BROWNING AND BRIDE FACING NEW TROUBLES

Question of Legality of Marriage License Is Raised PROBE ORDERED

Action To Have Cinderella Girl Taken From Mother Pending In Court

NEW YORK, April 13—Edward W. Browning, 51-year-old estate operator, and his 15-year-old bride of three days were back again today in Cold Spring, N. Y., the scene of their marriage, with trouble from a new quarter threatening their honeymoon.

Special District Attorney Ryder, of Putnam County, has announced that an investigation will be started to learn whether they violated the county's laws requiring a six month's legal residence before obtaining a marriage license.

The young bride already is under summons of the Children's court here in an action started by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, seeking to have her removed from the custody of her mother, as an unfit guardian.

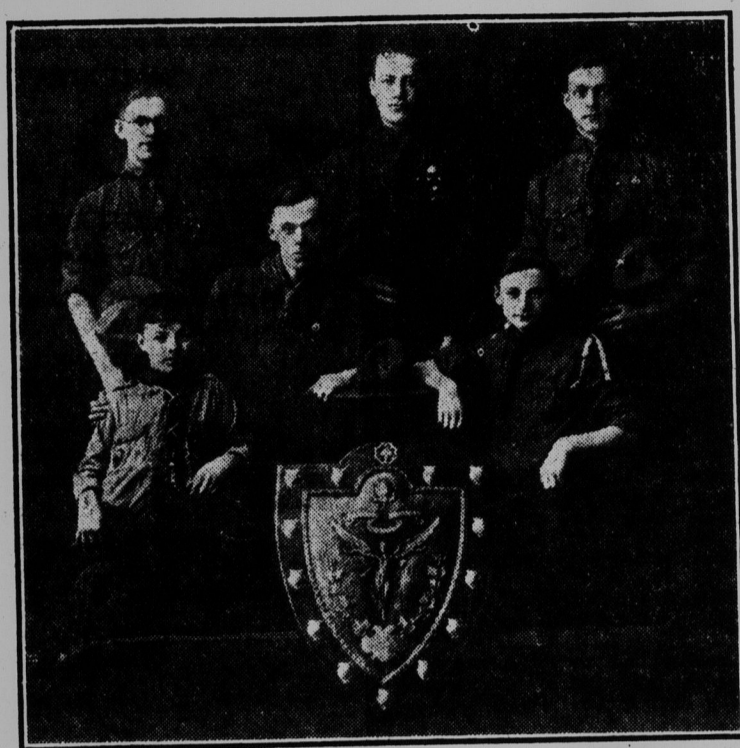

PERJURY IS HINTED. Mr. Ryder said perjury charges would be possible if it were found that Mrs. Browning swore to six months' residence in the county, whereas she had been there only a couple of days before the marriage.

BY SEPARATE ROUTES The Brownings left this city together last night for Cold Spring, and their 10 room "honeymoon house" specially leased by Browning. They had come here by separate routes yesterday morning.

When they separated northward in an automobile late last night, accompanied by the bride's mother, they intended to go to Montreal, but changed their plans at Yonkers, where the bride complained of feeling ill.

Earlier in the day she had visited the doctor, who treated the burns from acid, which she said before the mar-

GETS PISTOL PERMIT. It is known yesterday that a few hours before his marriage, Browning had transferred real valued at $10,000 to a corporation he controls.

He declined to comment on the motive for this, but his associates pointed out that the transfer was in accordance with his real estate practice.

Upon his arrival in this city, in the morning, Browning had first gone to a license bureau, where he filed his application for the renewal of his pistol permit.

He obtained authority to carry a pistol about a year ago, when he alleged a man tried to blackmail him.

ORE RICHER AND COSTS LOWER THAN ONTARIO

Kingston Investigator Speaks of Work In Nova Scotia PLACES TROUBLE

Wrong Mining Laws and Lack of Hydro Power Held Up Activities

Canadian Press HALIFAX, N. S., April 13.—That gold mining in Nova Scotia would cost less than in Ontario, and that Nova Scotia low grade ore is richer than that to be found in the other provinces, were statements made here by C. J. Murray, of Kingston, Ont., who is in Nova Scotia investigating gold mining and the possibilities of undeveloped mines.

"Gold mining in Nova Scotia," said Mr. Murray, "has never had a chance. GIVES REASONS.

"First, because of the absolutely wrong mining laws which made the claims so small that it encouraged individual operators, who could not possibly make a success. Secondly, because of the lack of hydro electric power; coal and wood are too costly as a source of power. And thirdly, gold mining practices were wasteful and utterly inefficient."

Mr. Murray declared that mining men in other provinces are gradually recognizing the opportunity of gold mining in Nova Scotia, where, he asserted, costs would be lower than they can ever be in Ontario.

South Gate Made Speeders' Paradise

LOS ANGELES, April 13.—The motorists' millennium has arrived in South Gate, a suburb of Long Beach.

There the automobile driver may speed his machine as high as 60 miles an hour without fear of arrest. But he who drives slower than 35 miles an hour is subject to arrest, and pedestrians do not dare to cross the street.

When travelers enter South Gate, they find Long Beach Boulevard, the main thoroughfare, divided into the street and channeled lanes. The middle lane is for speeders.

It is said of the few pedestrians in South Gate that when they want to visit friends across the boulevard, they go by way of Pasadena, 25 miles distant.

DORCHESTER, April 12.—William Green, of Meadow Brook, accused of being the receiver of stolen goods, was sent up for trial at the June session of the County Court by Magistrate C. G. M. Chapman, at the adjourned preliminary hearing here this afternoon.

P. J. Murphy, of Moncton, conducted the prosecution and James C. Sherren, of Moncton, for the defense. No witnesses were examined today.

The case arises out of a series of breaks in Sheldrake, and one of the points in Westmorland county last summer for which two men are now serving terms in Dorchester penitentiary.

MISSING SPANISH AIRPLANE IS FOUND Fier and Helper Abandoned Machine in Palestine, Proceeding on Foot

CAIRO, April 13.—The missing aeroplane of Captain Estevan, leader of the Spanish aerial expedition, which has Manila in the Philippine Islands as its objective, has been found intact about 100 miles from Amman, in Palestine.

Estevan and his mechanic had abandoned the craft, but they left a note attached to it, saying they would make their way on foot through the desolate region to Amman.

Estevan has been missing since Sunday, when he became separated from the two other fliers of the expedition, Captain Lavie and Captain Galazara on a flight from Cairo, Egypt, to Baghdad. Lavie and Galazara reached Baghdad safely. The absence of Estevan from his squadron was noticed shortly after the fliers had passed over Jerusalem. British planes immediately set out from Amman to search the desert for Estevan. They found his plane this morning near the air route from Cairo, but about five miles north of the actual mail route. Estevan, his flier and one-third the distance between Cairo and Baghdad.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., APRIL 13, 1926.

THE MAYOR-ELECT.

The people of Saint John have done something for Doctor White, the Mayor-elect; but what they have done is something that they will be proud of themselves at the same time—little in comparison with what he can do for them.

There was already on foot a movement intended to cause the electors to compare the Commission form of government with the Council-Manager plan, and the ward system, and perhaps with modifications of all these.

It was known that almost half the electorate was ineligible to vote because of the beginning of active campaigning clearly showed those who had previous experience in civic elections that the great mass of the people were indifferent.

All the requisite material is ready for his hand. Miracles will not be expected of him. They are not necessary, and if they were, there are still those who say that the age of miracles is past.

In congratulating the Mayor-Elect upon his victory, The Times-Star desires to say that the quality of his speech at the Imperial justified the confidence of the friends who urged him to accept civic life because of their belief that he would do much for Saint John.

The budget is to be brought down in the House of Commons on Thursday, and then we shall know some very interesting things about taxation; also, by the time the budget debate is over we shall have a much better idea of the political situation at large.

The civic elections have created a situation in which complete and sustained co-operation between City Hall and the Board of Trade is to be expected.

The announcement that Premier Herzog of South Africa will attend the Imperial Conference in London in October recalls the fears expressed when he attended to power.

The Saturday Evening Post recently said the Maritime Provinces were demanding "an" East-and-West shipping policy.

As to our civic difficulties, there is in them no cause for depression or even for discouragement. Of the new Mayor's associates at City Hall it may rightly be asserted that they will give his Worship ready and straightforward co-operation in connection with any proposals he may bring forward.

SOWING BEAUTY AND VIRTUE. ANATOLE FRANCE said, "It is the imagination, with its lies, that sows all the beauty and virtue in the world."

THESE, however, are not the sort of playthings in which imagination delights; it is only in idle fancies that we build castles in the air.

