SWIMMING SEASON NEARING THE END

City Scows To Go late Winter Quarters Soon—More Ample Accommodation Next Year Perhaps. The swimming scows, which have been in Marble Cove during the summer will be taken to their winter quarters in Wiggins' slip, West St. John, on Monday, September 30. During the season the scows have received a record-breaking patronage and it is estimated that as many as 800 people, both young and old, have taken advantage daily of the facilities afforded to enjoy a swim.

From morning until dark crowds of boys, girls, young men and women, and many people past the prime of life enjoyed a swim in the river water, and had the accommodation been larger many more would have joined them.

During the season the scows were in charge of Swimming Instructor Mark Burns, who was a general favorite with all. Daily he gave instructions to beginners and as a result many are now able to swim. To those more advanced in the art he gave demonstrations of life saving and told them of methods used for resuscitation. During this period Mr. Burns had to keep a watchful eye on all present in the water and on several occasions had to plunge into the water with his clothes on to save some from drowning.

Mr. Burns has been assured that, if conditions warrant it next year, the Harbor Commissioners and Fisheries will assist him in his good work by giving him more ample accommodations.

WET WEATHER NO BAR

K. of C. Patriotic Fair Tonight as Usual—Only a Few of the Out-of-Door Attractions Affected by the Weather—Bumper Crows Expected. While the committees who have in hand the patriotic indoor fair are laudably busy with the details of the fair, the members of the Knights of Columbus in behalf of their appeal for the Army Huts fund don't like to see the rain at this stage of the proceedings, yet they are not at all worried because of the moist atmosphere. The reason is simple: when it is raining use more of the capacious indoor space afforded by the splendid building of the local council.

Tonight, rain or shine, the fair will be held and it promises to be a big night, good weather or bad. If it continues wet, some of the outdoor attractions will be moved indoors; if not there will be the activity of the opening night on a larger scale. There is plenty of space in the main building to hold everyone to get in out of the rain but then it may not be raining when the fair opens tonight so let us of us unite and get together to put the local drive well over the top. St. John has done this so often in the past and will do it again. It seems little likelihood of a failure in this instance.

Tonight the City Cornet Band will be in attendance. Things will be running even better than on the opening night. You should make it a point to be there—rain or shine.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE OF RAILWAY MEN HERE

High Representatives of C. P. R. and C. G. R. Arrive in City. A conference of Canadian Pacific Railway and Canadian Government Railway officials held in the suite of offices of C. P. R. Superintendent H. C. Groat this afternoon is of unusual importance to the city and port of St. John. It is a specially arranged discussion of transportation matters, both passenger and freight, for the ensuing fall and winter trans-Atlantic service and matters pertaining to war transportation.

The following C. P. R. officials arrived by the Montreal express: A. Price, assistant general manager; Geo. Hoag, assistant to the general manager; E. P. Plimfort, assistant general solicitor. General Manager C. A. Hayes of the government road has with him the following staff from headquarters: C. B. Brown, assistant general manager; I. S. Brown, general superintendent; H. E. Alward, general solicitor; W. R. Devenish, assistant general superintendent; E. T. Weldon, general freight agent; W. R. Ripper, superintendent of car service and F. O. Condon, division engineer.

Divisional Superintendent Groat and General Manager Hayes were disclaimed to talk for publication on the possible trend of discussion at the meeting but inferred that the joint gathering was an important one.

Alec. Lyon, Toronto, moved an amendment which advised the government to pay no more interest on any war bonds and to return only the principal loaned. This would be, he said, a test of the patriotism of the people to see if they were willing to make sacrifices as were the men on the fields of Flanders.

Frank Wheatley, Bankhead, Alta., opposed the motion. There ensued a series of disorders. H. J. Halford, Hamilton, moved the vote.

The "ayes" for the amendment seemed to be in the majority. A dozen delegates demanded that the debate continue and were "booed". The chairman allowed further speeches. Several speakers talked for five minutes. Chairman Waters pounded his gavel. Ultimately partial quiet was restored and Mr. Waters then denounced the obstruction tactics.

C. W. Foster, of Transcona, moved as a second amendment that all future war loans carry no interest. Delegate Taylor asked for a roll call vote and the convention turned down the request.

The Stevenson motion was adopted amidst cheers, and the members of the faction opposing it asked that their names be entered in the minutes as objecting.

RIOT IN HALIFAX. Halifax city is considerably wrought up over a riot which took place early in the week on the site where a travelling tent show was operating. The sharp methods of the show crowd worked the people into a ferment and they tore down the plant and chased the offenders out of town. Halifax papers contained news items and editorials denouncing the authorities for allowing tent shows any privilege whatever in war times and

New York, Sept. 20.—(Wall Street)—Steels and equipments resumed leadership at the opening of the stock market today. Belief that the steel conference at Washington would result in an upward revision in prices was the ostensible cause for the buying of United States Steel which advanced nearly a point. Impending large orders for equipment forced purchases of Baldwin Locomotive and American Car at substantial improvements. Recent favorability in oil and shippings, were relegated to the background, but there was increased inquiry for several lesser known specialties, notably Burns Brothers. Canadian Pacific advanced 1-1/4 points.

