver's old foe, the man who has secured for himself the chance to have his flag and they are quick-witted that Enver is, if he succeeds, all very well. They are willing that he have all the credit and reward for it, too. But if he does not succeed—well, that is how all Turkey has suddenly begun thinking about another man, a man who, by way of strange contrast, is the one who at the present moment is furthest from the public eye.

Abdul Hamid, the old Sultan, the man who Enver kept shut up in a little white prison palace on the opposite shores of the Bosphorus. This is the man of hypothetical possibilities about whom Turkey has suddenly set itself thinking.

Abdul Hamid is now, seventy-two years old. From the night in 1909 when Enver and his band of young Turks deposed him, the Turkish public has known very little about him. At periodic intervals the word is passed around that he is insane, but no one believes this.

Then, despite the tamblike seclusion in which he is kept apart from the world, there creeps from time to time to the ears of the Turkish world, words which are uttered and which far from creating the impression that he is insane, gave vent to with the help of Enver's Turkish mind there is waiting very ready for the moment when his prisoners may have hung themselves, to step out and rule again.

For the average Turkish mind there now remains no doubt that Turkey is today playing its best card. If Enver is victorious in his plans to retake Egypt, then the die is won. But if Enver fails, there is no one who does not realize that the last resource of Turkey will have been spent. This will mean also that the great bulk of the Turkish public is most favorably inclined to accept its answer in the affirmative.

NO REDUCTION IN SCHOOL ESTIMATES

Board Decides That Closer Trimming Would Impair Efficiency

The board of school trustees last night considered the matter of reducing their estimates $10,000 as suggested by the common council and concluded after a lengthy debate that it could not cut them any finer and still have the present standard of efficiency in the school work. It was ordered that a communication to this effect be sent to the common council.

There were present at the meeting R. R. Emerson (chairman), Dr. Manning, M. E. Agass, George E. Day, M. D. Coll, H. H. Bullock, E. R. W. Ingraham and Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of public schools.

Mr. Emerson, in discussing the meeting with The Telegraph last night, said that every item of the estimates was pared to the bone, but none was discovered which would permit of a cutting. He said that the representatives of the present school trustees had the improvements allowed for in the estimates were absolutely necessary and that although a new school is needed, very much the trustees had already decided to let it wait until a year or so later when finances would be in a better state.

No new work is being undertaken, and Mr. Emerson explained that it is impossible to lower the current expenses or the salaries of the teachers.

He said: "The board will not promise to cut the estimates and give the same standard of efficiency as in other years. We have already economized as much as possible. A communication to this effect will be sent to the commissioners."

The school estimates for the year amounted to approximately $186,000, a slight decrease from last year. The school board is in a position that it is not subjective to the council. Its estimates do not have to be approved by the civic authorities, so the matter, Mr. Emerson said, remains about as it did before.

KIDNEY TROUBLES PAINFUL AND ANNOYING

A short time ago I had what is termed inflammation of the bladder. At times I thought I would surely go wild. I tried the doctor but he did not seem to hit my case. I did not get any relief from the doctor's treatment. Was advised to try Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root by a druggist. I took his advice and began taking Swamp-Root, and after using it a short time began to get better and continued using it until my trouble was gone. Swamp-Root cured me. I gladly advise any person that is troubled as I was to try Swamp-Root, Regular 75 cts. and 50c size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

Very truly yours,
J. H. JOHNSTON,
Watertown, N. Y.

Personally appeared before me, this 28th day of July, 1909, J. H. Johnston, who subscribed the above statement and made oath that the same is true in substance and in fact.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will do for You—Send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample size bottle. It will convince anyone. TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL

A meeting of the trades and labor council was held last night to arrange details for the carnival which they are to conduct next week. The following have consented to act as judges for the events: Mayor Frink and Mrs. Frink, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Foster, and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley. Special features arranged were: One-half mile race open to any union man; one-half mile race open to any military man. The prizes will amount to thirty dollars and there will be twenty door prizes. An important matter also decided was that an indignation meeting should be held on February 4, to protest against an increase in rents. The council is also requesting the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada with headquarters at Ottawa to interview the federal government regarding the high cost of provisions, especially flour, and to urge them to regulate the prices for merchants.

