MAY APPEAL AT ONCE TO BOARD.

The Council Will Decide To-night.

Over 800 Unemployed Registered.

Object to Houses In Annex.

It is expected that the report of the committee on street railway matters will furnish a lively debate at the City Council meeting to-night. On good authority it was reported this orning that an effort would be made by a section of the aldermen who are opposed to conferring with the company to call negotiations off and make an appeal at once to the Ontario Railway Board. Mayor Stewart admitted that he had heard some talk of this, but said it remained entirely with the Council what was to be done. Even should the Council decide to continue negotiations, exception will be taken to the rider passed by the conference committee recom mending that in the event of an ar rangement being reached the matter be submitted to the electors. Some of the aldermen object to agreeing to submit anything to the electors at this stage Even he members of the conference com mittee who have worked the hardest to effect a settlement say that the com-pany must give a definite answer imme-diately on the return of President Gib-son and General Manager Hawkins from the south. Ald, McLaren expressed him-self this morning in favor of this course, and deal-rad that the company would be and declared that the company would be making an awful mistake if it failed to accept the city's offer.

Artiur Hatch, the general manager of the Canada Steel Goods Company, has written to the city regarding the way land in the annex is being sold for house building purposes. It is a very serious matter for the manufacturers who have located or will locate in the manufacturer. located or will locate in the manufactur-ing district, Mr. Hatch says. If it con-tinues, he thinks, it will be a matter of only, a very short time before the insur-ance rates, and that if it is confirmed it will compel manufacturers to seek other locations. The insurance rates at present, Mr. Hatch states, are excessive on account of there being no fire staon account of there being no fire sta-tions in that district. He suggests that the city can remedy the trouble by re-fusing to grant building permits for houses in the annex.

Over eighty unemployed men register-eed at the City Hall this morning, bring-ing the total number up to over 800. On account of the ground freezing up again last night the Board of Works this morning was not able to give work to the hundred men to whom it sent out motices but it is expected that all these the hundred men to whom it sent out notices, but it is expected that all these and a number of others who have been notified since will be at work by this afternoon. The road cleaning work will be finished in two weeks, and the city will have very little employment after that, excepting sewer work, to give any one. Only four gangs will be employed on cement sidewalk work this year, and it is doubtful if even that number will doubtful if even that nu

The city has received a letter from A. P. Vanfleeet, a customer of the Ontario Pipe Line Company, who complains about being charged $1 for gas when the bylaw says the price with the discount shall be $1 a thousand feet. "I ask that the council protect me and see that the by-law is properly enforced," Mr. Vanfleet writes. "If there are by-laws, why are they not carried into effect. I want this matter brought before the council, as there are a number like myself who feel that the city is lax in allowing the gas company to impose on citizens." The city has received a letter from A. company to impose on citizens.

Charles Duff, York street, has sent a letter to Mayor Stewart, urging that a thorough inspection of all public build-ings be made at once to make sure that they are porperly equipped with exits and fire escapes. The other night, he says, he attended a concert in a church, which would have proved a veritable fire trap in case of fire. One of the outer doors of the only exit was bolted, and a baby carriage was behind an inner (Continued on page 10.)

While returning from the city on Saturday night Mrs. Burns, who has charge of the sewing department at the Asylum, was attacked just outside the gates of the institution by a ruffian, who sprang out of the shadows and grabbed her. ## WILL BE SUSTAINED ON ITS RECORD

After a strenuous week at Ottawa, Mr. Adam Zimmerman, M. P., spent Saturday and Sunday in the city returning last night to renew the vigil in the interest of Hamilton and the country. Mr. Zimmerman gave a most emphatic denial to the story published in a local newspaper a few days ago, which stated that there was trouble in the Liberal caucus over the civil service report. The newspaper in question on Friday gave an alleged report of the caucus. It said the meeting was called to consider the civil service commission report and that it was officially announced that Hon. Mr. Brodeur would leave the Government. The report was just another fake. The cauous was called before the civil service report came out and there was no reference whatever to that report at

Eye Witnesses Told of Fatal Affair.

Evidence of an Interpreter Not Admitted.

It was twelve o'clock to-day when the reliminary hearing of the murder harges against Bruno and Guieseppe Greco were called at the police court.
The two defendants sat in court all the norning and hardly spoke to one another. M. J. O'Reilly, K. C., was present n their behalf, while Crown Attorney

Washington prosecuted. Leopoldi P. Scarrone, Toronto, was worn in as interpreter for the crown. Special precautions are being taken in this trial and Magistrate Jelfs personally administered a special oath to Wil-charged that on March 12 of this year you did, in or near Dundas, in the township of West Flamboro, unlawfully and with malice aforethought, kill and murder one Antonio Rieszo, are you guity or not guilty." Both men told the interpreter "I don't know nothing."

Dr. Rennie was called first and told the story of the wound. He said he was called to see the injured man at the City Hospital on the night of the stabbing and found a wound between the ninth and tenth ribs, in Riezo's left side. A large peice of fat had forced its way through the wound and this was all that prolonged the deceased's life on the trip to this city, as his abdominal cavity was full of blood and none could get out of the wound. He operated, he said, and then he told the story of the operation, and the post mortem as it was given at the inquest on Wednesday night last. Cologero Mendola was then called. His story, as told through the interpreter, was the same as given at the inquest. He saw Guiseppe Greco call Rieszo out of the shanty and then heard a shout for help. He ran out and saw they younger defendant attacking Rieszo with a knife in his hand. When he tried to interfere Greco said "Mannai Modonno, I kill you." and just then Bruno Greco came to the door with a pick handel and hit him, the witness, and said "sh" to command silence. The rest of the boarders in the shanty then came out and Rieszo and the witness went to another shanty.

Rieszo said the younger Greco brother, Guiseppe, had hit him in the side with his fist and then he suddenly discovered the blood and the stab wound. He said Guiseppe Greco had done for him and several other men were there when he said Guiseppe Greco had done for him and several other men were there when he said Guiseppe Greco had done for him and several other men were there when he said Guiseppe Greco had done for him and several other men were there when he said Guiseppe Greco had done for him and several other men were there when Pantalone Giralome corroborated the previous witnesses. He, was asked what Rieszo had said in the shanty after he had been stabbel. Mr. O'Reilly objected on the grounds that the prisoners were not present when Rieszo made his statement.

"I'll allow it to go in, subject to objection, of the Crown wishes it so," said the Magistrate.

"I've got loads without it, and it'll go in at the High Court," smiled the Crown Attorney.

"Oh, yet! And is this really the Bridge of Sighs? Is it a true likeness?"

"Oh, yet! And is this really the Bridge of Sighs? Is it a true likeness?"

"Very true. I have seen the original often, looking just so, the surface of the water like glass, as it is there, and that solemn, old-world air about the houses. Are you there, by this time? You, must fancy it strangely silent-only the dash of the oars to be heard with a bell, or a gondolier's song, now and then. No wagons, no carriages no street cries."

"I can imagine it all." said Gabrielle.

in her voice, and Charlie Godfrey was never weary of praising it. But thenso Gabrielle argued—her father and Charlie loved her, and love is blind. She made a strong effort, and sang.

