THE TURF. AT NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 17.—Three consolation events and three fair races made up the card at Morris Park today. The Castleton, a selling stake for 2-year-olds, was the only fixture decided, and that went to Templeton, who won the Silver Brook yesterday. She was off the lucrative price of 7 to 1, and Omdurra and Ashes being heavily played. A steeplechase for non-winners this year was first on the card. Somers, at the good odds of 20 to 1, outjumped and outlasted the field, and won ridden out by ten lengths from Zinziber. Mizzo, the favorite, was prominent to the last two jumps, and then tired. Midsummer beat a big field of 21 starters in the second race, and Garry Herman won the fourth easily from Rolling Boer, who in turn beat Dr. Barlow a head for the place. The winner was the only favorite of the day to score. West Baden graduated from the maiden class in the fifth race, beating Support a head on the post. The latter ran a good race, after being almost left at the post to a struggling start. The last race at 1½ miles went to the second choice, Belgrade. Maid of Harlem, the favorite, and MacLeod of Dare, made the running for a mile and a quarter with Americanos well up. Little Miles raced Belgrade along in last place to the head of the stretch, when he brought his mount up with a rush and won cleverly by a length and a half from the outsider, Lococoe. The weather was clear and cool and the track slow.

CURSE OF CANADA. And the Only Way in Which It Can Be Surely Removed.

Dyspepsia Is the Curse—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Are the Only Cure—They Are, Therefore, Canada's Greatest Blessing.

What is the greatest curse of our country? There can be only one answer to this question. There cannot be a moment's hesitation in answering it. The answer is "Dyspepsia." Nine-tenths of the people of Canada suffer from it. The greatest blessing a country can have is something that will remove the greatest curse. Therefore Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets are Canada's greatest blessing; for they, and they only, can cure Dyspepsia. They, and they only, can remove Canada's greatest curse. But the claim of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to this title rests on still stronger ground. Besides being the only medicine known that can cure Dyspepsia, they positively cure its twin evil—Indigestion, also Biliousness, Catarrh of the Stomach, Sour Stomach, and all other diseases caused by imperfect digestion.

The action of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets is simplicity itself. They remove the cause of the trouble. Then the disease MUST vanish. They digest the food. They must do this. They cannot help doing so any more than heat can help melting snow. Thus, Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the same substances that a healthy stomach supplies to digest food. When you swallow a tablet, it melts and reduces the food to a milky liquid. This passes to other organs, which separate the useless portions from the useful parts. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets stimulate the bowels and enable them to carry off the useless portions. Thus, the stomach and bowels, working properly together, digestion becomes perfect and Dyspepsia cannot exist.

From Near-By Places.

ARKONA.
Arkona, Oct. 17.—The Port Huron Times says: "A quiet but no less interesting event occurred at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 19, at the home of Mrs. Lottie Koppeler, of this place, in the celebration of the marriage of her daughter Florence to Mr. Daniel Ross, formerly of Arkona. Rev. P. Ross Parrish being the officiating clergyman. The bride was tastefully attired in a traveling suit of gray. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Ross took the afternoon train for Detroit, where they will be the guests for several days of the bride's brother, Bert Koppeler, of that city. Upon their return they will take up their residence for a time at Mrs. Koppeler's home. The young couple are very popular, and have hosts of friends in this place, who wish them a long life full of happiness. Ten of the intimate friends of Mr. Ross presented him with a handsome adjustable smoking chair, while accompanying the gift was a very suitable and merited testimonial of regard. The fine gift will no doubt be highly appreciated by the recipient."

Mrs. C. M. Eastman returned home on Friday evening after spending some months in visiting her son and daughter, Rev. E. B. and Mrs. Lancelotti, also relatives in London, Grimsby Park and Toronto.

Miss E. J. Eastman, who has been quite sick for the past week, is slowly recovering.

Mr. H. Thomas, of Dickerville, Mich., is visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. Merner, of Zurich, Huron county, visited relatives here on Sunday.

On Friday evening, while Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson, of Bonanquet, were returning home, their team took fright at a bush's end and ran away, throwing the occupants out, bruising them badly, and breaking one of Mr. Wilson's ribs. The team was found at the gate of Angus Campbell, on the second concession of Bonanquet.

Mr. Wilson is getting better.

Mrs. J. W. Austin, of Chicago, visited her aunt, Miss E. J. Eastman, a few days last week.

Mrs. Koppeler, of Fort Gratiot, is visiting Mrs. Ross at home on Sunday.

C. H. Thomas' mother is very low with inflammation of the lungs.

TO BE HANGED DECEMBER 7

Trial of Pearson at Hamilton Lasted Five Hours.

Prisoner in the Witness Box Admitted That He Killed Annie Griffin.

[Special to Advertiser per G. N. W.] Hamilton, Ont., Oct. 17.—The trial of George Arthur Pearson for the murder of his sweetheart, Annie Griffin, on Sunday night, Sept. 23 last, began at the assize court at 1 o'clock today before Judge Rose. The evidence was the same as that given at the inquest and preliminary trial at police court, with the exception of that of Pearson, the prisoner, who went into the box and told his story to the court.

Edward Niblett, at whose house Annie Griffin was employed, gave the girl a good character, as did her father and mother.
Pearson, the prisoner, went into the witness box with an air of perfect indifference and a smile on his face. He acknowledged that he shot Miss Griffin twice in the head, but gave no reason for so doing. He said he had no reason, and did the deed on the impulse of the moment, without knowing exactly what he was doing and why. Pearson throughout the trial seemed never to recognize the seriousness of his position.

Lawyer George Lynch Staunton made an eloquent plea on behalf of the young man, and said there was no doubt in his mind that the act was committed during a period when the prisoner was suffering from mental aberration, and he considered him a fit subject for examination as to his mental qualities.

