New York, Nov. 9--Thousands watched on the banks of the Hudson river at noon today while six British warships in union with double that number American men-of-war fired a national salute of 21 guns in honor of King Edward's birthday.

The American flag floated at the fore of the ship of the North Atlantic fleet, and the Royal Jack at the main in honor of the British sovereign. A clear sky poured a wealth of sunshine upon the scene, and a stiff breeze rudely bared the heads of those who failed to show the mark of respect as the last gun of the salute thundered forth, and across the water came the strains of God Save the King.

FIVE NOVA SCOTIAN APPLE DEALERS TO BE PROSECUTED

Visit to St. John Determines Action by Maritime Inspector—Names One Man Who, He Says, is Using Another's Name on Barrels—Praises New Brunswick Apples.

As the result of a tour of inspection of the city fruit depots by G. H. Vroom, maritime fruit inspector, and Barton Gandy, provincial inspector, five Nova Scotia dealers will be prosecuted for violation of the fruit marks act.

Mr. Vroom was seen at the Clifton House last night by a Telegraph reporter regarding the result of his inspection.

Mr. Vroom said that he had seen the names of more than one of the dealers to be prosecuted against, and the name given was J. E. Shaffer, of Lawrencetown (N. S.).

Speaking of the New Brunswick apples that they had seen, Mr. Vroom was very enthusiastic; they were the best grown in this province in years, in his opinion, and were much superior to this year's Nova Scotia apple crop, being free from speckles and much more cleanly packed.

JUDGE FORBES IN A SWEEPING ADDRESS SCORES RING BOUT

Mayor, Police, and All Come in for Sharp Criticism

VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY ASSAILED

Encounter an Outrage on Christian Community, Says His Honor—Grand Jury Supports Former Case and Judge Carleton's Decision.

In the county court yesterday morning Judge Forbes severely criticized the parts of the law, and it was therefore the duty of the police officers had taken in the fatal exhibition in the Queen's rink on last Monday night week.

Judge Forbes delivered a stirring address on the boxing exhibition. He said that generally speaking he must congratulate the police force on the fine order that they maintain, but he would call attention to the reprehensible affair that occurred on last Monday week in the Queen's rink.

It was, in his opinion, unquestionably a prize fight, which was a gross violation of the law, and it was therefore the duty of the police to interfere. The law so lays it down that it is not necessary to wait for a blow that is going to knock an individual out or kill a man.

At the conclusion of his address Chief Clerk approached Judge Forbes and remarked that he had brought the Littlejohn-McLeod bout before the courts and told his honor that his own court had thrown the police magistrate's decision out.

"I didn't," said the judge. "No, but your court did," answered the chief clerk, "and that was more brutal than this one by long odds. Judge Carleton," said the chief clerk, "decided that the Littlejohn fight was not a prize fight."

"He was wrong, wrong, wrong," said Judge Forbes.

WOODSTOCK TOWN COUNCIL MEETING

Absence of Mayor Taken Advantage of to Raise Pay of Assessors.

Woodstock, Nov. 7.—The monthly meeting of the town council was held last night. In the absence of Mayor Jones, who was in Auburn (Me.), Coun. McManus occupied the chair.

The receipts for October were $1,712.90; expenditures, $1,655.49; credit balance, $57.41. There would be an overdraft of $2,679.51 if all checks issued were paid.

The majority of the finance committee reported as follows: Your finance committee to whom was referred the pay of the assessors, beg leave to report we recommend that A. G. Fields and John Donnelly be paid the sum of $75 each, in addition to the sum of $25 already paid them for services rendered as assessors for the year 1905 in full payment.

Moved by Coun. Leighton and seconded by Coun. Henderson that the report be received and recommendations carried out.

Moved by Coun. Fisher and seconded by Coun. Stevens in amendment that the matter be over until Friday night.

The amendment was lost. Yes—Stevens, Fisher; no—Henderson, Leighton, Nicholson. The motion was then carried by the vote reversed.

The council has been in a deadlock over the question for several months. Coun. Leighton has repeatedly introduced the subject in many ways, but the motion has been defeated by the casting vote of the mayor. Through the absence of the mayor and with Coun. McManus in the chair, Coun. Leighton took advantage of the situation and carried his motion.

