KEEN INTEREST IN BRITAIN ON VOTE HERE

EFFECT ON EMPIRE IS EXPECTED

Politicians View Election From Two Different Angles

DECISION HOPED

Influence of Canada on Policy of Imperial Conference Is Factor

By HERBERT BAILEY

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The searchlight of the British Empire and of Europe generally is upon the Canadian elections...

British politicians are viewing it from two distinct angles. In the first place, they hope to prove decisive in giving to one party or the other a substantial majority by which a stable government can be carried on and Canada's future prosperity assured.

DECISIVE VOTE HOPED

It has been remarked that the unstable government in Canada for the past four years as compared with the stability which the United States enjoys is certain sooner or later to bring comparisons between the two systems of government and under these a period of freedom from election to a while, it is emphasized that the continual interruptions in the life of the country will mean an economic loss which the other country must share.

IMPERIAL RELATIONS

The mother country and Europe particularly, are also viewing the election in its probable effect on imperial relations. The constitutional issue attached to Lord Bynoe's action is now regarded merely as an episode of the present election, but with Australia and New Zealand determined to pursue a policy of closer unity in the imperial conference and with South Africa desiring equal status in all things with the mother country, it is felt that Canada's representative will have a decisive influence in finding out a way by which the Dominions can progress as parts of the Empire without unduly disturbing the present relations.

CANDIDATES ARE CONFIDENT ON EVE OF VOTING

Local Contestants Express Views on Possible Results in Tomorrow's Battle

Liberal and Conservative candidates in Saint John-Albert constituency today expressed the utmost confidence in the outcome of the polling tomorrow for their respective parties.

CONSERVATIVE VIEWS

THOMAS BELL, Conservative candidate, said: "I have no doubt that the electors of Saint John-Albert will honor Col. MacLaren and myself tomorrow. From sources of information I have been able to obtain, I feel confident that Premier Meighen will be returned to power with at least 18 seats. MacLaren King cannot possibly obtain a sufficient number of Liberal supporters to confer on him a complete majority for now is fine weather to get out the vote."

LIBERAL EXPRESSIONS

R. T. HAYES, Liberal candidate, said: "The issues in the present campaign have been clearly defined from the start and it is for the electors to decide now. Both Mr. Ryan and myself have received most encouraging reports from all sides and we have good reasons to hope for victory."

WILLIAM M. RYAN, Liberal, said: "I feel the tide is running strongly on the right side by sending two supporters from this riding. Mr. Hayes and myself have had a great deal to encourage us in the closing hours of this campaign and the result is going to be a surprise to our friends on the opposite side. If elected, we shall endeavor to represent this historic constituency as supporters of a strong, progressive Liberal administration at Ottawa."

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS FOR ELECTION DAY

Points to Vote in Connection With Federal Balloting Tomorrow

Tomorrow, being election day, the following information for voters is supplied by The Times-Star: Each voter may vote only at one polling station and for only one candidate, unless two members are to be returned for the electoral district, in which case he may vote for any two candidates as he thinks fit. In Saint John-Albert any two of the four candidates may be voted for. The voter will go into one of the compartments, and, with a black lead pencil there provided, place a cross within the white space containing the name of the candidate for whom he votes; thus: X. The voter shall then fold the ballot paper so that the initials and stamp on the back and the number on the counterfoil can be seen and the counterfoil detached without opening the paper; he shall then return the ballot paper so folded to the deputy returning officer, who, on being satisfied of the fact, will give him another. If a voter voted for more candidates than he is entitled to vote for, or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he can afterwards be identified, his vote will be void and will not be counted. If a voter fraudulently takes a ballot paper out of the polling station, or fraudulently delivers to the deputy returning officer to be put into the ballot box any other paper than the ballot paper given him by the deputy returning officer, he will be disqualified from voting at any election for seven years thereafter and be liable, if he is a returning officer, election clerk, deputy returning officer, poll clerk or other officer engaged in the election, to imprisonment without the alternative of a fine for a term not exceeding five years and not less than one year, with or without hard labor; and if he is any other person, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years and not less than one year with or without hard labor.

DE RIVERA IS FEARFUL ABOUT MORE ATTACKS

Afraid He Will Be Overthrown as Dictator; Dwells in War Ministry

REUTERS' DISPATCH. HENDAYE, France, Sept. 12.—Fear that he would be overthrown as dictator of Spain before he could reach New York caused Primo De Rivera to announce that he would not visit America. This was the opinion expressed here Sunday. Not only is De Rivera believed to be concerned over the status of his dictatorship and the general attitude in Spain over the present plebiscite, but there is evidence as well of fear that further attacks might be made on his life. It had been noticed in Madrid that the guard around the Ministry of War, where the Premier prefers to live, has been reinforced. De Rivera is said to have chosen the Ministry of War as his dwelling because he feels safer there. The second day of the plebiscite in Spain was marked by political uneasiness, according to reports from Madrid. Indeed, the general state of mind of the Spanish people is said to be of a feverish pitch. It is difficult to see what success the proposed National Assembly can have in view of the Spanish politics. More tables were put on the sidewalks Sunday to accommodate those who were signing in favor of De Rivera's rule and many women, all wearing their Sunday clothes, appeared to add their names to the list. These were the only noticeable features of the plebiscite. Interest in the voting appeared to be on the wane, despite the fact that the government agents, through posters and personal visits to homes had urged the people to vote. Many people flatly refused to accept the plebiscite blank while others threw them away immediately after they had read them. Some claim that if the real results of the voting are published they will be surprising.

To-day—a time of ceaseless activity and enjoyment for your child. A time when to-morrow's men of affairs are taking the first steps in their physical and mental development. To-morrow beckons. Those who are prepared will share in its golden opportunities. Physicians and school authorities agree that the child's success in school and afterwards depends on his physical development during the early growth years. During this period he must get simple foods that provide the elements for growth, especially protein, the all-important tissue-building material. Quaker Oats with milk provides 23% of a child's daily requirements of protein. It also supplies the essential vitamins and minerals, and a tender coating of bran.

