ADJOURNED MEETING OF COUNCIL

Completes Work on Assessment Roll—Town Manager Appointed at a Salary of $2400

At the adjourned meeting of the Town Council on Thursday evening of last week a goodly number of additional protests from the action of the Court of Appeals were presented, and decisions on these as well as those laid over from the previous meeting were rendered. The Mayor and all the Councillors were present. It was 4.40 o'clock when the work on the assessment roll was completed and the usual routine of business was taken up.

Coun. Balcom presented the report of the Finance Committee, which showed that the receipts from all sources during March had amounted to $790.63 while the expenditures had totalled $3324.62. The bank overdraft at the end of the month was $18,506.02.

The Water and Fire Committee, through its chairman, Coun. Peck, reported an expenditure of $36.70 for the former, and $46.75 for the latter service during March.

Coun. Reid, chairman of the Sewer Committee, reported that his department had expended only $6.75 during the past month.

For the Police Committee Coun. Whidden reported $10.00 received and $2.50 expended.

Coun. Young, the Street Committee's chairman, reported expenditures during March $308.59. The total amount required during the three months of 1923 was $1295.58. This is quite a substantial cut in the amount provided for the year in this department.

The application of Mr. A. C. Johnson for re-appointment as Superintendent of streets, water, etc., at a salary of $1500 per year was read. Mr. Johnson agreed for this amount to give all his time to the work. A petition signed by Mr. J. E. Hales and one hundred and five other ratepayers, asking that Mr. Johnson's application might have favorable consideration, was read.

The following bills were presented and ordered to be paid:

Petty Cash	$59.11
Davidson Bros	6.75
Aubrey Dalvin	2.00
J. C. Mitchell	1.61
J. D. Harris	2.50
R. E. Harris & Sons	13.62
F. W. Barteaux	47.84
Burton Croft	14.00
C. C. Hancock	4.90
C. H. Porter	0.48
N. Evans	84.00
J. F. Herbin	16.50
A. W. Bleakney	14.08
A. & W. MacKinlay Ltd.	6.00
Kings Printer	9.00

The usual resolution required by the bank providing for credit to the town pending the collection of taxes was read and passed.

The Finance Committee was appointed to revise the Rate Book when it has been completed by the clerk.

An extended report of the work done during the past year by the District Nurse, Miss Hayden, was read. This report gave interesting details of health conditions especially among the young people of the county. On motion Dr. Elliott was appointed to represent the town on the joint committee having the allotment of the proportion of expenses by the municipality and towns.

The following resolution was moved by Coun. Peck, seconded by Coun. Eaton, and passed unanimously:

"Whereas the Town Council of the Town of Wolfville caused to be inserted in The Halifax Herald and Morning Chronicle newspapers advertisements requesting applications from qualified persons to act in the capacity of Town Manager of the Town of Wolfville.

"And whereas the said Town Council after carefully considering the various applications has decided that G. S. Stairs, of Halifax, is a qualified person to act in such capacity.

"Therefore resolved that the said G. S. Stairs is hereby appointed to act in the capacity of Town Manager of the Town of Wolfville, for the term of one year dating from May 1st, A. D. 1923, at a salary of $2400.00, $1800.00 of which is to be paid by the Town Council of the Town of Wolfville, with duties to be later defined by the Council."

At the close of the meeting the Council met in its capacity as Building Committee and organized for the year with Coun. W. A. Reid as secretary. The application of Mr. C. H. Porter for a permit to erect a residence on his lot on Main street west was received and granted.

Railway traffic on the D. A. R. has again been seriously interfered with, this time by floods. In some sections west the rails have been several feet under water and it has been found necessary to cancel trains.

RUSSIAN STUDENT RELIEF

The Student Christian Movement, in co-operation with the Y. M. C. A., is making a campaign among the colleges this spring for clothing for the students and professors in Russia.

Articles printed this winter in the "Manchester Guardian", (one of the most reliable of the big English newspapers), give a vivid picture of conditions. In one article Miss Walker, Secretary of the Manchester Russian Famine Relief Fund, and just returned from three months in Russia, speaks of the universities being filled with students wretchedly clothed, badly fed, many of them suffering from tuberculosis.

"Some sell matches in the streets and sleep in stations at night. The university students' movement was able to feed only 2,000 of them a day. The plight of the doctors was lamentable. It had been customary in the country to pay them in kind, but poverty now made that impossible, and the doctors had flocked to the cities which were overstocked with them. At Sebastopol 300 of them begged their bread in the streets, and one taking from the hospital the swill and water in which the plates had been washed."

In another article Ella Anker, also recently returned from Russia, says: "The world organization of the Y. M. C. A. is also helping Russia, and I went with its representative, the Danish Dr. Lange, to a soup kitchen for 2,000 students. The students are in great want of clothing and shoes at present, especially the women students, who practise communism in shoes and coats, taking turns to stay at home." Imagine three girls trying to take a university course with only one suit of clothes among them, so that two-thirds of the time they are compelled to remain home in a cold room with even insufficient bedding. How can these girls study and keep their health under these conditions, and with only one meal a day?

Apart from the cold and hunger from which they are suffering, they also have dirt and its companion typhus to contend with. In a pamphlet published by the English Quakers last fall they say "at a moderate estimate arrived at by the most careful means, there were between 20 and 30 million cases of typhus in Russia during the four years 1918-21. Typhus is a dirt disease. The need of clothing is literally desperate. There are many who think it as important to send clothing as to send food."

The Y. M. C. A. in Halifax has consented to take charge of all boxes of students clothing, and the Campbell S. S. Co. is carrying the boxes free to New York.

The Student Christian Association at Acadia is planning to send a box next week, and is hoping that there may be people in Wolfville who will be glad to contribute clothing or shoes. Woolen coats, suits and dresses are most valuable, and, of course, must be clean, well-mended, and good for at least six months' wear. A relief bulletin also makes the following statement: "Cotton stockings should not be sent. Shoes are in great demand, but to be useful they must have broad toes and low heels. In addition there is great need for all kinds of uncut material, which can be made into garments by the women of the famine zone, many of whom are sewing for the benefit of the community in return for their relief rations."

If those who have something to contribute will telephone 56, students will call for the parcel. Or those who find it convenient to do so, may leave such packages at the stores of either Mr. F. W. Barteaux or Porter Bros. It is hoped that all packages may be in by the 18th of the month.

SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT

Presented by Grand Pre Women's Institute

On Friday, April 6, the Grand Pre Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. L. E. Trenholm. After the business of the meeting a short program was rendered. Mrs. A. H. Patterson gave a list of the Kings County poets and read a few short selections. Mrs. Patricia gave an historical reading about Nova Scotia in early days. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a delightful social time was spent over the tea table.

Thursday evening, the Institute presented a play, "Saphronia's Wedding," by the "Tattletown Uplift Society" in the vestry of the church, which was a complete success from both the artistic and financial standpoint.

The play is in Three Acts. Act I—The Village Hall of Tattletown where the ladies discuss the advisability of continuing Saphronia and her mother Selina Ann Piper, with their high-falootin' notions, as members of their honored society.

Act II is in the parlor of Saphronia's home the evening before the wedding to which Saphronia invited all her old friends to see her gifts. Each takes or sends a gift the most prominent of which is, perhaps, a feather bed.

