

VICTORY FOR THE ALLIES UNDER FRENCH AND GEN. D'AMADE IS ANNOUNCED FROM BOULOGNE

Allies on Offensive Force Back Germans — French and English Troops Engage Germans at Precy Sur Oise, 25 Miles North of Paris, and Rout Enemy — German Imperial Guard is Reported Annihilated, and Crown Prince Supposed to be Among Them — Left Wing Successful in Advance Movement — Allies Attacking Left Flank of Germans on Way to Join Crown Prince's Army Coming South — Advance Troops of Allies Defending Paris Successful in Number of Engagements with Enemy.

London, Sept. 7, 11.45 p. m.—The official bureau says: "General Joffre's plans are being steadily carried out. The Allies forces, acting on the offensive, have been successful in checking and forcing back in a northwestern direction the German forces opposed to them."

Paris, Sept. 7, 11.29 p. m.—The following official communication was issued here tonight:

"First—The Allies have advanced their left wing without energetic opposition from the enemy.

"Second—The situation is unchanged on our centre in the region of Verdun, our forces alternately advancing and retreating. There have been some partial successes on our right in the Vosges.

"Third—The advancing troops and the Allies defending Paris have had several combats on the Ourcq river with the results in favor of the Allies.

"Fourth—The minister of war has telegraphed to the Governor of Maubeuge expressing the government's admiration for the heroic defence and saying: 'You stop at nothing to prolong resistance until the hour of your approaching deliverance, which I hope will be soon.'

"The commander-in-chief has placed the name of the Governor of Maubeuge in the order of the day for his splendid defence."

GERMANS LEFT 3,000 DEAD ON THE FIELD.

London, Sept. 7, 8.32 p. m.—A Reuter despatch from Antwerp confirms earlier despatches of a German repulse on Friday at Capelle Au Bois, and says that they left three thousand dead on the field. Many of the Germans, the despatch adds, proceeded back to Brussels.

London, Sept. 8, 12.25 a. m.—A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Ostend says:

"Violent fighting, lasting five hours, has taken place between Melle and Quatrecht, near Ghent, between Belgian volunteers and a superior corps of Germans. After determined resistance the Belgians retired in good order.

"The Germans occupied Melle and are marching on Ghent."

ALLIES VICTORIOUS 25 MILES NORTH OF PARIS.

London, Sept. 7, 10.17 p. m.—A Bologne despatch to the Evening News says:

"A telegram has been received from General Pau, announcing a victory by the allied forces under Field Marshal Sir John French, commander of the British and General D'Amade at Precy Sur Oise, about twenty-five miles north of Paris."

"The Allies were drawn across the northern line with the centre at Precy. The English troops were on the left and the French on the right. The former had in front of them the Imperial Guard, under Crown Prince Frederick William.

"On both wings, it is reported, the Allies were successful. The German left wing was held by the French and retired to the north.

"The Imperial Guard, who were ordered to surrender, were annihilated by the British. It is reported that the Crown Prince was in their midst."

The British official bureau has received no confirmation of this message.

OFFICER THROWS LIGHT ON FIGHTS WHICH TOOK PLACE BEFORE OSTERODE

(Special to Standard Through International News Service.)

Petrograd, Sept. 7.—A good deal of light is thrown on the fighting in which General Samsonoff was killed by the narration of a colonel who was among the wounded. He says: "What happened before Osterode was much less terrible than you believe. Here our corps held a long line from Sol-dau on the left wing, at Neidenburg on the right of the main forces were the enemy concentrated on our right wing; then, however, we received information that the enemy had concentrated his strength on our left wing. Accordingly we began to move our troops from the right wing towards Sol-dau.

"So far as our knowledge went our forces were not smaller than those of the Germans and our staff considered a battle practicable, but the Germans said it had received large reinforcements during the night of August 31. In this single night 150 trains with troops had reached them. Moreover, we had not counted upon having to deal with their heavy artillery. Here it had been assumed that only ordinary field artillery would take part in the fight. When their fire was opened it was at first with difficulty that we comprehended what was happening, that hell had opened its gates. How strong the enemy's fire was, appears from the fact that in between two and three hours it completely destroyed Sol-dau. In the town, literally, not one stone was left upon another. All efforts to break through their fire and reach the enemy were in vain, besides the great mobility of their artillery must not be forgotten. All except their heavy guns are rapidly moved about on motor cars."

Questioned as to the statements about on motor cars.

BELGIANS ALL PREPARED FOR MORE FIGHTING

Army Reorganized and is Better than When War Commenced—Will Re-enter the Conflict at Once.

London, Sept. 7 (2.40 p. m.)—A despatch to the Evening Star from Ostend says:

"The different units of the Belgian army have been collected from all over the country, even from Namur and south of the German line. The volunteers have been re-organized, better officers and better armed. The total losses of the army have not been published, but, except at Liege, these were not large, in comparison with the losses of the German, French and British armies in France. The total force of the Belgians, taking in consideration the toughening which the men had during the last month, is now possibly more fit for active service than it was at the beginning of the war."

GERMANS IN AFRICA COUNTED ON THE BOERS

In Southeast Africa Have Been Storing Up Guns and Ammunition—England Ready to Cope With Situation.

London, Sept. 7 (10.03 p. m.)—The Germans in Southeast Africa, where there are thirty thousand German troops, have been storing guns and ammunition for some time, preparing for military action. This has been made known to the British. It is said the Germans believe the Boers would aid them.

Although the Germans proceeded with great secrecy the British officials have been fully informed concerning their action and know the number of arms in their possession and their military dispositions.

With populous British territory on two sides of German Southwest Africa and with adequate military forces at hand, Great Britain is said to be well prepared for the situation. It is generally believed here that she will soon seek to take control of all German territory in Africa.

German East Africa is bounded on the north and in the southwest by British territory, and with the end of the British island of Mozambique just off the coast it is thought here it will be easy for the British to cooperate with the land and sea forces.

It is said here that the Boer farmers living in Southwest Africa are all loyal to King George.

GERMAN LOSSES QUARTER MILLION

Copenhagen, Sept. 7.—Private information received here says two German officers now imprisoned at Antwerp estimate the total German losses up to two days ago as between 200,000 and 300,000.

