

ENGLAND.
LONDON.

The right Hon. Mr. Fremantle is to be the new Treasurer of the House, and Mr. William Yates Peet succeeds Mr. Fremantle at the India Board.

There has been a great bustle about the Custom-house, owing to the searchers stopping the shipment of large parcels of coarse linen cloth, under the plea that the exporters have put a false value upon the goods. The goods valued from 9d to 18d. per yard are entitled to a bounty of 1s each yard; the goods in question are by usage entitled to this bounty, but the men in authority state, that such is the depression of trade, that though nominally the goods are worth 8d per yard, yet in the present distress the goods may be purchased under 6d for money, and are entitled only to a smaller rate of bounty. The exporters, without going into the minute detail of what the goods cost, take their ground upon the usage of trade, and as the goods have always been exported with this rate of bounty being allowed, they contend the searchers are exceeding their authority, and putting difficulties in the way of trade, which under the present circumstances of the country are uncalled for, and unjust. According to the measures the Custom-house Officers thus adopt, they may choose in their wisdom to alter the rate of bounty with every trifling alteration of the markets. We are assured if the matter was fairly reported to the Board of Trade, that body would not allow, at this moment, any unnecessary impediments to be thrown in the way of the depressed commerce of the country. It is only the low prices here, and the country allowed, that can give the British manufacturer any chance of competing with the German linens in a foreign market.—London Globe.

FOREIGN.

Greece.—A letter dated Corfu, 2d May, says "The Seraskier is covalent. He has sent for the governor of Prevesa to come to Missolonghi; the latter obeyed him instantly, and his departure has filled the Christians of Prevesa with consternation. They are afraid that the Turks, drunk with victory, may pass from mere insults to new acts of ferocity. There is a rumour at Zante of the recapture of Tripolizza, by the Greeks; but it is not believed. Hydra is a prey to civil war, which, Missalis had returned from his fleet to terminate."

Leipzig Fair.—German Papers to the 7th May, give a lamentable account of the state of Commerce on the Continent. At the last Leipzig fair the number of visitors was only about a fourth of what it usually was. The passports and cards of residence, which generally amounted to 30,000, were this year only about 8000. Above 500 magazines remained closed, because those who formerly occupied them were absent, and the rent was in many places reduced to a tenth of what it used to be.

According to the latest accounts from the Palatinate, the English have purchased large quantities of the wine of the years 1811 and 1822. These purchases are stated to amount to 100 pipes at various prices, from 60 to 80 centimes. This circumstance, and the continued bad weather, which is likely to be injurious to the vines, may perhaps cause a general rise in the prices of wine.

Turkey.—Twenty two ladies of distinction in Nantes have solicited contributions for the Greeks, and obtained 1500 francs in a few days. Concerts have also been given at Tours, Disseldorf, Nancy, Bordeaux, and Amiens.

The King of Prussia has permitted a theatrical exhibition in Berlin in favour of the Greeks, and a subscription to be opened in the Grand Duchy of Sleswig. A committee has been formed at Coblenz.

The total amount of money received by the Greek committee of Paris, from May 16th to 20th, was 51,341 francs; from Jan. 1st to May 20th, 448,033 francs, (nearly 90,000 dollars). It appears to be the intention of Ibrahim Pacha, to march up the gulf of Lepanto towards the isthmus of Corinth, whence he may expect to go to Napoli, and undertake the siege of that place, while the fleet may go round and blockade the port. The Seraskier, it is said, intends to besiege the citadel of Athens, and open a communication with the Negropont, when the Greeks have not made any important progress. The citadel of Napoli is considered impregnable, until by famine. It is said that the Bishop of Missolonghi blew himself up on a barrel of gunpowder, on the entrance of the Turks; and that the Swiss editor of the Greek Chronicle blew his own brains out.—The Turks intended to send 16000 ears to Constantinople, in token of their victory; but not finding so many dead as they expected, Ibrahim sent troops into the country to complete the number, and determined that half the inhabitants of Arta should be included. Such are the enemies the Greeks have to contend with.

CARTHAGENA, May 14.

