And beat a quick retreat,
Don't let folks think you're asleep,

A TORONTO newspaper calculates that the expenses of the "average man" will be increased by about $33 a year by the fresh taxation imposed by the Dominion Government. Many articles which undoubtedly will be affected are omitted from the list upon which this calculation is made; $50 would probably be a good deal nearer the mark. Either of these amounts will easily be paid by men of means, who will hardly notice the difference, while it will be a severe drain upon the income of the ordinary individual.

It is gratifying to find some of the ladies so deeply interested in the war and the comfort of the boys at the front. For instance, Mrs. Susan Gavigan, of the second line, is doing her quota by knitting socks to augment the supply being forwarded by the Watford Women's Institute. Although 98 years old and with eyesight scmewhat dimmed, Mrs. Gavigan winds her own yarn and knits socks that would put to shame the work of some of the younger ladies. Since the snow disappeared T. C. Reycraft, of Glencoe, has been picking apples off the ground in his orchard that are firmer and better in flavor than any that were pitted in the fall. Either the deep covering of snow as a good protection against severe frost or the gradual thawing out of the fruit as the snow melted is accountable for the prime condition of the apples.

THE METHODIST CHURCH DEDICATED TO THE WORSHIP OF GOD

Successful Supper and Entertainment

The dedicatory service of the Watford Methodist church was held on Sunday morning last, when the church was crowded to the doors. Rev. H. D. Moyer, of Petrolea, chairman of the Strathroy District, performed the ceremony, assisted by the pastor, Rev. F. G. Robinson. The trustee board being called to the front to assist, Mr. Joseph H. Hume, recording steward, made the request for dedication. The ceremony was a solemn one. The sermon, preached by Rev. Moyer, was an impressive one. He took for his text Psalm 50:2, "Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined." The theme of the discourse was Shechaniah, the Divine Light. The speaker cited how in Old Testament days God the Father appeared many times to man in a shining light; that Christ came to earth to lighten the world; and that in the present day the light of the Holy Spirit is manitested through God's people on earth. The discourse was an excellent one and was attentively listened to. The choir of 22 voices rendered some very good music. They appeared for the first time in their new gowns, which are black, those of the ladies being relieved by white at the new gowns, which are black, those of the ladies being relieved by white at the throat, and white collar. The supper and entertainment given on Monday evening was well patronized. The spread of edibles was profuse and succulent, well served and thoroughly enjoyed by all present. After full justice had been done to the supper, which was served in the handsome and commodious schoolroom, the audience adjourned to the auditorium, where an edifying program was presented. The pastor of the church, Rev. F. G. Robinson, presided, and the proceedings opened by singing the hymn "Crown Him Lord of All," and prayer by Rev. S. R. V. Pentland. Short addresses were given by Revs. Irwin, Moyer and Pentland and Reeve Kenward made a few remarks. The choir rendered a couple of anthems very acceptably and solos were sung by Miss L. Cameron and Mr Crosse; duets by Miss and C. Pentland and by Rev. W. M. Connolly and Mr. Matthews; two quartettes by Messrs. Connolly, Potter, Crosse and Marsh; a violin and piano duet by Messrs. R. A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogers on Feb. 17th, when the boys and girls of Warwick Village met at their home fo bid them farewell on their departure to their new home in Enniskillen. The evening was spent in music and dancing, after which during the evening Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were presented with a handsome rocking chair and the following address, being read by Miss Mabel Minielly and the presentation made by Mr. Victor Barnes:

MR. AND MRS. PRED ROGERS:

Dear Friends:—We, the boys and girls who have been associated with you since you have lived among us, and to whom you have shown many acts of kinduess and have given us a good time on many occasions, felt that we did not like you to leave without showing that we appreciated your kindness to us. We therefore beg you to accept the gift of this chair as a small token of esteem—Signed on behalf of the boys and girls of Warwick Village.

After a very dainty lunch served by the young ladies dancing was resumed until in the wee sma' hours of the morning they returned to their homes, all reporting a very enjoyable time.

The Women's Patriotic League gave a most, successful convent on the morning they returned to their homes, all reporting a very enjoyable time.

