RAILWAY TO BE BUILT
FINANCED BY MANITOBA GOV'T.
WINNIPEG TO "THE BAY"

TE DEUM SUNG FOR KAISER
BY ORDER OF POPE PIUS

Such a Ceremony For Protestant Ruler Without Precedent—Crumbs For Vatican.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 27.—(Special.)—From a source which has always proved absolutely reliable, it is learned this evening that the Manitoba Government are preparing to make an announcement to the effect that they will finance a railway line direct from Winnipeg to a port on Hudson Bay, thus making a short route to the European markets. The line will run from this city in an easterly direction for a few miles, and then direct north, and will be the shortest of Hudson Bay routes.

At present nothing definite has been arranged as to who will build the line, but it is reported a company will likely be organized for the purpose, the government not being altogether satisfied with the way Mackenzie & Mann have been conducting the railroad business recently.

This important announcement will be made directly to the voters of the provincial elections is given out, which is expected to be within the next two weeks, as both the Liberal and Conservative parties are preparing for the fray for some months.

Confronted with the Liberal policy of government ownership of grain elevators, the present government will heartily support a government pledged to rush to completion a road to Hudson Bay, this was decided upon.

To the people of Manitoba it will mean a saving of several million dollars yearly, the water route being a considerably cheaper way to ship to Europe, and doing away with the long train haul across the continent, entailing heavy freight rates. Reports from explorers who have spent much time around Hudson Bay show open water there for at least six months in the year, and only last winter a few ice-breakers from Liverpool arrived at Fort Churchill, and were so after Christmas, showing the bay to be navigable for a much longer period than was supposed.

Promises of the early construction of this line will return the government to power with a larger majority than it now enjoys, and its contemplated abandonment of the railway plan immediately thereafter on this line is a matter of course, as the competition of other lines chartered to build to the bay from points in Saskatchewan.

It sounds a tremendous undertaking, but a glance at the map shows that it is but six or seven hundred miles from Winnipeg to York Factory, the latter country is a difficult railway building, owing to the many muskegs, sloughs and rivers.

NEW P. O. FOR MONTREAL.

Additional English Mail Facilities
 Next Summer, Says Leclerc.

Montreal, Jan. 27.—(Special.)—Honorable Rodolphe Leclercq, postmaster-general, and Hon. Sydney Fisher, acting minister of public works, have decided that Montreal shall have a postoffice worthy of the first city in the Dominion, and that if they cannot buy The Gazette office they will build on the opposite side of St. James-street.

The postmaster-general, speaking of the mail service yesterday to the press, stated that a supplementary mail would be sent this summer on a Dominion Line boat sailing Saturday.

He said that this summer the government was going to have a new tender to land passengers and mails and hereafter the port would compare with the best in the States or Europe in this respect.

SOCIALIST LOST NINETEEN.

Summary of German Elections Indicates Decided Blow to Red Party.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—According to the latest returns of the Reichstag election, held yesterday, received by the Wolff Bureau, the Socialists have gained one and lost 20 seats. The Clericals have gained two and lost five seats each, the National Liberals have gained nine and lost an equal number, the Radical groups 40 and the Anti-Semites, the Agrarians, the Poles, the Catholics and the Socialists have entered demands for 75 re-ballots. From these they are not likely to elect 19 members, hence their strength in the new Reichstag probably will be below 60.

The Clericals have demanded about 30 re-ballots, and have chances of being given enough seats to retain their full strength in the new house.

The two Conservative parties have demanded 41 re-ballots, the National Liberals more than 50, the Radical groups 40 and the Anti-Semites, the Agrarians, the Poles, the Catholics and the Socialists probably have increased their total vote nearly from 10 to 15 per cent.

GLOAT OVER SOCIALIST CHECK.

French Papers Regard German Elections as Hopeful Sign.

Paris, Jan. 26.—The Waterloo of the German Socialists in the Reichstag elections yesterday was quite a surprise to France, and while Emperor William's victory was not particularly welcome, some of the serious French papers manifest gratification at the check administered to Socialism.

The semi-official Temps regards the election as a victory for the Liberal classes of Germany as at last turning from the idealism of the Marxists and dogmatic collectivism, with the inevitable class war toward the attainment of realizable reforms thru the Liberal parties.

The Liberté says: "The defeat of the best organized Socialists in Europe marks an interesting step, the defiance of the extreme parties by the people, who are awakening to their true interests."

