

FORTY-FOURTH YEAR

BOARD OF EDUCATION PLAN TO BE DECIDED BY VOTE

Ald Spence Introduces Measure at City Council Meeting for an Entirely Elective Board to Run School Affairs in the City

Brantford ratepayers will have the opportunity of voting on the principle of an elective board of education for the entire city at the municipal election in January. At the City Council meeting last night a by-law received two readings, and if the ratepayers approve of the same it will be given the third reading by the council of 1914 and come into operation in 1915.

The by-law sweeps aside the two school boards of the city, the Collegiate Institute and Public School Board, and amalgamates the two into one body. Under the new measure nine members are to be elected, not by wards but by the city generally.

Ald. Spence introduced it. It has long been urged in municipal circles and Ald. Spence was generally commended by the aldermen for giving the ratepayers an opportunity, at least of passing their opinion by vote upon the new scheme.

Business Still Keeps Up With The Pace

Frank Clawsey, a resident of the Holmstead, faced five charges in the police court this morning. On two charges of theft, the evidence did not substantiate the charge, and he was honorably acquitted.

On a charge of stealing eight pairs of blankets, the property of the Slingsby Mfg. Co., Clawsey entered a plea of not guilty, and told the court that he had found the blankets near the Slingsby property.

A local young man gave evidence to the effect that he had seen Clawsey near the Slingsby factory on one occasion, and the prisoner had asked him to come and see what he had found. Clawsey took the witness to a place behind the factory and after pulling back a big pile of brush showed him a roll of blankets.

Clawsey claimed that he had discovered the blankets by pure accident, and informed the court that if

Some Interesting Notes Of City Council Session

The secretary of the Trades and Labor Council asked for an investigation into the collapse of Rawdon Street Methodist Church. It was desired to find out where the responsibility for such a collapse rested.

The warden of Oxford asked for representatives of the city at Guelph Tuesday to consider the proposal to establish a prison farm. Ald. Charlton, Suddaby, Minshall, McFarland and Ward were named as a committee and they left this morning for the conference.

The Ontario Motor League expressed a desire to supply signs on the outskirts of the city announcing to outside motorists that Brantford's speed limit was 15 miles per hour. The idea was to avoid accidents, incidentally fines and convictions although it was not so stated.

Ald. Ward moved for a resolution that the township council be written regarding condition of dyke just south of city on Grand River calling attention to fact that if water breaks through thousands of dollars worth of property will be imperilled and dyke prevention in city rendered useless. Ald. Suddaby said he had received solemn assurances from the Jesse Hammond Who Killed an Infant Gets Severe Penalty.

SASKATOON, Sask., Sept. 30.—Jesse Hammond was sentenced to be hanged at Prince Albert penitentiary on December 17. Hammond was convicted in the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon of contributing to the death of the infant born to Louise Shandler, a sister of Mrs. Hammond, on August 22, 1911.

CHANNEL MEANS A FLOOD DANGER

Alleged That L. E. & N. Have Not Carried Out Dominion Order.

At the City Council last night Ald. Suddaby wanted to know from the railway committee if the channel on Kerby Island was now complete by the L. E. and N. If it was, it would prove a serious matter. The present channel through the island was not by any means equal to the one filled up. Ald. Spence thought it was a board-of-works and not a railway committee matter. In fact the board of works had been gubbing up the railway committee's work all year.

Local News

Love's Young Dream. Shortly after 9 o'clock last night in front of R. G. Ballantyne's Paint shop on King St. a young lady was sitting on her wheel and leaning against the side of an automobile talking to some gentlemen in the car. The gentleman who was driving the car evidently thinking the lady was clear of the machine started a ring on the young lady's finger caught in the side of the top of the car and tore it off and at the same time cutting her finger.

Buried To-day. The funeral of the late Major Creedy took place from the residence of his brother, John Creedy, 159 Althorn St., this afternoon to Mt. Hope cemetery. Rev. Mr. Potts officiated at the services.

Waiting for Material. Work on the new Hydro-Electric sub-station on Greenwich street, has been stopped temporarily on account of the contractors being unable to secure steel girders from the rolling mills.

Whisker Raising Quite Expensive

Brantford citizens who have been in the habit of getting shaved at the Barber Shop, will now either have to raise the "price" or else raise "whiskers" as shaves will now cost 15 cents per.

At a meeting of No. 298 held in the Trades and Labor Temple last night it was decided to grant the petition sent in by the master barbers to raise the price of shaving from 10 to 15 cents. On and after the 1st day of October the barbers will charge 15 cents for a shave which will include a neck shave—(whiskers on the back of your neck).

They also decided that shops should be closed at 10.30 on Saturday night and on the nights before holidays.

BISHOP MAKES VERY STRONG SPEECH

White Slave Traffic Brought Home to British Nation.

Great Need for Unflinching Open Christian Principles.

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng., Sept. 30.—The need for unflinching application of Christian principles to social injustices and economic problems, dwelt on by the Right Rev. Edward Stewart Talbot, Bishop of Winchester in his presidential address, Thursday.

ing practical interest to consider the sexes, the races and social order. There was, he said, a disastrous need for more strenuous thinking and insistent action in connection with the problem of the avoidance of marriage, the abuse of marriage and the revolt against its responsibilities and duties and relations between men and women.

On the question of color, Bishop Talbot argued, a stronger stand was required against racial contempt and the greed of the exploiters. Disclosures like those of the Congo, Putumayo and the Portuguese Islands, he declared, showed what European action can be and can do.