The Women's Patriotic League gave a most successful concert on Monday evening. Everything seemed to favor it. First, the weather was perfect; secondly, they had an ideal chairman; evening. Rverything seemed to favor it. First, 'the weather was perfect; secondly, they had an ideal chairman; thirdly, a splendidly prepared program; and lastly, an enthusiastic audience, which in spite of there being scarcely standing room enjoyed the intellectual treat. The opening number was rendered by a male chorus entitled "Song National," under the leadership of Mr. Reynolds, which was followed by prayer by Rev. W. M. Shore; after which Mr. Farrell gave as the chairman's address, a short sketch of the work in which he is now engaged, namely Patriotism and Production. He spoke optimistically of the future of Canada. The Dewar Brothers were more than generous with their violin selections, which they rendered in their ususal splendid style. Another treat which was much enjoyed was the singing by the Ultoxeter Male Quartette, who are always favorites with a Warwick audience. The recitations of Miss Stirrett, who is a new favorite, were amusing and brought out hearty laughter, as applause Little Miss Corney always charms with her sweet looks, besides being possessed of real talent as an elocutionist. Miss Wordsworth's patriotic selection was clearly and well given. We hope as she said that "Britain's whip will clear the ocean of all its foes." The addresses by the clergymen, Revs. Forster, Kennedy and Shore, gave much food for thought at the time, and reflection and example for the future. The first part of the program finished with a rifle drill, done with precision by the Home Guard, who looked, as did also the boys who took part in the choruses, very handsome in their military suits. They were trained by Sergeant Davies, of Watford. A girls' drill was also very well done by 16 young ladies, under the leadership of Mr. Kennedy. This closed with a song, "The Flag That's Waved a Thousand Years is Good Enough for Me," sung by Mrs. Kennedy. The climax of the evening, however, was the tableau with colored lights of the young ladies, surrounded by a guard of honor, who sang "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall, fo Petrolea Stars, that speedy little batch Petrolea Stars, that speedy little batch of ice-gliders, blew into town on Monday night, and, for the second time this season, proved easy preys for the W. H. S. Invincibles, who trounced them mercilessly and piled up a total of 10 goals, while Trenouth allowed McRitchig, of the visitors, to shove in one counter. Both teams were somewhat out of practice, and as a result the play was a little draggy at times. For the Invincibles Prentis and Johnston leach bulged the twine three times and Brown and Auld twice Stan, Rogers handled the game to the satisfaction of all.

Invincibles 18, Strathroy C. I. 3

The H.S. Invincibles put the fast Strathroy Collegians down and out on Wednesday night, when they took their measure very easily, by the score of 18-3. Strathroy's goal-keeper kept the score as small as it was, blocking exactly 37 shots, while the visitors had very few shots on Trenouth. The Invincibles all played a star game. In the previous game at Strathroy the same teams tied, 2-2, so the Invincibles win the round by 20 goals to 5.

OLD BACKS NEED HELP

When people get to be 50 and 60 and 70, they need a little help sometime to get through with the day's work. Their backs can't stand the heavy loads, the steady strain, of lusty youth. They need

St: Raphael Ont., Jan. 5th. "Four years ago, I had such pains in my back that I could not work. The pains extended to my arms, sides and shoulders. It used many kinds of medicine for over a year, none of which did me very much good. I read about Gin Fills and sent for a sample and used them and found the pains were leaving me and I was feeling better. So I bought one box and before I had used them all, the pains were almost gone and I could keep at work. After I had taken six other boxes, I was entirely cured and I feel as strong as at the age of 80. I am a farmer, now Gi years old." FRANK LEALAND

Should a Christian Fight?

Can a Christian fight? One would think so from the thousands who have been at it for nearly six months. Should a Christian fight? That depends upon circumstances, examples of which are at hand in almost countless numbers since the war began. Though Christians of the right sort are not bloodthirsty men, they are nevertheless patriotic, and if necessity calls for it, they cannot do otherwise than draw the sword or shoulder the gun. We confess that our difficulty is, to count that man a proper Christian who declines to enter the fray when the interests of King and Country are at stake, and when the Kingdom of Christ and all its gracious principles are threatened by the egotistical madness of men whose meat and drink are militarism and its pernicious brood. The sword of the true Christian is sometimes stained with blood.—Canadian Bap-

Looking to The End

Russia, along with the other allies has provided surprises for the Prussian war lords. This will come as a greater blow to them than the failure of their political agents to appreciate the internal unity of the nations they sought to bring under subjection. Even in the military affairs where they believed themselves to be supreme the kaiser and his advisors have found themselves wofully at fault. Now after seven months of war Germany is reduced to a point where it is no better off than Britain -indeed worse, because the men under training in the United Kingdom equal the first line troops of Garmany.

Germany never dreamed of the present situation any more than she did that Russia would prove a formidable foe, not by reason of vast resources of men, but of rapid mobilization and skilful leadership. Germany had organized an efficient war machine, but it could not create or improvise a great military genius.

Joffre and French have proved more than equal to German commanders and in the great eastern campaign the Grand Duke Nicholas has commanded the utmost confidence. He has known when to yield ground if that meant later success. He has allowed the Germans to waste themselves in futile attacks and the process of attrition carried out systematically is preparing the path for ultimate and final victory.

Cow's Individuality

It is still possible to find dairymen who never dig deeper than the surface knowledge of the whole herd giving so much milk, counting simply the total weight sent to the factory one day, or per month, or again simply the average yield per cow for the factory season.

A plain fact that cannot be impressed too strongly is that cows have individuality; people have personality. What makes two cows yield quite different weights of milk and fat when all conditions are practically equal? Even supposing a cow's interior economy were made visible and luminous, has any man the requisite knowledge to fathom all the mysteries of milk-manufacture?

We do know this, the yield of milk and its percentage of fat are apt to vary from day to day most strangely. The first half of the milk drawn may not contain more than half as much fat as the latter half: the cow may have some slight sickness; some of her delicate nervous functions may be deranged temporarily; extremes of weather, undue exposure, excitement, may all influence the yield of milk and the test. Hence it is clear that the sensible way to judge a cow's performance is not by any one test or weight, but rather on her TOTAL YIELD for the season. A cold, matter-of-fact "average" does not give necessary information, cows HAVE INDIVIDUALITY, which is worth studying so that they may repay their owners for intelligent handling. If you are not already testing each cow you own, write the Dairy Division, Ottawa, for forms for recording milk yields and feed.