MUCH DEPENDS ON FIGHTING IN AUSTRIA

If Russians can defeat second Hapsburg army, main roads to Germany will be clear.

By J. L. Garvin, Editor Pall Mall Gazette.

London, Sept. 7.—Very much depends upon the issue of the desperate conflict between the Russians and the Austrian first army near Lublin and Kholm. It is clear that despite the overthrow of Francis Joseph's second army at Lemberg, the result of the new struggle must not be regarded as a foregone conclusion.

The first army numbers 400,000 men and reinforcements are hurrying up. It is fighting not only for its own existence but perhaps for that of the Hapsburg monarchy. Tsara generals in their turn know all that is at stake. They will strain every nerve to strengthen their ranks on their right and to bring up in time and in spite of the fatigue of a fortnight's marching and fighting, the victorious army from Lemberg. If the Hapsburg troops can succeed in holding their ground, this indeed will be a long war. If the Austrians were crushed, main roads into the heart of the German empire would be clear for Russian invasion, the effect on the situation.

"His Royal Highness regrets that owing to the existing conditions of bad weather the men have been unable to do any training today, and consequently he has been prevented from seeing the troops at their work. He wishes, however, to impress upon all ranks the necessity of devoting their best energies to training in camp and to the necessity of maintaining a high standard of discipline."

"His Royal Highness leaves the camp with the knowledge that a fine spirit pervades these patriotic Canadians who have come forward so willingly, from all parts of the Dominion, to take their share in the defence of the empire at this trying time in her history, and he feels confident that their example will be followed by all Canadians capable of helping the motherland in the field should further calls be made upon them."

BERLIN MORE ANIMATED THAN EVER

American Says Streets in Evening as Lively as New York on Election Night.

(By Granville Fortescue, formerly Military Aide to President Roosevelt.)

Berlin, by Courier to London. Am leaving for Imperial headquarters at the front shortly, having been treated with the greatest courtesy at official quarters here, except that Berlin is more animated than usual, one would not know war was going on. Everyone is supremely confident. At night all the principal avenues, especially Unter den Linden are jammed with joyful crowds. All the cafes and theatres are open and the scenes where the news of victory is bulletined resembles New York on election night.

NURNBERG PROBABLY CAPTURED

British Dreadnought Australia in Full Chase of German Warship Says Wireless Message—Cut the Cable.

Honolulu, Sept. 7.—The Watson Navigation Company's steamer Wilhelmina reported on arrival here today that she picked up a wireless message from the British dreadnought Australia, then in Hawaiian waters, saying that she was in full chase of the German cruiser Nurnberg, which left here September 1st.

The Nurnberg is a small cruiser of only 3,450 tons and if overhauled would have little chance with even an armored cruiser. Her main battery consists of ten 4.1 inch rifles.

It is believed here that the Australian cable to British Columbia was cut by the Nurnberg.

The interruption to the cable is between the Bamfield, B. C., cable station and Panning Island.

GERMANS RETREAT AFTER ENGAGEMENT WITH ALLIES ALONG LINE OF 120 MILES

GOV. GENERAL CONGRATULATES THE TROOPS

March Past on Sunday a Credit to Men and Officers, He Tells Them—Sixty Officers in one Battalion Must Stay Behind.

Valcartier Camp, Que., Sept. 7.—After reviewing the troops on Sunday and inspecting the camp this morning, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught made the following statement:

"His Royal Highness congratulates the Honorable Minister of Militia and Defence for Canada on yesterday's well-organized parade and was very pleased with the appearance of the men under the conditions, and considers that the parade reflected great credit on all ranks."

"His Royal Highness regrets that owing to the existing conditions of bad weather the men have been unable to do any training today, and consequently he has been prevented from seeing the troops at their work. He wishes, however, to impress upon all ranks the necessity of devoting their best energies to training in camp and to the necessity of maintaining a high standard of discipline."

Since Sunday morning rain has poured, almost continually, greatly hampering drilling and work of organization. Despite this fact, however, every man in camp worked as usual today, but the hardship did not last as long as usual. Several battalions were taken out to the rifle ranges and put through a severe skirmishing drill this morning. In the afternoon they were drilled in company and battalion formation on the parade grounds. At 3.30 the downfall of rain was so heavy that the troops were dismissed.

The grounds were dotted with small ponds and many tents, despite trenches which had been dug around them were flooded.

The list of those who will go in the first contingent will be given out in a day or two. The headquarters staff is now preparing it. Medical examinations are practically completed as well as the shooting test, which is also a very important factor.

There is no doubt that a considerable number of officers will be disappointed. There are several hundred more than necessary in camp, and in one battalion alone sixty officers have been rejected. There is a possibility however they will be used in a second contingent should one be mobilized.

DARING FEAT OF BRITISH SUBMARINE

Hull, Sept. 7.—Early last week destroyers and submarines of the British fleet, by close surveillance, discovered a passage between the mines which German destroyers used in coming out to the North Sea. With that information a flotilla of submarines and destroyers proceeded to round up the German ships.

When the operations were finished the British vessels returned to their base, with the exception of one submarine.

There was much anxiety as to the fate of this vessel, and as nearly a

Official Word from Paris Says Enemy Driven Back from Line of Nanteuil Lehardouin to Verdun — Troops Leaving England for Front Every Hour — Austrians Repulsed by Russians Near Kholm with Heavy Loss of Men.

Apart from the announcement that the German forces have fallen back before the offensive attacks of the allies on the line from Nanteuil Le Hardouin to Verdun, the most interesting report is contained in a despatch to the London Evening News from Bologne in which the French commander, General Pau, is given as authority for the statement that the allies have won a victory at Precy Sur Oise, in which the Imperial Guard, under the Crown Prince of Germany, is alleged to have been annihilated by a British force.

The British official bureau says that the plans of the French commander-in-chief, General Joffre, are being steadily carried out, and that the allies have succeeded in forcing back in a northeast direction the German forces opposed to them.

Paris officially reports that the allies have advanced their left wing without energetic opposition by the Germans and that several engagements on the Ourcq river have favored the French and British.

The Russian army operating in Galicia is reported still to be driving back the Austrians.

