Hopes That the Huerta Government Will Prove Successful in Mexico---Big American Interests are at Stake There.

(Courier Leased Wire)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Though not recognized by the United States, the Huerta Government in Mexico to-day enjoys the strong support of the Washington Government. That it has this support is not because of any particular partiality for General Huerta, but because the provisional government of which he is president, is now the only established authority in Mexico and the only quarter to which the United States can look for protection for American life and property.
So urgently is such protection desired by the United States government that it is ready to extend its best wishes to any authority which can keep the peace in Mexico. Consequently it is earnestly hoped by the present Administration in Washington that the Huerta Government will prove itself equal to the occasion. The fact that it can establish itself in actual control of all Mexico the better will the officials of the Taft Administration be pleased. Meanwhile these officials are disposed to give the Huerta government its moral support and friendly sympathy.
The statement given out by Amassador Wilson, which expressed his belief that the provisional government in Mexico was innocent of the charge that it instigated the killing of Madero and Pino Suarez, caused some surprise here to-day in official quarters, and the Ambassador's action was criticized as hasty and ill-advised.

At the state department however, there was shown a disposition to excuse him for making a statement so friendly to the still unrecognized government and quite contrary to public opinion in the United States.
It was pointed out that the Ambasador is actually on the scene of the recent disturbances in Mexico, and probably has more details and more accurate knowledge of the needs of the situation than is had in Washington.

To State Department officials one of the most menacing aspects of the present situation in Mexico is the fact that the Huerta government has given assurances that American claims will receive prompt attention.
Prior to the fall of the Madero government this was one of the most exasperating phases of the situation with which the United States had to contend.

TWO HUNDRED

Were Either Killed or Wounded by an Explosion in Spain---They Were at the Time Watching an Effort to Remove an Enormous Block of Rock.

(Courier Leased Wire)
BARCELONA, Spain, Feb. 25.—Upwards of 200 people were killed or wounded by the ill-timed explosion of a charge of 7,000 pounds of black powder which had been laid yesterday by the miners in charge of the new harbor works with the object of razing an enormous block of rock.
An immense concourse of townspeople had gathered to witness the removal of the hill separating Spain from the cooling harbor of Barcelona, a mile and a half distant.

Lieut. Governor of New York Advocates the Adoption of the Power Plan of Ontario

(Courier Leased Wire)
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Lieutenant Governor Glynn advocated state development of electricity at a hearing before the Legislature today on bills which would announce the establishment of a hydroelectric plant for the capital district. It is proposed to use the surplus waters of the barge canal for developing power.
"I start this development of our water," said Mr. Glynn, "and insure forever to New York the manufacture supremacy of the western world. Our waste water undeveloped to-day is not worth a cent; developed waste water is worth more than the coal of Pennsylvania or the iron of Alabama.

"Right at our doors," continued Mr. Glynn, "we are allowing millions of dollars of power to run to waste. Our bill proposes to turn these millions of waste into power, to give impetus to our business, work to our men, help to our women, and bread to our children.

"Last night the Prime Minister of Canada, at a banquet in Albany, made a plea for the conservation of water power of this continent. He declared that the development of cheap electricity in the Province of Ontario was a success. What Premier Borden says Canada has successfully done, gentlemen of the Legislature, we ask you to allow the State of New York to do.

Conservationists Favor.

John E. VanKenna and Geo. W.
Moore, of the State Conservation commission, and representatives of local business concerns also favored the measure.

R. P. Bolton, New York, a member of the National Electric Light Association, one of the principal opponents, compared the prices of furnishings furnishing light and power with those in Ontario to show that the Canadian prices were higher than those charged by private corporations in this state.

T. Harvey Ferris of Utica, head of the Legislative committee, that reported unfavorably on the Ontario plan, spoke briefly, defending the report that his committee made.

The conservation commission has prepared amendments to the bill enabling the commission to readjust the charges of municipalities, fix maximum and minimum charges to consumers, provide that no municipalities may construct an independent plant without the commission's permission and providing for direct contracts between the consumer and the state.

SERIOUS SITUATION

(Courier Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Club owners of the International Baseball League are said to be facing a serious situation because of the enforcement of a new salary limit of $6,000 a month for each club as compared with $8,000 last year. With the exception of the Newark Club, which has signed all of its men, the entire circuit is reported in difficulties because of hold-outs, players generally demanding more rather than less salary. Only eight of the Jersey City club men have signed. In Rochester the situation is such that C. T. Champlin, the club owner, has issued by telegram an ultimatum to the players that unless they come into a lobby by next Saturday they will be suspended for the rest of the year.

The $6,000 salary limit is one fixed by the National Association leagues, and approved recently by the National Baseball Commission against the protests of President Barrow of the league. Under the circumstances the club owners declare they are powerless as they have offered their recalcitrant players as much as possible.

PECULIAR SUICIDE.

(Courier Leased Wire)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—With a stethoscope applied to his ears, Carl W. Schneider, a manufacturer of surgical instruments yesterday listened to his heart record its dying beats after he had pierced that organ with a steel lance. Near the body, which was discovered in the rear of his store, the police found a piece of paper on which was written the figures "1, 2, 3," and ending with "36." Deputy Coroner McKeever believes this is the record of the pulsations Schneider had strength to record before his death. He was 48 years old and had been in poor health.