Moved by Coun. Leighton and seconded by Coun. Henderson that the matter of calling in $80,000 consolidated bonds at the twenty years' time, expiring next summer, and reissuing the same, be referred to the finance committee. Carried. This action, it is claimed, will save the town about $10 yearly in interest. After transacting routine business, adjournment was carried.

Mayor Jones returned today from attending the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Edward Jones, which took place on Sunday in Auburn (Me.).

A. B. Connell, K. C., and J. C. Hartley are in attendance at the supreme court in Fredericton.

Coun. Hedley Grosvenor, of Meductic, made a business visit to Woodstock today. Herbert Wade and his mother, Mrs. John MacCluskey, went to Boston yesterday.

TOLD OF THE GYPSUM OF NEW BRUNSWICK

Lecture Before Natural History Society by Dr. Bailey—New Members Elected.

The monthly meeting of the Natural History Society was held last Tuesday, the president in the chair. Wm. Brodie, architect, and Hon. J. G. Forbes were elected ordinary members; Miss E. A. Smith, of St. Stephen, a corresponding member, and Miss Christine Brodie an associate member.

A number of donations to the museum and library were presented, some peculiar rocks from A. G. Leavitt, a plant that had grown in and choked the quartz pipe, from Rev. J. C. Berne, and an album of seaweeds, presented through Miss F. A. Hoyt.

The paper of the evening was a lecture by Prof. W. V. Bailey, on the gypsum deposits of New Brunswick, and especially those of Hillsboro, in Albert county. The development in the use of this substance in the arts, both in Canada and the United States of late years, has been phenomenal, and Dr. Bailey gave statistics to show the expansion of this trade.

He also spoke of the varieties of this mineral, and of anhydrite that were found at Hillsboro and at other points in New Brunswick, such as the Tobique river, Upland, Pointe-au-Loup, and Martin's Head; the Windsor deposits in Nova Scotia were also alluded to.

A very interesting account of the manufacture of plaster, its composition and plaster as carried on at Hillsboro by the company which has operated there for many years, was given by Dr. Bailey. The rock as brought from the quarries near Hillsboro where trains of thirty or forty cars are moved at a time, is first cracked into pieces of the size of filberts, then ground and heated, or calcined by the use of water. This process has to be carefully watched, for if the heat should go above about 245 degrees Far., the product would be spoiled and the plaster would become "dead," and not suitable for the proper use of plaster of paris, into which the mineral is turned by this heating process. The principal market for the Hillsboro gypsum is the United States, whither vast quantities are taken in the natural state and calcined.

By means of diagrams and descriptions, Prof. Bailey made clear to the audience the geological relations of this important deposit of gypsum rock, and the method of its production from enclosed basins of sea water that had been isolated from a free connection with the ocean. In such basins a deposit of gypsum would be thrown down when the sea water had evaporated sufficiently. A less useful form of gypsum, anhydrite, is so plentiful at Hillsboro, he said. Dr. Bailey suggested for its production Professor Crowley's theory that the best plaster is made from later geological deposits had changed the original gypsum into anhydrite.

The professor exhibited a fine series of photographs showing the operation and the peculiar scenic effects which may be observed in a country where gypsum abounds. The surface of the land is marked by numerous pits and depressions, and caves are common. He also showed the conversion of gypsum into plaster of paris, and the reversion of the latter into selenite or gypsum by practical experiments.

The paper was discussed by several members. Dr. Matthew spoke of the article in the geological survey of the province, and the salt pans of Portugal and tropical countries, as illustrating the processes of nature by which gypsum was produced.

Mr. Burditt mentioned the beautiful natural features of the gypsum deposits of Windsor (N. S.), and Dr. Hay told of the great pleasure and instruction he had had in listening to the lecturer.

A hearty vote of thanks was given to Prof. Bailey for his address, coupled with the hope that he would soon be able to favor the society with another.

D. A. R. Section Foreman Killed.

Hallowell, N. S., Nov. 8.—While Section Foreman Houlihan and an assistant were going over the rails near Beaver Bank on the Dominion Atlantic Railway, early this morning, on a trolley, an engine came on them unexpectedly, crashing into the trolley before it could be cleared. Houlihan was killed, but his companion escaped unhurt by jumping. Houlihan was an old employe of the road, a widower, leaving five children. He evidently lost his life in an effort to save the trolley. Had he jumped and abandoned the trolley he would not have been injured.

A PRETTY PROPOSAL

That Britain should trade Canada for the Philippines is a proposal fit for the comic papers; but it is put forward by a professional serious American publication called the Sugar Trade Journal.