The casualty list as a result of the blowing up of the British cruiser Pathfinder by a mine in the North Sea comprises four men killed, thirteen wounded, and 242 missing.

Bulletin—Paris, Sept. 7 (via London, Sept. 7, 8.25 p. m.)—It was officially announced tonight that the Germans are retreating from the line of Nanteuil Lehardouin to Verdun after a vigorous action with French and British troops.

An earlier official statement given out in Paris today says a general action had started on the line from Nanteuil Le Hardouin to Verdun, a distance of 120 miles. It was then said that, thanks to the vigorous action of the French troops, supported by the British, the Germans had started retreating.

Unofficial advices from Berlin also have indicated that a battle of tremendous importance was being fought in the territory described.

London, Sept. 7 (2.40 p. m.)—The correspondent of the Reuter Telegram Company at Rome says that a despatch has been received there from Naples saying:

"Steamers arriving from Egypt report that German emissaries are inciting the Mohammedans against England, saying that Germany is everywhere victorious."

London, Sept. 7.—A despatch to the Chronicle from Bordeaux says:

"Much attention is being paid here to the possible inclusion of Italy and Spain in the number of countries at war."

"The strained relations between Italy and her former allies have been greatly aggravated in the past three days, while in spirit it is said, public opinion is becoming most insistent for a declaration in support of Great Britain and France."

Paris, Sept. 7, 6.20 p. m.—A Havas Agency despatch from Zurich, Switzerland, says that the newspapers there announce that Germany has rejected Austria's request for a loan, and that the bankers have taken similar action.

BANNER EXHIBITION MARKED FOR UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS

Thousands Thronged Grounds Yesterday and all Voted "Big Show" the Finest Ever—Exhibits Well Above Average and Amusements all that Could be Desired.

A splendid show, abundantly justifying the determination of the directors of the St. John Exhibition Association not to let the war interrupt their plans for directing attention to and encouraging the arts of peace—that was the general verdict of the thousands who thronged the exhibition buildings and grounds yesterday. The great number and variety of exhibits, in some classes even larger and better than at the big Dominion exhibition held in St. John, justified also the faith of the directors that even with the dark shadow of war resting upon the Empire, the people of St. John and the province would not be deterred from taking advantage of an opportunity to exhibit the results of their industries, arts and labors, but would, with characteristic enterprise and energy, do their part to make a display of the possibilities and resources of the province.

Large Attendance. In spite of the fact that the weather was gloomy during the day, with a heavy down pour of rain in the evening, the attendance was very large.

day passed without news of it the fleet began to conclude she had been lost. Just as this fear began to be viewed as a certainty the submarine came calmly into the midst of the fleet and asked to be replenished.

Excitement among the bluejackets at the return of the ship reached to every ship of the fleet. Questions on every lip were: "Where has she been and what has she been doing?"

Explanation was so unforthcoming and all who heard it were thrilled at the daring feat accomplished by the commander and crew.

running it was said to over 13,000, or about equal to the first day of the Dominion exhibition. The large attendance was very gratifying to the directors and officers of the association, and it is believed that if the weather had been finer there would have been an even larger attendance.

One thing the success attending the first day of the exhibition was open to the public seemed to indicate was that the people have not been greatly affected by the depression which has prevailed generally during the summer. A very cheerful spirit prevailed the crowds, and everybody seemed to have money, if not to burn at least to spend in a very liberal and openhanded way. The amusement features were well patronized; immense crowds besieged the booths where nearly every thing from doll babies to candy was raffled, or where some opportunity for winning a prize by using more or less skill was offered; the tea rooms, the ice cream and candy booths were thronged all the afternoon and evening. Also the peanut merchants did a rushing business.

The submarine actually penetrated into the harbor of Bremerhaven, where she fired two torpedoes. The Germans were panic stricken, in the midst of which the submarine went to sleep on the bottom of the harbor.

For hours the ship and crew remained there, the harbor being trawled, but fortunately not passing over her.

As soon as she considered it was safe the commander gave the order to proceed out of the German harbor, the submarine returning across the North Sea without mishap.

WAS LITERALLY BLOWN AWAY

BRITISH CRUISER WENT DOWN IN TWO MINUTES

Wireless Operator Stuck to Post to last and Summoned aid - Destroyers and Trawlers Rushed to Scene and Saved Sixty, including Captain.

London, Sept. 7.—The destruction of the Pathfinder occurred about four o'clock Saturday afternoon at a point ten miles northeast of Saint Abbs Head, Scotland.

While she was patrolling the coast the cruiser struck a mine, which exploded near her magazine. Trawlers ten miles distant felt the shock. From Eymouth, fourteen miles from the scene of the explosion, a huge cloud of smoke was visible on the horizon. A torpedo boat destroyer was the first to the rescue. She was followed by the Pathfinder's wireless operator.

The Pathfinder was literally blown to pieces, and the sea was strewn with the wreckage. The devastating effect of the explosion on the Pathfinder is emphasized in the report of Coxswain Nisbet, of the Saint Abbs' motor lifeboat which first arrived to give assistance. He says that for a mile and a half the water was strewn with wreckage of every conceivable description. There was little of the pieces that was larger than a man's leg. In the midst of the debris he found a ship's Bible floating and extraordinary collections of personal articles from the cabins in the interior of the ship.

ABOUT NINETY SAVED.

A message received in London this morning states that, in addition to the motor lifeboat, several steam drifters hurried to the spot where the Pathfinder sank, and adds that it is learned on reliable authority that the captain of the Pathfinder and some fifty or sixty of his crew were saved.

About ninety of the crew of the Pathfinder dead and wounded were picked up by torpedo boats and taken to a hospital at the naval base. Captain Leske and several other officers were saved. According to official announcement the casualties among the officers were: One killed, eight missing, one seriously wounded and one slightly wounded.

Story of Eye Witness

An eye witness describing the sinking of the cruiser, said:

"In less than a minute after the explosion we saw the smoke of two vessels and suddenly two torpedo boats came into view tearing through the water. We tried to attract their attention, but they made straight for the

Does not want eldest son to become more popular - All Royal Family Fighting.