A letter was received at the Admiral Beatty Hotel yesterday morning from the manager to locate Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Floyd of Arlington, Mass., who were on a motor tour in a Hudson car and who were en route to Saint John from Halifax, and notify them of the death of sister Clara and the funeral would be held on Tuesday afternoon. Manager A. H. Peters, of the Admiral Beatty, immediately notified the detective department at police headquarters and the officers notified all garages and hotels in the city. Last night Mr. Floyd arrived at the United Garage in Duke street, when he was notified that the detective department had an important message for him. He called at headquarters, where the sad message was delivered to him.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 13, 1926.

THE EXHIBITION.

Comparisons are, of course, misleading unless it can be assured that conditions are identical; nonetheless the promoters of this year's Saint John Exhibition may congratulate themselves on the manner in which people turned out to support them.

Observers, heretofore unacquainted with Saint John crowds, remarked on the good humor of those who attended the fair. This is a pleasing commentary on local disposition.

WHAT THEY MIGHT DO.

A somewhat more definite goal for the Canadian Clubs of this country has been suggested by Mr. Edgar Tarr of Winnipeg. In his address to the delegates at the annual meeting of the association of Canadian Clubs in Ottawa last week he suggested that the goal should be "the unity of all parts of Canada."

Mr. Tarr tells these clubs that they do not yet realize the possibilities of the movement, that they have little idea as yet of its potential strength.

He very truly says that this is not to be accomplished by any policy marked by too much caution about offending the susceptibilities of the people at large, whether these problems be described as sectional or not.

Certainly the way to both tolerance and understanding is to be found along the lines of which Mr. Tarr has spoken. "The Canadian Club is a fine institution," says the Citizen, "but it has yet to realize its highest aims."

SOVIETS FRILLS DO NOT SATISFY RUSSIA'S WORKERS. By F. J. RAMSEY. American Y. M. C. A. worker in interview on recent return from tour of Russia.

RUSSIAN workers are dissatisfied in spite of the many "frills" introduced by the bolshevik. Wages are no higher than under the old czarist regime and after all it is wages that determine the worker's attitude.

One finds much to praise and much to condemn in Russia today. Private ownership is recognized now. Peasants have the right to sell their farm products and buy what they desire.

A mammoth program of education is under way. Universal education of children is being brought about and tens of thousands of adults are being taught. The soviet hopes to increase literacy from 20 per cent. of the population to 80 per cent. within ten years.

Women in industry are given equal rights and pay with men. An expectant mother is given two months vacation with pay before birth of the child and an equal period afterward. She receives a state dote during the infancy of the child for its support.

Every worker is given two weeks' vacation with pay and free transportation to one of the many national rest camps. These are generally at a beautiful country estate formerly belonging to some rich nobleman or bourgeoisie.

On the other hand, there is no personal, political or religious freedom in Russia. The espionage system is worse than under the czar.

Banishment to the exile regions of Siberia is still the punishment for political offenses. I was told that these regions now contain more prisoners than in czarist times. All publications are under the thumb of the bolshevik.

Although the communist party numbers less than a million members, its rules are absolute. All nominations to office are made by the party. Voters can only choose between two communist candidates.

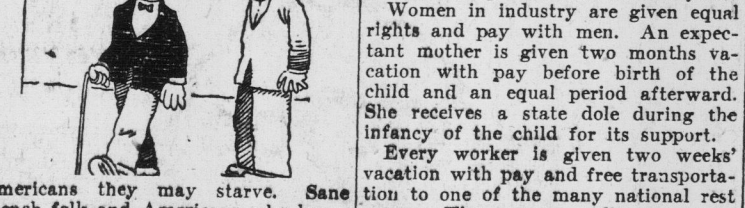

From my personal viewpoint, one of the greatest offenses of the soviet is the teaching of anti-religion. Children are taught atheism in the national schools and anti-religious posters of the most bitter nature dot the bulletin boards of the country.

Since that time he has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Birmingham. Under the plan outlined by Fidas, of which the American Legion is this country's member, Mr. Saxton goes to Poland for the prime purpose of promoting, among the students of his chosen school, better understanding and good feeling for the United States among the youths of Poland.

"I have chosen the University of Warsaw, at Warsaw, Poland, and will remain there for the next year. In the event of a change of the government, as it is here, I am planning to go from there to England for summer school work next year."

Withdraws Charge After Oshawa Crowd Asks "Who Paid for Delegation?"

OSHAWA, Ont., Sept. 12.—"Who paid for the delegation?" This was the question which was shouted from the audience again and again here Saturday afternoon at Mr. Mackenzie King's meeting.

CHEERS AND BOOS

The Liberal leader's reference to the new prosperity in the city of Oshawa was greeted with general applause and cheers.

A reference to the tariff advisory board brought boos from those who did not subscribe for some time.

"I don't know one from another in this crowd but there is one name down there who is very noisy and I'm told his name is Sandy Brown," declared Mr. King.

"That man nearly stole my home last spring," shouted the man named Sandy Brown, flourishing a list in Mr. King's direction.

"I don't know what he means," said Mr. King, "but if the gentleman ever finds himself without a home he can come to Ottawa and visit me."

"There was some applause and Mr. King continued, 'I am told on the platform that Mr. Brown, thanks to the prosperity of this community, has just bought a new home.'"

"The Oshawa delegation of last spring was spoken of at length. In the capital, said Mr. King, the Oshawa people had been courteously received. He himself had promised to come to Oshawa."

"I said then that no man would lose a dollar or lose his job in Oshawa as a result of any change. I have fulfilled that pledge."

In answer to persistent questioning as to who paid for the delegation, Mr. King took up the reference he had made at Campbellton, N. B., to the delegation. He had told there of how difficult it was for men in the basic industries to get up deputations to come to Ottawa.

"I said that it was not a question of numbers or of demonstrations, but of the facts of the case. I did make a reference to big interests as having an advantage in bringing about demonstrations. I referred to big interests as having advantages which you as a worker have not."