There is, in truth, much reason to expect salutary results from the New York vote for Tammany has suffered a rebuke great enough to endanger "Boss" Murphy's leadership.

BOXING AND THE LAW

The agitation here over boxing and prize fighting is not new in St. John and has troubled nearly every other city of this size or bigger on the continent.

BEFORE AND AFTER

In a highly-civilized, sane and generally conservative community of more than four millions of people, embracing an electorate of nearly seven hundred thousand, and a registered vote of more than 600,000, it is easily thinkable that almost one-third of the vote will be cast tomorrow for a veritable apostle of unwarlike revolution.

violation of the law. Unfortunately the police can say that since the affair was duly licensed, and since a license had been held to permit exhibitions even more violent than this one was up to the last moment, they saw no reason to stop it until it was too late.

But no more licenses will be issued, at least until there is a satisfactory guarantee that boxing and not fighting is to be witnessed, and, if then, only to persons whose conduct and reputation would mean that the disreputable features of recent boxing exhibitions have been eliminated for good.

SIGNIFICANT ELECTION RETURNS

The outcome of the clamor following Hearst's great bid for office in New York is difficult to foresee. This clamor will be loud and spectacular and persistent.

BARRED

The Missouri state superintendent of insurance has his own ideas about reform. After reading John A. McClellan's testimony before the Armstrong committee the Missouri official served notice upon the New York Life that the funds contributed to the Republican campaign funds must be returned to the company's treasury.

IN ALBERTA

The first provincial election in the new province of Alberta Thursday was carried easily by the Liberals, a result that will occasion little surprise.

NOTE AND COMMENT

New Brunswick applies get a pleasing certificate of character from Fruit Inspector Vroom.

JUDGE FORBES AND BOXING

Judge Carleton decided that the Littlejohn bout was not a prize fight. Judge Carleton's decision is now quoted as bearing upon the more recent and fatal contest. Judge Forbes has spoken of the recent bout, not that of what Judge Carleton said of one bout is in no sense binding upon Judge Forbes in dealing with an entirely different case, in which a fatally injured pugilist was the defendant.

GOING AT $100,000?

The Sun now achieves the distinction of being mentioned by the Globe as likely to be purchased by a liberal syndicate (or a syndicate of Liberals) for something like $100,000. But if a lavishly liberal syndicate of Liberals would pay $100,000 for the Sun which is a valiant and extreme Conservative journal, what would not a liberal Conservative syndicate pay for it?

NOTE AND COMMENT

Rev. Mr. Colhue evidently finds many changes agree with him as to the city being over-churchled.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A great many gentlemen in New York will now uneasily await a renewal of official activity on the part of Mr. Jerome.

NOTE AND COMMENT

St. John's suicide list has been unusually long during the last six months. People bent upon self-destruction will find a way, but it is unwise to sell poison indiscriminately.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Alberta election today. By tomorrow we should know the truth about the glacial public opinion in the new province. The reports have been conflicting, but the odds seem to favor Liberal success.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The report that some ballot boxes used in the New York election have been fished out of the river suggests that Tammany may have borrowed some of the trick boxes once used in Ontario.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, withdrew from the Fifth National Bank, Twenty-third street and Third Avenue, today $175,000 in $5 bills and $50,000 in bills of small denominations. The $175,000 figures are exactly $5,000 less of the thirty-five assembly districts, with $60,000 to spare in small bills for contingencies. It will thus be seen that Tammany will not want for money tomorrow—New York Globe, Nov. 6.

DOUBLE LIFE OF CRIMINALS

SOME NOTORIOUS CASES

Men Who Have Been Pillars of Church at Home, But Have Been Busy Abroad.

"Every crook will tell you," said a central office detective sergeant, in New York city, "that the successful criminal is not only characterized by deeds of daring and audacity, but that he is pretty sure to cover his burglaries, swindles or a sort of double life. If possible, he will live in a neighborhood where about the only occupation of the policeman is to file with his respectability until it becomes to the extent of attending the neighboring church and win great popularity among the congregation by his efforts to improve the minds and morals of his fellow creatures."

"Take the case of a certain man who lived in Newark a few years ago and who is now in Trenton prison serving out a sentence for a jewel theft. This man lived in fine style in Newark for a considerable time and frequently drove his own carriage along Ocean avenue on Long Branch."