His Britannic Majesty's frigate Galathea, Capt. Sullivan, anchored in this port on the 14th inst. having arrived in 49 days from Plymouth, touching at Madeira, Tenerife and Lagaira. She brings Sir Alexander Cochrane, British Minister for this country, who it is believed will go directly to the capital, with his secretary and suite. Mr. Dawkins, Commissioner for Panama, also came in her with his two Secretaries.

Extract of a private letter of the 18th inst. from Madrid.—The Duke de Infantado has again sent in his resignation, upon the pretext of visiting his estates in Italy, Germany, and the Netherlands; but it is believed that it will not be accepted by the King. A hope was entertained that the decree of banishment, issued against a great number of the inhabitants of Madrid, would be revoked; contrary to which, however, when least expected orders have been given to the Commissioners of Police of the capital to expel from Madrid all the persons comprehended in the decree issued at Port Santa Maria on the 1st of October, 1825, whose residence in the capital has not been authorized by the King. This measure has spread consternation among many families.

Extract of a private letter from Bucharest of the 9th inst.—Notwithstanding the alleged submission of the Divan to the declaration of the Cabinet of St. Petersburg, the Turks continue to victual the fortresses on the Danube, as if a war was on the eve of breaking out. The Russian forces in Bessarabia are also ready to enter upon a campaign.

Extract of a letter from Havre, June 1. Since the departure of the Lewis, our sales amount again to 2333 bales of Cotton, making altogether, since the 15th ult. 6210 bales—of which 5723 U. S. Cottous, viz. 3310 Georgias and Carolinas, at from 17s to 22s, and 30 bales at 23 sous; 1615 Louisianans, at from 20 to 26 sous. We have received during the same period 20,287 bales from the U. S. and are of opinion prices would certainly decline were we not to receive a continuance of favourable advices from Liverpool.

By the annexed you will remark our imports from the U. S. up to this date are greater than for the whole of the last year. They amount up to 30th May, to 90,801 bags—against 46,359 imported at the same time last year.

A Paris paper of the 22d has the following paragraph:—A new misfortune seems to have fallen on the Greeks. Many letters assure us, that Canaris, who has enrolled his name with the nobles of antiquity, perished in the waves before Missolonghi, with the first ship he commanded. According to the accounts, of which we still wish to doubt, the last moments of this hero were about to be signalized by fresh success against the Turks, when a red-hot bullet caused his vessel to blow up.

FROM AFRICA.—The transport ship Baltic Merchant, Lieut. Luster, arrived in England on the 27th of May, from Africa.

This vessel had visited Sierra Leone, Acra, Cape Coast and Ascension, the latter 5th of April. The settlements at these places had been more healthy than usual. It had been determined to break up the settlement at Hannaboo and Dix Cove. At the latter place the English and Dutch blacks had commenced a war upon each other. Accounts had reached Cape Coast, of the death of Capt. Pearce, R. N. and Dr. Morrison, the companion of that intrepid and hardy traveller, Capt. Clapperton, R. N. who has himself reached Sounden, 160 miles in the interior, nearly in lat. 8 North, and was then descending the North face of the Kong Mountain, on his way to Timbuctoo. The surveying ships Leyce (Capt. Owen) and Baracouta, proceeding on the survey of the Western Coast of Africa.—The Leven had recently completed the examination of the Isles de Los, six in number, about 70 miles to the Southward of Sierra Leone. These ships had tracked the whole coast from the Cape of Good Hope to the Gambia, but had found few anchoring places, not before known; indeed a harbour is hardly to be found on that coast. St. Paul's Decade is a capacious and safe harbour, and is the site of a Portuguese settlement; in it were found a Portuguese frigate, and 48 slave vessels, all loading in the most open manner, under the protection of a large Castle, a fort of 64 guns, and several smaller batteries. The situation is about 10 South. The Leven and Baracouta were fired at in going in, as it is the custom of the Fort that all vessels should anchor outside of the bar, until their force and business are wholly known.

SUMMARY.

Perth, May 18th.—The joyful intelligence of the restoration of Sir Peter Murray Threpland, to his ancient title of a Baronet of Nova-Scotia, was no sooner known to the tenants on the estate of Fingask, than preparations for an illumination on the 10th current were spontaneously entered into; and, on the evening of that day, the effusions of gratitude to His Majesty, and attachment to the family who were the objects of Royal clemency, were most conspicuously by the brilliant illumination that appeared in the windows not only of the farm-houses and numerous cottages on the estate of Fingask, but also of the houses of a populous village in the neighbourhood.