Cooper's Hawk.

The almost universal prejudice against birds of prey is due to the activities of a few members of the hawk family, chief among which is the Cooper's hawk. Cooper's hawk usually approaches under cover and drops on unsuspecting victims, making great inroads on poultry yards and game coverts. This bird, together with its two near relations, the sharp shinned hawk and the goshawk, should be destroyed by every possible means.

Holy Willie's Prayer

(With apologies to the Shade of Burns) "He is a barking fox, and will bite and do a lot of mischief yet."—Prince Bis-marck on the Kaiser.

O Thou, wha' in the heavens dost dwell, Receive this message from mysel', For, Lord, I think that I've done well,

A' for Thy glory, In sending sinners' souls tae hell. Then hear my story—

Ye ken that Grey, the clever loom, Did a' he could tae keep me doon, Thocht that yout Belgium I'd come roun' To get to France, Where I had vowed that late or soon I'd lead a dance.

Thou kens, Lord, I had ta'en an aith, Alang wi' France an' Britain baith, Tae keep wee Belgium free o' skaith Or enemies' caper;
But'did they think that I'd keep faith
Wi' a scrap o' paper?

To Belgians offer fair I made, If they wad ca't a piece o' trade, And let me through to France, I said I'd pay them well; They scorned my offer, disobeyed, Sent me to hell!!!

Thou hast seen how wi' muckle care, That their whole country I've laid bare Wi' cannon, rifle, sword and spear In blood knee-deep, And left mine enemies nae mair Than eyes tae weep.

Thou kens I've been a clever chiel, Thou kens I've been a clever chief.
I've been as cunnin' as the deil,
Tryin' tae mak the British feel
I them did like;
While wi' my fisk, weel mailed wi' steel,
I meant tae strike.

When my auld granny died, I wot, When at her funeral I grat, At uncle's too, my een wer wat, I did my share; And lots o' sympathy I gat For showing't there.

And Thou hast seen, and Thou dost ken How me they've marred, aye now and then,
And now they're like to do't again,

Unless Thine aid
Ye grant. Wi' it we twa shall en'
Their power and trade. It's four months now since I began

To carry out my lang-made plan, And though I've brocht up a' my clan, I'm no near Calais ite them, O Lord, wi' Thy richt han', Thae cocksure Allies.

O Lord, if you could see thy way Tae send a storm doon here some day To sink their fleets, the while mine lay Safe up at Kiel,
I'd gie Thee a' I hae, and say
Thou hadst done weel.

Then after I did France subdue,

Inen after I did France studie,
I'd nail the Cara na' a' his, crew,
An' do the same wi' Servia, too
Just as Thy servant.
On knee I pray for this, I do,
Wi' voice most fervent. Lord, then, I'm sure I'd hae a chance

O' crossin' ower the sea frae France, The British beat, I'd then advance, Thine own appointed. Conquer the world wi' shot and lance, The Lord's anointed. Thou kens I'm cursed baith far an' near,

Because I haud Thy name sae dear,
E'en ministers been heard to swear

(They micht been wiser),
And that in words baith lood an' clear— 'God damn the Kaiser!!!'

And some there are far yont the seas, Misca' me said, and would me seize, We'll pick a craw when I get ease, 'Bout German "Kultur." y want me change my emblem, please, To Monster Vulture!

Grant me, O Lord, this prayer divine, And also bless aye me and mine. An' I will help baith Thee and Thine, Until the en'.
We twa will rule the world richt fine. Amen! Amen!

Miller's Worm Powders were devised to promptly relieve children who suffer from the ravages of worms. It is a simple preparation warranted to destroy stomachic and intestinal worms without shock or injury to the most sensitive system. They act thoroughly and painlessly, and though in some cases they may cause vomiting, that is an indication of their powerful action and not of any nauseating property.

War Summary

Washington, Feb. 25. — From an authoritative source the principles of the proposals which the United States made to Great Britain and Germany in the notes which were prepared after the meeting of the Cabinet on Friday last, and immediately despatched to Ambassador Age at London and Ambassador Gerard at Berlin, have been obtained.

Both Great Britain and Germany are asked definitely "to withdraw their mines from the open seas."

Great Britain has been asked to permit the importation of foodstuffs into Gerthe importation of foodstuffs into Germany for non-combatants under the supervision of agents of the United States.

Germany has been asked to cease attacks on merchant vessels by submareb. 27.—Heavy fighting is in progress in various parts of North Poland between the Germans and the Russians. Sauguinary engagements have taken place along the Niemen, near Sventoyansk and to the north, and also in the region of Przasnysz, and the heavy German siege artillery has opened a bombard-ment on the Russian fortress of Ossowetz. A repulse of the Germans who had crossed the Niemen near Sventoyansk, according to Petrograd, forced them to return to the bank of the river whence they came. Near Grodno the fighting continues. Villages here have changed hands repeatedly tempting further progress along the narrow waterway leading to the Sea of Marmora.