S. C. Higgs, C.C., crown prosecutor, was brief in his address to the jury, as was Judge Rose, the trial lasting only five hours.

The jury was out less than an hour and returned with a verdict of guilty. Judge Rose sentenced the prisoner to be hanged on Dec. 7 next.

To the very last, and even when the sentence was pronounced Pearson's nerve never faltered him.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

A Pain Remedy.

For over fifty years this wonderful remedy has proved itself the best, safest and surest antidote for pain in the world.

The True Relief,
Radway's Ready Relief

For Internal and External Use.

In using medicines to stop pain, we should avoid such as inflict injury on the system. Opium, Morphine, Chloroform, Ether, Cocaine and Chloral stop pain by destroying the sense of perception, the patient losing the power of feeling. This is a most destructive practice; it masks the symptoms, shut up, and instead of removing trouble, breaks down the stomach, liver and bowels, and, if continued for a length of time, kills the nerves and produces local or general paralysis.

There is no necessity for using these dangerous and uncertain agents when a positive remedy like RADWAY'S READY RELIEF will stop the most excruciating pain quicker, without entailing the least danger in either infant or adult.

It instantly stops the most excruciating neuralgic pains, such as toothache, rheumatism, whether of the Lungs, Stomach, Bowels or other glands or mucous membranes.

PAIN CURED IN AN INSTANT

No matter how violent or excruciating the pains the Rheumatic, Bed-ridden, Infirm, Crippled, Nervous, Neuralgic or prostrated with disease may suffer.

Radway's Ready Relief

Will Afford Instant Ease.

A CURE FOR SUMMER COMPLAINTS,
DYSENTERY, DIARRHEA,
CHOLERA MORBUS.

A half to a teaspoonful of Ready Relief in a half tumbler of water, repeated as often as the discharges continue, and a flannel saturated with Ready Relief placed over the stomach and bowels will afford immediate relief and soon effect a cure.

No bad after effects (which are invariably the sequel of dosing with opium, etc.) will follow the use of Radway's Ready Relief, but the bowels will be left in a healthy normal condition.

A half to a teaspoonful in a half tumbler of water will, in a few minutes, cure Cramps, Spasms, Stomach, Heartburn, Nausea, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Sick Headache, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Colic, Flatulency and all internal pains.

MALARIA,
CHILLS AND FEVER, FEVER AND AGUE CONQUERED.

Radway's Ready Relief

Not only cures the patient seized with this terrible foe to settlers in newly settled districts, where the Malaria or Ague exists, but if people exposed to it will, every morning on getting out of bed, take twenty or thirty drops of the Ready Relief in a glass of water, and eat, say, a cracker, they will escape attacks. This must be done before going out.

There is not a remedial agent in the world that will cure Fever and Ague and all other malarial, bilious and other fevers, aided by Radway's Pill, as quickly as Radway's Ready Relief. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Thanksgiving.

It is a fitting thing that the Government should set apart a day for national thanksgiving. It is an acknowledgment that as a people we depend upon Providence for our peace and prosperity. When we say this we do not undervalue the work of earnest, selfless, patriotic men, for Providence works through men as well as through nature. The blessings that we enjoy as a free people have come to us through the toil and sacrifice of noble men in the past, but they are none the less the gifts of God. If these gifts are to be handed down unstained to our children, we must do our duty in a grateful, hopeful spirit. With respect to our present thanksgiving, we do not need to confine ourselves to general expressions. There are many particular blessings to which our minds naturally revert at this time.

We are glad that the terrible war which broke out just about a year ago seems to be at an end; it has caused during the year feelings of pain and anxiety throughout the whole British Empire; it has called for immense efforts, and in so far as real patriotism has been shown there is cause for thankfulness. We trust that the days of bloodshed are over, and that a period of reconstruction will begin, which will show that the blood has not been shed in vain.

We are thankful that while there has been so much turmoil and unrest abroad, at home we have had peace and prosperity. Not only have our people given generously for those who suffered in the war, but they have sent money to distant lands to help the famine-stricken poor. This is a practical form of thanksgiving which is to be commended. Well may we be grateful that we have had, comparatively speaking, much prosperity, and that the poor have not been crying and complaining in our streets. There is no doubt room for improvement in our land. The lot of the workman may be made better and brighter; but on the whole we have much to be thankful for.

We ought to give thanks for a good harvest. There are, of course, variations and loss in particular districts; but in a large general way we may say that Canada is a favored land. Year by year our storehouses are filled and we look forward to the winter with confidence and hope.

The best way to show our thanks as a nation is to seek after purer, nobler forms of social life, so that men shall live together with mutual respect and helpfulness, and it will doubtless help us to do this if we look around in broad, cheerful spirit, and see how much there is in our life for which we can give sincere and hearty thanksgiving.

That Forged Issue of the Globe

The forged issue of the Toronto Globe, printed apparently in Montreal, and referred to by Hon. Clifford Sifton in his Brandon speech, is to hand. It is unquestionably intended to deceive the electors and cause them to believe that the Globe is opposed to the Government.

What language will describe conduct so despicable! The Toronto Globe is the leading Reform journal and supporter of the Government. Like the Premier, it has been a great benefit to Canada, both at home and abroad. At home it is respected, and its columns read by tens of thousands, while in England they judge our newspapers from the Globe as the Canadian standard. The fact that the Globe is so good a paper as it is gives Canadian journalism a good standing in England.

No doubt it was because of the high standing of the Globe that it was selected for this forgery. How opposite to the practices of the Globe itself—always fair to its opponents, and giving their speeches as accurately and fairly as those supporting the Government. What becomes of all the talk of the Conservative party about election frauds, when a forged issue of the leading Reform newspaper is issued and circulated during an election?

There ought to be some steps taken to stop the further publication of the spurious paper, and to punish those who published it.

