The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Metropolitan Toronto Reference Library

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol → (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ▽ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

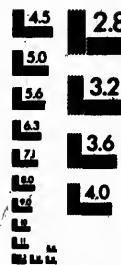

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat, et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole → signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ▽ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaires. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

CODE OF LAWS.

CHAPTER I.

NAME.

The name, number or location of a Division shall be designated, and may be changed by the G. D.

CHAPTER II.

PLEDGE.

SECTION 1.—The manufacture, sale and use of cider or wine fermented or unfermented, or of any kind of spirituous or malt liquors, or any kind of intoxicating drinks, as a beverage, whether enumerated in the pledge or not, is a violation of the same, and the simple fact of the manufacture, sale or use of such drinks, by a member, shall be prima facie evidence against such member on a trial for violation of the pledge, so as to devolve on the accused the necessity of proving that they were not manufactured, sold or used as a beverage.

Sec. 2.—A physician's certificate or prescription shall not necessarily relieve a member from a charge for violation of the pledge, as the internal use of the liquors prohibited by the pledge is in no way provided for by our laws; but the Subordinate Division in the case, shall be the judge of any wantonness or collusion which may appear in relation to the matter.

Sec. 3.—Any member who makes, buys, or sells any of the liquors prohibited by the pledge, to be used as a beverage, for the accommodation of a customer or friend, although he may not design to make any profit thereon, or any member acting as salesman on such liquors, as a beverage, or any member buying or selling such liquors in any manner, as a beverage, or letting buildings for making, buying, or selling, such liquors as a beverage, except an agent or officer of the law, acting officially, or an auctioneer required to sell by the terms of his license, violates the pledge.

Sec. 4.—In a trial for violation of the pledge, or any other offence, it is the duty of the Committee to notify the accused of the time and place of meeting for the trial, and a notice by mail, after a reasonable time, is a legal and sufficient notice.

Sec. 5.—A Division shall have no right to require its members to take any pledge other than that prescribed by the N. D., neither shall it inflict any penalty for a violation of the pledge, except that laid down in the Constitution, or Code.

Sec. 6.—An acknowledgment, personally or in writing, by a member, of a violation of the pledge, is in accordance with the spirit of the Constitution.

CHAPTER LII.

MEMBERS.

Sec. 1.—The Constitution provides the terms of eligibility to membership, and no Division shall have the right to enlarge or prescribe these terms, except that Divisions paying benefits may require a ~~Acute~~ qualification, to defend them from imposition and loss.

Sec. 2.—The name of a candidate for admission must be proposed by a member, in writing, stating age, residence, and business, which must be entered on the record, and the subject referred to three members for investigation, who shall report in writing at the next succeeding regular meeting, unless granted further time by the Division, when the candidate shall be balloted for with ten ballots, and if a majority of white balls, and not more than four black balls appear, shall be declared elected; but if one or more black balls appear, shall be rejected, and so declared. In cases where there is not a majority of white balls, and less than five black balls, the Division, on motion, may proceed to another ballot.

Sec. 3.—A proposition for membership shall not be withdrawn, after it has been referred to a Committee for investigation without the consent of a majority of the members present.

Sec. 4.—The name of a person constitutionally rejected, suspended, or expelled, shall not be published in any other manner than the usual notice to Divisions.

Sec. 5.—The character of a candidate for membership may be discussed in the Division any time after the report of a committee of investigation, and previous to the ballot being taken, but the ballot is a secret vote, and it is improper to call on any member for the reasons of his vote. The name to be balloted for, should always be read openly to the Division.

Sec. 6.—Any action of a Division in reference to an individual proposed for membership therein, without his consent, is invalid and void; but any person having been proposed after giving such consent, cannot, previous to election or rejection, be proposed in any other Division.

Sec. 7.—The name of any person applying for membership by deposit of card, shall be subject to the same proposition, investigation and ballot, as a new applicant.

Sec. 8.—On the admission of any member to the Division by card, the Recording Scribe shall immediately notify the Division granting the Card, of the fact.