BAD EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

(Courier Leased Wire)
WELLINGTON, N. Z., Feb. 25.— With a report as of artillery discharged a heavy earthquake shook this city to-day, terrorizing inhabitants shaking down chimneys and damaging many houses. Nobody was killed, though many were cut by falling bricks from the loosened chimneys. The shock was the severest ever felt in New Zealand.

MEXICO FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

(Courier Leased Wire)
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 25.—The departure from Mexico of Ernesto Madero, uncle of the late president and former minister of finance, has resulted in a check being made of the cash in the government treasury which showed the existence of a balance of $9,200,000. This amount, however, does not represent the whole of the immediately available resources of the new administration as there are various deposits in both local and foreign banks which can be drawn on by the government.

SIR WILFRED

Gets His in Good and Proper Style---Member of Calgary Shows Him up and Also Other Liberal Leaders.

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—One of the liveliest afternoons that this session has seen came yesterday afternoon with R. B. Bennett, Calgary's cyclonomic member, on the floor contin-ing the navy debate.
Mr. Bennett made what will undoubtedly rank as one of the strongest speeches that the issue has brought forth, but the spectacular interest of his effort came in the way in which he showed up four of the Liberal leaders, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, as former apostles of separation and independence; Dr. Clark, of Red Deer, as renouncing his free trade principles when it was a matter of Liberal expediency to argue otherwise, and Hon. Frank Oliver for his recent action in refusing to stand while the National Anthem was sung in the House. It was a performance which the House enjoyed immensely and the gallery grew larger every minute until at 6 o'clock it was crowded.

For Six Reasons.
Mr. Bennett said he supported the Borden proposal for many reasons, but chiefly for these six: 1.—Because we are an integral part of the British Empire.

2.—Because the naval supremacy of that empire is menaced.
3.—Because it is our duty and privilege as a self respecting people to assist in maintaining that supremacy.
4.—Because co-operation in naval defence is necessary to efficiency.
5.—Because it makes for and will insure world peace.
6.—Because it makes for the consolidation and organization of the British Empire—a step toward imperial defence.
These six propositions he took up in turn and dealt with at length in a speech that was remarkable for a clearness of thought and charm of presentation.
The leader of the Opposition was the first of the four Liberal leaders to come under the fire of the Calgary man. Mr. Bennett recalled to the House Sir Wilfrid's speech in Boston, when he said that Britain and Canada must part, and he asked if the right honorable gentleman believed that now

An Enquiry on Behalf of Stop- ping Police Graft in New York

(Courier Leased Wire)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The Mayor of New York, a former mayor, a former acting mayor and other high city and county officials in and out of office will help the committee of state legislators frame legislation to remedy the police situation in New York City. Hearings began to-day before this committee, will continue until the members feel themselves able to diagnose the recent police graft scandals and recommend laws to cure them.

Mayor Gaynor, former Mayor Geo.
B. McClellan and former District Attorney William Travers Jerome are expected to give their views to-morrow. Other witnesses will be John Purroy Mitchell, who was mayor during Mayor Gaynor's illness; former District Attorney Eugene A.

Philbin, District Attorney Whitman, former police officials and several prominent clergymen who have made studies of municipal corruption.
The hearings will be unlike ordinary investigations because the witnesses will all be voluntary and none will be put under oath or cross-examined. The committee has made an appeal for aid to all public spirited citizens.
The committee will have at its disposal the testimony received by the aldermanic committee, which has been conducting an investigation of graft for several weeks, examining witnesses under oath, and the data gathered by the Citizens' committee organized soon after the murder of Herman Rosenthal the gambler, gave the present crusade its first impetus.

MRS. PANKHURST

Is Committed for Trial--She Announces That if Incarcerated She Will at Once Inaugurate a Hunger Strike

(Courier Leased Wire)
EPSOM, Eng., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, was committed for trial by the police magistrate here to-day on the charge of inciting persons to commit malicious damage to property.
The court house was ablaze with suffragette colors, and almost every seat was occupied by militant suffragettes when the magistrate took his seat to resume the hearing adjourned room yesterday.

Archibald H. Bodkin, counsel for the treasury department, appeared to prosecute. He demanded the committal of Mrs. Pankhurst for trial at the county assizes, saying that she was a self-confessed accessory to the explosion which virtually destroyed Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George's country house, than which he declared, "a more abominable and cruel outrage probably has ever been conceived."

Mr. Bodkin then read copious extracts delivered at public meetings on January 27, January 30, February 3 and February 19, as evidence that she had been seditionously plotting and conspiring to commit outrages on property and persons, "with the avowed object of overawing the public and abjecting the lives of prominent men intolerable, and thereby coercing the Government."

Among the extracts were one in which Mrs. Pankhurst called for the names and addresses "of those who were prepared to take part in a gain-ant onslaught with me." Another said: "Short of taking lives, we are warranted in using all the methods employed in times of war." A third said the militant suffragettes intended "to carry on the fight with increasingly effective methods until the vote was granted to women. They were obliged to strike the enemy, the Government, through other people, and that was always necessary in revolutionary warfare." At another meeting she announced that the suffragettes were planning an "exciting civil war," while at Cardiff she made the declaration "We have blown up the Chancellor of the Exchequer's house."

