The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▼ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Bibliothèque nationale du Canada

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les axemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le ces: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▼ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CANADIAN ORDER OF FORESTERS

PREAMBLE

We, the Right Worthy High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters of the Dominion of Canada, in order to form a more perfect union and to provide for and secure to the Order a more fraternal feeling and the blessings and privileges of Forestry, do adopt the following Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

TITLE AND JURISDICTION.

SEC. 1.—This High Court shall be known and styled the "Right Worthy High Court of the Canadian Order of Foresters," and shall have jurisdiction in the several Provinces forming the Dominion of Canada, and it is the highest tribunal of the Order. It possesses the power of organizing subordinate Courts, issuing DISPENSATIONS and Charters for the same, of hearing appeals and redressing all grievances arising in subordinate Courts, and regulating the means for its own support, and of doing all other legitimate acts necessary to promote the interests and welfare of the Order.

ARTICLE II.

OFFICERS.

Sec. 1.—The officers of the Right Worthy High Court shall be elected by ballot as hereinafter pro vided, and shall hold office for one year or until their successors shall have been duly elected and installed.

Sec. 2.—The R. W. H. Chief Ranger, or presiding officer, at the Annual Meeting of R. W. High Court, shall appoint three Scrutineers, whose duty it shall be to colthe ballots of R. W. H. Court Officers, and shall solemnly pledge themselves to make a true and correct statement of the result of the ballot.

Sec. 3.—The election of officers of the R. W. H. Court shall take place at the Annual Meeting of the R. W. H. Court immediately after the reading of the minutes at the first session, second day, and shall be installed in due form.

Sec. 4.—The elective officers of the R. W. H. Court shall be a and two Physicians, who shall constitute the Medical Board, and an Auditor.

The following officers shall be appointed by the R. W. H. C. Ranger, by and with consent of the R. W. High Court and shall hold office for one year or until their successors shall have been appointed or installed.

R. W. High Marshall, R. W. High Conductor, R. W. High Messenger, a Medical Referee and an Auditor. Also District Deputy H. C. Rangers for every district, on the recommendation of a majority of the Courts within the district; but should the Courts fail to make any recommendations, then the appointment shall be at the discretion of the R. W. H. C. Ranger.

ARTICLE III.

SEC. 1.—No one shall be eligible for any elective High Court office, unless he shall have been a Chief Ranger, or Past Chief Ranger in some subordinate Court under this jurisdiction

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 1.—The R. W. H. Court shall consist of all elective and appointed officers thereof and a majority of the Courts duly represented.

Sec. 2.—Should any Subordinate Court fail to send a representative to any session of the R. W. High Court, such Court may be represented by "proxy." Provided the same be duly signed by the W. C. R. and Recording Secretary, and attested by the seal of the Court; but no Brother shall represent more than two Courts.

ARTICLE V.

Sec. 1.—All elective officers shall be decided by ballot and shall require a majority of the votes cast.

SEC. 2.—Should any vacancies occur in any office of the R. W. H. Court, the R. W. H. C. Ranger shall appoint some duly qualified Brother to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

ARTICLE VI.

OF VOTES.

Sec. 1.—Every Court shall be entitled to one vote where the number of members returned in their last return shall be twety-five or under, and one vote for each additional twenty-five members. Each elective

CONSTITUTION OF SUBORDINATE COURTS.

ARTICLE 1.

SEC. 1.—A Court shall, at its institution, consist of at least fifteen members, holding a legal and unreclaimed Charter, granted or sanctioned by the R. W. H. C. of the Canadian Order of Foresters of Canada. It cannot voluntarily surrender its Charter or dissolve so long as five members in good standing object thereto. Should the membership of a Court be less than five they shall surrender their Charter and affiliate with the R. W. H. C. or the nearest Subordinate Court.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1.—A candidate for initiation shall have attained the age of eighteen years, and shall not have passed his forty-fifth birthday-anniversary, be of sound health, of good moral character, sober, and believe in the existence of a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the universe. Any person desiring to unite with this Order must apply to the nearest Court to which he resides, except in cities, towns or villages in which there is more than one Court, in which case he may apply to any Court in such city, town or village, provided that he shall have resided within the jurisdiction of such a Court for the term of six months previous to the date of his application. Provided further that any person may apply to the Court to which it would be most convenient for him, with the consent of the Court within whose jurisdiction he resides.