The indignation of the Hon. Clifford Sifton was just, but he did not expect better from his pursuers, the Tupper, from the elder of whom he had just been wrenched by process of law a confession of slander and a complete apology.

Are slanders and forgeries to be the Opposition weapons of attack? They will injure those using them more than those against whom they are aimed.

[Brookville Recorder.]

Hugh John Macdonald, at Brandon, says the duty on agricultural implements must be swept away. Sir Charles Tupper and Mr. Foster say these duties must be raised. George Taylor (the Conservative whip) says the party has pandered long enough to the farmer vote. William McLean says Hugh John Macdonald does not speak for the Conservative party.

A Great Wrong Remedied.

A young man in this city informs us that he has voted twice at provincial general elections, and that, though he is 26 years of age, he has not yet been able to go to the polls in a Dominion contest. There are, it seems, many thousands like him. Under the Conservative franchise act, many of our leading young men in every walk of life were deprived of the right to vote, while thousands of persons who had left Canada for a foreign land were permitted to return and fill the votes of legitimate residents. Such an injustice is not possible under the Liberal law which governs the present contest. The right to vote will be granted to everyone who was deprived of it in 1896 and to all who have since reached the age of 21 and are otherwise entitled to register. The opportunity is placed within the reach of every one. Let no young man or newcomer to the city remain off the lists.

Don't stop the growing time.

Canada's Example To Be Followed.

Canada's example in putting in force a tariff giving 33 1/3 per cent preference to Great Britain over all other countries has been noted by other portions of the empire, and in the near future, without a doubt, the example of the Dominion will be followed.

In Cape Colony, for example, the South African League, in which such Britishers as Cecil Rhodes are moving spirits, has just resolved in favor of a preferential tariff being extended to British goods entering the colony.

They are starting out with a new commonwealth in Australia, and there, too, the idea of a preferential tariff in favor of the motherland has been looked upon with favor. Lord Tennyson, son of the late English poet laureate, who is the governor of South Australia, had something very interesting to say on the subject at Adelaide the other day. He said that the first great object that he would aim at if he were an Australian is of imperial concern, and, according to the ablest political economists, would largely advance, not only the commerce of the new commonwealth, but the welfare of the working man as well. He referred, he said, to the opening wide the gates of commerce between Great Britain and Australia by means of preferential tariffs. This sentiment was loudly cheered.

Lord Tennyson continued: "Canada takes £1 5s 7d per head of commodities from Great Britain, and has put a preferential tariff in favor of Great Britain of 25 per cent on her commodities. On July 1 Canada found it to be so profitable that she raised the preferential tariff to 33 per cent. Now, you in Australia take 45 per head of commodities from Great Britain, and I thoroughly agree with your political economists that the benefit to you would be unbounded if you imitated the example of Canada."

Then we have Mr. Gilbert Parker, M.P., the distinguished writer, dedicating his new book, "The Lane That Had No Turning," to the Canadian Premier, and concluding in these striking sentiments:

"To you, sir, I come with this book, which contains the first things I ever wrote out of the life of the province so dear to you, and the last things, also, that I shall ever write about it. I beg you to receive it as the loving recreation of one who sympathizes with the people of whom you come, and honors their virtues, and who has no fear for the unity, and no doubt as to the splendid future, of the nation whose fibre is got of two great civilizing races of Europe. Lastly, you will know with what admiration and regard I place your name on the fore page of my book, and greet in you the statesman, the litterateur and the personal friend."

Canada is finding not only that her people are much benefited by the increased profitable trade that has come from the adoption of a preference in favor of the motherland, but she is getting more good advertising than has ever been extended to any part of the empire. It is all tending to keep the good times set agoing in 1896 in continued motion.

Items for Thanksgiving.

The trade of Canada during the past four years exceeded the trade of the previous four years by $71,532,804.

Eight piano firms having their head offices in Toronto, employed 712 men in 1895, and they employ in 1900, 1,201.

Canada's trade for the months of July and August, 1900, is $29,000,000 greater than it was in the same months in 1896.

London's industries show a 44 per cent increase over 1896.

Six of the iron manufacturers of Toronto show a total of 1,560 hands employed in 1900. The same firms employed 970 hands in 1896, an increase of 590, or over 100 a year, to put it that way.

The trade of Canada in the past four years exceeded that of the previous four years by the enormous sum of $312,084,354.

The public deposits in the chartered banks of Canada have increased at the rate of $2,500,000 per month during the past three years, that is, under Liberal administration.

Increase of trade under four years of Liberal rule, $142,600,492. Increase of trade during eighteen years of Conservative rule, $65,619,906.

Canada's total trade in 1895-96 (Conservative rule), $239,025,360. Canada's total trade, in 1899-1900 (Liberal rule), $381,625,855.

"Rule or Ruin"—No!

Antagonistic racial appeals in Ontario and Quebec, with free farm implements in the west and a higher duty on them in the east, looks suspiciously like a policy of rule or ruin. Fortunately they will accomplish neither.

The Conduct of Elections.

The elections are now upon us, the candidates are chosen, and each side has its forces drawn up in battle array. The country will give its decision on the 7th of November. The contest now is not to Caesar, but to the people, and the decision of the people is final. It is important then for the reputation of both parties and for the credit of the country that the campaign should be conducted with moderation and decency. It is possible to have strength of argument without violence of language. Those who indulge in file slander and fierce vituperation only weaken their cause, and if possible subtle insinuations are worse than violence. The campaign in Britain has just closed, and we are told that it has been marred by sayings and deeds of which sober men are ashamed. The British Parliament is the mother of Parliaments, and England is pre-eminently the home of constitutional government; therefore, any undue violence and fierceness of party strife there is specially to be regretted. The fact that the question of war was so much mixed up with the election has no doubt something to do with the bitterness of controversy and the disorderly, disgraceful scenes. War is at best a hateful necessity, and its influence upon the nation that wages it is not altogether beneficial. No doubt in a state of war there is much unselfish patriotism and many deeds of true heroism, but it is in some respects a return to barbarism. We trust that in the old land there will soon be a return to calmer thoughts and more sober ways.