THIS is a kind of dream which cannot be so readily shaken off on awakening as a pleasant one; for a pleasant dream is soon dispelled by reality, leaving at most, a feeble glow living in the lap of possibility.

Saint John-Albert Member Calls on Government to Grant Seaboard Provinces Rights Guaranteed Under Confederation Agreement

DECLARES TIME HAS COME TO ACT

Black of Halifax Starts Debate in Commons by His Resolution, Cahane Expresses Little Confidence in Maritime Commission, and MacDonald Favors Separate I. C. R.

OTTAWA, April 13.—The Maritime rights resolution moved by W. A. Black, of Halifax, was carried in the House early this morning without a division.

OTTAWA, April 12.—Speaking in the House of Commons tonight, Dr. Murray MacLaren, Conservative member for Saint John-Albert, called upon the government to redress Maritime wrongs and to accord the seaboard provinces the rights guaranteed to them under the Confederation pact.

The Saint John member was supporting a resolution moved by W. A. Black of Halifax urging that Canadian trade be routed over Canadian rails and through Canadian ports. The principle involved in this motion had been affirmed by a Liberal administration in 1903 and by a Conservative government in 1914. Dr. MacLaren told the chamber: "Under the circumstances he thought it having no policy in respect to the Maritimes, which accounted for its desire to place the problem in the hands of a commission."

Concluding his remarks the member for Saint John-Albert demanded that the prime minister show how he stood on the question of Maritime rights. He hoped that a vote would be reached so the consensus of opinion held by members would be placed on the records.

Mr. Black and R. K. Smith, Cumberland, urged the government to redress wrongs under which the Maritimes were suffering. Like C. H. Cahane, of Montreal, who followed them, they had little confidence in the commission which the government has appointed to delve into Maritime grievances.

It was about time in the opinion of Mr. Cahane that the government showed some courage and evolved a definite policy in regard to several grave national decisions. Under the Confederation pact the idea was to move trade eastward. Successive administrations had failed to do this and the result was business depression in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

immediately. The people of the Maritimes would not be turned aside from their intention to have prompt action, even by the appointment of a Royal Commission. The entity of the Intercolonial Railway should be restored. Freight rates should be reduced so that the people of the Maritime Provinces could get their products to other parts of Canada. Maritime ports should be fully equipped for export purposes. Consideration should be given to the basic industries of the Maritime Provinces. Full consideration to the rights of the Maritimes in all colonization and immigration policies should be shown. For many years Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island had been ignored in matters of immigration and colonization.

DR. MACLAREN SPEAKS
Dr. MacLaren declared it was with greatest pleasure that he seconded the motion before the house. It was absolutely essential for the life of the Dominion of Canada that trade in this country should be over Canadian railways and through Canadian ports. This principle had been expressed by a Liberal government in 1903 and a Conservative government in 1914. It was a principle which could not be broken. It was a principle which was the basis of the Confederation pact. It was a principle which was the basis of the Confederation pact.

PERSONNEL CRITICISED
Some of the matters which the Maritime Commission was called upon to look into involved an investigation of the tariff. He did not think, said Mr. Cahane, that the personnel of the Commission was qualified to investigate the tariff. He would have liked to have seen one thoroughly practical business man on that Commission, Mr. Cahane remarked.

HANSON QUERIES STAND
R. B. Hanson (Conservative, York-Sunbury) asked Mr. MacDonald if he was prepared to stand by the statement made under his own signature in the Halifax Herald during the 1922 election campaign regarding the Intercolonial Railway?

COUNTRY WANTS REPORT
The country wanted some responsible body to determine the truth or otherwise of allegations made in regard to conditions in the Maritime Provinces, Mr. MacDonald said. A report in which the people would have confidence would be of the greatest value. He felt that the facts of this commission appointed by the Government would command the confidence of the House and of the country. Government duties on one hand or policy of railway mismanagement on the other, this Government will proceed to deal with those matters when the commission reports, Mr. MacDonald said.

URGES INVESTIGATION
John Millar (Progressive, Qu'Appelle) advocated a thorough investigation before there was "any tinkering with railway rates." The whole question should be looked at from a business point of view and the facts should be secured. Mr. Millar thought that 90 per cent of what ment made under his own signature in the Halifax Herald during the 1922 election campaign regarding the Intercolonial Railway?

POINTS TO PROMISES
R. K. Smith, (Conservative, Cumberland) in a brief speech asked for non-partisan consideration of the question of the original plan of Confederation made at the time of Confederation. The government was the only body that could deal with this particular problem.

BOTH PARTIES ON RECORD
Both parties, Conservative and Liberal, had gone of record as favoring the development of trade east and west in Canada and the transfer of Canadian products through Canadian ports, Mr. Cahane remarked.

FAVORS SEPARATE I. C. R.
Hon. E. M. MacDonald, Minister of National Defence, who has been ill for some time, appeared in the house this afternoon and took part in the debate. He admitted that he would like to see the Intercolonial Railway operated as a separate entity for the benefit of stimulating trade between the Maritimes and Central Canada. He paid special attention to the transportation problem, claiming that the logical solution of the Maritime troubles was the routing of trade over Canadian rails and through the ports of Saint John and Halifax.

BLACK ASKS FAITH KEPT.
Canadian Press Despatch.
OTTAWA, April 12.—A resolution was moved in the House of Commons this afternoon by W. A. Black (Conservative, Halifax) stating that "good faith should be kept with the Maritime Provinces and other interested parts of the Dominion in regard to the recorded assurances of governments and parliament and agreements set out in the statutes of the Dominion respecting the routing of Canadian trade over Canadian territory and through Canadian ports, and that freight rates over the Intercolonial Railway should be adjusted in accordance with the understanding of Confederation."

STATESMEN QUOTED
Mr. Black quoted a number of statesmen on both sides of politics, who, from time to time, had declared in favor of rights. He quoted Rt. Hon. W. S. Fielding as saying that "after years of deception, humbugging and prejudice" action should be taken to develop export traffic to Canadian channels and through Canadian ports. The National Transcontinental Railway had been built to bring the products of Western Canada through the Canadian East.

PROMPT ACTION URGED
"The Government should know not only what to do, but how to do it," exclaimed Mr. Black. Prompt and definite action, he said, must be taken in the present session of Parliament. The Government should make a declaration of policy indicating that it intends to do justice to the Maritimes. "It is the duty of the Government to deal with this question themselves, and at the present session of Parliament."

MACDONALD CITED
Mr. Black declared that Hon. E. M. MacDonald, Minister of National Defence, had stated in the 1922 election campaign, in the course of his reply to a question by a Maritime newspaper, that he supported the detachment of the Intercolonial Railway from the Canadian National. Mr. MacDonald had also stated in 1921 that he favored the operation of the Intercolonial from Montreal instead of from Toronto. What had Mr. MacDonald done to carry out the ideas he had expressed towards the betterment of the Maritime Provinces? Had Mr. MacDonald made representations to the Government and been overruled? Surely before the last election he had not lacked for support from the "solid sixteen" elected in 1921, but afterwards reduced to 15 members.

MARITIMERS' PLANS
Mr. Black wished to assure Parliament that in so far as the large number of Maritime members elected in October and seated on the Conservative benches were concerned, they proposed to ask Parliament for immediate recognition of the evils now existing in these three provinces.

The result of the two provincial elections in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick and the recent general election demonstrated that there was a growing dissatisfaction against the treatment accorded to the Maritime Provinces on the part of the people residing there.

There was also a conviction that the Maritimes were being looked upon as "minor and unimportant parts of Confederation."

Action was required, and required

Repeating to a question from M. N. Campbell (Progressive, MacKenzie), Mr. Cahane said he thought the present freight rate structure had grown up in a haphazard way. The question of rate structure was one of great importance.

MACDONALD SPEAKS
Hon. E. M. MacDonald, Minister of National Defence, considered that the discussion of the tariff had come rather wide in its range. Mr. MacDonald traced the different enactments passed at the time of the taking over by the Government of the present Canadian National Railway system. The Act of 1903 respecting the National Transcontinental Railway had set out that aid was being granted by the Government for the express purpose of the development of Canadian trade and the transportation of goods through Canadian channels. A similar clause had been inserted in the legislation of 1914 when the Canadian Northern Railway was taken over. This principle was today the policy of the Government.

For over 40 years, said Mr. MacDonald, both governments had admitted that the Intercolonial Railway should be run for the development of trade between the Maritime Provinces and Central Canada.