"I may have used in the form of an interrogation 'who paid?' I made no reference to the McLaughlin Company or to manufacturers of such and such. If any other interpretation has been put upon my remarks I say that that interpretation is wrong."

Mr. King was prepared to accept as true the statement that every one from Oshawa had paid his own way.

STATEMENT HELD UNMITIGATED LIES

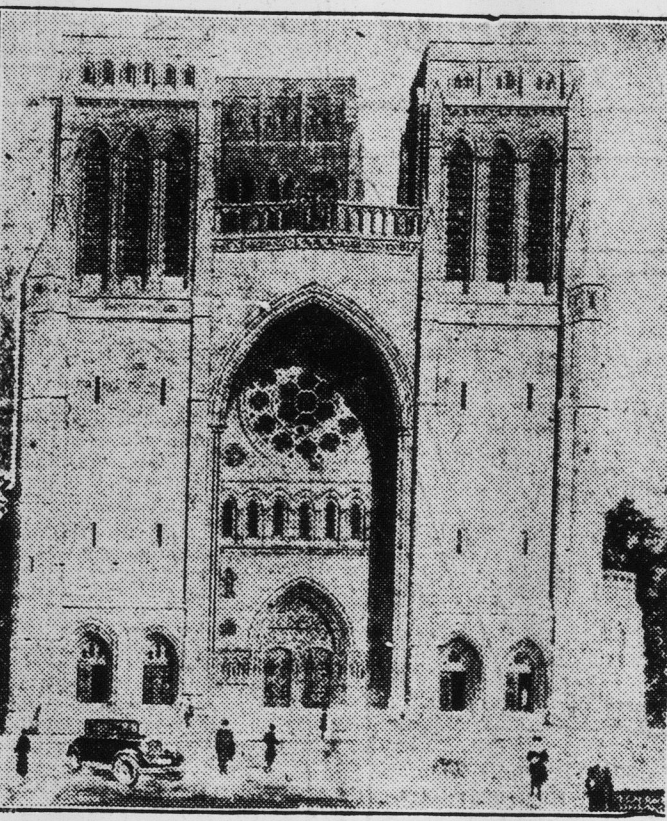

Stevens Replies to Story That He Was Read Out of Party by Paper

VANCOUVER, Sept. 12.—"The whole statement is a tissue of unmitigated lies," declared Hon. H. H. Stevens, Minister of Customs last night when his attention was drawn to the statement of Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King in Ottawa last night when the Liberal leader was reported as having stated that Hon. Mr. Stevens had been "read out of the party" by the Province, "the newspaper which is supporting Mr. Stevens in Vancouver."

"The whole statement," Mr. Stevens concluded, in reference to the Liberal leader's remarks, "is a tissue of unmitigated lies."

Deaths

George McDonald. George McDonald died in his 70th year, in this city, on Saturday, having been in failing health for the last two years.

Mr. McDonald was one of the city's ablest and most outstanding business men and until two years ago had been one of the directors of W. H. Thorne and Co. Ltd. As a young man he had joined with the late Senator W. H. Thorne in 1878 and his remarkable executive ability, foresight and aptitude in business proved invaluable in the development of the hardware business.

Mr. McDonald was held in the highest regard by his associates. He was a firm and was specially beloved by the younger men entering the firm's employ in each and all of whom he took a very kindly personal interest. His charitable acts and benevolences were many and can never be reckoned for they were quietly and unobtrusively done, known only to those he aided.

Mr. McDonald was born in Saint John and had lived practically all his life in the north end of the city. He is survived by his wife, who was formerly Miss Taylor, and by two brothers, Charles McDonald, of the Saint John Iron Works, Ltd., and Arthur McDonald, formerly of the Bank of New Brunswick, who is now retired and resides near Liverpool, England. Arthur McDonald was a visitor in the city this summer, but returned to England some weeks ago.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from his late residence, 4 Holly street.

Mrs. George G. Watson. After a lingering illness, Mrs. Eleanor Hamm Watson, wife of George G. Watson, passed away at her home at Hampstead on Sept. 12, 1926. She was a daughter of the late Stephen and Mary Hamm, of Hampstead. She is survived by her husband, one son, Charles Dunn Watson, of Hampstead, and one daughter, Mrs. T. C. Ledington, of Saint John. She also leaves two sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. F. C. Stull, of Hampstead, and Mrs. David S. Culley, of Yankers, N. Y. The brothers are John Hamm, of Shrewsbury, N. J., and Charles B. Hamm, of Toronto.

The funeral will take place from the residence at Hampstead on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 15. The service will be at 2 o'clock at the residence and at the church at 3 o'clock.

Miss Hannah Cronin. The death of Miss Hannah Cronin, after a lingering illness, which she bore with much patience and fortitude, occurred Saturday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Fitzgerald, 289 King street east, with whom she had made her home.

She will be deeply mourned by very many friends. About seven weeks ago she had the misfortune to fall and fracture her hip and the injury developed fatally. Mrs. Nevins was born at Lanark, Scotland, and was a daughter of the late John and Isabel Allan. She came to Canada when only five years of age. She was a faithful member of St. Luke's church and was of a very kindly and sweet disposition highly regarded by all who knew her. She was remarkably alert and active up to the time of the accident. SIR H. THORNTON MARRIES MISS MARTHA WATRISS

Head of Canadian National Railways Weds at Jamestown

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 12.—At the beautiful estate of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wetmore, at Long Point, on Chautauque Lake, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Wetmore's daughter, Miss Martha Watriss, of New York City, was united in marriage with Sir Henry Thornton, chairman and president of the Board of Directors and president of the Canadian National Railways. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by Rev. Alfred E. Vonstille, minister of the Unitarian church of Jamestown, in the presence of members of the families and a small company of intimate friends.

The bride wore an exquisite formal afternoon gown of ivory lace over ivory chiffon, and satin fashioned with long flowing sleeves. Her flowers were an armful of orange blossoms. She also wore a platinum bracelet set with diamonds, the bridegroom's wedding gift. Her slippers were of ivory satin to correspond to the shade of her wedding costume. She was given in marriage by Mr. Wetmore. The bride's gift to Sir Henry was a jeweled cigarette case.

