Life-Thoughts.

BY JAMES CHALLEN.

Take thy first steps with care :

Deem it not wise to know The depths of evil, in thy wayward heart : The mercy and the grace his hands bestow Will be thy " better part." Along thy narrow way with courage go.

Three Words of Strength. These are three lessons I would write-

Three words, as with a burning pen, In tracings of eternal light, Upon the hearts of men.

Have Hope ! Though clouds environ round, And gladness hides her face in scorn, Put thou the shadow from thy brow-No night but hath its morn.

Have faith ! Where'er thy bark is driven-The calm disport, the tempest's mirth-Know this : God rules the hosts of heaven, The inhabitants of earth.

Have Love ! Not love alone for one, But man, as man, thy brothers call, And scatter, like the circling sun, Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul-Hope, Faith, and Love-and thou shalt find Strength when life's surges rudest roll, Light when thou else wert blind. -Schiller.

What the Sparrow Chirps. I am only a little sparrow, A bird of low degree ; My life is of little value ; But the good Lord careth for me.

He gave me a coat of feathers. It is very plain I know : With never a speck of crimson, For it was not made for show

But it keeps me warm in winter, And it shields me from the rain ; Were it broidered with gold or purple, Perhaps it would make me vain.

By and by when the spring time cometh I will build me a little nest, With many a chirp of pleasure, In the spot I like the best.

And He will give me wisdom To build it of leaves most brown : Warm and soft it must be for my birdies, And so I will line it with down.

I have no barn or storehouse, I neither sow nor resp ; God gives me a sparrow's portion, But never a seed to keep.

If my meal is sometimes scanty, Close picking makes it sweet ; I have always enough to feed me, And " life is more than meat.'

I know there are many sparrows ; All over the world we are found ; But our heavenly Father knoweth, When one of us fails to the ground.

Though small, we are never forgotten ; Though weak, we are never afraid ; For we know than the good Lord keepeth The life of the creatures he made.

I fly through the thickest forests, I light on many a spray ; I have no chart or compass. But I never lose my way.

And I fold my wings at twilight, Wherever I happen to be ; For the Father is always watching, And no harm will come to me.

I am only a little sparrow. A bird of low degree : But I know that the Father loves me : Have you less faith than me ? -Missionary Echo.