HOW TO WEAR GLASSES TO RELIEVE SERIOUS EYESTRAIN

Mistakes and Foibles of Spectacle Wearers Lead to Results That Are Deplorable

In order to get the intended optical effect of the eyes, when looking straight ahead, should look squarely through the optical centers of the lenses or slightly above the centers, especially if the patient is tall and so looks down more than up.

But if one eye looks through its lens above and the other more or less below the center, as is the case when the glasses are tipped one up and the other down, the result may be to cause eyestrain.

So may trouble be caused when the lenses are farther apart or nearer together than the eyes are. If the lenses are weak, the last fault does not often cause perceptible trouble, but is better avoided.

Sometimes a little departure from this rule is allowable in the interest of a better appearance, but only with the consent of the oculist.

Sometimes it is intentionally ordered to relieve some muscular strain. As a rule the lenses should be as near the eyes as possible. There are several good reasons for this. The optical effect is better; the wearer is less likely to look around the glasses; he notices the rims less; as the glasses project less they are less likely to be knocked off accidentally; the appearance is better—so much so that it often pays to have the lashes clipped a little when they are so long that they touch the lenses when these are mounted as near as they ought to be.

One of the common mistakes is tilting the lenses too far back at the top. They should be vertical or tipped slightly forward. There should be no space between the lower edge of the lenses and the cheeks wide enough to admit a larger finger tip.

It gives a bad appearance and is bad optically as is any excessive tipping in any direction. After carefully selecting the best lenses, the effect can be spoiled and the well-selected lenses made to act in an entirely different and badly-selected pair simply by tipping them so that the wearer does not look through them squarely, but obliquely.

If the patient goes to the trouble and expense of securing a correct prescription for glasses, it is folly to have the lenses mounted so that the effect is as if a different pair had been ordered.

With very weak lenses this effect of looking obliquely through the glasses is slight, but increases and becomes very important with stronger lenses. The fact that one can see better through them when they are tilted, as may sometimes be true, does not by any means prove that the effect is a good one, for, as stated above, the wise oculist, in selecting glasses for a patient, does not choose in all cases the lenses with which the patient sees the best, but, rather, those with which he can use his eyes with least strain.

Health and dirt are enemies! Personal cleanliness does not always mean health, but there is seldom perfect health or comfort where there is dirt. Soap and water are as necessary to health as fresh air and good food.

Empire Typewriter

is always in perfect alignment.

When a key is struck on the "EMPIRE", the type bar is shot forward into the steel guide shown. This locks it securely at top, bottom and sides, just at the moment it strikes the paper. The type cannot rise, fall or swerve a particle. It must print absolutely in line not only when the machine is new from the factory, but after it has given 5, 10, 15 or 20 years of service.

This patent locking device is an exclusive feature of the "EMPIRE" and is one of the reasons why this, the only typewriter "Made in Canada", keeps on turning out perfect work far longer than any imported machine.

 Empire No. 2 - $80

TEACHERS IN LONDON ADVISED WHAT TO DO FOR PUPILS IF GERMANS MAKE AIR RAID

London, Jan. 19.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The Education Committee of the London County Council has issued a letter of advice to all teachers in the public schools, telling them what to do in the event of an attack on London during school hours. They are advised to continue the lessons so far as possible in the normal way. "Children should be taken from the neighborhood of windows as far as possible," says the circular, "they should

Keep Your Lungs Strong

This advice is doubly important with the knowledge that every three minutes some one in the United States succumbs to consumption and many refuse to realize they are afflicted until it is too late.

It is after-colds or sickness, from overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists that tubercular germs thrive because the resistive powers of the body are weakened.

Only with fresh air, sunshine and abundant rich blood can one hope to arrest their progress, and the concentrated fats in Scott's Emulsion furnish fuel for rich blood, and their rare menthol helps strengthen the lungs while it builds up the forces.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or run-down Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known and is free from stupefying drugs. Avoid substitutes.