At the close of the marriage service, the bride received the guests with her husband, after which a wedding luncheon was served. Sir Henry and Lady Thornton left here later for a short honeymoon to Virginia, after which they will take up their residence in Montreal. The bride wore a smoke-colored going away gown, with wrap and hat to correspond, and furs of blue fox.

Lady Thornton is a daughter of Frederick Watriss, of New York City. She is a Bryn Mawr woman and a graduate of Rosemary school in Greenwich, Conn. She left college at the age of 19, with the Red Cross, with which she did constant service, continuing with the allied armies of occupation in Germany until six months after the close of the war. She is a member of families long prominent in both New York and Philadelphia.

Sir Henry was a Major-General in the British army during the world war, at which time he served as director of inland transportation for the allied armies. He was decorated by all of the allied governments, including the United States, and was knighted by King George during the war. He is, however, an American, having been born in Indiana.

CAMPAIGN FINISHED BY LIBERAL LEADER

Interruptions Are Mostly Friendly Ones at Wind up of Tour

OTTAWA, Sept. 12.—Finishing his election campaign where he began it nearly two months ago, Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King addressed a mass meeting in Ottawa Saturday night. It is the last big meeting of his campaign.

There were some interruptions but they were mostly friendly ones. Mackenzie King reviewed the record of his government and urged that under a Liberal regime the Dominion had been able to reduce the tariff, the income tax, and its railway liabilities, and in addition had reduced the national debt. He had just come, he said, from Oshawa, where he believed he had been able to persuade the citizens that the Liberal government, which was accused of having "ruined Oshawa for three days," perhaps knew better what was good for the auto industry than some people who had complained the most.

ROYAL FAMILY LOSES FARQUHAR HOLDINGS

Depreciation in Estate Makes Them Worthless; Fortune Was Thought Large

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Sunday newspaper News of the World prints a story of large financial losses to members of the Royal Family through the depreciation of the estate of the late Lord Farquhar, who died in August, 1925. Lord Farquhar was a friend of King Edward, and most of the other Royal personages, and he was supposed to have left a large fortune, mostly in bequests to his Royal friends, Princess Arthur of Connaught and Lady Maud Carnegie were especially mentioned.

The paper declares that Farquhar's affairs have been found so involved that these bequests cannot be paid, and it is believed that Princess Arthur and her son, the Earl of Macduff, are thereby losers to the extent of about £200,000.

The estates of the late Duke of Fife also are said to be involved through Lord Farquhar, joint trustee for them with the Princess Royal, King Edward's sister, who after the Duke's death had to sell valuable pictures and furniture to supply certain deficiencies.

K-VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 12.—"When it was announced that eastern financiers had obtained an option on Canadian National property at New Westminster," says a dispatch from that city, published yesterday by the Vancouver Sunday Province, it was revealed that "Montreal interests plan to erect a $4,000,000 cold storage plant there, it will be one of the largest in Western Canada."

Dr. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, is said to have pledged his support to the project.

Rowell Says Liberals Only Dependable Party

Canadian Press. SARNIA, Ont., Sept. 12.—In his only platform speech of the present political campaign, Hon. N. W. Rowell, K. C., told an audience Saturday night that only the Liberal party could give Canada the stability of government the country needed. He spoke in support of W. J. Goodinson, Independent-Liberal candidate in Lambton West.

"It simply can't be done," he said, of the Conservative claim to ability to establish stable government. "The people must put in the one party that can do it, and that is the Liberal party."

The Old Bachelor Torn Between Love and His Duty to His Widowed Mother—The Foolish Wife Who is Jealous of Her Husband's Business Interest—Why Passing Up the Parlor for the Cabaret Makes Girls Old Maids.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a bachelor 32 years old, and live with a widowed mother of 76 whom I support. Six months ago I met a very attractive woman of 48 that I want to marry. My mother is willing that I should marry this woman but she insists upon keeping the entire management of the home in her hands, while naturally this lady, should she marry me, would want to be the mistress of her own home. My mother has a very domineering spirit and would never consent to this.

DOROTHY DIX

So it is no wonder that you send out an S. O. S. call for help, and I only regret that I cannot give you some magic formula for solving your difficulty. Of course, it is easy enough to see how it should be solved. Your mother should graciously abdicate, and turn over all authority to your wife. The commonest gratitude and appreciation of all that you have done for her demands that she should not stand in the way of your happiness.

You have given her years of devotion. You have sacrificed your life to her. You have always supported her, and the least that she can do to repay you is not to stand in your sunshine. But, if she is like all the other domineering old women I have known, that view of the matter will not appeal to her. She will sit fast where she is, and hang on to her keys with a death grip and offer you up to her love of bossing things, without a quail.

It is nothing to her that she is blighting your last romance, and keeping you from marrying a woman who would make you a tender and loving companion. It is nothing to her that when she dies she will leave you homeless and lonely unless you marry now. For the sake of being the mistress of the house, and having everything done exactly her way, she is perfectly willing to sacrifice your happiness.

So don't look for your mother to make the gesture of renunciation. She won't do it. There's nothing so self-centred and selfish as age. None who cling so fanatically to every power as the old. There remains, then, but for you and the woman you love to make the best of a bad situation and submit with what grace you can to the treat on your knees.

Naturally every wife wants to be the head of her own establishment. Especially does the woman, who marries late in life, crave the pleasure of building the nest she has waited for so long.

But in a case of this kind it seems to me that, if she really loved the man, she would be willing to marry him, and stand aside and leave the old lady in possession of her much-coveted authority as long as she lives, which can't be many years.

But what an unenviable position the old put themselves in when they make those about them look on their death as a day of freedom!

DEAR MISS DIX—My sister is married to a splendid man, kind and generous, and a model husband. He has a fine business, but it is such that his hours are irregular, and often he is late for dinner. This infuriates my sister, Jack says that he works and that it doesn't fire him, no matter how hard it is, but that it takes all of the life out of him to come home and find my sister cross with him.