"He was regarded as a man of considerable means and the news of his arrest for a series of thefts, which the judge described as deliberate and cruel, fell like a thunderbolt upon his extensive circle of acquaintances, that was quite a fashionable one."

"This man was in the habit of making periodical visits to New York, when he would engage rooms in a high-class hotel, ransack the bedrooms of the establishment, pawn the stolen articles and then return to Newark, where he lived a life of high respectability until it became necessary to replenish his exchequer again."

"A few years ago the people of Cincinnati were astounded at the arrest of a man who was regarded as one of their most worthy citizens on the charge of committing a burglary. This man had a number of aliases, Thompson, was the most frequently used. He posed before the public as a retired merchant, and his charitable work gained for him much popularity. But it was when the people of Cincinnati were asked that he came out in his true character."

"For a time he escaped the police, until a clever detective was successful in tracing him as the perpetrator of numerous burglaries, including a bank robbery, by which Thompson netted about $10,000. With part of the money which he thus obtained he actually founded a private infirmary, which he superintended personally, and paid for the addition to this old infirmary building in the city. Moncton, Nov. 3.—(Special)—G. H. TARIFF CHANGES ASKED FOR BY MONTREAL INDUSTRIES

Montreal, Nov. 8.—(Special)—Many important interests were heard at today's session of the tariff inquiry. The Canadian Cigar Makers' Association was first heard. They wanted the duty on raw leaf tobacco reduced to $4 per thousand cigars. It is now about $8. They complained that the additional taxation placed on the industry in 1897 is affecting the consumption and seriously hampering the industry. Only prosperity and a consequent increase in the sale of ten-cent cigars had saved it from ruin. Low taxation would make Canadian, as it had made the people of the United States, a nation of cigar smokers. More labor is required in the cigar industry in proportion to the value of the output than in any other industry.

The evening session was largely devoted to three Canadian weaving machine makers, who complained that cheap grade of machine upon which the manufacturer did not dare place his name was being sold to Canadian dealers below cost and was ruining the Canadian market. They asked that a prohibitive duty be placed upon this class of machines. An importer of Russian sugar was represented as being in a most precarious position and an increase of duty from 25 to 35 per cent requested. The commission meets here again Friday afternoon.

THREE YUKON MEN'S ONLY FOOD FOR EIGHT DAYS WAS WOLF ROBE

Vancover, Nov. 7.—(Special)—A special from Dawson says W. H. C. Jackson, George French and James Landale were obliged to live on a wolf robe for eight days, having no other food. They had a thrilling experience coming down the Yukon and Pelly rivers. Amid heavily running ice their boat was swamped and they lost their provisions the first day out. They built a raft with the wolf robe down river and then they made overland to Selkirk just in time to get Thanksgiving day dinner. One of the boats was wrecked. They recuperated they continued their way to Dawson with the remains of the wolf robe they will keep in memory of the worst trip they ever undertook.

DECIDE ON READING DESK

St. Paul's Church Chooses Memorial to Rev. Canon DeVeber.

The adjourned meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's (Valley) church, to consider the nature of the memorial to the late Canon DeVeber, met last Tuesday in the choir room of the church, and decided that the memorial should take the form of a handsome carved reading desk. The meeting was fairly well attended; the rector, Rev. A. G. H. Dicker, presided. The discussion of the memorial was broken, the meeting at first being about equally divided between the two schemes first proposed, namely a tablet or rock screen. After considerable discussion John K. Schofield moved, seconded by T. Barclay Robinson, that a tablet be placed in the church. This motion, however, was lost. Dr. M. Magee then moved that the memorial take the form of a reading desk. The motion was seconded by Thomas Stead. This met the fate of the former motion. A compromise was then come to by Dr. J. M. Magee's motion seconded by Dr. Thomas Walker, that the late Canon DeVeber's memory be perpetuated by placing in the church a handsome carved reading desk. The motion was carried by a large majority, and the members were then appointed to solicit subscriptions.

TAMMANY'S GRIP ON NEW YORK CITY BROKEN

Control of Board of Aldermen Passes from Its Hands With Other Offices

Murphy Discredited as Leader and His Retirement is Almost Certain—Organization Likely to Be Gobbled by Hearst—
No Bets Are Being Paid on Mayoralty Contest Pending Protest to the Courts—Jerome's Election Shows He is the Strongest Man in the City.

