THE RING IN ENGLAND.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

JEM MACE AND TOM KING.—£400 AND THE CHAMPION'S BELT.

(FROM THE 'SPORTING LIFE,' JULY 12.)

The next deposit of £15 a-side for the forthcoming interesting mill for the Championship was to be put down at Jem Mace's, the old King John, Holywell-lane, Shoreditch, on Thursday, July 17.

THE LATE FIGHT BETWEEN JOE NOLAN AND DAN THOMAS.—It must be fresh in the memory of our readers how Dan Thomas and Joe Nolan met to fight for $200 a-side; how they were disturbed by the authorities, apprehended and bound over to keep the peace, together with the referee, Bill George. The matter, of course, stood over in abeyance until the sessions, which were held last week, at Reading, when all were discharged, with a caution, on Tuesday last. Thomas has called upon the stakeholder, who is willing to name a day and place of fighting, but repudiated all idea of naming a referee. If Dan insists on a fresh time and place being named, the affair will be decided during the current week, but the matter of the refereeship will have to remain open until the day appointed. In the meantime the stakeholder will watch the course of affairs most strictly.

THE FIGHT BETWEEN BOB TRAVERS AND PATSEY REARDON.—The final deposit of £25 a-side was made good this week, according to the tenour of the articles, for the mill between the celebrated Bob Travers and Patsy Reardon, who have to meet on Tuesday, July 15, to decide their claim to £200, at 10th 2 lb. From reliable information, we are in a position to state that both men are well and fit to fight for a kingdom, therefore it only remains for an undisturbed ring to bring off the affair with satisfaction to all. The weighing will take place on Monday next at George Brown's, the Bell; Red Lion Market, Whitecross Street, Barbican, between the hours of 12 and 2 p.m. The stakeholder has to appoint the place and time of fighting, as well as to name the referee. To ensure the affair coming off without interruption, it is expected that a very early hour in the morning will be named, even if the affair is not postponed for at least twenty-four hours.

Answers to Correspondents.

ALICK, Quebec.—Many thanks, keep us posted.

J. C., Hamilton.—Duly credited to you.
Toedles, Guelph.—Why didn't you give us the particulars of that billiard match? Let us know of anything stirring about the neighborhood.

O. K., Brantford.—Yes.

To Subscribers.

We are constrained to take this method of requesting our friends throughout the country who are in arrears of subscription, to forward the "needful," for such it is in the true sense of the word, at their earliest convenience. A ready response to this request will encourage us in our endeavors to meet the wants of the sporting community in a more enlarged and satisfactory shape.

CRICKET.

We are requested to state that the grand cricket match between the Military of Upper Canada and the Civilians of Upper Canada, will take place on the Toronto ground on Wednesday next, 6th August, when a fine display of the 'Noble British game' may be expected.

RIFLE BRIGADE VS. TORONTO C. C.—
Played at Toronto July 31, and Aug. 1.
R. Brigade, 1st in. 139—139.
Toronto C. C., 1st in. 56, 2nd 66—122.

The return match between the Model Grammar and the Maple Leaf Cricket Clubs took place on the ground of the latter on the 19th inst. The wickets were pitched at 12 o'clock, but owing to unavoidable circumstances eight only of the Maple Leaf eleven were on the field. Matters standing thus, the Model Grammar School Club requested the Maple Leaf seven to take the first innings, which they did, and, after some fine batting, their last wicket fell to 54. The Model then took the willow and scored 65, when the rain began to fall in torrents, and precluded all possibility of further play.

The cricket match between the eleven of the Rifle Brigade of Hamilton and an eleven of the military of Toronto came off on the Toronto ground on Monday last. For some reason only three of the military of Toronto turned out and the remainder of the eleven was made up of members of the Toronto C. C. The batting of Lord Cecil, Captain Tryon and Foster, was very fine, and contributed not a little to the success of the Brigade. The following is the score.

Rifle Brigade, 1st in. 101—101.
Toronto M., 1st in. 58, 2nd 59—117.

DAYFIELD VS. BRUCEFIELD C. C.—A few days ago a match was played between the Bayfield and Brucefield Cricket Clubs at the latter place when the former club was again victorious.

From our correspondent, F. C. C., we learn the particulars of two lively little matches, one of which took place at Chatham on June 30th, between the Thames C. C. (Chatham) and the Old Kent club, resulting in favor of the Thames club by 1 run and 2 wickets; and the other at Thamesville on July 4th, between the Thames C. C. and the Cashmere C. C.; the gallant young Thamesites being again the victors by 2 runs and 6 wickets to spare.