Mrs. Pankhurst did not offer any defence to-day, declaring that she reserved it for the trial at the assizes.
Mrs. Pankhurst, when she was committed for trial by the magistrate, informed him that she would forthwith begin a "hunger strike." She added: "If I am still alive when the assizes commence it will be a dying woman who will be tried." Mrs. Pankhurst was detained 12 prison, but not being granted, as she refused to give an undertaking to refrain from political activities pending her trial.

THE RING

(Courier Leased Wire).
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 26.—A hitch in the negotiations for the match between Freddie Welsh, light-weight champion of England, and young Jack O'Brien, was conveyed by cable to O'Brien's brother yesterday, asking him to delay young Jack's sailing for Liverpool as Welsh has declared he will not enter the ring unless he is guaranteed the sum of $7,500, win, lose or draw.
O'Brien cabled that his brother had sailed on Saturday, and that if Welsh would not accept, that Matt Wells or the Australian champion, McKeagan would be satisfactory at the same weight.

Last night a social evening was held in the gymnasium. The first part was taken up with two basketball games, the first of which was between the Life Club and Saturday Night class, the former winning by the slim margin of one point, the score being 5-4. This was quite a surprise to the Saturday night team, as they considered themselves unbeatable. The line-up for the game was: Life Club, defence, G. Sage; centre, G. H. Roper; forwards, A. Clark, W. Sweeney. Saturday Night, centre, A. Cole; defence, E. Woodley; forwards, H. H. Hamilton, E. Adams. The second game was Tuesday Night vs. Life Club. This contest was won by Tuesday night class by a score of 18-4. This puts the Tuesday Night team in the lead. The line-up of the Tuesday night class: Centre, E. Campbell; forwards, N. McDonald, E. Thorburn; defence, R. Cinnamon. This last win of the Tuesday Night class was the surprise of the evening, as the Saturday Night class had already defeated the Tuesday class. After the game light refreshments were served which were heartily appreciated after the strenuous exercise.

challenge him for a reply. There are thousands of young men in the West not born under the British flag who are looking to this parliament for their views and their ideals. It is a proper and a pertinent question and unless he answers it we have a right to expect that he has not changed his views."

Sir Wilfrid sat silent.
Mr. Bennett said further that Sir Wilfrid, speaking in Quebec, had said that independence would come to Canada as "the ripe fruit drops from the parent tree." Did he still think that?

Sir Wilfrid again sat silent.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux's turn came next. The Liberals said Mr. Bennett had been saying much about Nationalist influence on the navy question. He would show that the Liberals were the founders of the Nationalist party in Quebec and that Hon. Mr. Lemieux was the prince of Nationalists. He then read a resolution, moved at the Club National, Montreal, in 1890, declaring that while not pronouncing on the wisdom of Parliament presenting an address to Queen Victoria, the members disapproved of anything that would tend to alienate American sympathies at a time when closer commercial relations were desirable. It further declared that while sincere admirers of the English constitutional system, the club must have as its aim the complete independence of Canada and emancipation from all European bonds.

Mr. Lemieux refused to be drawn out, and Mr. Bennett continued: "I am afraid that it is a case of the hair of Esau, but the voice was the voice of Esau." (Laughter).

Mr. Bennett proceeded to twit Dr. Clark (Red Deer) declaring that he would give him an opportunity to explain the speech he made in Calgary "under police protection," enunciating his free trade ideas.

Hon. Mr. Oliver was on his feet at once.

"I was present in Calgary, and with the member for Red Deer, addressed a meeting," he said, "and I wish to say that neither the member for Red Deer nor myself were under police protection, or needed it. Nor was there any effort to have it notwithstanding the presence of a number of ruffians who tried to break up the meeting."

Mr. Bennett repeated his statement that the police were called out and declared that Ald. Frost was the man who called them out, as the papers of the next day showed.

"Who are these men whom the member for Edmonton calls ruffians?" he added. "One of them stood on the deck of the Combar at Alexandria; another was the brave Wauchope at Magersfontein. They were men who had fought at Tel-El-Keir and Paardeburg. These were the men, and they were the men who were accustomed to stand to attention when the National Anthem was sung. (Con servative cheers and laughter).

Hon. Francis Oliver—They may have been all right in those other places, but they couldn't break up the Calgary meeting.

Dr. Clark (Red Deer)—There was an effort made to break up the meeting.

Mr. Bennett—And what prevented it but police protection.

Hon. Mr. Oliver—The decency and common sense and respectability of the honorable citizens of Calgary, not the presence of ruffians.

Mr. Bennett—They came to hear the member for Red Deer renounce free trade, and to hear from the member for Edmonton why he kept his seat when the National Anthem was sung.

Hon. Mr. Oliver—There was no person who asked any question as to whether I stood or sat.

Mr. Bennett—They didn't need to ask. They knew better. It was a great scene, the great renunciation of free trade by the member for Red Deer declaring in favor of a navy built in Canada. He had condemned the steel industry, but this sudden conversion from the doctrines of free trade was delightfully interesting and amusing. There was the little Englishman and the little Canadian side by side, and whenever on said "navy" the audience sang Rule Britannia, and when the word "empire" came they sang "God Save the King."