One is that healthy, tired feeling which naturally follows a hard day's work. This condition is perfectly normal and healthy because rest comes easily. The body is restored to its normal power and activity by a good restful night's sleep.

The other tired feeling is sad evidence of physical disorder. The person who, after a normal night's sleep, awakes tired and depressed—who is fatigued at the least physical exertion and who easily gets tired to the point of exhaustion—that person is in grave danger for he is completely run down. If this is your condition, what you should have is a good food tonic supplying the elements nature requires and which your digestive system is unable to extract from your ordinary food. Father John's Medicine is a scientific blending of cold liver oil with other valuable ingredients so as to give easily assimilated food to make new body tissue and build up new strength and health.

If you need more strength, try Father John's Medicine today. All pure food. No dangerous drugs.

Don't Repine Because You Can't Find a Young, Rich, Romantic, Famous Man for Your Daughter, Such a Paragon Doesn't Exist—The Best Match is When a Girl Marries an Ambitious Young Man Whom She Loves and Pushes On to Future Greatness.

A MOTHER writes me that she has a beautiful young daughter, and she wants to know how she can obtain for her a husband who is rich and good, and highly placed in society. She says that she is determined to have her daughter make a brilliant match.

Alas, dear lady, I am no miracle worker. I cannot tell mothers how to make brilliant matches for their daughters. I should not be doing newspaper work. I would be President of the United States, elected by the unanimous feminine vote, and lending money to Henry Ford.

EVERY mother's wish is for her daughter to make what is called a fine match, for her to marry a man who can give her automobiles and diamonds and a perfect devotion; a man who stands as high both in the church and in Broadway, who is as desirable as the house cat, yet a brilliant figure in society; who is young and romantic, yet who will never turn his eyes away from his wife.

How to secure such a paragon for her daughter is one of the mysteries that lies on the knees of the gods. She can only hope and pray that luck will come her way.

There's literally nothing that she can do to bring about the result she so much desires. She can't even count on the help of the girl herself, for girls have such a contrary way of falling in love with the man who suits them instead of the ones whom mamma approves.

OF COURSE, from the mother's standpoint, they do these things better abroad. In those countries where marriage is a business proposition instead of a heart throb, custom and convention permit mother to go out and hustle up a husband for her daughter, just as she would go out for any other good thing.

In America, however, the most that a managing mamma can do toward obtaining a husband for her daughter is to put the girl in an attitude to receive the blessing, as old-fashioned Methodists used to say.

She can add to the girl's attractiveness by dressing her up. She can lure eligible young men into the house by means of feeding them up and making the home an attractive place for them to come. She can take daughter about to places where men do congregate, on the principle that the hunting is best where the game is plentiful. If she's rich she can offer a dowry with the girl, as a chromo is given with a pound of tea.

But this is about all that a mother can do in this country toward marrying off her daughter, and it isn't much. For the American man is seldom mercenary, and he's so shy that when he sees a woman throwing her daughter at his head he ducks and dodges.

THERE is something not a little pathetic in a mother's desire that her daughter should make a brilliant match. For in reality it isn't as ambitious and grasping as it seems. It is only her yearning to save her little ewe lamb from the hardships that she has known. She wants to protect the soft girl hands from the hard labor that she has had to do, and to save the tender feet from the thorny path that she has trod.

It should console these mothers who have no way of marrying off their daughters to what they think are fine catches that virtually no such man exists at their age in their visions of the kind of a man they would like their daughter to marry.

THE man who can give his wife a fine establishment when he marries is, in ninety-nine times out of a hundred, either old enough to be her father or else he is a gilded youth who is selfish and spoiled, and who regards marriage as lightly as he does a flirtation with a chorus girl.

We have all seen many young girls married to rich old men, but we've never seen such a marriage a happy one. It takes more than a six-cylindered car and point lace and diamonds to satisfy a woman's soul, and the most miserable women in the world are those who have sold their youth for money.

WE'VE all seen many girls make so-called brilliant matches when they married young fellows who had inherited fortunes. We have also seen some fortunes take wings and fly away and the brilliant match end in poverty. Every day we read of some such match ending in divorce, because a youth which has been passed in self-indulgence doesn't fit a man to stand the disillusion and trials of matrimony.

The mothers who are disappointed that their daughters are marrying poor young lawyers and clerks instead of rich men will do well to consider this fact—that these poor young fellows are likely to be the big men of the future, while the brilliant catch of today is almost certain to be the nobody of tomorrow.

IT IS hardly too much to say that, in marrying in our young America, a girl has to decide whether she'd rather be poor and struggle along with a man when she's young and be prosperous when she's middle-aged, or be rich and splurge when she is young and be poverty-stricken in old age.

To my mind the good match is when a girl marries a man who has ability and industry and pluck, and whom she loves well enough to be willing and glad to work with and help push on, and who makes every day a romance for her more thrilling than any novel.

THAT kind of a marriage is the brilliant marriage, and mother needn't worry about finding such a husband for the girl. She'll do that for herself, if it is done at all. DOROTHY DIX.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

IN NEW YORK SEE SAWING UP and DOWN BROADWAY

DOES advertising pay? Let's see! More than 250 telegrams are piled in the offices of the Metropolitan Opera House offering concert engagements to Marion Talley.

Were the "soubriquet from the corn oil" to start on tour at this moment, she could make $100,000 within a year, I am told.

Meanwhile singers of international reputation; singers whose voices are without peer in this part of the world are reported to be "a drug on the market." Many of them would be happy with a small percentage of Miss Talley's offer.

But her name has been blazoned in tens of thousands of newspaper headlines. She got the advertising!

AND speaking of the results of publicity, something like 400,000 copies of Irving Berlin's latest song, "Always," have been sold since his spectacular debut with Ellen Mackay. And that's just the beginning.

YOU can never tell where artistic ambitions are hidden. Recently the Hotel Alamac offered wall space for an exhibit of "unknown artists." The understanding was that only paintings of young people who had never before been given a chance would be considered.

The first 400 paintings offered included the work of Wall Street bond salesmen, clerks, housewives, stock exchange runners and business men. No one had suspected that these people had ambitions to paint.

SPEAKING of art—Maxwell Bodenheim, representative of the "youth movement" in poetry, was for years the stormy petrel of the American Poetry Society.

He would sit in a corner of the meeting room, puffing at an ancient corn-cob pipe, a well-defined sneer upon his face. Then he cut loose from the society, tossing verbal bombs as he went. He organized an "opposition" poetry society.

It was the other night at the Grub Street Club.

When Bodenheim appeared he was smoking, puffing at an ancient corn-cob pipe, but a dignified brier of excellent make.

Thus for human gestures. —GILBERT SWAN.

Spring-Clean MISHAPS

EVEN simple injuries are apt to cause a deal of pain and worry during "spring clean" time. Along with the dust, are disturbed myriads of tiny disease germs. Their mission is to attack any exposed sore place and set up irritating and painful sores.

Knowing this, the wise housekeeper takes no chances. She always keeps a box of antiseptic Zam-Buk on a handy shelf.

This famous herbal balm never fails to soothe, cleanse and heal cuts, bruises, scratches, burns, scabs and abrasions. Zam-Buk kills disease germs, prevents wounds going the wrong way, and grows new skin. ADVENTURES of the TWINS

by OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

THE FORTUNE TELLER IN THE HICKORY TREE

Mister Rubadub peeped into all his cans and shook all his bottles. Then he looked into the soap box and shook his head.

"It's a good thing that nearly everybody is spring-cleaned, Mister Hare," he said. "All the cleaning stuff is about finished. Didn't Marty Mink and Charley Otter look fine when they were finished?"

"I should say so," said the March Hare. "Slick as new brooms."

"Oh, let's skip him," said Nancy. "He's too mean."

"Can't," said Mister Rubadub. "The Fairy Queen would find it out and she'd have strict orders to scrub up everybody, regardless of disposition or anything else."

"I'll be harder to catch than a greasy pig," said the March Hare. "But if we must, we must. Come on, children."

So away went the three of them again down the little path to the little bush, and then across the meadow to the woods where Reddy Fox lived.

"I don't know what house Reddy has rented this year," the March Hare was saying, when suddenly from the trunk of a large—a very large hickory tree beside them came a voice.

"Fortunes told! Fortunes told! Who wants his fortune told?"

"Who are you? And where are you?" said the March Hare stroking his whiskers and trying to look as if he didn't care any more about having his fortune told than he did about last Christmas's plum pudding.

"I am the fortune teller who lives in the hickory tree," came the voice.

"Come on nearer. Stay where you are, and I shall tell your fortunes."

"That's good," said Nick. "I'd like my fortune told."