Long before she had reached the end, nervousness and self were forgotten; swallowed up in the words, and the simple, plaintive air, in the acompaniment—so like the flapping of innumerable wings. Only when the last note was sitent, she awoke, as from a dream, to find that James was rapsacking her portfolio in search of other songs.

"Gabrielle," he said, "that voice did not deserve to be buried. It is one of the sweetest voices I ever heard. You must have lessons," echoed Olivia, who was seated before the tea table, some distance off, intent upon her tating; "I shall see about it as soon as possible. Marian's old—"

Boc'y of Woman Found in Arlingto Cemetery.

Arlington, Mass "March 29.—The body of a woman, identified as Annie Mullins, of South Boston, who was employed as a domestic in a Cambridge family, with the throat cut deeply, and showing many indications of murder, was found in a pit in St. Paul's Cemetery by two boys Saturday. The condition of the body seemed to indicate that the woman had been dead for several hours.

The body indicated that the woman was about 25 years of age, and of slight build.

of Education.

Victoria, March 28.—Chan Weun King, a Chinese boy, has been expelled from the public school here for indecent conduct while attending the Hock Bay school.

Action at the school board meeting last night followed complaints from a parent that his six-year-old daughter had brought home a scribbler with highly indecent drawings by the boy.

The matter will probably be brought up at a meeting of the Asiatic Exclusion League. League.

The expulsion is made permanent.

A Philadelphia Tragedy.

A Philadelphia Iragedy.

Philadelphia, March 29.—George Eells, a policeman, aged 60 years, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Annie Andress, a neighbor, in the lower section of the city to-night, and probably fatally injured Ella Paschall, his alleged common-law wife, and Kate Jewel, a niece of Mrs. Andress. Domestic troubles are said to have been responsible for the tragedy.

Jane Carnahee, no address, was arrested on Saturday night by Constable Smith on a charge of being a common vagrant. The constable stated that he arrested Jane in a stable in company with a man she did not know. She pleaded for liberty, and wanted to go to her mother in Guelph. The Magistrate was loth to impose thus on Guelph, and sent Jane to the lock-up for two months.

James Egan, 52 Smith avenue, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Lentz on the word of some residents at Jackson and MacNab streets that he was a "suspicious character." The Magistrate told him not to hold one corner down again so long, and allowed him to go. Jane Carnahee, no address was arrest

Maurice Cole, 140 Simcoe street east, was arrested on a charge of assaulting and threatening his wife. He pleaded guilty and was ordered to find sureties in the sum of $100 to keep the peace, and remain away from his wife.

MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1908.

WHITNEY IN A PANIC.

The Government organs announce that the Provincial elections will be brought on early in June, the date mentioned be ing the 9th, and that Whitney will try use all the means at his command to take the Opposition at a disadvantage, even to leaving important measures before the Legislature undisposed of in order to work against time.

Notwithstanding the boastfulness of the Whitney Administration, it is leaving as little as possible to the free judgment of the electors of the country, and is shirking many of the questions which have been pressing for solution, while it dangles before the public the old hook baited liberally with promises, laughing in its sleeve as it thinks how successful it was in the past at hoodwinking the gullible.

The Premier's scheme was to legislate himself back into power by the simple expedient of manufacturing eight or ten new Tory members, and gerrymandering a number of constituencies so as to render some Liberal seats insecure and to make other Tory seats safe. Any Liberals who were foolish enough to vote for Whitney last election in the belief that he was honest in his professions and would live up to his pledges may now sit down and revise opinions and recall the story of the man who volunteered to turn the grindstone, only to find when the knife the electors have found him out, and not even the crime perpetrated in the gerrymander makes him feel at ease. He does not even trust Toronto! The Spectator, in considering the party prospects, gives this excuse for the Premier's panic: "The multiplicity of Conservative nominees in Toronto has begun to assume a serious condition, and if all the men run who say they will be candidates, Toronto may be worse off with eight members than with four." How terrible the punishment of a guilty conscience!

A number of important measures ' are to be shunted aside-dodged- and left to be used as material in the campaign for purposes of promise. One of these is the Law Reform legislation advocated by Mr. MacKay, and which was stolen by the Government, but which it declined to deal with this session, perhaps because it dared not deal with in the public interest in the face of an election. It will be used for political juggling, the Government being bound to ng. Convict labor reform, played such a large part in the last Provincial general election in Hamilton, the pledges then made being deliberately and contemptuously violated, will again be held up as a bait to the labor masses so heartlessly betrayed and scorned. It is hinted that the power matter will be similarly used as a "big thing" in the way of promise for the future to gull the overtrustful who have looked to form" is also said to be one of Whitney's election jokers, although the very word coming from the lips of such an abandoned and dishonored spoilsman ought to call down on him the condemnation of every honest voter whose trust he has betrayed.

But it is not only by the gerryman der and by shirking great questions that he should deal with that the Premier hopes to evade the righteous wrath of nest Ontario and to defraud the electors out of their own. He has other reources. There has been abundant provision made for "the inflooence" upon which the party workers grow enthusiastic. The present Government did not increase the expenditure by about $2,-000,000 for nothing The Ross expenditure was railed at. Whitney and his lieutenants when in Opposition fairly beggaring the English lang uage in their prodigality in the use of denunciatory terms to describe the "ex-Yet in three years they have increased it by 45 per cent! And they have exercised much ingenuity in levying new taxes, besides profiting by the riches Ross' policy brought to the treasury. The additional subsidy of three-quarters of a million given to us by the Dominion is also open to the despoilers in their effort to maintain themselves in power. These give hints of the cause of the party's insolent boastful-

And yet the Government is anarchen sive. It is quite willing to defy the electoral will-if it could only be quite sure of the success of the plot. But has it sufficiently stacked the cards? That is all that bothers it. And if Toronto is place his trust?

RIDICULOUS HEROICS.

Mr. Ferguson, M. P. P., devoted a good of Mr. C. N. Smith, M. P. P., for speaking of the Beck horse transportation matter, and fairly swelled with simulat ed indignation at the idea of its being ned, alleging that it had cost the Becks $5,000 to exhibit, in addition to the amount appearing in the Public Accounts as paid for the transportation of Mrs. Beck's horses, none exhibiting but Mr. Beck and his wife. Mr. Ferguson only wastes wind, and makes himself ridiculous by assuming that air. Only rses sent by Mr. and Mrs. Beck were exhibited, says the Premier, and says would have been derelict in his duties if he had not brought the matter up: Atlantic Transport Co., transportation of horses re International Horse Show, Lon-

142 33

What was done with the rest of the ney thus charged, the Govern may explain, if it can, or will. If injustice has been done to Mr. Beck in the matter, the blame must lie at the door of the Government, which has not been as open and candid in the matter as might have been desired. It cannot shelter itself behind Mr. Smith, and it should be above trying to do so by using the name of a lady.

SOUTH WENTWORTH.

Hamilton Regan, of Ancaster, ha again been nominated by the Tories of outh Wentworth as their candidate for Legislative honors in the coming local election. Like Mr. Wilson in the North Riding, Mr. Regan ha been there before, and knows how it feels to be counted down and out, and is probably prepared for a repetition of that disa greeable experience. As compensation for his being a victim the second time, he no doubt hopes that he will have the patronage of the constituency to dispense for another term, and to a man of Mr. Regan's temperament, that means quite a lot. But he may even lose the patronage, for it is no dead sure thing that Mr. Whitney will sweep the Province. Mr. Regan got the position by unanimous vote. Had the party thought there was any chance of success there would have been competition for the job, but in the circumstances nobody was sharpened that it was intended to else wanted it. Mr. Regan may not be eut his own throat. Whitney knows that a very strong man, but he has the party pretty well behind him which Mr. son has not got, and a determined effort will be made to elect him.