For years a prominent Conservative organizer in his district he was called to the senate by the Earl of Derby in 1892.

He was a member of the Church of England, and married in 1846 Miss Catherine Graham, who died ten years ago.

A BIG COMPANY, BUT FOR WHAT?

Local Interests in Niagara Power Declare That They Are Not Concerned in the New Power and Transmission Co.

NEW YORK CAPITAL BEHIND IT?

That's One Guess—Or It May Be in Reference to Projects on the Pacific Coast—Charter Cost $290,000.

The Sunday World despatch from Ottawa, announcing the incorporation of a $25,000,000 company with the widest powers in its charter for the development and application of electric energy, stirred up immense interest. It was at once believed that the Niagara Power companies had constituted a merger, but whatever their intentions in this direction those entitled to speak disclaimed any knowledge of, or connection with, the new scheme. The supposition that Pacific coast interests, that Montreal interests, or that New York interests, were concerned was widely canvassed, but no indication could be discovered in Toronto having such a bearing, beyond the probability that New York interests were assumed to be willing to take over the Niagara plants if they could be obtained. It may be taken for granted that the charter is no mere fishing bait. The fees for such an incorporation amount to $200, being $50 for the first million and $100 for each additional million. Even millionaires do not throw away their thousands without a definite object.

The designated incorporators of the Dominion Power & Transmission Co. are all employees of the legal firm of Blake, Lash & Cassels of Toronto. Z. A. Lash, K.C., when engaged for at his residence, was reported out of town. Walter H. Bright, K.C., stated that he did not know anything about it; at all, but did not deny that other members of his firm might know.

Local Interests Not in It.

Frederic Nicholls of the Niagara electric interests is in California on a holiday trip and is presumed to be uninterested, the one suggestion made was to the effect that a huge British Columbia development scheme was floated by Sir Henry Pellatt, who is identified with the Nicholls interests, when interviewed, said he knew nothing about it. I am not interested in it in any shape or form. It has nothing to do with us in any way.

Senator Cox similarly assured The World:

"I do not know anything about it, but what I have seen in your paper. I am not interested in it in any way, directly or indirectly. I do not know anything about it."

While these declarations apparently eliminate any local interests, many people objected to being quoted as being strong in the belief that New York parties were taking the first move in obtaining this charter to acquire Dominion rights over Ontario's great asset—the water power of Niagara.

Connected With Root's Visit?

The visit of Hon. Charles Root last week, it was asserted, was intimately associated with the granting of the charter, and the vista opened up by the prospect of Ontario being helped by New York capitalists acting thru the Dominion government was far-reaching and ominous. An international situation of international politics are intimately engaged. Niagara power and Cobalt minerals are just now the richest booty in the world. It makes ready surprise that they would or would not scruple to do to satisfy their rapacious instincts, those who know the New York plutocrats would be slow to define, but the fate of a Canadian province would be a very small figure in the problem.

Premier on Guard.

Premier Whitney was sought for an expression of opinion, but he had not seen The Sunday World and naturally spoke with reserve.

"This is the first I have heard of," he said. "I have no reason to fear any danger to the province from the Dominion, and do not anticipate any. We are on guard and will look out for anything that would be detrimental to the interests of the people. We have our agent at Ottawa, R. G. Odeur, who lets us know of any bills or other measures affecting Ontario. Probably there is a letter in the postoffice about this matter, which I may get in the morning."

the Modern Way of Organizing
Companies to Lest the Public.

Seldom has a sermon in a city church so interested, and at the same time, seldom has there been heard one the truth of which has been so painfully patent and identified with the daily life of everyone, as that delivered last night by Rev. J. W. Pedley, B.A., at the Western Congregational Church.

His discourse was based on "Come ye out from them, ye who are called, but are not," and "I do not know anything about it, but what I have seen in your paper. I am not interested in it in any way, directly or indirectly. I do not know anything about it."

While these declarations apparently eliminate any local interests, many people objected to being quoted as being strong in the belief that New York parties were taking the first move in obtaining this charter to acquire Dominion rights over Ontario's great asset—the water power of Niagara.

THE OLD AND THE NEW.

"The old method of robbery was, 'Come let us form a gang.' The modern is 'Come, let us form a corporation. Let us get an act of parliament to give us certain powers. WOMAN'S WORLD.

