OFFICE.....MACDONNELLSSTREET.
WEDNESDAY EV'NG, AUG. 26, 1868.

Local News.

Mr. Forbes, Nichol, lost a valuable mare worth $130 a few days ago in Galt. He went there for a load, and she took ill of inflammation and died.
Jas. Bintlou, of Amaranth, had nine sheep destroyed by dogs on Saturday night last.
Walkerton is thinking of procuring a town clock. It is presumed that one can be obtained for about one hundred dollars.

A requisition to the merchants to close their stores at 2 p. m., on Monday next, in order that their employees might witness the lacrosse match between the Indians and the Guelph Club, was circulated in town to-day. At noon it had met with indifferent success.
THE WELLINGTON HOTEL.—We would direct the attention of our readers to Mr. Coffie's advertisement of removal from his old stand to the Wellington Hotel. He there makes known his reasons for changing his quarters. Mr. Coffie is well known, and under his administration we have no doubt the Wellington will be kept a first class house, and prosper accordingly.

NEAR UNKOSMO.—Mr. Robert Coulson near Rockwood, informs us that a ewe belonging to him had two lambs on the 28th of February, and that on the 25th of June she gave a birth to a third lamb, which is alive and thriving. This is a very rare occurrence and is worthy of being chronicled!

GUELPH GENERAL AGENCY.—Before reading Messrs. Davidson & Chadwick's advertisement we had no conception that any firm in Guelph held so large a number of agencies or had so many building lots and farms to dispose of. Parties desirous of insuring life or property or of buying or selling real estate should read their advertisement.

FIRE IN ERAMOSA.—The dwelling house of Mr. Thos. Clarke, on lot 24, 5th con. Eramosa, was burned down on the 8th of this month. The house was part log and part frame. The fire broke out about noon, and spread so rapidly that nothing but the bedding and a few other articles were got out. All the rest of the furniture was burned, together with about 50 cords of cut stack wood. The loss is about $700 or $800, and we are sorry to learn there was no insurance on the property.

FIRE IN GARAFRAXA.—A barn belonging to Mr. S. Wainwright, lot 8, con. 9, Garafraza, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday night. The barn contained about 200 bushels of wheat and three tons of hay. The fire originated by a gust of wind upsetting a tin coal oil lamp, that was standing on a beam. It had been left in charge of two children, while their father was loading another load of wheat in the field near by. Hearing the screams, he ran to the barn and was considerably scorched in saving the last child. No insurance.

FIRE IN PEEL.—The barn belonging to Mr. James Cherry, lot 16, 4th con. Peel, was burned on Sunday night the 4th inst. The fire was first discovered between 9 and 10 o'clock. Three horses were burned. One of them was got out, but went back and perished in the flames. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Mr. Cherry says a man shortly before the fire going away from the barn, and asked him what he was doing. He replied he had no time to say and was soon lost in the darkness.

THE SILVER MOVEMENT IN MONTROSE.—We understand that the movement in Montrose which was inaugurated on the 12th inst. at the same time as Guelph went into it, is still in force, and on the whole is succeeding well, notwithstanding the adverse influence from Hamilton and other places. We hope that it will continue in force, and that other places around may soon come in also, for assuredly the change is advantageous both to the buyer and seller.

RIFLE MATCH.—The Metropolitan Rifle Match commenced at Ottawa on Tuesday. The first match was the International, to be competed for by eight representatives of six nationalities choosing to enter; prize, $40 to the squad making the highest score; ranges, 200, 400 and 600 yards, three shots at each, Snider rifles. There were five entries, English, Irish, Scotch, French and Canadian. The Scotch won the match, scoring 187; the Canadians scored 180; Irish, 179; English, 175; French, 150.