> Mr. Dan Reed, the present member and who will without doubt again be the Liberal candidate, has shown himself to be a worthy successor of former Liberal members for the riding. He has taken an active and intelligent interest in all questions affecting his constituents coming before the House and the Province and has been especially energetic in furthering the interests of the farmers. He is no dummy, either. He has developed into a good speaker, and when he does speak in the House he is late. ed to with attention as a man who knows what he is talking about. In the ordinary course of events there can be no doubt of his re-election. But his friends must take nothing for granted. Even the best of men will suffer defeat if their supporters do not rally rouns them and see that every vote is polled. The South Wentworth Liberals canno too soon get on a war footing. Much has to be done and done quickly. Whif ney shows a desire to take the Liberals at a disadvantage by forcing the date of the elections as soon as possible. Get to work. Take no chances.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

When Whitney set about gerryman dering the Hurons, he dived into that old pigeon-hole in which the plans of Sir John's gerrymanders of that county were kept.

Now let the Liberals get a move on. Remember that thousands of voters who were deceived into hoping for things from Whitney are this time dealing with A MAN FOUND OUT.

It is said, up in London, that Adam Beck will not risk a fight with William Gray in the coming election, but will seek one of the "made" berths in Tory Toronto. Fie. Adam!

The British Postmaster-General is considering the issue of a mourning stamp with a black border, with the avowed object of selling them to the philatelists. That is turning popular fads to revenue account.

Montreal has just borrowed £1,000,000 realizing 97.025. That is a discount rate of nearly 3 per cent., although the rate of interest of the loan is 4 per cent. There is a hint there for borrowing municipalities to go slow.

People would place a greater degree of confidence in the Hydro Commission's report on producer gas engines if it did not so carefully conceal from them the plants reported on by inserting dashes where the names should be. heading as a piece of "Laurier strategy to strengthen the Cabinet"; while the Mail and Empire, in its largest type, bulletins it "Exposures of musrule heavy blow to Liberals," and affects to believe that it has astounded Laurier. The simple truth would have caused our contemporaries much less trouble.

Mr. Ferguson, M. P. P., very maladroitly dangled the Technical College bait before his hearers at the Con. Club the other night. But it was not real fishing, of course—just a make-helieve, you know. If he lived in Hamilton, he would try to get the college-but, then, you know, he was careful to mention he held out no hope; made no promises. He must have taken the crowd he address to be queer fish-very closely allied to suckers-to take that in Mayor Stewart has drawn the Spectator's attention to the fact that its Toronto correspondent failed to mention that his Worship spoke before the Municipal Committee in favor of the gravel pit bill. "Drill, ve tarriers, drill!" It may be art knows he has got you on the hip now, and you must not try to slight the service he demands of you. Praise him, yea, every hour praise him!

Rev. Canon Cody speaks out vigorously on the subject of old-age pensions. Like many other thoughtful men, he sees the difficulty by which any such system would offer encouragement for the idler and the spendthrift, and he urges that care must be taken that it does not foster idleness and scamped work. No measure should be approved, that might have a tendency to provide the "greatest idleness for the greatest numously on the subject of old-age pensions ber." We need no bonus by the provident and industrious to encourage unthrift.

Countering on the Tory orators who rave about expenditures for the building of the National Transcontinental Railway, and refer to them as evidences of extravagances, Hon. Mr. Paterson pointedly asks:

What would the addition to the debt What would the addition to the dept of the country be if the hon, gentlemen ever carried out the Halifax platform and bought up and operated all the rail-ways, telephones and telegraphs in the ntry? It would be about one thousand million dollars. Where would they it? But there was hardly any need to dwell on the point; very little had been heard about that platform lately some hon, gentlemen, he believed. particularly enthusiastic about that platform.

Speaking to the Hamilton Tories of Friday night, Mr. Ferguson attempted to make much of the Montreal River pulp concession by which, he admitted, Ross had realized for the Province $20. 000 in cash, and imposed conditions for the building up of a great pulp and paper mill industry there. Ferguson omitted to tell that Ross provided that the price per cord for pulp wood cut hould be fixed from time to time by the Government. This transaction was represented as a great case of graft, but the facts are that the terms proved so onerous that capitalists could not be inuced to finance the scheme. They preferred Whitney's out-and-out deal of $300,000 instead; there was more money in it for the concessionaries

The Mail and Empire announces an ther "scandal." A settler, named Vinet, was, it says, enabled by pull to homestead a lot near Selkirk, Man., which was thickly covered by poplar, although the regulations provide that no quarter section containing 26 acres of merchantable timber should be available for nomesteading. In spite of all the great eadlines indicating graft, etc., which the Mail devotes to this story, it inadvertently admits to it this paragraph Mybitney's work in carving up the Country of Huron shows the ingenuity of the cowardly and unprincipled gerryman-derer. At the last elections the country cart 7,106 Liberal votes against 6,904 Tory votes. By carving out a narrow riding over 30 miles long Whitney manages to "hive" into it 3,067 Grits, and thus make two fairly safe Tory seats of the other misshapen constituencies!

The T. & N. O. R. receipts from freight and passengers during the year were $179,237; operating expenses, $645. This is not a large sum to realize on a road in which the Govern-ment has expended $12,177.784. "Other sources" of revenue connected with it, however, broad ought to do a great work in opening up the north country.

Huron Gerrymander. (Toronto Globe.) The Huron County gerrymander is an attempt to carry our public life back to a condition for some years abandoned. All Ontario should resent it.

The Most Important (Toronto News.) It is generally agreed that the speed of Hon. Clifford Sifton on the budge was one of the most important deliver ances of this session of Parliament.

The Ottawa fire brigade makes too much noise when it is at work. To get a line of hose on the roof of a building one command should be sufficient, instead of a prolonged series of exhortations extending over a quarter of an hour.

Full Power.

There is no notion, of course, that political patronage is an invention of the present Government. It is rather one of the encumbrances on the estate which they inherited. Patronage has always been a parasite on the robust body of the most virile political party; and the only way in which the best of them seem able to escape from it is by putting it beyond their own power to exercise this malign privilege.

Marine Department.

It is one of the little ironies of politics It is one of the little ironies of politics that such a report should be made against this department. Curiously enough, every official of any standing in the department, with the exception of the head of one branch of it, is a Conservative appointee, One of them, whose inefficiency led to, vigorous measures, spends part of his time carrying tales about others, perhaps equally inefficient, to Conservative members and, as would seem, to members of this Commission. Had, Liberal Ministers turned, out the given the Commission's report accuses they would have been denounced for introducing the spoils system.

WHAT J. S. DID FOR HAMILTON.

GIVEN CREDIT FOR THE WORK DONE BY OTHERS

And Even the Tory Aldermen Are Laughing at His Expense, Over Gravel Pits.