Act III is in the hall two days after the wedding. Saphronia, who invited them all to the wedding and treated them as honored guests, has completely overcome their antagonism, and they make her an honorary member of the Tattletown Uplift Society.

Emmie Savinoulas and Elmira, minor characters played by the accompanists, Misses Whitman and Lang.

"During the second act Elmira, Miss Lang, cheered the Ladies of Tattletown with jigs and reels which delighted the audience as well. Old songs were rendered by the Ladies of Tattletown.

Between acts Miss Doris Eaton sang, "The Valley of Laughter", encore "Absent", Miss MacCrae sang, "For you Alone", encore "Mary of Argyle." The quartette, Misses Stuart, MacCrae, Eaton and Mrs. G. Fuller sang "The Old Oaken Bucket" which merits special mention. The encore was "Long Long Ago." Miss Stuart accompanied by Miss Lang rendered a violin solo, The Sextette sang "Lucia", encore "Cavatina".

Miss Magee was the efficient director. The appreciative audience seemed unanimous in stating the entire program a wonderful success.

The Ladies' Faculty Club convened with Mrs. W. A. Coit on Tuesday evening.

WOLFVILLE AND KENTVILLE

Interestingly Discuss College Federation—A Win for the Home Debaters

The debate which took place at the Wolfville Baptist Church on Monday evening, between representatives of the Kentville Progressive Club and the B. Y. P. U. of this town, was an interesting one and listened to by a most appreciative audience. Public debating is a most informing and commendable form of entertainment and should be more common between the sister towns.

Mayor Phinney presided in a most satisfactory manner and the whole proceedings passed off most successfully. The resolution discussed was, "Resolved that Federation of the Colleges and Universities of the Maritime Provinces, in the manner outlined in the Learned-Sills report of the Carnegie Foundation, will be in the best interests of higher education." Messrs. J. L. Isley (leader), C. Pelton and Rev. D. G. Ross, representing Kentville, spoke for the affirmative; while Mr. G. C. Nowlan (leader), Miss P. Parry and Mr. Preston Warren spoke in the negative for the home team.

In his opening speech for the affirmative Mr. Isley stated that his discussion would be from the general rather than from the local point of view. The present system had many defects. There was needless expense in maintaining six libraries, six faculties and six sets of buildings. Funds now available are not sufficient to run the colleges under the present system. We cannot obtain State aid which is necessary to full development.

Mr. Nowlan opened the argument for the negative by pointing out that the Learned-Sills report had been prepared with too brief a period of investigation, and took account chiefly of things only physical. He argued that by moving to Halifax college attendance would be greatly reduced, since 40 per cent of Dalhousie Graduates came from the vicinity of Halifax, 35 per cent of Acadia Graduates from the Annapolis Valley and the same local support is given to other colleges. He claimed that the small College has many advantages over the big college. In the big College there would be a forced uniformity, and the student would be through differentiated.

Mr. Pelton did well in his speech for the affirmative, pointing out three defects of the present system, viz. first, various standards of matriculation; second, we have all the evils of competition and no benefits; third, there are now too many college libraries, and although Acadia's library is the best, none is adequate.

Miss P. Parry showed the advantage of the present system over University Federation by pointing out the close personal contact of Professor and student in the small college, and quoted from President Patterson's recent inaugural address as follows: "The types of men we need in modern universities are not research men, but men with artists' zeal." Even if the Science equipment is not perfect, the teaching may be high grade. She also pointed out that our colleges are mostly Christian colleges and religion is their background.

Rev. D. G. Ross, in upholding the affirmative, held that the present system helped denominationalism and had, therefore, a narrowing influence. Federation would have a broadening effect. In the small college, Theological instruction is often neglected for the sake of the Arts Course. In Federation all subjects can have proper emphasis. He also claimed that students would have an advantage in living in a city rather than in a small town.

Mr. Warren closed the debate for the negative by stating the financial side of the case. Sufficient funds cannot be secured to make a success of

LOCAL MAN'S BROTHER DROWNED IN ANNAPOLIS RIVER

Rupert Sanford, of West Paradise, was drowned shortly before noon on Tuesday while crossing the Annapolis River with two companions. Aubrey Boehmer, Rupert Sanford and his brother-in-law, Henry Guest, entered a boat to row across the flooded river. When their craft struck the full force of the stream it capsized and the three men were thrown into the boiling torrent. Guest was able with some difficulty to reach the shore, and Boehmer, who was a good swimmer, grasped Sanford and got him to the upturned boat where he hung on for a few moments then relaxed his grasp, slipping away in the current.

For the second time Boehmer rescued him and again got him to the boat. Apparently dazed, his grip weakened and once more the torrent bore him away. Boehmer, with strength spent in the icy waters, was unable to do more and in a moment Sanford disappeared from view.

The victim was about thirty years of age, popular and respected. He leaves a wife but no children, a mother, Mrs. Alfred Marshall, of Arlington, and a brother, Truman Sanford, proprietor of the Royal Hotel, Wolfville.

AVONPORT NOTES

Miss Adelaide Borden is spending a few weeks in Halifax, where she is receiving medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Holmes are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Winifred Dalpha.

Miss Emma Atkins, a former teacher in our school, spent the Easter holidays with friends.

Miss Olive Parker, of Halifax, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Parker, for the holiday.

Mr. Orlo Anderson and brother Edward, who have spent the past four years in the Canadian West, are enjoying a visit at their old home here.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Graham are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. Wm. A. Holmes and daughter Miss Dolpha, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell McDonald spent Monday in Wolfville on business.

Miss Minnie C. Brooks, who has spent the past two months in Boston and vicinity visiting relatives and friends, returned home on Friday of last week.

Miss Betty Troop, teacher of Avonport school, spent the Easter holiday at her home in Annapolis County.

Mr. Fred Wallace, of Boston, is spending a few weeks with his father, Mr. L. E. Wallace.

Mr. George Deckman, who has been relieving Agent at Avonport station during the absence of the Agent, Miss M. C. Brooks, has been transferred elsewhere. His place is being filled by Mr. Harry Hoyt, of Windsor, till May 1st.

Miss Marge Daniels, of the Avonport General Store, spent last week at her home in Martock, Hants County.

Federation. The amount offered by the Carnegie Foundation will not provide one-half the necessary moving expenses. University Federation is a dangerous experiment, and the Maritime Colleges cannot afford to make such an experiment at this time.

In rebuttal speeches Mr. Isley and Mr. Nowlan replied effectively to the opposing arguments. Rev. D. B. Hemmeon, of Wolfville, Dr. Bennett, of Gaspereau, and H. W. Sangster, of Windsor, acted as judges, and gave their decision in favor of the negative.

Enthusiastic Gathering of Baptists of the Maritime Provinces Decide Against Participation in University Federation

The special meeting of the Baptist Convention of the Maritime Provinces, which convened in the First Baptist Church at Moncton on Wednesday morning, was attended by over two hundred delegates representing the three provinces. Rev. Dr. C. W. Ross, of Amherst, the president of the Convention, was in the chair, and the proceedings opened with short devotional exercises participated in by the two vice-presidents, Rev. G. C. Warren, Fredericton, and Rev. Ross Eaton, Charlottetown, and Rev. Mr. Kinley, Truro. Brief addresses of welcome were given by Dr. Huntley, pastor of the church, and by Mayor Edgett.