Sec. 9.—A candidate may be proposed, balloted for, and initiated at any regular meeting, by the unanimous consent of the members present.

Sec. 10.—A suspended member is under the control and jurisdiction of the Subordinate Division, and subject to their judgment, during such suspension.

Visitors.

Sec. 11.—Visitors shall not be entitled to participate in the special business deliberations of the Order, or vote, except to ballot on the admission of Visitors.

Sec. 12.—Visitors may propose persons for visitors, assist in the ceremonies of introduction and initiation of Visitors, and take part in exercises and discussions under the head of the good of the Order.

Sec. 13.—The privileges of any or all Visitors may be withdrawn or suspended for the time, or permanently, by a two-thirds vote of the Division.

Sec. 14.—No formal trial of a Visitor shall be had unless demanded by herself, and the demand sustained by a majority vote of the members present, and in case of trial, the mode for the trial of members shall be conformed to as near as may be.

CHAPTER IV.

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS.

Sec. 1.—If a Division fails to elect or install its officers at the time prescribed in Article IV., Section 1, of the Constitution, such election or installation may be had subsequently, by leave of the G. W. P., or his Deputy.

Sec. 2.—If a Division has no member constitutionally qualified or willing to accept the office of W. P., it shall be taken charge of by the G. W. P., or his Deputy, who shall preside over the same until the disability is removed.

Sec. 3.—In case of the absence of the W. P. and W. A. of a Division, the senior P. W. P. present shall preside, which seniority shall be governed by the date of service as W. P.

Sec. 4.—A vacancy occurring during the term, may be filled at any time by election and installation.

Sec. 5.—The seat of any Officer may be declared vacant for neglect of duty three successive meetings, by a majority vote, provided one week's notice is given in the Division, and three days' notice given him personally or by mail, by the R. S.

Sec. 6.—A member joining a Division by Card, carries with him, and is entitled to, all his unforfeited honors.

Sec. 7.—A member losing his connection with the Order by suspension, expulsion, or voluntary resignation, cannot claim any honors when he again connects himself with the Order, and any member acknowledging or convicted of a violation of the pledge, shall forfeit all honors previously earned.

CHAPTER V.

FINANCE.

SEC. 1.—The initiation fee, quarterly dues, assessments or fines of any member may be remitted by a vote of the Division.

SEC. 2.—When a member is eleven months in arrears for dues, and the F. S. shall have duly notified the delinquent, and he fails to pay his dues for one month thereafter, the Division may, without charge or trial, suspend or expel him. Any member who has been suspended for more than six months, may be admitted as a new member.

CHAPTER VI.

EXPULSION.

SEC. 1.—Any member convicted of a crime by any judicial tribunal, may be suspended by a vote of the Division, without any formal charge, notice, or trial.

SEC. 2.—If a member acknowledges a violation of the pledge, the W. P. shall declare forfeited all honors previously earned by such member, and then proceed immediately to call for a ballot on the question of expulsion;—if a majority ballot in favor, the W. P. shall declare the member expelled, and order the F. S. to erase the name from the books. If a majority do not ballot in favor of expulsion, the membership of the offender shall be retained, and no further action shall be taken, except that the Division may by vote require the offender to be re-obligated.

SEC. 3.—Any member who has good reason to believe that a member has violated the Pledge, proved false to any of the obligations of a Son of Temperance, or been guilty of conduct unbecoming a member of the Order, shall prefer a charge in writing, stating the nature of the offence, the time, place, and circumstances, as near as may be, of its commission.

SEC. 4.—When such charge shall have been preferred, the W. P. shall appoint a committee of five members, who shall, as soon as practicable, summon the accused and witnesses, pro and con, and investigate the matter.

SECTION 5.—The committee shall organize by appointing a Chairman and Secretary, and they may receive the testimony of those who are not members. The Secretary shall keep a correct record of the proceedings, with such testimony as may be presented; which record shall be produced to the Division, on the call of any member after the committee have reported.