MORRISTON FALL WHEAT SEED SHOW.—The annual Fall Wheat Seed Fair was held in the Town Hall, Morrilton, on Saturday last. It was not so well attended as it might have been, but the turn out, and the quality of the seed, were there were 10 entries—one of Deul, 7 of Treadwell, one of Midge-proof and one of Michigan amber. The Deul wheat was sold for $1.75 per bushel, and about 70 or 80 bushels of this kind were disposed of at this figure. The first prize Treadwell was sold at auction by Mr. Thos. Ingram, auctioneer, for $1.54 per bushel. About 200 bushels of the same kind changed hands for seed at $1.50 per bushel. The Judges were Messrs. J. S. Armstrong, Eramosa; John Hammerley and Alex. McLean, Puslinch; who gave great satisfaction, and awarded the prizes as follows: 1st Hugh Stewart $3; 2nd Gillies McPherson $2; 3rd John Marshall $1.50; 4th Malcolm Clark, sr., $1.

A swamp belonging to Mr. David Allen, and situated on the York Road, took fire yesterday, and it required his whole force of employes to keep it from taking to subdue it. It was only by persistent fight with branches, and by hauling water some distance that the progress of the fire was arrested and the flames finally quenched.
RIFLE PRACTICE.—About twenty members of the Guelph Rifle Association were at practice yesterday, and some very good shooting was made. Volunteers and others wishing to practice for the Dominion Match will have a chance of firing at the Dominion Association targets, and in the positions prescribed by its rules, on Friday next at 2:30 p.m., and all who would like to see the result of such practice, with the intention of going to Montreal next month do well to attend.

The Traction Engine is to run between Walkerton and Kincardine, and the bridges on the route are being strengthened to admit of its passage.

Town Council—Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday night. Present, the Mayor in the chair, Dr. Herod, Messrs. Holaday, Heffernan, McCurry, Sayers, Buckland, Melvin, Mays, Mitchell, Howard, Day, Harvey and Massie.

The Mayor said that the meeting had been called in consequence of a communication which had been received from Adam Brown, Esq., President of the W. G. & B. Railway, in which it was stated that a deputation would leave Hamilton for Norzway on the 29th inst., to be present at some meetings which were to be held between the first and fifth prox., and requesting that a delegation from Guelph might accompany them. His Worship further said that he had requested Dr. Parker, the only director in town to be present, in order that he might give the Council any information they might require.

Mr. Melvin thought it was the duty of the Council to send a deputation, for the Narrow Gauge men were moving heaven and earth to carry their project, and if they do Guelph will be isolated from a great portion of the country. Besides, it is necessary that the people to the North should be undeceived with regard to the position of Guelph on the railway question. The intelligent people of the town are in favor of a railway to the Lake, but our other obligations render it altogether impossible that we can aid in any other way than by giving it our countenance. Had we been otherwise circumstanced assistance might have been given. It is not the case that we are acting the part of the dog in the manger, and a deputation should be sent with the deputation from Hamilton to discuss the minds of the people up country on this point.

The Mayor said that he knew the promoters of the narrow gauge said in Mount Forest that Guelph was strongly opposed to the W. G. & B. Railway, and that their assertions had told strongly in their favor. Mr. McCurry was rather surprised by the communication he did not know how to take it. This was the first time Hamilton had asked our co-operation. He did not know, however, what other action could be taken than to send a delegation, and if that were done it must be without our knowing what benefit we are to derive.

Dr. Herod believed that it was best to comply with the request contained in the communication and send the Mayor. He did not see the necessity of sending three or four. It has been said in Elora that Guelph is opposed to the road, and parties there from whom something different might have been expected had, for their own purposes, made this misrepresentation.

Mr. Massie said Hamilton believed that Guelph was opposed to the road, and there was a time when some of us spoke of it with a sneer. But that day has gone; there must be a railway to the north, and it behoves Guelph to do her utmost not to allow the traffic to pass by her. He was pleased that the communication had been received; there was now something tangible to act upon, and he thought it very necessary that a deputation should accompany the gentlemen from Hamilton. It will have a good effect, and if the road can only be completed to Fergus, the Company will get their bonuses from the municipalities to the north of that place. Mount Forest, he knew, had been in favor of the W. G. & B. Railway, and many of the people there had said that they voted for the narrow gauge just to spite Guelph.