The Mucomer Locks on the Caledonian Canal are now completed. It is officially announced that the navigation from sea to sea would be opened on the 8th inst.

SHIP-BUILDING IN PRUSSIA.

(From the Communication of F. Hoene.) The cost of Ship-building in Prussia are from 240 to 280 florins (£12 to £13 sterling) the Prussian Last, which is equal to 1 2-5th ton British Register.

Contracts have been made this year, for building Ships at fl. 115, to fl. 150 (£5 12s. to £7 10s. sterling) per last without rigging. The expenses of fitting out a Prussian three mast Ship of 414 last (580 Tons) on a voyage to England for three months, are as follows.

Total amount £121 4 5

House of Commons.—On the 9th of May, Mr. Buxton stated in the House of Commons that the slave trade, to the disgrace of the British Government, had been carried on in the Mauritius up to the year 1824. He moved for a committee of enquiry and strengthened his appeal by an affecting picture of the atrocities committed by the slave traders, and the sufferings of slaves in their voyage from Africa. Ministers insisted that the trade had been discontinued since 1814—but allowed the Committee to be appointed so that as Mr. Canning said "no countenance might be given to the calumnies of foreigners."

UNITED STATES.

SCALDING HOT POLITICS. The Ohio Advertiser concludes an article, headed "the next congressional election," in the following terms:

"Let Ohio in particular beware of the traitors who betrayed her cause in 1825—let them to a man reject the infamous seven, who voted for Adams, and against the amendment of the constitution. Let Bartley, Beecher, Sloane, Vance, Whitesey, Vinton, and Wright, that pander of corruption, be consigned to eternal oblivion, and let some honest men be elected in their room—men who will support Jackson for President, who will vote for the amendment of the constitution and who will rescue the congress of the United States from that obloquy and disgrace which the above deluded men were so instrumental in bringing on it."

Lithographic Bank Notes. We have been presented with specimens of designs for Bank Notes, elegantly executed on stone, by Mr. Henderson, of Jersey City, and printed on fine paper, in ink of different colours. As far as we are competent to judge of such a matter, they appear calculated to answer the design proposed, which is, to increase the difficulty of counterfeiting.

The process, of course, has not been communicated to us in its details. We are informed that the inventor is unacquainted with the Lithographic art, except so far as he has become acquainted with it by books, and his own experiments. The appearance of the print is elegant, and it contains specimens of various kinds of writing, from a fine running hand, with about twenty lines to an inch, to large texts and figures. There are also specimens of various lines, sketches of landscapes, &c. Ink of different colours may be used in printing the plates, and white spots, letters, &c. may be mingled at pleasure.

The difficulty of producing imitations of notes engraved in this manner, may be estimated from the following considerations; there are very few persons in this country acquainted with Lithography; the process is in some respects quite different from the common mode of printing from stone; the stones is to be prepared in haste, not allowing leisure for a studious copy; and it is impossible, in the last part of the process, to apply the acid exactly alike in two cases. The inventor declares himself quite incompetent to produce an imitation of his own work which would not be distinguishable by a hasty observer.

CAPTAIN FRANKLIN.

The following is contained in a letter to the editor of the Detroit Gazette, from a Gentleman at the Sault St. Marie, dated April 19.

"The ground is covered with more than two feet of snow, and the river fast held in the embraces of winter. During the winter the weather has been incredibly severe; though the extreme cold, as indicated by spirits of wine, was but 36 degrees below zero. From a correct register of the depth of snow, taken as it fell, we find an aggregate of seventeen and a half feet, and it is now snowing quite fast."

One of Capt. Franklin's party, who is the bearer of dispatches for the Admiralty Office; passed this post on the 2d April, from whom we learn, through the Agents of the Hudson's Bay Company, that Capt. F. reached the shores of the Arctic Sea on the 14th August without encountering any of the Esquimaux in descending M'Kenzie's River, they have retired to their glacial habitations still nearer the magnetic pole. After remaining two days on the coast the party returned to Bear Lake, where arrangements had been made with the Hudson Bay Company, at which place the bearer of the Despatches left them on the 6th of September. Dr. Richards had, in the mean time, been in search of the copper mountains alluded to in the printed Journal.