Our neighbors to the south are busy with an election which will reach its decision about the same time as our own, but we are too much occupied with our own affairs to take more than an ordinary interest in theirs. Too often has the presidential election been marked by brutal coarseness, the candidates have been slandered by partisans, and made out to be creatures not fit to live. That kind of thing is not creditable to a nation that claims to be a leader in civilization, and to have some pretension to being a Christian nation.

However, we shall have plenty to do to look at home and see to our own behavior. Neither party can gain anything by unfair means. The use of such means must recoil with evil effect upon those who make use of them. The campaign is to be short and sharp. That in itself is a good thing. All we ask is a fair field and an honest battle. We have sufficient confidence in the goodness of our cause to think that it can win on its own merits. Let every Liberal use all legitimate means and make all fair efforts, and the 7th of November will be a day of victory of which we may all be proud.

THANKSGIVING

Hon. David Mills Indicates a Few Causes for Thanksgiving.

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—A reporter of the Toronto Star waited on Hon. David Mills, and asked him, in view of Thanksgiving day, if there were any causes for political thanksgiving. He replied as follows:

Canada has to be thankful for the very great improvement that has taken place in her material prosperity during the past four years. 1. She ought to be thankful that at the present time she has a government that is prepared to adopt a policy which will enable the public feeling to find a full and fair expression by the general elections, in parliament. In 1892 the country was gerrymandered. An attempt was made to give the Reform party, and to place a majority of the constituencies in the hands of their political opponents, whether there were a majority or a minority, and the bonds that were then forged will bind the electors, and in the contest which will now take place the Reform party are placed at a serious disadvantage. 2. The country ought to be thankful that the government in two successive sessions under a vigorous effort to emancipate the electorate from those shackles, though, owing to the fierce partisanship of the senate, they were unable to succeed. 3. The country ought to be thankful that these failures have not discouraged those into whose hands the government, notwithstanding these disadvantages, has been placed. They will continue to struggle for emancipation in order that the electorate may be free, and the expression of public opinion may be fair.

4. The Dominion ought to be thankful that power at the present time is in the hands of men who have the courage of their convictions, who have earnestly striven to do their duty, and now the country is so thankful that the opportunities afforded to people to do their duty, and to exhibit a patriotic public spirit which will triumphantly sustain those who have so far served in vain to accomplish the public wishes, and to put an end to the injustice that was done by the gerrymander act.

5. The government has manfully done its duty. For this we ought to be thankful, and let the electorate of Canada now come forward and in a way that will admit of no misunderstanding, discharge its duty with equal zeal.

DAVID MILLS.

Conservative Attitude Toward Labor.

[Huron Times.]
The Spectator, knowing that the appointment of Mr. Williams as special officer to enforce the alien labor law is in the interest of the Canadian workingman, and fearing that the Government's action may receive favor at the hands of the industrial classes, has attacked the appointment for the purpose of misleading the workingmen. These tactics on the part of the Spectator are perfectly in line with the systematic attacks of the Tory Opposition on the various movements by the present Government to advance the cause of labor. Three years ago the Government adopted the anti-sweating regulations in the manufacture of mail bags and mittens clothing. Thereupon Mr. Rogers, Mr. H. H. George, Mr. Foster, Mr. Taylor, M. P., the Tory whip, and others on the floor of the House attacked the Government for their action, hoping thereby to prevent the Government pursuing its policy of standing by the cause of labor. Their tactics, however, failed to drive the Government from its fixed course. Later on the Government introduced legislation to establish a department of labor, to organize a labor gazette, and to promote the settlement of trade differences by conciliation boards. Again Tory opposition broke out in violent denunciations in Parliament. Mr. Foster denounced the proposition for the establishment of the gazette, lashing himself into a fury of rage against the proposition. Mr. Beattie, M. P. for London, objected to the conciliation act. Sir Charles Tupper raved over an hour against the whole of these propositions, and the Tory Opposition by their obstinate tactics delayed for a long time the passage in the House of the Government's fair wages policy.

When the Government submitted a resolution authorizing the House to resolve that the Government should contain a provision requiring contractors to pay to workmen the full current rate of wages for work performed on Government works, the Tory Opposition seemed to know no bounds. Hour after hour they denounced the proposition. Again, Mr. Foster, Sir Charles Tupper, M. P., Mr. Taylor, and the whole rank and file of the Opposition rallied against the doctrine, and for the whole of one day up to two o'clock they were moving the Opposition protested against the Government's fair wages policy for workingmen, and when at an adjourned sitting of the House the Government's fair wages policy was under consideration, Mr. Taylor declared that the Opposition would obstruct the passage of the measure if it involved the keeping of the House in session until midnight the next night. When the Opposition saw that their threats of obstruction failed to drive the Government from its determined position to stand by the cause of labor, they then began to plead with the Government not to pass the resolution, that it was too late in the session, that the measure was too important, and it would be better to let it stand over for another year. To all these appeals the Government turned a deaf ear, for it had already begun to put the policy in practice by inserting in all Government contracts since the resolution had been brought before Parliament, conditions requiring public works to be performed by residents of Canada, requiring the contractors to pay to the workmen the full current rate of wages for work performed on a schedule to be fixed by the Government's fair wages officer, and providing that the contractor cannot draw his pay from the Government until he has provided that the workmen their wages in full and at the stipulated rate as fixed by the Government officer.

The True Cause of Many Ills

Is Constipation, an Irregularity
Which is Corrected and Permanently Cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Ask any reputable physician what is the cause of the most bodily derangements and the greatest sufferings and he will undoubtedly tell you that it is constipation, or, in other words, irregularity of the bowels. He will also add that this need not be the case if people would pay proper attention to this most important function.