Sec 2.—The name of the person offered for membership, with his age, residence, and occupation, must be proposed in writing by a member at a regular meeting, upon the prescribed form, signed by the applicant, and entered upon the record, together with one dollar as part of the initiation fee (which shall be returned to the candidate if rejected), and forthwith his application shall be referred to a committee of three members for investigation, who shall report at the next succeeding regular meeting, when the candidate shall be balloted for with ball ballots, and if not more than two black balls appear against him he shall be elected, but if three or more appear, he shall be declared rejected. If elected, he shall then present himself before the Court Physician for examination (whose fee the candidate shall pay, which in no case shall exceed the sum of one dollar). It is obligatory upon the candidate that he must present himself for initiation within one month from the time the confirmation of his medical certificate has been received by the Court, provided that, if he should go beyond the month, he must then bring a certificate from the Court Physician, that he is in his usual good health. If three months elapse, he must make a new application.

Sec. 3.—All candidates for membership by deposit of card shall deposit their card with the proposition, or furnish satisfactory evidence that such card has been lost, also a certificate of good health from the Physician of the Court that he desires to join, which shall be referred to a committee of three, and in other respects disposed of as provided by Sec. 2 for other applicants.

Sec. 4.—If the C. R. has reason to believe that a mistake has been made in balloting for a candidate, he can at once order the ballot to be retaken; or if there is any evidence or mistake, or it is supposed a mistake has been made, any member can make a motion for the ballot to be retaken, and if carried, a second ballot must be taken to test the correctness of the first one. A favorable ballot can be reconsidered at any meeting prior to the admission of the candidate, provided a majority of the members voting agree.

SEC. 5.—When a candidate has been rejected, notice thereof shall be sent without delay to the R. W. H. S., stating name, age, occupation and residence; and he cannot be proposed again in any Court for the space of six months after such rejection. This section shall not apply to an applicant for admission by card or by re-instatement, who may be proposed at any time after rejection.

Sec. 6.—A proposition for membership may be withdrawn previous to the report of the committee to whom it has been .eferred; but it cannot be withdrawn after the committee has once reported thereon.

SEC. 7.—Any member of a Court having been regularly expelled or suspended indefinitely, except for suspensions for non-payment of dues and endowment, may be re-instated to his former condition by being duly proposed therefor at a regular meeting, and his case referred to a committee of three Brothers, who shall report at the next regular meeting, when the vote shall be taken by ball ballots, and if two-thirds of the members voting are in favor of the re-instatement, it shall be made.

SEC. 8.—No suspended or expelled member of one Court can be received in membership into another Court without the consent of the Court from which he was suspended or expelled.

Sec. 9.—Any candidate for initiation or affiliation may be balloted for and admitted to membership

R. may, however, notwithstanding such request, refuse for cause to grant such dispensation, and in that case, the application must lie over the usual time.

ARTICLE III.

OFFICERS.

SEC. 1.—The elective officers of a Court shall consist of a Chief Ranger, a Vice-Chief Ranger, a Chaplain, a Financial Secretary, a Recording Secretary, a Treasurer, Senior and Junior Woodwards, Senior and Junior Beadles, who shall serve a regular term each, and one or more Physicians, who shall be elected annually at the last regular meeting in October.

SEC. 2.—The duties of the various officers shall be as laid down in the charges of their office, and as specified in these Articles and by the by-laws of the Court.

SEC. 3.—No brother shall be eligible to the chair of C. R. unless he has served a regular term in some subordinate office.

SEC. 4.—All officers shall be clear of charge on the books previous to installation.