Don't you think it is wrong for a wife to interfere in her husband's business? TROUBLED SISTER.

ANSWER: I certainly do. It is a fatal mistake for a woman to make, and one that costs her dearly for it nearly always results in her losing her husband, or her wrecking his business and losing her social ticket.

There is nothing more unreasonable than the attitude that so many women who are interested in their husbands' work. They seem to be jealous of it and to ignore the fact that this hated rival provides them with the comfortable living, and the good clothes and cars about which they are so keen.

Yet you will often hear an otherwise intelligent woman speak of her husband's office in tones that might be in referring to a vamp she suspected of stealing him away from her. And when a man pleads business as an excuse for not doing something his wife wants him to do, she plainly indicates that she doesn't believe him, and suspects him of trying to establish a false alibi.

Millions of silly women, such as your sister is, refuse to recognize that a business man can not control his time, and so they raise righteous every time husband fails to punch the home time clock on the dot.

A man's career is the big thing in life to him. That is if he amounts to anything. He wants some woman to talk it over with, some woman who is interested in his plans, and hopes, and with whom he can discuss them endlessly, if he can't do that with his wife, if she hates his "old business," he either slumps and loses his own interest and ambition, or else he finds some woman who doesn't regard what he is trying to do as the dream of a crank and talking shop as the greatest bore on earth.

As for the wife who is willing to blight her husband's career for the sake of a few burnt potatoes, she doesn't deserve to have a go-getter husband. And Heaven pity him!

DEAR MISS DIX—I am very much attracted by a pretty young woman, and she has invited me to spend the evening in her home. Always when I arrive she has her hat on, ready to go out to some place of amusement, and I am about beaten out by this "battle of the shows." We have never acquainted. The girl's alibi for always being on the go is that her parents ship-on-the-wing is wearing me out. Don't you think girls make a mistake in not giving men a chance to see what sort of friends companions they would make? And would that sort of a girl ever be willing to settle down and stay at home of an evening?

One of the reasons why there are more old maids now than there were in our mothers' time is because the girls have passed up the parlor for the cabaret, and men don't pop the question in public places. It's the quiet evening by the droplight that turns a man's thoughts to matrimony, not the mad rush from place to place. For, after all, what a man wants in a wife is some one to stay at home with, not some one to step out with.

The Days of Progress

BEHIND THE SCREEN

Count Ilya Tolstoy and Edwin Carewe.

By DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 11—Anything with a foreign atmosphere, "get by" in cinema circles these days. European directors and actors have invaded this country in hordes until now a plethoric must have a foreigner connected with it in some manner or it just naturally "ain't."

Perhaps that's the reason Edwin Carewe brought Count Ilya Tolstoy, son of the late Russian novelist, Leo Tolstoy, to Hollywood. Carewe will start production on the famous writer's "Resurrection." But to be doubly sure the picture would have the proper alien slant he induced Count Tolstoy to sign a contract as an advisor.

What Tolstoy's duties will be he had to say. But at least he will enjoy a fat pay check and Carewe will capitalize on a great extent upon his name.

Here is Carewe's version of why he signed Tolstoy in an advisory capacity: "Count Ilya Tolstoy was in constant association with his father during the writing of 'Resurrection' and is well versed in all the interesting and historical episodes of the story. I feel I have achieved something really clever to receive all the glory!"

WORTH while for the film industry in gaining the consent of Count Tolstoy to enter the movies. Also the count's knowledge of the story I am about to produce will be of great value.

Whether or not Carewe is right remains to be seen, but his little speech certainly sounds as if it contained liberal portions of the so-called "hot air."

In the first place, Carewe will be setting an entirely new precedent in cinema circles if he conforms his picture to the book.

Then too, while Count Tolstoy probably has a great knowledge of the book—which anyone could have by reading it carefully several times—he knows nothing whatever about producing motion pictures. His "official" advice will mean little as it will be accepted or disregarded according to the whim of the director.

Count and Countess Tolstoy were given a tremendous greeting on their arrival at the film capital—but would that greeting have been the same had they been "Mr. and Mrs. Smith."

Producers are loudly proclaiming motion pictures as the greatest educational influence in America. If that is the case, why not give them a 100 per cent. Yankee air instead of bringing in foreigners to receive all the glory?

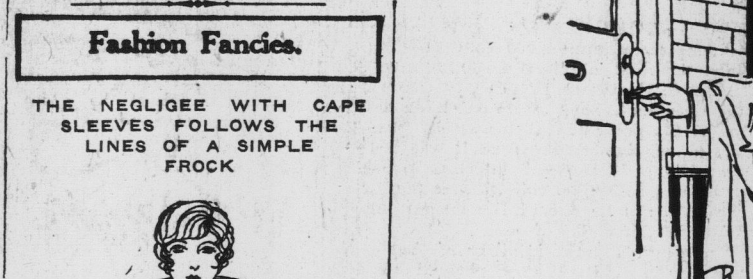

A Thought

THE NEGLIGEE WITH CAPE SLEEVES FOLLOWS THE LINES OF THE SIMPLE FROCK.

Embroidered hatlets in cream tint is used for the simple negligee above, with its edges and cape sleeves, finished in bands of black satin.

The surplus neckline and the cape sleeves give the garment the appearance of a modish frock, as is the way with a number of the negligees of the moment.

For cold weather this idea could be copied in flowered wool challis, with or without a lining, the color bands accenting the main color of the flower design.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaels
I saw an old, dim house upon a hill,
A weather-beaten, bare, deserted place;
No laughter ever sounds across its sill,
Its windows never frame a smiling face.
No laughter echoes through its fading walls, and in the phantom of a garden plot no ray of voice ever lightly, brilliantly calls within the bounds of that concealed spot. And yet, not wholly desolate seems the old house that conceals sun-kissed hill, for it is haunted by the haunts
of the past.
Within the old, dim house upon the hill which some might pity for its loneliness, throng happy memories to bless it still, the pride of Beauty and Youth's

Rev. Robt. Smart Says Farewell to His Westfield Flock

WESTFIELD, Sept. 12—Closing a pastorate of nearly ten years, the longest in the history of the Methodist church in the Maritime Provinces, Rev. Robert Smart said farewell to his congregation in the Westfield church this evening and delivered a memorable sermon. Accompanied by his wife and daughter, Mr. Smart is leaving on Tuesday for a year's vacation which he will spend at his former home in England.