The return match between the New Hamburg and Haysville Cricket Clubs was played on the ground of the latter on Saturday, July 12th. New Hamburg was again victorious beating their opponents in one innings and 37 runs to spare. The following is the score:

Hamburg, 1st in. 95—95.
Haysville, 1st in. 40; 2nd in. 18—58

The North Waterloo Cricket club and the Galt club played a match at cricket on the Berlin ground on Saturday last. The game was rendered rather one-sided by some of the North Waterloo players failing to put in an appearance. The result was as follows:

Galt, 1st in. 99—99.
North W., 1st in. 24, 2nd 26—50.

The return match between the Hamilton Junior and the Ancaster cricket clubs was played on the ground of the latter a few days ago. By the score it will be seen the Ancaster club was victorious.

Ancaster, 1st in. 25, 2nd 159—195.
Hamilton, 1st in. 31, 2nd 28—59.

A very interesting cricket match came off in Goderich on Saturday, 12th inst., between the Goderich and Clinton cricket clubs, and resulted in favor of the latter by 13 runs. The following is the score:

Goderich, 1st in. 58, 2nd 43—101.
Clinton, 1st in. 40, 2nd 74—114.

SPRINGHILL VS. LLOYDTOWN.—Played at Springhill on Saturday 12th July. Won by Springhill club in one innings with 6 runs to spare. The following is the score:

Lloydtown, 1st in. 24, 2nd 68—92.
Springhill, 1st in. 98—98.

The Galt C. Club are going to have a fine time on 15th August, when a cricket match will take place between the Rifle Brigade cricketers and the Galt club. The band of the Regt. (60 performers) will be present and give a Promenade Concert at 2 o'clock p. m., of same day.

CURIOUS CRICKET MATCH.—A cricket match of a novel description, which has been pending some time, came off at Newmarket (England) on Tuesday. The competitors were Mr. Jackson, the Leviathan of the north, and Alfred Diver, the celebrated cricketer. The conditions were, that Mr. Jackson laid £100 to £50, he playing with the usual sized bat, whilst Diver protected his wicket with a broomstick procured from Mr. Gooding's training establishment. The result was as follows:—1st innings, no runs for either; 2nd innings, Diver was caught out without a run; Jackson one run, not out.

AQUATICS.

A Race took place on the bay on Friday last between the gigs "Robert Spence" pulled by a crew of the Naval Brigade, and the "Maple Leaf" and was witnessed by a large concourse of people. The course was from the Queen's to Church Street Wharf. The water was rather rough, but both boats were handled with skill. The race, which was a very close one, was won by the "Maple Leaf" after a hard struggle, by a little more than a length.

Burlington Boat Club Regatta.

The contest for the second class Yacht Cup, on Saturday last, proved, as was expected, unusually exciting, and resulted in a victory for the old favorite. The worthy Commodore, J. Stinson, Esq., performed his duties in his usual creditable manner, and with admirably arranged signals got the boats off well on time. The following is the order in which they were moored, the first named being to windward.—Gazelle, Serpent, Creolian, Surge, and Breeze. Wind from the N. W. On starting, the Gazelle of course had the lead, which she maintained till shortly after rounding the first buoy, when the Surge drew slightly ahead, the Breeze being third, and the others close at hand. In this order they continued for some time, when the wind freshening a little, and being aft, the last boats caught up somewhat, and the Breeze drew alongside the Gazelle. These two now ran down at a rapid pace and reached the Surge almost simultaneously with the puff of wind, and the Gazelle at once shot ahead. By some mistake, however, she gybed on the wrong side of the Oaklands buoy, and had to round again, giving the first place to the Surgo. The Gazelle in a very short time rectified her mistake, and, with a mammoth topsail set, soon regained her place, taking the lead just previous to reaching the buoy at the Beach. Now commenced the heat up home, the real test of a boat's superiority. The Surgo rapidly worked to windward of the others and bid fair to win easily, till within about two miles of the winning buoy, when, on crossing the Gazelle on a different tack, it was discovered that the latter had, by some extraordinary run of luck or good management, got ahead once more, and it certainly appeared as if she was to lead the way into the winning buoy, as she had done at all the others. The Surgo, however, shook herself out to her work and in an exceedingly short space of time regained the windward position, winning in capital style, the little Gazelle, which was remarkably well handled, being a good 2nd, 3 minutes behind, the Breeze 3rd, 19 min. behind the Gazelle, and the Orca'dien and Serpent some time after.—"Hamilton Spectator."

