Decided to Defer Question of Lighting Until Made a Village.

J. W. Breakey saw no other way of assessing the property than by a frontage tax, and that, he said would be unfair to those with large blocks of farm land. Mr. Nisbet said he was willing to sacrifice something for the benefit the whole, but there was no doubt that some equitable manner of assessment could be arranged. The village, Mr. Francis pointed out, would be run by three commissioners elected by the people, and the com-mission would appoint its chairman and inspector. With one or two exceptions, all present signed the petitions, and a committee composed of J. E. Francis (chairman). Dr. Langstaff, J. A. Pearson, N. A. Smellie, and J. A. Bil-lerman, will secure further signatures and collect all necessary information as to procedure. Street Lighting. At a representative meeting of the citizens of Thornhill last night in the Victoria hall, it was decided to apply to the county council for power to incorporate the district as a police village, and to leave over the question of installing a lighting system until and collect all necessary information as to procedure. Street Lighting. R. A. Nisbet, on behalf of the lighting committee reported that The Metropolitan company had no stat-us in itsel to provide lighting on the streets and the residents had no pow-to give it. The company, however, was quite willing and anxious to light the village, and on a guarantee from any six residents to accept a quantity of power on the understand-ing that on licorporation continuity would be given the contract for, say three years, it would install the plant, of would supply the power if the resi-dents preferred to provide their own plant. The approximate cost as esti-mated by Mr. Wilson of the company, might be $600, and the flat rate per light per annum on some 30 street lights acquired would be approxi-mately $15. If the residents installed their own plant, they would have, a nucleus to start with in those houses already highted, the company promising to hand over its present customers in the proposed area on incorporation.

thing could be better calculated destroy any hope of getting the at men in the city to serve the city in the administration of its civic afairs than an attempt to defeat Con-McCarthy, merely because in matters atterly unconnected with city government certain people had a difference of opinion with him. For years Toronto has been trying e tempt out a better class of busine en, and to get them into the city acil and to devote themselves to nagement of city affairs, Conller McCarthy has given a numbe I years to the service of the city and to the study of its problems, and it is itted that there is no man in the

The Civic Campaign

One hears a great deal of irrespon-sible talk on the street regarding the alleged attitude of the liquor men in the present civic campaign. It is variously stated that they will sup-port this candidate or that candidate, but as a matter of fact, the botelmen, whatever may have been their course in previous years, are this year hold-ing absolutely aloof from the fight. There are no issues before the public likely to jeopardize their interests and they have no intention of engag-ing in the campaign. There have been rumors that they would like to see certain interests oppose McCartby because of his well-known temper-ance principles, but talk of this kind emanates from sources more inter-ested in seeing that gentleman de-teated than are the hotelmen, who at this critical juncture are content to stand aside and do nothing towards the defeat or election of any candi-date now in the field or likely to en-ter the fight.

ter the fight. Ex-Ald. Geo. Ramsden is the latest aldermanic candidate to announce his candidature. He has entered the field in ward 3. Mr. Ramsden represented the ward for two years, 1903-4 and in 1905 was retired from public life thru the medium of an unsuccessful fight for the board of control. Since that time he has not aspired to civic honors until this year. Mr. Ramsden, during his two previous terms in council, was particularly active in measures that affected the north end of the ward and it was thru his ef-forts that the Metropolitan Railway was forced to take its station from Tonge street to its present site. He was sent to council on his promise to force the railway company to cease making the company indicted be-fore the grand jury. He was also in-strumental in securing a low valua-tion of Ramsden park, which, in hon-or of his service to the city, was named after him. He points out that several very important matters af-fecting North Toronto will be dealt with next year, including the Yonge and has in all served seventeen terms against Ald. Dunn's nineteen. The latter has been in continuously since 1894, while there have been several breaks in the course of Ald. Graham's terms at the hall. The longest period which he was out of council was be-tween 1899 and 1907. He was a mem-ber of the board of control for one term, 1907. The next oldest member of council is Ald. F. S. Spence, who has served twelve terms, divided cvenly between the board of control and council. Controller Church has served ten terms. Ald. McBride comes next with nine years to his credit, while Mayor Hocken has been eight years at the hall. Controller O'Neill has been six years there including two tecting North Toronto will be dealt with next year, including the Yonge and Teraulay streets widening, and for this reason believes the people of the north end of the ward should give him their support. The consistent manner in which Me-Carthy has during his long term of office put forth his best efforts to fur-ther measures that were in the inter-est of the workers appears to have satisfied all sections of the labor inter-est, and the indications are that he will have their undivided support at the polls. An indication of this may be gleaned from the fact that the work-ers at several large industries have invited the mayorality candidate to ad-fress them at noonday meetings. He has accepted a number of such invi-ations, and beginning next week will visit the factories and lay his views before the employes. The Ald. yesterday morning armed with a host of questions relative to the transac-tion. After a whispered conference with Acting Mayor McCarthy the alderman seemed somewhat mollified, but nevertheless read off his dozen questions. According to Ald. "I see this matter has to be threshed out in council," said Controller Mo-Carthy. Carthy. Controller Simpson took exception

Controller Simpson took exception to the whispered explanation and re-minded the alderman he was speaking to the board and not to the vice-chairman. As a result the various candidates are content to confine their meetings largely to representative gatherings of this kind and, for the hest, house to house and personal canvass of the electorate goes largely to make up their campaign activities. Immersed as they are in business affairs and in war interest it is really doubtful whether the citizens could be attracted in any large numbers to mass meetings called by candidates and the result is that the men in the field are confining themselves to the smaller meetings thruout the city.