Through ignorance, neglect, or a sense of false modesty, people allow the bowels to get into a state of chronic constipation, and there follow kidney disorders, torpid liver, indigestion, and a complete upsetting of the digestive, filtering and excretory systems.

Appendicitis, inflammation of the bowels, Bright's disease, and all the dreadfully painful and fatal complications of these diseases are usually set up as a direct result of neglecting to keep the bowels healthy and regular. Many people imagine that they can prescribe for constipation, and so dose themselves with salts and other strong, harmful, and weakening drugs, which effect an action of the bowels, but if taken repeatedly, weaken and paralyze the system so that it is rendered unable to act for itself, and will not respond to the influence of curative medicines.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act naturally and pleasantly on the bowels and through their toning and invigorating effects thoroughly and permanently cure constipation.

No one who realizes the great importance of keeping the bowels perfectly healthy and regular can afford to lose sight of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as the greatest regulators of the filtering and excretory systems—the liver, kidneys and bowels.

As a family medicine to prevent and cure constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, inactive liver and kidneys and the very many ills arising from these derangements Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills easily stand first, having by far the largest sale of any preparation in America. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Disembodied Body of a Murdered Man Found in a Pond—Father Held on a Charge of Killing His Babe.

Vanwert, Ohio, Oct. 17.—Miss Alice Hammel died last night of injuries caused by vitriol thrown in her face on Sept. 16 by Mrs. John Van Lew, wife of a cashier in a local bank. Mrs. Van Lew is now under bond for her appearance. Jealousy is the motive alleged.

DISMEMBERED BODY IN A BAG.

Lynn, Mass., Oct. 17.—The trunk of a man's body, with head and legs severed, was found floating in the Atlantic Ocean off the coast of the Cape Cod. When Medical Examiner Pinkham opened the burlap sack evidences of a murder were at once apparent. There were two bullet holes in the breast, which apparently had caused death. From the lacerated condition of the trunk it is believed that a butcher's cleaver or an axe was used in the work. A broken watch-guard and the absence of anything of value in the pockets of the clothing are believed to point to robbery. The body was apparently that of a man of about 160 pounds weight, covered with a dark jacket and trousers. The head had been cut off at the shoulders, and was missing. The legs were gone from the knees, and the arms also had been cut off.

DID HE KILL HIS BABY?

New York, Oct. 17.—Harry Howard Stewart, 24 years old, of Cleveland, O., was arrested here today on a charge of murder. Stewart left his wife and family in Cleveland two weeks ago, and came to New York, supposedly bringing with him his three-month-old girl baby. Soon after a dispatch was received here asking the police to locate him, as he had stolen his baby. Last night the detective bureau here received the following dispatch:
"Arrest on charge of murder, Harry Howard Stewart. The body of a child has been found. Do not delay. He may be advised and skip. (Signed) George C. Corner, chief of police."

At police headquarters Stewart refused to make any statements. The body of a three-month-old baby, with its throat cut from ear to ear, was taken from the lake Tuesday. The police allege that it is that of the Stewart child. A week ago Monday night Stewart arose between 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning, took the child from beside its sleeping mother, and left the house.

She surrendered to the police.

Pargson, of the late Edward Ferguson, of Yarmouth, are sisters of the deceased.

BELMONT.

Belmont, Oct. 17.—Mr. Duncan Walker, died at the home of Mrs. Walker, sister of the late John Walker, on Tuesday, Oct. 16, aged 60 years. Mr. Walker was a native of Yarmouth township, and was in his early days a farmer. Twelve years ago he moved to the Forest City, and became a business. Having become afflicted with cancer of the liver, he was removed four weeks ago to the place where he died. He was unmarried, and was widely known and highly respected. Mrs. Neal McKillop, of Wilmot; Mrs. McColl, Currie, of Yarmouth; Mrs. McColl, Currie, of the late James McColl, Yarmouth, and Mrs. Ferguson, sister of the late Edward Ferguson, of Yarmouth, are sisters of the deceased.

BRYAN'S CHANCES

New York Democrats Think They Also Good—W. J. Placed With His Reception in the City.

New York, Oct. 17.—Col. Wm. J. Bryan and his party left the Grand Central station this morning for a speech-making tour through the state. Before the train pulled out Mr. Bryan said his reception here had been most satisfactory in every detail.

"The meeting carried with it," said Mr. Bryan, "its own story. It was the largest demonstration I have ever witnessed on any occasion. The enthusiasm appeared to be sincere and at all the meetings of last night my auditors appeared to be in rapport. I am perfectly satisfied."

There was much comment this morning in Democratic circles over the effect of last night's demonstration. It was the universal opinion among Democrats that it augured the success of the party.

Amusements.

"PRISONER OF ZENDA."

This great play has proven to be the tried success of two continents. The book—Anthony Hope's most interesting story—has been read in almost every home. The greatest actors of the present day have won additional laurels in it, and Mr. Daniel Frohman, in selling the sole rights to Messrs. Ernest and Fred Shubert, for presenting it in Canada and the Eastern States, parted with his most successful play. The Messrs. Shubert have spent thousands of dollars in scenery, costumes, properties, etc., and carry their own special car to accommodate the necessities of an elaborate production. The company is one of unusual merit, and we feel safe in guaranteeing that spontaneity, highly enjoyable performance today, matinee and night.

"HELLO, BILL!"

Fun fast and furious will serve to amuse the patrons at the London Opera House on Friday and Saturday matinee, where there will be introduced to theater-goers the new farcical comedy, "Hello, Bill!" This play has met with success in most of the popular cities of the country. Had it happened to be under the control of the great theatrical syndicate, we would have probably heard of it enjoying a run of several hundred nights. As it is, it is a private enterprise conducted outside the pale of the trust, it had to be content with a mere paltry 50 performances at the Bijou Theater, New York. It contains no specialties, no horseshoe, no twaddle, but is a sparkling, bright comedy, with a wealth of complications, witty remarks, and containing that spontaneous capable of producing infectious laughter.