SEC. 5.—The nomination and election of officers shall take place at the last meeting in the term, and their installation at the first meeting in the succeeding term. In case only one candidate is nominated for an office, the C. R. shall declare him elected.

SEC. 6.—Any officer who shall, through neglect, absent himself for three successive meetings, his seat may be declared vacant by a two-thirds vote of the Court.

SEC. 7.—Vacancies in any elective office may be filled by the Court at any time after such vacancy has been declared, and the member who shall serve in such office for the residue of the term, shall be entitled to the full honors of the term, and shall be entitled to and receive a certificate signed by the C. R. and R. S., showing such service.

SEC. 8.—The C. R. or officer acting as such shall appoint all committees on candidates, except one on each committee who shall be appointed by the V. C. R.

ARTICLE IV.

FEES, DUES, BENEFITS AND PROPERTY.

SEC. 1.—The fee for initiation shall not be less than five dollars; for annual dues not less than four dollars; and not less than one dollar for admission by eard or High Court certificate.

SEC. 2.—The regular weekly benefits shall not be less than two dollars per week.

SEC 3.—Every member, qualified as required by the by-laws, shall, in case of being disabled by sickness or bodily accident from following his usual occupation, or otherwise earning a livelihood, be entitled to and receive the weekly benefits as provided for in Sec. 2 above; but it may be optional with a Court not to give more than fifteen dollars weekly benefits during any one period of sickness.

SEC. 4.—In case of the death of a member qualified as in the last section, there shall be allowed from the Court not less than fifteen dollars to defray the expenses of burial, to be paid by the C. R. on account of the funeral.

Sec.—The funds and property of a Court having been raised for the relief of sick and distressed members and other charitable uses in the Order, are trust funds for the contingent benefit of its members, and shall not be divided in any manner among the members individually nor between a Court and any other that may branch from it, without the assent of two-thirds of the members in good standing in the Court, which assent shall be ascertained and given by and upon a vote to be given at a regular meeting of the Court by "ayes" and "nays" upon a call of the roll of said members, and upon a written proposition for the same, which proposition shall be submitted and read in not less than two regular meetings next preceding that at which such vote shall be so taken, and such vote shall be so recorded, with the names of the members voting by the R. S. in the Court records; and should a Court approve, by a two-thirds vote, then the R. S. must forthwith transmit the same for confirmation to H. S. C.; and all funds and properties of the Court, not so disposed of, shall remain the property of the Court, for its legitimate purposes, so long as its charter is unreclaimed. Whenever a Brother ceases to be a member of the Court by reason of his death, expulsion suspension, or withdrawal, his right, title and interest in the property or funds of the Court, or any part thereof, therby becomes extinguished.

ARTICLE V.

TERMS AND RETURNS.

Sec. 1.—Regular semi-annual terms shall commence on the first day of May and November in each year.

SEC. 2.—It shall be the duty of the R. S. of the Court to prepare and transmit to the P. W. H. S., on a form for mished by the R. W. H. C., together with twenty-five the for each member in good standing, on or before the 10th day of May and November in each year, a regular report of the work of the term, includ-

C. R.'s and their P. O. address; the number of Brothers buried, the amount paid for expenses, the amount of receipts, the result of the election of officers and their residence. Should a Court fail to make its returns for one year, it shall thereby forfeit its Charter and become extinct, and it shall be the duty of the last installed officers to transmit or surrender to the R. W. H. S. (or such other Brother as may be appointed by the R. W. H. C. R. to receive them), the Charter, books, papers, and furniture and funds of the Court.

ARTICLE VI.

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES.

SEC. 1.—Any member who shall violate any of the principles of the Order, or offend against the constitution, the by-laws, or rules of the Order, or who may be charged with drunkenness, or any other act unbecoming a Forester, may be reprimanded, suspended, or may have his name submitted to the R. W. H. C. for expulsion, as the majority of the Court may by ballot determine.

ARTICLE VII.

TRIALS.

