

THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, MAY 30, 1894.

Judge Fitzgerald.

The appointment of Mr. R. R. Fitzgerald, Q. C. to the seat on the Supreme Court bench, vacated by the death of the late Judge Henry, gives general satisfaction. No better appointment could have been made, and the government is to be congratulated upon its choice. Mr. Fitzgerald is eminently qualified for the dignified and responsible position to which he has been elevated. Upon his shoulders the purity of the ermine will not be endangered nor its spotlessness sullied. His judicial abilities are well known, his long years of service as Stipendiary Magistrate of this city serving to more firmly mould these qualities of mind and character than any one called upon to administer justice between man and man. We heartily congratulate Mr. Justice Fitzgerald, and wish him long years of service on the Bench.

First Blood.

ALTHOUGH only scoring half a success the Cambridge government in Newfoundland has been placed in a position to transact business. By Mr. Ayr's election its supporters were increased to thirteen, which number just makes a quorum in the house. The result of the election although not a signal triumph for the new ministry, shows that the people are averse to the wholesale methods of bribery and corruption practiced by the White-writes in the election of last November. It would be saying very little for their morality, self-respect and probity had the fight resulted otherwise than it did. Perhaps a more encouraging omen could not have been entered into by the government; but they trusted to the good sense of the electors and their faith was handsomely rewarded. The wiping out of last November's majority of 450 and the capture of a seat is clear evidence of the Newfoundlanders' reversion to the old party in politics. Of course all is not yet clear sailing for the Goodridge party; but the outcome in Bay de Verde would appear to be a premonition of the good things that are to come.

Tariff Pointers.

Wire nails are dutiable now at 1 cent per pound. They were dutiable in the old tariff at 1 1/2 cents. A reduction of 33 1/3%. Cut tacks in the old tariff were dutiable at 2 cents per 100. In the new tariff the duty is reduced 25%. The old tariff had 8 cents per pound on tacks. They were dutiable in the old tariff at 1 1/2 cents. A reduction of 33 1/3%. The new tariff puts it at 5 cents per pound. In the new tariff canned vegetables, used during certain seasons in almost every house, are dutiable at 1 1/2 cents per pound. This is a reduction of 25 per cent on the old duties. In the old tariff starch, and preparations of starch, had a duty of 2 and 4 cents per pound. The new tariff puts it at 1 1/2 cents starch being an article of general consumption. The Toronto Mail says: "Regarding the tariff as a whole as it has emerged from the committee and stands to-day it is a moderate measure. If it does not go so far as some have wished, it is more radical than others have desired. There has been a lessening of the protection enjoyed by favored interests."

Coming from the Mail this is complimentary to the Government. The Montreal Witness usually loses no opportunity of giving the Dominion Government a stab. In view of this fact any favorable opinion it may express upon the new tariff may be taken as a pretty weighty one. Here it is said that the new tariff had been introduced: "Reductions are numerous and considerable. Large additions are made to the free list. The farmers get the lion's share of the favors. Iron and sugar duties are lower. Large reductions have been made in the duties on agricultural implements, smaller reductions on woollen, cottons and furniture. Though the government may protest loudly that it holds by protection it has reduced the protection tariff nearly all round. Only a peculiarly favored industry here and there being allowed to retain its old privilege unimpaired. The farmers have received as they badly needed special consideration in the reduction of the tariff."

Evidently with the latest prop to grizzle the old English maxim that "the King can do no wrong," it is to be metamorphosed into "a griffin can do no wrong."

If John Redmond and his followers were to be allowed to retain their seats, it would be to their advantage, indeed, to have them. It would be to their advantage, indeed, to have them. It would be to their advantage, indeed, to have them.

The Liberal Party at Ottawa are growing wiser. They are growing wiser. They are growing wiser. They are growing wiser.

of the Prince Edward Islander that it is willing to strengthen his hands to obtain for the province the rights withheld. Now you're talking sensible brother; that's the proper caper.

The anglophobes who insulted the Stars and Stripes at St. Thomas possibly imagine they had a patriotic thing. Such "patriots" and "soldiers" as they would be the first to turn and flee if they saw the self-same flag borne at the head of one of Uncle Sam's regiments marching northwards with warlike intent.

Our esteemed "up town" contemporary is at a loss to know what distinguished services we have rendered the matter of continuous communication. Well only this and nothing more brother: We did all that lay in our power to render communication between the front and back doors of certain establishments, so much in favor with some of our contemporary's editors, as communications and free from barriers, as possible. But half the good deeds of some are unknown-even to editors.

Mr. Laurier must be very much pleased with Mr. McCarthy, the latest acquisition to his party. In the Commons the other day the latter gentleman made things assume a bluish tint for a while, over what he alleged was a case of favoritism between Rev. Father Brady and Rev. J. S. Farthing, of Woodstock, Ont. The burden of Mr. McCarthy's charge was that the Controllor of Customs had tried to favor Father Brady by permitting him to import vestments free, while duty was collected from the clergyman of the Church of England on similar articles. The matter was satisfactorily explained, but Mr. McCarthy was not satisfied and requested the official papers in order to get further enlightenment. A supposed concession to a Catholic since upon the member for North Simco like a red rag upon a mad bull.