It is to be hoped that the severity of the weather will not prevent an early movement of the party this spring.—We have reason to believe that the rigor of their winter has been increased in ratio corresponding to their latitude, from the number of Rein Deer that have been seen in this quarter, which would have taken place only in consequence of unusual difficulties in subsisting themselves in a region still more inhospitable than this.

Letters from La Guayra, dated yesterday via St. ... that affairs remained quiet—that making exertions to strengthen himself he had levied a tax of $50,000 per month on the cities of Caracas and La Guayra.

Capt. Dickson, of the ship Triton, arrived at Boston on Wednesday, informs that the Empress Elizabeth, widow of the late Emperor Alexander, of Russia, died about the 10th of May, on her way from Taganrok to Moscow.—Boston Gas.

NEW-YORK, July 5.

The government of the Netherlands has refused its consent to the free navigation of the Rhine.—In its answer to the note of the emperor of Austria, in which it makes this refusal, it insists that it ever stipulated to allow such free navigation, and also asserts that the Dutch expelled the French from Holland by their own efforts, without any assistance from the allies.—The London Courier joins with a German Editor in characterizing this assertion as "ludicrously absurd."

Letters from Danzig to the 10th May, received in London, on the 30th; stated that wheat had advanced about 5s. per quarter, in consequence of the expectation of orders from England, but the markets were then dull, those expectations not being realized.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The city of Kano, the great emporium of the kingdom of Housa, in Africa, is celebrated for the art of dying cotton cloth, which is afterwards beaten with wooden mallets, until it acquires a japan gloss. The women dye their hair with indigo, and also their hands, feet, legs, and eye-brows. Their legs and arms, thus painted, look as if covered with dark blue gloves and boots. Both men and women colour their teeth a blood red, which is esteemed a great ornament. Both sexes eat snuff, mixed with troma, but men only are allowed to smoke tobacco.

Fluency of Speech.—The common fluency of speech, says Dean Swift, in many men and most women, is owing to a scarcity of matter and scarcity of words; for whoever is master of language, and has a mind full of ideas, will be apt in speaking, to hesitate in the choice of both, whereas common speakers have only one set of ideas, and one set of words to clothe them in, and these are always ready at the mouth.

A young fellow was extolling a lady's beauty very highly, and one of his companions allowed she had beauty, except that she had a bad set of teeth.—"Very true," said the first, "but she is a fine woman, in spite of her teeth."

Prayers and proverbs never hinder any man's journey.

TUSCANY.—If the comfort of a people is a sign of a Government well administered, one would conclude favourably of this one. Instead of eating oats as the Scotch, or potatoes as the Irish, or rice and potatoes mixed, as the Dutch, the common people here eat a delicious wheaten bread, which is a small fraction more than three shillings a pound; the dearest meat, real, is five times that price; and wine that I like to drink, is not more than three pence a bottle at a tavern. The family which cultivates a farm enjoys by usage half the produce, and cannot be removed without leave of the Government. To be merry is the character of the people, and with a little industry, they may seem happier than we are to be met from the nature of their institutions.—Co-operative Mag. No. 3.

THE DUKE OF WELLSBOROUGH is a tall, well-proportioned man, with a sun-burnt complexion, and a large Roman nose. His name creates no more sensation in London, than if he had gained his rank by any of the common place stations of wealth or influential connections. He has so far lost the sense of principle and shame, as to forsake his wife, to associate with an opera dancer. All the spoils of his continental campaigns have been lost at the gaming table, and he has sunk the hero in the subject character of a pensioner, and syphilitic at court. His compeer in crime, the Marquis d'Angles, sea wholost a leg at waterloo, is a most interesting looking personage. His handsome face, and commanding figure, all seemed and gilded by the casualties of war, present to the observer a living representative of Plutarch's heroes.

Not having received any European intelligence later than that contained in the last number, we are under the necessity of condensing the extracts, and of confining our observations to the day's paper within very narrow limits. To furnish an opinion as to the issue of the mercantile interests of France is a task to which we consider ourselves incompetent. Indeed can any benefit arise either to them or us, from the practice of commenting upon the misfortunes of the times—that they are bad enough in fact too notorious to be denied, but let us hope for the best, and we trust, that that day is not far distant when the revival of Commerce blended with that active and enterprising spirit, which for centuries past, has characterized the mother country, will have the happy effect of increasing the sources of industry, and of diffusing happiness among those who are its objects, whose condition under the present pressure of the times, cannot but be truly wretched.