SEC. 1—Every member shall be entitled to a fair trial for any offence involving reprimand, suspension (except for non-payment of dues and endowment), or expulsion. No member shall be put on trial unless charges specifying the offence shall first have been submitted to the Court in writing, signed by a member of the order, a copy of which with the Court seal attached, shall be furnished the accused by the R. S.

either personally or by registered letter, so as to fully apprise him of the nature thereof and to enable him to prepare for his defence.

Sec. 2.—Such charges should be preferred to an Arbitration Committee of nine members, and in case such committee so chosen shall be challenged for cause, such challenge shall be tried by the Court. Such committee shall, without unnecessary delay, summon the parties and try the case. They shall keep full minutes of their proceedings and evidence in a book provided for that purpose and shall forthwith report to the Court their decision. Upon such report being received and adopted, notice thereof shall forthwith be given by the R. S. to the party accused (either personally or by registered letter), and if such party take no appeal therefrom in writing, in two weeks thereafter, it shall be final.

Sec. 3.—If an appeal be taken it shall be to the R. W. H. C R., through the R. S. of the Court, who shall transmit a copy of the charge or charges preferred, and the evidence taken and the decision thereon, with the Court seal attached.

SEC. 4.—If the charges are sustained, and no appeal be taken therefrom, or if the R. W. H. C. R. shall, on appeal, decide that the charges are sustained, then the Court shall proceed to affix a penalty for the offence; if a specific penalty be provided in the constitution, or the by-laws of the Court, the C. R. shall enforce it.

SEC. 5.—If the accused refuse or neglect to stand trial when summoned, the committee shall report him guilty of contempt of Court, which report shall be conclusive, and the punishment shall be "recommendation for expulsion," which shall take effect at the expira-

SEC. 6.—When a member shall be subject to the penalty of reprimand, he shall be summoned to attend some regular meeting to be fixed by the C. R. to be reprimanded from the C. R.'s chair. If he fail to appear at the time appointed, he shall then be suspended from all the benefits and privileges of membership until reinstated by complying with the demands of the Court.

SEC. 7.—Notice of the expulsion or supension of a member shall, after the expiration of twenty days from the date thereof, be given to the R. W. H. S.

ARTICLE VIII.

LY-LAWS.

SEC. 1.—A Court shall be competent to make, alter or amend such by-laws, rules and regulations from time to time as may be deemed expedient, if adopted by two-thirds of those present after having been read at two meetings immediately preceding action thereon, provided that they do not in any wise contravene this Constitution of the R. W. H. C.

SEC. 2.—The by-laws of a Court are in force from the time of their adoption, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, and a copy of such by-laws shall, before being distributed, be transmitted to the R. W. H. S., to be submitted for approval. When printed, an official copy shall be deposited with the R. W. H. S., duly authenticated by the seal of the Court and signature of the R. S.

ARTICLE IX.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS .- THE CHIEF RANGER.

Sec. 5.—It shall be the duty of the F. S. to keep just and true accounts between the Court and its members; to regularly supply the Physician, not later than the 10th of each month, with the names of members received into or suspended from the Court during the month; to keep the accounts of members for dues and endowment in proper books; to receive all Court moneys, and pay the same over forthwith to the Treasurer, taking his receipt for the same; to transmit to the R. W. H. T. on or before the 10th day of each month the endowment due from the Court, with a statement, on a form prepared by the R. W. H. C., of the number of members on last return, the number reinstated; the number of new members initiated; the number suspended, and the amount due on endowment, and perform such other duties in connection with the Court finances as may be required of him by the Charges, by this Constitution and the By-Laws of the Court. He shall receive for his services such salary as the Court may determine.

Sec. 6.—He shall give a bond with two good sureties, in a sum of not less than $200 for the faithful performances of his duties.

TREASURER.

Sec. 7.—It shall be the duty of the Court Treasurer to receive from the F. S. all Court funds paid into the Court during his term of office, giving his receipt for the same; to pay all orders having the Court seal attached, and duly attested by the C. R. and R. S. or by such officers as may act for them during their absence from any regular meeting; and at the close of each term, or oftener if required by the Court, to render a true account of all moneys received and paid by him on account of the Court, and also, whenever required by the Court, to deposit in such Bank as the Court may determine all moneys in his hands exceeding $50, which sum he may retain for the present use of the Court.