CANADA MUST TAKE DRASTIC MEASURES FOR IMMIGRATION

Danger of Other Dominions Outpacing This Country in Propaganda Work

Double Population—Great Result Will be Seen in Seven Years by Aggressive Action—Big Field Ready

London, Sept. 1.—It is generally conceded that Canada's development and increased productivity will be largely dependent upon the nature of immigrants. That methods and machinery of the past decade will not successfully carry on this work in the future is an ancient and modern maxim. It is possible to await peace and then inaugurate a successful system that will give to Canada a million new settlers a year, and settlers who are fitted in intelligence and financial resources to be a great factor in the development of our several industries. To secure our share of European emigration of the better class, Canada's plans and propaganda should now be in effect or we will find that others will have the car of the European who desires new fields to escape excessive taxation here and where opportunities for material advancement are greater. British settlers will be the object of every part of the empire, and we are to secure our just proportion then we must take early and energetic action.

In our after-war efforts to secure the British settler for Canada we will for the first year be confronted with serious transportation difficulties, but for a much longer period have to meet the keen competition of Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and British East Africa, and also the opposition of the British authorities to the depletion of the British population at home, even if it is not leaving the empire. It is evident that demobilisation will for a year at least take the full carrying capacity of our ocean transportation facilities and during that period this will prove an effective barrier to any great exodus from Great Britain.

The other British dominions are especially active now in propaganda, and New Zealand and Australia are greatly assisted by excellent buildings, fine displays and located where thousands are attracted. On the part of Canada there has been relaxation instead of increased energy. Great Britain will exert every effort to retain her power. Even before the war the ever increasing disparity in the male and female populations in Britain caused alarm, and with already a terrible toll taken of British manhood in the war, Britain will give encouragement, but rather make a determined light to retain her men. Then the new British arising will afford greater opportunities in better social conditions, adequate wages and increased agricultural production for her people. But the wanderlust through the unsettled lands of war has seduced British men and millions will seek fortunes in new countries, and it is those Canada must direct to her shores or lose the greatest opportunity in our history to secure that development so long desired. There are two other methods, but the necessity for an educative action now, not after other countries have taken action.

Can Double Population.
There can be no question of the necessity of increasing Canada's population by immigration immediately after the war. With aggressive action we can double our population in seven years following peace, we can add to our wealth a million dollars a day by the resources of those who will come to our country, or in four years bring into Canada the equivalent of our national debt. Instead of borrowing money in foreign markets we can take both the people and their money. In England thousands of moderate means can be obtained. The excessive taxation, the impossibility of maintenance of former social position, the desire to give greater opportunities to their children for material wealth, will all be factors in arriving at a decision to go to a new country. We can take millions in wealth and thousands in citizenship from Scandinavia. Among the Americans here we can do much to turn their eyes Canadianward when they return to the United States. We can do all this, but we are not doing it. We can double the population, make our national wealth fourfold, increase our foreign trade. It can be done, but only by the immediate adoption and the giving effect to an aggressive propaganda. We hear less in Europe of Canada than we did six months ago and we will hear still less six months hence if we don't utilize every agency to keep our country and its possibilities in the limelight. It is Canada's opportunity.

WEST SIDE CONCERT

A concert was given last evening in the vestry of Ludlow street Baptist church, the proceeds of which are to go towards the buying of Christmas boxes for the boys of the church overseas. There was a very large attendance and all indications went to show that a large sum of money will be realized. The concert was conducted under the auspices of the Relief Society. Those taking part included, Clyde Parsons, Ralph Spence, Ermine Climo, Nellie and Sadie Carrell, Victoria street Baptist church quartette, Percy Crookshanks and Miss Horton. Miss M. E. Mullin, the church organist, acted as accompanist.

RECENT DEATHS
Mrs. James Johnston.
Many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. James Johnston, which occurred yesterday afternoon at her residence, 189 Brussels street, after a lingering illness. Besides her husband, she leaves five small children and two sisters, Mrs. Fred Johnston of this city and Mrs. T. J. Lynch, of Boston. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

R. G. Haley yesterday received a telegram announcing the sudden death in Yarmouth (N. S.), on Wednesday evening of his brother-in-law, C. C. Richards, one of the best known of the town's merchants. An only son, Dr. A. Richards, is practicing in Rochester (N. Y.). Mrs. Richards, a sister of Mrs. Haley, died suddenly about a month ago.

Richard Beamish will refer to the death of his wife, which occurred yesterday afternoon at her residence, 189 Brussels street, after an illness of only one week. Mr. Beamish was seventy years of age and is survived by his wife and daughter and one brother, Thomas, of the Westmorland road.

The death of J. Campbell McLeod of Little Ridge occurred yesterday after an illness of about one year. He represented his parish at the county council for more than twelve years and was warden two terms in succession. He was sixty-nine years old.

"OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP EARLY IN THE MORNING"

Expresses your feelings exactly, doesn't it? This Victor record is the latest out and is the hit of the month. The other side contains "OI FRENCHY"

Which reverses the usual order of things, as it is the nurse, who goes over, that brings back the French hubby.

Both songs are lively, catchy and clearly sung, and make a good record altogether.
If you cannot come yourself, 'Phone 1988-81, and we'll send somebody to play it on your own machine.

THE COMING MUSICAL TREAT

MARIE MORRISEY, CONTRALTO.

Marie Morrisey, the charming New York contralto, assisted by Joe Belov, violinist, will be heard in an unique recital at Imperial Theatre on the afternoon of Tuesday, September 24, and Miss Morrisey is one of the very few artists who has won metropolitan recognition over night. She has attained prominence in her chosen field mainly through her own efforts. American born and trained, Miss Morrisey sings equally well in French, Italian, German and English, and her repertoire is surprisingly large. She has often said that American songs by American composers are as beautiful as any to be found. She has received songs composed by Americans. All Miss Morrisey's concerts are marked by a natural ease and grace of manner, a wonderfully attractive personality and a display of voice which is unusually full and rich.