From Our Own Correspondent.
New York, Nov. 8.—New York never had so close an election as this one which left each bitter feeling behind it. It never had an election so big in its results and possibilities for the future. The result is eminently satisfactory to the decent citizens. Considering the conditions and candidates it could not have come out better.

The average sensible citizen who had the good of his city and country at heart ardently desired the election of Jerome and the defeat of Hearst. As McClellan was the only real alternative for Hearst he wanted to see McClellan win. To strike a blow at Murphy and Hearst generally he wanted Tammany to be rebuked. The election of Jerome and the return of McClellan as small a plurality as possible were the best things that could have happened the big city.

As predicted on election morning, Jerome was elected by a comfortable plurality. McClellan was returned by a small one and Hearst has raised a howl of fraud, and will make a great show of contest.

McClellan's Plurality 3,878.

So called official figures vary slightly, but the canvass of the board of elections will not be far different from this, a compilation made late this afternoon with none of the 1,948 election districts missing. McClellan, 228,888; Hearst, 225,010; a plurality for McClellan of 3,878.

Ivins got 138,049 votes.
For district attorney of New York County—Jerome, 118,271; Osborne, 103,174; a plurality for Jerome of 15,097.

Sherrin, Hearst's candidate, got 70,185.
The election may be taken for granted on the side of the return. The Hearst people are furious and will fight tooth and nail, but it will not avail. On a recent day they cannot get 3,800 votes for McClellan through out. There will be strenuous court proceedings, but it is a maxim of the courts not to go behind the face of the returns. The Hearst papers announce his election yet and use the wildest language. Hearst himself said to the reporters:

Hearst Furious.
"I don't give a damn to be mayor, but by G—, I am going to see to it that every man who cast his vote for me gets it counted. I am going to contest this thing and fight it out to the bitter end. We have won this election. All Tammany's frauds, all Tammany's corruption, all Tammany's intimidation and violence, all Tammany's false registration, illegal voting and dishonest count have not been able to overcome a great popular majority. The record will show that we have won. I shall fight this battle to the end, in behalf of the people who have cast their votes for me and who shall not be defrauded by any effort of criminal bosses."

Means Murphy's Downfall.
The significance of the election to Tammany is very great. It probably means the relegation to obscurity of Boss Murphy and his, who look on him as a log unwilling to share his sway. It will possibly even mean the absorption of Tammany by the Hearst party.

McClellan is confidently expected to cut loose from the boss' leading strings. He is under no sort of obligation to Tammany or its leader. He was elected by the votes of Republicans who cast their ballots for him as the only possible candidate to defeat Hearst.

McClellan got only 229,000 votes. Two years ago he got 315,000, a falling off of 86,000 organization votes. Last year 327,000 Democratic votes were polled in the city for Parker against the tremendously popular Roosevelt.

McClellan has certainly nothing to

GOLDWIN SMITH
CORNELL'S DOL

Made the University What it Is Today Says Dr.
Schurman

INTERESTING VIEWS
President of Ithaca Institution at Toronto Talks on Many Things—
Labor and Learning, Brains and Capital—Civilization in the Orient.

(Toronto Globe).

President Schurman, of Cornell University, arrived in the city on Saturday afternoon, and is staying at The Grange with his friend, Goldwin Smith. During the afternoon the members of the university commission—Mr. Smith is one of them—spent two days with Dr. Schurman in a consultation on university management. He submitted to an inquisitional examination on details of the American systems, and his wide experience was placed at the service of the commission.

Dr. Schurman is a Canadian by birth, but through descent and by adoption he is of the continent. He is easily the strongest man in New York today and has become a national figure. He is the only man who looks up as a gubernatorial and then a presidential possibility. He has said that he would serve his term out and he probably will, but he could have the Democratic nomination for governor next year if he would take it.

It is interesting to see where he got his 118,000 votes. There were 53,000 Hearst voters who failed to vote for the Hearst candidate, Sherrin. There were probably not a score of Hearst men who voted for the Tammany candidate, Osborne. So it may be assumed that they voted for Jerome. There were 57,000 who voted for McClellan and did not vote for Osborne. Probably not one of them voted for Sherrin, so Jerome got them. Nearly 15,000 ballots were counted for Flammery, the Republican candidate, who had withdrawn. Had Jerome's name been on the Republican ticket his plurality would have been nearly 30,000.