"So should I," said honest Nancy. "Well, I might listen to one myself," said the March Hare. "If it's a good fortune."

"I tell nothing but good fortunes," said the voice. "Each of you make a wish. I can tell you if it will come true."

"Am I going to get a new bicycle on my birthday?" asked Nick.

"Wait until I ask Oooty Goofy," said the voice. "The Oooty Goofy says for you to go to the button-ball tree and back. By that time he will know."

So off went Nick toward the button-ball tree.

"Am I going to get a new doll-ambulator on my birthday?" asked honest Nancy.

"Wait until I ask Oooty Goofy," said the voice.

AWAY trotted Nancy toward the fence at the edge of the woods.

"Am I going to have carrot pie on Sunday?" asked the March Hare loudly.

"Oooty Goofy says to go to the briar bush and back," came the answer. "Then he'll know all about it."

AWAY went the March Hare lippy top.

Nancy and Nick and the Hare arrived at the hickory tree together.

"What does Oooty Goofy say now?" called Nick. "How about the bicycle?"

"But there was no answer."

They began to look about them, and there on the other side of the hickory tree was a big hole. And leading away from it in the opposite direction were footprints.

"Reddy Fox!" gasped the March Hare. "He was the fortune teller and he fooled us!"

They never got him and Reddy isn't spring-cleaned yet.

MONCTON RESIDENTS FLEE BLAZE IN NIGHT CLOTHES

Several Have Narrow Escapes as Fire Guts Liberty Block—Five-year-old Girl, Lost in Smoke-filled Building, Found and Carried to Safety.

Special to The Times-Star.
MONCTON, April 13.—Several persons narrowly escaped suffocation when fire which started in Wright's radio store, Liberty Block, Main street, at 10:45 o'clock last night, gutted part of that building. Tenants were overcome by the thick smoke and carried out by other tenants, or by members of the Salvage Corps. A little five-year-old girl, bewildered and lost, on the stairs between the second and third floors, creeping downwards head first was first felt, rather than seen by Foster Keith, and carried out to safety. She was later claimed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick. Mr. and Mrs. Cook were aroused by knocks at their door. They caught up their little girl and escaped barefooted and in their night clothes.

Four girls, Miss H. McLellan, Miss Langille, Catherine Cahill and B. McShane, occupying one of the apartments, were returning from the theatre and entering the building, they smelled smoke, but hurried to their apartments. Realizing the danger, they roused some of the sleeping tenants. Within ten minutes the smoke became very dense and gathering a few clothes they made for an exit. Miss Langille became faint and had to be assisted by Mr. Bars and one of her girl friends.

RESCUER IS RESCUED

William Cook, a brother to Mr. Cook who with his wife and child escaped in their night attire, was unaware that they had left the building and rushed up to save them. He was overcome by the suffocating fumes and would have perished had he not been rescued by Frank Walsh, Mrs. Morris who was still weak from an operation performed some time ago, was assisted to the street.

Had the fire occurred a few hours later there seems no doubt in the minds of some of the tenants, that several lives would have been lost. The City Fire Department was called out at 10:45 in answer to an alarm from Box 6. By this time the fire had secured a firm hold in the store of the Wright Radio Company, and it required a strenuous fight by the firemen before the all out was sounded.

SMOKE IS DENSE

The fire had evidently secured a good hold before the hook was pulled by James Kelly. When the firemen arrived on the scene dense clouds of smoke were issuing from the fire, which appeared to be worst in the rear of the store. The heavy volumes of smoke worked their way to the apartments above the Wright store, forcing the occupants to leave the premises. Four lines of hose were stretched and the fire was soon under control. The configuration being confined practically to the Wright store.

The Liberty Block was burnt in 1919-1920 and is a fireproof structure owned by Mr. L. H. Higgins. The main floor is occupied by Milson's Jewelry Store, Wright Radio Co., New York Millinery Co., Karl Bars and the Townsend Piano Co. Outside of the Wright Radio Store, in which Mr. Wright estimates his damage at a sum in the vicinity of $40,000, the New York Millinery and Karl Bars stores suffered water damage. None of the other stores were affected.

SIXTEEN APARTMENTS.

While the upper stories contain 16 up-to-date apartments, 14 of which were occupied, the fire did not penetrate through the walls and the only damage done was to the suites above the Wright store, and this was caused by smoke and water. The suites worst affected were those occupied by Frank Walsh, Mr. Rayworth and Miss MacDonald.

The Salvage Corps covered the goods in adjoining stores and the damage was slight. The exact amount of the damage sustained by occupants of the flats could not be ascertained this morning. The property loss suffered by the owner, L. H. Higgins, could not be estimated this morning, although it was undoubtedly run into several thousand dollars. At a late hour Mr. Higgins, when seen by The Times-Star reporter, said he had no idea of what the loss would be, but said the property was fully covered by insurance.

MAN STOPS BATTLE

District-Commissioner on Gold Coast Prevents Clash Between Natives
LONDON, April 13.—The story of how the appearance of one man put opposing armies to flight is told in a report on the northern territories of the Gold Coast.

It appears that there was a disturbance among the Konkombas, a primitive people, which resulted in a declaration of war. "The opposing parties were lined up at Sambul ready to fight," states the report, "when the District Commissioner, who had been warned, arrived on the scene in his motor-car. The natives dispersed at once."

Absconding Bank Man Fights Extradition

DENVER, Col., April 13.—T. F. Alaisa, confessed absconding accountant from the Sancti Spiritu branch of the Royal Bank of Canada in Cuba, who was arrested here Saturday night, has engaged an attorney to fight extradition to Cuba. However, even if he is returned, Alaisa is optimistic. "My people are influential, and wealthy," he said, "and I don't expect I'll get more than sixty days even if I do have to go back to the island to stand trial."

LONG-LIVED FAMILY.

LONDON, April 13.—The honor of being the longest-lived family in Great Britain probably belongs to a family of seven—two brothers and five sisters—six of who reside in the Parish of Sleat, and one in the adjoining Parish of Strath, in the Isle of Skye, Inverness-shire.

The ages are 94½, 92½, 85, 83, 81, 79 years, totalling 605 years, and the average age is 80½ years, surely a wonderful record. All are married and still enjoying excellent health, able to attend to their usual daily duties.

MONCTON BOXERS ENTER TOURNAMENT

Two Entries Received From Railway Centre—Local Lads Are Training Hard

Some additional entries have been received for the coming New Brunswick amateur boxing championships to be held this week under the auspices of the St. Peter's Holy Name Society in their hall in Elm street. Two entries have been received from Moncton. One of these is for Sterling McPhee in the lightweight division. This lad has been boxing for several years and in 1924 he met Louis Donovan in an exhibition bout at the Maritime wrestling championships in Moncton and made a creditable showing.

Another entrant from the railway centre is Harold Bollock in the bantamweight class. He is also rated as a comer. The entry of John Graham, of this city, who is being handled by Peter Clinch, has been received for the special 85 lb. class.

Art Garnett has been working hard with many of the boxers assisting Louis Donovan at the Y. M. C. I. in training them. He will probably take charge of the provincial champions, who will go to Halifax later this month. He has taken charge of the boxers several times on trips to championship meets in Nova Scotia.

Entries for the boxing bouts will close today. So far more than thirty entries have come in, causing at least twenty bouts in all classes. It has been decided to run the fight program of one evening instead of two as at first proposed. Friday will be the big night.

STOWAWAY SUFFERS

Is Rewarded For Good Work, However, With Permanent Job on Ship

LONDON, April 13.—Nine days without water while also suffering from the intense heat of his hiding-place was the experience of a stowaway in the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's liner Orduna who appeared at Southampton Police Court recently on a charge of stowing himself aboard a ship. The stowaway was Daniel Coombes, aged 35, an unemployed engineer and native of Dublin.

On recovering from an illness as a result of which he had to give up his job, he decided to try his luck as a stowaway and, the night before the Orduna left Southampton for Halifax, secreted himself in the funnel casing. Champed up in a space 2 feet 6 inches wide, he suffered agonies and lost 25 pounds in weight, being on the verge of death when discovered. In admiration of his pluck, the ship's crew subscribed $25 for him and he was allowed to work his passage home.

So satisfactory were his services during the return trip that the company have given him a permanent job as stowaway.

Fish Now Enabled To Do "Bunk Fatigue"

LONDON, April 13.—A mystery ship whose operations, when completed, are likely to revolutionize fishing methods, is nearing completion at Hull, in Yorkshire.

She is much bigger than the average trawler, her tonnage being between 4,000 and 5,000. Instead of trawling in the ordinary way, this vessel will anchor outside the "three-mile limit."