The Hague, Sept. 7.—Telegrams from Maastricht announce that the Kaiser's two sons, Prince Eitel Friedrich, his favorite, and Prince August Wilhelm, the artistic member of the family, are in Liege, the first lodging in the governor's palace, while the latter is quietly stopping at the Grand Hotel.

Nothing is known about the whereabouts of the Crown Prince, but it is believed the Kaiser has exiled him to the Russian boundary with the Potsdam Horse Guards. The Kaiser is very anxious not to give to the Crown Prince, who is generally loved as Germany's "War Prince," an opportunity of showing his country men what he is doing here. As a rule, the Kaiser's popularity only increases at the expense of that of the reigning sovereign.

It must have broken the Crown Prince's heart not to be allowed to fight against the French and the Belgians. The Kaiser in placing the Crown Prince in a humiliating position is giving to Prince Eitel Friedrich the chance of regaining, by some heroic feat, the regard of the Germans, which he has lost.

Nothing is known of the whereabouts of the Kaiser's other sons, Prince Joachim and Oskar. Prince Adalbert is aboard the battleship Pommern. Prince Henry of Prussia, the Kaiser's brother, is in charge at Kiel and the Duke of Brunswick, the Kaiser's son-in-law, has command of the Zieten hussars, operating in Alsace. The Duke, who is a prince of Great Britain and Ireland, will have to renounce this title, also he will have to do with difficulty with his father, the Duke of Cumberland, who is unfriendly hostile to the Hohenzollerns.

The Duke of Saxe-Coburg, the only prince of Great Britain in modern times has taken weapons against England and her allies.

A German prophetess, Frau Nelly von Helman, predicted months ago, says the despatch, that the Crown Prince would be the last German ruler to succeed his father in the midst of a great war.

GERMANY HAS MADE THREATS AGAINST CHINA

Says she will hold that nation responsible for allowing Japs and British to cross her territory.

Wei-Hsing, Shantung Province, China, Sept. 7.—Reports have been received here that the Japanese advance guard of three thousand men, which is proceeding against the German territory of Kiaochow from Lungkow has succeeded in covering only ten miles in the last two days because of the very poor condition of the roads in Shantung Province. At this distance out they came to a swollen river. This the artillery could not cross, and the guns are now returning to Lungkow.

Some of the Tsing Tau forts have been made bomb proof. The governor of Tsing Tau grants the garrison one day in three for liberty in town, to promote the health of the men. Almost all the German reservists are living in deserted private residences in Tsing Tau.

The shops of the fort have re-opened and there is music and moving picture shows every night.

According to news received here the bombs recently thrown into Tsing Tau from Japanese aeroplanes were ineffective.

Germany Threatens.

Peking, Sept. 7.—Protesting to the foreign office against its note of September third, addressed to the diplomatic representatives in Peking and referring to the transgression of Chinese neutrality by the landing of Japanese troops at Lungkow, Baron Von Maltzan, the German charge, declared today that Germany would hold Japan responsible for permitting Japanese and British soldiers to cross her territory.

The Chinese are unwilling to attack the Japanese who have been landed in Shantung; nevertheless, they fear that Germany may ultimately make reprisals upon them.

The Japanese location here has been endeavoring to assure the Chinese authorities that the activities of Japanese troops are directed only against Tsing Tau.

ARRANGING FOR GIFT TO OLD COUNTRY

J. B. Daggett says policy of the Government is being enthusiastically received by all the farmers.

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, Sept. 7.—J. B. Daggett, secretary of agriculture, returned from Grand Falls today after visiting all the leading potato points on the upper St. John valley. Mr. Daggett reports that an excellent in sections where it is light the quality being fine. There is a considerable quantity being dig present for shipment to Ontario markets. While these potatoes are all right for immediate consumption they are not sufficiently ripe to be shipped to Great Britain. Mr. Daggett has already contracted for about half of the total amount, all arrangements having been made at current market price. These will be delivered within the next fortnight.

Secretary Daggett states that the announcement that the government had intended to make a gift of 100,000 bushels of potatoes was enthusiastically received by people in the northern section of the St. John valley and the government is highly commended for its action. All potatoes purchased for the provinces' gift will be shipped in bulk to St. John where they will be bagged for shipment to the Old Country. The bags will bear an inscription stating that the potatoes are the gift of New Brunswick. They will in all probability be shipped from St. John early in October.

Mr. Daggett will go to St. John on Wednesday to make arrangements for a warehouse and the work of placing the potatoes in bags. After the close of the St. John exhibition he will leave for Westmorland county to purchase potatoes. The policy of the government is to give every county an opportunity of providing their share and purchases will be made in this way.

Speaking of the potato crop, Secretary Daggett states that the yield will be about 10,000,000 bushels. A few weeks ago the estimate was placed at 2,500,000 bushels, but the rains have "bottomed up" the crop considerably.

German Emperor Watches Over Movements of All His Armies—Great Britain Prepared to Fight to the Last and Win.

In the obliteration or aggression of nations now in progress the fact of first and greatest importance at the close of the sixth week—fifth week of war for the Germans—is the weakening of the Austrian empire, a dynamic disaster changing the map of southern Europe in new and strange ways. This great European as to be patched together with races no two alike or in sympathy, a mere political crazy quilt, the signs of rigor mortis this week have become unmistakable. The first wall of the death-agony came from the Austrian capital on Thursday, piteous appeal to Italy not to break her neutrality; it is "to your advantage not to do so," sob's Vienna. Translated it means that if Italy abandoned being spectator and drew her sword, it would be Austria's coup-de-grace. Count Berchtold must be tasting hyssop as he contemplates the accumulated ruins of the bonfire he lit though not so bitter fall the blow as it does on his aged master, likely the last of the Hapsburgs, last emperor of the dual monarchy. The volcanic blooded peoples over whom Franz Joseph ruled have begun to mutter; Prague, where the Teuton is so detested that a question asked in German remains rudely unanswered, has broken into sterner dissonance as to Bohemia's future, free from the Hapsburgs; Budapest where high pride and hope alike have been deep wounded by the success of the Slavians—Hungarians beaten by Slavs! the Austrian fleet a useless weapon. Cattaro taken by "dirty" Montenegrins, Austrian authority howled down in Bosnia—these signs point to but one end. When members are torn from the body the carcass won't be worth the success of the Russian. The Austro-Hungarian army lost East Galicia, lost Lemberg, an eight-day battle, 200,000 troops made into war dust. Austrian troops alone could not do it, a great Austrian army no longer counted as of military value! The flower of Austria and Hungary withered by the Russian tornado. Disaster also to the Austrian attempt to place Poland, the position there painfully held, only by the help of Germans. Austrian troops alone could not do it. Pity for Franz Josef, he and his empire are to pass away together.