SEC. 8.—At the end of his term of office he shall deliver all moneys, papers, books, and other property of the Court in his possession, to his successor in office. He shall give a bond, with two good sureties, in the sum of not less than $200 for the faithful performance of his duties.

WOODWARDS.

SEC. 9.—It shall be the duty of the Woodwards to take charge of the regalia and other property of the Court, and to report at every regular meeting the condition of the sick members.

BEADLES.

SEC. 10.—The Senior Beadle shall attend the inner door, and see that no brother enters without permission of the C. R., unless in possession of the password. He shall not admit into the Court any but a true and lawful member of the Order, neither shall he admit any member who is intoxicated.

Sec. 11—The Junior Beadle shall have charge of the ante-room and remain at the outer door during the initiation of members, and on any other occasion when required.

COURT PHYSICIAN.

SEC. 12.—It shall be the duty of the Court Physician to examine all candidates for membership, filling out the blank form as prescribed by the R. W. H. C.

- 6. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except to call him to order, or for the purpose of explanation.
- 7. If a member, while speaking, be called to order, he shall take his seat until the question of order is determined, when, if permitted, he may proceed again.
- 8. Each member, when speaking, shall stand and respectfully address the Chair, confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid all personalties or indecorous language.
- 9. A motion carried in the affirmative or negative shall not be subject to reconsideration, unless such action shall take place at the same or the next regular meeting. Every member present, entitled to vote, must exercise that right, unless excused by the C. R.
- 10. If two or more members rise to speak at the same time the C. R. shall decide which is entitled to the floor.
- 11. A question shall not be subject to debate until it has been seconded and stated from the Chair, and it shall be reduced to writing at the request of the C. R. or C. S.
- 12. Before putting the question the presiding officer shall ask, "Is this Court ready for the question?" If no member rises to speak, he shall rise and put it;

- 13. When the presiding officer is addressing the Court or putting a question, silence shall be observed.
- 14. Any member shall not speak more than once, nor longer than five minutes on the same subject or question, until all who wish to speak have had an opportunity to do so, nor more than twice without the permission of the presiding officer; and every member speaking shall designate the officer and member spoken of by his proper rank and title, according to his standing in the Order.
- 15. Any member may call for a division of the question, when the sense will admit of it, but no "motion to strike out or insert" shall be admissable, except at the option of the mover.
- 16. When a question is before the Court, no motion shall be in order, except to adjourn, for the previous question, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone for a certain time, to divide, to commit, or to amend, which motions shall severally have precedence in the order herein arranged.
- 17. On the call of nine members, a majority of the Court may demand the previous question, which shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and all further debate.
- 18. A motion to adjourn is always in order after the regular business of the Court is gone through with, which motion shall be decided without debate, and if decided in the affirmative it is no adjournment until the Court is closed in due form.
- 19. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

- 20. A motion to reconsider shall not be received unless made by a member who voted with the majority in the first instance.
- 21. When a question is indefinitely postponed, it shall not be acted on during the term.
- 22. Any member may excuse himself from serving on a committee, if at the time of his appointment he is a member of two other committees.
- 23. The first person named on a committe shall act as a chairman until another is chosen by the members of the committee. The mover of a resolution referred to a special committee is usually first named thereon.
- 24. A committee cannot be discharged until all the debts contracted by it have been paid.

Endowment Law.

It is hereby Resolved:

1st. That upon the death of a brother in good standing, his wife or legal heirs shall receive the sum of $1,000, such amount to be paid out of the Endowment Fund of the R. W. H. C.

2nd. That on the death of a brother in good standing, the R. S. of the Court shall immediately transmit under signature of the C. R. and seal of the Court, a duplicate notice of such death—one to the R. W. H. C. R. and one to the R. W. H. S.—such notice to be on printed form, prescribed by the R. W. H. C.