FEWER DEATHS IN MODERN WAR THAN IN THE OLDEN DAYS

Massacre, Then, Followed The Winning of Battle—Percentages Tell the Story

Amsterdam, Jan. 14.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Contrary to the popular impression that modern wars result in a greater number of deaths than those of the past, the very opposite is true, according to an article reproduced in the D.J.D. It is pointed out that this is largely due to the progress in surgery, the use of efficacious anti-septics, the great development of modern army sanitation, and the high efficiency of the medical troops.

Was Troubled With Eczema

Would Nearly Yell With Pain. BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS CURED HIM.

Mr. R. J. Swales, Harrison, Ont., writes: "I have been a great sufferer with eczema. I tried all kinds of salves, but they did me no good. Sometimes I would nearly yell with the pain, and would pass little white worms. I was told to get at the blood, so I used four bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, and it has made a complete cure."

Burdock Blood Bitters will cleanse the blood of all its impurities and by this means cure all skin and blood troubles. This valuable preparation has been on the market for the last forty years, so you do not make any experiment when you give it a trial.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Thickness

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the air. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

males were carried into slavery. They generally were not part of the defeated army, but members of the civil population of the country which had been invaded.

At Cannes, the Carthaginians, for instance, lost only 5,000, but killed 70,000 Romans, or about eighty per cent of the entire force which opposed them. The Romans, on the other hand, suffered only a loss of fourteen dead in the battle of Cheronia, but massacred 110,000 of the enemy, ninety per cent of the army they had defeated.

During the Middle Ages this state of affairs continued. Wounded and captives were killed without mercy, and the cities whose entire population was put to the sword, were many. During the Thirty Years' War a similar ferocity prevailed, but an improvement began to make itself felt in the "decimation" of prisoners of war. The captured soldiers were stood in line and then every tenth man was executed, usually hanged on a nearby tree, with some sort of accident governing who the first "tenth" victim should be. Now and then it became necessary to apply this cruel system of selection as a measure of discipline to one's own troops, generally when a mutiny had to be coped with and the men refused to say who were their ringleaders.

Beginning with the Seven Years War the number of deaths in battle and from wounds received have decreased in the following percentages: Percentage of killed in three engagements: Seven Years War 42 Napoleon wars 38 Crimean war 18

MOTHERS! Don't neglect every-day injuries to which children are subject. A "little" injury if neglected may lead to serious complications. A small cut or scratch neglected may mean blood poisoning, and may result in the loss of an arm or leg, and sometimes of a life. Why take chances? Apply ZAM-BUK as soon as injuries or skin diseases occur. ZAM-BUK quickly kills all germs, stops the bleeding, prevents suppuration and blood poisoning, and heals quickly.

Mrs. J. E. Bierwirth, of Carnduff, Sask., writes—"My son cut the end of his finger. ZAM-BUK stopped the bleeding and gave him such relief that he ceased crying. I decided to see if ZAM-BUK would heal the wound, and continued using nothing but ZAM-BUK. Complete cure resulted."

LIFE IN TRENCHES OF BRITISH NEAR BATTERED YPRES

Captain Simson Writes of The Modern Battle

MAN WELL NIGH UNSEEN

Only Smoke and Sound Tell of Conflict—Officer of Heavy Artillery Tells of Long-distance Combat

(New York Evening Post.) Daily life in the British trenches, near the places where the Germans delivered their fiercest attacks, at Ypres, are described in a letter from the front, written by Capt. Noel Simson, R. G. A., of the 48th Heavy Battery, Third Division, on active service, and published below. The letter was written to J. S. Simson, of Monterey, California, a brother. Captain Simson was not allowed to name the place from which he wrote, but was able to date two sections of the letter. It is as follows:

At present we, the British army, are practically stagnating in front of the German line. After very severe fighting—the fiercest of the whole war so far—the Germans have apparently given up their attempts to break through to the coast ports, Calais, Dunkirk, etc., and if reports prove correct and they do make further attacks to sever the allies' line it is probable they will occur in the vicinity of Arras and Bethune.