Bishop Talbot continued by saying that such a thing as the white slave traffic had startled the British nation into recognition of the intensity and cold bloodedness of the evil at home.

In the principles of the kingdom of God, the bishop argued, there must be abundant guidance toward the ways in which social order may be made fairer and more even handed and opportunities more even handed and equitably shared.

In conclusion Bishop Talbot denounced this age of armaments with its colossal and intolerable burdens its naked international selfishness and its contempt for those heavenly principles which should draw Christian nations into the common service of world-wide liberty.

AN ENQUIRY INTO KINGSTON PRISON

Was Launched To-Day by an Able Lot of Commissioners.

Plans Are Outlined for a Very Thorough Inquiry.

KINGSTON, Ont., Sept. 30.—To-day the prison reform commission began its investigation into the conduct of Portsmouth penitentiary. The sessions are being held in the court house and the commission is composed of G. M. MacDonnell, K. C. president, Kingston; James P. Downey, Orillia and Dr. Frederick Elberington, Kingston. The commission has outlined its plan, first the management, second the conduct of the officers and employees of Portsmouth penitentiary. They will also inquire into methods that may conduce to the permanent reformation of convicts and how dependents upon prison inmates may be cared for without undue burden upon public funds.

A general invitation is given persons who have anything to say to present it at the various sessions of the commission.

The chief event at the investigation this forenoon was the laying of charges by the justice department against Deputy Warden O'Leary and Dr. D. E. Phelan of political partisanship, false testimony, consorting with ex-convicts, bad language, graft and connivance at guards absence when needed at an election trial. The charges were made to the department by Dr. J. W. Edwards, Russell, the lawyer who made the charges through the Orange Sentinel and who is here to give testimony.

The commission decided to have the charges prepared and given to the defendants. Later the charges will be taken up when Major W. S. Hughes is brought from Brantford, Saskatchewan, to testify. Dr. Phelan says he is stand and is being examined in the matter of management and general discipline. He has been laying before the body his views as submitted through reports and memorandums to the justice department. He said he found a lack of classification when he began his work and he endeavored to introduce a system as to conduct.

B Company Supper. The officer commanding, Captain W. F. Newman and members of B company held a supper in the Tea Pot Inn after the parade last night, about forty being seated around the festive board. After justice had been done to the good things that Host Crumback had prepared, Capt. Newman proceeded to present the prizes to those who had won them at the annual company shoot, which was held at the Mohawk ranges on Saturday afternoon last. During the evening's games were won by Pte. T. Lockyer and Pte. H. Cheson's horseshoe were made by Capt. W. F. Newman and Sergeant Major Oxtoby. The jolly party broke up after singing the National Anthem.

Building Permits. A building permit has been issued to the City Engineer's office to Jesse Barrie, contractor for the erection of the $40,000 Dormitory in connection with the Ontario School for the Blind.

HIS KNOWLEDGE OF JUNGLE

They were sitting on a hill at a well-known New York cafe, and conversation had turned upon the subject of mysterious midnight noises. Each in turn related some little anecdote, when a spare young man in the corner suddenly rose to his feet. "Gentlemen," said he, "your experiences are very interesting; but for real awe give me the roaring of the lion or sharp trumpeting of an elephant borne to you on the still night as you lie silent, neither asleep or awake. They stared at him in surprise. Was this pale youth, then, some great traveller? "Excuse me," one asked, "but have you slept in the jungle and heard these mighty beasts as they roamed about by night?" "Well, it's not exactly that," replied the youth, reaching for his hat, "but I always sleep with my window open and I live in Fifth avenue directly opposite the Central Park Zoo."

Paris News

(From our own Correspondent) PARIS, Sept. 29.—Mayor Patterson, Aldermen Torrance, Fasken, Rehder, Wells, Davidson, Evans and Laskey were those present at last night's brief council meeting.

Mr. A. E. Cullen asked permission to address the council re. a matter of $2.43 which he was assessed for street watering. He presented his case very well, claiming that the street watering petition was not sufficiently signed, also that he paid $12 per year for house water, and being a workman, he did not want to pay for what was not a necessity. The clerk and council claimed the petition was sufficiently signed, and no action was taken.

On motion of Ald. Fasken and Rehder, the finance committee report was adopted, and the accounts ordered to be paid.

The matter of an approach to the Capron property near Paris cemetery came in for some discussion. Ald. Torrance thought that it was not necessary this year. To make an even passable road would cost from $600 to $700, and as finances were low it was thought better to leave it alone at present. The new by-laws are willing to bear a share of the cost, as it would make easier access to their property.

Mayor Patterson pointed out that the new theatre in course of erection near the Nith bridge would be beautifully lighted, and that the main street would be improved thereby, more so if the poplars and willows by the market building be removed. The matter was left to Ald. Torrance, chairman of streets and sidewalks committee to act as he saw fit.

The working hours for the linemen on the Hydro work in Paris were shortened to 5 o'clock instead of 6 as at present, as it was necessary to turn on the electric lights before 5 o'clock.

Clerk McCosh pointed out that the Provincial act stipulates that if a member of the council does not attend for 3 months his seat shall be declared vacant. Deputy Reeve Layton's last appearance at the board was on June 2nd, and on motion of Alds. Fasken and Torrance, his seat was declared vacant, and Mr. Layton notified of same and also the clerk of the county council.

Thomas Gow presented a letter stating that his property had been damaged to the extent of $300 by a defective drain. The cellar was falling in and other damage done. Ald. Alds. Torrance and Fasken moved that Gow's communication be referred to the streets and sidewalks committee to report at next meeting of the council. Carried.