Quoits.

An interesting game of quoits for $20 a side was played on Friday afternoon 25th July in from Saml. Higgins' hotel at the foot of York Street, between William Somerville and J. Lee of Georgetown. A considerable crowd of people witnessed the game. Somerville kept the lead from the beginning and won the stakes by 18 shots, making 61 to Lee's 43.

We learn from the "Bruce Vindicator" that on Thursday last a match at Quoits was played at Port Elgin between four players of Port Elgin and four of Southampton. The distance played was 21 yards. The following is the result of the game:—

SOUTHAMPTON.		PORT ELGIN.
R. C. Furey.....21	J. Wild.....13	J. Smith.....14	S. Roether.....41
Geo. Pringle.....21	J. Smith.....14	F. Stafford.....4
D. Campbell.....14
J. T. Conaway...21
Totals.....77			54

The above score shows that Southampton won by 23 shots. Upon the whole the playing was very superior on both sides.—The greatest anxiety was manifested by the inhabitants of the two villages when the playing became close, and when the playing was over the competitors and their friends returned to the well-known and established Inn kept by Mr. Stafford, where they partook of an excellent dinner; and afterwards separated with the understanding that a return match will be played at Southampton during the summer.

MONTREAL VS. QUEBEC.

We learn from our Quebec correspondent, 'Alick,' that on Monday, July 14th, a main of 10 battles was fought in the St. Louis Suburbs, Quebec. The spelter slid freely, Quebec taking the heap. The battles throughout were pretty good game, with but one exception—the last, upon which the Montrealers thought to replenish their empty shot-bags—and the talking was so tall that some of the Quebec boys rather felt shy—however, the Montreal bird turned tail on the third dash and Quebec made the pit ring with cook-a-doodle-doo. At the final close Quebec had won 7 battles, leaving 3 to their opponents.—Good and orderley management was kept throughout, and all passed off as it should.—The Pit is not quite as popular in Quebec as it was some few years ago; then, of a Sunday, in the Suburbs, every second habitant you would meet had a cock under his arm.

Pedestrianism.

FOOT RACE IN DETROIT.—On Saturday afternoon, July 19th, a foot race took place in Detroit between Kelly Davis alias Greenwood, and George Drake, of Farmington, for $200 a side,—the distance run being sixty yards. Drake is said to have led by half a length for three-fourths of the way, when Greenwood, with a shout, bent all his energies to the task, and succeeded in beating his rival, reaching the string about sixteen inches in advance. It will be remembered that on several occasions Kelly Davis opposed rivals in this city, always winning the day. He is said to be the fastest runner in America, and his frequent victories seem to warrant this assertion. Drake, however, on former occasions has won complete victories over Davis, but now his star seems to be on the decline.

Royal Lyceum.

After a run of fair business, Mr. Edwin Adams closed a two weeks engagement on Saturday evening, 26th July. Trusting that it may not be unacceptable to our readers we will endeavor to give a short sketch of this young gentleman's career on the boards. Mr. Adams was born in Medford, Mass., Feb. 3, 1824, and having at an early age a taste for the drama, was induced when only 19 years old to call on Wyzeman Marshall and solicit his advice as to the adoption of the profession. Mr. M., after hearing our young hero recite a speech from William Tell, took quite an interest in his welfare, and recommended him to W. M. Fleming who was then about to open the new National Theatre in Boston. Mr. Fleming engaged him for respectable utility business, and he made his first bow as Stephen in the Hunchback August 29, 1853. He remained with Mr. F. but a few weeks having received the offer of a better situation from Mr. Henry Willard, the Manager of the Howard Athenaeum, he accordingly joined the company opening as Bernardo to the Hamlet of James Anderson in November of the same year. An anecdote is related of Mr. Adams during his engagement at this house, which perhaps may serve to amuse the reader. James Anderson was performing 'Richard III' on the night in question, and in the scene where the officer is requested to advance his halberd, young Adams brought down the house by saying, with a considerable degree of emphasis, "Stand back my lords, and let the Parson cough!" After remaining at the Howard a few weeks he joined a travelling company under the management of Williams and Monroe, and visited the small towns of the New England States; the company soon after broke up when our hero remained off the stage for nearly a year. Becoming tired of this, and panting once more for a sight of the footlights, he was offered and accepted an engagement at the Lowell Museum as first walking gentleman. The season closed in two months and he then joined the forces of the Chesnut, Philadelphia, under Mr. Quinlan's management, opening as Charles Woodley in 'the Soldier's Daughter,' Sept. 20, 1854. From there he went to Baltimore and was engaged by John Owens, appearing and making a great hit as Edward Mapleton in 'the Merchant and his Clerk.' In the season of 1856-7 we find him at Richmond with Kunkel and Moxley, where he remained two seasons, during the second of which he played leading business, and became a great favorite. His next engagement was with Thomas Barry of the new Boston, for juvenile business, playing second to E. L. Davenport. From the Boston he returned to Richmond to play leading business for the season of 1859-60. Revisited Boston and played his first star engagement under Mr. Davenport's management at the Howard Athenaeum, opening as Rover in 'Wild Oats,' June 3rd 1860. On the occasion of his farewell benefit at this theatre he was presented by some of his friends with an elegant diamond pin, after accepting the gift in a few well chosen words and when about to leave the stage, he was arrested by Mr. E. L. Davenport and presented with a purse of gold containing 125 dollars from other friends. During the season of 1860-61 he was engaged for the Walnut, Philadelphia, and opened Sept. 10th as Ingomar. Mr. Adams was married to Mrs. De Vero at Richmond in 1856. In 1861 Mr. Adams visited and played a star engagement at our theatre, of two weeks, opening on July 15th as Claude Melnotte, and gained many admirers by his natural and gentlemanly acting. Mr. Adams' figure is well formed though rather slight, his manners on the boards easy and graceful, his voice clear and remarkably distinct, and there is an impassioned earnestness about his acting which must and will achieve for him a proud distinction in the profession.