After several weeks of terrific attacking on the part of the Germans with vastly superior numbers, they seem to have worn themselves out and all we have to do is to hold the line in which we are entrenched until the order comes that we are to push forward. Whether that will be tomorrow or next month depends upon Joffre, who has conducted the campaign so successfully so far and will without doubt continue to do so. His is the policy of deliberation, taking no risks, and since delay does not aid the allies and militates against the chances of German success, we do not much mind.

Nearly a week and my leave which appeared so certain was cancelled the day before I should have gone. I need not add that every one was in the same boat; all leave was stopped, and if you were sitting beside me at this moment you would know the reason. A fierce attack is proceeding at this moment on our left with the object of capturing a ridge and village (I am sorry, but I must not mention names; you must be content with the fact that it is in Flanders) which has been causing us some annoyance and which in addition forms a bit of the German salient into our line. I got up at 5 a. m. with another officer, came up the hill from which I am now observing, fixed two straw dummies clad in khaki in a likely situation to attract "les obus allemands," and then came on to our point of vantage, from which we have a wonderful view over the surrounding country, also a deep shelter trench. I might add that the spot where we fixed the dummies is unobscured by any living soul within several hundred yards. By the time we reached our trench, dawn was just breaking away over the enemies' lines; the view extends for fifteen or twenty miles and more than half round the horizon, so you can imagine what a spectacular sight the artillery bombardment presented.

At seven sharp the artillery bombardment began; the sun had not yet risen, of course, and the brilliant flashes of shrapnel bursting in the trees and among the houses of the village, with their puffs of pure white smoke drifting away, looked extraordinarily pretty. Here, on the hill, we might have been watching a mock artillery, pageant, for there is nothing to disturb one's peace of mind—except the constant booming of cannon, to which we have all become thoroughly familiarized long ago. A modern battle viewed from any position where a general idea of the proceedings can be gained appears to be noise, smoke, and flashes (at night)—the human element is absolutely invisible. Every variety of noise can be heard, from the sharp crackle of rifle fire and the busy tap-tap of machine guns through the descending scale of "bangs" to the "boom" of the heavy guns throwing 120-pound shells and over.

Colors of Shell Smoke. The smoke, too, presents many varieties. Shrapnel gives a puff of pure white, lyddite bursts indifferently black—if detonation is perfect—or if imperfect, all shades from bright to greenish yellow. I have also frequently seen clouds of pink smoke, but have never been able to decide whether it is the real burst or clouds of the brick dust, for I have never noticed it except among buildings.

MR. WORKMAN READ THIS The peace of mind of which I spoke was not to last continuously, however. At 7.40 the hum of an approaching shell told us that the enemy had realized something was "up" and was not going to let us have it all our own way. It was a light field-gun shell and burst in the grass about twenty-five yards to our left; another one a few moments after sailed overhead and fell the other side of the hill, and having seen plenty of the bombardment, I retired into my trench, at the bottom of which I am now sitting on a comfortable seat of straw.

The shells are falling over and to our left in some numbers now, but in a good trench one feels wonderfully snug, and unless they start with their high explosive shells on us, my peace of mind will not suffer any disturbance. The combination of a deep trench and the knowledge that the enemy are ignorant of one's exact whereabouts is very reassuring. I have been fired upon by artillery in the open and exposed to their view and I don't mind telling any one I don't like it, but that was months ago during the now historic retreat, and we have learnt a thing or two since then. But we will leave the attack for the moment.

I shall not be able to tell you whether it proves successful until tonight, more probably tomorrow, for it takes time for news to filter through from the infantry to their brigadiers, and from them to the divisional generals and so back to the artillery in the shape of a narrative of daily events. In this form of fighting with a line 250 miles long, the artillery does not move about, taking up new positions daily, any more than the infantry makes or takes trenches except at intervals—sometimes of days' and even weeks' duration. see the extent of the damage there. The Germans are still dropping occasional shells into the town—to no purpose, for it is almost deserted—no doubt out of pique at not having been able to enter it in spite of their most supreme efforts. It is curious to see a fair-sized town with empty streets—I do not suppose I saw as many as fifty people in my half-hour ride about the place. The havoc in some quarters is terrible, but in spite of what the papers say, large parts of it have suffered little beyond broken windows and chips in brick work and plaster. In some places a block of six or more houses are completely demolished crumbled to pieces by shell, and every thing inflammable burnt.