Ald. Evans brought up the question of children coasting in wagons on the sidewalks, much to the danger and annoyance of citizens. A motion was passed, that the police be notified to stop the practice, and notices be inserted in the local papers to give warning.

Mr. Campbell of Brantford, who had previously addressed the council re. a new theatre and stores on the market square had a new proposal to make. He offers to take the whole of the market square and erect a splendid theatre and block of business houses, and also take over the market building at a fair valuation. For the vacant ground he offers to pay $1 per foot yearly rental and all taxes. An informal discussion followed, and Mr. Campbell was asked to put his plans in writing, stating exactly what he proposes doing, give pencil sketches of the proposed new buildings and also state what he is willing to pay for the market building. The council then adjourned.

ONE BOARD.

Ald. Spence deserves to be congratulated upon presenting a by-law for the purpose of having one educational board for the city instead of the two which now exist.

Under the present state of affairs, there is too much overlapping, and a lack in the continuity of management.

To have two sets of trustees administering what is practically one phase of municipal duty and activity has always, in the expressed opinion of this paper, been a mistake.

The people will have the opportunity to record their decision in the matter, and it should, and no doubt will, result in a most emphatic affirmative.

THE SAFETY FIRST PROPAGANDA.

The Courier recently noted the fact that the Grand Trunk Railway Company had very thoughtfully adopted a "Safety First" department in connection with the running of their road.

Mr. George Bradshaw is the gentleman in charge, and on Friday night he addressed a very large meeting in Stratford, that junction point.

The following extracts from his address as published in the Herald of that place, will prove of interest:

"Everyone should be interested in the 'Safety First' movement, because it may mean more to their family or to themselves rather than any one else."

"It should be practiced in factories, where there are as many accidents as on the railroads, except that they are not chronicled and laid before the people."

The little headway made in the movement in the past few years has been due to our trying to solve the question too much by the application of mechanical and physical safeguards.

These only prevent a certain percentage of the accidents. Our passenger cars are literally covered with safety appliances and yet in the United States, one out of every eight trainmen was injured in 1912.

The matter is 90 per cent. a personal one. Knowledge is the greatest thing a railroader can have; a knowledge of his duties and work. The human element is the most important, although the huge engines, etc., are also great factors in the welfare of the road.

But if the human machine is wide awake to its duties and sticks by them the chance of accidents would be almost abolished.

The Safety First movement is the practice of co-operation whereby unsafe conditions can be corrected before instead of after an accident. A Safety First Committee is appointed in every shop or terminal of the railroad and it is the duty of each member to look out for these and correct them himself, and if unable, report them to the committee.

There is, indeed, merit in the plan. The matter of looking for defects or dangerous conditions should not be left to the officials of the company. They can only be in one place at a time. Every man in the shop or yard should act as a member of the committee.

The members of the Safety First committee would not be spies, as many seem to think. There is absolutely no idea of introducing any such thing. If it were so, the movement would have lived but a short life. The movement is simply for the protection of railroad men and their families. It is purely an employees' movement.

Mr. Bradshaw asked each man to pass the following resolution: "I will take in good part every suggestion which is made to me for safety, whether it reflects on me in any way or not."

He pointed out that obeying the rules of the road was one of the most important items in ensuring the welfare of the movement. If the rules are followed and common sense is employed in all circumstances, very few accidents would occur.

The man who violates the rules and tries to square things is the one who gets in wrong. The man who follows the rules can never get in wrong.

Mr. Bradshaw showed a number of stereotypical views, illustrating incorrect attitudes in which brakemen do their work, as well as other employees.

There is a lot of sound common sense in the above remarks. Employees of all kinds should of course be obliged to supply every possible, and reasonable safeguard, but there should also be care and co-operation on the part of the individual employee, not only on railroads but in every other calling of life where mishap is always the handmaid of thoughtlessness, or over confidence.

When the City Hall hears of the latest council proposal it is not likely to remark "This is so sudden" as Miss Cayenne did when Charlie Soffley, strong on dogs, asked her how she would like to have a dear little puppy all her own.

The Toronto Globe is still fuming over the statement that the name of a government dredge christened "Sir Wilfrid" has been changed to a departmental number. The organ seems to think that this alleged insult should lead to nothing less than a civil war.

Hon. Sydney Fisher has been selected as the Liberal candidate to run in the Chateaugay bye election in Quebec. He is a man of many excellent parts, but just why Laurier considers that his return to the House would add strength to the Opposition is not very easy to figure out.

Those charming members of the fair sex, known as the British militant suffragettes, set fire to a lumber yard at Yarmouth and also attempted to destroy the municipal golf property in the same place. The loss was $175,000 and they left a note, "No vote. No sport. No peace. No property safe." All of which, of course, constitutes a cogent illustration of the fact that they are quite fit to be entrusted with the ballot.

Hon. Mr. Samuel, British Postmaster-general, who is now touring the Canadian West, said in an address to the Canadian Club at Edmonton: "Public opinion in Europe is that peace be retained; but still, one cannot say that war will not re-occur. England has no aggressive designs to interfere with any foreign country of the world. If in spite of all this war should occur you cannot then improvise a navy. It takes years to build a battleship and to train a crew. It would then be too late to build the ships and train the crew. I lay these facts before you for your consideration."

The honorable gentleman must be surely unaware of the fact that the Laurier program is to build such vessels in a few months, and then to launch them either in the Newmarket or Brantford canal.

During the reading of accounts, Ald. Spence remarked that the council had been passing accounts for the Hamilton Sewer Pipe Company all summer. He wants to know what the system was in vogue for checking breakages etc.