The cry of the Opposition is that the manufacturers are being made rich by the National Policy. Even Mr. Mills, M. P., joins in that cry in the House of Commons. In view of the fact that he has recently done so it is interesting to read a speech delivered by Mr. Mills upon the 22nd February, 1891, just previous to the election of that year. Discussing the manufacturers he declared: "No man in his senses could seriously argue that the manufacturers are as well off as they were twelve years ago. The truth is that the manufacturing establishments in Canada were in a healthful condition prior to the adoption of protection. The stock of cotton manufacturers are lower than they were twelve years ago."

"Down in Nova Scotia," said Archbishop O'Brien to a reporter of the Ottawa Journal, a few days ago. "Protestants and Catholics recognize each other's rights and try to live in peace and harmony. They agree to differ, but do not quarrel on very trifling matters. The people up here, however, seem to be, religiously speaking, just where we Nova Scotians were 90 years ago."

The learned prelate is right; but a portion of the papist people of St. John are not disposed to allow this peace and harmony to continue. The authorities of the Lutheran street church there have Rev. J. D. Fulton, a peripatetic firebrand more generally known as "Fifty" Fulton occupying their pulpit and reviling Catholics and their religion. To the credit of the other Baptist churches in the city, he said that they frowned down upon the conduct of their ministerial brethren. It is strange how a congregation calling itself respectable and christian will allow its pulpit to be thus polluted. "Fifty" Fulton's harangues appeal only to the tastes of the vicious and depraved.

Mr. Beauséjour, M. P., is one of the leading Liberal free traders who follow Mr. Laurier from the Province of Quebec. Mr. Beauséjour is a free trader when he talks, but a protectionist when he acts. The other day a deputation went to see the Hon. Mr. Oulmont, asking him to continue the encouragement to the hat and root sugar industry of that province. Who should turn up with that deputation but the same Mr. Beauséjour, M. P., mentioned above. Mr. Beauséjour on trade matters is evidently a first cousin to Mr. Gibson of Lincoln, M. P., of Kent and Mr. Campbell of Kent and Mr. McCreary of Essex. These are all good Liberals who should themselves beware of the removal of every trace of protection, but last year they spent two hours trying to convince the Minister of Finance that he should not remove the tariff on the hat and root sugar industry of that province. The Liberal Party at Ottawa are growing wiser. They are growing wiser. They are growing wiser.

over before. The tariff having been so fair and advantageous to the farmer, these gentlemen are badly at a loss for some points upon which to find fault. How hard up they are for reasons to condemn the Government may be understood when we say that on Thursday night Mr. Mills objected to the duty which the Government has placed upon shell oysters. His ground was that shell oysters were one of the necessities of life, and that the people should not be taxed for them. To no one in Canada are shell oysters "a necessary of life." To those who are resident in cities and a few others they are of course a very palatable luxury. But if there ever was an article which a tax for the public treasury should be raised, it seems to us in just such luxuries as this one. The Government may tax shell oysters if they like 500 per cent; and not one farmer in 10,000 would feel the burden of one thousandth part of a mill. If the Opposition have nothing better to do than to talk such rubbish as this, parliament might better be prorogued.

Now had we known that our newest contemporary intended making that onslaught upon Senator Ferguson and getting him as to his whereabouts, we would have been only too glad to inform our brother—if we only knew his name—how very deeply he was going to put his foot in it. Every other editor in Canada but he knew that the Senate had adjourned until June 6th, and that consequently any member who was likely to be concerned by Mr. Brady by permitting him to import vestments free, while duty was collected from the clergyman of the Church of England on similar articles. The matter was satisfactorily explained, but Mr. McCarthy was not satisfied and requested the official papers in order to get further enlightenment. A supposed concession to a Catholic since upon the member for North Simco like a red rag upon a mad bull.

Lord George Hamilton in toasting the United States said that the United States has made in the present century because they believed that the progress was largely due to the qualities which those who originally came from Great Britain transmitted to America. One hundred and ten years ago we parted in anger and bloodshed; now we have met together as reconciled members of one family. The more the two nationalities came in contact the larger was the number of ideas and sympathies they had in common. This change was marked for the better. The historic town of Boston yesterday received the British admiral and the officers of his flagship magnificently. He was afraid that the citizens of that great town were engaged on one hundred and ten years ago in a less congenial operation (laughter). To-day it was a privilege to entertain a distinguished American admiral at the dinner given to him at the Admiralty. (Here there was a great outburst of cheering.) One hundred and ten years ago, the citizens of London were engaged in a less satisfactory operation of taxing themselves in order to pay the expenses of the war against the United States. (Laughter.)