2417—A PRACTICAL COMFORT SACK.
 Every woman enjoys the possession of a sack which goes on easily and quickly and serves as a relief from waists or takes their place for the morning meal. This is a garment which most women fashion for themselves and one of great simplicity is sketched. The sack is semi-fitted and closes neatly in front with buttons or ribbons. A turnover collar completes the neck, while the sleeves are long so that no suggestion of the negligee is apparent. Challis, French flannel, cloth, silk or a washing material may serve for its development, 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch material being needed for the medium size. 2417—Sizes 32 to 44 inches bust measure. The price of this pattern is 10c.

New Trimmings.
 There is a mixture to be found among trimmings which can be initiated by the needle-woman who picks up remnants. Embroidered lawn is edged with imitation Irish crochet lace of various designs. Broderie Anglaise will edge a strip of ecru embroidered muslin galloon. This is effective, especially on the main gowns. Pearl buttons are a favorite addition to the trimming of all these light gowns.

Freshening a Frock.
 A way to refresh an evening waist is by an adjustable fichu. Six yards of simple gathered ruffling is made and attached to a ribbon. It is adjusted just below the décolletage across the back, pinned with fancy pins at the shoulders, and crossed in front, bringing the ends down under the belt. If you like you can attach two long streamers at the ends here, letting them hang down long over the sides of the skirt. This is the simplest and most effective "harmon" that has been invented for freshening an evening dress, and can be made entirely of ribbon, or ribbon and lace, and again of the netting and veiling of the dress. It fits nicely on the simple foundation frame of a

They Cure Constipation
 If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. An address will be given by Mrs. A. O. Rutherford, honorary Dominion president, on the recent world's W.G.T.U. convention in Boston.

Lady Violet Greville has a story of a woman, who, a little Japanese charm given her. Every time she wore it some mischance happened, and she generally fell ill. Her son at last took the jewel to the keeper of the Japanese curios in the Paris museum, and requested to be informed what the charm represented. This he did, and she, at once, "is the emblem of sickness. The woman never wore it again."

PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Hap Ward, for many years before the public as a funmaker, associated with Harry Vokes, comes to the Grand to-night with a new musical farce entitled "Not Yet But Soon."

Composing an important portion of the action of "Not Yet But Soon" are the many musical numbers introduced, including several dainty ballads, abundance of topical songs and many evolutions of the merry, merry chorus. Hap Ward possesses a seemingly inexhaustible fund of odd whistles in the way of "stage business," and all the number names have been meticulously rehearsed under his personal direction. E. D. Starr, who directs the fortunes of the organization, has engaged as principals for Mr. Ward's support Lucy Daly, Fred Wyckoff, John C. Hart, Abe Friedland, Charles (Sandy) Chapman, Robert Evans, Harry Parent, Richard Barry, Martin Merrill and Madeline Buckley.

With seven big scenes in its four acts, each of which is reported to be elaborate and marvellous, "At the Mercy," the latest success from the pen of the well-known playwright, Owen Davis, is making a tour of the principal cities. In this play the story is furnished by Washington Griggs, a York State canal boatman, a gloomy old "Toby," and a Japanese actor, Mrs. Clancy, an Irish woman with a fiery temper, but a big heart, and her son, Terry, and a Hebrew school-teacher, who, through the evil characters in the play, furnishes a great deal of the comedy.

Adele Ritchie, styled "the Dresden china comedienne," and who has been here in several comic opera productions, will be the star attraction at Shea's this week in a repertoire of new songs. The extra attraction will be Valerie Bergere & Co. in the sketch, "A Bowers Camille." Others who will entertain are: Kremka Bros., comedy acrobats, which appears at the Germania; Fortune & Davis, in "My Sweetheart"; Four Bands, marvelous acrobats; Verdon, in "The Gypsy"; and Murphy and Francis, with new songs. As usual, the kineograph will give new pictures.

The seat sale at Shea's for the engagement next week of Mrs. Langtry will open this morning at 10 o'clock. The eternal demand for something new in the way of baubles and novelties will be satisfactorily supplied by "The Avenue Girls," the popular Campbell-Drew Amusement Company's offering, which will open a week's engagement at the Star Theatre this afternoon.