In the evening Mr. Bennett got after another of the Liberal leaders in the person of Hon. Wm. Lyon Mackenzie King. He recalled the fact that at his nomination meeting in Waterloo in 1911, election the former Minister of Labor demanded from his constituents as to who the Borden Dreadnoughts were designed to fight. Was it not the people of their fatherland. And The Globe reporting it, had stated that "the audience, many of whom were of German origin, applauded the utterance."

"That statement," said Mr. Bennett, "should have disqualified him from ever holding office in this country. It is little wonder that he was then and there relegated to the obscurity from which he should never have emerged and that in his place the loyal citizens of North Waterloo elected Mayor Wetschel of Waterloo as their representative."

Dr. Michael Clark, Red Deer, followed. He ridiculed the memorandum of the admiralty in view of the fact at the present time Great Britain and Germany were on the way to better relations than have prevailed for some time.

The body of the baby was kept in the house six weeks when the mother died and Irvine was arrested. The case continues.

(Courier Leased Wire).
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—A cable from London says: The boxer, Harry Lewis, is suing the British Motor Car Company and the London General Omnibus Company for injuries received in a collision between a taxicab and a motor bus in 1912, in which he attributes his defeat in the contest with Carpenter, and alleges that his earnings dropped from $9,500 to $4,000 a year. WANT ONTARIO'S HELP

(Courier Leased Wire).
TORONTO, Feb. 26.—Winnipeg wants to establish an inexhaustible water supply, and wants Ontario to help her in the effort. For that reason, T. R. Deacon, mayor of Winnipeg, Judge Robson, public utilities commissioner of Manitoba, and Col. McLean, controller of the city of Winnipeg, have been visitors at the parliament buildings for the past two days.
They have had conferences with Premier Whitney and Hon. W. H. Fearst with a view to arranging for water supply from one of the Ontario lakes, Shovel lake, one of the extreme western bays of Lake of the Woods, in the province of Ontario. The cost of bringing the water to Winnipeg from this point will be approximately $10,000,000. The distance will be between 60 and 70 miles.

Could Not Heal

The Wound

For many years Dr. Chase's Ointment has had an enviable reputation as a means of healing ulcers, sores and wounds that refuse to yield to other treatments.

In this letter you will read of a case in which doctors failed to heal a wound made in operating. All sorts of treatments were tried in vain, until Dr. Chase's Ointment came to the rescue and made a cure.

Mr. G. E. Leslie, brakeman on the C.P.R., and living at Grand Falls, N.B., writes: "I have given Dr. Chase's Ointment a most severe test, and do not believe there is any treatment so successful as a healer of the skin. I was operated on for a tumor, with the result that a wound was left which refused to heal, in spite of many preparations tried. Dr. Chase's Ointment healed the wound rapidly. So thankful am I for the cure that I want others to know about this wonderful preparation."

EXPERT ADVICE

Money spent on keeping time pieces "on the job" is really a necessary expenditure.

Plenty of good watches aren't doing their best work, simply because they can't.

Many a fifty or hundred dollar watch is being slowly but surely ruined, because it needs a dollars worth of cleaning.

If this reminds you that your watch is in that shape, let it also remind you that our repair dept. can attend to your needs on short notice.

ARCHDEACON

Meets Death in a Peculiar Manner--He Mistook a Window for an Entry Door.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 25.—Ven. Archdeacon J. A. Kaulbach, of Truro one of the best-known clergymen in Nova Scotia, was killed this evening in Truro. After dinner he left his residence to see a man at the Central engine house, about 100 yards distant. He intended entering that building by the door at the side, but walked past this door in the darkness about 30 feet to the hose tower in the rear. In this tower some two feet above the ground is a window swinging on hinges. This he opened and stepping in, fell ten feet to the concrete floor.

Two hours later the janitor went to the hose tower, the janitor found a draft of air and went to examine the cause. Reaching the top of the hose tower, the janitor found the dead body of the archdeacon. No inquest will be held.

Rev. Mr. Kaulbach was about 75 years old. A son, formerly in the British army, is now at Kingston, Ont. Archdeacon Kaulbach, who came from Quebec, died a few months ago. Rev. Mr. Kaulbach had been a minister of the Church of England at Truro for 33 years.

For Sprains and Bruises. There is nothing better for sprains and contusions than Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. It will reduce the swelling that follows a sprain, will cool the inflamed flesh and draw the pain as if by magic. It will take the ache out of a bruise and prevent the flesh from discoloring. It seems as if there was magic in it, so speedily does the injury disappear under treatment.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh), that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

"I want all mankind to benefit by my discovery. I have already turned over some of my bacilli to the German government, and I am very glad to turn it over to the American government."

Dr. Friedmann denied that he had been offered $1,000,000 by Mr. Finlay if he would cure 95 out of 100 patients in this country. He admitted that he was to receive a substantial compensation in the event that he cured the banker's son-in-law, Ray Paris of this city.

"I am not mercenary," he said, "all I care about is sufficient reward to enable me to demonstrate my cure to the world."

Dr. Friedmann, who was accompanied by an assistant and a private secretary, was met at the pier by Mr. Finlay and taken as his guest to a banquet last night at the Lotus Club.