Ald. Suddaby and Ward both replied that they thought the City Engineer would look after that. Ald. Spence also had other queries. Why was a pair of grease with duty thereon imported from the U. S. Ald. Suddaby thought it was secured from Toronto but Ald. Spence flashed the customs certificate. It was the finance chairman's opinion that there was a loose system somewhere. Accounts came in sometimes which had been previously paid.

At this stage, City Engineer Jones arrived. In regard to the can of grease, Major Jones said that somebody ordered it from the steam shovel man when he was here. He did not say who it was. In regard to sewer pipe, the foreman counted same in the car and did not accept any culls or broken pipe. There was scarcely any invoice which went through without reduction. In regard to account for straw already paid, Major Jones said it was an error. The accounts after the above careful scrutiny were thereupon passed.

Ald. Spence asked the board of works if a reply had been received in reference to Mrs. Hazleton's sewer from the City Solicitor. Ald. Suddaby said nothing was done and nothing was going to be done.

Ald. Spence—"What, after your promise?" Ald. Suddaby—"We made no promise." Ald. Spence—"I am surprised at Ald. Suddaby. I had this lady in to see me the other night. After a definite promise to see the City Solicitor nothing is to be done."

Ald. McFarland called attention to South Street where there was to be a fill-up. Again Ald. Suddaby was contradicted. Ald. McFarland insisted there was an understanding, but Ald. Suddaby said there was not. As regards the new sidewalk, Ald. Suddaby couldn't say. "The treasurer was yelling for them to quit and the council was yelling for more walks. He didn't know what to do." Ald. McEwen also wanted a sidewalk which had long since been promised. It was a night of worry for the board of works chairman. He did not think the city treasurer had a right to say when to stop work.

Ald. Ward again introduced the matter of Mrs. Hazleton's complaint and he would not back up Ald. Suddaby. He promised to open the matter up again.

The overseer tells me that that work is started and I'm going to see that it is carried through or there will be a big row," declared Ald. Ward in regard to the South street fill-in matter.

"Then you'll have the biggest row you ever had," retorted Ald. Suddaby. "If it were in West Brantford, it would be gone on with and nobody would know anything about it," said Ald. Ward.

Ald. Suddaby said the sewer for Mrs. Hazleton was on private property, and the city could not pay for private sewers. If it were started now, it would have to be done in hundreds of cases.

Ald. Spence said the lady had a 66x132 foot lot on Brock Street. She built her houses on the side of the brow of the hill and built a sewer 99 feet in. The woman is charged a number of feet on which she hasn't got a sewer. He thought a fair solution would be to get the average frontage. Ald. Spence thought Mrs. Hazleton had a right to kick.

Ald. Minshall said Ald. Ward had not attended all board of works meetings and he should not contradict Ald. Suddaby. If the council was prepared to follow the Hazleton case out all over the city he would vote for a rebate. There were other cases nearly all in Ward Five, which ward was getting nearly all the board of works money this year.

Mayor Hartman said the City Solicitor had thoroughly gone into the matter and it was a matter of law. Ald. Ward said it had never been considered at any regular meeting of the board of works.

"Well we'll look it up anyway," said Ald. Suddaby. "The difference is," said Ald. Spence "this woman paid for her sewer and built it in the first place and now the city is charging her again."

Mayor Hartman said the sewer was in private property.

Ald. McEwen wanted to know what had become of the boundary extension navy. Ald. Spence said that the report of the City Engineer showed on its very face very plainly that Brantford had all kinds of vacant land in comparison with other cities. At any rate, if any action were to be taken it had to be done before July 1, so what was the use of asking a question October 8. Ald. McEwen had a come back, stating the matter could be taken up next year. Ald. Spence said the report already submitted was so plain, it didn't need a report on it.

If the outsiders wanted to come in at the Brantford rate of taxation he would not oppose such a move. If they expected reduced taxation, firefalls, etc. they would not get these inducements.

Ald. Ward thought a fair basis of agreement could be arrived at. He thought those on the outside should be met in conference, and blamed the finance committee for being dilatory. Ald. Pitcher thought Ald. Ward had all he could do to look after the board of works. There were enough faults in that. Cards on William Street and sidewalk off Henrietta Street and a hundred things all over the city required attention. "We'll look after the finance committee," said Ward Two's representative. "Let Ald. Ward clean house a little in his own committee." And this ended the matter.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Fair weather and Brantford fair seem to be synonymous terms.

The house built in a day in connection with the Hamilton centennial has entailed a loss upon the alderman who promoted the scheme of $3,500. Better have your own baronial hall erected in the usual way.

When the City Hall hears of the latest council proposal it is not likely to remark "This is so sudden" as Miss Cayenne did when Charlie Soffley, strong on dogs, asked her how she would like to have a dear little puppy all her own.

The Toronto Globe is still fuming over the statement that the name of a government dredge christened "Sir Wilfrid" has been changed to a departmental number. The organ seems to think that this alleged insult should lead to nothing less than a civil war.

Hon. Sydney Fisher has been selected as the Liberal candidate to run in the Chateaugay bye election in Quebec. He is a man of many excellent parts, but just why Laurier considers that his return to the House would add strength to the Opposition is not very easy to figure out.

Those charming members of the fair sex, known as the British militant suffragettes, set fire to a lumber yard at Yarmouth and also attempted to destroy the municipal golf property in the same place. The loss was $175,000 and they left a note, "No vote. No sport. No peace. No property safe." All of which, of course, constitutes a cogent illustration of the fact that they are quite fit to be entrusted with the ballot.