Dr. Parker was then requested to address the Council. He said he wished to explain away a misapprehension that seemed to exist concerning the conduct of the Directors of the W. G. & B. Railway, who it was said had given Guelph the cold shoulder. At none of their meetings had he ever heard it asserted that Guelph was hostile to the road.

Mr. McCurry said he had, at a meeting at which he was present.
Dr. Parker said that the project interested Guelph as much as it did Hamilton. The merchants of that city have worked most devotedly. When their charter was almost expired, and when two companies from which money was expected did not pay it in, the Bank was kept open till 9 o'clock on the evening preceding the expiration of the charter, and the amount necessary for a renewal paid in. It was a constant enquiry, what was the disposition of Guelph? His answer had been that it was not favorable, if he was wrong, it was for the Council to say so. When the subject of calling a public meeting in Guelph had been spoken of by Dr. Parker, he advised that it should not be done, lest the expression would be against the road, and the cause thus injured in the country. With regard to the matter of etiquette there was no disposition on the part of the Board to treat Guelph discourteously. The Directors when going north had never had time to do more than merely call, as they were always pressing up to attend some meeting, and when returning they were generally in a hurry to catch the train. The object in now asking a deputation from this town was to counteract the effects of the assertion made by the narrow gauge men that Guelph was hostile to the road. In Normandy they can be met face to face, and told what the feeling really is.

REFORMATORIES.

In looking over statistics one is surprised and alarmed at the number of people that cannot or will not work, and who have no other fair means of subsistence. Now, Mr. Editor, it is a plain case, that since we are supporting them we may just as well do it in a systematic way and thus save thousands of our fellow-beings from misery and ourselves from alarm. There are hundreds that will neither work nor want, and among their various vicious stratagems, house-burning for plunder is one; and thus, in one night, in one town, ten houses are burnt, any of which cost more than a Reformatory. Every man, woman and child that cannot show their means of subsistence, should be clapped into the Reformatory, and made, if able, support themselves, and help to support others. Never mind the delicate question of "Liberty"; they are not very mindful of ours when they get us asleep. We have among us old men who have worked while, and longer than they were able, men who have produced ten times as much as they consumed, but who never learned the art of accumulation, nor enough of rascality to detect it in others, and hence have lost all by endorsements and litigations. These men have a moral right to draw on the resources of the Province, since it holds their productions for which they have no equivalent. No sophistic legal eloquence can fairly shuffle a man out of his property. Adversity in its infinity of forms deprives many well natured people of everything but principle, which still steels them to endure poverty rather than ask aid from anyone. We have among us poor widows and orphans recommended to our Christian sympathy by the Great Universal Benefactor himself. We have also among us deluded women whose credulity was too great, and who are now forsaken by all and everything but remorse and are the living monuments of their indiscretions. How immortal is infancy! How perfect woman's reminiscence of woman's fallings. How forgetful that every metal has its peculiar point of fusion. It is then to man, on whose shoulders custom should have placed the burden of resistance, we appeal to come forward and save the victims of his subtleties and passions from the Maelstrom of destruction.
JOHN IRELAND

Acton Sabbath School Pic-Nic.

The annual pic-nic in connection with the Rev. Mr. Cameron's Congregation took place on Monday. At one o'clock about two hundred healthy and cheerful children, accompanied by their parents and guardians, repaired to a beautiful grove adjoining the village, where on the fresh green lawn, shaded by the emblem of our beloved homes, we enjoyed the afternoon in innocent happiness after the hard toils of the harvest, while the gentle breeze fanned our cheeks as we played among the happy youth who know little of the cares and troubles of this life. Amidst our mirth and glee, we were gladly interrupted by a call, "Hither all, and partake of our cheer." And after the disappearing of the rich cakes, we again returned to our various amusements, which we enjoyed until the shades of night reminded us—

"Like little lambskin hastening to the fold,
And seeking shelter from the night and cold,
Drift the white cloudlets to the gates of gold,
And rest on one by one."
All day ranging about the quiet sky,
God's great, wide pasture-ground stretched out on high,
They've wandered, and now weary homeward hie,
Where gleams the sinking sun."

