RUSSIAN ARMY OFFENSIVE UPSETS TEUTON PLANS IN EAST AND WEST

NO ACTION BY WASHINGTON PROBABLY FOR ANOTHER WEEK

Opinion in Official Quarters That Berlin's Latest Note Has Brought Relations Between the Two Countries Almost to Breaking Point — No Intention to Force Situation, But Likely Place Responsibility for Rupture on Germany.

Washington, July 11.—Formal study of the official text of Germany's reply to the American note on submarines warfare, as it affects neutral rights, strengthens the conviction of high officials that a most critical point in the relations between the two countries had been reached.

Not only do they feel the United States must refuse to accept the German proposals for the future conduct of American citizens on the high seas, but the failure of Germany to disavow the sinking of the Lusitania, with the loss of more than 100 Americans, in their view has brought on a crisis, the outcome of which it is difficult at present clearly to foresee.

That there will be no action by the United States for at least another week was indicated today.

Secretary Lansing will go to Cornish, N. H., within a day or two to confer with President Wilson. He said tonight he would study the note carefully, and then communicate with the President.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, intends to call on Secretary Lansing during the week to learn informally whether he can be of any service in the situation. No announcement had been made for a conference, but it will probably take place on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Today the official text of the German reply arrived and was made public. It differed in only a few important words from the Associated Press copy which came from Berlin Friday night.

Will Be No Surrender of Rights. In all quarters here the reply was the single topic of conversation. What the action of the American government will be is doubtful, largely in the sense that the means of expressing the ideas and purposes of the United States have not yet been decided. It was authoritatively indicated that obviously there would be no surrender of rights, and no acceptance of the German proposal to guarantee immunity to American ships under arrangements to be agreed upon by the naval authorities of the two countries concerning the marking of the neutral ships.

There is no intention, from indications in official quarters, to force a situation, but in whatever policy is followed the American endeavor will be to place full responsibility on Germany for any subsequent rupture in friendly relations. Since the Lusitania was sunk on May 7, there has been no violation of the principles for which the United States has contended, unless the mishap to the Nebraska can be included, and in that case the Washington government has not finally reached a conclusion as to whether a mine or torpedo caused the explosion.

The chief obstacle, it appears, however, to permitting virtually a status quo to continue while further notes are exchanged is the treatment which Germany has given to the Lusitania case. The United States has asked for disavowal of intent to kill Americans and for reparation, although the latter has been subordinated to the greater consideration of whether Germany legally justified the action of the submarine commander, or would admit liability. No direct answer on the questions of law involved were given in the last note, and the quick sinking of the vessel was attributed to "peculiar circumstances," such as the presence of high explosives. High officials regard this as an invasion, pointing out that even if there were explosives on the ship, which is not admitted, they never would have been ignited but for the German torpedo.

ARCHBISHOP QUIGLEY DIED SATURDAY

Rochester, N. Y., July 11.—Rev. James Edward Quigley, Catholic Archbishop of Chicago, died last night at the home of his brother here, Chief of Police Joseph M. Quigley.

THREATENS TO FINISH HOLT'S WORK

Writer Signing Himself Pearce Says He Will Kill Morgan and British Ambassador.

SAYS HOLT WARNED LUSITANIA VICTIMS.

Two More Steamers are Warned to be on Lookout for Bombs Concealed in Their Holds.

Washington, July 11.—Warning to look out for bombs concealed in their holds was flashed tonight from the naval wireless towers at Arlington to two ships which sailed from New Orleans July 9th.

Both the vessels, the British steamships Howth Head and Baron Napier, cleared with cargoes of mules for the British army July 8th, and sailed the next day, the former for Dublin and Belfast, via Norfolk, and the latter direct for Avonmouth.

Sending of the warning was ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, upon receiving a telegram from a New Orleans newspaper saying a letter to that paper signed "Pearce" indicated that explosives had been placed aboard those vessels.

Threatens to Finish Holt's Work. New Orleans, July 11.—A letter received by a newspaper here tonight, signed "Pearce," declared the writer intended to kill J. P. Morgan and Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British Ambassador, and finish the work of Eric Muentzer, who committed suicide, after wounding Mr. Morgan. It warned persons who had friends or relatives aboard the British steamships Howth Head and Baron Napier, which sailed from New Orleans July 9th, with the mules for the British army, to watch for reports from those vessels. The writer declared that it was Muentzer who warned passengers on board the Lusitania before that vessel sailed from New York that it would be dangerous to make the voyage on her. It also is declared that Muentzer personally called on Charles Frohman and urged him not to take passage on the ship.

Was Holt's Partner. After announcing his intention to kill Mr. Morgan to avenge the death of Holt, the letter writer says: "Holt (Muentzer) was my partner, and I glory in the thought of his comradeship. We worked together ever since this cursed war began. Holt is gone, but I am still here, and I am going to carry on the work the two of us began. I am going to carry on the work with redoubled fury."

"British mule-ships are daily leaving New Orleans, laden with live stock for the enemies of Germany, just as ships laden with guns and ammunition to slaughter Germans are almost daily leaving New York. Therefore, this city furnishes a promising field for the work that lies before me. I may succeed in blowing up but one British ship leaving this port—I may succeed in destroying ten—but I am going to carry out this work, and whatever I achieve will be satisfactory."

HOLT'S TRUNK SHOWING MATERIALS USED FOR BOMBS.

This striking photograph shows Frank Holt's trunk, containing material used by Holt in making bombs. In the lower part of the trunk are 134 sticks of dynamite. In the lid of the trunk are shown the tin cans known as bomb containers. The trunk was found by the police in New York just after Holt committed suicide.

ENEMY ADMITS RUSSIANS FORCING THE ISSUE IN EAST

Czar's Army Reinforced and Making Repeated Heavy Attacks Along Krasnik Line, Vienna Reports.

Berlin, via London, July 11.—A despatch from Vienna indicates the fierceness of the struggle which is in progress along the Krasnik line. The Russians have brought forward strong reinforcements, probably from the interior, and are making repeated heavy attacks. Archduke Joseph Ferdinand's army has the task of holding, and, if possible, repelling the Russians.

Additional great battles, says the despatch, may conditely be predicted between the Vistula and Bug rivers.

LIFT EMBARGO ON RAW HIDES

In Return for Supply of American Leather Goods for Military Purposes.

Washington, July 11.—France has offered to lift her embargo on raw hides in return for a supply of American leather goods for military purposes, according to advices received today. The plan, if worked out, will release for manufacture in this country a vast quantity of raw hides which accumulated in France as a result of the embargo, and because of the extensive slaughter of French cattle for food.

Paris despatches also contain requests for American wheat flour for the use of civilian bakers.

to me. And then I will be ready for Morgan, and after I get through Morgan I will be ready to share my pal's fate. I consider it a glorious fate.

"And Sir Cecil Spring-Rice. Do you want to know whom Muentzer was after when he went to Glen Cove? Morgan? partly. The real reason for going to Glen Cove was Sir Cecil Spring-Rice. We have trailed Spring-Rice for weeks, and we are going to get him yet."

"Remember I am Muentzer's pupil, and very seldom has Muentzer dashed. Muentzer's methods are my methods. I am making enough explosives to wreck this whole town. I have a programme to follow—British ships, Morgan, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice and then oblivion."