On Monday last Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Conway opened in 'Macbeth,' and during the week have appeared in 'Romeo and Juliet,' 'Ingomar,' 'Macbeth,' &c., to good houses, proving themselves worthy of their high and deserved name. Last night, Friday, was performed to a house filled from pit to dome, Edmund Falconer's new drama of 'the Peep o' Day,' which has already had a run of nearly 300 nights at his own Theatre in London, the Lyceum, and continues as popular as ever. The manner in which this really splendid piece is placed on our boards is highly creditable to the management. Mr. Geo. Evans has painted some superb scenery, the machinery works exceedingly well, and with the excellent acting of Mrs. Conway and husband as Kathleen and Harry Ravanagh, and the tip-top comedian, B. Maginley, as Barney O'Toole, a real true specimen of one 'of the finest pisantry' in the world, assisted by an enlarged company, and any number of supes, —poor ill-used devils—the play is destined to have a long and prosperous run.

General Summary.

CANADIAN.

At the Quebec theatre, Wednesday, July 30th, a complimentary benefit was given to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ward, lately of Toronto, when the young favorites were greeted with a fine house. The performance commenced with 'Nan the Good for Nothing,' Mrs. W. as Nan; after which several of the City minstrels appeared in a miscellaneous entertainment, and concluding with the 'Octoroon' with Mr. Ward in his inimitable rendition of Pete. D. Hanchett's theatrical troupe are doing well at Kingston. The company comprise D. Hanchett, W. H. Leak, A. Beachey, J. F. Croseby, W. M. Lannier, J. Bunsby, G. A. Hill, with Mrs. D. Hanchett, the Misses Fanny B. Price, Julia A. Cook, danseuse, (formerly of Toronto) and Lu petite Julia. An old acquaintance, Thomas Cook, is the leader of the orchestra. On Friday, the 1st, the bill was 'Dick Turpin and Tom King'—dances by Miss Julia A. Cook, and 'Ireland as it was'—the 'Colleen Bawn' was in preparation. J. O. Kelley's troupe at the Town Hall, St. Catharines, have been doing a very good business. On the 29th July was produced the Iron Chest and the Jacobite, with dance by Lizale Irving—H. W. Gossin is the great card. The Union Songsters, Emma Bailey and N. W. Leavitt, gave one of their social concerts at Sherbrooke on the 29th. E. L. Davenport has been playing a fine engagement at the Montreal theatre, opening on Monday last. On the 31st he appeared as Richard III., with Mrs. Buckland as Queen Elizabeth. At the Mechanics' Hall, Montreal, Anne Bishop was advertised to give two concerts on 1st and 2nd August, assisted by E. Seguire, baritone, and Gustavo de Pless, pianist. The operetta of Jeannette's Wedding was to be produced on both occasions. Lent's Hippo-nomads spread their canvases at Hamilton on the 6th, Caledonia 7th, Dunnsville 8th, Merrittsville 9th, St. Catharines 11th, Grimsby 12th, Dundas, 13.