Sec. 6.—The committee shall report the charge "sustained," or "not sustained," as is warranted by the evidence before them.

Sec. 7.—If the committee report the charge not sustained, all further proceedings shall be stayed. If they report the charge sustained, or if there is a majority and a minority report, the subject shall be laid upon the table until the next meeting, and the accused notified to be present.

Sec. 8.—Upon a final hearing of the case by the Division, a ballot shall be had; when, if a majority vote against sustaining the charge, the case shall be dismissed; if a majority vote in favor of sustaining the charge, the penalty shall be fixed by a vote of the Division, unless the law prescribes the penalty, in which case it shall be enforced by order of the W. P.

Sec. 9.—If the accused is found guilty of violating the pledge, the W. P., after declaring forfeited all honors previously earned by such member, shall proceed to ballot as is section 2nd of this chapter.

Sec. 10.—In cases of expulsion, the vote shall always be taken by ballot; and in no case shall a member be present when a vote or ballot is taken on his case, under this chapter, either by the committee or the Division.

CHAPTER VII.

CARDS, PAROLE WORDS, CEREMONIES AND REGALIA.

Sec. 1.—Travelling, Withdrawal and Clearance Cards, shall not be granted for a longer period than one year.

Sec. 2.—Before a member shall be entitled to a Travelling Card, he must pay all dues in advance for the full time such Card is desired, not exceeding one year; and the fee for the Card.

Sec. 3.—A member with a Travelling Card shall be allowed to visit on his giving the Travelling Password which was in use at the date of its issue.

Sec. 4.—A member shall not be entitled to a Withdrawal Card until the Division has voted the same, after payment of all dues, and the fee for the Card, but after a vote has been passed granting a Card, the membership of the applicant shall be severed, and the Division shall have no right to reconsider such vote, or to withhold the Card from such member. The Division shall have jurisdiction over the conduct of a member to whom such Card is granted until he shall have become a member of another Division, and for sufficient cause may revoke the Card.

Sec. 5.—If a Subordinate Division surrenders or forfeits its charter, or is suspended, the Grand Division having jurisdiction shall have the right to grant a Clearance Card to each of the members of said Division, making written application for the same, who may be deemed worthy by said Grand Division, and said Card shall be of the same value as a Withdrawal Card.

Sec. 6.—If a member, in possession of a Clearance Card, shall be guilty of an offence, a charge shall be made to the G. W. P. or his Deputy, who shall transfer the same to a Subordinate Division in the vicinity of the accused, for trial in the usual form, and in case of a conviction, the G. D. granting such Card shall be notified of the action.

Sec. 7.—A member who has taken a Withdrawal or Clearance Card is not entitled to the Password, nor can he claim a right to enter a Division.

Sec. 8.—Visiting members not being able to give the Quarterly Password, may be admitted if vouched for, as prescribed in the B. B.; but a Division shall have the right to refuse admission to a visiting member who can work his way, upon being satisfied that he has lost his membership, or been irregularly admitted, or has previously deported himself improperly in the Division.

Sec. 9.—The Password may be withheld from a member against whom a charge has been preferred.

Sec. 10.—A W. P. may communicate the Quarterly or Travelling Password to a travelling brother, when requested so to do by the W. P. of his Division, in writing under the seal of the Division.

Sec. 11.—Every member during the session of the Division shall be clothed in appropriate regalia, unless excused by a vote of the Division. The Representatives to the G. D. and N. D. present, may wear the regalia of their respective bodies, unless they are serving in some office, in which case they must be clothed in the proper official regalia.

Sec. 12.—The mourning badge shall be black crape, and worn on the left arm. The official badges, and emblems, and staffs of office may be draped in mourning.

Sec. 13.—Portions of the ceremonies of initiation may be omitted by a two-thirds vote of the Division; provided that in no case shall the obligations be dispensed with.

CHAPTER VIII.

RESIGNATIONS.