The surgeon brings a quantity of his bacilli with him which he experts administer to the banker's son-in-law to-day. He has also agreed to meet a laboratory expert of the government in this city on Thursday to arrange for the demonstration, which will be tried on tuberculous patients.

The Mission of a Turkish Envoy Fails in the Old Land

(Courier Leased Wire).
CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 26.—The mission to London of Ibrahim Hakki Pasha on behalf of the Ottoman Government has failed. His object was to persuade the European powers to support the claim of Turkey to the retention of Adrianople. He was, however, unable to prevail upon the ambassadors of the powers to accept the Porte's reply to the European note as a basis for fresh negotiations for peace and contrary to rumors which have been current all over Europe he had no authority to go beyond the proposals contained in Turkey's response.

The ambassadors replied verbally to Ibrahim Hakki Pasha in the sense indicated but left the door open for fresh proposals from Turkey as they did not insist on the compliance of the Porte with the terms of the original note presented at Constantinople by the representatives of the powers.

GETTING GRAY? USE SAGE TEA TO RESTORE NATURAL COLOR OF HAIR

Says Sage and Sulphur Darkens Hair Beautifully and Ends Dandruff.

Hair that loses its color and luster or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair, says a well known local pharmacist. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful and even to-day this simple preparation has no equal. Millions of women and men too, who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive use only Sage Tea and Sulphur.

ask at any drug store for a 50c bottle of the ready to use preparation called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Customers like this best because it darkens so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides it contains ingredients which take off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. No, it is not a dye or even like it. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two it is restored to its natural color. What delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that besides beautifully darkening the hair they say it brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Alleged Discoverer of a Cure for Consumption Reaches the United States

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Dr. Frederick F. Friedmann, the discoverer of a cure for tuberculosis, arrived here yesterday aboard the steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie.

Dr. Friedmann, who comes to this country at the invitation of Charles E. Finlay, a New York banker, who hopes the physician will be able to cure his son-in-law of the disease, declared last night that his remedy was not a secret, and that he proposed to make known "to all the world" the method by which it was created and the manner in which it was administered. It consisted of bacilli taken from a turtle into which tubercular bacilli from a human being had been injected, he explained.

In geographical research three women have recently made their mark, Miss E. C. Semple, whose lecture before the Royal Geographical Society on the influence of geographical conditions upon Jaanes agriculture has already been noticed, as also has Mrs. Bullock Workman's wonderful expedition to the Rose glacier; Mrs. Zelia Nuttall, too, has through her discovery in the Mexican archives of documents relating to Sir Francis Drake added much of value to the geographical history of England.

The following rules for practical life were given by Mr. Jefferson, in a letter of advice to his namesake, Thomas Jefferson Smith, in 1835:
1. Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day.
2. Never trouble others for what you can do yourself.
3. Never spend your money before you have it.
4. Never buy what you do not want because it is cheap.
5. Pride costs us more than hunger, thirst and cold.
6. We never repent of having eaten too little.
7. Nothing is troublesome that we do willingly.
8. How much pain have those evils cost us which never happened.
9. Take things always by their smooth handle.
10. When angry, count ten before you speak; if very hungry, a hundred.

Some interesting discussion has taken place in English papers regarding the probable height of the great wave which crippled the steamer "Narving" in the Bay of Biscay, the 25th of December last so injuring the boat that she had to flash the "Save Our Souls" wireless message in her distress, and then put back to English shores with her 248 emigrants bound for Australia.
The chief officers stated that he had been round the Horn many times but never before had he seen such a sea, maintaining that the wave must have been 70 feet in height.
This estimate has been questioned as 70 feet is most unusual. Even among "mountainous seas," according to the greatest probable authority upon sea waves, Dr. Vaughan Cornish.

The conclusions which his authority has reached in a book upon the subject are of considerable interest. "Anywhere in the North Atlantic," he says, "with sea room of from 600 up to certainly 1,000, and, perhaps, 2,000 miles the height of the large waves during ordinary stormy gales is practically constant, being not less than 42 feet. With regard to the height which is momentarily attained by peaks of wave shooting upwards where waves cross, the late Lord Kelvin said he had measured one 60 feet high.
Accounts not unfrequently appear in the newspapers of some great wave encountered by fast Atlantic liners. These are sometimes reported as 80 feet, 90 feet and even 100 feet high. This invariably relates to the altitude above the flotation line of the superstructures which have been deluged with water. This is not, properly speaking, the height of a wave, but merely the height to which a body of water is thrown when a wave breaks on board. This increases with the speed of the ship, which dips her bows into the rising billow in head sea."
"In the Northern Pacific," Dr.

Cornish continues, "the type of storm is the same."
"In the Southern Pacific, where the ocean uninterrupted encircles the globe, is the region of the full grown storm waves, and the Cape of Good Hope—Australia route and the passage round Cape Horn are notable. The Southern Ocean has much longer waves. Captain Avid, of the Corinthia, has reported a wave "quite fifty feet in height," but this regarded as exceptional, and he says he felt glad when he had passed it without doing any damage."
The highest wave attributed to the China Sea is 21 feet.
In the Mediterranean, Dr. Vaughan Cornish's biggest observation has been 22 feet, near the Straits of Bonifacio.