London, Feb. 28.—Great Britain, France and their allies have advised neutral countries that they hold themselves at liberty to stop all shipping to and from Germany and the countries of her allies.

There are evidences also of heavy fighting and Germans are diametrically opposed. The Germans claim to have pushed the Allies back to the west of the Vosges for a distance of nearly four miles. The French declare that in the Vosges region they have repulsed an attack by the Germans.

Paris, Feb. 28. A French cruiser has arrested the American steamer Dacia in the channel.

American taken her to Brest. This announcement is officially made.

Three Canadians have been killed and four wounded up to this date. Ottawa, March 1.—The first Western Ontario soldier to die in action in the present war is Bugler Edward Callan, of Preston, Ont., whose death is announced to-night in the official list given out by the militia department.

One other Western Ontario soldier is included, Private E. Chapman, of Ailsa Craig, who is reported slightly wounded. One other man, Lieutenant Boggs, of Halifax is also reported dead.

London, Mar. 1.—It is considered almost certain in official quarters at Washington that a protest will be made against the action of the allied nations, which is regarded as an unprecedented and novel step, and one likely to work injury to commerce between the United States and the countries with which she is at peace.

The British Parliament has voted the total sum of $1,810,000,000, asked for by Premier Asquith for the prosecution of the war, covering the expenses of the current year up to the end of the present

London, March 1.—11.10 p.m.—If the ombined fleets of Great Britain and France can prevent it, no commodities of any kind, except those now on the seas, shall henceforth, until the conclusion of the war, reach or leave the hores of Germany

This is England's answer to Germany's submarine blockade, and it is to be effective forthwith.

March 3.—Although details are meagre it is believed heavy fighting is going on in certain areas in the western arena to which war zone the Germans are about to send considerable reinforcements. Here both French and English have also probably been reinforced along the battle line, and have been conducting aggressive operations, particularly in the aggressive operations, particularly in the Champagne region.

Germany's reply to the identical note of the American Government to Germany and Great Britain, concerning Germany's naval war zone and the detention by British warships of non-contraband cargoes destined for Germany has been made public. Germany agrees to have her submarines examine mer-chantmen in the war zone, but if they carry contraband or are of hostile nationality she will proceed against them according to international rules.

Germany also agrees to cease putting out drifting mines, but finds it impracticable to renounce the use of anchored mines for offensive purposes. She promises also to guarantee that such foodstuffs as are permitted to reach her shores will be delivered exclusively to

To make effective the British declaration of the Allies' intention to stop commerce to and from Germany, an order by the privy council will be necessary. Up to the present such an order-incouncil has not been issued.

No further statements regarding the operations of the Anglo-French fleet in the Dardanelles have been issued officially, but newspaper advices report that two forts well inside the Dardanelles have been bombarded by the warships, and that a third fort has been shelled by a naval landing division. Ottawa, March 3 .- The deaths of three ore Canadians at the front, two of them tembers of the first contingent and the hird, Captain R. G. R. Mansfield, of the Princess Patricias, were announced to-night by the militia department. One officer, Lieutenant Colquhoun, of Hamilton, Ont., a member of the Pats is missing. Three others were wounded, Major Hamilton Gault, who raised the Princess Pats; Lieutenant Crabbe, of the same regiment, and Lance-Corporal Fred. Creckenton, of the 2nd Battalion, rst contingent. The dead are Pte G. W. Eadie, Pte. A. P. Peattee, Lieut. W. G. Colguhoun.

Toronto

Toronto, March 2.—Receipts at the Union stockyards to-day were 64 cars, containing 832 cattle, 183 calves, 1,633 hogs and 178 sheep and lambs.

The market to-day was strong to 10c higher for good butcher cattle. Again it was the outside demand, together with a light run, which accounted for the real strength of the market. In addition to the usual buyers for local demands there were buyers from Montreal, Boston and Hamilton, besides orders from Buffalo were buyers from Montreal, Boston and Hamilton, besides orders from Buffalo and Chicago to the commission men. The result was a quick clean-up of all offerings at firm prices on yesterday's general advances over last week, and in some cases a turther advance of about 10c. There are indications, however, that the outside demand will not last, and in that case a heavy run of cattle and in that case a heavy run of cattle would probably bring prices down again. Lambs to-day touched record prices, a bunch of black-faced Shropshires selling at $11.

Getting Billy's Goat

A Football Story

By JACK BRANT

Copyright by Frank A. Munsey Co. .......................

Football at Buckeye college was no afternoon pink tea. If you apologized for putting a hobnailed shoe in the face of your best friend the coach was likely to light on your neck the next minute because of your ladylike manners. Temper played a big part in picking the team, and those of us who didn't have any originally had had it developed. The one exception was Billy Gordon, the big guard.
Billy was so good natured that it pozed out all over him. No one, not even the coaches, could ever ruffle him. Even if one did pick a scrap he was so big that it didn't do any good. He would put out his right hand, which was about as heavy as a full sized ham and greatly resembled one, and if any one got in front of it he would be brushed away like a fly, leaving Billy as serene and good natured as ever.

A man like that can get a place in the line on any football team in the country. But Tom Burns, head coach of Buckeye, wanted more than an automaton of defense; he wanted a whirlwind of attack and destruction. He used to sit up whole nights trying to think of schemes to make Billy mad. His theory was that every man had temper stored away somewhere and it needed only a touch on the hidden spring to start it off. But Tom was pretty well stumped trying to discover the combination that fitted Billy.