Later, the District Commissioner instructed the chiefs and headmen to call on their young men to surrender their bows and arrows, and after some reluctance 4,000 arrows were brought in and destroyed.

She needed more than beauty-parlor beauty

WHAT a forlorn figure she is . . . haunting the beauty parlors . . . eternally brooding . . . wondering, worrying. Where had her beauty gone? Her glorious complexion? Surely it was not age that lined her face. Why, she was a young woman and she wanted to live . . .

There are millions of women in the world today who need much more than beauty-parlor beauty—who, if they would correct that great affliction—constipation—would find color in their cheeks instead of pallor, renewed energy in every fiber of their beings, and a new wonderful freedom from sick headaches. MARCH BUSY FOR VICTORIAN NURSES

Need of Financial Aid Discussed at Meeting of Local Board

MARCH was a bustling month for the Victorian Order Nurses in Saint John, it was shown by reports presented at the monthly meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Health Centre with Mrs. M. B. Edwards, first vice-president, in the chair in the absence of L. W. Simms. The nurses made in all 1877 visits, assisted at the arrival of new babies in the city and conducted 16 clinics in child welfare and prenatal work. There were in all 314 cases of which 166 were new that month. The nursing visits numbered 1,009 and the child welfare visits 504. The individual babies visited numbered 338.

Miss Mary Bilzard, a newly appointed member of the board, was welcomed at her first meeting and there was a large number present. As the Board of Health nurses are to take over child welfare work on May 1 the V. O. N. staff will have to be curtailed and it was decided to commence nurses' vacations on May 1 in order that the nurse who is to be dropped may remain throughout the summer as supply nurse while each of the others in turn is given a vacation period.

CONSIDER FINANCES

The matter of finances was the subject of earnest discussion as about $2,000 must be raised to wipe out the deficit and it was suggested that a canvass might be made to solicit private subscriptions and that an enrolment of members might be undertaken. Many generous gifts of clothing for use among the city poor were gratefully acknowledged and it was reported that there were 46 children receiving milk through the Women's Council's free milk fund.

EVANS URGES MORE DEVELOPMENT FOR N.B. COAL INDUSTRY

Says Minto Mines Employ 600 With $1,000,000 Payroll a Year

OUTPUT IS 250,000 TONS IN 12 MONTHS

Production of Pits Could Be Much Increased if Public Used This Fuel

BY JOHN J. DUNLOP

Special Correspondent to The Times-Star

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 12—More extended development of the coal industry in New Brunswick was advocated by W. Benton Evans, government member for Queens county, in his maiden speech in the house this evening, continuing the budget debate.

Mr. Evans declared the people of the province did not generally realize the importance of the coal industry at Minto, which, he said, gave employment to 600 men directly with an annual payroll of $1,000,000 and an output of 250,000 tons a year.

The output there, he declared, could be greatly increased if the people would use the coal produced in their own province. It was not claimed that this was a first-class quality but it was held to be a good average bituminous coal which gave good results when used with equipment adapted to its use.

Touching on prohibition Mr. Evans declared for enforcement of the law. The chief inspector, he asserted, had a difficult job on his hands.

EVANS SPEAKS

Mr. Evans, continuing the debate, said that the honorable leader of the Opposition when addressing the House early in the session had mentioned the coal industry in the race and religion propaganda which he charged was carried on during the recent election campaign. It was his (Evans) humble opinion that in doing so he (Veniot) was guilty of the very thing which he condemned in others, and he (Evans) spoke of it himself only because the honorable member had written a letter which he claimed had been written by a gentleman in the county of Queens, and which contained the names of his colleagues and himself. It was evidently intended that the general public should infer that they had inspired this and other alleged letters and propaganda. Mr. Evans said that on behalf of his colleagues and himself he wished emphatically to deny any connection whatsoever with such propaganda. He said they were entirely ignorant of the existence of such a letter or any of a like nature which the honorable leader of the Opposition said were circulated in the county of Queens. He did not think the honorable gentleman had any proof of the circulation of such letters, or that he had any proof that the letter he received was genuine. He thought it was quite possible that this letter was written by one of their political opponents with the idea of doing them harm.

QUESTIONS VENIOT

He wished to ask the honorable leader of the Opposition how this letter had come into his (Veniot's) possession, if he had any proof whatever that this letter was genuine, any proof that it was actually written by the man whose name was attached to it. He would like to ask the honorable gentleman if he had read the whole of that letter, if that letter did not contain another reason why, in the writer's opinion, the Government should be opposed, and if that reason was wasting the people's money on the roads?

It was the same Mr. McCrea that the honorable Minister of Public Works spoke about a few days ago as having sold a famous tractor to the government in 1925. As he stated McCrea was paid $1,500 for this machine, yet it was entirely unfit for the road work and last fall when the new road supervisor went to take possession of it it was shown him by McCrea, who said: "There it is, and it isn't worth a dollar." And yet it had only been used a few days after having been purchased by the ex-Minister of Public Works.

DOUBLE PAYMENT

It was the same Mr. McCrea who was brought before the Public Accounts Committee in 1922 and was found to have authorized double payments for certain road work. Also he was considered worth watching by all the officials connected with the Department of Public Works who had had any experience with accounts sent in by him. Despite all this the member for Queens county, who was also the provincial secretary in the late government, to keep away, leave this man alone, that he was to have a free hand; and without any supervision by the committee.

NEPISIGUIT BILLS UP

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 12—The house sat during the evening in committee, giving third reading to several bills, including the one relating to the Nepisiguit Storage Company, Limited, and the Nepisiguit Power Company, Ltd.

WHY MONEY WAS SPENT

The honorable leader of the Opposition stated in his speech last week that a large amount of money had been expended on the roads in Queens last fall in order to elect Mr. George B. Jones. He (Evans) wished to say that the money which was spent in that county at that time was necessary to complete the work which had been started by the former government, and to make the roads passable so that anyone could get out to vote. Perhaps the honorable gentleman had overlooked the fact that the expenditure of $100,000 or $140,000 was authorized last summer in the Parish of Johnston, the home parish of the late Provincial Secretary. That money was spent with the evident intention of electing that honorable gentleman, whom the honorable leader of the Opposition, he understood, had called the fifth wheel of the government coach. This fifth wheel evidently wobbled very badly and the people of Queens county by electing the present government members had ditched it entirely. Some $100,000 to elect a member was quite an amount, more, even, than $75,000 for a senatorship.

MINTO COAL INDUSTRY

The honorable member for Sunbury when he spoke recently mentioned the coal industry at Minto. As part of this coal mining district was in the county of Queens, represented by his colleague and himself, he also wished to deal briefly with its needs and possibilities. He did not think that the people in New Brunswick generally realized the importance of this industry. As coal mining was carried on in many places, it was true, was comparatively small, but since steady employment was given to 600 or 700 men directly, with many others benefiting indirectly, with an annual payroll of approximately one million dollars, and an average annual output of 250,000 tons, paying into the provincial treasury a direct revenue in royalties of about $400,000, it was believed of considerable importance to this province when the great need we had today of industries of every kind, was considered.

MINTO COULD YIELD MORE

The output at Minto could be greatly increased if the coal could be sold, and there was a large market right here in New Brunswick, if produced in people would use the coal produced in their own province. He did not claim that our coal was of the highest quality, but it was a good average grade of bituminous and gave good results when used in equipment adapted to it. This was quite evident by the fact that large tonnages have been shipped annually for many years by both the C. N. R. and C. P. R., also many manufacturing plants, both large and small, use it entirely as well as many public and private buildings in this and other provinces. He wished to heartily commend the Hon. Minister of Public Works for having had an investigation made into the possibility of using New Brunswick coal in the various government buildings in Fredericton. It was gratifying to know that this test had proved that New Brunswick coal could be used in most of the buildings with the present equipment and that new water the fuel supply would be produced in this province. This more employment would be given to New Brunswick workmen, and money that formerly went to the United States would remain in circulation at home, and in addition to all these advantages a saving of $2,000 a year was estimated. That was certainly good business from every point of view and an example worthy of being followed. He trusted that it would be followed by other consumers large and small.