"What made you a thief?" "Circumstances—same thing" that made you a gentleman." Nance Olden, the latest and in many respects the most fascinating of stage thieves, the heroine of "In the Bishop's Carriage," which appears at the Princess Theatre to-night, thus delivers herself, when asked the question what makes her a thief. Miss Jessie Buxley is the heroine of this latest study in criminology. The young actress possesses an intensity and depth of feeling that makes her Nance Olden a woman to be remembered.

Miss McFarland did not appear on Saturday night in "The Little Mich-," her part being taken by her understudy.

 St. Petersburg, Jan. 26.—The Associated Press learns that the declaration of the Russian Government to withdraw its troops from Manchuria in mediation, instead of on April 15, the date fixed in the Russo-Japanese Portsmouth treaty, was owing to a veto request from the Japanese Government, which apparently foresees trouble in the matter of the administration of certain provinces of China.

CUT OFF BY THE FLAMES

FIVE OPERATIVES DEAD
 Exits of Burning Mill Blocked by Employees and Many Jump From Windows.
 Dover, N. H., Jan. 26.—A fire which occurred here to-day cost the lives of five young mill operatives, and caused a property loss of half a million dollars. The fire destroyed Dover's largest factory building, known as Mill No. 1 of the Cocheco Manufacturing Company.

The bodies of four of the boys, charred beyond all hope of identification, were found in the smoking ruins.

Six operatives were injured. Several of these were hurt while saving their lives by jumping down from one end of which they had tied to machinery.

The fire broke out not long after the 500 of more operatives had assembled for their day's work. Friction from a belt generated sparks which lodged in a mass of cotton, quickly causing sheets of flame on the third floor. The operatives on the floor ran to the stairways, but soon all others in the factory became aware of the fire.

The exits presently became blocked by a struggling mass of mill hands. On the fifth or top floor the operatives were mostly boys. It was there undoubtedly that those who were found lost their lives. On the first and second stories the operatives were largely girls. These reached the ground by the stairways. On the third and fourth floors were men. Those on the fourth floor found their way of escape by stairways cut off, and were forced to reach safety by the windows.

The flames spread so rapidly that several jumped without hesitation from the windows, and suffered broken limbs.

PRESSURE ON THE MARKET IS NOT YET RELIEVED
Wall Street Operators Trying a New Line of Manoeuvres—Locals Hard of Sale.

The operations this week on Wall Street show clearly that the modus operandi has been changed. After a prolonged struggle to prices, by means of which the market operators became familiar with a good high range of prices and their absorptive ability fully filled, it was considered advisable to cater for the more wary, or those who never buy on top, and who, in the parlance of Wall-street, are spoken of as bargain-hunters. Last week's collapse attracted the attention of the less venturesome speculators, and the market during the present week has been framed for their especial delectation. A few sharp rallies from the bottom quotations of the end of last week, and then a sagging market, which has served to land those who never want anything except at a discount.

Having undergone an apparent drastic reduction, becomes pertinent to enquire why the reaction started several months ago has transpired. Money, if one is to believe the statistics in this market at all, is decidedly freer now than it has been for several months. The condition of the market, however, might indicate a slackening of prosperity, yet without the sharp rally from last Saturday and refusing to permanently do otherwise. It could not be expected that the selling, which has been the first of the year, could have come from any but the leaders of the market. This being the case, it is certain that the shares disposed of will ultimately be taken back much cheaper than the original selling price. It has also been too difficult to get out shares since 1902 to anticipate that shares once disposed of will again be taken back for a fair consideration. This week's selling has been of the same good character, and unless it becomes necessary to head off a short interest, there is little possibility that this distribution will be again taken back.

The market closed heavy at the end of the week, and in several instances lower than a week ago, notwithstanding the sharp rally from last Saturday's low quotations. The action of securities is very similar to that of 1905, with the exception that the inclinations are not so dramatic. Perhaps the current decline will be explained when it is necessary to reveal the information. When this appears the market axiom, that with the worst known, a rally should follow, might be utilized by those awaiting a spot, or to purchase for a recovery in prices.

Manitoba Grain Act
A HELP TO MONOPOLY
How Independent Shippers Are Handicapped by the Pernicious "System" Enforced in West.