Hon. Mr. Samuel, British Postmaster-general, who is now touring the Canadian West, said in an address to the Canadian Club at Edmonton: "Public opinion in Europe is that peace be retained; but still, one cannot say that war will not re-occur. England has no aggressive designs to interfere with any foreign country of the world. If in spite of all this war should occur you cannot then improvise a navy. It takes years to build a battleship and to train a crew. It would then be too late to build the ships and train the crew. I lay these facts before you for your consideration."

The honorable gentleman must be surely unaware of the fact that the Laurier program is to build such vessels in a few months, and then to launch them either in the Newmarket or Brantford canal.

During the reading of accounts, Ald. Spence remarked that the council had been passing accounts for the Hamilton Sewer Pipe Company all summer. He wants to know what the system was in vogue for checking breakages etc.

Music and Drama

Mr. Edward J. Boyle, who is to assist at the concert recital to be given by Miss Raymond, occupies a very high place in the esteem of the New York critics as the following very complimentary press notices demonstrate:

"Mr. Edward J. Boyle displayed a well-trained and clean tenor, with splendid pianissimo. His distinct enunciation was a delight, and he deserved the hearty applause he received."—The Star.

ST. ANDREW'S GUILD

The Young People of St. Andrew's Guild held their first meeting after the holidays on Monday evening. The attendance was exceptionally large and Mr. Gordon gave a short address on last season's work in the Guild and the work to be done in the coming year. A nominating committee was then elected to nominate officers for the coming year, same to report on Monday evening next. The evening closed in the usual way.

(Continued from Page 1) under his control, with the public sewers. The accused pleaded guilty to the charge of neglect, and promised to have the work attended to. Some of the blame for the delay he placed upon the shoulders of the plumbers, who had kept him waiting.

Magistrate Livingston stated that this might as well be done now as later. Those who disobeyed the orders of the Sanitary Inspector, he said, might expect no mercy at his hands in future. The Roberts case he adjourned for a week in order that the work might be done.

He's a Dead One. "I think you are a dead one," said Magistrate Livingston in sentencing Alfred Austin to the Central Prison for 6 months on a charge of vagrancy. Austin had several excuses for not working, but the Magistrate believed that he was born tired and refused to listen to his so-called reasons for being out of a job.

Drunk! No, sir. Akley Dinomiro, an Arabian, was charged as a drunk, but he emphatically denied the charge, declaring that he had been robbed. The case was adjourned until to-morrow morning.

O You Bicycles. There was a long list of names on this morning's docket of those charged with a breach of the bicycle by-law. Fines of $2 and costs were imposed. The police state that in future this by-law will be rigidly enforced, saw more than he who saw.

A WONDERFUL COLD CURE. Just think of it, a cold cures in ten minutes—that's what happens when you use "Catarrhzone." You inhale its soothing balsams and out goes the cold—sniffles are cured—headache is cured—symptoms of catarrh and gripe disappear at once. It's the healing pine essences and powerful antiseptics in Catarrhzone that enable it to act so quickly. In disease of the nose, for irritable throat, bronchitis, coughs and catarrh it's a marvel. Safe even for children. 25c. and $1.00 sizes at all dealers.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS HAD BIG NIGHT

Inspiring Addresses Heard Last Night at Wellington Street Church.

"Our Call to the Mission Field," was the subject of an able address delivered by Rev. F. L. Farewell, Epworth League Field Secretary, at the session last evening of the nineteenth annual convention of the Brantford District Epworth League, which was being held in Wellington St. Methodist church. All day yesterday the convention was in progress and will be concluded by a session this afternoon and evening. The league meetings in the Methodist churches of the city were withdrawn, and the leaguers in goodly numbers gathered in the auditorium of the convention church.

Despite the fact that Rev. Farewell had done little else during the day but make speeches, he delivered a splendid address, one to which the leaguers listened with unabated interest. Rev. T. E. Holling also delivered a splendid address, faking for his subject "The Cultivation of the Heart and the Mind."

Rev. Farewell. The speaker, in introducing his subject, said that the author of the title must have had in his mind that the missionary field both foreign and home is one field, and taking this as a basis, the speaker dealt with the onus of the field wherever another, but it was the duty wherever called to go. The speaker then used a very apt illustration. When he was a boy living on the farm it was his duty to bring the cows home in the evening. It did not matter if they were in the fields close by the house or in a field far distant, it was his duty to bring the cows home. The fields, the farm and the cows all belonged to one man, and the speaker, by this simple illustration, caused the meeting to understand that the people were to be won for one cause and for one master. If the work was far distant it was the duty of the Master's worker to go to that field; or if it was at home, it was duty just the same.

Oneness of the Needs. The needs of others constitute the call for service. The speaker told the story of James and John. It will be remembered that the mother of these two men came to Christ and asked that when he came into His kingdom that the one should sit on the right side and the other on the left side of the Christ. The idea of greatness with that people was power, but the speaker pointed out that greatness was not power but service. Rev. Farewell said that devotion should not be to self but to others. The speaker further pointed out that it was the obligation of the young people when there are those about who have needs, to supply the need.

Because of the Oneness. Because of the oneness of the field the obligation for service was stronger than ever. There was no one saw more than he the problems of the home field, but there were the needs of the foreign field. The religion of Jesus Christ had come west. The speaker wondered what would have been the result had Paul and Barnabas stayed in their own country. Canada can only be great so long as she brings her advanced civilization to bear on the other nations. The speaker dwelt upon the fact that wherever the work was needed, in the foreign field or at home, the Lord was with the worker.