STEAM STANDBY

Some time ago the chairman of the hydro commission under the old government made the announcement through the press that it was probable that a steam standby would have to be built to supplement Musquash. The possible sites for such a plant were given as Norton, Moncton or Sackville. Evidently locating this plant at Minto was not thought of, but he supposed one could hardly expect that a commission that would put a hydro plant where there was not sufficient water, would do anything else than put a steam plant where there was no coal. He understood that a steam standby might still be necessary. If such a plant were built the Minto coal district was unquestionably the logical place for it. There New Brunswick coal could be used direct from the mines without any additional cost for transportation or handling. He believed if so located such a plant could purchase the coal at a fair price and produce power cheaper than Musquash had been able to do. The various coal mines could use to great advantage several hundred horse power of electrical energy if it could be had at a low cost, and if a regular supply could be depended on. The transmission lines could pass through the large village of Chipman, serve much of Queens county and connect with the present line somewhere between Norton and Moncton. Not far from the place where such a steam plant could be located was a site for a hydro plant which, he believed, might be capable of producing three or four thousand horse power. The building of a single short dam would give immense storage capacity. Such a plant might be operated in conjunction with the steam plant to excellent advantage.

SUGGESTION FOR HYDRO

He hoped the present honorable chairman of the hydro commission would keep this in mind when looking for new sources of power. He had already mentioned that the coal produced at Minto was of the bituminous variety, perhaps more commonly known as soft coal, which has the objectionable feature of all such coals, particularly when used for domestic purposes, that was the large volume of smoke given off. For that reason anthracite or hard coal, was preferred and used by so many. From the commercial standpoint there is no question that by-product coking plants can be successfully introduced into Canada. Markets, with the exception of gas, exist in far greater extent than can possibly be supplied.

INTERESTED IN COKE MAKING

"Public interest in the manufacture of domestic coke is rapidly developing, and it is earnestly to be hoped that capitalists assured of fair returns on their investment and the successful results to the country as a whole, will assist financially in the erection of coke ovens, and support an industry which appears to be the best solution of the various problems that now confronts the acute fuel area."

TO KEEP PLANT GOING

Continuing Mr. Evans said: "As to our reserves of coal in this province, they were apparently no doubt as to there being sufficient to keep such a plant as has been mentioned in operation for years to come, as well as supply the market already being served by the Minto district."

"The Minto coal field had been carefully examined by eminent geologists and the total reserves of coal therein, it was estimated, would not fall below seventy million tons, and might go as high as two hundred and thirty million tons."

"A by-product coking plant would give increased employment to New Brunswick labor; it would keep in circulation at home a large amount of money now going out of the province; it would supply a new source of cheap power and supply raw materials that would probably attract new industries."

This is BARRYMORE WEEK HERE AND EVERYWHERE

ALL this week BARRYMORE Guaranteed RUGS will be on display in the windows and in the rug departments of furniture, departmental and dry goods stores in this city and in every other city and town in Canada.

Rich in beauty, long in wear, but moderate in price

BARRYMORE Guaranteed RUGS possess that precious element, "individuality", the intangible quality of a rug which lifts it from the commonplace. Throughout the whole selection of BARRYMORE RUGS this quality is ever-present, finding its expression in delicate nuances of shade and tone and in the masterly way the lovely colors are blended in the designs.

But do not judge a BARRYMORE by its beauty alone. Examine the texture of the rug closely. Finger the pile—thick, even and upstanding. Note the firmness, the weight, the perfection of weaving. All these qualities are of vital importance, for they provide—THE WEAR! And while a BARRYMORE is woven to provide a lifetime of wear, it is luxurious and velvety to the tread.

There are BARRYMORE Guaranteed RUGS for every home, be it the little bungalow or the great palatial mansion. In the wide BARRYMORE range are Wilton and Axminster rugs in all standard sizes; there are designs and patterns at prices to meet with every household budget.

SHIPPERS ASK SWITCHING COSTS AT SAINT JOHN BE CUT

C. P. R. Officials Reply, At Railway Board Session, That Operation Is Expensive One

TILT WITH COUNSEL AT PROCEEDINGS

Saint John River Valley Men, P. E. I. Potato Growers and Charlottetown Board of Trade Make Request For Reduction

SWITCHING freight cars between the Island Yard and the West Side steamer docks is a difficult and expensive proposition, according to evidence given by Canadian Pacific Railway officials at yesterday afternoon's sitting of the Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada at the Court House. A reduction in the switching charges was asked by the residents and shippers of the Saint John River Valley, the Prince Edward Island Potato Growers' Association and the Charlottetown Board of Trade.

The case for the Prince Edward interests was presented by A. E. Dewar, of Charlottetown, president of the Potato Growers' Association. G. W. Dingee, of Gagetown, spoke for the River Valley potato growers. G. P. Ruckbie, of the Bathurst Company, Limited, also gave evidence. The case for the railway was then heard after which adjournment was made until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Among those at the hearing were Hon. Ivan C. Rand, of Montreal, regional counsel for the Canadian National Railway, A. T. Weldon, traffic manager, M. E. Tompkins, general superintendent, Atlantic Region, for the C. N. R.; E. P. Flintoff, assistant general solicitor, W. C. Bowles, assistant manager, Walter Elliott, divisional freight agent and J. M. Woodman, divisional superintendent for the Canadian Pacific Railway.

DINGEE AND FLINTOFF TILT The proceedings were enlivened by a mild tilt between Mr. Dingee and Mr. Flintoff when the C. P. R. counsel demanded to know the source of certain information given by Mr. Dingee in evidence, the witness flatly refusing to tell him. His position was sustained by the board.

The C. P. R.'s case for continuing the present switching rate was based on the alleged difficulty and expense of the haul from the east side to the west side. Evidence was given that a full train crew was employed in shipment of salt cake. This charge would have been absorbed by the C. N. R. if the destination had been west of Quebec. He contended that undue discrimination was being shown against the Maritime Provinces.

He asked that the C. P. R. service be analyzed so that it might be learned if their switching charges were not excessive. R. N. Clark, through whom Mr. Dewar's potatoes were shipped, was then called.

FACILITIES ON EAST SIDE Mr. Clark said that all goods shipped through him had been purchased from West Saint John. There were now facilities at the East Side and since Dec. 1 most of the Island potatoes had been shipped from there. He had never been held up for want of space. The steamers often took part cargo on each side of the harbor. The potatoes were bought delivered at West Saint John. If they were diverted to the east side a rebate would be made in the freight.

Mr. Dewar—"That is what we claim; we have to pay an excessive switching charge whether the goods are switched or not. Mr. Flintoff asked if it would not be well to hear from the real complainants, the C. N. R. They were behind him in the complaint, although the formation had been laid by outside parties.

Mr. Dewar—"The Canadian National had nothing to do with our complaint." CHARGES HERE HEAVY Mr. Weldon said that the charges at Saint John were very heavy. Complaints had been made, although the switching charges here were too heavy. If the rate was fair the one at Halifax must be a very unprofitable one.

So far as the C. N. R. were concerned, Mr. Weldon said, he did not think that in addition to the cost of unloading at West Saint John the line should have to absorb the switching charge as was done at competing points. The rate on pulp and paper was low. It would mean that half of the rate for a 2 1/2 mile haul would have to be handed to the C. P. R. for a four-mile haul.

PRODUCE PLANS Mr. Flintoff produced plans of the city and harbor, showing the route over which cars passed in switching. The cars, he said, were made up in the Island Yard, picked up by a C. P. R. locomotive and taken to West Saint John. It was a regular train haul movement with a full crew and involving a pull up the steepest grade in New Brunswick; also the crossing of the railway bridge, which cost $878,000, or more than the whole line to Westfield, then through the Fairville and Bay Shore yards to West Saint John.

BRIDGE TOLL ASKED The C. P. R. used what was known as a bridge toll to cover the cost of bridge movement. On traffic originating at Saint John and going through to Vancouver a rate in excess of 2 1/2 cents was charged. The local switching rate, however, had not been increased on account of the bridge toll.

NO ROOM AT FAIRVILLE The opinion of the companies as to making Fairville an interchange point had been fully expressed in 1919 and a temporary arrangement made which had ever since been adhered to. Under this arrangement, if a train mile from Westfield was charged. There was no room for the establishment of an interchange point at Fairville. It would cost more than the switching charges. Such a point would have to be established at Westfield. The volume of traffic would not warrant this. It would also be impossible to run through from Fairville to West Saint John without switching.

Mr. Dingee said that to a layman it did not seem impossible to make an interchange point at Fairville. He asked the board to go to Fairville and look over the situation.

SWITCHING CONDITIONS Mr. Woodman also spoke regarding switching conditions, saying that a car had to be handled eight times from the time it left the Island yard until it returned. Also steamers would not always be ready to take delivery of the cars and there would be extra switching occasioned.

He had never seen an interchange point between lines except as a junction. There was not room for one at Fairville. If there the cost would be high. Staff additions would cost more than the switching charge.