On Sunday morning the Lord Bishop of Nova-Scotia proceeded to Carleton pursuant to public notice, to consecrate St. George's Church in that Parish, and to hold a Confirmation therein. The consecration took place, as usual, before Divine Service commenced, and was conducted with the customary solemnities. Prayers were read by the Rev. Mr. Gray, Rector of Trinity Church, and a Sermon from Exodus 3d and 4th appropriate to the consecration, was preached by the Rev. Mr. Carter, Rector of Carleton. The Lord Bishop read the Communion Service, and after having confirmed 182 persons his Lordship addressed them from the pulpit in a most able and impressive manner. The Church was crowded to excess; indeed many persons were obliged to retire from the place, from the impossibility of gaining admittance into it, while numbers were obliged to stand during the whole Service. We have been informed that the becoming and serious deportment of the congregation, the silence and good order preserved in so crowded a building, and in particular the devout appearance of those who came to him for Confirmation, drew from his Lordship a very flattering expression of his approbation.

After the Service, the following Address from the Corporation of the Church, was presented to his Lordship—
(COPY)
Address of the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestry of Carleton.

May it please your Lordship,
We the Rector, Churchwardens and Vestry of St. George's Church in the Parish of Carleton, in the City of St. John, beg leave most respectfully to offer a humble address to your Lordship, on your first Episcopal visit to your Diocese, and to add to the general declaration, the expression of our heartfelt attachment to the pure and Apostolic Church, to which we have the honor to belong, and to your Lordship in particular, as the Bishop appointed to watch over us.

We are well aware, my Lord, that it is no costly offering which we thus presume to make, in the scale of Parishes we occupy but a very inconsiderable station. It is only very lately, as your Lordship knows, that we have become a separate Parish, and have consequently been but a short time in the enjoyment of the advantages of a regular administration of the offices of Religion, with which other Parishes have for a long time been blessed. If, therefore, my Lord, less has been done by us hitherto than might have been expected, we trust that it will be attributed chiefly to the unfortunate circumstances in which we have been placed, and we beg your Lordship to accept the assurance we now offer, that nothing shall be wanting which can be effected by the most cordial and affectionate co-operation between Minister and People, aided by the blessing of God upon our endeavours, to render the Church within our narrow limits, as flourishing as our general poverty will admit, and ourselves deserving of your Lordship's approbation, and the continued patronage of the Venerable Society.

Permit us, my Lord, in conclusion, to offer to your Lordship our grateful thanks for your kind intercession in our behalf, with the Venerable Society, to which under Divine Providence, we are indebted for the religious benefits we now enjoy, and to assure you, that our Prayers shall ever be offered up to Almighty God for a blessing on your labours for the prosperity of the Church, and for your Lordship's long continuance in the elevated station to which you have so deservedly been raised.

His Lordship replied as follows:—
Gentlemen, I do not doubt that you are pleased to take in the congratulations, with which I have been honoured, since my arrival in New Brunswick. Although your Parish is of recent establishment, its present promise is of the happiest character. The assurance of your cordial and affectionate co-operation for its welfare, and for the prosperity of the Church, is very gratifying; while your earnest exertions and the success that has already attended them, are the best pledges that can be given for the sincerity of your assurance, and the usefulness of your co-operation.

For the humble part I have had in recommending the appointment of a Missionary for Carleton, I am very amply rewarded by the kindness of the Venerable Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, in making such appointments; and by the comfortable hope your efforts con-

...that their benevolent objects will be fully attain-
...That a blessing may always attend your Church, your
...and the Parishioners whose you administer, is my
...current prayer.
JOHN ROYALTY,
July 25, 1826.
The Rector, Churchwardens, and Vestry of
St. George's in the Parish of Carleton.

A Collection in behalf of the Society for Propagating Christian Knowledge, and for the benefit of the National School in this City, was made in Trinity Church on Sunday last. It amounted, we understand, to £22, a sum worthy of the benevolence of the Institutions for which it was intended.