Berlin Note Monument of Impudence & Hypocrisy

KING GEORGE EXPRESSES HIS CONFIDENCE IN GREAT BRITAIN'S NAVY

London, July 11.—The belief that the British navy will win fresh laurels, "whenever the day of battle comes," is expressed by King George in a message to Admiral Jellicoe, after a visit to the grand fleet.

"I have had the pleasure of seeing the greater portion of the officers and men of the fleet," said His Majesty. "I realize the patient and determined spirit with which you have faced long months of waiting and hoping. I know how strong is the comradeship that links all ranks together. Such a happy state of things convinces me that whenever the day of battle comes my navy will add fresh triumphs to its old and glorious traditions."

BETWEEN FOUR AND SIX MILLION FEET OF LOGS ADRIFT

Break in Southwest Miramichi Booms Caused by Freshet—Expected Nearly all Logs Will be Saved.

Newcastle, July 11.—From four to six million feet of lumber went adrift yesterday morning when the southwest Miramichi booms broke with the freshets. Many more are jammed above Millerton. Friday's rain raised the Southwest six feet, but it dropped last night about five feet.

The lumbermen met in Newcastle today and commissioned James Robinson to save, raft and survey the logs saved, the cost to be borne proportionately. It is expected all, or nearly all, will be saved.

Barnaby river and Northwest booms were not broken. The chief firms interested are Robinson, O'Brien, Burdell, Lynch, Miramichi Lumber Co., Dominion Pulp and Snowball. The shores are black with logs. Few were allowed to pass Middle Island. It will cost eighty cents to a dollar per thousand to save the logs.

French Press Unsparingly Condemns German Reply—The Geneva Journal Challenges the United States.

Paris, July 11.—The Paris newspapers today published in full the text of the German reply to the American note. Such headlines as "A Monument of Impudence" and "A Monument of Hypocrisy," express the attitude assumed generally toward the reply by the papers in their editorials.

The Echo de Paris has this to say regarding the German note: "The note marks sensible progress over the preceding notes; to cynicism the Germans no wadd' persiflage. To comment seriously on such a morsel would be to permit ourselves to be flouted by the Germans, to laugh at it would perhaps fail in respect towards the Germans now adrift persiflage. To rail and the prestige of President Wilson."

The Figaro says it is embarrassed to determine which is the more remarkable "the impudent cynicism of German diplomacy, or the extraordinary presumption leading them to believe that the United States would be satisfied with such a reply."

One at Mr. Bryan. Paris, July 11.—The Geneva Journal, according to a Havas despatch, makes the following comment on the German note:

"America demands for her citizens the right to travel on any ships of commerce, without being exposed to any attempt on the part of the Germans, except what international law permits. Germany replies: 'I will let the American ships pass; as for other ships, I shall stick to my practices. You can enjoy your rights on condition of renouncing them.'"

"Will the government at Washington be as easily pleased as the former secretary of state? Will it definitely pass over the incidents of the Cashline, Guilflight, Lusitania, Nebraska and American?"

STR. MINNEHAWA SAILS FROM HALIFAX

Halifax, July 11.—The Atlantic transport liner Minnehawa, which put out today for her destination, the fire was extinguished and very little of the cargo was damaged. It is now known the explosion occurred in No. 4 hold, in which was stored auto and typewriters. Stevedores working in the hold found what appeared to be pieces of fuse, also some copper wire.

CROWN PRINCE'S OFFENSIVE IN WEST POSTPONED

Much Talked of Forward Movement in Woerwe Suddenly Halts — Believed Germans Have Switched to East Troops Intended For Western Front — Russians' Check of Enemy Makes Further Retirement Unnecessary at Present.

London, July 11, 10.20 p. m.—The check which the Russians have imposed on Archduke Joseph Ferdinand's army in Southern Poland and the additional strain which this has placed on the German general Von Mackensen's army to the right has postponed, it is believed in military circles here, the threatened German offensive in the west, and there is now a possibility that the Allies will be the first to take the offensive.

In support of this it is pointed out that the attacks by the German Crown Prince's army in the Woerwe, which the German press announced was the commencement of a general move forward, have ceased, and what fighting is going on along the western front consists of artillery engagements and a few isolated attacks and counter-attacks by infantry, which makes little or no difference in the positions of the opposing forces.

The British, according to the French report, have repulsed a German attack. The German reports, however, refer to this as a British attack, and Berlin says it was repulsed with considerable loss. In fact the French and German reports are generally contradictory in respect to what fighting has taken place, but from the trend of them it is evident that neither side has attempted anything of a decisive nature, and it is believed it may be weeks yet before they do.

Germany Switching Troops to East. So far as the Germans are concerned military observers assert that they are bound to carry out their offensive against the Russians until there is some decisive engagement such as the capture of the Lublin-Cholm railway, which it is asserted would have been in their hands before now if the Austrians advancing toward the former city had not been driven back.

Reports from neutral sources are to the effect that to make good their efforts against the Russians, the Germans are moving troops which were intended for the western front to the eastern front. To a certain extent this seems confirmed by the statement in the Russian official report that reinforcements have reached Archduke Joseph Ferdinand, and that General Von Mackensen also commenced an offensive, which, however, broke down under the Russian fire.

While the military critics are still undecided whether the Russians will make their stand on their present lines or fall back to the Bug river, thus abandoning the fortresses of Ivanograd and Warsaw, it is agreed that the counter-attack which they have developed has postponed, for a time at least, the necessity for any further retirement.

There is no confirmation of the report that the military critics are still undecided whether the Russians will make their stand on their present lines or fall back to the Bug river, thus abandoning the fortresses of Ivanograd and Warsaw, it is agreed that the counter-attack which they have developed has postponed, for a time at least, the necessity for any further retirement.

London, July 10.—The British steamship Ellesmere was shelled and then torpedoed and sunk today by a German submarine off the Cornish coast. The crew of twenty-one, with the exception of the Norwegian fireman, who was killed by a shell, was saved. The Ellesmere was of 1,170 tons gross burden and was built in 1906 at Glasgow. She was owned by the Watson Steamship Company Limited of Manchester.

The Italian steamer Clio and the Norwegian steamer Nordals, were torpedoed and sunk today by German submarines. The members of the ported Italian victory on the Corso Plateau but despatches from Rome say that the Italian troops are making good progress in their work of capturing the mountains around Trieste, which they hope to take before commencing the advance on the city itself, thus avoiding a bombardment of the town, which is largely inhabited by their compatriots.

Russian Report

Petrograd, July 11, via London, July 12.—The official communication issued by the War Office today says: "The garrison of Gossowatz during the night of July 9-10 sortied and destroyed enemy saps. In the Ebadovo district we captured and blew up two enemy mine galleries.

"On the front of Josefow-Bychawa the fighting continues. The enemy yesterday still held his ground on Hill No. 18 and the Koverst farm, and delivered vigorous counter-attacks between Bystrizza and the Koverst farm. We repulsed these attacks, inflicting heavy loss on the enemy.

"South of Bychawa we took 300 prisoners, among them fourteen officers, and three machine guns.

"On all the other fronts there have been no important changes."

French Official Report

Paris, July 11.—The French War Office this afternoon gave out the following statement: "At three o'clock yesterday afternoon the Italian army repulsed a German attack which had gained a temporary foothold in some elements of the first line. The Germans were driven out by an immediate counter-attack.

"In the region to the north of Arras our troops completed the dislodgment of the enemy from certain elements of the trenches where he had been able to maintain himself along which we originally took on July 8.

"To the north of the station of Soncheux an enemy counter-attack during the night was repulsed.