The chief matter of business was the consideration of the report of the Board of Governors of Acadia University, which was presented by Dr. Patterson, the concluding clause of which stated: "Your board recommends that the convention continue to develop Acadia at Wolfville, and that it authorize the board to take such steps as are consistent with a sound financial policy to enable Acadia to make her future contribution to education even more worthy than that of her past."

An amendment suggesting postponement of the decision, submitted by Professor John E. Read, of Halifax, and seconded by J. F. Fraser, of Halifax, a member of the board of governors of Acadia University, received but slight support, only seven delegates supporting it when the vote was called. The convention rose almost to a person in opposing Professor Read's amendment.

The motion favoring the adoption of the governors report was opposed by only four delegates and supported by the rest of those present.

The decisiveness of the support given the governors' recommendation leaves no room for question of the stand of the convention.

ENTERTAINED ACADIA THEOLOGICAL CLUB

On Thursday evening of last week the Maritime Home Mission Committee of the U. B. W. M. U. entertained very pleasantly the members of the Theological-club of Acadia, about sixty in all, in the parlors of the Baptist church. The local members of the committee are Mrs. C. H. Martell, Mrs. Lawrence Eaton, Mrs. C. P. Wilson, Miss F. H. Parker, Mrs. Wm. Chipman, Mrs. Donald Grant, Mrs. J. H. MacDonald, Mrs. H. G. Perry, Mrs. G. K. Prescott and Mrs. Simpson, who acted as hostesses.

After an hour of conversation Mrs. Martell took the chair and after giving a very interesting talk on the work of the Home Mission committee introduced the speakers. Dr. MacDonald extended a cordial welcome to the ministerial students. This was followed by excellent addresses from Dr. Patterson and Dr. Hutchins interspersed with delightful songs by Miss Marie Wilson, Mrs. Roop and Miss Roop.

Refreshments were then served followed by a vote of thanks presented by Mr. Blaisdell, and the happy evening was brought to a close by the singing of "Blest be the tie that binds."

WOLFVILLE ARTISTS WIN PRAISE

Two Wolfville ladies, Miss Marie Wilson and Miss Evelyn Duncanson, were at Truro on Easter and assisted with the music at the First Baptist Church. The Truro News has the following to say of their singing:

The Special Easter music by the First Baptist choir, assisted by Misses Evelyn Duncanson and Marie Wilson, was a real musical treat. These talented young ladies possess very superior and highly trained voices. It is said by competent authorities that there are none to excel them in the Maritime Provinces. Their solos and duets were of a very high order. The duet, "The day is Ended", was sung with much sympathy and sweetness. The blending of the two voices was perfect. The violin obligato by Miss Mary Lusby added greatly to the attractiveness of the solo.

THE TOWN MANAGER

The result of the experiment which Wolfville is entering upon in adopting the Town Manager program will depend altogether on the qualifications of the man engaged and his ability to maintain an absolutely free hand in the management of public affairs. While THE ACADIAN has strongly advocated this method of conducting civic matters it has always been plain to us that the probabilities of success or failure were equally good. However, if given a fair chance, we have not the slightest doubt but that the innovation will prove to be a step in the right direction, and that a few years of correct and business-like management will establish a condition of municipal prosperity that will amply demonstrate that no mistake has been made.

Mr. Gordon Stairs, whom the Council has engaged to fill the new position, comes very highly recommended. He has had a good training in the solution of the various engineering problems which he will meet in Wolfville, and is well informed with regard to the Town Manager idea. THE ACADIAN bespeaks for him all the assistance and encouragement possible on the part of the town government and citizens. This is another modern proposition in which Wolfville is again taking the lead, and it is up to our people to do all in their power to ensure its successful application.

THE BANDSTAND

If the proposed work of filling in the creek on the north side of Main street at "the bridge" had been proceeded with as was urged by THE ACADIAN and others the land so reclaimed would have furnished an ideal location for the contemplated bandstand, and a solution of the problem now facing citizens in this regard. The location is sufficiently central and the street is more than ordinarily wide at this point. The difficulties in the way of putting this property in a condition which would make it a credit and convenience to the town are not nearly so great as many citizens appear to think, and all that is necessary is a united and determined effort to secure this much to be desired result. It is surprising that the people of Wolfville, who are usually first in every good word and work, should lack the necessary enterprise and courage to put over this project, the accomplishment of which would so materially improve the general appearance of the town and the welfare of its people.

FRUIT GROWER AND CANNER

In by-gone days too frequently it was felt that anything in the nature of fruit was good enough for the cannery. Today home and foreign competition has become so keen that the canner, to obtain trade and to hold it when obtained, must in the first instance have a prime article to put through his various processes. Mr. C. S. McGillivray, Chief Canning Inspector for the Dominion, points out that in 1918, Canada's peach pack reached only $113,944 in value, while we imported from the United States $226,870 worth of dried peaches and $183,310 worth of canned peaches. In 1919 we imported $862,257 worth and in 1920 $932,124 worth. He also wants to know why out of a million dollars' worth of canned peaches packed in Canada in 1920 about 75 per cent. were packed from fruit grown across the border. These facts are alluded to in order to show the opportunity that is offered, first, to the fruit grower, and next, to the canner, also as indicating that to take advantage of this opportunity for extending his market, the fruit grower must supply the canner with high grade fruits and vegetables, and that the latter in turn must place his products on the market in such a condition as to quality and grade as will command trade at home and meet export requirements. In connection with dried and evaporated fruit, it is satisfactory to know that the standard of Canadian evaporated apples is equal to the best in the world.

BY-PRODUCTS FROM SURPLUS PEARS

The utilization of windfall and cull pears presents a serious problem to pear growers. Experiments by Cruess, assisted by Bjarnason, Baldwin, de Villiers, Yoshikawa, and Irish, advanced students of the California Agricultural College, demonstrated that an excellent pear butter can be made from fresh, sound cull pears without the addition of sugar.

The peeled fruit was cooked a short time to soften it and was then converted into a fine grained pulp freed from seeds and fibre by rubbing through a fine screen. This was done upon a large scale by means of a potato pulper and finisher, according to The Evaporator.

The pulp was concentrated with cloves and cinnamon in an open kettle to the consistency of apple butter. To each pound of fresh pulp was added before concentration two pints of fresh pear juice. From 60 pounds of fresh pears was obtained 12 pounds of pear butter; this includes the fruit necessary to furnish both the pulp and the juice used. At this rate one ton of cull pears would yield 400 pounds of pear butter when no sugar is added. In more recent experiments a formula of 100 pounds of pear pulp, two quarts of lemon juice, and two ounces of ground cinnamon, cloves and ginger was used. The addition of sugar yields a better product.

RADIO RECOMPENSE

The static may be bothering
A tube or two burnt out,
There's a b-r-r in the receivers
And the coupler has the gout,
Someone binged up the condenser
So you hardly hear a groan—
But you can't get a "wrong number"
On the radiophone.

The wind jumped on my aerial
And twisted it around,
I left it hanging on the roof
But now it's on the ground,
And it busted the conductor
Like a dog would crack a bone—
But I never hear "line busy"
On the radiophone.

So there is some consolation
When your set is on the blink,
Even though there's interference
And the crystal has a kink,
When you get the works a-going
And you're listening in alone,
You can be your own hello girl
On the radiophone.