The glory thrust upon Hon, John S Hendrie for the work done in saving west end property from being damaged by gravel pits is an illustration of how hard up the Conservatives are for material to boom the stock of the member for West Hamilton. The paragraph given such prominent display in Mr. Hendrie's organ telling of how his efforts were appreciated caused those unfamiliar with the facts, and who recalled that Mr. Hendrie could not be got to attend a meeting last year in a west and school to discuss the matter, to snicker. Mr. Hendrie, when the matter came up in Toronto, did nothing more than behaved done as the representative of West Hamilton—spoke a word in favor of the bill. That was all the tolumn. With an election approaching, the Conservatives thought to make capital out of it, and Trustee George Allan, a prominent Tory worker, circulated a petition. As a matter of fact, it was the Board of Works of last year that was responsible for the city securing power to regulate gravel pits. City Solicitor Waddell advised that the proper thing to do was to appeal to the Legislature for this power. Chairman Sweeney and his colleagues, who spent much time inspecting the gravel pits, were unanimous that this should be done, and last May A'd. McLaren, seconded by Ald. ## CONFIRMATION AT ST. PETER'S

And Fine Address By the Bishop of Niagara.

Mite Box Anniversary at Zion Yesterday.

Mr. Melvin's Farewell---Other Special Services.

St. Peter's Church was filled to over flowing last evening at the confirmation service, when about sixteen young people were confirmed by Bishop DuMoulin His Lordship after the impressive rite complimented the people of the church on the splendid congregation assemble and intimated that it was cause for great satisfaction to have such a large lass of young people taking confirms tion. To the ordinary mind the confir mation service does not hold much, but it is much to the minister who has the pastoral care, and to the young people who give themselves to Jesus Christ The class was a striking evidence of the prosperity of the church in spiritual work. One must not be a pessimist, but look forward for greater strength and activity, in the work of the church for Jesus Christ. On joining the church there are two things that must be kept before one in his or her everyday life. One is that the Christian religion is an individual religion between God and the person, God knowing all the thoughts and difficulties in each life and administering to them. To have that is to have personal religion.

Then there is the corporate religion which is larger in its scope. It deals with the work of the church in all its nultiple branches. In speaking of the corporate life of the church, His Lordship referred to the great Pan-Anglican Congress which is to be held in London, England, in June next. He described the work that would be taken up and discussed. It is not a meeting for the clergy of the church, but for the men and women as well. Great preparation has been going on for the past five years in ancieipation of this great event. The subjects to come up for discussion are most momentous, such as marriage and divorce, the evils of gambling, the temperance questions. These are but a few items from a long programme. His Lordship did not know of any great organization in these modern days that was zation in these modern days that was as complete in its details. as complete in its details. Reference was made to the big thank offering to be given on the last day of the Congress. Another corporate movement was that of the Pan-Anglican Conference, to be held at Lambeth Palace in July, when bishops of the Church of England throughout the whole world to the number of 250 will gather for one worth to discuss questions concerning the church's welfare. The Laymen's Movement was another corporate movement in connection with the church, which commands the attention of the whole world at the present time. ber of 250 will gather for on

Mite-box Aniversary.

Vesterday was mite box anniversary day in Zion Tabernacle. Rev. H. W. Crews, their former pastor, preached at both services and large crowds turned out. The morning sermon was from John 4-38—"Other men have labored and we have entered into their labors."

Mr. Crews started by speaking of hero worship, and mentioned celebrations of great men and deeds. The past is a gran ary, he said, which contains the produc great men. The benefits we to-day tembs. The comforts we enjoy was hi next point. Only a few years back th ground on which Hamilton now stand ground on which Hamilton now stands was covered with forest and plain. He had great respect, he said, for the pioneers who helped to build up this fair city, and others. Intellectual development was also taken, up. We owe our present standard of intellectual development to men of old such as J. Y. Simpson who discovered the benefits of vaccination, Silas Field and many others. Civil and religious freedom were also gone into. Some examples such as Charles 1, Pym, Hampton, Elliott and Cromwell he spoke in glowing terms of. The Hollanders were a people to look up to. Their love of liberty was so great that sooner than live under the yoke of Spain they sacrificed their country to the waters of the sea. Our moral heritage is a result than live under the yoke of Spain they sacrificed their country to the waters of the sea. Our moral Aeritage is a result of labors of the men of pass ages. Moses and Abraham of the Old Testament, and Paul of the New Testament, were spoken of as the starters of it. Coming to later times Knox and Calvin and others who had carried on the great work were mentioned. The relations we bear to the coming generations were gone briefly including the properties of the coming generations were gone briefly including the part of the said, who object to sowing because they cannot reap. These are fools and follow not the teachings of the Lord. The humble bee only eats one quarter of the humble bee only eats one quarter of the honey it stores away and others derive benefit from the larger portion of its labors. Coming to the late and present generations Mr. Crews mentioned the mames of some of the mentioned the names of some of the mentioned the names of Kobert Campbell, Thomas Fanning, sen., C. L. Thomas, W. J. Kerr, Charles McCartney as being foremost in the work, and spoke in glowing terms of those who were at the helm of the church as the charmed or the church and organist.

Last evening in Wentworth Baptists.

Last evening in Wentworth Baptist of those who were at the helm of the church at which the annual returns of the mich were spoken and the conditions prevailing were worthy of special attentions, was properliate to the the month of the church at which the annual returns of the mich was a pure and holy God. The pratting child by the impulse of the recomiled to Him he mounts pward, singing all the way. The pratting child by the impulse of the recoming child by the impulse of the pole of the recoming child by the impulse of the pole of the was to be recomiled to Him he must be come in the Lord was truly comes insignificant with that of hundreds of men with as many millions. The Standard Oil Company had been fined thirty-nine millions by one State alone for robbing the people, and all these things had happened within the last fifty years. Another sign of the times was the refinements of life as in those days. Men were mad with pleasure, and with this luxurious living came awful apostosy. To-day the little white theatres were doing a tremendous business, and the worst feature was that professing Christians patronized such affairs. Continuing, Mr. Howitt said that with increasing wickedness came a disregard of the marriage laws, and when in Chicago he noticed thirty divorces had been granted in one day. Another sad feature of antediluvian days and characteristic of the approaching end of the present age was the incursion of spiritual beings in the world or the union of angels and men now known as spiritualism, which works awful destruction among men. Mr. Howitt said he had handfulls of affidavits by persons in Hamilton who had become deluded by this pernicious teaching, who swore that deeds of awful depravity were committed at scences. Many homes had been broken up as a direct result. Mr. Howitt closed by appealing to his hearrs, in view of the future, to be found in Christ, who was typical of that crowing day and he rejudgment came upon the world the leemed would fully enjoy the blessedness of that crowning day and be re warded for a life of faithful service.

Chalmers' Church.