The Kaiser remains all the war there is on the German side, the directing, commanding, colossal war lord, the greatest figure in the whole warring world, incarnation of activity, the man to everything, nothing too big or too small, forwarding another decoration to the lonely sovereign at Schonbrunn with cheering message; Austria troops alone could not do it. Pity for Franz Josef, he and his empire are to pass away together.

Mr. Daggett will go to St. John on Wednesday to make arrangements for a warehouse and the work of placing the potatoes in bags. After the close of the St. John exhibition he will leave for Westmorland county to purchase potatoes. The policy of the government is to give every county an opportunity of providing their share and purchases will be made in this way.

Paris, Sept. 7.—To the Matin's correspondent at Chartres, France, a colonial infantryman, wounded at Charleroi, related his experiences in the battle.

"We marched with our African comrades against the Prussian guard," he said. "We advanced in bounds amid the humming bullets, using every bit of cover we could. We felt intoxicated with the joy of battle.

"I could say how long the action lasted. All I remember is that we were our last shot within fifty yards of the enemy. Then it was the pitiless thrust of the cold steel. It would have given us the victory for, however I trust and steady are the troops we fight against, there are no soldiers in the world able to resist the Turcos' bayonet charge.

"My regiment's effort alas, was broken by quick firers skillfully hidden in the ruins of an old factory. We were obliged to fall back and we suffered heavily, but we have the consolation of saying that we made enormous gaps in the Kaiser's crack regiments. One of the Turcos had the good fortune to capture single handed a German captain. He had carefully disarmed him and was conducting him with pardonable pride to a rear when the officer in a violent rage cursed the Turco. The African made him carry his knapsack and all of his equipment, and, sticking a sateopan on his head, he thus led his routers through the lines amidst roars of laughter.

TRELLS OF DASTARDLY GERMAN ATTACK ON ENGLISH TRAWLERS

Hardly gave sailors time to remove clothing before enemy opened fire—Whole fleet engaged in this work.

(Daily News Special by G. F. Steward.)

Rotterdam, Sept. 7.—Certain trawlers by which have been sunk in the North Sea by the German trawlers. The crews of their crews are prisoners on German soil. The German fleet is now moving about in the North Sea. Cruisers and destroyers which sank innocent fishing boats performed their valorous deed on August 26, two days before the British fleet chastised enemy's ships in the light of Heligoland.

The story of the destruction of the trawlers is told by a Dutchman who for the last ten months has acted out of Grimby on English trawlers. On August 24 he left Grimby as one of the crew of the Vaillant. At seven o'clock in the evening the Vaillant was fishing in company with other English trawlers. When they were approached by two German cruisers, three torpedo boats, one torpedo boat came

HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM THE GERMAN

Ernest Cinquars, of Quebec, saw hanging of French butcher who refused German money.

London, Sept. 7.—Ernest Cinquars, King's printer for Quebec, in an interview with the Montreal Gazette correspondent today stated that he had just returned from the continent where he visited Ostend, Amiens and Paris last month.

At Amiens, Mr. Cinquars was unable to escape before the German occupation, owing to the destruction of the bridge over the Somme by the allies, after their evacuation of the town.

Regarding himself an object of German suspicion, he took refuge in a church for several hours, after seeing a butcher, who had an altercation with the invaders, through the latter offering German money for meat purchased, hanged until dead, from a hook on one of the beams of his own shop.

Mr. Cinquars stated that no Belgian merchants or manufacturers who fled from Brussels prior to the German occupation had been allowed to return.

In Paris, Mr. Cinquars was only 200 yards from the spot where a German bomb was dropped from an aeroplane, exploding harmlessly in a near by lake. He saw Godfrey Langlois, who had reached Paris from Belgium just after the opening of the new Canadian office in the Belgian capital, but otherwise he declared that there were not six Canadians remaining in Paris.

GERMANS RUSH MEN TO FRONT

Two million troops for the western theatre of the war passed over the five bridges over the Rhine at Cologne.

London, Sept. 7.—A despatch to the Evening Star from Rotterdam says that during the first nineteen days of the war more than 2,600 trains bearing men to the front were despatched from Cologne.

Notwithstanding this enormous army, reinforcements are still being hurried to the front, not only to take the place of the huge number killed and wounded, but in order to carry out the emergency German plan that so far as possible, fresh troops be buried at men who already have borne the burden of the day.

In addition to the tremendous sledge runs of the Germans, ordinary field pieces have been hurried forward. An American who has just arrived from Cologne, says that he met a wounded German officer who told him that the success of the Germans was due to the fact that the tremendous sledge runs of the Germans, ordinary field pieces have been hurried forward. TELLS ABOUT JOY OF BATTLE

French Colonial Soldier give graphic account of furious bayonet charge against German line.

Paris, Sept. 7.—To the Matin's correspondent at Chartres, France, a colonial infantryman, wounded at Charleroi, related his experiences in the battle.

"We marched with our African comrades against the Prussian guard," he said. "We advanced in bounds amid the humming bullets, using every bit of cover we could. We felt intoxicated with the joy of battle.

"I could say how long the action lasted. All I remember is that we were our last shot within fifty yards of the enemy. Then it was the pitiless thrust of the cold steel. It would have given us the victory for, however I trust and steady are the troops we fight against, there are no soldiers in the world able to resist the Turcos' bayonet charge.

"My regiment's effort alas, was broken by quick firers skillfully hidden in the ruins of an old factory. We were obliged to fall back and we suffered heavily, but we have the consolation of saying that we made enormous gaps in the Kaiser's crack regiments. One of the Turcos had the good fortune to capture single handed a German captain. He had carefully disarmed him and was conducting him with pardonable pride to a rear when the officer in a violent rage cursed the Turco. The African made him carry his knapsack and all of his equipment, and, sticking a sateopan on his head, he thus led his routers through the lines amidst roars of laughter.