"Of strictly inland seas the most careful measurements have been taken on Lake Superior. During unusually severe storms waves may be encountered to deep water of from 20 feet to 25 feet and a length of 275 feet to 325 feet."
To the passengers on the vessels which encounter these large waves towering about the decks, appear to assume such prodigious heights, that these scientific statements will probably not be received with the equanimity they deserve.

LAUGHTER LINES.

When Israel Lane returned from the wedding of David Fletcher, who is known in the Balmly Creek country as a mighty hunter, he immediately sought the village store, where the bridegroom's cronies were gathered, waiting for news of the ceremony.
"Well," said one of the number, "how'd it go off?"
"Pret' fair, thanks to me," replied Israel.
"What'd you do?" demanded another.

"I saved parson considerable of a shock, and I got some blouses," said Israel, with calm satisfaction. "Just before they was ready to stand up in the parlor I says to Dave, 'I don't know what made me; guess it was meant to be,—I says, 'e's see your license.'"
"Well, Dave handed it over and I discovered it was a hunting license. 'What's this?' I says, hunting it back. 'You ain't got to hunt any longer, you've got her.'"
"It seems," concluded Israel, "that Dave just said he 'wanted a license,' and of course the clerk thought he wanted the usual kind."

"I presume, my good fellow, you're a laborer," said a lawyer to a plainly dressed witness at the police court some time ago.
"You are right. I am a workman," replied the witness, who was a civil engineer.
"Familiar with the use of the pick, shovel and spade, I presume?"
"To some extent; those are not the principal implements of my trade though."
"Perhaps you will condescend to enlighten me as to your principle implements."
"It is hardly worth while. You do not understand their nature or use."
"Probably not," loftily, "but I insist on knowing what they are."
"Brains."

SOME GOOD CHAFING DISH RECEIPTS.

Curry of Lobster—Brown one tablespoonful of finely chopped onion in two tablespoonfuls of butter and then add one teaspoonful of curry powder and a tablespoonful of flour. Stir vigorously until the mixture is smooth and brown and then add two cupfuls of stock and cook the whole for five minutes more. Have ready two cupfuls of boiled lobster cut into small pieces which is now to be added to the stock mixture, but only allow to cook until heated through. Season with a half teaspoonful of salt and serve on pieces of thin toast from which the crusts have been cut if desired. Lobster paprika—if one does not relish the taste of curry—is made in a similar manner, substituting, however, olive oil for the butter, and a teaspoonful of paprika for the curry powder.

Sweetbreads, Palermo—Parboil in advance, one pair of sweetbreads and cut ten or a dozen olives in strips. Melt and brown two tablespoonfuls of butter in the chafing dish, add two tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until very smooth and brown. Pour in one pint of stock and when the mixture is smooth add the sweetbreads which have been picked into small pieces. Stir gently until the sauce thickens, add a salt and pepper and a tablespoonful of mushroom catsup. Serve with thin toast.

Clams a la Newberg—Melt a tablespoonful of butter in the chafing dish, put in a tablespoonful of flour, and stir until smooth, when add a cupful of cream and then twenty-five clams from which all the liquid has been drained. As soon as the cream is heated put in the yolks of two eggs beaten light. Stir the eggs in gradually, and cook only until the clams are thoroughly heated, not allowing the sauce to come to a boil. Season with paprika and a dash of cayenne and add two tablespoonfuls sherry wine. Serve at once, on crackers, if desired.

THE DEATH Of the Rev. Canon Mockridge— He Was an Old Brantford Boy and Leaves Relatives Here.

TORONTO, Feb. 26.—Rev. Chas. Henry Mockridge, M.A., D.D., one of the first and best known graduates of Trinity College, died yesterday at his home in Louisville, Kentucky, as the result of a general breakdown in his health. He had been ill for about a month. The late Dr. Mockridge was a former curate of St. George's church and Trinity church, Toronto, and was a canon of St. Alban's Cathedral. Through his connection as secretary-treasurer of the old Dominion and Foreign Missionary Society, of the Canadian Church, a predecessor of the M.S.C.C., he became widely known throughout Canada while quite a young man and was universally respected.

As a mission worker the late Dr. Mockridge had an enviable reputation. His very first work after ordination was at mission churches in Madoc and Hillier, Ont., and special emphasis was placed on missions in the churches with which he was connected during his long life in the ministry. In a large portion of his about three years ago to take charge of a new mission church at Louisville, which proved to be his final charge. Dr. Mockridge was also a strong advocate of temperance, and was wont to deliver powerful sermons on the subject. He was known as a man of high ideal and an energetic speaker. Among the many important charges he held was that of rector and canon of Christ Church Cathedral, Hamilton.

Had Active Career
Rev. Chas. Henry Mockridge was the son of the late Rev. Jas. Mockridge rector of St. George's, Belleville, and was born at Brantford, on December 15, 1844. He received his primary education there and afterwards attended Trinity College, Toronto taking his B.A. in 1865, M.A. in 1869 and receiving his B.D. 1877 and D.D. in 1882. He was ordained deacon in 1868 and priest in 1869 by the late Archbishop Lewis. After serving at the Madoc and Hillier missions he came to Toronto and was curate of St. George's Church Cathedral, Hamilton, as rector in charge, and was later rector at Windsor, N.S. Following this he was secretary-treasurer of the Missionary Society, editor of the Canadian Church Magazine and Missionary News, and secretary to the board of examiners for granting divinity degrees in the ecclesiastical province of Canada. He was made a canon of St. Alban's, Toronto, in 1890. In 1897 he was appointed to the mission in South Burlingh, but resigned not long afterwards to accept the rectorship of Watertown, N.Y. Since that time he has been in charge of churches in various parts of New York State in Detroit, Boston and in California.