Two weeks before the big final game with Kenyon college, our main rival, the situation began to get desperate. Tom Burns called a meeting of the whole team minus Billy and explained that, no matter how furious the rest of us got, if we didn't get a good mad out of Billy we stood as much chance of winning that game as of growing wings on earth.

What he wanted was to get Billy angry just before the game and have cause of his anger so far out of his reach that he couldn't get at it and would take his wrath out on the Kenyon team.

This set us all thinking, and that night as I jumped into bed I found the solution. That solution was Miss Pink.

Miss Pink was the queen of the coeds and the prettiest girl in two states. It was secretly surmised among a choice few who were in on the game that she was as good as engaged to head coach Tom Burns. Billy, who didn't dance, was not one of the few who were in on the game,

My plan was to get her to cast a few of those smiles on Billy. It's a well known axiom that a fellow in love is particularly susceptible to the grouch germ, and it's just a step from a good blue grouch to a tearing rage.

I predicted that in two weeks we could get the thing so well under way that on the day of the final game all we would have to do would be to light the fuse and then run like the mis-

HOW TO GURE A

Knows from Experience.

His Word Is Good.

Jackson, Miss.—"I am a carpenter, and the grippe left me not only with a chronic cough, but I was run-down, worn out and weak. I took all kinds of cough syrups but they did me no good. I finally got so weak I was not able to do a day's work, and coughed so much I was alarmed about my condition. One evening I read about Vinol and decided to try it. Before I had taken a quarter of a bottle I felt better, and after taking two bottles my cough is entirely cured, all the bad symptoms have disappeared and I have gained new vim and energy."—John L. Dennis, 711 Lynch Street, Jackson, Miss.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because the active medicinal principles of cod liver oil contained in Vinol rebuilds wasting tissues and supplies strength and vigor to the nerves and muscles while the tonic iron and wine assist the red cornuscles of the chief to get far enough away before the explosion.

The end that I outlined to Tom was to have Miss Pink come up to Billy just as he was leaving the locker build ing in his football clothes and reach out and slap him on the face.

She could throw in some words at the same time, like "liar" and "cheat" or whatever the ladylike phrases were that would convey the same meaning. This, I reasoned, would rouse the temper of a mummy. And, of course, as Billy couldn't hit a girl, he would go into the game and begin tearing the clothes off the Kenyon team.

Tom agreed that the basis of the plot wasn't bad, but he didn't think that quite so much action in the final part would suit Miss Pink. He said I had the right idea, but that if I'd ever been in love I would realize that it wouldn't take as much as that to make a man eat granite.

According to his views, the best way to get Billy's goat would be to have the lady of his choice suddenly announce on the day of the game that she was engaged to another man.

"I guess you're right," I said, "It sure would give Billy a jolt if Miss Pink should tell him that she was engaged to you when he was thinking that he was the king pin. Do you think you stand in strong enough to pull the trick off at the proper moment?

It was a fool question for me to ask. If there was one line where Tom considered that he was strong it was with the ladies. He wasn't far wrong, elther, for he was no end of a hero, and girls like that kind. But I had an idea that he was having harder work bringing Miss Pink to terms than he liked

This seemed tough on Tom, for it was plain as day that she was the one girl he had ever met whom he was head over heels in love with.

"Well," said Tom, looking a little fussed, "you certainly have got a lot of nerve. But if you can keep a secret I'll tell you something. I'm not engaged to Miss Pink yet, but I hope to be. And I think that for the good of the college I can get her to play her part, and we'll let Billy know of our engagement at the right moment to win that game."

The next day Tom was beaming. So after practice I asked him how things were progressing. And because he wanted to talk to somebody and because he had started in to make a confidant of me he told me all about it.

It seems that when he had first suggested the plan she had refused abso lutely to have anything to do with it. But after he had made a strong appeal to her college spirit and explained how necessary temper was to football and that unless she helped we would lose the big game she came around conditionally.

The conditions were that she reserved the right to drop out at any moment and that if any engagement was announced she was to be the one to do the announcing. And Tom assured me that she wasn't the kind of girl that would back out and that she would do her best for Buckeye. He was going to take Billy to walk that night and meet her accidentally and had an excuse all fixed up to leave them together. Now that everything was arranged I began to feel a little uneasy in my conscience. I liked Billy, as did everybody else, and it seemed to me that we were playing him a pretty low down trick. Things began to turn out beautifully. just as we had planned. I guess a mere man doesn't stand much chance when a girl really sets her cap for him. Billy fell like a lamb and even took to writing poetry. His whole manner changed, and he carried around his 250 pounds as if they were barely enough ballast to keep him connected with the earth.

Tom gave him a clear field, for the good of the team, and when he wasn't at practice or attending lectures could be pretty sure he was with Miss Pink or waiting for her somewhere. This went on for two weeks, right up to the afternoon of the final game.