HOW WAR EFFECTS TRADE OF NATIONS

London, Sept. 7.—The effect of the war on British trade is seen in the Board of Trade returns for August. Imports compared with the corresponding month last year show a decrease of $65,000,000, while exports have fallen off nearly $100,000,000. The imports of sugar have dropped more than $7,500,000 of which the loss of $4,000,000 falls on Germany alone. Manufactured articles show a decrease of $42,500,000 in imports.

In exports, coal is down $10,000,000 and manufactured articles $75,000,000. Of the latter $12,500,000 was lost on ships and war munitions and $30,000,000 on cotton and woolen fabrics. It is pointed out by the report that the decrease in exports is due largely to the fact that certain classes of exports are prohibited during war-time.

Bordeaux, Sept. 7 (via Paris), Sept. 7, 6:23 p. m.—The soldiers' newspaper issued by the government for the benefit of the army contains an article by Rev. DELIGHTFUL RETURN FROM PRODUCTION VALCARTIER

Peg O' My Heart won high place in esteem of crowded house last evening.

Peg O' My Heart, a comedy which has been described as a youth play was presented at the Opera House last evening by Oliver Morosco. It is a play in three acts and had a very long run at the Cort Theatre, New York. The story concerns principally the fortunes of Margaret O'Connell, or Peg as she prefers to be called. She is left a fortune by an uncle, subject to certain conditions, the fulfillment of one of which brings her under the control of an erstwhile rich aunt. The latter engages to train Peg on the lines of social intellectualism for £1,000 a year, for the girl is of the unpolished sort—just a healthy Irish girl, who loves her father more than anyone else in the world.

In the first act Peg appears at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. Chichester just after the latter has heard of the failure of her bankers, and her consequent ruin. The niece at once excites the interest of the Chichesters, but unfavorably because of her extraordinary conduct. She enters the aristocratic home with Michael, her dog, which she claims is much better than many humans, and a parcel containing all her wealth except the clothes she wears and an undoubtedly good heart.

Throughout the play there are many situations that appeal to the average playgoer as by no means far-fetched in any one instance. They range from the essentially funny to the pathetic and a really capable company was able, last night, to take full advantage of the opportunities presented to work out a pretty story on the Opera House stage. All the incidents of the play cannot, of course, be enumerated here, but it may be said that they are pleasing throughout. With quaint repartee, witticisms and philosophy Peg delights everybody in the role of the Irish girl Miss Marion Dentler captivated the large audience. And she knew how to find a soft spot in the heart of the man. The company is properly balanced and the play runs with smoothness and an effort that is distinctly noticeable.

The second act sees Peg in open rebellion with her aunt and the announcement of a determination to go back to her "fayther," for she is being constantly called to order by the over-particular relative and the final act witnesses her consent to marry Jerry, who turns out to be her ward and who is in reality Sir Gerald Kingsnorth. Miss Dentler had a heap of work to do and she did it well. Her part was correct in every way. Miss Helen Rafferty as Ethel, her daughter who is indebted to Peg for preventing a distinctly unwise escapade with Christian Brent, a married man, was a great success in her part and proved herself an actress of much ability. York Perkins was very good as Alaric, Christian Brent's son, and helped much in the success of the production. Joseph Yanner (Christian Brent) was also very good in a part requiring careful handling. The role of Montgomery Hawkes, a somewhat bombastic lawyer, was in capable hands with William Verones, Harold West took all his work being far above the average in most stage productions of the kind under notice. John E. Trevor was a dignified man-servant and his portrayal of Jarvis was voted correct, and because Miss Ethel Thompson is mentioned last it is not to be supposed that she is not a good actress, for she is. Miss Thompson was in all respects satisfactory as the maid.

Peg O' My Heart will undoubtedly be seen by large audiences during the remainder of the week, and deservedly so.

THREW BOTTLES AT PLAYER

Boston, Sept. 7.—The relative positions of the Boston and New York National League teams suffered no change as a result of today's games at Fenway Park. Boston won the morning game five to four, and New York the afternoon contest, ten to one. The greatest number of persons ever recorded at two baseball games in a single day attended. The afternoon crowd numbered several thousands larger than that of the forenoon. After Snodgrass was hit by a pitched ball in the sixth inning of the afternoon contest the crowd "hooped" when he went to centrefield. His contemptuous motion in response to this was followed by a volley of bottles from the bleachers in his direction. The game was held up five or ten minutes, and during the demonstration Mayor Curley went to the field and demanded of a police lieutenant that Snodgrass be removed from the park. Neither the officer nor the umpires would comply.

New York, Sept. 7.—Transports leave Southampton almost every hour of the day, laden with troops for France, according to reports of passengers aboard the Minnetonka, which reached New York this afternoon from London. Returning, the transports are bringing wounded from French battlefields for distribution among English hospitals and emergency stations. The Minnetonka was stopped three times by cruisers after leaving London.

Did not pass medical examination—Austrians in trouble at Fredericton—Stole watches and money

Special to The Standard.
Fredericton, Sept. 7.—The first party of volunteers from the 71st regiment for active overseas service to be sent back from Valcartier arrived by C. P. R. at noon today in charge of Color Sergeant Jos. Wilson.

The party included Sergeants Wilson and Masters, and privates Robinson, Titus, Reynolds, Pendleton and McLean. Some of the party have been invalidated home and some failed to pass the medical board, while others were sent back because they had not obtained the written consent of their wives.

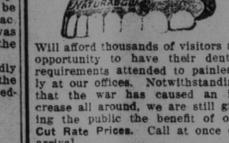

Austrians figured in two theft cases in which arrests were made by the police today. John Kirnd, aged 32 years, was arrested, charged with stealing $50 from a brother Austrian. Both foreigners board at a house conducted by John Litorzi, and it is alleged that Kirnd committed the theft there.

When arrested Kirnd had considerable money on his person. City Detective Roberts and Officer Marshall made the arrest. Kirnd will come before Magistrate Limerick tomorrow morning. Shortly after the arrest of Kirnd the same officers lodged another Austrian named John Weislich, in the police station. Weislich was reported to the police by Lewis Hurovitz, who claimed that the former had stolen two watches from him on Saturday. When Weislich was arrested two watches, one a silver one valued at $4, and the other a gold one valued at $20, were found on him.