The public square where the Germans directed most of their fire has suffered tremendously. There irretrievable damage has been done, the magnificent town hall is burnt out, its massive tower pierced by huge shell, and great gaps in the solid masonry, showing what heavy guns have been brought to bear on it. One obviously antique building, if a shell of tottering walls can be graced by that name, turned out to be the museum. Some of the holes made by shell are stupendous. I saw the king twice when he was over here, the first time by chance. I happened to have ridden into a town about five miles in rear of our position for some things for the battery and was in the street through which he passed in his car. The next day he came to within one-half mile of our battery, and we sent my spare map (Continued on following page.)

Association regarding the overtures for peace, made by the eastern body in connection with the dispute over Tommy Smith, it begins to look as though the warring associations will eventually get together again, and that the world's championship series for the Stanley Cup will be played on the coast in March.

Smith May Sub. Should Willard meet with an accident before his fight with Jack Johnson his place will be taken by Gunboat Smith, Jack Curley, manager of the big mill, has arranged to have Smith on hand ready to jump in at a moment's notice if Willard is unable to fight. A substitute will also be hunted for Johnson, although his name has not yet been announced.

Doolin Signs Contract. C. S. Doolin, former manager of the Philadelphia National League team on Thursday signed a two-year contract to catch for the Cincinnati club. The salary is said to be $6,000 a year.

Magee's Advance. Thomas J. Lynch, former president of the National League, believes it will be financial suicide for the warring baseball interests to continue their fight. He is in favor of admitting the Federal League to the national agreement. Only in this way, he says, will salaries be brought to reasonable figures.

Magee's Advance. It was not so many years ago that Lee Magee, who has just jumped from the St. Louis Cardinals to manage the Brookfield, and Pete Dalley, the New York American star, were receiving $80 a month for their baseball services.

Federal Plans. John M. Ward, who has withdrawn from the business management of the Brooklyn Federals, says that in due time there will be another major-league circuit to work in harmony with the Federals; and that some day there will be two world's championships to be decided in the fall. Ward seems to think that a circuit composed of Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Louisville in the west, with Toronto, Newark, Providence and Washington in the east would prove a valuable ally for the Federal League.

Bodie Released. "Fing" Bodie of the White Sox has been released. He will return to the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast both at the bottom now.

League. Bodie was released to make room for Flack, an outfielder purchased from Milwaukee. He had been with the White Sox since 1911.

CURLING. St. Andrews to Play Moncton. The Moncton Transcript says:—The Cooke medal for points was competed for at the Moncton Curling Rink on Tuesday evening, and won by the President, F. E. Demontion with a score of 87. The regular series of points competition was also continued, and several of the players fattened their averages.

Play in the series East versus West, was continued on Wednesday evening, when the eastern players added a few more notches to the advantage already obtained. There were some surprises in these matches, as some of the older skips were dethroned by younger players.

The St. Andrews Club of St. John is expected here on Tuesday to play a match with the locals. Delegates from the Moncton club will go to Sackville on Saturday to confer with the Amherst and Sackville players regarding a schedule for the district league play.

WRESTLING. Prokos Off to Worcester. Jim Prokos, wrestler, left yesterday for Worcester, Mass., where he will take part in a wrestling bout next week. Immediately after this match he will return to St. John to continue training for a hoped-for match with Emil Pons.

LIFE IN TRENCHES OF BRITISH NEAR BATTERED VPRES. (Continued from preceding page), available to line the (dilly) road and give him a cheer. I went too.

The firing still continues, the Germans hardly replying apparently—of course, one cannot tell what it is like in the forward trenches. I came down from the hill about the middle of the morning to the guns to see how the ammunition supply, which is my special job, was proceeding. It is always very dull at the guns; I ought to say "generally," instead of "always," for sometimes it is far from dull, as some of our poor fellows have found to their cost; I should have said it is dull until the enemy's aeroplanes have discovered one; there is no view, nothing to show at what you are shooting, no knowledge of the results.