"Upon their sections of the front particularly violent cannonading are reported in the region of Nieuport, in the sector of the Aisne, as well as in the forest of Le Pretres, and near the Moncel Bridge.

"One of our aviators sent a German aviator to earth this morning in the neighborhood of Altkirsch. He fell within sight of our lines."

"The following official communication was issued by the War Office tonight:

"The day has been relatively calm on the whole front. There were artillery actions in the region of the Aisne and Champagne. At Vaux Pertry, in the forest of Apremont, an attempt by the enemy to attack was easily repulsed.

"An intermittent cannonade has been directed against the Remiers wood, to the northwest of Flirey, and Le Prestre forest, and a more violent cannonade against our positions at Fontenelle, Metzler and to the west of Ammerzwiller.

"The enemy has again thrown shells on Arras and Rheims."

Three Steamers Toll of Submarines Yesterday

London, July 10.—The British steamship Ellesmere was shelled and then torpedoed and sunk today by a German submarine off the Cornish coast. The crew of twenty-one, with the exception of the Norwegian fireman, who was killed by a shell, was saved. The Ellesmere was of 1,170 tons gross burden and was built in 1906 at Glasgow. She was owned by the Watson Steamship Company Limited of Manchester.

The Italian steamer Clio and the Norwegian steamer Nordals, were torpedoed and sunk today by German submarines. The members of the crew of the Clio were saved and are now being landed at Liverpool. The crew of the Nordals is expected at Aberdeen, the boat containing the sailors having been towed twenty-five miles by a German submarine.

Trawler Torpedoed But Limpers Into Port

London, July 12.—The Grimaby trawler Fleetwood reached her home port yesterday, battered by a German submarine. One of the crew was killed and several were badly injured. The submarine, without warning, fired nine shells at the trawler.

Preparing For Trench War on Austro-Italian Front

ITALIAN SHELLS FALL ON AUSTRIAN HEADQUARTERS KILLING SEVERAL OFFICERS

Malborgeth Within Range of Italian Guns—Important Victory for Russians at Jaroslau—Have Powerful Artillery, While Cossacks Are Doing Splendid Work.

Geneva, July 11, via Paris, 6 p. m.—The Austrians and Italians seem to be consolidating their positions and entrenching, according to the Laibach, Austria, correspondent of the Geneva Tribune. He states that another war council was held recently at Laibach.

Shells from Italian guns near Malborgeth fell on the Austrian headquarters there, says the correspondent, mortally wounding a general, killing a colonel and a captain and injuring other officers.

It is reported that since the war began 1,800 Slavs and 5,300 Irredentist Italians have deserted to the Italian forces, according to the correspondent, and that since June about one hundred civilians, including some women, have been shot as spies by the Austrians.

A despatch from Innsbruck to the Tribune, relative to the fighting in the eastern theatre, says that both the Russians and the Teutons are entrenching. The Austrian forces which were meant for the Italian campaign have been sent back to the Lublin front, it is stated. The Russians are said to have obtained an important victory at Jaroslau. The Russians now have powerful artillery, while the Cossacks are doing excellent work.

OFFICIAL REPORTS GERMANY

Berlin, via London, July 11.—The German army headquarters staff today gave out the following official statement:

"In the western theatre: "North of Ypres, the British yesterday repeated their attempts of July 6th, to take possession of our position on the canal. The attack failed, with heavy losses to the enemy.

"Due north of Souchez, on the Ablain road, the French made an attack in the afternoon, which met with a German attack. The fighting continues.

"A French attack on Fricourt, south of Albert, was easily repulsed. A trench captured from the enemy the night before last, northwest of the Beausejour farm was lost on the following morning. Last night, however, it was again stormed, and after five attacks we took it.

"Between Ailly and Apremont, French hand-grenade assaults were unsuccessful.

"In the forest of Le Pretre an attack which was prepared for by heavy artillery fire, broke down in front of our new position. The enemy's loss was heavy. An assault upon our position southeast of Sondernach and southeast of Muenster was beaten off.

"Our airmen attacked station buildings at Gerderon.

"Eastern theatre: "The situation is unchanged.

"Southeastern theatre: "During the last few days a local fight has taken place in the region south of Krasnotav (thirty-four miles south of Lublin) which everywhere was in our favor. Otherwise nothing has taken place as regards the German troops."

TURKEY

Constantinople, via London, July 11.—The following official statement was issued today: "Our Anatolian batteries, which had moved forward, successfully bombarded enemy camps at Teke Burium.

WANTS "DRY" WHITE HOUSE

RICHMOND P. HOBSON

President Wilson was invited to climb on the "water wagon" and order all civil service employees of the government to follow his example. By Mr. Richmond Pearson Hobson, formerly Representative in Congress, who addressed the National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League, at Atlantic City, N. J. Mr. Hobson asked that the convention take action, formally requesting the President to "practice total abstinence as an example, and to banish all intoxicating liquors from the White House and to establish temperance in the civil service like that practised by railroads and other businesses." He urged the Anti-Saloon League to renew its fight for national prohibition at the next session of Congress.

FIGHT BY LIGHT OF PARACHUTE ROCKETS

French Now Control Eminences Between Bethune and Arras.

MEANT BATTLE OF NEARLY THREE MONTHS

Thousands of Crosses Made of Twigs Mute Evidence of Slaughter Inflicted by the French Artillery.

On the Heights of Notre Dame De Lorette, Near Arras, France, July 10, via Paris, July 11.—

After battling 120 days for the hill country between Bethune and Arras, the French forces are in possession of all the eminences looking out upon the Plain of Flanders. Lille, Douai and Cambrai all are visible from here.

Every position along the broad national road between Arras and Bethune has been won, except Souchez, and last night another quarter mile of trenches in the Souchez web was torn away. The attack was made under parachute-rocket lights, the French burning bluish white and the Germans greenish white, covering the scene of the desperate conflict with a ghastly glow.

The most desperate fighting has been along the short ten mile front from Arras to Aix Noulette, which began March 9 with the taking of a few hundred yards of trenches on the water of Notre Dame De Lorette, where there are the ruins of an old military road. Every day since then some section of the German trenches have been taken, lost or re-taken.

Each side has been employing formidable artillery, both of small and heavy calibre, the French guns being somewhat the more numerous and served with unlimited quantities of high explosive shells.

A correspondent of the Associated Press today went through five or six miles of the trenches formerly held by the Germans and re-constructed by the French, who now have abandoned them to move forward. Upwards of 100,000 Germans have fallen or been captured in these trenches, according to the French official count, since the second week in March. The French losses, the correspondent was confident

HOW GERMANS DELAYED THE FRENCH ADVANCE NEAR ARRAS

The picture shows barrier of building stone constructed by the Germans to delay the French advance in Neuville St. Vaast. The village, which recently fell to the French, is situated some four miles north of Arras. The fighting here, and a little farther to the east, in "the Labyrinth," has been of the most violent nature. Every device was resorted to by the Germans to hold up the French advance—houses were converted into miniature fortresses, machine guns were posted in commanding positions to sweep whole streets, even cupolas, sheltering guns beneath them, were erected. The stone barrier is only one of the many constructed by the Germans in a vain endeavor to check the French advance in the streets of Neuville. In "the Labyrinth" itself even greater obstacles than these were encountered in every lane and on every road.

Frenches, who laughed heartily at the embarrassment of the civilians.