It is understood that admission to this recital will be by invitation only. Messrs. W. H. Thomas & Co., Ltd., are mainly responsible for bringing this splendid singer here.

It is rumored that Miss Morrisey will attempt the seemingly impossible feat of singing a duet with herself. Just how this can be done, we do not know and will have to be shown.

Joe Belov, violinist, is an artist of considerable reputation who has toured in this country for several seasons, making friends and admirers wherever he has been heard because of his serious attitude toward his art as well as his unusual talent.

Admittance to the recital will be by card only.

AMERICAN LOVE OF FLOWERS.

To the Editor of The Times: Sir,—Reading your most interesting comment on the culture of flowers, how to acquire such a love through the teachers of our schools as in the United States so successfully pursued, it has occurred to our mind that an effort should be commenced at once to facilitate such a loving desire.

On one personal part we shall be glad to help gratuitously every genuine lover of Nature's greatest gift to mankind—the splendor and beauty of her flowers. To every teacher who will introduce the enlightened American plan of instruction of this beneficent cause we will gladly—practically and personally—while we remain alive, discover to them its simple requirements from the smallest spot of rocky ground we occupy and which we feel we have changed from a rough, bare and barren rocky site to a real paradise of beauty and bloom; and from those who have seen its condensed loveliness and have left with their hands full of its treasures gratefully offered them, have come to many a desire to "have a garden" as a sign placed by a generous friend of flowers on every available lighting electric post in this city in the last spring.

Unfortunately many were torn off by the uneducated and unthinking, which has brought forth your kindly, valuable and reasoning complaint of the vandalism so long continued in this city and suburbs.

The sole true remedy—the school—as advised in your ever-growing practical wisdom, should be aided by every legislator in Canada and thus become true brothers of the advanced educated neighbors so near us.

Starting from a boyhood of twelve years of age we have ever with increased interest pursued gardening for seventy years, seeking the practical in successful ways to obtain best results. We have a flower called durivilla. It is, with the exception of orchids, the most valuable we cultivate, blooms the same time as tulips, but unlike tulips ever remains in the ground, evergreen winter and summer when not blooming. It is of these plants we will present a half dozen to every teacher who undertakes the teaching, by offering a half dozen as a prize to every winner who joins the classes. We have for fifty years been collecting these beautiful and many colored flowers and possess enough for all.

Yours most respectfully,
J. S. CLIMO.

TO SERBIAN UNIT

Major Amund, paymaster of Military District No. 7, has been appointed by Ottawa that he has been advised paymaster of an infantry unit with the Siberian contingent, and to hold himself in readiness to be transferred to the same. Major Amund has been attached to the Ottawa branch of the pay office for several years previous to his appointment to this district. Word that Major Amund had been sent to the Siberian contingent came as no little surprise to himself as well as to military men at local headquarters.

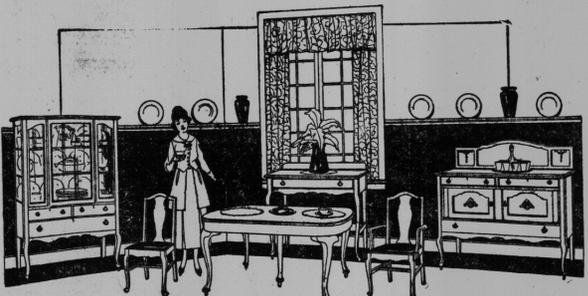

AT RIVER GLADE

Dr. Charles MacKay, medical director of the Invalids' Soldiers' Convalescent for New Brunswick was in the city yesterday. He said that twenty-one soldier patients had already been admitted to the River Glade Sanitarium and that preparations were underway for the reception of more. He announced that a donation of 400 volumes of books had been received from the Women's Canadian Club of St. John, through the president, Mrs. G. A. Kurling, for which the institution, is indeed grateful.

GERMAN PEACE BID TO BELGIUM USELESS

Foreign Minister of Plucky Nation Discusses the Matter

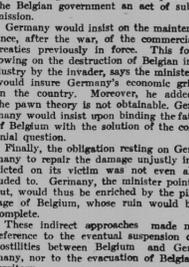

London, Sept. 19.—(By the Associated Press)—The Belgian foreign minister, in discussing Germany's "peace approach" to Belgium, declares that the conditions cannot be taken as a basis for any serious discussion. From the details furnished by the foreign minister, it appears that Belgium received no formal proposition directly from the German government, but that communications came by an indirect channel.

Following on the Heels of A Retreating Army

In the Wake of Canadian Advance After Second Battle of Amiens—Impressions of the Battlefield and of the Men Who Played Their Part in Great Struggle

(By Lucy Amy, Special Correspondent of the Times.)

With the Canadian Forces in the Field, France, Aug. 12—To follow on the heels of a retreating army and a victorious one, is to look on a tremendous play. Incident follows incident so fast, impression after impression, that even the horrors of war are concealed behind the veil of unreality. It is a great scene of make-believe, where the realities are vividly portrayed by an expert cast and manager, where death loses its shock and blood its shudder, where menace of guns is only theatrical, where thousands move as before a moving-picture operator.