The sinking of most of von Spee's squadron is a relief. I have dined more than once on board the Scharnhorst (she was flagship on the China station for some years), and the Monmouth, which she sunk, was the cruiser in which Sir Frederick Lugard and I went to Japan both at the bottom now.

Health Advice. DIPHTHERIA. Diphtheria is a dread disease of childhood. It runs back into antiquity under other names; but it prevails mostly in temperate zones and the cities of America have suffered terribly from its visitations from time to time.

Diphtheria may be classified under preventable diseases. Its causes are known to doctors and the best methods of combating the germs have been devised.

Remember that each new case of diphtheria is caught from a previous case. On the other hand, an apparently well person may be a bearer of diphtheria germs. Usually the disease is conveyed by the sufferer to schoolmates, to brothers, sisters and relatives and this accounts for the likelihood of an epidemic and the necessity for quarantine.

Coughing and sneezing throw the germs into the air. Pencils, apples, candy, drinking cups, convey diphtheria. Actions which convey the hands to the mouth are the main reason for the spread of diphtheria among children. These germs, in turn, come from what are known as "carriers"—i. e. people who harbor germs in their systems and who are continually casting them off on others who are too weak to resist their invasions.

Temporary immunity from diphtheria is secured by injection of diphtheria anti-toxin under the skin. While this assures protection only for a period of three weeks, it is extremely useful in cases where there is known exposure.

For instance, in a family where diphtheria breaks out and there are several young children it pays to give them the antitoxin treatment to prevent its further ravages.

The best insurance against the spread of diphtheria, then, is to prevent its spread from known cases to others who may be susceptible.

The patient's room (after recovery) should be continually thrown open to air and sunshine. All bed linen, towels, night garments, etc., should be thoroughly disinfected according to the rules of the local board of health. Books and toys used by the patient should be burned. Walls and floors should be scrubbed with an efficient disinfecting solution.

The natural power of the human body to resist communicable disease is very great. Hence, everything which tends to increase this resisting power is helpful in maintaining health. Suitable food, exercise, personal hygiene are safeguards of the first quality since they enable the body to resist the invasions of the diphtheria germs. Children, above all, should not be permitted to carry objects in their mouths and should be taught that the mouth and throat are for the admittance of food and drink only and not receptacles for marbles, pencils and what not.

An English clergyman was preaching in a country church in Scotland, says the Los Angeles Examiner. He had as his subject "The Prodigal Son." "And the prodigal son went away from his poor old father and remained in a far country for years and years. But after years and years he came back to his poor old father, and his poor old father said unto his servants: 'Bring forth the fatted calf which has been kept for my son these years and years.' An old farmer in the audience could contain himself no longer. "Yer a leet; it wud he bin a coo," he exclaimed.

EARLY MORNING WAR SUMMARY

London, Jan. 28.—The German attempt to surprise the Allies and secure a substantial advance has proved a total failure. With the approach of drier weather, and the consequent hardening of the ground, the Germans brought up new troops with the intention of getting in their blow before the full strength of the Anglo-French forces was ready to meet them. Thus far they have made little, if any, headway, but, undismayed, they are sending still more troops at which points, earlier in the winter, they attempted to break their way through to the coast. Knowing as they must, that the Anglo-French armies have been greatly strengthened since then, they themselves must have increased their striking power. The Allies, however, are confident of their ability to hold their present lines, and move forward when all preparations are completed. In the east, interest centres in the Carpathians, where the Austro-Germans have brought up new armies to oppose the Russian invasion of Hungary. According to announcements in Vienna they have recaptured some of the passes which the Russians were holding in strength. While, naturally, the Russians like the other belligerents, do not relish giving up any ground gained, they declare that this is compensated for by the fact that their aggressive armies have compelled the Austro-Germans to postpone the expedition which they were preparing with the object of crushing Serbia. Russia hopes that Roumania, with her financial position guaranteed by the recent London loan of $25,000,000, will soon send her army into the field, and form the missing link between Russia and Serbia. The Turks, by bringing up their Fifth Army Corps, have been able to resuscitate

I was suffering with a lame back, and for several days I could hardly straighten up for the pain. I had used quite a lot of other kind of pills, but received no relief. Just then my sister told me about what 'Doan's' had done for her, so I decided to try them. I used three boxes and I am completely cured. I do not hesitate to recommend them to all."