THE NEW EUROPE AND PROHIBITION

One may say with truth that there is no country in Europe which has not some kind of liquor restriction law on its statute books. To that extent, therefore, there is no country in Europe without its Prohibition law, and the concern of all Temperance and Social Reformers is to widen the scope of the principle involved therein until it shall apply to all the circumstances attending the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage.

One would not make any predictions regarding Prohibition in Europe, but it is a significant fact that never before in all its long history has the liquor traffic been so seriously menaced.

"The one hopeful sign is that every year it lives the liquor traffic is being found out. Labour knows it today as its greatest foe, social science regards it as its deadliest obstacle, and at last even the Churches have come to recognize that the old alliance of beer and the Bible is a curse to humanity and a degradation of the people."—The late C. Silvester Horne, M. A., M. P.

TOWN FINANCES

Under the heading "A Sensible Town Council" the Halifax Herald offers the following editorial comment:

"Truro's town council is taking a sensible view of town finances. In a general way—and in detail—the policy of rigid elimination of expenditures which can be postponed or reduced is good policy. It is not a policy which can be easily carried into effect. There is a strange inconsistency about the public. While in the general sense people shout for economy—they too often fail to back up their representatives in making such a policy effective. It will be interesting to note how the Truro Council succeeds.

"It does not follow that necessary services will have to be deprived of support, or that town service generally will have to be crippled. Let any individual sit down and in cold blood figure out how he spends his money, and he will be surprised at the number of wasteful expenditures he makes. There are few persons who can claim exemption from this. It is a matter of degree. And what is true of the individual is true of the public body—town council, city council, municipal council, government. Unnecessary expenditures are made by all of them. These outlays can be lopped off without hurting anyone except the profiteer.

"There is not a municipal body in Nova Scotia—we venture to say—which could not make a substantial saving if a determined investigation were made. Bad habits have developed in all of them. One council has inherited these habits from other councils. And have added to them bit by bit. The remedy is to make a ruthless investigation and cut till it hurts. This we hope is what Truro's council intends; the intention should be adopted by other town councils in the province, and by city councils as well."

TINGE OF SPRING GIVES MOTORISTS DESIRE TO DRIVE

Simple Process Puts Car in Good Running Order for Coming Season

The closing of the winter season and the breath of spring that is in the air is the time the car owner who did not use his machine all winter is getting the driving fever and speculating on what he should do before once more putting his car in commission.

If the car was performing nicely before putting it away for the winter, very little needs to be done. In fact nothing to require the attention of a mechanic. The following is about all that should be necessary:

Drain motor of all old oil and clean thoroughly with kerosene, and then refill with a supply of fresh oil. Clean transmission case, flush with kerosene and refill with fresh lubricant. Drain old lubricant from rear axle differential, flush with kerosene and refill.

Remove front wheels, cleaning bearings and hubs thoroughly and re-pack with grease.

The foregoing covers lubrication of the main units. Clutch bearings, universal, spring shackles, steering gear, steering spindles, fan bearings, rear axle and bearing, brake shaft, steering, reach and connecting rods are no less important. A good practise is to follow systematically all lubricating points on one side of the car, starting at the front and working to the rear, or from rear to front, and then go over the opposite side in like manner.

Additional comfort may be obtained, as well as add to the life of the springs, by lubricating between the leaves. If no leaf wedge or spreader is at hand, a screwdriver may be used by driving between the leaves at a point near the end of the leaf. Use a thin oil into which has been mixed a small amount of graphite, or what is known on the market as Gildag, squirting between leaves with a hand oiler, allowing the oil to drain toward the centre of leaf before removing screwdriver.

Clean and set spark plug points. Clean and reset breaker points. If storage battery has not been placed in storage, have it inspected and recharged, if necessary, by a battery expert.

DITTO BROTHER

(From the Pictou Advocate)

By one mail this week we received seven columns of matter for free publication in the Advocate. There was a half column boosting a steam-ship line, two columns pleading the cause of France as against Germany, two columns and a half of propaganda for church union, three quarters of a column regarding canned food stuffs, a quarter column about the Red Cross and a column furthering the interests of a great financial institution. It seems too bad that these people went to the expense of paying writers to write this stuff, paying printers to print it, paying the government for postage and then lose all its effects because they did not make any provision for paying the newspaper man to publish it. Sometime it may dawn on propagandists that newspaper space costs money and must be paid for if it is to be obtained.

NEW Telephone Directory

A new issue of the Telephone Directory for The Valley District is in course of preparation.

That Directory serves our Patrons in what is popularly known as "The Valley" including Windsor, Hantsport, Brooklyn and Clarkesville in Hants County and the Eastern part of Digby County and the Town of Digby.

Forms will close on April 14th, and persons wishing to become Subscribers at this time, and Subscribers who want changes made in their present Listings should send in their orders to their Exchange Managers at once, if possible, and in any case not later than April 14th. We cannot undertake to give effect in the new issue to Orders received after that date.

The Directory enters practically all the places of business and best homes in the District, and affords to business men an unsurpassed opportunity of telling of their wares or their services to a most desirable class of Patrons. Exchange Managers will receive offers for advertising space, the rates for which will be found very moderate.

GETTING HORSES INTO SHAPE FOR SPRING WORK

As the spring planting season is short, farm operations must be rushed. This entails long hours, and with modern machinery it also means heavy work for farm horses. Horses working in harrows, discs and manure spreaders are pulling heavy loads, and in many cases they are pulling them over broken ground. Because the work is hard and the hours are long the horses must be in good physical condition. This is only possible when horses are fitted for Spring work.

If they have been fed a liberal grain allowance they will be fat and soft, and should get regular exercise to harden their muscles. If they have been carried through the winter, mainly on roughage, with very little grain, they should be given regular exercise and the grain ration should be increased to one pound per hundred pounds of live weight. Violent changes in either the diet or the habits of horses are injurious and for this reason the farmer should begin getting his horses in shape a month, or preferably six weeks before heavy spring work begins, gradually increasing the grain and work so that the horse will be in shape to perform a heavy day's work when the rush season begins. The grain ration should be increased to at least one and a quarter pounds per hundred pounds live weight when the heavy spring planting commences.

The hay fed before and during the busy season should be either high grade timothy or a mixture of bright, clean timothy and clover. The grain fed while the horse is being fitted may consist wholly of oats; or a mixture of three parts of oats to one part of bran may be fed. Bran is too laxative for horses at heavy work, and no more than one part of bran to five or six parts of oats should be fed during the busy season except on Saturday night when a bran mash is advisable.

Sometimes a horse does not seem to be digesting his food properly, in which case the teeth should be examined and any that are long and ragged floated smooth. Indeed it is a good practice to go over all the horse's teeth each spring before starting to prepare the animal for spring work.

By properly fitting his horses for spring work the farmer will avoid sore shoulders, his horses will finish the season in good condition and they will render much more efficient service than if they had begun the spring work without being properly fitted for it.

What every complexion needs

Palm and olive oils—nothing else—give nature's green color to Palmolive Soap.

Once every day your skin should be gently but thoroughly cleansed of all accumulations of dirt, perspiration, cold cream, rouge and powder.