Mr. Weldon said that the fact remained that a potato shipper in New Brunswick wishing to ship through Saint John was in a much worse position than a shipper in Nova Scotia who lived an equal distance from Halifax. Saint John was in a unique position for heavy terminal charges. At this point the hearing was adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

CHARMING MATRONS

The married ladies appeared again in very attractive garden scene and gave a very charming minstrel and vocal solos.

The next very pleasing selection was "Four Little Maids," in which those taking part were Eunice McGillivray, Margaret Burns, Irene Suits and Nora McKinnon.

The Gypsy revel was another popular feature and in this Miss Margaret Flood gave fine vocal solos with Miss K. McGouey supplying ukulele accompaniment while Miss Dorothy McDonald executed a Gypsy dance.

The grand finale, which was the crowning glory of the evening's entertainment, was the minstrel circle of "Creole Belles."

DOGS IN CURL PAPERS. LONDON, April 13.—Yorkshire terriers with curl papers in their long hair highly amused visitors to the open show of the City and Suburban Canine Society at the Crystal Palace recently. This, however, was not to produce a maced waves, or an attractive curl, but to keep their hair out of their eyes.

PRETTY NUMBERS In the opening number "Aunt Jerusha Entertains" fifteen of the anonymous performers took part. In the next number, "The Old-Fashioned Way," Miss Gertrude O'Neil was the star. Miss Annie Flood took the part of the up-to-date wife and the old-fashioned girls were the Misses Vida Waterbury, Margaret McCrossin, Kathleen McGouey, Mary Kane, Lena McCrossin, Margaret Flood, Mary Conlon, Anna McCarthy.

The butterfly dance was a very dainty graceful number and was given by the Misses Dorothy Ryan, Doris Ryan, Mary Finlay, Jean Burns, Margaret Farren, Marie Soltario.

Miss Bernice Money was heartily cheered after her very fine rendering of a "Mammy and Her Pickaninies" was another quaint and pleasing number, in which Rita Ryan, G. McKinnon, Norma Allan, Lillian Bradley, Margery Bain and G. Mulholland took part. In the "Spirit Dance" the Misses Dorothy

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, SAINT JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, APRIL 13, 1926

"PLAY BALL" WILL BE HEARD ON MAJOR LEAGUE DIAMONDS TODAY

SIXTEEN TEAMS EAGER TO OPEN PENNANT CHASE

Expect Quarter of Million Fans To View Opening Contests

NEW YORK, April 13—The old call to battle sounds again today through the baseball world as the major league teams get under way in the great American classic which leads to pennants and final rounds of world championship in mellow October days.

While the American and National League teams take the post in the major derbies, the American Association opens its twenty-fifth year of baseball endeavor.

Clear skies and slightly rising temperatures were predicted for the eight cities entertaining major contests, but at that the weather promised to be more suitable for football than baseball, with heavy wraps the style hint for a quarter of a million customers.

The mercury has been unable to struggle very far above the freezing point in most of the cities.

PLENTY OF COMPETITION. The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates and the Washington Senators, twice winners of the American pennant, will find plenty of competition in their struggles to lead this year.

At least two other teams in the National League look just as good to the doers as the Pirates, with an additional two figuring among the possibilities, while the baseball-wise ones see at least five teams prepared to dispute the American League supremacy of Washington.

In fact the two pennant winners face a stiff test, right at the start, with the Senators pitted against Connie Mack's powerful Athletics, and the Pirates set to battle Rogers Hornsby's flashy Cardinals at St. Louis.

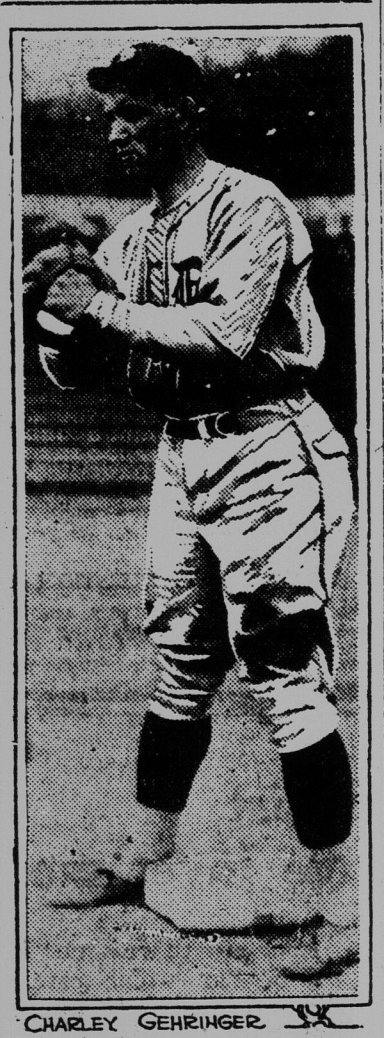

McDrew's Giants, another leading combination of the National circuit, try their luck against Brooklyn. The work of the Cincinnati Reds and the Boston Braves will be watched closely for pennant possibilities, while in the American ring there are plenty of partisans who look with favor on the St. Louis Browns, the New York Yankees, the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago White Sox.

The Giants are given a slight edge over the Pirates in Wall Street wagers, with the Senators and Athletics an even choice in the junior circuit. The betting on the opening is to go with the Pirates 2 to 1, with the latter odds for both Philadelphia and Washington.

The other two teams, the Senators and Athletics, are given a slight edge over the Pirates 2 to 1, with the latter odds for both Philadelphia and Washington.

City Baseball League Will Have Only Four Teams This Season

Opening Day Has Its Humorous Side

MEMBERS ELECT A. W. COVEY AS NEW PRESIDENT

Two Applications For Membership From Teams Are Turned Down

A. W. Covey was elected president of the City Amateur Baseball League at the annual meeting held last evening in the Victoria Hotel.

The president of the league, J. J. Dunlop, was unable to be present last evening but he had requested that his name should not be brought up again this year for re-election as he would be unable to accept the honor.

The following representatives of the teams were present: Water Dept., James McLeod and Charles I. Gorman; Royals, H. Guy; St. John's Baptist, Eddie Lowe and Fred L. Barrett; Saint John's, Thomas Campbell and Roy Handren; Trojans, Walter R. Golding.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, A. W. Covey; vice-president, J. J. Dunlop; secretary, Walter R. Golding; treasurer, James McLeod.

Manager Guy of the Royals announced last evening that the Royals wished to officially withdraw from the league this season. He declared that many of his players either had left or were leaving the city and he did not think he could secure a satisfactory team.

ONLY FOUR TEAMS. Applications from two other teams, the young St. John's and Shamrocks, of the East End, were considered. After some discussion it was decided that the league would abide by the decision made last fall that if one team dropped out the remaining four would carry on without any new entry but if two had dropped out one new team would be admitted.

Since only one team had decided to leave the league the four remaining teams, Water Dept., Trojans, St. John's Baptist and Saint John's, will form the league this season.

Owing to the absence from the city of President Covey the meeting adjourned until Saturday evening at 7:30 when important matters to be discussed and arrangements made for drawing up the schedule for 1926.

NINE ENTRIES RECEIVED FOR BOWLING SERIES

Championship Tournament Opens On April 20—Runs Three Days

ENTRIES for the Maritime Province and Eastern Maine bowling tournament closed last evening and it was announced by the manager of the Y. M. C. I. alleys, Joe Harrington, that there would be nine teams entering the contest, which will be staged on the Y. M. C. I. alleys on April 20, 21 and 22, with play in the morning, afternoon and evening on each day.

The nine teams are the Y. M. C. I. of Saint John, champions of last year, who are defending the title, St. Stephen, Calais, Eastport, Moncton, Halifax, Fredericton, Truro, and the winning team in the roll-off between the Black's alleys and the Imperial alleys, of Saint John.

The committees in charge of the tournament were busy yesterday preparing the schedule of the games and expected to have the work completed today for early publication.

STIFF TITLE FIGHT FORECAST. The Eastport bowlers held the championship for three years before it was wrested from them by the Y. M. C. I. players and the Y. M. C. I. intend to put up a stiff fight to retain the title.

Each of the contending teams has been getting into shape for the big fray and the Y. M. C. I. players are confident that they will have an opportunity of seeing some star bowling when the tournament is in progress.

Moran is now expected to go hunting for a title match, probably in New York. Moran and Kansas both entered the ring overnight, so the title was not at stake. Moran was three times bested by Benny Leonard when the latter held the title.

Trains By Farming. Charlie Penwell, former member of the famous Coldstream Guards and Imperial Service heavyweight champion for three years, was among the 2,800 settlers who arrived in Canada recently.