J. K. McLenan of Victoria writes The World as follows:
A train spending a few days in Ontario, I thought it would be well to devote a little of my leisure time preparing a short statement for publication in your valuable columns, indicating some of the methods which at present obtain in Manitoba and the Northwest relating to grain purchases and shipments. I do this with the aim to enlist the sympathy of members of parliament and other influential citizens in the east in behalf of western producers and independent shippers who are certainly facing an intolerable situation, brought about by the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, introducing the objectionable American system of handling grain, which means a piece of Ottawa legislation known as the Manitoba Grain Act, which latter applies only (I don't know why, if it was considered good and wise) to that portion of Canada and its adjacent ports upon which this modern legislation grain in large quantities is decreed, and mixed to a finish by the elevator owners, who, when they grade, then it is loaded, graded, and forwarded to Port William and dumped into bins owned by the elevator owners. This should not be allowed, and the fair arrangement would be to store wheat which has been thus treated by special elevators, and ship it out as special blined wheat. This would give Ontario millers a chance to get the wheat they desire, and which grade would be pure stuff and slightly above the grade which the inspection called for, and would not be playing all-out against the mill of the monopoly-mixer.

Under the Manitoba Grain Act, county elevator owners can, and frequently do, ship out wheat which they receive from farmers, consign it to themselves, and then, under the act, often inflicting control it, and by delaying to deliver, cause considerable loss and inconvenience to the owners of the grain, who are forced to pay for the grain shipped out of elevators the law should provide that it be consigned to the elevator owner, and that the bill of lading be handed over on payment of storage charges.

Under this same grain act, no one can buy a load of wheat on a street market unless he is licensed to do so, and furnish bonds to the amount demanded by his locality for the value of the wheat. This being the case, it can be readily discerned that business falls into the hands of a few, and frequently for small handlers do not care to go to the expense of licensing and bonding. Therefore, the valuable principle of competition is forced, for before this farcical clause was inserted in the Manitoba Grain Act, many country merchants who were interested in maintaining good prices at their market town, would, when the combine were in the market, step in and pick up a few carloads, thus steadying the market. This feature of the said act, has been the cause of considerable loss to the farmer, who has not been taken advantage of when selling his grain to irresponsible buyers; and more money has been lost by farmers under the new regulations than before the change was made, for they have been able to obtain heavy consignments of grain from unsuspecting farmers because they advertised that they were licensed and bonded under the Manitoba Grain Act, but the bonds when put to the test failed to adequately protect the consignee from the loss of the grain. In view of the licensing and bonding, it is suggested in lieu of the licensing and bonding, that any person who failed to pass an examination as to the value of any elevator or warehouse grain ticket or storage receipt or railway bill of lading, should be liable to a fine and imprisonment commensurate to the amount of the grain involved in the transaction; then farmers would have the necessary protection and licensing could be done away with, and there would be no more of the same freedom to engage in the grain trade as in other lines of legitimate business.

Dineen Specials

Bigger and bigger reductions as the season gets farther advanced. Good and true Furs are being sacrificed as recklessly as hats and caps.

This is the way we help along the January demand for Furs:

- Men's $65 Coon Coats Reduced to $48
-Men's $9 Otter Gaitlets Reduced to $3.75
-Men's $7.50 Otter Collars Reduced to $4.75 and other things proportionately. Anyone wanting Furs of any sort will find it distinctly worth while to investigate the present range of values.

Phone Girls May Strike Eight Hour Day Too Long

New Schedule Goes Into Effect on Friday, and if Girls Maintain Present Attitude the System Will Be Tied Up.

The outlook is promising for a general tie-up in the Bell Telephone system in Toronto next Friday, because of the new edict that each girl in the employ of the Bell Company in the city must work a continuous shift of 8 hours per day at an average increase of $5 per month.

The announcement of the new schedule has met with universal indignation among the 600 or 600 girls engaged in the service in and about Toronto, and a vigorous canvass, resulting in a consensus of opinion against the proposition has resulted.

As Friday next was named as the date when the new rule will come into effect, it is altogether probable that on Friday or shortly after a general strike will occur.

month, at the very least, for a girl to become at all acquainted with the work. They not only have to overcome the tendency to get tired when five or six lights flash upon them at the same instant, but they must practically memorize the location of over 6000 numbers, so that they can quickly shove in the connecting plug and be ready for the next call without more than a glance at the board before them.

A rough estimate places the distribution of the girls in the various local circuits as follows: Parkdale 50, North 50, Beach 50, Junction 20, Main, between 200 and 300.