The Call to the Individual. The call to service and how it comes home to the individual, was next dealt with. The speaker at one time had felt called to the foreign field, but owing to the serious illness of his mother he did not go. There were sometimes unavoidable causes hindering the worker from going to the field. He had been hindered, but he was at home working. If the call should come he was willing to go but he was content to work wherever his Captain wanted him. He urged upon the young people to prepare themselves for service. Whether one's lot was cast in the world of business or wherever it might be, there was an opportunity to work for the missionary cause.

The Evening Program. The session last night was presided over by Rev. Lavell, chairman of the Brantford District of the Methodist church. Rev. Hamilton led in the opening devotional exercises. The Brant quartette rendered "Annie Laurie" as only the quartet can, under it. As an encore, "Steal Away Home" was given.

Rev. Holling. Rev. Holling, in his address, made a plea for the concurrent cultivation of the heart and mind on the scientific principle of selection and rejection.

Personal and Team Work. Previous to the session, Rev. Farewell well, taking for his subject "Personal and Team Work in Evangelism," addressed a number of workers.

The Afternoon Session. The session yesterday afternoon was opened by devotional exercises led by Rev. J. J. Liddy.

This was followed by a short address by Rev. E. Todd, B.A., of Mt. Pleasant, president of the district, who has occupied the position for the past two years. Rev. Todd, in his address, welcomed the delegates.

Rev. Mercer. Rev. H. E. Mercer of Copetown, a splendid speaker, followed. He took for his subject the Triple Touch, the heart touch, the lip touch, and the hand touch or purity, confession and service, the three essentials which make for the highest success in work for God.

An Ideal. The person who would make the most of life always has an ideal before him for which he is constantly striving. The first essential given was the heart touch, heart purity. "As young people, the speaker declared, "was our noblest qualification to have our hearts touched by the spirit of the living God." "Hearts whose the highest, whose aspirations are the noblest, whose motives are the purest, hearts who have gotten the broad vision of life."

The Lip Touch. Lips touched by the spirit of God is the second essential. "With the heart man believes unto righteousness but with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." This is done first by a lip consecration of our faith and second by a life confession. The world ought to know where we stand and it only can know if we are out and out for Jesus Christ.

Service. The third essential is the hand touch of the Christ. "We are saved to serve. This is the highest conception of life. God touches the heart, he anoints our lips, he strengthens our hands in order that we may spend our lives in service for him."

At this junction in the program Mrs. Frank Leeming rendered a solo.

Delegates Report. Miss Agnes Butler, delegate from the district to the summer school at Berlin read a lengthy and interesting report. At its conclusion Rev. A. E. Lavell spoke of the splendid report and told of attending the Alma College summer school and urged the leaguers to attend these schools. Rev. J. J. Liddy moved a vote of appreciation which was readily seconded.

Rev. Farewell. Rev. F. L. Farewell, Epworth League Field Secretary with headquarters at Toronto took for his subject, "God and I" or "The Waste and Conservation of Human and Divine Resources." This was a blackboard talk in which the speaker sought to point out how young people individually or collectively with all their splendid human resources when linked with the Divine resources are capable of doing anything which they undertake.

He pointed out that the waste or misuse of the resources was just as disastrous in the spiritual world as the waste of our natural resources in the great Canadian domain. He counseled the conservation and right use of natural endowments, which alone could bring the realization of one's largest and best life.

In conclusion the speaker suggested three essentials to success, first to get the right view point of life, that is the view point of "others," second, find out where we can best serve in life third, be and do our best in everything undertaken both in the secular and spiritual world.

This very inspiring address was followed by a half hour discussion.

GRANDE LIGNE, QUE., JAN. 2nd, 1910. "My wife was troubled for three years with Eczema on the hands, which made her hands almost useless. The doctor gave her several ointments to use, none of which had any effect. He also advised her to wear rubber gloves (she wore out three pairs).

I persuaded her, as a last resort, to try "Fruit-a-tives". The effect was marvellous. Her hands are now cured. We both attribute our present good health to "Fruit-a-tives".

MRS. MANGES ESCAPES OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough to do my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have two fine healthy children, and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. LEB MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ANOTHER BY-LAW MAY BE VOTED ON

School Trustees Decline to be Told That $45,000 is Enough for School

Acting on the request of the School Board authorities there was no by-law put through the city council last night to raise $45,000 for a new East Ward school. The finance committee agreed to put a by-law through for that amount, but not for $60,000. The result will probably mean that the ratepayers will be asked to vote on the $60,000 proposition and if the ratepayers don't favor it, the school board will be in a worse predicament than ever.

As a result some of the trustees are taking sides with the City Council pointing out that $45,000 ought to be sufficient. They claim that the new Grand View school, a very fine eight-room structure was built at a cost of $37,000 and they believe a ten room school in the East Ward can be built for $45,000. What will happen depends largely on the action of the trustees at their next meeting.

NOT A VILLAGE IN ALL CANADA

But Can Tell of Genuine Cures by Dadd's Kidney Pills.

Dunnet, Ont., Man Tells How Quickly they Built Him Up and Brought Him Back to Perfect Health.

DUNNET, Ont., Sept. 29.—"There is not a village or post-office in Canada that cannot provide a genuine cure by Dadd's Kidney Pills has been shown again and again. In this little village many people bear gratefully testimony to the wonderful curative powers of this simple remedy. Mr. Alex. Roy is one of these.

"I used Dadd's Kidney Pills for a run-down system," Mr. Roy states. "My head ached, my limbs were heavy, and my skin had a harsh, dry feeling, and would itch and burn at night. Three boxes of Dadd's Kidney Pills cured me."