At the close of the service in the Westfield church last night Arthur Kirkpatrick, of Hilldale, on behalf of the congregation, made the presentation of a very substantial purse of money to Mr. Smart and read a highly complimentary address expressing appreciation and good wishes.

DESTROYING FLOWERS.

A complaint was made to police headquarters shortly after Saturday midnight by a citizen at 225 Pitt street that three young men were destroying the flower garden on the premises. Officers went to the scene in the motor patrol but on their arrival the men had departed. The same garden was entered a few nights previous and some flowers stolen.

BRITISH PATTERN URGED

This Advice of Administration Typed by Lord Darling at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Sept. 12—Canada can do no better than pattern her administration on that of Great Britain, declared Rt. Hon. Lord Darling, British peer and member of the Privy Council, interviewed at Government House where he was a guest yesterday.

Questioned on his views of capital punishment he said emphatically that he would not abolish the supreme penalty. "I do not know Canada's viewpoint, but I think it would do well to follow the British courts."

Travel Heavy As Tourists Return

Travel was heavy at the Union depot over the weekend. The outgoing Boston train had 16 coaches attached and took around 600 people back to the "Hub." The Halifax express, which arrived at 6:50 o'clock Saturday evening, brought between 500 and 600 people, tourists who have been holidaying in Nova Scotia and P. E. Island.

These passengers connected with the Boston train and the steamer Governor Dingley, also Boston bound. Between 300 and 400 people left on the Dingley.

MEIGHEN, HECKLERS CLASH AT WINDSOR

Premier Predicts Gains in Every One of Canada's Nine Provinces

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 12—In its opening moments, Premier Meighen's meeting at Windsor last night gave promise of a lively evening. But, for the most part, the premier minister made his speech with comparatively little interruption. Yet there were hecklers in evidence.

"What about Stevens' conduct?" questioned one, in reference to Hon. Sir H. Stevens, minister of customs. "Mr. Stevens' conduct is as honorable as that of any man in the city of Windsor anywhere in Canada," retorted Mr. Meighen. "I want to discuss real matters affecting the public and not the conduct of a minister."

PETTY POLITICS

"What about De Witt Foster," called out another. "I thought there would be some petty politics," Mr. Meighen returned. "Ten years ago, Mr. Foster was re-elected in a report by Mr. Davidson, appointed by the Borden government. As a consequence, he was asked by Sir Robert to resign his seat. He did so and took his punishment."

PREDICTS VICTORY

"I have now traversed the whole of the nine provinces," Mr. Meighen declared, "and most of the 245 counties in those provinces and I think you will agree that the Conservative Party is not in the habit of vain boasting. Therefore I take the responsibility of saying this—every word of which I mean—the swing of victory is with the Conservative Party in this Dominion." (Applause interrupted Mr. Meighen's statement.)

Expected to Tell Plans For Secret Strike Vote Measure

LONDON, Sept. 12—Restriction of the present legal powers of trade unions brought about by the lessons learned through the general strike and all that led up to it are expected to be announced when Premier Baldwin addressed the National Unionists' conference in Scarborough on October 7. The government proposes that picketing shall be stringently restricted so as to prevent intimidation, that secret ballots shall be taken before any strike is called, and that levies from trade unionists for political purposes shall be made illegal. There is a stern determination in government circles to take steps to prevent such chaos as occurred during the great strike from ever being renewed.

SUMMER UNION CHURCH PLAN IS BROUGHT TO END

Large Attendance Marks Resuming of Service in Own Churches

REV. J. S. BONNELL SPEAKS OF BALLOT

Rev. J. Dunlop Begins New Pastorate—St. David's Hall

All of the city congregations which had united for the summer months met separately yesterday and for many of the Sunday schools was the season's formal reopening.

Rev. James Dunlop entered upon his pastorate of the Charlotte street Baptist church yesterday and large congregations were present both morning and evening to hear his messages and extend a hearty welcome.

He made a strong appeal for recognition of the sacredness of the polling booth and the ballot, and stated that the saddest sight in the world was men and women made in the image of God selling themselves like sheep and ozen and bartering away the priceless privilege of free people. Mr. Bonnell stated that a party newspaper had come to him in the mail filled with vituperation and stinging invective against the opposing party and he asked if the day would ever come when politicians and partisan presses would realize that a man might hold a differing opinion without being either a rogue or a fool.

Mr. Bonnell stated that it would help to restore the people's faith in political parties if there was some recognition of the honesty and integrity of their political opponents. The prophet had received a call to service, Mr. Bonnell said, and had offered his life as a prophet and a statesman. Mr. Bonnell contrasted Isaiah's self-effacement with the many speeches in parliament intended merely for the ears of the constituents of the public works carried out merely to catch votes.

He stated also that a man had come to him more confused and puzzled after having heard the political speeches and said that he thought it better not to vote at all. But that would leave the government of the country to the bootlegger who would be sure to vote. Mr. Bonnell said that at least it was possible to know the man for whom the vote was to be cast and be sure that he was a man of Christian character and integrity.

If a church member voted for a man whose life and influence was directed against the Kingdom of God he should not repeat the Lord's prayer, Thy Kingdom come, as that would be unparadigmatic blasphemy.

REVS. JAMES DUNLOP ENTERED UPON HIS PASTORATE OF THE CHARLOTTE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH YESTERDAY AND LARGE CONGREGATIONS WERE PRESENT BOTH MORNING AND EVENING TO HEAR HIS MESSAGES AND EXTEND A HEARTY WELCOME.

He delivered forceful sermons and also made a special announcement to his flock. He stated that he did not wish the pulpit or church to be a vaudeville or picture show or concert room. It would be a school of Christ for bible exposition and a temple of God for worship.