Mr. M. G. Melvin, the student wh has been in charge of Chalmers' Pres byterian Courch during the winter months, and who is leaving for the miscongregation. Before the sermon has sion field this week, preached his fare Melvin referred to the work on the mountain, regretted that he had not been able to do more, as he had been tied down considerably by his studies at college. He had enjoyed the work amongst them. But had made up his mind to go to the mission field in British Columbia. He felt it was his duty to go there. A man could easily be got for Chalmers' Church, but he cound not be got so easily for the field where he was going. His sermon was where he was going. His sermon was based on Amos iv. 12, "Prepare to meet thy God." After a reference to Amos, who, he said, had more insight than foresight, and to the office of a prophet, he said that as soon as honesty foresight, and to the office of a prophet, he said that as soon as honesty and virtue began to be trampled under foot and crueity took their place, just so soon would that country meet its doom. He said some people made he preparation to meet Goa; they purposely neglected the means of grace. Some looked upon religion as only fit for women and children. Others just patronize religion as it is thought to be respectable; they never came face to face with God. 100 much interest in material ble; they never came face to face with God. 100 much interest in material things kept many from preparing to meet God. Others gave intelectual ad-hesion to religious doctrines; they were members of the church simply because members of the church simply because they had been able to answer certain questions, not because they had any experience of God. When the minister arraigns certain sinners, they turn round and say, "Didn't he give it to them," never thinking of tasking it to themselves. Some think that leading a moral life is preparing to meet God; they think that if they do the square thing they are all right; that God is a God of love and won't punish them. "The Bonnie Brier Bush" had inculcated some such sentimental ideas. But God was a God of justice as well as of love. Too much was sometimes said of the love of God and too little of the majesty of the law and the eternal justice of the moral law of life. The sinner could not return to God unconditionally. He must put off the old man and put on the new. Mr. Melvin said a good word for his successor, Mr. Cree, another Knox College student. a vigorous speaker and the intense earnestness he displays in expounding the gospel or driving home some truth impresses one. Man's greatest victory, he declared, was won when he surrendered himself to Jesus Christ. It had been said that acience was discarding the Bible and Christianity. In refuting this, the speaker told of the ginat intellect down through the ages to modern days as positive proof of the untruth of such an assertion. Church members, he declared, required something more than having their names on the roll. It was easential that they should surrender themselves to Christ.

A Dedication Service

A Dedication Service.

A Dedication Service.

At the morning service at St. Thomas' Church yesterday the new pulpit, prayer desk and lectern were dedicated by Rev. E. J. Etherington in the presence of a congregation that almost filled the church. The rector preached a sermon appropriate to the occasion, his text being St. Luke v. 14: "And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all."

The text, he said, divided itself naturally under three heads—the teacher, the place and the teaching. Christ, he said, gave rules of life, and laid down a principle for the enlarging of the brother-hood of man and the kingdom of God on earth. In concluding, he said that he trusted that from the pulpit now dedicated that he and his successors shall always send forth the message of Christ. The new pulpit is very rich and attractive, as is also the lectern. The lectern is, in the form of a brass eagle.

Centenary Church.

The services of yesterday were of special interest. Being the day for exchange of pulpits, Rev. John Young, of St. John Presbyterian, took charge of the morning service. The choir always St. John Frederice. The choir always does well, and yesterday morning the anthem, "Turn Thy Face From My Sins," the quartette, "My by Attwood, and the quartette, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," sung by Mrs. Allen. The preacher took for his text John I work." As a rule before the coming of Christ slaves only worked. The Jewish people objected to His Messiahabip because Jesus worked. He brought by His own example dignity to labor. All honest labor is equally honorable, from the man behind the plow to the judge behind the bench. Why did He so work! He did it with one supreme purpose—to elevate society. Every seffort of His life was to bring about the spiritual kingdom in this world. The works of Christ did not consist in writing books, nor in the distributing of wealth that men might follow Him, nor by the power of the sword, alike Mahomet, but by the force of His peerless character, by the many deeds of kindness, and the omnipotence of love. Christ was not particular whether He spoke to the few or the many. He was as faithful to the woman at the well, as He was to the multitude on the shore of the Sea of Galilee. As planets circle around the sun, so every word and every deed of Christ's life centred towards the kin lom of heaven. With Christ opportunity was always a duty. He did not expect the Father to do the work divine wisdom assigns us to do. Though His life's work seemed a failure, He went on sowing the seed of the kingdom of God. The reaping time came afterwards. History repeats itself in a thousand ways. Ample opportunity to work for the Master cometh to the hand of the church to-day, and we must not forget that He who calls us into His vineyard to work assures us that in every act of kindness we may hear Him saying: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of my brethren, 'tis done unto me."

Yesterday morning Rev. J. A. Wilson, B. A., exchanged pulpits with Rev. T. H. Henderson, B. A., of the A. M. E. Church, and if the members of Mr. Henderson church were as well pleased and edified with Mr. Wilson's sermon as the St. Andrew's people were with Mr. Henderson's, the exchange of pulpits must have been satisfactory to both congregations. Mr. Henderson chose for his text Psa. li., 6, "Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts." The speaker said that David had sinned, and although no man accused him, he was pressed by a guilty conscience that would not give him rest. The man whom he murdered did not accuse him, because his lips were scaled in death, and the woman he had tempted did not accuse him because him leads to the preacher spoke of the golden value of a holy impulse. Although the statement as to the confession was not in detail and came to the world through the signed statement on the ministers, Gillette had a word to say to the young men of the world. This was a communication that was handed to Warden Benbam last night at 10 o'clock and was given out this morning. It is as follows:

"If I could only say some one thing that would draw young men to Him, I would deem it the greatest privilege ever granted me. But all I can now say is, I know in whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day.

Before the Execution.

Auburn, March 29,—Gillette passed the day quietly in his cell, and there was no deviation from the regular routine since he has been in Auburn prison. He was permitted to receive a farewell visit from his father, mother and aunt, Miss Catherine Gillette, Gillette arose at the usual hour and ate breakfast, which was furnished him from the hospital kitchen. His appetite was normal and in no way did he betray any evidence of the strain under which he must have been laboring.

During the morning he alternately read and wrote. He is preparing a statement which, it is expected, will be given out after the electrooution. This statement is said to be in no manner a confession of the crime, but his version of the affair.

a red flower. Gillette was not allowed to take the flowers, but they were placed where he could see them through the screen in front of his cell. The parting between Gillette and his mother was deeply affecting. Mrs. Gillette's unusual request to have her son's aunt, Miss Catherine Gillette, and Miss Bermie Ferrin, a friend of the family, attend the execution, has been denied by Warden Benham.

Refused to Reprieve.

In the matter of the application for a reprieve of Chester Gillette, Governor Hughes said:

"On December 4, 1906, Chester Gillette was convicted of the murder of Grace Brown on July 11 of that year. On Feb. ruary 18, 1908, the Court of Appeals unanimously affirmed the judgment and he was then sentenced to suffer the death penalty during the week beginning. March 30th. Upon application for executive clemency, and after a careful examination of the evidence, I reached the conclusion that there was no ground on which I should be justified in interfering with the execution of the judgment of the court.

"A reprieve is now asked in order that proceedings may be taken to obtain a new trial upon the ground of alleged newly, discovered evidence.

Labor Cabinet Minister John Burns Says Licensing Bill Will Both Houses—He Handles "Trade" Without Gloves-An Object Lesson in Socialism.

London, March 29 .- It is now recog nized that important changes in the nized that important changes in the British Cabinet are imminent. Some one of the younger members of the Ministry will be raised to Cabinet rank. It is considered probable, however, that the result of the election in Peckham, where the Unionist candidate secured a tremendous majority, will deter Mr. Asquith, who is now leader of the Government, from making any appointments that would necessitate any new member of the Cabinet standing for re-election in an unsafe continuency. This is the case with Winston Churchill, who would have to seek re-election in Manchester if he were promoted to Cabinet rank, and it is suggested that Dr. Machamara will get the post that otherwise would undoubtedly be offered to Mr. Churchill. Dr. Machamara's seat in North Camberwell is considered safe, having given a Liberal majority of 2.817 in the general election two years ago.