Every tiny pore must be freed from clogging accumulations, so that the network of minute glands can do their necessary work. If you fail to cleanse the skin daily it will get sluggish and inactive, lifeless and sallow. Blackheads will develop, the filled up pores will enlarge into unattractive coarseness and dirt infections, irritation and pimples will result.

For this cleansing you must use a mild soap. Palmolive is made from Palm and Olive oils. For thousands of years these rare oils have been used by famous beauties. They were highly prized by Cleopatra.

Today these oils are blended to produce the most famous of all modern soaps—Palmolive. It produces a profuse creamy lather which is as smooth as a lotion. It penetrates every tiny pore and removes every trace of dirt, oil and cosmetics, leaving the skin wonderfully smooth, fresh and rosy.

You can buy Palmolive Soap at all first-class dealers

During the evening the first degree was conferred on two candidates. After the transaction of business refreshments were served.

At a meeting held on Friday evening April 6th, in the Council Chamber, Mr. Hedley Bishop was appointed on the Council Board to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Capt. F. Dodge. At a previous meeting, Mr. L. B. Harvie was elected Councillor to take the place of D. W. Murray, Mr. C. J. Yeaton was appointed to represent the town of Hantsport on the Western Tourist Association. Much interest is being taken here along that line.

The Rev. H. G. Mellick was in Wolfville last week, where he delivered his most interesting lecture, "A Trip Across Canada," which was illustrated by something over one hundred lantern slides.

Mrs. Geo. Holmes returned on Saturday after several days visit with relatives in Kentville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Comstock entertained a number of their friends informally on Friday evening.

Several flocks of Wild Geese passed over the town on Friday, on their flight northward, which we understand indicates an early Spring.

Mr. Cyril Harvey, of the "Plymouth Male Quartette", Boston, delighted the congregation of the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning by his rendition of "I Come to Thee", by Caro Roma. In the evening Mr. Harvey assisted the choir of the Methodist Church, of which he was formerly a much valued member. During the service he rendered the solo, "Open the Gates of the Temple" by Mrs. Joseph Knapp. He was also heard to great advantage in the Duett, "Drifting", by B. H. Akeley, with Mrs. Regina Masters. Mr. Harvey, who possesses a rich tenor, was in excellent voice.

The Rev. A. B. Higgins, who spent the Easter Season in Boston, returned to Hantsport on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Smith and three children, of Ontario, are guests of Capt. and Mrs. A. McDonald.

Mr. R. B. Hunt, of the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada, Port Williams, was a recent guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Shankel.

Capt. Geo. Holmes is visiting Conductor and Mrs. Clark, Kentville.

Miss Carrie Allen is spending a week with relatives in Wolfville and Grand Pre.

The Rev. Lewis Wallace, of Lawrence-town, was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Wallace, Mt. Denson.

Mr. L. V. Masters was in Wolfville on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Churchill and family, who spent the winter months at the Evangeline Hotel, returned to their home at Hants Border recently.

Miss Annie Hart, trained nurse of Halifax, is visiting her parents here.

Messrs. Ralph and Budd Riley, who have been spending a vacation with their families here, left on Monday for Sydney.

Miss Elizabeth Elderkin, of Wolfville, Missionary to China, who is home on furlough, spent several days last week with friends in Hantsport.

Music lovers enjoyed a rare treat on Wednesday morning in the Empire Theatre, at the musical and dance

Mr. Reginald McCormick, of Halifax, visited friends in Hantsport recently.

Mr. J. Hancock was on a business trip to Halifax last week.

LORD BYNG COMING

THE ACADIAN is informed by our representative at Ottawa, Mr. E. W. Robinson, M. P., that he has been informed by His Excellency the Governor-General, that it is his intention during his eastern tour the coming summer to make a visit to this county. Naturally he will desire to see Wolfville and most assuredly the citizens of this town will want him to visit us. Arrangements should be made at once for giving Lord Byng a truly royal welcome to this most attractive town in the Annapolis Valley.

NORTH GRAND PRE NOTES

Mr. E. Heron, who has been spending the winter with his parents in Belfast, Ireland, returned home this week. The winter there, he claims, has been very mild, there having been no snow.

The creek here has overflowed and covered the main road and bridge so that anyone wishing to cross has to do so by boat. The water is about twelve feet deep and forty feet wide.

Mr. Dalrymple, of Belmont, Hants Co., has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Langton Burgess.

Miss Carrie Allen, of Hantsport, has been visiting friends here.

STUDEBAKER

500,000,000 Miles of Service

More than one hundred thousand owners know the sturdiness of Studebaker Light-Six construction. They know that it is powerful and economical, because their Light-Sixes have conclusively demonstrated these qualities in more than 500,000,000 miles of service.

The Studebaker Light-Six is built to stand up. The touring car body is constructed entirely of steel, and like the chassis is made to withstand hard service. And the Light-Six is unusual for its economy—27 world-wide tests having established an average fuel consumption of 26.9 miles to the gallon.

The value of the Light-Six is high, because it is manufactured completely by Studebaker, thereby eliminating parts-makers' profits.

You can feel secure in the purchase of a Light-Six—because of its proved dependability and economy—and because it is backed by Studebaker's 71-year-old reputation for honest value and fair dealing.

BON-BONS

"Good evening Helen. Ready so soon? Good enough; then we'll go right along. Oh, here—I almost forgot it." And Hal drew from his pocket the usual box of bon-bons.

It may have been the roguish smile accompanying the offer that made Helen draw back her half-extended hand. "No, I thank you, Hal; not tonight."

"No? What's the matter? Not ill, are you?" "Not ill Hal, only wise," she laughed. "Do you think I'm blind to the fact that this is April first? I don't care to take chances, thank you."

A good-natured grin spread over the young man's face. "Oh, all right, if you don't care for it," he answered indifferently, and replaced the box in his pocket.

Curiosity ever has gotten the better of woman. Helen was no exception. "I'll tell you, Hal," she bargained, "let me feed you three of those candies, and, if they seem to go down without any trouble, I'll gladly accept the remainder and humbly apologize for my suspicions."

"I'll be game," agreed Hal, after a moment's hesitation. "Go ahead; do your worst."

Helen selected three tempting looking bon-bons and popped one into his mouth. Her victim unflinchingly swallowed it, but his courage evidently failed at the second. He waved it aside.

"Hold on, Helen! Have a heart!" he cried. "And for the love of Pete get me a drink of water!"

During the five-minute walk to the church Helen seemed bubbling over with merriment, but her escort appeared strangely quiet.

"I beat you at your own game that time, Hal," boasted the girl, as they entered the vestry. "Never mind, though," she comforted, "you can still have fun with it; you can fool all the girls at the social."

"Leave it to me," he assured her; "I'll have my laugh yet. Here, let me put your hat where it won't get crushed. Ye gods! Helen!" as his eye lighted upon the big black and blue spot on the girl's forehead.

"You poor kid! That certainly was some bump I gave you last night! I brought my elbow round so quickly and your poor little head happened to be right in the way. But, upon my word, I didn't know it was so bad as that! Why, I'm awfully sorry, girlie!"

"Oh, that's nothing; my flesh bruises easily, anyway." And Helen drew her hair more carefully over the discoloration.

Both young persons were popular, and immediately upon their arrival they were surrounded by a lively group. Helen's bruised forehead was at once discovered; explanations were called for; and Hal found himself the object of much good-natured bantering for his "brutality".