The visitors were invited by the soldiers into their shelters, which are dry caves with narrow entrances, and with clay floors covered with matting or sacking, and faintly illuminated by the light which filters in from the entrance or by bits of candle on the inside. Men who had been on duty throughout the night were sleeping in these caves.

The men on the firing line express the utmost confidence that what was done yesterday or this morning that can be kept on doing, until the war has been won.

They never hear the vague, inverted reports circulated in Paris, some times to tremendous and impossible victories or sinister hints of disaster. They know what they have done since March 9, when ordered to act upon this part of the Aisne. They talk, as a matter of course, of another winter campaign, because they say it will take another year to break the German power.

No "Glooms" in Allied Trenches. The principal occupations of the soldiers when on duty, instead of worrying about the war, are eating and sleeping. The visitor hears more hearty laughter in an hour at the front than in a week behind the lines.

Extreme watchfulness is exercised on both sides of the line. German artillerymen shell even one man sighted walking within three or four miles of their front. Powerful glasses are used by the French, graduated lines on the lenses showing within fifty yards the location of an object or an individual. While the members of the party were waiting at the rendezvous at the time agreed upon, four automobiles in fifty yards the location of an object or an individual. German six-inch shells began dropping in the roadways so accurately that five holes were torn in the concrete after the machines had passed. The shelling of the road continued with extreme precision for some time.

One of the French officers remarked that if it were not a cloudy day it would be impossible for the party to move about with safety, even a considerable distance behind the line, because in a brilliant light individuals can be seen miles away and are practised upon by the gunners. It is estimated that if one man is hit for every ton of metal thrown the average is good.

Some prisoners are taken every day.

POTATO PRODUCTION.

During the past year Canada produced 85,872,000 bushels of potatoes; Great Britain and Ireland 372,516,000; Italy, 62,464,000; Denmark, 23,551,000; Sweden, 57,642,000; the United States 459,921,000. The production in Germany reached the enormous total of 1,680,000,000. In other countries the figures for 1914 are not available, but the production for 1913 is officially given as follows: France, 477,116,000; Russia in Europe, 1,274,452,000; Russia in Asia 32,622,000; Belgium, 117,614,000; Austria, 424,498,000; Hungary 179,135,000; Holland, 919,588,000; Norway, 25,876,000.

COMBINED HAT MATERIALS

There is a marked tendency in the showing of midsummer millinery to combine oddly contrasting materials for every attractive hats, says the Philadelphia North America. For instance, there is the felt and leghorn hat. Usually the crown is of light tinted felt with a leghorn brim. One very smart sailor shows a "links" green felt crown with a straight leghorn brim. Cretone, striped, figured and plaid linens are combined with white hemp and leghorn. Hatters' push crown tops are to be seen in light hemp and chiffon sailers, while black velvet is much favored with straw and felt.

Daube and Rice

Brown a three or four pound roast of veal in a spoonful of lard. Remove the meat, sift in a large spoonful of flour, brown slightly; add two large tomatoes cut small, or a cup of canned tomato. Add a clove of garlic minced fine, a teaspoon of minced parsley, a tablespoon of butter, half a bayleaf and half a red pepper pod, without seeds; let all stew gently for ten minutes, then add two cups of hot water or stock. Add the meat and let it all barely simmer closely covered for an hour and a half. "A daube boiled is a daube spoiled." Add more water if necessary. Serve with plain boiled rice as a vegetable.

THE NEWEST GERMAN SUBMARINE OPERATING IN THE WHITE SEA

This picture, drawn by G. A. Coffin, the noted marine artist, especially for this newspaper and the New York Herald, shows the latest type of German under-sea craft off the Russian coast near Archangel. It is the same type as the boats which made the trip from Wilhelmshaven to the Danianelles and similar to those the United States is building. Flank boilers continue to run her steam engines ten minutes after submergence. With one of these craft the Germans hope to run into the Harbor of Archangel to destroy shipping, one of them already having been seen near the big Russian port.

THE WAR AND BUSINESS.

Those prophets of calamity who when the Empire war broke out last August, were quick to predict disaster to the business structure of the British Empire as the result of the commercial dislocation which the war would cause have had eleven months in which to revise their estimates. The war has affected business in some lines adversely. Newspaper advertising revenues, for instance, have fallen off while costs of production have increased. Lines of general business have suffered but it does not appear that there has been any great reduction even in Great Britain where the war's effect has been most severely felt.

The Economist, a financial and business journal published in London, recently presented a list of the great London stores with their capitalization and profits for the year 1914. The record is more favorable than might have been expected. It has been found that the war affected the big businesses in varying degrees. Some of the concerns, by quickly readjusting their affairs to meet changed conditions, specializing in lines for which there were increased demands, and subordinating others which in normal times were big profit earners, were able to go through the year very satisfactorily. Stores catering almost exclusively to luxuries or to commodities outside the sphere of prime necessities suffered to some extent but the big stores that were able to specialize came through the year well and with little difference in their profits. The following examples of comparative profits taken from the Economist's lists show the situation plainly:

Store	1913	1914
Army & Navy	$942,831	$1,194,353
Civil Service
Supply	218,569	189,944
D. H. Evans	840,250	214,272
Dickins & Jones	295,996	210,174
Frederick Goring	161,675	151,855
Harrod's	1,436,598	1,594,853
Jay's	198,831	87,894
Jeremiah Rotherham	229,334	312,974
John Barker	311,993	370,175
Liberty & Co.	295,455	147,319
Maple & Co.	1,007,925	648,201
Mappin & Webb	264,908	124,772
Selfridge's	546,975	563,692
Spencers	181,065	147,406
Swan & Edgar	82,477	34,051
Thomas Wallis	112,594	109,542
William Watley	341,731	289,776

From this list of seventeen of London's greatest stores it can be seen that nine of them increased their gains during the war while in twelve cases there was a profit reduction. The profit reductions naturally affected dividends paid but the stockholders in those enterprises have as yet no cause for complaint as their rate of interest is, in most cases, far higher than could be obtained in other lines of investment, the dividend ranging from 2 per cent. in one case to 200 per cent. in the Army and Navy stores.

Except for the fact that the people of London are not squandering money, or buying luxuries, there is little to indicate that the war has had a detrimental effect on business there. In Canada the conditions are similar. Certain lines have suffered to a considerable degree but other report business much the same as in the last two or three years. The succession of Balkan wars ushered in an era of depression and while the Empire struggle has of course increased it there has been absolutely nothing to justify the mournful predictions of pessimists who saw the complete collapse of business structures as a result of this conflict. After eleven months of it, Canadian and Imperial business houses are doing business possibly under reconstructed methods, but with most encouraging results.

Canadian and British business will weather the storm in much the same fashion that other periods of depression have been overcome. In the meantime there is nothing to be gained by undue pessimism. Whatever curtailment may be necessary during the continuance of the war the future will certainly give an equivalent for it in additional prosperity and good times.

WHAT FRANCE IS DOING.

To Canadians the matter of most moment in the great war is the success of our own boys at the front. We are, of course, tremendously interested in all that the British Empire is doing, and we follow closest that portion of the war news which deals with British successes or reverses. Recently, the dramatic retreat of the Russians and their more exciting return to again oppose the advancing enemy has engaged much attention. The entrance of Italy into the conflict is a subject of present interest, while wonder is always manifested over the marvellous power of Germany. The campaign in the Dardanelles, being of such importance, brings Turkey prominently into the limelight. Tales of suffering and hardship have served to create great sympathy for Belgium, Serbia and Poland, but the really gigantic part France is playing in this struggle has escaped with comparatively little comment.