EFFECTS OF TUESDAY'S GALE.

Rochester, N. Y., Oct. 17.—The gale that swept across the country yesterday and big tugs report thrilling experiences while trying to make the harbor of Charlotte yesterday. The heaviest storm in many years raged all day off the harbor, and the power tug, the Albatross, eight miles off shore, was seen to be making frantic efforts to keep above water. When she reached the harbor she was found to be in a badly damaged condition, as was also the Thruway, the Mary P. Hall, the Bolivar and the Proctor, which came in later.

KILLED A BURGULAR.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 17.—Two masked burglars, into the postoffice and general store, in the town of Shikshinny, this county, early this morning. They covered the watchman, Henry Hughes, with their revolvers, and started manacled. While they were at work Hughes loosened the cords that bound him, and with his rifle fired eight shots. One of the burglars was killed by the first shot, and his companion escaped in a wounded condition.

SITUATION AT GALVESTON.

New York, Oct. 17.—In response to an invitation about a dozen of the members of the Galveston relief committee left for the city this afternoon and received Hon. Joseph D. Sayers, governor of Texas. In an address Mr. Sayers said: "Up to last Wednesday I have received a little more than $700,000, which has passed through my hands. Of this amount I have sent to Galveston $500,000, besides purchasing what supplies I could get. I think that in the course of three or four months the normal condition of the city will be practically restored."

TOO HUMOROUS

Baptist Clergyman Criticizes Denominational Paper.

Woodstock, Ont., Oct. 17.—At yesterday morning's session at the Baptist convention of Ontario and Quebec, the home and foreign missions reports were received. The report showed that $56,129.50 had been received up to today, since the last convention.

Rev. W. A. Norton, of Owen Sound, caused somewhat of a ruffie by criticizing some of the articles that had appeared in the Canadian Baptist, being too humorous. It took the minds of the people, he said, away from the seriousness of the matters under discussion.

Rev. J. G. Shearer, field secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, in an address to the convention, called on the press to aid the pulpit on an effort to have the Sabbath day properly observed in Canada.

The home mission board reported that there were 104 regular missionaries and 53 students in active work for the Home Mission Society. At last night's session, Rev. Dr. Newman, of McMassey, read a valuable paper on the history of the Baptist denomination, and Rev. J. P. McDermid, of Brandon college, told of the progress of the work in the new west.

DROGGED 800 FEET

Sad Fate of a Barrie Boy at Detroit.

Detroit, Oct. 17.—It is said that Harry Clayton, aged 15 years, of Barrie, Ont., was trying to steal a ride on a Michigan Central freight train at the Milwaukee junction, early yesterday morning when he fell between the cars. He was dragged nearly 800 feet before his mangled and almost lifeless body was discovered and taken to a hospital. The unfortunate boy was brought to a stop by the train and was severely injured. He was taken to the Harper Hospital, although conscious on the way there.

Clayton's legs were crushed badly by the wheels, and one of his arms. The left arm was also fractured, while his head was severely lacerated and bruised, and one shoulder dislocated.

DAYS OF HORROR

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 17.—Baroness Von Ketteler, accompanied by her daughter, Henry Ledyard, and his bride, who went to Japan to meet the new bride of the German minister, arrived on the Empress of Japan last night. The baroness was confined to her room and was unable to leave during the voyage from the Orient. Her nerves were all but shattered as a result of the trying experience she has undergone. She was too weak to allow of her granting an interview, but Henry Ledyard, her brother, was very willing. He said there was nothing more to be said than that which had already been published.

When M. Cordes brought the sad news of the murder of the late Baron Ketteler the widow was distraught. It was with difficulty that she was induced to accompany the refugees from the German legation at the beginning of the siege to the British legation. She was beleaguered there by the other women of the legations during the siege.

It had been definitely proved, Mr. Ledyard learned, that the murder of Baron Von Ketteler had been deliberately planned by the Chinese Government, and other ministers would also have been murdered had they accepted the invitation to attend the meeting of the Tsung Li Yamen on the 14th of June 20th, which the baron alone went to attend. A boxer named Nig Hoi, shot, the minister as he sat in his chair being carried to the Tsung Li Yamen. This man has been captured by the Japanese and letters found on his person implicate Prince Chwang, then a member of the board of war. The baroness is fast becoming a household name under the careful attention of her brother and sister-in-law. They are bound direct to Detroit.

MR. HOUSE, OF BERLIN.

Cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Berlin, Oct. 15.—Everyone in Berlin knows Andrew House. He is a respected and prosperous resident, who numbers his friends by hundreds. For over a year past Mr. House was tormented by lumbago, which he had increased in severity in spite of doctors and their medicines.

He was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. He did so. The night he less pain. Daily the pains abated and in less than two weeks Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured him thoroughly. There is only one sure and unfailing cure for lumbago. That cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Experience has proved this thousands of times.

NEW ELECTRIC RAILWAY SCHEME

Proposed Niagara Shore Trolley System.

Buffalo, Oct. 17.—A company was incorporated at Dover, Del. yesterday, which plans a very elaborate trolley system to connect Buffalo with points along the Canadian shore of Lake Erie as far up as Crystal Beach. The plan also includes a connection with the race track inland from Fort Erie, and with points along the Niagara river on the Canadian side as far as Niagara Falls. Such a system, it is believed, can be made profitable through the patronage of the beach and the attendance at the Fort Erie races.

The International Rapid Transit company, as it is to be called, is empowered by its charter to construct, maintain and operate railways, bridges, etc. The capital stock is $1,100,000. The International Ferry Company is behind the scheme, but its officers are not yet ready to disclose the names of the capitalists, although they are said to be Buffalo men.