Then came the explosion. It was bigger than we had expected—so big that Tom got caught in it. A few of us were walking down to the field with Tom. He was very nervous, not listening to anything we said, and I knew it wasn't all caused by the game. Right in front of us were Miss Pink and Billy, waiting on the corner. As we passed Billy called to Tom, and he joined them. We

I heard later that Tom tried to get away, but she wouldn't let him. "Please stay, Mr. Burns," she said. "You have both been such good friends to me that I want you to be the first to hear a secret. I'm engaged, but don't tell, because it isn't out yet. Richard Randolph is a distant cousin, and I am so anxious to have you meet

She smiled up at them with those big, round, trusting eyes of hers. She was so confident they would be delighted and so absolutely uncon that she was causing the slightest uneasiness to either of them.

They tried to say the right thing and left her to wait for her girl friends who were going with her to the game, and when they joined us at the locker room they were like two full sized hurricanes done up in quart bottles.

Nobody but I knew what the trouble was, and I didn't guess but half of it. Tom sailed into us in true football style, and the talk he gave us was a lyric. I've never heard nor read of a speech before a battle that could touch it. It put fire into us as if he were pouring it in with a dipper, and we ran out on that field ready to consume all that we touched.

That game will live forever in the history of Buckeye college. Kenyon came on the field with a heavier team and the idea that they were going to have a cinch. They found ten furies and one demon, and there was as much chance of stopping Buckeye as stopping the north wind.

Billy was the demon. From a quiet, peace loving Hercules of an hour before he had changed into an avenging torrent of wrath. Four men couldn't hold him, and his path when he ran down the field was lined with cripples, with one or two of the gravest, who courted death, clinging to him.

The odds turned right around in the first ten minutes, and the college in the bleachers went wild with delight as we dashed on to victory. The score at the end was 29 to 0, and there, was lots of fight still left in us. Two men fought even as the cheering undergrads carried them twice around the field on their shoulders. These two were Tom Burns and Billy.

There was a big bonfire on the campus that night, and everybody, coeds and all, attended. At about the middle of it there was a cry for an ax. and as I vaguely remembered having seen one around the corner of the grand stand where the carpenters had been working I went for it.

I made plenty of noise coming, but there were two people around there in the dark that didn't hear me. They were Miss Pink and Billy. I was near enough to hear what they were saying when I stopped, and I couldn't help listening. Miss Pink was talking. "I-I said it for a joke," she was

"Oh, but you were! You were very, very angry, indeed, and it was splendid, and-and-I love you for it!" It always pays not to argue with a woman, and there are sometimes when it pays better than others.

I hurried away as fast as I could, but I couldn't get away fast enough not to notice that Billy realized this was one of the times that called for action, not words, Taken at Her Word.

A Bloomfield woman looked across her lawn to where passersby were breaking off the blossoming twigs of her favorite quince tree. "We might as well cut the tree down as let it stand for people to destroy," said she. Half an hour later the tree lay on the ground beside a little hatchet, while around behind the house the small boy of the family was getting a switching with one of the branches. This teaches us that we should be sure of our audience before we employ hyperbole in our speech. — Newark

Accidental Death Verdict in

Strathroy Case Strathroy, Feb. 25 .- Accidental death Strathroy, Feb. 25.—Accidental death with blame attached to no one, was the substance of the verdict returned here to-night by Coroner Dr. O. L. Berdan's jury, after investigating the death of Charles DeGroat, of this place, who succumbed to injuries at his home on Monday last. Rumors of foul play in connection with his death had been going the roughs

The evidence went to show that De Groat's injuries were due to his slipping and falling on his alighting from a rig in which he had been driven from Watford a few nights previous, and Dr. J. R. Mac Cabe, who conducted a postmortem, testified that death was due to valvular disease of the heart hastened by the indisease of the heart, hastened by the injuries in question.

Crown Attorney McKillop, of London, was present at the inquest.

WHEN IT RAINS.

Watch the Cellar, as Dampness is Dangerous on Walls or Floors.

If rain gets into the cellar or there is any leakage whatever to cause dampness have it attended to at once. A damp cellar, aside from being dangerous, will ruin practically all foods. Large boxes of lime should be placed in the cellar, and lime should be sprin-kled over the floor. For several days there should remain in the cellar cans of chloride of lime in water. This purifles the air. Provide dry boxes for fruit, which should be raised from the floor by bricks. One brick may be placed under each corner of the box. Even barrels should rest on bricks, or, better still, should be set on long pieces of scantling.

A swinging shelf placed on iron hooks away from the wall is excellent for holding baskets of onions, potatoes, tomatoes and other things that one wants within easy reach. When the side walls, ceiling and floor of a cellar have been swept and the shelves carefully cleaned you may apply a good coat of whitewash or two of them if necessary. This finished, wipe up the floor, throw open the windows, and the cellar will at once smell sweet and wholesome. Strictly speaking, clean ing the cellar is a man's work and should not be undertaken by a woman unless in case of dire necessity, but it is essential that a woman superintend the task. A mere man is apt to leave dirt in the corners and cobwebs in out of the way places.

Macaroni Soup. To make this soup let a half gallon of stock boil. Then add one pint of macaroni, which has been soaked for two hours in warm water, a cupful of canned tomatoes, a slice of finely chopped bacon, a sliced onion and one teaspoonful of chili sauce. Let it boil for thirty minutes. Season to taste and serve with crackers or bread croutons.