A Blow at Brooklyn's Boss.
A feature of the election is the way Brooklyn went. Hearst carried the borough by nearly 10,000 and took his ticket with him.

Bird Coler, formerly controller of the city, comes back into politics as president of the borough of Brooklyn. His campaign was aided by the notorious usefulness of the Tammany candidate, Ridgeway, and the desire to smash Pat McCarron, the Brooklyn Democratic boss.

Tammany loses control of the board of aldermen for the first time in a blue moon. The Hearstites and Republicans will control it by a large majority. Tammany has consolation however, in retaining its hold upon the board of estimates by 12 to 4. The board of estimates just now is most important, having the franchise granting power to some extent, and the control of the expenditure of some hundreds of millions. The Republican legislature could easily remedy that but not so long as Odell is in the saddle.

Another anti-boss victory was won in Queens county where the notoriously corrupt Cassidy was put down and out by a fusion of the Republicans and Hearst men.

Riotous Scenes.
The city scarcely slept last night. Hearst and McClellan men claimed the streets until the early hours. There were never such riotous scenes in the streets. The Hearst papers advise in big type, "Don't pay your bets on Hearst. He was elected."

The Wall Street crowd generally took this advice today. In fact one bet was made on the curb of $5,000 to $10,000 that Hearst would be declared the winner as the result of the contest.

As another indication of the strength of the blow dealt Tammany the organization elected only 19 aldermen out of the 44, while last year it elected 33. It elected only 17 of the 35 assemblymen in New York county, while last year it elected 26.

the real danger of our system is the domination of capital.

Brains and Capital.

"I do not think it is true that the educated brain and the capitalist brain have formed an alliance conscious or unconscious. But we look with some anxiety at the dominance of capital. If capital and brains were to form an alliance I fear that would be the end of the democracy. The glory of our civilization has been the opportunity it has given to the poor man."

"I do not believe the statement that virtue is knowledge and vice is stupidity. There is something much more than knowledge necessary. Our schools and colleges and universities cannot do much directly for anything but intellectual education. Indirectly they help to form character through the disposition and influence of teachers. I believe the man possessed of only intellectual education is also dangerous as any. In Europe they have the old traditions to steady men and groups of men. Here we have none of that, so the emphasis is laid on character."

It was suggested that the university influence at work on Russia also extended to the East.

Mongolian Civilization.
"The situation," he said, "involves the awakening of China. Before the war Marquis Ito told me of his attempt to establish Japanese influence there. It failed then, but will undoubtedly succeed now. You have observed that Komura goes to China as Japanese minister. There are three or four thousand Chinese students in Japan, and it is through Japan that China will get American civilization. When China is awakened the effect will be to reserve Asia from European influence. It is not for a moment suppose that Christianity as we see it here will ever be seen in Japan. It has gone there as a vague influence, among the elements of our civilization. It is with physical sciences and the material elements of our civilization we have enriched Japan."

Malpractice Victims Buried in Nova Scotia.

Boston, Nov. 8.—"Mary S. Dean," or Mrs. Dr. Gilfeather, the nurse who had charge of the house, 68 Winthrop street, Roxbury, where Susie Geary died, is said to have fled to Hammond Plains (N.S.). The Boston police got this information late yesterday, and wired the chief of police at Halifax to send there and arrest her.

When she left Boston she went to Portland, but she later returned to Boston, and her subsequent movements were somewhat cloudy until information came that she had crossed the border and gone to Nova Scotia. She will be extradited and brought back to the city.

Suspicion was directed to Nova Scotia from the fact that several bodies of supposed victims of criminal malpractice were registered in the death certificates that were obtained as being residents of Nova Scotia. More than that, after the bodies were prepared for burial, they were shipped to Nova Scotia and there turned over to a local undertaker for interment.

These certificates were not questioned at the time, but the probabilities are that the scope of the investigation will be broad enough to include them and perhaps bring into undesirable prominence the doctors giving them such certificates of death.

Halifax Police Haven't Found Her.
Halifax, N. S., Nov. 8.—(Special)—The police have no further information than what is contained in the Boston despatch and no clue to the woman's whereabouts. She is said to have arrived in Halifax last Friday and gone to the suburbs, but nothing definite as yet is known.