Work upon the plans will commence as soon as possible, it is said, and orders for the rolling stock and other equipment will be given at once. An important part of the new system is to consist of the maintenance of car ferries, which will be run from the Ferry street to continue the service from one side of the river to the other without change of cars. This feature of the system will be especially appreciated; it will insure comfortable and rapid transit from the city to the points on the company's lines, and will introduce a feature of transportation hitherto unknown to Buffalo. The service promised has been much needed by the city, and the success of the project, which is one of considerable dimensions, is said to be assured from the start.

MRS. LI'S DIAMONDS

She Has the Most Valuable Jewels of Any Woman in the Celestial Kingdom.

The diamonds of Li Hung Chang's wife are accounted to be the finest in the empire. She is a great leader of fashions, too, and is said to have achieved this reputation by inventing 50 different ways in which her glossy black hair could be dressed, although it is probably true that the average American they would all look alike. Her feet are disfigured, as are those of all Chinese women of rank, and she is said to have carried three hours in the fresh air every day in order to make a pretense at the exercise of European women. Oil of orange and acacia blooms are said to be the component parts of the bath which she takes twice daily, and out of the 50 coiffures her favorite is a style called "The Faithful Dragoness," a beast supposed to be the guardian of all good women. The day is wasted in the shape of what might be the ardent Eastern imagination appear to be a dragon, and in what is intended to be a mouth a white lotus flower is placed.

TEDDY TALKS TOO MUCH.

Marion, Ohio, Oct. 17.—A New York socialist, who joined Gov. Roosevelt's touring party at Columbus, is treating the governor's throat, and has ordered him to make no long speeches. The governor's throat was said to be in a bad way, and the physician believes that with care it will hold out through the campaign.

THE CITY PRINTING.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:
In reply to the complaint and charge made by the Typographical Union to the city council, that we are violating our contract by not paying the union scale, we beg to say that the statement is absolutely false. FATTENING FOWL.

When fattening fowl do not need to give frame-growing foods at all, what is wanted is to increase the amount of flesh and fat, writes W. N. Freeman in Farmer's Gazette. This can be brought about by giving a surfeit, and by pressing exercise, which tends to the distribution of heat and prevents the accumulation of fresh bodily substance. Fatty, starch and sugary foods are recommended for fattening purposes. Many people of experience recommend oatmeal to be given with milk for fattening purposes, and that is excellent. Oatmeal contains if anything more fat-forming matter than Indian meal, and it is preferred to the color of the fat. I ought to point out that oatmeal, too, not only contains a considerable higher percentage of starch or heat-giving matter, and thus is more easy of digestion than is Indian meal.

CHOLERA MORBUS, CRAMPS and kindred complaints annually make their appearance at the same time as the hot weather, green fruits, cucumbers, melons, etc., and many persons are debilitated from eating these tempting fruits, but they need not abstain if they have Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and take a few drops in water. It cures the cramps and cholera in a remarkable manner, and is sure to check every disturbance of the bowels.

Our Needs the Same.

(George E. Thompson at New York Herald.)

One Lord, one faith, one baptism. In our religious opinions we may differ, but in our religious feelings we are all alike.

Hunger is pretty nearly the same thing in everybody, and so is our gratitude when it is satisfied. Every man has a personal preference as to the kind of food he desires.

In like manner, worship is almost an equal necessity with all of us, and the peace of mind which is the result of worship is almost equally the characteristic of each one; but our opinions as to the nature of the God to whom we kneel may differ very materially. In our souls we are close together, but in our minds we are very far apart.

One kind of theology appeals to me, but to you perhaps it is repugnant. Your theology in turn is entirely satisfactory to you, while to me it is by no means acceptable. Our theology is not a mere result of reasoning, but it is of temperament. The man with a somber nature will inevitably gravitate toward the terrors of the Lord and unconsciously avoid the hopeful passages of Scripture, while the man who was born an optimist will ignore these so-called terrors and cling to the forgiveness of the Father as an ivy clings to the oak.

It is impossible to make those two men think alike, and if it were possible it would be cruel to do so. A theological standard which demands that you and I shall hold the same convictions and which denounces those who honestly differ from them is a theological crime. The influences which prevailed before our birth and which decided the point of view from which we should look at the universe have put it beyond our power to see what others see who occupy a different point of view. Charity, therefore, toward conflicting opinions is the first duty of a church whose first mission is to bless and bless and bless.

But the human heart is the same everywhere. In the realm of feeling, of aspiration, we are members of the same family. You and I may never again have a desire to see the multitude of each other so far as our mental conclusions are concerned, but we can clasp hands when we speak of poverty, of self-sacrifice and of love. In our aspirations you may turn to the North Pole, while I travel toward the South Pole, but in our feelings we both stand side by side on the equator and say the Lord's Prayer in unison.

On looking over an old hymn book I was greatly impressed by a startling fact. All the representative hymns sung by all the congregations of Christendom were there. To my surprise I found that they were not written by

MR. T. BEATTIE

Again Nominated by the Conservatives of London

To Oppose Mr. C. S. Hyman in the Coming Contest.

Well Attended Convention in the London Opera House—Speeches by the Candidate and Other Prominent Conservatives.

At a mass meeting of London Conservatives, held last night in the London Opera House, the late member, Major Beattie, was chosen to contest
the riding against Mr. C. S. Hyman, the Liberal candidate. When the meeting was called to order at 8:30 by Chairman Adam Beck, the ground floor of the opera house was about three-quarters full. As the music program ended the place filled, till the ground floor and one gallery were comfortably filled.
The platform was occupied by a number of prominent members of the party, and above their heads hung a banner—same banner which did duty in the Princess Rink meeting four years ago—bearing the inscription
"Vote for Beattie and eight hours a day labor. Our candidate, a loyal soldier and citizen, and a rebel."