When one uses or breaks her last can rubber make a substitute of newspaper. This packs better than other paper. Cut several layers the required size, put them on the can and screw lid down tight as possible.

If your kitchen window is a sunny one it is an excellent plan to keep in it a growing pot or two of parsley or any greenery that can be used for garnishing in emergencies. The moist air from boiling saucepans is just the thing for these green things to thrive in.

Dish covers may be kept bright and clean easily. Remove grease with warm water and soda, dry with a soft-cloth, then apply a little metal polish with flannel. A final polish with fine whitening will then make the covers look like silver.

Kentucky Blue Grass

The remarkably low price of Ken tucky Blue Grass seed this year calls for a special consideration of the characteristics and value of this grass. It is a long-lived perennial with creeping rootstocks but is rather slow in getting established. It will live under the most trying conditions but does best on a moist fertile soil which is rich in line. Growth starts early in the spring and the plants flower about the same time as Or-chard Grass and Early Red Clover. It should be grown in mixtures for hay on a long rotation or for permanent pasture and is the basis of lawn mixtures. It is an excellent bottom grass and is much relished by stock. The legal weight of seed is 14 lbs. per bus. and the minimum germination is 53 per cent.—Seed Branch, Ottawa.

Hockey And The Duty Of Young Men

(Editorial in Woodstock Sentinel-Review) The writer in the daily war summary in the Globe seeks to impress upon his readers of service age that the war is far from being over, and that, indeed, as far as the British Empire is concerned, it can scarcely be said to have yet begun. The young men of France, of Belgium, of Russia, and of Servia not to speak of the United Kingdom are fighting not only for the security of their own lands, but for Canadian liberty. He adds: "We shall not do very much to destroy German militarism by singing "Tipperary" at hockey matches." The reminder, with its implied rebuke, is neither untimely nor unnecessary. In Woodstock, for instance, it is the customary thing to see from one to two thousand people, made up largely of young men of service age, at a hockey match, and to hear them cheer themselves hoarse. But the local regiment is compelled to appeal in vain for sufficient young men to keep it up to full strength, and even the Home Guard, which imposes no very burdensome restrictions on its membership, is said to be falling away for lack of interest.

What is the matter with the young men of the community? Is it that they do not fully realize how urgent is the call of duty. If they were living in Russia or France or Belgium or Servia, they would have no choice. That they have, so far, the right to exercise their own judgment as to whether they shall respond to the call of duty or not is due to the fact that they are living in a country where freedom is the birthright of everyone. But does not that very fact emphasize the urgency of the call to duty, when it comes? Is not the freedom which Canadians enjoy worth defending? Surely it customed to the atmosphere of liberty, until it seems as necessary to existence as pure air, are content to leave to the Belgians, the Servians, the French and the Russians, the responsibility for the maintenance of that liberty !

There is no objection to hockey matches. There is no objection to the attendance of young men at hockey matches. There is no objection to the cheering or to the singing of "Tipperary"; but important things should come first, and it must be frankly admitted that it is neither inspiring nor satisfying to see the young men of the country pouring out their enthusiasm on hockey or any other game, while the Empire to which they belong is fighting for its very existence, and their own freedom and the institutions which guarantee it, are in danger of destruction.

Canadians Under Fire

They were sent forward to re-lieve Imperial troops in the trenches. Letters from Toronto officers state that the men behaved splendidly under a ferre shelling. Lieut. Col. ## STREETS OF CHRISTIANIA.

The Most Tastefully Designed of Any Capital In Europe.

Christiania is probably the most tastefully laid out capital of any state in Europe, Paris itself not excepted. It owes its foundation entirely to King Christian IV. of Denmark, from whom it takes its name, who in or about the year 1623 decided to erect for himself a new capital on the opposite side of the river to Oslo.

The whole of the main streets of the city run at right angles and are extremely wide. Indeed, it would hardly be an exaggeration to call them squares rather than streets. For the most part the architecture is rather heavy in design, but the clear air that comes from the flords tends to give the whole place a tone of lightness that it would otherwise lack.

The river Aker contains a wonderful series of waterfalls in the upper courses some little distance from the city, where practically the whole of the necessary power for the ever growing manufacturing quarter of the Norwegian capital is generated. This quarter is rather rigorously restricted to the suburb of Sagene, on the north side of the city, since town planning is something more than a mere name in Norway.

The royal palace, which was built by Christian IV., is a handsome building of rather unattractive architecture.-Manchester Guardian.

PREDICTS THE TIDES,

One of Uncle Sam's Machines That Does Wonderful Work.

A machine known as the United States tide predicting machine No. 2 and which is in daily operation in the United States geodetic survey at Washington, makes mathematical calculations which would otherwise require 100 persons to do.

Its work is nothing less than the pre dicting of the times and heights of high and low tides a year in advance. Its mechanism is of brass and steel, its house a huge mahogany and glass case and its tender one observer, who turns a crank and copies off on paper the reading of several dials and later removes from the machine a roll of paper on which is plotted the tidal curve for the particular spot along the coast the tides of which have been predicted.