Washington, Sept. 7.—The stranding of the British cruiser Warrior, reported to the German embassy today in a wireless message from Berlin, remained a mystery tonight. The message read: "British cruiser Warrior stranded, probably as a result of fighting with cruiser Goeben, while escaping from the Bosphorus." The Goeben is a German vessel which with the Breslau escaped from British pursuers at the time the war began and sought refuge in the Dardanelles. Later the ships were said to have sailed to the Turkish government.

Diplomats were at a loss to explain the Berlin message. They believed it impossible that the Warrior could have been attempting to escape from the Bosphorus as Turkey has mined the straits and the ships could not have entered. Had the Goeben been allowed to go out and engage the Warrior, it was said, it would be a direct violation of neutrality by the Turkish government, if the ship still flies the German flag, and virtually a declaration of war on the allies. If the Goeben is under the Turkish flag it would have been an act of war.

Warrior, and the ambassador said it conclusively proved that no declaration of war had been made, though he did not give out the text.

British officials here were keenly interested in the Berlin report, although it aroused no surprise. Great Britain had been expecting a declaration of war from Turkey, it is said, for many days.

AROUND THE CITY

Holes in Sidewalk.
The police report dangerous holes in the Brussels street sidewalk, one near the corner of Clarence street, and the other in front of the Wilson foundry site.

A Generous Donation.
The Singer Sewing Machine Company has subscribed $2,500 to the National Patriotic Fund. Douglas Alexander, the president of the Company, has added $500 as a personal donation.

Many Motor Cars Here.
A large number of people came into the city from various parts of the province yesterday in automobiles to attend the exhibition. The number of cars was much greater than could be accommodated in the local garages, and barns and stables had to be requisitioned.

The Shenandoah.
It is thought that the Furness liner Shenandoah is quite badly damaged owing to having grounded on the rocks at Navy Island last Saturday night, and as stated yesterday in 'The Standard' no further attempt will be made to float the ship until the next high tides which will be a couple of weeks. Work will be commenced today in lightening her cargo and when this is finished the task of refloating the ship will be more easily accomplished.

Boys Arrested.
About 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon I. C. R. Policemen Collins took into custody Freeman Dumphy, aged 13 and Howard Garnett, aged 10 years, on the charge of obstructing the front of the depot. The boys had been selling papers and according to the officer were in the way of passengers going to and from the depot. The two fellows were locked up in a cell where they spent last night and will appear before Magistrate Ritchie this morning.

MOOSEPATH RACING WAS BIG SUCCESS.

Large Crowd of railbirds enjoy fine afternoon's sport — Matinee idols on hand.

The races at Moosepath yesterday afternoon were successful and a large crowd went out to witness the sport. The mixed class proved the banner event and kept the rail birds guessing. The fastest time of the day was made in the first heat of this class when Nellie R. driven by King, won the distance in 1:12 1/2 winning this event in straight heats with Shamrock 2nd, Royal Pandect 3rd, Nan Patterson 4th and Margaret Chimes 5th.

In each heat the horses were well bunched and together all the way making one of the best classes of the season.

Owing to unavoidable circumstances the free for all did not fill but Mr. Glynn's mare Etta Mack and Iowa Parole driven by McNamara, started in a named class furnishing good racing all through. Etta Mack took three straight heats, best time being 1:12.

The two matinee idols, Master Johnson with his pony were on hand to give a couple of exhibition heats under the saddle. This small team has become very popular with the Moosepath crowd. The little fellows went the first half in 1:04 1/2 and the second in 1:02 flat.

ART EXHIBIT ONE OF MERIT, ITS DECISIONS THEIR LIVES

Best collection ever brought together in St. John on view at the Exhibition.

In the fine arts department there was a good collection of paintings in oils and water colors, besides etchings, pastels, casts and specimens of children's work in the art classes held in connection with the St. John Art Club. It is estimated that the total value of the work shown here must be in the vicinity of $10,000. The hanging of the pictures and placing of the other objects was capably performed by the treasurer of the Art Club, G. H. Flett, assisted by the ladies. This difficult task showed great care in the arrangement of the exhibit, with due regard to position, light, harmony and general effect.

Some of the pictures exhibited have been collected from prominent artists in Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal and London, Eng., some are owned by the St. John Art Club and others were loaned by St. John people. The National Gallery at Ottawa sent twenty-four pictures, the Art Club twenty-five besides etchings; the Montreal Art Association nineteen. Col. Hood of London, lent fifteen fine water color paintings; Miss M. E. Jack of St. John sent several excellent oil paintings and pastels; James S. Green, of London, lent eight paintings in oil and water colors, and a prominent citizen, whose name is not disclosed, forwarded twenty-six beautiful oil and water colors and medal reproductions.

W. S. Fisher, president of the club, loaned four excellent oil paintings and a water color. Several small pictures were exhibited by Alexander Watson. Two harbor scenes in oil painted by Mr. Watson himself were much admired. Mr. Watson, it may be remarked, by the way, had charge of the laying out of the wall spacing for the pictures, a by no means easy undertaking.

In so large a collection it is difficult to single out for special mention any particular work of art, but some of the following paintings seemed to command the special admiration of the critics: Courtyard of the Alhambra, by Francois Flameng; Dreaming, a lovely picture, by G. Agnew Reid, R.C.A.; Toronto; The Flower Girl, by Harlanoff; A Little Puritan, by Franklin Brownell, R.C.A.; The Peddler, by Ten-Kate; A Passing Shower, by the late J. C. Miles, of St. John; Evening, by John Hammond, Sackville; Solitude, by F. M. Bell-Smith, R.C.A.; Winter, by M. Callier, R.C.A.; Birch and Maples at Robeson Park, painter's name not stated and portrait in oils of Miss Lottie Fairbanks at 12, by the late James Holman.