Yet it is not too much to say that France has so far borne the heaviest part of the land operations. She has manifested readiness and a quick effectiveness which the other allies have not shown. Proportionately to her population she has suffered more than any. If we except Belgium, she has held the enemy along an immense line and is still holding on grimly and finding opportunity, here and there to force the fighting. Her campaign in Alsace has been the cause of more anxiety to the Germans than even the spectacular advance of the mighty Muscovite forces in the east. Gradually she is progressing, foot by foot she is gaining ground. Soon, if her present rate of advance continues, she will be in a position to dominate the situation on the southern part of the western line. And she is bearing her share of the war burdens with a firmness and a tenacity the possession of which few would have credited to her prior to the opening of war.

The French people are a unit behind the government. While the spirit of militarism and of authority has never ruled in the European republic with the same force it has exhibited in Prussia yet today we find less discontent among the French than in the very strongholds of Prussianism. Recent utterances of the Socialists in Berlin have found no echo among the Socialists of France yet before the war Socialism had gained a deep foothold in that country and doubtless, after the struggle, will regain its prestige.

France is fighting for a cause almost as dear to her as religion. The loss of Alsace and Lorraine has been engraven as a national disaster on the hearts of the French people. For years the public men of France have dreamed of the day when the fairest blossoms in the French garden would be restored to their natural condition, when the trappings of mourning would be removed from the memorials in Paris. And that day is almost at hand. After the war there will emerge a greater and better France. With her lost provinces restored and probably additional territorial gains, the French nation will go on to a grander development than in the past. France has suffered and bled. She will wear the crown of victory with the gentleness befitting her noblest traditions and with the knowledge that she fought with signal courage and purity of motive, and that on her escutcheon has no blemish been found.

THE STRIFE PROMOTERS.

The Fredericton Mail, an obscure paper published in the provincial capital, takes advantage of the approach of the Orange Grand Lodge celebration in Fredericton to devote two columns of its front page space on Saturday to an article written by its St. John correspondent, the purpose of which is plainly to arouse feeling between two sections of the people of New Brunswick. The Mail's articles from this same correspondent, who seeks the shelter of a non-descript name to write what he would not dare to openly voice to the men he libels, are frequently republished under scare headings in the St. John organs of the machine Grit party. In the interests of common decency it is to be hoped that the most recent effusion is not given publicity beyond the very limited circulation of the paper for which it was written.

If ever there was a time when we should be forgetting conditions of race, creed or class, it is in the present hour. There are Orangemen at the front, fighting the Empire's battles in France and Flanders. Just as there are Catholics, and they are fighting shoulder to shoulder, forgetting all considerations save those of Empire. It is one of the finest tributes to the solidarity of the Empire that such matters should be laid aside by all save journalists of the gutter type. When the British Empire was first plunged into this war the men of Ireland responded nobly, forgetting their differences, and the same spirit characterized the entire Empire. The Canadian contingents were organized by one of the most prominent Orangemen in Canada, Major-General Sam Hughes, and in their ranks are to be found men of English parentage fighting side by side with their comrades whose ancestors owed allegiance to the land of the Lily. That is as it should be. Canada is too big and too broad, and holds too mighty a destiny to perpetuate petty grievances of race or creed. It will be a big thing for this country when all such are completely obliterated or welded into an harmonious whole. This consummation is being looked forward to by the biggest men in both political parties, Catholic or Protestant, English-Canadian or French-Canadian; it is only hindered by the sap head journalism of which the Mail is a characteristic example.

GERMAN RAID DESCRIBED BY EYE WITNESS

Huge Ammunition Works in England damaged by Hostile Airship - Workmen killed.

An interesting description of the recent Zeppelin raid on the northeast coast of England has just been received by a resident of St. John from friends in that part of England.

It would appear that the German air squadron had as its object the destruction of the huge ammunition and naval works of Palmer's, Jarro-won-Tyne, and that they were piloted by someone who knew every inch of the ground is evident by the successful way in which the raid was carried out.

An eye witness writes: "Just as we were retiring to bed there was the sound of an awful explosion which seemed to shake the house to its very foundation. On rushing to the windows we thought that a serious accident had taken place at Palmer's works, where they are at present working night and day turning out large quantities of ammunition. The real cause, however, was soon evident, as presently we were able to see a huge zeppelin outlined against the darkened sky. It was hovering right over the works, and as we watched, started to rain a perfect torrent of bombs down."

"The work of destruction being over the aircraft then vanished into the darkness, leaving behind a shattered works, nearly twenty dead workmen, who had been on nightshift, many injured, and a country side almost panic-stricken with fright, wondering if it was to be their turn next to be visited by the flying engine of destruction."

"So far as we were concerned, sleep of course was out of the question, in fact we have hardly slept a wink since, fearing each night that a return visit will be made, and that their treat to drop gas bombs next time will be carried out. It is, however, understood that adequate protection has been prepared, and that a warm reception will be given the enemy."

Volunteers Wanted

"Why is it that we are having such difficulty just now to secure sufficient volunteers for overseas service? Is our patriotism asleep? Is it possible that we do not care to rally to the assistance of our brothers in the trenches? Can it be possible that we are too bent upon having a 'good time' for ourselves? God pity us all if ever we get into the hands of German military despotism. There are a good many reasons why Canada ought to be thoroughly alive to the needs of the hour, and why every man of recruit-able age ought to be ready to answer the call of his country in the hour of need and danger. I have chosen three reasons—duty, honor, country, why Germany must be defeated."

"With all her might Germany is fighting for a greater, a bigger Germany. Great Britain, thank God, is fighting for humanity, Germany is fighting for the enslavement of the world; Great Britain is fighting for the freedom of the world. Where is there a man anywhere in Canada who would sneak away and shirk the doing of his duty? If there is such a man let him be branded as the man who was a coward in the hour of his country's need, as the man who was too selfish to care when freedom and home and loved ones were in danger of destruction, when Germany went forth to Germanize and enslave the world. The call of the hour is the call of a great need and this need constitutes every man's duty. I can well imagine that if this were a war on the part of the British Empire simply for conquest, and for the gaining of more territory, that many of us might legitimately consider it not our duty to engage in such a war. But it is not that. It is a war for self defense and it is a war for the defense of great principles. German brutalities, German trickery and dishonesty, German spying and scheming have shocked the world—the world can have no peace until Germany is crushed. One of the great words of the English language is the word, Honor."

For Honor's Sake.

"We are in this war for the sake of honor. There are men to whom the word 'honor' means very little. There are, perhaps, a few men who have sunk so low that the word 'honor' has no meaning at all. The past few years have seen more quickly strike a blow at the disregard of the German nation for the word 'honor'. When, in the interests of her own military necessity, Germany discovered that by crushing out the lives of the people of Belgium, she could more quickly strike a blow at the heart of France, she sent forth her soldiers to trample 'honor' in the dust, and the sacred treaty which she had affixed her signature not to violate Belgium—became only a scrap of paper. The outstanding crime of German Imperialism today is German dishonorableness. Nothing has shocked the world so much for many years as Germany's lack of the sense of honor. And on the other hand, thank God, England has gone into this very war, fearful as it is, in order that the sense of honor might be maintained, spare men and nations might continue to treat each other honorably. It was said of the first Emperor Alexander of Russia, that his personal character was equivalent to a constitution. Honor is a controlling sense of what is right and true. Honor means a scrupulous regard for rectitude. And when this war comes to an end there is one word that will be greatly enhanced in value and meaning for individuals and for nations, and that will be the word 'honor', unimpaired honor."