He had the joy of sharing the fellowship of the ministers of West Saint John and did not purpose trying to build up any branch of the work at the expense of any other church. He would rather go down to defeat than steal sheep from other men's pastures.

The church was very beautifully decorated with flowers and a full choir of 20 voices led the singing. In the morning Mr. Dunlop took for his text Hebrews 13:8, and his theme was "The Christ of Today." He said it was the historic Christ who had blessed little children, healed the sick and comforted the bereaved, but the historic Christ could become the Christ of experience today. What Christ had done that He could do and faith could transfer the historic Christ into immediate life and experience. In the evening Mr. Dunlop took for his text I Timothy 1:11, his theme being "The Gospel of Today." That gospel, he said, was of a happy God suited to the present day. It was glorious in history and glorious in experience and cast a halo of glory around the future.

AT ST. DAVID'S Rev. Hugh Miller, pastor of St. David's church, occupied his own pulpit again after his vacation yesterday at both morning and evening services. He was welcomed by good congregations.

In the morning his subject was the essentials of religion. In the evening he spoke of living on the heights. "It was a challenge to live the life for which we were created," he said. "In every soul there is a recognition of the good, and a divine urge prompting us to attain it. All progress is the result of striving after the best, that which we have not already attained. It is the secret of civilization as seen in discovery, knowledge and a spiritual life. We may live on the heights of love, service and sacrifice, or on the lower plains where they in their magnitude and power are not realized. Christ has revealed the highest call as to it."

The minister stated that he had hoped to be able to state the date of the dedication of the new Sunday school memorial hall but unfortunately it was not possible to do so. He has presented to make it next Sunday. The work is rapidly progressing. The hall will be the largest in the city and the most modernly equipped church hall in Canada. There will be an up-to-date stage for young people's work, ladies' parlors, badminton courts, gallery, a modernly appointed kitchen. It will be one of the finest monuments erected by any church since the war.

RECTOR'S STALL IS DEDICATED A rector's stall, a very handsome piece of workmanship, was dedicated in St. Jude's church at the morning service yesterday by Rev. J. H. A. Holmes, the rector. It has been presented to the church by Mrs. T. Albert Linton, in memory of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Amour Court, who died last March. Mrs. Linton also presented a nicely bound prayer book as part of the memorial gift.

EMBER DAY SUNDAY. Ember Day Sunday was observed in the Anglican churches of the city yesterday and special prayers for the clergy and for those who are studying to enter the ministry were offered. Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of this week will also be observed as Ember days.

HOLY NAME MEN PARADE PLANS ARE ANNOUNCED

Societies Will March From Cliff Street Next Sunday Afternoon

SERVICE TO BE ON ST. PETER'S GROUNDS

Mission in Holy Trinity Opens—Cathedral Picnic Returns

Plans for the parade of the Holy Name Societies of the Catholic churches of the city were announced at the masses yesterday. The procession will be on next Sunday afternoon, starting from Cliff street at 2:30 o'clock and proceeding to St. Peter's church grounds, where there will be a sermon preached by a Redemptorist Father, followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The members of the Holy Name Society of each church which has a branch of the organization will meet at their own church and march to the general meeting place in Cliff street, where each will be given a place in the procession by the grand marshal. The City Cornet Band will lead and the line of march will be: Cliff street to Waterloo, to Union, to Mill, to Main and thence to St. Peter's church grounds.

The singing at the service there will be under the leadership of St. Peter's choir with the other choirs also and the general membership taking part. Processions of the Holy Name Society are held in many other cities but this will be the first one in Saint John.

A two weeks' mission for the congregation of Holy Trinity parish opened last night when the first mission sermon for the women was preached and the church was thronged with a deeply reverent congregation. The mission is being conducted by Franciscans from the New York House of the Order, Father Daniel and Father Paul. The mission for the women will continue throughout this week with services each morning at 8:30 and 8 o'clock and each evening at 7:30.

The men's mission will be in progress next week. The mission for the children is being held this week also and the children's services are at 8:30 p. m. on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

PICNIC RETURNS It was announced in the Cathedral yesterday that the net returns of the Cathedral Sunday school picnic held at Fort York last month for the benefit of the Catholic orphans amounted to $1,449.22. There will be three fast days this week, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, the Ember Days of September.

MEIGHENS' PLANS. TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 12.—An announcement was made here that Premier Arthur Meighen will not speak in Montreal tonight, as was expected, but will deliver his final appeal to the electors in Coburg, this evening.

INGRAHAM WINS ROSS CUP RACE FROM A. BELVEA

rowed from No. 15 Berth, Sand Point, and when they arrived at the starting line there was some delay, while the oarsmen dumped the water out of their boats, having shipped the same during an easy row up the harbor. The men joked about the condition of the course but made no objection to row the race. When they lined up it was thought that before the boats started they would both be swamped before they got very far away.

At the start both crews got away on even terms and the spectators witnessed one of the best fights seen in Saint John for many years. The crews were very even down the course and rowed towards the western shore for another water. When off Sand Point the Halifax crew had a very slight lead but found worthy opponents in the McGinnis crew, who were rowing strong and were doing wonders in an old unsuitable boat, being much too light for such heavy men.

The Micmas reached their buoy first and had just started to turn when the West Enders reached their buoy. The Micmas had a slight lead on turning and started straight home for the finish line, while the McGinnis crew were farther in towards the West Side wharves. The West Enders were right along with the visitors and when passing Navy Island were on even terms. It was a wonderful rowing battle to witness and the excitement was keen.

When about 800 yards from the finish line the McGinnis crew appeared to have a slight lead over the visitors, but when six or eight lengths from the finish the Micmas put all they had in a spurt and crossed the line only one-quarter of a length ahead, the bow of the McGinnis boat being even with the bow oarsman of the winning crew. The time for the race was 10 minutes 3 seconds.

When the two boats finished the boats were full of water, the oarsmen splashing in the same as they were sliding on their seats. The McGinnis crew were obliged to dump their boat, while the Micmas were obliged to get into a rowboat to save sinking.