The entrance of John A. Cooper to the field adds interest to the fight in Ward Two, where Aldermen Wickett, Rowland and Risk will again be can-didates. Ald. Wickett's course in council seems to nave aroused the antagonism of some interests in the ward, but there is a feeling in the district that experience is sure to be a bis that experience is sure to be a big factor next year in civic matters, and that the aldermen who possess the knowledge gained in previous service at the hall will be able to best serve the interests of his constituents and the city. I am proving to many of my old and new customers that such fine goods cannot be duplicated anywhere at the prices I quote, and the styles I show are the very latest adaptations of style from Paris models.

33 1-3% to 50% is what I can save you off the usual prices of furs of equal quality

And I certainly have a very select stock from which to choose useful and acceptable gifts.

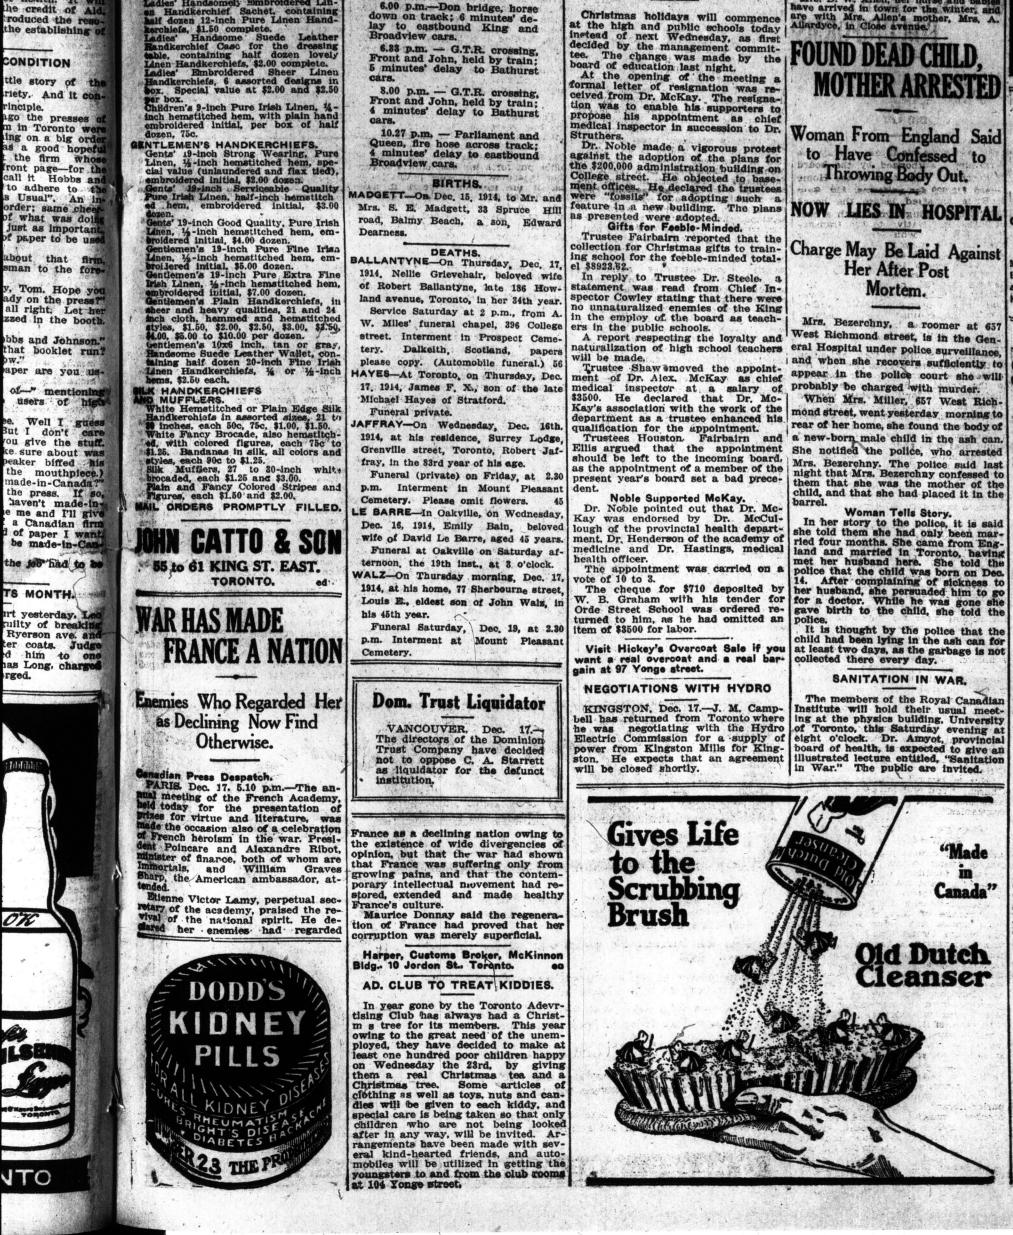

Fur and Fur-lined Coats, Fur Sets and Fur Pieces in all the wanted Furs and Combinations

And I ask you to "shop round," if you will, and compare styles and values.