Work as an Author.
Dr. Mockridge served as clerical secretary to the Synods of Niagara and Toronto, and was president of the Hamilton association in 1885-86. He was the author of "The Bishops of the Church of England in Canada and Newfoundland," published in 1896, and in politics was a supporter of the Conservative party.
Dr. Mockridge married Miss Eliza Sophia Grier, daughter of the late Rev. John Grier of Belleville. His four sons all followed in his footsteps entering the ministry. He is survived by his widow, three sons, Rev. John, vicar of Trinity Chapel, New York; Rev. William of Louisville, but at present in Toronto; Rev. Hamilton of Ontario; and one daughter, Mrs. Webster, Boston. Rev. Chas. Mockridge, the fourth son, died several years ago. The mother superior of St. John's Hospital, Toronto, is a sister-in-law.
Deceased was a nephew of the late Major Lemon of Brantford, and in early life was on the Courier staff. Relatives are still resident here.

Old World Notes

Coal from Snowdown Colliery, between Dover and Canterbury, has been put on the local market by coal dealers at prices slightly below those of imported coal. This is the first Kentish coal to be publicly marketed.

Lady Alice Archer-Houlborn's house in Cranley Gardens, S.W., was visited by thieves who entered a window after climbing on to the roof. They escaped with three diamonds and pearl neck-chains, two diamond brooches, and other jewelled trinkets.

At the Kingston-on-Thames Licensing Sessions the chairman announced that since the 1904 act came into force 103 licenses had up to the present been extinguished in the county of Surrey at a total cost of £125,000 which money had entirely come from the trade itself.

Sweethearts when boy and girl, James Callard, a pensioner, of Devonport Dockyard, aged 75, was recently married at Wobborough Church, Newton Abbot, the bride being Mrs. Drew, aged 70. Both had been married twice and had children. Only the rector and the church officials witnessed the ceremony.

The death is announced at Saltburn of Mr. Joseph Walton, son and heir of Sir Joseph Walton, M.P., for Barnsley. Mr. Walton, who was 31 years of age, was a barrister, and was in court three days before his death. Sir Joseph has two daughters, but no other son. The baronetcy was conferred in 1910.

Licenses to practice medicine have been granted by the Royal College of Physicians, London, to Miss Merlin Kingsley, of the Royal Free Hospital and Manchester and Calcutta University, and Miss Minerva Reid, M.B., of the Royal Free Hospital and Toronto University, who have passed the required examinations.

Turning on the grass by the roadside to avoid a cyclist on Dartford Heath, a motorcar owned by Councillor Smale, of Dartford, knocked down and killed Richard Hawkins, 63, of Colney road, Dartford, who was on the side path. At the inquest a verdict of "Accidental death" was returned and the driver exonerated.

Thirty-six bluejackets drew the carriage at the funeral of Admiral Sir Frederick Bedford at Walton-on-Thames, and the admiral's collie dog Tony, was in the procession. The King was represented by Capt. Pakenham, Sir Newton Moore, Agent-General for Western Australia, represented that state, of which Sir Frederick Bedford was Governor from 1903 to 1909.

There are the remains of several Roman roads in Hertfordshire, Epping street, Watling street, and the Icknield Way, Akeman street, and a military road. After discussing the desirability of taking over the ancient roads in the country under the Ancient Monuments Protection Acts, the County Council at their latest meeting decided to leave matters as they are.

Henry Albert Baker a Wycliffe preacher, was committed for trial at Sheffield on a charge of damaging a statue of the Virgin and Child in St. Matthew's Church. The vicar, the Rev. G. C. Ommanney, stated that he did not obtain a faculty for the erection of the statue. He was certain that it was in no danger of being made an object of superstitious reverence.

At an inquest at St. Ives, Huntingdonshire, the jury found that Gustav Kunne, a German, murdered Mrs. Elizabeth Warner, a restaurant keeper, and then committed suicide. Witnesses said that the man and woman were on most affectionate terms, and both were very jealous. A fellow worker said that Kunne told him that someone had told the woman he had been kissing another woman. Kunne was very difficult to get on with.

Music and Drama

"Officer 666" the play that has been written and talked about more than any theatrical production launched in the amusement field in many years, will be presented at the Grand Tuesday, March 4th.
The piece, by Augustin MacHugh, is full of extraordinary surprises and clean fun that keeps its audience in almost continuous laughter. It is, in fact, a melodramatic farce quite out of the ordinary and, presented more thrills and tense moments than one can realize as emanating from a single evening's entertainment.