The Peckham election has so fired with enthusiasm the Unionists that a reversal of the verdict of the general election, which gave the Liberal party the largest majority in British annals, is predicted within the next two years. The impression is widespread among those who view the political situation in this country without partisan prejudice that the Givernment party in the House of Commons is slowly going to pieces.

SAYS THIS IS BEST

A leading health journal in answering the question, "What is the best prescription to clean and purify the blood?" prints in a recent issue the

Fluid Extract Dandelion one ounce; ound Sılatone, one ounce; ound Syrup Sarsaparilla, four Compound Silatone, one ounce ;

Shake well and use in teaspoontury doess after each meal and at bettime.

A well-known physician states that these are harmless vegetable ingredients, which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy.

This mixture will clean the blood of all impurities. In just a few days the skin begins to clear of sores, boils and pimples. It puts vigor and energy into run-down debilitated men and women. For many years Sarsparilla alone has been considered a good blood medicine. But while it built up and made new blood, the impurities remained within and the good accomplished was only temporary. Sarsparilla, however, when used in combination with Compound Salatone and Extract Dandelion, works wonders. This combination puts the kidneys to work to filter and sift out the waste matter, uric acid, and other impurities that cause disease. It makes new blood and relieves rheumatism and lame back and bladder troubles.

London, Eng., March 28.—Ernest Thompson Seton isctured before the Royal Geographical Society on his cance trip to the plains of Cariboo, being an account of the expedition of 1907 to the mainland to the northwest of Hudson Bay. Millions of cariboo still existed there, he said, including a herd of American bisson. Concluding, he pointed out that he had taken his audience on a seven months' trip to the Arctic regions and back by means of slides, and that there were no traces of ice or snow in any picture.

Puccini's 'Madam Butterfly," the sensational Japanese grand opera which Hen ry W. Savage brings to the Grand Opera House, Hamilton, for matinee and night performances next Friday.

"Madam Butterfly" owes its first pre sentation in English in any country, and its first presentation in this country, to Mr. Savage. Its premier performance in America took place at Washington, D. C., last year, where it met with an ova-From Washington, Mr. Savage took his production to New York, where it eclipsed all records for the number of secutive performances. To-day it is the reigning novelty and operatic sensa-tion in both Europe and this country.

The opera is a novelty in modern music, with a score expressive of deepest human emotion. Its music is described as having enchanting, enamoring beauty. WANT THEIR FRANCHISE

Hamilton theatre-goers who recall the work of Amelia Summerville as Baby Malone in the spera "Brian Boru," which made such a hit here some years ago, will welcome the opportunity of seeing that clever comedienne at the Savoy this week. Miss Summerville, since she was last here, has starred in several of the best known productions on the stage and only recently closed a successful engagement with Charles Frohman's company. Her society monologue, in which she gives imitations of some of New York's smart set, is said to be exceptionally clever. Miss Summerville has a splendid voice and uses it to the best advantage in her act. Thomas Barnum and Nell Roach, presenting that hilarious comedy sketch, "The Political Grafter, will be the special added attraction. Mr. Barnum is a clever comedian and his act is pronounced a genuine laughing hit. The many friends of Herbert Lennon (Tighe Bowen), an old Hamilton boy, who has made a name for himself in the theatrical world, will be afforded an opportunity of seeing him make his first appearance on the vaudeville stage in Hamilton this week. He has played on the big circuits for several scasons with much success in his clever character impresonations of stage celebrities, among them. James a Hesarne in "Shore Acres." Junie McCree and Billy Van, the famous ministrel man. The bill includes Less Jundts, a clever European equilibrist act; Keegan and Mack, in a skit, "The Cowboy and the Squaw," in which they make seven character changes; Deas and Deas, clever colored entertainers; Andreas Smith, George Arthurs, Jos. Thompson, E. E. Fisher and Mr. Farr. the best known productions on the stage and only recently closed a successful encolored entertainers; An Deas, clever colored control metter Duval, a pleasing singing comedi-enne, and the moving pictures. Albert Lockwood, the celebrated pian-tt, of Ann Arbor, Mich., gave a compli-ientary recital to the students of the lamilton Conservatory of Music, in the ecital hall of the institution on Satur-ay afternoon. That the student body recital hall of the institution on Saturday afternoon. That the student body appreciated his kindness was shown by the large attendance, the hall being crowded. The recital served a double purpose, affording a great treat and being of exceptional educational value. Mr. Lockwood played seven programme numbers and three encores, introducing the best authors of the old and modern school, and playing them all with artistic finish. His Mach fugues were played with wonderful skill and feeling, and each succeeding number down to the Lizzt Tarentelle, and, as an encore, a widely different piece by the same great widely different piece by the same great ecomposer, brought out the many beau-ties of a high class programme, which ras as follows: Precludes and Fugues, 2, 4, 5, 21

Have you noticed lately how many actors do not use any wigs, beards or paint to assist them in the portrayal of the characters they represent? You can count the number on the fingers of one hand. John E Hazzard, who appears at Bennett's this week, has the happy facculty of combining facial expression and an original style, that get the results without the tricks so many actors are compelled to resort to, in order to extract a laugh. This act will be supported by some well known talent. Stinson and Merton are an excellent team of fun makers, and always make good with an audience. Cecile D'Arnelle is a comical lightle Parisienne, who besides doing some clever dancing and singing, tells a good story of how she got into vaudeville, Wormwood's monkeys will make a hit are fine singers, and their programme is dozen from the best songs of the day.

Beautiful weaves and colorings.

THERE is so much that is beautiful and lovely to see, that where to begin to tell about it all is a puzzle. Take it for granted that this is to be a season in Dress Goods after Hamilton's own heart. Glancing at these magnificent novelties it does seem as if those clever English, Scotch, French and German weavers had put forth their very best efforts in our behalf. Every year they send us strikingly new and original styles that seem the aeme of perfection and to leave no room for improvement—yet we have never shown such elegant dress fabrics as are contained in these new spring stocks.

The acknowledged style and value supremacy of this store is more convincingly emphasized than ever before by the beautiful displays of "what's new" in dress. Here are value hints:

Not the least humorous incident was the nomination of Ald. Farrar, the "square deal for every man, no politics in civic affairs candidate." To those who were familiar with the plot that was hatched in the Con. Club among the Tory aldermen last year to put Farrar down and out, it was somewhat of a joke to find the South Wentworth Conservatives endorsing him as a fit and proper person to represent the riding. Mr. Farrar, of course, refused to have such honors thrust upon him. Speaking probably as an authority on "honest politicians" het thought that even every "honest Grit" would support the Whitney Government. From what Mr. Farrar said one might suspect that he was there to advertise his clothing business. The others nominated were Murray

Then will follow the kingdom age, during which Christ will reign personally on earth, and Satan will be doomed. This age also will end in judgment. Then will follow the resurrection of the wicked dead and the judgment of the great white throne. The church was filled to its utmost capacity, and much interest was shown.