During the past two days I have looked on sights I could not have endured before the war. Every atom of gruesomeness passed before my eyes without more than a wonder at the extent of their heartlessness. Dead Germans lying as they fell meant nothing but an essential of the mechanism of the spectacle. The valuable material of war scattered over the field and roads was as trivial as stage properties. The thousands of shells blown through which our car picked its way were but the sprays of a practical joker. The ruined towns, filled in a few cases with personal possessions to make home comfortable and life pleasant, were careless brushstrokes in the completeness of the show. Shells burst within a few yards of me, machine guns chattered, aeroplanes whirled all a daylight display of fireworks.

Fortunately our own dead within sight were laid out in orderly rows, with a patch working among them. It was the last rites in a glorious career—that was in my mind. Strongly enough it was the slaughtered horses left the most disagreeable impression. Our guns had caught the Germans in retreat, and the horses lay in the teams as they had been settling in the fight.

Those are the films in the panorama upon which I will not care to dwell in the days to come. The rest was the great panorama of war at its greatest intensity, the picture of colossal things bent only on destruction. And we in our cars were spectators on the scene.

The Second Day.
The second day opened with the enemy eight miles behind his old front lines and still going. Over a shell-pitted road we ran, into territory so bravely won of late weeks by the Australians. Through a large town which has passed from hand to hand several times we picked our way among the ruins out into our own conquered territory.

The Useful Aircraft.
Over the fields on both days hovered flocks of our aeroplanes, flying low, like hawks in search of field mice. Up and down they swooped, and down they swooped, hunting out every corner and hollow for neglected wounded and for Germans not yet killed. The aeroplanes were working out the problems of war apart from observation and bombing.

Over all that territory where thousands of men had fought and run away and died, where guns had been blasted of steel and cavalry had galloped into the retreating ranks, where tanks and whippets by the many score had rumbled and waddled on their irresistible way, there were only two whippets disabled and not one tank. More in two days' covering of the whole Canadian front from close up I saw only four or five tanks and whippets not prepared to move forward at the word of command. Their packed trails led everywhere, over fields and ditches, climbing roadsides and hills, and even pushing their big bulks into woods.

One of the great pleasures of the route was the crowds of German prisoners I met everywhere. There were cages full of them and waiting evacuation before more could be brought in. Groups trudged down the roads where we went, their guard seemingly ridiculously inadequate in appearance.

The first village we entered that had fallen to the Canadians was a huge ruin. Not a house had a roof that shed rain in any corner; walls were down, doors and windows gone. Yet much of the furniture was still there, much of it intact. Fine old mahogany beds and secretaries, kitchen stoves light and whole, chairs—there was the stock of a dozen furniture stores. But more important were the stores of equipment left by the Germans. Rifles lay everywhere, packs that had been hastily cleared of their contents, and a few machine guns, ready to be used, and piles of boxes of cartridges. Even great coats had been thrown aside and helmets and caps.

Already an advanced dressing station had been established in the town. Along these or four roads within sight traffic was rolling eastward in a cloud of dust like smoke from a big fire. Labor gangs were working furiously on a railway that had not carried a train for many a day. All along the sky our balloons were sighted, crowding so close to the enemy's heels as to leave us in doubt sometimes as to whose they were.

About a half-mile ahead a big German gun was lazily dropping shells. Almost with the boom of the gun came the whistle of the shell, and with the shrill note was still in the air the cloud of dust registered the explosion. A high-explosive shell was falling not from the same place with a sharp note and a thin cloud of dust. No one paid attention, though working parties were all about mopping up the fields and paving the way for further advance.

But one gun was firing, and it was such a warlike scene—and I experienced the same throughout the two days of the campaign. The only sound was the insignificant amount of enemy shelling. Not more than sixty or seventy German shells within sight though they were at one time within a mile of the battle. The Germans were too busy getting their guns back to safety to take time to respond to our continued bombardment. It saved us many a casualty and enabled the war correspondent to keep in unusually close touch with the progress of events. And of all the shells I saw, not one fell in a village or caused a casualty.

Over the fields lay little mounds of clothing, closer they became Germans with staring eyes and outstretched arms, their faces twisted in the throes of their last moments. Though hundreds had been collected during the early hours of Canadian possession, the task was too great even for two days. And the dust of traffic following close on the heels of the warriors had spread a merciful veil over their lifeless forms.

To Relieve Catarrh Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Is Strong For Intervention

NOW IS THE TIME for general cleaning out of the intestines if you wish to avoid constipation, biliousness, pimples and other troubles so frequent at this season of the year.

One line of 888 was in the hands of only three guards. In another case two Canadian soldiers and four Germans were carrying one of our body bags. The Germans were carrying four stretchers with four carriers each counted in one line. Later I saw many at work of course far behind the fighting line, according to the agreement and they looked more in their niche as laborers than as fighters.

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed.

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parment (Double Strength), about 90 cents. Take this home and add to 1-4 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. Parment is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, but to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any ear-ache, ear-ache, ear-ache, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every German who has entered in any form should give this recipe a trial.

London, Sept. 20.—At the inter-allied labor conference yesterday, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, replying to a criticism by James Ramsay MacDonald, former chairman of the labor party, regarding the declaration in the committee Wilson's fourteen points for world peace, declared that not one labor party in the allied countries had rejected the president's points.

Frederickton, Sept. 19.—Another York county boy, Private Richard Roborough, of Prince William, has answered the last call. He was killed in France on August 31, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Richard Roborough, today.