AMERICAN.

Mrs. John Drew is in Philadelphia engaging a company for the fall season. Among those already engaged are Miss Kate Bateman and Edwin Adams. Mrs. H. A. Perry opened the Corinthian Hall, Syracuse, N. Y., on the 26th July, with 'The Flowers of the Forest' and 'Lola Montez.' Adah Isaacs Menken is meeting with great success at the Howard, Boston. At the Metropolitan, Buffalo, they have brought out the grand spectacle of the 'Seven Sisters' in fine style, under the direction of Mr. J. E. McDonough, Jenny Glenn appearing as 'Diavolino' with great success. Chas. Dillon after fulfilling a long and successful engagement in California, sailed on the 28th June for Australia.—Father Kemp has re-engaged his company of Old Folks, with Emma J. Nichols and a good orchestra. Billy Birch, Ben Cotton and minstrel troupe at Maguire's Opera House,

San Francisco, are giving Sunday afternoon concerts at Hayes' Park. Duprez and Green's opera troupe have been quite successful since they left Boston. They opened at Lowell, Mass., on the 20th July. Cool Burgess is a great card with them. Speaking of this troupe the 'Boston Traveller' says:—"It was something of an enterprise for Manager Keach to engage so large and expensive a company as the New Orleans Serenaders, but the success already achieved is sufficient assurance that the right thing was done at the right time and in the right way. The minstrel band embraces twenty-five first class performers, among whom are the famous comedians Cool Burgess and Charley Reynolds, and the famous vocalists Ainley, Scott and Gustave Bidoux. A change of programme is made nightly." Bryant's minstrels did a fine business in Buffalo last week. Fox Ravel troupe have met with most unequivocal success at the Boston Museum. Reynolds and Pierce's Campbell Minstrels are now making for New York State and Canada. John Collins has been doing very well at Niblo's Garden with the 'Colleen Bawn.' The New Memphis Theatre is expected to open under the management of W. C. Thompson in September. It is mentioned as a fact that Gabriel Ravel will make his appearance at Niblo's on August 4th. Miss Kate Reynolds arrived in New York, from Montreal, last week. Wood's minstrels are drawing immensely at their cosy Retreat in New York, and are highly spoken of. It is said that Miss Mary Provost is about to leave for California. Mrs. Hoey, and her sister, Mary Shaw, are at Long Branch, where are also Messrs. J. W. and Lester Wallace, and Mr. W. R. Blake. Mr. and Mrs. John Seston are at the Highlands of Noversink. C. W. Coudock has been playing at St. John's, N. B., and was followed by Mr. Proctor. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fredericks, late of the New York theatres, announced to give a theatrical entertainment to Portsmouth, N. H., on the 9th inst., but owing to 'unforeseen obstacles' they did not appear. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Smith, with little Marian M. Smith, are giving parlor entertainments at Ohio.

FOREIGN.

Gardiner Coyne is at the Queen's Theatre, Edinburgh. Victor Hugo's new work, 'Les Miserables,' is being dramatized by his son Charles, for one of the Parisian Theatres.—'Fantini' has been playing at Milan with success. 'Pauvette' succeeds the 'Colleen Bawn' at Drury Lane, and will bring back Mrs. Boucicault to the boards. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean continue to play nightly at the Princess's, and appear to draw good houses. Sam Cowell is giving a series of comic song concerts at Plymouth, Eng. 'Our American Cousin' has been played at the Haymarket Theatre, London, upward of two hundred times, with Solberg as Dundreary. A new tenor, Herr Wachtel, and a new soprano, Mlle Maria Battu, have appeared at the Royal Italian Opera, London, with great success. How's American Circus had four good days at Limerick, the last week in June.—John C. Heenan was the principal attraction. Miss Catharine Lucette, who appeared in Toronto some two years ago in a concert and parlor entertainment, with Captain Price or Rhys, is managing Sadler's Wells Theatre, London, and playing with success. We find the following in our London exchanges:—Sadler's Wells is thriving under the management of Miss Catharine Lucette, and the vaudeville style of entertainment, which has been wisely adopted for the summer season, finds no lack of supporters. The smartly written 'Reruo' by Capt. Morgan Rhys, entitled 'Punch and Fun, or the Follies of the Day' is nightly received with roars of laughter, and the clever acting of the author and Miss Lucette, who is such a lively representative of Merry England, obtains the warmest applause.