HE REPUDIATES HIS CONFESSION.

ATTEMPT TO SHOW THAT IT WAS WRUNG FROM BOWIN.

Canadian Youth Accused of Murder at Detroit told an Oshawa Girl That He Had Not Committed the Crime, but That the Police Were Making Him Confess.

Detroit, March 29 .- Men, women and en children fought for a chance to get into the court-room yesterday to hear the trial of Percy Bowin for the murder of Mrs. Catherine Welch. The greater part of the day was taken up with the testimony of abandoned women, who detailed the story of the lad's wasted life. A number of witnesses from Buffalo, including a hotel clerk, police officers and jewellers, demonstrated to the jury that Bowin had stopped in Buffalo just after the murder, and while on his way to his parents' home in Woodville, Ont., and that he had sold to a Buffalo jeweller for $30 diamonds stolen from the murdered woman and worth several times get into the court-room yesterday to that he had sold to a buttato jewedes for $30 diamonds stolen from the murdered woman and worth several times the amount he realized. His former sweetheart, a good girl from Oshawa. Ont., who sought to reform him, told of her efforts to lead him to a religious life after his arrest and confession of the murder. Bowiz now seeks to show that the confess. In was wrung from him by the bullying methods of the police. That the defence is making an impression on the jury was manifested when a juror interrupted the cross-examination of Frank Haggner to ask several pointed questions regarding the presence at the Welch house of the man who had quarrelled with Mrs. Welch over money the night before the murder. The witness did not reveal anything more than he testified to Friday.

anything more than he testified to Friday.

Myrtle Millon, who had been an inmate of the We'ch place, said she had given Percy Bowin sums of money varyin gfrom fifty cents to $2 while she was at Mrs. Welch's, and since then Bowin cailed on the witness often when he was out of work and asked for money and she gave it to him.

Florence Gibbons, who let Percy into the Welch house about midnight of Friday, January 3rd, heard him bid the landledy good-bye, saying he was going away with Marie Hall, who, he said, had plenty of money. A meeting of the unemployed without police sanction had been advertised to be held in the park in the afternoon. In the ten thousand or more that gathered were many of the riotous disposition; a large number wore red hets, and here and there a red flag was displayed. The police were ordered to clear the park, and succeeded in driving the hooting, jeering crowd back to the streets of the square surrounding the park. As the squad neared the fountain in the centre two men darted out from the shadow of the Washington monument. When within twenty yards of the police the smaller man raised his hand to throw something at the police. As he drew back his arm his weapon exploded. The assassin and his companion fell, the latter dead with his breast torn out. The bomb-thrower still lived, but his right hand had been shot off, both of his eyes were gouged out and his skull and a shoulder were fractured. A dozen other persons were thrown to the ground.

Mr. Langlois made a remarkable address, dealing with educational matters of the Province of Quebec. He showed how very backward education was and attributed it to clerical control and lack of uniformity in text-books. In the Province there are seventeen graumars used, seven geographies and eight Canadian histories. In Quebec the minimum cost of text-books is $1.98, and in Ontario 49 cents. He praised Ontario's educational system and declared emphatically for a like system for Quebec.

Earth's Crust West.

Victoria, B. C., March 28.—That the north pole is shifting and the climate is changing, making the northern territories of this continent warmer and Northern Asia colder, is the theory to support which Moses B. Colworth, of York, England, has been gathering evidence in Alaska, whence he has returned on his way to England.

A curious effect of this change, it is said, may be a number of boundary difficulties between Canada and the United States, especially in the Eastern portion. The boundary is fixed by latitude, and if the north pole is really moving, the latitudes change also, rendering it advisable that the boundary be speedily marked everywhere by permanent monuments where it has not been so marked already.

The movement of the pole, Colworth says, is caused by the immense accumalations of ice along the Canadian share.

Guelph, March 29.—As a result of a raid made by the police on Friday night a harge amount of stolen goods was recovered, the spoils of the Belwood burglary of Feb. 13th, and of several other robberies near the city, which have been puzzling the police for some time. The goods stolen from Pratt's store at Belwood wcre valued at about $200 and consisted of several fur coats, fur ruffs, boots, shoes, and general merchandise, while 600 pounds of pork stolen from several farmers was recovered.

The raid was made at the house of Alex, Cudney, at one time the Junction Hotel, near Marden, a few miles from the city, when he offered a fur coat for sale to a second-hand dealer for $2.50. Cudney himself, was not to be found, only his wife being in the bouse when the offeres made their search, but he was arrested this morning.

Since he disappeared a watch had been kept at his place near Marden, and lewas nabbed on his return to-day.

BLIND PEOPLE.

Mr. Gardiner's Annual Report of Brantford Institution.

The 36th annual report of the Ontario Institution for the Education of the Blind, Brantford, has just been issued by the Government, and it is without doubt the most interesting of the many reports sent out this year. Principal H. F. Gardiner describes in his own graphic way the work that is being done for this unfortunate class at his institution. It is a pathetic yet hopeful story that he tells, and throughout it all it shows that his heart is in the work, and that the blind of the Province have found in him a friend indeed, one who has intelligently and eagerly set about the work of brightening their lives and helping them to earn their own livelihood.

After indicating the elect of the set of the second of the reports sent out this year. Principa

After indicating the class attendance in the several departments, the Principal remarks: "With this quantity and variety of work going on, the right of the institution to be considered—and officially designated as—a school is indisputable. It is not a hospital, it is not a reformatory, it is not a home nor an asylum, yet applications, backed by all the influence the applicants can bring to bear, are received for the admission of blind persons ranging in age from three years to seventy-five admission of blind persons ranging in age from three years to seventy-five years, and letters addressed to the 'blind asylum' are too common to occasion remark. I would strongly advise that the name be changed from 'Institution' to 'School' for the Blind." The list of college honors won by ex-pupils is highly creditable, and the extracts given from parents' and expupils' letters show that gratitude is not a extinct sentiment in the Canadian heart. Here is a sample from a pupil's father: "I cannot thank you too much, or convey my sentiments properly to you and the teachers for what you have done for my boy. To you and your staff I send the best thanks of myself and family for your devotion and kindness to suffering humanity."

The Principal gives his reasons for not favoring a compulsory education law for the blind, and he makes a

The Principal gives his reasons for not favoring a compulsory education law for the blind, and he makes a strong appeal to parents for greater regularity in the attendance of their children, some of whom are detained at home for trifling reasons. Under the heading "Is It Werth While?" he gives some illustrations of wonderful results achieved with appagently hopeless. some illustrations of wonderful results achieved with apparently hopeless material, not by intricate systems of training, but by rare patience, tact, and splendid devotion. He does not approve of many competitive examinations in a school for the blind. The total enrollment of pupils during the official year was 144—the sexes being equally represented.

In the furtherance of the plan of maintaining a useful relationship between the school and its ex-pupils, a full list of the names of those who have attended the O. I. B. since its opening in 1879 is a possible of the school and the scho 1872 is given, with the present addreso far as known, and assistance is asked to locate those who have not been re-cently heard from. A special article of the success attained by graduates of the institution in the occupation of piano tuning is contributed by one of them.

