And while I could not quite say with him that nction is the element of prime importance, because I think that sound evangelical teaching takes precedence of everything else in a sermon, yet next after this, there is nothing, perhaps, so mportant, nothing so desirable, nothing so effective, as unction.

Unction is that union of earnestness and tenlerness which so nervades the Bible more than any other book. What unction there is in the appeals of Jehovah to his ancient people-" Oh my people, what have I done unto thee, and wherein have I wearied thee ? How shall I give thee up, Ephraim ; how shall I deliver thee.

What an unctuous spirit do the Prophets breathe, as they are sent to tell the people their sins, and to foretell to them their doom :-" But if ye will not bear it, my soul shall weep for you Between the years of forty and sixty a man in secret."

The Laborer's Evening Song. 'Tis a cherry sight, yon flickering light, For the evening is chill and dreary ; And that is the glow of a hearth, which I kno Has a welcome and rest for the weary.

In a little while, with a sunny smile, My wife will haste to greet me ; And our baby boy, with a shout of joy, Will stretch out his arms to meet me.

Others may stop at the first beer-shop, Whilst their families beg or borrow, But the cup of tea that's awaiting me Will bring neither shame nor sorrow

Around my knee, in joyour glee. Will be happy children clinging ; And I shall hear their voices clear A hymn at even singing.

My wife and I will thankfully Go on our way together, And have no fear, though storm be near, Hard times-or wintry weather.

Life's wear and tear we'll bravely bear, Sustained in joy or sorrow; We'll face as we may the ills of to-dev And trust in God for the morrow.

And when, at last life's labor is past, And in dust our bodies are lying. Our souls shall rest in that home of the blest,