The second day after the attack I determined to get as close to the line as possible and see the advance for myself. I got so close that I lost interest in everything but the rear. After the first five or six miles of the ground was broken by shell fire, as the Germans had steadily retreated there and our guns were following to get a chance to shell them. Our car rolled along, therefore, at any speed we liked over roads in precisely the same condition as they had been used only a couple of days before by the German military machine. Here, too, the fields were whole and ripe for cutting, the houses had whole roofs, though they were dirty and partly ruined by their late German occupants.

Y. M. C. A. on the Job.
We passed through a village where the Y. M. C. A. was already serving out hot tea and biscuits and chocolate. Indeed, the supplies were in the village at that time, and the Germans had left, having traveled all night over a much-bombed road.

Former Russian Premier Says His Nation Prevented Collapse of Europe When Britain Was Preparing—Labor and the War

THE BATTLEFIELD HONOR ROLL

For many miles it had been passing isolated groups of dead Germans, as if they had resolved to sell their lives dearly and together. Sometimes we had to leave our car in the trench, and since the Germans had left until ours dared it. Not far away trenches were being dug, and they gazed at us with curiosity.

Close to the Fighting.
Before us stretched a barren plain sloping gently upwards to a crest about 100 yards away. The crest was topped by a complete battery of German whizzbangs. An entire train stood as it had when we first saw it, the train standing up at us from the trenches, not a living thing was in sight; and by the side of the crest, the trench was a sign but the burning villages and dumps that I was close to the fighting.

British Strike Averted

Announcement was made last evening that a settlement had been reached between the striking railroad employes and their employers in London. Thus the threatened national railway strike has been averted.

CANADIANS MOURN
DEATH OF LIEUT. COL.
B. McLELLAN, D. S. O.

Montreal Soldier "A Fine Gentleman" is Tribute of General Currie

(By Lacey Amy, Special Correspondence of The Times.)

With the Canadian Forces, France, Aug. 8—Today the Canadians mourn. There has just been entered in the long list of toll to the god of war the name of "a fine gentleman," Lieut.-Colonel Bartlet McLellan, D. S. O., commanding officer of one of the famous Highland battalions from Montreal, has died in harness, in the thick of the fight, as a soldier would wish to die.

In a new part of the line he was preparing the way for the entrance of his battalion. Reconnitering in a hot section held by other units, he was passing a spot which the enemy has been shelling intermittently. It is the loss of his battalion, his country, that fate brought over at that moment another shell.

When the word was passed about my men far behind the lines, though there was not a member of his battalion present, his reputation and the unofficial acquaintance of the officers there were enough to cast an unusual damper over the meal—for the soul of war is accepting its losses lightly. Fellow citizens of Montreal had known him in the days before the war, and some had come in contact with him since. All of us knew the standing of "Bart" McLellan in the Canadian forces.

It was General Currie himself who

LABOR MEN DEMAND
FOOD PRICE CONTROL

Quebec, Que., Sept. 19—The executive committee of the prices of essential foodstuffs, cereals, meats, etc., by the dominion government is demanded a resolution adopted at this afternoon's session of the Trades and Labor Congress. Attempts were made by the radical faction attending the congress to secure an amendment for an amendment which urged that all wages should be increased when the price of commodities went up, but the attempts were unsuccessful. A motion, which was dropped for that ultimately carried, asked for the appointment by the dominion government of a commission to fix the prices of necessities of life.

The congress also adopted a resolution calling for the nationalization of the practice of medicine and all hospitals. At the opening of the session this afternoon it was announced that President Watters had been endorsed as a delegate to the congress by his Ottawa local, thus rendering him eligible for re-election as an officer of the organization.

Addressing the delegates, William Mahone, international president of the street railwaymen's union, Detroit, asked T. G. Hancock, M. P., the representative of the British trades and labor congress, to take back with him the instruction that Ireland must have Home Rule. "As an Irish American," said Mr. Mahone, "and as the father of three soldiers, I say our boys will fight the battle for democracy and against Prussian militarism, but Britain must do justice to Ireland and all her provinces."

CZARINA AND FAMILY
BURNED TO DEATH

London, Sept. 19—The former Russian empress and three princesses and two grand duchesses, whose names are not reported, were burned to death about a month after the Russian emperor was shot, according to a story reaching London. The source of the story is given consideration, in some quarters and an investigation has been started. After the former emperor was killed the women were taken to an isolated village, according to the present report, made prisoners in a residence, and were there only a few days when a crowd of Bolsheviks attacked the house. The women barricaded the doors and the house was set on fire. All the persons in the house perished.

used the words I have quoted above. "He was a fine gentleman, and one of the best officers I had. It was typical of him that his last words were 'thank you' to the one who gave him a drink of water as he lay wounded." It was a personal tribute any Canadian officer would dare much to win.

Lieut.-Colonel McLellan, well-known in his home city, with additional fame as a polo player and rider, came to the front in the spring of 1915, as second in command of his battalion. For more than a year now he has been commanding officer. His record has been clean and full of glory. That he should be the first casualty among the higher officers in the new sector taken over by the Canadians is a spur to the determination of the entire force during the coming days of battle. It is by sacrifices such as this that the goal is reached the quicker.

This WONDERFUL POLISH is as useful in the GARAGE as it is in the HOME

The ideal furniture polish also makes an ideal automobile polish. O-Cedar Polish successfully fulfills all the requirements of the motorist.