BRITISH WARSHIP TO WATCH FISHERY DISPUTE

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 8.—The British cruiser, Latona, stationed at Bay of Islands, which was expected to leave there shortly to join her consort, the Scotia and Sappho at Halifax, received special orders yesterday indicating that she is likely to remain there till Christmas, owing to the means of thought dispute. It is regarded here as indicating that an early termination of pending negotiations is unlikely.

CITY BRED MEN AS FARMERS.
We know a man in Kings county (N. S.) who went into fruit-farming absolutely ignorant of farm work. He had to go into it for the sake of his health; he needed an outdoor life. Today he makes a net profit of $1,000 a year besides the most of his living, off a farm of twenty acres, a large portion of which is in orchard. And while he was accustomed to a city life all his earlier years, he tells us that he enjoys it greatly and is exceedingly glad of the change. And there are many city men who are making a success of fruit-farming and are happy in it. Agriculture, we believe, affords a career in Eastern Canada for many men, and when they take to the farm it will be a glad day for the country, for we need people who do not find failure. There is no reason,

ARRESTED ON SMUGGLING
CHARGE UP RIVER

Lively Time in the Vicinity of St.
Leonard—Wool and Pelts Seized in Presque Isle.

Presque Isle, Nov. 6.—An interesting seizure case took place at Van Buren about midnight the 3rd inst., when Gorge Marshall was arrested for smuggling liquor and P. L. Clarry narrowly escaped Deputy Collector Crawford. Clarry who has been engaged for sometime with the Boston Art Co., and has a place of business in this village, employs Marshall in his business. For sometime past they have been soliciting orders around the country on horse-back. Clarry having purchased three Indian ponies a while ago, one of which is used by Mrs. Clarry, who is in Presque Isle.

Last week the two men in question hired an express wagon and harnessing the two ponies into it, drove to St. Leonard, where they purchased 15 gallons of liquor. They crossed the river on the ferry to the American side, where they left the team and while Marshall was engaged in hitching up the ponies, Clarry was loading the front. Officer Crawford, coming up from the front, arrested Marshall who afterwards got away, but was subsequently recaptured and sent to Bangor Saturday.

Clarry in the meantime ran as the story goes, the office fired two shots after him, Clarry turning and firing at the officer. Reaching the river, Clarry threw off his coat and jumped into the river and swam across to the New Brunswick side, where he will be obliged to stay if he escapes the penalty of the law. Mrs. Clarry's former

KILLED DAUGHTER FOR A BURGLAR

Mrs. Elizabeth Coddington Shot by Hayden R. Craft, Who Thought
She Was a Robber.

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 6.—Believing he was shooting at a burglar, Hayden R. Craft, a hardware merchant, killed his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Coddington, nineteen years old, in their home, in West Main street, this morning.

Mrs. Coddington and her husband, Charles Coddington, lived with the former's parents. Mr. Coddington is ill, and early this morning his wife went to the kitchen to get ice. The door closed, he hid her and locked itself with a spring lock. Finding she could not open the door, she worked quietly at the lock, so as not to arouse other members of the family.

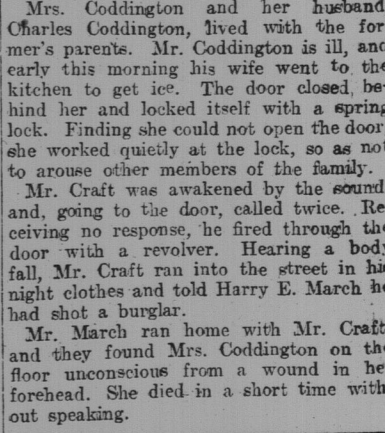

Mr. Craft was awakened by the sound, and, going to the door, called twice. Receiving no response, he fired through the door with a revolver. Hearing a cry of pain, Mr. Craft ran into the street in his night clothes and told Harry E. March he had shot a burglar.

Mr. March ran home with Mr. Craft, and they found Mrs. Coddington on the floor unconscious from a wound in her forehead. She died in a short time without speaking.

Big Output of Gold.
Sydney, N. S., Nov. 8.—(Special)—All previous records in gold mining in Nova Scotia have been beaten recently at the Beaver Hat Gold Mine, Goldboro. Yesterday Percy White, of that mining company arrived bringing with him the last brick mined. The brick weighs 139 ounces and is the output of 20 days' crushing with a fine stamp mill. It is confidently expected that with the rich belt of gold bearing quartz, which has now been fully proved by development work, conducted by expert mining men, the output of the company, when they will have installed a large crushing plant, will exceed that of any other gold mine in the province.