The committee in charge of the exhibit consisted of Col. E. T. Sturdee, Mrs. M. V. Padlock, Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. E. Raymond, who also had special charge of compilation of the catalogue, W. Brodie, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor, Mrs. R. G. Murray, acting secretary, Miss C. O. McGivern was untiring throughout in the work of providing a really excellent collection of works of art, and much of the credit of its undoubted success is due to her efforts. Miss Hagerity and Miss Beale, teacher in the school, also deserve thanks for helping in a praiseworthy undertaking.

KNIT SOCKS FOR SOLDIERS

The women of St. John and the province following the example of their sisters in the old country and the advice of Col. B. R. Armstrong are knitting socks for the soldiers who are going to the front. A St. John girl who recently returned from Great Britain said the women there were all knitting socks or woolen jackets for the soldiers. Ladies even carried their knitting on automobile trips, and it was a common thing to see ladies in waiting cars knitting away. In the working class districts women were seen in their doorways also knitting for the soldiers.

ST. JOHN MEN ALMOST LOST THEIR LIVES

Stepped on 'gunwhale of yacht tender and were thrown into river — Had narrow escape.

If it had not been for the timely assistance of a few persons at Public Landing, on the St. John river, yesterday afternoon two young men hailing from the city would have no doubt been drowned. The young men were of a party who were on a yachting cruise and had gone ashore in the yacht's tender.

After enjoying a stroll one of the young men got into the small boat and his companion stepped on the gunwhale, the craft quickly overturning, throwing both into the water.

The young man who was the cause of the boat upsetting could not swim and he grasped his companion round the neck and both went under the surface. Another companion who was on the yacht which was a short distance from the wharf called out to those on shore about the accident and they fortunately were near enough to rescue the two men when they appeared on the surface.

The yachtsmen were badly frightened but other than the ducking were none the worse for their experience.

ANYTHING FOR YOUR MONEY ON THE PIKE

Midway Shows separate visitors to Exhibition from their coin — Good times in this department.

Greatest wonder of the world! World's greatest wonder! Only wild woman in captivity! Mayo, the marvelous magician! See the dare-devil motor cycle demons! Get a picture of your future wife, only ten cents. Get into the baby rattle, only ten cents, three for a quarter. Teddy bears, Teddy bears, try for a Teddy. See Lanora, the modern Venus. Step right up, ladies and gentlemen. All for a dime! All for a dime. Peanuts, peanuts; fresh assorted peanuts, five cents a bag.

Thus in stentorian voices cried the barkers along the Midway yesterday afternoon and evening, amid the lure of the band and the music of the merry-go-round, while many a eager, jolly crowd pressed around the tents, and gave up their dime for the privilege of entering into the places of wonders. Over young and old the Midway exercised its glamour, and a constant procession streamed between the tents and booths rejoicing in the opportunity of being separated from their shekels. Gaily colored posters of beautiful ladies, weird wizards, marvellous freaks of nature, invited the crowds to explore within the tents and learn the old truth that art can some times put it over nature.

The Imperial Show Company of New York have the contract for supplying pike attractions this year, and have provided some very good attractions, though they were not able to bring their whole plant here. The manager is G. H. Banton.

The most sensational attraction on the pike is the Motorcycle "Dare Devil" deeds by the motor cycle demons. It is the legend over the portal of this institution, and Dare Devil Kelly and his wife are the demons. They are also Irish. Their feat is a thrilling one, and attracted large crowds. With their motor cycles humming they rode at lightning speed around the sides of the inverted dome inclining at an angle of seventy-eight degrees from the perpendicular to the ground. One tent contains what is called the London Museum of Wonders. Its interesting posters contain promises of such marvels as a Kangaroo Dog, the Living Head, the Living Half Lady, a Monkey Circus, a Two-Legged Colt, the Happy Family Parade, and Mave Master Mind of Magic.

In another tent several graceful diving girls disport themselves like mermaids. At the door of another tent a lady with a mask appears in a bath robe, and the barker summons the crowd to enter and see the wonderful Lanora doing her posing stunts. Farther down, other tent houses, a show called the Streets of Cairo, where girls, probably from Hoboken, exhibit the mysterious dances of Cairo.

One of the features of the midway which is worth more than passing attention is the mechanical city.

The wild woman is certainly a sight. When the barkers began to announce that they had a wild woman in captivity, it was rumored that she was one of the wild women of England, and there was a great flutter of excitement among the aufregottes on the Midway. They besieged the tent, and concluded that if this wild woman was a specimen of the vote seekers in England, it was no wonder they created excitement. Anthropologists declare that the women in pre-historic times were the real rulers, and did not allow man to vote, but this was before Jupiter overthrew the female divinities on Olympus, and this wild woman if she was a pre-historic voter, did not look like divinity. The buildings, the spoils of their adventure with the same of chance.

The merry-go-round is an unusually gorgeous affair, and it was well patronized.

WELL SHIP POTATOES HERE

St. John is to be concentration point for gift to Motherland — Half secured already.

St. John is to be the concentration point for the 100,000 bushels of potatoes, which the province will give to the Empire in the present crisis. Already half the potatoes have been contracted for and these will be forwarded to St. John in bulk.

J. B. Daggott, secretary of agriculture, will arrive in St. John tomorrow in order to arrange for the placing of the potatoes in bags and preparing them for shipment.

The entire contribution of 100,000 bushels will be put into bags at St. John for shipment to Great Britain, where the Imperial Government will look after the distribution. The bags are to bear inscriptions showing the potatoes to be New Brunswick's gift to the Empire, and in the purchasing of the contribution each potato growing county will have an opportunity of providing its share at the prevailing market prices.

Mr. Daggott returned to Fredericton on Saturday after visiting the leading potato points on the upper St. John.

PARK HOTEL, KING SQUARE.

threatened to start a riot. But the St. John special constables have had recent experience dealing with riots, and besides the attendants threatened to let the wild woman loose. One tame woman is enough to frighten the average young man, and this dame is a holy fright. Mr. Banton intimated that the wild woman came from Borneo, but did not take oath thereto.

A large number of booths are erected on the Midway, where for a dime you can take your chances at getting most anything, not particularly useful. Among the prizes given out were a large number of doll babies of large size, and Teddy bears. One of the amusing exhibits not advertised was the spectacle of hundreds of young men carrying large doll babies and young ladies carrying Teddy bears.

The grounds and buildings, the spoils of their adventure with the same of chance.