For Our Own Lives.

"Let us all fully realize what Sir Robertson Nicoll meant when he said the other day: 'We are fighting for our very life as a nation. If we are subjected by Germany, we have no higher future before us than the life of a tributary province, harassed and humiliated at every point—a life so intolerable that death is infinitely preferred. It is a war against barbarism, the most evil and remorseless kind, a war for freedom, civilization and Christianity. We are fighting for our children as our fathers fought for us. And Great Britain is calling across three thousand miles of ocean and saying to her children here in Canada, 'come over and help us.'"

"The fact that thousands have responded already to the call does not concern any of us who ought to go, if we are able."

An Appeal.

"The strong appeal that Kitchener made at Guild Hall, London, last Friday that was not simply an appeal to the people of England, it was an appeal to the entire British Empire."

"I am here today," he said, "to make another demand on the manhood of the country to come forward to its defense. That appeal was an appeal to the manhood of the whole British Empire. We must not overlook that appeal to which Kitchener made to the noble fellows who have already come to the front. It was surely a stirring appeal which Kitchener made when he said: 'Our gallant soldiers in the fighting line are beset with an urgency at once pathetic and imperious, to those who remain at home, to come out and play their part too.'"

"And that is the appeal I want to send out tonight. That is the appeal that will go out on Tuesday, next when another effort will be made by our own city of St. John to reach the men, who for one reason and another, have not yet taken their places by the side of their brothers who have left their homes and firesides to fight our battles."

"That appeal goes forth in the name of duty."

For Our Own Lives.

If we are subjected by Germany, we have no higher future before us than the life of a tributary province, harassed and humiliated at every point—a life so intolerable that death is infinitely preferred. GARRISON ARTILLERY AT CHURCH SERVICE Men from the Island paraded to St. Mary's church yesterday morning.

About 125 men of the garrison artillery stationed on Partridge Island landed at Reed's Point yesterday morning at 10.15 and paraded to St. Mary's church. The men who were in command of Lieutenants Ring, Rosenbaum, Compton and other officers, presented a smart appearance as they marched to the church headed by the bugle band.

A large congregation was present and great interest was taken in the service, which was conducted by the chaplain, Venerable Archdeacon W. O. Raymond. A feature of the service was the singing of a number of familiar hymns.

ST. JOHN DRANGEMEN GO TO FREDERICTON

Glorious Twelfth Celebration today promises to eclipse former efforts.

It is expected that at least six hundred St. John Drangemen will assist in the grand demonstration in Fredericton today. A special train will carry the local brethren to the Capital. On the way they will pick up the members of the order living along the line. At Fairville several hundred are expected to join the party.

Sussex and other places between St. John and that town will send large delegations. They will arrive in St. John on the Sussex express this morning and go forward on the special train.

The St. John Drangemen will assemble at the Orange Hall, Germain street, and will parade to Union station, headed by the Sons of England band. The parade will start from the hall at 8.30 o'clock in order to reach the station in time to board the special train, which is scheduled to leave at 9.30 o'clock. PRESIDENT OF TRUST COMPANY SUICIDES

New York, July 11—Daniel Leroy Dresser, president of the Trust Company of the Republic, which went out of business in 1903, committed suicide in a fraternal house on Riverside Drive yesterday by shooting himself.

At one time Dresser was a prominent figure in financial and business circles in this city. He organized the firm of Dresser & Company, a big commission house. Afterwards he was elected president of the New York Merchants Association and the Trust Company of the Republic, which met with a disastrous failure in 1903. Dresser was forty-nine years of age.

That appeal goes forth in the name of 'honor'. It touches the very vestige of honor that may be left in any man's soul. That appeal goes forth in the name of 'country'. Many of our brave lads have gone forth and have nobly died for their country. But sometimes when I see so many fellows reeling out of the bar room in a stupified and idiotic condition, I do wonder what there is in the world that does appeal to them but the drink that is handed to them over the bar. Let us give for the things that are worth while, and among the things that are 'worthwhile' I have mentioned 'Duty', 'Honor' and 'Country', and they constitute three great reasons why Germany must be defeated. And now there is one more call that is being made to every man and every woman. It is the call of Christ. I want, in closing to remind you all of that call. It comes to every living soul. It is the call to live a Christian life. It is the call to crown Him King of kings and Lord of lords."

How German People Are Fooled by Authorities

Facts About War Deliberately Distorted and Successes Exaggerated — Strong on Multiplication.

New attempts by the Germans to keep up the war spirit of the people of the Teutonic countries by deliberate distortions and misrepresentations of facts are being daily exposed.

Mr. Asquith stated in the House of Commons on the 9th inst. that the total casualties in all ranks of the French and Mediterranean Expeditionary forces up to May 31 were 558,069. He gave details showing how many officers and how many men "of other ranks" had been killed, were wounded, and were missing up to that date.

In its evening edition of the following day, namely, the 10th inst., the Tagliche Rundschau, of Berlin, published a telegram from its special correspondent at The Hague in which it was stated that "Asquith has announced in Parliament that the total of the English losses in France is 1,585,499, of whom 109,955 are officers."

The Tagliche Rundschau, which is read chiefly in army and naval circles, printed this "news" in prominent type and rendered it still more conspicuous by placing over it the heading "A Million and a Half English Losses."

In the first place, the German public is informed that the losses were sustained in France, whereas Mr. Asquith stated clearly that these were the casualties "in the French and Mediterranean Expeditionary Forces." In the second place, the Berlin newspaper adds 1,227,340 to the number of the casualties in other ranks mentioned by Mr. Asquith. It gives correctly the number of men missing, namely 52,477, but it increases to a fabulous degree the number of killed and wounded.

This is, of course, one of the expedients adopted by the German authorities to keep up the spirits of the German public, and to convince the Russian soldiers and of untold numbers of guns has been announced.

It has been trained to have no opinion of its own in military matters, and to accept blindly every statement made by the military authorities. Even if the truth in this matter could be told in Germany, the authorities there would merely declare that the foreign statement was a lie. The German authorities have admitted once that this method is employed in respect of Russia. About a month ago, when the German army achieved their first important successes in Galicia, the reports that circulated throughout Germany were so extravagant that an authoritative statement was made in the matter. It transpired that the number of Russian prisoners taken had been multiplied in some cases by ten, in others, and even in Berlin, by 20.

HOW THAW'S WIFE LOOKS TO-DAY.

This picture of Mrs. Evelyn Thaw, wife of Harry K. Thaw, shows her on arrival in New York from her camp in the Adirondacks. She added she didn't care to see him returned to the "hell hole of a Mattawan," from which he escaped nearly three years ago. After a day in the city she left for her camp in the mountains with a certificate of ill health in her pocket and the color of death in her cheeks.

3:30 o'clock from his late residence, East St. John, following burial services conducted by Rev. Mr. Hayward interment was in Cedar Hill.

After the organization of the session letters were read from all the churches in the district except two—Castalia and Bartlett's Mills. The devotional exercises of the second session were conducted by Rev. J. F. Brown.

The evening was devoted to missions.

Dr. Hutchinson of St. John spoke on home missions in a forceful manner. He set forth the reasons why Baptists should prosecute this work in a vigorous manner. He was followed by Rev. W. S. Teedford of St. Andrews who for a number of years was a missionary in India. Mr. Teedford said the needs of India are intellectual, economic, social and spiritual, that Indians have no true conception of God, sin or salvation.