This is the polish most generally recommended by the men who know. Leading makers and dealers are telling its merits to car owners—telling them that the O-Cedar way is the easy, economical way of keeping the auto body practically like "new."

Wet a clean piece of cloth with water—and wring it until it is just moist. Pour on this damp cloth a few drops of O-Cedar; this will form a soft, harmless "lather" that quickly removes all dirt and grease.

If there is mud on the body, wash it off first. Another way of using O-Cedar Polish for automobile is to put half O-Cedar and half water in a "Sprayer." Before using shake sprayer to mix O-Cedar with water and then operate.

A brisk rubbing with a dry cloth completes the process.

O-Cedar does not "gum"; wiping off dry, it will never catch the dust.

(a) Wet a piece of cloth in water.
(b) Wring until it is just moist.
(c) Pour on polish and rub over car.
(d) Polish with dry cloth.

The polish which O-Cedar gives is a lasting one—it will remain for many days.

Now is the time to get acquainted with O-Cedar. "Economy" is the watchword of the country, and economy can be practised only by those who know how to make old things look like new. Your old car may be made to look its best by frequent cleaning and polishing with O-Cedar. It will make you feel so satisfied with your old car's appearance as to quite reconcile you to the idea of postponing the painting of your old car—or the purchase of a new one.

For furniture and for floors, also, O-Cedar stands unrivalled. Keeps furniture from becoming shabby—keeps linoleums from cracking—keeps floors from getting dull.

Use O-Cedar about the house—and in the garage. It will prove invaluable. It is on sale at all Hardware, Furniture and Grocery Stores, in sizes ranging in price from 25c. to $3.00.

LOYALIST CHAPTER'S CHINESE EVENING

When the Loyalist Chapter I. O. O. E. held its unique Chinese and Hawaiian entertainment last evening the school-room of the Stone church was hardly large enough to hold the appreciative audience that had gathered to witness the event. The entertainment was ably supervised by a "Chinese lady from Hong King", and included a dramatic presentation of a Chinese wedding with brilliant costume effects, some remarkably good Hawaiian music and dancing performed in as genuine a reel and straw covered Hawaiian house as ever strayed to Canada. Tea was served in truly Chinese fashion and the decorations were all of the Orient. Oriental Chinese curios were on exhibition and Chinese tea, ginger and toys were sold.

There was also a wartime candy booth where special overseas packages found ready sale and a stall of flowers of all varieties.

All of the members of the chapter assisted in the entertainment, in its arrangements and its presentation, and they are much to be complimented on their faithful reproduction of things Oriental. The staging of their performances could have been compared with the work of any professional scenic artist.

and would have been accorded well merited praise. Both financially and as an entertainment the Chinese evening was a splendid success.

WE anticipated present conditions and laid in a tremendous supply of quality fabrics. These were woven for us during 1914 and 1915. It is the part of wisdom for you to "load up" on our Made-to-Measure Garments to the limit. We are continuing to make to your measure, garments from these fine fabrics, on a basis of what they cost us, instead of taking advantage of the present and much higher market value.

You can see on every side stores offering ready-made clothes at prices much higher than we are asking for custom tailored, made-to-measure, perfect-fitting suits and overcoats. You have the most conclusive proof that our prices are astonishingly low.

The Gazette SARTORIAL PROBLEM

Tailors Finding it Hard to Get Woollens

Toronto, August 27.—The tailors of Canada are going to be hard hit this season to obtain woollens to meet the demands of the customer tailoring trade, for the simple reason that the British mills are not producing the goods according to the requirements of men who they know. It may not be a case of being compelled to wear the plain grey standard cloth that Great Britain is using heretofore. Just for the present Canadian people will have to be satisfied with what there is to be had, and will have to pay the maximum prices at that.

YOU must appreciate the extremely serious situation confronting the textile trades now. Woollens have doubled, tripled, quadrupled! Worse than that, it is next to impossible to get goods from the mills. It is impossible to exaggerate the situation.

Trimnings as well as woollens—linings, haircloth, thread, buttons; everything entering into the making of a Suit or Overcoat has advanced to an unbelievable height. High School Boys Getting Ready For Football Season
Have Started Training on the Old Shamrock Grounds For Interscholastic League Series

Endowed with a spirit of the "older boys" and a desire to emulate their achievements on the football field the senior members of St. John High School have started into making preparations for the coming football season. Daily they assemble on the old Shamrock grounds where they are beginning to learn the intricacies of the game. The chief object is to regain possession of the large silver trophy emblematic of the championship of the interscholastic football league, which was taken from them by Hothesay College boys last year. This incentive is spurring the boys on to a desire which is bound to bear fruit for already they are showing signs of developing into an aggregation which should make a name for itself during the coming season. Eight members of last year's team are back fighting for a place this year and in addition there are some fourteen or fifteen new candidates out trying for a place on the line-up. While the team will be considerably lighter than in former years, the members are apparently made of the "right stuff" and are making up in speed and pluck what they lack in weight. The forwards are showing up well in the preliminary workouts and should develop a good strong scrim, while the quarter promise to be in a class by themselves as half line and fullback have yet to be selected from a promising group of candidates. When this has been done the boys will be put through some hard work by their coach.