Every year the United States issues a book of tide tables, primarily for the use of its navy and, secondly, for the use of all who go down to the sea in ships. This book of tide tables gives the time to the minute and the height of the nearest tenth of a foot of every high and low tide during the year for seventy of the world seaports, and by means of an auxiliary table the same information for 3,000 other places .-Scientific American.

Useful Wives!

Equal suffrage has not yet penetrat ed Africa's jungles. A husband will send two of his wives out to plant and care for the cassava farm. Two more will be appointed to look after the rice farm, to plant, attend it, drive off the rice birds and animals, and finally to will be delegated to the jungle to chop and bring home firewood. Another will be commissioned to carry water for the family. Another will do the cooking. Still another will shine her husband's sword, light his pipe and bring it to him, while he sits in the kitchen and talks any kind of palaver that his men friends care to quibble about. The husband works on the principle of "to every woman her work."-Christian Herald.

Tight Screws.

If screws, gas fittings, the sides of bedsteads or anything else of the kind become tightly fixed and cannot be moved the following method will generally be found to loosen them: Pour s little oil on the tight parts and then hold a lighted candle underneath until it is warm. The Latest Heard About

Rev. T. R. Westgate

The following extract from a letter written by Rev. E. W. Crawford in the January number of the Mombasa Diocesan Magazine describing his trip to German East Atrica, makes reference to the Rev.

Lambton Hydro Radials

We are indebted to Mr. R. Stirrett, of We are indebted to Mr. R. 'Stirrett, oir Petrolea, the County Council's, representative to the Provincial Hydro Radial Union for the following report of the Hydro Radial situation in the County. His information was obtained by letter from the Chief Engineer of the Ontario Hydro Power Commission under date of February 20th, 1915, and by personal interview with the engineering staff of the terview with the engineering staff of the Commission at Toronto last week.

The Commission has completed a number of surveys and prepared estimates of the cost of road-bed construction on the following lines through Lambton and adjacent counties:—

following lines through Lambton and adjacent counties:—

(1) From London, west through the townships of Adelaide, Warwick, Plympton and Sarnia (Tp.) to Sarnia.

(2) From a junction in the above line, in Plympton Tp., through Petrolea and Dresden to Chatham.

(3) From a junction on the first named line, through Strathroy, via Alwinston, through Brooke, Euphemia and vinston, through Brooke, Euphemia and Dawn to a junction with the second named line near Rutherford.

(4) A branch from Huron County survey will probably enter Lambton by way of Grand Bend, touch Thedford and join with the Lambton system in the vicinity of Arkona.

These, if approved by the electors, will form the twuk lines of the County and from them subsidiary lines may radiate, where the traffic will warrant their conwhere the traffic will warrant their construction. Traffic statistics for the County are soon to be collected and compiled and the complete report is expected to be ready in early summer. To ensure the greater success of the Lambton system is to be co-related with and form part of a wide-extending Hydro-Radial Transportation. wide-extending Hydro-Radial Transport-ation System, which will embrace the portions of Ontario indicated by these outline points, Windsor, Chatham, St. Thomas, Brantford, Hamilton, Toronto, Owen Sound, Goderich and Sarnia; touching London, Stratford, Beilin, Guelph, Galt, Woodstock, Milton and the numerous towns and villages en routes.

All the estimates on these various lines are based on the expected federal subsidy of $6,400 per mile, which is the same as that given to railroads when promoted and owned by private interests.

It is expected that the Dominion Government will sanction this subsidy, and thus help along the principle of public ownership of transportation lines, of which Sir Adam Beck is the popular apostle.

Mr. Stirrett further says it is desirable that every person interested in the advent of Hydro Radials and Hydro Light and Power for Lambton should see to it that Power for Lambton should see to it that their Federal representatives, Mr. F. F. Pardee and Mr. J. E. Armstrong are encouraged to support the granting of the subsidy when the matter comes up in the House of Commons. For them to become champions of the cause at Ottawa would give Lambton an honorable distinction, and even then they would not be running ahead of public opinion as it stands to-day, in every municipality in Lambton, on this live and important question. With the assurance of this Federal grant, with financial conditions no more abnormal than at present, there is no reason why Lambton Radials should not be in operation in two years. operation in two years.

SICK HEADACHES PERMANENTLY CURED

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Correct the Cause of This Trouble

Magazine describing his trip to German East Africa, makes reference to the Rev. T. B. R. Westgate, D.D., as follows:—
"I left Mombasa early in July for Daressalam. Shortly after arriving at Daressalam. Shortly after arrivi experience in building in such places can fully realize the magnitude of such a work.

While at Kongwa I was much impressed to see the keenness of the Wagogo for the things of God. Huge crowds attend the Sunday and weekday services, while there are nearly 25 outstations and schools, worked by native teachers. The number of such outstations seems to be on the increase. The people appear to regard it as a privilege to build schools and chapels without calling upon the Mission for financial help towards the same. I was greatly interested when a chief, from some outlying part, came to Dr. Westgate and complained that some people who had moved into his district from another part of Ugogo, were wishing to build a school-chapel of their own in addition to his. The chief contended, and possibly rightly, that his school-chapel could suffice for all in his district.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills work seemingly marvellous cures, and what they have done for others they will do for all ailing people if given a fair trial.