We are happy to learn that our respected Governor His Excellency Mr. Howard Douglas, his amiable Lady, and Daughters with Captain Douglas, A. D. C. who were hence in His Majesty's Ship the Niemen, for Halifax, have arrived at that Port. We wish, with the Community at large, their safe return to this City.

The removal of the 81st Regiment to this Province, affords us the highest gratification, and we hope that their arrival here may be welcomed with that same demonstration of friendly feeling, which their departure from Halifax seems to have excited regret.

The 82d Regiment takes their place, and in taking our leave of them, we assure both Officers and Men that their conduct while in Garrison here, has been such as to entitle them to the sincere good will of the community at large.

"Caught in the train which thou thyself has laid."
DREDEN.
Mr. Young husband,
Having observed in the Star of the 11th and also of the 18th inst. a communication, signed "John C. M'Pherson," respecting to the public, what he was pleased to term a statement of facts, (but which if he had called a combination of falsehoods, he would have called by the right name,) I wish, through the medium of your paper, to present to the public, a real statement of facts, as they actually occurred.

How far Mr. M'P.'s designs are selfish, I will not pretend to say, but that they are malicious, and proceed from an evil inclination, every discerning mind will easily perceive.

I will not follow Mr. M'P. through all his absurdities and inconsistencies, but will content myself with taking notice of a few of the most glaring. And first, when he asserted that the commencement of his transactions with me, was in the year 1822, he must certainly have forgotten himself very much, for in the year 1819, he agreed with me for the premises I now occupy, for five years, at the rent of £100 per year, and according to agreement took possession of the said premises on the first day of May, 1820. The first year's rent went on and was to be settled with me, but some time in the year 1821, an arrangement was made between Robert W. Crookshank, Sen. Esq. Mr. M'P. and myself, by which Mr. M'P. agreed to pay to Mr. C. £80 per year, out of the £100, and the balance of course was to be settled with me, which arrangement continued for two years, but business about that time being on the decline, Mr. M'P. complained that the rent was very high and said that he could not afford so much; I then lowered the rent to £70, per year, £60 of which Mr. M'P. was to pay to Mr. C. and the remainder to myself, which arrangement continued two years longer. How far Mr. M'P. has performed his agreement with Mr. C. will fully appear by the following statement. The amount which Mr. M'P. ought to have paid Mr. C. for the four years, was £280, of which sum, he has only paid Mr. C. according to Mr. M'P.'s own statement, which I have now in my possession, £137 11 6; and the balance not having been paid according to agreement, has operated very much to my disadvantage. The next, and most serious charge which he brings against me, is, not having rendered him my account, for that seems to be the whole ground of his complaint, and of this controversy, but even that is groundless, as my account has been rendered to him long since, which I can substantiate. In order, (as Mr. M'P. says,) to prove the fallacy of my statement, made in the Star of the 27th of June, he has thought proper to publish a letter from Mr. James A. Clare to me, but many persons have furnished rods for their own backs, and this letter, I think, will operate the same way with Mr. M'P.—About the 18th day of June, 1825, Mr. M'P. promised to pay Mr. C. the amount of a joint note held by the said J. A. C. against us both, dated in 1822, and Mr. C. being then satisfied went home holding the said note, and Mr. C. shortly after wrote me the letter referred to; I immediately on receipt thereof, delivered it to Mr. M'P. considering him the person who was to pay the amount thereof according to promise, which he did not then, or any time afterwards refuse to do, and when Mr. Clare came down Mr. M'P. being unprepared to pay him the amount of the said note, we took it up, by giving Mr. Clare two joint notes for the amount, which notes not having been paid by Mr. M'P. according to promise, were, when they became due, proceeded on and judgment obtained against us both. Mr. M'P. also mentioned another circumstance, (as he says, intimately connected with the transactions,) but certainly his memory must be very treacherous, because part of the conversation which he says took place about three o'clock on the day his Goods were seized, actually took place some weeks previous, in consequence of the Plaintiff's Attorney, after judgment had been obtained, having had several consultations with us at his Office upon the subject of an arrangement, without putting the Law in full force against us; and upon acquainting Mr. Swymmer that it was impossible for us at that time to pay the amount, in consequence of the Bank having ceased discounting, he made a proposal to us, that if we would agree to pay the costs of the suits, he would write to his Client, who was then at Richibucto, and urge him to allow us three or four months for the payment of the debt, which we both thought very kind and lenient on the part of Mr. S. To this proposal we both agreed, and in consequence thereof, I paid over to Mr. S. ten pounds on account of the Judgments, fully expecting that Mr. M'P. would pay a similar amount, as Mr. S. observed, that it was not very probable his client would grant us the indulgence before mentioned, unless he was first indemnified from all costs and charges; and it will not therefore, I think, require much penetration in any person to perceive, that I made the payment above stated, on Mr. M'P.'s account, and for his individual benefit, and only to prevent the Executions from being put in force against us, as Judgment was necessarily taken against us both; and this I think will be a sufficient answer to Mr. M'P.'s query. Mr. S. having allowed us until the following post day to comply with his proposition, on that day called upon us to know whether we intended to accede to it, and I then made the aforesaid payment, but Mr. M'P. then declared that he could not then raise any money. Mr. S. then asked him what he would do if the Sheriff came I to which he replied, that he would not help it, but did not pretend to deny that the amount was to be paid by him; and Mr. S. and I, and I, when a Gentleman came and acquainted me that Mr. M'P. had been speaking to some of his friends, and said that he was going to give up all the Goods he had to his Creditors, in order that he might evade the Executions against us. In the afternoon of the same day, I called upon Mr. S. and made him acquainted with what I had been told, and requested that he would immediately issue the Executions against us, which he accordingly did, and I took them myself to the Sheriff's Office, and told him what I have above stated; but I deny having ever told the Sheriff, that Mr. M'P. was secreting his goods, in order that he might defraud his creditors, as Mr. M'P. has stated.