In return for this he drew forth a gaily decorated box, and invited the would-be wags to "have a piece of candy on-me". Helen, in her role of watchful waiting, was somewhat surprised to see each bon-bon devoured with evident relish; and as one after another disappeared with rapidity, she began to have misgivings which developed into firm convictions before the evening was half over.

During the walk homeward chocolates were strictly avoided as a topic of conversation.

"It's still early; won't you come in?" invited the girl, when they reached the house.

"Thank you; I believe I will. It's only half past nine; that social did break up rather early."

Seated in the cosy den, Helen looked her tormentor squarely in the eyes. A mischievous grin spread over his features, and he looked like a guilty school boy.

"I saved some of them," he apologized. "Want them?"

"Yes I do! Hal Osgood, I think you're the meanest thing that ever happened! Just because I thought that was April Fool candy, you led me on, and then gave away nearly that whole box of chocolates! Honestly, I've a good mind to—to pinch your ear!" she concluded, immediately carrying out her intentions.

Hal drew her to him. "You poor little kid," he soothed, "it was a shame to fool her so. But it was her own fault; if she hadn't been so plaguey suspicious I never would have thought of it. Never mind, girl, you're square with me, anyhow, for I never had to stand such kidding in my life as I did tonight over that poor little head of yours. I don't mind being jollied, but honestly, Helen, that made me feel like a brute. Didn't they rub it in, though!"

Helen wriggled away. She stepped to the small marble washstand between the den and hall, and dipped her handkerchief in the running water. Then she came and stood before him.

"You poor old simpleton," she purred, "it was a shame to fool him—so it was. But as they all 'rubbed it in' so well, I think I may as well rub it out!" And she slyly winked as she wiped off the coloring so deftly applied to her forehead a few hours before.

"Two can play at that game," she murmured.

Hal's undeserved sympathy changed suddenly to astonishment. Then, the usual genial smile overspread his features mingled with a sudden tenderness, as he drew her into his encircling arm.

"Helen, dear, we're both such—such easy marks, that—well, don't you think we really need each other to sort of—sort of look out for each other? What I mean is—I mean—if you'd only marry me—"

The girl's eyes met his. "I was thinking of—of that—that same thing myself," she stammered.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Try magnesia for cleaning spots in light colored goods. Rub the soiled places both sides with magnesia and hang it away for a while. When wanted dust off and you will find the spot gone.

If grease or oil is spilled on the carpet, sprinkle thickly with flour. Let stand 24 hours, then sweep up. Apply more flour one-quarter inch thick. Let stand a few hours, sweep up and you will find the spot entirely gone.

To your kitchen holder sew a small ring, fasten a cord 24 ins. long to the ring and at the end of the cord a large safety pin. Pin this to your belt. Its convenience speaks for itself.

Stains of iodine may be entirely removed from light cotton goods by rubbing damp carbonate of soda into the marks, and then washing in cold water.

To prevent oil stains from smearing, put three or four pieces of charcoal into the oil.

When grease is spilled on the kitchen table, sprinkle at once with salt. This prevents the grease from soaking into the wood.

For cracks in walls, ceilings, etc., flour and whitening, mixed with a little water into a stiff paste, will be found an excellent remedy, lasting for years.

CONSISTENCY THOU ART A JEWEL

(From Pictou Advocate) The business man who sends abroad for any product which can be obtained from or through his fellow business man is doing his own business and the whole town an injury.—Exchange.

And yet we have known of Pictou business men complain bitterly of the competition of mail order houses and then give orders to Toronto travellers for printing which could be done as well and as reasonably in price in their own province or their own town. They could see how trading with Ontario mail order houses built up Ontario at the expense of Nova Scotia, Toronto at the expense of Pictou. They failed to see how buying from Toronto printers accomplished the same result. They could not see that they were cutting their own throat by putting local tradesmen out of employment. The Toronto printer who did their work would never buy anything from them. The Pictou printer who might have done their work was bound to have bought from them.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOOZE JOINTS UNDER FIRE

(From our special correspondent) Press Gallery, House of Assembly, Halifax, April 4th, 1923.—Another startling revelation concerning the business methods of the Provincial Government was brought to the attention of the House of Assembly on the evening of March 3rd, when Mr. Corning, of Yarmouth, spoke to his motion regarding the operation of the Vendors' Commission.

It transpires that absolutely no information is available to the members of the House of Assembly, or the people of this province, concerning the character and volume of business being conducted by the various government vendors' officers throughout the province. No one outside of the charmed circle of the vendors' Commission, and they won't tell, has any knowledge of the gross amount of cash taken over the counters of the various offices in the province and the gross volume of business transacted, the cost of carrying on the business in Salaries, Wages, etc., also the capital absorbed in the business. Mr. Corning pointed all this out very forcibly and emphasized the evils of carrying on such a large volume of public and more or less irregular business in secret. The temptations were too great and too much foundation was afforded for suspicion and the many ugly rumors. This whole system of secrecy in the transaction of public business was wrong and unsound from every point of view.

Mr. McKenzie seconded Mr. Corning's motion and further deprecated the course pursued by the government in the conduct of booze business.

The only definite information available was that the Commission handed to the Provincial Treasurer the sum of $279,966.12 as a profit on last year's business.

What volume of business this represents no one knows. But it gives a basis for some speculation. For the sake of getting some approximate idea of volume let it be assumed that a clear profit of say 12% was made over and above cost of goods, salaries and all other expenses. This would mean a gross cash business of $2,333,301. Just think of it, over two and a quarter million dollar booze business being carried on in the name of the people of Nova Scotia under the direction of Premier Armstrong, Past Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Sons of Temperance, without any official accounting to parliament and the people.

"My Boy was Starving to Death"

"As He Was Getting No Nourishment He Was Gradually Wasting Away."

"Here's a story which will interest every mother. Before my boy was born, I was in such delicate health that the doctor didn't think I would survive the ordeal. For weeks after, so I couldn't feed him and the poor little fellow was left to the care of friends. He wasn't naturally strong. No care was taken in choosing his food and his poor little stomach became so weakened that he couldn't keep anything on it. As he was getting no nourishment from his food, he was gradually wasting away. Finally, in desperation, we sent for a child specialist and he said that my boy was starving to death. He gave him some medicine and advised a certain diet. The child did improve but somehow couldn't seem to get strong. This went on for four or five years and the boy still continued weak and puny looking. He could not play like other children without having to lie down and rest. My sister who lives on a farm near the sea, said that she could fix him up if I would send him to her. While I hated being separated from him, I was ready to make any sacrifice to get him strong. He was away from me for three months and it was with feelings of great excitement that I awaited his return as my sister had written me that I would be surprised when I saw my boy. When my sister got off the train, I could not believe that it was my own boy that she was leading by the hand. I never saw such a change in any child. He was fat and rosy and full of life with a happy smile! What on earth had you done to him, I said? Why, she replied, I simply made him live out here's the real secret, I gave him three bottles of Carnol. Before he had taken half a bottle his whole appearance had changed. He got heavier, his face took on a colour and he would run round for hours at a time. The change in my boy is the most wonderful event in my life. I am a regular fan for Carnol and never lose a chance to boost it. As I write I am looking out of the window and when I see that rosy, active, healthy child running round, I cannot believe that he was once a puny, delicate boy."