That we too must return to our respective homes, and enjoy the sweet mantle that covers all our cares.
A VISITOR.

THE GUELPH POLICE COURT.

Before T. W. Saunders, Esq., Police Magistrate.
WEDNESDAY, 26th.—Wm. Johnston, the one-armed vagrant, who appears to have become a permanent institution of the town, was brought up this morning on a charge of vagrancy, and not being in possession of $2 and costs was sent to goal for 21 days.
Daniel Heffernan's case went for trial to the Quarter Sessions, bail being accepted for his appearance.

THE THEATRE.—France & Lannier's Dramatic Constellation were on time last night, and "Arrah-na-pogue" was played to every person's satisfaction. It is an Irish drama, and with one exception the characters were all required to speak with a brogue. This was no easy matter, but it was "illegantly" assumed by nearly all the players. The piece is very lively, and is well worthy of the popularity it has acquired. It loses nothing of its spirit in being acted by France & Lannier's Company, every member of which is au fait in his part. Mr. Heron, as Col. O'Grady, the blunt, kindly Irishman, was very natural, and Mr. W. H. Littell as "Judy," the irrepressible Judy, with her "barn door jig," her droll sayings and her antics, was more comical than any actor we have seen in Guelph for a long time. The after-piece, "The Man in Black," is an excellent farce, and was well played. The universal opinion was that the Constellation deserves a good house, and we presume that they will receive their deserts to-night, when the highly sensational drama, "Under the Gaslight," which we heard so much of from the cities last winter, will be produced, and the manager promises with the very best scenic effect.

CHALMERS' CHURCH.—A congregational meeting in connection with this church was held on Tuesday in the Court House. The Secretary's report showed that the affairs of the church, financially as well as in point of attendance, were in a very flourishing condition. The ad interim managers were re-elected a permanent Board, with the addition of Mr. Gideon Hood's name. Mr. Wm Stewart was re-appointed Sec'y and Treasurer.

HESPELER POST OFFICE.—The Galt Reformer says:—We are pleased to learn that the vacancy in the Hespler P. O., caused by the death of the late Mr. C. Nahang, has been filled by the appointment of his widow to the office. We have no doubt this appointment will give the utmost satisfaction in Hespler and vicinity.

BY TELEGRAPH

Despatches to the Evening Mercury
(BY CABLE AND STEAMER.)

London, August 25.—Notwithstanding the sharp opposition of a large portion of the British Press, the appointment of the Earl of Mayo, the present Secretary of State for Ireland, to be Governor-General of India, has been determined upon by the Government. The charred remains of the 32 victims of the terrible railway accident near Abergele, Wales, was buried to-day.

Carlsruhe, August 25.—A grand festival was held here yesterday to celebrate the anniversary of the establishment of the Constitution. The Minister of War made a speech at the closing of the banquet. He expressed the hope that the Southern States of Germany would soon reunite with those of the North, and thus complete the series of great events which commenced in 1806.

Southampton, August 25.—The international regatta at the Isle of Wight, participated in by the American yacht Sappho and four selected yachts of the British squadron, took place to-day according to programme. The following are the names and measurements of the British yachts entered for the race:—Cutter Coroner, 129 tons, owned by Mr. W. Whings of Greenock; Cutter Olmahra, 163 tons, entered by Mr. C. J. Tennant; Schooner Alive, 213 tons, owned by Mr. R. Sutton, of Portsmouth; Schooner Cambia, 195 tons, entered by J. Ashbury. These boats are the champions of this year's races. The cutters had two-third's tonnage added. The Sappho took the Olmahra even, but gave the Cambia and Alive, 9 min. 13 sec.; and the Coroner, 12 min. The course was from Cowes Castle around the starting point, to be made within 9 hours. The regatta created much excitement among boating men and others, and large crowds of spectators from London, Portsmouth, and Southampton thronged the shore. Innumerable small crafts were gathered around the island. The scene was very fine. The weather was clear and brisk, with north-west breeze blowing. At ten o'clock the signal gun was fired, and the yachts started amid the cheers from the people on shore and crowds on the steamers which followed close behind. The Alive soon took the lead, but she was closely pressed by the Cambria. The interest was all on these two. The Cambria slowly gained on the Alive, and finally passing her, won the race in 6 hours, 15 min., 15 sec. The Alive came in only two minutes later. The Coroner was third; Sappho last. Olmahra was not placed. The result was hailed with great delight by the spectators.