FARMING AS A CAREER IN EASTERN CANADA

(Maritime Merchant.)
WANTED: MORE BACK BONE.

Continuing the subject which we discussed in last issue under the caption, "Wealth from the Soil in Nova Scotia," we wish in this issue to dwell upon farming as a career in these provinces. We believe that whatever else is to be done to make the Maritime Provinces grow, people must settle on the land and make it yield up its wealth. Farmers, after all, are the backbone of a country, and a country needs a backbone. So, if we are looking for permanent success in up-building Eastern Canada, we must endeavor to make more of the land than we are doing. In some respects we are fortunate that we have so many ways here of gaining wealth, for the tendency is to distract the attention of the individual, the glamour of one occupation unsettles him in his application to another. The effect ought to be diametrically opposite. So self-contained a country ought to feel in each industry the stimulus of the other, and all ought to grow together, agriculture along with the rest. Nevertheless we find that we do not produce enough food to feed ourselves, but must depend very largely upon the other provinces for such things as fresh meats and poultry, pork products, dairy products and a whole list of things which nature certainly intended should be produced there. There is such a large market for many agricultural products right among ourselves that our farmers ought to feel encouraged to go about developing their own farms, and others, who have a little capital and the proper spirit and intelligence, should not fear to undertake farming as a career.

BRAINS AND ENERGY TRUMP.

In our last issue, the two articles on agriculture in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick pointed out instances of successful farmers. These are not isolated cases, for if we were to make a list of men who have been in any degree successful at farming in the Maritime Provinces, we would find far more than we think. The very existence of these successful men means that there is success for anyone who would try. Just to indicate what small capital to start with, backed up by lots of energy, will do, we might cite the case of Mr. Ralph Eaton, of Kentville, who has 30,000 fruit trees of all kinds, most of them growing where the woods stood sixteen years ago. Anyone who would develop an orchard quarter here would certainly be abundantly successful, and anyone who is prepared to work as hard in the country as he would have to work in the city, should at the end of a couple of decades be able to look over a happy period of life, blessed as it is passed with plenty, and rewarded finally with a valuable estate. And besides his income and his muscles he would not require very much other capital at the start.

A LITTLE CAPITAL DESIRABLE.

We think it desirable for people engaging fruit farming (or any other kind of farming) in these provinces to have a little capital, to settle down to this kind of life here; for they can get a better start than people without capital and therefore suffer less discouragement. An immigrant who goes out to the Northwest without capital and reserves a farm of 100 acres free may be very successful, and perhaps he is not to be blamed for yielding to the lure of the West. But there are some things to consider than simply the accumulation of wealth. We cannot help pitying the man who tells on the prairie day after day for months and hardly sees a soul; for he is chiefly in the scattered settlements that fruit farms are given. Of course, if a man has capital he can buy a farm in a settled community and be near congenial society. But why not buy a farm in some beautiful and fertile section of these provinces, where he can see and hear of other people than in our long settled, if somewhat "slow" East. And if we could obtain the right kind of people possessing a little capital, that would appeal most to their fancy in our own eastern province. It would result most satisfactorily both to the people themselves and to the country.

FRUIT FARMERS LIKE THE LIFE.

Of course, there have been failures. Many men even with sufficient capital have failed, and not only men who have come from across the sea, but men born and brought up in the country. But the men, and not the location, have been to blame. And where can you turn that you do not find failures? There is no reason, outside of his own personality, why anyone should not succeed in agriculture in the well-favored parts of these provinces. And the life, while it has its hardships and its worries, is enjoyable. No man expects to earn his bread save by the sweat of his brow, and usually he earns it just as hard in any other occupation; if he is adapted to farming, he can earn it with probably less pain on the farm. Some kinds of farming are less trying than others to men of a certain constitution, and fruit-farming seems to be the favorite with many. The owner of a fruit farm must work very hard during the summer season, in order to cultivate to the best advantage; but during the winter months his duties are comparatively light, giving him time for rest, reading, thinking and planning. And among other pleasures of farm life is the great joy of living in the open air, close to nature, and seeing things grow.

Many city men who are making a success of fruit-farming and are happy in it. Agriculture, we believe, affords a career in Eastern Canada for many men, and when they take to the farm it will be a glad day for the country, for we need people who do not find failure. There is no reason,