Dadd's Kidney Pills simply cure the kidneys. The work of the kidneys is to strain all the waste matter out of the blood. If the kidneys are out of order they fail to do their work, the waste matter remains in the blood, putrefies and causes serious diseases. The natural cure is to make the kidneys do their work. Dadd's Kidney Pills always do this.

RESIDENTS DIDN'T LIKE THE SHACKS

Where is E. Holt the Owner? A Deputation at Council Meeting.

At the city council last evening, Peter Buck and many others, petitioned against frame shacks on south Gilmour which they said were erected in violation of the building by-law by E. Holt. The petitioners asked why the building inspector had ever allowed the shacks to be built. The petition was referred to the buildings and grounds committee and it was backed up by a strong looking delegation present.

Ald. Suddaby wanted the deputation heard. William Robertson, Jr., the first speaker, wanted to know why the structures complained of were still standing. Three weeks ago a complaint had been made with the inspector. The first permit was for a store, but a shack was put up. Then a permit was taken for a shed into which chickens were put. It was too cold for the chickens and a family was put in. Now another shack was to be put up. Residents in that vicinity wanted to know what was what.

Mr. James Christie said three months ago he objected to the shacks because they were unsanitary. He was referred to the Board of Health, although the sewers had been open for a month. In one building one night four women and one man were found, said the speaker. Later chickens and pigeons were stored in one of the shacks where it was found the fowl were starving to death, one chicken eating another. Mr. Christie insisted that conditions all around the place were filthy. Other people, including his own relative, he said, had to tear down well built places, but this man was allowed to build foot shacks, a disgrace to the city, surrounded by weeds six feet high. How in the world can this man get away with so much stuff?

The city clerk said there were 37 signatures to the petition. It was also remarked that $75,000 worth of property was represented. Mayor Hartman said he had complained himself to the Building Inspector, also to the Medical Health Officer. He believed the matter was before the court, as he understood no permits for the last buildings were taken out.

Ald. Charlton learned that there were three shacks in number. Ald. Ward could not let the opportunity pass. He called for an investigation into the building inspection department of the city. If the chairman of the proper committee would not move for an inquiry he would. The city was not getting what it was paying for.

Ald. Charlton suggested that Inspector Bennett be sent for, and asked to explain.

Ald. McEwen said he was surprised to learn that there were three shacks

Three Committees Reported—Plans to be Drawn Up for a New City Hall

Routine business at the City Council last night was fairly interesting. As a rule it is like reading the minutes of the previous meeting, an occasion for the smokers to get into the lobby. There were three reports last night, all of which excited more or less discussion. The reports were adopted in each instance, showing that the committees had gone over their work pretty well. These days, if a committee forgets any essentials, some one bobs up with pointed questions and it pays to be careful.

DUFFERIN RIFLES WERE ON PARADE

Regiment Was Put Through Various Movements With Alacrity.

The regular drill of the Dufferin Rifles was held last night at the armory. Major H. Genet was in command of the Regiment. When the parade slate was totalled up it was found that 395 men were on parade. The companies were formed up and were marched separately to Charlotte street where they practised outdoor duty.

A line was extended from Colborne street to the Grand Trunk tracks. The pickets took up position along Clarence street.

After manoeuvring in that section of the city for over an hour, the Regiment was formed up, and headed by the brass and bugle bands, marched back to the armory. Arriving at the armory, Major Genet addressed the men and made some very complimentary remarks about them.

Major Genet presented good service badges to the following: Col. Sergt. W. H. Bolt, A Company, 6 years; Sergt. A. T. Pickles, B. Company, 6 years; Sergt. C. Bennett, Stretcher Bearer Section, 6 years; Sergt. C. Bissett, A Company, 3 years; Sergt. F. Stone, F Company, 3 years; Corp. S. Meates, F Company, 15 years; Acting Corp. R. During the time the regiment was "bombarding" the residents of Charlotte street, Captain Dunlop had his signallers out on the terrace, practicing their A. B. C.

A crowd of people watched the "corps" going through their drill. Captain Dunlop, at the request of a couple of citizens, had the corps wave the letters of the alphabet.

Judge W. G. Fisher was sworn into office in Dufferin county, succeeding Judge McCarthy.

James Hall of Princeton, Ont., 85 years of age, fell down the cellar stairs and broke his neck.

WON FIRST GAME, LOST THE SECOND

New York and Boston Teams Divided a Double Bill.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—McGraw with a number of substitutes and new men in the line-up took the first game of a double-header by the score of 5 to 3, but they were forced to take the count in the second contest, Stalling's tribe getting eight runs to their single tally.

McGraw said he wasn't worrying about the world's series. "The team that gets the breaks will win," said he. "I have got four fine pitchers in Mathewson, Marquard, Tesreau and Demaree and they are in better shape than any four twirlers that ever entered a world's series for me."

First game, New York 5, Boston 3; second game, New York 4, Boston 8.

BROOKLYN TOOK FIRST PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—Darkness ended a pitchers' duel here yesterday between Yingling and Alexander in the fourteenth inning of the second game, when the score was a tie at 4 to 4, and was called.

The Dodgers won the first game by all around playing. Scores:—First game—Brooklyn 3, Philadelphia 1; second game—Brooklyn 4, Philadelphia 4.

Don Chenault, 2,061 1/2, Sold.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 30.—Don Chenault, 2,061 1/2, winner of the Horse Review Futurity at Columbus, O., was sold yesterday by the estate of H. C. Dickinson, of Charleston, W. Va., to Llyses G. Young, also of Charleston. The colt is to remain in Harry Stinson's stable, and will be started in the Kentucky Futurity here October 7. The price was not made public.