The choir of the local church rendered helpful service by appropriate selections.

Saturday.

The morning dawned bright and clear. Delegates arrived from all places. Fairhaven, Wilson's Beach and North Roads. The pastor of the entertaining church, Rev. W. H. Johnson, conducted a conference meeting.

At the opening of the business session the courtesies of the district were extended to Rev. Dr. Harrison, Presbyterian, of St. George, and Edwin Crowell, of St. John.

D. C. Clark, Esq., gave the report of the summarizing committee. The following show in brief the condition of the district.

Of the 27 churches 25 reported. These are cared for by 13 pastors. Two from home settled in the district during the year. Rev. F. A. Curran at Wilson's Beach, and Rev. Mr. McKay at Deer Island.

There are three vacant pastorates. During the year 145 have been added to the membership, making the total 3,178, a gain of 34. The total value of property is $109,600. These churches report a total of $23,942.21 raised. The Sunday schools have an enrollment of 2,789.

The report on obituaries was prepared by Rev. A. F. Brown and showed that while various churches had lost efficient lay members none of the pastors had been called to their eternal reward.

The report of the Sunday schools prepared by Brother A. A. Howe revealed an increase in the average attendance enrollment and the finances. The session this afternoon will attend to education, the election of officers and new business.

By Jack Marr, B. A., of St. Martins. A number of students have been writing the Normal School examinations this week at Riverside, under the supervision of T. E. Colpitts, B. A. Alma.

Rev. T. B. Wetmore of Wataesville will exchange pulpits on the Baptist field with Rev. Herbert E. DeWolfe on July 11th.

A PARISIAN FASHION NOTE

It has been a very dull week for clothes, because after the heat that lasted six or seven days we had a cold spell, and people all rushed back into their tailor-mades. Still, there is more color in the streets than there was before. White and a rather bright tannish khaki-color is worth nothing as I see several of the right kind of women wearing it. It is not all pretty, and it is death to a normal complexion, but it is smart and that is all we women are supposed to require.

Of course it is made very simply the coat with a straight back and plain basque, the skirt rather full, no braids, and no military buttons. People who have folk at the front sometimes wear one regimental button mounted as a brooch, but the only decorative use of them as actual fastenings and ornaments that I have seen has been on ladies whose appearance you would not care to copy.—Herald, London.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Hamilton of Charlottetown spent this week with Campbellton friends.

EARLY GAINS OFFSET BY FURTHER SELLING FOR EUROPEAN ACCOUNT

German reply to Washington Note responsible to considerable degree for market's movements Saturday—Actual cash loss of Bank less than $4,000,000.

New York, July 10.—To what extent today's substantial recovery of the stock market was due to the late start in this country's relations with Germany is largely a matter of conjecture or individual opinion. The fact remains that the German note seemed mainly responsible for something more than a hurried rush to cover by the short interest.

In the initial dealings gains of one to almost two points from yesterday's weak close were registered by the higher grade shares. The advance was promptly offset by further selling for European account, which resulted in material reactions. No sooner had this movement run its course than fresh buying brought about another and more vigorous rebound, Union Pacific, Reading, New York Central and United States Steel leading the advance to the accompaniment of increased activity. The entire list shared in greater or lesser degree at the strong close.

Total sales amounted to 215,000 shares.

During the mid-session, while prices were wavering, new low quotations were made by Chicago and Northwestern and Rock Island, while New Haven fell below yesterday's

Greatest Flag Pole in the British Empire

The flagpole reproduced here is the greatest in the British Empire. The stick is being shipped over the Canadian Pacific for the famous Kew Botanical Gardens, London, England. It was cut on Lot 917 adjoining the Gordon Pasha Lakes, 65 miles from Vancouver on the mainland coast, and is a fair sample of the delightful forests of the British Columbia. The tree was originally 228 feet long, with a diameter of 65 inches at the butt and 18 inches at the top, but owing to a knot near the top it was reduced to 216 feet. After cutting, the pole was hauled out of the woods and loaded on a C. P. R. logging train and towed to False Creek, Vancouver, where it is now being dressed. This pole was cut and delivered to the British Columbia Government by Messrs. Brooks, Scanton & O'Brien Co., Ltd., Vancouver, at actual cost. Today the second longest flag pole stands in the square at Vancouver opposite the C. P. R. Hotel Vancouver, and is 208 feet long, and was presented to the British Columbia Government.

CLOSING LETTER OF N.Y. MARKET BY E. & C. RANDOLPH

(McDougal & Cowans)
 New York, July 10.—The market is stronger in late dealings today. I hear talk of the European liquidation being over, arrangements having been completed for the huge English loan. This is said to have been the cause for the selling of American bonds and some selling of stocks. I rather expect from now on that they will buy more stock than they will sell. It would seem that the German note as it is given more mature consideration is voted more favorably than it was at first. Total sales 179,709. Bonds, $1,259,000.

Around the City

Austrian Detained.

John Marti, an Austrian, was locked up in a cell at police headquarters on Saturday night and is being detained for examination.

Goods Found.

A key found by the police in Dock street, and a strap and book used in handling pianos, found on Market Square, are now awaiting the owners at police headquarters.

Resisting the Police.

Shortly after noon yesterday Patrolman Hopkins arrested Michael Donovan on Smythe street, and the prisoner is charged with being drunk and violently resisting the police. Two drunks were gathered in by the police on Saturday.

Juvenile Court.

In the Juvenile Court Saturday morning two small boys, reported for breaking windows in a barn owned by Peter McIntyre were let go on condition that they repair the damage done. As a reminder of what might befall them the magistrate took the boys below and showed them the cells.

Deputy Jenkins Recovering.

The many friends of Deputy Chief F. W. Jenkins will be pleased to learn that he is recovering from a severe illness at the Infirmary. Mr. Jenkins was removed from his home in Brussels street to the Infirmary on Friday last and the physician who is attending him reported last night that he was progressing very favorably.

Motor Boat Ashore.

The motor boat Beta, owned by Louis Simms, was driven ashore near Ragged Point by the heavy winds Saturday afternoon and badly damaged. Engine trouble was responsible for the accident. Those on board the boat were able to get ashore in safety. The sea was so heavy that nothing could be done with the boat. She was still on the rocks yesterday and a hole had been stove in her side. It is likely that she will be a total loss.

Case of Destitution.

Sergeant Kane of the police force reported last night that there was a sad case of destitution on Pond street. He says that there is an old woman lying in bed a cripple as the result of breaking one of her limbs a couple of years ago. He says it has been reported to him that the only other occupants of the house is the woman's daughter and son-in-law, and that they are not giving the old woman the care that she needs. He further says that the unfortunate woman is desirous of going to the Municipal Home and Secretary Wetmore of the home will be communicated with to see if something in this line cannot be done.

Service of Intercession.

Commencing on Thursday morning at seven o'clock a special Holy Communion service will be held in Trinity church in memory of those who have gone to the front and also to serve as a prayer for victory for the Allies. The service of intercession for the sailors and soldiers on Wednesday evening will serve as a preparation for the morning celebration. These services will be carried out throughout the summer months and are being held with the idea of concentrating munitions of faith just as the Allies are concentrating munitions of war. This is the first move of any of the city churches in this direction and it is hoped that many of the other churches will join and co-operate with Trinity so that our boys at the front will know that we are praying for them while they are on active service.