BUENOS AIRES, April 13—Alfredo Porzio, of Argentina, has been declared champion of South America, displacing Quintin Romero Rojas, of Uruguay, who had failed to accept Porzio's challenge.

Rocky' Kansas Is Badly Outclassed

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 13—Pal Moran, veteran New Orleans boxer, battered "Rocky" Kansas, lightweight champion of the world, severely in a 20-round no-decision bout here last night.

Moran is now expected to go hunting for a title match, probably in New York. Moran and Kansas both entered the ring overnight, so the title was not at stake. Moran was three times bested by Benny Leonard when the latter held the title.

Trains By Farming. Charlie Penwell, former member of the famous Coldstream Guards and Imperial Service heavyweight champion for three years, was among the 2,800 settlers who arrived in Canada recently.

BUENOS AIRES, April 13—Alfredo Porzio, of Argentina, has been declared champion of South America, displacing Quintin Romero Rojas, of Uruguay, who had failed to accept Porzio's challenge.

CUBS AND BRAVES MAY SURPRISE FANS

Manager Bancroft Has Much Stronger Team in Boston Than Last Year

By NORMAN E. BROWN Central Press Sports Editor. The baby manager of the big leagues, Joseph McCarthy, starts the season with a team that finished last in the National League last season. He is not sure of his infeld. He is not sure of his outfield. He is not sure of his pitching (with the exception of Grover Alexander when that great ankle mender).

And he is not even sure of his future with the club. Owner Wrigley bounces them on short notice. But Chicago fans are already sure of one thing—that is that McCarthy is a courageous, confident leader, knows what he wants and is going after it. He showed that spirit at Louisville. The personnel of the Cub team has been changed in the attack of the winter and the manager who he contemplates further changes so there is no need to attempt to weigh the possibilities. He may win what he has into some kind of shape and stage a winning streak that will put the Chicago Cubs in the fight for a few weeks at least.

BRVES ARE STRONGER. Dave Bancroft leads his Braves in to another season that should hold for his team than the National League entry has given. He has since 1914—the year of the Miracle. He is about to take rank as one of the great managers of the game. Fair success with his present material this year will win him his place in the hall of fame.

He has strengthened the attack of his team, with the addition of the husky center fielder, Fred Greiner, and Jack Taylor, catcher of the same team. He has apparently strengthened his infield defense with the Wallie Gautreaux, who broke into the lineup in sensational style. He thinks enough of Gautreaux to let Eric Padgett, triple play artist, slip out of the club lineup for the Cleveland team.

The pitching staff will make or break the Braves. Joe Geweuch, young Ed Werts, Johnny County, Larry Bone, Alphonse Kamp and Wilfred Ryan, ex-Giant. It is up to Ryan himself whether or not he lands a regular berth. He must show his willingness to labor diligently and faithfully.

With the Finches, Giants, Cardinals and Reds showing the strength they do it is impossible to defend a statement that the Braves will finish in first division. But if Bancroft gets his club into the swing, with good pitching, it will happen. That is a prophecy.

Hockey League Is Planned In Ontario. TORONTO, April 12—Representatives from Windsor, London and Niagara Falls conferred with President Calder of the National Hockey League in this city over the week-end, concerning a proposed minor professional hockey league in Western Ontario.

With the idea of avoiding losing players to the last minute through professional leagues buying them, the representatives sought some agreement with the National League president, according to the Globe today. The Mike Hays of New York at start of the fifth round. Men were warned repeatedly.

McLellan Cup to C. N. R. Team. The Canadian National Railways team won the McLellan cup, emblematic of the championship of the Commercial League, from James Pender and Company team on Blacks' alleys last evening. The Pender team had the cup two years in succession and it was the greatest mirth producer of the evening. Miss Kierstead's Fine String. Miss Maud Kierstead, daughter of A. E. Kierstead, made an unusually fine score last night on Blacks' alleys. Miss Kierstead topped 500 pins in six strings for an average of 392. Her high string was 131 and she finished her performance with one of 110. This score is regarded as quite some bowling for a lady.

C. N. R. Trims T. S. Simms. The C. N. R. team took the T. S. Simms bowlers into camp last night on Blacks' alleys in the Inter-League fixture, winning all four points handsly. The winners rolled well over the 1500 mark and at the conclusion of the second string it looked as if they would roll over 1600. Their rolling fell a little in the last string, however.

Young Judeans Entertain Well

Boy Scouts Present Play Before Large Audience in Carleton Street Hall

The Young Judean Boy Scout Troop, No. 13, last night gave a splendid presentation of a most amusing Scout play "A Country Boy Scout," under the direction of the Scoutmaster Eli Boyanmer, assisted by Assistant Scoutmaster M. Eilman. The play was given in the hall in Carleton street and the capacity audience was kept highly amused throughout the whole production. Each Scout acted his part naturally and the stage setting was cleverly arranged. A trap-door episode was worked to perfection and was the greatest mirth producer of the evening. In the audience were the members of the Victoria Street Baptist Boy Scouts, who attended in a body.

Between the acts a jazz band gave excellent selections. Alec Lassar, Rueben Freidman, Abe Guss, Joe Guss, Sam Jacobson, Israel Melzer, Zelig Fine, Barney Jacobson, Sam Jacobson, Maurice Green, Nathan Dreakin, Benjamin Webber, Myman Swetsky and Sydney Berusky took the character parts.

IN AID OF CAMPAIGN FUND. The performance last night was in aid of the Troop camp fund and the Young Judeans are prepared to repeat the performance on a share and

A field committee was also appointed and recommended any changes or improvements in the field.

There will be four teams in the league, the same as last year, and the schedule is now being drawn up by the various team managers. It is proposed to open the season in the last week of May.

FINE PROGRAM IS GIVEN AT IMPERIAL

Lady Windemere's Fan, Rossley Kiddies and Other Features Enjoyed

As a community institution the Imperial Theatre lived up to its reputation last night when overflow crowds saw the exquisite Oscar Wilde play, "Lady Windemere's Fan," enjoyed the Rossley Kiddies in their juvenile vaudeville and heard the election returns read from the stage.

ELABORATE SCREENING "Lady Windemere's Fan" is a high-water mark in the show business. It is supposed to be a biting sarcasm on the foibles and deceit of some so-called exquisite society.

DELIGHTFUL KIDDIES And the Rossley Kiddies! What a dainty little show they are in themselves! This time Imperial patrons missed the faces and voices of a large number of the older girls. In fact the ranks have been recruited from a brand new crop of little ones ranging from three years to 12 and 13.

The best feature in the bill is no doubt the big ballet entitled "The Crimson Moth," though it is hard to distinguish between the entertainment value of any and all of the acts.

MAE MURRAY STAR IN FILM OF PARIS

Mae Murray returns to France, a favorite scene for her colorful adventures, in "The Masked Bride," her first picture since the sensational success she scored in "The Merry Widow."

It is a colorful adventure story laid in Paris and the Montmartre, with Miss Murray, as a French dancer, engaged in a strange Apache plot. The picture was directed on a lavish scale at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios by Christy Cabanne.

This engagement closes with tonight's performances.

Noted Canadian Authoress and Poet Will Give Recital Here Some Time This Month; Mrs. W. E. Raymond Offers Her Home For Social Function For Visitor

THE NEW BRUNSWICK branch of the Canadian Women's Press Club at its meeting yesterday afternoon, at the residence, of the president, Mrs. Margaret Lawrence, in Orange street, made preliminary arrangements for an evening recital to be given by Katherine Hale (Mrs. John Garvin), noted Canadian authoress and poet, who will be in New Brunswick this month getting material for a new book on the historic homes of Canada.

At the close of the business session the hostess served dainty refreshments and Mrs. E. R. Taylor presided at the tea table.

There is no lack of thrills and entertainment in "The Unholy Three," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, now showing at the Palace Theatre.

Indeed, it may be said that Browning has made more than a good under-drama that goes with a bang because it contains real heart interest, plenty of comedy and a lot of drama.

BARTHELMESS ON SCREEN AT UNIQUE

His Wife Also in Cast of "New Toys"—Story of Home Life

Richard Barthelmess is back on the screen of the Unique Theatre in "New Toys."

Incidentally picture patrons are invited to become acquainted with Dick's wife, Mary Hay, who plays the leading feminine role in "New Toys," returning to the screen for the first time since she was wooed and won by the star during the filming of the Griffith production.

The story of "New Toys" is appealing because of its realism. It presents a young couple in the early stages of married life, settling down to a future of apparent happiness with their little home and baby.