AN IMPERIAL ATHLETIC MEET
British, Canadian and Australian Soldiers Contest Events on English Field, With U. S. Officers and Men Assisting
Somewhere in England, Aug. 31—(Correspondent of The Associated Press)—British, Canadian and Australian soldiers contested in the athletic sports held by an army brigade here the other day. British contingent won the majority of the events owing, partly, to the fact that more Britishers than any others participated. A challenge shield, presented by the brigadier general, and a challenge cup, presented by an American colonel, were to be fought for. A cabinet minister was among the judges, and his wife was in charge of the distribution of prizes. The soldiers, company after company, American, British, Canadian and Australian, marched in fours to the athletic ground, singing gay marching tunes. A big field they formed little groups of truly international character around the open, cheering and shouting. Before the sport programme began, there was the customary parade of competitors. They marched around the running track, group by group, amid cheering from the rival camps, and led by the pipers of the Scotch Guards whose reels and strathspeys put new life into the tiers of spectators. Twice the Reds and Greens and Blues made the quarter-mile circuit. Then the starter's pistol told that the first heat was on. It was the open quarter-mile with contestants from the American, British and Australian contingents. The final was won in 53-4-5 seconds—not bad time on wet grass. There was a long programme, all gone through with the keenest enthusiasm, and an international flavor to almost every event. As the number of such successive winners was posted up, the stands cheered themselves hoarse. Meanwhile there was pipe music galore, while the results mattered little, for in these things the mere result is nothing in comparison with the spirit in which the events are contested and the cordial entente which results. "It all looks bad for the boche," remarked the American Colonel to the British Brigadier as the men, Allies all, marched off the field.

Double-Header Tomorrow.
Another double-header will be played tomorrow on the Queen Square diamond in West St. John, between the Giants and Courtneys in the series of nine games to decide the championship of the West Side League. The Giants have won four games and all that they need to clinch the coveted trophy is another victory, while on the other hand the Courtneys maintain that baseball is a funny game and they have still a big chance to win out. The first game will be in the afternoon at 2:30 sharp and the second at 6 o'clock.

THE LATE MR. BEAMISH
The late Richard Beamish, whose death occurred yesterday at his home in Winter street, was a well known center, who possessed alike the respect of his customers and of his workmen. He served his time and learned his trade with the late David Lynch.

SAM SPEDON HERE
Sam Spedon, well known motion picture trade journal writer and artist, is in town today en route from the Halifax convention and will now a detailed report for the Motion Picture World of the deliberations in the sister city. Mr. Spedon is a splendid platform speaker, having been years engaged as a lecturing cartoonist. Some time ago he lectured in the important parts of Eastern Canada and his association with the motion picture industry and visits from time to time have made him a welcome figure in the industry in this territory as in the United States and Canada generally.
HELPING THE HUNS
The Hun army on its retreat is pillaging and destroying everything in its wake. But the citizens of St. John will be surprised to learn that all the Huns have not left the city, as one of the war gardens in the south end of the city is getting its full share of Boche work. Vegetables of all kinds are being destroyed by being taken from the ground and thrown away. This has been going on for some time and the patience of the owners is about ended. If it is not stopped means will be taken to surprise the offenders.

LATE REACHING CITY.
The locomotive drawing the early morning Halifax train developed trouble on the way to St. John during the night and was forced to stop at Hampton, where the engine of the suburban train was commandeered. This eliminated the early local train, which forced suburban to take the nine o'clock, a delay not gracefully accepted by most passengers. The same engine then proceeded to the roundhouse under its own steam. The reason for making the shift was largely that of transferring passengers ticketed for American points who had to connect with the 6.45 a. m. train.

MATTER OF INTERPRETATION.
The case of Leaky vs. Grant & Horne, which was tried before His Honor Judge Armstrong and jury yesterday, has been amicably settled. This case arose out of a misunderstanding as to the amount to be paid for unloading three screws; the plaintiff contending that the defendant was to pay him $128 a load, while the defendant contended that $12 a ton was the amount agreed upon. When the verbal contract was made the amount stated was $128, and the interpretation of this led to the misunderstanding. The jury, after hearing the evidence, made the recommendation of the parties together and settle, and this suggestion was acted upon.

ASHBURN BRIDGE.
The work of rebuilding Ashburn bridge has been completed and the new structure is a credit to the city workmen. The bridge is supported by large pine girders set on solid foundations and the floor is made of heavy timber, so placed that any strain will be well divided. Grand trails have been placed to act as a safeguard to traffic and eliminating any danger of a team or automobile, out of control, breaking down the railing and being precipitated into the gully. The work has been supervised by Engineer Hatfield and Street Superintendent Clifford Price, and a cost of construction is said to be $400 less than the lowest tender submitted for the work.

FUNERAL OF MISS THORNE.
The funeral of Miss Hazel Thorne took place this afternoon from her late residence, 6 Peters street. Services were conducted by Rev. King Doyle, McChor and interment was made in the old Church of England burying ground. The many floral offerings testified to the esteem in which Miss Thorne was held in the community. The late Miss Thorne was ill for more than a year, but her disposition concealed the fact from many. Miss Thorne's death was learned of with the deepest regret. In musical circles her position will be hard to fill. Up until the time of her illness, Miss Thorne was a member of the office staff of the Y. M. C. A.