3rd. That no endowments shall be received by the F. S. of Subordinate Courts until all dues are paid for the month to which the endowments apply.

4th. That each member pay fifty cents on or before the last day of each and every month for the succeeding month, to provide a fund out of which the death calls are to be paid; these assessments to be transmitted by the F. S. to the R. W. H. T, by draft or P. O. order, on or before the 10th day of the following month, accompanied by the monthly statement with the Court seal attached, on the form prescribed by the R. W. H. C. Should the F. S. fail to do so, it shall be the duty of the R. W. H. T. to immediately notify the R. S. of said Court of the delinquency.

5th. That any member failing to pay his assessments (as laid down in Section 4), shall stand suspended

(and forfeit all claims on the Order), but may be reinstated as follows:—

- (a) If payment be made within thirty days thereafter.
- (b) If payment be not made within thirty days, but within four months, it will, in addition to all arrearages for and during suspension, be necessary for such suspended member to furnish a certificate of good health from the Court Physician.
- (c) If four months elapse, in addition to the above requirements, he shall only be reinstated by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting of his Court.
- 6th. That every Court in arrears for monthly assessments for thirty days shall stand suspended, but may be reinstated within three months b7 paying all arrearages for and during suspension, its members having complied with sub-section b, of Section 5. If not reinstated within three months, in addition to the above, it can only be so by an unanimous vote of the H. S. C., or by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at a regular meeting of the R. W. H. C.
- 7th. That members of Courts suspended for other causes than non-payment of Endowment assessments, and members of Courts which have surrendered or forfeited their charter who were in good standing at the time of such suspension, surrender, or forfeiture of charter, shall, upon application to the R. W. H. S. if within thirty days, and on payment of the usual fee, receive from the R. W. H. C. a clearance card, and shall then be entitled to endowments, provided they pay the Endowment assessments to the R. W. H. C. as they fall due, and provided that they affiliate at the

8th. That every R. S. shall, on or before the 10th day of each month, transmit to the R. W. H. S. as fellows, viz.:—

- (a) The amount of Endowment assessments sent to the R. W. H. T. for the month.
- (b) The names of members initiated during the preceding month.
- (c) The number and names of all members suspended, recommended for expulsion, and reinstated (with dates); also those having withdrawn by card or otherwise.

These notices to be sent upon printed forms prepared by the R. W. H. C.

9th. That the R. W. H. T., immediately on receipt of the Endowment assessments from Subordinate Courts, shall deposit the same in such chartered bank as shall be designated by the R. W. H. C. or the H. S. C., to the credit of the R. W. H. C. on endowment account, subject only to cheques signed by the R. W. H. C. R., R. W. H. S., and R. W. H. T., and he shall at the end of each month cause to be published in the R. W. H. C. organ a detailed statement of such receipts.

10th. That within thirty days after a death notice has been received, accepted, and duly filed, the R. W. H. C. R. shall issue a cheque on the Endowment fund of the Order, made payable to the wife or legal heirs of the deceased brother, and transmit it to the R. W. H. S., who will make due entry of the same, sign, and send it without delay to the R. W. H. T., who will complete it with his signature, and transmit it forthwith to the C. R. of the Court of which deceased brother had been a member, by him to be given to the beneficiary.

11th. In cases where no person or persons are entitled to the endowment, it will revert to the endowment fund of the R. W. H. C.

12th. That in the event of a death call being made and the Endowment fund is insufficient to meet it, the H. S. C. is empowered to levy a tax pro rata upon the membership of the Order to meet the demand.

13th. Any court or member found guilty, after due trial, of contravening any Section of the Endowment Law, or violating any of the rules or usages of the Order, shall thereby forfeit, absolutely, all claim upon any endowment or other benefit fund of the Order, but may be restored to the privileges of the order at the discretion of the R. W. H. C. or of the H. S. C.

14th. The R. W. H. C. does not hold itself responsible for the payment of any endowment if death is brought on by the persistent use of intoxicants, or is the result of an accident traceable to intoxication.