Sec. 1.—A member may dissolve his connection with the Order by paying all demands against him on the books of the Division, and tendering his written resignation; such resignation shall lay upon the table one week, when if not withdrawn, the request shall be granted, unless there be a charge preferred against him; provided, that it shall not take effect until the expiration of the current quarter.

Sec. 2.—A member who has resigned, may be restored to membership by the usual ballot, without initiation, within three months, by re-signing the Constitution, and paying the initiation fee.

CHAPTER IX.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Sec. 1.—If applicants for a charter fail to present themselves for initiation within three months after the organization of the Division, their names shall be erased from the Charter, and the first names signed to the Constitution, after the Charter members, shall be inserted in place thereof, in case the constitutional number is deficient.

Sec. 2.—The name of a regularly admitted member shall in no event be erased from the Charter.

Sec. 3.—At the opening of a new Division, the officiating brother shall be authorized to add to the number of the Charter members, at the request of the applicants, returning the names so added in his Report.

RULES OF ORDER.

DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF W. P.

1. It shall be the duty of the W. P. to preserve order, and endeavor to conduct all business before the Division to a speedy and proper result.
2. He shall state every question properly presented to the Division: and before putting it to vote, shall ask, "Is the Division ready for the question?" Should no member offer to speak, he shall rise to put it; and after he has risen, no member shall be permitted to speak upon it.
3. The W. P. shall have a casting vote in case of a tie; but in ordinary cases, shall not vote. He shall announce all votes and decisions. His decisions on points of order shall not be debatable, unless entertaining doubts on the subject, he invites discussion.
4. He may speak to points of order, in preference to other members of the Division, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Division by any two members—which appeal shall always be in writing. On such an appeal, no member shall speak more than once.
5. When an appeal is made from the decision of the W. P., he shall put the question thus: "Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?"
6. It shall be the duty of the presiding officer, and the privilege of any member of the Division, to call a member to order who violates an established rule.

MOTIONS.

7. A motion must be seconded, and afterwards repeated from the Chair, or read aloud, before it is debated. A motion shall be reduced to writing, if any brother require it.

8. All resolutions shall be submitted in writing.

9. Any brother having made a motion, may withdraw it, with leave of his seconder, before it is debated, but not afterwards, without leave of the Division.

10. A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, but to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be entertained.

11. An amendment destroying or altering the intention of a motion, shall be in order; but an amendment relating to a different subject, shall not be in order.

12. On an amendment to "strike out and insert," the paragraph to be amended shall first be read, as it stands; then the words proposed to be struck out and those to be inserted, and finally the paragraph as it would stand, if so amended.

13. On the call for a division of the question, the majority shall decide. The call can only be granted when the division called for will leave distinct and entire propositions.

DEBATER.

14. When a member speaks or offers a motion, he shall rise in his place, and respectfully addressing the W. P., confining himself to the question under consideration, and avoid personality or unbecoming language.

15. When a member is called to order, he shall take his seat until the point is determined.

16. When two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the President of the floor shall decide who is entitled to the floor.

17. No brother shall speak more than twice, on any question, without leave of the Division; which leave shall be granted or refused without debate.

18. While a brother is speaking, no one shall interrupt him, except for the purpose of calling him to order, or asking of the presiding officer leave to explain, or to call the previous question. A brother allowed "to explain," shall only have the right to explain an actual misunderstanding of language, and shall be strictly prohibited from going into debate on the merits of the case.

19. For any brother, in speaking, to impeach the motives of a fellow member, or treat him with personal disrespect, or pass between him and the Chair while he is speaking, shall be deemed a violation of Order, which may incur the censure of the presiding officer, or the Division.

20. If any brother shall feel personally aggrieved by any decision from the Chair, he may appeal from said decision.

21. Any conversation by whispering or otherwise, which is calculated to disturb a brother while speaking, or hinder the transaction of business, shall be deemed a violation of order; and if persisted in, shall incur censure.

PRIVILEGED QUESTIONS.