HALIFAX RECONSTRUCTION
With the approach of winter, great efforts are being made in Halifax reconstruction circles to get homes plastered and dried for occupancy. Property owners are rebuilding their residences with more care and modern ideas than are usually exercised nowadays in small cities. A great deal of the construction is concrete and already the area devastated less than a year ago is dotted with splendid new homes which will make Halifax a very pretty city indeed, residentially, and will absolutely change the appearance of the Richmond district which was not an attractive locality prior to the explosion. It is interesting for St. John visitors to wind their way through a temporary village erected on the east and to see streets of uniform lay-out and to see the names of the streets, such as "Frederick Avenue" and other city names in honor of localities sending in relief money for that specific purpose.

LITTLE BOYS MISSING
Three boys, named Law, Jenkins and Stevenson, living in the east end of the city and attending King Edward school, south end, have been missing since yesterday forenoon. While it is thought their overnight absence may be a joyous prank, nevertheless there is much worry and apprehension among parents.
One report stated that one of the lads was recognized proceeding out Douglas avenue, and an automobile search of the roads in that direction is being made this afternoon. None of the boys—all in the vicinity of twelve years of age—has ever before attended any runaway, and naturally the parents are eager for some trace of the absentees.

GREATER MEASURE OF CO-OPERATION
One Result of Maritime Motion Picture Convention in Halifax—Theatres Offered for Next Victory Loan—Delegates Home
The motion picture convention of Maritime Provincial theatre managers and film exchange men closed its sessions in the Board of Trade rooms of the sister city yesterday afternoon, and the St. John delegates returned by this morning's early train. Fredericton representatives also returned.
The convention placed much valuable and helpful material on its record books, and it is considered that the deliberations of Thursday afternoon will have an important bearing upon the policies of Maritime Provincial houses during the coming critical season, and that the initiative taken by eastern exhibitors will be in the nature of a pattern and incentive to other groups of exhibitors throughout the country confronted with similar problems.
The exchange managers of the maritime provinces have recently formed an association for closer co-operation in financial matters, and at the convention of exhibitors the film men were invited to confer on questions of mutual interest and importance. The result is a clearer understanding of plans for the ensuing season and in a spirited discussion, resolutions were passed pledging exhibitors to certain binding arrangements for mutual protection. These plans will be communicated to every manager in the three provinces.
The convention disclosed a splendid spirit of co-operation among theatre managers and local rivalries were entirely set aside in a strong-handed movement to better conditions generally and to throw around the houses protective measures warranted to ensure less loss in these troublous times.
Among resolutions passed at the convention were cordiality to the family of the late A. E. Wall, chief of the censors in Nova Scotia; upon the tragic death of W. T. H. Pease, Fredericton, and D. M. Richards, also of Fredericton.
A resolution was enthusiastically passed offering the services of the theatres of the maritime provinces in behalf of the next Victory Loan to the ministry of finance. A lengthy telegram of thanks from the department's bureau has been received by the secretary, W. H. Golding.

BURIED WITH INSIGNIA OF COMMODORE'S RANK
Funeral of Walter J. Steiper Marked by Floral Tributes from United States—Relatives on Active Service Represented
The funeral of Walter J. Steiper took place this afternoon from his brother's residence, 26 Paradise row. The service was conducted by the Rev. J. V. Young of the Mission Church, assisted by Rev. R. T. McKim of St. Mary's. Music rendered by the choir of St. John's church under the leadership of H. W. Brownfield. Interment was made in the Woodlawn cemetery. Among the floral tributes was a huge anchor from the members of the Saugus River Yacht Club which the late Mr. Steiper had been a popular and respected commodore for several years past, and whose name with insignia of command was, by request, buried with him. A large column representing gales afar was the tribute of the Builders' Association of Boston, and there was a large wreath and basket of roses from a group of friends in the United States.
Mr. Steiper was the youngest son of Mrs. Johanna Steiper of this city, and brother of W. Steiper, hardware merchant. Mrs. W. Hanson of Saugus, Mass.; Mrs. J. Howlette, Rockport; Mrs. S. W. Glover, Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. W. Perkins of California, Mrs. F. B. Mullen, Boston, and Misses Annie and Ada are sisters. Cadet Samuel Glover of a United States training ship, attended the funeral as a representative of twenty-four nephews at present in active or in training for military service with the United States forces.

LIQUOR IS SEIZED AT RENFORTH STATION
Fourteen Gallon Cans and Four Cases Addressed Care of "J. Snooks, St. John" Are Confiscated
Liquor Inspectors Robert McAlister, Andrew Garnett and Thomas X. Gibbons this morning made a seizure of fourteen gallons of rum and four cases of liquor at Renforth station. The haul was one of the largest made by these inspectors since their appointment and they are receiving the congratulations of friends and others who are opposed to the illegal sale of liquor and boot legging.
The inspectors have been watching this station for some time and this morning their vigilance was rewarded, for they received a clue that a shipment had arrived there and immediately hired an automobile and hurried to the scene. When they arrived they noticed a large case, with markings which indicated that it contained hardware, but upon a closer inspection they detected an odor of liquor and forthwith broke it open. They found that it contained fourteen one-gallon cans and four cases of liquor. They were addressed to T. Conlon, Renforth, care J. Snooks, St. John, N. B. The officers confiscated the liquor and brought it to the city.
When the automobile arrived at the inspectors' headquarters in Prince William street, quite a crowd of citizens assembled and watched the "wet" goods being conveyed into their office. The markings on the boxes attracted their attention and there was considerable speculation as to the owners. The name J. Snooks caused many jocular remarks. Residents of Renforth say that mysterious packages have been arriving there quite regularly and have been taken away at night by teams and motor cars.
