New Year's 1909.

TO THE ENVELOPE CONTRIBUTORS.

At the commencement of a New Year and re-adjustment of the envelope contributions, it may be well to say a word from a Layman's point of view to those who make their offerings in this way for the maintenance of the work of the Cathedral. It has not been our custom to press people to give more than they feel able to do, either in this way or any other, and consequently there is not so much given by our congregation as is the case in churches where demands upon the people are made more frequently and more urgently than is done in St. Alban's. In other words the members of our congregation do not give in fair proportion to their means and ability. There are only seven envelope contributors who give $1.00 or upwards; and only twenty-two who give 50 cents. Twenty of the former and forty of the latter would be more nearly what might be expected.

We have made some inquiries and find that in at least two other churches not far from St. Alban's, the envelope contributions are more generous than ours, besides which the congregations are called upon to give largely to the payment of heavy debts, which in their case are parochial, while we have no congregational debt, the building debt being a diocesan one, and to this latter we contribute by no means so largely as we should do if our gifts were proportionately as great as those of the ordinary City Parish Churches, or indeed as they ought to be under existing circumstances, for we should not be content to occupy a Church almost wholly at other people's cost.

The maintenance of the Services however, is our own responsibility, and for this our income for the past two months has been insufficient.

We therefore feel that it is reasonable and proper for us to ask Envelope Contributors to give this matter some consideration, and if possible to increase the amounts of their weekly gifts.

E. M. CHADWICK,

Treasurer.

The Archbishop held an Ordination in the Cathedral on Sunday, 20th December, when the following were ordained :—Priests : Rev. Gore Mumbee Barrow, Henry Ashton Bracken, Ernest Russell Ladbroke, and Alfred Clinton Collier. Deacons : Gerald Sandes Despard, Harry Oswald Nash.

The Treasurer has received per Canon Macnab the sum of $33 10 for the Sunday School Children's Pier Fund, proceeds of the Winter Entertainment given in the Crypt, December 10th, under the direction of Miss Charlton and Miss Charlotte Sarge. The programme was excellent and thoroughly appreciated by a large audience.

The contributions of the Cathedral Congregation this year for Missionary Work amounts to the splendid sum of one thousand and sixty five dollars, a far larger amount than has been given in any previous year. This of course includes the Pan-Anglican Thank-offering of last June, but for whatever purpose the money was given the sum total shews plainly that our people are beginning to understand more than ever before the Christian obligation of furthering the Missionary cause of the Church.

Canon Macnab and Rev. E. A. Paget desire to express, through the "Monthly Notes," their grateful thanks for the generous offerings of the Congregation on Christmas Day.

The Christmas Communicants this year exceeded in number the record of any previous year in the history of the Cathedral.

An Offertory Calendar with complete outfit of envelopes will be given to any one desiring to use it for their regular Sunday Offerings during the year. Apply to Canon Macnab or one of the Sidesmen.

CHOIR SUPPER

On Wednesday Evening, December 30th, the ladies of the Choir Guild entertained the adult members of the Choir at a High Tea in the School Residence (kindly loaned by the Head Master, Mr. Matthews). All the members of the Choir, but two, were present, and the evening was a most enjoyable one. Following the banquet an impromptu programme of songs, speeches and recitations made the time pass right merrily. During the evening Mr. F. H. Coombs, Organist and Choir Master, was presented on behalf of the Choir with a handsome Cut Glass Salad Bowl in token of their appreciation of his kindness and devotion to the work of the Choir. In returning thanks for their kindly gift, Mr. Coombs commented on the good feeling that prevailed throughout the Choir, and the splendid work accomplished by the members under his leadership. Much regret was expressed at the unavoidable absence of His Grace the Archbishop and Mr. David Kemp the former Choir Master. Canon Macnab acted as Chairman. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the ladies of the Choir Guild for their hospitality and also their zealous efforts throughout the year to maintain the dignity and orderliness so characteristic of our Cathedral Choir.