The make-up of the crews follows: McGinnis—R. Butler, J. Smeltzer, G. Gammon, O. Sawyer. McGinnis crew—Walter McGinnis, Harry McGinnis, Edward McGinnis, Walter Lockhart.

ON THE RANGES J. T. Downey, with a score of 100, won the "A" class spoon at the weekly spoon shoot held by the City Rifle Club on the range Saturday. F. Boyaner was awarded the "B" class spoon. An unexpected light at 600 yards and a fairly strong wind during the evening made conditions only fair.

On next Saturday the City Rifle Club will send a team to Sussex to defend the Moncton Challenge Shield at a shoot there. Saturday's scores follow:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Score. J. T. Downey 100, Yds. Yds. Yds. 71, I. L. Star 88, A. S. Emery 81, I. F. Archibald 81, A. A. Dodge 82, J. F. Emery 27, H. N. Hamilton 81, F. Boyaner 29, G. F. Cochrane 28, M. B. McFarlane 28, J. McGowan 27, J. English 25, D. Spence 29, R. Seely 22.

EXHIBITS AWAY TO SHOWS ELSEWHERE

Management Well Pleased With Results of Saint John Fair

The aftermath of the Exhibition today consisted chiefly of a steady procession of draft vehicles carting away industrial and mercantile exhibits, a general cleaning up of the littered grounds and the concluding phases of the bookkeeping belonging to the executive offices where Manager H. A. Porter was attending to final details. A trainload of exhibits on Sunday, and another trainload went westward to the Woodstock fair, to follow after that with the Fredericton show. The Williams pile shows were packed aboard a private train at the Mill street siding late Saturday night, and got away 8 o'clock Sunday morning, being erected immediately upon arrival at Woodstock.

PROVINCIAL STANDING

In the table of winnings-Prince Edward Island is well to the front with seven winning groups to a total of $1,869. Nova Scotia comes second with six winning groups and $1,646. New Brunswick is third with seven winning groups amounting to $1,238.75, and Quebec has two winnings with $239. The winnings of $119 by A. V. Gibson of Moncton in the poultry department is considered by the Exhibition officials to be a remarkable accumulation of prize money for an exhibitor to win, as the awards on the birds are not large in each individual case. Similarly the winning of $124.75 by F. E. Smith, a Long Reach farmer, for his vegetable showing is considered a high mark and very creditable indeed.

UMBRELLA PRESENTED

Saturday proved a red letter day in the eyes of the many orphans in the city. The Knights of Pythias, the Knights of Columbus and the directors of the Saint John Exhibition united forces to give the youngsters a good time and to say that they had the time of their lives would be putting it mildly. In connection with the entertainment of the orphans at the Exhibition on Saturday afternoon, the presentation of an umbrella was made to Ben Williams in acknowledgment of the generous treatment given the little ones at the amusement places of the fair. The presentation was made by C. T. Jones and W. M. Ryan, representing the Joint committee of the Knights of Pythias and Knights of Columbus, who were in charge of the pleasurable visit of the children to the fair. The committee also expressed thanks to the automobile and truck owners, who gave the use of their cars and to the Exhibition management. A. V. Gibson, of Moncton, informed The Times-Star last night that his youngster fell about what he seen of Broadway goes stale when a feller's hair gets thin an' gray—yes, sir, HIRAM

SEE THE FALLS

At high tide the water of the Bay of Fundy reaches a higher level than the water of the Saint John River runs up river.

At low tide the water in the Bay becomes so much lower than that of the river, that the fall of water is reversed and flows down river into the Bay.

At half tide, when the level in the Bay and River are about equal, the water at the Falls becomes smooth as the water should be seen at all three stages.

As Hiram Sees It

THE SETTLEMENT. I didn't get down to the exhibition this year. Hanner says that's one reason why the police didn't hev much to do. She says it would ave took two or three o' them to keep me from hevvin' my pockets picked. Hanner don't know it all—at that. A tick feller tried to fool me last year on them blankets—but I stood right there an' held up business till I got 'em. I didn't hev no pillowcase to help me, nuther. Most o' the folks from The Settlement keeps their boots an' went down—an' some o' 'em picked up an' ide or two that ort to do 'em some good. I was talkin' to a young feller from the Back Settlement—he was the fust time he ever went to town. He'll talkin' about it all winter. I'd like to hev been at his elbow all day—fer I mind the fust time I ever seem'd to town an' Murray's—more'n fifty years ago. They used to travel through the country there days. Say—after I'd seen that there circus an' menagerie an' I'd drink o' pink lemonade—I wouldn't call the king my uncle. I calculate this exhibition was somethin' like that. The's a lot o' 'thrills somethin' like that. The's a lot o' 'em we only get once in a lifetime—an' I git sort o' envious when I hear a wide-eyed youngster tellin' about what he seen of Broadway goes stale when a feller's hair gets thin an' gray—yes, sir, HIRAM

MILKMAN'S CAR IS WRECKED IN PARADISE ROW

H. A. Smith Escapes Injury, But Harry Forestall Is Hurt

H. A. Smith, a milk dealer of Red Head, and Harry Forestall, son of Harry E. Forestall, escaped serious injury this morning at about 10 o'clock when Mr. Smith lost control of his automobile in traveling down Millidge street to Paradise Row. The car struck and broke off a hydrant and ran into the corner of St. John Baptist church, but caused no damage to the building. The Forestall boy was thrown through the windshield of the car, receiving several small cuts about the face and head. He was taken into Wason's drug store, his injuries cared for, and then taken to his home; and Mr. Smith, who received no injuries, said that he had started down Millidge street when young Forestall jumped on the running board of the car. He reached out to pull him into the seat and in doing so lost control of the car. The car had a mudguard and wheel torn off and the engine badly smashed. The car, which was in the back seat of the car, was lost. People who saw the occurrence give Mr. Smith much credit for getting the boy into the car under the circumstances, and probably saving him from serious injury.

The committee then considered the matter of the wharf and to see that it was kept in good condition so that they could continue to use it.