Carnol is sold by your druggist, and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it hasn't done you any good, return the empty bottle to him and he will refund your money.

Bad Roads Don't Hamper The Long Distance Telephone

The country roads are in bad shape everywhere; in some places they're impassable.

Teams can't run on them; and motor cars aren't. And all the time the country merchant's stock of supplies is getting lower and lower.

In other days the wholesaler would just have lain back until road conditions allowed him to interview his customer in person and then filled his order in a more or less leisurely way.

But the Long Distance Telephone has changed all that and has speeded things up.

Now the wide awake wholesaler calls up his country customer over the Long Distance Telephone lines; ascertains his wants; makes all arrangements and, the moment road conditions permit, is ready to send the goods on.

THE PAPER FROM HOME

There lay on a stand in the marble hall
Of a city mansion with towers tall,
A country paper in its wrapper plain,
Almost unnoticed, or scorned with disdain
By the liveried servants there,
Amid the splendor of wealth it lay
In its humble garb, the long, long day;

Till the master came at eventide
To lay for awhile his cares aside,
Afar from the city's din,
When he saw the paper a kindly smile
Wreathed his face and for a while
In calm content he settled down
With the paper that came from his old Home town

That he loved in days of yore,
As he scanned its homely pages through
On memory's mirror appeared in view
Familiar scenes and the faces of friends
With the glad delight that memory Sends

To a heart that is ever young,
He was back once more in the summer
Days
With the chums he knew in boyish plays,
Diving into the swimming pool
Below the mill, with its depths so cool
In eager youthful play.

He roamed again 'mid woods and fields
Through orchards with their fruitful
Yields
Through meadows green, and down the Lane
Where flowers wild still bloomed again,
As in bygone days
The Sabbath evenings calm and still—
The country church upon the hill,
Where he humbly knelt by his mother's Side,

Before his footsteps roamed awide
To seek ambition's goal,
Those treasured memories, kin to tears,
So often lost through passing years,
Crept softly back with pleasure rare
To smooth the lines that time and care
Had written on his brow.

So the simple sheet with its homely face
Goes forth by time to find a place
In the heart of a man whose eyes grow
Dim
With tender memories brought to him
When the paper comes from home.

SHE SCORES AT LAST.

Margery's school reports weren't very good, so her father said, "The first time you get a hundred I'll give you a dollar."

Time went by and the award could not be claimed. Then one day the child was taken ill. When the doctor had gone she asked, "Mamma, am I very sick?"
"No dear, your temperature is a little over a hundred, but the doctor thinks you'll be better tomorrow."

Margery's face lighted up.
"Then, mamma, I can have my dollar, can't I? Papa said he'd give it to me if I got a hundred in anything."

HEALTH BEFORE MARRIAGE

Possibly the value of the recent suggestion of Hon. A. M. Manson, attorney-general of British Columbia, to make a certificate of health a requirement in obtaining a marriage license, is somewhat over-estimated, though doubtless a good suggestion. It touches a subject wherein reforms must be fairly gradual to accomplish permanent good. There is always a danger of such legislation having the effect of increasing the number of persons who dispense with the legal ties of marriage; also many couples can simply go elsewhere to be married where the requirements are less strict. But the need of the law indicates that parents and guardians lack a sense of their responsibilities in this matter.—B. C.

MY FAVORITE HYMN

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN

Dear Sir,—This invitation of yours to your readers to furnish you for publication their favorite hymn deserves a generous response and it should prove a most interesting feature. I am pleased to note, too, that you have not restricted your request to any one particular language, which enables me to quote my own "first favorite". To those of your readers, from whose education the language of Paradise has not been excluded, the following old hymn forcibly will appeal especially when sung to either "Old Derby" or "Crugybar":
"O fryniau Caersalem ceir gwelod
Holl daith yr anialwch i gyd;
Pryd hyny daw troion yr yfa
Yn telus i law fy mryd;
Caf edrych ar stormydd ac ofnau,
Ac angau dychrynllyd a'r bedd,
A minna'n ddiahangol o'ur cyrhaedd
Yn nofio mewn cahiad a heidd.
Yours truly,

Minard's Liniment for Rheumatism

CANADA'S UNDERWATER "GRAND CANYON"

The Canadian Government has been asked to make a special survey which it is expected will prove by scientific measurements that Canada, among its other distinctions, is the possessor of the deepest river in the world.

Hidden beneath the amber waters of the upper Ottawa River is one of nature's most curious phenomena, rivalling in its way the Grand Canyon of Colorado, the Natural Bridge of Virginia, the Falls of Niagara or Zambesi. It is a gigantic chasm cleft in the surface of the earth in a period which must have approached the earliest in the earth's history, for the bed reveals sandstone of the Palaeozoic Age.

If the Ottawa River were to dry up the chasm with its walls 6000 or 7000 feet high would eclipse the wonder of Colorado. As it is the Deep River Reach of the Ottawa claims the distinction which it is hoped will soon be scientifically confirmed, of being the deepest river in the world.

In several places over a distance of twenty-three miles, five thousand feet of towboat lines have failed to give an anchorage.

By comparison the Great Lakes are but duck ponds and the famous fjords of Norway and the East American Atlantic Coast are quite eclipsed. Lake Erie has a depth of only 272 feet. Lake Ontario is not much better with 738 feet,
Lake Michigan has 789 feet. Lake Superior, the deepest of all great inland seas, is only 1007 feet, or about one-fifth as deep as the Deep River Reach will probably prove to be. One of the East Atlantic fjords shows 3000 feet, and the Sogne Fjord of Scandinavia is 4000 feet.

Deep River Reach of the Ottawa is north of Pembroke and is traversed by serviceable steamers. The southern stretch of it is found identified on most maps as Upper Alouette Lake.
This part of the river course is dotted with hundreds of beautiful islands furnishing summer homes for urban residents. They are at this point on the northwest edge of civilization. Toward the North Star and Hudson Bay lies only wilderness broken only at one midway point by the National Transcontinental Railway, which with its still rusting rails will one day give Canada depth as well as breadth. To the southwest lie the Plains of Petewawa, famous as a military training ground, particularly for artillery during the war.

Farther on you enter Oiseau Lake (locally called "Weese") surrounded by a series of the most picturesque mountain peaks to be found anywhere in the whole Laurentian range. Prospect succeeds prospect in a never ending panorama, while the tang of the wilds is like wine in the veins.

A point called Des Jo Achim is the upper limit of the Great Chasm. Here the river makes a right angled turn,
and is transformed from a madly surging rapids to the restful slow moving deep current of the Grand Chasm.

and certified WHILST IN GROWTH, instead of planting seed grown haphazard, with no record taken of any disease the seed may have had when growing. We would advise all potato growers, to stop planting seed they have no record of, and plant government certified seed only.

From all reports at hand, owing to low prices experienced the past years, a large quantity of growers in all districts both in Canada and United States are discouraged, and the tendency is they will plant a smaller acreage than usual. This probably means that potato prices next Fall will be on a much more remunerative basis.

We have a quantity of Government certified Green Mountain seed on hand, every bushel of which should be used by Annapolis Valley growers, price on application.