During the year Principal Gardiner was able to visit two schools for blind children and two workshops for blind adults in the States of Michigan and ooys of that age allowed the impression o go out that they were afraid to try or ride the savage beast, and the sub-ervient historians hastened to confirm hat impression adults in the States of Michigan and Wisconsin, and also to attend the convention of Workers for the Blind held at Boston in August last; the report contains full accounts of what he saw and heard at those places. He seems to have been impressed by the achievements, of the blind willow-workers (under sighted supervision) in the Milwaukee shops, but even there the earnings have to be supplemented by the State.

Superficial observers take it for "A crow," said the farmer, reaching for his gun, "is a good deal like an Injun. Sometimes you can make him good by giving him a little trinket."

Thereupon he drew a bead on the bird and gave it a present of small shot besides.

Superficial observers take it for granted that a blind man, if properly educated and trained, can rank as a deducated and trained, can rank as a wealth producer with men possessed of all five senses. Another common delusion is that the majority of the blind are children, or at least legal minors. The report quotes from Mr. W. B. Wait, of New York, that forty years of resolute and intelligent effort "proved that in the handicraft pursuits the value of the labor of the sightless people is far below economic par, and that if all other infirmities be absent or overcome and all external obstacles be removed, still the lack of sight remains the one disabling infirmity which fully accounts for and explains this under value, and for which no healing has as yet been found in the industrial world," and from Mr. B. B. Huntoon, the veteran manager of the Louisville, Tsy., school, that "to expect that defectives can do as well as normal persons is a reflection on the Almichty as intimating that He would normal persons is a reflection on Almighty, as intimating that He would endow any with superfluous senses." Mr Gardiner's own statement is that "blind persons, in nearly all of the few occupations in which they can work at all, can only produce from one-fifth to one-third as much as is produced by their sighted competitors," yet he carnestly advises that all the blind who are able to work should be safethly and constant. to work should be usefully and constant-advises that all the blind who are able to work should be usefully and constantly employed.

The special census, carefully taken by the New York and Massachusetts Commissions, shows that less than 10 percent, of the blind are under 21 years of age; 45 per cent, are between the age limits of 20 and 49, and 70 per cent, of these who are of effective working age have become blind since they were twenty years of age, and have therefore never attended the schools for the blind. Of the 10 per cent, who are of school age, only about half are available as pupils, the rest being prevented by eye troubles, infancy, general ailments and other causes. The fair deduction from these census returns is that the number of pupils attending the school, for the blind multiplied by twenty will be approximately the whole number of blind persons in the country.

Dr. Allen, of the Massachusetts school, says that "effective work for the blind is a double work—the educating of the sightless themselves and, no less important, the educating of the sightless themselves and branch of the educational work is by no means lost sight of in the report under review. In spite of the one-sidedness of the score the game was very interesting, the large crowd staying till the last man was out. The Windsor team played an exceptionally fast article of ball and showed that they had all the fine points of the game down pat, Brien, their pitch, er, being the best seen here for some time, 16 strike-outs being chalked to his credit. He was well supported by his team-mate, Ponting, who put up a fine exhibition behind the bat. The Queen's Own played very loosely, having

It was, however, expected that the club vould not be able to show much of aurplus owing to the sheavy expenses insurred in travelling and in having the services of a professional coach, so that when Jack Davidson read the statement, outside of an inquiry relating to the amount spent on each trip, there was no comment. Retiring President Dr. Austin Irvine explained to the members that the statement was not as satisfactory as might have been for various reasons. First and foremost, there were heavy expenses in connection with the transportation of the different teams. The seniors on their three trips had run away with a thousand dollars, while the three trips made by the intermediates, two to

The local team was weak, all of the players not having reported, and the Canadians won easily. Krebs, a big college pitcher from this locality, twirled for Toronto, and had 13 strike-outs to his credit. He was in good shape and had plenty of steam. The locals were lamentably weak at the bat and fielded poorly on the rough ground.

Gettman and Wotell made nice running catches and Pearson caught well. Brown went behind the bat in the seventh, Mitchell going to first base. Jennings had a perfect batting average with two hits and three bases on balls. The score:

The Ballad of the Lover.
(By Theedosla Garrison.)
Now who are you at beaven's gate
Who make no word or prayer.
But boidly stand with lifted hand
As you would enter there?
What is the earth that leads you strength
The unsheathed sword to dare?

About you lie not, show the sign
That you were lover true,
No word snake be, but silently
His clinging mantle drew
And bared the wound wherewith his heart
Was broken through and through.

NOT ALARMED.

Police Do Not Believe Black Hand Story.

Chief Smith stated to the Times this morning that the police had not heard anything about a Black Hand Society being organized in this city. He said the only man who seemed to know anything about it is Protich, the interpreter, and he claims that such a society has been organized as a branch of the American Mafia. About a year ago the police suspected that a Black Hand society was working here when the house of Frank Pirelle was set on fire twice in one night and Pirelle blamed the Black Hand. The police decided they had made a mistake, however, after investigation and think this latest report is another false alarm.

LATE SPORTING NEWS

A meeting of the Hamilton Lacrosse League will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Darlor on Thursday night. It is proposed o arrange three series—for seniors, incrmediates and juniors, Mr. Guy Long vill likely be offered the presidency of the League.

San Francisco, March 30.—Jim Flynn und Al Kau'man, heavyweights, were natched yesterday to fight 20-rounds n this city. April 30th.

On acount of his military duties next Friday evening, Mr. Geo. Tuckett, jun., cannot referee the police and fire de-partment game scheduled for that

A game of basketball was played in East Hamilton Y. M. C. A. on Saturday between the Maple Leaves and the Central Y. M. C. A. II. The score was 22-8, in favor of the Maple Leaves. A good game was played, in spite of the big ame was played, in spite of the big core of the winners. F. Myers was re-with a knife before?" asked Mr. O'Riel

"Yes, often," replied the witness. Falco Abramo Leonardo told a story the same as Mendola's and said he was immediately, behind Mendola at the William Nochol, sub-foreman, was working at the quarry and saw the Greco brothers running away. He yelled and they ran faster. He saw them later and started to go towards them and they ran away. He did not hear of the stabbing till after this.

"Did you see these prisoners after they were arrested?" asked Mr. Washington.

region.

"Yes, Chief Twise and Charles McCue and I went down there, and to the fill man, Bruno, I said, "Bad job," and he said, 'Not me, my brother.' The young one said to me, 'Just a little bit.'"

Charles McCue, Mr. O'Reilly's interpreter, was then called.

Mr. O'Reilly registered a strong objection against his own interpreter being called as a Crown witness. He said it was an outrage. The Magistrate allowed it to go, however.

McCue said he was asked to go by Protich.

Protich.
"I opened the conversation and said to the prisoners, Who did the stabling between the two of you?'

The Magistrate immediately ruled Mc.

The Magistrate immediately ruled McCue's evidence out, as this was a threat. Mr. Washington announced that the case was closed, and the prisoners and the usual warning read to them by Mr. Scarrone, but refused to say anything, and were committed for trial.

A point that will be raised at the Hogh Court in connection with the trial is in reference to the confession which Budimir Protich claimed he got from the men. Mr. O'Reilly did not mention the point in Police Court, but speaking of it afterwards he said that Protich's evidence was worth nothing at all, as the law requires that the prisoners shall hear all the evidence. He spoke in English. This wall also nullify Nochol's evidence in the case, he maintains.
