Our Philadelphia friends assuredly have the gift of persistence. Some years ago we noticed that they found an existing subject of interest and dispute in their dogs, the doctors insisting on dissecting them alive, and the ladies equally vehement in their desire to build a costly hospital where all friendless curs without legiti-mate means of support could find shelter. Since then, the Prussian war, the burning of Uhicago, and other such national mat-ters drove this difficulty from our minds; but on again furning our attention to our THE NEWS ROOM THERMOMETER (exposed to the sun) at 8 o'clock this morning, stood at 4° above Zero; at 10 o'clock at 6° above.