It is at all times a painful circumstance, to be compelled, through the medium of the Press, to explain or vindicate transactions which take place between private individuals, and I am sure, the public will do me the justice to acknowledge, that I have on this occasion, in a manner, been dragged before them, to answer statements which ought never have been suffered to appear in the columns of any Newspaper, and to defend myself against charges, as false as they are groundless.

It has been observed, and wisely, that a man who undertakes to relate occurrences, which have taken place at a remote period, ought to be blessed with a correct memory, lest out of his own mouth he condemn himself. Impressed with this moral sentiment, I have not ventured to present myself to the public on this occasion without adducing other evidence than that of my own oral statement; and in order to show the nature and truth of the transactions between Mr. M'P. Mr. Clare, and myself, I beg leave to introduce the following document.

City and County of St. John, SS.
JAMES A. CLARE, of the Parish of Sheffield, in the County of Sunbury, maketh Oath and saith, That in or about the month of June, 1825, it was agreed between Robert Robertson and John C. M'Pherson, that if the said Robert Robertson would take up or take the said John C. M'Pherson's name from a Note given by them to one Whitehead Barker, which was accordingly done, that the said John C. M'Pherson would pay this Deponent a Note signed by the said John C. M'Pherson and Robert Robertson in the year of our Lord 1822, in favour of this Deponent. And this Deponent further saith, That in fall of the said year 1825, the said John C. M'Pherson not having paid the said Note, the said Robert Robertson and John C. M'Pherson gave their joint Notes for the said amount, and payment of the old Note, and took it up; and the said Notes not having been paid by Mr. M'Pherson according to promise, this Deponent caused a Prosecution to be commenced against the said Robert Robertson and the said John C. M'Pherson, for the recovery thereof, and that it was at his suit, and for the payment of the said Notes, the said John C. M'Pherson's Goods were levied on and sold by the Sheriff of the City of Saint John.

JAMES A. CLARE.
Sworn this 6th day of July, 1826, before John M. Wilson, J. S. Having, in my own opinion, satisfactorily refuted Mr. M'P.'s charges, I beg leave to withdraw from the presence of the public, where I never should have thus publicly appeared, except in vindication of my own character, and as a parting word to Mr. M'P. on this unpleasant controversy I would recommend the advice of Polonius to his son.—"But above all, to thine own self be true, and it must follow, as the night, the day, thou canst not then be false to any man."

I am, Dear Sir, Your's respectfully,
ROBERT ROBERTSON.