Chairman Adam Beck, in opening the meeting, referred to some of the speakers at the recent Liberal convention, contrasting the statement of one speaker that they must win at any price with another who pleaded for an honest election. Mr. Beck said that there were at present in the city the same men who had worked the machine for the Liberals at previous elections, and the Liberal leaders were responsible for their presence. Speaking of Col. Leys, Mr. Beck said that at the Waterloo election trial one of the witnesses, who admitted corrupt practices on behalf of the Liberal candidate, also admitted that he was sent there, and his expenses paid by Col.
Leys, M.P.P. Mr. Beck took exception to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's denial of connection with the offering of a son-atorship to Mr. H. H. Cook on payment of $10,000, saying that he believed Sir Wilfrid was responsible for it, as he was also responsible for the opposition to the sending of the Liberal contingents. The speaker said the Liberals were claiming credit for the good times. The Conservatives did not deny there were good times, but they believed in giving the credit where it was due, to Sir John Macdonald's financial policy. Mr. Beck urged his hearers to stand united, and they would win the contest.

Richard Bayly, Q. C., then rose and proposed the nomination of Mr. Thos.
Beattie as Conservative candidate in the coming contest. At the mention of Mr. Beattie's name the audience cheered heartily. Mr. Bayly referred to Mr. Beattie's record as a calm, firm and determined representative. The platform on which he stood, said Mr.
Bayly, was first, Canada as an Indivisible and second, protection for Canadian industries, as inaugurated by the Conservative party in 1878. Contrasted with this was the Reform policy, which consisted in getting office by hook or crook and retaining it by any means. Mr. Bayly then read over Mr. H. H. Cook's charges against the government, and said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had refused to deal with them in his Massey Hall speech, in Toronto,
on Tuesday night.

Mr. John Forrestal, in seconding the nomination, said that this was a Conservative city and that a Liberal mem-

her had never been fairly returned.
Mr. Forrestal recalled the fact that in 1893 to 1898, when panic reigned in the United States, Canada was unaffected because the night men were in the right places, and those men were going back into the right place, he said.

Mr. Beck then called for other nominations, but none were forthcoming, and by a standing vote Mr. Beattie was declared the unanimous choice of the meeting. This was followed by more cheers and the singing of "He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Mr. Beattie on rising said that he had tried to represent his constituent to the best of his ability. Referring to remarks made at the Liberal convention, Mr. Beattie charged Mr.
Hume Cronyn with using personalities directed against him, by saying that it did not lie in his (Mr. Beattie's) mouth to criticize Sir Wilfrid Laurier.
Mr. Beattie considered that he had a perfect right to criticize Sir Wilfrid when he considered it needful. Mr.
Beattie also charged Mr. T. H. Purdon, Q. C., in making a false statement to the effect that Mr. Beattie had stolen the election, and clinched it by perjury. Mr. Beattie said he had won his election fairly, and would win the coming contest in the same manner. He had fought the protest against him in the courts, and out of about 249 charges, not one had been proved against him.
Mr. Beattie considered Mr. Purdon's statement an insult to the two high court judges who had given him (the speaker) a certificate of a clean election. Mr. Beattie made the statement that over $1,000 cost were paid by the Liberals to escape the disclosures,
which, he said, the protest against Col.
Leys would have brought forth.

Mr. Beattie repeated the statement of a Liberal speaker that he had said the British Empire was declining. He did state in the house that certain industries had declined, but he did not say the empire had done so. His contention was that, while Great Britain was prosperous, it would be more so if these industries were kept up. Mr.
Beattie then attacked Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the score of his loyalty, saying that Sir Wilfrid dreamed of a French republic on the banks of the St. Lawrence. Mr. Tarte also came in for a share of Mr. Beattie's disloyalty charges. He said that when Mr. Tarte went to Anticosti to visit M. Menier, the French chocolate king, he flew the tricolor, and not the Canadian flag, on his yacht. The sale of the Isle of An-ticosti, Mr. Beattie said, was a grave mistake, for after turning off the honest fishermen, who made it their home, Mr. Menier was now said to be furnishing it, and it might be made a serious menace to navigation.

Mr. Beattie said that he had not sought the present nomination, and that when he came out four years ago he was reluctantly. After the reception accorded him last night, he said, he could not refuse, and he would fight
and carry the seat honestly.

Mr. Beattie then turned his attention to Hon. Mr. Mulock's penny postage, and said there would be a deficit of $500,000 next year because of its adoption. The only persons benefited by it were a few bankers and moneyed men.
Mr. Beattie then dealt with Hon. Mr.
Mulock's resolution in the House of Commons respecting the payment of fair wages on government contracts.
Mr. Beattie declared that his own eight-hour bill had forced the postmaster-general to introduce this resolution. To his own bill Mr. Beattie also gave the credit for the establishment of the labor bureau and the Labor Gazette. He instanced Hewitt
Bostock, M.P., and R. D. Craig, M.P., as among those who had at first opposed his eight-hour bill, but had later been convinced of its justice. Mr.
Beattie then told the following story,
which has been made to do duty so often in his remarks on his bill: A mechanic's wife, going down street one day, and having her child with her, happened to pass a building on which her husband was working. Pointing him out on the scaffolding she said to the child: "Do you know who that is?"

"No, mother," said the child; "but I think it is the man who takes dinner with us on Sundays."

Mr. Beattie, in conclusion, said that there were two reasons for which he wished to go to Ottawa—first, to turn out the corrupt and disloyal government in power there, and second, to see enacted the law that eight hours shall be a legal day's work for a full day's pay.

Mr. Edmund Meredith, Q.C., followed in a vigorous address, in the course of which he said the Conservatives had an unscrupulous enemy to fight.
Money would be spent to debauch the