Liverpool, Aug 25, 3 p. m.—Maritime disasters from the recent gale are still rising. The ship Favourite from Liverpool for New Orleans, was seen by an incoming vessel off the coast of Ireland, dismasted and in a sinking condition. The crew refused to leave the ship.

American Despatches.

New York, Aug. 25.—An accident occurred yesterday on the Harlem Railroad by which a brakeman was instantly killed, the fireman and engineer dangerously hurt and two others severely injured.
Sun's Washington special says, officers of both Houses are making preparations for a session, and everything is being put in order as if the meeting was to be held.
Herald's Washington special says, there is a rumor that a large defalcation amounting to many thousands of dollars, has been discovered in the accounts of a collector of a Southern port, who has recently been superseded. The amount is fixed at $200,000, but this is evidently much exaggerated.

Veracruz advises state General Alatorra, who had been defeated on the Puebla Sierra, was retreating towards Veracruz.
Advices from Hayti state that Salnave was forcing a loan of $2000,000 from the merchants of Port au Prince. Most of the merchants are Englishmen, and refused to pay their quota, but after a few hours imprisonment agreed to his demands. The merchants of Port au Prince were required to reopen their stores on penalty of being considered enemies of the government.
The steamsip Cuba from Liverpool has arrived.

SAD ACCIDENT IN DUMFRIES.—An accident occurred in West Dumfries on Saturday, 15th inst., which has resulted in the death of a most estimable young woman. On the day alluded to Miss Mary Jane Gibson and her sister, daughters of Mr. David Gibson, farmer, were in the mow of the barn, which was about seven feet high, and the former in attempting to slide down, was caught and thrown forward by some means upon the side of a rack which was on a wagon in the barn floor. She lingered till Monday when she died after suffering intense agony.—Dumfries Reformer.

THE LONDON SCOTSMAN.—This is the title of a new London Weekly, edited by Dr. Charles Mackay, and intended to be "a review and newspaper for Scotsmen at home and abroad." Each number contains a couple of leaders; summary of Scottish and general news; notes of the week and table talk; reviews of books; and a grand Scottish miscellany, "Auld Lang Syne." It is published for 13s per annum in advance, and we see no reason why it should not obtain a good circulation among Scotsmen in Canada.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.—The following is a statement of the revenue and expenditures of the Dominion of Canada for the month ended 21st July, 1868: Revenue Customs, $502,933.28; Excise, $138,031.89; Post Office, $27,723.75; bill stamps, $10,721.08; public works, including railways, $7,736.17; miscellaneous, $633,576.79; total, $1,375,725.96. Expenditure, $1,801,623.03.
Seymour is confident of election. He will see Seymour clearly in November.
On Saturday morning a man entered the residence of a lady in Hamilton, and appropriated all the valuables he could carry away with him. The proprietress shot him as he fled.

The Report of the School Board.

We should think that those who were so very ready to charge the Board of School Trustees with total neglect or inattention to the interests of the Grammar School, will now do them the credit to admit that the charge was unfounded, and that they do manifest as much interest in that institution as in the Common Schools.

The Report which was presented and adopted at the meeting of the Board on Monday night, is good evidence of this, and we only hope that the recommendation contained therein will have the effect anticipated, in adding largely to the number attending the Grammar School.

Already we are compelled to regret that the House of Lords threw out Mr. Gladstone's Irish Church Suspensory Bill.

MURDER IN QUEBEC.—A dreadful murder was perpetrated in Quebec on Sunday last.

THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO.—The United States, like Russia, has her sick man, by whose bedside she watches with assiduity.

Mr. Disraeli's "Alarcon" has achieved only moderate success with the London public, and the sarcastic Spectator says "When the world laughs at Mr. Disraeli's tragedy, a sense of retributive justice is experienced."

A child of Mr. Bartlett's, of Lindsay, threw a knife at another little one belonging to the family on Friday last, and the point cut the lid, and pierced the eyeball, inflicting a very dangerous wound.

The Braes of Yarrow

An Historical Tale of the Sixteenth Century.

Your conduct to-day has procured you a post of honour, said Captain Lindsay to Master Elliot, 'that is if you still persist in going on duty despite your wound.'

'It is a mere scratch, sir; and besides it is my left arm.'

'Have your way, then. You will guard the private entrance from the gardens to his Majesty's apartments with six men-at-arms.'

'The word for the night?'
'Scotland for the King.'

Master Elliot selected his company and was conducted to his post by the Captain.

The part of the gardens which lay behind the King's chambers was only faintly illuminated by a few lamps placed at such distances apart that the spaces between were quite dark. This arrangement was observed in order that the masquers would not penetrate to this place and disturb the repose of his Majesty. The pathway from the portal of the wall which separated the gardens and the park was not lighted at all.

The keys of this portal, and of the gate which guarded the entrance to the small court in which was the private entrance to his Majesty's chambers, were delivered to Gilbert. He placed his men, and, although the fire in the guard-room burned pleasantly, he proceeded to pace up and down in front of the gate instead of taking his ease within.

His feelings were a puzzle to himself. He felt that it would have been better to have availed himself of the excuse his wound supplied of shirking duty for that night, for he instinctively and unaccountably feared the issue. Yet he was eager again to meet Mistress Douglas, that he might better express his gratitude to her than he had done, and that he might receive from her the explanations she had promised.

Captain Lindsay had told him that he was deputed to this post on account of his conduct during the day.

How did Mistress Douglas know on the night previous that he would be on guard here?

It was singular, and seemed as if the action of the day had been made the condition of appointing him to the post which it had been previously determined he should guard. By whom was this arranged?

CHAPTER XXXIII.—THE POST OF HONOUR.

A hundred torches flashing bright,
Dispel'd at once the gloomy night
That lurk'd along the walls,
And shew'd the King with astonish'd sight
The inmates of the Halls.

For nearly an hour Master Elliot continued his solitary promenade without other interruption to his meditations than the occasional sound of music which the wind brought to him from the farther end of the garden.

'But at length he came to an abrupt halt at the sound of the voice of one of the sentries.
'Stand; who goes there?'
'A friend, answered a voice which sent a thrill through Gilbert's heart.

'The word?'
'She has not got the word, for I was to give it to her,' thought Gilbert, and almost as the thought flashed upon his mind the answer was given.

'Scotland for the King.'
Breathless and amazed Gilbert now waited for the appearance of the pretty intriguer. He strained his eyes through the dim light in the direction whence the sound of the voice had proceeded; but he saw nothing, heard nothing more.

Ten minutes—it seemed more than half an hour to him—he waited, and then strode hastily forward to the sentry's post. The soldier was not there. Gilbert walked over the man's ground and still failed to find him. He went to seek the second sentry. He too had apparently deserted his post. Gilbert called to him by name—
'McKay.'

No response. Becoming now alarmed as well as perplexed, he hurried on to the third sentry's post at the portal of the park.

The man was there; but he was sitting upon the ground, his back leaning against the wall and fast asleep. Gilbert shook him violently, but the soldier only answered with a drunken snore.

With a cry of alarm Gilbert rushed back to the gate, convinced that there was some treacherous act in progress. He had the key in his hand intending to summon the Gentlemen of the guard from the King's chamber, when his arm was gently grasped by some one behind him.

He wheeled round and descried a lady—one of the masquers—in the dress of an Egyptian girl. Her face was concealed by a mask of lace.

'Stay, Master Elliot, do you not wait for me?'
'Mistress Douglas.'