Amsterdam, Jan. 28.—(Special Cable)—From Captain K. Vull, of the steam trawler Holland IV, owned by the Prasa Company, of Ymuiden, I have received a vivid account of the battle in the North Sea last Sunday, of which he saw the greater part. He had been two days at sea and was returning to Holland with a good catch on Sunday morning, when about 9 o'clock he heard heavy firing, but could not see ships anywhere. He continued on his homeward journey, and in a few minutes was able to make out a series of light flashes on the horizon in a southeast direction. The flashes became more numerous until they were so incessant that scarcely a second passed between them, and there was an increasing thunder of guns. Shortly afterward he was able to make out two separate squadrons coming

Work of Rescue Prevented by Activity of German Air-craft—Sinking of the Bluecher

London, Jan. 29, 1:53 am.—The Daily Telegraph today prints an interesting story of the last moments of the German armored cruiser Bluecher, which was sunk in last Sunday's engagement between the British and German squadrons in the North Sea. The story is prefaced by a record of the return of the British light cruiser Arethusa and the entire mosquito squadron to its base. Except in the case of the torpedo boat destroyer Meteor, the correspondent says there was not a single casualty of any kind in the line of the small boats and every vessel of this squadron is as fit to fight again as it was the day before.

The correspondent adds that when the Arethusa fired two torpedoes at the Bluecher that cruiser had no way on and was a target. The second torpedo hit her fair amidships and tore such a tremendous hole in her that she sank forthwith. The last scene on the Bluecher gave a touch of the heroism of the German sailors, who were lined up along her side, aware that the ship could endure no longer. The correspondent says the men defied their fate and joined in a chorus of "as she began to disappear beneath the waves."

GERMANS LIMITED LENGTH OF BATTLE

Harwich, Jan. 28.—(Special Cable)—"It could have been a big fight if the Germans had wished." Every blue-jacket who took part in the pursuit of the German warships Sunday of this opinion. The destroyers that steamed into a certain harbor this afternoon bore no sign of the fighting. Only one had been hit, the Meteor, her casualties were four killed and one injured. "I am able to name the part which the Liberty played in the fight. Most of the time she was in pursuit, consequently the chief impression the men have is that the Germans were attempting a raid rather than wanting a battle. "We could not get them to stop," one of our men said, "although we counted thirty-two German destroyers, and they were in numerical superiority over the British. The Meteor began dropping bombs both on the Liberty and her cutter, which was now scouring the water for drowning men. A second aeroplane then arrived and adopted the same tactics, and it became clear to the officers of the Liberty that they could not continue the cutter's errand of mercy any longer. The cutter consequently was ordered back and hoisted aboard, having rescued only one man."

When she arrived here today with her German prisoner a member of the crew remarked to him: "You won't fight again." He spoke English, and replied: "No, and a good job, too. It was fine work on your side."

He explained that he had learned English in London, where he has an aunt living at Tottenham. He expressed himself feeling fortunate to be in British hands.

Keen Brains—Strong Nerves—Healty Bodies

Grape-Nuts

The natural food elements for just these purposes are combined in Grape-Nuts, and all are partially predigested so that the weakest invalid or the strongest athlete can digest them and be thoroughly nourished. Thus every part of the body grows strong.

A feeling of reserve force and easy poise all over can be earned by right feeding.

Trial proves this pleasant fact.

Look for the little book, "The Road to Wellville," on packages.