PEACHES TO LONDON

The Beaumont district of Riverside County, California, is developing a rather remarkable fresh fruit export trade, according to Better Fruit. The local fruit growers' association recently received word that peaches and pears shipped Sept. 6 to London, England, had arrived in fine shape and were being sold at phenomenal prices. They recently shipped two carloads of French prunes to London. Just previous to that, they sold 300 boxes of Delicious apples, 72 to 113 per box, at $3.50 per box, netting the growers about five cents per pound at the packing house.

SPILLING THE BEANS

The waiter (who is on a week's notice)
—"Did you have tomato or pea soup, sir?"
The Customer—"Heaven knows! It tasted more like soap."
The Waiter—"Ah, that would be tomato, sir. The pea soup tastes like paraffin."

GREENWICH NEWS

Mrs. Mark Regan, of Port Williams, spent a few days last week at the home of her nephew, Mr. Arthur Lockwood.

Miss Harriett Rand, Wolfville, was a guest several days last week of her friend, Mrs. Lilla Forsythe.

Mr. Will Pudsey, of this place, recently sold his farm on Belcher Street, near Kentville, to Mr. Walter Moore, Kentville.

Two large flocks of Wild Geese, about an hour and half between, were heard and seen passing over this place, going toward the East, last Friday evening. But Halifax beat us in this, as a large flock passed over the City on the morning of March 25th.

Last Friday evening the last meeting of the Community League for the season was held.—The item of last week about the cancellation of this meeting was a mistake—A large audience was in attendance and the evening was in charge of the Social and Dramatic Committees. The President, Rev. D. B. Hemmson, occupied the chair and after usual order of meeting was finished, he announced in his humorous way the different numbers on the programme, which was a lengthy one. The two leading features of the evening, which caused continual merriment, were the Hypnotizing stunts by a number of the boys, originated by and in charge of "Professor Isaiah Knock-em-cold", and the "Jazz Band" of original and unusual instruments, put on by the girls, in costume, but "Who was the girl in pink?" All the other numbers on programme, were also heartily enjoyed by all. For refreshments, ice-cream and wafers were served by the Social Committee, after which the evening was brought to a close by the playing of the National Anthem, by the girls Jazz Band. This programme was called by many one of the very best of the season. The clever original parts which were planned by our young people, showed natural gift and talent, in many ways. The prophecy cleverly written about many of our young people for ten years from the present, by one of our young men, deserves special mention. It is planned to reopen the League in the early Autumn.

Evangeline Cox arrived home last Saturday from Halifax, where she had visited for a week at the home of Conductor and Mrs. Maurice Williams.

Mr. F. J. Borden attended the special meeting of the Baptist Convention, held in Moncton, N. B. this week, going as one of the three delegates from the Port Williams church.

The chief complaint amongst many of our residents recently has been "water in my cellar". Some cellars of houses in the place have had water in this Spring that never did before, a few of them a good quantity.

The first wagon of the season was seen passing through the place last Sunday and the first tractor of the season was

KENTVILLE CITIZENS ASK FOR ENFORCEMENT OF TEMPERANCE ACT

It is refreshing to note that in some quarters at least cognizance is being taken of the conditions relating to the carrying out of the law supposed to be intended to control the sale of intoxicating liquors in Nova Scotia. At a very largely attended meeting held in the Kentville Baptist Church on Sunday evening the pastor, Rev. D. G. Ross, stated the present position of Temperance Legislation in this province. Expressing the will of the vast majority of the electors of Nova Scotia, an act has been passed prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors save for medicinal purposes. The sales and profits of the N. S. Vendors Commission would lead one to expect that there must have been a terrible epidemic of sickness in the Province. The spirit and intention of the law is being evaded. It is up to the Government to take measures to ensure that the medical profession so use the powers given them by the act so that the will of the people might be carried out.

The following resolution was moved by J. R. Webster:

"Whereas it is the intention of the Nova Scotia Temperance Act to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquor, save for medicinal purposes, and Whereas the huge sale and profits made by the Vendors Commission last year indicates this intention is being frustrated.

"Be it Resolved that this congregation assembled in the Baptist Church, Kentville, urge the Government of Nova Scotia, to take such steps as will make it possible for the intention of the Act to be reasonably carried out."

The resolution was seconded by H. G. Harris. Dr. P. C. Woodworth, J. L. Trask, W. E. Porter, and R. H. Lamont took part in the discussion. The resolution on being put was carried by practically an unanimous vote. The clerk of the church was instructed to forward copies of same to the members for Kings and the Premier.

FIRE AT CANNING

Another fire occurred at Canning on Tuesday morning when the large building at the corner of Main and Sheffield streets was completely destroyed. The fire, which broke out at about one o'clock, is thought to have been the result of clothes hanging near a stove. On account of the bad condition of the roads there was some difficulty in getting the apparatus to the scene of the fire and it was impossible to save more than a small proportion of the contents of the building, which was occupied by two families.

This building was one of the old landmarks of Canning, having been erected probably about a hundred years ago by the late John Sheffield. At one time it was occupied by the post office, then kept by John Wells Borden. The building was then in the centre of the town which afterward moved east. Formerly the building contained two stores with a hall on the second floor. In the old days this hall accommodated a thriving section of the Cadets of Temperance, which was successfully carried on under the direction of the late G. P. Bains and Rev. David Freeman.

At the time of the fire the building was owned by Benjamin Greenough, who resided in one side, the other being occupied by Joseph Thorpe, the building having been converted into a dwelling about the year 1881. The Thorpe family barely escaped as the fire had made considerable headway when discovered by Mr. Greenough, who aroused the neighbors.

BROADWAY WHITE LIGHTS ENTER THE "MOVIES"

The splendor of Broadway's white lights have long been the subject for song and story; but it has remained for the "movies" to see them as they are and to show them to the country north, south and west of Forty-second Street.

Credit for the difficult feat of inducing the White Lights to enter the "movies" belongs to Director Frank Lloyd, who conceived the idea of using them in his Goldwyn production of Rita Weiman's first original screen story, "The Grim Comedian". The actual photographing was performed by Norbert Brodin. Those who see this unusual photographic effect when the picture is shown at the Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday will have a good idea of the thousands of brilliant illuminations that have given New York's Broadway the sobriquet of "The Great White Way".

Mr. Lloyd said that while he was talking scenes on Broadway, a crowd of from five to ten thousand people packed the sidewalks, streets and roofs of nearby buildings.

"THE ORDER OF THE DAY"

GO RIGHT

Remember this new Traffic Regulation that comes into effect April 15th and avoid confusion and accidents by turning to the right. At the same time one cannot help recalling the moral of the epitaph of William Grey.

"Here lies the body of William Grey
Who died defending his right of way,
He was right, dead right, as he drove along,
But he is just as dead as if he were wrong."

Displayed this week;—

A special assortment of voile and dimity waists

With Spring already due and summer coming on, the calls for wash waists to wear with the suit or separate skirt, will be numerous, and the voiles and dimities will fill the bill in a very appropriate manner.

Hand made and hand embroidered waists of check and stripe dimity. These have Peter Pan collars with front or back fastening or Tuxedo fronts, others are gay with colored cross stitching.

Women's New Neckwear; Bramley Collar and Cuff sets of fine quality Swiss material are embroidered in a variety of pleasing colorings. Equally smart for those who prefer all white neckwear, are white Muslin Bramley Sets with a dainty lace edging.