The United States tariff bill report was presented to the House of Representatives at Washington.

Those exhibition rugby games are certainly costly. Eddie Gerard, the best half back on the Ottawa team, was badly injured in the Alert-Ottawa game on Saturday and he is likely to be out of the game for the season.

The Maple Leaf rugby club have not yet secured their playing suits. The uniforms are on order, however, and are expected to arrive shortly.

As a result of Joe Jackson's performance on Sunday against Chicago when he went hitless in two trips to the plate, while Ty Cobb batted at a 333 clip against St. Louis, the Cleveland idol is about out of the running for American league batting honors.

Cobb now leads by 25 points and should be go hitless for the remainder of the season Jackson would need to hit out of twenty times up to catch him.

Lively times are threatened down in Hamilton when the victorious Tigers come marching home. It is stated that force will be exercised to compel several of the members of the Tiger team to play with the Bowling Club and Hamilton rugby aggregation.

If they refuse they will be asked to vacate their positions in it, said "Looks from here as if they were placing sport on a pretty low level in the Ambitious City if such a state of affairs were true.

The Maple Leaf rugby team is not a bit discouraged at losing the first game of the season to the B. C. I. team. Instead they are digging into their training harder than ever, their weak spots having been pointed out to them in Saturday's contest. It is said that the Leafs have not yet perfected their signals and this proved a big handicap to them in their game with the Collegiate but this matter will be attended to at once. The teams will meet again on Thanksgiving day.

England Takes American Title

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Bill Bailey, English amateur cycle champion, upheld the British colors yesterday, when he defeated Donald MacDougall, the world's title holder, in two straight heats of three-quarters of a mile each in a match race at the Newark Velodrome.

MacDougall, the present world champion, and also held the title in 1909, 1910 and 1911. MacDougall won the world's honors last year, but he and Bailey never met before yesterday. Bailey only recently came to this country for the purpose of racing MacDougall, and the victory proves that in amateur cycling, at least, England exceeds America. Bailey's victory was clean cut, and there's no question that he was a better man on the wheel than MacDougall. The Englishman beat the American from in front and from behind.

The match attracted a crowd of 12,000, the largest of the season, and the affair is heightened by having Frank Kramer, the American professional champion and former world's amateur title holder, start MacDougall, while Iver Lawson, world's professional champion in 1904, pushed off Bailey. Marcus Parley, for four years American champion, and in 1904 world's amateur title holder, but now retired, shot the pistol to start the race.

ATHLETICS LOST TO WASHINGTON

Two Scratch Hits, a Pass and an Error Scored the Only Run.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Washington was only able to beat Mack's subbs one to nothing here yesterday. Walter Johnson pitching, for the reason that Wyckoff twirled better ball than Johnson, but his support was uncertain in the seventh inning, when two scratch hits, a walk and an error scored the only run of the game.

Captain George McBride, of the Senators, was presented with a diamond watch for a gift from a Capitol city fan. Vice-president Marshall, an ardent baseball fan, made the presentation speech. Score:—Washington 1, Philadelphia 0.

TWO GAMES FOR NEW YORK NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—The lowly Highlanders, by running bases and hitting like next-year champions, annexed both games of the double-header with Boston at the Polo Grounds yesterday. Both Keating and Fisher pitched airtight ball when hits meant runs. Scores:—First game, Boston 1, New York 2; second game, Boston 1, New York 3.

Old Country Games. GLASGOW, Sept. 30.—The following are the results of Scottish League games played yesterday: Celtic 2, Clyde 0. Rangers 2, Queen's Park 0. Third Lanark 2, Patrick Thistle 1.

LONG TIME BETWEEN After North Carolina voted to be a dry state its citizens became very suspicious of strangers.

One day a commercial traveller went up to an old negro in a little town in the eastern part of the state and said to him: "Say, uncle, if you will lead me to some place where I can get a drink I'll give you $2."

The old darkey looked him carefully over, accepted the two plunks, and said: "All right, boss, jest foller me."

He led the thirsty one through the town, on through the suburbs into the country, and then started due west. After they had traversed about five miles in silence and still nothing in sight, the man asked: "Look here, Mose! Where are we going after this drink?"

"We's gwine over into Kentucky here, we can't git nothin' in dis state"—Judge.

Pitching Problem Is Worrying Mack

Because of the evident weakness of the Philadelphia pitching staff, American League pointers are inclined to ask odds of Giant partisans for the big series. As the situation presents itself, "Chief" Bender, the big Injun, who has been a good Indian without becoming a dead Indian this season, is now the one best bet of the Mackman. Honck, the much-rescued pitcher, leads Bender in the percentage figures of games won, but Honck has had to be taken out of a lot of games, besides those credited to and charged against him, and Connie Mack always has a quartette of relief twirlers in the warming-pen when the youngster starts.

Some of the wise heads of baseball have a hunch that Shawkley is the pitcher whom Mack will rely on to alternate with Bender, and the pick of the remainder of the string. Coombs is out of it, of course. Mack is afraid that Plank, to all intents and purposes, is out of it also.

Brown, Bush and Wyckoff—three of them will Mack trust with a world's series game? Brown possibly.

The chances are that all of Connie's boxmen will be seen in action at some stage of the series, even if not at the start of the various games, with Bender the one man relied upon to prolong the series until the Philadelphia batsmen can get the measure of McGraw's best pitchers.