THIS CHURCH GIVES THIRTY-ONE MEN TO SERVICE OF THE KING

Reports Submitted at Annual Congregational Meeting of Mission Church, S. John Baptist

The annual congregational meeting of the Mission Church S. John Baptist, was held last evening in the school room adjoining the church. The Rev. Father Collins presented his own report of the year's work and those of the various guilds, in printed form, and these all showed much activity on the part of both priest and people. Among the most interesting items of Father Collins' report was the fact that eight men from the church are now with the first contingent and twenty-three others ready to go forward with the second contingent, certainly a good, loyal showing for such a small congregation. Father Collins' statistics show thirty-four baptisms, six

SON AT SALISBURY PLAIN WHERE FATHER WAS FORTY-TWO YEARS AGO

Letter to Frederick Edwards of White Street, British Veteran, Brings Recollections of Other Days in Empire Warfare

Frederick Edwards, British Army Veteran

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Edwards of White street, received a letter a few days ago from their son F. J., who is a member of the Canadian contingent at Salisbury Plain. He said he was in the best of health and enjoyed the life of a soldier very much. Previous to joining the soldiers he was a valued member of St. Paul's church choir and in his letter he acknowledged receipt of a very pretty set of pipes and a gold signet, which had been sent to him at Christmas by the members of the choir.

It is a coincidence that just forty-two years ago his father was encamped at Salisbury Plain, participating in the autumn manoeuvres of the regulars in the English army. He was then a lad serving under Prince Arthur, now the Duke of Connaught.

When a young lad Mr. Edwards felt a desire to become a soldier and incidentally to participate in the many adventures which that life afforded, so he joined the 22nd Regiment stationed at Aldershot. From there he accompanied the soldiers to Salisbury Plain and participated in the manoeuvres, after which his regiment received orders to embark for foreign service, after a

VETERAN'S JEWEL GIFT TO DAVID BURGESS BY FAIRVILLE I.O.G.T.

Interesting Event at Session Last Evening—City Sends Notice to Tenants

The quarterly district meeting of the I. O. G. T. lodges was held in No. 37, Surrender Hall, Fairville, last evening. Representatives were on hand from Dominion Thorne and Pearl Lodges of St. John besides a good number from the local organization which made quite a gathering. During the first part of the evening No. 37 Surrender Lodge met in regular session at which Harvey Arbo, on behalf of the lodge presented to David Burgess a valuable jewel gift. Burgess' 76th birthday and he being the oldest member of the lodge. He was one of the charter members when the lodge was organized more than thirty years ago. Mr. Arbo, in an excellent address referred to the long service of Mr. Burgess in the cause of temperance and the many changes he had seen in the lodge and community during the period.

VERY GRAVE COMPLAINT FROM SALISBURY PLAIN

Long Distance Signallers, Who Are St. John Men, Not Equipped With Proper Binoculars—Might Mean Disaster

An appeal has come from Salisbury Plain on behalf of the St. John Signallers who are with the First Contingent. Ten of the men, who are long distance signallers, have not been provided with the prism binoculars with which they should be equipped in order to be able to read signals correctly at long distances, and the absence of which at a critical time might mean disaster to the army in the field.

This is a very serious matter. It has been suggested that the people of St. John should provide the five pairs of binoculars required, but that is surely the duty of the militia department, and it would be an extraordinary state of affairs if signallers upon whom so much depends were sent into the field without proper equipment. A letter from Salisbury Plain dealing with the matter says:

"The work of the divisional signallers amounts to a lot of long distance signalling and requires powerful glasses. The military authorities promised to equip us with prism binoculars, but failed to provide a single pair. We have in all of No. 2 Section two long telescopes and two pairs of cheap field glasses, set in rigid frames, and worth about five dollars a pair, and almost useless to us. Perhaps friends in St. John would provide the prism binoculars of which five pairs are required or send the necessary money to purchase them in England. They are far cheaper here and of better quality. They would cost from $80 up per pair. They should be small and adjustable to eyes which are set unusually close together. The signallers of No. 2 Section from St. John are divisional signallers, and must do all of the signalling of the first brigade. This makes necessary a great deal of long distance reading, which is often impossible to accomplish, and may entail serious loss at some time or other. There are ten regular visual signallers and despatch riders in the section, the balance being field telephone operators. There should be a pair of binoculars for each two of these ten men. Thousands of English people have given them to the English officers and long distance signallers."

This matter will be at once brought to the attention of Hon. Mr. Hazen and the militia department.