Cohan and Harris are the sponsors for "Officer 666," and this fact alone is sufficient guarantee of its worth as an entertainment. Then, too, it is a clean play, presented by an admirable company of comedians and comedienne, and it is filled to the brim with logical tricks and swiftly moving surprises that keep the interest of the audience at concert pitch throughout its enactment. In short, it is a charming farce, charmingly presented and as full of laughs as the small boy is of ice cream after coming home from a church festival.

Lady Marjorie's Love

Marjorie's pale cheeks flushed up hot and red; the haughty little gesture with which she threw back her head was one which had become very familiar to Gerard Barrington. To Jocelyn had been intimately acquainted with it ever since she was fourteen.
"It will be time enough for him to do that when I ask him for either, Fenella. At present I have not done so."

"No? I confess that I admire your patience my dear. What I think of your judgment is another matter. So Mr. Bligh is coming down at last?
And at what time?"
"He says he will be here to lunchon." "Ah. And he remains, of course?" "No. He says he shall drive over to Wynneborough and catch the express from there. He has business."

"Indeed, for a man who does nothing whatever, he is certainly excess-sively occupied. And so beyond that there is nothing in the letter, is there?"
"Nothing. There was no need for more as he is coming. He dislikes writing long letters and I don't care for reading them. I thought I had better tell you Fenella, or I should not have interrupted you. Pray excuse me."

She walked out of the room with her cheeks still hot and her head still high. The Countess, looking after her shrugged her shoulders and smiled—a smile of half disdainful compassion.
"There are none so blind as those who won't see." She exemplifies the proverb, the foolish little creature, if she did not take so absurdly romantic a view of life, she would surely see what his conduct means. As it is I positively believe she has not the faintest idea that her loss of fortune and everything else can make any difference in the engagement."

"Some one who appeared presently, and who was not of the household, —Mr. Barrington. She was so absorbed in her musings that she would not have been aware of his presence had he not halted and spoken her name."
"Good morning, Lady Marjorie."
"Oh, Mr. Barrington—good morning." She raised herself with a little flutter and gave him her hand. Since that talk in the shadow of the old banners which had been almost confidential she had nearly always done so—he seemed to expect it.

"I really did not see you; at the lowest computation you were a hundred miles away. I ought to apologise for disturbing you, but seeing you here, I could not resist stopping to ask if your headache is better?"
"Very much better, thanks. Keeping quiet always cures it. What a lovely morning isn't it?"
"Glorious—far too lovely for you to be indoors. May I suggest that you will drive the headache even farther off than it is at present if you come out in the air."

"I dare say, but I am not going out this morning. The wind is so cold and brusque by themselves, and because she thought so and was not at the moment in a snubbing humor, she added more.

"I really can't go out," she said
"I am expecting a visitor."
"I see. I understand. How entirely I understand. Marjorie had no conception, and she saw the quick change in his face without in the least comprehending it. Had he read the letter that announced his coming he would not have known better than he did that she was waiting for Loftus Petherick. He had the thought of helping her on."

"Nothing, thanks. You are going there again?"
"I must. I am in a muddle about old Parkin's lease—can't make top or tail of it. I must get Petherick to help me out."

"He will understand. I think." Marjorie's tone was a little cold; she was not sure that she liked hearing her favorite Mr. Petherick alluded to in that unceremonious fashion. Certainly she dismissed the incompetent Bligh could have thought of doing it. But then Barrington, and ceremony always did somehow seem as assunder as the Poles. She would like to have called him rude, ill-bred but she had never been able to feel that he was either. She decided not to resent this style of mentioning Mr.
Petherick; more, she even designed to continue the conversation. "You seem to find that the estate gives you a great deal to do, Mr. Barrington?"
"You are right. I do not think I ever worked so hard in my life."

Marjorie opened her eyes involuntarily. It struck even her inexperience that if Mr. Barrington had ever taken things more easily than the exceedingly easy fashion in which he took them at Castle Marling he must be the most enviable servant to whom employer ever paid wages. Something of this was expressed in the involuntary little twist of her mouth. Glancing up she saw a hinted laugh in his eyes and smiled.

"Oh, you are joking," she said.
"Indeed I am not. It is a serious matter. I shall tell Mr. Cradburn that I want a rise in my pay."
"That you—what?"

They Soothe Excited Nerves—Nervous affections are usually attributable to defective digestion, as the stomach dominates the nerve centers. A course of Parmed's Vegetable Pills will settle the disturbances of this character, and by restoring the stomach to normal action relieve the nerves from irritation. There is no sedative like them and in the correction of irregularities of the digestive processes, no preparation has done so effective work, as can be testified to by thousands.

Shook Upset The Nerves

This letter from Mrs. Tweedle is interesting because it shows how nervous trouble develops gradually from such derangements as stomach trouble, until prostration and locomotor ataxia or paralysis render the victim helpless.

It is even more important because it tells how the writer was cured by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the greatest of nerve restoratives.

Mrs. T. F. Tweedle, Brighton, Ont., writes: "For years I was troubled with the stomach, and have always been of a nervous temperament. The death of my husband was a great shock to me, and a few months later I was prostrated by nervous trouble. Locomotor ataxia developed later, and I was in a bad condition."

"I took treatment from different doctors, but did not gain until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. When I had used five boxes I was so fully restored that I was like a different person. I am sure that the Nerve Food is a good medicine, and have told many people about the remarkable way in which it has restored my health."