She removed the mask from her face.
'Are you surprised that I am here—have you forgotten your promise?'
'No, madam, I have not forgotten it,' he said, taking her hand respectfully; 'and you, I hope, have not forgotten how the promise was given—it was without knowledge or suspicion of what it might lead to. You said I would know all to-night.'

'And so you shall. If, after you have heard me,' she said sadly, 'you wish to withdraw your promise, do so; but there our friendship ends.'

He touched her hand with his lips almost reverently.

The Cattle Plague

The New York papers say there are no new developments in the disease in that city, but Sanitary Inspector Morris, who was sent on an inspecting tour through Dutchess County, has made a report concerning its prevalence in that portion of the State. He substantiates the report in respect to the arrival of certain diseased cattle from Millerton. These were part of a mixed lot, comprising cattle from Illinois, Ohio, Canada and N. Y. State, the drove having originally contained 65 head, of which 20 were left at Copake, Columbia Co., and the balance sent to Millerton, from which place some 17 or 18 of them were shipped to this city.

At Amenia N. Y. State, the disease broke out last week on a dairy farm, and up to the date of Dr. Morris' arrival at that place, he has derived from the diseased cows which were shipped to this city. Dr. Morris states that the cattle placed in the mixed lot, and that he has no more of their milk, by reason of the State Commissioners to enquire into the cause of the plague was held in Buffalo, on Saturday, and determined to devote several days to the investigation. The Commissioners will be appointed in the different sections of the State, whose duty it will be to prevent the admission of diseased cattle from abroad, with these and the other precautions already taken, no fears of a further spread of the plague need be entertained.

In Cincinnati, O., the disease is making great headway, having carried off seven or eight cows on one dairy farm alone. There is in New York, it is supposed to have been introduced by Texas cattle.

The large increase of mortality in New York over the previous week—an increase of eighty-eight—is attributed by the President of the Board of Health to the use of flesh of diseased animals. If this state of things should continue it must eventually create a panic which would be far more disastrous to the butchers than any loss they may suffer by the slaughter of diseased animals and the destruction of their carcasses.

ROME IN A STATE OF SIEGE

The Roman correspondent of a Paris paper states that the "eternal city" is virtually in a state of siege. The preparations for defence against a presumed attack from some mysterious quarter are more extensive than reassuring. The sentinels have been greatly increased, and their responsibilities enlarged in a manner which may sooner or later lead to accidents. It is impossible to enter or leave the city, or to walk in many quarters at night, without being accosted by the cry of "Who goes there?" to which it is necessary to immediately reply "A friend" to avoid the risk of a bullet. The same correspondent reiterates his former statements as to the chance of a Garibaldi rising, in opposition to an English Judge in JAMAICA.—We have advices from Kingston, Jamaica, to the 4th inst. Considerable excitement prevailed in the parish of St. Thomas, the scene of the disturbances of 1865, in consequence of the course which was being pursued by one of the Judges, Mr. Masheider, recently appointed to the Colony by the British Government. He is charged with having made a series of attacks upon the planters of the parish, accusing them of injustice in their dealings with the laborers they employ and of abusing their powers as magistrates to the injury of the blacks. His real offence seems to be that he holds the scales of justice evenly, knowing no distinction between whites and blacks, or between planters and peasants, in his administration of the law. The planters were up in arms against him for protecting the people in their rights, and laborers, men and women, who have been suffering at the hands of their employers, were threatening to abandon the plantations. He is bitterly denounced for having sent a female of fair skin and respectable connections to the House of Correction; but he meets the storm fearlessly, and says he is determined to dispense British justice, and not planters' law.

Guelph Markets.

MERCURY OFFICE, GUELPH, August 26, 1868.

The receipts of grain of all kinds still continue light. All the fall wheat brought in at present is of this year's growth, while the supply of spring wheat is partly new grain and partly old. Oats are scarce; so is barley, only one load of the latter having been offered within the last two days. Peas are high, and the receipts light. Potatoes are becoming more plentiful, and have declined in price.