MAN SAID TO HAVE PERISHED IN RIVER

Karl Bonnell of Ketepec says that while returning to his home in a motor boat from Indiantown Saturday afternoon he overtook a boat near Grand Bay in a half submerged condition with a man aboard. He towed the boat into the shore near Green Head and was told by the man in the boat that he had a companion with him who had been washed overboard and drowned. The names of the men were not learned but it was thought they were residents of the Green Head district.

SAMUEL S. MAYES DIED YESTERDAY

Esteemed resident of West St. John passed away—Of Loyalist descent.

The death occurred yesterday of Samuel S. Mayes, a very well known and highly esteemed resident of this city and a descendant of the United Empire Loyalists. Mr. Mayes was 84 years of age and up to four years ago had enjoyed excellent health. More recently, however, he commenced to pay the toll of his advancing years and had for some time been confined to his bed.

Mr. Mayes was born in Gagetown but came to St. John when sixteen years of age and engaged in business as a contractor. In his youth he was a famous skater and athlete and by his prowess on the steel blades won more than local renown. He was married here and for more than fifty years enjoyed the companionship of his good wife, their golden wedding being celebrated in 1907. Mrs. Mayes passed away about three weeks ago, her death proving such a shock to her aged husband that he rapidly grew weaker until yesterday, when he died.

He is survived by four sons and one daughter, all of whom reside in West St. John. The sons are Messrs. Gershon S., George F., Herbert S., and Gilbert J., and the daughter is Miss Hattie Mayes.

In religion the deceased was a Baptist and for many years a deacon in the West End church. He was highly esteemed in business, a true friend and a good citizen and his death will be heard with sincere regret.

His great grandfather came to New Brunswick from Long Island, New York, with the United Empire Loyalists. The party settled on Long Island in the St. John river but being driven from there by the aboriginals, he removed to Gagetown where Mr. Samuel Mayes was born. He was a direct descendant of the United Empire Loyalists.

The funeral will be held from his late home 215 Winslow street, on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. There will be a service at the house at 2:15.

ERNEST MABEY SHOULD CROWD LOST LIFE IN THE RECRUITING OFFICES HERE WETMORE LAKE

Fell from raft and became exhausted in struggle for life—Body recovered.

Ernest C. Mabey, a young resident of West St. John, was drowned in Wetmore Lake, back of Rothesay, early yesterday morning, while on a fishing trip with relatives.

The party had gone to the lake on Saturday and yesterday morning the young man was on a raft in the lake, in some manner he lost his balance and fell into the water and while he was trying to climb back on the raft became exhausted and sank. His body was soon recovered but life was extinct.

The party consisted of Dr. J. T. Hazewood, father-in-law of the drowned man, F. W. Cunningham and Mr. Clows, who with young Mabey went to the lake on Saturday.

Soon after the accident yesterday Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison was communicated with and he broke the news to the family.

Ernest Mabey had been employed with the C. P. R. as a checker. He was well liked by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, who is a daughter of Dr. Hazewood.

It is expected that the body will be brought home this morning.

FISHERMEN ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE PERISHED

No word from missing men from Lorneville—Bay of Fundy combed for tidings

Several boats were out from Lorneville on Saturday searching the bay for tidings of the two missing fishermen, Samuel Ferguson and Howard Galbraith of that village, who disappeared during the heavy gale on Friday morning. The searchers could find no trace of the two men and the fishermen are now believed to have lost their lives.

The loss of these two men has cast a gloom over the village of Lorneville where they were prominent and favorably known by every person in that section. Both were experienced boatmen having been fishermen for many years.

It is probable that the boat had been either capsized or swamped by a heavy sea.

Samuel Ferguson, the oldest man of the two lost ones, leaves a surviving wife and five daughters who have the sincere sympathy of every person. Mr. Ferguson was one of the prominent members of the Orange Order in the county. He was the president of the Lorneville Fishermen's Protective Union. In politics he was a staunch Conservative and was the chairman of the Lorneville Conservative Club.

On Friday night when the word had been received in Lorneville that other fishermen caught out in the gale had made Dipper Harbor and Chance Harbor safely after a hard battle, and that David McAdam and his son, with Thomas Treacraft and James Driscoll had landed safely as far down the bay as Grand Manan, there was some hope among the relatives and friends of the two Lorneville men, that perhaps they had landed safely at some place along the coast which could not be reached by telephone, but when no word was received from them on Saturday night it was generally felt by all the fishermen that Messrs. Ferguson and Galbraith had lost their lives.

THE KICK OF A HORSE FRACTURED SKULL

Child of A. P. Stevens seriously injured while playing near horses.

Whilst playing in a field at Silver Falls yesterday afternoon Pat, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Stevens, who reside at that place, was kicked on the head by a horse. At the time of the accident J. F. McDonald was passing the field in his touring car with some friends. Mr. McDonald, after his friends had alighted, rushed the sufferer to the hospital where it was found that he had sustained a fracture of the skull. Good hopes for his ultimate recovery are entertained by the hospital authorities. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens feel very grateful to Mr. McDonald for his ready and prompt help in connection with the unfortunate occurrence.

SHOULD CROWD THE RECRUITING OFFICES HERE

More Men Wanted in France, Says Ottie White of the Auto Corps.

Ottie White, now in France with an automobile corps of the first Canadian contingent, writing to his mother, Mrs. Blanche White, here says:

"The game over here is going along about the same, and although our spirits are good it's a tough proposition and there are a lot more 'fluns' to kill yet before we are relieved and become civilians again. I have seen some very sad sights these last few days. We are in the same town now with a large clearing hospital and no end of poor chaps coming in with all kinds of wounds. The weather has been nice and cool for the past week and all the garden stuff, such as strawberries, peas, carrots, etc. are coming along now.

"I noticed a full page advertisement in The Standard you sent me, calling very earnestly for recruits for the 6th Battalion. It seems funny that there are still people, especially young men, left who do not realize that they are needed. Everyone of them between the ages of twenty and forty, if they are able to read a newspaper, and have seen the accounts of what is going on over here, should be crowding the recruiting depots instead of having to be coaxed and begged to enlist. It's numbers that's wanted now, and the more of them that realize the fact the easier they will make it for their relations, pals and neighbors who have been in France for five months now trying to hold back this horde of barbarians. They should have a few of the boys from the trenches here go back and relate some of their sights and experiences, and then I bet they would fill up the 55th, and a 56th too. Well, I seem to have a strain of 'hate' on tonight, so I guess I'd better switch off."

ORANGEMEN AT CHURCH SERVICE

Lorneville Brethren Hear Eloquent Sermon in Lorneville—Tribute to Fishermen.

Members of Mount Purple, L. O. L. No. 29, paraded to the Presbyterian church in Lorneville yesterday, where they listened to an eloquent sermon by Rev. A. J. Langlois. Taking his text from 1 Peter Chap. 2:17, "Honor all men, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the King." Rev. Mr. Langlois paid a tribute to the large number of Orangemen from Canada who have enlisted in the army of the Empire and are now doing their share in the great European struggle.

The speaker also referred to the deep loss sustained by the community of Lorneville in the drowning of two fishermen, Samuel Ferguson and Howard Galbraith. Both these men had been prominent in the village and their loss will be greatly felt. They were members of the Orange order and had been reliable and honored citizens.

The Orangemen formed up at their hall yesterday afternoon and after attending service marched back to the hall, where a short session of the lodge was held. There was a large attendance with visiting brethren taking part.