22. When a question is before the Division, the only motions in order shall be—1st, to adjourn; 2d, the previous question; 3d, to lay on the table; 4th, to postpone indefinitely; 5th, to postpone to a definite period; 6th, to refer; 7th, to divide, if the sense will admit of it; or 8th, to amend; to take precedence as heretofore arranged, and the first three to be decided without debate.

23. When the previous question is moved and seconded, it shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" If this is carried, all further motions, amendments and debate shall be excluded, and the question be put without delay. If the question has been amended, the question shall be taken on the amendment first. If more than one amendment has been made, the amendment ment in order, shall take precedence in the vote. It shall not be in order to reconsider the agreement to take the previous question."

24. When a motion is postponed indefinitely, it shall not come up again during the session.

ADJOURNMENT.

25. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except, 1st, when a member is in possession of the floor; 2d, while the yeas and nays are being called; 3d, when the members are voting; 4th, when adjournment was the last preceding motion; or, 5th, when it has been decided that the previous question shall be taken.

26. A motion to adjourn simply, cannot be amended; but a motion to adjourn to a given time, may be, and is open to debate.

QUESTIONS NOT DEBATABLE.

27. 1st, a motion to adjourn, when to adjourn, simply; 2d, a motion to lie on the table, when claiming privilege over another motion; 3d, a motion for the previous question; 4th, a motion to reconsider; 5th, a motion to read a paper; 6th, a motion to take up particular items of business; 7th, questions of order, whilst the previous question is pending; 8th, questions of order, when not appealed from the decision of the W. P., or not submitted by him to the Division.

READING OF PAPERS.

28. The reading of any paper called for, relating to the subject under debate, shall always be in order.

30. When the decision of any question is doubted, the presiding officer shall direct the Conductor to count the votes in the affirmative and negative, and report the same to him.

31. The yeas and nays upon any question before the Division, may be called for by two members; and upon the assent of one-third of the members present, shall be so taken. They may be called for at any time before a peremptory decision of the vote by the Chair.

32. In taking the yeas and nays, the R. S. shall call the roll, and record the yeas and nays; after the roll is called, the result shall be read aloud, to rectify mistakes (if any); after which, the R. S. shall hand the vote to the W. P., who shall announce the same.

33. In voting by yeas and nays, all present in regular standing in the Division must vote, unless excused by the Division, but no member shall vote who was not in the room at the time the question was put. A motion to excuse, shall be decided without debate.

FILLING BLANKS.

34. When any blank is to be filled by the names of persons, a vote shall be taken on the names in the order of their nomination; but when a blank is to be filled by any sum of money or time proposed, the question shall be first put on the smallest sum, and the most remote time.

RE-CONSIDERATION AND APPEAL.

35. A question may be reconsidered any time during the session, or at the first regular session held thereafter; but a motion for reconsideration, being once made and decided in the negative, shall not be renewed before the next regular session.

36. A motion to re consider must be made and seconded by members who voted in the majority, except in case of a rejection of a candidate by the black balls, when it shall be competent to any member to move and second a re-consideration. No question shall be re-considered more than once, nor shall a vote to re-consider be re-considered. To re-consider any resolution, &c., the decision of which has officially passed out of the Division, shall not be in order.

37. A motion to repeal or rescind a resolution shall be offered in writing, and announced at a regular session one week before action shall be taken on the same, and shall only be in order when the motion to re-consider is no longer available.

COMMITTEES AND THEIR REPORTS.

38. The brother first named in the appointment of a committee shall be chairman of the same, and shall call the committee to meet at such time and place as he may select; but when thus convened, any committee may elect its own Chairman and Scribe.

39. All reports of committees, except reports of progress, shall be made in writing, and signed by a majority.

40. When a majority report is followed by a report from the minority of a committee, the former, after being read, shall lie upon the table until the latter is presented, after which, on motion, either may be considered.

41. When a report has been read, it shall be considered as properly before the Division, without a motion to accept.
